The last chapter in the history of Vienna as an Austrian city. Covers the period from the end of the World War to the German occupation, March 11, 1938

"A brilliant Austrian journalist, who saw it happen, paints a tragic picture of the decline and degeneration of a 'capital without a country.' His narrative abounds in case histories of individuals caught in a morass of despondency and privation, in poverty which bred a lust for luxury and provided a fertile field, first, for revolutionary ideas, then militarization, lastly, a reactionary government." Cincinnati

Newth, Jack Douglas, 1903-
Austria; illus. by E. H. Compton. Macmillan 1931 89p illus (Black's new ser. of colour bks.) $2.50 914.36
1 Austria—Description and travel [31-7951]

"This pleasant and well illustrated account of a trip is a useful addition to the few travelbooks on post-war Austria." Pittsburgh

914.37 Czechoslovak Republic

Caldwell, Erskine, 1903-
North of the Danube. . . Viking 1939 128p illus $3 914.37
1 Czechoslovak Republic—Description and travel (W) 39-27306

Descriptions of the land and people of Bohemia, Slovakia, Moravia, and Ruthenia are accompanied by 64 photographs by Margaret Bourke-White

"Although many of his sentences have proved politically prophetic, Mr. Caldwell does not emphasize politics. He is interested in the people, their customs, their thoughts, their attitude toward life and death and the threatened loss of liberty." Sat. rev. of lit.

Holland, Clive, 1866-
Czechoslovakia; the land and its people... Jenkins 1931 262p illus map 2s 6d 914.37
1 Czechoslovak Republic—Description and travel [31-26800]

"A guide book to Czecho-Slovakia which begins with two chapters on the people and their characteristics, and the history and development of the country. Includes many illustrations, a map, and an index." Book rev. digest

McBride, Robert Medill, 1879-
Romantic Czechoslovakia; illus. with drawings by E. C. Caswell. McBride 1930 220p illus map $3 914.37
1 Czechoslovak Republic—Description and travel 30-32401

"A colorful picture of Bohemia, Moravia, Slovakia, and Ruthenia. The ancient civilization and the new life of each of these divisions are vividly described." Pittsburgh

914.38 Poland

Humphrey, Grace, 1882-
Poland today. Mauk, E. T. 1935 178p illus o.p. 1939 914.38
1 Poland 36-27078

"Many phases of the reconstruction of Poland since 1918 are simply described and illustrated with numerous photographs. The author visited schools, factories, and institutions; she reports conversations with many people, and writes also of health, social service, and art." Bkl.

McBride, Robert Medill, 1879-
* Towns and people of modern Poland. McBride 1938 302p illus maps $3 914.38
1 Poland—Description and travel (W) 38-27505

"Combination of guidebook and history of Poland. Against the historical background the book provides a study of the part played by Poland in the European political drama, and a picture of its cities, forests, mountains, salt mines, and marshes. Illustrated with photographs." Book rev. digest

"Mr. McBride writes vigorously, lucidly, entertainingly. . . The book has many illustrations and maps and an excellent index. It belongs in the travel equipment of all American visitors to Poland." Sat. rev. of lit

914.39 Hungary

Humphrey, Grace, 1882-
Hungary, land of contrasts. Scott & More 1936 296p illus o.p. 1939 914.39
1 Hungary—Description and travel 36-15581

"An informal account of the author's seventeen months in Hungary. She spent most of her time in Hungarian homes, visited farms, factories, museums and churches, attended fairs, theaters, weddings, and other social celebrations, and from her experiences writes this delightfully informing book of a country where many remainders of feudal life still exist." Ontario library review

Hungary yesterday and today. Vajna 1932 233p illus o.p. 1939 914.39
1 Hungary—Description and travel

A scholarly, well informed, concise historical and cultural guide to Hungary. Contains a good bibliography and a biographical dictionary. Illustrations but no index

Kafolyi, Alexander F.
Hungarian pageant; life, customs and art of the Hungarian peasantry; with sixteen illus. and seven songs. . . Stechert 1939 113p illus pa $1.50 914.39

1 Dancing 2 Dancing—Folk and national dances 3 Folk songs, Hungarian 4 Hungary—Social life and customs
40-6077

Contents: Tradition of the Pearly Bouquet; Dancing; Music; Peasant art; Calendar customs; Marriage; Béla Paulini, Gardener of the Pearly Bouquet

914.394 CROATIA

Orr, Dorothea
Portrait of a people; Croatia today. Funk 1936 246p illus $2.50 914.394

1 Croatia 36-21126

"Author has succeeded in capturing in words the picturesque charm of the countryside and of the people of one of the least known and most interesting sections of Europe today,—Croatia." Providence

"The author's feeling of deep affection for the Croatian people speaks through every page of this book. . . But as a real contribution to a knowledge of Croatia and its people, this book can be considered only as collateral reading." N.Y. Times

914.4 FRANCE

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Brownell, W. C. French traits; an essay in comparative criticism. Scribner 1889 o.p. 1939

Feuillerat, Albert. French life and ideals; tr. by Vera Barbour. Yale univ. press 1925 214p o.p. 1939

Nock, A. J. Journey into Rabelais's France; illus. in pen-and-ink by Ruth Robinson. Morrow 1934 303p illus $3.50

Peixotto, E. C. Through the French provinces. new and rev ed Scribner 1928 230p illus $3.50

Robson, E. I. Wayfarer on the Loire; with illus. and a map by J. R. E. Howard. Houghton 1926 220p illus $2

Carr, Philip
French at home, in the country and in town. . . Methuen 1930 210p illus 6s 914.4

1 France—Social life and customs 2 National characteristics, French
31-26378

Formerly carried also by Dial press

"Concerns itself with the national character, ways of thinking, and present-day customs of the small-town or peasant population, and supplements admirably the descriptive books of the typical sort." Pittsburgh

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
France on fifty dollars; illus. by Doris Spiegel. McBride 1933 255p illus map (Fifty dollar ser.) $2.25 914.4

1 France—Description and travel

"An informal guide that takes you to all worth while spots in Paris, conducts you to the chateaux, gives a choice of several trips to cathedrals, and so forth. The greatest merit of the book is that it offers you all these memorable scenes and fascinating experiences at the very low sum named." North American review

"Mr. Clark has done much 'thrift' traveling in Europe and so knows its possibilities and its rewards. He is an interesting guide and his narrative is written in an unconventional and alluring style." N.Y. Times

Cohen-Portheim, Paul, d. 1932
Spirit of France; tr. by Alan Harris. Dutton 1933 215p $3.50 914.4

1 France—Civilization 33-27342

"The argument involves a detailed analysis of the French contribution to European civilization from Louis XIV's time onwards, and in working it out Herr Cohen-Portheim writes as a European for Europeans." Times (London) lit. sup.

"A brilliant book, as might have been expected from the author of 'England, the Unknown Isle.' There are pages which cannot be read without a clearer understanding of what France stands for in the modern world." Christian science monitor

Dutton, Ralph, and Holden, Angus Holden, 3d baron, 1898-
Land of France; illus. from photographs. Scribner 1939 152p illus maps $3 914.4

1 France—Description and travel
[40-6355]

"The authors tell us which places they have liked, give us scraps of history that have specially struck them, interest themselves in wine, food and men as well as in monuments, and make sardonic, simple-seeming comments of a very French sort. Their architectural taste makes the book particularly useful for the planning of a tour." New statesman and Nation

Evans, Joan, 1893-
Life in mediaeval France. Oxford 1925 234p illus maps o.p. 1939 914.4

1 Civilization, Medieval 2 France—Civilization 3 France—Social life and customs
25-22127

"Miss Evans deserves praise for the skill with which she has traced main outlines, the taste and intelligence she shows in presenting her material. . . As an introduction, a stimulus to the study of medieval France, Miss Evans' book should be of great use." Times (London) lit. sup.

Bibliography

Gostling, Mrs Frances M. (Parkinson)
Lure of French châteaux. . . McBride 1924 181p illus o.p. 1939 914.4

1 Castles—France 26-13104

A condensed edition of the author's earlier book "Rambles around French châteaux"

Contents: Saint-Germain; Marly-le-Roi, Saint-Cloud, Malmaison; Versailles; Rambouillet, Fontainebleau; Auxerre, Thiers, Ambert, La Chaise Dieu; Orange, Avignon; Les Baux; Carcassonne, Alet, La Pierre-Lys, Foix, Toulouse; Cahors, Pompadour; Chalus, Loches; Chinon, Azay le Rideau; Langeais, Luynes, Tours; Chenonceaux, Amboise, Chaumont; Blois, Chambord, Chateaudun

Greenwall, Harry James, 1886-
Face of France. Funk 1938 268p illus $2.50 914.4

1 France—Description and travel
38-27127

"Descriptive travel book on France, more concerned with the people, their food, their ways of life, and the customs of the various provinces, than is the usual guidebook." Book rev. digest

Greenwall, Harry J.—Continued

"This book has been awarded the Prix International du Tourisme as the best book recently written about France by a foreigner. It comes to the traveling public, thus, with a strong recommendation for interest and usefulness." N.Y. Times

Gwynn, Stephen Lucius, 1864-

In praise of France. Houghton 1927 xxii, 300p illus o.p. 1939 914.4

1 France—Description and travel [27-27694]

"Records in prose of great charm the impressions of four vacations in the side valleys of Touraine, the gorges of Burgundy, blessed spots in Normandy, the Midi, the Ain, Poitou and Périgord, and Bordeaux at vintage time. Everywhere he ate and drank and fished, choosing this last sport because it is 'a great freemasonry,' a point of natural contact with the people of each district. Along with lively and penetrating accounts of these diverse people is an exquisite painting of their background." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

"This is no book for prohibitionists or anchorites; but to those who do not shun the pleasures of the French host's table no better guide than Mr. Gwynn can be recommended." New statesman

Henderson, Helen Weston, 1874-

Cathedrals of France. . . Methuen 1929 256p illus o.p. 1939 914.4

1 Cathedrals—France 2 France—Description and travel 29-21896

"A guidebook for the tourist, describing the chief points of architectural and historic interest of the most famous French cathedrals and several of the lesser known churches." Book rev. digest

"Her great merit is that she tells you how to get at them—uncertainty about which has done more to encourage ignorance on the subject than any other cause. In the first place Miss Henderson gives a clear map, in the form of an end-paper, showing cathedral towns only and their railway connexions." Times (London) lit. sup.

Huddleston, Sisley, 1883-

France and the French. Smith, P. 348p (Travellers' lib.) $1 914.4

1 France 2 National characteristics, French [26-5748]

First published 1925 by Scribner

The author "writes of modern France its politics, family life, the press, the theatre, art, educational problems, etc. A really informing book, easy to read and will prove useful in many libraries." Wis. bul.

"He has succeeded in writing a surprisingly comprehensive, just, balanced book, extraordinarily useful, and that the more because strong sense savours it and because its judgments are exalted to the nobility of justice." Spectator

Hueffer, Oliver Madox, 1877-1931

French France; foreword by Katherine Wood. Appleton-Century 1929 283p o.p. 1939 914.4

1 France—Description and travel 2 France—Social life and customs 29-10191

"Mr. Hueffer's method in this instructive book is to introduce a figure representative of the provincial city or of the village of Central France, and then turn back on an essay or a story. He can do this really well because he has lived in France among these people, and is not confined to the rather romantic point of view of the traveller or holiday-maker. The interest and value of the book lie in the admirable pictures of provincial life, in stories like that of the Communist plasterer who was a botanist, and in the well-managed digressions." Saturday rev.

Hürlmann, Martin, 1897-

Picturesque France. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

James, Henry, 1843-1916

Little tour in France; with illus. by Joseph Pennell. Houghton 350p illus (Park street lib. of travel) o.p. 1939 914.4

1 France—Description and travel 0-6652

First published 1885

"Describes familiar places, chiefly in southern France, with much knowledge of and sympathy with French history, customs and people." Pittsburgh

Laughlin, Clara Elizabeth, 1873-

* So you're going to France! and if I were going with you, these are the things I'd invite you to do. 5th ed Houghton 1937 627p illus $3 914.4

1 France—Description and travel [33-16849]

First published 1927. The fifth edition is a revised reprint of the third issued in 1933, with corrections in the variable information such as prices, hotel rates and transportation facilities

"Combining, in her usual manner, history, description and practical guidance, the author conducts the reader to Mont-Saint-Michel and back through Normandy as well as by way of Brittany; to the chateaux of the Loire; to Carcassonne, Nice and Monte Carlo, Biarritz and the Pyrenees; and east from Paris through the Marne valley to the Jeanne d'Arc country and Strasbourg." N.Y. libraries

Covers all of France except Paris

Muirhead, Findlay, 1860-1935, and Monmarché, Marcel, 1872-

(eds.) French Alps. . . 2d ed Macmillan 1926 xxxiv,255p maps (Blue guides) $4 914.4

1 Alps, French—Description and travel [24-359]

First published 1923. Minor changes have been made in this edition

Covers the southeastern district of France, more particularly the Savoy Alps, Dauphiny Alps, Provençal and Maritime Alps. Contains many maps and plans

(eds.) North-eastern France. . . Macmillan 1922 lxvi,351p illus maps (Blue guides) $4.50 914.4

1 European war, 1914-1918—Battlefields 2 France—Description and travel 22-26978

Also available in England in a slightly enlarged edition (Benn 1930 12s)

Covers the following sections of France: French Flanders, Artois, Picardy, and Ile-de-France; Champagne, French Lorraine, and the Vosges; Alsace-Lorraine; Burgundy, Franche-Comté, and the Jura. Includes articles on The British campaigns in the West, by Sir Frederick Maurice; The American operations on the western front, prepared by the courtesy of the United States General Staff; The French campaigns in the West and The battlefields. 55 maps and plans

Muirhead, F. and Monmarché, M.—Cont.
(eds.) North-western France. . . 2d ed Macmillan 1932 xlvi,395p maps (Blue guides) $3.50 914.4

1 France—Description and travel [32-25478]

In the second edition a road atlas of Northwestern France in 24 sheets by Messrs. Bartholomew has been added

This excellent guide includes descriptions of Normandy, Brittany and the provinces of the Loire. Contains many maps and plans and a bibliography. The sections on Normandy and Brittany are also published separately (see classes 914.42 and 914.41)

(eds.) Southern France. . . Macmillan 1926 xxxviii,488p illus maps (Blue guides) $5.75 914.4

1 France—Description and travel 26-3353

"Probably the most complete English guide to the regions 'to the South of a line curving through the centre of France, from the mouth of the Gironde . . . to the valley of the Chamonix'. . . The territory included contains the Riviera, Provence, old cities of the Rhone, the Cévennes, Gascony, Bordeaux, Savoy, Dauphiny, and Corsica. Arranged like others of the series." Bkl.

With a complete atlas and 72 other maps and plans; bibliography: pref. p21-22

Newman, Edward Manuel, 1870-
Seeing France. . . Funk 1930 406p illus (Newman traveltalks) $1.98 914.4

1 France—Description and travel 30-28319

"A glimpse of the places and towns in France (excepting Paris and its immediate environs) most frequented by tourists, including dips into Brittany, Normandy, the battlefield sections, the chateau country, Alsace-Lorraine, and the chief resorts of the Riviera." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Newman writes his travel books for the same public that flocks to his lectures. The intent is to be comprehensive, descriptive and entertaining, leaving to others the task of interpretation or the more delicate function of criticism." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Robson, Edgar Iliff, 1871-
Wayfarer on the Seine; with twelve illus. by J. R. E. Howard and a map. Houghton 1927 210p illus (Wayfarer ser.) $2 914.4

1 Seine River 28-28287

"Notes on the towns, cities and countryside along the Seine, from Le Havre to Paris and beyond. There is information for the pedestrian and bicyclist as well as for the train traveller. More attention is paid to historical references than to art and architectural matters. Charmingly illustrated." Cleveland

Schoonmaker, Frank
Come with me through France. McBride 1928 239p illus maps (Traveler's ser.) $1.75 914.4

1 France—Description and travel 28-15690

Reprint of a book first published 1928

"An attractive guidebook, covering urban and rural France. It gives less obvious information on the provincial districts, including local market days, church festivals of special interest, etc. A guide through Corsica and the French side of the Alps and Pyrenees is included." Chicago

Siegfried, André, 1875
* France; a study in nationality. Yale univ. press 1930 122p $2 914.4

1 France—Politics and government 2 National characteristics, French 3 Political parties—France 30-5604

Published for the Institute of Politics, Williams college, Williamstown, Mass.

"A penetrating presentation of French political life which includes a shrewd analysis of French character and the psychology of French politics, an able discussion of postwar politics, the parties and groups in the French Chamber, and in conclusion contrasts the French and Anglo-Saxon democracies." N.Y. libraries

Stevenson, Robert Louis, 1850-1894
* Inland voyage; with a preface by Mrs Stevenson. Biographical ed. Scribner 1905 230p $2 914.4

1 France——Description and travel 5-20754

An account of a canoe trip by rivers and canals through France

Turner, Herbert Bryant, 1871-
Picturesque old France. Little 1929 334p illus $4 914.4

1 Cities and towns—France 2 France—Description and travel 29-9627

"Beautifully illustrated volume that describes charming out-of-the-way places and tells the traveler how to get to them. Follows a definite route of travel, from Le Havre to Paris south through Grenoble to Mentone and Marseilles and north by a rambling route to the starting point, with many side excursions." Wis. bul.

Wharton, Mrs Edith Newbold (Jones) 1862-1937
French ways and their meaning. Appleton-Century 1919 149p $2 914.4

1 National characteristics, French 19-14033

"Thoughtful, sympathetic analysis of the character of the French people whose dominant traits are, according to the author, reverence, taste, intellectual honesty, and continuity. The last two chapters 'The new Frenchwoman' and 'In conclusion' (the French as seen by an American), were first published in 'Scribner's Magazine' and 'The Ladies' Home Journal' respectively." N.Y. state lib.

914.41 Brittany

Le Braz, Anatole, 1859-1926
Land of pardons; tr. by F. M. Gostling. Methuen 1924 7s 6d 914.41

1 Brittany—Description and travel 2 Legends—Brittany 3 Pilgrims and pilgrimages 4 Saints [26-9779]

The 1924 edition is a reprint of the edition first published 1906. It contains 12 illustrations from photographs by F. M. and W. A. Gostling. The original edition had 12 illustrations in color by T. C. Gotch and 40 other illustrations

"The appearance of Anatole Le Braz's 'Au Pays des Pardons' . . . was an event of considerable literary and archaeological importance in France. The book was a collection of hitherto unprinted legends of the early Breton Saints supplemented by sympathetic descriptions of the modern ceremonies in their honor (known as 'pardons') which are the last vestige of the ancient 'Feasts of the Dead'. . . The translator has performed her task well, but no translation could hope to render the strange, melancholy charm of M. Le Braz's lyric prose." Nation

Le Braz, Anatole—Continued

Muirhead, Findlay, 1860-1935, and Monmarché, Marcel, 1872-
(eds.) Brittany. . . 2d ed Macmillan 1928 xxxiv,152p illus maps (Blue guides) $3 914.41

1 Brittany—Description and travel 28-22153

Also included in the volume of Northwestern France (class 914.4)
The paging in the 2d edition is the same as that of the first. There are slight changes in the text
"The book is arranged in a series of routes, planned so as to show the ready means of access to the chief centres of interest; while for those who settle for a time in one spot, the system of page-references and the copious index afford an easy guide to the excursions that may be made in the vicinity as well as farther afield." Preface

Oakley, Mrs Amy (Ewing) 1882-
Enchanted Brittany. . . Appleton-Century 1930 437p illus $4 914.41

1 Brittany—Description and travel 30-29424

"An attractive and readable volume in which history, legend, customs, and charm are pleasantly mingled. Illustrations by Thornton Oakley." Pittsburgh

Sedgwick, Anne Douglas, 1873-1935
Childhood in Brittany eighty years ago... Houghton 1919 224p illus $2.50 914.41

1 Brittany—Social life and customs 19-14551

"Charming vignettes of character and delightful descriptions of old manners and customs which have passed away, set down from many conversations which the author had with an old French friend. Unique illustrations by Paul de Leslie." N.Y. state lib.
"The chapters are woven together so closely and coherently, and in so crisp and delicately coloured a prose . . . that it would never be guessed that the book is not a first-hand fragment of autobiography." Times (London) lit. sup.

914.42 Normandy

Dennis, Mary Boardman (Cable) 1872-
Mostly byways; here and there in Normandy. Dutton 1939 194p illus maps $2 914.42

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 Normandy—Description and travel 39-9668

"This book, combining the objectives of a guidebook and a volume of descriptive essays, carries the reader over the byways of Normandy to small villages and ancient towns and thru lovely countryside, making mention of old castles and churches, restaurants and good inns, short drives and longer ones." Book rev. digest
"Should be suggestive and useful to American travelers in that delightful bit of the Old World." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Huddleston, Sisley, 1883-
Normandy; its charm, its curiosities, its antiquities, its history, its topography. Doubleday 1928 311p illus map o.p. 1939 914.42

1 Normandy—Description and travel 29-782

"Mr. Huddleston's book projects town and building against a background of history, fills in detail with some completeness, and introduces occasional comment on persons and customs." Sat. rev. of lit.
"One of the most comprehensive tourists' guides yet supplied for this romantic section of France. It is for the traveler rather than the stay-at-home." N.Y. Times
Map on lining-papers and illustrations

Mansfield, Milburg Francisco, 1871-
Spell of Normandy, by Francis Miltoun [pseud.] Page 1925 448p illus (Spell ser.) $3.75 914.42

1 Normandy—Description and travel 25-12274

First issued as "Rambles in Normandy," 1905
Not intended as a guide book but records "a series of ramblings in and off the beaten tourist track, with the addition of a few facts of history and romance, which could not well be ignored." Contains many illustrations, maps and plans

Muirhead, Findlay, 1860-1935, and Monmarché, Marcel, 1872-
(eds.) Normandy. . . 2d ed Macmillan 1928 xxx,129p illus maps $3 914.42

1 Normandy—Description and travel [25-10206]

Also included in the volume on Northwestern France (class 914.4)
An excellent handbook. Readable as well as informative

914.436 Paris

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:
Edwards, G. W. Paris. Penn 1924 435p illus $7.50
Escholier, Raymond. Paris; tr. by Jessica Ware. Dial press 1930 157p illus o.p. 1939
Huddleston, Sisley. Back to Montparnasse; glimpses of Broadway in Bohemia. Lippincott 1931 313p illus o.p. 1939

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers, Leipzig
Paris and its environs, with routes from London to Paris; handbook for travellers, with 68 maps and plans. 20th rev ed. . Scribner 1937 lxiv,550,54p illus maps $7.50 914.436

1 Paris—Description 38-1462

A standard guide. Bibliography: pref. p62-64

Cohen-Portheim, Paul, d. 1932
Spirit of Paris. Lippincott 1937 118p illus $3 914.436

1 Paris—Description 37-27495

The first American edition of a book originally published in Germany in 1930, two years before the author's death. Translated by Alan Harris. It considers Paris historically, architecturally, and spiritually by day and by night

Huddleston, Sisley, 1883-

In and about Paris; with sixteen illus. in collotypé by Hanslip Fletcher, and a map. Doran 1927 224p illus o.p. 1939 914.436

1 Paris—Description A28-180

"Haphazard arrangement in writing is nearly always a blemish, but it only serves to strengthen the pleasant impression of Mr. Huddleston's book. He begins with a chapter of history, follows it with a description of Parisian home life, hotels and restaurants (like all wise men he keeps his best 'tips' to himself), then, via a chapter on Fêtes, to sketches of the Grand Boulevards, the Seine, the churches, parks and gardens. There are some admirable chapters on the quartier, Montmarte old and new, Montparnesse, the Latin Quarter. His book is stored with wise advice to the visitor in such matters as eating, drinking, theatre-going." Nation and Athenaeum

Paris salons, cafés, studios; being social, artistic and literary memories. Lippincott 1928 366p illus o.p. 1939 914.436

1 Paris—Intellectual life 2 Salons 28-30697

Published in England under title: Bohemian, literary and social life in Paris "It is light in tone, sometimes extremely superficial, and always colloquial. Yet it is valuable as a document, for it does give an idea of the sparkling life of Paris. Mr Huddleston, as a newspaper man, has been everywhere and met all sorts of celebrities; he has observed them with a 'news' eye; he has undoubtedly made notes about them: he has listened to tales about them; he has also read about them. The conglomeration of anecdotes, thumbnail sketches and studio gossip that has resulted from this immersion in the life of Paris is lacking in profundity but everything else in there." N.Y. Times

Laughlin, Clara Elizabeth, 1873-

* So you're going to Paris! and if I were going with you these are the things I'd invite you to do. 7th ed Houghton 1938 456p illus $3 914.436

1 Paris—Description 38-24381

First published 1924. The 7th edition "is a completely revised edition, with every line of every page checked for changes." Preface to 7th edition

"So you're going to Paris! Mrs Laughlin exclaims and sets about to point out the things she would show you if she were with you. By departing from the conventional guidebook style, the author has made her book a chatty narrative about things worth seeing in Paris. She has included in her scheme of each day's sightseeing the obscure and interesting as well as the well-known." Book rev. digest

Lucas, Edward Verrall, 1868-1938

* Wanderer in Paris; with fifteen illus. by Walter Dexter... Methuen 10s 6d 914.436

1 Paris—Description [24-23068]

First published 1909 and frequently reprinted with minor revisions. Formerly carried also by Macmillan

A usable book with good descriptions of the art treasures of the city. Interesting to read, as well as to use as a guide book

Milton, Arthur

Paris in seven days; a guide for people in a hurry. Mills & Boon 1922 117p illus o.p. 1939 914.436

1 Paris—Description 23-10600

Formerly carried also by McBride

"One is guided through the city with such great economy that there is not a lost moment nor a superfluous step, and not an interesting spot is passed unnoticed. It seems however that the perfect guide book has yet to make its appearance. This hasty little guide lacks the photographs by which one may visualize one's route." Bookman

Muirhead, Findlay, 1860-1935, and Monmarché, Marcel, 1872-

(eds.) Paris and its environs. . . 2d ed Macmillan 1927 lxiv,432,55p illus maps (Blue guides) $4.80 914.436

1 Paris—Description 27-9883

A guide to the chief points of interest in Paris and its environs

Newman, Edward Manuel, 1870-

Seeing Paris. . . Funk 1931 xxii,387p illus (Newman traveltalks) $1.98 914.436

1 Paris—Description 31-30622

"An armchair guide to Paris, giving a many-sided description of both the old city and the new, and an insight into the life of the modern city." Book rev. digest

"His book will repay careful reading by anyone who is planning a visit to that city or by anyone who must make reading a substitute for traveling. The charm of the book is inherent in its subject matter rather than in its style, but it is packed with information and its illustrations are copious." Christian century

Slocombe, George Edward, 1894-

Paris in profile. Houghton 1929 289p illus o.p. 1939 914.436

1 Paris—Description 29-24183

"The author writes philosophically and rather brilliantly of the many-faceted life of the city which he has known intimately in both its past and present. For the discriminating reader, preferably one who has a background of French history, literature and art." Cleveland

914.438 Alsace-Lorraine

Hallays, André, 1859-1930

Spell of Alsace; tr. with a foreword by F. R. Fraprie... Page 1919 xlvii,329p illus map (Spell ser.) $3.75 914.438

1 Alsace 19-11586

"Account of the land and the character of the people of Alsace, revealing the treasures of their towns, the charm of their country, and the appeal of Alsatian character. The writer assumes the reader's knowledge of history. Any lack of familiarity is helped in the introduction, by Frank Roy Fraprie, who gives a rapid survey of the history. . . The illustrations add to the interest of the book." Wis. bul.

Townroe, Bernard Stephen, 1885-
Wayfarer in Alsace; with an introduction by the Earl of Derby... Houghton 1926 211p illus $2 914.438
1 Alsace—Description and travel
[26-22001]

"Literary guide-books are very much the fashion. Mr. Townroe has written a particularly good one, containing enough information to make it useful to wanderers in Alsace and enough digression to make it delightful." Spectator

914.49 Provence

In addition to the titles listed below, the following are also recommended:

Gibbons, H. A. Riviera towns. McBride 1920 203p illus o.p. 1939

Goldring, Douglas. French Riviera, and the valley of the Rhône from Avignon to Marseilles. Farrar 1932 268p illus o.p. 1939

Quigley, Hugh. Land of the Rhone, Lyons and Provence. Methuen 1927 275p illus maps 12s 6d

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers
Riviera, south-eastern France and Corsica, the Italian lakes and lake of Geneva; handbook for travellers. . . Scribner 1931 xxxvi,480p illus maps $5.50 914.49
1 Corsica—Description and travel 2 Riviera—Description and travel
31-9919

"Describes the French and Italian 'Rivieras,' the chief tourist routes in 'Southern France' on the way thither, 'Corsica,' the 'Italian Lakes,' and the health resorts on the 'Lake of Geneva.'" Preface

Hallays, André, 1859-1930
Spell of Provence; tr. with a foreword by F. R. Fraprie. Page 1923 367p illus (Spell ser.) $3.75 914.49
1 Provence—Description and travel
23-11619

"Fascinating descriptions of out-of-the-way towns, monasteries, and castles, not only describing their architectural treasures, but telling of the people, aristocrats, nuns and artists, who here found romance in the days of old." Cleveland

Robson, Edgar Iliff, 1871-
Wayfarer in Provence; with twelve illustrations by J. R. E. Howard and a map. Houghton 1926 246p illus $2 914.49
1 Provence—Description and travel
[26-22002]

"Mr. Robson has written much more than a guide-book. He gives a comprehensive survey of Provence and in describing its chief features calls up its history and associations with the troubadours. There is much interesting archæological information and excellent chapters on Provençal customs, superstitions, legends and folklore. The illustrations are from drawings made on the spot. Book rev. digest

Wayfarer on the Rivieras; with twelve illus. by J. R. E. Howard and a map. Houghton 1932 196p illus $2 914.49
1 Riviera—Description and travel
33-27035

"This informal handbook on both the French and the Italian Rivieras makes no pretence to be a regulation guide-book but contains information interestingly set forth on routes, hotels, food, history, geography, the hill villages, walks to take, art, life, manners, legends and stories of the region." Book rev. digest

"A reading of this little book will give one an idea not only of the outward appearance of the scenes visited but an insight into the history, the art, and the legends of the country, as well as the life of its people. The entire workmanship of the book is attractive, and the 'Sketch Map' of the region adds to its value, especially if it is used as a guide book." Boston Transcript

Stevenson, Robert Louis, 1850-1894
‡ Travels with a donkey in the Cevennes; with a preface by Mrs Stevenson. Biographical ed Scribner 1905 198p $2 914.49
1 Cevennes mountains 5-23216
First published 1879

"An account of a journey undertaken for health's sake in the mountains of southern France. Poetry and humor enter into the descriptions of scenery and the native population, making it one of the most enjoyable of his auto-biographic sketches." Pratt alcove

914.5 Italy

In addition to the titles listed below, the following are also recommended:

Collison-Morley, Lacy. Italy after the renaissance; decadence and display in the seventeenth century. Routledge 1930 324p illus o.p. 1939

Gibbons, John. Old Italy and new Mussoliniland. Dutton 1933 172p $2

Gissing, G. R. By the Ionian Sea; notes of a ramble in southern Italy . . . with an introduction by Virginia Woolf. Cape, J. 1933 224p (Traveller's lib.) 3s 6d

Allen, Herbert Warner, 1881-
Italy from end to end. Methuen 1927 240p 10s 6d 914.5
1 Italy—Description and travel 2 Italy—History
[27-27903]
Formerly carried also by Dodd

Treats of the best known parts of Italy, with emphasis on historical associations, customs, etc.

"It is a long time since we have read so good a book of the 'psychological guide-book' type. His Italy is that of the tourists—Rome, Florence, Naples, Ravenna, Venice—but he has something new and personal to say about each of them." Saturday rev.

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers
Italy from the Alps to Naples; abridged handbook for travellers... 3d rev ed Allen, G. 1928 xl,488p illus maps 13s 914.5
1 Italy—Description and travel
[28-26455]
Formerly carried also by Scribner

Contents: Northern Italy; Liguria, Tuscany, Umbria; Rome and its environs; Naples and its environs

"An abridgement of the three more detailed volumes for Northern, Central, and Southern Italy. It is designed for the use of travelers who have only a few weeks at their disposal and intend to devote their time to a rapid survey of the country." Preface

914.5 B14c2

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers—Continued

Northern Italy, including Ravenna, Florence, and Pisa; handbook for travellers... 15th rev ed Scribner 1930 lxxxii,704p illus maps $9 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 30-26394

"Owing to the length of time which has elapsed since the appearance of the last edition [1913] and the territorial changes which have resulted from the Great War, has had to be completely rewritten. . . Adequate accounts of the battlefields are given, and the positions of the various British war cemeteries are indicated." Times (London) lit. sup.

Rome and central Italy; handbook for travellers... 16th rev ed Scribner 1930 lxxiv,586p illus maps $9 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 2 Rome (City)—Description 30-26395

Previous edition (15th) published under title: Central Italy and Rome

"The long interval since the appearance of the last edition, and the drastic changes that have taken place since the Great War, have necessitated a particularly thorough revision, with the result that the book has had to be completely rewritten. It now embodies . . . information, down to the end of 1929, including the alterations due to the foundation of the Vatican City. . . The Maps and Plans have been carefully revised, and quite a number of them added or entirely redrawn." Preface

Bibliography: pref. p69-73

Southern Italy and Sicily, with excursions to Sardinia, Malta, Tripoli and Corfu; handbook for travellers... 17th rev ed Scribner 1930 lxxx,552p illus maps $9 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 2 Sicily —Description and travel 30-19304

The handbook "now includes Tripolitania, owing to its accessibility to tourists. . . The Maps and Plans are carefully revised for every edition of the handbook. For this edition a new map of the E. coast from Ancona to Pescara has been added, while the plans of Bari, Messina, Naples (inner town), Selinunte, Syracuse, Tripoli, and Valletta have been entirely redrawn. Lists of streets are attached to the plans of Naples and Palermo." Preface

Bibliography: pref. p77-79

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-

Italy on $50; illus by F. D. Steele. McBride 1933 287p illus (Fifty dollar ser.) $2.25 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel

"An attractive little travel guide of the practical type. Outlines a 15-day tour thru Italy." Wis. bul.

Douglas, Norman, 1868-

Alone. Chatto 1921 12s 6d 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 22-17369

Formerly carried also by McBride

"Sketches of wanderings in the byways of Italy during the war, by an Englishman past the enlistment age who failed in his efforts to render some other patriotic service. Interesting in its angle on war-time Italy, its charming bits of nature appreciation and its touches of Gallic humor." Cleveland

"The travel-books of Mr. Norman Douglas. . . are among the most delightful books of their kind in our language. This sort of literature can concern itself with ordinary places and describe them in so extraordinary a manner that they are raised 'sublime, out of space, out of time.' [It is its] witty non-moral self-sufficiency which gives this book its recondite flavour and lifts it so aloof from the mischances of imitation." Saturday rev.

Gibbons, John, 1882-

Afoot in Italy; with illus. by Reginald Cleaver. Dutton 1932 248p illus $2.50 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 32-2033

"An account of the author's travels in Italy, by third-class train from the northern border to the south, then on foot and by tram thru the southern country and north to Rome. The author avoided so far as possible the tourist routes and art galleries, but found his delight in scraping acquaintances among the simple country people even tho his Italian was of the most meager. The book is written with sympathy and particularly with admiration for the efficiency of the Mussolini regime." Book rev. digest

"The author managed to see and write down a book full of interesting, revealing things. Moreover, he had a sense of humor of the dry, quizzical sort that runs engagingly through his narrative." N.Y. Times

Hawthorne, Nathaniel, 1804-1864

Passages from the French and Italian note-books. Riverside ed Houghton 574p $2.50 914.5

1 France—Description and travel 2 Italy —Description and travel 4-22918

The main portion of these journals is devoted to Italy, principally Rome and Florence, where Hawthorne lived from January 1858 until May 1859

Heine, Heinrich, 1797-1856

Italian travel sketches; tr. into English by Elizabeth Sharp... Brentano's 1928 250p illus o.p. 1939 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 2 Theater—France 28-18056

This translation was previously published in 1892. Illustrated with reproductions of water color sketches by H. D. Cobbett

Contents: Prefatory study on Heinrich Heine, by Théophile Gautier; Italian travel sketches; French stage; Appendix: George Sand

"The years have had no power over these studies; and their originality and freshness are unimpaired, though the plains and valleys which Heine surveyed from his coach windows are now traversed by roads and railways, and though the woods have been sacrificed to modern villages and factories." Times (London) lit. sup.

Hielscher, Kurt, 1881-

Picturesque Italy, architecture and landscape. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Howells, William Dean, 1837-1920

Italian journeys; with illus. by Joseph Pennell. Houghton 380p illus (Park street lib. of travel) $2.50 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 4-16654

First published 1867

"The journeys were taken while the author was consul at Venice, 1861-65, and give his experiences of travel at that time, as well as interesting descriptions of Ferrara, Genoa, Naples and vicinity, Rome, Padua and less familiar places." Pittsburgh

Howells, William D.—Continued

W. D. Howell's "Roman holidays" (Harper 1908 302p o.p. 1939) another charming book, gives impressions of Italy when revisited many years later

Hutton, Edward, 1875-
Cities of Romagna and the Marches... 2d ed Macmillan 1925 309p illus $3.50 914.5

1 Art, Italian 2 Cities and towns—Italy 3 Marches, Italy—Description and travel 4 Romagna—Description and travel [26-3501]

"Two score towns and villages in the little-known section which in Roman times was Flamina and Picenum, renowned for fruit, are described impressionistically and with a wealth of detailed, first-hand information. The general enthusiasm and exquisite expression provide reading that is never dull." Cleveland

"A book which has all the charm of the irresponsible wanderer on the road side by side with the authority of the scholar." Athenaeum

James, Henry, 1843-1916
Italian hours; with illus. in color by Joseph Pennell. Houghton 1909 504p illus o.p. 1939 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 9-29605

Notes on various visits to Italy, 1872-1909, brought together to give a picture of Italy as a whole

Laughlin, Clara Elizabeth, 1873-
* So you're going to Italy! and to Switzerland and the Tyrol! and if I were going with you these are the things I'd invite you to do. 4th ed Houghton 1937 397p illus $3 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 2 Switzerland—Description and travel 3 Tyrol—Description and travel 37-22079

First published 1925, containing the section on Rome which was later published separately. Revised in 1928. Prices and other details were revised in 1937

"An informal description of things of historic and artistic interest worth seeing in Naples and its vicinity, in . . . Florence, Venice, Verona, and Milan. The author has kept in mind the requirements of the average traveler making a first or second visit to Italy and trying to see some of its greatest attractions in a period of three to six weeks." Pittsburgh

Muirhead, Findlay, 1860-1935
(ed.) Northern Italy, from the Alps to Rome (Rome excepted) by L. V. Bertarelli ... 2d impression Macmillan 1927 cxi,485p maps (Blue guides) 15s 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel [25-24]

Also available in a 3d edition, 1937 (Benn 15s)

An excellent guide which deals with the northern half of the Italian peninsula, extending from the Alps to Rome, including the provinces reunited to Italy after the European war of 1914-1918. Numerous maps and plans. Based on the Italian guides of the Italian touring club

(ed.) Southern Italy, including Rome, Sicily and Sardinia, by L. V. Bertarelli. Macmillan 1925 lxxii,537p illus maps (Blue guides) $6 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 30-19981

Deals with Rome, Naples, Sicily and Sardinia and the southern half of the Italian peninsula. Based on the Italian guides of the Italian touring club

Newman, Edward Manuel, 1870-
Seeing Italy... Funk 1927 412p illus (Newman traveltalks) $1.98 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel 27-23418

"Although this book does not take one far from the beaten path of the tourist, the author sees to it that his tourists do not miss anything and—what is still more to the point—shows them how to take the trip without hurrying. The book is attractively illustrated and the subject matter is such as to appeal to all tastes, artistic, historical and scenic." Providence

Suggestions for reading: p405-06

Schoonmaker, Frank
Come with me through Italy. McBride 1929 218p illus map (Traveler's ser.) $1.75 914.5

1 Art, Italian 2 Italy—Description and travel 29-11919

Reprint of a book first published in 1929

"In this guide-book Italy is divided into towns, and each is considered and described as a unit. Into it the author has tried to compress something of the history, the beauty, and the romance of this most historic, most beautiful, and most romantic of countries. The material side of traveling is also covered in the most practical and explicit manner." Bkl.

Symonds, John Addington, 1840-1893
Sketches and studies in Italy and Greece. 1st-3d ser. new ed Scribner 3v v 1-2, ea $3.75, v3, o.p. 1939 914.5

1 Greece, Modern—Description and travel 2 Italy—Description and travel 4-8688

A new edition of the author's three volumes of travel "Sketches in Italy and Greece," "Sketches and studies in Italy," and "Italian byways," edited by Horatio F. Brown and first published 1898. In this edition the order of the essays has been changed and they are arranged topographically

Wharton, Mrs Edith Newbold (Jones) 1862-1937
Italian backgrounds; illus. by E. C. Peixotto. Scribner 214p illus $3.50 914.5

1 Art, Italian 2 Italy—Description and travel 5-12365

Nine essays on Italy first published 1905

Contents: Alpine posting-inn; Mid-summer week's dream; Sanctuaries of the Pennine Alps; What the hermits saw; A Tuscan shrine; Sub umbra liliorum; March in Italy; Picturesque Milan; Italian backgrounds

Wilstach, Paul, 1870-
Italian holiday. McBride 1928 382p illus $1.75 914.5

1 Italy—Description and travel [28-24046]

"Here is a volume one can pick up anywhere at any time and delightedly read a chapter or two. Each chapter is practically a story in itself. . . What Mr. Wilstach

Wilstach, Paul—Continued
tells his readers is the result of careful and sympathetic inquiry, and it is constantly evidenced that he is not content with being a casual or a superficial observer of people and things." Boston Transcript

914.52 Lombardy

Bagot, Richard, 1860-1921
Italian lakes, painted by Ella Du Cane. 3d ed Macmillan 1931 223p illus map (Black's popular ser. of colour books) $2.50 914.52

1 Italy—Description and travel 2 Lakes —Italy [32-1838]

First published 1905. In the third edition a chapter on the Lake of Garda by Laura M. Ragg has been added

Only the lakes of Northern Italy, which tourists usually visit, are included. Lago di Varese and others of Central Italy have been omitted

Hutton, Edward, 1875-
Milan and Lombardy; with twelve illus. in colour by Maxwell Armfield... 2d ed rev Macmillan 1925 286p illus $3.50 914.52

1 Cities and towns—Italy 2 Lombardy—Description and travel [25-19848]

First published in 1912 under title: Cities of Lombardy

"Treats historically and descriptively a dozen or more cities. The delicate illustrations are in harmony with the text." Pittsburgh

914.53 Venice

In addition to the titles listed below, the following is also recommended:
Smith, F. H. Gondola days. Houghton 1897 205p illus $2.50 The text is the same as that of Venice of today

Howells, William Dean, 1837-1920
Venetian life. Houghton o.p. 1939 914.53

1 Venice—Social life and customs 5-15603

A charming book giving an account of life in Venice in 1861-65 when the author was United States consul there

Lucas, Edward Verrall, 1868-1938
* Wanderer in Venice; with sixteen illus. by Harry Morley, thirty-two photographs from paintings and a map. 6th ed Macmillan 1924 318p illus $3.50 914.53

1 Venice—Description 24-23066

This edition has been revised, noting changes due to the war and listing the new locations of pictures, as far as possible

A good example of Mr. Lucas's method at its best. He understands how to keep the happy mean between the bald compilation of sheer facts and the swamping of them in tiresome detail. Condensed from Nation

914.55 Tuscany

Hewlett, Maurice Henry, 1861-1923
Road in Tuscany... Scribner 1904 2v illus o.p. 1939 914.55

1 Tuscany—Description and travel 4-33114

An older work which keeps its popularity, giving history, legends, and many references to the art and literature of the country. Many delightful illustrations. Reprinted in part from various magazines

Howells, William Dean, 1837-1920
Tuscan cities. Houghton 272p o.p. 1939 914.55

1 Tuscany A15-1997

Contents: Florentine mosaic; Panforte di Siena; Pitiless Pisa; Industrious Lucca; Pistoja, Prato, and Fiesole

Delightful sketches which first appeared in the "Century magazine" 1885

Hutton, Edward, 1875-
Florence and northern Tuscany, with Genoa... Macmillan 1925 436p illus $3.50 914.55

1 Art, Italian 2 Florence—Description 3 Genoa 4 Tuscany—Description and travel 25-26592

First published 1907. With sixteen illustrations in color by William Parkinson; sixteen other illustrations and a map

"He writes profusely, not to compile a practical guide-book, but to pour out his impressions, experiences, and reflections on the places which he visits." Nation

Wayfarer in unknown Tuscany... 3d ed rev Dutton 1925 212p illus $2.50 914.55

1 Tuscany—Description and travel 2 Tuscany—History 26-6730

First published in 1909 under title "In unknown Tuscany." Contains notes by William Heywood and 12 illustrations and a map

"An old favorite which describes with leisurely charm the author's sojourn in the Monte Amiata region, where he spent days reading on the mountainside and conversing with the people. Relating many tales of the peasant folk, it recreates the drowsy lure of Italian rural life." Cleveland

Lucas, Edward Verrall, 1868-1938
* Wanderer in Florence; with sixteen illus. by Harry Morley, thirty-eight photographs from paintings and sculpture and a map. 10th ed rev Macmillan 1924 376p illus $3.50 914.55

1 Florence—Description 24-23298

"A volume which happily combines the higher type of guide-book and the agreeable gossip of the sympathetic fellow-traveller to whom the wonders of the place are intimately dear. Mr. Lucas is admirable in his skilful blending of the different impressions, distinct in quality, but allied in space and time which such a place as Florence offers in a profusion rather bewildering to the novice." Athenaeum

914.56 Rome

In addition to the titles listed below, the following is also recommended:

Lanciani, R. A. Golden days of the renaissance in Rome, from the pontificate of Julius II to that of Paul III. Houghton 1906 340p illus o.p. 1939 Decribes Rome at the height of its glory and describes the few remaining monuments of the renaissance

Bagnani, Gilbert

Roman Campagna and its treasures... Scribner 1929 320p illus maps o.p. 1939 914.56

1 Campagna di Roma [30-2521]

"A guide to the large plain surrounding Rome, in antiquity highly cultivated and covered with villas and palaces, then for centuries desolate and malarious and now once more cultivated and reviving. Signor Bagnani has covered this territory in a manner most practical for the tourist, arranging his book according to the great roads that lead out of Rome and describing the historical sites, buildings and ruins." Book rev. digest

"As far as we have tested his statements, they are in accordance with the latest authorities, and in his notes he refers to books which treat more fully of the history of each place. His book will be useful to all visitors to Rome who have a few days to spare." Saturday rev.

Bibliographical references: p301-04

Crawford, Francis Marion, 1854-1909

* Ave Roma immortalis; studies from the chronicles of Rome. new ed rev Macmillan 613p illus $2.50 914.56

1 Rome (City)—Description 2-29267

Published in 1898 in 2 volumes

"A study of the city in ancient, mediaeval and modern times, with a description of the various quarters of the city, and the changes which have taken place within them." Pittsburgh

Hare, Augustus John Cuthbert, 1834-1903

Walks in Rome (including Tivoli, Frascati, and Albano) 21st ed... by St Clair Baddeley. Dutton 1925 709p illus o.p. 1939 914.56

1 Rome (City)—Description 26-7988

An authoritative and detailed guide to Rome, which has long been considered a standard work. First published 1871 in two volumes. Illustrated by A. J. C. Hare, F. F. Tuckett and others

Hutton, Edward, 1875-

Cities of Umbria... 7th ed Dutton 1925 337p illus $3 914.56

1 Art, Italian 2 Cities and towns—Italy 3 Umbria—Description and travel [26-3351]

Mr Hutton, who has traveled Umbria afoot, with his knapsack on his back, is a competent and discerning critic, as accurate as he is suggestive. His book is devoted to descriptions of scenery, to painting and to mysticism. Condensed from Nation

With twenty illustrations in color by A. Pisa; twelve other illustrations and a map

Laughlin, Clara Elizabeth, 1873-

* So you're going to Rome! and if I were going with you, these are the things I'd invite you to do. Houghton 1928 xxxii,385p illus $3 914.56

1 Italy—Description and travel 2 Rome (City)—Description 28-8358

Contains material previously used in "So you're going to Italy," revised to 1928, with a great deal of new material. The area covered is mostly Southern Italy, including the hill towns between Rome and Florence, and Sicily. The appendix contains addresses of recommended hotels and shops, and sample itineraries

The new edition of "So you're going to Italy" (class 914.5) omits Rome

Lucas, Edward Verrall, 1868-1938

Wanderer in Rome... 3d ed rev Methuen 1930 244p illus 10s 6d 914.56

1 Rome (City)—Description [31-28458]

First published 1926 by Doran. In the 1930 edition a new preface has been added and illustrations rearranged

"A delightful book in which the reader is led through both the familiar and the unfrequented parts of Rome. Mr. Lucas follows no definite itinerary, but his impressions are nicely related and link up the ancient city with the modern. Though it is in no ordinary sense a guide-book, the volume will serve admirably as an 'accompaniment of arm-chair reminiscence.' Sixteen illustrations in color by Harry Morley and thirty-six reproductions from photographs add to the attractiveness of the book." Bkl.

Milton, Arthur

Rome in seven days; a guide for people in a hurry. Mills & Boon 1924 5s 914.56

1 Rome (City)—Description [24-13381]

"Useful for tourists in a hurry, since it gives detailed directions as to what points of interest to see and how to reach them. Restaurants convenient to the localities visited and typical Italian menus are suggested, though prices are not given." Cleveland

Walpole, Sir Hugh, 1884-

Roman fountain. Doubleday 1940 301p front $2.50 914.56

1 Popes 2 Rome (City) (W) 40-8247

Part autobiography, part history, written upon the author's return from Rome in the early spring of 1939 where he had gone to write of the funeral of Pope Pius XI and the selection of his successor. His object is to show that "immediate history, however disturbing and horrible, does not affect at all the life of the spirit"

"Although he goes off on countless bypaths, talking of art, literature, travel, and love, his disclosures are always lively and delightful. Sometimes he is reflective, often he is humorous. Aside from the superb reporting of what he saw and heard, the book is almost entirely about himself." Boston Transcript

914.57 Naples

Bret Harte, Geoffrey, and Bret Harte, Kit, 1905-

Island in the sun; illus. by Robert Merman. Little 1937 318p illus $3 914.57

1 Ischia (Island)—Description 37-28791

"A charming and delightful record of the first year of marriage of Kit and Geoffrey Harte on an island—Ischia—in the Bay of Naples." Providence

Douglas, Norman, 1868-
Old Calabria. Secker, Martin 1915 352p 3s 6d 914.57

1 Calabria—Description and travel 24-30068

Formerly carried also by Dodd
"In this volume is embodied a mass of Italian lore such as seldom comes to the inhabitants of English-speaking countries. With Mr. Douglas travel in this little-known portion of Italy is evidently a keen delight which he is eager to share with his readers." Review of reviews
"An interesting book, which should appeal not merely to lovers of Italy, but also to every one who appreciates good literature for its own sake. It is well illustrated with photographs." Athenaeum

914.58 Sicily

Brown, Ashley, 1887-
Sicily, present and past... Methuen 1928 187p illus map 6s 914.58

1 Sicily—Description and travel 2 Sicily—History 28-26712

Formerly carried also by Dodd
"Mr. Brown's book on Sicily is a pleasant and useful one, though he keeps to the beaten track of Palermo, Girgenti, Syracuse, Catania, Taormina, and Messina." Nation and Athenaeum
"A little guide book arranged on a unique and convenient plan. Part 1 deals with Travel in Sicily, tells what to see and how to get there. Part 2 treats of the historical past of the places set forth in part one in the same order. So it is possible, if one desires, to turn to chapter 2 of the second part for the background to accompany the descriptive matter of chapter 2, part one." Wis. bul.

Hutton, Edward, 1875-
Cities of Sicily... Little 1926 243p illus o.p. 1939 914.58

1 Cities and towns—Sicily 2 Sicily—Description and travel 27-2911

"Those who think of wintering in Sicily will find Mr. Hutton's book a pleasant and trustworthy companion. He knows the island well. The book is illustrated with coloured sketches and with some attractive photographs." Spectator

914.59 Corsica. Sardinia

A. R. Dugmore's "Corsica the beautiful; an impression of the island as it is today, and of its history" (Houghton 288p illus map o.p. 1939) is an accurate and readable guide

Brázdová, Amelie (Posse)
Sardinian sideshow; tr. from the Swedish. Dutton 1933 261p $3 914.59

1 European war, 1914-1918—Prisoners and prisons 2 Sardinia—Description and travel 33-27001

"Caught in Rome by the World War, the author and her husband, a Czech artist, were interned on the island of Sardinia. Months of exile brought strange experiences, some vexing, but many interesting and amusing ones. The life of the harbor town, and information about picturesque peasant art and traditions are woven into a lively record of odd friendships, moonlight picnics, a plot to escape, and, after word of release came, new delight in their 'garden of Eden.'" N.Y. libraries

Goldring, Douglas, 1887-
Sardinia, the island of the nuraghi. Harrap 1930 270p illus map o.p. 1939 914.59

1 Sardinia—Description and travel 30-30354

Formerly carried also by Morrow
"Mr. Goldring describes his tour in detail, so that the book could serve as a guide, and the illustrations are many and attractive." Pittsburgh
"He writes amusingly and well, has a real eye for the country and its people... A successful book." New statesman
Bibliography: p267

Hawthorne, Hildegarde
Corsica, the surprising island. Duffield 1926 235p illus o.p. 1939 914.59

1 Corsica—Description and travel 26-17730

"An enjoyable, sympathetic description of the island of Corsica. The author found the picturesque, glowing scenery and contact with an independent, hospitable people ample compensation for the lack of modern conveniences." Cleveland

Lawrence, David Herbert, 1885-1930
Sea and Sardinia... Viking 1921 355p illus map $2.50 914.59

1 Sardinia—Description and travel 22-1381

Also available in a reprint from McBride at $1.75
"An unusual travel book, describing a trip from Sicily to Sardinia, up the length of the island to Terranova, across the sea to Civita Vecchia and back to Sicily once more. Everything is seen thru and colored by the author's personality, of which the book reveals quite as much as of scenes and people along the way. The very modern poster-like illustrations in color, by Jan Juta, are in keeping with text. [Map]" Book rev. digest

914.6 Spain

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:
Gallop, Rodney. Book of the Basques. Macmillan 1930 294p illus $3
Robson, E. I. Wayfarer in the Pyrenees. Houghton 1929 216p illus $2

Aurousseau, Marcel
Beyond the Pyrenees. King, A.H. 1931 402p o.p. 1939 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 32-2868

Description of a walk from Andorra to Madrid
"So accurately and minutely is the country along the line of march noted that the Spanish Government could easily print from it an ordnance map without further labor." N.Y. Times

Bone, Gertrude Helena (Dodd) lady
Days in old Spain; il. by Muirhead Bone. Macmillan 1938 261p illus $4 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel (W)

Impressions of pre-war Spain gathered during the author's leisurely visits during the last years of the old régime. Map
"The book is of great importance because it will be always the record absorbed and illuminated at the last possible moment of a Spain lost now for ever. During those last years before the insane, fratricidal, destructive war, Lady Bone watched, listened, heard voices from the old tapestried past, and, loving the soil, the people, the dark-coloured beauty, set it all down with quiet and caring reticence. . . . This is a book to read very slowly, for its sentences are rich with beauty and wisdom." Manchester guardian

Bone, Gertrude H. D. lady—Continued

Borrow, George Henry, 1803-1881
* Bible in Spain... with the notes and glossary of U. R. Burke. Putnam xxv, 838p illus map $3.50 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 12-16161

Also available in Everyman's library (Dutton 90c) and the World's classics (Oxford 80c)

"The journeys, adventures, and impressionments of an Englishman in an attempt to circulate the Scriptures in the peninsula." Subtitle

"Very little about the Bibles he was distributing, but a great deal about vagabonding in Spain, 1835-9. Borrow leads among books of Spanish travel." Trinity college list

Čapek, Karl, 1890-
Letters from Spain; tr. by Paul Selver. Bles 1931 192p illus 3s 6d 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 32-7787

"Amusing, unconventional sketches of a trip thru Spain containing observations and comments on Spanish art, cities, women, bull fights and dances. Illustrated with humorous drawings by the author." Book rev. digest

"The reader will usually be sufficiently flattered and amused to enjoy the reading, though it may leave behind it no lasting impression." Spectator

Clark, Sydney Alymer, 1890-
Spain on $50. McBride 1934 256p illus (Fifty dollar ser.) $2.25 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel

Similar in format and construction to the other books in the Fifty Dollar Series, this guide outlines a two-weeks stay in Spain on a budget of fifty dollars

Crockett, William Day, 1869-1930, and Crockett, Mrs Sarah Frances (Gates)
Satchel guide to Spain and Portugal. . . Houghton 1930 lxxiv,350p maps $4 914.6

1 Portugal—Description and travel
2 Spain—Description 30-18383

"The book gives all information likely to be required by the traveller to Spain or Portugal. It is of a handy size, is legible, and contains a map of the Peninsula and plans of Madrid, Barcelona, Seville, Lisbon and the Alhambra." Book rev. digest

Bibliography: pref p69-74

Ellis, Havelock, 1859-1939
‡ Soul of Spain. new ed with an introductory essay on the Spanish Civil war... Houghton 1937 420p illus $3.50 914.6

1 National characteristics, Spanish
2 Spain—Description and travel 3 Spain—Social life and customs 37-34619

A reprint of the 1909 edition with an introductory essay of 12 pages on the Spanish civil war

The writer interprets rather than describes. He has pondered the details and he gives his reader the result of his thought—always philosophical, often deeply suggestive. . . We have nowhere read a more fascinating attempt at Spanish psychology. Condensed from Nation

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-
Four months afoot in Spain... Appleton-Century 1911 370p illus map $1 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 11-27793

"The author . . . gives us in this volume a vivid account of his four months' random wanderings in Spain. . . He forswears the usual methods of travel, among the masses, emerging with a vast assortment of facts and impressions seldom vaunted as the spoils of travel. The charm of his narrative owes much to his unfailing sense of humor. [Illustrated]" Book rev. digest

Harrigan, Mildred H.
Traveling light; how to see Spain and Morocco, a practical guide for economical people. Coward-McCann 1928 xxi, 287p maps $2 914.6

1 Morocco—Description and travel
2 Spain—Description and travel 28-9680

"A suggested itinerary, day by day, is given for eight weeks in these two countries, at an expense of $493 for the entire trip, including passage. There is information about luggage, clothes, hotels and expenses, with detailed accounts of the various cities. Additional places are suggested for the traveler with more time and money at his disposal." Springfield Republican

Map and plans. A supplementary list of reading: p281-84

Hay, John, 1838-1905
Castilian days; with illus. by Joseph Pennell. New holiday ed Houghton 343p illus (Atlantic monthly lib. of travel) $5 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 38-38132

"Studies of Spanish manners, character and politics, written in 1871; sets admirably before us the men and tendencies which have gone to the making of Spain and the Spaniard today. Lucid, forcible style, pleasant humor." Saturday rev.

Hielscher, Kurt, 1881-
Unbekannte Spanien. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Howells, William Dean, 1837-1920
Familiar Spanish travels. Harper 1913 326p illus o.p. 1939 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 13-22265

"Record of the journey to Spain which was the fulfillment of a life long desire. It is full of the genial personality, the humor, the acute observation and mellow judgments [of] this author." Pratt quarterly

Hutton, Edward, 1875-
Cities of Spain... new ed Macmillan 1924 318p illus $3.50 914.6

1 Cities and towns—Spain 2 Spain—Description and travel 24-27349

First published 1906. With 24 illustrations in color by A. W. Rimington and 20 other illustrations

Contents: On the way; Burgos; Valladolid; Salamanca; Zamora; Avila; Grave of Torquemada; Segovia, Madrid to-day; In old Madrid: Prado gallery, Italian schools in the Prado gallery, El Greco, Ribera, Velasquez, Note on Goya; The Escorial; Toledo; Córdova; Seville; La Corrida; Early Spanish painting and the school of Seville; Jerez; Cadiz: To Morocco; Tangier; Málaga; Granada; Murcia, Alicante, and Valencia; Tarragona; Barcelona

Irving, Washington, 1783-1859

‡ The Alhambra. Handy volume ed Putnam $2.50 914.6

[4-17607]

Also obtainable in various other editions one of which is illustrated by Joseph Pennell (Macmillan $2)

"The 'Alhambra,' which has been called the 'Spanish Sketch Book,' is a beautiful expression of the thoughts and dreams of the author as he muses amid the ruins of the Palace of the Moors. The reader feels that in recording the great struggle which terminated in 1492 with the triumph of Spain, Irving's sympathies are not with the conquering Christians but with the defeated Moslems." Cambridge history of American literature

Laughlin, Clara Elizabeth, 1873-

So you're going to Spain! and if I were going with you, these are the things I'd invite you to do. Houghton 1931 xxxii, 488p illus $3 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 31-4611

"Contains the usual practical information, and much on the history and art of Spain. There is a chapter on 'Motor routes between Seville and Madrid,' a long annotated list of suggested reading, and a list, arranged by month, of the 'Chief events taking place in Spain every year.' " Cleveland

Bibliography: p 464-71

McBride, Robert Medill, 1879-

Spanish towns and people... McBride 255p illus $1.75 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 28-28534

Reprint of a book first published 1925. Illustrated by Edward Caswell. The full page illustrations are omitted in the reprint edition

" 'Spain is a magic land where yesterday and today meet and mingle in harmony, defying time.' Describes, with accurate observation, the cities, their people, and the primitive aspects of life while conveying also the medieval flavor, the austere beauty and the rugged grandeur of the country. Pencil drawings by Edward C. Caswell bear abundant witness to the qualities distinctive of Spain." N.Y. state lib.

Muirhead, Findlay, 1860-1935

(ed.) Northern Spain, with the Balearic islands... Macmillan 1930 cxix,345p illus maps (Blue guides) $6.50 914.6

1 Balearic Islands—Description and travel 2 Spain—Description and travel

[30-21727]

A companion volume to the excellent Blue guide to Southern Spain and Portugal. Contains a complete atlas of northern Spain and thirty-nine other maps and plans

(ed.) Southern Spain and Portugal... Macmillan 1929 cxvi,337p illus maps (Blue guides) $6 914.6

1 Portugal—Description and travel 2 Spain—Description and travel 29-19554

An excellent guide book, which gives also artistic and literary information. Includes Madeira, the Canary Islands, and the Azores. Contains an atlas of Southern Spain and Portugal and 38 other maps and plans

Newman, Edward Manuel, 1870-

Seeing Spain and Morocco; nearly 300 illustrations from original photographs. Funk 1930 383p illus (Newman traveltalks) $1.98 914.6

1 Morocco—Description and travel 2 Spain—Description and travel 30-31725

Generously illustrated volume of the Newman traveltalks series

Oakley, Mrs Amy (Ewing) 1882-

Hill-towns of the Pyrenees; illus. by Thornton Oakley. Appleton-Century 1923 xxiii,449p illus $4 914.6

1 Pyrenees—Description and travel 23-13032

"Very charming, both in text and illustrations. Describes country much of which is little known to tourists." Wis. bul.

Peers, Edgar Allison

Pyrenees, French and Spanish. Harrap 1932 270p illus (Kitbag travel books) o.p. 1939 914.6

1 France—Description and travel 2 Pyrenees—Description and travel 3 Spain—Description and travel 33-10434

A well-illustrated guide, both historical and descriptive

Thomas, Lowell Jackson, 1892- and Schoonmaker, Frank

Spain. Simon & Schuster 1932 260p maps (American travelers' guide bk.) $2.50 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 32-17884

"As far as completeness is concerned, the Guidebook can not and does not pretend to compete with . . . existing guides . . . This, then, is The Travelers' Guidebook—a light, cheap volume, . . . which covers merely the places in Spain worth going more than a mile or so to see. [Bibliography]" Introductory note

Tomlinson, Henry Major, 1873-

South to Cadiz. Harper 1934 195p $2 914.6

1 Spain—Description and travel 34-28456

Published in England under title: Granada

"Accompanied by three companions the author made a holiday jaunt to Spain, and the book is in the main an account of their conversations and their sight-seeing while there. The book contains also two unrelated chapters, one describing the effect of the lore of ships upon a London boy; the other an essay on Thoreau and Emerson." Book rev. digest

"The twin pleasures of contact with one of the finest of contemporary prose styles and with a charming spirit are to be had in every page of the present volume, and taken at this valuation, it deserves recommendation." Sat. rev. of lit.

914.67 Balearic Islands

Chamberlin, Frederick Carleton, 1870-

Balearics and their peoples... Lane 1927 261p illus maps 8s 6d 914.67

1 Balearic Islands 27-23327

Formerly carried also by Dodd

"A comprehensive description of Majorca, Minorca, and the lesser islands of the Balearics which takes up the geography and history, folklore and folkways, the flora and fauna of the islands, and

Chamberlin, Frederick C.—Continued
the daily life of the people. The book closes with a survey of the megalithic monuments of Minorca. Photographs and maps yield supplementary information." Book rev. digest

914.68 Andalusia

In addition to the titles listed below, the following is also recommended:

Maugham, W. S. Andalusia, the land of the blessed Virgin. Knopf 1935 238p pa 50c Reprint of author's "Land of the blessed Virgin" published 1920

Nexö, Martin Andersen, 1869-
Days in the sun; authorized tr. from the Danish by J. W. Hartmann. Allen, G. 1929 297p 12s 6d 914.68

1 Andalusia—Description and travel
[29-6773]

Travel sketches and interpretations of the people of Spain, especially of Andalusia "An impression of Spain seen through the eyes of a European—a sensitive and critical cosmopolitan personality. . . Intimate dialogue runs through the whole book." N.Y. Times

914.69 Portugal

Gordon, Jan, 1882- and Gordon, Mrs Cora Josephine (Turner)
Portuguese somersault... McBride 1935 311p illus map $3 914.69

1 Portugal—Description and travel
35-27340

"Describes two visits to Portugal, the first in 1926 and the second in 1933. On the first occasion the authors made the common mistake of considering Portugal in terms of Spain, whereas in fact the two countries are the very antithesis of one another. . . This distinction the Gordons came to appreciate on their return, and the somersault in their ideas had meanwhile been accompanied by a similar somersault in the conditions of the country." Spectator

"A series of fascinating glimpses of very natural people in settings that are picturesque or ugly, as the case may be. . . Their pen-and-ink illustrations are an admirable supplement to a graphic narrative." N.Y. Times

Marden, Philip Sanford, 1874-
Wayfarer in Portugal... Houghton 1927 210p illus $2 914.69

1 Portugal—Description and travel
28-6639

"This ably written narrative, with much guidebook information included, traces the author's journey from Lisbon in the south of Portugal along the coast, and on into northern Spain to where Corunna lies, an ancient but perpetually gay and youthful seaport. The side excursions described extend into the interior of Portugal as far as the Spanish frontier." Bkl.

914.7 Russia

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Block, L. A. ed. Pocket guide to the Soviet union. Intourist 1932 706p maps $1

Duranty, Walter. Duranty reports Russia; selected and arranged by Gustavus Tuckerman, jr., with a personal note on the author by Alexander Woollcott. Viking 1934 401p $2.75

Hindus, M. G. Humanity uprooted; drawings by Arthur Hawkins, jr. Random house 1929 369p illus $3.50

Hindus, M. G. Red bread. Smith, H. 372p illus o.p. 1939

Baring, Maurice, 1874-
What I saw in Russia. Heinemann 1927 386p front 10s 6d 914.7

1 Russia—Politics and government 2 Russia—Social conditions 3 Russo-Japanese war, 1904-1905 [A13-2029]

"Three separate books went to the making of [this book]: 'With the Russians in Manchuria': impressions of the Russo-Japanese War, 1904-1905. . . 'A Year in Russia' (the record of a momentous year in the political history of Russia, 1905-1906); and 'Russian Essays and Studies' . . . It has been my object to collect in one volume such records of things seen in Russia which might still be of interest to the English reader, and to string them on one thread. The Russia which is described (a Russia of transition) is now a thing of the past." Preface

Chamberlin, William Henry, 1897-
* Russia's iron age. Little 1934 400p illus $4 914.7

1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—Economic conditions 3 Russia—Economic policy—Five year plan (1928-1932) 4 Russia—Economic policy—Five year plan, Second (1933-1937) 5 Russia—Politics and government 6 Russia—Social conditions 34-27291

"A book that is likely to take rank as the most important publication on Russia for several years. The author's previous book 'Soviet Russia' has long been considered one of the soundest on the subject. The new work is of the same quality and, in addition, the author permits himself greater freedom of expression, having left Moscow for a post in the Far East. By Iron age he signifies the period since 1929, when intensive industrialization began." Wis. bul.

Soviet Russia; a living record and a history. rev ed Little 1931 486p illus map $3.50 914.7

1 Russia—Economic conditions 2 Russia—Politics and government 3 Russia—Social conditions 4 Socialism in Russia 5 Soviet 31-33487

"A revised edition of one of the best books on Russia for the general reader. Two new chapters have been added dealing with the working out of the five year plan. The chapter on revolutionary personalities has been revised to take in the newer figures, and statements now outdated have been corrected thruout the work." Wis. bul.

A comprehensive record of Russian conditions made by an American. "Mr. Chamberlin has lived for seven years in Russia as a correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor. Most of the time he has stayed in Moscow, but he has also traveled extensively in the country. . . As a result the book is filled with information. There are nineteen chapters: the first about the historical background and the last about the probable future of Russia. Between these two there are studies of every aspect of Soviet life: of the organization of the Communist Party, the rivalry of the leaders for power, the superior position of the industrial workers, the fight against the 'rich' peasants and the establishment of collective farms, the question of nationalities, the tendencies of foreign policy, etc." Boston

Chamberlin, William H.—Continued
Bibliography: p459-67

Citrine, Sir Walter McLennan, 1887-
I search for truth in Russia. Dutton 1937 368p illus map $3 914.7
1 Labor and laboring classes—Russia 2 Russia—Description and travel 3 Russia—Economic conditions 4 Russia—Social conditions 5 Trade unions—Russia
[36-32585]
"The author speaks truly in his title and his conclusions seem uncommonly fair. President of the International federation of trade unions, general secretary of the Trade union congress, the author was in a position to know labor, industrial, and social conditions all over the world. He was accustomed to extracting the maximum significance from statistics and statements which other visitors usually accepted at face value. A highly diverting and readable account." Cincinnati

Duranty, Walter
I write as I please. Blue ribbon bks. 347p (Halcyon house) $1.49 914.7
1 Baltic states 2 Russia—Description and travel 3 Russia—Economic conditions 4 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 35-27404
Formerly carried by Simon & Schuster
"Part history, mainly of Russia since 1920 (where author has been Moscow correspondent of the New York Times), part journalism, and part autobiography, this work tells of the author's life in the famine of 1921-1922, of the five-year plan, of the collective farms, of trials, political and religious, interwoven with bits of personal reminiscence, humour, and philosophy." Coventry. Public libraries
"Series of remarkable incidents which illuminate the scene he surveys; it is safe to say that many of them will figure in the footnotes of historians for years to come. His pages are always exciting, often amusing, and never insignificant." New statesman and Nation

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-
Vagabond in Sovietland; America's perennial rambler goes tourist; with forty-five reproductions of photographs and a map. Stokes 1935 267p illus $2.75 914.7
1 Russia—Description and travel 2 Russia—Social conditions 35-3406
"An experienced traveler, who chose to see Russia under the guidance of Intourist, comments in an agreeable, informing way on what he saw, heard, ate, and thought during his month's stay in Russia. Although his remarks are not profound, the book is easy, pleasant reading." Cincinnati

Gide, André Paul Guillaume, 1869-
Return from the U.S.S.R.; tr. from the French by Dorothy Bussy. Knopf 1937 94p $1 914.7
1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—Description and travel 37-6130
Published in England under title: Back from the U.S.S.R.
"A record of the author's observations during a . . . visit to Russia. Gide had for a long time expressed great admiration for the U.S.S.R. and when this book appeared revealing his disappointment and disillusion it created a sensation in France." Book rev. digest
"His pages are filled with a profound concern for the ultimate fate of what was once a great artistic, literary and cultural tradition. The tormented visions evoked by his pen continue to haunt the reader's memory long after he has finished Gide's all-too-short volume." N.Y. Times
A. P. G. Gide's "Afterthoughts on the U.S.S.R." (Dial press 1938 142p $1.50) is a reply to criticisms of his former book

Hindus, Maurice Gerschon, 1891-
Broken earth; with an introduction by Glenn Frank. new ed Smith, H. 1931 285p o.p. 1939 914.7
1 Peasantry—Russia 2 Russia—Social life and customs 31-32434
First published 1926. The only new material in the 1931 edition is the concluding chapter which records the subsequent fortunes of some of the outstanding characters in the book
"A journalist who came to America as a Russian immigrant, . . . revisited his birthplace in central Russia, going from village to village and talking, working and playing with the peasants. He describes most readably the present status of the peasant, his reaction to Soviet rule, and his probable social and political progress." Cleveland

Great offensive. Random house 1933 368p illus $3 914.7
1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—Civilization 3 Russia—Description and travel 4 Russia—Economic conditions 5 Russia—Social conditions 33-27436
"In this book, written during and immediately after his latest visit to Russia. Hindus continues his narratives of Russia's great social experiment. . . The Russians have waged their fight for a new world on two fronts, the economic and the sociological. The Great Offensive describes in Part one the making of a new economic order; in Part two the creating of a new human personality." Book rev. digest
"This book maintains the standard of the earlier works on Russia which the author has written. Hardly anyone else has the intimacy of contact with the Russian scene of Mr. Hindus." Sat. rev. of lit.

Littlepage, John D.
In search of Soviet gold, by J. D. Littlepage and Demaree Bess. Harcourt 1938 310p $2.75 914.7
1 Gold mines and mining 2 Russia—Social conditions (W) 38-27739
"Account of the life and work of an American mining engineer during the years 1928 to 1937 when he was engaged in an attempt to increase the gold production of Soviet Russia. His story was told to Demaree Bess, for several years Moscow correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor." Book rev. digest
"Whether he writes of work or play, he tells a good yarn—which is likewise timely history." Forum

Lyons, Eugene, 1898-
* Assignment in Utopia. Harcourt 1937 658p $3.50 914.7
1 Communism—Russia 2 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 3 Russia—Description and travel (W) 37-28656
Also obtainable in a reprint at $1.69
An account of the author's years of growing disillusionment in Russia, where he served as an American newspaper correspondent from 1928 to 1934

Lyons, Eugene—Continued
"The story of a man's stubborn fight to hold on to ideals, to integrity of conscience, to a perspective that can swallow the present in its glimpse of the future, to a philosophy of social justice strong enough to carry the blows of injustice." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Newman, Edward Manuel, 1870-
Seeing Russia... Funk 1928 396p illus (Newman traveltalks) $1.98 914.7

1 Russia—Description and travel 2 Russia—Social conditions 28-12555

"The author, widely known as the 'Newman Traveltalks' lecturer, went to Russia to study and observe the human side of conditions under Soviet rule. After two years of hard work he obtained permission of the Soviet government to enter Russia with his cameras, to go where he pleased and photograph what he pleased. His book, describing the sights and impressions of a ten thousand miles' tour has over three hundred illustrations from original photographs." Book rev. digest
Map and bibliography

Skarlatina, Irina
First to go back; an aristocrat in Soviet Russia. Bobbs 1933 o.p. 1939 914.7

1 Russia—Description and travel 33-28372

"A member of the Russian nobility whose experiences in the revolution were given in 'A world can end' [class 92] tells here of a comprehensive tour she made through the Soviet Union with her American husband in 1932. Poignant memories cluster about familiar places, and it is the author's ability to convey the contrasts between the old and new regimes as she notes with keen interest the changes in conditions, in places and in people, that gives the book its special flavor and value." N.Y. libraries

Strong, Anna Louise, 1885-
This Soviet world. Holt 1936 301p o.p. 1939 914.7

1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—Politics and government 3 Russia—Social conditions 36-27260

"In this book the author of 'I change worlds' [class 92] attempts to answer some of the questions that were put to her when she was lecturing in America with reference to the way in which the Soviet system functions. Written with the same devotion to her cause that marked her autobiography." Wis. bul.

Tchernavin, Tatiana
We Soviet women; tr. by N. Alexander. Dutton 1936 304p front $2.50 914.7

1 Russia—Social conditions 2 Women in Russia

"Experiences of fifteen women, acquaintances of the author and representing different classes, in the early years of the Soviet Union and their reactions to the new regime." Pratt quarterly

"These portraits are the work of a natural and skilled writer. . . They are also the work of a keen, critical intelligence that is both candid and fearless, and as such they have their value in appraising the work of the Russian revolution. Mme. Tchernavin makes no pretense of writing as a detached and dispassionate observer." N.Y. Times

Timbres, Harry Garland, 1899-1937, and Timbres, Mrs Rebecca (Janney)
We didn't ask Utopia; a Quaker family in Soviet Russia. Prentice-Hall 1939 290p $2.50 914.7

1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—Description and travel 3 Russia—Social conditions (W) 39-27474

"The short journal, and the few letters, which comprise this little book, were written by two American Quakers, a doctor and his wife, who with their two children, went into Soviet Russia in 1936, to do what they could in the fight against malaria. . . The authors were not communists, though they believed in the aims of Soviet Russia and wanted to do their bit. They neither sat in judgment, not theorized. They were too busy. And the journal ends on a note of appreciation." Book-of-the-month club news

"An intensely human document, containing many a laugh and many a tear and above all the ring of absolute honesty. The Timbres family were not disappointed or frustrated by the restraining hand of the Communist dictatorship because it never touched them at a vital spot." Sat. rev. of lit.

White, William Chapman, 1903-
These Russians. Scribner 1931 376p $3 914.7

1 Russia—Social conditions 31-3919

"For those who want to know about Russia in terms of men and women, rather than 'five year plans', economic development and political scheming. It is an interesting revelation of what the common people are thinking, suffering and doing." Ontario library review

914.71 FINLAND. LAPLAND

Atchley, Willis Waldegrave
Finland; with a chapter on The birds of Finland by P. J. Campbell. Sidgwick 1931 xx,243p illus maps 10s 6d 914.71

1 Birds—Finland 2 Finland 31-33216

"A geographical and demographic survey of Finland, followed by an admirable account of the cultural and political history. Written by a professor of English in the University of Helsingfors; one of the best general books." Foreign affairs bib.

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
Finland on $50. McBride 1938 194p illus map (Fifty dollar ser.) $2.25 914.71

1 Finland—Description and travel (W)

"For fifty dollars the author says—and shows—one can have fourteen comfortable days of sight-seeing in Finland, visit its principal towns, travel over its lakes, journey thru its great forests. The author includes descriptions of city and country with outlines of possible trips and estimates of expenses." Book rev. digest

James, Neill
Petticoat vagabond among the nomads. Scribner 1939 350p illus $2.75 914.71

1 Lapland—Description and travel (W) 39-20057

Description of the author's travels in the region north of the Arctic circle inhabited by the Laplanders. Much of her traveling was done driving reindeer, as she followed the Laplanders on their migrations or attended reindeer round-ups

James, Neill—Continued

"The author writes with hearty enthusiasm for everything from the most scientific method of gutting codfish to the phenomenon of a fragile white cyclamen blooming north of the Arctic Circle. In presenting her accumulated findings she seldom aims at any reflection of a mood or impression but packs each paragraph solid with good hard facts fit for a guide book." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

McBride, Robert Medill, 1879-

Finland and its people, by Robert Medill, [pseud.] McBride 1925 118p illus maps $1.50 914.71

1 Finland—Description and travel 25-10594

"A traveller's guide to the republic of the north—its history, scenery, industries and resources, government, and economic progress. Separate chapters are given to its principal city, Helsingfors, and to the trio of Finnish cities, Abo, Viborg and Tammerfors. There is a chapter also on the great cataract of Imatra." Book rev. digest

Rosvall, Toivo David

Finland; land of heroes; with an illustrated supplement and endpaper map. Dutton 1940 272p 23 plates $2.50 914.71

1 Finland (W) 40-27284

Contents: Always yesterday; Frontier; Land of heroes; Northern night; White city of the north; Sisu; Red cottage

"A charming travel diary, interspersed with history and legend, by a young Finnish-American who has roamed Finland. The informal tone—quiet, humorous, poetic—conveys a good deal of solid information about the country and its people. Excellent photographs." New Yorker

Rothery, Agnes Edwards, 1888-

* Finland, the new nation. Viking 1936 257p illus $3 914.71

1 Finland—Description and travel 2 Finland—Social conditions 36-9982

"An interesting, adequate account of Finland, her history, geographical features, economic policy, industries, exports and imports, cooperative stores, and schools, together with something about her architecture, music, writers, actors and painters. The author's excursions, including a bus trip to the Arctic ocean, and a visit to the Aland islands, offer additional information to the prospective traveler. . . List of principal place names (both in Finnish and Swedish), bibliography." N.Y. libraries

Sutherland, Halliday Gibson, 1882-

Lapland journey. Dodd 1938 281p illus $3 914.71

1 Finland—Description and travel
2 Lapland—Description and travel
3 Lapps (W) 38-27451

"Describes a journey thru Finland and Lapland. He traveled by train, motor bus, small steamer, and reindeer sledge, and saw much of the remote territory of the two countries. Included with his records of interesting conversations en route is something of the history, politics, and customs of the localities he visited." Book rev. digest

"An uncommonly fine travel book." N.Y Times

914.74 BALTIC STATES

Davies, Ellen Chivers, 1889-

* Wayfarer in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania; with 16 plates and a map. McBride 1937 280p illus $2.50 914.74

1 Estonia—Description and travel 2 Latvia—Description and travel 3 Lithuania—Description and travel (W) 37-27497

"Three countries, ancient in origin and civilization, modern in government, where pagan beliefs survive, Byzantine rituals are still practiced in medieval monasteries, where the sea coast is dotted with amber, and naïve, peasant sculpture adorns the wayside shrine." Cincinnati

Seth, Ronald

Estonian journey; travels in a Baltic corner. McBride 1939 234p illus $2.50 914.74

1 Estonia—Description and travel (W) 39-18485

A visit to little-known Estonia describing its cities, towns, ancient fortresses, its culture, and its people

"The book, accurate and informative, is a pocket encyclopaedia of Estonia. Hardly anything of importance relating to the history, geography, architecture or general culture of the country has been omitted." Times (London) lit. sup.

914.75 LITHUANIA

Sacks, Abraham A.

Excursion to Lithuania. Hudson Bay press 1934 308p illus o.p. 1939 914.75

1 Lithuania—Description and travel 34-17339

"Mr. Sacks was born and spent his youth in Lithuania, but emigrated to this country in his middle teens. . . After twenty years [he] made his long-cherished dream of revisiting his homeland come true. He tells all about it, with the greatest detail, from the buying of his tickets to his return journey." N.Y. Times

914.8 SCANDINAVIA

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers

Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, with excursions to Iceland and Spitzbergen; handbook for travellers... 10th ed rev and augm Scribner 1912 lx,478,38p illus maps o.p. 1939 914.8

1 Denmark—Description and travel 2 Iceland—Description and travel 3 Norway—Description and travel 4 Spitsbergen—Description and travel 5 Sweden—Description and travel E12-1205

Gives information about the most interesting scenery of these countries, with notes on their history, language and customs. With 62 maps, 42 plans and groundplans and three panoramas

Čapek, Karel, 1890-1938

Travels in the north; exemplified by the author's own drawings; tr. by M. & R. Weatherall. Macmillan 1939 269p illus $2.25 914.8

1 Scandinavia—Description and travel (W) [39-27237]

On his way north the author pauses long enough to give brief sketches of Denmark and Sweden, but the bulk of his

Čapek, Karel—Continued
book is devoted to Norway and particularly to the lands above the Arctic circle
"Here, indeed, is the unspoilt wide-open eye for beauty, and in abundance the power to express it in words." Times (London) lit. sup.

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-
Scandinavian summer; impressions of five months in Denmark, Finland, Sweden, Norway, and Iceland... Appleton-Century 1930 397p illus $4 914.8
1 Scandinavia—Description and travel
30-14613
Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.25
"The author's five months in the five Scandinavian countries has resulted in a book that conforms more closely to the usual type of travel-book than any of its predecessors, and is full of the sort of information that the average person wishes to have." Pittsburgh

Laughlin, Clara Elizabeth, 1873-
* So you're going to Scandinavia! and if I were going with you these are the things I'd invite you to do. rev ed Houghton 1939 477p illus $3 914.8
1 Scandinavia—Description and travel
(W 1937 ed) 39-20056
First published 1937. Reprinted 1939 with very slight changes
"Denmark first, then Sweden, then Norway, is the order in which the author would have you see the Scandinavian countries. Follows the plan of her other guides and will prove as useful." Wis. bul.

Oakley, Mrs Amy (Ewing) 1882-
* Scandinavia beckons; illus. by Thornton Oakley. Appleton-Century 1938 540p illus $4 914.8
1 Scandinavia—Description and travel
(W) 38-27444
Travel book on Norway, Sweden, Denmark, and Finland, written as a result of two summer vacations spent in those countries. This book stresses the artistic, the picturesque, and personalities. Flagstad, Selma Lagerlof, and Sibelius, are among those whom the author visited.
"Has a distinct character of its own among books about these northern countries. The artist's pencil has caught the shimmering loveliness of those landscapes, as well as their better known grandeur and the sense of the ever-present sea." N.Y. Times

Seaton, George W.
What to see and do in Scandinavia; how to get the most out of your trip to Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Iceland, Finland, and the North Cape. Prentice-Hall 1939 435p illus maps $3.50 914.8
1 Scandinavia—Description and travel
(W) 39-27606
Tells you when and how to go to each country, what to see when you get there, what to do, where and what to eat, and what to buy. In addition, it gives an intimate picture of the people, their lives and customs, history and legends

Skandinavien. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

914.81 Norway

Beckett, Samuel J.
Wayfarer in Norway... McBride 1936 208p illus $2.50 914.81
1 Norway—Description and travel
36-27085
"A guidebook stressing the natural phenomena and Norway's scenic beauty. Gives historic and descriptive material about the cities and settlements of agricultural and fisher folk." Bkl.

Birkeland, Joran
Birchland; a journey home to Norway. Dutton 1939 247p $2.50 914.81
1 Norway—Description and travel
39-20462
"Account of a young American woman's visit to the land of her fathers. Much of the story is concerned with the author's discovery of hitherto unknown uncles, aunts, and cousins, but some observations on economic and social conditions are included, and some comments on differences between American and Norwegian ways of life." Book rev. digest
"That she has been able to convey to her readers the reticences and genuine goodness of middle-class Norwegian folk, the effect upon them of their stern and majestic natural environment, their simple ways of living, and their habits of thought, is a tribute to her ability as a writer." Agnes Rothery in Sat. rev. of lit.

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
Norway on $50; illus. by E. C. Caswell. McBride 1936 183p map (Fifty dollar ser) $2.25 914.81
1 Norway—Description and travel
"Similar in scope to other books in this series. The author plans from ten to twelve days in Norway, the expenditure to be about fifty dollars. Much information of a general character is included." Book rev. digest

Fischer, Karl
(ed.) Norway to-day... 2d ed rev Bonnier 1934 159p illus $5 914.81
1 Norway 34-20985
"Glimpses of modern Norway; its culture, scenery and people, science, literature and art, travel, sport and exploration, natural resources, trade and industries in 76 chapters by leading authorities." Subtitle

Lingstrom, Freda
This is Norway; with a preface by Sir K. F. Knudsen. Howe 1933 152p illus maps 5s 914.81
1 Norway 2 Norway—Description and travel 33-21098
"This little book ... is very ambitious in its scope. In less than 140 pages, it seeks to cover practically every aspect of Norwegian life, as well as to provide a sketch of the national history... If, however, tourists to Norway, take this guide with them, they will find their interests widened and their curiosity to some extent satisfied on many points, and an impulse given deeper study. The work is profusely illustrated with excellent photographs and contains four illustrations in colour by the authoress." Times (London) lit. sup.

McBride, Robert Medill, 1879-
Norwegian towns and people; vistas in the Land of the midnight sun, by Robert Medill [pseud]. McBride 1927 161p illus maps $1.50 914.81

1 Norway—Description and travel
27-17346

First published 1923. The 1927 edition contains the same material with slightly different arrangement and very few minor changes

"This little book, which pictures the physical and human aspects of Norway, succeeds in reproducing the grandeur of the country and the spirit of its people. After an introductory chapter on rural Norway the book takes up its most distinctive towns and cities: the modern cities of Bergen and Christiania [Oslo]; Trondhjem, the ancient capital of the Vikings; Hammerfest, the world's northernmost city. There is a chapter on the fjords and fjelds of Norway and another on the island of Spitzbergen." Book rev. digest

Rothery, Agnes Edwards, 1888-
* Norway; changing and changeless. Viking 1939 294p illus $3 914.81

1 Norway (W) 39-27408

Partial contents: Changeless Norway of the eye; Kings, queens, and princes; Oslo and its lawmakers; Bergen and its musicians; Trondheim and its cathedral; Roofs and rafters; Ibsen returns to Norway; Norway writes its life; Spitsbergen—the frozen rim of the world; Bibliography

"Miss Rothery's revelation of Norway is all that one could ask for in 300 pages turned out at white heat. If her narrative is breathless, her appendices and bibliographies are calm and authentic. . . The illustrations are always original and personal as well as professional; for her husband, who accompanies her, photographs as excitingly as she writes." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

914.85 Sweden

In addition to the titles listed below, the following book is also recommended:
Gordon, Jan, and Gordon, Mrs C. J. T. Two vagabonds in Sweden and Lapland. Lane 1926 323p illus map 5s

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
Sweden on $50; illus. by E. C. Caswell. McBride 1936 207p map (Fifty dollar ser.) $2.25 914.85

1 Sweden—Description and travel

Another of the author's popular travel books. "We shall assume that fifty dollars equal two hundred Swedish crowns (kronor). . . Two hundred kronor should suffice for ten to twelve days in Sweden at a living-and-incidental allowance of 10 kronor a day, and provide the handsome remainder of 80 to 100 kronor for train and boat fares." Author

Hamilton, Cicely Mary, 1875-
* Modern Sweden; as seen by an Englishwoman... Dutton 1939 226p illus $2.75 914.85

1 Sweden (W) 39-30389

"Sweden for the traveller, the historian and the student of politics, by an observant and kindly interpreter." Time and tide

"While not exactly a guidebook, inasmuch as the imparting of pure travel information is not its purpose, this handy-sized volume can be wholeheartedly recommended to anyone visiting or intending to visit Sweden." Sat. rev. of lit.

McBride, Robert Medill, 1879-
Sweden and its people, by Robert Medill [pseud]. McBride 1924 114p illus map $1.50 914.85

1 Sweden—Description and travel
24-18256

"An attractive little book for the prospective traveller in Sweden. Not a formal guidebook, but gives an enthusiastic description of the parts of the country usually frequented by tourists and touches slightly on the history and manners and customs." Cleveland

Rothery, Agnes Edwards, 1888-
* Sweden, the land and the people. Viking 1934 277p illus $3 914.85

1 Sweden—Description and travel 34-5302

"A successful compromise between the informational guide book and the travel book for pleasurable reading. In an interesting manner gives an account of present day Sweden, its architecture, arts and crafts, cooperative societies, form of government, cities and scenery, with attractive illustrations." Wis. bul.

Bibliography: p257-64

Swedish traffic association, Stockholm
Sweden—ancient and modern. Bonnier 1938 245p illus maps $1.50 914.85

1 Sweden (W)

"Aims at making Sweden better known to the English-speaking world. Conditions in present-day Sweden are shown against a background of centuries of development, the account being supplemented by a sketch of the country's scenic beauties. The book is written in popular style, but the attempt to make it easy to read has not precluded the incorporation of a great deal of exact information that will help the reader to form a true and clear conception of the land and the people. The whole book has been planned and edited by Herr Rolf Grauers, who has himself written the greater part of the text." Preface

914.89 Denmark

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
Denmark on fifty dollars; illus. by E. C. Caswell. McBride 1937 193p illus (Fifty dollar ser.) $2.25 914.89

1 Denmark—Description and travel

Published in England under title: Denmark on £10

"Mr. Clark has not only the spirit of travel but a sense of fun and humor which wins friends for his books and confidence in him. His descriptions and taste are excellent, and he shows the reader how and where to economize without losing the joys of traveling." Cincinnati

Holland, Clive, 1866-
Denmark, the land and its people; with thirty-three illus. from the author's and other photographs, and map. Dodd 1932 179p illus o.p. 1939 914.89

1 Denmark—Description and travel
32-22077

A well illustrated descriptive and historical guide

Rothery, Agnes Edwards, 1888-

* Denmark; kingdom of reason. Viking 1937 275p illus maps $3 914.89

1 Denmark—Description and travel
2 Denmark—Economic conditions
(W) 37-7385

"The author does for Denmark what she has already done for Finland and Sweden: provides a modern guide to the country and an interpretation of its people and civilization. For the latter there is little but praise: 'Denmark, the oldest kingdom in the world, is also one of the wisest and happiest.' Attractive illustrations, bibliography of nine pages, and good index." Wis. bul.

914.91 ICELAND

Chapman, Olive Murray

Across Iceland, the land of frost and fire; with eight illus. in colour, forty-six in black and white from the author's water-colour drawings, photographs and a map. Lane 1930 193p illus 5s 914.91

1 Iceland—Description and travel
[30-25261]

The author's account of her visit to Iceland "is worthy of attention for the pluck with which she adventured by herself into the unknown, and for the sociability which put her at once on terms of intimacy with the people. Her itinerary is clearly set out, and to assist those whom she may tempt to follow her example she has appended 'Hints for the Traveller' and a sketch map. The appeal of the book is wider in that she is interested in art as well as in travel." Times (London) lit. sup.

Stefansson, Vilhjalmur, 1879-

Iceland; the first American republic. Doubleday 1939 xxxviii,275p illus maps $3.50 914.91

1 Iceland (W) 39-27694

Contents: Iceland and its history; Literature; Iceland today; Education; Medical services; Health and social conditions; Co-operative movement in Iceland; Agriculture; Fisheries; Other industries; Commerce; Communications; Iceland for tourists; Icelanders in the Americas; Bibliography

"Where information about Iceland is needed, this book . . . will be welcomed as a matter-of-fact account. One chapter gives hints for tourists." Bkl.

914.92 NETHERLANDS

Barnouw, Adriaan Jacob, 1877-

* The Dutch; a portrait study of the people of Holland. Columbia univ. press 1940 297p $3 914.92

1 National characteristics, Dutch
2 Netherlands—Civilization
40-5860

"Readable, intimate, character studies of the Dutch people—their outstanding traits, their language, literature, religion, politics, and system of democratic monarchy. Written by a native Hollander who is a professor in Columbia university, the book has the flavor of the Dutch countryside and is warmly sympathetic toward its independent citizens." Bkl.

Bowen, Marjorie, pseud.

Holland; being a general survey of the Netherlands commonly called Holland. Doubleday 1928 252p illus map o.p. 1939 914.92

1 Netherlands—Description and travel
29-2557

"Miss Bowen has considered the provinces as a whole, and picks out the chief characteristics of life and manners and the appearance of the country and the towns, leaving the traveller to fill in the details on the spot. . . . The book is at times a little lacking in historical perspective and balance. . . Nevertheless, we commend the book unhesitatingly to all travellers to Holland. The quiet unmannered style reflects the simple dignity of the country and the people and the photographs are excellent." Times (London) lit. sup.
Bibliography: p242-43

Čapek, Karel, 1890-1938

Letters from Holland; tr. from the Czech by Paul Selver. Putnam 1933 104p illus $1.50 914.92

1 Netherlands—Description and travel
33-14956

"Informal, genial chapters describing Holland—its neat, small towns, placidly reflected in its canals, its neat, green meadows with placid, piebald cows, its harbors, seashore, highways and byways, architecture, and old masters. The book is gaily and cleverly illustrated with small sketches by the author." Book rev. digest

"Karel Capek, in this delightful little book, has caught the atmosphere of Holland surprisingly well. The chapter 'Pastoral' is perfect, as any one who has taken the train from Dordrecht to the Hague will know." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-

* Holland on $50; illus. by E. C. Caswell. McBride 1936 187p illus (Fifty dollar ser.) $2.25 914.92

1 Netherlands—Description and travel

One of the author's series of travel books. He bases the budget on the proposition that fifty dollars fetch only seventy-five Dutch guilders

De Leeuw, Adèle Louise, 1899-

Flavor of Holland... Appleton-Century 1928 344p illus $3.50 914.92

1 Netherlands—Description and travel
28-22073

"A charming travelog on Holland which gives an intimate picture of the people, their customs, and environment. Well illustrated." Bkl.

"Miss de Leeuw has chosen for her book a most fitting title, for she has somehow managed to catch and imprison in her pages that distinctive national charm, which any country has for those who love, admire and understand it and its people." N.Y. Times

De Leeuw, Hendrik

Crossroads of the Zuider zee. Lippincott 1938 377p illus map $3 914.92

1 Netherlands (W) 38-27459

"This book by a Holland-born American writer, is in two parts: part one, in informal style, reviews Holland's history from prehistoric times to the 'birth of the last Royal sprig.' Part two tells the tale of the author's recent visit to the land of his forefathers and incorporates advice to American tourists on what to see and do in Holland. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

Lucas, Edward Verrall, 1868-1938
Wanderer in Holland... 18th ed rev Macmillan 1924 315p illus $3.50 914.92

1 Netherlands—Description and travel
25-26119

A pleasant travel book, first published in 1905. The author visited the country again in 1922 and some few necessary changes have been made. With twenty illustrations by Herbert Marshall and thirty-six illustrations after old Dutch masters. Map

"It is a series of personal impressions of the Dutch country and the Dutch people. . . together with an accretion of matter, more or less pertinent, drawn from many sources, old and new." Preface to 1st edition

Muirhead, Findlay, 1890-1935, and Muirhead, Litellus Russell, 1896-
(eds.) Holland and the Rhine; with a complete atlas of Holland and the Rhine and 48 other maps and plans. Macmillan 1933 447p illus maps (Blue guides) $4.25 914.92

1 Netherlands—Description and travel 2 Rhine river and valley—Description and travel
33-35433

Covers the "Kingdom of the Netherlands and describes the course of the Rhine from the sea, up through the romantic gorges of its middle reaches, to the ancient city of Speyer, a few miles above the influx of the Neckar, the highest of the famous German tributary streams." Preface

Van Loon, Hendrik Willem, 1882-
Indiscreet itinery; or, How the unconventional traveler should see Holland, by one who actually was born there and whose name is Hendrik Willem Van Loon. Harcourt 1933 117p illus $1 914.92

1 Netherlands—Description and travel
33-27187

"Hendrik Willem van Loon in his astonishing little book packs all the information one needs for a successful trip through Holland. It is compact without ever being dry. At the same time there is a warmth of feeling, an understanding which makes it much more than a simple travel guide." Sat. rev. of lit.

914.93 BELGIUM

In addition to the titles listed below, the following is also recommended:

Andrews, C. E. A. Belgium; with 24 illus. and two maps. Methuen 1932 307p illus map (Little guides) o.p. 1939

Anderson, Mrs Isabel Weld (Perkins) 1876-
Spell of Belgium. Page 1915 442p illus map (Spell ser.) $3.75 914.93

1 Belgium
15-22269

"Belgium described by the wife of a former American ambassador. There are interesting chapters on Belgian politics and Belgian arts, particularly tapestry and lace making, and also on the intimate family life in the royal palace. . . The legends of Antwerp, set down by the Flemish historian Sleeck are here first translated and the book is enhanced by many colored illustrations. Cleveland

Map and bibliography

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers
Belgium and Luxemburg; handbook for travellers... 16th rev ed Scribner 1931 xlix,366p illus maps $5 914.93

1 Belgium—Description and travel 2 Luxemburg—Description and travel
31-28247

Former edition had title "Belgium and Holland." Includes a bibliography

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
* Belgium on $50 (with Luxemburg) illus. by E. C. Caswell. McBride 1935 174p illus map (Fifty dollar ser.) $1.90 914.93

1 Belgium—Description and travel

"With his usual scrupulous attention to a fifty-dollar budget, the author, to whom Belgium has long been 'a happy hunting ground,' offers up-to-date information on hotels, restaurants and railroads, and suggests cities to visit and what to see from the historic, scenic and artistic viewpoint. Map." N.Y. libraries

Many-colored Belgium... McBride 1931 247p illus $3 914.93

1 Belgium—Description and travel
31-12836

"A pleasantly informal and informing book, highly recommended to those who expect to visit Belgium. Mr. Clark loves this small kingdom, and writes with understanding of its cities, seaside resorts, and forests, its people and their history, art, architecture and customs. Illustrated." Cleveland

Gibson, Hugh, 1883-
* Belgium. . . Doubleday 1939 347p illus $3.50 914.93

1 Belgium 2 Belgium—Description and travel (W) 39-27653

The country and its people presented by the man who has twice served as American Ambassador to Belgium. History, art, cities large and small, customs and scenery are all covered. Bibliography

"A credit to both its author and its subject. It is the sort of book that can be used as an adjunct to Baedeker while the traveller is on tour, and that, when he wishes to relive his experiences in memory, will be just the stimulant to recollection that he needs." Sat. rev. of lit.

Muirhead, Findlay, 1860-1935, and Monmarché, Marcel, 1872-
(eds.) Belgium and Luxembourg. . . 3d ed Macmillan 1929 lxxii,248p illus maps (Blue guides) $3.75 914.93

1 Belgium—Description and travel 2 European war, 1914-1918—Battle-fields 3 Luxemburg—Description and travel
29-16602

Contains besides the usual useful information found in this series of guide-books, a historical sketch of Belgium; Art in Belgium, by Jacques Mesnil; The British campaigns in the West, by Sir Frederick Maurice; The Belgian battlefields; War graves in Belgium; Carillons in Belgium. 33 maps and plans

914.94 SWITZERLAND

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers
Switzerland together with Chamonix and the Italian lakes; handbook for travellers. . . 28th rev ed Scribner 1938 lvii,600p maps $6 914.94

1 Switzerland—Description and travel 38-21509

"First published 1863. The 28th ed "embodies the most recent information obtained from the most trustworthy sources. . . Maps and plans have been revised." Preface to 28th edition.

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
Switzerland on $50; illus. by E. C. Caswell. McBride 1934 206p illus map (Fifty dollar ser.) $2.25 914.94

1 Switzerland—Description and travel

"How to see Switzerland on fifty dollars in a comfortable but thrifty manner is crowded into this brief book. It provides for two weeks of adventure in train, boat and bus, and enough of the quaint Swiss villages to satisfy the most strenuous vacationist." Cincinnati

Hürlimann, Martin, 1897-
Schweiz im orbis terrarum. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Lunn, Arnold Henry Moore, 1888-
Exploration of the Alps. Holt 1914 256p illus (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 914.94

1 Alps—Description and travel 2 Mountaineering 14-17886

"The book opens with an interesting chapter on the medieval attitude toward mountains. This is followed by an account of Hannibal's famous crossing of the Alps, and after that comes the record of later ascents and explorations, in chapters as follows: The opening up of the Alps; The story of Mont Blanc; Monte Rosa and the Bündner Oberland; Tirol and the Oberland; The coming of the English; The story of the Matterhorn; Modern mountaineering; with a concluding chapter on The Alps in literature." Book rev. digest

Bibliography: p251-54

Switzerland; her topographical, historical and literary landmarks. Doubleday 1928 308p illus map (Kitbag travel books) o.p. 1939 914.94

1 Alps—Description and travel 2 Switzerland—Description and travel 28-21928

"An admirable little guide. It is more than that, for the author has pleasantly introduced many passages on the historical and literary associations of the country which are far from being mere padding." Nation and Athenaeum

Muirhead, Findlay, 1860-1935
(ed.) Switzerland, with Chamonix and the Italian lakes. . . 2d ed Macmillan 1930 lxii,508p illus maps (Blue guides) $5.50 914.94

1 Switzerland—Description and travel 30-24134

"Another of the excellent 'Blue guides.' Practical details of travel are given, and full information as to railway and coaching facilities, as well as suggestive expeditions for the pedestrian, some of the best ascents for the mountain climber, and routes for the motorist." Cleveland

Muirhead, James Fullarton, 1853-1934
Wayfarer in Switzerland; with twenty-four illus. and an end-paper map. Methuen 1926 236p illus 7s 6d 914.94

1 Switzerland—Description and travel [26-27703]

Formerly carried also by Houghton

"Not a guide-book and not a compendium, but something of each. Against a slight background of the facts that everyone ought to know about Switzerland, the author has dealt with those Swiss places and themes that most interested him, especially when they seemed among those least adequately handled by previous English writers." Preface

"The scenery, mountains and winter sports are better dealt with than usual, which is high praise, for Switzerland is the most-described country on earth, but there is much more in the book than this." Spectator

914.95 GREECE

Books which cover both ancient and modern Greece are classified in 913.38. Material on modern Greece only is entered below

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-
I discover Greece. . . Appleton-Century 1929 359p illus $4 914.95

1 Greece, Modern—Description and travel 29-9765

"Wherein an incurable nomad sets forth, what befell him and an artist friend during a labyrinthine summer journey through modern Hellas." Subtitle

"The author brought some of the enthusiasm of his earlier journeyings to this first visit to Greece. It is modern Greece that is pictured, with only an occasional glance at what remains of the old." Wis. bul.

Gardner, Ernest Arthur, 1862-
Greece and the Ægean; with a preface by Lord Rennell of Rodd and a chapter on Constantinople by S. Casson. Harrap 1933 254p illus maps 7s 6d 914.95

1 Greece, Modern—Description and travel 33-14313

Formerly carried also by McBride

"This is more than a guide book; it is a vivid, fascinating key to the history, the lore, the customs which make Greece an enchanted country to visit. The author's love for his subject imparts a fine glow to his description." Cincinnati

Hutton, Edward, 1875-
Glimpse of Greece. Macmillan 1928 324p illus map $6 914.95

1 Greece, Modern—Description and travel 29-7860

"Running thru this book of journeys in Greece are concurrent streams of history, literature, and conversation with Norman Douglas, who was the author's companion on some of his journeyings." Book rev. digest

"This is decidedly an addition to the shelf of books that both instigate and assist the art of humane, individualistic travel." New statesman

914.96 Balkan States. Turkey in Europe

Dwight, Harry Griswold, 1875-

Constantinople, settings and traits. Harper 1926 xxiv,581p illus o.p. 1939 914.96

1 Constantinople—Description 26-20747

"A revised edition of the author's 'Constantinople, old and new,' published without his consent in 1915. The writer in his attempt 'to catch the colour of Constantinople as it looks to one who lives there,' has given an appealingly sympathetic impression of the beauty and romantic charm of the city. Illustrated by extraordinarily fine photographs." Cleveland

"One of the best kind of presentable and careful travel books, written not ambitiously but from expert knowledge . . . it should remain a book that will explain most things, trivial as well as historical." New statesman

Bibliography: p559-67

Gordon, Jan, 1882- and Gordon, Mrs Cora Josephine (Turner)

Two vagabonds in Albania. Lane 1927 304p illus maps 5s 914.96

1 Albania—Description and travel 27-26976

Formerly carried also by Dodd

"The vagabonds of many wanderings. . . have been to Albania, and have, as in the other cases, given an agreeable account of their impressions of this, that and the other phase of Albanian civilization. They do not tell anything very new about Albania, but what they tell, and the manner in which they tell it, make good reading. The drawings in black and white give an added pleasantness to the book." Providence

"The Gordons are neither politicians nor propagandists, but something far better and rarer—trustworthy and charming guides, who contrive to give us a real sense of Albania as it is to-day and a just estimate of the people and scenes they visit." Spectator

Two vagabonds in the Balkans. Lane 1925 5s 914.96

1 Balkan peninsula—Description and travel 2 Balkan peninsula—Social life and customs [25-7876]

Formerly carried also by McBride

An interesting book which describes wanderings in Bosnia, Herzegovina and Dalmatia. No map

"Everyone will be interested in the mixture of homely philosophy and keen observation which is revealed alike in the lively sketches of Mrs. Gordon and the able writing of her husband." Saturday rev.

Lengyel, Emil, 1895-

* The Danube. Random house 1939 482p illus maps $3.75 914.96

1 Danube river 2 Europe—Politics—1914- (W) 39-27920

A biography of the fateful Danube during the two thousand years of its history, giving short sketches of the history and life of Austria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Yugoslavia and Rumania

"Any one not a student of central and eastern European affairs who wants to know more about that part of world without being overwhelmed by too great a mass of historical and statistical information, will find this volume on the Danube as useful as it is good reading." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

914.97 Yugoslavia

Adamic, Louis, 1899-

‡ Native's return; an American immigrant visits Yugoslavia and discovers his old country. Harper 1934 370p illus $2.75 914.97

1 Yugoslavia—Description and travel 34-2193

The author tells of a visit to his native Yugoslavia after nineteen years' absence in America

"I know of no recent travel book that is so rich in the information that really counts; not descriptions of cathedrals, castles, and scenery, though there is enough of this, but conversations with the great and the little; analyses of the nature of literature, art, and the homely philosophy of the native; frank exposures of the pull and haul of predatory interests, graft, prejudice, cruelty, and all that goes on beneath the surface that ordinary tourists see—best of all studies of types of character that Europe still possesses and Americans can envy." Sat. rev. of lit.

Edwards, Lovett Fielding

Wayfarer in Yugoslavia. . . McBride 1939 272p illus $2.75 914.97

1 Yugoslavia—Description and travel (W) 39-27314

Partial contents: Susak; Krk: Rab; Zrmanja; Šibenik; Omi; Vis; Dubrovnik; Ulcinj; Land of the Black mountain; Forest country; Banja Luka; Zagreb; Slovenia; Belgrade; South Serbia; Bibliography

"His book is full of names which are entirely strange to most readers, and packed with detail which needs to be followed with some care. But it is well and clearly written; its maps are helpful; its sixteen photographs are informative as well as picturesque. The book's interest is not only pertinent but haunting and human." N.Y. Times

Ellison, Grace Mary, d. 1935

Yugoslavia; a new country and its people; with 49 illus. from photographs, an illus. from a water-colour drawing by Frank Brangwyn, and two sketch-maps. Lane 1933 304p illus maps o.p. 1939 914.97

1 Yugoslavia—Description and travel 33-32445

"A delightful travel book describing in detail the appeal that each of the six divisions of this Slav Kingdom has for the traveller; Slovenia for its mountaineering; Croatia for its beautiful scenery; South Serbia for its Byzantine art and unique monasteries; Bosnia and Herzegovina for the Near East as it can be seen in Constantinople to-day; Montenegro for its historic interest, and finally Dalmatia, one of the world's playgrounds. Contains many clever pen-portraits of famous Yugoslav personalities" Ontario library review

914.98 Rumania

Patmore, Derek, 1908-

Invitation to Roumania. Macmillan 1939 157p illus $3 914.98

1 Rumania—Description and travel 2 Rumania—Social life and customs [39-21575]

"Account of a visit of several months duration in the summer of 1938. The author went to Rumania on the invitation of an aristocratic friend and spent his time in the city and country homes of the nobility, but he also was interested in the lives and manners and customs of the peasants, whom he calls the backbone of the country." Book rev. digest

Patmore, Derek—Continued
"It is a pleasant and picturesque book, not devoid of reference to matters of timely or lasting interest. . . [However] it is in the pictures that this book has its real distinction." N.Y. Times

Sitwell, Sacheverell, 1897-
Roumanian journey; illus. from photographs by A. Costa, Richard Wyndham, and others. Scribner 1938 120p illus $3.50 914.98
1 Rumania—Description and travel
(W) 39-32227
The book "is precisely what its title indicates: a travel book which is the record of things seen, heard and discovered on one journey—four weeks last Summer, to be exact. It might as accurately have been called 'Rumanian Pageant,' for in its point of view and its writing it is essentially pictorial. . . . As part of the spectacle the book is magnificently illustrated with many photographs and several color prints, and supplied also with a decorative map of the author's journey." N.Y. Times

915 ASIA

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:
Dos Passos, J. R. Orient express. Harper 1927 221p o.p. 1939
Forman, Harrison. Horizon hunter; the adventures of a modern Marco Polo. . . McBride 1940 314p illus maps $3 (W) Travels in China, Japan, Tibet, etc.
Foster, H. La T. Beachcomber in the Orient. Dodd 1923 395p illus o.p. 1939
Gardner, Mona. Menacing sun. Harcourt 1939 xx,338p illus $2.50 (W) Travel sketches of Indo-China, Siam, Malaya, Java and India
Huc, E. R. Travels in Tartary. Knopf 229p illus map o.p. 1939 An old book that is still of interest. Records travels across Mongolia to Lhasa, 1844-46

Andrews, Roy Chapman, 1884-
* Ends of the earth. . . Putnam 1929 355p illus $5 915
1 East (Far East) 2 Hunting 3 Whales 4 Whaling 29-20769
"As a taxidermist of the American museum of natural history Mr Chapman went on whaling expeditions to the Dutch East Indies and off the coast of China. The explorer also writes of a sealing expedition, some adventuresome happenings in Korea, life in China, and hunting trips in Mongolia and other 'ends of the earth.'" Book rev. digest
"As a whole the book makes inspiring reading; nor is the learning of the scientist allowed to cloud its pages with obscurity. Mr. Andrew's breathless, running sentences seem to mirror his active and questing spirit." Times (London) lit. sup.

Beebe, William, 1877-
Pheasant jungles. . . Putnam 1927 248p illus $3 915
1 East (Far East)—Description and travel 2 Natural history—East (Far East) 27-4404
"William Beebe's hunt for rare pheasants carried him to Ceylon, Sikhim, Burma, the Himalayas, Borneo and the Malay peninsula. The results of this scientific undertaking for the New York zoological society were first described in a long and expensive monograph. The essays which make up 'Pheasant jungles' are by-products of the monograph and are devoted to the more human and personal observations of jungle life. Illustrated with 60 most interesting photographs." Book rev. digest
" 'Pheasant jungles' combines some of the most acute of the author's zoological observations with entrancing descriptions of natural phenomena, accounts of real adventure, and even frequent outcroppings of humor, which as a rule is none too common in his work." Literary rev.

Dulles, Foster Rhea, 1900-
Eastward ho! the first English adventurers to the Orient: Richard Chancellor, Anthony Jenkinson, James Lancaster, William Adams, Sir Thomas Roe. . . . Houghton 1931 199p illus maps $5 915
1 Asia—Description and travel 2 East India company (English) 3 Great Britain—Commerce 4 Russia company, London 5 Voyages and travels 31-26553
"Authentic and readable tales of the first daring English merchant adventurers who in the 16th and 17th centuries 'laid the foundation for English trade in the East, and all unknowing pointed the way to empire.' Extracts from diaries and letters give a contemporary flavor. Reproductions of old prints and maps. Notes, sources and index." N.Y. libraries

Grenfell, Sir Wilfred Thomason, 1865-1940
Labrador looks at the Orient; notes of travel in the Near and the Far East. Houghton 1928 297p illus $5 915
1 East (Far East)—Description and travel 2 Egypt—Description and travel 3 Palestine—Description and travel 28-25069
"This log of a vacation trip around the world by the famous missionary doctor is vibrant with his charming personality and replete with acute and humorous observation." Sat. rev. of lit.
"The opinions of the writer are, as might be expected from the stalwart and earnest character of his work on the Labrador coast, at once robust and enthusiastic. . . Merely as a book of travel 'Labrador Looks at the Orient' is eminently worth reading and still more so as the record of the first-hand impressions of Sir Wilfred." Spectator

Hedin, Sven Anders, 1865-
My life as an explorer; illus. by the author; tr. by Alfhild Huebsch. Garden City pub. co. 544p illus maps $1.69 915
1 Asia—Description and travel 35-2572
Reprint of a book first published 1925 by Liveright
"Beginning with his initial journey from Stockholm to the shores of the Caspian Sea in 1885, the author has outlined that and his subsequent expeditions in Turkestan, across northern Tibet with Peking as his eventual goal, through the sand wastes of the treacherous Taklamakan Desert, crowning his long list of achievements with his explorations of the uncharted fastnesses of the Transhimalayas. . . [It is] a weird, entrancing tale of true adventure. . . Truly delightful . . . are the many sketches, the work of Sven Hedin himself, which serve to illustrate his narrative." Sat. rev. of lit.

Huntington, Ellsworth, 1876-

West of the Pacific. Scribner 1925 453p illus $4.50 915

1 Australia—Description and travel 2 China—Description and travel 3 Japan—Description and travel 4 Java—Description and travel 25-21599

"Although intended only as a record of the author's impressions of Japan, China, Australia, and Java, there is much of scholarly observation of economic and social conditions in each of the countries visited." Pittsburgh

Hürlimann, Martin, 1897-

Burma, Ceylon, Indo-China, Siam, Cambodia, Annam, Tongking, Yunnan. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Kirtland, Lucian Swift, 1881-

Finding the worth while in the Orient. new and rev ed McBride 1934 xxi,462p illus $3 915

1 East (Far East)—Description and travel 34-13751

The 1934 edition is practically a reprint of the book as first published 1924. Minor additions and corrections are made

"A trustworthy, comprehensive guide to the tourist of the Far East. . . He covers with enlightening thoroughness, in the order named: Japan, China, Korea, the Philippines, the Dutch East Indies, the Malay Straits Settlements, Siam, French Indo-China, Burma, India, Ceylon. Accompanying the topographical matter of the text, the major historical features of each country are briefly cited. . . At the close there is a useful, concise 'Memorandum of Eastern Itineraries,' setting forth facts relating to the best season of the year for travelling in the countries described, the requisite amount of time to spend in each and the transportation routes to be preferred." Sat. rev. of lit.

Lindbergh, Mrs Anne Spencer (Morrow) 1906-

‡ North to the Orient; with maps by C. A. Lindbergh. Harcourt 1935 255p illus maps $1.29 915

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Arctic regions 3 East (Far East)—Description and travel 4 Radio in aeronautics 35-27279

An account of the flight made from New York to Japan and China in the summer of 1931

"Any account of such an adventure would automatically be interesting, but it happens, for extravagant measure, that Anne Lindbergh can write. Simply, modestly, with engaging humor and charm, she tells what it actually felt like to engage in this perilous expedition." Forum

Lyde, Lionel William, 1863-

Continent of Asia. Macmillan 1933 xxii, 777p illus maps $5 915

1 Asia—Description and travel 34-9890

"Treats of the physical features, climate, vegetation, fauna and inhabitants of the continent in a general way and then takes up the physical and economic geography of the following regions: Russian Asia, Land of the five seas, the Anatolian plateau, Mesopotamia, Syria and Palestine, Arabia, Iranian plateau, India, Ceylon, Indo-Pacific fan, China, dependencies of China, Japan, Manchuria. References at end of most of the chapters

"Professor Lyde has carried out an imposing and difficult task with originality and signal success, and has thrown valuable light not only on the geography but on the economics and sociology." Times (London) lit. sup.

Mandeville, Sir John, 1300?-1371?

Voiage and travayle of Syr John Maundeville, knight; with The journall of Frier Odoricus. Dutton 278p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 915

1 Voyages and travels A28-258

Mandeville's "Travels" in the version of the Cotton manuscript in modern spelling, with three narratives, in illustration of it, from Hakluyt's "Navigators, voyages & discoveries" is obtainable in the Library of English classics (Macmillan $3)

"Composed soon after the middle of the fourteenth century. . . There are strong grounds for the belief that his name is as fictitious as his travels. . . The success of the 'travels' was remarkable. Avowedly written for the unlearned, and combining interest of matter and a quaint simplicity of style, the book hit the popular taste, and in a marvel-loving age its most extravagant features probably had the greatest charm." Dictionary of national biography

Maugham, William Somerset, 1874-

Gentleman in the parlour; a record of a journey from Rangoon to Haiphong. Doubleday 1930 300p $2.50 915

1 East (Far East)—Description and travel 30-13445

"Description of a leisurely trip by canoe and rickshaw from Rangoon to Halphong by the well-known English novelist. Contains delightful character sketches and details of the lives and customs of the people but a limited amount of scenery and facts." Pratt quarterly

Polo, Marco, 1254-1323?

* Travels of Marco Polo (the Venetian); rev from Marsden's translation and ed with introduction by Manuel Komroff. Liveright 1926 xxxii,369p illus $1.98 915

1 Asia—Description and travel 2 Mongols—History 3 Voyages and travels 26-5368

Published in a number of inexpensive editions. The same translation is obtainable from the Modern library for 95c. Another satisfactory edition, mostly from the Yule translation, edited by G. B. Parks is published in the Modern readers' series (Macmillan $1.50)

"A new edition combining the best in the older translations and carefully revised in the light of recent exploration and research to make a readable narrative of this marvelous travel story of medieval civilization in the Orient." Wis. bul.

Roerich, Nikolaĭ Konstantinovich, 1874-

Altai-Himalaya. . . Stokes 1929 407p illus $5 915

1 Altai Mountains 2 Asia, Central—Description and travel 3 Himalaya mountains 29-11922

"A travel diary thru India, Tibet, Chinese Turkestan, and Siberia, with reproductions of paintings by the author, a Russian artist-philosopher." St Louis

"The book is an extraordinary record of the impressions and reactions of an extraordinary personality. The words are simple

Roerich, Nikolaĭ K.—Continued
but the images stand forth boldly. Always Roerich sees with the eye of the artist, sees color and form and masses, so that Asia grows around us in the very same pictures that the artist has set down on his canvases." N.Y. Evening post

Sherwood, Merriam, 1892- and Mantz, Harold Elmer, 1888-
Road to Cathay; decorations by William Siegal. Macmillan 1928 251p illus maps $3.50 915

1 Asia—Description and travel 2 China—Description and travel 3 Giovanni di Plano Carpini, abp. of Antivari, fl. 1240 4 Mandeville, Sir John, 1300?-1371? 5 Muhammad ibn 'Abd Allāh, called Ibn Batūtah, 1303-1377 6 Odorico da Pordenone, 1286-1331 7 Polo, Marco, 1254-1323? 8 Ruysbroek, Willem van, 13th century 9 Tatars 10 Voyages and travels 28-23074

"Here are told the stories of five great travelers: Friar John of Plano Carpini, Friar Odoric the Bohemian, William of Rubruquis, Ibn Batuta the Moor and Marco Polo of Venice, together with their own descriptions of the marvels of Cathay, the wonders of Ind, the four rivers of Paradise and the islands of the south; and the tales that are in the book of Sir John de Mandeville."

"A journey through the Asia of the Middle Ages . . . The tales each traveler told are quoted and compared, and the probable facts given, as well as something of present conditions. . . A delightful book, illustrated in black-and-white and with reproductions of old maps." Cleveland

Short bibliography: p250-51

Stamp, Laurence Dudley, 1898-
Asia; a regional and economic geography . . . [3d ed] Dutton 1935 xxi,704p illus maps $8 915

1 Asia—Economic conditions 2 Geography, Commercial 36-22635

First published 1929. In this edition changes in population and other statistics have been revised, and the book has been enlarged by the addition of about 100 pages including a new chapter on Manchuria and many new illustrations. Bibliographies have been brought up to date

"Geography by the modern method is exemplified in this textbook survey of Asia. An account of the continent as a whole is followed by regional studies of the political entities: Siberia, India and China, with emphasis upon the spirit and characteristics of the people." Book rev. digest

915.1 CHINA

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Danton, G. H. The Chinese people, new problems and old backgrounds. Jones, Marshall 1938 312p $3.50 Discusses Chinese character and culture from a scholar's point of view

Farrer, R. J. On the eaves of the world. Longmans 1917 2v illus map $12

Hedin, S. A. Jehol, city of emperors; tr. from the Swedish by E. G. Nash. Dutton 1933 278p illus $3.75 Describes a magnificent city, once the summer home of the Manchu emperors

Van Dorn, H. A. Twenty years of the Chinese republic; two decades of progress. Knopf 1932 309p illus map $2.25

Ayscough, Mrs Florence (Wheelock) 1878-
Chinese mirror; being reflections of the reality behind appearance. . . Houghton 1925 464p illus map $5 915.1

1 China—Description and travel 2 China—Religion 3 China—Social life and customs 26-26222

"The 'feeling' of China pervades these pages, which so felicitously portray Chinese life and thought. Ancient beliefs and ceremonies are interwoven with the author's own experiences and her charming translations of Chinese poems. The black and white illustrations by Lucille Douglass make of the book an esthetic delight. Maps. Synopsis of Chinese history, biographical index, index." N.Y. state lib.

Auden, Wystan Hugh, 1907- and Isherwood, Christopher, 1904-
Journey to a war. Random house 1939 301p illus $3 915.1

915.1 A89j 1 China—Description and travel 2 China—History—1937- (W) 39-20272

An attempt to give a picture of the Chinese war from two different and individual angles and a day-to-day account of four months' varied and exciting travel. Isherwood wrote the prose account and Auden contributed the photographs, a long poem and a series of sonnets

"It is funny, brilliant, fierce, tragic, and technically superb. It is entirely in another class of usefulness from Agnes Smedley's, Edgar Snow's, or John Gunther's books. Reading these other remarkable records does not obviate the necessity of owning 'Journey to a War.' Less encyclopedic, less factually inclusive than any of the others, it is nevertheless perhaps the most intense record of China at war yet written in English." Nation

Boerschmann, Ernst, 1873-
Baukunst und landschaft in China. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Chadourne, Marc, 1895-
China; illus. by Miguel Covarrubias; tr. from the French by Harry Block. Covici 1932 308p illus o.p. 1939 915.1

1 China—Social life and customs 32-14997

"This brilliant book, written in a truly French style, contains many sketches and impressions of China, land and people, which together make up a vivid picture. . . A delightful volume, beautiful in form, to which drawings by Covarrubias add distinction." Cincinnati

"Chadourne writes with percision and discrimination. Possessed of a brilliant style, he is also gifted with a clarity of vision and an unusual penetration of the hidden forces which are shaping the destiny of modern China." Sat. rev. of lit.

Cheng Tcheng, 1899-
Son of China, by Sheng-Cheng; tr. from the French by M. M. Lowes; preface by Paul Valéry. Allen, G. 1930 286p 10s 6d 915.1

1 China—Social life and customs [30-9530]

"At thirty years of age a member of an old Chinese family gives an intimate picture of Chinese life, through the experiences of his mother and through his own life history. . . The preface and foreword indicate the author's desire that his book should increase sympathy and understanding between his people and western nations." Bkl.

Chiang, Mme Mei-ling (Sung) 1892-

‡ This is our China. Harper 1940 312p illus $3 915.1

1 China (W) 40-27431

Published in England under title: China in peace and war

Contents: What China is thinking today; Progress in China; New schools for old; Leaves from a book of travels; My faith; Tale of old China; China in wartime

"Because of her ability to put her personality on paper in the English tongue the reader of this book will have an opportunity to get on really intimate terms with the most remarkable woman that modern China has produced and will surely find the experience a pleasant one." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Cooper, Mrs Elizabeth (Beaver) 1877-

My lady of the Chinese courtyard. . . . Stokes 1914 262p illus $3 915.1

1 Women in China 14-6830

"Interesting letters of the wife of a high Chinese official which reveal the heart and mind of a woman in her position. The first series, written at the age of eighteen, contrasts strongly with the later letters, reflecting the influence of revolution, progress and Christianity." Wis. bul.

Crow, Carl, 1883-

‡ Chinese are like that. Harper 1939 328p illus $3 915.1

1 China—Social life and customs 2 National characteristics, Chinese (W) 39-7875

Copyright 1938. Published in England under title: My friends, the Chinese

"Comments upon the character and customs of the Chinese people as they have been observed by Mr. Crow in his long years of intimate commercial and social relations with them." Baldwin

"Its racy and readable chapters will call forth many smiles and some outright laughs, and leave every reader with a deeper and more appreciative understanding of the way one-fifth of mankind lives." Sat. rev. of lit.

* Four hundred million customers; the experiences—some happy, some sad of an American in China, and what they taught him; drawings by G. Sapojnikoff. Harper 1937 316p illus $3 915.1

1 China—Economic conditions 2 China—Social conditions 3 China—Social life and customs (W) 37-19170

An American advertising agent who carried on business in Shanghai for twenty-five years presents the "interesting, exasperating, puzzling, and almost always lovable Chinese people" as he knew them

"A cheerful and kindly book which is, in fact, a shrewd computation of the Chinese character in business life. It contains, too, much solid information in a pleasing if somewhat garrulous form." Manchester guardian

Handbook for China (including Hongkong). . . 4th ed rev throughout Dodd 1926 382p illus maps o.p. 1939 915.1

1 China—Description and travel 27-12088

An authoritative guide for tourists in China

Earlier editions were published under the title: "Travelers' handbook for China." The preface states that in preparing this fourth edition almost every part of the book has been submitted to some one or more authorities, who have checked up doubtful points. There are 10 maps and plans

Fleming, Peter

* One's company; a journey to China; illus. with photographs taken by the author. Scribner 1934 319p illus maps $2.75 915.1

1 China—Description and travel 2 Communism—China 3 Manchuria—Description and travel 34-30523

"Mr. Fleming tells what happened to him while acting as special correspondent for the 'London Times' in China, Manchukuo, and on the way home via San Francisco and New York. Written in [a] light-hearted, personal and vivid style . . . at the same time presenting an authentic picture of conditions in little-known parts of the Far East to-day." Ontario library review

Harkness, Mrs Ruth

The lady and the panda; an adventure. Carrick 1938 288p illus $2.50 915.1

1 China—Description and travel 2 Pandas (W) 38-27042

Unique adventures in the interior of China along the Tibetan border and the capture of a baby giant panda, the rare animal long sought by scientific expeditions

Hedin, Sven Anders, 1865-

Silk road; tr. from the Swedish by F. H. Lyon. . . Dutton 1938 322p illus maps $5 915.1

1 China—Description and travel 2 Gobi desert 3 Sinkiang—Description and travel 3 Trade routes (W) 38-34570

The Silk road was the ancient highway used to transport silk by camel-back from China to the West. The noted Swedish explorer here tells of the expedition he led over it to survey a motor highway

"No man knows Central Asia better than Dr. Hedin; he writes with authority and understanding, and even if his style is rather formal and precise he succeeds in giving a vivid impression of a land that is none too easy to penetrate. The book is an important contribution to the literature on Central Asia." Manchester guardian

Hosie, Dorothea (Soothill) lady

Portrait of a Chinese lady and certain of her contemporaries. Morrow 1930 404p illus $3 915.1

1 China—Social life and customs 2 Women in China 30-7308

"The writer is an Englishwoman born and brought up in China and a lover of the country and its people. Her portrait of a Chinese lady is drawn from life and from intimate acquaintance with the original, Mrs Sung of Shanghai, a charming mother and representative of the new China, educated partly in America. The background of the picture of which Mrs Sung is the center, is the daily home life of a modern China, revealed sympathetically and humorously, by means of dialogue, reminiscence and anecdote." Book rev. digest

"The book will not only appeal to the foreigner who has lived in China, it will delight and instruct the general reader." Times (London) lit. sup.

Lin, Yu-t'ang, 1895-

‡ My country and my people. rev illus ed Day 1937 xxvi,440p illus $3 915.1

1 China—Civilization 2 China—Social conditions 3 China—Social life and customs 4 National characteristics, Chinese 39-7059

First published 1935. Reprinted with a new preface, the correction of minor references and inaccuracies, and the addition of illustrations

Lin, Yu-t'ang—Continued

"At once an enlightening discussion, in a brilliant yet simple style, of the Chinese people, their character, mind, and ideals of life, and a penetrating survey of the Chinese woman's life, and of social and political, literary and artistic life in China. The author, an intellectual modern Chinese, ranges from past to present, appreciating and appraising both China's old culture and present dilemma." N.Y. libraries

Peck, Graham

Through China's wall. . . Houghton 1940 371p illus maps $3.50 915.1

1 China—Description and travel (W) 40-27174

"Account of a year (1937) spent in China by a young American artist who, among other things, penetrated 300 miles into the vast Gobi Desert, who lived in Mongol camps, who spent a winter in Szechuan Province." Huntting

"His record of his unambitious and undistinguished travels is one long series of . . . expert interpretive sketches, kindly caricatures and little, mildly Rabelaisian anecdotes, and they bring Chinese and Mongols to life with all their unpleasant habits, pompous puerilities, endearing good temper and enduring fortitude under adversity." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Peffer, Nathaniel, 1890-

* China: the collapse of a civilization. Day 1930 306p $3.50 915.1

1 China—Civilization 2 China—Foreign relations 3 China—Politics and government 4 China—Social conditions 30-31476

"This book is one of the fruits of the Guggenheim fellowships. It is a study in the conflict of civilizations and aims to show that the present confusion in China is a result of 'the main fact in the history of the nineteenth century—the intrusion of the west into the east.'" Wis. bul.

"It is the value of Mr. Peffer's book, and we consider it one of the best informed and most thoroughly sound studies of China which have appeared in recent years, that it restores our perspective. Mr. Peffer gives a brilliant analysis of the China that was and with both penetration and understanding examines the process through which it has succumbed to Western influences." N.Y. Evening post

Bibliography: p293-300

Waln, Nora

‡ House of exile; with illus. by C. L. Baldridge. Little 1933 337p illus $2 915.1

1 China—Social life and customs 33-27105

"Miss Waln is a daughter of a Quaker family of Philadelphia who for generations have traded with a Chinese family of high rank, here called the House of Lin. During her early years Miss Waln developed a keen interest in Chinese things, collecting old maps, manuscripts and Chinese dictionaries. Then in 1920 she went to China and for two years lived as an adopted daughter in the home of the Lins, the House of Exile. She married an Englishman in the Chinese government service and has spent the years since then mainly in China, a sympathetic witness of the strife and struggles taking place there." Book rev. digest

"A book of exceptional quality. . . To read Nora Waln's record of her years in China is to enter as intimately into the life of an alien people as it is possible to do without actually passing through one's self an experience such as hers." N.Y. Times

Williams, Edward Thomas, 1854-

* China, yesterday and to-day. 5th ed rev Crowell 1932 743p illus $4 915.1

1 China 32-21729

In the second edition a chapter on Chinese art was added. In the third edition a chapter on Chinese literature appeared for the first time. The fourth edition was revised and the historical record brought down to the close of 1928. The fifth edition has been revised and enlarged to cover events to March 1932

"The author writes from an experience of thirty-five years of close association with Chinese affairs and with the aim thruout of contrasting China of the past with the China of today. The book deals with social life and customs, festivals, industries, religions, woman and her position, commerce, crafts and guilds, etc. An historical survey is included, and a statistical appendix. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

915.13 South West China

Smith, Nicol

Burma road; with illus. from photographs by the author. Bobbs 1940 333p illus $3.50 915.13

1 Burma—Description and travel 2 Tongking—Description and travel 3 Yunnan, China (Province)—Description and travel (W) 40-5518

In spite of the rainy season and the Chinese government ban, Nicol Smith traveled over the ancient Burma road in his Ford, to the heart of the East, seeing the munitions lifeline of China, the dangerous mountains, haunted and abandoned cities, and incidents of fantastic horror

"Driving through seas of mud, living with barely-living coolies, fighting both cold and heat as he came down from the mountains, Nicol Smith saw one of the grimmest wonders of our day and has written of it with accuracy and wit." Sat. rev. of lit.

915.15 Tibet

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

915.15 B43 Bell, Sir C. A. People of Tibet. Oxford 1928 319p illus map $7

David-Neel, Mme Alexandra. My journey to Lhasa; the personal story of the only white woman who succeeded in entering the forbidden city. Harper 1927 310p illus o.p. 1939

Bell, Sir Charles Alfred, 1870-

Tibet, past & present. Oxford 1924 326p illus maps $3.85 915.15

915.15 B43

1 Tibet—Description and travel 2 Tibet—History 25-8252

"After nineteen years of experience as British political representative in Tibet, Bhutan and Sikkim, Sir Charles gives to the world an exhaustive outline of Tibetan history, and a faithfully drawn picture of this little known Asiatic people, with a fine, clear analysis of their customs, religion, and character. To the student of world politics, especially, this work will prove invaluable, setting forth as it does the problems confronting the Western Powers." Bookman

Bell, Sir Charles A.—Continued

Bernard, Theos
* Penthouse of the gods; a pilgrimage into the heart of Tibet and the sacred city of Lhasa. Scribner 1939 344p illus $3.50 915.15

1 Lamaism 2 Lassa 3 Tibet—Description and travel 39-27301

"The strange story of an American who became a Buddhist monk. In the sacred city of Lhasa, he is initiated into the mysteries practiced by the ancient order of Lamas. The book begins with these ceremonial rites, then goes back to pick up the thread of events by which the American, born in Arizona, reached this point. Altho accepted into the order he was not required to remain, since 'it was essential first to permit the past existence to fulfill itself.' Striking photographs illustrate the book." Wis. bul.

Chapman, Frederick Spencer, 1907-
Lhasa: the holy city; with an introduction by Sir Charles Bell. Harper 1939 342p illus maps $5 915.15

1 Lamaism 2 Lassa 3 Tibet—Description and travel [39-2454]

"The author accompanied the 1937 British diplomatic expedition to Lhasa, and remained in the holy city for seven months. The first part of his book gives an almost day by day record of the journey into Tibet. The greater part of it, however, is devoted to an account of Lhasa, its history, the social, political and religious life of the inhabitants, its architecture and the countryside around it." Book rev. digest

"It is magnificently illustrated and handsomely produced." Christian science monitor

David-Neel, Mme Alexandra
Magic and mystery in Tibet; with an introduction by A. d'Arsonval. . . Kendall 1932 320p illus o.p. 1939 915.15

1 Buddha and Buddhism 2 Lamaism 3 Tibet—Description and travel 4 Tibet—Religion 32-28138

Published in England under title: With mystics and magicians in Tibet

"I have read many books on Tibet; but this one gives me, between the lines at any rate, more than any other, a feeling of those intangibles and imponderables which make up an 'atmosphere,' and which are better worth knowing than most facts. I would recommend this and the other works of Madam David-Neel to students of Eastern philosophy in particular and to lovers of adventure in general." F. Yeats-Brown in Sat. rev. of lit.

McGovern, William Montgomery, 1897-
To Lhasa in disguise; a secret expedition through mysterious Tibet. Century 1924 462p illus o.p. 1939 915.15

1 Tibet—Description and travel 24-22009

"Journeying into the very heart of Tibet as a native coolie servant is the unprecedented feat of an English scholar here recounted. The danger of detection, the physical perils and the difficulty in controlling his little retinue on the road make no less interesting reading than the authoritative descriptions of the country and the customs of an almost fanatical people. Numerous halftone photographs." N.Y. state lib.

"The book contains much that is of interest, and many shrewd observations on Tibetan affairs, domestic, political and religious." Times (London) lit. sup.

915.16 Sinkiang

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Lattimore, Mrs E. H. Turkestan reunion. Day 1934 308p illus $2.75

Maillart, E. K. Forbidden journey—from Peking to Kashmir. Holt 1937 306p illus map $3

Fleming, Peter
News from Tartary: a journey from Peking to Kashmir. Scribner 1936 384p illus map $3 915.16

1 China — Description and travel 2 Sinkiang—Description and travel 36-29239

"Mr. Fleming, acting as correspondent for the London 'Times,' undertook this 3,500-mile journey through Sinkiang, or Chinese Turkestan, in company with Kini Maillart, a resourceful Swiss woman journalist. He writes, as always, with wry wit, but this book has not the charm or the gaiety of 'Brazilian Adventure.' There's a lot of international politics—China, Japan, England, Russia are interested in Sinkiang—and Mr. Fleming's sympathies are candidly White and Imperialist. As a travel book, rather than as political reporting, miles above the average." New Yorker

Hedin, Sven Anders, 1865-
Wandering lake; tr. from the Swedish by F. H. Lyon. . . Dutton 1940 291p illus maps $3.75 915.16

1 Lop-nor (Lake) 2 Sinkiang—Description and travel 40-27392

"The Swedish explorer gives an absorbing account of his journey up the Konche-daria and Kum-daria Rivers to the site of Lop-Nor, 'the wandering lake,' in eastern Turkestan. Maps and photographs." New Yorker

Lattimore, Owen, 1900-
High Tartary. Little 1930 370p illus map $4 915.16

1 East Turkestan—Description and travel 30-24835

"The High Tartary thru which the author and his wife travelled in 1927 is the name he gives to the territory in Chinese Turkestan stretching from the Altai to the Pamirs. The author's chief interest in the trip—apart from the interest he feels in these strange Orientals and their customs lies in a comparison between the trade and travel routes that are now in use and those of ancient times." Book rev. digest

"It brilliantly reflects scholarship, painstaking research into the histories of the nomadic inhabitants of the plains and mountains of Central Asia and a lively interest in human nature. The depth of its background is astonishing, for the narrative is constructed in the light of more than an amateur's knowledge of the history, archeology, ethnology and political economy of little-known tribes." Springfield Republican

915.17 Mongolia

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Hedin, Sven. Riddles of the Gobi desert; tr. from the Swedish by Elizabeth Sprigge and Claude Napier. Dutton 1933 382p illus $5

Ossendowski, F. A. Beasts, men and gods. Dutton 1922 325p $2

Andrews, Roy Chapman, 1884-

Across Mongolian plains; a naturalist's account of China's "great Northwest"; photographed by Y. B. Andrews. Appleton-Century 1921 xxiv,276p illus map $5 915.17

1 Hunting—Mongolia 2 Mongolia—Description and travel 3 Zoology—Mongolia 21-4000

"The book is a narrative of the work and travels of the author and his wife during a year spent in Mongolia and North China on the second Asiatic expedition of the American museum of natural history. It is written entirely from a sportsman's standpoint, purposely avoiding scientific details. The introduction contains a brief survey of the political history of Mongolia from the twelfth century to the present." Book rev. digest

* On the trail of ancient man . . . with an introduction and a chapter by H. F. Osborn; with 58 photographs by J. B. Schackelford. Putnam 1926 xxiv,375p illus map $6 915.17

1 Central Asiatic expeditions of the American museum of natural history 2 Mongolia—Description and travel 3 Natural history—Mongolia 4 Paleontology—Mongolia 26-16076

Also available in the Star ser. (Garden City pub. co. $1)

"The leader of the Central Asiatic expeditions of the American Museum of Natural History to the Gobi Desert of Mongolia [1922-25] describes with informing and absorbing detail methods and paraphernalia of desert exploration, as well as actual discoveries. These include the first dinosaur eggs known to man, and Mesozoic mammal skulls. Excellent photographs." N.Y. libraries

"Much of the book was written on the spot, and the well-told story has the charm of the open air and something of the glamour of the wilderness." Spectator

Originally appeared in "Asia" and "World's work"

This business of exploring. Putnam 1935 288p illus $3.50 915.17

1 Central Asiatic expeditions of the American museum of natural history 2 Explorers 3 Gobi desert 4 Mongolia—Description and travel 5 Scientific expeditions 35-20246

"In the first half of this book Dr Andrews answers the questions so often put to him, 'How can I become an explorer, and What is there left to explore?' and then adds some random notes on the dangers of exploring, snakes, wild animals, superstitions, etc. The second half of the book contains a popular account of the author's expeditions into Central Asia in 1928 and 1930." Book rev. digest

"Eminently readable, packed with information, geological, geographical and generally scientific, translated into a conversational language thoroughly enjoyable." Boston Transcript

Haslund-Christensen, Henning, 1896-

Tents in Mongolia (Yabonah); adventures and experiences among the nomads of central Asia; tr. from the Swedish by Elizabeth Sprigge and Claude Napier. Dutton 1934 366p illus $5 915.17

1 Mongolia—Description and travel 34-31958

"The author was one of a party of Danes who attempted to found a farming colony in Outer Mongolia. His account of three dangerous and romantic years of pioneering has all the suspense, the descriptive powers and absorbing interest of good fiction." Cincinnati

"The material is excellent, but Mr. Haslund writes in a hearty and boisterous manner that becomes, now and then, a trifle wearisome. Yet here, too, is an exceptionally interesting travel-book." New statesman and Nation

Hedin, Sven Anders, 1865-

Across the Gobi desert. . . Dutton 1932 xxi,402p illus maps $5 915.17

1 Gobi desert 2 Mongolia—Description and travel [32-7528]

"An translation of 'Auf grosser Fahrt,' published in 1928, giving the general account of the first stage in Dr. Sven Hedin's great expedition, the march across the desert from Paotow to Eastern Turkestan. This translation has a new preface and four appendices by Dr. Hedin, outlining the further history of the expedition up to July, 1931." Times (London) lit. sup.

"A very readable narrative . . . The whole book, dealing as it does with a district in which Russian and Chinese interests are likely to conflict more and more, is of considerable interest, not least for the maps and numerous excellent photographs." Saturday rev.

Lattimore, Owen, 1900-

Desert road to Turkestan. Little 1929 373p illus $4 915.17

1 Mongolia—Description and travel 29-5279

"The longing to explore a 1600-mile ancient desert caravan route through Mongolia to Chinese Turkestan proved, in spite of almost insuperable obstacles, irresistible to a young American who had lived over 20 years in China. His cheerful meeting of discomfort and danger, his powers of observation and description, his racy and unflagging interest in all human contacts, and his humorous appreciation of the unusual, make a fascinating record which is as well an important contribution to an understanding of Chinese psychology, superstitions and traditions. Two maps and 40 photographs." N.Y. libraries

915.19 Korea

Wagner, Ellasue Canter

Korea: the old and the new. Revell 1931 160p illus o.p. 1939 915.19

1 Korea—Social life and customs 31-18020

"This small volume gives a view of Korea in the present day, with a short sketch of the historical background. The intelligent author, active in missionary work in Korea, has considerable first-hand knowledge, and for other facts depends upon works of other authors, to whom she gives full credit. This is a useful short study of Korea." Cincinnati

915.2 JAPAN

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Beard, Miriam. Realism in romantic Japan. Macmillan 1930 521p illus $5 A study of Japanese life and the effects upon it of occidental influences

Franck, H. A. Glimpses of Japan and Formosa. Appleton-Century 1924 235p illus $1 Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.25

Haring, D. G. Land of gods and earthquakes. Columbia univ. press 1929 203p illus $3.50

Allen, George Cyril, 1900-

Japan: the hungry guest. Dutton 1938 261p illus map $3 915.2

1 Eastern question (Far East) 2 Japan—Economic conditions 3 Japan—Politics and government 4 Japan—Social conditions 5 National characteristics, Japanese [39-304]

"The author, who formerly lived in Japan and returned there in 1936 to survey Japanese industry at the request of the Bureau of international research of Harvard University, presents an intelligent, unprejudiced interpretation of Japanese character and Japan's social, political, economic and industrial life. The appendix estimates the economic effects upon Japan of the Sino-Japanese war." N.Y. libraries

Bryan, John Thomas Ingram, 1868-

Civilization of Japan. Holt 1928 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 915.2

1 Japan—Civilization 28-7764

"The course of Japanese culture from prehistoric times to the present is traced in easily assimilated fashion by one who was professor for sixteen years in Japanese colleges." Book rev. digest

Bibliography: p253

Hearn, Lafcadio, 1850-1904

Glimpses of unfamiliar Japan. Houghton 1894 2v $6 915.2

1 Japan—Description and travel 4-16699

"Descriptions of travel, wonderful accounts of famous temples and neighborhoods, charming stories of personal experience; succeeds in photographing, as it were, the Japanese soul." Nation

Japan, an attempt at interpretation. Macmillan 1904 541p front $2.75 915.2

1 Japan—Civilization 4-27142

A sympathetic interpretation of Japanese civilization by one who passed many years in Japan. The illustrations which are reproductions of old prints add to the attractiveness of the volume

"Both the prose and the poetry of Japanese life are infused into Mr. Hearn's charming pages. Nobody, so far as we know, has given a better description of the fascination which Japanese life has at first for such as enter into its true spirit, and of its gradual disappearance. The swan-song of a very striking writer." Spectator

Bibliographical notes: p527-28

Kiyooka, Chiyono (Sugimoto)

Chiyo's return; illus. by Bunji Tagawa. Doubleday 1935 342p illus $2 915.2

1 Children in Japan 2 Japan—Description and travel 3 Japan—Social life and customs 35-27233

"After ten years' absence in America the daughter of Madam Sugimoto, the author of Daughter of the Samurai returned to Japan with her mother. She relates her experiences in resuming the customs of her ancestors, who were of the cultured class, and describes the traditions back of their ceremonial life." Book rev. digest

"It is difficult to say which are the most delightful of the nearly fifty sketches. They are all interesting and all are colored deeply with the tincture of Japanese life." Boston Transcript

Lederer, Emil, 1882- and Lederer-Seidler, Emy

Japan in transition. Yale univ. press 1938 260p $3 915.2

1 Japan—Civilization 2 Japan—Economic conditions 38-27464

"An objective analysis of Japan's religious, cultural, and social heritage, with its effect on the quickly changing country of today. There is keen appreciation of Japan's past, along with an awareness of the crisis created by modern mechanization and aggressive foreign policies. Recent economic and political developments are included. Based on the authors' 'Japan-Europa—wandlungen im fernen osten,' which was published in Germany in 1929." Bkl.

Nitobé, Inazo Ota, 1863-1933

* Japan; some phases of her problems and development. Scribner 1931 398p map (Modern world) $5 915.2

1 Japan 31-28583

"Useful addition to the 'Modern world' series, in which a noted Japanese statesman sets the stage, geographically and historically, for a presentation of the modern Japan. The author was for seven years with the International Secretariat of the League of Nations." Pittsburgh

"This admirable book, if to some extent a recapitulation of well-known facts, is a very clear restatement of them; the later chapters which deal with modern problems, amongst them the vital one of the country's food supply, are particularly helpful." Spectator

Phillips, Henry Albert, 1880-

Meet the Japanese. . . Lippincott 1932 319p illus o.p. 1939 915.2

1 Japan—Description and travel 2 Japan—Social life and customs 32-10850

"Mr. Phillips has covered the ground well, and gives the reader not only the picturesque surface of life and customs, but a glimpse into the underlying meanings which he realizes can never be completely grasped by the Occidental. Above all, he respects the Japanese culture for what it is, and does not preach westernization in the name of progress." N.Y. Times

Powers, Harry Huntington, 1859-

Japan. Macmillan 1923 278p illus (University travel ser.) o.p. 1939 915.2

1 Japan—Description and travel 23-17484

"The author interprets those scenic, historic and artistic treasures seen in the usual four or five-week trip as expressions of the spirit of Japanese civilization. The keen and clever observations on Japanese history, society and ideals illuminate the whole of Japanese life for the traveler and student." N.Y. state lib.

Price, Willard De Mille, 1887-
Children of the Rising Sun. Day 1938 316p illus $3 915.2

1 Japan—Foreign relations 2 Japan—Social life and customs 3 National characteristics, Japanese (W) 38-9110

Published in England under title: Where are you going Japan?

Contents: Within Japan; Japan in Manchuria; Japan in Korea; Japan in China; Japan in the Pacific; Japan in the world

"Rather than review what has happened, this book seeks to look ahead to the future, and . . . to tell in the author's lively fashion what the Japanese people are, how they live, work, eat, and learn . . . and of the 'divine mission' which drives them onward." Publisher's foreword

Trautz, Friedrich Max, 1877-
Japan, Korea and Formosa. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Yakhontoff, Victor A. 1881-
Eyes on Japan. Coward-McCann 1936 329p illus $3.50 915.2

1 Japan 36-18341

"A readable and informative book about the history of Japan, its present social and economic conditions, ways of living and its place in foreign affairs by a former military attaché of the Imperial Russian embassy at Tokyo." Pratt quarterly

Bibliography: p313-18

915.3 ARABIA

In addition to the titles listed below, the following are recommended:

Grant, Mrs C. P. Syrian desert; caravans, travel and exploration. Macmillan 1938 410p illus map $5 (W) A scholarly study of trade routes thru the desert

Thomas, Bertram. Alarms and excursions in Arabia; with a preface by Sir A. T. Wilson. Allen, G. 1931 296p illus maps 15s Adventures and journeys of a dozen years

Burton, Sir Richard Francis, 1821-1890
Personal narrative of a pilgrimage to Al-Madinah & Meccah; ed. by his wife, Isabel Burton, with an introduction by Stanley Lane-Poole. Bell, G. 2v illus map (Bohn's popular lib.) o.p. 1939 915.3

1 Arabia—Description and travel 5-10105

First published 1855

"Records the most famous adventure of one of the boldest explorers of this [19th] century . . . the picture it gives of Arab life and manners, the insight it reveals in Semitic ideas, give it a permanent value as a national record. . . Dashed off in Burton's rapid impulsive way, the book is the strangest compound of keen observation, wide Oriental learning, a grim sardonic humour." Introduction

Doughty, Charles Montagu, 1843-1926
Passages from Arabia deserta; selected by Edward Garnett. Liveright 1931 320p $2.50 915.3

1 Arabia—Description and travel 2 Arabia—Social life and customs [31-28306]

A satisfactory abridgment of this travel classic which relates the author's adventure among the Mohammedans of the desert in 1876-78. A thread of narrative connects the passages and there is a ten-page glossary

"'Arabia Deserta' is still difficult, even formidable; and there should be a real use for Mr. Garnett's selection of passages amounting to one-quarter of the whole, and skilfully arranged to keep the sequence of the narrative." Times (London) lit. sup.

C. M. Doughty's "Wanderings in Arabia" (Duckworth 1924 2v 12s 6d) is a larger abridgment also prepared by Edward Garnett. His "Travels in Arabia deserta" (Random house 1937 2v illus maps $15) with an introduction by T. E. Lawrence is an unabridged edition of this classic

Erskine, Mrs Beatrice (Strong)
Vanished cities of Arabia; illus. by Major Benton Fletcher. 2d ed Dutton 1925 324p illus $6 915.3

1 Cities and towns, Ruined, extinct, etc. 2 Gerasa 3 Kerak 4 Petra, Arabia 26-26965

"Tells the story of the vanished cities of Arabia Petræa, and peoples their deserted sites with those who made their history. Thousands of years are covered in her pilgrimage among the ruins of Petra, Kerak, Madeba, Ammon, and Jerash. Some of the illustrations are in color." Book rev. digest

"The tourist in search of new sensations will welcome her impressions, learn how, when and where to go, what provisions and raiment to take, what difficulties to anticipate. The scholar will rejoice over a profound study of the vanished cities of Arabia." Saturday rev.

Harrison, Paul W.
Arab at home. Crowell 1924 345p illus map o.p. 1939 915.3

1 Arabia 2 Arabs 24-23384

"Tho written by a missionary who has spent fourteen years in Arabia the book is not a description of missionary work but an impression of the country and its people. The author describes with sympathy the life and character of the Arab and the desert which is his environment, his religion, the influence of western civilization and the hope of success for Christian missions in Arabia." Book rev. digest

"The book is a simple record of long years of work and travel, all modestly told, amid the people in a land made inhospitable by nature. The author knows the Arabs thoroughly well (that is, as far as a Westerner can), and has written both for those who are interested in the future of the Arab in general and of those of Mesopotamia in particular." Times (London) lit. sup.

Raswan, Carl Reinhard
Black tents of Arabia (my life among the Bedouins); with photographs by the author. Little 1935 159p illus map $4 915.3

1 Arabia—Description and travel 2 Bedouins 35-15612

"A personal record of life among the Arabs of the desert. The author went to Arabia in quest of pure-blooded horses and his chief dealings were with the Ruola, whom he names as the greatest tribe in northern Arabia. The book has a unique charm of its own with unusual illustrative photographs of Bedouin scenes." Ontario library review

Stark, Freya Madeline
The southern gates of Arabia; a journey in the Hadhramaut. Dutton 1936 327p illus map $3.75 915.3

1 Arabia—Description and travel 36-21817

"Describes a journey from Aden in southern Arabia eastward into the Hadhramaut country. Miss Stark's object on the trip was to search for traces of the ancient and medieval incense routes. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"This is a delightful book by a highly accomplished, courageous and graceful writer. It evokes pleasure by its style; it merits attention and admiration by its studied and keen interest in and exact accounts of local customs, actions, prejudices and characters; and it stirs the imagination by its well-informed and reasoned presentment of the possible—and probable—far-famed South-East Arabian 'Incense Routes' of remote antiquity." Times (London) lit. sup.

Thomas, Bertram, 1892-
Arabia felix; across the "empty quarter" of Arabia, with a foreword by T. E. Lawrence <T. E. S.> and an appendix by Sir Arthur Keith. . . Scribner 1932 xxix,397p illus maps $2 915.3

1 Arabia—Description and travel 2 Arabia—Social life and customs 32-5889

"This is the author's first full account of his camel journey across the Rub' al Khali, the unexplored desert region of Arabia. . . He gives an interesting narrative account with much information about native tribes." Wis. bul.

"Reading his narrative, told with the vigour and economy of a master, we are so carried away by its inevitability that the great exploit stands in danger of appearing too simple. For great it is. . . Important as his geographical and other discoveries are, the narrative will appeal to most readers as a vivid and luminous account of a great adventure. For Mr. Thomas can tell a story as well as any: he can describe with the pen of an artist." Spectator

915.4 India

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Ghurye, G. S. Caste and race in India. Knopf 1932 209p (History of civilization) $4

Murray, John, publisher. Handbook for travellers in India, Burma and Ceylon, including all British India, the Portuguese and French possessions, and the Indian states. . . 15th ed Scribner 1938 cxxviii,792p illus maps $12

O'Malley, L. S. S. Indian caste customs. Macmillan 1932 190p $2

O'Malley, L. S. S. India's social heritage. Oxford 1934 194p $1.75

Bonsels, Waldemar, 1881-
Indian journey; illus. by Harry Brown. Boni 1928 273p illus o.p. 1939 915.4

1 India—Description and travel 28-18648

"Mr. Bonsels writes of what he saw in India in a way that makes you feel that you, too, are spending long days and hideous nights in a ramshackle bungalow. This is an unusual book on India, for Mr. Bonsels did not go to criticize or rule; he feels on his shoulders no part of the White Man's Burden. He accepted and was absorbed into the life of India as he found it; he can write of the animals and people, with rhythmic prose that is magically poetic. The reader is left feeling that he has seen India 'first hand from nature,' and that, more than many more serious tomes, this has penetrated her sacred essence." Independent

Cumming, Sir John Guest, 1868-
(ed.) Modern India; a co-operative survey. Oxford 1931 304p illus maps 3s 6d 915.4

1 Great Britain—Colonies 2 India 31-28433

"This book consists of eighteen chapters written by seventeen contributors, all of whom have lived many years in India, and all but two of whom have been in government service. Each chapter treats of a particular subject: the country and its peoples, the states of the princes, the Afghan frontier, government, army, civil service, law, education, art and culture, peasants, landholders, famine relief, irrigation, railways, finance, trade and industry, labor, population and poverty, drink and opium." New republic

"'Modern India' has no thesis to offer. It limits itself to conveying information of a kind that cannot be challenged. A reader entirely dependent upon it would hardly be aware that political unrest exists in that country. Despite this limitation and because of it, few recent books are more valuable." N.Y. Times

Holderness, Sir Thomas William, 1849-1924
Peoples and problems of India. Butterworth, T. 1912 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) 2s 6d 915.4

1 India [12-35692]

Formerly carried also by Holt

A brief survey from a distinctly British point of view of the history, religions, social problems and economic conditions of India

Hürlimann, Martin, 1897-
India. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Kendall, Mrs Patricia
Come with me to India! a quest for truth among peoples and problems. Scribner 1931 467p map $3.50 915.4

1 India—Description and travel 2 India—Economic conditions 3 India—History 4 India—Politics and government 5 India—Religion 6 India—Social conditions 31-32819

Published in England under title: India and the British

"This volume reviews the history and geography of India, studies its economic, social and religious life, and discusses at length questions at issue between Great Britain and the exponents of Indian nationalism. According to the author the Nationalist movement in India is not the stir of the masses toward independence but a conflict of civilizations—the revolt of Hindu and Moslem against enlightened modern influences. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"The book is mercifully devoid of avid emotionalism. It has form, facts, and figures; a systematic news presentation." Review of reviews

Loti, Pierre, pseud. 1850-1923
India; tr. from the French by G. A. F. Inman (of Bowden) ed. by R. H. Sherard. [3d ed] A new ed pictured by A. H. Fisher Laurie 1913 283p illus 6s 915.4

1 India—Description and travel A17-1123

First published in 1903. Formerly carried also by Stokes

Loti, Pierre, pseud.—Continued
"Vivid and picturesque description of the country and people. The route is from Ceylon through southern India to Benares where the author went to study the religious faith of the Hindus." Pittsburgh

Mayo, Katherine, d. 1940
Mother India. . . Harcourt 1927 440p illus map $1.49 915.4

1 India—Economic conditions 2 India—Social conditions 3 Women in India 27-13321

"A study of social and sanitary conditions in India today, picturing it as a huge cesspool of filth, disease, and sex degeneracy. Depicts two evils as chiefly responsible for present conditions—the caste system and child marriage. An unlovely but thought-provoking story." Cleveland

"It has created quite a stir, being regarded by some as a revelation calling for drastic action, and by others as quite unfair." St Louis

Mukerji, Dhan Gopal, 1890-1936
* My brother's face. Dutton 1924 367p $3 915.4

1 Gandhi, Mohandas Karamchand, 1869- 2 India—Civilization 3 India—Politics and government 24-24708

An "attempt to reveal to Western liberalism the present state of native India's mind and soul—and especially the scope and potency and promise of the Gandhi movement, as the author becomes acquainted with it on returning to refresh his own soul after years in the West." Sat. rev. of lit.

"Dhan Gopal Mukerji sees his beloved India through a poet's eyes and writes of it in singing prose." World tomorrow

Visit India with me. Dutton 1929 298p illus $3.50 915.4

1 India—Description and travel 2 India—Social life and customs 29-28062

"A native of India, Dhan Mukerji, creates an imaginary American friend, Mr Eagles, with whom he visits India and to whom he reveals the art, philosophy, and the people of the country. The book, tho in the form of a travelogue, is strictly speaking a sympathetic interpretation of India culture and ideals." Book rev. digest

Steegman, Philip, 1903-
India ink. Morrow 1940 246p $3 915.4

1 India—Description and travel 2 India—Social life and customs (W) 40-8511

Published in England under title: Indian ink

A panorama of two years spent in Calcutta and in Delhi; in an opium den; painting the Maharaja in a secluded palace; and lastly, above the clouds as a solitary guest in the forbidden valley of Nepal

"This is a strange book; written by a painter, it has not a single picture, although there are descriptions both of persons and of places which make us want pictures very much. The writer had introductions to everyone of importance, and he succeeded in getting work in painting many great personages, culminating in the great ruler of Nepal. But the book is not meant to interest us in these, except by the way. It is full of stories, all readable, some mysterious." Manchester guardian

Thomas, Lowell Jackson, 1892-
India: land of the Black pagoda; illus. with photographs taken by H. A. Chase. Appleton-Century 1930 350p illus $4 915.4

1 India—Description and travel 30-30413

"Story of the author's experiences and observations during an extended tour, related with his usual sense of the value of contrasts." Pittsburgh

"Mr. Thomas's description of India on the whole is extremely interesting; his writing is exuberant and vivid and he provides a wealth of photographs. He took for his guru Major Yeats-Brown, and he could have found none better. The result is a most attractive book on Indian sightseeing." Times (London) lit. sup.

Yeats-Brown, Francis Charles Claypon, 1886-
Lancer at large. Viking 1937 323p illus $2.75 915.4

1 India—Description and travel 2 India—Social life and customs 37-27050

"The author of Lives of a Bengal Lancer revisits India after an absence of fifteen years, and writes with sympathy and authority of the true life in India. Of particular interest are his accounts of Hindu mysticism and yogi practices, including the samadhi, or self-induced state of trance resembling death. There are further chapters on social and economic conditions in modern India; and on education, sanitation, and medical and hospital care." Book rev. digest

"A book about such a country and such a people cannot fail to be in some degree interesting. But the traveler's chitchat, interspersed with his own mystical yearnings, which Mr. Yeats-Brown offers his readers is not interesting enough." Nation

Zetland, Lawrence John Lumley Dundas, 2d marquis of, 1876-
India; a bird's-eye view. Houghton 1924 322p illus map $5 915.4

1 India [24-25312]

"The Earl of Ronaldshay is an authority upon India, for he has traveled widely over the country, has spent many years there and was formerly Governor General of Bengal. This volume he offers to meet the needs of the general reader who wants some knowledge of the outstanding features of India, its people and its life, and wants them presented in a way that will illuminate their significance. Therefore his work is something more than what is generally understood by a 'birdseye view,' which usually is concerned chiefly with material aspects." N.Y. Times

Zimand, Savel, 1891-
Living India; with an introduction by A. E. (George W. Russell) Longmans 1928 280p illus 10s 6d 915.4

1 India—History 2 India—Religion 3 India—Social conditions 4 India—Social life and customs [28-27791]

"A sympathetic analysis of the revolution of thought now taking place in India. The author traces the historical background from the founding of the British empire in the East under Robert Clive, describes the structure of Indian society, and shows the development of the rising tide of independence and the growth of nationalism." Book rev. digest

"A book which is interesting, suggestive and therefore valuable. He may not see very deeply into any Indian subject, but he sees the superficial surface of a wide subject with remarkable clearness; he is admirably impartial; and native shrewdness renders him distrustful of extreme views, and of arguments which prove their case too completely." Times (London) lit. sup.

Zimand, Savel—Continued

915.42 Himalaya mountains

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following books are also recommended:

Tilman, H. W. Ascent of Nanda Devi. Macmillan 1937 235p illus map $3.50

Younghusband, Sir F. E. Everest: the challenge. Nelson 1936 243p illus maps $4 A survey of English and German expeditions

Younghusband, Sir F. E. Wonders of the Himalaya. Dutton 1924 210p map $2

American Alpine club Karakoram expedition, 1938

* Five miles high . . . illus. from photographs taken by members of the expedition. Dodd 1939 381p illus $4 915.42

1 Himalaya mountains—Description and travel 2 Karakoram range 3 Mountaineering (W) 39-27963

"The story of an attack on the second highest mountain in the world by the members of the first American Karakoram expedition." Subtitle

"These Americans and their British companion have succeeded in translating into words the lasting exaltation awakened in men as they labor to get nearer to the sky." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Houston-Mount Everest expeditions, 1933

First over Everest! by P. F. M. Fellowes, L. V. S. Blacker, and P. T. Etherton; foreword by John Buchan; with illus. from photographs. McBride 1934 264p illus maps $1.75 915.42

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Everest, Mount A34-505

"The story of the Houston-Mount Everest expedition of 1933 told by Air-Commodore Fellowes and his companions. The text which tells the story is casual and sketchy—due perhaps to an Englishman's native reticence in talking about his achievements—but the photographic illustrations are gorgeous! These pictures, together with the official nature of the report, make the book a desirable addition." Wis. bul.

Ruttledge, Hugh, 1884-

Everest, 1933. Hodder 1934 390p illus maps 25s 915.42

1 Everest, Mount 2 Mount Everest expedition, 1933 34-37629

Formerly carried by McBride under title: Attack on Everest

"The leader of the Mount Everest expedition of 1933 has written a comprehensive and absorbing account of this carefully planned, heroic but futile endeavor to conquer Everest. . . . Additional chapters by other members of the expedition include medical aspects, natural history and botany, and weather. The splendid photographs, one taken by telephoto, are an outstanding feature of an excellent book. Map." N.Y. libraries

Snaith, Stanley, 1903-

At grips with Everest; foreword by T. H. Somervell. Oxford 1938 258p illus $2 915.42

1 Everest, Mount 2 Himalaya mountains—Description and travel 3 Mountaineering (W) 38-31453

"Describes the attempts to climb Mount Everest, highest peak in the world; although written for young people its interesting narrative should appeal to readers of all ages." Pratt quarterly

Younghusband, Sir Francis Edward, 1863-

Epic of Mount Everest. Longmans 1926 319p illus maps $3 915.42

1 Everest, Mount 2 Mount Everest expedition, 1921 3 Mount Everest expedition, 1922 4 Mount Everest expedition, 1924 26-24166

"Separate descriptions of the three Mount Everest expeditions have already been written by those who took part in them, and have been published in three books, 'Mount Everest: the reconnaissance, 1921' by C. K. Howard-Bury [1922 Longmans o.p. 1939]; 'The assault on Mount Everest, 1922' [by C. G. Bruce 1923 Longmans, o.p. 1939]; and 'The fight for Everest, 1924' [by E. F. Norton 1925 Arnold, E. & co. o.p. 1939]. The present volume purports to be a condensed description of the three expeditions. It is . . . based on the above-named publications." Preface

"The Epic of Everest is a fascinating story, not only of what the expeditions accomplished, but of the ideal which they had before them and which led them onwards." Spectator

915.48 Ceylon

Still, John

Jungle tide. Blackwood 1930 245p front 3s 6d 915.48

1 Ceylon—Description and travel 30-28383

"Having lived in Ceylon for many years, Mr Still writes convincingly of the jungle life there: of cobras and leopards, strange plants, and men. An archaeologist as well as a naturalist, he describes with particular interest ancient Sinhalese cities buried in the heart of the forests. Mr Still's flexible and poetic diction is reminiscent of W. H. Hudson." Book rev. digest

"Both for the expert knowledge which it contains and the care and workmanship put into it, it is a book to be read and returned to." Times (London) lit. sup.

915.5 Persia

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Dwight, H. G. Persian miniatures; illus. with drawings by W. J. Jones. Doubleday 1917 328p illus o.p. 1939

Sheean, Vincent. New Persia. Appleton-Century 1927 333p illus o.p. 1939

Bell, Gertrude Lowthian, 1868-1926

Persian pictures; with a preface by Sir E. D. Ross. Liveright 1928 198p $3 915.5

1 Persia—Description and travel 28-23850

"Travel sketches which contain fresh, living impressions of country and people, colored by the warm enthusiasm of this English girl on her first visit to Persia in 1894. They were first published anonymously by Bentley under the title 'Safar nameh, Persian pictures.'" Bkl.

Cooper, Merian C. 1893-
Grass; foreword by William Beebe. . . Putnam 1925 xx,362p illus o.p. 1939 915.5

1 Bakhtiari 25-8071

"A vivid and thrilling picture of the migration of a Persian tribe over snow covered mountains in search of grass for their livestock. Fifty to a hundred thousand men, women and children, and ten thousand animals braved treacherous rivers, dangerous mountain trails and the attacks of hostile tribes. The author, with his wife and a camera man, were the guests of the tribal chief Haidar. The account has been produced as a movie." Cleveland

With sixty-four illustrations from photographs of Ernest Beaumont Schoedsack

Graefe, Axel von, 1900-
Iran. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Morton, Mrs Rosalie (Slaughter) 1876-
Doctor's holiday in Iran; foreword by H. S. Cumming. Funk 1940 335p illus map $3 915.5

1 Persia—Civilization 2 Persia—Description and travel (W) 40-5345

An interpretative study of modern Iran (Persia), its traditions and romantic history as well as its social changes and progress, as observed by the author during recent travels in that country

"In her study of progress in modern Iran Dr. Morton has two illuminating chapters on medicine and doctors, writes with astuteness and sympathy of women veiled and unveiled, and surveys what she aptly calls the 'adventure of education'. . . But she has by no means neglected the easier and more inviting aspects of travel." N.Y. Times

Ross, Sir Edward Denison, 1871-
* Persians. Oxford 1931 142p illus map $1.75 915.5

1 Persia 31-26872

"This little book—so short, so brilliant and so readable—will carry even the laziest over the sticks of Persian Art without accident. For conciseness the chapters on literature and art could not be bettered, and those on the country and the people and on journeys through Persia succeed extraordinarily well in making Persia seem less of a distant and legendary land." Spectator

Bibliography; p16-18

Stark, Freya Madeline
Valleys of the Assassins, and other Persian travels. Dutton 1934 364p illus maps $2 915.5

1 Persia—Description and travel 34-34964

"An English archaeologist writes entertainingly of journeys during the last six years into little-known regions. Stories of the picturesque women and rough tribesmen of the Luristan region are of special interest. Her narrow escapes from the law as well as the lawless will not allow the reader's interest to abate at any time. Scholarly, but lively reading." Ontario library review

Wilson, Sir Arnold Talbot, 1884-
Persia. Benn 1932 400p (Modern world) 21s 915.5

1 Persia 33-2613

Includes chapters on geography, agriculture, industry and mining, currency and finance, the judicial and military systems, literature and education

"A comprehensive and accurate survey of modern Persia with due reference to the past. [The author] has not attempted to describe the curious and picturesque sides of Persian life, now fast disappearing before the tide of westernization which is sweeping through the country. If some chapters in the book deal with dry subjects, much of it is lit up with brilliant descriptive writing, notably in the earlier chapters describing the country together with its population and products. The keynote running throughout the book is great optimism for the future." Times (London) lit. sup.

Brief bibliographies at chapter ends

915.6 Western Asia

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:
Powell, E. A. By camel and car to the peacock throne. Appleton-Century 1923 xxii,392p illus map $1 Travels thru Syria, Arabia and Mesopotamia to the capital of Persia

Forbes, Mrs Rosita (Torr) 1893-
Conflict; Angora to Afghanistan; with a foreword by Sir Percy Sykes. . . Stokes 1931 xxvii,333p illus o.p. 1939 915.6

1 Asia, Western—Description and travel 31-12229

"An account of the author's travels in Turkey, Iraq, Syria, Palestine, Persia, and Afghanistan. Combined with travel notes and anecdotes are extensive comments on social and political conditions in those countries." Book rev. digest

"Miss Forbes's present book has values which travel books, however entertaining, so often lack, and those who have to deal officially or commercially with Turk, Syrian, Arab, Persian or Afghan will find in her detailed review of their latter-day outlook much that it behooves them to know. . . Those, however, who seek only entertainment will find Miss Forbes's narrative lively and interesting, and to be read for its own sake no less than for its wider implications." Saturday rev.

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-
Fringe of the Moslem world. . . Grosset 426p illus (Century vagabond travel bks.) $1.25 915.6

1 Levant—Description and travel 2 Turkey—Description and travel [28-21929]

Reprint of a book first published 1928 by Century

"Being the tale of a random journey by land from Cairo to Constantinople, with enough of present conditions to suggest the growingly antagonistic attitude of the followers of Mohammed toward those who profess Christianity." Subtitle

"An engaging account of a trip through Egypt, Palestine, Transjordania, Syria, and Turkey which gives, through the eyes of a seasoned traveler, a good picture of the peoples and countries as they are today. It includes an interesting description of Turkey under Mustapha Kemal." Bkl.

Kinglake, Alexander William, 1809-1891
Eothen; with an introduction by D. G. Hogarth and notes by V. H. Collins. Oxford 1920 xxi,304p illus maps $1.25 915.6

1 Levant—Description and travel

A classic among travel books. First published 1844, it describes the author's eastern tour made in 1834-35

Kinglake, Alexander W.—Continued

"It shows Kinglake to be a master of a most refined style and subtle humour . . . and is a delightful record of personal impressions rather than outward facts." Dictionary of national biography

Morton, Henry Canova Vollam, 1892-

‡ In the steps of St Paul . . . illus. from photographs by Mary and H. V. Morton. Dodd 1936 499p illus maps $3 915.6

1 Levant—Description and travel 2 Paul, Saint, apostle 36-33128

"Taking the Acts of the Apostles as his guidebook the author made three trips thru Asia Minor and along the Mediterranean seaboard, visiting the places Paul visited and relating modern conditions to conditions as they were two thousand years ago." Book rev. digest

"Those who know Mr. Morton's work more by repute than by personal study of it may be surprised to find how real and painstaking is the scholarship which lies behind this book. Vividness we had expected, and it is here. To find that Mr. Morton has also read deeply and carefully in the best critical literature surrounding the life of St. Paul is still more impressive." Manchester guardian

Bibliography: p484-87

‡ Through lands of the Bible. . . Dodd 1938 452p illus $3 915.6

1 Iraq—Description and travel 2 Levant—Description and travel (W) 38-36764

The travels of the author beginning at Alexandretta, in Syria, and continuing by way of Aleppo to Bagdad, Babylon, and Ur of the Chaldees. The author then takes you through Palestine to Egypt. The book ends with a description of Apostolic sites in Rome, where the author spent Easter week

"Throughout the book there is [a] wealth of information and description, of historical lore and modern instance, which makes it a pleasure to read without skipping." Times (London) lit. sup.

915.66 Armenia

Yeghenian, Aghavnie Yeghia

Red flag at Ararat. Womans press 1932 170p illus map $1 915.66

1 Armenia—Description and travel 2 Armenia—Social conditions 3 Communism 4 Russia—Description and travel 33-2111

"What the Soviets have accomplished in Armenia is the subject of this little book. The author describes the present state of a miniature Soviet republic which she finds to be incomparably better than anything Armenia has known in the last centuries." Sat. rev. of lit.

"Her account is marked by honesty and a determination to be fair." Christian Science Monitor

915.67 Iraq

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:

Stark, F. M. Baghdad sketches. Dutton 1938 269p illus $3.50

Hoffman, Ruth, 1900- and Hoffman, Helen, 1900-

Our Arabian nights; with illus. by the authors. Carrick 1940 307p illus $2.75 915.67

1 Baghdad—Social life and customs 2 Bedouins 3 Iraq—Social life and customs (W) 40-27219

Another book of adventure in Iraq by the American twins of "We married an Englishman." This time they are living in a house in Bagdad, and explore the city and its diverse society thoroly. As a climax to their adventures they spend the summer in the desert encampment of the Sheikh Fulan, sharing the harem of his three wives

"Illustrated with gay, impudent little drawings. . . There is much keen observation here and delighted noting of oddities of life in a very strange world. Best of all is the blithe progress of the authors from adventure to adventure." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

We married an Englishman. Carrick 1938 314p illus $2.75 915.67

1 Iraq—Social life and customs (W) 38-27591

"Two American sisters, with some reputation as artists, went to Mesopotamia to join the Englishman to whom one of them was engaged. This is the blithely told story of the red tape accompanying the marriage and of the following year of housekeeping under strange conditions, with native servants and an assortment of pets, and with visits to Baghdad and to Arab encampments to vary the monotony of desert life." Bkl.

Miller, Janet

Camel-bells of Baghdad. . . Houghton 1934 299p illus $3 915.67

1 Baghdad—Description 2 Persia-Description and travel 34-29331

"Adventurous journey to the city of the Arabian Nights, the Tower of Babel, the Garden of Eden, the Palace of Darius, the bazaars of Teheran, and the mountains and deserts of Persia." Subtitle

"Dr. Miller has made a book about her journey that is wholly unlike most books of travel, a book that fascinates, that shimmers and glows with color and beauty, that thrills with the author's eager enjoyment of all that she saw and did." N.Y. Times

915.69 Palestine. Syria

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers. Palestine and Syria. 5th ed rev Scribner 1912 462p illus maps o.p. 1939

Bentwich, N. De M. Wanderer in the Promised land. Scribner 1933 263p illus map o.p. 1939

Bell, Gertrude Lowthian, 1868-1926

Syria; the desert & the sown; with frontispiece in colour by John Sargent. . . Dutton 1907 347p illus map $5 915.69

1 Syria—Description and travel 2 Syria—Social life and customs A10-520

Also published under title: Desert & the sown

"Describes the converse with all sorts of Syrians enjoyed by Miss Bell on a journey through the country east of the Jordan to the Jebel-ed-Druz, and thence, by Damascus, Homs, Hama, Aleppo and Antioch, to the coast at Iskenderun—a journey in itself highly interesting, made more so by her manner of narration." Pittsburgh

Fleg, Edmond, 1874-
Land of promise; tr. from "Ma Palestine" by L. W. Wise; introduction by Ludwig Lewisohn. Laurie 1933 256p illus 10s 6d 915.69

1 Jews—Restoration 2 Palestine—Description and travel [33-7175]

Formerly carried also by Macaulay

"The author, a French Jew, went to Palestine to add to his preparation for writing a life of Christ, but he was so moved by the Jewish rebuilding of that land, that he abandoned his original project and wrote instead his impressions of the Zionist accomplishment in agriculture, education, and engineering." Book rev. digest

"In deft, sensitive episodes Fleg paints the panorama of the new promised land, its multiple achievements and pressing problems, the interplay and often the clash of Arab and Jew, nationalist and Communist, pietist and radical." Nation

Fosdick, Harry Emerson, 1878-
* Pilgrimage to Palestine. Royal ed Macmillan 332p map $1 915.69

1 Palestine—Description and travel 2 Palestine—Historical geography 27-25565

Reprint of book first published 1927

"A most illuminating and inspiring book on the Bible lands, by the well-known liberal minister. His open-mindedness and thorough knowledge of the Bible and Hebrew history, together with his literary ability, unusual opportunities for observation and 'sheer love for the land' combine to make this a narrative which will be enjoyed by all who read it. The map, index, table of Bible references and bibliography make it useful for the student. Clear type." Cleveland

Leete, Frederick De Land, bp. 1866-
Palestine; land of the light. Houghton 1932 279p illus $2.50 915.69

1 Palestine—Description and travel 32-33813

"A popular, informal guide-book for the traveler and the Biblical student, combining ancient and modern history, description, and views of present-day conditions." Book rev. digest

"A student rather than a sightseer, Bishop Leete enriches what he observes with what he knows. The historical and religious significance of Palestine are constantly in the foreground of his chapters. His viewpoint is primarily that of the churchman. Survivals of historic conditions and ways of living are what chiefly interest the author, and in the topography of Palestine he traces 'the world's living Bible.' His book will appeal to both the traveler and to the religious teacher." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Loti, Pierre, pseud. 1850-1923
Jerusalem; tr. from the French by W. P. Baines. Laurie 1915 220p 6s 915.69

1 Jerusalem—Description [30-26391]

"His highly impressionistic descriptions of the actual aspect of the desolation and ruins of Jerusalem are given in pleasant and quite inimitable style, while his experiences in viewing the ancient buildings . . . are brightly and vigorously related." Outlook (London)

Morton, Henry Canova Vollam, 1892-
* In the steps of the Master. . . Dodd 1934 448p illus $3 915.69

1 Palestine—Description and travel 34-40301

"Bible in hand, and further fortified by wide preliminary reading in the history and traditions of Palestine, Mr Morton traveled thru the Hold Land, searching out the sites associated with Jesus and his followers, with occasional reference both to earlier and later events. This account of his trip is written in reverent and earnest fashion, but is also entertaining by reason of numerous anecdotes of people he encountered, and adventures he met with by the way." Book rev. digest

"A book that sharply stimulates the imagination and enables it to picture correctly Palestine's fields and mountains and that interprets sympathetically the habits and manners of the Orient is bound to be of permanent value." America

Bibliography: p436-40

Powys, Llewelyn, 1884-
Pagan's pilgrimage. Harcourt 1931 207p illus o.p. 1939 915.69

1 Palestine—Description and travel 31-6177

"A thoughtful and beautifully written account of a Mediterranean trip to Palestine; impressions and descriptions of the land and philosophical and religious speculation on the import of Christ and the Holy Land." Providence

"It is the travel book of a very subjective and sensitive writer and will appeal little to the reader who prefers objective description." Wis. bul.

Rihbany, Abraham Mitrie, 1869-
The Syrian Christ. Houghton 1916 425p $3 915.69

1 Jesus Christ 2 Palestine—Social life and customs 3 Syria—Social life and customs 16-21561

"The author . . . pastor of an American church, was born in Syria and his purpose in this book is to offer an interpretation of the life of Jesus and of other parts of the Bible in the light of his knowledge of the history and customs of his native land." Book rev. digest

Rostovtsev, Mikhail Ivanovich, 1870-
Caravan cities; tr. by David and T. T. Rice. Oxford 1932 232p illus map $5 915.69

1 Arabia—Description and travel 2 Caravans 3 Cities and towns, Ruined, extinct, etc. 4 Palestine—Description and travel 5 Syria—Description and travel 33-5329

"Petra, Palmyra, Jerash and Dura are the four cities of which the author writes, alike in that they owed their importance to that caravan trade which flourished in ancient times and is not extinct even in our own. Professor Rostovtzeff writes interestingly of the daily life in these cities, of their government, their history, culture and art." Cleveland

"In the present state of our knowledge this book is a more valuable contribution to cultural inquiries than to historical outlines; the cultural problems are more tangible, while the historical suggestions, though coming from so distinguished an authority, must await confirmation from the hands of particular excavators." Times (London) lit. sup.

Bibliography: p220-26

Van Dyke, Henry, 1852-1933
Out-of-doors in the Holy Land; impressions of travel in body and spirit. Scribner 1908 325p illus $3 915.69

1 Palestine—Description and travel 8-29361

Also available in a reprint, without illustrations, in the Sylvanora edition (Scribner $1.50) The $3 edition has 16 full page illustrations in color

Van Dyke, Henry—Continued
"His writing always combines poetry, religion and the love of nature. . . His descriptions of these long-loved places is at once refreshing and reverent." Dial

915.7 SIBERIA

Ossendowski, Ferdynand Antoni, 1876- and Palen, Lewis Stanton, 1876-
Man and mystery in Asia. Dutton 1924 343p front $2 915.7
1 Altai mountains 2 Sakhalin 3 Siberia—Description and travel 4 Usuri, Siberia (Region) 24-4299
"Adventure in strange and little known parts of Asia, chiefly in Siberia, where the author spent ten years of his life studying mineral veins or making scientific expeditions." Book rev. digest
"Full of thrilling adventure, and at the same time gives valuable descriptions of little known regions and peoples." Review of reviews

Smolka, Harry Peter
* 40,000 against the Arctic; Russia's polar empire. Morrow 1937 308p illus maps $3.50 915.7
1 Arctic regions 2 Siberia—Description and travel (W) 37-27476
"In recent years the Soviet Government has been laying the foundation of the economic development of Arctic Asia. . . The 40,000 in the title are the pioneers, explorers, biologists, physicists, miners, engineers, doctors, airmen, and others who are breaking the trail to this polar empire. . . Mr. Smolka gives a clear account of all he saw and heard on his visit to Siberia, and if he is less certain than his Soviet hosts of the fulfillment of all their hopes he makes it clear that the pioneers are striving with an enthusiasm and ardour that are wholly exemplary." Manchester guardian

Zenzinov, Vladimīr Mikhaĭlovich, 1880- and Levine, Isaac Don, 1892-
Road to oblivion. McBride 1931 250p illus $3 915.7
1 Russkoe Ust'e, Siberia 2 Siberia—Exiles 31-17586
Also available in a reprint (McBride $1.75)
"Because of his continuous revolutionary activities, Zenzinov was exiled to a remote spot in northern Siberia, near the Arctic ocean. Details of the perilous 'expedition' north, and how he adapted himself to the new life, winter and summer, fishing and hunting, observing the isolated people, and always planning his escape combine to make a fascinating and enlightening record." N.Y. libraries

915.8 AFGHANISTAN. TURKESTAN

Forbes, Mrs Rosita (Torr) 1893-
Forbidden road—Kabul to Samarkand. Dutton 1937 289p illus $3.50 915.8
1 Asia, Central—Description and travel 2 Turkestan, West—Description and travel (W) [37-28708]
"Altho she was assured that there were no facilities for travelers in the Soviet Central Asian Republics, the author made the journey thru Afghan territory, visited the Republics, and reached Samarkand after an adventurous trip. This record of her experiences is filled with stories of her encounters with all classes of people, from the workers to the scientists and technicians." Book rev. digest

James, Ben
Secret kingdom; an Afghan journey. Reynal 1934 295p illus o.p. 1939 915.8
1 Afghanistan—Description and travel 34-35284
Published in England under title: Afghan journey
"The author devotes the first half of the book to a description of two adventurous journeys to Afghanistan, a country difficult of access, for geographical and political reasons, and therefore seldom visited by travelers. He approached it by way of Persia and left by the Khyber pass. The second part of the book is a short history of the three rulers who have been in power in recent years." Bkl.

Roosevelt, Theodore, 1887- and Roosevelt, Kermit, 1889-
East of the sun and west of the moon. . . Scribner 1926 284p illus maps $3.50 915.8
1 Asia, Central—Description and travel 2 Hunting—Asia, Central 26-19271
"A graphic account of an expedition to Turkestan in Central Asia undertaken in search of the ovis poli, the wild sheep discovered by Marco Polo in 1256. The chapters are written alternately by the two brothers. Illustrated with photographs." Cleveland

Thomas, Lowell Jackson, 1892-
Beyond Khyber Pass. . . Appleton-Century 1925 255p illus maps $4 915.8
1 Afghanistan—Description and travel. 25-19912
Also available in a reprint in the Century vagabond travel books (Grosset $1.25)
"Strenuous, dangerous days in wild, mountainous Afghanistan where the foreigner is disliked and suspected, are spiritedly described with many sidelights on conditions in the country. Photographs of exceptional excellence by Harry Chase." N.Y. state lib.

915.9 FARTHER INDIA

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following is also recommended:
Kornerup, Ebbe. Friendly Siam; tr. from the Danish, by M. Guiterman. Putnam 1929 256p illus o.p. 1939

Candee, Mrs Helen Churchill Hungerford) 1861-
New journeys in old Asia; Indo-China, Siam, Java, Bali. . . Stokes 1927 284p illus o.p. 1939 915.9
1 Bali (Island)—Description and travel 2 Indo-China, French—Description and travel 3 Java—Description and travel 4 Siam—Description and travel 27-24431
"The unspoiled Orient as seen by two American women, the author and her artist friend, Lucille Douglass. Starting from Honk Kong in a coastwise steamer, they traveled to Haiphong, then to Hue and the Mandarin trail, through Siam to Java. A charming and useful book, beautifully illustrated from Miss Douglass' etchings." Wis. bul.

Casey, Robert Joseph, 1890-
Four faces of Siva; the detective story of a vanished race. Bobbs 1929 372p illus o.p. 1939 915.9

1 Angkor, Cambodia 2 Cambodia—Description and travel 3 Cochin China—Description and travel 4 Khmers
29-8123

"In a narrative which combines legend with fact, the traveler's sketch with the archeologist's précis, and employs the story teller's art to link them all, Mr Casey describes the discovery of the hidden cities of the Khmers, and reconstructs as far as possible the story of the race that built them and vanished." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Casey presents vividly the awe-inspiring beauty of these monuments to an extinct civilization; he writes with wit and restraint about the theories advanced to explain the annihilation of a highly intellectual race." Bookman

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-
East of Siam; ramblings in the five divisions of French Indo-China. . . Appleton-Century 1926 357p illus map $1 915.9

1 Indo-China, French—Description and travel
26-16713

"What the author has already done for North and South China he now does for French Indo-China. He writes a leisurely, friendly story of everywhere in Annam, illustrated with a photographic record of his wanderings." Book rev. digest

Loti, Pierre, pseud. 1850-1923
Siam; tr. from the French by W. P. Baines. Laurie 1913 182p illus 6s 915.9

1 Angkor, Cambodia 2 Siam—Description and travel
14-16968

"One of the slightest, but most characteristic of his . . . books—an account of the ruined temples of Angkor-Vat built up on a reminiscence of his childhood, and completed by a return to the home of his youth and a renewal of its dreams." Athenaeum

Ward, Francis Kingdon, 1885-
Plant hunter's paradise. Macmillan 1938 347p illus $3.50 915.9

1 Botany—Burma 2 Burma—Description and travel 3 Zoology—Burma
(W) [38-27359]

"A popularly written day-by-day account of the author's plant-hunting expedition into northern Burma to the boundary of Tibet. Altho the interest lies mainly in the flora of the country, the book contains also observations on other scientific matters and on the habits and customs of the people. Illustrated with photographs of mountain scenery, individual plants, and natives." Book rev. digest

Wells, Carveth, 1887-
Six years in the Malay jungle; with a preface by F. A. Lucas. . . Doubleday 1925 261p illus map o.p. 1939 915.9

1 Malay peninsula—Description and travel
25-26441

"Sent to the Malay peninsula in 1913 to survey a railroad route, Mr Wells was kept there by the fortunes of war for six years. His narrative of experiences in 'Topsy Turvy Land' contains animal tales and jungle exploits so striking as sometimes to suggest nature fakers' and travellers' tales, but the accuracy of his natural history is vouched for in the preface by no less of an authority than F. A. Lucas of the American museum of natural history." Book rev. digest

916 AFRICA

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following title is also recommended:

Smith, E. W. Golden stool; some aspects of the conflict of cultures in Africa; with a foreword by F. D. Lugard. Edinburgh house press 1927 328p o.p. 1939

Akeley, Mrs Delia Julia (Denning) 1875-
Jungle portraits. . . McBride 1930 251p illus $1.75 916

916
a31

1 Africa—Description and travel 2 Africa—Social life and customs 3 Dwarfs 4 Hunting—Africa 5 Zoology—Africa
[30-7309]

"A fascinating account of Mrs. Akeley's adventures while on safari in the jungles of the Congo. She tells of apes, monkeys and crocodiles, of hunting elephants, and of the flamingoes of Lake Hannington, where 'islands of rosy pink birds dotted the mirrored surface of the blue-green water.' Several chapters are devoted to the Pygmy tribes whose habits she studied. Illustrated from photographs." Cleveland

Bernatzik, Hugo Adolf, 1897-
Dark continent. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Westermann, Diedrich, 1875-
The African today; with a foreword by the Rt. Hon. Lord Lugard. Oxford 1934 343p $3 916

1 Africa—Native races 2 Education—Africa 3 Ethnology 4 Negroes—Education 5 Negroes in Africa
34-37811

Published for the International institute of African languages and cultures. Contents: Anthropology and practical work in Africa; Man and race in Africa; Some observations on the negro's mind; Economic bases of life; Arts and crafts; Life in the family; Group and the individual; Old and new governments; Supernatural world; Education and missions; Language and education; Disintegration and reintegration; Clash of races

"The best recommendation of this book is that it tells the non-scientific reader exactly what he wants to know about Africa from the general standpoint of the anthropologist." America

Bibliography: p341-43

Wilson, James Calmar
* Three-wheeling through Africa. Blue ribbon bks. 351p illus 98c 916

1 Africa—Description and travel
[36-23275]

Reprint of book published originally by Bobbs in 1936

"Record of a trip of two young men in search of adventure. They hitch-hiked to New York, took passage on a tramp steamer for Africa, and then, on a motorcycle from Lagos on the west coast to Massawah on the Red Sea. An amusing and entertaining narrative. Profusely illustrated, and end-paper maps." Ontario library review

916.1 North Africa

Fletcher-Allen, Edgar, 1886-
Wayfarer in North Africa; Tunisia and Algeria. . . Houghton 1931 243p illus (Wayfarer ser.) $2 916.1

1 Algeria—Description and travel 2 Tunisia—Description and travel [32-6774]

"This work furnishes a fairly comprehensive introduction and guide to Tunisia and Algeria. Like the other wayfarer books, it describes and gives the historic background of well known cities, such as Carthage, Tunis, and Constantine, and many obscure ones. Good illustrations and index." Wis. bul.

"For its size Fletcher Allen has packed a great deal into his book, which is almost entirely free from the usual traveller's accidental irrelevances; and his occasional but necessary résumés of history are clear and expeditious." Times (London) lit. sup.

Foster, Harry La Tourette, 1895-1932
Vagabond in Barbary. Dodd 1930 308p illus $3 916.1

1 Africa, North—Description and travel 30-28207

"Mr. Foster's journey took him to the picturesque provinces of French North Africa, Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia. He describes the teeming life of the native markets, the rituals of religious fanatics, the cafes where members of the Foreign Legion congregate, the camps of the Bedouins and the camel caravans. An entertaining travel book not burdened with unnecessary statistics." Ontario library review

McLaurin, Hamish
What about North Africa? Travel in Morocco, Algeria, and Tunisia. . . Scribner 1927 362p illus may $3 916.1

1 Africa, North—Description and travel 27-5127

"The author joins a party travelling through Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia, and describes, to Americans in particular, this newly developed winter touring country of North Africa. Gives slight historical settings and should be useful in planning a trip, but as detailed information is omitted, would be of little use as a guidebook." Cleveland

Powell, Edward Alexander, 1879-
In Barbary; Tunisia, Algeria, Morocco and the Sahara. . . Grosset xxii,483p illus maps (Century vagabond travel bks.) $1.25 916.1

1 Barbary States—Description and travel 26-19742

Reprint of a book first published 1926 by Century

"Disclaiming in the foreword that there is anything startling or new in his book Col. Powell adds, 'But I can at least make this claim for my book, that it is the only one, so far as I am aware, which brings the whole of French North Africa, its history, peoples, customs, places of interest, resources, and politics, between two covers.' " Book rev. digest

"While the volume is a book of much interest and value for home reading the author has incorporated so much definite information as to routes, travel conditions, hotels and other matters that the traveler can use it as a guide." N.Y. Times

916.2 Egypt

In addition to the titles entered in this class, the following is also recommended: Maspero, Sir G. C. C. Egypt: ancient sites and modern scenes. Appleton-Century 1911 330p o.p. 1939

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers
Egypt and the Sûdân. . . 8th rev ed Scribner 1929 ccviii,495p illus maps o.p. 1939 916.2

1 Egypt—Description and travel 2 Sudan, Egyptian—Description and travel 29-26917

In the 1929 edition two new chapters on Christian and Islamic architecture were added. A standard guide

Borchardt, Ludwig, 1863- and Ricke, Herbert
Egypt. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Fedden, Henry Romilly, 1908-
Land of Egypt; illus. from photographs by A. Costa and others. Scribner 1939 120p illus $4.50 916.2

1 Egypt—Description and travel [40-1342]

"Mr. Fedden, who has lived in Cairo for many years, writes not only of the sights to be seen but also of the beliefs, the way of life, that lie behind them. . . Intertwined with this discussion of the political situation of the past and prognosis for the future is a beautifully written description of the country as it may be seen by the discerning tourist." Boston Transcript

"The great wealth of illustrations of remarkable excellence, archaeological, architectural, topographical and ethnological, with which this volume is enriched is almost a danger to its author as it tends to divert the reader's attention from his text. Should it have that effect it would be a great pity as Mr. Fedden writes thoughtfully and interestingly about Egypt." Times (London) lit. sup.

Hichens, Robert Smythe, 1864-
Egypt and its monuments; illus. by Jules Guérin. . . Appleton-Century 1908 272p illus $10 916.2

1 Egypt—Antiquities 2 Egypt—Description and travel 8-30606

Impressions of a journey from Cairo to Philæ. Contains twenty beautiful colored reproductions from paintings by Jules Guérin and many photographs

Loti, Pierre, pseud. 1850-1923
Egypt (La mort de Philæ); tr. from the French by W. P. Baines. . . Laurie 1911 309p illus 6s 916.2

1 Egypt—Description and travel [10-2607]

Descriptions of modern Egypt, from the Sphinx up the Nile to Philæ, stressing the beauty and glamor of the country

Ludwig, Emil, 1881-
* The Nile; the life-story of a river; tr. by M. H. Lindsay. Viking 1937 619p illus maps $5 916.2

1 Africa, East—Description and travel 2 Nile river 37-27099

Also available from Garden City pub. co. at $1.98

"The struggle of the Nile with man and nature as it curves its way to the sea, the civilization of the people inhabiting its banks, the type of country through which it goes, and its legends and history from early Egyptian times. In painting this wide panorama of scenes and events Ludwig attempts to show how they are affected by and in turn affect the personality and destiny of the river. A colorful story; very ambitious in scope." Bkl.

Ludwig, Emil—Continued
"Of high value to many kinds of people. It is not profound or learned; it does not break new ground; and the specialist will wish that it gave a more connected and accurate account of each topic. But it was not written for the specialist." Sat. rev. of lit.

Newman, Edward Manuel, 1870-
Seeing Egypt and the Holy Land. . . Funk 1928 394p illus (Newman travel-talks) $1.98 916.2
1 Egypt—Description and travel 2 Palestine—Description and travel 28-24111
"In this volume I have tried to convey my impressions and relate my experiences during several journeys through Egypt and the Holy Land. These trips, varied as they were interesting, were made by train, river steamer and dahabiyeh or houseboat. . . I have purposely avoided too much historical detail. This is intended as an illustrated travel story." Introduction
"His book has the element of deep human interest, and in no place are his descriptions biased, prejudiced or distorted." Boston Transcript

Powers, Harry Huntington, 1859-1936
Egypt. Macmillan 1924 327p illus (University travel ser.) $3 916.2
1 Egypt—Description and travel 24-23299
A very useful guidebook. It is planned for a tour of about five weeks, is limited to the ordinary Nile tour, and touches upon nothing that is not accessible to the ordinary traveler on familiar routes

Quibell, Mrs Annie Abernethie
Wayfarer in Egypt. . . Houghton 1926 206p illus map (Wayfarer ser.) $2 916.2
1 Egypt—Description and travel [26-22003]
"All that is aimed at in this book is that it may point out to other sojourners and travellers some things about Egypt, which, after long residence there, seem to me important." Preface
"Here are no random impressions, but carefully planned, seriously written, authoritative studies which abound in practical data and are surprisingly complete." Sat. rev. of lit.
Bibliography: pref. p11

Streeter, Daniel Willard, 1883-
Camels! Putnam 1927 277p illus o.p. 1939 916.2
1 Hunting 2 Sudan, Egyptian—Description and travel 27-22850
Hilarious account of a hunting trip through the Sudan
"There are in it charming etchings of the beauty of the African scene and arresting passages of incidents of danger, though lightly sketched, and all highly colored with the healthy enjoyment of the author, both in his adventures and in their telling." N.Y. World

Van Dyke, John Charles, 1856-1932
In Egypt; studies and sketches along the Nile. Scribner 1931 206p illus o.p. 1939 916.2
1 Egypt—Description and travel 2 Nile river 31-4215
"This is an excellent companion volume to Baedeker for the tourist to Egypt. The author is not only an experienced traveler but also an authority on the history of art. Understanding himself what the stranger in Egypt is sure to see and apt to ask about, he has taken care to answer questions both for the historically minded and for the lover of nature and humans. His style is easy and entertaining."Outlook

Wyndham, Richard, 1896-
The gentle savage; a Sudanese journey in the province of Bahr-el-Ghazal, commonly called "The Bog." Morrow 1936 287p illus map $2.75 916.2
1 Africa, Central—Native races 2 Sudan, Egyptian 36-18340
"An excellent travel story of life in the southern Sudan in Africa, seen through the observant eyes of an artist." Cincinnati
"While this book is entertaining as a 'snapshot' of certain aspects of Anglo-Sudanese official life, a collection of magnificent photographs (by the author) of remarkable grace and beauty gives it a permanent value as a record of native types and activities, especially in the dance." Manchester guardian

916.3 ETHIOPIA

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Forbes, Mrs R. T. From Red sea to blue Nile; a thousand miles of Ethiopa. Furman 1935 386p illus $3.50

Powell, E. A. Beyond the utmost purple rim; Abyssinia, Somaliland, Kenya Colony, Zanzibar, the Comoros, Madagascar. Appleton-Century 1925 xx,431p illus maps o.p. 1939

Makin, William James, 1894-
Red sea nights. McBride 1933 327p illus o.p. 1939 916.3
1 Red sea—Description and travel 33-4930
"This volume of lively, descriptive journalism, though inaccurate here and there, will give quite a considerable amount of pleasure to any stay-at-home reader who would like to visit vicariously Palestine, Egypt and various Red Sea ports like Hodeidah and Jidda. There is a detailed and really well written account of the Duke of Gloucester's visit to Addis Ababa for the crowning of Ras Tafari. This portion of the book gives a vivid picture of the life in the capital of Abyssinia." Times (London) lit. sup.

Nesbitt, Lewis Mariano, 1891-1935
* Hell-hole of creation; the exploration of Abyssinian Danakil. Knopf 1935 382p illus map $3.75 916.3
1 Danakil, Country of the 35-3894
Published in England with title: Desert and forest
"Account of the trip made by the author, a British mining engineer, and two Italians, from the Abyssinian capital northward thru the hitherto unexplored Danakil country. The land is almost entirely desert and in the northern part sinks to three or four hundred feet below sea level with recorded temperatures of 150 degrees and more." Book rev. digest
"The achievement is spectacular and the book is so ably and sensitively written that it belongs with the best in its field." New republic

Rey, Charles Fernand, 1877-
Real Abyssinia. Lippincott 1935 291p illus map $4 916.3

1 Ethiopia 35-27420

"A reliable account of the manners and customs, of the history, of foreign penetration, of the administration, of the slavery question, the armed forces and, above all, of the resources and commerce of the country." Times (London) lit. sup.

916.4 Morocco

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Elsner, Mrs Eleanor. Magic of Morocco. Dodd 1928 319p illus o.p. 1939

Sloane, W. M. Greater France in Africa. Scribner 1924 293p illus maps o.p. 1939

Hall, Leland, 1883-
Salah and his American. Knopf 1933 198p $2 916.4

1 Morocco—Description and travel 2 Negroes in Morocco 34-966

"Study of the relationship between an American, temporarily in Morocco, and Salah, a coal-black Negro, formerly a slave in the household of a Berber chieftain. During the months when he was servant to the American, Salah came to depend upon his master to such an extent that he could not grasp the fact that his master would eventually leave him and return to America. The master in turn felt a strange responsibility for the wilful individual who had become practically his slave. They parted eventually, neither having understood the other." Book rev. digest

"To convey the special charm of Mr. Hall's little book is almost impossible. The descriptions of native life in Morocco are admirable and so are the many comic scenes in which Salah plays an innocent part." N.Y. Times

Loti, Pierre, pseud. 1850-1923
Morocco; (Au Maroc) tr. from the French by W. P. Baines. Laurie 1929 332p 6s 916.4

1 Morocco—Description and travel [30-26392]

Published 1889 under title: Into Morocco

"Description of the embassy from France to Fez in 1889. Full of action and color and on the whole conveys a correct impression of the artistic aspect of life in Morocco." Pittsburgh

Ossendowski, Ferdynand Antoni, 1876-
Fire of desert folk; the account of a journey through Morocco; English text by L. S. Palen. Dutton 1926 354p front $3 916.4

1 Morocco—Description and travel 26-16591

"Carrying letters of introduction that opened official doors wide and secured for him every facility for the trip, the author with his wife saw Morocco at his comfortable leisure; a journey in marked contrast to his feats of hardy adventure in other countries. In 'The fire of desert folk' he paints word pictures of Moroccan scenes and reproduces his impressions of the people." Book rev. digest

"The present volume is a more than usually interesting book of travel. Mr. Ossendowski has definite views and opinions about the places he visits, and even though one is not convinced that those views are necessarily sound, they are always interesting." Spectator

Bibliography: p343-44

Wharton, Mrs Edith Newbold (Jones) 1862-1937
In Morocco. Scribner 1920 290p illus map o.p. 1939 916.4

1 Morocco—Description and travel 20-17098

"Colorful descriptions of a month's automobile journey in 1918 through the little traveled land of Morocco which still retains its mystic, old-world attractiveness. Touches on the history, architecture, social conditions and folklore of the country. . . Excellent full-page illustrations, bibliography." N. Y. state lib.

"The best thing a returned traveler can do is to give you not facts but atmosphere. Edith Wharton in 'In Morocco' does this for you excellently well, partly because she is so impersonal, never intruding her own reactions, simply bringing up the scene around you with all its blinding sunlight, desert heat and vivid colors." Independent

916.5 Algeria

Ossendowski, Ferdynand Antoni, 1876-
Oasis and simoon; the account of a journey through Algeria and Tunisia. Dutton 1927 306p $3 916.5

1 Algeria—Description and travel 2 Tunisia—Description and travel 27-27775

Published in England under title: Breath of the desert

"The author's notebook of his travels thru Algeria and Tunisia were the source of the material for this volume. The following brief description of the way the notes were gathered is at once commentary and index. It occurs in the preface: 'notes jotted down or elaborated in hotels, Government offices, native taverns, wayside Moorish cafés and markets; among beggars and the descendants of buccaneers; in palaces, in the houses, huts and tents of Berbers, Kabyles and Arabs; before the mosques; during hunting expeditions on the plains or among peaks of the Jujura; amid Roman or Phoenician ruins or out of the limitless wastes of the Sahara.'" Book rev. digest

"He combines the qualities of the geographer, scientist, historian, poet, mystic, and humanist, and in this account of his recent journeyings in Algeria and Tunisia, he has produced another book that is as different from ordinary travel literature as mellow wine is from bottled lemonade." Nation and Athenaeum

916.6 North Central Africa

Allen, Van Nes, 1914-
I found Africa. Bobbs 1939 306p illus $3 916.6

1 Hunting 2 Liberia—Description and travel (W) 39-27105

When he was eighteen, the author succumbed to his uncontrollable desire to go big-game hunting in Africa. This book is the story of his adventures in Liberia and of his travels into the back country where few white men had ever gone

Allen, Van Nes—Continued

"Although some of the occurrences related are not unusual, they are told with a freshness and charm which make them enjoyable. The book is enlivened throughout with many amusing fantastic tales." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Buchanan, Angus, 1886-

Sahara. Murray, J. 1926 301p illus map 21s 916.6

1 Natural history—Sahara 2 Sahara—Description and travel 26-13835

Formerly carried also by Appleton-Century

"An intrepid explorer and an accomplished biologist recounts vividly his 3,500 mile journey through the great African desert. He describes his adventures with zest and writes with understanding of the strange tribes he encountered. There are chapters on the birds and animals of the desert. Well illustrated by photographs taken on the expedition." Cleveland

"Captain Angus Buchanan is an eloquent talker. He can also write. He succeeds in conveying to us very well the terror of the dead, decaying desert, across which caravans pass like hurried, silent ghosts." New statesman

Du Chaillu, Paul Belloni, 1838-1903

Country of the dwarfs; illus. by Erick Berry. Harper 1928 261p illus $2 916.6

1 Africa, West—Description and travel [99-5630]

First published 1872. An account of a journey into the jungles of Africa in the years 1863-64. Describes some of the African animals and plants seen and tells of the superstitions of the natives and of an encounter with the dwarfs

Hall, Leland, 1883-

Timbuctoo. . . Cresset 1927 278p illus 3s 6d 916.6

1 Timbuktu [27-24122]

Formerly carried also by Harper

"With eye, ear and mind open to every impression, the author settled for a few months on the edge of the Sahara, welcoming the Arabs, the Berbers and black men who came to his door. He has written down little stories of his contacts with native life in a leisurely, colorful narrative that has individuality and keen interest." N.Y. libraries

Lunn, Mrs Katharine (Fowler)

The gold Missus; a woman prospector in Sierra Leone. Norton 1938 303p illus maps $3 916.6

1 Prospecting 2 Sierra Leone—Description and travel (W) 38-27180

"When the author's English geologist husband was ordered to the Gold Coast, without her, she, an American geologist in her own right, decided to prospect for metals in practically unknown Sierra Leone. Accompanied only by native servants, she made intrepid ventures through jungles and over mountain ridges, 'finding gold in a river bed, iron along a divide, molybdenum hidden within a waterfall.' Her contacts with officials and natives, impressions of the latters' characteristics, and her personal experiences are all engagingly described in a spirited narrative. Photographs, small drawings, three maps. Short bibliography." N.Y. libraries

Perkins, Mrs Edna (Brush)

Red carpet on the Sahara; illus. by E. A. Webster. Jones, Marshall 1925 223p illus o.p. 1939 916.6

1 Sahara—Description and travel 25-19847

"A charming description of a six-weeks' camel trip across the Sahara Desert. . . The beauty of the desert and a sympathetic, vivid picture of Arab life are unfolded. Adults and young people will read this book of travel with pleasure." Cleveland

Seabrook, William Buehler, 1887-

Air adventure; Paris—Sahara—Timbuctoo; photographs by the author. Harcourt 1933 211p illus o.p. 1939 916.6

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Sahara—Description and travel 3 Timbuktu—Description 33-10859

"This volume contains the record of the trip by air made by the author, an American woman novelist, and a French flying ace, across the Sahara desert to Timbuctoo and back. The object of the trip was an interview with Père Yakouba, the monk who was introduced to readers of the author's earlier book, 'Jungle Ways.'" Book rev. digest

"Seabrook's verve and his paradox, finding the ordinary in the midst of the unusual, and reversing it at times, have given him his own place among the contemporary travelers. Others have gone to Arabia, Haiti and Africa; some have brought back widely different tales. But when we read one of Seabrook's books, all we care is to see how he makes this particular locale adjust itself to his personality and furnish us a new and jolting sense of physical and psychic adventure." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Jungle ways. . . Harcourt 1931 308p $1.49 916.6

1 Africa—Native races 2 Africa, West—Description and travel 3 Africa, West—Social life and customs 4 Negroes in Africa 5 Witchcraft—Africa 31-26745

"A vivid and exciting description of the little known natives of the Ivory Coast jungle, revealing startling facts about their black magic, secret rites, and social customs." Pittsburgh

"Apart from the exciting and hilarious episodes, one recognizes the fact that the book possesses decided value in that it throws light, not only on 'magic' and 'sorcery,' but on the basic thought and ideas of primitive peoples, their racial traditions and their moral and religious principles or lack of them." Outlook

916.7 South Central Africa

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Mackenzie, J. K. Black sheep; adventures in West Africa. Houghton 1916 313p illus $2.50

Synge, P. M. Mountains of the Moon. Dutton 1938 221p illus $4 (W) The author was a member of the British Museum expedition to East Africa in 1934-1935.

Tilman, H. W. Snow on the equator. Macmillan 1938 265p illus $3 (W) Tho the author gives a fair proportion of his pages to the routine life of a planter in a tropical country, the heart of this book is devoted to accounts of feats of mountain climbing on the lofty snow-bearing peaks of equatorial Africa

Akeley, Carl Ethan, 1864-1926
In brightest Africa. . . Doubleday 1923 267p illus maps o.p. 1939 916.7

916.7 1 Africa, East—Description and travel 2 Gorillas 3 Hunting 23-17409
L31 "A naturalist's viewpoint and problems make this record of various hunting expeditions one of unusual interest. Not only are the incidents of big game hunting described, but the results of observations of the characteristics of lions, gorillas, and elephants are given, as well as practical explanations of the mounting of specimens for museum groups." N.Y. state lib.

Akeley, Carl Ethan, 1864-1926, and Akeley, Mrs Mary Lee (Jobe) 1886-
Adventures in the African jungle. Dodd 1930 275p illus $3 916.7

6.7 1 Africa, East—Description and travel 2 Animals—Habits and behavior 3 Hunting 4 Zoology—Africa, East 31-455
5/a "Animal stories and stories of the Akeleys' life in camp on Carl Akeley's fifth and last expedition to Africa. Intended for girls and boys still in their teens, it will interest many adult readers. It contains Theodore Roosevelt's 'Joys of Africa,' which Carl Akeley considered a classic, reprinted from Roosevelt's 'African game trails.' Many excellent photographs." Cleveland

Akeley, Mrs Mary Lee (Jobe) 1886-
* Carl Akeley's Africa . . . foreword by H. F. Osborn. Dodd 1929 321p illus maps $3 916.7

1 Africa, East—Description and travel 2 Akeley, Carl Ethan, 1864-1926 3 Hunting 4 Zoology—Africa, East 29-27647
"An account of the Akeley-Eastman-Pomeroy expedition for the American museum of natural history, written by the leaders wife, Mary Akeley, who accompanied her husband. Their hunt for animals on the plains of Africa, and the work of photography and preparation of the skins for preservation and shipment, is fully described, there are also descriptions of the land and its people. At the climax of the trip Mr Akeley was stricken with fever, died, and was buried in the heart of the country he loved. His wife carried on with the expedition, chiefly in the land of the mountain gorilla and in the sanctuary of the Parc National Albert." Book rev. digest

Blixen, Karen, 1885-
* Out of Africa, by Isak Dinesen (pseud). Random house 1938 389p $2.75 916.7

1 Kenya Colony and Protectorate (W) 38-27201
A record of the author's life on a Kenya coffee plantation, of the natives and their primitive festivals, of big game and of Lulu the gazelle who came to live at the farm

Boyd, Joyce
My farm in lion country. . . Stokes 1933 273p illus $3 916.7

1 Hunting 2 Lions 3 Tanganyika territory—Description and travel 33-27385
"Dairy farming in Tanganyika, Central Africa, is an exciting and often dangerous business. Mrs. Boyd gives an animated description of everyday life in a land where elephants stroll across her garden and her Persian kitten enjoys playing tag with a visiting leopard. The book is quite different from other accounts of African life and is written in an informal, engaging style with plenty of humor." Cincinnati

Egerton, F. Clement C.
African majesty; a record of refuge at the court of the King of Bangangté in the French Cameroons; illus. from photographs by the author. Scribner 1939 xx,348p illus maps $3.75 916.7

1 Bangangté 2 Cameroons, French—Description and travel [39-13868]
"The author, an English publisher and a student of anthropology under Malinowski, spent several months in the French Cameroons, most of the time living in the hut of the king of Bangangté. The book is in two parts, the first gives an account of the trip to Bangangté, the second, and longer part, describes the life there." Book rev. digest
"His book, while being an exceptional contribution to social knowledge, is absorbing reading for anyone, whether scientifically minded or not. 'African Majesty' is worthy of more than a casual glance. A very human narrative executed with urbanity." N.Y. Times

Flandrau, Mrs Grace C. (Hodgson) 1889-
Then I saw the Congo. Harcourt 1929 308p illus maps o.p. 1939 916.7

1 Africa, Central—Description and travel 2 Kongo river 29-18538
"No interesting element in African life seems to be omitted from this story of a trip from the west coast to the Indian Ocean—big-game hunting, cannibal tribes, training of elephants, exiled foreigners, even missionaries." Pittsburgh
"In an easy, conversational style the writer tells of the training of wild elephants, the pigmies, with their gentle, lovable natures—far from the deadly savages she has a right to expect, from current report. . . At Nairobi, the journey over, the reader will be as loath to leave as the author was to start for the United States and civilization." Boston Transcript
Bibliography: p305

Gatti, Attilio
Great mother forest. . . Scribner 1937 335p illus map $3.75 916.7

1 Ituri forest 2 Kongo, Belgian 37-28548
"The author's explorations in the Belgian Congo in a territory scarcely known to white men. He describes the pygmy tribes which inhabit the land, the rare animals and in particular the great apes. It is a colourful book, filled with illustrations made from photographs, and throws new light on the primitive peoples and animals of a quarter of the globe that is in truth 'darkest Africa.' " Ontario library review

Gide, André Paul Guillaume, 1869-
Travels in the Congo; tr. from the French by Dorothy Bussy. Knopf 1929 375p illus map o.p. 1939 916.7

1 Africa, French Equatorial—Description and travel 2 Cameroons—Description and travel 29-13239
"The travel note-book of a journey thru the Congo undertaken by a distinguished French man of letters who was not only a keen and discriminating observer of native life and scenes, but also a sympathetic and friendly one, who seems to have commanded the affection and respect of the blacks. His journal is simply and beautifully written. It is illustrated from photographs taken by the cinematographer who accompanied M. Gide." Book rev. digest

Gide, André P. G.—Continued
"Distinguished in manner, without any imported romanticism, but reflecting the spell of the Dark Continent. . . 'Travels in the Congo' is a book to place beside one's set of Conrad." N.Y. Times

Hoefler, Paul Louis, 1893-
Africa speaks; a story of adventure, the chronicle of the first trans-African journey by motor truck from Mombasa on the Indian ocean to Lagos on the Atlantic, through central equatorial Africa. . . . Winston 1931 469p illus o.p. 1939 916.7

1 Africa, Central—Description and travel 2 Colorado Africa expedition, 1928-29 3 Hunting 31-14490

"The account of a 12,000 mile motor-truck journey across equatorial Africa, taken to get film pictures of jungle life. Excellent illustrations of animal life." Pittsburgh

"It must not be supposed that the book is merely or chiefly the story of the making of a movie. It is in fact a capital account of adventure, hunting (chiefly with the camera) and observation of a keen type." Outlook

Huxley, Julian Sorell, 1887-
Africa view. Harper 1931 478p illus $2.50 916.7

1 Africa, East—Description and travel 31-1488

"A valuable account of several months' travel in the British possessions in Africa by a scientist with wide interests and an alert mind. Observations and conclusions concerning governmental policies, native training and education are interspersed with illuminating descriptions of native and wild life, amusing episodes of travel, and glimpses of superb views. Photographs." N.Y. libraries

Bibliography: p10-11

Johnson, Martin Elmer, 1884-1937
Camera trails in Africa. Grosset 342p illus $1.25 916.7

1 Hunting 2 Kenya Colony and Protectorate [24-6909]

A reprint of a title first published 1924 by Appleton-Century

"Fascinating account of wild animal photography in Africa. The author is a motion picture photographer who has spent many years in the South Seas. This is the story of his first African adventure. Excellent illustrations." Wis. bul.

Congorilla; adventures with pygmies and gorillas in Africa. . . Harcourt 1931 281p illus $1.69 916.7

1 Africa, East—Description and travel 2 Dwarfs 3 Gorillas 4 Kongo, Belgian —Description and travel 32-3157

"The record of the two years spent by these indefatigable explorers in hunting for gorillas and of their experiences with 500 'little people' whom they brought to their camp to study and to use in a picture that they were filming. There are the usual excellent photographs." Pittsburgh

* Over African jungles. . . Harcourt 1935 263p illus $1.89 916.7

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Africa, British East—Description and travel 3 Photography of animals 35-18087

"Account of the Johnsons' safari by airplane during which they flew 60,000 miles over the big game country of East and Central Africa. The book is illustrated with one hundred photographs, some of them stills taken from the moving pictures made during the trip." Book rev. digest

Safari; a saga of the African blue. . . Putnam 1928 294p illus $5 916.7

1 Hunting 2 Kenya Colony and Protectorate 28-7425

"Mr and Mrs Martin Johnson went to Africa to take motion pictures of wild animal life. . . Their adventures in getting the pictures as recounted by Mr Johnson are an interesting complement to the uniquely beautiful illustrations. Some of the material is reprinted from various magazines." Book rev. digest

"A first-rate book, well worth reading. It deserves all the more praise because writing and stills were only by-products and afterthoughts of Mr. Johnson's African campaign. . . The illustrations are superb." W. Beebe in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

M. E. Johnson's "Lion; African adventures with the king of beasts" (Putnam 1929 281p illus map $5) describes the lion in his native haunts. A companion volume to "Safari"

Leigh, William Robinson, 1866-
Frontiers of enchantment; an artist's adventures in Africa. Simon & Schuster 1938 299p illus $3 916.7

1 Africa, East—Description and travel 2 Akeley, Carl Ethan, 1864-1926 3 Animals—Habits and behavior 4 Hunting 5 Zoology—Africa, East (W) 38-27871

Study of travel in Africa by a painter who accompanied the Carl Akeley expedition of 1926, in order to make paintings and drawings of African fauna and flora. Illustrated with many drawings in black and white

Mackenzie, Jean Kenyon, 1874-1936
African clearings. Houghton 1924 270p $2.50 916.7

1 Cameroons—Social life and customs 2 Missions—Cameroons 24-9797

"Miss Mackenzie lived for fourteen years as a missionary among the Bantu tribes of the Kamerun in West Africa. She writes of the people among whom she ministered, of their childlike ways, their hospitality, her talks with them about the things of God, her moments of coming very close to them, her hardships and her luxuries. The whole is a sensitive interpretation of the souls of her 'black sheep' and their forest background." Book rev. digest

Reprinted in part from various periodicals

Miller, Janet
Jungles preferred. . . Houghton 1931 320p illus $3.50 916.7

1 Kongo, Belgian—Description and travel 31-7738

"The story of three years spent by a woman doctor in the Belgian Congo, ministering to a tribe afflicted with sleeping sickness. But she sees a great deal besides patients and writes of it with zest and much human interest." Pittsburgh

Stanley, Sir Henry Morton, 1841-1904
In darkest Africa. Scribner 1890 2v o.p. 1939 916.7

1 Africa, Central—Description and travel [A13-712]

The notable account of Stanley's expeditions into Africa, through the Congo, in 1887-89

Two additional accounts of his travels and adventures are:
Stanley, Sir H. M. How I found Livingstone. Scribner 1891, xxiii,736p illus maps o.p. 1939
Stanley, Sir H. M. Through the dark continent. Harper 1878 2v o.p. 1939

Wells, Carveth, 1887-
In coldest Africa. McBride 255p illus map $1.75 916.7

1 Africa, Central—Description and travel 2 Ruwenzori mountains [29-24025]

Reprint of a book published by Doubleday in 1929

"Vivid, breezy account of a safari in British East Africa, the author's object being to follow the Duke of Abruzzi's trail to the fabled Mountains of the Moon." Pittsburgh

"The book is full of valuable data, and it contains a voluminous appendix giving the correct pronunciation of names, comparative altitudes, maximum and minimum temperatures at various places, with an itemized list of what the party was equipped with, and a Swahili vocabulary." Boston Transcript

916.8 South Africa

Akeley, Mrs Mary Lee (Jobe) 1886-
* Restless jungle. McBride 1936 313p illus $1.75 916.8

1 Africa, South—Description and travel 2 Zoology—Africa, South 36-33960

3/ "Mrs. Akeley, who had accompanied her famous husband on many of his scientific journeys, set out for herself on an expedition to photograph wild life in the largest wild life sanctuary in the world, in the Eastern Transvaal. Many of her adventures were unusual, and her photographs are distinctive." Wis. bul.

Bigland, Mrs Eileen
Lake of the royal crocodiles. Macmillan 1939 299p illus maps $2.50 916.8

1 Bemba (African tribe) 2 Rhodesia—Description and travel (W) 39-27230

"Description of the author's trip to nothern Rhodesia where a friend had established an estate in the midst of the beautiful region inhabited by the Bemba people. Her experiences in learning to know the natives are humorously told." Book rev. digest

"Her affectionate yet humorous account of the Bemba people is an attractive bit of amateur anthropology. . . A book whose charm lies in its wealth of vivid sketches of human nature, white or black, confronting its daily tasks in Africa, and in its swift and penetrating impressions of people met and problems hastily talked of in the course of travel." Manchester guardian

Coudenhove, Hans, d. 1925
My African neighbors; man, bird, and beast in Nyasaland. Cape, J. 1926 245p (Travellers' lib.) 3s 6d 916.8

1 Nyasaland 2 Zoology—Nyasaland [25-17364]

"A close and accurate observer of the habits and traits both of man and beast, writes entertainingly and instructively of his contacts with the natives, the birds and animals of Nyasaland. The accounts of apes and monkeys, white ants and warrior ants, and of his little mongoose, Rikki-Tikki, are as interesting as his revelations concerning the negro mind." N.Y. libraries

Dawson, William Harbutt, 1860-
South Africa: people, places and problems. . . Longmans 1925 448p illus o.p. 1939 916.8

1 Africa, South—Description and travel 25-20852

"Mr. Dawson's book is a very comprehensive one, made up in part of a traveler's impressions but to a greater degree, of the seasoned conclusions of a student and historian. The social problems of the South African Union are his chief interest, the relations between the two dominating European races and of both with the natives. The latter question is discussed in the chapter entitled Will South Africa go black? Other chapters take up political and social life, education, types of scenery, gold mines, agricultural conditions, Asiatics in South Africa." Book rev. digest

916.9 Madagascar

Osborn, Chase Salmon, 1860-
Madagascar, land of the man-eating tree. New republic 1924 443p illus maps $5 916.9

1 Madagascar 24-12226

"Madagascar, an island one thousand miles long and four hundred miles wide, is the comparatively unknown land about which Mr. Osborn gives much information, including geology, ethnology, fauna and flora, customs and folklore. Especially readable and interesting chapters are: 'Americans in Madagascar,' 'Madagascar's Robinson Crusoe—Robert Drury,' 'Captain Kidd and a pirate republic in Madagascar,' 'Missionary work in Madagascar' and Musical instruments and music.' Numerous illustrations and an index." Cleveland

917 NORTH AMERICA

Jones, Llewellyn Rodwell, 1881- and Bryan, Patrick Walter
North America; an historical, economic and regional geography. 2d ed rev and enl Methuen 1928 559p illus maps 32s 6d 917

1 North America—Description and travel 2 North America—Economic conditions 3 North America—Historical geography 4 North America—Industries Agr29-1138

Formerly carried also by the Dial press

"The first part combines description with historical comment, showing the influence of each physiographic region upon the westward-moving peoples. The second section deals with the general climate and the principal crops and mineral resources. The third part studies the relation of human activities to the physical characteristics of particular regions." Book rev. digest

Covers the same ground as Smith's "North America" but is not so much limited to economic geography and deals more fully with physical characteristics

Smith, Joseph Russell, 1874- and Phillips, Merton Ogden

* North America. . . Harcourt 1940 1008p illus maps $6 917

1 Geography, Commercial 2 North America—Description and travel 3 North America—Economic conditions (W) 40-10945

"A new edition of a textbook in economic geography, first published in 1925 . . . now extensively revised and in part re-written in the light of the developments and changes of the last fifteen years." Book rev. digest

"Its people and the resources, development, and prospects of the continent as the home man." Subtitle

"The authors were not content merely with adding new material. Old material has been reconsidered in the light of developments in conservation, changes in comprehension, in methods of safeguarding our resources. The book is not a history, except as geography and physiography are history. This is a panoramic study of North America, including the Caribbean islands, the countries of Central America and Panama Canal zone." Kirkus

917.1 CANADA

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Faris, J. T. Seeing Canada. Lippincott 1924 264p illus o.p. 1939

Garvin, Mrs A. B. W. Canadian cities of romance, by Katherine Hale, [pseud] drawings by Dorothy Stevens. new ed McClelland 1928 225p illus o.p. 1939

Baedeker, Karl, firm, publishers

Dominion of Canada, with Newfoundland and an excursion to Alaska. . . 4th rev ✕ and augmented ed Scribner 1922 lxx, 420p illus maps $6 917.1

1 Alaska—Description and travel 2 Canada—Description and travel GS22-236

This edition contains 14 maps and 12 plans; also a map of the Rocky mountains comprising the Lake Louise and Field districts

Brinley, Mrs Kathrine Gordon (Sanger)

Away to the Canadian Rockies and British Columbia; illus. by D. P. Brinley. Dodd 1938 301p illus $2.50 917.1

1 Alberta—Description and travel 2 British Columbia—Description and travel 3 Rocky mountains, Canada (W) 38-15850

An informal record of a trip thru the Canadian Rockies including Emerald lake, Yoho national park, Lake Louise, Banff, Mount Assiniboine, and on to Vancouver and Victoria

Hamilton, Louis

Canada, landschaft und volksleben. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Miller, Max, 1901-

* Great trek; introduction by Grey Owl. Davies 1935 223p 3s 6d 917.1

1 Canada 2 Reindeer [35-27450]

Formerly carried also by Doubleday

An absorbing story based on records and accounts of the herders, of the drive of three thousand reindeer by ten men from Alaska to the east side of the Mackenzie delta, a drive which occupied five years

Nute, Grace Lee, 1895-

The voyageur; illus. by C. W. Bertsch. Appleton-Century 1931 288p illus $3 917.1

1 Ballads, French-Canadian 2 French-Canadians 3 Fur trade 31-31636

"A vivid, entertaining account of the French-Canadian voyageur, covering his history from about the middle of the eighteenth century to the middle of the nineteenth. There are chapters on fur and fur traders, the voyageur's canoe, fort life, voyageur songs, and the voyageur as soldier, settler and explorer. Bibliographical notes." Book rev. digest

Quinn, Vernon, 1881-

Beautiful Canada. . . Stokes 1925 382p illus $4 917.1

1 Canada—Description and travel 25-20062

Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.25

"Covers the entire Dominion, weaving in bits of history and legend with the descriptive text and introducing each chapter with a quotation from the Canadian poets. An attractive book well worth having." Wis. bul.

With 65 illustrations from photographs. Contains a chapter on scenic roads for motorists

Siegfried, André, 1875-

‡ Canada; tr. from the French by H. H. Hemming & Doris Hemming. Harcourt 1937 341p maps $3 917.1

1 Canada—Economic conditions 2 Canada—Politics and government 3 Canada—Population (W) 37-27316

The purpose of the book is "to describe the international position of Canada in the economic and political equilibrium of the twentieth century; [to] study her geographical contacts, her racial structure, her place in world markets as both producer and consumer, the possibilities awaiting her in the realm of culture, her exceptional role of interpreter between the United States and England, and finally, her chance of survival as an independent nation." Preface

"A brilliant and stimulating book on the complex and vital problem of Canada and its future." Spectator

917.11 British Columbia

Albee, Mrs Ruth (Sutton) and Albee, William

Alaska challenge; with Lyman Anson. Dodd 1940 366p illus $3 917.11

917.11 1 Alaska—Description and travel 2 British Columbia—Description and travel
932 3 Eskimos (W) 40-6566

"The remarkable story of a trip through the trackless wilderness of British Columbia to Alaska—the entertaining and exciting account of the wanderings within the Arctic Circle of a young couple on a journey that took two years to accomplish, with another year spent on the frozen shores of Bering Strait among the primitive Esquimaux." Huntting

"The adventurous interest [of the book] is heightened by the fact that the Albees had almost no money. They had to pause to work their way. And the people they met, as well as the events of their own exciting pilgrimage, have part in the zestfulness of their tale." N.Y. Times

Hornaday, William Temple, 1854-1937
Camp-fires in the Canadian Rockies; illus. by J. M. Phillips. Scribner 1906 353p illus maps $5 917.11

1 British Columbia—Description and travel 2 Hunting 3 Rocky mountains, Canada 6-35980

"There were adventures with grizzlies, a great mountain sheep hunt, [and] wonderful trout fishing. . . Mr. Hornaday is in close sympathy with nature, abounds in humor, writes well, and, best of all, he abhors the ruthless destruction of animal life." N.Y. Times

917.12 Northwest territories

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Freeman, L. R. On the roof of the Rockies; the great Columbia icefield of the Canadian rockies. Dodd 1925 270p illus o.p. 1939 Record of a journey by pack-train mainly for the purpose of photographing scenes in the Rockies

MacBeth, R. G. Policing the plains . . . rev and enl ed Hodder 1921 320p illus o.p. 1939 Life and work of the Northwest mounted police

Freeman, Lewis Ransome, 1878-
The nearing North. Dodd 1928 385p illus $3.50 917.12

1 Hudson bay 2 Northwest, Canadian—Description and travel 28-23033

"A picturesque account of a summer spent in exploring the rivers of the Canadian Northwest. Traveling by boat Mr. Freeman made his journey in three stages going first up Peace river, then down the Athabasca, Great Slave and Mackenzie rivers, and at last down the Saskatchewan and Nelson to Hudson bay." Chicago

Godsell, Philip Henry
Arctic trader; the account of twenty years with the Hudson's bay company. Putnam 1934 329p illus $3.50 917.12

1 Fur trade 2 Hudson's bay company 3 Indians of North America—Canada 4 Northwest, Canadian—Description and travel 34-34776

"Aside from the sheer thrill of his vividly told adventures, what strikes one most is the manner in which the old traditions of the company hung on in the North." N.Y. Times

Heming, Arthur Henry Howard, 1870-
Drama of the forests; romance and adventure; illus. by the author with reproductions from a series of his paintings owned by the Royal Ontario museum. Doubleday, Page 1921 324p illus o.p. 1939 917.12

1 Hunting 2 Indians of North America—Canada 3 Northwest, Canadian—Description and travel 21-27470

"A beautiful book in the make-up and writing. The author-artist has traveled in the northern forests between Maine and Alaska for over 30 years and he here gathers together in a continuous narrative the romance and color and facts which he gleaned during many journeys. The illustrations are unusual." N.Y. state lib.

917.13 Ontario

Longstreth, Thomas Morris, 1886-
Lake Superior country. . . Appleton-Century 1924 360p illus maps $3.50 917.13

1 Ontario—Description and travel 2 Superior, Lake 24-8907

"The region covered is the Canadian side of Lake Superior and, in particular, Nipigon, both river and lake. It is a narrative of camping, tramping, canoeing and fishing, enriched like his other books with human contacts all along the way. Official help was always at his disposal. He traveled with the officers of the Department of fish and game, with forest rangers and the Canadian mounted police. He was out with Ojibways and half-breeds for days at a time and went on a journey with government agents to pay the Indians treaty-money. [Bibliography]" Book rev. digest

Pinkerton, Mrs Kathrene Sutherland (Gedney) 1887-
‡ Wilderness wife. Carrick 1939 327p illus $2.75 917.13

1 Frontier and pioneer life (W) 39-27096

"Faced with the necessity of an outdoor life, with no resources, but with some writing ability, a young couple made a home in the Canadian wilderness in northern Ontario and supported themselves for five years. A log cabin was built with their own hands, supplies were transported by canoe, and Mrs. Pinkerton developed unsuspected skill in cooking, trapping, gardening, and driving a dog team." Bkl.

"The record of their wilderness experiences makes as good a story of this kind as any one should want to read." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

White, Stewart Edward, 1873-
The forest; illus. by Thomas Fogarty. Doubleday 1903 276p illus $2 917.13

1 Ontario—Description and travel 2 Outdoor life [3-27957]

Describes the picturesque wild Canadian country north of Lake Superior

Let no old camper look upon this volume as a treatise on woodcraft, though there is much woodcraft in it. Neither can it be considered a book of travel or description, for the landscape is not defined. It is rather a series of detached impressions of the mystery and charm and wonder of the forest. Adapted from the author's Apologia

917.14 Quebec

Bovey, Wilfrid, 1882-
Canadien; a study of the French Canadians. Dent 1933 293p illus o.p. 1939 917.14

1 French-Canadians 2 Quebec (Province) 33-25768

"A most sympathetic and well-informed book, illustrated with many good photographs. Mr. Bovey describes the great province of Quebec, recalls its romantic history that began two centuries before Englishmen settled in Canada, and then deals with the French Canadians of today." Spectator

"Mr. Bovey's . . . chief business in this well-documented and profusely illustrated book is to make a plea for the

Bovey, Wilfrid—Continued
French Canadian. His history of French Canada—particularly those parts of it in which he deals with the influence of religion and the Jesuit missions—is unusually fair to all concerned." New statesman and Nation

Brinley, Mrs Kathrine Gordon (Sanger)
Away to Quebec; a gay journey to the province; twenty four drawings by D. P. Brinley. Dodd 1937 286p illus $2.50 917.14

1 Quebec (Province)—Description and travel (W) 37-11278

"Describes a journey along the north shore of the St. Lawrence, a week-end at Manoir Richelieu, trout fishing at Tadoussac, the Saguenay, a visit to Peribonka, home of Maria Chapdelaine, a visit to an old Hudson Bay trading post, churches, manor houses, and many other points of interest in the old Province of Quebec. Illustrated, and valuable road notes for the motorist." Ontario library review

Call, Frank Oliver, 1878-
Spell of French Canada. Page 1926 372p illus map $3.75 917.14

1 Quebec (Province)—Description and travel 26-12989

"A charming and sympathetic portrayal of French Canada—its cities, religions, festivals, history, folklore and handicrafts." Cleveland

"It is his thoroughness, coupled with a passion for all that is lovely or quaint or striking in the life and scenery of his native province, that makes this record the best volume on the subject." Literary rev.
Bibliography: p363-64

Clarke, John Mason, 1857-1925
The Gaspé; including an account of L'Ile Percée, the finial of the St. Lawrence; being a blend of reveries & realities, history & science, description & narration and a signpost to the traveler in the Gaspé peninsula; with an introduction by David McCord. Yale univ. press 1935 xxiv,203p illus $3 917.14

1 Gaspé district, Quebec 35-27268

First published 1923 under title: L'Ile Percee

"History, geography, and some account of present-day life are combined in this book, written by a geologist and first published in 1923. A new introduction and excellent illustrations characterize this reprint." Bkl.
Some references: p202-03

Davies, Blodwen
* Romantic Quebec; illus. by Barbara Stephens. Dodd 1932 213p illus $2.50 917.14

1 Quebec (City)—Description 2 Quebec (City)—History 3 Quebec (Province)—Description and travel 4 Quebec (Province)—History 32-22528

"Describes a series of excursions, mostly beyond the walls of the city of Quebec into such places as the Beauport road, the island of Orleans, the old parish of Beaumont, Indian Lorette, the refuge of the Hurons, Cap Rouge, and Charlesbourg, all lying within sight of the ancient fortress, and each the scene of a romantic episode in the history of New France." Ontario library review

Saguenay, "Saginawa"; the river of deep waters; with illus. by Paul Caron & G. A. Cuthbertson. Dodd 1930 204p illus $2.50 917.14

1 Saguenay river 2 St. Lawrence valley [30-26953]

"A charming travel book about the Saguenay and other beauty spots in Quebec. There are chapters on: The St. Lawrence; Quebec; Ile D'Orleans; The Laurentians; Murray Bay; The portals of the Saguenay; Tadoussac; Singing pines and shining waters; The Indian chapel; The upper Saguenay and beyond, and The Saguenay, river of deep waters. Four illustrations in colour, and thirty in black and white." Ontario library review

Hémon, Louis, 1880-1913
Journal; tr. by W. A. Bradley. Macmillan 1924 67p illus o.p. 1939 917.14

1 Quebec (City)—Description 24-29412

Louis Hémon went to Quebec to gather material for his novel 'Maria Chapdelaine.' In this little book are recorded his experience and impressions. He describes the steamer trip from Liverpool to Quebec, the city itself, and his journey on to Montreal." Book rev. digest

Hogner, Mrs Dorothy Childs
Summer roads to Gaspé; illus. by Nils Hogner. Dutton 1939 288p illus $3.50 917.14

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 Gaspé district, Quebec 3 Quebec (Province)—Description and travel (W) 39-27377

Informal travelogue of the motor trip taken by the author and her artist-husband along the trail north to the Gaspé peninsula, with a brief boat trip to Newfoundland and Labrador

"A very good travel chronicle, individual and alive. And this quality of life is instantly arresting in Nils Hogner's drawings." N.Y. Times

Longstreth, Thomas Morris, 1886-
Laurentians, the hills of the habitant. Appleton-Century 1922 459p illus maps $3.50 917.14

1 Laurentian mountains 2 Saguenay river 3 St Lawrence valley 22-11519

"Describes expeditions by airplane and canoe to Indian settlements, to the home of the Chapdelaines, immortalized in Louis Hémon's novel, 'Maria Chapdelaine,' and to that fisherman's paradise, 'La Grand Décharge' where he found the fighting ouananiche celebrated by Kipling and Van Dyke." Cleveland

"It is no insult to call the book 'sort of glorified guide book.' Though there are a number of good illustrations, a camera or sketch book in the hands of the writer would have improved the book." Canadian historical review

Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa. . . Appleton-Century 1933 318p illus $2.75 917.14

1 Montreal—Description 2 Ottawa—Description 3 Quebec (City)—Description 33-27066

"Guide book, history and travel book rolled into one, and written in a charming and lively style. Mr. Longstreth, who is thoroughly familiar with this region, succeeds in imparting his information to the reader. The book is well illustrated and the three cities are mapped, two of them in the endpapers." Wis. bul.

Smith, Mrs Olive (Willett)
Gaspé the romantique; with drawings by Vivian Moir. Crowell 1936 156p illus map $2 917.14

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 Gaspé district, Quebec 36-10076

"Mild and pleasant gossip about the traditions, customs, and inhabitants of the little land to the north of the province of New Brunswick. Doesn't pretend to be a guidebook." New Yorker

917.15 New Brunswick

Thomas, Lowell Jackson, 1892- and Barton, Rexford Wadleigh, 1898-
In New Brunswick we'll find it. Appleton-Century 1939 253p illus $2.50 917.15

1 New Brunswick, Canada—Description and travel (W) 39-27414

"If, like the authors before their exploratory visit, you think of New Brunswick as some vague area in eastern Canada, you will enjoy changing your opinion after you read of its historic past and its captivating present." Cincinnati

An account of explorations of the highways and byways, the towns and fishing villages, the sea coast and countryside, the past and present of New Brunswick, Canada

917.16 Nova Scotia

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:
Towne, C. H. Ambling through Acadia; with drawings by W. E. Heitland. Appleton-Century 1923 250p illus $2.50

Brinley, Mrs Kathrine Gordon (Sanger)
Away to Cape Breton; illus. by Putnam Brinley. Dodd 1936 266p illus map $2.50 917.16

1 Cape Breton—Description and travel 36-11205

"An informal pilgrimage to one of the quaint and interesting islands off the eastern end of Nova Scotia. Not only a delightful story of personal adventure, but also a complete picture of the island, with valuable information about roads, hotels, food and other details that prepare one for Canada's delightful vacation lands." Ontario library review

Call, Frank Oliver, 1878-
Spell of Acadia. Page 1930 427p illus $3.75 917.16

1 Acadia—Description and travel 30-14671

"One of the well known Spell books, covering the region comprising Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. The Longfellow interest will commend it to many readers (the 'Green gables' interest to others). Well illustrated." Wis. bul.

Bibliography: p421-22

Longstreth, Thomas Morris, 1886-
To Nova Scotia, the sunrise province of Canada. . . Appleton-Century 1935 290p illus $3 917.16

1 Nova Scotia—Description and travel 35-27088

"A genial and informing account of a leisurely journey through Nova Scotia. The author and his traveling companion, a doctor who quotes poetry, have a happy faculty of getting 'the feel of the place,' and bringing out the connection of points of interest with the past. Photographs, maps on end papers [and] bibliography." N.Y. libraries

917.18 Newfoundland

Seitz, Don Carlos, 1862-1935
The great island; some observations in and about the crown colony of Newfoundland. Appleton-Century 1926 251p illus $3 917.18

1 Newfoundland 2 Newfoundland—Description and travel 26-18141

"The author, an American journalist, made a journey to Newfoundland in the dead of winter and the book affords a veritable voyage of discovery to the reader, so little do we know of the region. The author's interest in the subject, his journalistic skill and the scanty literature on this island make the book a real acquisition." Wis. bul.

Contains about 30 illustrations from photographs. A chapter on Labrador is included and one on Newfoundland's famous breed of dogs

917.19 Labrador

Merrick, Elliott
True north. Scribner 1933 353p $2.75 917.19

1 Labrador—Description and travel 33-5638

"How the author and his wife, unversed in the ways of the wild, endured unbelievable, gruelling hardships and found a kind of life they would never willingly relinquish in the wilds of Labrador, 550 miles up Grand river, makes enthralling reading. The narrative, re-creating every aspect of their fall and winter sojourn, gives intimate acquaintance with the country, the trappers, life in the bush and the joys of fire and food and a tent at the end of the day. Map on end papers." N.Y. libraries

Wallace, Dillon, 1863-
Long Labrador trail. McClurg 1911 315p illus maps $3 917.19

1 Labrador—Description and travel [7-17002]

First published 1907. Continues the exploration work begun in company with Leonidas Hubbard, jr. in 1903 and told in "The lure of the Labrador wild." This trip which was made in 1905 was successful. The appendix gives the scientific data of the expedition

Lure of the Labrador wild; the story of the exploring expedition conducted by Leonidas Hubbard, jr. Revell 1905 339p illus map $3 917.19

1 Hubbard, Leonidas, 1872-1903 2 Labrador—Description and travel 5-6300

"Story, well told, of the adventures and terrible hardships of an expedition in search of an unexplored lake in the interior of Labrador. Mr. Hubbard, leader of the expedition, perished from starvation." Wis. bul.

Wallace, Dillon—Continued

917.2 MEXICO

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Dobie, J. F. Tongues of the monte. Doubleday 1935 301p illus $3 Stories, legends, ballads, etc. collected in northern Mexico

Herring, H. C. and Terrill, Katherine, eds. Genius of Mexico; lectures delivered before the fifth seminar in Mexico, 1930. Committee on cultural relations with Latin America 1931 334p o.p. 1939

Lawrence, D. H. Mornings in Mexico. Knopf 1927 189p $2.50

Austin, Mrs Jean
Mexico in your pocket; illus. with color sketches by Vaslav Mariinsky and with photographs. Doubleday 1937 140p illus o.p. 1939 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 37-2283

"Mrs. Austin makes no attempt to do unusual things, make unusual studies, depart from usual routes or, in short, to look at Mexico with anything but a tourist's eye. . . Tourists should find her book useful in its facts, helpful in its suggestions and entertaining to read. It will add to the pleasure as well as the ease of a holiday." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Barretto, Larry, 1890-
Bright Mexico; illus. by Ann Barretto. Farrar 1935 236p illus $1 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 35-913

"Believing that first impressions are best and that even a tourist may see an old country from a new and fresh point of view, Mr Barretto has written this informal, appreciative account of the visit which he and his wife made recently to Mexico. The book avoids the usual guidebook information and background history: small anecdotes of the trip, personal reactions to places seen and occasional reflections upon Mexican civilization claim Mr Barretto's delighted attention." Book rev. digest

Beals, Carleton, 1893-
Mexican maze; with illus. by Diego Rivera. Lippincott 1931 369p illus $1 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel
2 Mexico—Social life and customs
3 Superstition 31-27020

"His account of the history, the legends, the personalities of the communities he writes about, is the result of unlimited personal observation, as sympathetic as it is delightful. I cannot always share his conclusions as when he likens Tepoztlan to Florence and his adjectives are sometimes too brightly purple for my taste, . . . Mr. Beals has collected scores of the crisp and charming pen and ink sketches of Diego Rivera to illustrate its pages. And he has much sound common sense in his concluding chapters." Stuart Chase in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Brehme, Hugo
Mexiko. See entry under Picturesque 910 Series

Brenner, Anita, 1905-
* Your Mexican holiday; a modern guide; maps and illustrations by Carlos Merida and José Garduno. rev ed. . . Putnam 1935 374p illus maps $2.50 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 36-522

New edition in preparation, 1940

A recommended guidebook containing information about the art, history and customs of the country in addition to the usual facts for tourists

Calderon de la Barca, Frances Erskine (Inglis) 1804-1882
Life in Mexico during a residence of two years in that country. Dutton xxxviii, 542p (Everyman's lib.) o.p. 1939 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 2 Mexico—Social life and customs A14-1168

"Reminiscences of the wife of the Spanish ambassador to Mexico, published 1843, the same year as the 'Conquest of Mexico,' and at Prescott's desire. A gossipy, intimate account." Cleveland

Chase, Stuart, 1888- and Tyler, Marian
* Mexico; a study of two Americas; illus. by Diego Rivera. Macmillan 1931 338p illus $3 917.2

1 Mexico—Civilization 2 Mexico—Description and travel 3 Mexico—Social life and customs 31-27256

Also obtainable from Macmillan in the Royal edition at $1

"Mr Chase says that the purpose of his book is to create an understanding between 'old family Americans and their parvenu cousins' on the other side of the Rio Grande. The two civilizations are compared—the one based on handicraft, the other on the machine; then, taking Tepoztlan, a town of 4,000 people, as typical of the Mexico of today, Mr Chase shows how a machineless community lives, as contrasted with our 'Middletown.'" Book rev. digest

"With its implications, this is one of the most vital and thought-provoking books of our time. It is elaborated with a variety of data concerning Mexican Indian life, enriched with vivid glimpses of the charm, color, variety, and picturesque uniqueness of the Mexican scene." Sat. rev of lit.

Bibliography, p329-34

Fergusson, Erna, 1888-
Fiesta in Mexico; with illus. by Valentín Vidaurreta. Knopf 1934 267p illus $3 917.2

1 Dancing—Folk and national dances
2 Dancing—Mexico 3 Indians of Mexico—Dances 4 Mexico—Religion 5 Mexico—Social life and customs 34-38344

"Since a whole bookful of descriptions of one fiesta after another would be rather insupportable reading, Miss Fergusson writes as entertainingly about her adventures in discovering the fiestas as she does about the fiestas themselves. These sketches have the true ring of Mexican travel. . . Her enthusiasm for Mexico will communicate itself to every one who reads her book." N.Y. Times

Flandrau, Charles Macomb, 1871-
Viva Mexico! Appleton-Century 1937 xxii, 293p $2 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 37-22780

"A reissue of a popular and enjoyable book about Mexico (first published 1908), with a new preface in which the author tells of his initial experience in that country." Bkl.

Flandrau, Charles M.—Continued

"An entertaining book in which the author with unrestrained frankness quaintly discusses Mexican things that interest him. It touches upon social, religious, political, and business topics, and handles them all in bold, independent fashion and with as much carefulness as a writer with a whimsical and somewhat humorous disposition could be expected to exhibit." N.Y. Times

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-

Trailing Cortez through Mexico; with sixty-seven reproductions from photographs by the author. Stokes 1935 373p illus $3.50 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 2 Mexico—History 35-20087

"This book might be entitled Mexico revisited, since the author tramped through the country in 1911, in the early days of his vagabonding. In this later journey he used the ever-present auto as a supplement to foot travel, giving a good idea of the present possibilities for tourist travel." Wis. bul.

Jackson, Joseph Henry, 1894-

* Mexican interlude. new and rev ed Macmillan 1937 246p illus map $2.50 917.2

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 Mexico—Description and travel 37-34879

First published 1936. An appendix has been added in the 1937 edition giving practical suggestions for the tourist. Also obtainable from Grosset at $1

"The literary editor of the San Francisco Chronicle and his wife toured over the new Pan-American highway on their trip. With Mexico City as headquarters, they visited all the famous sights, and a few obscure ones, in the vicinity. Laughter and good fellowship round out the volume." Cincinnati

Reading about Mexico: p233-38

King, Mrs Rosa Eleanor, 1865-

Tempest over Mexico; a personal chronicle; illus. by Carroll Bill. Little 1935 319p illus $3 917.2

1 Cuernavaca, Mexico 2 Mexico—History 35-10142

"In 1910 a remodeled manor house of a great hacienda became a hotel in the capable hands of an English widow in Cuernavaca and thus bound to the city, the author not only witnessed the revolutionary troubles, but lost her home, and was forced finally to flee with the army retreating before Zapata. Her chronicle, gives from a personal angle, an idea of the turmoil in Mexico during those years." N.Y. libraries

Lamb, Dana, and Cleveland, June

Enchanted vagabonds. Harper 1938 415p illus maps $3.50 917.2

1 Central America—Description and travel 2 Mexico—Description and travel (W) 38-27418

The story of the travels of a young couple who set out from San Diego in a homemade sixteen-foot combination of a surfboat, kayak, sailboat and canoe, with limited supplies, less than five dollars in cash and unlimited courage and ingenuity. Their three year voyage took them along the coast of Lower California and the coasts of Mexico and Central America to the Panama canal

"It is the psychological aspect of the book, and the descriptions of these two highly civilized people's reactions to emergencies and conditions of life in which they had to rely entirely on their own courage and enterprise, which . . . lift it above the level of the ordinary narrative of travel." Times (London) lit. sup.

Marett, R. H. K. 1907-

Eye-witness of Mexico. Oxford 1939 267p illus map $3 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 2 Mexico—Social conditions [39-27459]

"From 1931 to 1938 the author, an Englishman, lived in Mexico, working first with the Mexican railway company and later with an oil company. His insight into business conditions, his familiarity, through marriage with a Mexican girl, with the old order of aristocratic Mexican society, and his dispassionate outlook have resulted in an unusually lucid interpretation of the chaotic state of Mexico today." Bkl.

Phillips, Henry Albert, 1880-

New designs for old Mexico. McBride 1939 xx, 336p illus $2.75 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 2 Mexico—Economic conditions (W) 39-27006

"Observations of Mexican problems and conditions, supplemented by appreciative descriptions of cities, villages, and country, make a book of . . . value for all interested in Mexico. The author sees a recurrent pattern that has persisted in spite of efforts, from the Spanish invasion to the present time, to impose new designs; he is aware of racial and cultural conflicts and he pays special attention to the land and labor policy of the present regime." Bkl.

Redfield, Robert, 1897-

Tepoztlan, a Mexican village; a study of folk life. Univ. of Chicago press 1930 247p illus map (Chicago. University. Publications in anthropology) $3 917.2

1 Ethnology—Mexico 2 Mexico—Social life and customs 3 Tepoztlán, Mexico 30-15556

"A study of the daily round of life in a modern Mexican village, showing that the inhabitants constitute an intermediate group between tribal and city types of life. The author provides a carefully documented account of this pueblo, its communal organization, its methods of labor, its customs, medicine and magic, clothes, cookery and land tenure, and tells how its inhabitants live and die. [Bibliography]." Book rev. digest

"Redfield's book is intensive and pioneering—the first modern, thorough investigation of a typical Mexican village . . . 'Tepoztlán' is worthy to be included among the best scientific works written on Mexico." Sat. rev. of lit.

Ross, Edward Alsworth, 1866-

Social revolution in Mexico. Appleton-Century 1923 176p $1.75 917.2

1 Mexico—Politics and government 2 Mexico—Social conditions 23-8455

"On a basis of an eleven weeks' sojourn in Mexico, the author writes about the country from a sociologist's point of view. . . . He describes the people of Mexico and the handicaps from which it is suffering thru its traditions, former governments and revolutions. He then goes on to a survey of the changes . . . in land reform, the labor movement, the church and public education, and the promise they hold out for the future." Book rev. digest

Seaton, George W.

* What to see and do in Mexico; how to get the most out of your trip. Prentice-Hall 1939 351p illus $3.50 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel (W) 39-4991

"A book which concentrates its attention on the most worth-while things, and tells how these can be seen with the least expenditure of time and effort. . . [It] will tell you how to have a good time in Mexico for various periods ranging from a week to two months." Foreword

"There is a good deal of advice on clothing, customs regulations, luggage and money, all of it sound, and the photographic illustrations are exceptionally good. In general the author has done everything possible in a book of the sort to make it useful to the reader for whom he has designed it." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Spratling, William Philip, 1900-

Little Mexico. Smith, P. 1932 198p illus $3.50 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 32-4493

"Mr Spratling is an American artist who has made Mexico his home. His book is a series of prose sketches of his friends and neighbors in Taxco, where he has built his own house, and of his journeys by boat and on horseback into 'Tierra Caliente,' the hot country. The book is illustrated with the author's drawings." Book rev. digest

"He can communicate its way of life with an understanding and a sympathy which no other North American to my knowledge possesses. If he strikes the Northerner as a little mystical, it is only because Little Mexico is drenched in mystery. I have been there and I can testify." Stuart Chase in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Terry, Thomas Philip, 1864-

* Terry's guide to Mexico. . . rev ed The author 1938 ccxlix,625p maps $3.50 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel [35-2037]

First published 1909 under title: "Terry's Mexico." Frequently revised with minor changes

"The new standard guidebook to the Mexican republic with chapters on the railways and the ocean routes to Mexico." Subtitle

Toor, Frances

Guide to Mexico; completely rev. and enl.; with maps and photographs. McBride 1940 356p illus maps $2.25 917.2

1 Mexico—Description and travel 40-27243

First published in America 1936. In the second American edition, "information is compact and up to date, and covers sightseeing, transportation, and hotels. Small maps of the country, the Laredo-Mexico highway and the capital. The pagination includes 80 pages of advertising." Bkl.

What to read: p231-32

Motorist guide to Mexico; maps and drawings by Carlos Merida and A. Cervantes. Crown 1938 340p illus maps $2 917.2

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 Mexico—Description and travel (W) 39-27285

"An up-to-date, detailed guide which covers transportation, routes, sightseeing, with a large amount of miscellaneous information. Hotels are listed, but they are usually only the more expensive ones. Festival dates and a glossary are appended." Bkl.

Vasconcelos, José, 1882- and Gamio, Manuel, 1883-

Aspects of Mexican civilization. . . Univ. of Chicago press 1926 193p map $2 917.2

1 Mexico—Civilization 27-3419

Lectures on the Harris foundation (Chicago university) 1926

Contents: Latin-American basis of Mexican civilization, by José Vasconcelos; Indian basis of Mexican civilization, by Manuel Gamio

"The first realistic thinking on the Mexican problem outside the columns of crusading journals." Literary rev.

917.26 Yucatan

Gann, Thomas William Francis, 1867-1938

In an unknown land. Duckworth 1924 263p illus map 10s 6d 917.26

1 Mayas 2 Yucatan—Antiquities 3 Yucatan—Description and travel 25-6042

"Dr. Gann, British archaeologist and fellow of the Maya society, gives an informal account of an expedition to Yucatan to study the ruined cities of the Mayas. Together with descriptions of the ancient civilization as revealed in its ruins are stories of the strange customs of the natives to-day." Pittsburgh

"Dr. Gann tells his story well, treating with an excellent humour those incidents of travel which are so exasperating in the experience and so amusing in the recollection. The early history of the region is well set forth." Times (London) lit. sup.

Mason, Gregory, 1889-

Silver cities of Yucatan; with a preface by H. J. Spinden. . . Putnam 1927 340p illus map o.p. 1939 917.26

1 Mason-Spinden expedition, 1926 2 Yucatan—Antiquities 3 Yucatan—Description and travel 27-8477

An account of the archaeological expedition which went under the auspices of the Peabody museum of Harvard to explore the eastern coast of Yucatan

'Mr. Mason's book is . . . a story of travel and adventure, rather than an archaeological record. He tells it with a gay and infectious enthusiasm, which fires our curiosity and leaves us looking eagerly forward to his account of the further and more detailed explorations which he hopes to make." Saturday rev.

Thompson, Edward Herbert, 1860-1935

People of the serpent; life and adventures among the Mayas. Houghton 1932 301p illus $3.50 917.26

1 Chichen-Itza, Mexico 2 Mayas 3 Yucatan—Antiquities 4 Yucatan—Description and travel 32-22529

"This modest recital of the experiences during the 40 years which the archeologist has devoted to the study of the ruins of the Mayas in Yucatan will interest readers who have no special interest in North American archeology." Pittsburgh

917.28 CENTRAL AMERICA

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:

Koebel, W. H. Central America: Guatemala, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Honduras, Panama, and Salvador. Scribner 1917 382p illus map (South American ser.) $4.50

Beals, Carleton, 1893-

Banana gold; illus. by Carlos Merida. Lippincott 1932 367p illus $3.50 917.28

1 Central America—Description and travel 32-26561

§ "Nothing of significance escaped the keen eye of this journalist as he traversed Central America during the war between the marines and the Nicaraguan outlaw Sandino, and his story loses nothing in the telling. He shows up the squalor and corruption of native life and the inefficiency or worse of the officials." Pittsburgh

"First-class vivid journalism, and an effectual warning to any one who is thinking of going South to escape from the horrows of the machine age." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Elliott, Lillian Elwyn, 1880-

Central America; new paths in ancient lands. . . Dodd 1925 280p illus map o.p. 1939 917.28

1 Central America—Description and travel 2 Central America—History 25-10027

Covers pathways of travel in Guatemala, Honduras, Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and British Honduras

"While it gives an invaluable and critical survey of the history of this picturesque and romantic region and touches lightly, but with scientific accuracy, on its archaeology, it is written with a humour, a freshness of impression which conveys an irresistible invitation to visit the lands. . . It is a notable book both as a book of reference, but also as a book to read and re-read for the pleasure of reading." Times (London) lit. sup.

Gann, Thomas William Francis, 1867-

Discoveries and adventures in Central America. Scribner 1929 261p illus $5 917.28

1 British Honduras—Antiquities 2 British Honduras—Description and travel 3 Chumuchà, British Honduras 4 Mayas [29-26266]

"In the present volume Dr. Gann again takes up the thread of his personal narrative of adventures, pursued from year to year in the area of the ancient Maya ruins of British Honduras. This is the author's fifth book on similar lines, the whole comprising instalments of an interesting serial story written practically on the spot. For Dr. Gann is an indefatigable diarist and each volume is an account of the season's journeys and results, with but little editing. [Illustrated]" Times (London) lit. sup.

Earlier books by the same archaeologist are:

Gann, T. W. F. Ancient cities and modern tribes: exploration and adventure in Maya lands. Scribner 1926 256p illus map $5

Gann, T. W. F. Maya cities; a record of exploration and adventure in middle America. Scribner 1927 256p illus $5

Gann, T. W. F. Mystery cities; exploration and adventure in Lubaantun. Scribner 1925 252p illus $5

Huxley, Aldous Leonard, 1894-

Beyond the Mexique bay. Harper 1934 295p illus $2.75 917.28

1 Central America—Description and travel 2 Guatemala—Description and travel 34-10349

"A philosophical travel book of Central America. Finely finished illustrations." Pratt quarterly

"Mr Huxley's impressions of lands to the south serve as the medium for many reflections, some fairly weighty, some pseudo-scientific, some sardonically playful, about mankind and the present drift of human affairs. . . Not everything that Mr Huxley says can be accepted with finality, but for a travel chronicle which verges on dissertation 'Beyond the Mexique Bay,' yields the stimulus of fresh impressions and fresh ideas." Springfield Republican

Ruhl, Arthur Brown, 1876-

Central Americans; adventures and impressions between Mexico and Panama. Scribner 1928 284p illus map o.p. 1939 917.28

1 Central America—Description and travel 2 Central America—Social conditions 28-21009

"Narrative account of visits paid to each of the Central American states, touching lightly on political affairs. Readable and informing." Wis. bul.

"The book is pleasantly written, is worth including in your luggage if you're bound that way, and worth reading if you want to learn who lives on the hotter side of Mexico and how they do it." N.Y. World

917.281 Guatemala

Adamic, Louis, 1899-

House in Antigua; a restoration. Harper 1937 300p illus $3 917.281

1 Guatemala Antigua (W) 37-21249

"Living for a time in a restored Spanish colonial house in Antigua, Guatemala, Louis Adamic was inspired to write the story of the house and of its restorers, Wilson and Dorothy Popenoe. An inset section of pictures supplements the text in suggesting the beauty of the house and its surroundings." Wis. bul.

Burbank, Addison, 1895-

* Guatemala profile; written and illus. by Addison Burbank. Coward-McCann 1939 296p illus $3.50 917.281

1 Guatemala—Description and travel 2 Guatemala—Social life and customs (W) 39-27358

An artist who went to Guatemala to paint the colorful life of the Maya Indians describes and interprets the country which he found so fascinating during his stay of more than a year

"This unaffected story . . . brings us beauty and rare individual quality from a fascinating country." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Fergusson, Erna, 1888-

* Guatemala. Knopf 1937 320p illus map $3 917.281

1 Guatemala—Description and travel 2 Guatemala—Social life and customs 3 Mayas 37-27187

"A first-rate book about a land that, from the American-tourist point of view, may become the next Mexico. Miss Fergusson, who has a sharp eye and a sensitive mind, neglects nothing, from fiestas to Mayan remains, from banana plantations to President Ubico's benevolent despotism. Good photographs." New Yorker

Fergusson, Erna—Continued

Jackson, Joseph Henry, 1894-
Notes on a drum; travel sketches in Guatemala. Macmillan 1937 276p illus $3 917.281

1 Guatemala—Description and travel
37-28465

"The author . . . spent some time in Guatemala and has produced a companionable guidebook to that country. It contains some Guatemalan history, descriptions of present-day life and conditions, and suggestions for tourists." Book rev. digest

Kelsey, Vera, and Osborne, Mrs Lilly de Jongh
Four keys to Guatemala. Funk 1939 332p illus maps $3 917.281

1 Guatemala (W) 39-27597

Partial contents: Indian and his ancestors; His ceremonies, festivals, pilgrimages, fairs, markets; His life; His crafts; His arts; Kingdom of Guatemala; Antigua; Movement for independence; Guatemala today; Economic outlook; Arts; Sports and recreations; Capital: Guatemala city; Towns and villages; Maya sites

"A well-written book, perhaps too solid for the average tourist but worthwhile for the serious armchair traveler. The three parts are devoted Indian tribes and customs, the history of colonial Guatemala, and the present-day life of the republic. One section gives guidebook information about 200 towns and villages, includes a highway map, and lists Maya sites. Bibliography: p319-22. Photographs; notes on topography, zoology, and botany." Bkl.

Rothery, Agnes Edwards, 1888-
* Images of earth: Guatemala. Viking 1934 206p illus $3 917.281

1 Guatemala—Description and travel
34-39882

"Ruined Mayan cities of the past and living coffee plantations of today contribute to the charm of this book of travel. Short stories, whether true or imaginary interspersed among the chapters of history and travel, give an added interest and the illustrations, with their unusual arrangement in selected groups, make it a book to please the eye." Wis. bul.

917.29 West Indies

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:
England, G. A. Isles of romance. Appleton-Century 1929 323p illus $3.50

Aspinall, Algernon Edward, 1871-
Pocket guide to the West Indies. [9th ed] Chemical pub. co. 1940 525p illus maps $3.75 917.29

1 Bermuda islands—Description and travel 2 British Guiana—Description and travel 3 British Honduras—Description and travel 4 Spanish Main—Description and travel 5 West Indies—Description and travel [40-10105]

First published 1907. In the current edition which has been revised and entirely reset, information has been brought up to date both in text and bibliography. New illustrations have been added, and several maps revised. An entirely new feature is a chapter on Air transport services

A competent guidebook on all phases of life in the West Indies first published in 1907. Information about history, industry, climate, hotel accommodations, sports, etc., are given about each island

De Leeuw, Hendrik
Crossroads of the Caribbean sea. Messner 1935 331p illus $3 917.29

1 Caribbean sea 2 Dutch Guiana—Description and travel 3 Venezuela—Description and travel 36-346

"The Netherlands, Guiana, Venezuela, Curacao, Haiti and the Dominican Republic are the subjects of this extremely informing and unusually interesting travel book. Black and white sketches by the author." Providence

Bibliography: p323-31

Early, Eleanor
* Lands of delight; a cruise book to northern South America and the Caribbean; decoration by Virginia Grilley. Houghton 1939 214p illus $2 917.29

1 Caribbean sea 2 Venezuela—Description and travel 3 West Indies—Description and travel (W) 39-33444

"A companion volume to 'Ports of the Sun,' covering the following places:—Puerto Rico, Santo Domingo, Cat Cay, Tortola, Venezuela ports, Caracas, Curacao, Martinique, Trinidad, and glimpses of other ports, briefly seen." Kirkus

"Eleanor Early fairly bubbles over, as always, with good humor, good stories and good travel advice." N.Y. Times

* Ports of the sun; a guide to the Caribbean, Bermuda, Nassau, Havana, and Panama. Houghton 1937 316p illus $2.25 917.29

1 West Indies—Description and travel
(W) 38-24

"This is not only a guidebook to the Caribbean ports and islands . . . but it also includes much history and geography, legend and lore from first-hand study and tells of the experience of living ior months at a time in the various ports." Book rev. digest

Foster, Harry La Tourette
Caribbean cruise; rev. by W. W. Harris. . . . Dodd 1939 350p illus maps $3 917.29

1 Caribbean Sea 2 West Indies—Description and travel 39-27027

First published 1928. The 1939 revision brings data about population, hotels, steamship lines and prices up to date. A few new illustrations have been substituted for former ones, and several maps have been deleted. The bibliography is unchanged

"Nearly all of it is devoted to the route of the standard cruise to the islands of the Caribbean, starting from New York and taking in Bermuda, the Bahamas, Cuba, Jamaica, Haiti, Santo Domingo, Porto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Leewards, the French Antilles, the Windwards, Barbados, Trinidad and the Dutch West Indies. . . For each country or island that is visited there there is first a list of important facts about it, and then follows a general description, a bit of historical information, and a detailed and comprehensive account of where to go and what to see. All this is written with a freshness and graphic quality that make it interesting." N.Y. Times

Phillips, Henry Albert, 1880-
White elephants in the Caribbean; a magic journey through all the West Indies. McBride 1936 301p illus $2.75 917.29

1 West Indies—Description and travel 37-528

"Another traveler has written of the unquestioned beauty of the West Indies in a style which is constantly vivid and attractive. For the last two years, he has been traveling about the Caribbean sea and has discovered that each island has a personality of its own, that each holds historic interest, and has its own tales of pirate gold and looting buccaneers." Cincinnati

Seaton, George W.
* Let's go to the West Indies (how to get the most out of your trip). Prentice-Hall 1938 331p illus $3.50 917.29

1 West Indies—Description and travel (W) 38-2520

Written primarily for the cruise passenger to tell him what to see for interest, what to do for amusement and what to buy for remembrance during the limited time of the ship's calls in various West Indian islands

Vandercook, John Womack, 1902-
* Caribbee cruise; a book of the West Indies; illus. by Theodore Nadejen. Reynal 1938 349p illus $3.50 917.29

1 Caribbean sea 2 West Indies—Description and travel (W) 38-27759

A guide book to the Caribbean region which also conveys the history and atmosphere of the islands to the reader and traveler

"Not a trace of Baedeker here. Mr. Vandercook, who is no tourist, draws on the rich and bloody history of the Carribbean to create for the reader a sense of the genius loci. The discussion includes Bermuda. Not for 'practical' travellers." New Yorker

Verrill, Alpheus Hyatt, 1871-
West Indies of today. Dodd 1931 298p illus map $2.50 917.29

1 West Indies—Description and travel 31-25406

The book describes the smaller and less well known islands of the West Indies; the lesser Antilles, including the Virgin Islands; the Leeward Islands; the Bahamas; Barbados; Curaçao; Guadeloupe; Martinique; the Windwards; and others. The author treats the islands separately. Includes a condensed glossary of the West Indies

A. H. Verrill's "In the wake of the buccaneers" (Appleton-Century 1923 374p illus $4) affords an entertaining description of little-known islands and towns of the West Indies

917.291 Cuba

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
Cuban tapestry. McBride 1936 289p illus $2.50 917.291

1 Cuba—Description and travel 36-22991

"Account of the author's wanderings, during many weeks, in every part of Cuba and in the Isle of Pines." Book rev. digest

"This is hardly so lusty a book as its characters deserve, but it is an accurate and amiable one, packed with anecdote, and generous in its survey of the entire Cuban scene." Sat. rev. of lit.

Terry, Thomas Philip, 1864-
Terry's guide to Cuba including the Isle of Pines; with a chapter on the ocean routes to the island. rev ed The author 1929 460p maps $3 917.291

1 Cuba—Description and travel 29-29710

New edition in preparation, 1940

A reliable guidebook, which contains general information about the island, a detailed guide to Havana, and plans for twenty excursions from Havana to adjacent points of interest

Bibliography: p152-53

Verrill, Alpheus Hyatt, 1871-
Cuba of today. Dodd 1931 xx,249p illus maps $2.50 917.291

1 Cuba—Description and travel 2 Havana—Description 31-1371

"The author's 'Cuba past and present' is supplanted by this book, which, like the former one, is both historical and descriptive. It is a guide for tourists, warning them of the drawbacks as well as describing the pleasures of Cuban travel. The author advises travelers to take their own cars and devotes a chapter to motor travel." Bkl.

917.292 Jamaica

Verrill, Alpheus Hyatt, 1871-
Jamaica of today. Dodd 1931 232p illus maps $2.50 917.292

1 Jamaica—Description and travel 31-29917

"A convenient volume to supplement a guide, having a historical sketch and readable chapters on Kingston, touring the country by automobile, fruits and flowers, forests and wild-life, practical information about towns, etc." Pittsburgh

917.294 Haiti

Niles, Mrs Blair (Rice)
Black Haiti; a biography of Africa's eldest daughter; illus. from photographs by Robert Niles, jr. Putnam 1926 325p illus $3.50 917.294

1 Haiti 26-6368

"Charming, colorful sketches of Haiti, 'Africa's eldest daughter,' combining travel, description and history. Mrs. Niles is an experienced traveler with a talent for capturing the spirit of native races. In this book she endeavors to place the Haitians in their true light and to present present day Haiti as a sunnier spot than its sinister history and traditions have fore-shadowed." Cleveland

Interesting photographs and a bibliography

Seabrook, William Buehler, 1887-
Magic island; illus. with drawings by Alexander King and photographs by the author. Harcourt 1929 336p illus $1.69 917.294

1 Haiti—Social life and customs 2 Negroes in Haiti 3 Voodooism 4 Witchcraft 29-2970

"A fascinating study of the primitive superstitions of the natives of Haiti, Fantastically illustrated." Wis. bul.

Seabrook, William B.—Continued

"We are given brief but eminently impartial appraisals of the American occupation and what it has accomplished; kindly, humorous sketches of the poets and politicians constituting the black 'haute monde' of the capital city, and just enough of the history of this proud and bloody island to afford a background of understanding." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Wirkus, Faustin, 1896- and Dudley, Mrs Taney (Keplinger)

White king of La Gonave; with an introduction by W. B. Seabrook. Doubleday 1931 333p illus map o.p. 1939 917.294

1 Gonave island 2 Haiti—Social life and customs 3 Voodooism 31-26895

"Faustin Wirkus, a young Polish-American from the Pennsylvania coal mines joined the marines and was sent to Haiti during the early days of the American occupation. Sent to La Gonave, a lonely island off Port au Prince, as resident district commander, his intelligent handling of their affairs won him the friendship of the natives, and they crowned him emperor, with Voodoo rites." Book rev. digest

"Extraordinarily interesting story told with warm detail the great vividness. It is a good book." Arthur Ruhl in Sat. rev. of lit.

917.295 Puerto Rico

Mixer, Knowlton

Porto Rico; history and conditions social, economic and political. Macmillan 1926 xx,329p illus map $4 917.295

1 Puerto Rico 26-3237

"The book opens with a description of the geology, topography and climate of Puerto Rico, and continues the discovery and settlement of the island, and its history, social, political and economic from 1505 to the situation under the United States government." Book rev. digest

List of publications consulted: pref. p9-12; Bibliography: p317-22

Reck, Mrs Daisy

Puerto Rico and the Virgin island. . . Farrar 1939 241p illus $2.50 917.295

1 Puerto Rico 2 Virgin islands of the United States (W) 39-33963

"In writing of these Islands, I have deliberately neglected the historic forts, the beaches and the formal recreations—the travel folders have attended to those—for this book is not intended as a guide, but merely an informal introduction to the ways of life among the 2,000,000 Islanders in the American Caribbean." Preface

"Because she writes with observation and humor and clarity, she passes her own interest on to other would-be travelers and to people who enjoy good travel books." N.Y. Times

White, Trumbull, 1868-

Puerto Rico and its people. . . Stokes 1938 383p illus $3.50 917.295

1 Puerto Rico (W) 38-27454

Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.25

Presents the history of Puerto Rico under Spanish and American rule, and discusses the economic conditions and relief problems of the present. The author was a war correspondent during the Spanish-American war

"A comprehensive survey of Puerto Rico and its people, summarizing its history briefly, describing a 'grand tour' of the island, as well as the industries and activities and manners of life and thought and characteristics of the people, with something of politics and education, and the relations between the United States and Puerto Rico. Forty-seven reproductions of photographs." N.Y. libraries

917.296 Bahamas

Bell, Hugh MacLachlan

Bahamas: isles of June; with a foreword by . . . Sir Bede Clifford. McBride 1934 226p illus o.p. 1939 917.296

917.296 B43

1 Bahamas 34-27085

"Information on the history and beauties of the Bahamas, known to the early settlers as Islas del Espiritu Santo—Isles of the Holy Spirit. The author devotes part of his book to an account of the privateers, whose lively doings lent spice to the early annals of the Caribbean." Book rev. digest

"An excellent and stimulating book for those who journey to the Bahamas to carry with them." N.Y. Times

Forbes, Mrs Rosita (Torr) 1893-

Unicorn in the Bahamas. Dutton 1940 244p illus $3 917.296

1 Bahamas (W) 40-7060

"This book traces the history of the Bahama Islands from the days of their discovery through the 'Skull and Crossbones' period and through the days of slavery and blockade running. It then describes ten or a dozen of the Islands as they may be seen today through the eyes of a tourist." Library journal

"The author, who has travelled through, and written of, many wilder lands, tells of a pleasant interlude in Nassau and the Cays, with emphasis on their history. Good background reading for a Caribbean cruise." New Yorker

917.297 Leeward islands

Holdridge, Desmond

Escape to the tropics; drawings by Edward Shenton. Harcourt 1937 272p illus maps $3 917.297

1 Dutch Guiana 2 Virgin islands of the United States 3 West Indies 37-2285

Also obtainable from Harcourt at $1.49 in the Harbrace edition

"An account of how two young people, unable to marry as conditions were in civilized New York, gathered together their savings and went off to the Virgin Islands, to live with greater content on a fraction of what it cost at home. Later they bought a boat in which they visited other islands in the Caribbean. The last part of the book tells the story of the author's lone trip into South American jungles in a fruitless search for Redfern, [a missing aviator]" Book rev. digest

"The book is a lightly personal narrative, but it is alive and vivid and will appeal to those who like the spice of random adventure." Springfield Republican

917.298 Windward islands. Barbados

Bowman, Heath, and Bowman, Mrs Jefferson
Crusoe's island in the Caribbean. Bobbs 1939 339p illus maps $3.50 917.298

1 Tobago (Island) (W) 39-27069

The story of life on the island of Tobago in the West Indies which Defoe described as the habitat of Robinson Crusoe
"A book which is very pleasant, generally informative, and not too sentimentally seductive. In its unpretentious personal quality, 'Crusoe's Island' may take its place among the better travel books from the Caribbees." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

917.299 Bermuda

Hayward, Walter Brownell, 1877-
Bermuda past and present. 2d rev and enl ed. . . Dodd 1933 276p illus $2.50 917.299

1 Bermuda islands—Description and travel 2 Bermuda islands—History 33-7364

"Bermuda's development as a tourist resort and as a center of scientific research are treated more fully in this edition with some amplification and rearrangement of old material and new illustrations." Bkl.

"Attractively written, and informing to tourist and fireside traveler. Covers history from discovery in 1515, description, literary associations, recreations, resources, government etc., with other useful guide book information. Map and 25 halftones." N.Y. state lib.

Rider, Fremont, 1885-
(ed.) Rider's Bermuda; a guide book for travelers. . . 2d ed Macmillan 1928 247, xxxv p illus maps $1.75 917.299

1 Bermuda islands—Description and travel 28-26724

A standard guide book first published in 1922.
Minor changes have been made in this edition. Contains illustrations and maps. compiled under the general editorship of A. F. Rider by F. T. Cooper

Strode, Hudson, 1893-
* Story of Bermuda; photographs by Walter Rutherford, foreword by Sir Vernon Haggard. Random house 1932 xx,374p illus $3 917.299

1 Architecture, Domestic 2 Bermuda islands—Description and travel 3 Bermuda islands—History 32-32888

"Professor Strode serves up its early history with gusto. Then, being himself a professor of English, he calls forth the roster of writers who have been there and felt its charm. From Tom Moore to Mark Twain they have been dithyrambic about it. Having called his witnesses to prove his superlatives justified, the author gives us a fascinating account of this paradise—its architecture, its gardens, its weather, its strange but delightful conservatism." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Bibliography: p373-74

917.3 UNITED STATES

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:
Bremer, Frederika. America of the fifties; ed. by A. B. Benson. Am.-Scandinavian foundation 1924 xx,344p illus $2
Brown, R. W. I travel by train; illus. by Grant Reynard. Appleton-Century 1939 317p illus $3 (W) Observations summed up under such headings as Hunger, Dust, Waste, Home, etc.
Comstock, Sarah. Roads to the Revolution; with here and there a byway to colonial days. . . Macmillan 1928 455p illus o.p. 1939 Twenty journeys to scenes of the Revolution
Crawford, M. C. Romantic days in the early republic. Little 1912 438p illus o.p. 1939
James, Henry. American scene. Harper 1907 442p o.p. 1939
Kane, J. F. ed. Picturesque America. rev ed Garden City pub. co. 1937 319p $1.98
Nevins, Allan, ed. American social history, as recorded by British travellers. Holt 1931 593p front o.p. 1939

Adams, James Truslow, 1878-
Provincial society, 1690-1763. Macmillan 1927 374p illus (History of American life) $4 917.3

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—Social life and customs—Colonial period 27-24316

"A vivid portrayal of American life during the Pre-Revolutionary period, in which bits from old newspapers, memoirs and early travels are fused by a brilliant and witty style into a smoothly flowing narrative." Cleveland
"Very readable and illuminating is this third volume in [the series]." N.Y. state lib.
Critical essay on authorities: p324-56

Anderson, Sherwood, 1876-
Puzzled America. Scribner 1935 287p illus $2.50 917.3

1 U.S.—Economic conditions 2 U.S.—Social conditions 35-5315

"This is Sherwood Anderson's report on what the common people of America are thinking. Coal miners, southern share croppers and middle western farmers express themselves in the book, and it is all written with so much of the born story-teller's charm that it is very readable." Wis. bul.

Bates, Ernest Sutherland, 1879- and Schiff, Herman S.
Pageant of the states; foreword by Grover Whalen; introduction by Frank Monaghan; maps by Norman Reeves. Random house 1938 104p illus maps $2 917.3

1 New York. World's fair, 1939 2 U.S.—Description and travel (W) 38-29409

Collection of pictorial maps of the forty eight states together with brief articles on their historical backgrounds. The book is further illustrated with photographs of buildings and statuary designed for the New York world's fair

Beard, Charles Austin, 1874-
(ed.) Century of progress. Harper 1932 452p o.p. 1939 917.3

1 Inventions—History 2 Progress 3 Science—History 4 U.S.—Civilization 5 U.S.—Economic conditions 32-20114

Articles by twenty-five specialists on achievements and tendencies in American

Beard, Charles A.—Continued
life during the past hundred years. Partial contents: Idea of progress, by C. A. Beard; Invention as a social manifestation, by Waldemar Kaempffert; Process of social transformation, by Jane Addams; Advancement of natural science, by Watson Davis; The arts, by Fiske Kimball; Literature, by John Erskine

"Taken as a whole the book is a singularly well-balanced compendium, free of overlapping and exhibiting distinguished competence. . . Mr. Beard's book is more than a monumental record of achievement notwithstanding that achievement is its maine theme. It is also an indication of gaps in the American structure, of things to be done and problems to be solved. The combination has rarely been so successfully worked out." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Beard, Mrs Mary (Ritter) 1876-
(ed.) America through women's eyes. Macmillan 1933 558p $3.50 917.3

1 U.S.—History 2 U.S.—Social conditions 3 Women in the U.S. 33-22168

A collection of extracts from letters, journals and books written by American women illustrating the share women have had in the development of American civilization from colonial times to the present

"Obviously such an attempt as this must be fragmentary and the extracts vary greatly in value and interest. There are some rather remarkable omissions. . . But this is a stimulating book, in spite of these defects and a somewhat overofficial atmosphere. . . It calls attention to a rich field of interest and research in American life." Book (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Beer, Thomas, 1889-
The mauve decade; American life at the end of the nineteenth century. Knopf 1926 268p $1.89 917.3

1 American literature—History and criticism 2 U.S.—Civilization 3 U.S.—Intellectual life 26-9922

"In a book brimming with color and vitality and lacking no illustrative detail which it was possible to gather from books, unpublished letters or oral tradition, Mr Beer has depicted the period of the nineties in America. Stroke on stroke, he brings to life its women, morals, politics, society, literature, the West, the Irish —the personalities and the state of mind of the period—and dramatizes them all." Book rev. digest

"As a review of the period 'The Mauve Decade' is prejudiced, no doubt, but always stimulating and lively; it presents a crowded scene with knowledge and humour, and contains odd bits of information that the social historian may loot later on." Times (London) lit. sup.

Benjamin, Robert Spiers
* Vacation guide. McGraw 1940 329p (Whittlesey house publications) $2.50 917.3

1 Travel 2 U.S.—Description and travel (W) 40-27475

Covers the United States, Bermuda, Mexico, Alaska and the Gaspé, with suggested vacations for young and old by car, boat, air, canoe, horse, or walking. Prices are given in many instances

Brigham, Albert Perry, 1855-1932
Geographic influences in American history. Ginn 1903 366p illus maps o.p. 1939 917.3

1 Anthropogeography—U.S. 2 Physical geography—U.S. 3 U.S.—History 3-25274

"Popular study of the development of the country as affected by geographic and geologic conditions." Pittsburgh

A. P. Brigham's later book "United States of America" (Oxford 1927 308p illus map $3) is a series of studies in important phases of American geography covering briefly physical, regional, industrial, and human geography, based on a course of lectures given at the University of London

Canby, Henry Seidel, 1878-
Age of confidence; life in the nineties, illus. by Albert Kruse. Farrar 1934 260p illus $1 917.3

1 U.S.—Social life and customs 2 Wilmington, Delaware 34-33101

"The author, recalling with a touch of nostalgia his youth in Wilmington, Delaware, in the nineties, has made an interesting study in values. He analyzes and interprets domestic and cultural life of that period. Remembering its serenity he draws interesting contrasts to life of the present decade. Those who lived in the nineties, as well as many others, will find much to enjoy in the atmosphere he recreates. The illustrations are distinctive and charming." Bkl.

Cohn, David Lewis, 1896-
* Good old days; a history of American morals and manners as seen through the Sears, Roebuck catalogs 1905 to the present; with an introduction by Sinclair Lewis. Simon & Schuster 1940 xxxiv,597p illus $3.75 917.3

1 Fashion 2 Sears, Roebuck and company 3 U.S.—Social life and customs (W) 40-27261

"Cohn takes up certain articles and traces them through three decades (1905 to 1935)—music, books, travel, clocks, medicine, tombstones, gardens, etc. . . An economic and social barometer, showing how American life has evolved through its needs." Kirkus

"It is an amazing book, an amusing book, a quotable book, but withal a book to be taken seriously." Commonweal

Coon, Horace
* 101 American vacations from $25 to $250; a budgeted guide for holiday spending. . . . Doubleday 1940 265p illus $1.98 917.3

1 Travel 2 U.S.—Description and travel (W) 40-27379

"All the information is clear, comprehensive, practical and inviting, and there are vacation suggestions for all seasons all tastes." N.Y. Times

A guide to holiday possibilities of the United States and its territories. There are ten vacations in each price classification from $25 to $250

Crèvecœur, Michel Guillaume St Jean de, 1735-1813

Sketches of eighteenth century America; more "Letters from an American farmer"; ed. by H. L. Bourdin, R. H. Gabriel and S. T. Williams. Yale univ. press 1925 342p illus $4 917.3

1 Farm life 2 U.S.—Social life and customs—Colonial period 25-23064

A first hand account of colonial life

"Contains several heretofore unpublished papers . . . secured by the present editors from the descendants of Crèvecœur in France. . . There are new and valuable items on the agricultural methods of America in the latter half of the eighteenth century . . . [and] seven papers that touch the American Revolution. . . Crèvecœur himself was Tory in sentiment but he delineates both sides of the pattern." R. W. Kelsey in Amer. hist. rev.

M. G. St J. de Crevecœur's "Letters from an American farmer" first published in 1782 is available in Everyman's library (Dutton xxiii,256p 90c)

Earle, Mrs Alice (Morse) 1853-1911

‡ Home life in colonial days. . . Macmillan 1898 470p illus $2.50 917.3

1 Home 2 U.S.—Social life and customs—Colonial period 8-14405

Contents: Homes of the colonists; Light of other days; Kitchen fireside; Serving of meals; Food from forest and sea; Indian corn; Meat and drink; Flax culture and spinning; Wool culture and spinning, with a postcript on cotton; Hand-weaving; Girls' occupations; Dress of the colonists; Jack-knife industries; Travel, transportation, and taverns; Sunday in the colonies; Colonial neighborliness; Old-time flower gardens

Illustrated by photographs, gathered by the author, of real things, works and happenings of olden times

Mrs A. M. Earle's "Colonial dames and good wives" (Macmillan 1895 315p o.p. 1939) is another charming account of colonial life and customs. It tells of the women and their occupations

Stage-coach and tavern days. Macmillan 1900 499p illus $2.50 917.3

1 Coaching 2 Hotels, taverns, etc. 3 U.S.—Social life and customs—Colonial period 0-6899

Contents: Puritan ordinary; Old-time taverns; Tavern landlord; Tavern fare and tavern ways; Kill-devil and its affines; Small drink; Signs and symbols; Tavern in war; Tavern panorama; From path to turn-pike; Packhorse and conestoga wagon; Early stage-coaches and other vehicles; Two stage veterans of Massachusetts; Staging centre; Stage-driver; Romance of the road; Pains of stage-coach travel; Knights of the road; Tavern ghosts

Faris, John Thomson, 1871-

Roaming American playgrounds. . . Farrar 1934 331p illus $3 917.3

1 U.S.—Decription and travel 34-27120

"This book seeks to tell of some of the opportunities presented for sightseeing, for health-seeking, for recreation, in summer and in winter, in the vast territory of the forty-eight States, as well as in Alaska, in Hawaii, in Porto Rico, in the Virgin Islands and in Panama." Foreword

"A comprehensive survey of the scenic and recreational resources of the United States." Christian Century

Romance of the rivers. Harper 1927 298p illus o.p. 1939 917.3

1 Rivers 2 U.S.—Description and travel 3 U.S.—Historic houses, etc. 27-18329

Attempts "to make the personality of America's noble streams stand out more clearly by telling not only of their history, but of their surroundings." Preface

Discusses the Hudson, Connecticut, Delaware, Schuylkill, Susquehanna, Potomac, James, Ohio, Cumberland, Tennessee, Mississippi, Missouri, Colorado, Columbia and Sacramento rivers. Well illustrated. Bibliography

Seeing the eastern states. . Lippincott 1922 244p illus o.p. 1939 917.3

1 Atlantic states—Description and travel 22-17767

Describes part of the New England states and, in addition, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey and Delaware

"Attractive book of travel. Well planned to suggest the varied beauty of the northeastern states. Excellent illustrations and some good descriptive writing. Will help the prospective traveler in planning a trip." Wis. bul.

J. T. Faris's "Historic shrines of America" (Doubleday, Page 1918 421p illus o.p. 1939) is an illustrated story of 120 historic buildings and the pioneers who made them notable

Fish, Carl Russell, 1876-1932

Rise of the common man (1830-1850). Macmillan 1927 391p illus (History of American life) $4 917.3

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—Economic conditions 3 U.S.—Social conditions 27-24315

"Professor Fish treats a period in our history, when a vigorous population dreamed of starting a new civilization beyond the Appalachians. He shows how the new appreciation of the rights of the plain people wrought a revolution in political life, in manners, religion, and reform." Chicago

"An interesting and valuable piece of work. Though it contains much that is common knowledge to those who may have read ever so little on the period, it assembles much to be found only in out of-the-way places." Amer. hist. rev.

Critical essay on authorities: p339-66

Frank, Waldo David, 1889-

Re-discovery of America; an introduction to a philosophy of American life. Scribner 1929 353p $3 917.3

1 U.S.—Civilization 29-6953

"This criticism of American life and culture analyzes its European background, its gods and cults, art, leaders, and the spirit of the people. Out of the confusion of the 'American jungle,' Waldo Frank tries to discover a direction for the growth of a creative American life." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Frank carries along an imposing amount of intellectual luggage, and stops again and again to assort and display it. Merely as an intellectual tour de force the book is inspiring, and if the pace is breathless and the work itself 'almost fleshless and with no smiles or pleasant moods at all,' the expedition, once begun, remains fascinating to the end." Sat. rev. of lit.

Gruening, Ernest Henry, 1887-
(ed.) These United States; a symposium. 1st-2d ser Boni & Liveright 1923-24 2v o.p. 1939 917.3

1 U.S.—Description and travel 2 U.S.—Social conditions 23-9417

"Two collections of penetrating essays on the states and outlying possessions of the Union, each paper by a well-known author who is a native of the state he describes and who infuses it with life and personality. Among the contributors are William Allen White, Dorothy Canfield, Ludwig Lewisohn, Sherwood Anderson, Zona Gale, Mary Austin, Sinclair Lewis, Willa Cather and Theodore Dreiser." Cleveland

Hoppé, Emil Otto, 1878-
Romantic America. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Hulbert, Archer Butler, 1873-1933
Frontiers; the genius of American nationality. Little 1929 266p o.p. 1939 917.3

1 National characteristics, American 2 U.S.—Civilization 3 U.S.—Historical geography 29-9117

"A study of factors in American unification. The author analyses the influences of soil, geographic location, boundaries, etc., as they affected colonial settlers; he studies the causes of western expansion and characterises frontier life. A chapter is given to the family history of Lincoln." Boston

"His book is truly suggestive without being misleading. It will sharpen the reader's comprehension of the composite American scene." Springfield Republican

Humphrey, Zephine, 1874-
Green mountains to Sierras. Dutton 1936 253p $2.50 917.3

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 U.S.—Description and travel 36-27333

"The author and her artist husband started out one day in their 'Chevy' from Dorset, Vt., without a destination. Economizing as they traveled they put up in tourist camps and homes in the Shenandoah valley, New Mexico and elsewhere, with experiences ranging from the highly pleasurable to the depressing. The adventure took them to California and brought them back by way of Utah and Colorado, and throughout the spontaneous narrative there are descriptions of the sights and people they saw and comments both wise and entertaining." N.Y. libraries

Langdon, William Chauncy, 1871-
‡ Everyday things in American life, 1607-1776. Scribner 1937 xx,353p illus $3 917.3

1 U.S.—History—Colonial period 2 U.S.—Social life and customs—Colonial period (W) 37-34608

How the early colonists lived, what they ate, what they worked at, how they travelled

"The book's many drawings and photographs and its colored plates are richly illustrative. This is a record which is stamped with real vitality and which emphasizes for immediate and lasting interest the beginnings of a truly American life." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p335-40

Lobeck, Armin Kohl, 1886-
Airways of America; guidebook no. 1: the United air lines; a geological and geographical description of the route from New York to Chicago and San Francisco. Columbia univ. press 1933 207p illus maps $2.50 917.3

1 Airways—U.S. 2 Geology—U.S. 3 Physical geography—U.S. 4 U.S.—Description and travel 33-29147

Publisher reports no further continuations of the guidebooks. This volume constitutes the James Furman Kemp memorial series, publication no. 2

"A geological and geographic description of the transcontinental air route from New York to Chicago and San Francisco. The route is divided into thirty-nine sections, for each one of which a route map, or bird's eye diagram has been prepared. The descriptions of the maps are intended to be read during flight across the region but they are of interest also for the reader on land. The book has chapters on the physiographic provinces of the United States, on the agricultural areas and vegetation regions, and on the climatic and seasonal aspects of the air route. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Invaluable as 'Airways of America' will prove as a companion on the air journey from coast to coast, it will have a still wider sphere of usefulness. The photographs and diagrams, the great variety of physiographic types, the instances of agricultural adaptations will make it welcome among the students of geography on the ground." Geographical review

MacLeish, Archibald, 1892-
Land of the free. Harcourt 1938 93p 88 plates $3 917.3

1 U.S.—Social conditions (W) 38-8567

"This book, according to Mr MacLeish 'is a book of photographs illustrated by a poem.' The photographs, most of which were taken for the Resettlement Administration, show pictures of American life, chiefly rural, chiefly under poverty-stricken conditions. The poem, in free verse, is built up on a refrain: 'We are wondering'—whether our land is the land of the free or not." Book rev. digest

"Only one thing really needs to be said about this book—that a copy of it ought to be got at once into the hands of every man, woman and child in the United States. Everything else it says for itself, better than words can say it." New Republic

Merz, Charles, 1893-
Great American band wagon; decorations by H. W. Willard. Day 1928 263p illus o.p. 1939 917.3

1 U.S.—Description and travel 2 U.S.—Social conditions 28-29661

"The edge of his satire sheathed in good humor, the author gives a vigorous presentation of such American idiosyncrasies as jazz, bathing beauty contests, radio programs with a trade mark, and the blare of murder trials and prize fights." Book rev. digest

"It is because Mr. Merz is not content to sneer and leave the question unanswered that his book is a valuable as well as an amusing one. Rightly he reminds us that the American has still the instincts of the pioneer, in conditions that are, of course, no longer pioneer." Saturday rev.

Mims, Edwin, 1872-
Adventurous America; a study of contemporary life and thought. Scribner 1929 304p $2.50 917.3

1 U.S.—Civilization 29-22924

Dr. Mims, "sets out to show that the spirit of America has been adventurous from the beginning and is so today. With earnest purpose he reveals his sincere belief that the future of American civilization will be nobler in spite of the pessimism of much of our scientific and philosophical literature." Wis. bul.

Minnigerode, Meade, 1887-
Fabulous forties, 1840-1850, a presentation of private life. Putnam 1924 345p illus o.p. 1939 917.3

1 Theater—U.S. 2 U.S.—Social life and customs 24-6668

"A picture reconstructed from New York newspapers and other contemporary sources, revealing the manners and customs of American life, especially in New York city. Considerable space is devoted to the theatre and other sources of public entertainment." Pittsburgh

Illustrations from contemporary prints. Short bibliography

Mumford, Lewis, 1895-
Golden day; a study in American literature and culture. Norton 283p (White oak lib.) $2 917.3

1 American literature—History and criticism 2 U.S.—Civilization 3 U.S.—Intellectual life 34-27096

Reprint of a book first published 1926 by Boni & Liveright under title: The golden day; a study in American experience and culture

"Mr. Mumford's 'golden day' is the period of Emerson, Thoreau, Whitman, Hawthorne, and Melville, whom the author regards as the formulators of the only real and indigenous American culture. He also considers the pioneer period, the post-Civil War period, and the opening of the 20th Century." Pittsburgh

"Treating our imaginative literature and our philosophy as a key to our culture, Mr. Mumford has composed a history of the American mind that is likewise an account of the principal experiences by which that mind has been nourished. It is an admirable piece of exposition, skilfully organized and lucidly presented." Sat. rev. of lit.

Nevins, Allan, 1890-
Emergence of modern America, 1865-1878. Macmillan 1927 446p illus (History of American life) $4 917.3

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—Economic conditions 3 U.S.—Social conditions 27-24314

"A careful and detailed study of social conditions, economic and cultural. Contains numerous illustrations from contemporary drawings, photographs, and cartoons." Pittsburgh

"The format of the book is dignified, and not unattractive. . . In the main, the style is interesting and in good taste. The account of 'the cattle country' for example is of distinctly superior grade." Pol. sci. quar.

Critical essay on authorities: p408-32

Nixon, Laurence Allen
* American vacations. Little 1939 xxvii,380p illus $2.25 917.3

1 Travel 2 U.S.—Description and travel (W) 40-518

Partial contents: Shanks' mare; Youth hostels; Mountain-climbing; Your vacation home in the woods; Farmer and his daughter; Kingdom of the horse; Dude-ranching; A-sailing we will go; You're vacationing while you're on the way; Family car. Appendices include a list of travel books, what railroad signals and signs mean, where to get road maps, comparative costs, etc.

"Larry Nixon does not merely suggest or promise or lure; he informs. He tells you what you need to know in planning your holiday. The lists and figures and tabulated facts that find no room in the main body of the text overflow into ten appendices." N.Y. Times

Orton, William Aylott, 1889-
America in search of culture. Little 1933 310p illus $3 917.3

1 Art, American—History 2 U.S.—Civilization 33-28722

"The author, an Englishman who has spent some ten years in America, writes of the outlook for a native American culture, in chapters reprinted from the 'Atlantic Monthly' and other magazines. Salvation by linotype, The masses and the movies, Destiny listening in are among the striking chapters and the interestingly-chosen pictures are grouped at the end as a final summing up of the argument." Wis. bul.

Page, Kirby, 1890-
(ed.) Recent gains in American civilization . . . Harcourt 1928 357p o.p. 1939 917.3

1 U.S.—Civilization 28-25344

A collection of articles on various phases of American life by a group of distinguished critics of contemporary life. Contents: Recent gains in government, by C. A. Beard; New outposts of business and industry, by Stuart Chase; Recent gains in industrial relations, by Mary van Kleeck; Advances in the quest for peace, by Norman Thomas; Recent improvements in race relations, by C. S. Johnson; Bright side of the American press, by O. G. Villard; Education goes ahead, by D. L. Sharp; American literature moves on, by Mary Austin; New influences in art, by Rockwell Kent; Recent advances in science, by D. S. Jordan; Recent gains in religion, by H. E. Fosdick; Critique of American civilization, by John Dewey; Progress or decadence? by H. F. Ward; Is western civilization worth saving? by P. A. Schilpp; Oriental evaluation of modern civilization, by Masaharu Anesaki

Quinn, Vernon, 1881-
Beautiful America. . . Stokes 1923 333p illus map $4 917.3

1 U.S.—Description and travel 23-12974

Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.25

"Under chapter headings entitled: Mountain trails in the east, Some mountains of the west, Picturesque rivers, Some mineral springs, America's national parks, etc., the author describes in brief compass America's natural beauties and scenic wonders. Thirty-nine clearly reproduced halftone illustrations from photographs, with frontispiece in color." N.Y. state lib.

Rawson, Mrs Marion (Nicholl) 1878-
Candle days; the story of early American arts and implements. Appleton-Century 1927 307p illus $3.50 917.3

1 Implements, utensils, etc. 2 U.S.—Social life and customs—Colonial period 27-23037

"Devoted to primitive American arts and crafts with pictures not only of objects but of the tools with which they were created

Rawson, Mrs Marion N.—Continued
as well. Will be enjoyed by any one with a spark of antiquarian instinct. Might be used as supplementary material in schools as well." Wis. bul.

From here to yender; early trails and highway life. . . Dutton 1932 308p illus $3.50 917.3

1 U.S.—Social life and customs 32-19472

"An historical picture of the trails and highways which went 'from here to yender' thru New England and New York during the seventeenth, eighteenth, and early nineteenth centuries. The author describes not only the highways themselves but also the conveyances which passed over them, the ox-carts, stage coaches, covered wagons, and gigs, and the people who rode in them and their modes of living. There is a chapter on roadside burial grounds, and one on pedlars and their wares." Book rev. digest

"'From Here to Yender' creates out of a thousand odds and ends of material a charming memento of the past." N.Y. Times

Rogers, Agnes, 1893-

American procession; American life since 1860 in photographs; with running comment by F. L. Allen. Harper 1933 (190)p of illus $3 917.3

1 U.S.—Social life and customs 33-20802

"Every phase of American life, from 1860 to 1917, is represented in this collection of contemporary photographs." Cleveland

"This is about as instructive a social history of America, and as easy of assimilation, as one could purchase for the price the publishers wish for it. . . This book is of documentary importance and, at the same time, a whole evening's entertainment. Some of the pictures are 'joys forever!' " W. R. Benét in Sat. rev. of lit.

Rugg, Harold Ordway, 1886-

Culture and education in America. Harcourt 1931 404p $2.75 917.3

1 Education—U.S. 2 Philosophy, American 3 U.S.—Civilization 4 U.S.—Intellectual life 5 U.S.—Social conditions 31-13354

"An analytical history of the evolution of American culture and the part education has played. A significant and comprehensive overview of the subject, of marked value to all serious students of social problems as well as to teachers." Pittsburgh

Santayana, George, 1863-

Character & opinion in the United States, with reminiscences of William James and Josiah Royce and academic life in America. Scribner 1920 233p $3.50 917.3

1 James, William, 1843-1910 2 Royce, Josiah, 1855-1916 3 U.S.—Civilization 20-26993

Also obtainable from Norton in the White oak library at $2

Contents: Moral background; Academic environment; William James; Josiah Royce; Later speculations; Materialism and idealism in American life; English liberty in America

"Lectures, originally addressed to British audiences, giving a keen analysis of American character and summing up philosophical tendencies. The chapters on William James and Josiah Royce are remarkably subtle, brilliant examples of characterization." N.Y. state lib.

Siegfried, André, 1875-

America comes of age, a French analysis; tr. from the French by H. H. Hemming and Doris Hemming. Harcourt 1927 358p illus maps o.p. 1939 917.3

1 U.S.—Economic conditions 2 U.S.—Nationality 3 U.S.—Politics and government 4 U.S.—Social conditions 27-9637

"A survey of the social, economic, and political conditions of the United States since the World War, analyzing the racial and religious aspect of our domestic problems, the industrial and economic situation, and our party politics and foreign relations." Pittsburgh

Spender, John Alfred, 1862-

Through English eyes. Stokes 1928 324p o.p. 1939 917.3

1 U.S.—Description and travel 2 U.S.—Foreign relations 3 U.S.—Politics and government. 4 U.S.—Social conditions 28-29974

Published in England under the title: The America of today

"The English and the American titles taken together—the America of today through English eyes—exactly describe the book. Following his second . . . visit to the United States Mr. Spender . . . writes this book of contrasts, describing American life, interests and activities against the background of his own experience of their English counterparts." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Spender has written the best book about the United States which we have read for a very long time. We expected something more than the fleeting impressions of a great journalist, and Mr. Spender has not disappointed us." Spectator

Stearns, Harold Edmund, 1891-

(ed.) America now; an inquiry into civilization in the United States by thirty-six Americans. Scribner 1938 606p $3 917.3

1 U.S.—Civilization (W) 38-27968

Contributions on the arts by L. R. Reid, J. Chamberlain, L. Bogan, D. Taylor, J. W. Krutch, S. Cheney, D. Haskell; on business and labor by J. T. Flynn, L. Stark, W. H. Hamilton, R. S. Durstine; on science and industry by G. Wendt, E. D. Kennedy, R. Burlingame; on politics by B. Bliven, G. Soule, E. Scott, M. A. Hallgren, Z. Chafee; on education by C. Gauss, R. Cantwell, J. Cowles, H. E. Stearns; on types of living by R. L. Duffus, J. Kieran, E. C. Parsons; on health, by L. Clendening, K. A. Menninger, H. Stone; on race by J. Barzun, V. F. Calverton; on religion by H. P. Douglass, F. X. Talbot; on American civilization from the foreign point of view by L. Yutang, H. Valle, W. Lewis

Rediscovering America. Liveright 1934 224p $2 917.3

1 U.S.—Civilization 34-6425

"Interesting essays which comment on all phases of American life as they strike the writer after an absence of thirteen years." Pratt quarterly

"The essays are talk, good talk set down in type on paper and reading them is like listening to a fluid, low-pitched conversation overheard from an adjoining room. . . A conversation that generalizes upon every subject under an American sun, from horses to girls, from religion to economics, from literature to race problems. Soon one realizes that the book is not so much a rediscovery as a remembrance of things past." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Street, Julian Leonard, 1879-
Abroad at home; American ramblings, observations and adventures; with pictorial sidelights by Wallace Morgan. Appleton-Century 1916 517p illus $5 917.3

1 U.S.—Description and travel 2 U.S.—Social life and customs 16-7843

"The author, with Mr. Wallace Morgan the artist as his companion, set out from New York to visit the United States. Mr. Street has written about it, and Mr. Morgan has added pictures that illuminate Mr. Street's text. Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, Kalamazoo, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake City, and San Francisco were visited and each is described and differentiated, for the two travelers found that each had characteristics and a personality of its own. They were interested chiefly in cities; the country is viewed largely from the train window." Book rev. digest

"There is a lot of information in the book, but it is dressed in such a light and airy manner that we do not realize that we are learning anything." Independent

Strunsky, Simeon, 1879-
Living tradition; change and America. Doubleday 1939 454p $3.50 917.3

1 National characteristics, American 2 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—Social conditions 39-29424

"In chapters on such subjects as women, housing, business, machines, farmers, cities, depressions, the American temper, and the ways of democracy, the journalist-author examines and interprets the American way of life in recent times. He upsets many accepted, often pessimistic ideas about the great changes the country is undergoing, and . . . concludes that the American character has really changed very little. Controversial, stimulating material." Bkl.

Thompson, Cecil V. R.
I lost my English accent. Putnam 1939 259p illus $2 917.3

1 U.S.—Description and travel 2 U.S.—Social life and customs (W) 39-27761

"The amusing story of an Englishman, the American correspondent of the 'London Daily Express,' who saw the foibles, eccentricities, and charms of the American people and set his observations down for his English compatriots." Huntting

"Here is the British companion-piece, so to speak, to Margaret Halsey's 'With Malice Toward Some.' And by and large it's a sharp book, as well as intermittently a funny one." N.Y. Times

Train, Arthur Cheney, 1875-
Puritan's progress. . . Scribner 1931 477p $3.50 917.3

1 Puritans 2 U.S.—Social life and customs 31-26548

"An informal account: of certain Puritans & their descendants from the American revolution to the present time, their manners & customs, their virtues & vices. Together, with some possibly forgotten episodes in the development of American social & economic life during the last one hundred & fifty years." Subtitle

"An engaging book, just personal enough to make us sure of actualities; filled with historical episodes that did not get into the school histories, with the asides out of which we learn more about the old-timers than they told themselves." N.Y. World

Bibliography: pref. p9-10

Trollope, Mrs Frances (Milton) 1780-1863
Domestic manners of the Americans, with an introduction by Michael Sadleir. Routledge 1927 xxx,398p illus (The English lib.) o.p. 1939 917.3

1 U.S.—Social life and customs [27-19767]

Formerly carried also by Dodd

"A reprint from the fifth (1839) edition. Mrs. Trollope, the mother of Anthony Trollope, didn't enjoy her four years in the United States. In fact her experiences here were undoubtedly unpleasant, and probably justified her caustic comments upon our lack of culture and general crudeness." Chicago

Wector, Dixon, 1906-
Saga of American society; a record of social aspiration, 1607-1937. Scribner 1937 504p illus $4 917.3

1 New York (City)—Social life and customs 2 Portraits, American 3 U.S.—Historic houses, etc. 4 U.S.—Social life and customs 5 Virginia—Social life and customs 37-15575

"A history of the leaders and activities of the best social circles of America beginning with the Virginia planters and New England Puritans. The following chapter headings indicate the author's approach to his subject: Book of etiquette; The gentleman and his club; Women in American society; The society page; In quest of coronets; Society and sport. Illustrated with photographs and old cartoons, including a number by Charles Dana Gibson." Book rev digest

"A well-flavored, brightly written compound of history, gossip and meditation, employing now the method of research and now the semi-confidential manner of the society column expert." Springfield Republican

A note on bibliography: p485-93

Wertenbaker, Thomas Jefferson, 1879-
The first Americans, 1607-1690. Macmillan 1927 xx,358p illus maps (History of American life) $4 917.3

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—Social life and customs—Colonial period 27-24317

"A study of the natural features of the country and the conditions of life which had a vast influence in transforming English settlers into Americans." Pratt quarterly

Critical essay on authorities: p317-38

Weygandt, Cornelius, 1871-
A passing America; considerations of things of yesterday fast fading from our world. Holt 1932 xxi,330p illus $3 917.3

1 U.S.—Social life and customs 32-27288

"Altho the author writes of his own familiar locality, a corner of Pennsylvania, lovers of the old and quaint everywhere will enjoy his memories of covered bridges, quill pens, oleanders, coach dogs, high top boots and other once familiar features of the American scene. The chapters have the charm of individual essays." Wis. bul.

Wright, Richardson Little, 1886-
Grandfather was queer; early American wags and eccentrics from colonial times to the Civil war. Lippincott 1939 358p illus $3 917.3

1 U.S.—Social life and customs (W) 39-30356

"Grandfather, as a matter of fact, is not the hero of the book; his function is rather that of a springboard, which the author

Wright, Richardson L.—Continued
touches once, and then merely to gain the impetus for a long drive into his subject, which is American oddity in the years before the Civil War." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Hawkers & walkers in early America, strolling peddlers, preachers, lawyers, doctors, players, and others, from the beginning to the civil war. . . Lippincott 1927 317p illus o.p. 1939 917.3

1 Peddlers and peddling 2 U.S.—Economic conditions 3 U.S.—Social life and customs 27-7004

"The author has taken to the open road back through the centuries and peopled it with the strange, picturesque and romantic figures of bygone days, from the sharp Yankee peddler, tramp printer, wandering dentist, the itinerant preacher to the singing master and gypsy and the exhibitors of puppet shows, trained animals and freaks. The book abounds in curious information, and is illustrated from portraits and old prints with quaint little woodcuts at chapter ends. Bibliography." N.Y. libraries

Writers' program

* Ocean highway; New Brunswick, New Jersey to Jacksonville, Florida; with 32 photographs. Modern age 1938 xxix, 244p illus map (American guide ser.) 95c 917.3

1 Atlantic states—Description and travel 2 Automobiles—Touring (W) 38-12399

"A guidebook to an automobile route . . . closely following the coast line. In addition to detailed road information the book contains notes on historic sites, and other points of interest." Book rev. digest

U.S. one: Maine to Florida. . . Modern age 1938 xxvii,344p illus map (American guide ser.) 95c 917.3

1 Atlantic states—Description and travel 2 Automobiles—Touring (W) 38-27179

Sponsored by the U.S. no. 1 highway association

"A mile-by-mile description of the great American highway, well conceived, well written, and useful to anyone who has a car and intends to see something of the Atlantic states." New Yorker

917.4 NORTHEASTERN STATES

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Crawford, M. C. Old New England inns. new ed Page 1924 381p illus $3.50

Miller, P. G. E. New England mind; the seventeenth century. Macmillan 1939 528p $3.75

Northend, M. H. We visit old inns. Small 1925 176p illus o.p. 1939

Crawford, Mary Caroline, 1874-1932

Social life in old New England; illus. with photographs by Samuel Chamberlain and others. Grosset 515p illus $1.95 917.4

1 New England—Social life and customs [14-18566]

Reprint of a book first published 1914

"A narrative based on old diaries, letters and other documents, and presenting an authentic and spirited picture of various aspects of social life in New England during the 17th and 18th centuries." Cleveland

Daniels, Jonathan, 1902-

‡ Southerner discovers New England. Macmillan 1940 398p $3 917.4

1 New England 2 New England—Social conditions (W) 40-27433

During a leisurely journey through the New England states in the summer of 1939, the author looked, asked, and listened. He has recorded in journalistic style the economic status of the Northeast

"Altogether his analysis of New England conditions is that of a sympathetic friend, and New Englanders can read his book with profit and pleasure even though at times they will find it disturbing." Atlantic bookshelf

Laughlin, Clara Elizabeth, 1873-

So you're seeing New England! and if I were going with you, these are some of the places I'd suggest. Little 1940 560p illus $2.50 917.4

1 New England—Description and travel (W) 40-27493

"Guidebook to New England which starts with Route 1 from New York to Boston—and covers Cape Cod, the North Shore and the Berkshires, the Maine coast, the New Hampshire mountains and the Vermont valleys." Huntting

"A practical guide which enlivens its specific information as to points of interest, routes, hostelries, etc. with spicy tidbits of history and literary allusion." Book-of-the-month club news

Brief reading list: p517-22

Seaton, George W.

* What to see and do in New England; how to get the most out of your trip. Prentice-Hall 1940 302p illus maps $3 917.4

1 New England—Description and travel (W) 40-8761

"He shows what attractions there are in New England for every taste, but his chief appeal will be to the motorist. . . Dividing New England into sections, he takes us to the towns and their features of interest, urges us to take more scenic routes rather than shorter ones, advises us where to stay and what it will cost." Book-of-the-month club news

Towne, Charles Hanson, 1877-

Jogging around New England; illus. by H. S. Gillette. Appleton-Century 1939 205p illus $2.50 917.4

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 New England—Description and travel (W) 39-14034

An account of a motor trip thru the six New England states describing its scenery, intellectual life and people

"These sketches, vignettes, bits of description, thumbnail portraits, mild philosophical observations and fragments of fleeting verse, together with the artist's drawings imitative of woodcuts, go to make up an agreeable little book." N.Y. Times

Verrill, Alpheus Hyatt, 1871-

Along New England shores. Putnam 1936 xxi,298p illus $3 917.4

1 Cities and towns—New England 2 New England—Description and travel 3 New England—History 36-15247

"Although written in stale, machine-made English, this journey up the coastline from Greenwich, Conn., to Brunswick is full of pleasingly odd information. It gives you not so much pointers as background—history that is seldom in the history books, facts that are seldom in the guidebooks." New Yorker

Wertenbaker, Thomas Jefferson, 1879-

* Founding of American civilization; the middle colonies. Scribner 1938 367p illus $3 917.4

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—History—Colonial period 3 U.S.—Social life and customs—Colonial period (W) 38-27360

"Not as weighty a book as the title might indicate. It is a careful study, however, giving word pictures of colonial days in and around New York, New Jersey, Delaware, and Pennsylvania. The settlements of the English, Dutch, German, French, and Swedish are differentiated; each group's ideas about architecture, religion, interior decoration, and folk art, largely brought from Europe, but altered to meet the demands and needs of the new land, are shown as producing the foundations of American culture. Pictures of Quaker meeting houses, German barns, Dutch gables, and typical homes of the seventeenth century." Bkl.

Writers' program

‡ Here's New England! A guide to vacation-land. . . Houghton 1939 122p illus maps (American guide ser.) $1 917.4

1 New England—Description and travel (W) 39-15700

A concise and practical guide to New England. For convenient reference, it is divided into twenty-one recreational regions covering all parts of the six New England states. Each of these chapters gives the atmosphere and characteristics of the region, followed by detailed descriptions of the places of interest and things to see and do

917.41 Maine

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Loomis, A. F. Ranging the Maine coast; illus. by E. A. Wilson. Norton 1939 274p illus maps $4

Nutting, Wallace. Maine beautiful. . . Old America co. 1924 302p illus (State beautiful ser.) $2 Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.98

Dole, Nathan, Haskell, 1852-1935, and Gordon, Irwin Leslie, 1887-

Maine of the sea and pines. . . Page 1928 375p illus maps (See America first ser.) $6 917.41

1 Maine 28-15182

"A description of its scenic beauty, its rugged coastline, its mountains, lakes and rivers; an account of its settlement, its Indians and their legends, and its appeal to the sportsman and vacationist; a survey of its commercial resources and industries, and its possibilities for water power development." Subtitle

"The varied attractions of the state, in mountain, river, forest and shore are well presented in picture and text, and there are chapters of special interest to the sportsman." Wis. bul.

With two maps and 50 plates, some of which are in color.

Bibliography: p348-54

Mitchell, Edwin Valentine

Maine summer; illus. by Ruth Lepper. Coward-McCann 1939 210p illus $2.50 917.41

1 Maine—Description and travel (W) 39-27601

Contents: Mast country; Islandmania; Seacoast inns and taverns; Cats of Maine; Antiques; Stormy weather; Quoth the raven; Once aboard the lugger; Old houses; Wings over Maine; Excursions; A kettle of fish; Shipbuilders

"Neither guide book nor travel story but a series of charming essays on inns, ships, islands, cats, food, tombstones, and other features of this delightful state written by a man who has known and loved it all his life." Cincinnati

Writers' program

Maine; a guide 'down East'. . . Houghton 1937 xxvi,476p illus (Am. guide ser.) $3 917.41

1 Maine—Description and travel 38-30

A book which all libraries of the state will probably want. This guide is not limited to touring, but includes also folklore, anecdotes and history

Selected reading list: p454-58

917.42 New Hampshire

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is also recommended: Nutting, Wallace. New Hampshire beautiful. . . Old America co 1923 302p illus (States beautiful ser.) o.p. 1939

Anderson, John, 1896- and Morse, Stearns

Book of the White mountains. Putnam 1930 300p $2.50 917.42

1 White mountains [30-19267]

"A guide whose purpose is to go through the whole range, covering the chief points of interest, indicating roads, trails, hotels, and including the legends or traditions of various spots. The motorist will find it a practical aid. Beautiful photographic reproductions add to its interest. Bibliography: p289-293." Bkl.

Bowles, Mrs Ella (Shannon) 1886-

Let me show you New Hampshire; with an introduction by Kenneth Roberts. Knopf 1938 368, xxxiii p illus maps $3.50 917.42

1 New Hampshire—Description and travel (W) 38-27408

"This book is not a history nor a guidebook of New Hampshire, but is simply a series of my own impressions, supplemented by personal research in historical background, by information furnished by certain state departments, and by items contributed by my friends both old and new [Accompanied by more than 40 photographs and two maps]" Author's note

Early, Eleanor

* Behold the White mountains. Little 1935 219p $1.75 917.42

1 White mountains 35-7065

"In this guidebook, geography and history are brought to life by the author's enthusiasm and good humor. There is never a dull page and information and entertainment are skillfully blended." Cincinnati

O'Kane, Walter Collins, 1877-

Trails and summits of the White Mountains. Houghton 1925 308p illus maps (Riverside outdoor handbooks) $2.50 917.42

1 Mountaineering 2 White mountains 25-9571

"After some practical suggestions on equipment and climbing, nineteen trails (one-day trips) are described. The beauty of the view or the locations of other mountains from the summit are never forgotten. Maps and photographic illustrations and index." N.Y. state lib.

O'Kane, Walter C.—Continued

Weygandt, Cornelius, 1871-
New Hampshire neighbors; country folks and things in the White hills. Holt 1937 368p illus map $3.50 917.42

1 New Hampshire—Social life and customs 2 White mountains 37-27428

"Sketches of differing lengths about the country and people near the author's summer home in the White Mountains. With humor and understanding, and a sincere regard for the farm folk, and pride in their native American qualities, he tells anecdotes, quotes from old church and family records to show their puritanic oddities, and with all their warm friendliness. He writes of old furniture, and wells, attics and their treasures, corduroy roads and apple trees—and draws word pictures of the lovely countryside and the changes the years have brought." Wis. bul.

Cornelius Weygandt's "The White hills; mountain New Hampshire, Winnepesaukee to Washington" (Holt 1934 399p illus $3.50) contains 22 essays on life and scenery in the White mountains

Writers' program
New Hampshire; a guide to the granite state; written by workers of the Federal writers' project of the Works progress administration for the state of New Hampshire. . . Houghton 1938 559p illus maps (American guide ser.) $3 917.42

1 New Hampshire—Description and travel (W) 38-6192

"Similar in format to the other books in this series. Provides an illustrated guide to the state, including a section on the general background, description and history of the chief cities and towns, mile-by-mile description of the state's highways, a section on the White Mountains, and one on sports and recreation. Chronology; selected reading list." Book rev. digest

917.43 Vermont

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Hard, W. R. and Hard, Mrs. M. S. This is Vermont. . . Daye 1936 326p illus $1.69

Nutting, Wallace. Vermont beautiful. . . Old America co. 1922 302p illus $2 Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.98

Crane, Charles Edward
Let me show you Vermont; with an introduction by D. C. Fisher. Knopf 1937 347,xxiv p illus $3.50 917.43

1 Vermont—Description and travel 37-27328

"Charles Crane has 'put Vermont into a book,' not merely told a great number of interesting facts about the state. From the whole of this clear, sunny, unpretentious, informal, carefully unemphatic collection of material about the Green Mountains and the people who live among them, there rises something of the Vermont flavor." D. C. Fisher in Introduction

O'Kane, Walter Collins, 1877-
Trails and summits of the Green Mountains. Houghton 1926 372p illus maps (Riverside outdoor handbooks) $2.50 917.43

1 Green mountains 2 Mountaineering 26-12990

"A delightful guide-book on the Green Mountains of Vermont. Each chapter is devoted to some particularly interesting and beautiful mountain, giving its location, trails leading to it, description, history, camps, etc." Chicago

Well illustrated, maps of trails and folded outline map of Vermont

Writers' program
Vermont; a guide to the Green mountains. . . Houghton 1937 xxi,392p illus maps (Am. guide ser.) $3 917.43

1 Vermont—Description and travel 37-28648

A book which all libraries of the state will probably want. This guide is not limited to touring, but includes also folklore, anecdotes and history

917.44 Massachusetts

In additions to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Crawford, M. C. Old Boston days & ways, from the dawn of the revolution until the town became a city. Little 1924 463p illus o.p. 1939

Crawford, M. C. Romantic days in old Boston. Centenary ed. Little 1922 xxi, 441p illus o.p. 1939

Nutting, Wallace. Massachusetts beautiful . . . Old America co. 1923 301p illus $2 Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.98

Smith, Katharine, and Shay, Edith. Down the Cape; the complete guide to Cape Cod. . . Dodge 1936 222p illus map $2.25

Beebe, Lucius Morris, 1902-
Boston and the Boston legend; illus. by E. H. Suydam. Appleton-Century 1935 372p illus $5 917.44

1 Boston—Description 2 Boston—History 35-18402

"An attempt, through the agency of selected interludes, episodes, personalities and aspects of Boston's past and present, to suggest a character study of the town." Foreword

"Written in an easy, flowing style and with a sly, charming humor. Interesting anecdotes, such as John Hancock having the cows on the Common milked, when his household ran out of supplies for milk-punch at Lafayette's reception, enliven the pages. Suydam's illustrations are always a joy." Cincinnati

References: p342

Early, Eleanor
* And this is Boston! (and seashore and country too) 2d ed Houghton 1938 xxiv,256p front $1.75 917.44

1 Boston—Description 2 Boston—History 3 Massachusetts—Description and travel 38-19106

First published 1930. The 1938 edition has a new foreword and has been brought up to date

"Pleasing sketches with historical incidents, of old Boston, Marblehead and Salem, Gloucester, Cambridge, Lexington and Concord, the Harvard and Sudbury regions, Plymouth and the South Shore, the Cape and Nantucket." Boston

Early, Eleanor—Continued

And this is Cape Cod! Houghton 1936 223p map $1.50 917.44

1 Cape Cod—Description and travel 2 Cape Cod—History 36-9277

"A thorough introduction to Cape Cod, its people, the landscape, customs, history, manners, etc." Pratt quarterly

"Whether the author is telling a tale, describing a scene, recounting some reminiscence, or pulling out some historical plum she has a knack of phrasing that makes it interesting and entertaining. The book is chock full of information of every imaginable sort about Cape Cod from end to end—its industries old and new, its people, its architecture, its roads, whatever the most inquisitive visitor might want to know." N.Y. Times

Lincoln, Joseph Crosby, 1870-

Cape Cod yesterdays; paintings and drawings by Harold Brett. Little 286p illus $2 917.44

1 Cape Cod—Social life and customs [35-12168]

A reprint, with eight of the colored illustrations, of a book published in 1935

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1

"Interesting sketches and reminiscences of Cape Cod life, character and customs in the recent past. The author is the well-known writer of Cape Cod stories." Pratt quarterly

Shackleton, Robert, 1860-1923

Book of Boston; illus. by R. L. Boyer. Penn 1916 332p illus o.p. 1939 917.44

1 Boston—Description 16-22764

"The fact that 'The book of Boston' is published in Philadelphia, gives it its keynote. It is essentially Boston seen through the eyes of an outsider. . . Whatever else the reader may happen to object to in 'The book of Boston,' it is certain that the author pays full tribute to the historic and literary associations and to the beauty of the old houses and the old streets on the slope of Beacon hill." Boston Transcript

Stevens, William Oliver, 1878-

Nantucket, the far-away island. . . Dodd 1936 313p illus $3 917.44

1 Nantucket, Massachusetts 36-9547

"Not a guide-book, nor the random impressions of an observant traveler or summer visitor; but the romantic story of the seafaring islanders; and the present-day characteristics of Nantucket, its people and places, set forth in narrative and sketches, by the author-artist who has made the island his home." Pratt quarterly

Winwar, Frances, 1900-

Puritan city; the story of Salem. McBride 1938 307p illus $3 917.44

1 Salem, Massachusetts (W)

Partial contents: Life in Old Salem; Heresies; The Quakers; Salem ghosts; Bewitched girls; Gallows hill; Pirates and privateering; Revolution; Privateers of the revolution; Salem sails on all the seas; Social life, wonders and amusements; Nathaniel Hawthorne; Other Salem literary figures

"As a history of Salem there is too much background; as a history of New England Puritanism there is too much Salem, but the book is soundly informative, and in chapters like that on the witchcraft trials it has the stress and stir of drama." Christian science monitor

Writers' program

Berkshire hills . . . sponsored by the Berkshire hills conference, inc. Funk 1939 368p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.44

1 Berkshire hills, Massachusetts 2 Massachusetts—Description and travel 3 Sports (W) 39-27644

Contents: Florida, Clarksburg and North Adams; Williamstown; New Ashford, Hancock and Lanesborough; Pittsfield; Richmond and West Stockbridge; Stockbridge and Lenox; Lee; Great Barrington and Sheffield; Alford, Egremont and Mount Washington; New Marlborough, Monterey, Tyringham and Sandisfield; Otis, Becket and Washington; Hinsdale and Dalton; Peru, Windsor and Savoy; Cheshire and Adams

"With so large a proportion of legend in its pages, the volume has an advantage in not being held to too severe a test of historicity, for the legends, traditions and colorful aspects of local history are entertainingly related and have a certain substantiality, which beguiles the reader into accepting them at face value. . . . Although composed in the form of a guide-book 'The Berkshire Hills' can be classed as a travel volume for leisurely reading." Springfield Republican

Cape Cod pilot, by Jeremiah Digges (pseud). Viking 1937 403p (Am. guide ser.) $2 917.44

1 Cape Cod—Description and travel 37-12550

Gives "the straight history and colorful anecdote of this section in most readable style. Fine photographic illustrations. Brief bibliography. A region unusually rich in folklore and atmosphere is described with enlivening detail." Special libraries

Massachusetts; a guide to its places and people. Houghton 1937 xxxvi,675p illus maps (Am. guide ser.) $3 917.44

1 Massachusetts—Description and travel 37-28502

A book which all libraries of the state will probably want. This guide is not limited to touring, but includes also folklore, anecdotes and history

Fifty books about Massachusetts: p637-38

917.45 Rhode Island

Writers' program

Rhode Island; a guide to the smallest state. Houghton 1937 xxvi,500p illus maps (Am. guide ser.) $3 917.45

1 Rhode Island—Description and travel 37-28463

A book which all libraries of the state will probably want. This guide is not limited to touring, but includes also folklore, anecdotes and history

Bibliography: p475-79

917.46 Connecticut

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:

Nutting, Wallace. Connecticut beautiful . . . Old America co. 1923 301p illus (State beautiful ser.) $2 Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.98

Shepard, Odell, 1884-

Connecticut; past and present. Knopf 1939 316p illus $3.50 917.46

1 Connecticut—Description and travel 2 Connecticut—History (W) 39-27511

In half-humorous, half serious vein the author describes a beloved state—its early history, its geography, geology, flora and fauna, and, at greater length, the people who dwell in this "land of steady habits"

"Professor Shepard is a scholar, a biographer, and a literary historian, but he is also a poet and an essayist. Hence this good book on Connecticut, with its excellent photographs, is not to be classified with any of the usual guides and historical manuals. It is really a lengthy essay on his adopted state which the loves." Book-of-the-month club news

Writers' program

Connecticut; a guide to its roads, lore, and people. Houghton 1938 xxxiii,593p illus maps (Am. guide ser.) $2.50 917.46

1 Connecticut—Description and travel 38-27339

A book which all libraries of the state will probably want. This guide is not limited to touring, but includes also folklore, anecdotes and history

917.47 New York State

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Nutting, Wallace. New York beautiful. . . Grosset 305p illus (States beautiful ser.) $1.98

Torrey, R. H., Place, Frank, and Dickinson, R. L. New York walk book. . . new and rev ed Dodd 1934 332p illus maps $2.50

Carmer, Carl Lamson, 1893-

* Listen for a lonesome drum; a York state chronicle, with sketches by C. L. Baldridge. Blue ribbon bks. 381p illus $1 917.47

1 Folklore—New York (State) 2 New York (State)—Description and travel 3 Sects 4 Spiritualism [36-14564]

Reprint of book first published 1936 by Farrar

"A motley, entertaining collection of folktales of 'upstate' New York, gleaned during two years of wandering from lumber camp to Indian reservation, from the quiet Schoharie valley to the spiritualist camp at Lily Dale and told against the background of the author's experiences with the people. Some of the most interesting chapters deal with stories of the beginnings and the present estate of certain sects, such as the Millerites, the Jemimakins and the Oneida Community. Map as frontispiece. Drawings on colored paper. Decorated end papers." N.Y. libraries

Haring, Harry Albert, 1875-

Our Catskill mountains. . . Putnam 1931 350p illus maps $3.50 917.47

1 Catskill mountains 31-28448

"An informal guide to the Catskill mountains for the motorist, hiker and fisherman, containing information on their history, geography and geology, their lakes, streams, and reservoirs, their highways and trails." Book rev. digest

Hungerford, Edward, 1875-

Pathway of empire; with an introduction by D. R. Fox. McBride 1935 325p illus $3.50 917.47

1 New York (City)—Description 2 New York (State)—Description and travel 35-27410

"A vast amount of enlightening information about interesting places and famous personages, together with the history of the Empire State." Christian science monitor

Longstreth, Thomas Morris, 1886-

The Adirondacks. . . Appleton-Century 1917 370p illus map $3.50 917.47

1 Adirondack mountains 17-25281

"Mr Longstreth is a schoolmaster who has occupied his holiday time for many seasons in open-air living and journeying. He has spent more than one summer in the Adirondacks. . . The result is a book that is at once the record of a jolly summer, a history and description of the Adirondacks, and a succinct guide to those who would learn of its beauties and enjoyments at first hand. Mr Longstreth's leisurely style has real charm—a quality not always to be found in a book so full of information as this." N.Y. Times

The Catskills. . . Appleton-Century 1918 321p illus map $3.50 917.47

1 Catskill mountains 18-19146

"A companion volume to the author's book on the Adirondacks. Mr Longstreth visited the Catskills in the early spring . . . The delights of this region are invitingly set forth in picture and text. One chapter tells of a visit to John Burroughs. There is a brief bibliography, showing the paucity of Catskill literature, and other notes for motorists and walkers." Book rev. digest

O'Kane, Walter Collins, 1877-

Trails and summits of the Adirondacks. Houghton 1928 330p illus map (Riverside outdoor handbooks) $2.50 917.47

1 Adirondack mountains 2 Mountaineering 28-12817

"A clear, well-written, circumstantial account of all that the hiker through the Adirondacks needs to know in order to plan his trips and to know just what are the most worthwhile places to visit and explore. The general nature of the mountains and something of their geology and history are given, followed by chapters on each of the important peaks. There are several serviceable maps." Providence

Stevens, William Oliver, 1878-

Discovering Long Island; illus. by the author. Dodd 1939 349p illus $3 917.47

1 Long Island—Description and travel 2 Long Island—Historic houses, etc. 3 Long Island—History (W) 39-27412

Descriptions of historic and present-day Long Island, revealing the charm of its villages, meadows, and beaches. A chapter on the New York World's fair is included, and a section about sports

"Mr. Stevens's volume is a travelogue, written by an artist with a fine sense of pictorial values." Sat. rev. of lit.

Thompson, Harold William, 1891-
Body, boots & britches. Lippincott 1939 530p illus $3.50 917.47

1 Ballads 2 Folklore—New York (State) 3 Legends—New York (State) 4 New York (State)—Social life and customs (W) 40-2174

"A compendium of verse and prose, of legendary figures, tall tales, tricks, place names, proverbs [of New York State]. There are unhackneyed yarns of pirates, Indian fighters, outlaws, bandits, ghosts, whalers, sailors, canallers, lumbermen, mountaineers, soldiers, lovers, murderers. Supplements the Carmer data, with a little closer feeling to the primitive." Kirkus

"With a patience lightened by the fun he was getting out of it Professor Thompson has been collecting the materials of this volume for several years. Now he has woven them into a sparkling homespun tapestry that every lover of Americana will want to have around the house." Carl Carmer in N.Y. Times

917.471 New York City

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Bercovici, Konrad. Around the world in New York; illus. by Norman Borchardt. Appleton-Century 1924 416p illus $5 A description of the many nationalities living between the East river and the Hudson

Riesenberg, Felix. Portrait of New York. . . . Macmillan 1939 213p illus $5 (W) Sixty-four full-page photographs by Alexander Alland

Rogers, Agnes, comp. Metropolis; an American city in photographs; with running comment by F. L. Allen. . . . Harper 1934 [192]p illus $3

Slocum, Rosalie, and Bernstein, Mrs A. R. E. Key to New York. Harper 1939 312p illus maps $2 Compiled with children and young people in mind

Worden, Helen. Here is New York; illus. by the author. Doubleday 1939 411p illus $2.50 (W) Presents a wealth of information for visitors to her city. Not for the tourist who wants to see New York on little money

Brown, Henry Collins
Brownstone fronts and Saratoga trunks; illus. by old prints and photographs. Dutton 1935 xxii,412p illus $3.75 917.471

1 New York (City)—Description 2 New York (City)—History 3 New York (City)—Social life and customs 35-18992

"Interesting records of old New York containing description and anecdotes from the time of the great fire of 1835 to the end of the nineteenth century." Pratt quarterly

Earle, Mrs Alice (Morse) 1853-1911
Colonial days in old New York. Empire State bk. co. 312p $2.50 917.471

1 New York (City)—History 2 New York (City)—Social life and customs [1-15834]

Reprint of title first published by Scribner, 1896

"This book should perhaps have been 'intituled' Colonial days in New Netherlands, for much of the life described herein was in the days of Dutch rule." Preface

Contents: Life of a day; Education and childlife; Wooing and wedding; Town life; Dutch town homes; Dutch farmhouses; Dutch larder; Dutch vrouws; Colonial wardrobe; Holidays; Amusements and sports; Crimes and punishments; Church and Sunday in old New York; "The end of his days"

Footner, Hulbert, 1879-
New York, city of cities; with 45 illus. in aquatone from photographs by J. J. Floherty. Lippincott 1937 338p illus $3.50 917.471

1 New York (City)—Description 2 New York (City)—Social life and customs 37-37569

"In this excellent guide, Mr. Footner describes New York by sections; the East Side, Park Avenue, Times Square, Wall Street come to life through his understanding and expert reporting of the activities of those who live and work there. Mr. Footner has caught the authentic flavor of a unique city." Cincinnati

Irwin, William Henry, 1873-
Highlights of Manhattan. rev ed Illus. by E. H. Suydam. Appleton-Century 1937 432p illus $5 917.471

1 New York (City)—Description 37-4123

First published 1928. In the 1937 edition there is some slight revision of the older chapters and three new chapters of 36 pages. Four new drawings have been added

"Mr Irwin knows and loves his New York and as he guides the reader from Bowling Green to the Barnard Cloisters he shares his enthusiasm for this or that view, and furnishes interesting bits of human history about a home here, a public building or a park there. Mr Suydam's pencilled drawings delightfully illustrate the book." Book rev. digest

Laughlin, Clara Elizabeth, 1873-
So you're visiting New York city! Houghton 1939 84p illus fold map $1.35 917.471

1 New York (City)—Description (W) 39-27550

Contents: New York, the greatest American city; New York below Forty-second street; New York above Forty-second street; Vicinity of New York; Some New York hotels

"The tone throughout is personal to conversational point, much as if a friendly New Yorker were showing the reader around." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

McAdoo, Eva T.
How do you like New York? An informal guide. rev ed Macmillan 1939 198p illus map $2 917.471

1 New York (City)—Description (W) 39-9235

A revised and slightly enlarged edition of a book originally published 1936

"A practical, informal guidebook for a short stay in New York by an experienced adviser. All types of places of interest are listed for the benefit of the newcomer who wishes to see New York intelligently." Cincinnati

Rider, Fremont, 1885-
(ed.) Rider's New York city; a guide book for travelers. . . 2d ed Macmillan 1923 xlvi,670p illus maps $4 917.471

1 New York (City)—Description 26-9258

Compiled under the general editorship of A. F. Rider by F. T. Cooper

Rider, Fremont—Continued

"A second edition of a guide that appeared in 1916. Has been revised and enlarged to include supplementary 'material relating to Yonkers and to that part of New York in the state of New Jersey.' Gives all the usual guidebook information, with clear maps and plans and is not padded with illustrations. A bibliography is a distinctive feature." Wis. bul.

Shackleton, Robert, 1860-1922

Book of New York; illus. with photographs and with drawings by R. L. Boyer. Penn 1917 377p illus o.p. 1939 917.471

1 New York (City)—Description 18-87

"Mr. Shackleton combines the history and traditions of New York with more recent information and anecdote in such manner that the reader feels himself reliving the old valiant times, while conscious of the new and wonderful city." St Louis

Wright, Mrs Mabel (Osgood) 1859-1934

My New York; illus. by Ivin Sickels, 2d. Macmillan 1926 276p illus $2 917.471

1 New York (City)—Social life and customs 26-7079

"As a picture of family life in a minister's home two generations ago has an interest that does not depend on familiarity with New York. Illustrated with charming little drawings." Wis. bul.

"This delightful volume is another valuable contribution to the annals of Old New York. Books of this nature, which preserve for us the more intimate details of family life in our city in the last half of the century just closed, are all too infrequent and so Mrs. Wright's work is a welcome addition to the scanty list." Sat. rev. of lit.

Writers' program

New York City guide; a comprehensive guide to the five boroughs of the metropolis—Manhattan, Brooklyn, the Bronx, Queens, and Richmond. . . Random house 1939 xx,708p illus maps (American guide ser.) $3 917.471

1 New York (City)—Description (W) 39-27593

Each of the five boroughs is thoroly covered, and there is a special, detailed chapter describing the World's Fair. Contains 39 maps, 170 photographs and illustrations, and a complete index. Includes a chapter on "Books about New York"

"It is a practical guidebook for the visitor. It begins with travelers' information about hotels and subways and museums and theatres and the like. It never ceases to be a book of facts, figures, directions." N.Y. Times

Two additional guides published by the same organization are:

Writers' program. Changing New York; photographs by Berenice Abbott; text by Elizabeth McCausland . . . under the sponsorship of the Guilds' committee for Federal writers' publications. Dutton 1939 206p illus $3

Writers' program. New York panorama; a comprehensive view of the metropolis. Random house 1938 526p illus $2.50 (W) A collection of essays on every aspect of the life of the city

917.48 Pennsylvania

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:

Nutting, Wallace. Pennsylvania beautiful (eastern). . . Old America co. 1924 302p (States beautiful ser.) illus $2 Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.98

Faris, John Thomson, 1871-

Old trails and roads in Penn's land. . . Lippincott 1927 259p illus map o.p. 1939 917.48

1 Pennsylvania—Description and travel 2 Pennsylvania—Historic houses, etc. 27-18502

"This account of old trails and roads in Pennsylvania recalls their historic associations in quotations from old records and diaries as well as in the very fine photographic illustrations. The book is furnished with a map to complete its service to the tourist of Penn's land." Book rev. digest

"Motoring tourists through beautiful and historic Pennsylvania will find it a desirable supplement to their road guides, and those who motor for other reasons than merely covering distances will warmly appreciate its help as a traveling companion." N.Y. Times

Seeing Pennsylvania. . . Lippincott 1919 349p illus maps o.p. 1939 917.48

1 Pennsylvania—Description and travel 19-27513

"Alluring descriptions, interspersed with historical information, of the many scenes of interest to be found while traveling along the various highways and byways of the state. Contains fine illustrations. [Bibliography]" Pittsburgh

Two equally interesting books are:

Faris, J. T. Old churches and meeting houses in and around Philadelphia. . . Lippincott 1926 260p illus o.p. 1939

Faris, J. T. Romance of old Philadelphia . . . Lippincott 1918 336p illus o.p. 1939

Hark, Ann

Hex marks the spot, in the Pennsylvania Dutch country; illus. and initials by E. H. Levis. Lippincott 1938 316p illus $2.50 917.48

1 Germans in Pennsylvania 2 Pennsylvania—Social life and customs 3 Sects—Pennsylvania 4 Superstition (W) 38-25895

"Informal guidebook to the predominantly German counties of eastern Pennsylvania, which describes the customs of the Mennonites, the Plain People, the Dunkers, the Church Amish and the House of Amish, etc." Book rev. digest

"With as much zest as if she were looking for the first time at a foreign country, a Pennsylvanian here explores some of the less familiar aspects of her own countryside." N.Y. Times

Shackleton, Robert, 1860-1923

Book of Philadelphia; illus. with photographs and with drawings by R. L. Boyer and Herbert Pullinger. Penn 1918 413p illus o.p. 1939 917.48

1 Philadelphia—Description 19-869

"Description of the city, its quaint characteristics, its streets and by-ways, its buildings, and the notable persons who have been connected with it in the past. Numerous anecdotes and the author's faculty for catching the spirit of the city make his narrative most entertaining." Pittsburgh

Weygandt, Cornelius, 1871-

Blue hills; rounds and discoveries in the country places of Pennsylvania. Holt 1936 xx,434p illus $3.50 917.48

1 Pennsylvania—Description and travel
36-33686

"In a long series of chapters each dedicated to a friend, the author writes of the various parts of the Pennsylvania countryside, all within sight of the 'blue hills' characteristic of the state. He writes now of the scenery, again of the early settlers, of historic events, of manners and customs, and often of the arts and crafts of an earlier day. Index." Book rev. digest
"A most charming book. 'The Blue Hills' is not to be called a travel book. It is, in reality, a book of essays, descriptive and reminiscent." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Dutch country; folks and treasures in the red hills of Pennsylvania. Appleton-Century 1939 xx,352p illus $4 917.48

1 Folk art 2 Germans in Pennsylvania 3 Pennsylvania—Social life and customs
(W) 39-24385

"A volume of informal essay-like chapters on the arts and crafts of the Pennsylvania Dutch (emigrants from the Rhineland and Switzerland who settled in eastern Pennsylvania)." Book rev. digest

917.49 New Jersey

Weygandt, Cornelius, 1871-

Down Jersey; folks and their jobs, pine barrens, salt marsh and sea islands. Appleton-Century 1940 352p illus $5 917.49

1 New Jersey—Description and travel
(W) 40-10656

Partial contents: Sea islands; Englishness of South Jersey; Piney philosophy; Fox hunting in "the pines"; Red bricks and blue; Dykes; Blueberries and bears; Walt Whitman in Camden; Charcoal burners; Taylor hams; From our Finnish past; Cape May diamonds; Last of the glass blowers; Of meeting houses and a meeting; Lapp spoon from Swedish Jersey; Two fiddlers and a ballad singer; Of cranberries; Lost mistletoe; Spanish silver

"Stories are implicit in the old farms, the pinewoods, and the coast from which so many boats sailed to adventure, disaster, or fortune. Mr. Weygandt knows this country well and reveals it delightfully." Book-of-the-month club news

Writers' program

* New Jersey; a guide to its present and past. . . Viking 1939 xxxii,735p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.49

1 New Jersey—Description and travel
(W) 39-20654

Part 1 contains information on natural settings, archeology and Indians, history, government, industry and commerce, labor, agriculture, transportation and communication, the press, racial and national groups, folklore and folkways, education, religion, the arts; part 2, cities and towns. Part 3 consists of 37 tours of the state. Bibliography

"The guide to New Jersey must have been one of the most difficult of the series to do, and is one of the best, typifying the great virtue of all of them: eager appreciation of the merits of the state and intelligent, critical detachment." New republic

New Jersey; a profile in pictures. Barrows 1939 [59]p illus (American guide ser.) $1 917.49

1 New Jersey—Description and travel—Views
(W) 39-27646

A cross-section of a state celebrated for its history, industry, agriculture and recreational facilities. The 75 photographs comprise a composite introduction to life in New Jersey that will be enlightening to both visitor and resident

The Writers' program also makes available in "Stories of New Jersey; its significant places, people and activities" (Barrows 1938 422p illus maps $2) (W) a book dealing with historic spots, personages and unusual industries of the state

917.5 SOUTHEASTERN STATES

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is also recommended: Couch, W. T. ed. Culture in the South. Univ. of N.C. press 1934 711p maps $4 Essays on the literature, religion, speech, songs, etc. of the region

Avary, Mrs Myrta (Lockett)

Dixie after the war; with an introduction by C. A. Evans; illus. from old paintings, daguerreotypes and rare photographs. Houghton 1937 435p illus $3 917.5

1 Reconstruction 2 Southern states—Social conditions 37-20151

Reissue, with the omission of chapter 1 and with slight changes in text, of a work first published in 1906

"A remarkable book, long out of print, which presents an eyewitness's picture of the reconstruction. Ideal reading for anyone whose curiosity has been aroused by 'Gone with the wind' or Bower's 'Tragic era.'" Cincinnati

Bartram, William, 1739-1823

Travels; ed. by Mark Van Doren; with an introduction by J. L. Lowes. Barnes & Noble 414p (Facsimile lib.) $2.75 917.5

1 Indians of North America—Southern states 2 Southern states—Description and travel [28-3822]

"This classic of American literature was first published in Philadelphia in 1791. William Bartram, a botanist who traveled widely for specimens, was the son of John Bartram whose botanical garden, the first established in America, is now preserved in Philadelphia as a city park. Bartram's famous book, describing his travels in the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida, is given in these pages without abridgement. It is largely concerned with natural history and abounds in descriptions of forest life. It is also valuable as an original authority on the Southern Indians and as an account of the manners, customs and government of the tribes visited." Book rev. digest

"There cannot be many more delightful descriptions of travel and exploration in early American literature." Nation

Daniels, Jonathan, 1902-

‡ Southerner discovers the South. Macmillan 1938 346p map $3 917.5

1 Southern states 2 Southern states—Social conditions (W) 38-27536

"A young southerner, editor of the Raleigh 'News and Observer,' drove from Washington to Florida, west to New Orleans and Arkansas, and back through Tennessee and North Carolina. He viewed with tolerance and understanding the changing economic and social conditions, saw government projects in operation, and gives his conclusions with the frankness possible for a native speaking of his own land." Bkl.

Daniels, Jonathan—Continued

Faris, John Thomson, 1871-
Seeing the sunny South. . . Lippincott 1921 320p illus o.p. 1939 917.5

1 Southern states—Description and travel 21-27469

"The tour began in the Shenandoah valley, taking its course south to Florida, westward along the gulf thru Louisiana to Texas, then north again thru Arkansas and Kentucky to the pan-handle of Virginia. It is an enthusiastic description of the scenic beauties and natural resources of the country below the Mason and Dixon line, with frequent allusions to tradition and history." Book rev. digest

Kephart, Horace, 1862-1931
Our southern highlanders; a narrative of adventure in the southern Appalachians and a study of the life among the mountaineers. new and enl ed Macmillan 1922 469p illus maps $3 917.5

1 Mountain whites (Southern states) 22-21761

First published 1913
"In the present edition I have . . . continued the story of moonshining to the present day, and have added three new chapters." Preface to the revised edition
"Sympathetic description of the life and customs of the . . . mountaineers who, living in the southern Appalachian region, are shut off from the outside world. A bear hunt, the habits of 'moonshiners' and the spirit which engenders violent feuds are interestingly treated, and much information concerning a people of whom little is known is given. Excellent photographic reproductions and map." Wis. bul.

Matschat, Mrs Cecile Hulse
* Suwannee river: strange green land; illus. by Alexander Key. Farrar 1938 296p illus (Rivers of America ser.) $2.50 917.5

1 Okefenoke swamp 2 Suwannee river (W) 38-19573

The author traces the background and associations of the river from its source in Georgia and Florida down its course to where the Foster monument stands on the lower reaches
An appendix of 11 pages by C. L. Skinner on "Rivers and American folk" explains the purpose of the series
"This third volume of the Rivers of America series takes its characteristic quality from the fact that its author is a botanist—a Plant Woman as the natives call her . . . Has human as well as plant (and animal) interest, at times suggesting Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings' novels." Wis. bul.

Muir, John, 1838-1914
Thousand-mile walk to the Gulf; ed. by W. F. Badé. . . Houghton 1916 xxvi, 219p illus map $3 917.5

1 Botany—Southern states 2 California—Description and travel 3 Southern States—Description and travel 16-23580

"Journal of a walking trip taken by Muir in 1867 from Indiana to Florida with three chapters on visits to Cuba and California. Describes the observations of a young and enthusiastic naturalist." N.Y. state lib.

Odum, Howard Washington, 1884-
American epoch; southern portraiture in the national picture. Holt 1930 379p o.p. 1939 917.5

1 Southern states—Civilization 2 Southern states—Social conditions 30-27845

This study of the development of the South is presented thru "four generations of southern Americans whose changing cultures have provided the most dramatic episodes in our national history, whose backgrounds and experiences comprehend all of the basic elements in the architecture of modern civilization." Preface
"The title of the work discloses Odum's theme but gives no indication of the charm with which he tells the story of the part the South has played and is playing in the civilization of America. The old South is redrawn, perhaps overdrawn on the romantic side, but the paradoxes and the culture that were the ante-bellum South are well portrayed." Current history
Notes, sources and acknowledgements: p343-70

Page, Thomas Nelson, 1853-1922
Old South; essays social and political. Scribner 1892 344p front o.p. 1939 917.5

1 Southern states 2 Virginia—Social life and customs 3-31223

Contents: Old South; Authorship in the South before the war; Glimpses of life in colonial Virginia; Social life in old Virginia before the war; Old colonial places; Old Virginia lawyer; Want of a history of the southern people; Negro question
"The book owes its significance to the fact that the author is descended from a distinguished Virginia family, and has had special opportunities to absorb the traditions of southern life. Moreover, he has made a careful study of old records. . . While he recognizes the faults of the old regime, the author generally presents only the brighter side." Pittsburgh

917.51 Delaware

Writers' program
Delaware; a guide to the first state. . . Viking 1938 xxv,549p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.51

1 Delaware—Description and travel (W) 38-17269

A comprehensive guide to the historical, social, economic and cultural development of Delaware, together with detailed descriptions of cities

917.52 Maryland

Wilstach, Paul, 1870-
Potomac landings; photographs by R. B. Whitman and others. Bobbs 378p map $3.75 917.52

1 Maryland — Historic houses, etc. 2 Maryland—History 3 Maryland—Social life and customs 4 Potomac river 5 Virginia—Historic houses, etc. 6 Virginia—History 7 Virginia—Social life and customs 32-28953

First published 1920 by Doubleday, Page
"Descriptions of the old plantation houses which still line the banks of the Potomac, with many details as to the life led by their inhabitants during colonial days." Pittsburgh

Wilstach, Paul—Continued

Tidewater Maryland. Bobbs 1931 383p illus map $3.75 917.52

1 Maryland — Description and travel
2 Maryland — Historic houses, etc.
3 Maryland—Social life and customs
31-28890

"An interesting and extensive account of the eastern and western shores of the Chesapeake with a good deal of history, much description of the fine places still remaining, and interesting anecdote. Mr. Wilstach's volume is by no means merely a travel book or a study for antiquarians. It might be called a familiar history of one of the most interesting regions in Colonial America." Sat. rev. of lit.

917.53 Washington, D.C.

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:
Latimer, L. P. Your Washington and mine. Scribner 1924 382p illus $1.40
National geographic society. Capital of our country. . . The society 1923 154p illus $3

Early, Eleanor

And this is Washington! (and Arlington, Mount Vernon, Alexandria, and Georgetown besides). Houghton 1934 285p front $1.75 917.53

1 Washington, D.C. — Description
2 Washington, D.C.—History 34-9646

"There is a deal of enjoyment to be found in the reading of this guide book to Washington . . . Miss Early's pages fairly overflow with entertaining chatter about the famous men and women who have helped to make the history of Washington and of the country. . . To get together all this little-known material has evidently meant careful and wide research. In her foreword Miss Early says that she has collected it by reading many 'Lives' and searching through numbers of diaries and letters and other conveyors of ancient gossip. And her work has enabled her to write a good and accurate guide to Washington that is also a delectable book to read." N.Y. Times

Moore, Charles, 1855-

Washington, past and present; illus. by E. H. Suydam. Appleton-Century 1929 340p illus $5 917.53

1 Washington, D.C. — Description
2 Washington, D.C.—Historic houses, etc. 3 Washington, D.C.—History
29-23221

"Traces the growth of the capital city from its inception, on through L'Enfant's plans to the present, describing its buildings, monuments, museums and parks. Incidentally there is discussion of the men who strove for the beautifying of Washington, as well as life in the city. As always, E. H. Suydam's pencil drawings are a delight." N.Y. libraries

Rider, Fremont, 1885-

(ed.) Rider's Washington. . . Macmillan 1924 xli,548p illus maps $2.50 917.53

1 Washington, D.C.—Description 26-9259

A standard guide book, which contains preliminary information as to traveling facilities, and directions for a sight-seeing tour; three maps and twenty-two plans. Compiled by F. T. Cooper under the editorship of A. F. Rider
Washington bibliography: pref. p37-41

Shackleton, Robert, 1860-1923

Book of Washington; illus . . . by Henry Pitz. Penn 1922 375p illus o.p. 1939 917.53

1 Washington, D.C.—Description 22-22413

"A chatty and informal guide to the national capital and its surroundings, enlivened with frequent anecdotes. Good photographic illustrations, with many charming pen drawings." Wis. bul.

Writers' program

Our Washington; a comprehensive album of the nation's capital in words and pictures. . . McClurg 1939 178p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2 917.53

1 Washington, D.C. — Description
2 Washington, D.C.—Description—Views
(W) 39-27648

"This album, using many of the photographs taken from [the more comprehensive publication by the same group] 'Washington: City and Capital,' is intended for the many visitors who may wish to have a photographic index of what to see in Washington, as well as a photographic record to take home after the visit to refresh their memories of the government buildings, shrines and monuments, historic houses and other points of interest." Preface

"The text, though brief, is adequate to the purpose and the book will be a useful as well as attractive addition to school and public libraries." Wis. bul.

Washington, city and capital. Supt. of doc. 1937 xxvi,1140p illus maps (Am. guide ser.) $3 917.53

1 Washington, D.C. — Description
2 Washington, D.C. — History 3 Washington, D.C.—Intellectual life 4 Washington, D.C.—Suburbs (W) 37-26377

"A widely inclusive guidebook to the city giving the historical background, outstanding institutions, tours in the city and the environs, and short characterizations of the duties and functions of government departments, bureaus, and agencies. Appended are lists of statues, monuments, and memorials, a chronology, and a bibliography. Two large folded maps in pocket, several small maps and plans, and many illustrations. A large, very heavy volume. Thoroughly indexed." Bkl.

917.55 Virginia

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:
Nutting, Wallace. Virginia beautiful. . . Old America co. 1930 306p illus (States beautiful ser.) $2 Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.98

Andrews, Mrs Marietta (Minnigerode) 1869-1931 917

George Washington's country; introduction by G. W. O. Oakes. Dutton 1930 318p illus $2.50 917.55

1 Virginia — Description and travel
2 Virginia — Historic houses, etc.
3 Washington, George, president U.S. 1732-1799
30-24866

"A personally conducted tour thru the parts of America where George Washington lived, fought and died. Starting in northern Virginia where Washington and his forefathers were born, the journey takes the reader to the homes of the Fairfaxes, the Lees, the Byrds, Madison,

Andrews, Mrs Marietta M.—Continued
Jefferson, and Marshall, follows the military career of Washington thru colonial America, and ends at Mt Vernon." Book rev. digest

Bruce, Philip Alexander, 1856-1933
Social life of Virginia in the seventeenth century. . . 2d ed rev and enl Bell, J.P. 1926 275p $2.50 917.55

1 Virginia — History 2 Virginia — Social life and customs [7-21275]

"An inquiry into the origin of the higher planter class, together with a description of the habits, customs, and diversions of the people." Subtitle

"The reader will gain from the work a more vivid and adequate understanding of the beginnings of the upper classes of Virginia society in the period of lowland ascendancy." Amer. hist. rev.
Bibliography: pref. p11-14

Rosé, Mrs Grace Norton
Williamsburg, today & yesterday; with drawings by J. M. Rosé. Putnam 1940 76p illus $3 917.55

1 Williamsburg, Virginia 2 Williamsburg, Virginia—Historic houses, etc. 3 Williamsburg, Virginia—History (W) 40-7307

Quarto volume
Drawings of the most interesting buildings of new-old Williamsburg. In the accompanying text Mrs Rosé recounts the history both of colonial Williamsburg and the restoration

Rothery, Agnes Edwards, 1888-
New roads in old Virginia. rev ed. . . Houghton 1937 186p illus $3 917.55

1 Virginia—Description and travel 2 Virginia—Historic houses, etc. 37-37150

First published 1929; this new edition has been enlarged and the information about inns and roads has been brought up to date

"This book, designed especially for persons traveling by automobile through Virginia, is written with ease and charm. The author describes the towns and estates, colleges and churches in a manner that reveals the personality of the men and women who established them. A number of illustrations from linoleum blocks contribute to the book's interest." Bkl.

* Virginia; the new dominion; illus. by E. H. Suydam. Appleton-Century 1940 368p illus $5 917.55

1 Virginia 2 Virginia—Description and travel 3 Virginia—Social life and customs (W) 40-27455

Emphasizes chiefly Virginia as it is today, her farms and forests and fisheries, her great seaports and shipyards, her politics, roads, and parks. Here are glimpses of Williamsburg, the Sky-line drive, the Shenandoah valley, the seashore resorts, Hot Springs, Mount Vernon, and other points of interest to tourists and natives alike

"Miss Rothery writes entertainingly of fact and legend and E. H. Suydam provides charming illustrations of what may still be seen on this historic soil." Book-of-the-month club news

Stevens, William Oliver, 1878-
Old Williamsburg and her neighbors; illus. by the author. Dodd 1938 337p illus $3 917.55

1 Virginia—Historic houses, etc. 2 Williamsburg, Va. 38-27170

"The historical associations of eastern Virginia since Revolutionary days are recalled in connection with sightseeing trips to Fredericksburg, Yorktown, and Jamestown, as a preliminary to a description of the restoration of Williamsburg." Bkl.

Verrill, Alpheus Hyatt, 1871-
Romantic and historic Virginia. Dodd 1935 242p illus map $3 917.55

1 Virginia—Description and travel 2 Virginia—History 35-18558

"The first chapters of this book deal with Virginia's colonial history, the later chapters describe historic spots in various sections and towns which should be of interest to the traveler. In an appendix the author gives lists of important dates in Virginia's history; romantic and historic sites; and famous gardens." Book rev. digest

Wilstach, Paul, 1870-
Tidewater Virginia. Blue ribbon bks. 326p illus map $1 917.55

1 Virginia — Description and travel 2 Virginia—Historic houses, etc. 3 Virginia—Social life and customs [29-22645]

Reprint of title first published by Bobbs 1929

"This well illustrated book, a compound of history, description, biography, architecture, and social customs, should prove useful and interesting to those who have visited or propose to visit that historic little triangle of tidal lowland which extends from Alexandria on the north to Norfolk on the south, and from Richmond on the James River to the towns on Chesapeake Bay." Cleveland

917.56 North Carolina

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:
Morley, M. W. Carolina mountains. Houghton 1913 397p illus $4

Hobbs, Samuel Huntington
North Carolina, economic and social. Univ. of N.C. press 1930 403p illus maps $1.50 917.56

1 North Carolina—Economic conditions 2 North Carolina—Social conditions 30-16473

"Much more completely than heretofore has been told here the social and economic story of the famous state of North Carolina. Its educational facilities, its population, its improved economic conditions, its scenic beauties, are all discussed." Providence
Contains chapter bibliographies

Mason, Robert Lindsay, 1874-
Lure of the Great Smokies. Houghton 1927 320p illus maps o.p. 1939 917.56

1 Great Smoky Mountains 27-13150

"Although 'The Lure of the Great Smokies' records specifically the history and lore of the mountains in Tennessee and North Carolina, Mr Mason's complete grasp of his subject gives his book a much wider scope. Instead of writing a routine descriptive travel-book, he has put together an enthusiastic history—almost a saga—a cross-section of American culture." N.Y. Times

Mason, Robert L.—Continued

Sheppard, Mrs Muriel (Earley)
Cabins in the laurel; with illus. by Bayard Wootten. Univ. of N.C. press 1935 313p illus $3 917.56

1 Blue ridge mountains, North Carolina 2 Folk songs—North Carolina 3 Mountain whites (Southern states) 4 North Carolina—Social conditions 35-5857

"This history of the Toe River region of the Carolina Blue Ridge mountains, with descriptions of present-day customs and ways of living, is presented thru the medium of informal anecdotes, stories from the lips of ancients, and even ballads composed while the author waited. The book contains a large number of illustrations from photographs." Book rev. digest

"One of the most effective qualities of this whole rich book arises out of the author's capacity to immerse herself in the life of the people of whom she writes." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Writers' program
North Carolina; a guide to the old north state. . . Univ. of N.C. press 1939 xxxiv,601p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.56

1 North Carolina—Description and travel (W) 39-28706

Part 1 contains information on natural settings, the Indians, history, the Negroes, agriculture, modes of travel, industry and labor, public education, religion, sports and recreation, folkways and folklore, eating and drinking, the arts, and architecture; part 2, cities and towns. Part 3 consists of 33 tours of the state. Part 4, national park and forests. Suggested readings: p573-77

917.57 South Carolina

Rice, James Henry, 1868-
Glories of the Carolina coast. Bryan 1936 211p illus $2.50 917.57

1 South Carolina—Description and travel 36-10801

First published 1925. In the 2d edition which has been reset, a dedication, and a new chapter on Pineland villages, Pickens and Toogadoo, the Coast's social center, has been added

The author's purpose is to acquaint the reader with the charm of the coastal country of South Carolina including its history as well as a description of its beauties

"This book has geographical, commercial, faunal, botanical, and not least of all, literary merit." Outlook

Stevens, William Oliver, 1878-
Charleston, historic city of gardens; illus. by the author. Dodd 1939 331p illus $3 917.57

1 Charleston, South Carolina—Description 2 Charleston, South Carolina—History 3 Gardens (W) 39-31241

Anecdotes from Charleston's history combined with suggestions as to what the tourist should see and do. The book is profusely illustrated with drawings of churches, houses, doorways and gardens

"Mr. Stevens is a good guide, not overwhelming his charges with historical facts, not attempting to describe every turn in the routes he suggests. Yet he gives the atmosphere and brings out worth-while points for the prospective visitor." Cincinnati

917.59 Florida

Stockbridge, Frank Parker, 1870- and Perry, John Holliday, 1881-
So this is Florida; with sixty-three full-page illustrations. McBride 1938 300p illus $1.75 917.59

1 Florida—Description and travel 2 Florida—Economic conditions 38-27107

"An enthusiastic account of Florida's present-day attractions and resources—its agriculture, industries, towns, cities, playgrounds, sports, culture, buildings, climate, and recent developments. The state's past and boom period are reviewed and compared to the present. Panegyric but informative material." Bkl.

Verrill, Alpheus Hyatt, 1871-
Romantic and historic Florida. Dodd 1935 291p illus maps o.p. 1939 917.59

1 Florida—Description and travel 2 Florida—History 35-1797

"A chatty guidebook, both historical and descriptive, to the picturesque features and interesting places of Florida. Appendix contains a list of places of especial interest, Indian names and their meaning, and a chronology of Florida history." Bkl.

Writers' program
Florida; a guide to the southernmost state . . . Oxford 1939 xxvi,600p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.59

1 Florida—Description and travel (W) 39-29497

Part 1 contains information on natural settings and conservation, archeology and Indians, history, transportation, agriculture, industry and commerce, labor, education, public health and social welfare, sports and recreation, newspapers and radio, folklore, literature, music and theater, art, architecture; part 2, principal cities. Part 3 consists of 22 tours of the state. Bibliography

917.6 SOUTH CENTRAL STATES

917.61 Alabama

Carmer, Carl Lamson, 1893-
* Stars fell on Alabama; illus. by C. L. Baldridge. Blue ribbon bks. 294p illus $1 917.61

1 Alabama—Description and travel 2 Alabama—Social life and customs 3 Folklore—Alabama 4 Folklore, Negro 5 Negroes 34-27169

Reprint of title first published 1934 by Farrar

" 'Once upon a time stars fell on Alabama, changing the land's destiny,' so goes an old tradition, and here, after six years' intimate acquaintance, Carmer has chosen to write of Alabama as a 'strange country.' Into the narrative troop college professors, plantation owners and their charming wives, hill-billies, Negroes, conjure women, Cajans; lovely old homes are pictured, and lynchings; there are stories of the wicked

Carmer, Carl L.—Continued
two-toed alligator, and of Bre'r Rabbit, and legends and ballads gathered in the Red Hills and in the Black Belt. Events related are 'substantially' as they happened. Attractive drawings on colored background by C. L. Baldridge." N.Y. libraries

917.62 Mississippi

Writers' program
Mississippi; a guide to the Magnolia state. Viking 1938 xxiv,545p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.62

1 Mississippi—Description and travel
(W) 38-12400

The book falls into three sections: general background of the state, containing sections on history, transportation, agriculture, religion, education, arts and letters, architecture, music, etc.; Main street and Courthouse square, giving city and town descriptions and city tours; tours of the state

917.63 Louisiana

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:
Hearn, Lafcadio. Creole sketches; ed. by C. W. Hutson. Houghton 1924 xxv,201p illus $2.25 Life in New Orleans
Writers' program. New Orleans city guide. Houghton 1938 430p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 (W)

Curtis, Nathaniel Cortlandt, 1881-
New Orleans; its old houses, shops and public buildings. Lippincott 1933 267p illus maps $3.50 917.63

1 New Orleans—Description 2 New Orleans—Historic houses, etc. 33-27054

"The author is an architect of long residence in New Orleans, and his descriptions of the old homes and public buildings, and of the architectural history of the city, have authority as well as charm. Well illustrated." Bkl.

Saxon, Lyle, 1891-
* Fabulous New Orleans; illus. by E. H. Suydam. Appleton-Century 1939 334p illus $5 917.63

1 New Orleans—Carnival 2 New Orleans—Description 3 New Orleans—History 39-11761

A reprint, with additional illustrations and an index, of a book published 1928
"A series of episodes, some colorful, some informative, which give an impressionistic picture of the city in different periods. Something of the history of the French, Spanish and American dominations is included, while the present-day New Orleans is not neglected. Among chapter titles are 'Quadroon balls,' 'Dueling oaks,' and 'Voodoo.' The decorated end papers, colored frontispiece, black and white drawings including small insets as chapter headings add charm to the book. Bibliography." N.Y. libraries

* Old Louisiana. Appleton-Century 1929 388p illus $5 917.63

1 Louisiana—Description and travel 2 Louisiana—Social life and customs 3 Plantation life 29-23366

"Companion volume to the author's 'Fabulous New Orleans' in which material of much the same character is used. Old letters and diaries are quoted and the record presented forms 'a series of interlocking stories from the beginnings of plantation life to the Civil War.' Plantations which remain today are described, and have been drawn by E. H. Suydam, with feeling and grace. Decorated end papers, colored frontispiece. Bibliography, index." N.Y. libraries

917.64 Texas

Dobie, James Frank, 1888-
Vaquero of the brush country; partly from the reminiscences of John Young. . . . Grosset 302p illus $1 917.64

1 Cowboys 2 Frontier and pioneer life 3 Ranch life 4 Texas rangers [29-27914]

Reprint of book first published 1929 by Southwest press

"The book reads like a romance from beginning to end, and yet it is in reality a serious, sober, and dependable interpretation of an epoch and an industry. Both the tang of the real speech and thought of a pioneer cowboy and the actual atmosphere of a romantic period are here remarkably well presented. Humor, pathos, exciting adventure, hardships, pleasures, personal anecdotes, and historic facts are admirably blended in the account." Sat. rev. of lit.

Contains illustrations by J. C. Gruelle and a bibliography

917.67 Arkansas

Hogue, Wayman
Back yonder; an Ozark chronicle; woodcuts by Howard Simon. Putnam 1932 303p illus $3 917.67

1 Mountain whites (Southern states) 2 Ozark mountains 32-8148

"The author writes of his boyhood in the Ozark mountains. Home life and occupations, school, singing school and debating society, courtings and weddings, barbecues, camp meetings, country school teaching—these are the substance of a story that is rich in American folk flavor. An attractively made book, with appropriate woodcut illustrations." Wis. bul.

Randolph, Vance, 1892-
Ozark mountain folks. Vanguard 1932 279p illus o.p. 1939 917.67

1 Arkansas—Social life and customs 2 Folk songs—Ozark mountains 3 Missouri—Social life and customs 4 Mountain whites (Southern states) 5 Ozark mountains 32-28179

"The book records such things as have come under the author's personal observation during the decade or more that he has lived and worked among the inhabitants of the Ozark mountain region. . . The descriptions of primitive ways of living, outworn handicrafts, old-time social activities and the like, are the sober reminiscences of elderly folk who know whereof they speak." Preface

"A valuable document in American social history. . . Of importance to the folklorist, while of course the interest for the general reader should be immense, is that considerable portion of the book which Mr. Randolph has given to ballad-collecting." N.Y. Times

Wilson, Charles Morrow, 1905-
Backwoods America; with illus. by Bayard Wootten. Univ. of N.C. press 1934 209p illus $2.50 917.67

1 Arkansas—Social life and customs 2 Folklore—Ozark mountains 3 Missouri—Social life and customs 4 Mountain whites (Southern states) 5 Ozark mountains 35-27064

"The author's vivid, spicy chronicle of his homeland, the Ozarks, is replete with picturesque detail and pungent descriptions of his friends and neighbors. Though other books have appeared on the subject, from Mr. Wilson's account of the mountaineer's humor, feuds, amusements, and varied occupations emerges a picture which is fresh and appealing and decidedly out of the ordinary." Cincinnati

917.68 Tennessee

Bowman, Mrs Elizabeth Skaggs
Land of high horizons. Southern pub. co. 1938 212p illus $2.50 917.68

1 Cherokee Indians 2 Great Smoky mountains 3 Great Smoky mountains national park (W) 38-29052

"I have related as briefly as possible arresting items concerning the people, the history, geology, geography, legends, traditions, and wild life of the Smokies. I have told also of their recreational possibilities." Foreword

"Miss Bowman's book is chatty, with a great deal about the mountaineers and the Indians of the Cherokee reservation, but sound in its information, and instructive. It can be recommended for tourists intending to take the Great Smoky trip." Sat. rev. of lit.

Murray, Mrs Lena (Davis) and Harlow, Alvin Fay, 1875-
School house in the foothills, by Ella Enslow, [pseud.] in collaboration with A. F. Harlow. Simon & Schuster 1935 239p illus $2 917.68

1 Mountain whites (Southern states) 2 Tennessee—Social conditions 35-27296

"The true story of a young teacher who was sent to teach a notoriously difficult school in the Tennessee mountains. . . . Sections of the book have appeared in the Saturday Evening Post." Book rev. digest

"Her account of her experiences . . . is sincere and moving and well worth reading." Fortune

Whitman, Willson
God's valley; people and power along the Tennessee river. Viking 1939 320p illus $3 917.68

1 Southern states—Economic conditions 2 Tennessee valley 3 Tennessee valley authority (W) 39-27291

Map on lining-paper

"An attempt to interpret in human terms the engineering and social rehabilitation being carried on in the Tennessee valley. The author describes the work of flood and erosion control, the problems of health and education among poverty-stricken backward people, the obstacles of politics and suspicion of northerners, and the inevitable clashes because men are as they are." Bkl.

Writers' program
Tennessee; a guide to the state. . . Viking 1939 xxiv,558p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.68

1 Tennessee—Description and travel (W) 39-28847

por
cal, people against Preface

Contents: Tennessee: the background; City and town; Tours; Chronology; Bibliography

917.69 Kentucky

Poole, Ernest, 1880-
Nurses on horseback. Macmillan 1932 168p illus $1.75 917.69

1 Frontier nursing service, inc. 2 Kentucky—Social life and customs 3 Mountain whites (Southern states) 4 Nurses and nursing 32-22815

"Ernest Poole, a writer with a social conscience, has spent some time among the Kentucky mountains, observing the excellent work of the Frontier Nurses and the quaint and picturesque inhabitants of the region. He has here written down his impressions in a vivid and moving manner." Providence

Writers' program
Kentucky; a guide to the bluegrass state. . . . Harcourt 1939 xxix,489p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.69

1 Kentucky—Description and travel (W) 39-27890

Part 1 contains information on natural settings, archeology and Indians, history, agriculture, transportation, manufacturing and mining, labor, the Negro, religion, education, folklore and folk music, Kentucky thoroughbreds, press and radio, the arts; part 2, cities and towns. Part 3 consists of 20 tours of the state. Bibliography

917.7 North central states

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Anthony, Irvin. Paddle wheels and pistols; illus. and decorated by M. DeV. L. and L. Justis. Macrae Smith 1929 329p illus $2.50

Faris, J. T. Seeing the middle West. . . Lippincott 1923 253p illus o.p. 1939

Speakman, Harold. Mostly Mississippi; with a number of drawings by R. L. Speakman and the author. McBride 360p illus map $1.75

Dorrance, Ward Allison, 1904-
Where the rivers meet. Scribner 1939 252p $2.75 917.7

1 Mississippi valley 2 Rivers 39-32516

"The Osage and the Gasconade flow into the Missouri. The Cumberland, the Tennessee and the Wabash flow into the Ohio, and all in time reach the Mississippi. It is this group of rivers, their meeting place serving as 'a kind of cockpit for our history,' of which the author writes. He has explored them all in a small boat and he writes of his adventures in a book rich in human as well as geographical interest." Wis. bul.

Firestone, Clark Barnaby, 1869-
Sycamore shores. McBride 1936 247p illus $3 917.7

1 Mississippi river 2 Ohio river 3 Ohio valley—Description and travel 36-10781

"The author explored thoroughly the Ohio and its tributaries: he writes of their boats, the people who traveled on them or lived along the shores, and the history connected with them. An entertaining contribution to regional history. Illustrated with photographs; end-paper maps." Bkl.
Bibliographical notes: p241-47

Havighurst, Walter, 1901-
Upper Mississippi; a wilderness saga; illus. by David and Lolita Granahan. Farrar 1937 [269p] illus map (Rivers of America) $2.50 917.7

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Mississippi river 3 Mississippi valley 4 Scandinavians in the Mississippi valley (W) 37-37568

"This account of the Upper Mississippi valley is concerned chiefly with the stories of the Scandinavian immigrants who came to the country in the middle decades of the nineteenth century." Book rev. digest

"Fine informal pioneer history and a genuine feeling for the romance and terror of one of the three great legend-laden rivers of the world." New Yorker

Russell, Charles Edward, 1860-
A-rafting on the Mississip'. Appleton-Century 1928 357p illus map $3.50 917.7

1 Lumbering 2 Mississippi river 3 Stream navigation 28-23003

"Drawing on his boyhood recollections as well as on the reminiscences and diaries of old river men, the author has compiled the story of the river in the days of the great logging and rafting industry. The dangers, vicissitudes and the allurement of the life of raftsman and pilot are picturesquely described with concrete illustrations. Chart of the river from St Louis to St Paul on end papers. Photographs." N.Y. libraries

"Mr. Russell writes with complete authority, yet there is not a dull page in the book. He writes frontier history as it should be written." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Saxon, Lyle, 1891-
Father Mississippi. Appleton-Century 1927 427p illus $5 917.7

1 Mississippi river 2 Mississippi river—Floods 3 Mississippi valley 27-23035

"A lengthy and readable chronicle of the Mississippi which begins with the author's reminiscences of his boyhood on a Louisiana plantation on the banks of the river. There follows a brief history of Mississippi exploration and travel, and a section devoted to steam boating days on the river. The concluding and largest section of the book contains the complete story of the Mississippi flood of 1927. With photographic illustrations, chiefly of the flood and its victims." Book rev. digest
Bibliography: p417-18

917.71 Ohio

Hopkins, Charles Edwin
Ohio, the beautiful and historic. . . Page 1931 454p illus map (See America first ser.) $6 917.71

1 Ohio—Description and travel 2 Ohio—History 31-3173

"The story of the 'state of presidents' from the age of its prehistoric mound builders through the history of its emergence from the old Northwest Territory, to its present status as a wealthy and progressive state in the heart of the union; with accounts of the adventures of its famous heroes: descriptions of its scenic river-ways, strange caves, spacious parks, and historic shrines; and surveys of the romantic growth of its great industrial center." Title-page
Bibliography: p445-47

917.73 Illinois. Chicago

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following is recommended:
Drury, J. Chicago in seven days; with five sectional maps and an appendix indicating the very latest changes in the city. [new and rev ed] McBride 1930 250p illus $1.50

Shackleton, Robert, 1860-1923
Book of Chicago; illus. with photographs and with drawings by Herbert Pullinger. Penn 1920 354p illus o.p. 1939 917.73

1 Chicago—Description 20-19424

"An interesting story of Chicago's growth. Land-marks of early settlers and beauty spots of the modern city are described." St Louis

"The book is far from being a catalogue of land-marks and monuments, or even of merits and faults. It gives to the city a personal quality, and to the reader a sense that here is a mass of people, living, breathing, and enjoying life." Springfield Republican

Smith, Henry Justin, 1875-1936
Chicago; a portrait. . . Appleton-Century 1931 386p illus $5 917.73

1 Chicago—Description 31-28315

"Affectionately, accurately, realistically, Mr. Smith, a journalist, writes of Chicago—principally the Chicago of high towers, fine boulevards and beautiful parks. The illustrations are by E. H. Suydam." Providence

Writers' program
Illinois; a descriptive and historical guide. . . . McClurg 1939 xxii,687p illus maps (American guide ser.) $3 917.73

1 Illinois—Description and travel 2 Illinois—History (W) 39-27645

Part 1 contains information on the Illinoisan, the land itself, land and the people, man of Illinois, hub of the continent, agriculture, labor, government and education, architecture, art, literature, theater and music; part 2 cities and towns. Part 3 consists of 22 tours of the state.
Bibliography

917.75 Wisconsin

Emerson, Charles Leon, 1901-
Wisconsin; scenic and historic trails. Straus ptg. co. 1933 135p maps o.p. 1939 917.75

1 Wisconsin—Description and travel 33-32198

"A handy little pamphlet with information about scenic, historic and other features of several hundred Wisconsin communities. The author has laid out 27 motor trails thru the state and for each town and village along the route has compiled a list of attractions, here a monument,

Emerson, Charles L.—Continued
there a historic building, Indian remains, a beautiful garden, a golf course, a private collection, a scenic view. Unique among Wisconsin publications and well worth having for reference in the library." Wis. bul.

917.76 Minnesota

Writers' program
Minnesota; a state guide. . . Viking 1938 xxx,523p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.76

1 Minnesota—Description and travel
(W) 38-28934

Part 1 contains information on natural settings, first Americans, history, agriculture, racial elements, transportation, industry, education, religion, press and radio, sports and recreation, the arts; part 2 cities and towns. Part 3 consists of tours of the state and canoe trips in Superior national forest

917.77 Iowa

Writers' program
Iowa; a guide to the Hawkeye state. . . Viking 1938 xxviii,583p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.77

1 Iowa—Description and travel
(W) 38-27617

Part 1 contains information on natural settings, first Americans, history, agriculture, racial elements, transportation, industry, religion, education, social welfare, sports and recreation, press and radio, literature and the arts; part 2 cities and towns. Part 3 consists of 17 tours of the state

917.8 Western states

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Coolidge, Dane. Texas cowboys. Dutton 1937 162p illus $2.50 (W) Authentic book of cowboy life, songs and stories

Gilbert, E. W. Exploration of western America, 1800-1850. Macmillan 1933 233p illus $3.75 A study in historical geography which gives the geographic features of the Western United States and an account of exploration from 1800 to 1850

Grey, Zane. Last of the plainsmen. Grosset 1915 314p illus 50c

Grey, Zane. Tales of lonely trails. . . Harper 1922 394p illus o.p. 1939

Grinnell, G. B. Trail of the pathfinders. Scribner 1911 460p illus map $2.50

Murphy, T. D. Seven wonderlands of the American west. Page 1925 352p illus maps $6 Describes the national parks

Remington, Frederic. Pony tracks. Harper 1895 269p illus $3

Thwaites, R. G. Brief history of Rocky Mountain exploration. Appleton-Century 1904 276p illus map o.p. 1939 An older book outlining pioneer journeys in the West

Albright, Horace Marden, 1890- and Taylor, Frank J. 1894-
"Oh, ranger!" A book about the national parks; illus. by Ruth Taylor. new ed Dodd 1934 272p illus $2 917.8

1 National parks and reserves 2 Nature study 3 U.S. National park service
34-13252

New edition of a book published by Stanford university in 1928. The material has been reset, partly rewritten, and brief sections on military parks and cemeteries, and battlefield sites have been added

"In a light and often humorous vein, the management of our national parks and its visitors are described in detail. The illustrations are from photographs and some very entertaining drawings." Providence

Armer, Mrs Laura (Adams) 1874-
Southwest; illus. from paintings by the author. Longmans 1935 224p illus $3 917.8

1 Navaho Indians 35-3536

"An interpretation of the Southwest . . . Expressed beautifully, often mystically, and illustrated from the author's paintings, it will appeal to the more unusual reader or to those who already know the Southwest." Wis. bul.

Austin, Mrs Mary (Hunter) 1868-1934
* Land of journeys' ending. . . Appleton-Century 1924 459p illus map $4 917.8

1 Southwest, New—Description and travel 2 Southwest, New—History
24-23160

"An understanding and poetic account of the region between the Rio Grande and the Rio Colorado, a tract embracing the western half of New Mexico and all of Arizona, and called the 'land of journeys' ending' because many kinds of plant, animal and human life have made it their final abode. There are chapters on tiny Spanish towns, the Pueblos and Navajos and their customs, the Spanish conquerors, and the old 'whipping brotherhood.' Contains a glossary of Spanish terms. Illustrated with wood cuts by J. E. Jackson." Cleveland

Branch, Edward Douglas, 1905-
* Cowboy and his interpreters; illus. by Will James, Joe de Yong, C. M. Russell. Appleton-Century 1926 277p illus $2.50 917.8

1 Cowboys 26-16243

"Aims to compare the real cowboy with the imaginary personage created by fiction and the movies. Has reference as well as reading value. Pictures by Will James and others." Wis. bul.

"I think Branch's criticisms of cowboy literature the fairest and finest I have ever read. Especially the chapter dealing with Owen Wister's 'Virginian' and Emerson Hough's 'North of 36.' His criticism of the present day Western story magazines may not set so well with their editors or the readers who thrive on stories of the Connecticut cowboy variety. But 'The Cowboy and His Interpreters' should be a joy to every one who knows and loves the real West." Ross Santee in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p271-77

Burt, Maxwell Struthers, 1882-
Diary of a dude-wrangler. (new ed) Scribner 1938 343p illus $3 917.8

1 Ranch life 38-7263

First published 1924. The 1938 edition is a reprint with an entirely new preface and a list of recommended dude ranches in existence 1937

"Informal, anecdotal account of the author's early experiences in Wyoming, of the evolution of his dude ranch run for the benefit of eastern city-dwellers, of his memories of these dudes, obstreperous, shy, lazy or charming, and of his western neighbors. Told with a philosophic wit, and invested with a love of the out-of-doors." N.Y. state lib.

Campbell, Walter Stanley, 1887-
Old Sante Fe trail, by Stanley Vestal (pseud). Houghton 1939 304p illus $3 917.8

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Santa Fé trail 3 Southwest, New (W) 39-21151

Contents: Prairie ocean; Council grove; Grand Arkansas; Fork in the trail; Desert route; Mountain route; La Fonda

"Anecdotes fairly roll over one another; but this is anecdotal history at its best, history come to life. [The author] has not intended so much to add to knowledge—although he offers some new material, mostly from oral sources—as to add to understanding. And he has added to it, largely." Christian science monitor

Bibliography: p290-93

Carr, Harry, 1877-
The West is still wild, romance of the present and the past; with illus. by C. H. Owens. Houghton 1932 257p illus $2.50 917.8

1 Indians of North America—The West 2 Southwest, New—Description and travel 32-32237

"Santa Fe, Taos, the Carlsbad caverns, the Enchanted mesa, the Hoover dam, El Camino Real, Death Valley, and other glamorous places are touched off by the pen of a newspaper man who knows how to get the most out of any situation. Illustrated with pleasing little sketches, the book is entertaining, informing and easy to read." Wis. bul.

Coolidge, Dane, 1873-
Old California cowboys; with photographs by the author. Dutton 1939 158p illus $2.50 917.8

1 Cowboys 2 Ranch life (W) 39-13860

Anecdotes and descriptions of oldtime cowboy customs and of famous cowboys and vaqueros of California, Arizona, and Mexico

"In this collection of sketches about cowboys and redskins he is careful not to overdramatize his subject. The romance is uncolored, and for that reason the book is likely to have more lasting appeal to students of this phase of American life than to those who read stories about it for the kick they get out of them." N.Y. Times

Dobie, James Frank, 1888-
Apache gold & Yaqui silver; illus. by Tom Lea. Little 1939 366p illus $3.50 917.8

1 Legends—Southwest, New 2 Mines and mineral resources—Southwest, New 3 Southwest, New (W) 39-11430

True stories of buried treasure and lost mines of the Southwest, lost because their Indian guardians do not want them worked. Contents: Lost Adams diggings; Sierra Madre and bronze guards; Lost Tayopa mine; Scalp hunters' ledge; El Naranjal; Pedro Loco; Not the will of God; General Mexhuira's ghost

"Mr. Dobie's accounts are alive with the space and color of his setting. This is good adventure stuff." Sat. rev. of lit.

Printed sources: p359-66

Duffus, Robert Luther, 1888-
Santa Fé trail. Longmans 1930 283p illus map o.p. 1939 917.8

1 Santa Fé trail 2 Southwest, New 30-26894

"The origins and history—from the time of Coronado to the arrival of the first railway at Santa Fé—of the first of the great transcontinental trails and for two decades the most travelled. Mr Duffus takes up the story of the famous trail makers, tells of skirmishes and wars with Indians along the trail, describes the pioneer civilization of Sante Fé itself, and traces the course of railway construction to the portals of the city." Book rev. digest

"By skillful use of source materials, of which there is a wealth, Mr. Duffus has preserved much of the flavor and color of the trail. . . A vivacious and accurate chronicle of one of the great highways of commerce." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Selected bibliography: p275-78

Fergusson, Erna, 1888-
Our Southwest; photographs by Ruth Frank and others. Knopf 1940 376p illus maps $3.50 917.8

1 Southwest, New (W) 40-7056

"Aside from the local interest, the book has a wealth of material for anyone planning to go to the Southwest, anyone who already knows and loves it. [The author] has touched upon the history, the people who built that history, the character of the country, the villages, the towns and the customs of the people, past and present." Kirkus

"She has a warm, human social sense and a keen sense of humor, and neither forsakes her; and her clear visualization, with its assimilation of honest study, stamps her work with a rare literary excellence." N.Y. Times

Frothingham, Robert, 1865-
Trails through the golden West. McBride 1932 272p illus $2.50 917.8

1 The West—Description and travel 32-7874

Also available from McBride in a reprint for $1.75

"The trails Mr. Frothingham has followed through the 'Golden West' and of which he writes here with knowledge and appreciation include also those that took him to the Yellowstone and the Yosemite, the Glacier National Park, Mount Shasta, Zion Park, Death Valley, the Imperial Valley, Bryce Canyon, Crater Lake, Carlsbad Cavern and other places worth seeing. In his accounts of them he pays much attention always to their history and their geological and other scientific interests, as well as to their beauty and romance." N.Y. Times

Gannett, Lewis Stiles, 1891-
Sweet land; illus. with drawings by R. C. Gannett. Doubleday 1934 237p illus o.p. 1939 917.8

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 The West—Description and travel 34-23505

"Mr. Gannett and his family spent [the] summer making the Grand Tour of the United States. . . Many writers have done that of late, but mostly to find out what people are thinking or talking about, or else to confirm convictions arrived at before they started as to the future of this republic. The Gannetts, apparently, went only for to admire and for to see; and this book, based on the travelogues Mr. Gannett sent back to the Herald Tribune, is at once an advertisement and an extremely useful Baedeker for others who want to do the same." Sat. rev. of lit.

If you have time to read: p217-37

Ghent, William James, 1866-

Road to Oregon; a chronicle of the great emigrant trail. . . Longmans 1929 274p illus map o.p. 1939 917.8

1 Oregon—History 2 Oregon trail 3 Overland journeys to the Pacific 29-9318

"A colorful and interesting book, beautifully printed and handsomely illustrated. The author tells the story of the Oregon Trail from its discovery by the early fur traders to its abandonment by the Western moving emigrants and transport companies. He also weaves in an account of the development of the Pacific Northwest, and sketches the early history of California, including the gold rush. He has made wide use of printed sources with some slight use of manuscript sources. Most valuable for its dramatic appeal to the general reader." Wis. bul.

Bibliographical notes: p255-64

Hogner, Mrs Dorothy Childs

* Westward, high, low, and dry; illus. by Nils Hogner. Dutton 1938 310p illus $3.75 917.8

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 Southwest, New—Description and travel (W) 38-3795

Map on end papers

"One zero morning in 1935 the author and her artist-husband started out from New England in an old Ford with an old camping outfit and little money. They drove 15,000 miles, completely off the beaten tourist path, most of the time in Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and California, talking to old prospectors, making perilous journeys into strange deserts, observing vegetation, dust bowls and irrigation farming." Book rev. digest

Hough, Emerson, 1857-1923

Story of the cowboy; illus. by W. L. Wells and C. M. Russell. Appleton-Century 1897 349p illus (Story of the West ser.) $2 917.8

1 Cowboys 2 Frontier and pioneer life 3 The West—Social life and customs 3-957

"An uncommon study of a type not all good not half bad—just a man shaped by the frontier; rude but fairly heroic." Nation

Hulbert, Archer Butler, 1873-1933

* Forty-niners; the chronicle of the California trail. Little 1931 340p illus o.p. 1939 917.8

1 California—Gold discoveries 2 Overland journeys to the Pacific 31-20852

"This chronicle of the cross-country trek of the forty-niners is cast in the form of a diary of one party who made the trip from Independence, Missouri to the Sacramento valley from May to September, 1849. In his preface the author explains how first he prepared maps of the route, then read every available journal and diary, and finally from material thus collected wrote the diary. 'Every material fact is from some record . . . nothing is modern except the arrangement.' The volume contains many illustrations from contemporary cartoons and prints, eight maps, bibliography and index." Book rev. digest

"For the first time we have, grounded on a flawless professional study, an account of the gold rush that actually presents to us the life of those who participated in it." Atlantic monthly

Ickes, Mrs Anna (Wilmarth) 1873-1935

Mesa land; the history and romance of the American Southwest. Houghton 1933 235p illus $3 917.8

1 Indians of North America—Southwest, New 2 Southwest, New 33-32201

"After a general, introductory chapter Mrs. Ickes gives an excellent outline of the history of the region [comprising New Mexico, Arizona, and parts of Utah and Colorado], from its discovery by the Spaniards, and a history of the Navajo tribe. The rest of the book is chiefly devoted to accounts of the present status of the Navajos, the Zunis and the more important of the pueblos. Interwoven all through and adding much color and vitality are revealing anecdotes of Indians, reminiscences of interesting days of her own travels by motor through the region, glamourous descriptions of thrilling scenes, comments on the art, the philosophy, the methods of life of the Indians and many interesting accounts of their ceremonial." N.Y. Times

James, Harlean, 1877-

* Romance of the national parks. Macmillan 1939 240p illus $3 917.8

1 National parks and reserves (W) 39-12313

Contents: "National park" Langford; Ten-ei-ya and Yosemite; John Muir and the Sierra Nevada; Dr McFarland and the national park system; S. T. Mather and his associates; Prospect—philosophy of parks and people; Magnificent mountains of the northwest; Pioneer western parks; Old southwest; East of the Mississippi; Retrospect

"The purpose of this book has been to bring together in brief form the history of the movement which led to the creation of national parks and to outline the development of the system. [Many photographs]" Preface

James, Will, 1892-

Cowboys north and south. . . Scribner 1924 217p illus $2 917.8

1 Cowboys 24-23378

"Spirited drawings with text written in an unspoiled vernacular. The author says 'I was born and raised in the cow country, I am a cowboy and what's put down in these pages is not material that I've hunted up, it's what I've lived, seen, and went through before I ever had any idea that my writings and sketches would ever appear before the public.' Reprinted from 'Scribner's' and 'Saturday Evening Post.'" Wis. bul.

Laut, Agnes Christina, 1871-1936

Overland trail; the epic path of the pioneers to Oregon. . . Stokes 1929 xx, 358p illus maps $3.50 917.8

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Oregon trail 3 Overland journeys to the Pacific 4 The West—Description and travel 29-28794

Also available in a reprint from Grosset at $1.25

"This is a single consecutive narrative only in so far as it follows the course of the trail. More accurately it is an interesting collection of story and legend gathering about the trail. Somewhat journalistic in style. The illustrations contribute to the historical value." Wis. bul.

Laut, Agnes C.—Continued
Pilgrims of the Santa Fe. . . Grosset 363p illus maps $1.25 917.8

1 Santa Fé trail 2 Southwest, New [31-25892]

Reprint of a title first published 1931 by Stokes

"The author writes of the successive waves of migration that passed southward toward Santa Fe—the Spanish conquerors, the French traders, the Mormons, the American army, the gold seekers, and finally the railroad builders. Rich in anecdote and story." Wis. bul.

Contains bibliographical notes

Lummis, Charles Fletcher, 1859-1928
* Mesa, cañon and pueblo; our wonderland of the Southwest, its marvels of nature, its pageant of the earth building, its strange peoples, its centuried romance. . . . Appleton-Century 1925 517p illus map $5 917.8

1 Southwest, New—Description and travel 25-18070

"The author emphasizes the historical and exploratory side rather than the natural beauties of the places visited, his knowledge of the Spanish conquerors making the chapters on their exploits extremely interesting. Best of all are the accounts of strange customs among the various Indian tribes." Literary rev.

Based on the author's "Some strange corners of our country." Well illustrated and provided with maps and useful bibliographies

C. F. Lummis' "Flowers of our lost romance" (Houghton 1929 288p illus o.p. 1939) contains nine stories of Spanish and Indian life in the Southwest

Mills, Enos, Abijah, 1870-1922
Adventures of a nature guide. Houghton 1920 271p illus $2.50 917.8

1 Mountaineering 2 Natural history 3 Rocky mountains 32-26082

"The book gives a solitary and unarmed camper's adventures in the wilds of the continent. Contents: Snow-blinded on the summit; Waiting in the wilderness; Winter mountaineering; Trees at timberline; Wind-rapids on the heights; The arctic zone of high mountains; Naturalist meets prospector; The white cyclone; Lightning and thunder; Landmarks; Children of my trail school; A day with a nature guide; Play and pranks of wild folk; Censored natural history news; Harriet—little mountain climber; Evolution of nature guiding; Development of a woman guide." Book rev. digest

"The humor with which he relieves a tense situation, and his keen observations on the habits of the wild life of the mountains add to the interest of the book. A number of remarkably good photographs." N.Y. public lib. New technical books

Your national parks; with detailed information for tourists, by L. E. Schmeckebier. Houghton 1917 xxi,531p illus maps $3 917.8

1 National parks and reserves 2 The West—Description and travel 17-14711

A very readable guide to our national parks

Bibliography: p415-21

Page, Elizabeth, 1889-
Wagons west; a story of the Oregon trail. Farrar 1930 361p illus $2.75 917.8

1 California—Gold discoveries 2 Oregon trail 3 Overland journeys to the Pacific 30-25829

"Experiences along the Oregon Trail and in the mining camps of the Forty-niners are made personal and vivid by this volume built up from the letters and diaries of Henry Page, a New Englander transplanted to the Middle West, and after financial disaster there, seeking his fortune in the Far West." Cleveland

"Wagons West is not a great book but it is a distinctive contribution to the literature which is growing up about the 'frontier in American history.'" Current history

Bibliography: p349-52

Parkman, Francis, 1823-1893
‡ Oregon trail, sketches of prairie and Rocky-mountain life. Centenary ed Little 381p illus $3 917.8

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Indians of North America—The West 3 Oregon trail 4 The West—Description and travel [25-17450]

"One of the classics of western narratives. The journey was undertaken in 1846 'with a view of studying the manners and character of Indians in their primitive state.'" Pittsburgh

Some other attractive editions are:
Little Author's ed $1.50 Contains the Remington illustrations
Little (Beacon Hill bookshelf ser.) $2 Illustrated by Wyeth

Raine, William MacLeod, 1871- and Barnes, William Croft, 1858-
Cattle. Doubleday 1930 340p illus o.p. 1939 917.8

1 Cattle—The West 2 Cowboys 30-29241

"The story of cattle is the story of the cowboy. This is his epic. It is the story of a great industry, of pioneering effort of stupendous historical consequences, and of countless deeds of valor and villainy. It is all here: the cattle wars, the desperadoes, the blind devotion to duty in the face of danger." Introduction

Rollins, Philip Ashton, 1869-
The cowboy; an unconventional history of civilization on the old-time cattle range. rev and enl ed Scribner 1936 xx,402p illus map $3.50 917.8

1 Cowboys 2 Ranch life 36-27318

First published 1922. New illustrations have been added in this edition, errors corrected and "the text has been much enlarged as concerns brading, roping, trail-driving, riding of bucking horses, social customs, technical terms and old-time slang." Bkl.

"Describes in conscientious detail the evolution of ranching and the everyday life of the cowboy and shows his share in the development of the West. Not especially well written, but valuable as an accurate picture of a vanishing type too often romantically misrepresented." Cleveland

Santee, Ross
Cowboy... Grosset 257p illus $1 917.8

1 Cowboys 2 Ranch life [28-20230]

Reprint of a book published by Cosmopolitan book corporation in 1928

"At six the author ran away to become a cowboy; at twelve he tried again; at fifteen his father outfitted him and let him go. Heart and soul were bound in that life. His experiences are described with careful accuracy, in racy vernacular, and the account is a picture of real cowboy life, splendidly done. The illustrations by the author are notable. Young people, as well as old, will enjoy this." Bkl.

Santee, Ross—Continued

Saunders, Charles Francis, 1859-
Finding the worth while in the Southwest; with illus. and maps. [4th ed] McBride 1937 231p illus map $1.75 917.8

1 Southwest, New—Description and travel 38-16257

First published 1918. In the 1937 edition some changes have been made to bring the data up to date for the tourist. Three new illustrations have been added in place of several old ones

"A convenient little guide book pointing out the threefold charm of the Southwest: scenery and climate, memorials of an ancient civilization, and contemporary Indian and Mexican life. . . . A postscript touches on climate and ways and means." Book rev. digest

Sharp, Dallas Lore, 1870-1929
The better country. Houghton 1928 277p front $3 917.8

1 The West—Description and travel 28-7303

"The author and his wife accept the offer of a bungalow in Santa Barbara and make the drive across country starting in November. They arrive in time for Christmas and stay out the winter, then homesick for their own land they decide that it is the better country and drive back again." Wis. bul.

"A sentimental journey—but not too sentimental, for it is relieved by a charming personality and good humor, from New England to California. The author finds place for many an alert thrust at American foibles." Providence

Trager, Mrs Martelle W.
National parks of the northwest... Dodd 1939 216p illus maps $2.50 917.8

1 National parks and reserves (W) 39-27475

A general history of the national parks system, followed by specific information about the several major national parks of the northwest—Rocky Mountain, Yellowstone, Grand Teton, Glacier, Mount Rainier and Crater Lake, and the new Olympic national park

"An informative travel book, good for tourist use rather than for armchair reading. Mrs. Trager describes the trip taken by her family and friends by motor . . . Through the parks themselves they rode horses and mules, and stayed in cabins and hotels, or camped out. The last chapter gives lists of equipment and clothes needed, of hotels and other accommodations, with prices." Bkl.

United States. Geological survey
Guidebook of the western United States. Supt. of doc. 1915-1933 5v (Bulletins 611-614, 707, 845) pt A-B, E-F, pa ea $1, pt C, pa $1.25, pt D pa 50c 917.8

1 The West—Description and travel

Contents: pt A, Northern Pacific route, with a side trip to Yellowstone park, by M. R. Campbell and others; pt B, Overland route, with a side trip to Yellowstone park, by W. T. Lee, R. W. Stone, H. S. Gale and others; pt C, Santa Fe route, with a side trip to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, by N. H. Darton and others; pt D, Shasta route and coast line, by J. S. Diller and others; pt E, Denver & Rio Grande western route, by M. R. Campbell; pt F, Southern Pacific lines, New Orleans to Los Angeles, by N. H. Darton

"These books are educational in purpose, but the method adopted is to entertain the traveler by making more interesting what he sees from the car window. The plan of the series is to present authoritative information that may enable the reader to realize adequately the scenic and material resources of the region he is traversing, to comprehend correctly the basis of its development, and above all to appreciate keenly the real value of the country." Preface

Contains illustrations and thirty folded maps

Writers' program
Oregon trail; the Missouri river to the Pacific ocean... Hastings house 1939 244p illus map (American guide ser.) $2 917.8

1 Automobiles—Touring 2 Oregon trail
2 The West—Description and travel (W) 39-27221

"This guide to the modern highways, that cross sections of Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Idaho and Oregon which were once traversed by covered-wagon trains, is also a history of this Oregon Trail region, presented in geographical sequence." Publishers' weekly

Bibliography: p228-30

Yard, Robert Sterling, 1861-
Book of the national parks. [new ed] Scribner 1926 436p illus maps $3 917.8

1 National parks and reserves [19-10821]

First published 1919. Reprinted 1926 with the addition of an index

"Gives history and legends, descriptions of scenery and geologic formations, with good photographs, and railroad and park maps. Enthusiastic, journalistic style."

R. S. Yard's "Our federal lands; a romance of American development" (Scribner 1928 360p illus map o.p. 1939) describes the unappropriated public lands, the national forests, potentialities of water power, national monuments, bird and game preserves

917.81 Kansas

Writers' program
Kansas; a guide to the Sunflower state... Viking 1939 538p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.81

1 Kansas—Description and travel (W) 39-27791

Part 1 contains information on natural settings and conservation, archeology, Indians, history, agriculture, transportation, industry, commerce and labor, folklore, education, religion, sports and recreation, journalism, literature, art, music and the theater, architecture; part 2, cities and towns. Part 3 consists of 13 tours of the state. Bibliography

917.82 Nebraska

Writers' program
Nebraska; a guide to the Cornhusker state... Viking 1939 424p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.82
1 Nebraska—Description and travel
(W) 39-27592

Part 1 contains information on natural settings, Indians, history, government, agriculture, industry, transportation, ethnic elements, folklore, education and religion, art and music, architecture, the press, literature; part 2 cities and towns; part 3 consists of 13 tours of the state
Bibliography: p407-12

917.83 South Dakota

Writers' program
South Dakota guide. S.D. guide commission 1938 xxii,441p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2 917.83
1 South Dakota—Description and travel
(W) 39-8746

Describes the varied background and contemporary life of the state, and tells what to do, where to go, and what to see. It points out how to find unusual and interesting places—historic sites, Indian tribes, gold mines, hunting spots, scenic retreats. It treats cities, towns and villages, gives mile-by-mile descriptions of highway routes, and is an encyclopedia of information on the history, geology, agriculture, folkways and sports of the state

917.84 North Dakota

Writers' program
North Dakota; a guide to the northern prairie state. Works progress administration, Bismarck, N.D. 1938 xx,371p illus maps (American guide ser.) $1.25 917.84
1 North Dakota—Description and travel
(W) 38-27687

An encyclopedic guide and survey which contains history, folklore and anecdotes of the state

917.86 Montana

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following is also recommended:
Schultz, J. W. Signposts of adventure; Glacier national park as the Indians know it. Houghton 1926 225p illus map $3 Gives the legends connected with the Blackfeet and Kutenai names and urges their more extensive use in Glacier park

Laut, Agnes Christina, 1871-1936
Enchanted trails of Glacier park. McBride 1926 251p illus $2 917.86
1 Glacier national park 26-14353

"Besides her enlightening comment on the forestry, mountains, lakes, birds, and animals of the Park, the author discusses entertainingly its earlier history and that of its original inhabitants, the meagrely surviving Blackfeet Indians." Sat. rev. of lit.

Contains excellent illustrations. There are maps on the lining-papers

Thompson, Mrs Margaret (Hollinshead) 1892-
High trails of Glacier national park. Caxton printers 1936 167p illus map $3 917.86
1 Glacier national park 36-12392

"Contains enough guide-book information to make it useful. Is somewhat richer in the human background, in the scouting, hunting, and mining history of the region, than other books on the subject. Colored frontispiece, many illustrations, and folding map." Wis. bul.

Writers' program
Montana; a state guide book... Viking 1939 xxiii,430p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.86
1 Montana—Description and travel
(W) 39-27792

Part 1 contains information on natural settings, history, ethnic groups, agriculture, labor, industry and commerce, transportation, education, religion, social welfare, the art, the press, and recreation; part 2, cities and towns. Part 3 consists of 28 tours of the state
Bibliography: p425-29

917.87 Wyoming

Chittenden, Hiram Martin, 1859-1917
Yellowstone national park; historical & descriptive; rev. by E. C. Cress and I. F. Story. 1933 ed with corrections and additions to 1940 Stanford univ. press 1940 286p illus map $3 917.87
1 Yellowstone national park 40-13303

First published 1895. Revised several times and issued by various publishers

An authoritative work whose author was an important officer in the park for several years. It is useful for guide-book purposes as well as for general information and reading. The volume contains several good illustrations, a folding map and biographical notes

917.88 Colorado

Carhart, Arthur Hawthorne, 1892-
Colorado; with nine illus. by Paul Bringle. Coward-McCann 1932 322p illus o.p. 1939 917.88
1 Colorado—Description and travel
32-26680

"An informal guide book to Colorado. Mingles anecdote and story with information for the tourist. Illustrated only with pencil sketches and with small maps." Wis. bul.
Bibliography: p287-92

Mills, Enos Abijah, 1870-1922
Rocky Mountain national park. Memorial ed with a foreword by R. W. Johnson. Doubleday 1924 xxiii,239p illus $2.50 917.88
1 Rocky mountain national park
[32-26083]

"In 1905 the author brought out 'The Story of Estes Park and a Guide Book.'... In its present form, 'The Rocky Mountain National Park,' all the original historical material of the book has been used, and in addition, chapters relating to the development of the region for recreational and educational purposes as a national park." Preface

Mills, Enos Abijah—Continued
"It will be read with delight by the many who have visited the Rocky Mountain National Park, and with profit by those who intend to do so. Mills had unusual ability as a story teller, and his studies of wild animals and their ways are often amusing and exciting." Outlook

Additional material on the Rocky Mountains by the same author is found in:
Mills, E. A. Rocky Mountain wonderland. Houghton 1915 362p illus map $2.50
Mills, E. A. Spell of the Rockies. Houghton 1911 355p illus $3
Mills, E. A. Wild life on the Rockies. Houghton 1909 262p illus $2.50

917.89 New Mexico

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:
James, G. W. New Mexico, the land of the delight makers. Page 1920 xxvii, 469p illus map (See America first ser.) $6
Twitchell, R. E. Old Santa Fe. New Mexican pub. corp. 1925 488p illus maps $5 A scholarly history of New Mexico's ancient capital from the time of its foundation

Barker, Mrs Ruth (Laughlin)
Caballeros; illus. by Norma van Swearingen. Appleton-Century 1931 379p illus $3 917.89
1 New Mexico 2 Santa Fé, N.M. 3 Spaniards in New Mexico 31-20813
"Travelers will find this an admirable supplement to New Mexico guidebooks, combining history of the former Spanish and Mexican civilization with description of the present Spanish-American life. It is written with knowledge and appreciation of the romantic glamor of the southwest and has excellent chapters on Sante Fé." Bkl.

Calvin, Ross, 1889-
Sky determines; an interpretation of the southwest. Macmillan 1934 354p illus $2.50 917.89
1 Anthropogeography 2 New Mexico 3 New Mexico—Climate 34-10348
"Distinctive in its style, graceful in its never monotonous rhythm, all-embracing in its scope, this fundamentally scientific account of New Mexico . . . should have a wide reading. Not only the citizen of that state, the traveler therein, who aspires to be more than mere tourist, and the investor who owns a share in a New Mexico ranch or mine, but also the student of human nature, interested in the interplay between environment and man, will read it with profit and enjoyment." Scientific book club review
Bibliography: p343-46

Fergusson, Harvey, 1890-
* Rio Grande. Knopf 1933 296p illus $3 917.89
1 Indians of North America—Southwest, New 2 New Mexico 3 Rio Grande 33-27259
"Taking the Rio Grande as a symbol of the Southwest the author has written an informal and romantic history of this region beginning with the civilization of the pueblo builders and bringing the story down to the present day. Illustrated with plates grouped at end of volume." Book rev. digest
"From every point of view it is a most interesting, entertaining and enjoyable book. Because of his fondness for the scene he makes his history a romance, but a romance on a grand scale, one that epitomizes the conquest of a continent." Boston Transcript
Bibliography: p293-96

Lummis, Charles Fletcher, 1859-1928
Land of poco tiempo. Scribner 1925 310p illus $3.75 917.89
1 Apache Indians 2 Folk songs 3 Franciscans. Third order 4 New Mexico 5 Pueblo Indians 6 Quivira 26-6046
First published 1893. Describes the picturesque in the life and customs of New Mexico. Includes chapters on the Penitente brothers and New Mexican folk-songs. Illustrations from photographs by the author

917.9 Pacific States

R. L. Neuberger's "Our promised land" (Macmillan 1938 398p map $3) (W) is a journalistic story of the Pacific Northwest with comments on the engineering and irrigation projects, the political situation and the economic factors of the territory

Muir, John, 1838-1914
Steep trails; ed. by W. F. Badé. Houghton 1918 390p illus $3 917.9
1 Forests and forestry 2 Shasta, Mount 3 The West—Description and travel 18-18667
"Descriptive sketches of parts of California and other western states written between 1874 and 1902. A number rank with their author's best work. Characteristic titles are: Wild wool; Shasta rambles; Bathing in Salt lake; The San Gabriel valley; Nevada's dead towns; Puget sound; An ascent of Mount Rainier; Rivers of Oregon; The Grand cañon." N.Y. state lib.
"Lovers of the West country will be grateful . . . for these posthumous papers of John Muir. No one ever loved the West more than this well-known naturalist, and no one ever wrote more enthusiastically of its life in the old days of the seventies." Catholic world

917.91 Arizona

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:
Dellenbaugh, F. S. Romance of the Colorado river. 3d ed Putnam 1909 401p illus maps o.p. 1939
Freeman, L. R. Down the Grand Canyon. Dodd 1924 371p illus o.p. 1939
James, G. W. Arizona, the wonderland. Page 1917 xxiv,478p illus map (See America first ser.) $6

Eddy, Clyde
Down the world's most dangerous river... Stokes 1929 xx,293p illus $2.50 917.91
1 Colorado river 29-19874
Published in England under title: "Danger river" The story of the author's trips down the Colorado River through the Grand Canyon
"In this elaboration of Mr Eddy's diary are recorded, for all those possessed of a spirit of adventure, the day by day struggle with the rapids of the Colorado river at high water, and the way the qualities and temperaments of the crew, from college graduate to hobo, were tested by danger, hardship and the constant strain of never knowing what would happen next." N.Y. libraries

Eddy, Clyde—Continued

Faunce, Mrs Hilda
* Desert wife; illus. by W. L. Kihn. Little 1934 304p illus $3 917.91

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Navaho Indians 34-23115

"Bare rocks, sand and scrub pine surrounded the primitive trading post in Arizona where the author and her desert-bred husband lived for four years, trading and making friends with the Navajo Indians. This unusual and colorful chronicle sheds light on a trader's unceasing activities whatever the season, makes clear various Indian characteristics, while relating tense and dramatic, amusing and irritating incidents, and describes dances, 'sings,' healing ceremonies, and other Indian rites and customs. Drawings in black and white by W. L. Kihn." N.Y. libraries

Gillmor, Frances, 1903- and Wetherill, Mrs Louisa (Wade)
Traders to the Navajos; the story of the Wetherills of Kayenta. Houghton 1934 265p illus $3 917.91

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Kayenta, Arizona 3 Navaho Indians 4 Southwest, New 5 Wetherill, John 34-12251

"An unusual, fascinating story of an Indian trading post. The Wetherills, of pioneer blood, became the friends and mediators of an Indian tribe at a time when uprisings were feared in the Southwest. The book is a treasury of legends and traditions and a tribute to the splendid Indian men and women the Wetherills knew. Most moving are the chapters about the suffering during the 'flu' epidemic and the Indians' gift of hundreds of sheep to the Red Cross during the World war." Cincinnati

Bibliography: p257-60

Powell, John Wesley, 1834-1902
First through the Grand canyon; being the record of the pioneer exploration of the Colorado river in 1869-70; ed. by Horace Kephart. Macmillan 1915 320p (Outing adventure library) $2.50 917.91

1 Colorado river 2 Grand canyon 3 U.S.—Exploring expeditions [15-18649]

"Major Powell's report on this first exploration of the Colorado River was published by the Smithsonian institution in 1875. Together with the scientific data appended, it forms a large quarto volume, which is now out of print. The narrative part is here republished without abridgement." Introduction

"The thrilling story of Major Powell's exploration of the Grand canyon of the Colorado (1869-70), the first known descent of that river by boat, has been buried for many years in government documents. Horace Kephart, editor of the series in which it now appears, calls the trip 'one of the most hazardous adventures in the history of exploration.'" Review of Reviews

Tillotson, Miner Raymond, 1886- and Taylor, Frank J. 1894-
Grand canyon country; foreword by H. M. Albright. Stanford univ. press 1929 108p illus $1 917.91

1 Grand canyon 29-22117

"Brief description of the Grand canyon country for tourists. Takes up the geology, exploration, Indians and wild life of the region." Book rev. digest

"It is a book of experience, a very able book, a contribution to the study of geography, and also a magically beautiful human document. . . The title the author has given his work has a guide book tang, but it is no mere book for those whose ambition it is to say they have seen. It is a distinctly well-written and interesting essay." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Van Dyke, John Charles, 1856-1932
Grand canyon of the Colorado; recurrent studies in impressions and appearances... Scribner 1920 218p illus map o.p. 1939 917.91

1 Colorado river 20-4459

"One of the most delightful of guide books describing the marvels of the canyon with enthusiasm, accuracy and charm, and pointing out the paths and spots from which they may best be seen. Notable illustrations from photographs." N.Y. state lib.

J. C. Van Dyke's "The desert; further studies in natural appearance" (Scribner 1930 xxii,257p illus $3) gives the artist's impression of the scenery of the desert country and also some natural history. First published 1901. The 1930 edition contains 20 pages of notes by the author's nephew

Writers' program
Arizona; a state guide... Hastings house 1940 xxv,530p illus maps (American guide ser.) $2.50 917.91

1 Arizona—Description and travel (W) 40-28208

Part 1 contains information on natural settings, archeology, history, agriculture, industry, transportation, education and religion, newspapers and radio, sports, the arts, architecture, Indian arts and crafts, folklore and folkways; part 2, cities. Part 3 consists of 13 tours of the state and 9 tours of Grand Canyon national park. Bibliography: p502-10

917.92 Utah

James, George Wharton, 1858-1923
Utah, the land of blossoming valleys... Page 1922 371p illus (See America first ser.) $6 917.92

1 Mormons and Mormonism 2 Utah 22-9635

"Any account of the settlement and development of Utah must present in more or less detail a study of Mormonism. This phase of the story of Utah, Mr. James has examined carefully and with an open mind. And he presents his data with an admirable impartiality as far removed from any taint of 'propaganda' as it is from prejudice." Boston Transcript

Bibliography: p359-60

917.93 Nevada

Glasscock, Carl Burgess, 1884-
Gold in them hills; the story of the West's last wild mining days. Bobbs 1932 330p illus $1 917.93

1 Gold mines and mining 2 Goldfield, Nevada 3 Tonopah, Nevada 32-25407

"When, in 1900, a straying burro led its master to a rich deposit of silver and gold in the Southwestern desert, there

Glasscock, Carl B.—Continued
began the last of the West's wild mining days. This book is a record of the mining camps of Tonopah, Goldfield, Rhyolite, and Rawhide and of the men who made and lost fortunes and reputations there during the decade that followed. The author has gathered his material in part from old newspaper files, but in larger part from the lips of the men themselves." Book rev. digest

"His account is authentic in its facts and figures and serious statements, and it is packed with stories of people and happenings, equally authentic, that have all the flavor and color of the old-time mining days." N.Y. Times

917.94 California

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:

Clark, S. A. Golden tapestry of California. McBride 1937 315p illus maps $3
Another comprehensive, well illustrated account of California past and present

Rensch, H. E. and Rensch, Mrs E. G. H. Historic spots in California. Stanford univ. press 1932-33 2v v 1 $2.50, v2 $3.75

Austin, Mrs Mary (Hunter) 1868-1934
Lands of the sun. Houghton 1927 214p illus $3 917.94

1 California—Description and travel
27-12859

Published in 1914 under title "California, the land of the sun," as a text for a collection of water-color paintings by Sutton Palmer, which are omitted from this edition. The text is slightly revised and a frontispiece by E. Boyd Smith and a few line drawings substituted for the water-color paintings

"Mary Austin's exquisite picture of California mellows with the years, and in a fine new edition proves again what a great writer of prose she is. It is a book to dream over. It evokes visions of mountains and valleys, it clothes them with historic picturesqueness and with a mystical quality." Bookman

Mrs M. H. Austin's "Land of little rain" (Houghton 1903 280p illus $3) consists of charming sketches of the land east of the Sierras

Drury, Aubrey, 1891-
* California, an intimate guide. Harper 1939 xxviii,592p illus maps $3.50 917.94

1 California—Description and travel
39-4994

First published 1935. "Libraries having the original edition will not need this reprint, which has six pictures of the Fair and 12 pages of descriptive matter added." Bkl.

"An informally written guidebook to the state of California. The introductory chapters discuss the topography, history, and literature of the state. Descriptions of every highway and all the beauty spots are included, but no data on hotels and tourist camps. The fifty-two photographs are grouped in the middle of the book. Maps." Book rev. digest

Glasscock, Carl Burgess, 1884-
Golden highway; scenes of history's greatest gold rush yesterday and today. Bobbs 1934 333p illus $3.50 917.94

1 California—Description and travel
2 California—Gold discoveries 34-7015

"An informal history of the mines and mining towns of the California gold-rush days of '49. The work is based on extensive reading of contemporary literature, on interviews with survivors, and on personal visits to the famous camps of past and present." Book rev. digest

"It makes a delightful book for any resident of or traveler in California, and tourists to the Pacific Coast—especially if they go into the foothills or mountains of the Sierra country—will add much to their enjoyment and information if they take it with them. For stay-at-homes it opens a door straight into the romance of the past and offers forgetfulness for a little while of the worries and fears and threats of this year of grace and turmoil." N.Y. Times

Hall, Ansel F.
(ed.) Handbook of Yosemite national park... Putnam 1921 347p illus map $2.50 917.94

1 Yosemite national park 21-14069

"A compendium of articles on the Yosemite region by the leading scientific authorities." Subtitle

"Decidedly superior to the handbooks usually available for the guidance of travelers. The ideas and policy of actuating the best minds of the nation in the creation, administration, and use of such parks are admirably set forth." Botanical gazette

References at end of most of the chapters

Hawthorne, Hildegarde
Romantic cities of California; illus. by E. H. Suydam. Appleton-Century 1939 456p illus $6 917.94

1 Cities and towns—California 39-27541

"Points of interest, some historical background, and outstanding characteristics of California's cities given in matter-of-fact style. The outstanding features of the book are the 53 excellent drawings, and 43 head pieces, and the illustrated end papers by E. H. Suydam." Bkl.

James, George Wharton, 1858-1923
In and out of the old missions of California; an historical and pictorial account of the Franciscan missions. new and rev ed Little 1927 xx,392p illus o.p. 1939 917.94

1 Franciscans 2 Indians of North America—California 3 Missions—California 4 Spanish missions of California
27-5828

In this new edition additional data will be found at the end of several chapters, notably the final one on the preservation of the missions

"This interesting volume covers a broad field successfully. It begins with the founding of the California missions, then gives a chapter upon Junipero Serra and his coadjutors, followed by a discussion of the Indians at the coming of the padres and at the present times. . . Perhaps the most distinctive feature of the volume is its treatment of mission architecture and interior decoration." Book rev. digest

G. W. James' "Old Franciscan missions of California" (new ed Little 1925 260p illus o.p. 1939) is "in most of its pages a mere condensation" of his larger work

Muir, John, 1838-1914

My first summer in the Sierra; with illus. from drawings made by the author in 1869 and from photographs by H. W. Gleason. Houghton 1911 353p illus $3.50 917.94

1 Sierra Nevada mountains 11-14183

"Diary of a trip in 1869 to the headwaters of the Merced and Tuolumme rivers and the Yosemite region. Author accompanied a flock of 2000 sheep, but accounts of camp life are secondary to the enthusiastic and poetic description of nature and of sometime thrilling experiences. Beautifully illustrated from photographs with some sketches made on the trip." N.Y. state lib.

John Muir's "Mountains of California" (new and enl ed Appleton-Century 1911 381p illus $3.50) describes with charm glaciers, forests, storms and other features of mountain beauty

The Yosemite. Appleton-Century 1912 284p illus maps $4 917.94

1 Yosemite valley 12-11005

"Though cast in the form of a guide-book containing outlines of excursions, maps, tables of distances, rates of transportation and special advice to tourists, the book is much more than that. It is a rich storehouse of observation by a profound lover of nature. Personal experiences and narratives are combined with scientific speculations, botanical lore and graphic descriptions of scenery." Pittsburgh

Rider, Fremont, 1885-

(ed.) Rider's California; a guide-book for travelers... Macmillan 1925 lxii,667p illus maps $5 917.94

1 California—Description and travel 25-20713

Compiled under the general editorship of A. F. Rider by F. T. Cooper

"An excellent and very detailed new guide to California, including a number of maps and plans. Several pages are devoted to Yosemite National Park, and Sequoia and General Grant National Parks." Cleveland

California bibliography: pref. p57-62

Saunders, Charles Francis, 1859-

Finding the worth while in California... [5th ed] McBride 1937 225p illus $1.75 917.94

1 California—Description and travel 37-28525

First published 1916 and frequently revised. "In the present edition such emendations of the previous text have been made as conformity to changed conditions since the last printing necessitate in the interest of accuracy. Considerable new matter, also, has been included, as some interesting parts of California are now accessible at comparatively moderate expense of time and money that a few years ago were hardly practicable for the casual traveler." Prefatory note to the fifth edition

Bibliography: p217-18

White, Stewart Edward, 1873-

The cabin... Doubleday 1911 282p illus $2 917.94

11-9923

"A chronicle of the building of a cabin home in a sugar pine-girdled meadow of the Sierras, 6,500 feet above the ocean level. The beauty and mystery of the forests, the sheer delight in out-of-door life, the fascinations of wood craft, and the human element of the sturdy hewers, including delightful old California John with his quaint and shrewd philosophy, are elements that happily combine to furnish a capital outing book." Book rev. digest

Writers' program

California; a guide to the Golden state... Hastings house 1939 xxxi,713p illus maps (American guide ser.) $3 917.94

1 California—Description and travel (W) 39-27486

Contents: California: from past to present; Signposts to city scenes; Up and down the state

Bibliography: p694-98

Death valley; a guide... Houghton 1939 75p illus map (American guide ser.) $1 917.94

1 Death valley, California (W) 39-2776

"Its purpose is twofold: first, to give a true picture of Death Valley and to tell its story simply; second, by means of carefully organized tours to enable a complete stranger to find his way around the Death Valley region easily and to have at his fingertips a great fund of information that has been compiled from many sources and from trips in and around Death Valley." Foreword

Bibliography: p71

917.946 San Francisco

Rosskam, Edwin, 1903-

San Francisco, west coast metropolis; with an introduction by William Saroyan. Alliance bk.; Longmans 1939 136p illus (Face of America) $2.50 917.946

1 San Francisco—Description (W) 39-27506

"This book intends to use the combined medium of words and pictures to interpret a city. It is not a guide book. A hundred different sights and aspects, important no doubt in themselves, remain excluded because they do not help—in my opinion—to tell the story I here wish to tell: the story of one of America's vital cities, its functioning and its people." Author's preface

"Both in text and photograph, this book on San Francisco opens the door to a real acquaintance with the West Coast metropolis. . . It is not a guide book, but something broader and more searching, executed with an understanding and affection which the photographer-author is able to pass on to the public." N.Y. Times

917.96 Idaho

Greenwood, Mrs Annie (Pike)

We sagebrush folks. Appleton-Century 1934 483p illus $3.50 917.96

1 Farm life 2 Idaho—Social life and customs 34-33816

"Ignorant of everything concerning farm life, with no experience of hardship or poverty, Annie Pike became a farmer's wife and went from a wealthy home to a desolate section of Idaho to spend seventeen years in almost primitive conditions. It was a dreary life that was incredibly cruel to women, and the stories of her pioneer neighbors are painful and frequently sordid. But her own courage and cheer seldom failed, and she writes an intimate, personal, but very long, account of her successes and failures in the sagebrush country." Bkl.

Writers' program

Idaho, a guide in word and picture... Vardis Fisher, state director. Library ed Caxton printers 1937 436p illus maps (American guide ser.) $3.50 917.96

1 Idaho—Description and travel 39-5464

"An informal summary of Idaho's hunting, fishing, and recreational areas, flora and fauna, and major points of interest. Also included are ten routed tours of the state, and the history and anthropology of Idaho Indians." Bkl.

Selected bibliography: p415-18

917.97 Washington

Schmoe, Floyd Wilfred, 1895-

Our greatest mountain; a handbook for mount Rainier national park... Putnam 1925 366p illus map $3 917.97

1 Mount Rainier national park 2 Rainier, Mount 25-16135

"The structure of geological features of Mount Rainier, its glaciers, snowfields, trees, flowers, animals; its discovery by the white man, the story of the first ascents, the description of its roads and trails, and how one can best enjoy all its beauties and grandeur, the account of how the park is administered—all these matters, and others also, Mr. Schmoe includes in his handbook. The chapter on the human history of the mountain contains the stories of the first attempts to reach its top." N.Y. Times

Walkinshaw, Robert, 1884-

On Puget Sound; Drawings; drawings by J. W. Walkinshaw. Putnam 1929 294p illus map $3.50 917.97

1 Puget sound 29-22116

"Here is a history of this region and, especially, an account of the climbing of its snow-clad peaks, which will be particularly attractive to those who enjoy mountain climbing. There are appropriate drawings, delicately executed." Providence

917.98 Alaska

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are recommended:

Burr, A. R. Alaska, our beautiful northland of opportunity; with a map and fifty-four plates of which six are in color. Page 1919 428p illus (See America first ser.) $6

Colby, M. E. Alaska; a profile with pictures. . . Duell 1940 unp illus $1 (W)

Edington, A. C. and Edington, Mrs C. B. Tundra, romance and adventure on Alaskan trails, as told by former Deputy United States Marshal Hansen to the Edingtons. Appleton-Century 1930 334p $2.50

Hubbard, B. R. Mush, you malemutes! America press 1932 179p illus $2

Miller, Max. Fog and men on Bering sea. Dutton 1936 271p illus map $3

Davis, Mrs Mary Lee (Cadwell)

Uncle Sam's attic; the intimate story of Alaska; illus. by author's photographs. Wilde 1930 402p illus maps $3.50 917.98

1 Alaska 30-26954

"The wife of a mining engineer, after many years of residence in Alaska, writes enthusiastically of the climate, the scenery, the cost of living, the advance of aviation, and the resources of the Far North. Informing and written with vividness and color. Well illustrated." Cleveland

* We are Alaskans; illus. by author's photographs and sketches by O. J. Murie. Wilde 1931 335p illus $3.50 917.98

1 Alaska—Social life and customs 31-28015

"A volume that supplements the author's former book on Alaska, 'Uncle Sam's attic,' treating this time chiefly of the people, with many interesting character sketches." Wis. bul.

Forrest, Mrs Elizabeth Chabot

Daylight moon; with thirty-eight reproductions from photographs taken by the author. Stokes 1937 340p illus $3.50 917.98

1 Alaska 2 Eskimos 37-19483

"To the Eskimos of Wainwright, Alaska, the Forrests were teachers and preachers, nurse, doctor, social workers, and business heads of the neglected reindeer industry, the coal mine, and the fur trade. Here they set up a cooperative store. Here, one hundred miles from the nearest white neighbor, where one closed the eyes of the frozen dead, their child was born. Yet a buoyant spirit shines on every page of Mrs. Forrest's book." Cincinnati

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-

Lure of Alaska... Stokes 1939 306p illus $3.50 917.98

1 Alaska—Description and travel (W) 39-27489

"Experiences of a summer spent in Alaska, with miners in the gold-diggings, fishermen making their salmon hauls, trout-fishing on Kenai peninsula, and journeys down various trails. . . A revealing book picturing Alaska not as a bleak and dreary land, but as a garden of wild-flowers blooming at the very foot of snowpeaks and immense winding glaciers. Illustrated from photographs." Ontario library review

"His story, as usual, is accurate in its observations, detached in its approach, readable in style." Christian science monitor

Greely, Adolphus Washington, 1844-1935

Handbook of Alaska; its resources, products, and attractions in 1924. 3d ed with new chapters on fisheries, fur-farming, fur seals, game, goldmining, petroleum and coal, railroads, reindeer, and volcanoes Scribner 1925 330p illus maps $3.50 917.98

1 Alaska 25-9722

A new edition of Gen. Greely's reference book published 1909, practically rewritten with additional chapters on fur farming, fur seals, reindeer, forests, volcanoes and transportation, and on changing conditions in the coal and oil lands and in gold mining

Hubbard, Bernard Rosecrans, 1888-

Cradle of the storms; illus. from photographs taken by the author. Dodd 1935 285p illus maps $3 917.98

1 Alaska 2 Aleutian islands 3 Volcanoes 35-24884

"Father Hubbard, known as the Glacier Priest, is convinced that the storms of the northern hemisphere come from the Alaskan peninsula. In the expedition described in this book he and his party set out from Seattle to explore the coast of Alaska and the Aleutian islands. The account is enlivened with anecdotes of their adventures within the crater of a volcano, their troubles with airplanes and sledge dogs." Book rev. digest

Hubbard, Bernard R.—Continued
"Is an absorbing and entertaining recounting of those useful as well as dangerous explorations." America

Hudson, Will E.
Icy hell; experiences of a news reel cameraman in the Aleutian islands, eastern Siberia and the Arctic fringe of Alaska; with a map, and 32 illus. from photographs by the author. Stokes 1937 307p illus $2.50 917.98
1 Alaska—Description and travel 2 Aleutian islands 3 Eskimos 4 Siberia—Description and travel [37-14918]
"The author, a veteran news cameraman, joined a hunting expedition on a trip which included the Aleutian islands, eastern Siberia, and the northern shore of Alaska. When the ship was ice-bound, four of the party including the author made the long, arduous land trip from the coast south to Fort Yukon and Fairbanks." Book rev. digest
"An exciting story of bold adventure in the frozen North, illustrated with many photographs which add reality to the narrative and make it more graphic and picturesque." Boston Transcript

Kent, Rockwell, 1882-
Wilderness, a journal of quiet adventure in Alaska; with drawings by the author and an introduction by Dorothy Canfield. Putnam 1920 217p illus $7.50 917.98
1 Renard Island, Alaska 20-6728
Also available in the Halcyon house edition (Blue ribbon bks. $1.49)
"Diary of an artist who, with his nine year old son, spent a winter on Fox island in Resurrection bay off the coast of Alaska. An unusual record of a year's isolation and of rare companionship between father and son. Illustrated with bold, impressive, symbolic drawings suggestive of William Blake." N.Y. state lib.

Marshall, Robert, 1901-
Arctic village. Random house 1933 399p illus $1.50 917.98
1 Alaska—Description and travel 2 Eskimos 3 Frontier and pioneer life 4 Koyukuk river 33-11590
"Attracted, on his first visit to a remote Alaskan town, by the frontier conditions, as well as the contentment evidenced by the people, the author returned to spend a year north of the Arctic circle. He took copious notes on everything—climate, occupations, domestic economy, sexual customs, recreation, and conversation of the white and Eskimo residents, and his book, informally conversational in style, is a 'Middletown' of the Far North. Excellent photographic illustrations." Bkl.

Muir, John, 1838-1914
Travels in Alaska. Houghton 1915 326p illus $3 917.98
1 Alaska—Description and travel 15-26894
"Accounts of the naturalist's visits to Alaska in 1879, 1880 and 1890, in which his passion for glaciers stands out prominently, but his love of all forms of nature also finds place. The descriptions of glacier excursions are relieved with many thrilling and humorous incidents and comments on Indian life. Excellent illustrations." Wis. bul.

Pinkerton, Mrs Kathrene Sutherland (Gedney) 1887-
Three's a crew. Carrick 1940 316p illus $2.75 917.98
1 Alaska—Description and travel 2 British Columbia—Description and travel 3 Northwest coast of North America (W) 40-27176
The story of seven years spent by the author, her husband and daughter cruising about the northwest coast from Seattle to Alaska
"The most adventurous part of this record falls, naturally, within the earlier chapters, when 'the Pinks' were edging their way along in the little Yakima and studying the Coast Pilot and learning new things all the time. But the book holds its zestful interest to the end, and there are always new twists of experience, new sights to see." N.Y. Times

Stuck, Hudson, 1863-1920
Ten thousand miles with a dog sled; a narrative of winter travel in interior Alaska. Scribner 1914 420p illus map $4 917.98
1 Alaska—Description and travel 14-9357
"A record of sled journeys over the winter trails in the interior of Alaska, chiefly in the great valley of the Yukon and its tributaries. On one hand it is a skilfully drawn picture of ice-bound regions in all their silent majesty, with many an illustration to add concreteness to the physical attractions of the regions; on another, it is a testimonial to the strength of hardy and adventurous men and their dogs in meeting courageously the deprivations and hardships of unyielding cold and snow; while, thruout, it throws light upon the aboriginal population and the problems of civil government that need solution." Book rev. digest

Walden, Arthur Treadwell
* Dog-puncher on the Yukon; with an introduction by W. C. O'Kane. Houghton 1928 289p illus (Riverside lib.) $1 917.98
1 Klondike gold fields 2 Yukon river and valley 28-15596
A 1931 reprint with fewer illustrations of a book first published 1928
"In unassuming and forthright fashion, the author has put into a running narrative his exciting, strange and sometimes harrowing experiences both before and after the Klondike gold strike, when he was a trader and driver of dog-teams on the trail." N.Y. libraries

Willoughby, Mrs Florance (Barrett)
Alaska holiday. Little 1940 259p illus $3 917.98
1 Alaska—Description and travel 2 Kodiak, Alaska (W) 40-27500
The first two thirds of the book forms a record of a holiday spent by two women in an Alaskan post. The balance consists of short bits and long, all dealing with Alaska
"A book of lively variety, this, and thoroughly interesting." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Willoughby, Mrs Florance B.—Continued
Sitka, portal of romance. Houghton 1930 233p illus $3 917.98

1 Sitka, Alaska 2 Tlingit Indians
30-9234

"Provocative in its interest is this book by a returned traveler, who lived as a child in Sitka. She still detects the flavor of the Russian regime in Alaska, finding many scions of the old Russian nobility, remnants of Russian civilization among the natives, the Greek church still flourishing and romance still lurking in old buildings, walks and drives. She does not miss the beauty of the forest and harbors, nor the promise of Alaska of today." Wis. bul.

Writers' program
Guide to Alaska; last American frontier, by Merle Colby. Macmillan 1939 lxv, 427p illus maps (American guide ser.) $3 917.98

1 Alaska 2 Alaska — Description and travel (W) 39-27616

A detailed treatment and guide to Alaska, discussing the history, economics, social life, means of defense, transportation, resources and various other aspects of the country

918 SOUTH AMERICA

The Pan American union publishes useful inexpensive material on the South American countries. A complete list of the titles available may be had from the publisher

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Filsinger, E. B. Commercial travelers' guide to Latin America. Supt. of doc. 1938 2v (U.S. Bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. Trade promotion ser. 179, 187) ea 20c

Foster, H. L. Adventures of a tropical tramp. Dodd 1922 359p illus $3

Frank, W. D. America hispana. Garden City pub. co. 388p $1 First published 1931, under title: America hispana, a portrait and a prospect

Hanson, E. P. Journey to Manaos; illus. with photographs by the author. Reynal 1938 342p illus $3 (W)

LaVarre, W. J. Southward ho! a treasure hunter in South America. . . Doubleday 1940 301p illus $3 (W)

Miller, L. E. In the wilds of South America. Scribner 1918 424p illus maps $6

Rothery, A. E. South America; the west coast and the east. Houghton 1930 294p illus $4

Royal institute of international affairs. Republics of South America; a report by a study group of members of the Royal institute of international affairs. Oxford 1937 374p maps 21s Presents the geography, economics, history and culture of ten South American republics

Aikman, Duncan, 1889-
* All-American front. Doubleday 1940 344p $3 918

1 Latin America — Foreign relations 2 Latin America — Social conditions 3 U.S.—Foreign relations (W) 40-27056

The author studies Latin America "through differentiation of geography, climate, history, economics, social attitudes, culture, business practice, politics, etc. He discusses the reason for dictators. He analyzes the changing viewpoint toward Hitlerism; the general attitude toward foreign influence, the antagonism toward the U.S. and the imperative need of understanding as a basis of better relations." Kirkus

"Based on personal travels and experiences, from Mexico to Argentina, the book is lively, readable and provocative." Wis. bul.

Beals, Carleton, 1893-
* America South. Lippincott 1937 559p $3.50 918

1 Latin America 2 South America
(W) 37-34607

A "valuable book on South America (including Cuba and Mexico). . . A careful blend of history, topography, economics, ethnology, and political argument, it goes deeply into the question of the interdependence of North and South America. . . Everything is touched on, from Ecuadorian dances to international policies." New Yorker

Bowman, Heath, and Dickinson, Stirling
Westward from Rio; with 100 block prints. Willett 1936 351p illus maps $3 918

1 South America—Description and travel 36-28555

"Six thousand five hundred horizontal miles and 17,000 vertical feet were covered by this pair of amateur explorers. They charted an unusual course, which local experts said couldn't be made, and then proceeded to navigate it with the aid of seven major varieties of locomotion—boat, train, plane, mule, motor, ox team and plain shank's mares. This unique land voyage across South America, instead of just touching at seaports as most professional travel trips do, traversed five countries, Brazil, Paraguay, Argentina, Bolivia, and Peru." Chicago Daily Tribune

Bryce, James Bryce, viscount, 1838-1922
South America; observations and impressions. new ed corrected and rev Macmillan 1914 xxiv,611p maps 18s 918

1 South America 2 South America—Description and travel [14-3120]

"Scholarly, just and optimistic; the result of four months' travel supplementing years of study. Describes the countries individually and discusses the problems of the continent as a whole, touching but slightly on political matters. Maps, bibliography." N.Y. state lib.

"The book is certainly interesting and, above all things, excellently written. It contains nothing that can be counted new or in the least unknown, but yet the writer's personality gives it a charm that nothing can impair." Saturday rev.

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
East coast of South America; how to get the most out of your trip to Brazil, Uruguay, Paraguay, and Argentina. Prentice-Hall 1940 315p illus maps $3 918

1 South America—Description and travel (W) 40-8767

The author "gives the necessary information in advance (mode of travel, clothes, etc.); he gives the essential historical background; he analyzes the procedure. There is . . . advice on hotels, places to eat, things to eat, where to shop and for what. But his emphasis is on things to see, and how to see them." Kirkus

"An informal and enthusiastic guidebook, covering steamer travel and rates, sightseeing, hotels, restaurants, and excursions inland from the ports." Bkl.

Desmond, Mrs Alice (Curtis)
South American adventures. Macmillan 1934 284p $2.50 918
1 South America—Description and travel
34-39881

"A fascinating travel book that is full of picturesque descriptions of men and women from the President of Peru to the shabby French and American adventurers. Mrs Desmond includes bits of history, legends, and description of the countryside as a background for her narrative." Cincinnati

Duggan, Stephen Pierce Hayden, 1870-
Two Americas; an interpretation. Scribner 1934 xx,277p maps o.p. 1939 918
1 Latin America 2 Latin America—Foreign relations 3 U.S.—Foreign relations
34-9037

"Contrasts historically the political, economic and social institutions of the Latin Americans and the Anglo-Americans, and points the way to closer and more sympathetic relationship." Ontario library review

S. P. H. Duggan's "Latin America" (Nat. peace conference 1936 65p illus map 75c, pa 35c) based on "The two Americas" is a condensed treatment of the subject. One of the "World affairs books" series

Edschmid, Kasimir, 1890-
South America, lights and shadows; tr. from the German by Oakley Williams. Viking 1932 407p illus maps $2 918
1 South America—Description and travel 2 South America—Race question 3 South America—Social life and customs
32-27260

Published in England under title: South America; a continent of contrasts

"In this excellent travel book the author, hiding behind the fictional character, Goehrs, covers most of the South American countries, investigating and reporting with zest and true German thoroughness, and philosophizing more or less. It is an interesting book and an authentic account of the writer's varied experiences and observations." Cincinnati

Faris, John Thomson, 1871-
Seeing South America. Revell 1931 223p illus map $2.50 918
1 South America—Description and travel
31-18160

"Mr. Faris's work is quite frankly a 'travel book' in the specific sense of that sometimes misapplied word—a more or less spiced-up tourist's manual, that is to say, readably telling the prospective traveller the main show-places on a tour of the South American continent, how one gets to them, and something about what they are like." Sat. rev. of lit.

Farson, Negley
Transgressor in the tropics. Harcourt 1938 305p map $2.50 918
1 South America—Description and travel
(W) 38-27023

"Travel articles describing a journey through the Caribbean and the Canal zone, down the west coast of South America, and across the Andes to Buenos Aires. Impressions of dictators, sidelights on politics and living conditions, but mainly personal anecdotes and characterizations of the people encountered—fellow travelers, natives, and officials—terse and often bald in language." Bkl.

Foster, Harry La Tourette, 1895-1932
If you go to South America. new and thoroughly rev ed Dodd 1937 443p illus maps $3 918
1 South America—Description and travel
37-23334

First published 1928. The 1937 edition contains some slight changes in population figures, currency etc. and new illustrations replace some of the older ones

"A charming and stimulating volume combining the features of the travel and guide book. Contains maps and an excellent bibliography." Chicago

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-
Sky roaming above two continents; an aerial cruise, with many landings in the countries and islands that circle the Caribbean. . . Stokes 1938 362p illus $3.50 918
1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Caribbean sea 3 Latin America—Description and travel 4 West Indies—Description and travel
(W) 38-27782

Also available from Grosset at $1.25

An aerial journey to Mexico, Guatemala, Central America, Colombia, Venezuela, and the West Indies. The author also journeyed on foot, on horseback, or by motor to many out-of-the-way places

Vagabonding down the Andes; being the narrative of a journey, chiefly afoot, from Panama to Buenos Aires; illus. with 176 unusual photographs by the author, with a map showing the route. Appleton-Century 1917 xxi,612p illus map $5 918
1 Andes—Description and travel 2 South America—Description and travel
17-25452

Also available from Grosset at $1.25

"Informing but bulky day-to-day narrative of a four-year journey, chiefly afoot, from Panama to Buenos Aires. Gives a detailed, unwhite-washed picture of the life and customs of the peon classes among whom the author stayed, and the out-of-the-way corners visited." N.Y. state lib.

Freeman, Lewis Ransome, 1878-
Discovering South America. Dodd 1937 360p illus $3 918
1 South America—Description and travel
(W) 37-6333

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1.39

"Account of a recent visit to South America in which Mr Freeman re-discovered a continent already well known to him thru earlier visits. The trip was made largely by aeroplane but also included some travel by rail and water. The author's main interest lies in the economic development of the South American countries." Book rev. digest

"Its facts and its background make this an inviting and informative book on South America as its countries and their activities may be discovered today." N.Y. Times

Halliburton, Richard, 1900-1939
New worlds to conquer. Garden City pub. co. 368p illus maps (Star ser.) $1 918
1 Adventure and adventurers 2 Latin America—Description and travel
[29-28351]

Reprint of a book first published 1929 by Bobbs

"Following the trails of the early Spanish discoverers the author tells of his adventures in San Salvador, the island where

Halliburton, Richard—Continued

Columbus first landed, then he followed the trail of Cortez's conquest of Mexico; then on to Yucatan, land of the ancient Mayas. Bound for Nicaragua a lucky chance landed him on the island of Cozumel where corals grow in exotic gardens beneath the sea—he also visited Peru, crossed the Andes to Argentina and Brazil, and French Guiana, finally he went to Robinson Crusoe's island, and re-enacted Crusoe's story. A colourful narrative that shows individuality and keen interest." Ontario library review

Jones, Clarence Fielden, 1893-

* South America. Holt 1930 798p illus maps $6, student's ed $4.75 918

1 South America 2 South America—Economic conditions 3 South America—Industries 30-16378

"For each of the large republics one chapter briefly sketches the political and economic expansion of the nation. . . These are followed by regional chapters emphasizing the relation of living conditions and economic activities to the natural environment." Preface

"We have long needed a volume of this character, not only for use in university classes, but also for the enlightenment of that increasing number of persons desiring to know something of the environment of the rapidly developing countries of South America. . . No work heretofore published on the South American countries fills the need which Professor Jones has met. He has given to the world the best presentation that we today possess of the economic background of the civilization of the republics of South America." Annals Amer. acad.

Keyes, Mrs Frances Parkinson (Wheeler) 1885-

Silver seas and golden cities; a joyous journey through Latin lands. Liveright 1931 333p illus $3.50 918

1 Portugal—Description and travel 2 South America—Description and travel 3 Spain—Description and travel 31-8039

Representing an American magazine, Mrs Keyes set out to gather material on Latin lands for editorial purposes. Her ultimate goal was South America but she traveled first through Portugal and Spain to acquaint herself with the background of the mother countries of the South American republics. The book contains numerous illustrations

"As few travelers in these South American countries have the social sponsorship given Mrs. Keyes, few travel stories about them hold so many or such intimate pictures not only of the homes of the Spanish patricians but of their outwardly reserved but upon acquaintance, lavishly hospitable owners." Boston Transcript

Matschat, Mrs Cecile (Hulse)

* Seven grass huts; an engineer's wife in Central-and-South America; illus. with sketches by the author and photographs. Farrar 1939 281p illus maps $3 918

1 Central America—Description and travel 2 South America—Description and travel (W) 39-27600

Personal account of the author's nomadic life in the interior of South America, living much of the time in country which no white woman had ever seen before

"A light touch, accurate data and a sense of humor keep all in proportion. . . Mrs. Matschat tells of the life and country because she loves it, not to thrill you. The thrills are no more of the story than the laughter and the wonder of masses of orchids, dawn in the Andes or on the Amazon. All are part of a whole and life is like that when you are wife of a roving engineer." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Norton, Henry Kittredge, 1884-

Coming of South America... Day 1932 300p o.p. 1939 918

1 South America 32-13031

"A terse, factual, and in a very solid sense of the word, 'newsy' report on political and economic conditions and tendencies in the more important South American states. Those intent on human interest, atmosphere, 'color,' in what might be called their 'free' state, will not find them there. The influences which largely account for the differentiations of character and scene will be found, however, and much fresh, first-hand and useful information about countries." Arthur Ruhl in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Schumacher, Karl von

Sudamerika, Westindien, Zentralamerika. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Siegfried, André, 1875-

Impressions of South America; tr. from the French by H. H. Hemming & Doris Hemming. Cape, J. 1933 128p illus 5s 918

1 Latin America—Politics 2 South America—Description and travel 33-8253

Formerly carried also by Harcourt

"An entertaining account of the author's six months' trip to South America in 1931, written in the form of letters sent to friends in France. He visited the capital cities and some of the show-places of the Antilles, Panama, Venezuela, Argentina, Chile and Peru. With the trained mind of an acute observer, he sketches his impressions of countries, people, and their economic troubles." Ontario library review

South American handbook. Wilson, H.W. * $1 918

1 Latin America 2 Latin America—Statistics—Yearbooks 3 South America (25-514)

Some libraries may prefer to class this useful yearbook, first issued in 1924, with statistical handbooks in class 318. Founded on the "Anglo-South American handbook" edited by W. H. Koebel

"The traveler's interests are kept prominently in mind. . . There is a great deal about hotels, resorts, climate, transportation as well as of area, government, finances, preparedness, etc. . . Increasing use will be found for this handbook in all libraries." Shores

Strode, Hudson, 1893-

South by thunderbird. Random house 1937 xxix,288p illus $3 918

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 South America—Description and travel 37-21768

"Impressionistic description of the author's trip by airplane around South America from Turbo in Colombia, to Buenos Aires, across the Santiago and up the west coast, stopping to visit the main cities in Peru, Brazil, Chile and Argentina

Strode, Hudson—Continued
along the way. He talked with many classes of people, dined with them, went to their theaters, and gives an entertaining account of all he saw and heard." Book rev. digest

Tomlinson, Edward, 1892-
New roads to riches in the other Americas. Scribner 1939 438p illus $3.75 918

1 South America (W) 39-33057

"In the pages that follow I have not attempted to delve deeply into the current politics or the history of the countries concerned. . . Nor have I presumed to crowd all the South American countries into one volume. . . Perhaps the five Andean countries, Venezuela, Colombia, Ecuador, Perú and Bolivia, together with Panamá have more in common than any others." Author

"Informative and well-illustrated volume on South America, with the emphasis less on commercial possibilities than the title might suggest. Covers Venezuela, Colombia, Panama, Ecuador, Peru, and Bolivia. Could be used with high school classes in geography and commerce and is good reading for any one who wants information on South America." Wis. bul.

Tschiffely, Aimé Felix, 1895-
* Tschiffely's ride; ten thousand miles in the saddle from Southern Cross to Pole Star. Grosset xxiii,328p illus $1.25 918

1 Central America—Description and travel 2 Mexico—Description and travel 3 South America—Description and travel [33-15788]

Reprint of a book published 1933 by Simon & Schuster

Published in England under title: Southern Cross to polar star

"The author set off on horse back from Argentina, over 16,000-foot ranges of the Andes across Panama, and up through Central America and Mexico to the United States—a trail of 10,000 miles. The description of the people, customs, animals and the natural phenomena of the territory traversed is engrossing." Ontario library review

Whitbeck, Ray Hughes, 1871-1939, and Williams, Frank Ernest 1877-
Economic geography of South America by R. H. Whitbeck and F. E. Williams, assisted by W. F. Christians. 3d ed McGraw 1940 469p illus maps (McGraw-Hill ser. in geography) $3.50 918

1 South America—Economic conditions 2 Geography, Commercial (W) 40-27675

First edition published 1926, second edition 1931. "The present book is more than a revision. Not only has the subject matter been brought as nearly up to date as available information permits, but large portions of the book have been entirely rewritten and much of it has been rearranged." Preface to the third edition

"A text and reference book. It discusses the people, resources, industries, and commerce of each country, and treats as special units the great natural divisions such as the basins of the Amazon and of the Rio de la Plata, the central valley of Chile, the pampas of the Argentine, etc. The human element also is given due consideration." Bkl.

Bibliography: p437-52

918.1 Brazil

Bates, Henry Walter, 1825-1892
Naturalist on the River Amazons. Dutton xx,407p illus maps (Everyman's lib.) 90c 918.1

1 Amazon valley 2 Indians of South America—Brazil 3 Natural history—Amazon valley A10-2151

A travel classic, first published 1863

"It is a simple story of travel and jungle life, but the background of the great river and the strange insects and animals make it linger in one's memory." Trinity college list

Fleming, Peter
‡ Brazilian adventure. Scribner 1934 412p illus $2.75 918.1

1 Brazil—Description and travel 2 Fawcett, Percy Harrison, 1867-1925? 3 Indians of South America—Brazil 33-27484

Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.25

"The author was one of a party, composed chiefly of Englishmen, who traveled into unexplored regions in central Brazil with a vaguely defined hope of solving the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Colonel Fawcett some eight years before. The book contains a half-mocking, half-serious, wholly entertaining account of their adventures, mishaps, tribulations, and differences of opinion." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Fleming satirizes expedition jargon, the pseudo-heroics of solid romantics by their camp fires. There has, he feels, come into these only too gentlemanly advances upon astonished Nature a slightly ludicrous air. He is therefore out to 'debunk' adventure, and the rapid malice of his eye fits him for the task." Christian science monitor

Fuss, Peter
Brasilien. See entry under Picturesque series 910 Series

Gibson, Hugh, 1883-
Rio; illus. from photographs. Doubleday 1937 263p illus $3.50 918.1

1 Rio de Janeiro—Description 37-7106

"The possibilities for sightseeing, amusements and living in Rio and its environs are described fully, with a brief sketch of the city's history. Written with an infectious enthusiasm for Brazil and Brazilians." Bkl.

Bibliography: p257-60

Holdridge, Desmond
Feudal island. Harcourt 1939 242p illus $2.50 918.1

1 Marajo island (W) 39-27249

"In a very secondary way, this book is meant to be a description of a social anachronism—a feudal society operating successfully today and paying dividends—against a strange background. Primarily, however, it is intended to be an outline of the feelings and experiences of an American couple during a prolonged visit to [Marajó island]." Foreword

"Desmond Holdridge combines a zest for living with courage to face the implications of life. He is not afraid to think about what he sees. He loves Brazil. . . 'Feudal Island,' as a personal narrative, is somewhat episodic and disjointed. But from start to finish it is interesting." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

James, Herman Gerlach, 1887-
Brazil after a century of independence. Macmillan 1925 587p illus maps o.p. 1939 918.1

1 Brazil 25-9569

"The first five chapters contain a historical survey of the country down to the present time. Then follows a chapter on the governmental system which, together with two later chapters devoted to the individual states, is naturally of greatest interest to the student of government. The remainder of the book deals with the natural resources, population, agriculture, industries, transportation and commerce of the country." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

Contains interesting illustrations and three maps, also a short bibliography

McGovern, William Montgomery, 1897-
Jungle paths and Inca ruins; illus. with photographs. Appleton-Century 1927 526p illus maps o.p. 1939 918.1

1 Amazon valley 2 Incas 3 Indians of South America—Amazon valley 4 Peru —Antiquities 27-11732

"Dr McGovern, formerly assistant curator of South American ethnology, Field museum of natural history, has written an account of his explorations of the jungle of the northwest Amazon basin and the unexplored Inca ruins of the table-lands of the Andes to the west of it. In the Amazon jungle he lived among the Indians as far as possible, learning much of their tribal customs and religious beliefs." Book rev. digest

"A lively and amusing book, describing in easy, unconventional style an adventurous and scientifically valuable expedition." New statesman

Noice, Harold H.
Back of beyond. Putnam 1939 247p illus map $3.50 918.1

1 Amazon river—Description and travel 2 Amazon valley—Description and travel 3 Indians of South America—Amazon valley 4 Rio Negro, Brazil—Description and travel 40-1949

"Account of the author's expedition into the South American jungles, in order to photograph the Indians of the Upper Amazon." Book rev. digest

"The adventure side of the book makes good reading—there is a particularly graphic description of a jungle hurricane—but the descriptions of the Indian life and the reactions of a white man to their customs are set down with an interest that is sustained throughout the book." N.Y. Times

Roosevelt, Theodore, president U. S. 1858-1919
Through the Brazilian wilderness; with illus. from photographs by Kermit Roosevelt and other members of the expedition. Scribner 1914 383p illus maps $3 918.1

1 Brazil—Description and travel 2 Zoology—Brazil 14-19126

A fascinating account of a geographic and zoological expedition, through the hitherto unexplored wilderness

Tomlinson, Henry Major, 1873-
Sea and the jungle. (rev ed) Dutton 1920 371p $2.50 918.1

1 Amazon river—Description and travel 2 Brazil—Description and travel 3 Madeira river 20-18335

The author's revision of his book published 1913. Obtainable also from Harper with woodcuts by Claire Leighton at $3.50. The original edition is published in Everyman's library (Dutton 1928 90c)

"From Swansea to Para thence up the Amazon and far up the Madeira, through Brazilean forests, Mr. Tomlinson made his adventurous way in the tramp-steamer, Capella. He tells his story somewhat in the manner of Conrad, interweaving as he proceeds, yarns spun on shipboard by his mates." Cleveland

Up de Graff, Fritz W.
Head hunters of the Amazon; seven years of exploration and adventure; with a foreword by Kermit Roosevelt. Duffield 1923 337p illus map o.p. 1939 918.1

1 Amazon river 2 Indians of South America—Amazon valley 3 South America—Description and travel 23-5829

"The story of an American engineer's seven years of wandering among the forests of the upper reaches of the Amazon, travels undertaken for love of adventure rather than for scientific purposes. He describes life in a head-hunting tribe, one of their raids and the mode of preserving the ghastly trophies." Cleveland

"He is conent to recount what happened to him; and it is a happy accident of chronological order and not literary art that preserves an unforgettable episode for the end." Times (London) lit. sup.

918.2 Argentine Republic. Patagonia

Guedalla, Philip, 1889-
Argentine tango. Hodder 1933 254p 8s 6d 918.2

1 Argentine republic—Description and travel [33-3052]

Formerly carried also by Harper

"Impressions of South America, written in informal essay style. Not for the reader who wants information, but very pleasant reading for the one who enjoys style and atmosphere in a book of travel." Wis. bul.

Hudson, William Henry, 1841-1922
Idle days in Patagonia; illus. by Alfred Hartley and J. Smit. Dutton 1917 249p illus $2.50 918.2

1 Natural history—Patagonia 2 Patagonia—Description and travel A17-394

"A delightfully written nature book, first published in America by Appleton in 1893. Visiting Patagonia to study the birds of the country the author suffered an accident which rendered him partially helpless and restricted the field of his observations. In these enforcedly 'idle days,' he made minute and careful observations of the bird, animal and human life about him and of the physical features of the country." Cleveland

Kent, Rockwell, 1882-
Voyaging southward from the Strait of Magellan; with illus. by the author. Putnam 1924 184p illus maps $7.50 918.2

1 Magallanes, Chile (Ter.) 2 Magellan, Strait of 3 Tierra del Fuego—Description and travel 24-24641

"The artist cruised in a small sailboat southward from the Strait of Magellan, along the bleak coast of Tierra del Fuego and around the Horn. At various points the voyagers made anchorage, taking short inland excursions and penetrating the mountain regions of Tierra del Fuego. In these wilderness places they met a warm hospitality from the settlers, both poor and rich, and the artist found uncommon beauty to paint. He has illustrated in black and white the seas and headlands and settlements along the voyage's course." Book rev. digest

Kent, Rockwell—Continued

"A most delightful book, interesting from beginning to end." William Beebe in Literary rev.

Simpson, George Gaylord, 1902-
Attending marvels; a Patagonian journal. Macmillan 1934 295p illus $3 918.2

1 Natural history—Patagonia 2 Paleontology—Patagonia 3 Patagonia—Description and travel 4 Scarritt Patagonian expedition of the American museum of natural history, 1930-1931 34-14204

"An informal account of the Scarritt Expedition in Patagonia, sent out from the American Museum of Natural History to search for fossil animal remains. The book, to a large extent made up of extracts from the author's journal, is non-technical, and while it shows clearly his enthusiasm for his search, deals with the adventures of the expedition and with the conditions of living in Patagonia today." Book rev. digest

"A longish, honest, and comfortably entertaining if not wildly exciting book. . . One pleasant aspect of the narrative is the absence of nature or other faking." Sat rev. of lit.

Tschiffely, Aimé Felix, 1895-
* This way southward; a journey through Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego. Norton 1940 354p illus maps $3.50 918.2

1 Patagonia—Description and travel 2 Tierra del Fuego—Description and travel (W) 40-27244

An account of a trip by automobile from Buenos Aires to Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego. There are also glimpses of forgotten and unknown history connected with these remote parts

"His narrative is full of interesting and amusing details, and is written with plenty of gusto, good sense, and good nature as well as good observation. It is illustrated with the author's own photographs." Book-of-the-month club news

Weddell, Alexander Wilbourne, 1876-
Introduction to Argentina. Greystone 1939 301p illus map $3 918.2

1 Argentine Republic—Description and travel (W) 39-27476

Partial contents: Ways to Argentina; When and how to visit Argentina; Argentina of today; Argentine people; Buenos Aires; Argentine society; Theatre and the opera; Argentine press; Clubs; Cultural trends; University life; Sports; Argentine countryside; River trips; Big game hunting, shooting, fishing; Birds, flowers, trees; By way of background

"Not a book of travel experiences, but a valuable, inclusive guide and description of Argentina for the traveler, by the former American ambassador. Much attention is given to Buenos Aires, but the rest of the country is well covered. . . Appendixes give specific travel information and notes on fishing." Bkl.

918.3 CHILE

Bowman, Isaiah, 1878-
Desert trails of Atacama. Am. geographical soc. 1924 362p illus maps (American geographical society. Special pub. no. 5) o.p. 1939 918.3

1 Atacama desert 2 Chile—Description and travel 24-2631

An attempt "to describe and interpret a region traversed on three field expeditions . . . the Desert of Atacama and the high ranges and plateaus of the Central Andes which end in the Puna de Atacama on the south. The narrative is brief, personal experiences being introduced, as a rule, only when they serve to complete the geographic picture." Preface

Edwards, Agustin, 1878-
My native land; panorama, reminiscences, writers, and folklore. Benn 1928 430p illus map 28s 918.3

1 Chile—Description and travel 29-362

"Reminiscences, with a description of Chile and some account of its history." N.Y. Times
Bibliographical index: p417-25

Elliott, Lilian Elwyn, 1880-
Chile today and tomorrow. Macmillan 1922 345p illus map $5 918.3

1 Chile 22-20544

"An account of Chilean geography and history is followed by a survey of Chile's natural resources, agriculture, commerce, railroads, finance, naval defences and racial divisions. There is a chapter on the troublesome Tacna-Arica boundary controversy and one on Chilean literature. Still another chapter is devoted to Easter island, unimportant commercially, but possessing interesting remains of an ancient culture, in its strange series of stone statues and wooden carvings. A map is provided and a list of Chilean terms." Book rev. digest

918.4 BOLIVIA

Duguid, Julian, 1902-
Green hell; adventures in the mysterious jungles of eastern Bolivia. . . Appleton-Century 1931 339p illus map $4 918.4

1 Bolivia—Description and travel 31-5972

"Four men—the author (an Irish writer), an English photographer, a Russian tiger-hunter, and a Bolivian diplomat, make an exploring-adventure trip thru the forests of eastern Bolivia. The chief adventures of the journey came not from encounters with ferocious animals or deadly snakes, but from insects and lack of water." Book rev. digest

"He has more than a spark of the true creative artist and he makes every man and woman whom he met in this terrifying, exotic world, vividly alive. He brings the whole of this savage green symphony of forest present to the reader's imagination and senses. One sees, hears, smells, tastes and touches with him." Spectator

Overbeck, Mrs Alicia (O'Reardon)
Living high; at home in the far Andes. Appleton-Century 1935 382p illus $3 918.4

1 Bolivia—Description and travel 2 Mines and mineral resources—Bolivia 35-27297

"Mrs Overbeck is the wife of a roving geologist, and in consequence has spent many years living in mining camps and frontier towns. This book is an entertaining lively account of six years in the Bolivian Andes, part of the time in a small mining camp, and part of the time in other and still more primitive places." Book rev. digest

Walle, Paul, 1872-
Bolivia, its people and its resources, its railways, mines, and rubber-forests; tr. by Bernard Miall. . . Scribner 1914 407p illus maps (South American ser) $4.50 918.4

1 Bolivia [14-14318]

"M. Walle was sent on a special mission to Bolivia in 1911 by the French ministry of commerce, and made a close study of that interesting and promising, but still little-known republic. . . He sets forth the result of his investigations, and gives a clear account of the topography, population, industries, and mineral resources of Bolivia." Spectator

918.5 PERU

C. R. Murphy's Bird islands of Peru. (Putnam 1925 xx,362p illus maps $6) is an interesting account of the guano islands of Peru and their prolific bird life

Beale, Mrs Marie (Oge)
Flight into America's past; Inca peaks and Maya jungles. . . Putnam 1932 286p illus o.p. 1939 918.5

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Guatemala—Description and travel 3 Incas 4 Mayas 5 Peru—Description and travel 6 Yucatan—Description and travel 33-1227

A popularly written account of visits to Peru and the Mayan Peninsula, made largely by aeroplane. The author's main interest is in the archaeological lore of these places. Illustrated with many photographs of mountain scenery, architectural relics, and works of ancient art

"Mrs. Beale is an observing traveler . . . and her pages are packed with information derived from the original sources of professional archaeologists and historians. While her book would be the best of companions for any one taking a similar journey, it will afford the armchair traveler some fascinating hours." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p285-86

Beals, Carleton, 1893-
* Fire on the Andes; illus. by José Sabogal. Lippincott 1934 481p illus $3.50 918.5

1 Indians of South America—Peru 2 Peru 34-28455

An informal account of Peru—its geography and history; its cities and towns and politics of the present; and the ways of the people—peasants, Indians, politicians, landowners, soldiers, women

"Mr. Beals gives an intensely interesting and vivid picture of that fantastic country. The book shows a thorough knowledge of the subject, is well supported by documents and bibliography, and is well and convincingly written." Boston Transcript

Bingham, Hiram, 1875-
Inca land; explorations in the highlands of Peru. Houghton 1922 365p illus maps o.p. 1939 918.5

1 Peru—Description and travel 22-21189

"Describes in interesting fashion several expeditions into the highland interior of Peru, 1911-'15, including the discovery of the lost capital of the Incas on an inaccessible peak of the Andes. The trips were made under the auspices of Yale University and the National Geographic Society. Partly reprinted from 'Harper's Magazine' and the 'National Geographic Magazine.'" Cleveland

Bibliography

Morley, Christopher Darlington, 1890-
Hasta la vista; or, A postcard from Peru. Lippincott 1935 268p map $2 918.5

1 Ocean travel 2 Peru—Description and travel 35-6365

"An amiable travelog, recording, with many digressions, the Morley family's trip from New York to Panama, through the canal and down the west coast to Lima. A miscellany of facts and reflections, touched with humor. Appeared in the 'Saturday Review of Literature.'" Bkl.

Niles, Mrs Blair (Rice)
Journey in time; Peruvian pageant; photographic illus. by Robert Niles, jr. Bobbs 1937 311p illus $3.50 918.5

1 Peru—Description and travel 2 Peru—History 37-4311

"A chatty story of a journey to Peru in search of local color and background for a novel. Filled with the history, romance and legend of the country." Cleveland

918.6 COLOMBIA. ECUADOR. PANAMA

Beebe, William, 1877-
* Galapagos, world's end; with a coloured front. by Isabel Cooper; and 48 illus. mostly from photographs by John Tee-Van. Published under the auspices of the New York zoological society. Putnam 1924 443p illus $6 918.6

1 Galapagos Islands 2 Natural history—Galapagos Islands 30-13719

A reprint of the 1924 edition without the colored plates, except the frontispiece and with fewer illustrations

This popular history of the expedition taken in 1923 for the New York zoological society is "a remarkable volume, remarkable not only as regards subject, but in the treatment of that subject, on which Mr. Beebe and his collaborators are to be congratulated. Without any sacrifice of scientific exactitude they have produced a book that holds the interest of even the non-naturalist from beginning to end, and at the same time is a valuable contribution to zoological and biological literature." Nation and Athenaeum

Bibliography: p436-38

Bishop, Farnham, 1886-1930
Panama, past and present. rev and enl ed Appleton-Century 1916 279p illus $2.50 918.6

1 Panama—History 2 Panama canal 16-22170

"Interesting account of the adventurers and buccaneers of old Panama, the uprising against Colombia, the coming of the Americans and the building of the canal. Many good pictures." Pittsburgh

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-
Zone policeman 88; a close range study of the Panama canal and its workers. Appleton-Century 1913 314p illus $3 918.6

1 Panama canal 2 Police—Panama
13-8630

"For about six months Mr Franck was on the pay-roll of the Isthmian Canal Commission, first as census-taker, then as plain-clothes man on the police force, thus enjoying the best of facilities for seeing things in the zone from the inside." Pittsburgh

"Mr. Franck had his share of adventures in running down law-breakers, but his book is chiefly notable for its intimate picture of the men who handle the steam shovels, tamp the dynamite cartridges, build the concrete locks and run the never-ending procession of earth trains." Nation

MacDonald, Norman, 1911-1940
Orchid hunters; a jungle adventure. . . with an introduction by Rex Stout. Farrar 1939 294p illus $2.75 918.6

1 Colombia—Description and travel 2 Orchids 4 Venezuela—Description and travel (W) 39-27673

An account of the adventures of two orchid hunters in the jungles of Colombia and Venezuela

"The descriptions are alternately exciting and amusing, and the quality of wide-eyed wonder that is preserved by the author in his narrative is very engaging. He also handles with skill the element of suspense, and brings his book to a climax at almost precisely the last page. The information on rare varieties of orchids, their growth and the manner of gathering and shipping is well worth reading." N.Y. Times

Niles, Mrs Blair (Rice)
Casual wanderings in Ecuador; photographs by R. L. Niles, jr. Appleton-Century 1923 249p illus $2.50 918.6

1 Ecuador—Description and travel
23-7094

"A woman's travels in Ecuador and the West Coast of Colombia narrated with appreciation of every aspect of beauty in these countries and unusual feeling for human interest." Cleveland

Colombia, land of miracles; photographs by R. L. Niles, jr. Appleton-Century 1924 389p illus (Appleton dollar lib.) $1 918.6

1 Colombia—Description and travel
24-23156

Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.25

"Mrs Niles's book is impressionistic and very successful in conveying the spirit and personality of the land she describes. She writes against the background of Colombia's history, legend and tradition . . . But it is in the streets of its cities of today—in markets, shrines, shops and churches, that she searches for the quality of the country and its people." Book rev. digest

Authorities consulted by author: p386-89

Robinson, William Albert
* Voyage to Galapagos; illus. by D. T. West. Harcourt 1936 279p illus maps $1.49 918.6

1 Galapagos islands 36-6571

The author with his wife and young cousin, left New York in June, 1933, in his famous thirty-two-foot ketch, the 'Svaap'. A near hurricane, a shipwreck on a jungle river, and the rescue of Robinson by the United States navy, when he was stricken with appendicitis, were highlights of the voyage; the account of the Humboldt current which carries a wealth of antarctic life up to the equator, is fascinating. Scientific work was done on the Guano islands and at the Galapagos. Vivid writing, refreshingly direct, modest, and nonsensational. Attractive chapterhead drawings by Dan West, the cousin, and eight photographs." Bkl.

Verrill, Alpheus Hyatt, 1871-
Panama of today. . . Dodd 1927 314p illus maps $2 918.6

1 Panama—Description and travel
27-1286

"He tells us the story of Panama in the past and of the dawn of the new era. He describes the first view of the Isthmus, tells about Colon and its environs, the layman's view of the canal and the experience of going through it, and the sights of Panama City." Boston Transcript

Contains illustrations, maps and an appendix of useful facts and figures

Von Hagen, Victor Wolfgang, 1908-
Ecuador the unknown; two and a half years' travels in the republic of Ecuador and Galápagos islands. Oxford 1940 296p illus $3.50 918.6

1 Ecuador—Description and travel 2 Galapagos islands (W) 40-27245

The book includes chapters on the history of Ecuador, detailed descriptions of the cocoa, balsa and panama-hat industries, and many anecdotes and accounts of the author's personal travelling experiences

"He goes into considerable detail on the geology, the flora, and fauna of the locale, but as a whoe has produced a book that will be highly readable to the layman interested in the background of a new country and its people. Book-of-the-month club news

918.7 VENEZUELA

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also interesting:

Beebe, Mrs. M. B. R. and Beebe, W. Our search for a wilderness. Holt 1910 408p illus map o.p. 1939 A fascinating narrative of two private ornithological expeditions to British Guiana and Venezuela

Zahm, J. A. Up the Orinoco and down the Magdalena. Appleton-Century 1910 439p illus map (Following the conquistadores, v 1) o.p. 1939

Fergusson, Erna
‡ Venezuela. Knopf 1939 346p illus map $3 918.7

1 Venezuela—Description and travel
(W) 38-29008

An account of the author's travels in Venezuela with some history, social and political comment, and sketches of Bolivar and Gómez

"A sharply observant, sometimes humorous and always intelligent book about a South American country that is bound to be more important in world affairs in the future. . . Miss Fergusson makes it come alive. Fine chapter on the life and importance of Simon Bolivar" New Republic

Friel, Arthur Olney, 1885-
River of seven stars; illus. from photographs taken by the author. Harper 1924 476p illus maps o.p. 1939 918.7

1 Orinoco river 2 Venezuela—Description and travel 24-20968

"A narrative of travels thru the wilderness of the Orinoco and its tributary the Ventuari. The journey began at Ciudad Bolivar in Venezuela and covered six thousand miles, part of it thru almost unexplored country. It led the author finally to the home of the Maquiritares, or so-called 'white Indians.'" Book rev. digest

"The illustrations are excellently chosen and should well repay him for the weary hours spent in taking and preserving them. The book may be summed up as the account of a very creditable performance, creditably placed before the public." Sat. rev. of lit.

Nesbitt, Lewis Mariano, 1891-1935
Desolate marches; travels in the Orinoco llanos of Venezuela; illus. from drawings by the author. Harcourt 1936 320p illus map o.p. 1939 918.7

1 Venezuela—Description and travel 36-27115

"The narrative is an engineer's story of how he surveyed a large area of the Orinoco basin for an American oil company under peculiarly trying conditions. The story is conspicuous for its humanity; its living colour is revealed in many episodes, and descriptions of the strange, forgotten, once civilized and inhabited country of Northern Venezuela." Ontario library review

918.8 GUIANA

Beebe, William, 1877-
Edge of the jungle. Holt 1921 303p front o.p. 1939 918.8

1 British Guiana 2 Natural history—British Guiana 21-18951

"Describes with the pen of a magician the unique animal and plant life in the jungle about the New York Zoölogical Society's tropical research station, Kartabo, British Guiana. 'A jungle labor union' describes a colony of leaf-cutting ants. Other interesting creatures are a pet tadpole, butterflies with fantastic protective coloration and strange vampire bats. Supplements 'Jungle peace,' but is complete in itself." Cleveland

← William Beebe's "Jungle peace" (Holt 1918 297p illus $2.50) is a collection of equally charming essays along the same line

Jungle days. Putnam 1925 201p illus o.p. 1939 918.8

1 British Guiana 2 Zoology—British Guiana 25-13209

"These essays reprinted from the 'Atlantic Monthly' and the 'Ladies' Home Journal,' were written from the vantage ground of the tropical laboratory at Kartabo, British Guiana. Seen thru Mr Beebe's eyes, the least of jungle phenomena here recorded is invested with beauty and awe." Book rev. digest

Vandercook, John Womack, 1902-
"Tom-tom"; with illus. from photographs taken by the author and others. Harper 1926 258p illus $3.50 918.8

1 Dutch Guiana 26-17309

"A description of a strange Negro civilization in the jungles of Dutch Guiana, founded by the descendants of an old slave regime. An interesting study of jungle psychology." Wis. bul.

"This book will prove valuable not only to the student of these problems, but will also make excellent reading for the layman who delights in a good travel story." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Interesting illustrations, some of which are reproductions of engravings. Map on lining-paper

Waugh, Evelyn, 1903-
Ninety-two days. . . Duckworth 1934 238p illus map 5s 918.8

1 Brazil—Description and travel 2 British Guiana 34-11073

Formerly carried aso by Farrar

"His book is a simple, straightforward record of a journey into British Guiana and part of Brazil. It is told with integrity, charm and humor. It even bears reading aloud, and that is a test which not many books survive." N.Y. Times

Zahl, Paul Arthur, 1910-
To the lost world. Knopf 1939 268p illus map $2.75 918.8

1 British Guiana—Description and travel 2 Roraima mountain (W) 39-27951

Although Dr Zahl's expedition thru and beyond the jungle of British Guiana had a scientific purpose—he was in search of giant ants—it had a purely adventurous one as well: namely, to visit the fabled lost world atop Mount Roraima

"Dr. Zahl's narrative of the expedition is informative and enthusiastic throughout. . . The literary level is uneven, but the matter, whether scenery, Indians, ants, or diamond-prospecting, is uniformly absorbing and sometimes impressive." Sat. rev. of lit.

918.9 PARAGUAY. URUGUAY

Koebel, William Henry, 1872-1923
Paraguay. Scribner 1917 348p illus map (South American ser. v13) $4.50 918.9

1 Paraguay [17-26318]

"He tells something of the romantic history of this smallest and least accessible of the South American republics. . . He describes the physical characteristics, the cities, the country in general, the people and their life, and devotes much attention to the resources and to the trade in cattle, timber, fruits, cereals." N.Y. Times

Uruguay. Scribner 1911 350p illus map (South American ser. v6) $4.50 918.9

1 Uruguay [11-35695]

"A comprehensive history of Uruguay in which besides chapters devoted directly to its history will be found an industrial and commercial survey of the country, interesting accounts of customs and manners, information concerning geographical and topographical conditions, descriptions of fauna and flora and discussions of the industries and natural wealth of the country." Book rev. digest

"The book is clearly written and most interesting, and contains a serviceable map, and not a word of high falutin or of cant." Saturday rev.

919 OCEANICA. POLAR REGIONS

London, Jack, 1876-1916
Cruise of the Snark. Macmillan 1911 340p illus $2 919

1 Oceanica — Description and travel 2 Voyages and travels 11-14527

"A vivid narrative illustrated from photographs, of a cruise that the author with his wife set out upon around the world. The Snark, into the construction of which the author put a deal of personality, a staunch sail-boat which it seemed wise to supply with a seventy-horse-power engine, made for safety and comfort, after sailing for two years without touching rock, reef or shoal, was wrecked in the South seas. The adventures of the two years' cruise are reproduced vividly with none of the zest for them, dangerous moments, or admirable achievements left out." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Sinclair's book is a veritable Aladdin's cave of good stories, grave and gay, often thrilling, semi-occasionally pathetic. Men of all descriptions move across these fascinating pages... Written in the first instance as a series of newspaper articles, the book is unpretentious, occasionally slangy, always entertaining. Mr. Sinclair is an amusing good-tempered, adventure-loving guide." N.Y. Times

Tomlinson, Henry Major, 1873-
Tide marks, being some records of a journey to the beaches of the Moluccas and the forest of Malaya in 1923; with illus. from drawings by Kerr Eby. Harper 1924 295p illus $4 919.1

1 Malay archipelago—Description and travel 24-28785

"The author describes his voyage from London to Singapore, his leisurely cruise among the islands of the Malay Archipelago in a Dutch trading vessel, and his adventures in the Malay jungle." Pittsburgh

919.1 MALAYSIA

E. A. Powell's "Where the strange trails go down; Sulu, Borneo, Celebes, Bali, Java, Sumatra, Straits Settlements, Malay states, Siam, Cambodia, Annam, Cochin-China" (Scribner 1921 279p illus map o.p. 1939) is an unusually good narrative of travel and adventure in Malaysia

Clifton, Mrs Violet Mary (Beauclerk) 1883-
Islands of Queen Wilhelmina; with an introduction by Lord Dunsany. Houghton 1927 287p illus map o.p. 1939 919.1

1 Dutch East Indies—Description and travel 2 Dutch East Indies—Social life and customs 27-27774

"A colorful book on the East Indies. Recounts an actual journey, shown on a sketch map, with many and excellent illustrations placed where they should be in relation to the text, but in some way produces a haunting sense of unreality. That it has an introduction by Lord Dunsany indicates its quality." Wis. bul.

De Leeuw, Hendrik
Crossroads of the Java sea. Van Riemsdyck 1931 350p illus o.p. 1939 919.1

1 Malay archipelago—Description and travel [31-4609]

"Interesting travel narrative of the islands of Java, Sumatra, Borneo, Celebes and Bali. The author's activities were really concerned with trade in spice, rice, coffee, tea and other tropical growths, and in consequence he came in closer contact with numerous tribes and strange native peoples, learning of their habits and customs. Illustrated with drawings and numerous photographs." Ontario library review

Bibliography: p343-50

Sinclair, Gordon, 1900-
Cannibal quest... Farrar 1934 300p illus o.p. 1939 919.1

1 Asia, Central—Description and travel 2 India—Description and travel 3 Oceanica—Description and travel 34-1853

A briskly told, journalistic account of what the author saw and learned concerning native ways and customs on a trip from Sydney, Australia, to New Guinea, Bali, Java, Borneo, Siam, and India

919.11 Borneo

Keith, Mrs Agnes Newton
* Land below the wind; sketches by the author. Little 1939 371p illus maps $3 919.11

1 Borneo—Description and travel (W) 40-19768

Story "of the humorous adjustments of a Californian to life in [Borneo] and life with an English administrator. Most of the comedy comes from the personnel of her household staff, which is continually reverting to savagery, and from the delightful animals that live in her house and who are as much characters of the story as anyone else." Book-of-the-month club news

919.14 Philippine Islands

Barton, Roy Franklin, 1883-
Half-way sun; life among the headhunters of the Philippines. Brewer 1930 315p illus map o.p. 1939 919.14

1 Ifugaos 2 Luzon—Description and travel 30-32129

"Mr Barton lived, as a teacher, for eight years among the head-hunters of northern Luzon, the largest island of the Philippine group. This book represents his study, during these years, of the culture of the Ifugaos, their methods of gaining a livelihood, their native beliefs and superstitions, and their social customs." Book rev. digest

"A permanent contribution to our literature about the Philippines; far more interesting than any of the ephemeral political accounts. The book is beautifully illustrated, well printed and indexed." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p307-09

Hart, Robert Watson, 1889-
Philippines today. Dodd 1928 191p illus map $2.50 919.14

1 Philippine islands 28-12018

"An informational book, covering geography, history, climate, natural resources, the social system, and the question of independence." Wis. bul.

Kane, Samuel E.
Life or death in Luzon; thirty years of adventure with the Philippine highlanders; with a foreword by J. G. Harbord. Bobbs 1933 331p illus o.p. 1939
919.14

1 Igorot 2 Luzon—Social life and customs 3 Philippine islands—Social life and customs 33-5610

"Thirty years in the Philippines, first as a non-commissioned officer in the early days of the American occupation, then as gold prospector, coffee planter and trail engineer, finally as governor of Bontoc province, gave the author ample opportunity to observe one side of Filipino life." Christian century

"That this author is not exaggerating his picture of conditions in Luzon seems to be assured by the foreword written by Gen. J. G. Harbord, whose own broad knowledge of the Philippines gives him a measure by which to gauge the general accuracy of the unusual story." Springfield Republican

Keesing, Felix Maxwell, 1902-
* The Philippines; a nation in the making . . . Inst. of Pacific relations 1937 137p illus maps $2 919.14

1 Philippine islands 38-32002

"This little volume sponsored by the University of Hawaii and the Institute of Pacific Relations, presents in broad outlines the development of Filipino culture and present conditions in the islands." Christian century

"The author is himself a very competent scholar, and this particular work, though rather elementary in character, gives an excellent and well balanced picture of the Filipino peoples and the problems which confront them at the present day." Am. pol. sci. rev.

Kroeber, Alfred Louis, 1876-
Peoples of the Philippines. 2d and rev ed Am. museum of natural hist. 1928 245p illus (American museum of natural history. Handbook ser.) o.p. 1939
919.14

1 Ethnology—Philippine islands 2 Philippine islands 29-7229

A good handbook mainly useful for reference. Includes information about the islands, their population, society, religion, etc., illustrations and maps. This edition is identical with the 1919 edition except for a few changes in format and an enlarged bibliography

Taylor, Carl Norman, d. 1936
Odyssey of the islands. Scribner 1936 284p illus $3 919.14

1 Philippine islands—Description and travel 36-16557

"Describes the Sulu Sea Gypsies, the villages of the headhunters and pygmies, Mt. Mayon, and other districts of the Philippines unfamiliar to white men. The author was . . . killed in the course of an investigation of the Penitentes."

"If some readers find that his narrative suffers at times from over emphasis, others will be grateful to him for many picturesque descriptions of little-known islands, and will admire the courage with which he travelled and the enthusiasm with which he writes." Times (London) lit. sup.

White, John Roberts, 1879-
Bullets and bolos; fifteen years in the Philippine Islands. . . . Appleton-Century 1928 xx,348p illus map $3.50
919.14

1 Philippine islands 2 Philippine islands—Description and travel 3 Police—Philippine islands 28-24044

"The author's personal narrative of fifteen years with the Philippine constabulary contains a record of the military and constructive operations undertaken by the constabulary and also a picture of life in the Philippines in the provincial regions." Book rev. digest

919.2 JAVA

Covarrubias, Miguel, 1902-
* Island of Bali; with an album of photographs by Rose Covarrubias. Knopf 1937 417p illus $6 919.2

1 Bali (Island) (W) 37-34623

"After an earlier visit to the island of Bali, Covarrubias and his wife could not be happy until they were able to return for a longer period. This book deals with the art and culture, the background and the everyday life of the Balinese as seen thru the sympathetic and understanding eyes of an artist. Illustrated with reproductions of paintings and drawings by the author and many photographs by his wife. Glossary. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"By far the most alluring of the many books that have been written about that enchanting little island east of Java." N.Y. Times

Ponder, Harriet Winifred
Java pageant; a description of one of the world's richest, most beautiful, yet little known islands of the world & the strange customs & beliefs, the industries, religions & wars of its fascinating people. . . Lippincott 1934 304p illus maps $5 919.2

1 Java 35-3506

History, description, agriculture, native customs, and Dutch colonial government are all covered in the chapters of this enthusiastic book on Java

Powell, Hickman
Bali; the last Paradise. Dodd 1936 xxii, 292p maps $3 919.2

1 Bali (Island) 37-3412

Reissue of a book published 1930 by Cape under title: Last paradise

"Bali, a small volcanic island near Java, is described by the author as the last paradise because it is one of the few spots on earth still untouched by modern civilization. He describes the beauty of the natives and the simplicity of native life, where each trade is practised as a fine art. He supplies intimate glimpses of native dances, dramatics, etc; and much that Mr Powell has written of so enthusiastically is illustrated in the volume by the drawings of Alexander King, and the photographs by André Roosevelt, who has lived at Bali for some time." Book rev. digest

919.3 AUSTRALASIA

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:
Bolitho, H. The New Zealanders. Dent 1928 176p illus (Outward bound lib.) 5s
Collinson, C. W. Life and laughter 'midst the cannibals. Dutton 1926 288p illus $5

Johnson, Martin Elmer, 1884-1937
Cannibal-land; adventures with a camera in the New Hebrides; with illus. from the author's photographs. Houghton 1922 191p illus (Riverside lib) $1 919.3

1 New Hebrides—Description and travel
22-13553

"Dangerous adventures . . . while taking moving-pictures of the cannibals in the New Hebrides. Among the things described are a moving-picture exhibition for the cannibals, their dancing and their method of head-curing. Interestingly illustrated." Cleveland

Mulgan, Alan Edward, 1881-
Pilgrim's way in New Zealand. Oxford 1935 142p illus $4.25 919.3

1 New Zealand—Description and travel
36-6117

"Here is a book about New Zealand written by a man who knows and loves it; and its author has not only given the general public a great deal of interesting information about a little-known bit of the globe; he has passed on to his readers the beauty of a well-loved land. There is beauty throughout this book, in photographs, in word pictures, in suggestion; there is beauty, charm, even mellowness." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

919.4 AUSTRALIA

Browne, George Stephenson, 1890-
Australia, a general account; history: resources: production: social conditions. Nelson 1929 272p illus maps $1.08 919.4

1 Australia 33-37965

A good little book on Australia

Holmes, Charles Henry, 1891-
We find Australia. Hutchinson 1933 354p illus 12s 6d 919.4

1 Australia—Description and travel
34-5818

"By railway, aeroplane, steamer and motor-car Mr. Holmes made a circuit of Australia which took him into by-ways and strange places as well as along the regular routes and through the capital cities. His account of what he saw is racy and good-humoured, with a sprinkling of statistics, and reveals attractive glimpses of the wide variety of life in a continent that stretches from the temperate zone to the tropics." Times (London) lit. sup.

McGuire, Paul, 1905-
Australia; her heritage, her future. . . Stokes 1939 xx,349p illus $3.50 919.4

1 Australia (W) 39-20813

Contents: South by Suez; Landfall; Beginnings in New South Wales; Early struggles; Sydney; Beyond the mountains; Queensland; White man in the tropics; Federal capital; Murray basin and Victoria; Place for a village: Melbourne; Victorian landscape; South Australia; Growing deserts; Aborigines; The west

"This book, for all its casual and friendly manner, has authority. It is a traveller speaking who knows the language, and has access to the spiritual as well as the physical geography of the country." Spectator

Wilkins, Sir George Hubert, 1888-
Undiscovered Australia; being an account of an expedition to tropical Australia to collect specimens of the rarer native fauna for the British museum, 1923-1925. . . Putnam 1929 353p illus map o.p. 1939 919.4

1 Australia—Description and travel
2 Australia—Social life and customs
3 Birds—Australia 4 Zoology—Australia
29-5894

"An interesting account of two years' wanderings in the back country of Queensland and the northern territory. A very readable book, not only for the style in which it is written, but also for the descriptions of native manners and customs and tales of animals. Well illustrated." Ontario library review

919.5 NEW GUINEA

In addition to the titles listed below, the following is also recommended:
Hurley, Frank. Pearls and savages. Putnam 1924 414p illus map $7.50 An exploration of the tropical interior

Crandall, Lee Saunders, 1887-
Paradise quest; a naturalist's experiences in New Guinea. Scribner 1931 226p illus o.p. 1939 919.5

1 Birds—Papua 2 Papua—Description and travel
31-28304

"A popularly written account of the author's expedition to New Guinea to collect birds of paradise for the New York Zoological Park. Illustrated with many photographs, chiefly of birds and natives." Book rev. digest

"Not only to bird lovers but to the public at large Mr. Crandall's 'Paradise Quest' is likely to be of more than passing interest. To most of the world, New Guinea is still terra incognita. The author carried to it a truly observant mind, a keen appreciation of the uncivilized peoples, the magnificent scenery, the wild trails and the wilder life he encountered and a simple, lucid way of telling what he had seen." N.Y. Times

Matches, Margaret
Savage paradise; illus. by N. G. Rudolph. Appleton-Century 1931 331p illus $4 919.5

1 Melanesia—Description and travel
31-30624

"This lively, informal travel book recounts the adventures of a young American girl during several months' sojourn in New Guinea and its adjacent islands. There are anecdotes of the friends she made among gold-seekers, planters and their wives, officials, and plain adventurers; observations of native life and customs; tales of hardships met on board tramp steamers and in unhealthy tropical towns." Book rev. digest

"Miss Matches combines a love for travel with the ability to write about her experiences with charm. She has a gift for characterization." Springfield Republican

Miller, Charles Constant, 1896-
Cannibal caravan; with an introduction by L. L. Stevenson. Furman 1939 318p illus $2.75 919.5

1 New Guinea, Dutch—Description and travel 39-19172

"Gruesome tales of primitive life among the savages of Dutch New Guinea. Mr. Miller, a professional photographer, and his wife, a New York society girl, spent their honeymoon exploring jungle regions into which no white woman and few white men had penetrated." Cincinnati

Vandercook, John Womack, 1902-
Dark islands. Harper 1937 367p illus map $3.50 919.5

1 Fiji islands—Description and travel 2 New Guinea—Description and travel 3 Papua—Description and travel 4 Solomon islands—Description and travel 37-30875

"With no schedules to make, and only the simplest of modern equipment, but with lust for adventure the author and his wife travelled to Hawaii, Australia, New Guinea and the world of islands lying in the South Pacific. They visited little-known ports tramped strangely forested hills, sailed up rivers among delta swamps to interior villages, stayed in native guest houses. . . The photographs are interesting and illustrative. A travel book marked by literary qualities." Ontario library review

919.6 POLYNESIA

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended: Gibbings, Robert. Iorana! A Tahitian journal. Houghton 1932 157p illus $2.50
Walker, Elizabeth, and Spiess, Jeannette. Hawaii and the South seas; a guide book with maps. Coward-McCann 1931 435p illus maps $2.50

Andrews, Loring
Isles of Eden; a South Sea idyll—with music. Smith, Richard R. 1932 351p illus o.p. 1939 919.6

1 Tahiti—Description and travel 32-9764

"The author with his wife and two small sons spent some time in Tahiti and on the nearby island of Moorea, where they had a tiny native hut and lived in the happy-go-lucky fashion of the natives. The book conveys much of the traditional glamor of the South Seas, but there is an undercurrent of regret at the passing of the old primitive life." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Andrews has written an engaging book, a much more human book than are most South Sea volumes, and he has made it seem real and convincing, whatever may be the amount of truth in its narrative and characters." N.Y. Times

Bailey, Truman
Polynesian venture. Doubleday 1939 233p illus $3 919.6

1 East (Far East)—Description and travel 2 Polynesia—Description and travel (W) 39-27479

The author visited the Far East in search of native crafts and original designs which might be adapted to modern merchandising. The story of his travels and adventures is accompanied by 90 photographs

"As the story behind the creation of successful new style motifs from the South Sea Islands, this is a strikingly unusual book; but it is very interesting in every aspect of its many-sided personal record. And its large collection of photographs is fascinating: dancers in Cambodia and carvings of Angkor; Polynesian children at play inside the coral reefs. . . All the detail of this photographer's sightseeing, in short, is full of charm and interest." N.Y. Times

Eskridge, Robert Lee, 1891-
Manga Reva; the forgotten islands; with illus. by the author. Bobbs 1931 286p illus o.p. 1939 919.6

1 Mangareva islands 31-6795

"The Chicago artist who spent a year there and wrote this absorbingly interesting account of the history of the islands and of his own experiences on them found marvels that he could neither explain nor reject. And the pictures are such as could have been painted only by a man who took into account the ghosts of the dead kings and the mysterious depths of the pearl-studded lagoons as well as the photographable aspects of the scenery and the people." Christian century

Foster, Harry La Tourette, 1895-1932
Vagabond in Fiji; with illus. from photographs by the author. Dodd 1927 309p illus o.p. 1939 919.6

1 Fiji islands—Description and travel 2 Polynesia—Description and travel 27-21490

"The author . . . was sent to the South Seas by a publishing firm to find Romance. He went, but advises his readers to turn to Melville and London and O'Brien for Romance. The South Seas have been commercialized. But in spite of the rents in the glamour, Mr. Foster makes this a most fascinating book. Unlike many writers, he speaks a good word for the missionaries, particularly the medical missionary." Wis. bul.

Franck, Harry Alverson, 1881-
Roaming in Hawaii. . . Stokes 1937 349p illus maps $3.50 919.6

1 Hawaiian islands—Description and travel 37-27256

"A narrative of months of wandering among the glamorous islands that may become our 49th state." Subtitle

"His narrative in 'Roaming in Hawaii' provides a typical Franck travelog: a medley of quaint fact, detailed description and sufficient history to give the story background. The book is illustrated by 77 pictures from the author's own camera. The end spread provides a map of the island chain." Springfield Republican

Hall, James Norman, 1887-
Mid-Pacific. Houghton 1928 299p $3 919.6

1 Tahiti—Description and travel 28-12172

Fourteen essays and travel sketches which describe adventures chiefly in the Society Islands. "Apart from any material explanations, his book is vivid because it is the expression of a real personality. Mr. Hall is no mere wanderer; he is, as it were, a philosopher of travel." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Hall, James Norman, 1887- and Nordhoff, Charles Bernard, 1887-
Faery lands of the South seas. Harper 1921 354p illus $1 919.6

1 Polynesia—Description and travel 2 Polynesia—Social life and customs 21-20206

"Closing the book of their war experiences, the authors went straight from France to the enchanted islands of the

Hall, J. N. and Nordhoff, C. B.—Continued
Southern Pacific where they separated each following a different route for his material. This, the joint product of their two years' sojourn, has color, charm and atmosphere without being rhapsodic and gives much information on native types, customs, folk lore and animal life. Illustrated with drawings by G. A. Picken." Cleveland

Keesing, Felix Maxwell, 1902-
Modern Samoa; its government and changing life. Stanford univ. press 1934 506p illus $4 919.6

1 Samoan islands [34-18173]

"A thorogoing study of the history of Samoan civilization, the result of several months field work in the mandated territory of western Samoa and in American Samoa. Among the topics discussed are the modern problem of native government, land ownership, contract labor, health and medical work, religion, educational influences, and people of mixed parentage." Book rev. digest

O'Brien, Frederick, 1869-1932
White shadows in the South seas. . . Appleton-Century 1919 450p illus o.p. 1939 919.6

1 Hivaoa island 19-14931

"As entertaining as a book of fiction or adventure. The author, who spent a year in the Marquesas Islands, gives a vivid and colorful description of life among the friendly natives." N. Y. state lib.

Pinchot, Gifford, 1865-
To the South Seas. . . Winston 1930 500p illus maps o.p. 1939 919.6

1 Mary Pinchot (Schooner) 2 Polynesia—Description and travel [30-13747]

"The cruise of the schooner Mary Pinchot to the Galapagos, the Marquesas, and the Tuamotu Islands, and Tahiti." Subtitle

"Mr. Pinchot tells the entertaining story of his trip to the South Seas with much humor and gusto, giving each member of his party of experts his share of the credit in its success. 250 excellent photographs." Pittsburgh.

Price, Willard De Mille, 1887-
Pacific adventure. . . Day 1936 317p illus $3 919.6

1 Ethnology—Micronesia 2 Japan—Colonies 3 Micronesia—Description and travel 36-19426

Published in England under title: Rip tide in the South seas

The story of the author's adventures in the Pacific islands belonging to the empire of Japan. His book combines an informal account of his trip with some ethnological notes on native life and customs and comment on the international political situation

" 'Pacific Adventure,' following the modernistic trend, prefers to masquerade as a story of adventure into untravelled South Sea lands but within its pages are contained scores of important revelations concerning the danger points of present international relations. . . He writes with vivacity and with eagerness, sugar-coats his serious passages without diluting their importance, and achieves a graciousness of style that lends literary charm to what is essentially a pioneering into a virtually untrodden field." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Stevenson, Robert Louis, 1850-1894
* In the South seas; being an account of experiences and observations in the Marquesas, Paumotus and Gilbert islands in the course of two cruises, on the yacht "Casco" (1888) and the schooner "Equator" (1889) Biographical ed Scribner 1922 409p map $2 919.6

1 Polynesia—Description and travel 24-24242

"It is, in effect, a sort of glorified log; but a log of real enterprise and adventure in a marvelous part of the world. . . It is the wisest of his travel books, and the most genuine. . . Throughout, there is a simple exposition of a fascinating subject, a kind of life remote from our experience, a civilization strict and dignified, minds and habits interesting in themselves and by contrast with our own." Frank Swinnerton

919.69 Hawaii

In addition to the titles included in this class, the following are recommended:
Stoddard, C. W. South-sea idyls. Scribner 1892 339p o.p. 1939 Seventeen tales of various islands in the Pacific ocean. First published 1873
United States. Department of interior. Hawaii and its race problem, by W. A. Du Puy. Supt of doc. 1932 130p illus maps $1

Castle, William Richards, 1878-
Hawaii past and present. rev and enl ed Dodd 1926 265p illus map $2.50 919.69

1 Hawaiian islands [17-5138]

"Personal observation and experience animate this comprehensive survey of the history . . . conditions and natural beauty of Hawaii. Accurate and interesting, with appendix containing valuable information for travelers." Wis. bul.

Clark, Sydney Aylmer, 1890-
Hawaii with S. A. Clark; map illus. by Jacqueline Clark. Prentice-Hall 1939 304p illus maps $3.50 919.69

1 Hawaiian islands—Description and travel (W) 39-9216

A guide to the scenic beauties, points of interest, glamorous history and legends of the Hawaiian islands

Faris, John Thomson, 1871-
Paradise of the Pacific. Doubleday 1929 367p illus o.p. 1939 919.69

1 Hawaiian islands—Description and travel 29-21165

"A fascinating and enthusiastic description of the Hawaiian Islands, their beauties, their history and their present vicissitudes. Good photographs." Providence.

Griffiss, Townsend, 1900-
When you go to Hawaii you will need this guide to the islands. Houghton 1930 344p illus maps $3.50 919.69

1 Hawaiian islands—Description and travel 30-30527

"A well planned, informal guidebook, containing history, legend and descriptive material, and something about the flowers, fruit and animals of the islands. Trips are planned, giving approximate distances and prices. Maps and excellent small illustrations"

McSpadden, Joseph Walker, 1874-
Beautiful Hawaii. Crowell 1939 220p illus maps $2.50 919.69

1 Hawaiian islands—Description and travel (W) 39-5681

Partial contents: Something about the islands; What to see in Honolulu; Some nearby drives; Waikiki; Luaus and Hulas; Ancient home of Pele; Completing the circuit of Hawaii; Some islands seldom visited; Native life and customs; Melting pot of the Pacific; Making the crossroads safe for democracy; Necessary word about expenses

919.7 EASTER ISLAND

Casey, Robert Joseph, 1890-
Easter island, home of the scornful gods. Bobbs 1931 337p illus map $4 919.7

1 Easter island 2 Oceanica—Description and travel 3 Sepulchral monuments 31-29183

"Mr. Casey's book, which covers interesting descriptions of his stops at the little-frequented isles of Manga Reva and Pitcairn, is a very complete account of this dreary Valhalla of graven deities. It gives the tragic history of Easter Island since its discovery by Reggeven, in 1722; the picture of its forlorn present, the writer's experiences during his stay, and gathers together all the legendry of its remote past." N.Y. Times

Shapiro, Harry Lionel, 1902-
Heritage of the Bounty; the story of Pitcairn through six generations. Simon & Schuster 1936 329p illus $3 919.7

1 Pitcairn island 36-9405

"The author is a noted anthropologist who satisfied a twelve-year desire by spending ten days with the contemporary descendants of the Bounty mutineers. His book gives a short history of the islanders from 1790 to the present; describes their religion, morals, language, institutions, and customs; and notes the biological results of the contact of two alien cultures, English and Polynesian. His book is untechnical, interesting, and—except for a few preliminary flourishes—written with admirable coolness, considering the atmosphere of controversy in which the history of Pitcairn is steeped. All Nordhoff-and-Hall readers should look into this, and some of them will." New Yorker

Published sources: p320-21

919.8 ARCTIC REGIONS

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Borup, George. Tenderfoot with Peary; with a preface by G. W. Melville; with forty-six illus. from photographs and a map. Stokes 1915 317p illus map $2.50

Chapman, F. S. Northern lights; the official account of the British Arctic air-route expedition, 1930-1931; with a foreword by R. E. Byrd. Oxford 1933 304p illus map o.p. 1939

Giudici, Davide. Tragedy of the Italia; with the rescuers to the red tent. Appleton-Century 1929 207p illus map $3

Jenness, Diamond. People of the twilight; drawings by Claude Johnson. Macmillan 1928 247p illus map o.p. 1939

MacMillan, D. B. Etah and beyond; or, Life within twelve degrees of the Pole, with illus. from photographs by the author. Houghton 1927 287p illus maps $5

MacMillan, D. B. Four years in the white North; with a foreword by A. W. Greely; with 67 illus from photographs by the author. Hale 1933 428p illus map $3

Stefánsson, Vilhjálmur. Adventure of Wrangel island; written by Vilhjalmur Stefánsson, with the collaboration of J. I. Knight, upon the diary of whose son, E. L. Knight, the narrative is mainly based. Macmillan 1925 xxviii, 424p illus maps o.p. 1939

Stefánsson, Vilhjalmur. Hunters of the great North. Harcourt 1922 301p illus maps $2.50

Wilkins, Sir G. H. Flying the Arctic. . . Putnam 1928 336p illus 10s 6d

Amundsen, Roald Engelbregt Gravning, 1872-1928, and Ellsworth, Lincoln, 1880-
Our polar flight; the Amundsen-Ellsworth polar flight. . . Dodd 1925 373p illus maps o.p. 1939 919.8

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Arctic regions 3 North pole 25-25739

Story of the flight which attempted to reach the North pole in 1925 as told by the several members of the expedition. Illustrations from photographs and a chart of the expedition

"A thrilling account of an enterprise which, though modified from its original rather grandiose form, still remains on record as an attempt to achieve the apparently impossible, the successful outcome of which was more lucky than likely." Nation and Athenaeum

R. E. G. Amundsen and Lincoln Ellsworth's story of their flight by airship across the North Pole in 1926 is told in "First crossing of the polar sea" (Doran 1927 324p illus map o.p. 1939)

Baidukov, Georgiĭ Filippovich
Over the North pole; tr. from the Russian by Jessica Smith; with a preface by Vilhjalmur Stefansson. Harcourt 1938 99p illus $1.50 919.8

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Arctic regions 3 North pole (W) 38-27049

Story of the first trans-Polar flight by one of the three Soviet aviators who flew the ANT-25 from Moscow to Portland, Oregon

Bartlett, Robert Abram, 1875-
Sails over ice; with a foreword by Lawrence Perry. Scribner 1934 301p illus $3 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Morissey (Schooner) 34-37640

"Captain Bob Bartlett, of Arctic fame, writes of his nine expeditions into the north as master of his own little schooner, the 'Effie M. Morrissey.' The chapters tell, among others, of Codfishing off Labrador, 1925; North Greenland, 1926; Northern Pacific, 1928; Hollywood in the Arctic, 1929; The land of the lost Eskimo, 1930; The Peary memorial, 1932; The strait of Fury and Hecla, 1933." Wis. bul.

"The book is well written and profusely illustrated with striking photographs. Few adventure or travel books will exceed it in thrills or intelligent comment upon the tribulations of exploring the far north." Boston Transcript

Bartlett, Robert Abram, 1875- and Hale, Ralph Tracy, 1880-

Last voyage of the Karluk; illus. from charts and photographs. Hale 1927 329p illus maps $3 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Karluk (Ship) [16-23799]

A very interesting account of the expedition of the "Karluk," flagship of Stefansson's Canadian Arctic expedition, 1913-16. The tale of perilous adventures, the loss of the ship, and the long walk over the Arctic in search of help is told by the captain of the ship and written down by Mr Hale

Brown, Robert Neal Rudmose, 1879-

Polar regions; a physical and economic geography of the Arctic and Antarctic. Dutton 1927 245p maps $4.25 919.8

1 Antarctic regions 2 Arctic regions [27-26974]

"This book brings together from scattered sources most of the facts known about the polar regions. It has useful maps and a bibliography, and the general reader will find it a convenient reference book when polar topics arise." New statesman

Ellsberg, Edward, 1891-

Hell on ice; the sage of the "Jeannette." Dodd 1938 421p illus map $3 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 De Long, George Washington, 1844-1881 3 Jeannette (Ship) 4 Siberia—Description and travel (W) 38-27096

The story of the expedition which set out in 1879 to seek the North Pole by way of the Behring sea, as might have been told by George Wallace Melville. Founded on the journals of Commander G. W. De Long and others, on the records of the naval court of inquiry and the Congressional investigation

Search; foreword by G. H. Grosvenor... Harcourt 1932 xxvii,184p illus maps o.p. 1939 919.8

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Arctic regions [32-26344]

"Lincoln Ellsworth . . . accompanied Amundsen almost to the North Pole on his airplane flight in 1925 and, the following year, crossed the Polar Sea from Spitzbergen to Alaska with him in the 'Norge.' His life has been a constant search for the unknown, and, for this sort of career, he prepared himself in every way possible. He has now written a more than usually interesting account of his explorations. Besides a day-by-day narrative of his airvoyaging in the North, he has told of his expedition across the Andes Mountains, also by airplane, which has been regarded as one of the greatest scientific contributions to the history of the development of South America." Providence

Freuchen, Peter, 1886-

* Arctic adventure; my life in the frozen North; illus. with photographs and maps. Farrar 1935 467p illus maps $2.75 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Eskimos 3 Greenland—Description and travel 36-27152

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1.49

"Nearly thirty years ago, Peter Freuchen, then a young medical student, left his home in Copenhagen and went to Greenland. There he adopted the ways of native life, married an Eskimo woman, and had two children by her. This book is a long, detailed account of his adventures as an explorer, and his observations on Eskimo life." Book rev. digest

"Peter Freuchen has reconstructed another world, and it is one well worth visiting by those who must take their adventures vicariously. And out of it also emerges a definite picture of a man who is also worth knowing." N.Y. Times

Greely, Adolphus Washington, 1844-1935

Polar regions in the twentieth century; their discovery and industrial evolution. Little 1928 270p illus map o.p. 1939 919.8

1 Antarctic regions 2 Arctic regions 28-23632

"This is a partly rewritten, condensed, up-to-date edition of 'Handbook of polar discoveries'. . . Extensive bibliography and notes which were included in the fifth edition [1910 Little] have been omitted from this popularized edition." Bkl.

"I constantly use Greely's accuracy against which to check details that come to me from other sources." Vilhjálmur Stefánsson in Sat. rev. of lit.

Gruber, Ruth

I went to the Soviet Arctic. Simon & Schuster 1939 333p $3 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Communism—Russia 3 Igarka, Siberia 4 Women in Russia (W) 39-16828

The personal history of a young American woman who was sent by an American newspaper to investigate women's work in the Arctic regions. She brought back the integrated answers she discovered in six thousand miles of travel by plane and boat throughout the Soviet union, with particular mention of the new settlement of Igarka

"Miss Gruber tells her story in colorful, journalistic style, filling it with interesting details and humorous anecdotes." Springfield Republican

Irwin, David, 1911-

One man against the North, by David Irwin with F. M. Reck; foreword by Lowell Thomas. Crowell 1940 244p illus maps $2 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Eskimos (W) 40-5585

An American in his early twenties made a solitary trip across the Arctic circle, from January, 1933 to February, 1935. This account of his journey is a description of his adventures and mishaps en route, his life among the Eskimos, and the good sportsmanship with which he met his difficulties

"The book has no particular individual literary style but it is well written and runs along—a smooth, easy tale. There is a photograph of David with one of his dogs taken at the World's Fair. . . Though written in the first person, it is a book which should appeal to boys from twelve years on." Library journal

Kent, Rockwell, 1882-

* N by E. Harcourt 1930 276p illus $1.49 919.8

1 Direction (Yacht) 2 Greenland—Description and travel [30-34089]

Reprint of a title first published 1930 by Brewer

"Rockwell Kent sailed with young Sam Allen in a small boat to Greenland. This is his illustrated record of the voyage and the glorious days in Greenland among the Eskimos and friendly Danes." Book rev. digest

Kent, Rockwell—Continued

"There are pictures on almost every page; and, in the text, descriptive passages which bring the scenes before one in color and clearcut lines and rhythmic motion; and the spirit of the whole is the author's high zest for life and everything appertaining thereto except the ship's mate." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Salamina. Harcourt 1935 336p illus map $1 919.8

1 Greenland — Description and travel 2 Greenland—Social life and customs 35-27449

"An excellent account of the author's experiences of several years, living in northern Greenland. He writes almost as well as he draws and the result is an interesting book, full of very real people and of events so vividly described that the reader feels a part of them. Full page portraits and chapter headings show the author's skill as draftsman." Wis. bul.

MacMillan, Donald Baxter, 1874-

How Peary reached the Pole; the personal story of his assistant; with illus. chiefly from photographs taken by the author on this expedition. Houghton 1934 306p illus $3 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 North pole 3 Peary, Robert Edwin, 1856-1920 34-10739

"Interesting facts about the Eskimo, bird and plant life, and notes on Peary's long line of gallant predecessors form a valuable part of this work. But its outstanding merit lies in Commander MacMillan's portrayal of his leader, which tells not only how, but why, Peary reached the pole." Christian science monitor

Mirsky, Jeannette

To the North! the story of Arctic exploration from earliest times to the present. Viking 1934 xx,386p illus maps $3.75 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 North pole 34-33095

Published in England under title: Northern conquest

"A story supremely well told—a welcome addition to the literature of exploration, sound in historic detail and delightful in its presentation." Sat. rev. of lit.

Montague, Sydney Robert

North to adventure. McBride 1939 284p illus $2 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Baffin land 3 Canada. Royal Canadian mounted police 4 Eskimos (W) 39-27329

The story of three years which the author spent with a comrade in the service of the Royal Canadian mounted police in the country north of the Arctic circle on the edge of Baffin Land. The book records his adventures, his observations of the unexplored territory and of the habits and customs of the Eskimos

"Of even greater interest than that of adventure is the portrayal of the Eskimos' life and character. Mr. Montague cultivated their friendship and learned to like them." N.Y. Times

Nansen, Fridtjof, 1861-1930

Hunting and adventure in the Arctic. . . Duffield 1925 462p illus maps o.p. 1939 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Hunting—Arctic regions 25-7261

"This description of Dr. Nansen's first voyage is at once a cheerful contribution to autobiography and a valuable description of wild life in the Arctic as seen through the eyes of a novice. In 1882, when Dr. Nansen was a young fellow of twenty or so, and thinking of devoting his life to the study of zoology, he decided to go and have a look at 'the animal life and physical features of the Arctic Ocean'. . . The illustrations from his own pencil have no pretensions to artistic merit, but help us to appreciate the things he saw." Saturday rev.

Fridtjof Nansen's expedition to the Arctic regions in 1888 is described in "First crossing of Greenland" (new ed Longmans 1923 148p illus maps o.p. 1939). The one made in the "Fram," to the Arctic, 1893-96 is told in "Farthest north" (Harper 1898 679p illus o.p. 1939)

Peary, Robert Edwin, 1856-1920

North pole, its discovery in 1909 under the auspices of the Peary Arctic club. . . Stokes 1910 xxxii,373p illus $4 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 North pole 10-22101

Account of his final successful expedition. Contains extracts from his diary and those of his companions; also a historical foreword by Gilbert H. Grosvenor and an introduction by Theodore Roosevelt. Many illustrations, of which eight are colored, and a folded map

Rasmussen, Knud Johan Victor, 1879-1933

Across Arctic America; narrative of the fifth Thule expedition. . . Putnam 1927 xx,388p illus maps $5 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Eskimos 27-6497

"Equipped with Greenland sledges drawn by dogs, the author crossed Arctic North America to the Bering sea; and here he tells of his journey and of the life, the customs and habits of the primitive tribes of Eskimos who were his hosts along the way. A straightforward, exceedingly vivid narrative." N.Y. libraries

"Rasmussen has given us, in this preliminary story of a notable expedition, not only a work of literary charm but also one of the deepest and soundest interpretations of primitive life and thought that has ever been put into a book." Vilhjálmur Stefánsson in Canadian historical review

Scott, G. Firth

Romance of polar exploration. . . Lippincott 1906 350p illus maps o.p. 1939 919.8

1 Antarctic regions 2 Arctic regions 6-35304

"Interesting description of Arctic and Antarctic adventure from the earliest time to the voyage of the 'Discovery.' " Subtitle

"Ably sustains the claim of its title, it gives the story of explorations toward both poles in a fashion not only interesting but historically exact." Book rev. digest

Shackleton, Edward Arthur Alexander

Arctic journeys; the story of the Oxford university Ellesmere land expedition, 1934-5; with a preface by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Tweedsmuir. Farrar 1938 372p illus maps $3.50 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Ellesmere land 3 Oxford university Ellesmere land expedition, 1934-1935 (W) 39-244

"Story of the expedition, made up of young men and an experienced sergeant of the Canadian mounted police, which spent a winter inside the Arctic circle. Surveying Ellesmere land in northern Greenland and geological study were the purposes of the expedition. Appendixes summarize the scientific work." Bkl.

Shackleton, Edward A. A.—Continued

"There is nothing spectacular in 'Arctic Journeys'; there is a great deal of sound work and enjoyable activity." Manchester guardian

Stefánsson, Vilhjálmur, 1879-

Friendly Arctic; the story of five years in Polar regions. Macmillan 1921 xxxi, 784p illus maps $6.50 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Eskimos 21-21129

"The author's third expedition, 1913-18. He calls the Arctic 'friendly' because he has proved that hitherto unexplored regions, believed to be without life and of unendurable cold, are really habitable, with an abundance of animal life, so that one who knows how can live off the country. Adventures are many and often thrilling, and the book is of absorbing interest." N.Y. state lib

Vilhjálmur Stefánsson's "Northward course of empire" (Macmillan 1922 274p illus map $2.50) is a further development of his theory that the far northern lands are possible for industries and colonization

* My life with the Eskimo. Macmillan 1913 538p illus maps $5 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Eskimos 13-24327

"Detailed and entertaining account of an expedition made to Arctic regions for ethnological purposes [1908-12]. Author studied the Mackenzie river natives and the blond Eskimos of Victoria island under most favorable conditions, living among them and speaking their dialect. Dr Anderson, his companion, adds a valuable chapter on the natural history collections of the expedition." Pittsburgh

Also available in an abridged edition (Macmillan 1927 382p illus maps $2.50) "The abridgement keeps the direct narrative of the original edition, eliminates digressions, and omits the scientific appendix. It should, therefore, be preferred by anyone who merely wants a story. But those interested in the geography, geology and biology of the Arctic, and in the religion, folklore and customs of the Eskimos, should prefer the unabridged version." Preface to abridged edition

* Unsolved mysteries of the Arctic; introduction by Stephen Leacock telling how this book came to be written. Macmillan 1939 381p maps $3.50 919.8

1 Arctic regions (W) 39-27053

A noted Arctic explorer draws upon his own experience and upon literature and history for his solutions of the mysteries of Arctic exploration, the lost expeditions which have fascinated the public ever since exploration of the frozen waters first began. Contents: Disappearance of the Greenland colony; Lost Franklin expedition; Strange fate of Thomas Simpson; How did Andrée die; Missing Soviet flyers

"For scholarly minded readers and the detective story clan alike. . . Stefansson reviews five famous cases of death or disappearance and presents his meticulous post-mortem report with a dramatic flourish worthy of Philo Vance." Forum

Swedish society for anthropology and geography

Andrée's story; the complete record of his polar flight, 1897. . . Viking 1930 389p illus maps $5 919.8

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Andrée, Salomon August, 1854-1897 3 Arctic regions 4 Fraenkel, Knut Hjalmar Ferdinand, 1870-1897 5 North pole 6 Strindberg, Nils, 1872-1897 30-33944

"This story of the Andrée expedition, the discoveries of the remains of the camp on White Island in 1930, and of the bodies of the explorers, together with diaries and memoranda of Andrée and Strindberg are published in this volume for the first time. It forms a continuous narrative based on the documents left by the explorers but written from them in chronological order so as to give a complete picture of the whole expedition from July, 1897, to the discovery of the camp in 1930, and the journey home. The illustrations are worthy of special note—they supplement the narrative very thoroughly and include twelve films taken by members of the expedition in 1897, and subsequently developed in 1930." Ontario library review

Victor, Paul Emile

My Eskimo life; tr. from the French by Jocelyn Godefroi. Simon & Schuster 1939 349p illus maps $3 919.8

1 Eskimos 2 Folklore, Eskimo 3 Greenland—Description and travel 4 Greenland—Social life and customs (W) [39-27832]

"The author, a French ethnographer, spent seven months in 1936-37, living with a small group of nomadic Eskimos in their winter quarters on the east coast of Greenland. This book is a day-by-day record of his experiences and observations, character sketches of his companions, bits of legends they told him, descriptions of their daily occupations." Book rev. digest

"Every trace of sophistication is excluded; consecutiveness is not attempted; dogs are as important as men; a typical entry will record a primitive incident in the hut, a scrap of folktale or tribal history, a tag of conversation, a note on the weather. To read it effectively demands a corresponding discipline of mental approach, but when this has been made it takes form as an arresting essay in the primitive." Times (London) lit. sup.

Welzl, Jan, 1870-

Thirty ycars in the golden north; tr. by Paul Selver; foreward by Karel Capek. Macmillan 1932 336p map $2.50 919.8

1 Arctic regions 2 Eskimos 3 New Siberia islands 32-17346

"The narrative of a wandering life spent in the polar regions. Jan Welzl, born in a small village in what is now Czechoslovakia, left his native land at the age of 20 to become an adventurer and trader in the north. His story, told with a very indefinite sense of geography and little attention to chronology, is yet a fascinating revelation of an unusual life and personality." Wis. bul.

Jan Welzl's "Quest for polar treasures" (Macmillan 1933 352p $2) continues the story of hazardous adventures of trading in the North

919.9 ANTARCTIC REGIONS

Bagshawe, Thomas Wyatt, 1901-

Two men in the Antarctic; an expedition to Graham land, 1920-1922; with a foreword by Frank Debenham. Macmillan 1939 xxi,292p illus $3.75 919.9

919.9 B14t

1 Graham land 2 Graham land expedition, 1920-1922 40-8809

"Here is a remarkable story of how two inexperienced young men endured almost impossible conditions on an expedition to Graham Land, dangerous to more seasoned explorers. This absorbing, impersonal record of their life for two and one-half years gains force from its lack of heroics and braggadocio." Cincinnati

Byrd, Richard Evelyn, 1888-

* Discovery; the story of the second Byrd Antarctic expedition; introduction by C. A. Swanson. Putnam 1935 xxi,405p illus map $3.75 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 2 Byrd Antarctic expedition, 2d, 1933-1935 36-27041

"The official history of the second Byrd Antarctic expedition, containing Admiral Byrd's own account of his seven months spent alone at Advance Base." Book rev. digest

"A thrilling story—an epic of adventure, courage, foresight, narrow escape from tragedy, and magnificent achievement. It is also an enlightening account not only of modern methods of exploration, but also of numerous important bits of scientific lore set forth for the first time." Scientific book club review

Exploring with Byrd; episodes from an adventurous life. . . Putnam 1937 241p illus $2.50 919.9

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Byrd Antarctic expedition, 1st, 1928-1930 3 Byrd Antarctic expedition, 2d, 1933-1935 (W) 37-30688

"A collection of excerpts from Admiral Byrd's earlier books: Skyward, Little America, and Discovery, adapted and revised to present the most significant phases of his career." Book rev. digest

"This is the unceasingly fascinating chronicle of a notable career's most valiant and dramatic exploits." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

* Little America; aerial exploration in the Antarctic, the flight to the South pole. . . Putnam 1930 422p illus maps $3.75 919.9

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Antarctic regions 3 Byrd Antarctic expedition, 1928-1930 4 South pole 31-26036

"Through this admirable tale of a modern, well-equipped, forthright expedition into dangerous lands runs the reticence, the calm, the modesty of its leader, optimistic of results, looking eagerly forward to scientific adventure, and setting down as much about the accomplishments of his men and as little about himself as he consistently could in these pages." N.Y. World

Cherry-Garrard, Apsley George Benet, 1886-

Worst journey in the world; Antarctic, 1910-1913; with maps and illus. by the late Doctor E. A. Wilson and other members of the expedition. Dial press 1930 lxiv,585p illus maps o.p. 1939 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 2 British Antarctic ("Terra Nova") expedition, 1910-1913 30-11358

"The story of Scott's last expedition, told by one of the surviving members. Cherry-Gerrard, with Oates,' constituted the two 'adaptable helpers' added to the scientific staff. He was then 24 years old. In the final tragedy he was one of the search party who found the bodies of Scott and his two companions. The story is magnificently told and the final chapter summing up the expedition from the viewpoint of ten years after is of extreme interest." Wis. bul.

Gould, Laurence McKinley, 1896-

Cold; the record of an Antarctic sledge journey; with 47 illus. from photographs by the author, two maps and two color reproductions of paintings by David Paige. Harcourt 1931 275p illus maps $3.50 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 2 Byrd Antarctic expedition, 1928-1930 [31-30857]

"The charm and glamor and high adventure to be found in the Antarctic are splendidly conveyed by the man who was second in command of the Byrd expedition. The record of the thrilling journey by dog sledges and skis into 'a land of glaciers and ice-clad mountains geologically and geographically untouched and unknown,' is not only absorbing in its abundant and exciting incidents, but it also contains many beautiful word-pictures as well as fine photographs of the region." N.Y. libraries

Hayes, James Gordon, 1877-1936

Conquest of the South pole; Antarctic exploration, 1906-1931. Macmillan 1933 318p illus maps o.p. 1939 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 2 South pole 33-11176

"A compendium of extracts from reports, narratives and diaries, to form the history of the progress of Antarctic exploration during the last twenty-five years. 'A good combination of history and adventure' it is authoritative, but written popularly enough to be read with interest." N.Y. libraries

Hayward, Walter Brownell, 1877-

Last continent of adventure; a narrative of gallant men & bold exploits in Antarctica. Dodd 1930 339p illus o.p. 1939 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 30-12967

"This résumé of Antarctic exploration reviews briefly early discoveries and the scientific expeditions of various governments and then recounts the main facts of the expeditions led by Scott, Shackleton, Amundsen, Byrd, Wilkins, and others." Bkl.

"Mr. Hayward, who has sympathy and imagination, misses nothing of interest in the record of Antarctic adventure. He is fortunate in his treatment, for it is a man's book as well as a boy's book; indeed, it has a universal appeal." N.Y. Times

Lindsay, Martin, 1905-

Epic of Captain Scott. Putnam 1934 178p illus maps (Great occasions) $1.50 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 2 British Antarctic ("Terra Nova") expedition, 1910-1913 3 Discovery (Ship) 4 Scientific expedition 5 Scott, Robert Falcon, 1868-1912 6 South pole 7 Terra Nova (Ship) 34-2248

"Describes Captain Scott's expedition to the south pole and the tragic return journey when the whole party perished of exhaustion and starvation within a few miles of safety. Based on Captain Scott's diary and also on the notes of other members of the expedition. Maps. Index." Ontario library review

"Mr. Lindsay's story is admirable for its restraint and eloquent condensation. Nothing of the picture left out, and not a word wasted." N.Y. Times

O'Brien, John S. 1898-

By dog sled for Byrd; 1600 miles across Antarctic ice. . . Follett 1931 192p illus $2 919.9

1 Byrd Antarctic expedition, 1st, 1928-1930 2 Dogs—Stories [31-10250]

"A vividly written account of the sledge journey undertaken by the party sent out to establish an emergency base, prior to Byrd's flight over the pole. It forms an excellent supplement to 'Little America,' giving an insight into one phase of polar exploration that must still be carried on by dog sled." Wis. bul.

Ommanney, Francis Downes, 1903-

Below the roaring forties; an Antarctic journal. . . Longmans 1938 308p illus $3; 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 2 Discovery (Ship) 3 Scientific expeditions (W) 38-27365

Map on lining-papers

Published in England under title: South latitude

"Deserting London laboratories for more adventurous work, a young biologist enlisted for service at a whaling station on an Antarctic island. Here he dissected, measured, and studied the anatomy of whales, took trips on whalers, collected specimens of minute marine life, and joined the expedition that rescued Lincoln Ellsworth." Bkl.

Scott, Robert Falcon, 1868-1912

Scott's last expedition; the personal journals . . . on his journey to the South pole. . . Dodd 1923 xxviii,519p illus $3 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 2 British Antarctic ("Terra Nova") expedition, 1910-1913 3 South pole A24-65

First published 1913 in 2 volumes. This edition contains most of the material found in the first volume of the two volume edition, that is, the journals. Has a biographical sketch by Sir J. M. Barrie

"Few books on the subject of exploration have won the peculiar place achieved by Scott's record of his last trip, with its tragic ending. Its many and varied merits, aside from the tragedy, make it a classic of its kind." N. Y. Tribune

Voyages of Captain Scott. . . Dodd 1915 440p illus o.p. 1939 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 2 Discovery (Ship) 3 South pole 15-1820

"Retold from 'The voyage of the "Discovery" ' and 'Scott's last expedition', by Charles Turley; with an introduction by Sir J. M. Barrie. Numerous illustrations in colour and black and white and a map." Title page

"It is a book to delight the heart of any boy of fifteen or sixteen, but the parent who buys it for this purpose is likely to want to keep it for himself. Charles Turley re-tells in simple, direct, manly fashion and, wherever possible, in Captain Scott's own words." Saturday rev.

R. F. Scott's "Voyage of the 'Discovery' " (Dodd 2v $3) is an account of an early Antarctic expedition, begun in 1901. Detailed and illustrated

Shackleton, Sir Ernest Henry, 1874-1922

Heart of the Antarctic; being the story of the British Antarctic expedition 1907-1909. . . new and rev ed Heinemann 1910 368p illus map 5s 919.9

1 Antarctic regions A11-1983

First published in 2 volumes 1909; popular edition (1 volume) 1910. Formerly carried also by Lippincott

"Detailed, impressive, yet modest record of the Nimrod's 'farthest south' expedition, 1907-9, which fixed the position of the magnetic pole, accomplished the ascent of the extreme southerly volcano, Mt Erebus, and planted the British flag within 100 miles of the South Pole. Maps, numerous and admirable illustrations, and appendixes containing valuable scientific results. Published in part in 'McClure's Magazine.' " N.Y. state lib.

"Sir Ernest Shackleton has just the right combination of scientific interests and love of reckless adventure, and in this book we see the two sides of him balancing one another to perfection. The book will take its place among the great records of adventure in our language." Spectator

* South; the story of Shackleton's last expedition, 1914-1917. Macmillan 1920 380p illus maps $2.50 919.9

1 Antarctic regions 20-1604

"A remarkably well-told account of Shackleton's attempt to cross Antarctica, 1914-1917. The description of the crushing of the ship Endurance, after drifting hundreds of miles is the story of unlimited courage, perseverance and hardship almost unbelievable." Cleveland

"The story is told simply, for the most part without much passion; but there is no need for that to hold our interest. This book, and many another like it, are written for the general reader." Times (London) lit. sup.

ABOUT BIOGRAPHY. BIBLIOGRAPHY

Books about biography including bibliographies (920A) and biographical dictionaries (920D) are arranged in this catalog as separate alphabets and placed before the books containing general collective biography (920). Some libraries may prefer to use R920 for these two sections of biography. Books on individual biography are classed 92 and are placed after all the 920's

Cross, Wilbur Lucius, 1862-
Outline of biography from Plutarch to Strachey, with a bibliography. Holt 1924 60p o.p. 1939 920A

1 Biography 2 Biography—Bibliography 25-721

"This little essay was first given as an address at Columbia University in the summer of 1921. . . . The aim was to indicate in a general way the devious course taken by biography since Plutarch down to our own times, as a guide in the history of a literary genre that has its traditions as much as the novel or the drama." Preface

Bibliography: p49-60

Dunn, Waldo Hilary, 1882-
English biography. Dutton 1917 xxi,323p (Channels of English literature) $2.50 920A

1 Autobiography 2 Biography (as a literary form) 17-4579

"A detailed study of the origin and evolution of English biography as distinguished from autobiography, which has received a like handling from Mrs Anna Robeson Burr 'The autobiography' (Houghton 1909 451p o.p. 1939). The treatment is not only historical, but includes some valuable definitions of the function and place of biography in letters, and its relation to other subjects, notably fiction, and also some excellent critical material on specific biographies." Cleveland

Lee, Sir Sidney, 1859-1926
Principles of biography: the Leslie Stephen lecture delivered in the Senate house, Cambridge, on 13 May, 1911. Macmillan 1911 54p o.p. 1939 920A

1 Biography (as a literary form) [12-4927]

"Beginning with a tribute to Leslie Stephen, the lecture proceeds to lay down excellent principles of guidance for the writer of biographies." Pittsburgh

Logasa, Hannah, 1879-
Biography in collections suitable for junior and senior high schools. 3d ed rev and enl Wilson, H.W. 1940 152p $1.50 920A

1 Biography—Bibliography (W) 40-27333

"This revision is based on the original work, plus the 1937 revised and enlarged edition. It includes forty-one new collections." Foreword to third edition

An analytical index to books of collective biography accompanied by a subject index which classifies the names under the fields of their activities such as astronomy, aviation, music, etc. Includes brief annotations on the books analyzed

Maurois, André, 1885-
* Aspects of biography; tr. from the French by S. C. Roberts. Appleton-Century 1929 208p $2 920A

1 Biography (as a literary form) 29-15349

"Based upon lectures given at Trinity College, Cambridge. . . The subject is considered from a variety of viewpoints: as a work of art; as a science; as a means of expression. Chapters are devoted to modern biography, to autobiography, and to biography and the novel. Satisfying to the literary reader, and made readable by frequent allusions to, and quotations from various biographies. Index." N.Y. libraries

Nicolson, Harold George, 1886-
Development of English biography. Hogarth 1928 158p (Hogarth lectures on literature ser.) 3s 6d 920A

1 Biography (as a literary form) 2 English literature—History and criticism [28-11512]

"An important contribution to the small group of books about biography. Traces the development of English biography from its beginnings in Asser and Bede down to Strachey." Wis. bul.

O'Neill, Edward Hayes
History of American biography 1800-1935. Univ. of Pa. press 1935 428p $4 920A

1 American literature—History and criticism 2 Biography (as a literary form) 35-19710

"A complete survey of biographical writing since 1800, with appraisals of the changes of method and style, and of the judgment of individual writers. The arrangement is chronological, with two chapters devoted to Lincoln and Washington, in which the competence of their biographers is compared. Autobiographies, diaries, and memoirs are not included. Bibliography: p367-417." Bkl.

Thayer, William Roscoe, 1859-1923
Art of biography. Scribner 1920 155p o.p. 1939 920A

1 Biography (as a literary form) 20-15938

"Three lectures delivered at the University of Virginia [on the Barbour-Page foundation] covering examples of ancient, medieval and modern biography. Defines essential features of an ideal biography. As the author is a master of the art it should appeal to all who have a special taste for biographical literature. List of books referred to in text." N.Y. state lib.

920D DICTIONARIES

There are many specialized dictionaries that may be needed. These may be found in Mudge, class 016. The following are suggested as possible purchases:

American women; the standard biographical dictionary of notable women. Am. publications $10 Biennial. First published for 1935-1936

Cattell, J. M. ed. Leaders in education; a biographical directory. Science press $12 Second edition in preparation, 1939

Cattell, J. M. and Cattell, Jaques, eds. American men of science; a biographical directory. 6th ed Science press 1938 1608p $12

Parker, John, ed. Who's who in the theatre; a biographical record of the contemporary stage. . . 9th ed rev Pitman 1939 1983p illus $8.50

Wer ist's? Stechert $8 First published 1905. The latest edition (the 10th) appeared in 1935

A. L. A. portrait index; index to portraits contained in printed books and periodicals, comp. with the cooperation of many librarians and others for the Publishing board of the American library association, ed. by W. C. Lane and N. E. Browne. Supt. of doc. 1906 1600p $3 920D

1 Portraits—Indexes 6-35019

"An index to portraits contained in 1,181 sets (6,216 volumes) including both books and periodicals through the year 1904. Indexes 120,000 portraits of about 35,000 or 45,000 persons. Information given includes dates of birth and death and brief characterization of the person, artist, engraver, etc., of the portrait, and volume and page of the work where the portrait may be found. Does not index portraits in local histories, genealogical works, or collections of engravings as such, or portraits of writers included in sets of their collected works." Mudge

Allibone, Samuel Austin, 1816-1889

Critical dictionary of English literature and British and American authors, living and deceased, from the earliest accounts to the latter half of the nineteenth century. . . Lippincott 1858-91 5v o.p. 1939 920D

1 American literature — Bibliography 2 English literature — Bibliography 3 Great Britain—Bio-bibliography 4 U.S. —Bio-bibliography (2-2807)

Volume 1-3, A-Z; v4-5, supplement by J. F. Kirk, A-Z

"A standard work very useful in spite of the fact that it is not entirely accurate and so must often be checked, for important points, by reference to some other authority. Based in part upon Watt's 'Bibliotheca Britannica' and reflects Watt's inaccuracies. Arranged alphabetically by authors, giving for each brief biographical sketch, full list of works with dates, and references to critical comments or reviews." Mudge

Classified subject index

Century cyclopedia of names; a pronouncing and etymological dictionary of names in geography, biography, mythology, history, ethnology, art, archaeology, fiction, etc. . . rev and enl Appleton-Century 1914 1085, 158p o.p. 1939 920D

1 Biography—Dictionaries 2 Geography —Dictionaries 3 Names 16-20014

Also issued as volume 11 of the Century dictionary

"A useful and reliable reference book for names. Gives brief articles and indicates pronunciation. This edition contains two alphabets, the first of which is a reprint of the original list of names in the first edition, with some revisions and changes, especially in statistics, population figures, etc., while the second is a reprint from the supplementary list of 3,000 new names and new matter about older names, which was appended to volume two of the 1909 supplement to the Century dictionary. Stars in the main alphabet refer to additional information about the same name in the supplementary alphabet and 'vice versa.' Contains appendixes: (1) Chronological table of the chief events of history; (2) List of rulers; (3) Genealogical charts; (4) Chronological outlines of European and American literature." Mudge

Dictionary of American biography, under the auspices of the American council of learned societies ed. by Allen Johnson and Dumas Malone. Scribner 1928-37 20v $250, ea $12.50 920D

1 U.S.—Biography (28-28500)

"Planned on the lines of the English 'Dictionary of national biography' and so includes only persons no longer living. Scope includes noteworthy persons of all periods who lived in the territory that is now known as the United States, excluding British officers serving in America after the colonies declared their independence. Signed articles, bibliographies.

"As compared with the other principal dictionaries in this field the 'D.A.B.' . . . is less inclusive than the 'National cyclopedia [of American biography]' which includes many more minor names, but [the 'D.A.B.'] has articles of more distinction . . . and much more bibliography." Mudge

"Dictionary of American biography; index" (Scribner 1937 613p $15) was undertaken by the publishers as the editors were unable to undertake the task

The "National cyclopædia of American biography" (White, J. T. 27v illus ea $15) referred to in the note above is called by Mudge "the most comprehensive American work." The 27 volumes containing biographies of deceased persons are supplemented by a series of volumes A-E (White, J. T. 5v ea $15) which contain lives of living notables. Due to the non-alphabetic arrangement of this set, it must be used with the index which comes in loose-leaf form to permit insertions for new volumes of index to the alphabet series as they are published

"White's conspectus of American biography" (White, J. T. 455p $15) is a useful book for quick reference. It indexes in tabular form facts to be found in the "National cyclopedia," but it may be used independently

Dictionary of national biography; ed. by Leslie Stephen and Sidney Lee. Oxford 22v front $140 920D

1 Great Britain—Biography [36-29738]

The main work and first supplement [were] published in two editions, the original edition in sixty-six volumes, in 1885-1901, and a re-issue, 1908, on slightly thinner paper, compressed into twenty-two volumes. This reprint incorporates in the articles the corrections noted in the volume of Errata and is, to that extent, to be preferred to the original edition

" The most important reference work for English biography, containing signed articles by specialists, and excellent bibliographies. Articles are adequate, i.e. important names treated at great length,

Dictionary of national biography—Continued
minor names more briefly, and are generally reliable and scholarly. Scope includes all noteworthy inhabitants of the British Isles and the Colonies, exclusive of living persons; includes noteworthy Americans of the colonial period. The first supplement [v22] includes biographies of those omitted from the main part and of those who died before January 22, 1901." Mudge

—Second supplement, 1901-1911; ed. by Sir Sidney Lee. Oxford 1912 3v in 1 $7 920D

—Third supplement, 1912-1921; ed. by H. W. C. Davis and J. R. H. Weaver; with an index covering the years 1901-1921 in one alphabetical series. Oxford 1927 623p $7 920D

—Fourth supplement, 1922-1930; ed. by J. R. H. Weaver; with an index covering the years 1901-1930 in one alphabetical series. Oxford 1937 962p $9.50 920D

Dictionary of national biography. . . The concise dictionary from the beginnings to 1930; being an epitome of the main work and its Supplement, to which is added an epitome of the twentieth century volumes covering 1901-1930. Oxford 1939 1456, 183p $7 920D

1 Great Britain—Biography 2 Great Britain—Bio-bibliography [39-27586]

It gives an abstract of every article in the main work and its supplements. This volume would probably be sufficient for the needs of the small library

Fitzhugh, Mrs Harriet Lloyd (LePorte) and Fitzhugh, Percy Keese, 1876-
Concise biographical dictionary. Grosset 1935 777p $1 920D

1 Biography—Dictionaries 35-21546

"Five hundred names from the great and near-great in the world's history selected from lists submitted by high school teachers and pupils. There are, of course, many omissions, but for those included there is a readable account of the life of the subject and his contribution to the world. Emphasis is on modern characters. Pronunciation for difficult names is indicated. Index." Wis. bul.

Holweck, Frederick George, 1856-
Biographical dictionary of the saints; with a general introduction on hagiology. Herder 1924 xxix,1053p $7.50 920D

1 Saints 24-20782

"Attempts to be entirely comprehensive, including all saints recognized in any Christian church, whether Eastern or Roman Catholic, heretic or orthodox. The biographies are very compact and each one has at least one bibliographical reference." I. G. Mudge in Library journal

Kunitz, Stanley Jasspon, 1905-
(ed.) Authors today and yesterday. . . Wilson, H.W. 1933 726p illus o.p. 1939 920D

1 Authors 2 Biography—Dictionaries 33-27467

"A supplement to 'Living authors' containing short biographies of 320 additional 20th century authors. It includes a larger number of the older authors, both living and dead, than the first volume; also a larger number of foreign authors, and like the other will take its place as an indispensable library aid. A joint index to the two volumes is a useful feature." Wis. bul.

This volume and "Living authors" will be combined in a new book entitled "Twentieth century authors," in preparation 1940

(ed.) Living authors; a book of biographies, ed. by Dilly Tante and illus. with 371 photographs and drawings. Wilson, H.W. 1931 466p illus o.p. 1939 920D

1 Authors 2 Biography—Dictionaries 34-922

"Four hundred contemporary writers of all nations, whose works are available in English, appear in these short descriptive sketches reprinted from the Wilson Bulletin. Personal appearance, some characterization, and biographical details are given, as well as lists of their works and photographs. Pronunciation of names is indicated in the author index. It will be a useful, popular reference book for all libraries and schools." Bkl.

This volume and "Authors today and yesterday" will be combined in a new book entitled "Twentieth century authors" in preparation 1940

Kunitz, Stanley Jasspon, 1905- and Haycraft, Howard, 1905-
‡ (eds.) American authors, 1600-1900; a biographical dictionary of American literature. . . Wilson, H.W. 1938 846p illus $5 920D

1 Authors, American 2 Biography—Dictionaries 38-27938

"Contains, in all, biographies of almost 1300 authors, of both major and minor significance, who participated in the making of our literary history from the time of the first English settlement at Jamestown in 1607 to the close of the 19th century. No living authors are included." Preface

"Nearly every American who has written anything of value, from Jamestown to the close of the last century, is included. The major writers, of course, receive proportionately more space and attention and generally a photograph from the Frederich H. Meserve Collection. The minor writers are presented skillfully and with charm. At the end of each sketch are appended two bibliographies, labeled 'Principal Works' and 'About.'" Shores

‡ (eds.) British authors of the nineteenth century; complete in one volume with 1000 biographies and 350 portraits. Wilson, H.W. 1936 677p illus $4.50 920D

1 Authors, English 2 Biography—Dictionaries 36-28581

"Most of the sketches are short, but there has been a general effort both to make a really lifelike presentation of these writers and to offer a sound, though brief, critical judgment of their work. The book is thus genuinely interesting. Its interest and value are especially marked in the case of authors who are not now so well known as are their greatest contemporaries. . . This is a monumental piece of work, which will be particularly useful for the reference library." N.Y. Times

Kunitz, S. J. and Haycraft, H.—Continued

‡ (eds.) Junior book of authors; an introduction to the lives of writers and illustrators for younger readers, from Lewis Carroll and Louisa Alcott to the present day . . . with an introduction by E. L. Power. Wilson, H.W. 1934 400p illus $3.25 920D

1 Authors 2 Biography — Dictionaries 3 Children's literature — Bibliography 4 Illustrators 34-36776

More than 250 authors and illustrators from Lewis Carroll and Louisa Alcott to the present day have been selected for inclusion. Many of the accounts of contemporary authors and artists are autobiographical, and all are addressed to young readers. Includes an index, a list of pronunciations of some modern author's names, and a reprint of the "Children's almanac of books and holidays," compiled by Helen Dean Fish. The editors were assisted in their work by W. C. Hadden and J. E. Johnsen. Well illustrated

"This will be an indispensable book in school and public libraries, and it is quite conceivable that boys and girls might care to have such a volume in their own personal libraries. . . . The 'Junior Book of Authors' is attractive and not too serious in appearance. In planning it those who have collected and edited and those who have contributed the material it contains have had in mind the giving of pleasure to young people as well as supplying them with facts and information." A. T. Eaton in N.Y. Times

Smith, Sir William, 1813-1893

Classical dictionary of Greek and Roman biography, mythology and geography. rev throughout and in part rewritten by G. E. Marindin. Murray, J. 1894 1018p illus maps 21s 920D

1 Biography — Dictionaries 2 Classical dictionaries 3 Greece — Biography 4 Rome—Biography 39-15345

Formerly carried also by Little

A book by an English classical scholar which has been a standard in this field for many years

Sir William Smith's "Smaller classical dictionary," edited by E. H. Blakeney in Everyman's library (Dutton 1910 616p illus maps 90c) is "based on Smith's 'Classical dictionary,' but recast and brought to date by the addition of new articles and illustrations." Publisher

Thomas, Joseph, 1811-1891

Universal pronouncing dictionary of biography and mythology. 5th ed Lippincott 1930 2550p $15 920D

1 Biography—Dictionaries 2 Mythology —Dictionaries 30-22946

Binders' title: "Lippincott's pronouncing biographical dictionary." 1st ed 1870; 3d ed 1901; later editions are printed from the plates of the 3d ed with alterations in some of the older articles to bring them to date, omission of some minor articles, and inclusion of new names

"As a first aid the most frequently useful of the general biographical dictionaries in English. Comprehensive, includes men and women of all nations and periods, including many still living; names from the Greek, Roman, Teutonic, Sanskrit and other mythologies are also included. Articles in general are brief; tho there are some long articles, pronunciation is marked and there is some bibliography, tho this feature is not important. Appendixes: Vocabulary of Christian (or first) names, with pronunciation, and equivalents in the principal foreign languages; Disputed or doubtful pronunciations." Mudge

Who's who; an annual biographical dictionary with which is incorporated "Men and women of the time." Macmillan $15 920D

* 1 Great Britain—Biography (4-16933)

Issued annually since 1849

"The pioneer work of the 'who's who' type and still the most important work of the kind. Principally English, but not limited to Englishmen, as a few prominent names of other nationalities are included. Biographies are reliable and fairly detailed; give main facts, addresses and, in case of authors, list of works." Mudge

Who's who in America; a biographical dictionary of notable living men and women of the United States. Marquis $8.85 920D

‡ 1 U.S.—Biography (4-16934)

Issued biennially; first edition 1899

"An excellent dictionary of contemporary biography containing concise biographical data, with addresses and, in case of authors, lists of works." Mudge

Who's who in American Jewry . . . a biographical dictionary of living Jews of the United States and Canada. Nat. news assn. $9.85 920D

1 Jews—Biography 2 Jews in the U.S. (27-2163)

Biennial. First published 1927

In the 1938-1939 edition "there are 8,744 full biographies, 1,900 additional listed names and some 400 portraits. Altho the title-page limits inclusions to the United States and Canada, the geographical index indicates a good representation of outstanding Jews abroad. The one major foreign country under which no names are listed is Germany. . . . Public libraries will find it a welcome addition to the reference collection." Shores

920 COLLECTIVE

For the convenience of having collective biography together in one alphabet, 920 is used here for all classes except artists, sculptors, and musicians. These are classified with the 700's. Lives of Jesus Christ are classed in 232. Biographies for younger readers will be found in the Children's catalog and in the Standard catalog for high school libraries

Abbot, Willis John, 1863-

Notable women in history. . . . Winston 1913 448p illus o.p. 1939 920

920.7 A13 1 Woman—Biography 13-10918

"Brief sketches of seventy women, 'who in all ages, all lands and in all womanly occupations have won fame and put their imprint on the world's history.' (Subtitle) The collection is adapted to the needs of the small library and useful to those preparing papers on the woman movement. Portraits poor." A. L. A. bkl.

Contains six of the ten subjects in Adams and Foster's "Heroines of modern progress"

Adams, Elmer Cleveland, 1885- and Foster, Warren Dunham, 1886-

Heroines of modern progress. Macmillan 1913 324p illus (Modern heroines ser.) $2.50 920

920.7 A21 1 Woman—Biography 26-6605

Contents: Elizabeth Fry; Mary Lyon; Elizabeth Cady Stanton; Harriet Beecher Stowe; Florence Nightingale; Clara Barton; Julia Ward Howe; Frances E. Willard; J. Ellen Foster; Jane Addams; Chronological outlines

Adams, James Truslow, 1878-

Adams family. Little 1930 364p illus $3 920

1 Adams family 30-15559

"The story of four generations of the 'most distinguished family in the United States' and of the events which they shared and frequently shaped is here told by a historian of the same name, tho not the same blood. Established in America in 1636, the family during one hundred and twenty-five years developed no marked quality. Beginning with John Adams, historian, publicist, diplomat, and president of the United States and continuing thru John Quincy Adams, Charles Francis Adams, and, in the fourth generation, John Quincy II, Charles Francis II, Henry, and Brooks Adams, the family has steadily maintained its distinguished position and its aristocracy of intellect." Book rev. digest

"He has supplied an intelligent, readable and historically workmanlike running picture of a considerable section of our nation's development and of one highly important and always individual family which figured in that development." Springfield Republican

Audax, pseud.

Men in our time. McBride 1940 217p illus $2.50 920

1 Great Britain—Foreign relations 2 Great Britain—Politics and government—20th century 3 Statesmen 40-5177

Brief, descriptive accounts of the men behind Britain's war machine. Contents: Britain at war; Neville Chamberlain; Winston Churchill; Lord Halifax; Sir John Simon; Anthony Eden; Leslie Hore-Belisha; Duff Cooper; Sir Kingsley Wood; Sir Samuel Hoare

Balch, Marston

(ed.) Modern short biographies and autobiographies. Harcourt 1940 589p $2 text ed $1.40 920

1 Biography 2 Biography (as a literary form) (W) 40-27133

Revision of a book published in 1935. Contains sketches of the following: Vincent Sheean, Lincoln Steffens, Bliss Perry, Clarence Day, John Reed, Louis Adamic, Floyd Dell, James Joyce, Harold Nicolson, Walt Whitman, Amy Lowell, George Bellows, Mary Todd Lincoln, Henry Thoreau, P. T. Barnum, H. R. Luce, Henry Ford, W. C. Bullitt, Woodrow Wilson, Clemenceau, Lloyd George, Mussolini, Chiang Kai-shek, King George III, Florence Nightingale, Eleanor Ormerod, Goethe. Bibliography: p581-89

Baring-Gould, Sabine, 1834-1924

Lives of the saints; with introduction and additional lives of English martyrs, Cornish, Scottish, and Welsh saints, and a full index to the entire work. new and rev ed. . . Grant, J. 1914 16v 84s 920

1 Saints A16-1094

"v. 1-15, January-December (July, October and November in 2v. each); v. 16, Appendix; indices." Mudge

Bartlett, Robert Merrill, 1898-

They did something about it. Assn. press 1939 146p $1.25 920

1 Biography 2 Success (W) 40-27059

"Inspirational stories of contemporary men and women who are pioneers in different fields and who have worked for the welfare of the world rather than for financial success. Those included are: Charles F. Kettering, Richard E. Byrd, Edouard Beneš, Jawaharlal Nehru, Louis Brandeis, Mary Bethune, Thomas Mann, Madame Chiang Kai-shek, Chevalier Jackson, and Margaret Sanger. [Bibliography]" Bkl.

Beard, Annie E. S. d. 1930

* Our foreign-born citizens; what they have done for America. rev and enl by Frederica Beard. Crowell 1939 448p illus $2.50 920

1 U.S.—Biography 39-27229

First published 1922, revised in 1925 and 1932. The 1939 edition contains four biographies not included in former editions: Einstein, Schumann-Heink, Damrosch, Van Loon

"Short sketches of men, who tho born in foreign countries, have aided in one way or another in the upbuilding of the United States. Intended for boys and girls, but will be interesting to grown-ups also." Book rev. digest

Beatty, Jerome, 1886-

Americans all over. Day 1940 424p illus $3 920

1 Americans in Africa 2 Americans in Asia 3 Americans in Europe 4 U.S.—Biography 5 Voyages around the world (W) 40-27301

Jerome Beatty was assigned to search the four corners of the earth for the most interesting and colorful Americans in foreign lands. He found fifteen and in this book he tells their exciting lives

Bechdolt, Frederick Ritchie, 1874-

Giants of the old West. Appleton-Century 1930 245p illus maps $2 920

1 Pioneers 2 The West—Biography 30-25077

Contents: John Colter; Ashley and his young men; Stephen Fuller Austin; The Alamo had none; William Becknell; James Pattie; Brigham Young; John Augustus Sutter; Alexander Majors; Charles Goodnight

"Dramatic and graphic are these portrayals of nine men who were active in starting movements that helped to bring the great West into civilization—nor does the author overlook the pioneer spirit, the spirit of adventure, that actuated these men." Providence

Bell, Eric Temple, 1883-

Men of mathematics. Simon & Schuster 1937 xxi,592p illus $5 920

1 Mathematicians 37-27177

"This magnificent, large volume discusses incomprehensible terms the lives and achievements of the great mathematicians from Zeno and his riddles to Georg Cantor and his. . . The biographies are well, even wittily, written, and the book opens up for the intelligent layman an entire new field. The author stands in the front rank, both as creative mathematician and biographer. Well illustrated." New Yorker

Benson, Edward Frederic, 1867-

Queen Victoria's daughters. Appleton-Century 1938 315p illus $3 920

1 Victoria, queen of Great Britain, 1819-1901 2 Windsor, House of (W) 38-35737

The lives of Queen Victoria and of her five daughters whose international marriages involved them with events in half the countries of modern Europe

"In this intimate portrait of Victoria's domestic life, E. F. Benson writes with his usual competence and the warm sense of human values that does not exclude occasional irony of a suave and gentle sort. Victoria appears not in an essentially new light, yet with a brighter illumination of her intense, narrow and powerful nature in its more emotional aspects." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Benson, Edward F.—Continued

Best, Mary Agnes
Rebel saints; illus. with reproductions from old prints. Harcourt 1925 333p illus o.p. 1939 920
1 Friends, Society of 25-22006
Contents: World as the Quakers found it; George Fox; Margaret Fell; Thomas Lurting; Mary Fisher; Katherine Evans and Sarah Chevers; William Penn; Edward Burrough; Mary Dyer; Martyred children; Peregrinations of the Callow family; Elizabeth Haddon; World as the Quakers changed it; Index
"These studies are alive not only in their manner of narration but in their sympathy with the spiritual attitude of the persons involved." Gamaliel Bradford in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Boase, Frederic, 1843-1916
Modern English biography, containing many thousand concise memoirs of persons who have died since the year 1850, with an index of the most interesting matter. Truro, Netherton 1892-1921 6v o.p. 1939 920
1 Great Britain—Biography (1-5198)
Contents: v 1-3 A-Z Index; v4-6 (sup. v 1-3) A-Z
"A useful work, particularly for minor nineteenth century names not included in the 'Dictionary of national biography.' Good subject index, including lists of pseudonyms, fancy names, class lists, e.g. actors, poets, pugilists, masters of hounds, suicides, etc." Mudge

Bolitho, William, 1890-1930
Twelve against the gods; the story of adventure. Simon & Schuster 351p illus o.p. 1939 920
1 Biography 29-24645
Contents: Alexander the Great; Casanova; Christopher Columbus; Mahomet; Lola Montez; Cagliostro (and Seraphina); Charles XII of Sweden; Napoleon I; Lucius Sergius Catiline; Napoleon III; Isadora Duncan; Woodrow Wilson
"His approach to the subjects of his biographical essays on adventures is forceful, intelligent, free from prejudice as from sentimentality and fresh, even when he has no new material to offer." Outlook

Bolton, Mrs Sarah (Knowles) 1841-1916
Lives of girls who became famous. rev and enl ed Crowell 1938 364p illus $2 920
1 Woman—Biography 38-7199
The life of Madame Chiang Kai-shek was added in 1938 to the biographies included in the 1930 edition
Contents: Elizabeth Barrett Browning; George Eliot; Florence Nightingale; Jean Ingelow; Jenny Lind; Madame de Staël; Rosa Bonheur; Harriet Beecher Stowe; Helen Hunt Jackson; Lucretia Mott; Mary A. Livermore; Margaret Fuller Ossoli; Maria Mitchell; Louisa M. Alcott; Mary Lyon; Harriet G. Hosmer; Julia Ward Howe; Jane Addams; Alice Freeman Palmer; Clara Barton; Susan B. Anthony; Anna Howard Shaw; Frances E. Willard; Elizabeth Blackwell; Helen Keller; Lady Astor; Madame Curie; Madame Chiang Kai-shek

Lives of poor boys who became famous. rev and enl ed Crowell 1939 445p illus $2 920
1 Biography 39-32112
First published 1925 and frequently reprinted with slight additions. The 1939 printing contains two new names
Contents: Bernard Palissy; Carolus Linnaeus; Samuel Johnson; Benjamin Franklin; Oliver Goldsmith; James Watt; Wolfgang Mozart; Jean Paul Richter; Joseph Marie Jacquard; Bertel Thorwaldsen; Peter Cooper; Michael Faraday; George Stephenson; George Peabody; Sir Josiah Mason; William Lloyd Garrison; David G. Farragut; Thomas Cole; Ezra Cornell; Guiseppe Garibaldi; Abraham Lincoln; Ole Bull; Jean Louis Meissonier; Horace Greeley; Sir Henry Bessemer; Ulysses S. Grant; James B. Eads; Bayard Taylor; Philip Henry Sheridan; Dwight L. Moody; Leon Gambetta; John D. Rockefeller; Andrew Carnegie; Henry M. Stanley; Thomas A. Edison; Henry Ford; Edward Bok; Will Rogers; Calvin Coolidge

Mrs S. K. Bolton's "Famous leaders among men" (Crowell 1894) is out of print, 1939

Bradford, Gamaliel, 1863-1932
* American portraits, 1875-1900. Houghton 1922 248p illus $3.50 920
1 U.S.—Biography 22-4659
Sketches of Mark Twain, Henry James, James McNeill Whistler, James Blaine, Henry Adams, Sidney Lanier, Grover Cleveland, and Joseph Jefferson
"Each sketch leaves with the reader a distinct picture of a real and interesting personality. The narrow limits forbid full portraiture, and in focusing for unity and sharpness of outline, the biographer necessarily sacrifices something of the modifying effect of minor details; but, on the whole, breadth of view and truth of perspective are fairly well preserved." Amer. hist. rev.
Reprinted from the "North American" and the "Atlantic monthly"

As God made them; portraits of some nineteenth-century Americans. Houghton 1929 294p illus $3.50 920
1 U.S.—Biography 29-7738
Contents: Daniel Webster; Henry Clay; John Caldwell Calhoun; Horace Greeley; Edwin Booth; Portrait of a scholar; Francis James Child; Portrait of a scientist: Asa Gray
"The understanding is high, the writing excellent. One may not always agree with the interpretations, but it is a relief in these days to find something of honest research presented in such readable fashion." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Bibliography: p273-87

Bare souls. Harper 1924 340p illus o.p. 1939 920
1 Authors 24-23738
Contents: Clue to the labyrinth of souls; Voltaire; Thomas Gray; Horace Walpole; William Cowper; Charles Lamb; John Keats; Gustave Flaubert; Edward Fitzgerald
"Psychological clinics aiming to bare the essential individualities of eight writers of the past, the author working with material supposed to be the most spontaneous and unguarded expressions of his subjects—their familiar letters. As the sketches are chiefly literary in their interest, they will appeal to a more limited audience than 'Damaged souls,' for example." Cleveland

Bradford, Gamaliel—Continued

Confederate portraits. Houghton 1914 291p illus $3.50 920

1 Confederate States of America—Biography 2 Gettysburg, Battle of, 1863 14-7092

Character studies of J. E. Johnston, J. E. B. Stuart, Longstreet, Beauregard, J. P. Benjamin, A. H. Stephens, Robert Toombs, Raphael Semmes and a short chapter on the battle of Gettysburg. Appeared in large part in the Atlantic monthly

Damaged souls. Houghton 1923 284p illus (Riverside lib.) $1 920

1 U.S.—Biography 23-9082

Contents: Damaged souls; Benedict Arnold; Thomas Paine; Aaron Burr; John Randolph of Roanoke; John Brown; Phineas Taylor Barnum; Benjamin Franklin Butler

"In these seven essays in psychography Mr Bradford has made a substantial contribution to American biography, to American history, and to American literature. The volume which contains them confirms Mr Bradford's position as one of the foremost of our contemporary men of letters. The book is well planned and well executed and well written." International book review

Daughters of Eve. Houghton 1930 303p illus $3.50 920

1 France—Biography 2 Woman—Biography 30-5265

Contents: Eve in the apple-orchard: Ninon de Lenclos; Eve as dove and serpent: Madame de Maintenon; Eve and Almighty God: Madame Guyon; Eve and Adam: Mademoiselle de Lespinasse; Eve enthroned: Catherine the Great; Eve and the pen: George Sand; Eve in the spotlight: Sarah Bernhardt

Gamaliel Bradford's "Portraits of women" (Houghton 1916 201p illus $3) is another of his penetrating studies. It contains biographies of Lady Mary Montagu, Lady Holland, Jane Austen, Madame d'Arblay, Mrs Pepys, Madame de Sévigné, Madame du Deffand, Madame de Choiseul, Eugénie de Guérin

* Portraits of American women. Houghton 1919 276p illus $3 920

1 New England—Biography 2 Woman—Biography 19-18303

Contents: Abigail Adams; Sarah Alden Ripley; Mary Lyon; Harriet Beecher Stowe; Margaret Fuller Ossoli; Louisa May Alcott; Frances Elizabeth Willard; Emily Dickinson; Notes; Index

"The studies are written with simplicity and charm. The author wisely lets the subjects speak for themselves. But his own judgments are pleasantly keen." Springfield Republican

Saints and sinners. Houghton 1932 261p illus $3.50 920

1 Biography 32-9257

Contents: Caesar Borgia; Saint Francis of Assisi; Casanova; Thomas à Kempis; Talleyrand; Fénelon; Byron

"In this, his 16th . . . volume, Mr Bradford is at his highest peak of literary skill and human understanding. A collection of essays dealing with seven of the world's most eminent saints and sinners might well tend to choppiness and fragmentary treatment. But in this instance succinct portrayal is combined with amazing comprehension to make a volume of delightful reading." Springfield Republican

Wives. Harper 1925 298p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 U.S.—Biography 2 Woman—Biography 25-18266

"Portrayal of a group of American women who 'would probably have lived quiet, utterly unknown lives except for their masculine connections.' The subjects of these entertaining studies and speculations are Mrs Abraham Lincoln, Mrs Benedict Arnold, Theodosia Burr, Mrs James Madison, Mrs Jefferson Davis, Mrs Benjamin F. Butler and Mrs James G. Blaine." N.Y. State lib.

Brenner, Rica

Ten modern poets. Harcourt 1930 279p illus $2.50 920

1 American poetry—History and criticism 2 Poets 30-13387

Five American poets; Robert Frost, Amy Lowell, Edna St Vincent Millay, Edwin Arlington Robinson, and Carl Sandburg; and five English poets, Walter de la Mare, A. E. Housman, Rudyard Kipling, John Masefield, and Alfred Noyes, are presented in the volume. The poets were chosen on account of their 'liberalized intellectual attitude,' and the author includes an evaluation of their work along with the biographical sketches." Book rev. digest

Bibliography at end of each chapter

Twelve American poets before 1900. Harcourt 1933 347p $2.50 920

1 American poetry—History and criticism 2 Poets, American 33-12767

Biographical and critical sketches written for young people. Contents: Philip Freneau; W. C. Bryant; R. W. Emerson; H. W. Longfellow; J. G. Whittier; E. A. Poe; O. W. Holmes; J. R. Lowell; Walt Whitman; Emily Dickinson; Sidney Lanier; Eugene Field

"These well considered and sympathetic discussions will give a reader much more than mere biographical facts and a historical placing of the authors included. Miss Brenner's style is delightful and she has an instinct for choosing the incidents, the bits of personal description, that add vitality and charm to her text. She wisely uses a wealth of quotation, and in a way to incite readers to make a first-hand acquaintance with the poets represented." A. T. Eaton in N.Y. Times

Bryce, James Bryce, viscount, 1838-1922

Studies in contemporary biography. Macmillan 1903 487p $4 920

1 Great Britain—Biography 3-10346

Beaconsfield, Dean Stanley, Anthony Trollope, J. R. Green, Parnell, Gladstone, E. L. Godkin, E. A. Freeman, Cardinal Manning, Lord Acton and ten other character estimates

Burrows, Millar

Founders of great religions; being personal sketches of famous leaders. Scribner 1931 243p $2 920

1 Religions—Biography 31-23684

Sketches of Lao-tze, Confucius, Mahavira, Buddha, Zoroaster, Moses, Mohammed, Nanak, Jesus

"An admirable and vital book . . . The work is done with scientific impartiality and an unfailing sympathy." Christian century

Suggestions for further reading: p239-40

Carr, Albert H. Z.

* Juggernaut; the path of dictatorship; with seventeen portrait drawings by Vivian Springford. Viking 1939 531p illus $3 920

1 Dictators (W) 39-27717

Contents: Richelieu; Louis XIV; Frederick the Great; Bismarck; Primo de Rivera; Alexander, Metaxas, Carol; Cromwell; Robespierre; Bolívar; Lenin; Stalin; Napoleon; Napoleon III; Gómez; Mussolini; Atatürk, Salazar; Hitler; Path of dictatorship; Trend in America

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer, 1874-

Great contemporaries; with 21 portraits. Putnam 1937 299p illus $4 920

1 Biography 2 Great Britain—Biography 37-31468

Contents: Earl of Rosebery; The ex-kaiser; George Bernard Shaw; Joseph Chamberlain; Sir John French; John Morley; Hindenburg; Boris Savinkov; Herbert Henry Asquith; Lawrence of Arabia; "F. E." first Earl of Birkenhead; Marshal Foch; Leon Trotsky, alias Bronstein; Alfonso XIII; Douglas Haig; Arthur James Balfour; Hitler and his choice; George Nathaniel Curzon; Philip Snowden; Clemenceau; King George V

"Brilliantly phrased, anecdotal and strongly opinionated—a book with which to agree and disagree with equal pleasure." N.Y. Times

Crowther, James Gerald

Men of science. . . Norton 1936 332p illus $3.50 920

1 Science—History 2 Scientists 36-27155

Published in England under title: British scientists of the nineteenth century

Sketches of the lives and works of five British scientists of the nineteenth century. Contents: Humphry Davy; Michael Faraday; James Prescott Joule; William Thomson; James Clerk Maxwell; Select bibliography

"While the arrangement of this book is plainly formal, with its array of facts marshalled in a purely conventional manner, its merit lies in the very discerning research involved and the perspective which places these five remarkable figures in relation to their times. This indeed is the thread which binds together the five biographies." Scientific book club review

J. G. Crowther's "Famous American men of science" (Norton 1937 414p illus $3.50) (W) contains accounts of the lives and scientific work of Benjamin Franklin, Joseph Henry, Josiah Wellard Gibbs and Thomas Alva Edison

Current biography. Wilson, H.W. service

* basis 920

1 Biography—Periodicals (W)

Monthly. First published January 1940

The determining factor for inclusion is the prominence of the subject in the news of the day. Sketches vary in length according to the importance of the subject and the amount of material already in print

Dalglish, Doris N.

People called Quakers. Oxford 1938 169p $3 920

1 Friends, Society of 2 Grellet, Stephen, 1773-1855 3 Stephen, Caroline Emelia, 1834-1909 4 Story, Thomas, 1662-1742 5 Wilkinson, Thomas, 1751-1836 6 Woolman, John, 1720-1772 39-10828

"A study of certain distinguished Friends who testified in different ways to their faith from the seventeenth to the nineteenth centuries." Book rev. digest

Darrow, Floyd Lavern, 1880-

Builders of empire. Longmans 1930 303p illus $2 920

1 U.S.—Biography 30-20102

"Brief biographical sketches of the lives of pioneers in various fields in the United States since the Civil war, including scientists, inventors, engineers, explorers, physicians and financiers." Book rev. digest

De Kruif, Paul Henry, 1890-

* Hunger fighters; illus. by Zadig. Harcourt 1928 377p illus $1.49 920

1 Agriculture—Biography 2 Food 3 Food supply 4 Scientists 5 Veterinarians 28-24361

Contents: The wheat dreamer: Carleton; The wheat finders: Mackay—and others more eminent; The scientific Bolshevik: Dorset; A man for fundamentals: Mohler; The automatic man: Francis; The maize finders: ancient and anonymous; The maize breeder: Shull; New soil from old: Hoffer; Finder of the hidden hunger: Babcock; The sun-trapper: Steenbock; The soft-spoken desperado: Goldberger; Index

"Brief biographical sketches of a group of experimenters whose work has resulted in increasing the supply or improving the quality of certain necessary foods. It is written with the same vividness as his earlier book, 'Microbe hunters.'" Pratt quarterly

* Men against death. Harcourt 1932 363p illus $1.49 920

1 Medicine—Biography 2 Medicine—History 32-28085

Contents: Semmelweis; Banting; Minot; Spencer; Evans; McCoy; Schaudinn; Bordet; Wagner-Jauregg; Finsen; Rollier; Strandberg

"Stories of famous scientists, their researches and the battles they have won against diabetes, pernicious anemia, and tuberculosis. . . Interesting reading, as the subject vitally concerns every human being." Ontario library review

‡ Microbe hunters. Harcourt 1926 363p illus $1.49 920

1 Scientists 26-5317

Contents: Leeuwenhoek; Spallanzani; Pasteur; Koch; Roux and Behring; Metchnikoff; Theobald Smith; Bruce; Ross vs. Grassi; Walter Reed; Paul Ehrlich; Index

"Tells the stories of the men who have devoted (and risked) their lives to the discovery of the secrets of contagion. Told in extremely popular form, but dramatically." Wis. bul.

Seven iron men. Harcourt 1929 241p illus maps o.p. 1939 920

1 Iron mines and mining 2 Merritt family 3 Mesaba range, Minnesota 29-20416

A story "of the mighty basins of iron of the Missabe range in northern Minnesota, and of the Merritt boys who discovered and developed these mines only to lose them to 'big business' where they became the foundation of the Carnegie and Rockefeller millions. Because of his far-from-bookish style and command of suspense, this and Dr. De Kruif's other stories of heroic fighters of peace, are as popular as the latest thriller." Cleveland

Drake, William A. 1899-

Contemporary European writers. Day 1928 408p o.p. 1939 920

1 Authors, European 2 Europe—Literature—History and criticism 3 Literature, Modern—History and criticism 28-11519

Contents: Marcel Proust; Jean Giraudoux; Jean Cocteau; Franz Werfel; Bene-

Drake, William A.—Continued
detto Croce; Thomas Mann; Maurice Donnay; Paul Morand; Sigrid Undset; Sibilla Aleramo; Georg Kaiser; Kostes Palamas; George Duhamel; Pio Baroja; Guillaume Apollinaire; Ramon del Valle-Inclan; Vladimir Mayakovsky; Carl Sternheim; Frank Thiess; Maurice Barres; Boris Pilniak; Hermann Bahr; Pierre Louys; Robert de Montesquiou; Armando Palacio Valdes; Jakob Wassermann; Anna de Noailles; Paul Valery; Azorin; Francis Jammes; Charles Peguy; Henri de Regnier; Francois Mauriac; Chaim Nachman Bialik; Paul Bourget; Charles Maurras; Karel Capek; Giuseppe Antonio Borgese; Detlev von Liliencron and Richard Dehmel; Luigi Pirandello; Bibliographies; Index of Names

"This excellently compiled volume of information and opinion need not frighten the cultivated American reader. He will read in it much that is of interest and is in many instances otherwise unavailable in English, and he will be made acquainted with the best European estimates of these personalities for Mr. Drake quotes with admirable scrupulousness and liberality from the critics of other literatures." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Du Maurier, Daphne, 1907-

The Du Mauriers. Doubleday 1937 312p o.p. 1939 920

1 Du Maurier, George Louis Palmella Busson, 1834-1896 2 Du Maurier family (W) 37-27330

"Spirited and astonishingly frank study of the Du Maurier family beginning in 1810 with the gay, faithless, slum-born Mary Anne, one-time mistress of the Duke of York. It was her annuity extracted from the duke which had an important influence on her descendants, and it was her disapproving daughter who married the impractical inventor Du Maurier, thus giving the family characteristics 'hovering between England and France.'" N.Y. libraries

Famous American athletes of today, first-seventh series. Page 1928-40 7v (Famous leaders ser.) ea $2.50 920

1 Athletes 2 Sports

Interesting sketches of prominent figures in the world of sport. Volume 1-2, 4, edited by C. H. L. Johnston, v3 by Leroy Atkinson and Austen Lake, v5 by Leroy Atkinson and others, v6 by Harold Kaese and others, v7 by Jerry Nason

Revised editions of the first and third series bring the records of achievements of some of the athletes up to date. No new names are included

Contents v 1: Greek games; Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh ("Lindy"); James Joseph ("Gene") Tunney; George H. ("Babe") Ruth; Henry M. ("Hank") Gowdy; William T. ("Bill") Tilden 2nd; Helen Wills ("Little poker face"); Robert Tyre ("Bobby") Jones, Jr.; Gertrude ("Trudy") Ederle; Charles W. Paddock; Clarence DeMar; Harry E. ("Light Horse Harry") Wilson; Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.; Have a heart

v2: Rise and ascendency of American sport; Charles Francis Adams; Richard Evelyn Byrd; Glenna Collett; Amelia Earhart; Walter Perry Johnson; Jean-Rene La Coste, Henri Cochet, Jean Borotra, Jacques Brugnon; George Owen, Jr.; Earle Sande; Jack Sharkey; Gus Sonnenberg; James Thorpe; "Heads up"

v3: Milestones on the road to champions; Gordon Stanley ("Mickey") Cochrane; Mildred Babe Didrikson; Henry Louis ("Lou") Gehrig; Helen Hicks; John L. ("Pepper") Martin; Francis Ouimet; Ernest ("Ernie") Frederick Schaff, Jr.; Al Simmons; Harold Stirling Vanderbilt; Henry Ellsworth Vines, Jr.; William Barry Wood, Jr.; Frank Clifford Wykoff; True sportsmanship

v4: Brief history of the rise of physical education through the ages; Max Adelbert Baer; James Emory Foxx; Johnny Goodman; Two mighty swimmers; Carl Owen Hubbell; Helen Hull Jacobs; Gene Sarazen; Frank Xavier Shields; William Lawrence Stribling; "Bill" Terry; The two black "flashes"; Virginia Van Wie; Irvin Warburton; Watch your step! Still going strong! Recapitulation

v5: Agressive fighting by L. Atkinson; Wilmer Allison and Donald Budge by J. B. Fenno; James J. Braddock by L. Atkinson; Jerome Herman "Dizzy" Dean by L. Atkinson; Joseph Thomas DiMaggio by H. Kaese; Charles Leo "Gabby" Hartnett by L. Atkinson; Lawrence M. "Larry" Kelley—Clinton "Clint" Frank by R. W. Van Horne; William Lawson Little, jr. by L. Atkinson; James Cleveland "Jesse" Owens by L. Atkinson; Edward William Shore by H. Kaese; Ski jumping by B. C. Bowker; Helen Stephens by H. D. Tuthill; Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman by L. Atkinson

v6: Glenn Cunningham, by J. Nason; Our great Davis cup victory of 1937, by J. B. Fenno; Charles Leonard Gehringer, by H. Kaese; Indoor raquet games, by H. Kaese; Joseph "Joe" Louis, L. Atkinson; Joseph Michael Medwick, by H. Kaese; Katherine Rawls, by J. Nason; Pasadena Rose bowl: the gridiron's house of glamour, by J. Nason; William ("Bill") Sefton and Earle Meadows, by J. Nason; Cecil Smith, by H. Tuthill; Forrest G. Towns, by J. Nason; Rudolph Preston York, by H. Kaese; Recapitulation

v7: Patty Berg, by T. Shehan; Douglas G. Corrigan, by H. Kaese; Frank Dengis, by J. Nason; William B. Dickey, by H. Kaese; Brigadier-General Abner Doubleday, by H. I. Shumway; Robert William Andrew Feller, by J. Nason; Henry Greenberg, by H. Kaese; Ralph Guldahl, by T. Fitzgerald; Donald Ray Lash, by J. Nason; Alice Marble, by J. B. Fenno; Melvin T. Ott, by H. Kaese; Robert L. Riggs, by J. Nason; Sugar bowl and the Orange bowl, by J. Nason; Recapitulation

Farjeon, Eleanor, 1881-

Portrait of a family. Stokes 1936 456p illus $3 920

1 Farjeon family 36-27048

Published in England under title Nursery in the nineties

The author "is the granddaughter of Joe Jefferson. These memoirs offer a charming picture of a late-Victorian childhood (Eleanor was one of four children) and of the lives and romance of her father and mother. The story is dotted with the names of celebrities, including the three Barrymore children, who at one time were playmates of the little Farjeons. It is easy to make friends with this book." New Yorker

Flanner, Janet

American in Paris; profile of an interlude between two wars. Simon & Schuster 1940 415p $2.50 920

1 Biography 2 National characteristics, French (W) 40-7616

Articles written in Paris by an American correspondent, and published first in the "New Yorker" and "Vanity fair." They deal with many personalities including designers of clothes, criminals, Adolf Hitler, Queen Mary of England, Ambassador Bullitt, Isadora Duncan, Edith Wharton and Lily Pons

"This is no mere surface brilliance which flashes its clear light into actualities of art and music and literature and politics and fashion and ambition and the

Flanner, Janet—Continued
dark places of human emotion and conduct. Hers is writing which really does burn with a 'hard, gemlike flame' of sure and sparkling illumination; and behind the cool, bright light there is a profound competence, thorough, selective, unagitated." N.Y. Times

Flexner, James Thomas, 1907-
Doctors on horseback; pioneers of American medicine. Viking 1937 370p illus $2.75 920

1 Medicine—Biography 2 Physicians
(W) 37-28688

Also available in the Star ser. (Garden City pub. co. $1)
Contents: John Morgan; Benjamin Rush; Ephraim McDowell; Daniel Drake; William Beaumont; Crawford W. Long; William T. G. Morton

"Mr. Flexner has chosen seven extraordinary characters for his gallery of portraits, and so sure is his knowledge, so deft his handling, that not only does each come alive with haunting vividness, but the era itself springs into a new and brilliant focus." Sat. rev. of lit.

Fox, Dixon Ryan, 1887- and Schlesinger, Arthur Meier, 1888-
(eds.) Cavalcade of America; illus. by William Sanderson. Bradley 1937 300p illus $2 920

1 Radio plays 2 U.S.—Biography 3 U.S.—History—Addresses, essays, lectures
(W) 38-62

Contents: Pine tree shilling, by O. Molarsky; Benjamin Franklin, by A. Barley; Declaration of independence, by K. Webb; George Washington, the farmer, by K. Seymour; Stars of destiny, by E. Longstreth; Steamboat builders, by E. Longstreth; Golden touch, by E. Longstreth; Abraham Lincoln, by E. R. McGill, D. R. Fox, and K. Webb; Samuel F. B. Morse, by F. Downey, and J. T. W. Martin; Tillers of the soil, by E. Longstreth; Story of rubber, by L. Hammond; Story of dynamite, by I. Osborn, and J. T. W. Martin; Luther Burbank, by O. Molarsky; P. T. Barnum, by L. Hammond; Speed of words, by E. Longstreth; Transcontinental journeys, by E. R. McGill

"The plays have informative value and should be useful in educational work or for general entertainments." Springfield Republican

(eds.) Cavalcade of America, series 2; illus. by William Sanderson. Bradley 1938 353p illus $2 920

1 Radio plays 2 U.S.—Biography 3 U.S.—History—Addresses, essays, lectures
(W) 38-32976

"Collection of stories based on dramatic sketches presented . . . over the radio as 'The Cavalcade of America.'" Acknowledgment

The subjects of this series, each by a different author, are: Charter oak; William Penn; Story of the Constitution; Benjamin Franklin; Junipero Serra; Thomas Jefferson; Louisiana purchase; Nathaniel Bowditch; Francis Scott Key; Heroes of Texas; Mary Lyon; Noah Webster; Sarah Josepha Hale; Elizabeth Blackwell; Edwin Booth; John C. Fremont; "Buffalo Bill"; Edward Livingston Trudeau; Oliver Wendell Holmes; Seeing eye

Gibson, Charles Robert, 1870-1931
Heroes of the scientific world, an account of the lives, sacrifices, successes, and failures of some of the greatest scientists in the world's history. . . Lippincott 1913 343p o.p. 1939 920

1 Scientists [23-10094]

A popular account of some of the greatest scientists, written in a way to appeal to young people. The arrangement is chronological, beginning with Pythagoras. The appendix gives a list of 54 scientists referred to in the text, but most of the space is devoted to a few important ones. These include Roger Bacon, Copernicus, Tycho Brahe, Kepler, Galileo, Newton, Franklin, Priestley, Cavendish, Herschel, John Dalton, Sir Humphrey Davy, Faraday, Darwin, Lord Kelvin and James Clerk-Maxwell

Gosse, Sir Edmund William, 1849-1928
Portraits and sketches. Scribner 1912 296p o.p. 1939 920

1 Authors [13-35067]

Contents: Swinburne; Philip James Bailey; "Orion" Horne; Aubrey De Vere; A first sight of Tennyson; Visit to Whittier; The author of "John Inglesant"; Mandell Creighton; Andrew Lang; Wolcott Balestier; Carl Snoilsky; Eugène Melchior de Vogüé; André Gide

"Vivid, pictorial studies from personal acquaintance, of literary men of varying distinction." N.Y. state lib.

Grattan, Clinton Hartley, 1902-
Three Jameses; a family of minds. . . Longmans 1932 376p illus $3.50 920

1 James family 32-27266

"Henry James, Sr., and his sons William and Henry, are the subjects of this work. The religious, philosophical and literary bents, respectively, of all three, are clearly and skillfully described and analyzed." Providence

Guedalla, Philip, 1889-
Fathers of the revolution. Putnam 1926 302p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 U.S.—History—Revolution—Biography
26-11640

"If dexterity of phrase and good humor, combined with lightly worn scholarship, are qualifications for such a task, Mr Guedalla has made here an excellent beginning. He can make even George III a rather interesting and sympathetic figure. Mr Guedalla has made his Eminent Americans as irresistible as Mr Strachey's 'Eminent Victorians.'" Independent

Hammond, Mrs D. B.
Stories of scientific discovery. Macmillan 1923 199p illus $2.40 920

1 Science—History 2 Scientists [24-26189]

Interesting brief accounts of the lives of eleven of the greatest scientists
Contents: Priestley and Lavoisier and the chemical revolution; Life and adventures of Benjamin Thompson, Count Rumford; William Herschel and the discovery of the planet Uranus; Fabre, poet of science; Faraday and his electrical discoveries; The Curies and the discovery of radium; Darwin and Wallace and the evolutionary theory; Pasteur and his work on germs and inoculations

Hansen, Harry, 1884-

Midwest portraits; a book of memories and friendships. Harcourt 1923 357p o.p. 1939 920

1 Authors, American 23-15084

Character sketches of some Chicago writers with critical comment on their work. Separate chapters are given to Carl Sandburg, Sherwood Anderson, Robert Herrick and Edgar Lee Masters, Lew Sarett, Wallace Smith and Ben Hecht. There is a chapter also on Chicago's literary critics, on the famous round table at Schlogl's, on the magazine "Poetry" and its editor, Harriet Monroe

"Mr Hansen has written a book full of the quality of Midwestern letters and full of the spirit of the Middle West. His informal, unpretending method is one to which these authors, in so many of whom lingers something of the pioneer, yield themselves most readily." New republic

Harrow, Benjamin, 1888-

Eminent chemists of our times. 2d ed enl Van Nostrand 1927 471p illus $3 920

1 Chemistry—History 2 Chemists 27-10572

To the original book, published 1921, has been added a second part of 223 pages, on the work of each of the scientists whose lives were studied in the first part. References have also been added

"Sketches of Perkin, Mendeléeff, Ramsay, Richards, van't Hoff, Arrhenius, Moissan, Mme Curie, Meyer, Remsen and Fischer, from which one gains a clear impression of personalities and also an understanding of the contribution of each one. Written so that the average reader with only an elementary knowledge of the physical sciences can read it. Partly reprinted from the 'Journal of the Franklin institute,' 'Science,' and 'Scientific monthly.' Chapter references. Index." Bkl.

Hathaway, Esse Virginia, 1871-

Book of American presidents. 2d ed McGraw 1933 399p (Whittlesey house publications) $2.50 920

1 Presidents—U.S. 33-32904

Also obtainable in the Star series from Garden City pub. co. at $1 illus by S. B. Schaeffer

"Although this book of American Presidents has been written for young readers, it will provide adults as well with an understanding glimpse of the thirty men who have been our chief magistrates during the past century and a half. Within the brief space of a few pages Miss Hathaway has succeeded in portraying the personality and in describing the problems and the achievements of each of her subjects. She has also included a concise biographical sketch of each President." Boston Transcript

Haynes, Williams, 1886-

Chemical pioneers; the founders of the American chemical industry. Van Nostrand 1939 v 1 illus $2.50 920

1 Chemistry, Technical 2 Chemists 39-17461

Contents: v 1: John Winthrop Jr.; George D. Rosengarten; Martin Kalbfleisch; Alexander Cochrane; James Jay Mapes; Eugene R. Grasselli; George T. Lewis; Lucien C. Warner; Edward Mallinckrodt; August Klipstein; E. C. Klipstein; Martin Dennis; Jacob Hasslacher; John F. Queeny; Frank S. Washburn; Herbert H. Dow

Hendrick, Burton Jesse, 1870-

Lees of Virginia; biography of a family. Little 1935 455p illus $3.75 920

1 Lee, Robert Edward, 1807-1870 2 Lee family 35-18228

"An account of one of the most famous families in American history; leaders in war and government, its members had a wide influence on political and social life. To the two best-known, 'Light Horse Harry' and Robert E. Lee, the author has given rather brief treatment, devoting more space to the other members, and especially to Arthur Lee, who negotiated with various European nations at the time of the Revolution, and is now cleared of the suspicion of treachery." Book rev. digest

Hindle, Wilfrid, 1903-

(ed.) We were there, by twelve foreign correspondents. Putnam 1939 263p $3 920

1 Journalists 39-22005

Twelve British journalists describe their experiences with wars and revolution in Europe and the Far East. Contents: Chinese hot-pot, by O. D. Gallagher; Ordeal in the Mappamondo; or, How to interview Mussolini, by I. S. Munro; Sentimental journey through Palestine, by A. Koestler; Czechoslovakia: operation without anaesthetics, by A. Henderson; Lighter side, by D. Reed; Pilsudski's coup d'état, by D. Gillie; One damn' thing after another, by V. Bartlett; Red army in the Ruhr, by F. A. Voigt; Undone by Mickey Mouse, by H. D. Harrison; Exit the emperor, by G. Steer; Terror in Bengal, by Sir A. Watson; With Franco in Spain, by K. Robson

Hoover, Irwin Hood, 1871-1933

Forty-two years in the White House. Houghton 1934 332p illus $3.50 920

1 Presidents—U.S. 2 Washington, D.C. White house 34-32179

Also obtainable from Houghton in the Eagle edition at $1.45

"Gossipy memoirs of the White House chief usher concerning the eight presidents he knew, their entertaining, their personal idiosyncrasies, and their relations with the White House staf. The publishers state that the book version is entirely distinct from the selections from the memoirs published serially in the 'Saturday Evening Post,' but the difference appears to be chiefly in the editing of the manuscript, which was left unfinished and unrevised. The two versions vary in details." Bkl.

Humphrey, Grace, 1882-

Women in American history. Bobbs 1919 222p $1.75 920

1 U.S.—Biography 2 Woman—Biography 19-8005

Contents: Pocahontas; Anne Hutchinson; Betsy Ross; Mary Lindley Murray; Molly Pitcher; Martha Washington; Jemima Johnson; Sacajawea; Dolly Madison; Lucretia Mott; Harriet Beecher Stowe; Julia Ward Howe; Mary A. Livermore; Barbara Fritchie; Clara Barton; Bibliography

"A useful collection for any library, with good material for women's club papers or for reading by older girls. Written with lively interest in small feminine details." Wis. bul.

Hunter, Allan Armstrong, 1893-

Three trumpets sound: Kagawa—Gandhi—Schweitzer. Assn. press 1939 156p illus $1.50 920

1 Gandhi, Mohandas Karamchand, 1869- 2 Kagawa, Toyohiko, 1888- 3 Schweitzer, Albert, 1875- 39-27734

"His treatment is rather interpretative than biographical. Upon this splendid body of material the author's own mind

Hunter, Allan A.—Continued
has worked with characteristic intelligence and earnestness. The point is that trumpets are supposed to rouse men to action and to advance. Mr. Hunter sees these men not as saints to be revered but as leaders to be followed." Christian century

Husband, Joseph, 1885-
Americans by adoption; brief biographies of great citizens born in foreign lands; with an introduction by W. A. Neilson. Little 1920 153p illus o.p. 1939 920
1 U.S.—Biography 20-10511
"Biographical sketches of notable American citizens of foreign birth—Stephen Girard, John Ericsson, Louis Agassiz, Carl Schurz, Theodore Thomas, Andrew Carnegie, Augustus Saint-Gaudens, Jacob A. Riis. Simply written, clear, inspiring. Addressed primarily to young people." N.Y. state lib.

Hylander, Clarence John, 1897-
American inventors. Macmillan 1934 216p illus $2 920
1 Inventions—History 2 Inventors
34-11090
"Brief, straightforward accounts of 19 of America's leading inventors, from Benjamin Franklin to C. Francis Jenkins (cinema and television) and Lee De Forest (radio), with 18 others referred to in the appendix. Juvenile or adult." Wis. bul

American scientists. Macmillan 1935 186p illus $2 920
1 Science—History 2 Scientists 35-5729
Sketches of the lives and works of twenty-seven American scientists: Benjamin Franklin, Benjamin Thompson; Benjamin Silliman, Alexander Wilson, J. J. Audubon, Joseph Henry, John Torrey, Asa Gray, Louis Agassiz, J. D. Dana, Joseph Leidy, O. C. Marsh, E. D. Cope, Simon Newcomb, Luther Burbank, D. S. Jordan, Irving Langmuir, R. A. Millikan, H. F. Osborn, A. A. Michelson, A. H. Compton, Ira Remsen, T. W. Richards, H. C. Urey, William Beebe, R. C. Andrews, T. H. Morgan
"Mr. Hylander, who has taught science to boys, is very successful in making these biographical accounts both brief and interesting. . . Libraries and schools will welcome a book that is so complete and up to date in content and at the same time so readable." A. T. Eaton in N.Y. Times

Iles, George, 1852-
Leading American inventors. Holt 1912 447p illus (Biographies of leading Americans) o.p. 1939 920
1 Inventions—History 2 Inventors
12-27835
"Sketches of the lives of John and Robert Livingston Stevens, Robert Fulton, Eli Whitney, Thomas Blanchard, Samuel Morse, Charles Goodyear, John Ericsson, Cyrus Hall McCormick, Christopher Latham Sholes, Elias Howe, Benjamin Chew Tilghman, and Ottmar Mergenthaler, with interesting and clear descriptions of their inventions. Portraits, diagrams, index." N.Y. state lib.

Jaffe, Bernard, 1896-
Crucibles; the lives and achievements of the great chemists. Simon & Schuster 1930 377p illus o.p. 1939 920
1 Chemistry—History 2 Chemists
30-16955
Contents: Bernard Trevisan; Theophrastus Paracelsus; John Joachim Becher; Joseph Priestley; Henry Cavendish; Antoine Laurent Lavoisier; John Dalton; John Jacob Berzelius; Amedeo Avogadro; Friedrich Woehler; Dmitri Ivanovitch Mendeléeff; Svante Arrhenius; Marie Sklodowska Curie; Joseph John Thomason; Henry Gwyn Jeffreys Moseley; Irving Langmuir
"The author's attempt at humanizing chemistry has resulted in a readable and often dramatic story. Through the life histories of representative chemists he traces chemistry from the alchemy of the middle ages to its place as a leading science of today." Bkl.
Sources: p354-64

Johnson, Samuel, 1709-1784
Six chief lives from Johnson's "Lives of the poets," with Macaulay's "Life of Johnson"; ed. with a preface and notes by Matthew Arnold. Macmillan 1892 xxvii,463p $1.60 920
1 Poets, English 4-17162
Contents: Life of Johnson; Milton; Dryden; Swift; Addison; Pope; Gray
A complete edition of Johnson's "Lives of the poets" is obtainable in Everyman's library (Dutton 2v ea 90c)

Johnston, Charles Haven Ladd, 1877-
Famous discoverers and explorers of America; their voyages, battles, and hardships in traversing and conquering the unknown territories of a new world. Page 1917 430p illus (Famous leaders ser.) $2 920
1 America—Discovery and exploration
2 Explorers 17-28465
Contents: Leif Ericson; Christopher Columbus; Amerigo Vespucci; Juan Ponce de Leon; Vasco Nuñez de Balboa; Hernando Cortés; Ferdinand Magellan; Giovanni Verrazano; Francisco Pizarro; Hernando de Soto; Samuel de Champlain; Henry Hudson; Pierre Esprit Radisson; Father Marquette; Robert de La Salle; Robert Edwin Peary

Famous frontiersmen and heroes of the border, their adventurous lives and stirring experiences in pioneer days. Page 1913 356p illus (Famous leaders ser.) $2 920
1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Pioneers
13-23502
Contents: Daniel Morgan; James Harrod; Robert McLellan; Colonel Benjamin Logan; George Rogers Clarke; John Slover; Lewis Wetzel; Samuel Colter; Meshack Browning; "Bill" Bent; Thomas Eddie; Jim Bridger; "Old Bill" Williams; "Big Foot" Wallace; Captain Jack Hays; Bill Hamilton; Uncle Job Witherspoon; Henry Shane; Poor Jerry Lane; Song of the moose; Retrospect

Famous scouts, including trappers, pioneers, and soldiers of the frontier; their hazardous and exciting adventures in the mighty drama of the white conquest of the American continent. Page 1910 340p illus (Famous leaders ser.) $2 920
1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Pioneers
3 Scouts and scouting 10-26927
"The adventures of trappers, pioneers and soldiers of the frontier during the period of the wars for the white conquest of the American continent. Includes: Israel Putnam; Daniel Boone; Simon Kenton; Lewis and Clark; Davy Crockett; Kit Carson; William F. Cody and others." Cleveland

Jones, Edgar De Witt, 1876-

American preachers of to-day; intimate appraisals of thirty-two leaders. Bobbs 1933 317p o.p. 1939 920

1 Clergy 33-29523

Thirty-two character sketches of contemporary American preachers of all denominations. Contents: Age of preaching; H. E. Fosdick; M. S. Rice; Peter Ainslie; C. E. Jefferson; S. S. Wise; G. G. Atkins; E. F. Tittle; F. F. Shannon; M. A. Matthews; Burris Jenkins; C. R. Brown; Frederick Cowin; B. C. Clausen; C. E. Coughlin; The brothers Vance—unlimited; L. H. Hough; C. E. Macartney; F. B. Fisher; R. H. Miller; C. B. Emerson; Robert Freeman; W. L. Stidger; J. F. Newton; Reinhold Niebuhr; H. S. Coffin; C. C. Morrison; G. A. Buttrick; G. C. Morgan; G. W. Truett; S. P. Cadman; J. H. Holmes

Josephson, Matthew, 1899-

Robber barons; the great American capitalists, 1861-1901. Harcourt 1934 474p $1.89 920

1 Capitalists and financiers 34-4665

"The men whose fortunes form the subject of this history were the capitalists who seized power in the United States after the Civil war, men who thru their command of capital became commanders of industry and banking and of the government itself. The dominating figures of this era and this book are Jay Gould, the Vanderbilts, J. P. Morgan, Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, James J. Hill, Collis P. Huntington, E. H. Harriman, Henry C. Frick, and others." Book rev. digest

Laut, Agnes Christina, 1871-1936

Pathfinders of the West. . . Macmillan 1904 xxv,380p illus maps $2.50 920

1 Explorers 2 The West—Discovery and exploration 4-33584

"The thrilling story of the adventures of the men who discovered the great Northwest: Radisson, La Vérendrye, Lewis and Clark. Illustrations by Remington, Goodwin, Marchand and others." Subtitle

"Not merely authentic, founded on original documents, but vivified by the touch of an artist." Dial

Law, Frederick Houk, 1871-

* Modern great Americans; short biographies of twenty great Americans of modern times who won wide recognition for achievements in various types of activity. Appleton-Century 1926 286p illus $2, student's ed $1.25 920

1 U.S.—Biography 26-18144

Brief but useful biographies of twenty Americans of modern times

Contents: Alexander Graham Bell; Luther Burbank; John Burroughs; Andrew Carnegie; Alexis Carrel; Samuel Langhorne Clemens (Mark Twain); Thomas Alva Edison; George Washington Goethals; William Crawford Gorgas; Albert Abraham Michelson; Robert Andrews Millikan; Robert Edwin Peary; John Joseph Pershing; Theodore William Richards; Theodore Roosevelt; Elihu Root; John Singer Sargent; Henry Van Dyke; Woodrow Wilson; Wilbur and Orville Wright

Lee, Sir Sidney, 1859-1926

Great Englishmen of the sixteenth century. Harrap 1925 327p (Harrap lib.) 3s 6d 920

1 Great Britain—Biography 2 Renaissance 26-2064

Contents: The spirit of the sixteenth century; Sir Thomas More; Sir Philip Sidney; Sir Walter Raleigh; Edmund Spenser; Francis Bacon; Shakespeare's career; Foreign influences on Shakespeare

Bibliography at end of each chapter

Lewis, Oscar, 1893-

The big four. . . Knopf 1938 418p illus $4.50 920

1 Central Pacific railroad 2 Crocker, Charles, 1822-1888 3 Hopkins, Mark, 1813-1878 4 Huntington, Collis Potter, 1821-1900 5 Stanford, Leland, 1824-1893 (W) 38-18366

Story of the building of the Central Pacific, told by means of biographical sketches of Huntington, Stanford, Hopkins, Crocker, Judah and Colton who influenced the railroad history in the Far West in the last half of the nineteenth century

Published serially in a shortened version under the title "Men against mountains" in the Atlantic monthly

Ludwig, Emil, 1881-

Genius and character; tr. by Kenneth Burke. Harcourt 1927 346p illus $1.49 920

1 Biography 27-22943

Contents: Frederick the Great; Baron vom Stein; Bismarck; Stanley; Peters; Rhodes; Wilson; Rathenau; Lenin; Leonardo da Vinci; Shakespeare; Rembrandt's self-portrait; Voltaire in eighteen tableaux; Lord Byron and Lassalle; Goethe and Schiller; Dehmel; Balzac; Portrait of an officer

"This is not a ponderous book; it is a series of vivacious and sometimes very moving studies. It reminds us of much that we had forgotten, and introduces us to some people who were but hearsay before." Spectator

Nine etched from life. . . McBride 1934 383p $3 920

1 Europe—Politics—1914- 2 Statesmen 34-27132

Published in England under title: Leaders of Europe

Contents: Nansen, the Nordic philanthropist; Masaryk, the Slav philanthropist; Briand, the French European; Rathenau, the German European; Motta, the Swiss European; Lloyd George, the British Odysseus; Venizelos, the Greek Odysseus; Mussolini, the Italian autocrat; Stalin, the Russian autocrat

"Each of the portraits contains an interview. These are not the interviews of the daily journalist whose eye is fixed on the front page and to-day's reactions to what will be tomorrow's main topic of discussion throughout the world. Mr. Ludwig's interviews are superjournalism. Behind the questions and answers you will find the character of the man. . . The etching of Dr. Walther Rathenau is probably the best work in this book. It penetrates the psychology of the man, portrays his character, explains his behavior." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Three portraits: Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin. Alliance bk. 1940 127p illus $1.50 920

1 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 2 Mussolini, Benito, 1883- 3 Stalin, Iosif, 1879- (W) 40-7959

"Two of the European dictators I know from personal conversations, the third by description. I am against all three, because they are all against freedom. . . I am interested in their characters, since our fate today depends in part on them." Foreword

"He reiterates their past, their appearance, their effect on the journalist interviewer. He dislikes Hitler intensely and likes Mussolini with reservations, so that the most interesting portrait remains that of Stalin." Book-of-the-month club news

Lyons, Eugene, 1898-
(ed.) We cover the world; by fifteen foreign correspondents. Harcourt 1937 441p $1.49 920

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 37-27346

A collection of articles by sixteen American foreign correspondents in which the writers tell of episodes and experiences in their careers. The articles are prefaced by biographical sketches of the writers. Contents: We cover the world, by E. Lyons; Scoop-hunting around the world, by J. A. Mills; Sky's the limit, by K. von Wiegand; I capture Vladivostok, by F. Hunt; Rape of Ethiopia, by L. Wells; Indian hate lyric, by N. Farson; Ten years in the Orient, by H. Abend; Do dictators die in bed?, by J. B. Wood; My Russian education, by W. H. Chamberlin; Nations in straitjackets, by G. Seldes; Girl reporter in Paris, by M. Knight; One must know Japan, by F. H. Hedges; China in revolt, by R. Gould; Mexico: land of manana, by J. Starr-Hunt; A reporter aloft, by H. R. Ekins; Persian interlude, by E. Lyons; Little world war in Spain, by W. Miller

Macpherson, Hector Copland, 1888-
Makers of astronomy. Oxford 1933 244p illus (Makers of science ser.) $2.50 920

1 Astronomers 2 Astronomy—History 33-23635

"Based on the 'Elder lectures' delivered at Royal Technical College, Glasgow, in the winters of 1930-1 and 1931-2. Published in the hope that it may serve not only as a popular introduction to the life work of the chief modern astronomers but also as a book of reference containing information not readily accessible to the general reader." Preface

"Apart from its utility for reference purposes the book, by virtue of its arrangement, gives a coherent picture of the development of ideas and knowledge during the four centuries which have elapsed since Copernicus set astronomical knowledge on the right track by dethroning the geocentric system of cosmogony." Times (London) lit. sup.

Makers of Christianity. Holt 1934-37 3v v 1 $2.50, text ed $1.75, v2 o.p. 1939 v3 $2 920

1 Christian biography 2 Church history 34-36057

Contents: v 1 From Jesus to Charlemagne, by S. J. Case; v2 From Alfred the Great to Schleiermacher, by J. T. McNeill; v3 From John Cotton to Lyman Abbott, by W. W. Sweet

"Professor Case has done a service as valuable as it is difficult in presenting in vivid and compact form the making of Christianity as revealed in its makers. . . On the purely biographical side, the stories are revealingly and, for all their brevity, often movingly told." Journal of philosophy

Bibliography at the end of each volume

Mann, Thomas, 1875-
Freud, Goethe, Wagner. Knopf 1937 211p $2 920

1 Freud, Sigmund, 1856-1939 2 Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von, 1749-1832 3 Wagner, Richard 1813-1883 37-28599

"These essays are in the highest sense stimulating and suggestive. . . They are not so much interpretations, or at any rate fresh appraisals, as they are a kind of brilliant exposition of what has already been implied or known. Their worst trouble . . . is that they use one tone for praise, a much quieter one for fault-finding, with an effect that can easily be misleading." N.Y. Times

Marble, Mrs Annie (Russell) 1864-
Nobel prize winners in literature, 1901-1931. rev ed Appleton-Century 1932 441p illus $3.50 920

1 Authors . 2 Literature—History and criticism 3 Nobel prizes 32-8059

This edition of a book first published in 1925, includes new chapters on Shaw, Grazia Deledda, Bergson, Sigrid Undset, Thomas Mann, Sinclair Lewis, and Erik Karlfeldt

"The essays on the various winners of the award, while they have small literary value, will prove useful to literary clubs desiring Nobel prize programs, and handy to students because of their compact biographical information and their bibliographies." Sat. rev. of lit.

Marcosson, Isaac Frederick, 1876-
Turbulent years. Dodd 1938 497p illus $3.50 920

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 World politics (W) 38-27947

"The present volume spans the era from 1919 to my retirement from the writing staff of 'The Saturday Evening Post' in 1936. It is an attempt to recapture the momentous history of those turbulent times in terms of many of the world personalities who helped to make that history." Foreword

Partial contents: Stinnes; Match king; Japanese emperor; Hindenburg; Mussolini; Calles; Dictators all; French big three; Rathenau, Stresemann, and Brüning; Trotsky; MacDonald and Baldwin

Massingham, Harold John, 1888- and Massingham, Hugh (eds.) Great Victorians. Doubleday 1932 xxi,507p o.p. 1939 920

1 English literature—History and criticism 2 Great Britain—Biography 3 Great Britain—Intellectual life 32-28152

"Forty short biographies of eminent men and women, writers, statesmen and others, whose lives added luster to the Victorian age. Edmund Blunden writes of Matthew Arnold, Rebecca West of Charlotte Brontë, Clemence Dane of Lewis Carroll, V. Sackville West of George Eliot, Siegfried Sassoon of Thomas Hardy, H. M. Tomlinson of R. L. Stevenson. An outstanding book." Ontario library review

Mathews, Basil Joseph, 1879-
Book of missionary heroes. Harper 1922 280p $1.50 920

1 Missionaries 22-6832

"Stories of Christian missionaries from Paul to those of modern times, grouped under Pioneers; Island adventures; Pathfinders of Africa; Heroines and heroes of plateau and desert. Incidents are forcefully told; descriptions picturesque." Cleveland

Men of turmoil; biographies by leading authorities of the dominating personalities of our day. Putnam 1935 376p $3.75 920

1 Biography 35-27119

Published in England under title: Great contemporaries

Short biographical sketches of thirty-seven outstanding contemporary men. Partial contents: Franklin D. Roosevelt, by E. K. Lindley; Mussolini, by Sir C. Petrie; Marshal Lyautey, by A. Maurois; His Highness the Aga Khan, by H. C. Armstrong; Lawrence of Arabia, by L. Hart; George Bernard Shaw, by J. Bridie; Sigmund Freud, by J. L. Gray; Albert Einstein, by J. W. N. Sullivan; Chaliapin, by W. J. Turner; Jacob Epstein, by L. Golding;

Men of turmoil—Continued
Ramsay MacDonald, by R. Bernays; Paderewski, by B. Maine; Arturo Toscanini, by F. Toye; Dr Albert Schweitzer, by M. Royden; Henri Bergson, by E. Wingfield-Stratford; Havelock Ellis, by L. Hogben; Jean Sibelius, by H. C. Colles; His Holiness Pius XI, by C. C. Martindale, S. J.
"Reward for the discriminating reader will be found in many of the essays, particularly those on Ford, Lloyd George, Hitler, Paderewski and T. E. Lawrence." Saturday rev.

Mersey, Clive Bigham, 2d viscount, 1872-
Prime ministers of Britain, 1721-1921; with a supplementary chapter to 1924. 4th ed Dutton 1924 384p illus $3.75 920

1 Great Britain—Prime ministers [25-9310]

"His volume is a perfect treasure-house of good things, well and appositely set forth, in regard to the leading statesmen of the last two centuries. . . If anybody with a sense of history wants a truly delightful piece of historical writing, plenteous without being stodgy, here is his chance." Spectator
Bibliography, p369-74

Viscount C. B. Mersey's "Chief ministers of England, 920-1720" (Dutton 1923 422p illus $8) is a scholarly work treating of the lives of twenty-seven ministers of an earlier period

Minnigerode, Meade, 1887-
Lives and times; four informal American biographies. . . Putnam 1925 215p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 U.S.—Biography 25-6392

Contents: Stephen Jumel, merchant; William Eaton, hero; Theodosia Burr, prodigy; Edmond Charles Genêt, citizen
"All four of the portraits deal with the closing years of the eighteenth century and the opening of the nineteenth, and all of them serve to cast a more or less brilliant light on the development of social, moral, and political America." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Moore, Virginia, 1903-
Distinguished women writers. Dutton 1934 253p $3 920

1 Authors 2 Poets 3 Woman—Biography 34-30698

Biographical and critical sketches of Marie Bashkirtseff; Madame de Sevigné; Christina Rossetti; Dorothy Wordsworth; Sappho; George Sand; Jane Austen; Emily Brontë; Charlotte Brontë; Saint Teresa; Emily Dickinson; Alice Meynell; Elizabeth Barrett Browning; Charlotte Mew; George Eliot; Elinor Wylie; Katherine Mansfield
"In her presentation of [these authors], Miss Moore has soundly evaluated their contribution to literature, awarding her praise and her censure with unprejudiced taste. . . Not the least virtue of Miss Moore's book is the care which has so obviously gone into the selection of quotations. These excerpts from the authors whom she considers do much to make the volume what it is: a stimulating collection of literary portraits." Sat. rev. of lit.

Moran, Thomas Francis, 1866-1928
American presidents; their individualities and their contributions to American progress. new ed rev and enl by L. M. Sears. Crowell 1933 318p illus $2.50 920

1 Presidents—U.S. 33-5926

"Character sketches of the presidents of the United States, and of some who might have been presidents, from 1789 to the present time; with a chapter on the ethics of presidential campaigns." St Louis

Morgan, James, 1861-
‡ Our presidents; brief biographies of our chief magistrates. new rev ed Macmillan 1935 398p illus $2 920

1 Presidents—U.S. 35-31920

To the last edition, published 1926, the new edition adds material on the last two years of the Coolidge administration, the Hoover and Roosevelt terms of office to 1935
"Combined in these brief, popular summaries of all the presidents from Washington to Coolidge, are sketches of the personalities of the men, something of their intimate home-life and the salient features of each administration. Especially useful in school libraries. Photographic illustrations." N.Y. state lib.

Morison, Samuel Eliot, 1887-
Builders of the Bay colony. Houghton 1930 365p illus map $5 920

1 Massachusetts—Biography 2 Puritans A30-1055

"Biographical sketches of John Winthrop, Henry Dunster, John Eliot, Anne Bradstreet and others who had a part in Boston's early history." Wis. bul.
"Prof. Morison's chapters are written with unfailing spirit and often with brilliance. Originally intended for delivery as lectures, they employ some phrases of today for illustrative effect, but never cheaply or irrelevantly. By linking a general subject with a single personality or group of personalities, Prof. Morison makes his interpretation of Puritan life easier to comprehend and remember." Springfield Republican
Bibliography: p347-55

New Yorker
Profiles from the New Yorker; with a preface by Clifton Fadiman. Knopf 1938 400p $3 920

1 U.S.—Biography (W) 38-28911

Contains sketches of the following: Anna Lonergan; Maury H. B. Paul; Hymie Katz; Frank Hague; Rita Ross; Vincent Astor; Jim Londos; Georgia O'Keefe; The Rt. Rev. William T. Manning; S. Klein; Father Divine; Dr Nicholas Murray Butler; Elsa Schiaparelli; Queen Mary; Floyd B. Odlum; Harpo Marx; Robert Moses; Henry Robinson Luce; Samuel S. Leibowitz; Elizabeth Arden; George M. Cohan; Darryl Francis Zanuck; Fanny Holtzmann
"These profiles have pertinence and value for what they show of contemporary history. There is an impish mastery of unuttered revealment about these things, indeed, which gives them a fresh interest in repeated reading." N.Y. Times

Oliphant, Mrs Margaret Oliphant (Wilson) 1828-1897
Makers of Florence; Dante, Giotto, Savonarola, and their city; with portrait of Savonarola engraved by C. H. Jeens and illus. from drawings by Professor Delamotte. Macmillan 1897 xx,422p illus $4.25 920

1 Florence—Biography 2-2523

Studies of Dante, Arnolfo, Giotto, Ghiberti, Donatello, Brunelleschi, Agnolo, Fra Angelico, Antonino, Savonarola, Fra Bartolommeo, Michael Angelo

Oman, Sir Charles William Chadwick, 1860-
Seven Roman statesmen of the later republic. . . Longmans 1902 348p illus $2.50 920

1 Rome—Biography [3-1908]

Contents: Later days of the Roman republic; Tiberius Gracchus; Caius Gracchus; From the Gracchi to Sulla; Sulla; Crassus; Cato; Pompey; Caesar

"Makes a trite subject not only interesting, but often new, by his insight, lively style and independence of his judgments." Athenaeum

Osborn, Henry Fairfield, 1857-1935
Impressions of great naturalists. . . 2d ed completely rev with additions and new illus Scribner 1928 294p illus $1 920

1 Naturalists 28-25538

Contents: Characteristics of great naturalists; Charles Darwin; Alfred Russel Wallace; Thomas Henry Huxley; Joseph Leidy; Edward Drinker Cope; Louis Pasteur; Francis Maitland Balfour; James Bryce; Howard Crosby Butler; The two Johns, John Burroughs and John Muir; Theodore Roosevelt; Biographies by the author

Peattie, Donald Culross, 1898-
‡ Green laurels; the lives and achievements of the great naturalists. Garden City pub. co. xxiii,368p illus maps $1.79 920

1 Naturalists 38-27689

Reprint of a book published 1936 by Simon & Schuster

Partial contents: Science at court—Buffon and Réaumur; The life and work of Linnaeus; A chevalier in science: Lamarck; Anatomist against dreamer: Cuvier and Lamarck; Wilderness birdsmen: Wilson and Audubon; Frontier utopians: Say, Rafinesque, and others; Ultimate isles: Darwin and Wallace; Fabre and the epic commonplace. Illustrated with photographs. Bibliography

"There is a lightness of touch in 'Green Laurels' which does not preclude a masterly presentation of facts. Indeed, one is amazed at the amount of knowledge, acquired by years of preparation, which is so deftly and brilliantly interpreted." Scientific book club review

Plutarch
* Plutarch's lives of illustrious men; corrected from the Greek and rev. by A. H. Clough. Little 787p $4 920

1 Greece—Biography 2 Rome—Biography 21-3462

"The translation of the Lives here presented is that known as Dryden's . . . a reprint of the text as it appears in the edition in five volumes, published in 1859 by Little, Brown, & Co." Preface

"This writer, one of the most celebrated of antiquity, lived in the first century of our era. The work that has immortalized his name, and made him a favorite with wise men and promising youth, is the lives of forty-six Greeks and Romans. These lives he wrote in pairs, portraying one Greek and one Roman, and then drawing a comparison between them. . . Among the most delightful sketches ever written." C. K. Adams

Other good editions are:

Dodd o.p. 1939 Has title: "Everybody's Plutarch" arranged and ed. by R. T. Bond. Includes 27 lives. No notes, no illustrations. Follows Clough's revision of Dryden's translation

Dutton 3v ea 90c Everyman's library edition following Clough's revision of Dryden's translation

Modern lib. $1.25 Complete edition in the Modern library giants following the Clough revision of Dryden's translation. No notes, no illustrations

Nelson $1 Has title: "Plutarch's lives for boys and girls" retold by W. H. Weston. Includes 11 lives. Illustrations in color

Prindiville, Kathleen
First ladies; decorations by Undine Dunn. Macmillan 1932 257p illus $2 920

1 Presidents—U.S.—Wives 2 U.S.—Biography 3 Woman—Biography 32-30371

Short biographical sketches of the wives of the presidents of the United States, beginning with Martha Washington and including Mrs Hoover

"Each chapter is written in a different vein as each lady is considered, but it is all breezy and interesting, and tends to show that the influence of those 'first ladies' was a real one in each administration. The book is illustrated with charming silhouettes which the artist, Undine Dunn, produced after delving in old records for accuracy." Springfield Republican

Sources: p 245-57

Roeder, Ralph, 1890-
Man of the renaissance; four lawgivers: Savonarola, Machiavelli, Castiglione, Aretino. Viking 1933 540p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 Aretino, Pietro, 1492-1556 2 Castiglione, Baldassare, conte, 1478-1529 3 Machiavelli, Niccolò, 1469-1527 4 Renaissance 5 Savonarola, Girolamo Maria Francesco Matteo, 1452-1498 33-36995

The author "takes four figures of the renaissance as illustrating four phases of the moral life of their age. The asceticism of Savonarola, the expediency of Machiavelli, the conviviality of Castiglione and the sensuality of Aretino, taken together, compose the man of the renaissance." Book rev. digest

Ross, Ishbel
* Ladies of the press; the story of women in journalism by an insider. Harper 1936 622p illus $3.75 920

1 Journalism 2 Women as journalists (W) 36-19813

"Chronicle of the newspaper women of America, from the flamboyant beginnings, thru the stunt era, the sob sister era, the suffrage era, the tabloid era, and the personalities of the present day. Photographs of some prominent members of the profession on end papers." Book rev. digest

It is difficult to see how such pioneer work as this, in so broad a subject, could have been done with more sustained interest and vitality." N.Y. Times

Rourke, Constance Mayfield, 1885-
Trumpets of jubilee. . . Harcourt 1927 445p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 U.S.—Biography 27-9542

Contents: Lyman Beecher; Harriet Beecher Stowe; Henry Ward Beecher; Horace Greeley; P. T. Barnum; Epilogue; Note on sources; Index

"Miss Rourke has written a highly entertaining volume—abundantly illustrated—which throws a great deal of light on the social history of nineteenth-century America by studying the lives of a number of the most popular figures." Times (London) lit. sup.

Russell, Oland D.

House of Mitsui. Little 1939 328p illus $4 920

1 Mitsui family 39-27690

An account of one of the greatest of the five great Japanese industrial families. "In the eleven generations of Mitsuis since the business house was founded by the patrician turned saké brewer, the family has been a dominant and at times the dominant factor in the economic growth of Japan. Practically every enterprise that the family has touched—shipping, heavy industry, munitions, mining and banking—has turned into gold." N.Y. Times

Sackville-West, Victoria Mary, 1892-

Pepita. Doubleday 1937 309p illus $3 920

1 Duran y Ortega, Josefa, 1830-1872 2 Sackville, Victoria Josefa Sackville-West, baroness, 1862-1936 3 Sackville-West family (W) 37-28439

"The first part of this family memoir tells the story of the author's grandmother, a Spanish dancer of rare beauty, who was the mistress of an English diplomat, Sir Lionel Sackville-West, later Lord Sackville. The second part is the story of Pepita's daughter who married her cousin, the third Lord Sackville." Book rev. digest

"This delightful book is divided into two parts. . . Both are fascinating, the first for a true, though complicated, narrative which, if invented by a novelist, would be deemed incredible; and the second for its life-like picture of a woman of whom Rudyard Kipling wrote: 'On mature reflection the most wonderful person I have ever met.'" Times (London) lit. sup.

Sainte-Beuve, Charles Augustin, 1804-1869

Portraits of the seventeenth century, historic and literary; tr. by K. P. Wormeley. Putnam 2v in 1 o.p. 1939 920

1 Authors, French 2 France—Biography [4-29701]

Reprint of the edition issued in 1904 in two volumes

Contents: v 1: Cardinal de Richelieu; Henri, duc de Rohan; Cardinal Mazarin; François duc de la Rochefoucauld; Anne-Geneviève de Bourbon; Cardinal de Retz; Mademoiselle de l'Enclos; Tallemant des Réaux and Bussy-Rabutin; Abbé de Rance; Anne-Geneviève de Bourbon; Marie-Madeleine de la Vergne; Henrietta Anne of England; Louis XIV; Louis de la Beaume le Blanc

v2: History of the French academy; Corneille; Mademoiselle de Scudéry; Molière; La Fontaine; Pascal; Madame de Sévigné; Bossuet; Boileau; Racine; Madame de Caylus; Fénelon; Comte Antoine Hamilton; Princesse des Ursins

"In these volumes—taken from the 'Causeries du lundi,' the 'Portraits de femmes,' and the 'Portraits littéraires,'—some passages have been omitted; these relate chiefly to editions that have long since passed away, or to discussions on style that cannot be made clear in English. Also, where two or more essays on the same person have appeared in the different series, they are here put together, omitting repetitions." Translator's note

C. A. Sainte-Beuve's "Portraits of the eighteenth century, historic and literary; with a critical introduction by Edmond Scherer" (Putnam 1905 2v o.p. 1939) supplements the study of the earlier period

Salter, John Thomas

(ed.) American politician. Univ. of N.C. press 1938 412p illus $3.50 920

1 Politics, Practical 2 Statesmen, American 3 U.S.—Biography 4 U.S.—Politics and government (W) 38-36015

Contains biographies by various authors of the following: F. H. La Guardia; A. H. Vandenberg; P. V. McNutt; G. W. Norris; R. F. Wagner; M. E. Tydings; R. M. La Follette, jr; M. Maverick; A. B. Chandler; J. L. Lewis; J. A. Farley; N. M. Thomas; D. W. Hoan; S. D. Wilson; S. Levitan; J. Sickler; A. Brancato; R. Heuck; T. McIntyre

"Being a bulky compendium of information and opinion about plenty of politicians for a single course in political science, it contains at least 200 pages of fascinating reading, some of the best of which is contributed by Dr. Salter himself." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Seager, Allan, 1906-

They worked for a better world; illus. by Theodore Haupt. Macmillan 1939 123p illus (Peoples library) 60c 920

1 U.S.—Biography (W) 39-27270

Contents: They wanted things better; Roger Williams; Thomas Paine; Ralph Waldo Emerson; Elizabeth Cady Stanton; Edward Bellamy; Where are they now?

"Undistinguished but interesting biographical sketches." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Seitz, Don Carlos, 1862-1935

The "also rans"; great men who missed making the presidential goal; with eighteen portraits and fourteen cartoons. Crowell 1928 xxiv,356p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 U.S.—Biography 2 U.S.—Politics and government 28-7781

Contents: Aaron Burr; William H. Crawford; John C. Calhoun; Henry Clay; Lewis Cass; Daniel Webster; Winfield Scott; John C. Fremont; Stephen A. Douglas; William H. Seward; George B. McClellan; Horatio Seymour; Horace Greeley; Samuel J. Tilden; Winfield Scott Hancock; James G. Blaine; Benjamin F. Butler; William Jennings Bryan; Index

"For the most part the author tells his stories straightforwardly with few intrusions of personal opinion. He gives a complete sketch of each subject and has produced a book that is a useful addition to collective biography." Wis. bul.

Uncommon Americans; pencil portraits of men and women who have broken the rules. Bobbs 1925 328p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 U.S.—Biography 25-18477

Contents: Joseph Smith; Brigham Young; Martin Scott; Lord Timothy Dexter; Peter Cartwright; Charles Finney; Israel Putnam; Nathan Forrest; John Mosby; Susan Anthony; Red Jacket; George Train; Tecumseh; Ethan Allen; James Whistler; Edmund Fanning; John Ledyard; Hinton Helper; Henry George; Mary Baker Eddy; Edwin Forrest; David Crockett

"All these figures are picturesque and they are all 'humanized' in Mr Seitz's pages." Review of reviews

Sergeant, Elizabeth Shepley, 1881-
Fire under the Andes; a group of North American portraits; with camera portraits by E. O. Hoppé. Knopf 1927 331p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 U.S.—Biography 27-5413

"Miss Sergeant takes her title from Emerson's 'We must not only have hydrogen in balloons, and steel springs under coaches, but we must have fire under the Andes at the core of the world.' Regarding every one of her subjects as cosmos composed of spirit and matter and achievement, Miss Sergeant has attempted to penetrate to the core of each and make visible, by her gift of words, the nature of its central fire. The fourteen she has chosen are: Amy Lowell, Robert Edmond Jones, William Alanson White (the director of St. Elizabeth's Hospital), William Allen White, Eugene O'Neill, Elinor Wylie, Charles Townsend Copeland, Pauline Lord, Paul Robeson, Alice Hamilton ('Scientist in Armour'), H. L. Mencken, Willa Cather, Robert Frost and Oliver Wendell Holmes of the United States Supreme Court." N.Y. World

Sforza, Carlo, conte, 1872-
Makers of modern Europe; portraits and personal impressions and recollections. Bobbs 1930 420p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 Europe—Biography 2 Statesmen 30-11465

" 'Portraits, personal impressions, and recollections' by a diplomat of long standing, the former Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs. He writes with humor, fairness and an engaging style of the many statesmen and royal personages he has known. Some of his subjects are: Foch, Lloyd George, Mussolini, Lenin, Lord Curzon, Diaz, Pius XI, Pilsudski and King Albert of Belgium. Numerous photographs." Cleveland

Simonds, Frank Herbert, 1878-1936
They won the war. Harper 1931 109p o.p. 1939 920

1 European war, 1914-1918—Biography 2 Generals 31-30531

Contents: Pershing—he made the A.E.F.; Foch, marshal of victory; Petain, soldier of Verdun; Haig, "the perfect ally"; Joffre, the miracle of the Marne; Ludendorff—he almost won

"This little collection of thumb-nail sketches of six of its great commanders bears the authenticity of intimate knowledge of them and their records and of the judicial mind of the scholar which aims only to arrive at a true and just estimate of careers and services." N.Y. Times

Skinner, Otis, 1858-
Mad folk of the theatre; ten studies in temperament. Bobbs 1928 297p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 Actors 2 Actresses 28-8960

"Beginning with the times of Samuel Pepys, Mr. Skinner has given us gay sketches of some of the ne'er-do-wells of the English stage. In telling the stories of these madcaps, he touches on many of their more dignified companions in art, and a very full description of the persons and work of these artists is acquired." Chicago

"Mr. Skinner's book is delightfully illustrated and his style is as easy, humorous and unaffected as his subjects are engaging." Theatre arts monthly

Spencer, Cornelia
* Three sisters; the story of the Soong family of China; illus. by Kurt Wiese. Day 1939 279p illus $2 920

1 Chiang, Mme Mei-ling (Sung) 1892- 2 K'ung, Mme Ai-ling (Sung) 1888- 3 Soong family 4 Sun, Mme Ch'ing-ling (Sung) 1890- (W) 39-27472

This is the story of Ai-ling, Ching-ling and Mei-ling, all members of a famous Chinese family. They were all educated in the United States and each one is an outstanding leader in China's crisis. Told in fiction form, but based on fact

"With skill and earnestness, the author has woven her threads into one picture in such a way as to keep, and emphasize, individual character and contrast. . . . Primarily planned for young people, but it is by no means to be classed as a 'juvenile' book. It has the clarity and sympathy of a popular novel, and its characters, events and historic significance hold a pressing general interest." N.Y. Times

Stephen, Sir Leslie, 1832-1904
Studies of a biographer. Duckworth 1898-1902 4v ea 3s 6d 920

1 Authors, English 2 Biography 3 Great Britain—Biography [6-39619]

Formerly carried also by Putnam

Contents: v1, National biography; Evolution of editors; John Byrom; Johnsoniana; Gibbon's autobiography; Arthur Young; Wordsworth's youth. v2, Story of Scott's ruin; Importation of German; Matthew Arnold; Jowett's life; Oliver Wendell Holmes; Life of Tennyson; Pascal. v3, The Browning letters; John Donne; John Ruskin; William Godwin's novels; Walter Bagehot; Thomas Henry Huxley; James Anthony Froude; In praise of walking. v4, Shakespeare as a man; Southey's letters; New lights on Milton; Emerson; Anthony Trollope; Robert Louis Stevenson; The cosmopolitan spirit in literature

Stowe, Lyman Beecher, 1880-
Saints, sinners and Beechers. Bobbs 1934 450p illus $3.75 920

1 Beecher, Henry Ward, 1813-1887 2 Beecher family 3 Stowe, Mrs Harriet Elizabeth (Beecher) 1811-1896 34-7761

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1

"The author, a grandson of Harriet Beecher Stowe, writes lightly and entertainingly but with sincere respect for the distinguished family that has been subject for ironic treatment at the hands of recent biographers. Particularly interesting are his accounts of Catherine Beecher who did so much for the education of women (she founded what is now Milwaukee-Downer College in Wisconsin) and of the writing of 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' " Wis. bul.

Strachey, Giles Lytton, 1880-1932
Eminent Victorians. . . Putnam 1918 351p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 Great Britain—Biography 19-16749

Contents: Cardinal Manning; Florence Nightingale; Dr Arnold; General Gordon

"The portrait that suggests most doubt is that of Dr Arnold of Rugby. . . The details in Mr Strachey's essay may all be correct . . . but the perspective is all wrong, and the result is caricature. . . . The pictures of Cardinal Manning and Florence Nightingale are as distinguished as they are unconventional, and the story of the long tragedy of the mission and death of Gordon is a very fine piece of historical writing." Spectator

"Infused with sketches of almost Gibbonesque irony, these biographical studies of four distinguished and famous personages present them in aspects which are more or less familiar." Athenaeum

Strachey, Giles L.—Continued
Portraits in miniature, and other essays. Harcourt 1931 214p o.p. 1939 920

1 Biography 2 Historians 31-19770

Available from Chatto for 6s

Contents: Sir John Harington; Muggleton; John Aubrey; Life, illness, and death of Dr North; Congreve, Collier, Macaulay, and Mr Summers; Madame de Sévigné's cousin; Sad story of Dr Colbatch; President De Brosses; James Boswell; Abbé Morellet; Mary Berry; Madame De Lieven; Six English historians: Hume, Gibbon, Macaulay, Carlyle, Froude, Creighton

"Mr. Strachey's studies of these little men and women, mainly of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, give us perhaps a better understanding of their times than would any vignette of the great (who, for that matter, customarily refuse to be vignetted.)" Sat. rev. of lit.

Strickland, Agnes, 1796-1874
Lives of the queens of England from the Norman conquest. Bell, G. 6v (Bohn's historical lib.) o.p. 1939 920

1 Great Britain—Queens 4-17361

Formerly carried also by Macmillan. First published in 12v, 1840-48

From Matilda of Flanders to the wives of Henry VIII

"Not . . . of great historical value. The author was moved by strong partialities." C. K. Adams

Turnbull, Herbert Westren, 1885-
Great mathematicians. . . Methuen 1929 128p illus 3s 6d, school ed 2s 9d 920

1 Mathematicians 2 Mathematics—History 30-23672

"The history and spirit of mathematics is shown briefly in the lives of its leaders in different periods. Not burdened with notations and symbolism, but nevertheless requiring a mathematical background for its enjoyment." Cleveland

Suggestions for further reading: Pref. p8

Umbreit, Kenneth Bernard
Our eleven chief justices; a history of the Supreme court in terms of their personalities. Harper 1938 539p illus $3.75 920

1 Judges—U.S. 2 U.S. Supreme court 3 U.S. Supreme court—Biography (W) 38-27973

Contents: J. Jay; J. Rutledge; O. Ellsworth; J. Marshall; R. B. Taney; S. P. Chase; M. R. Waite; M. W. Fuller; E. D. White; W. H. Taft; C. E. Hughes; Bibliography

"His style has the clarity and sweet reasonableness of the best legal writing, and in addition he has that sense of individual personal values which lawyers are . . . likely to possess." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Van Buskirk, William Riley
Saviors of mankind. Macmillan 1929 537p $3 920

1 Prophets 2 Religions—Biography 29-20808

Contents: Lao-Tze; Confucius; Gautama; Zoroaster; Aakhnaton; Moses; Isaiah of Babylon; Socrates; Jesus of Nazareth; Saul of Tarsus; Mahomet

"The author presents the historical and the social backgrounds of the founders of the great religions. His sympathetic treatment serves to enhance their individuality and at the same time to show the underlying unity of all faiths." Pittsburgh

Walton, Izaak, 1593-1683
Lives of Dr John Donne, Sir Henry Wotton, Sir Richard Hooker, George Herbert & Dr Robert Sanderson; with an introduction by George Saintsbury. Oxford 1927 426p (World's classics) 80c 920

1 Authors, English 33-31955

"His heroes were mainly churchmen distinguished for their piety. Charming is the word to characterize his portraits of Hooker and Herbert and Donne. . . No one could ask for a more satisfactory biographer to describe the perfect circle of a well-spent life, from a genteel birth to a happy death." W. L. Cross's Outline of biography

White, W. Bertram
Miracle of Haworth; a Brontë study. Dutton 1939 374p illus $3.50 920

1 Brontë family (W) 39-27060

"I feel that . . . many misleading conclusions have been arrived at, many wrong assumptions made. Thus, the Rev. Patrick Brontë, has rarely, if ever, received his due from those who have praised his famous daughters. . . Charlotte's devotion to duty and unswerving purpose have not been assessed at their true worth; Emily's life has recently been made the subject of cruel speculation; the authorship of 'Wuthering Heights' still excites controversy; the opposition of Charlotte's father to her marriage has almost invariably been cited as one more piece of evidence of his harshness to his children." Foreword

"In quality it has neither the advantages nor the defects of academic scholarship. Its best features, to the Brontë worshippers, are its implicit belief in the family's genius and, to the more general reader, its photographs of Haworth and its moors." Manchester guardian

White, William Allen, 1868-
Masks in a pageant. Macmillan 1928 507p illus map $2.50 920

1 Presidents—U.S. 2 Statesmen 28-22309

"These vigorous portraits of presidents and politicians drawn from Mr White's memory of them make up a pageant whose background is a continuous history of American politics during the last fifty years. Those who appear in the pageant are Croker, Platt, Harrison, Grover Cleveland, McKinley, Mark Hanna, Bryan, Theodore Roosevelt, Taft, Woodrow Wilson, Harding, Coolidge, Alfred Emanuel Smith, William Hale Thompson." Book rev. digest

Williams, Blanche Colton, 1879-
Our short story writers. Dodd 1920 357p (Modern American writers) $2.50 920

1 Authors, American 2 Short stories—History and criticism [20-22170]

Contents: Alice Brown; James Branch Cabell; Dorothy Canfield; Robert W. Chambers; Irvin Shrewsbury Cobb; James Brendan Connolly; Richard Harding Davis; Margaret Wade Deland; Edna Ferber; Mary Wilkins Freeman; Hamlin Garland; William Sidney Porter ("O. Henry"); Joseph Hergesheimer; Fannie Hurst; Jack London; James Brander Matthews; Melville Davisson Post; Mary Roberts Rinehart; Booth Tarkington; Edith Wharton; Maxwell Struthers Burt; Wilbur Daniel Steele

Williamson, Claude Charles H. 1891-
(ed.) Great Catholics. Macmillan 1939 456p $2.50 920

1 Catholic church—Biography 2 Saints (W) 39-4707

Contains lives by various authors of the following: St Paul; St Paula; St Augustine; Hildebrand; St Antony of Padua; St Catherine of Siena; Thomas Linacre; Chevalier de Bayard; Sir Thomas More; Ignatius Loyola; Cardinal Pole; St Teresa; St Charles Borromeo; Francisco Suarez; Augustine Baker; St Vincent de Paul; John Dryden; St Margaret Mary; Fénelon; Charles Carroll; Julie Billiart; John Lingard; Daniel O'Connell; Abbé Migne; Cardinal Newman; Leo XIII; A. W. Pugin; A. F. Ozanam; G. J. Mendel; G. M. Hopkins; Hildebrand de Hemptinne; Mother Janet Stuart; Viscount Charles de Foucauld; Francis Thompson; C. D. Plater; Aubrey Beardsley; Cardinal Hayes

Winkler, John Kennedy, 1891-
Du Pont dynasty. Blue ribbon bks. 342p illus $1 920

1 Du Pont de Nemours, E. I. and company 2 Du Pont de Nemours family [35-16330]

Reprint of a book published 1935 by Reynal

"Story of a picturesque family, now one of the wealthiest and most powerful in America. Beginning with their early history, the author describes the growth and development of their fortunes, the expansion of their interests, their incomes and dividends, and their influence in industry and politics." Book rev. digest

"An excellent and detailed account. . . As a biographical study, it is illuminating; as an historical sketch of American life and development, it is most fascinating; as a contribution to the political, social, and financial lore of our country, the author has made his work absorbing." America

Winkler, John Kennedy, 1891- and Bromberg, Walter, 1900-
Mind explorers. Reynal 1939 378p $3 920

1 Psychologists 2 Psychology—History 40-1718

"Short biographical reviews of some of the outstanding men in the development of psychology. Among them are Franz Gall, John Watson, Jean Martin Charcot, Philippe Pinel, Francis Galton, William James, Sigmund Freud, and dozens of others." Book rev. digest

Winwar, Frances, 1900-
Farewell the banner; ". . . three persons and one soul. . ." Coleridge, Wordsworth and Dorothy. Doubleday 1938 348p illus $3.50 920

1 Coleridge, Samuel Taylor, 1772-1834
2 Wordsworth, Dorothy, 1771-1855
3 Wordsworth, William, 1770-1850
(W) 38-27786

"Composite biography of William and Dorothy Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge, with the greater emphasis upon Coleridge. Beginning with Coleridge's birth in 1772, his career is followed in some detail until the time of his break with William Wordsworth, and ends with a summary of his later years. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

Romantic rebels. Little 1935 507p illus $3.75 920

1 Byron, George Gordon Noël Byron, 6th baron, 1788-1824 2 Keats, John, 1795-1821 3 Shelley, Percy Bysshe, 1792-1822 35-27408

The lives of Byron, Shelley and Keats are here recounted in a lively, partly fictionized, form

The author's "organization of her material has excellence, seriousness, wisdom, humor, and a full appreciation of the stature of her protagonists." Sat. rev. of lit.

Wise, James Waterman, 1901-
Jews are like that! by Analyticus [pseud.] Brentano's 1928 231p illus o.p. 1939 920

1 Jews—Biography 2 Jews in the U.S. 28-29546

Contents: Louis D. Brandeis; Henry Morgenthau; Louis Lipsky; Stephen S. Wise; Ludwig Lewisohn; Felix Adler; Aaron Sapiro; Louis Marshall; Nathan Straus

"A clever and very ably written series of biographic sketches, and despite some of its prejudices and errors in judgment, its analytical method gives a good cross-section of the nature and character of the Jewish community in America." Boston Transcript

Zweig, Stefan, 1881-
Master builders; a typology of the spirit; tr. from the German by Eden and Cedar Paul. Viking 1939 905p $3.75 920

1 Authors 39-27767

Contents: Three masters: Balzac, Dickens, Dostoeffsky. Struggle with the daimon: Hölderlin, Kleist, Nietzsche. Adepts in self-portraiture: Casanova, Stendhal, Tolstoy

"Of these portraits, the one of Dickens is the least illuminating; perhaps this is because Zweig cannot understand the English, or it may be that he is interested only in the delineation of a tragic career and Dickens is not tragic for him. But the other eight are unforgettable portraits; the book as a whole helps us to comprehend contemporary Europe." Forum

Mental healers: Franz Anton Mesmer, Mary Baker Eddy, Sigmund Freud; tr. by Eden and Cedar Paul. Viking 1932 xxvi,363p (Master builders) $3.50 920

1 Mental healing 32-26081

"Each personality emerges clearly, humanly and professionally; each study is a critique, a presentation, a valuation. Zweig's literary talent stands him in good stead; he has the devotion of the researcher, and a sense for scientific values, not overawed by the prestige of academic pronouncements." N.Y. Evening post

92 INDIVIDUAL BIOGRAPHY

Lives of individuals are arranged alphabetically under the name of the persons written about

Lives of artists, sculptors and musicians will be found in this catalog in class 759 and subdivisions, 735 and 780.92. References from the names of individual artists and musicians to these two sections are inserted in their alphabetical places in this section of Individual biography

Abbe, John
Abbe, Patience Abbe, Richard, and Abbe, John. Around the world in eleven years. See entry under Abbe, Patience

Abbe, Patience; Abbe, Richard, and Abbe, John
Around the world in eleven years. Stokes 1936 204p illus $2 92

1 Children as authors 2 Europe—Description and travel 3 Voyages and travels 36-8817

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1

"James E. Abbe has taken photographs in all parts of the world, and with him has gone his family, including three small children. The children's unexpurgated chronicle of their wanderings in France, Austria, Germany, Russia, England and finally home to America, makes hilarious reading, with its devastating revelation of family affairs, observations of friends and guests, quotations from conversations and impressions of life in different countries. The narrative belongs chiefly to Patience. Photographs." N.Y. libraries

Abbe, Richard
Abbe, Patience; Abbe, Richard, and Abbe, John. Around the world in eleven years. See entry under Abbe, Patience

Abbott, Edward Charles, 1860-1939
We pointed them north; recollections of a cowpuncher, by E. C. Abbott ("Teddy Blue") and H. H. Smith; illus. with drawings by Ross Santee, and photographs. Farrar 1939 281p illus maps $3 92

1 Cattle—The West 2 Cowboys 3 Frontier and pioneer life 4 Ranch life 5 The West—Social life and customs (W) 39-27423

"For fifty-five exciting years Abbott lived the life of a cowman in the West, ranging all the way from Texas to Montana. . . His exploits were known throughout the region he touched, and he took on a kind of mythical significance, because he had mixed in everything that had anything to do with cattle and their consorts . . . This revelation of how the West seemed to the men who lived it is. . . [a] striking feature of his story." Sat. rev. of lit.

"It is all here, the good and the bad alike, picturesquely and truthfully recorded." Wis. bul.

Abbott, Eleanor Hallowell, 1872-
Being little in Cambridge when everyone else was big. Appleton-Century 1936 280p illus $2.50 92

36-20358

"Family life in conservative, literary Cambridge of the 1870s, with famous writers as friends and neighbors, as it was seen by the youngest child, who remembers with humorous appreciation the tragedies and misunderstandings of her childhood." Bkl.

Abbott, Lyman, see Beecher, H. W. 92

Abélard, Pierre, 1079-1142, and Héloïse, 1101-1164
Letters of Abelard and Heloise; tr. from the Latin by C. K. Scott-Moncrieff. Knopf 1926 264p $2 92

26-6544

A good translation of the famous letters of these medieval lovers

Adams, Mrs Abigail (Smith) 1744-1818
Familiar letters of John Adams and his wife Abigail Adams, during the Revolution. See entry under Adams, John, president U.S. and Adams, Mrs Abigail Smith)

* Richards, Mrs Laura Elizabeth (Howe) 1850- Abigail Adams and her times. Appleton-Century 1917 282p illus $2 92

17-30245

"Well written account of a lovable and individual woman, the wife of the second president of the United States and the mother of John Quincy Adams. Contains extracts from letters and from John Adams' personal diary." Pittsburgh

"It makes more vivid the background of the times than the figure of Mrs Adams herself." Cleveland

Adams, Charles Francis, 1807-1886
Adams, Charles Francis, 1835-1915. Charles Francis Adams, by his son. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Adams, Charles Francis, 1835-1915
Charles Francis Adams, 1835-1915; an autobiography. . . Houghton 1916 lx, 224p front $6 92

16-6471

"Record of a life notably successful in business, public service, and historical writing, given a sombre tinge by his critical attitude towards his father, himself and some of his contemporaries. Interesting as a human document and for sidelights on famous personages and history." N.Y. state lib.

Contains also a memorial address, delivered Nov. 17, 1915, by H. C. Lodge

Adams, Henry, 1838-1918
‡ Education of Henry Adams; an autobiography; with an introduction by H. C. Lodge. Houghton 1918 519p $2.50 92

18-18517

Also available from Modern lib. at 95c

"A type of autobiography which seems to stand absolutely in a niche of its own. Its wise philosophy of life, its deep understanding of human nature, its pervading charm of style and of mood, will surely entitle it to an abiding place among those rare volumes that are the perennial joy of cultured minds." F. T. Cooper in Publishers' weekly

Privately printed in 1905

Letters of Henry Adams; ed. by W. C. Ford. Houghton 1930-38 2v fronts ea $4.50 92

(W v 2) 30-25080

Contents: v 1 1858-1891; v2 1892-1918

"These letters will do much to fill in the gaps in the 'Education of Henry Adams' . . . to which they form an admirable supplement. More intimate and detailed, they not only reveal a personality but also present a critical interpretation of a period." Bkl.

"As letters, they rank with the best we have; as records of travel, they are unsurpassed in their freshness (the sequence from the South Sea in the first volume is worth all that has been written since); as aids to our understanding of one of the most complex and most stimulating of American minds and of his time and our own, they are invaluable." N.Y. Times

Adams, John, president U.S. 1735-1826
Chinard, Gilbert, 1881- Honest John Adams. Little 1933 359p illus $3.75 92

33-32200

"Professor Chinard has recorded the varied and brilliant career of this first, and perhaps greatest, of the Adamses with sympathy and discriminating skill. The early chapters of his biography . . . trace the evolution of John Adams from a dreamy theological student to one of the leading lawyers at the Massachusetts bar, and the rise of constitutional issues between the colonies and the mother country until they darkened the political skies. . . Professor Chinard records the stages whereby the 'brace of Adamses' came to take the leading part in the constitutional debate and in precipitating the Revolution." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Adams, John—Continued

Morse, John Torrey, 1840-1937 John Adams. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Adams, John, president U.S. 1735-1826, and Adams, Mrs Abigail (Smith) 1744-1818
Familiar letters of John Adams and his wife Abigail Adams, during the Revolution, with a memoir of Mrs Adams; by C. F. Adams. Houghton 1876 xxxii, 424p front o.p. 1939 92

4-16982

"Takes its place by the side of the most valuable documents of our revolutionary history." Nation

Adams, John, president U.S. 1735-1826, and Jefferson, Thomas, president U.S. 1743-1826
Correspondence of John Adams and Thomas Jefferson (1812-1826) selected with comment by Paul Wilstach. Bobbs 1925 196p illus o.p. 1939 92

25-20253

"The quite delightful correspondence of two retired ex-presidents who have forgotten their political differences and become friends again in their old age. They write on many subjects and with great good humor." Wis. bul.

Adams, John Quincy, president U.S. 1767-1848
Diary of John Quincy Adams, 1794-1845; American political, social and intellectual life from Washington to Polk; ed. by Allan Nevins. Longmans 1928 585p 92

oreign relations — 1783-1865 2 U.S.—History—1783-1865 3 U.S.—Politics and government—1783-1865 28-25438

"Charles Francis Adams made this massive fragment of the diary of John Quincy Adams available to the public fifty years ago, but it has long been out of print. . . It was a happy idea of Allan Nevins to compile a selection of extracts from this formidable work and in the compass of 600 pages to present the passages of greatest permanent interest. His subtitle, 'American Political, Social and Intellectual Life From Washington to Polk,' is not an exaggeration." N.Y. Evening post

"Allan Nevins has rendered a service to every person interested in the social and political history of the United States during the first half of the nineteenth century." Hist. outlook

* Bobbé, Mrs Dorothie (De Bear) Mr & Mrs John Quincy Adams; an adventure in patriotism. Putnam 1930 310p illus $1.50 92

30-25083

"The background of the Revolution, of foreign travel at the end of the eighteenth and the beginning of the nineteenth centuries, and the politics of the early American republic make a vivid setting for the career of John Quincy Adams, pictured as a conscientious man of high integrity. It is an informal and very readable treatment of the subject." Providence
Bibliography: p303-06

B. C. Clark's "John Quincy Adams, 'Old man eloquent' " (Little 1932 437p illus o.p. 1939) is a sound, well-written biography which discusses chiefly the public life of Adams and thus supplements Bobbé's more personal treatment

Morse, John Torrey, 1840-1937. John Quincy Adams. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Adams, Mrs Louisa Catherine (Johnson) 1775-1852
Bobbé, Mrs Dorothie (De Bear) Mr & Mrs John Quincy Adams. See entry under Adams, John Quincy

Adams, Mrs Marian (Hooper) 1843-1885
Letters of Mrs Henry Adams, 1865-1883; ed. by Ward Thoron. Little 1936 587p illus $5 92

92 A215

36-35204

"With the exception of one letter written in 1865, this collection consists of letters written by the wife of Henry Adams to her father, Dr R. W. Hooper, during the years 1872 to 1883. They contain chatty accounts of her personal and social life in England, on the Continent, and in Washington, and give interesting sidelights on the characters of many of the famous people of her day." Book rev. digest

"Many [of the letters] are extremely witty, nearly all make excellent reading. For some readers, the interest in the book will lie in the social and political worlds which Marian Adams viewed with keen and humorous eyes." Sat. rev. of lit.

Adams, Samuel, 1722-1803
Hosmer, James Kendall, 1834-1927. Samuel Adams. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Addams, Jane, 1860-1935
Linn, James Weber, 1876- Jane Addams; a biography. Appleton-Century 1935 457p illus $3.50 92

35-18354

"No one of those myriad volumes which will inevitably be written will be simpler, more tender, than this life written by her nephew, James Weber Linn. . . Not only did he have all of the documents of her life as a material heritage from her, but he had as an intimate and spiritual heritage an intimate and loving association with and a respect for her honesty of thought and expression which influences his writing of her." Chicago Daily Tribune

Addison, Joseph, 1672-1719
Courthope, William John, 1842-1917. Addison. Macmillan 1894 197p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

A22-544

"It can make no pretence to being a finished study of character. . . But it may be fairly described as a trustworthy, straightforward, and enlightened sketch of one of the two greatest of the periodical essayists." Saturday rev.

Adib, Hālidah. See Hālidah Adib, Khānum

Adler, Alfred, 1870-1937

Bottome, Phyllis, 1884- Alfred Adler; a biography. Putnam 1939 324p illus $3.50 92

(W) 39-27893

Authorized account of the life and work of the famous Viennese psychiatrist. In preparing this biography, Miss Bottome had the close cooperation of Adler's family, students and co-workers

"Fascinating as any of her psychological novels is the course of the distinguished career Miss Bottome portrays. She and her husband were both pupils of the founder of individual psychology, who, before his untimely death, had asked her to write this biography." Cincinnati

Agassiz, Louis, 1807-1873

Agassiz, Mrs Elizabeth Cabot (Cary) 1822-1907. Louis Agassiz; his life and correspondence. Houghton 1893 794p illus o.p. 1939 92

a262.1a 4-17366

"This biography by his wife gives pictures of his early life in Switzerland, tells of his friendships with Cuvier, Humboldt and other distinguished scientists, of his scientific work, particularly in geology and ichthyology, of his work at Harvard, including the founding of the Agassiz museum." Pittsburgh

Akbar, emperor of Hindustan, 1542-1605

Binyon, Laurence, 1869- Akbar. Appleton-Century 1932 158p front (Appleton biographies) $1.50 92

32-22293

A biography of the descendant of Genghis Khan and Tamerlane, who became master of India in the sixteenth century

"Mr. Binyon indulges in no flourishes or conceits: he tells his story intelligently, lucidly, and with a tranquillity which leaves behind it a most soothing effect. Few books of this size can offer so much profit and pleasure." New statesman and Nation

Albert I, king of the Belgians, 1875-1934

Cammaerts, Émile, 1878- Albert of Belgium, defender of right. Macmillan 1935 477p illus maps $5 92

1 Belgium—History 2 European war, 1914-1918—Belgium 35-32811

"Mr. Cammaerts does not claim comprehensiveness for his biography, since for that the documentary material is not yet fully available. He modestly speaks of his book as an 'outline,' but it is very much more than that, for accessible material has been industriously sought, popular stories have been examined and conflicting evidence has been weighed." Bkl.

Albert, prince consort of Queen Victoria, 1819-1861

Bolitho, Hector, 1898- Albert the Good and the Victorian reign. Appleton-Century 1932 357p illus $3.50 92

1 Great Britain—History—19th century 32-8168

"After sketching in with some interesting detail the childhood background both of Albert and Victoria the author traces the development of the Prince in his difficult position, his influence on the Queen's opinions and temper, and his growth in the esteem of her ministers." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Bolitho has succeeded in this volume in making a very dull man extremely interesting, for he shows quite clearly that what is known as Victorianism owed far more to Prince Albert than to the Queen. That, indeed, is the great achievement of the book, for had Victoria been left to herself there can be no shadow of doubt but she would have been an entirely different woman from what she became under the domination of her husband." Saturday rev.

References: p331-48; Bibliography: p349-50

Alcott, Amos Bronson, 1799-1888

Journals of Bronson Alcott; selected and ed. by Odell Shepard. Little 1938 xxx, 599p illus $5 92

(W) 38-27766

About one-twentieth of the original material of Alcott's journals, covering a period of nearly fifty years, selected and edited by the author of "Pedlar's progress"

"Alcott, because he loved men of good will, was an excellent observer, and you will find here some of the best portraits of Emerson, Thoreau, Lowell, and many others of the Golden Age, and a very interesting picture of that remarkable time when New England was the conscience and the teacher of the nation." Book-of-the-month club news

Shepard, Odell, 1884- Pedlar's progress; the life of Bronson Alcott. Little 1937 546p illus $3.75 92

37-10152

"As a gawky New England boy of seventeen Bronson Alcott set out with a pack on his back to sell 'fancy goods' to the Virginia plantations. Hence the title of this biography. . . Bronson Alcott was a philosopher, not a man of action. He is presented here as an idealist, a representative of the idealism that the author considers characteristic of America." Wis bul.

Bibliographical note: p523-28

Alcott, Louisa May, 1832-1888

Anthony, Katharine Susan, 1877- Louisa May Alcott. Knopf 1938 304p illus $3 92

(W) 38-27089

A life written for adults. It is also a biography of the Alcott family. Much research and use of original materials result in a clear picture of Miss Alcott as well as the life in Concord of the mid-nineteenth century

"Presenting the facts of Louisa's life in her very readable fashion, she catches, if she does not always explain, the torments and domestic trials of America's charming apostle of domesticity." Nation

Cheney, Mrs Ednah Dow (Littlehale) 1824-1904, ed. Louisa May Alcott; her life, letters, and journals. Little 1900 404p illus o.p. 1939 92

4-17379

"Home life of the author of 'Little women,' her experiences as an army nurse, struggles as an author, etc." N.Y. state lib.

‡ Meigs, Cornelia Lynde, 1884- Invincible Louisa. Little 1933 260p illus $2 92

33-12751

At head of title: The story of the author of Little women

"A sympathetic and clearly-written biography of Louisa M. Alcott, picturing her in the midst of her family and friends, among whom she numbered Emerson and Thoreau. The book contains a chronology, and twenty-one photographs of the Alcott

Alcott, Louisa M.—Continued
family and the houses in which they lived. Intended for young readers." Book rev digest

"Louisa May Alcott and Cornelia Meigs are an ideal combination. . . . Cornelia Meigs is herself the author of a number of excellent and well-loved books for young people; in their pages the reader finds the same integrity that characterizes Louisa Alcott's writing. Back of each author's work one senses a certain fine reserve and dignity and Miss Meigs's books, like those of the earlier writer, have a very definite American quality." A. T. Eaton in N.Y. Times

Aldrich, Mrs Lilian (Woodman) d. 1927
Crowding memories. Houghton 1920 295p illus o.p. 1939 92

20-19664

"These reminiscences of the wife of a poet center about her celebrated husband but are rich in pictures of other great personages that she has intimately known, notably Edwin Booth, William Dean Howells, Samuel L. Clemens, Robert Browning, James McNeill Whistler, Julia Ward Howe, Charles Dickens. The book is well illustrated and has an index." Book rev. digest

"Mrs Aldrich has handled the rich material with good judgment and much insight, making a total that is always interesting, and often enlightening, entitling it to a definite place in our literary chronicles." Weekly review

Aldrich, Thomas Bailey, 1836-1907
Greenslet, Ferris, 1875- Life of Thomas Bailey Aldrich. Houghton 1908 303p illus $2.50 92

8-27511

Mr Greenslet has brought to his work delicacy and reticence, together with a skill in words that reproduces something of the charm of one who made refinement the end of all his labor. He tells just enough of the child's surroundings at Portsmouth, of the clerk and youthful editor in New York; he follows the man sympathetically thru his Boston years of prosperous toil and golden ease, to the honored close. It is a happy life gracefully told. Condensed from Nation

Greenslet, Ferris, 1875- Thomas Bailey Aldrich. See entry under American men of letters 92 Series

Alexander the Great, B.C. 356-323
Weigall, Arthur Edward Pearse Brome, 1880-1934. Alexander the Great. Putnam 1933 352p $3.90 92

33-8960

"In this biography of Alexander the author takes as his starting point the thesis that most of Alexander's life, his character, his actions, good and bad, and his fame after death, are due to the fact that he was brought up to believe in his divine birth, that his mother believed it, and that his training and environment were largely colored by this belief." Book rev. digest

"His book is a rare combination of learning and literary skill, a contribution to history which scholars will welcome even if they do not at all points agree with it, and for others a colorful portrait unforgettable as an interpretation of character and a record of extraordinary achievement." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Wheeler, Benjamin Ide, 1854-1927. Alexander the Great; the merging of East and West in universal history. Putnam 1900 520p illus maps (Heroes of the nations) o.p. 1939 92

0-1368

"An interpretation of the significance of Alexander who was a great man in aim and achievement." William G. Ross

Alexander, grand duke of Russia, 1866-1933
Once a grand duke. Farrar 1932 348p illus o.p. 1939 92

92 A376

1 Russia—Court and courtiers 32-26043

"Grand Duke Alexander, cousin and brother-in-law of the late Czar, tells his own stirring tale of the Romanoff régime, the World War (he was commander-in-chief of the Russian air forces), and the horrors of the Revolution." Pittsburgh

Alexander I, king of Yugoslavia, 1888-1934
Graham, Stephen, 1884- Alexander of Yugoslavia; the story of the king who was murdered at Marseilles. Yale univ. press 1939 329p illus $3 92

1 Yugoslavia—Politics and government (W) 39-8527

The account of the assassination of Alexander at Marseilles in 1934, is followed by chapters on the immediate events which led up to it, a sketch of Alexander's life and his political achievements, and finally the story of what followed the crime—the political repercussions and the effects on international relations. Bibliography

"Even if there are questions of balance, proportion and treatment on which one must regretfully join issue with Mr Graham, he is still to be congratulated on producing in a very easy and readable form the first life of a gallant and often scandalously maligned and misjudged monarch to be made available to the English reading public, and one which in its details of the Ustaši conspiracies will be of permanent value even to the specialist." Spectator

Allen, Ethan, 1737-1789
Pell, John. Ethan Allen. Houghton 1929 331p illus $5 92

29-23480

"Based upon careful original research, this chronicle of the picturesque leader of the Green Mountain Boys touches with humorous understanding upon all the strange angles of Allen's character and career. Bibliography, chronology, notes, index. Photographs from old woodcuts, prints, manuscripts etc. Maps on end pages." N.Y. libraries

"Mr. Pell has written a book that may not be the 'last word' on the subject but that will hold first place for a considerable time. A sympathetic interest in his hero we concede him at every step; but he is not blind to the angles in Allen's rugged character, nor does he try to conceal or condone them. He touches them with a dry humor." Springfield Republican

Ameringer, Oscar, 1870-
If you don't weaken; the autobiography; with a foreword by Carl Sandburg. Holt 1940 476p illus $2.75 92

(W) 40-27504

Autobiography of an American socialist, lecturer, writer, humorist, and editor and owner of the "American Guardian," published in Tulsa. He writes of his life as a boy in Germany, as a struggling young artist in Cincinnati, as an active socialist during boom days in many western states and militant years in Wisconsin and Oklahoma

Ameringer, Oscar—Continued

"A genial account of a career that began in a picaresque manner as a wandering musician and portrait painter and evolved into a continuous fight for the proletariat." Bkl.

Amiel, Henri Frédéric, 1821-1881

Private journal; tr. by Van Wyck Brooks and C. V. W. Brooks; introduction by Bernard Bouvier. enl and rev ed conforming to the original text Macmillan 1935 675p front $3.50 92

35-24327

"Amiel, a Geneva professor (1821-1881), kept a diary for the last thirty-four years of his life. In this he recorded his most intimate thoughts and feelings daily, and sometimes more than once a day. The present translation is the fullest which has been published, giving 263 hitherto unpublished fragments." Book rev. digest

"The English translation by Van Wyck Brooks and his son is a work of high merit, preserving the subtle yet simple style of the original." Springfield Republican

H. F. Amiel's "Amiel's journal; journal intime; tr. with an introduction and notes by Mrs Humphry Ward" (Macmillan 1915 318p $2.50) is another good edition first published in 1893. It is not so complete as the version entered above

Amundsen, Roald Engelbregt Gravning, 1872-1928

Partridge, Bellamy. Amundsen, the splendid Norseman. Stokes 1929 276p illus $2.50 92

29-20038

"A boy's life of the great Norwegian arctic and antarctic explorer who died, as he had hoped to die, somewhere in the frozen North." Book rev. digest

"It is at least as thrilling as adventure in fiction, and it is authentic. Taking the material already written by Amundsen and others on the subject, our author has woven them into a continuous, dramatic narrative." Providence

Andersen, Hans Christian, 1805-1875

Story of my life; now first tr. into English, and containing chapters additional to those published in the Danish ed. bringing the narrative down to the Odense festival of 1867. Houghton 1871 569p front o.p. 1939 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 12-30331

"The absolute candor with which Andersen lays bare his soul, the complete intentional or unintentional self-revelation, gives a psychological value to the book which no mere literary grace could bestow. . . Anderson remained, until the day of his death, a child. His innocence was more than virginal; his unworldliness simply inconceivable. . . He conceived of his life as a fairy-tale. . . The feeling of the marvellous pervades the book from beginning to end." H. H. Boyesen

Signe Toksvig's "Life of Hans Christian Andersen" (Harcourt 1934 289p illus $3) gives the facts of his life and the psychological interpretation of some of his peculiarities. It is particularly valuable for the picture of Andersen's youth

Anderson, Sherwood, 1876-

Story teller's story. . . Viking 1924 442p $3 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 24-27699

"The tale of an American writer's journey through his own imaginative world and through the world of facts, with many of his experiences and impressions among other writers—told in many notes—in four books—and an epilogue." Subtitle

"Mr Anderson's story of himself is not a conventional autobiography. . . The book is less notable as an account of physical than of mental activity." New republic

Anne, queen of Great Britain, 1665-1714

Hopkinson, Mrs Marie Ruan. Anne of England; the biography of a great queen; with sixteen illustrations. Macmillan 1934 383p illus $3.50 92

34-31954

"A valuable supplement to Professor Trevelyan's story of a great reign is 'Anne of England.' Here we have an attempt, based on much patient research, to present to us Queen Anne as she really was, with all her failings as well as her virtues, and the portrait that emerges is one, not of a nonentity or a weak-willed woman, but of a Sovereign who prided herself on being English to the core, who acted with spirit in all the difficulties that encompassed her, who served her country with a single-hearted devotion and who earned the love and trust of her subjects by her domesticity and obvious sincerity." Saturday rev.

Bibliography: p364-65

Anthony, Susan Brownell, 1820-1906

Dorr, Mrs Rheta Louise (Childe) 1872- Susan B. Anthony, the woman who changed the mind of a nation; illus. from photographs. Stokes 1928 367p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Woman—Suffrage 28-22296

"Mrs. Dorr runs counter to current fashions by writing a warmly partisan biography. She is never impersonal; she is often dogmatic as to both people and events; and Susan B. Anthony is her idol. But her partisanship is leavened by wit and becomes companionable. Mrs. Dorr has a lively sense of drama. Out of her unfaltering judgments emerges a trenchant line-portrait which few readers with an interest in American types will care to miss." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Antin, Mary, 1881-

‡ Promised land; with illus. from photographs. Houghton 1912 373p illus $3 92

12-10316

"Autobiography of an immigrant who was born . . . in Polotzk, Russia, a town in the Jewish pale, and spent her childhood there. Her family being driven by the pressure of poverty to immigrate, when she was twelve years old she was brought to America, where she made a brilliant progress thru the public schools of Boston and thru Barnard college. The story of her life is absorbing in its human significance, remarkable for its literary distinction and convincingly hopeful in its view of the immigrant problem in America." Pittsburgh

Appeared in the Atlantic monthly, v108-9, October 1911 to April 1912

Mary Antin's "At school in the promised land," contains selections from her autobiography published in the Riverside literature series (Houghton 48c)

Antony, Marc, B.C. 83?-30

Weigall, Arthur Edward Pearse Brome, 1880-1934. Life and times of Marc Antony. Putnam 1931 475p illus $5 92

1 Rome—History—Republic, B.C. 510—30

Also available in the Star ser. (Garden City pub. co. $1)

A companion book to the author's "Life and times of Cleopatra"

"Mr Weigall has written a history, not only of Marc Antony, but of the Rome of his times, a narrative which explains the political battles of that violent period and the parts played by the chief party leaders. The author treats Antony as a man grossly maligned by contemporary writers and concludes that if he had not been upset by his lover's quarrel with Cleopatra at the time of the battle of Actium 'he would in all probability have become the sole sovereign lord of the earth.'" Book rev. digest

Arblay, Mme Frances (Burney) d', 1752-1840

Diary and letters; ed. and selected with a preface and notes by Muriel Masefield. Dutton 1931 336p illus $3.75 92

A31-846

"Excerpts from the diary and letters of Mme D'Arblay, so arranged as to give a continuous picture of her life from 1778 until 1821. The excerpts were chosen with the view of forming a gallery of portraits of the great men and typical characters of her day. There is an introductory essay on Frances Burney in life and literature." Book rev. digest

"Mrs. Masefield has kept all the best parts of the diary, and they give an almost uninterrupted story. The introduction and the occasional 'links' in the text are admirably done. Fanny Burney is the most readable of diarists and this edition should bring her to the notice of readers who have hitherto been wary of her prolixity." New statesman

"As a diarist Miss Burney is with Pepys and Evelyn, as a letter writer with Walpole and Chesterfield. And unlike all of these, except Horace, she is a novelist as well." George Saintsbury

Mme F. B. D'arblay's "Diary and letters (1778-1840)" with notes by W. C. Ward published by Warne in 3 volumes in the Chandos classics is out of print, 1939. This is the complete edition

Dobson, Austin, 1840-1921. Fanny Burney. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Aretino, Pietro, 1492-1556

Chubb, Thomas Caldecot, 1899- Aretino, scourge of princes. Reynal 1940 478p illus $3.50 92

1 Renaissance—Italy 40-27260

This biography of Pietro Aretino, "the first blackmailer, the first journalist, and the first publicity man," is written against the background of Renaissance Italy

"To this biography the author has brought a warm knowledge of the books in which Aretino's life is recorded and the places where it was lived, a wit and gusto worthy of the subject, and a very deft hand with words. It is easy for him to persuade us to follow with interest Aretino's checkered story." Sat. rev. of lit.

Arliss, George, 1868-

* My ten years in the studios. Little 1940 349p illus $3.50 92

12 724-2

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Moving pictures (W) 40-27471

The second volume of reminiscences following the author's "Up the years from Bloomsbury." The author recounts "the routine of picture making, his subsequent holidays, his lack of adventures, and the people he knew—the Warner brothers, William Archer, Winthrop Ames, Darryl Zanuck, and the fellow actors and actresses." Kirkus

"George Arliss has enjoyed his ten years 'in pictures,' which no doubt has something to do with the enjoyment which this second section of his memoirs hands down to his readers. But the chief cause of this book's rich delight lies, of course, in the charm of the author's own mind—his keen and urbane wit, his humor that is both original and allusive, his shrewd thought and suave selective discursiveness." N.Y. Times

* Up the years from Bloomsbury; an autobiography. Little 1927 321p illus $3.50 92

92 A724

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 27-21325

Also available in a satisfactory cheap reprint (Blue ribbon bks. $1)

English edition has title: On the stage

"There is a modesty, kindliness and absence of manner in this simply and humorously told account of the experiences that went into the making of George Arliss as a character actor." Book rev. digest

"It is cleverly written and has the somewhat uncommon characteristics of modesty, sanity, shrewdness, and an informing spirit of kindly humor. It is noteworthy also as the work of a man who has solved and is eager to explain the true secrets of professional success." Sat. rev. of lit.

Arnold, Benedict, 1741-1801

Sellers, Charles Coleman, 1903- Benedict Arnold, the proud warrior. Putnam 1930 303p illus $1.50 92

[30-7384]

"An interpretative biography of the brilliant and notorious American leader and traitor, unbiased and based upon historically accurate facts concerning the man and his career. Mr Sellers does not try to whitewash the character of his subject, but maintains that Arnold's treason was due to his honest belief that the cause of American patriotism was too weak, and that Britain could offer him higher rank and good money for his service in the vocation that was Arnold's heart and soul: war." Book rev. digest

"If Mr. Sellers does not sustain the dramatic action uniformly throughout his work, it may be said that this is too much to expect. He is not at his best in those passages in which a style approaching direct narrative is used, as in his accounts of Arnold's military campaigns, although those campaigns were as indicative of the fire-eater's personality as some of the detached incidents on which the author splashes color with a liberal hand." N.Y. Times

Arnold, Matthew, 1822-1888

Letters, 1848-88; collected and arranged by G. W. E. Russell. Macmillan 1895 2v o.p. 1939 92

92 A757

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 4-13997

"These letters are a gift of sunshine to the world. In his published writings

Arnold, Matthew—Continued

there were at times a not unbecoming hauteur, a happy malice of the pen, and even something which, while really dexterity in saying things difficult to utter, might be mistaken for affectation. In these letters a more intimate side of his character is revealed to the public; they are absolutely simple and real; wholly free from strain; rich in the temper of enjoyment; unfailing in the spirit of genuine affection." Edward Dowden

Paul, Herbert Woodfield, 1853- Matthew Arnold. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Trilling, Lionel. Matthew Arnold. Norton 1939 465p front $3.50 92

39-27057

"The importance of the book is that it is a comprehensive study of the whole man. For Matthew Arnold was not primarily a literary critic; the clue to his enigma is that he was really a social critic. . . With learning, penetration, and common sense Mr Trilling analyzes Arnold's career from lyric poetry, through literary and political criticism, to the religious writings." Sat. rev. of lit.

Ashford, Bailey Kelly, 1873-1934

Soldier in science . . . with a foreword by M. W. Ireland. Morrow 1934 425p illus $3.50 92

1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 34-18146

"Autobiography of a physician who has spent his life in the exploration of tropical diseases. As a young officer in the Army Medical Corps, Colonel Ashford discovered the hookworm responsible for the anemia so widespread in Porto Rico. Later, under the auspices of the Rockefeller Foundation, he organized the campaign against sleeping sickness. After services overseas in the World war he returned to Porto Rico to teach in the School of Tropical Medicine." Book rev. digest

"Intellectual curiosity, which the scientist must have, and a warm but unsentimental sympathy, which not every physician attains, Dr. Ashford has in abundance. He also has a fine sense of humor, and with the assistance of his collaborator, Elizabeth Kneipple Van Deusen, he has produced a really fascinating book." N.Y. Times

Atherton, Mrs Gertrude Franklin (Horn) 1857-

Adventures of a novelist. Liveright 1932 598p illus $1.49 92

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 32-26332

"These frank reminiscences range from the author's early life in California through her experiences in New York and later years in Europe, where she knew many famous people. Her anecdotes are not always kind but they never fail of being entertaining." Pittsburgh

Audubon, John James, 1785-1851

Herrick, Francis Hobart, 1858- Audubon the naturalist, a history of his life and time. 2d ed Appleton-Century 1938 2v in 1 $6 92

38-27162

A reissue in one volume with all the text and all the 118 illustrations of the biography published in two volumes in 1917. Besides correcting a few errors and bringing the bibliography up to date, the author has added a "Foreword and Postscript" presenting evidence to prove that Audubon was not the lost dauphin as some biographers assert

"In biography, romance makes a good servant, but a bad master, and it is well to have this scholarly and critical presentation of a personality and life-history so unusual as almost to invite exaggeration." Nature

Peattie, Donald Culross, 1898- Singing in the wilderness; a salute to John James Audubon. Putnam 1935 245p illus $2.50 92

35-15710

Illustrated with reproductions of some of Audubon's bird paintings

"Mr. Peattie writes with rare charm. . . He has a flair for description and his own reflections upon nature and men add not a little to the delightful flavor of his book." Scientific book club review

‡ Rourke, Constance Mayfield, 1885- Audubon; with 12 colored plates from original Audubon prints; black and white illus. by James MacDonald. Harcourt 1936 342p illus $3 92

(W) 36-27488

Also obtainable in the Harbrace edition at $1.49

"This biography of Audubon describes all sides of his life and activities as naturalist, artist, and woodsman, and shows his place in American history. Altho intended for young readers, it is of equal interest to adults." Book rev. digest

"Miss Rourke has done her work well. She has made a thorough examination of all available materials concerning her subject. But she gives to the reader not the processes but the results of her study. This she puts in the most attractive form. . . She has written a narrative which flows along like the rivers over which Audubon travelled, and is as full of life and color as the birds he painted." Churchman

Auer, Leopold, 1845-1930. See class 780.92

Aughinbaugh, William Edmund, 1871-1940

I swear by Apollo; a life of medical adventure. Farrar 1938 420p $3 92

1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-27705

A life of medical adventure in all parts of the world. The son of a northern soldier and a southern nurse, the author grew up at the time when medicine was entering its modern phase of discovery. He has found more than the doctor's usual share of pathos and drama

"Bears considerable resemblance to Heiser's 'An American Doctor's Odyssey' in that the narrators of both are successful medical men who have traveled widely and found humor in grisly episodes that would harrow most of us; both, too, have had the art to harrow and charm us at the same time. 'I Swear by Apollo' has far less of medicine in it than Dr. Heiser's book, but it has a greater gentleness and tolerance." Sat. rev. of lit.

Augustine, Saint bp. of Hippo

West, Rebecca. St Augustine. Appleton-Century 1933 172p front (Appleton biographies) $1.50 92

33-27121

"Miss West has penetrated into the inner life of the great African Father with an insight as rare as it is accurate; and for Augustine's background she has given a vivid picture of the Roman world crumbling under the weight of falling prices and a decaying moral, with the Church

Augustine, Saint bp. of Hippo—Continued
alone rearing her head securely amid the ruins. . . On the greater part of Augustine's life she has thrown much light. Where so much has already been written, she succeeds in 150 pages in saying something new, and saying it in admirable language." Times (London) lit. sup.

Saint Augustine's "Confessions" are classified in 242 in this catalog

Augustus, emperor of Rome, B.C. 63-A.D. 14

Buchan, John, 1st baron Tweedsmuir 1875-1940. Augustus. Houghton 1937 379p illus $4.50 92

1 Rome—History—Empire, B.C. 30-A.D. 476 37-31228

"A sympathetic biography of Octavius Augustus tracing briefly those events which led to his succession to Julius Caesar and describing in full the famous governmental reorganization which brought peace and stimulated culture and prosperity in the Roman empire for many years." Bkl.

G. P. Baker's "Augustus" (Dodd 1937 324p illus maps $3.50) is "less enthusiastic in its treatment of Augustus, gives less simplified psychological explanations for his actions, and is not so concerned with the actual workings of Augustus' government as with the character traits of Augustus, Mark Antony, Cicero, and many others. . . Neither book is a popularization; both are written in effective styles, the former with a slightly lighter touch." Bkl.

Firth, John Benjamin, 1868- Augustus Cæsar and the organisation of the empire of Rome. Putnam 1903 371p illus maps (Heroes of the nations) o.p. 1939 92

1 Rome—History—Empire, B. C. 30-A.D. 476 3-4996

"A volume of very solid worth." Nation

Aurelius Antoninus, Marcus, emperor of Rome, 121-180

Sedgwick, Henry Dwight, 1861- Marcus Aurelius. . . Yale univ. press 1921 309p front $2.75 92

1 Stoics 21-10181

"A biography told as much as may be by letters, together with some account of the Stoic religion and an exposition of the Roman government's attempt to suppress Christianity during Marcus's reign." Subtitle

"A scholarly and agreeable work, with bibliography and index." N.Y. state lib.

Austen, Jane, 1775-1817

Jane Austen's letters to her sister Cassandra and others; collected and ed. by R. W. Chapman. Oxford 2v in 1 illus maps $5 92

36-27131

"A reprint of the 1932 edition which was in two volumes. . . Includes biographical notes about the Austen family, photographs of places associated with Jane Austen's life, facsimiles, and maps." Bkl.

"All the letters of one of the most delightful letter-writers who ever lived . . . the editing of which is beyond praise. The letters have many of the best qualities of Jane Austen's novels. They present the minutiae of a small society in language that is always fresh and exact, with a penetration that is only exceeded by the wit which pointed what the eyes saw." Nation

William Austen-Leigh and Richard Arthur Austen-Leigh's "Jane Austen" (Dutton 1913 437p illus $4) contains her letters in a careful rearrangement with connecting comment and with some added material on her social and family life

Firkins, Oscar W. 1864-1932. Jane Austen. Holt 1920 254p o.p. 1939 92

20-4130

"Stimulating critical study of Jane Austen's style, with a biographical sketch and an analysis of each of the novels. Noteworthy." N.Y. state lib.

Warre Cornish, Francis, 1839-1916. Jane Austen. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Austin, Mrs Mary (Hunter) 1868-1934

Earth horizon, autobiography. Houghton 1932 381p illus $4 92

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 32-31314

"The sincere, absorbing story of the life of a woman who has become an authority on the American Indian. Early days in Illinois, southern California 50 years ago, the famous literary colony at Carmel and the later one at Taos, her contacts with the Indians—all are significant as a part of our history as well as in her life. [Photographs]." Pittsburgh

Mrs H. M. Doyle's "Mary Austin: woman of genius" (Gotham house 1939 302p $3) (W) supplements this autobiography. It is an intimate, sympathetic book, written by a close friend

Bach, Johann Sebastian, 1685-1750. See class 780.92

Bacheller, Irving Addison, 1859-

From stores of memory. Farrar 1938 306p $2.50 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-9384

"Readers who have grown up with Irving Bacheller's books, from 'Eben Holden' on, will find much pleasure in this book. It is not the usual autobiography or book of memoirs, as its five Parts indicate: Relating to characters and events which have shaped my manhood; Things that turned me to successful authorship; Selections from my writings; Great true stories that I have discovered in my journey up the road; On the crest." Wis. bul.

Bacon, Francis, viscount St Albans, 1561-1626

Church, Richard William, 1815-1890. Bacon. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Sturt, Mary. Francis Bacon, a biography. Paul, K. 1932 246p illus 10s 6d 92

[33-1501]

"In this simple and rather condensed biography Miss Sturt sets herself the task of rehabilitating Bacon. She shows 'the real Bacon as vividly as the records allow,' in the environment of the later Elizabethan times, following the development of the sober precocious youth into the great lawyer and politician, writer and philosopher." Book rev. digest

"At first sight this seems a slight little volume to do all its work, which is to provide a simple and candid account of Bacon's life. Examination, however, reveals that Miss Sturt has written a very readable, sane and well-planned book in which the essentials are stated without undue emphasis." New statesman and Nation

Bacon, Leonard, 1887-
Semi-centennial; some of the life and part of the opinions of Leonard Bacon. Harper 1939 273p $3.50 92

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27299

Witty reminiscences of the first fifty years of his life by an American author written upon the celebration of his own semi-centennial. "He introduces briskly his family and his ancestors and draws sketch upon sketch of his boyhood, youth, and middle-age. He takes you with him through his wretched gangling school days at St. George's and through his eager, callow years at Yale. . . The shuttle of his life moves with bewildering speed out to California, across the water, to Italy and France, back to the beech woods and the balmy air of Rhode Island." Sat. rev. of lit.

"A frank and an individualistic picture of changing America and Europe, seen through the eyes of a cultivated, enthusiastic scholar born to the best New England academic tradition." Sat. rev. of lit.

Baden-Powell, Robert Stephenson Smyth Baden-Powell, baron, 1857-
Kiernan, Reginald Hugh, 1900- Baden-Powell. . . McKay 1939 256p illus maps $1.25 92

1 Boy scouts 39-20466

"A stirring tale of adventure and heroism. The author tells, in detail, of his very lively school days at Charterhouse; of his later life as a soldier with the 13th Hussars in Africa; of his narrow escapes as a scout and spy. He is portrayed as a musician, a humorist, an actor, an author, an artist whose work has been accepted by the Royal Academy. . . The book is written from an English point of view but should be of interest to Boy Scouts in any country and to all admirers of Lord Baden-Powell." Library journal

Baker, Sara Josephine, 1873-
Fighting for life. Macmillan 1939 264p illus $2.75 92

92 1 Children—Care and hygiene 2 Children—Charities, protection, etc.—New /682 York (City) 3 New York (City)—Charities (W) 39-27425

The physician who organized the first child hygiene bureau tells of her medical work in New York City

"This autobiography creates from the vivid, frequently humorous, and sometimes harrowing memories of Dr. Baker's full life a picture of changing conditions which has varied social and professional interest." Survey graphic

Balabanova, Angelica
My life as a rebel. Harper 1938 324p $3.75 92

1 1 Communism 2 Socialism (W) 38-27547

/71 Dr Balabanova, daughter of wealthy parents in Russia, renounced her luxurious existence and went to Brussels to study. The next twenty years saw her become a world famous revolutionist, socialist and leftist. Later she went to Russia where she worked with Lenin and Trotsky. Then began for her a period of despair and disillusionment with communist governmental methods and policies and her eventual expulsion from the party

"The book is none the less interesting, none the less significant because many will disagree with her opinions and challenge certain of her facts. It is honest in purpose, as objective as is humanly possible considering her own strong convictions on the subject, and is admirably written." Boston Transcript

Barnum, Phineas Taylor, 1810-1891
Werner, Morris Robert, 1897- Barnum. Harcourt 1923 381p illus $2.50 92

23-7287

"Does substantial justice to the extraordinary character of the showman—his mixture of shrewdness and gullelessness, of true morality and Chadband unctuousness, of simplicity and a flamboyant exploitation of his own personality." Literary rev.

"Barnum's own story" (Viking 1927 452p illus) combined and condensed by W. R. Browne from the various editions of Barnum's "Life" and "Struggles and triumphs" is out of print, 1939

Barrie, Sir James Matthew, bart. 1860-1937
The greenwood hat; being a memoir of James Anon (1885-1887); with a preface by the Earl Baldwin of Bewdley. Scribner 1938 270p illus $2.75 92

(W) 38-27225

"It is typical of Barrie that this, the only memoir he left should not be an autobiography at all, but a wistful, sharply nostalgic recollection of two years lived in the London of half a century ago. . . Although there is nothing of profound significance here, there is much that is choice, inimitable and first of its kind." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Additional biographies of Barrie are:
Hammerton, J. A. Barrie; the story of a genius. Dodd 1929 500p illus o.p. 1939 Gives essential facts of his life with full details regarding plays and production
Moult, Thomas. Barrie. Scribner 1928 228p front $2 More critical than biographical

Barrie, Mrs Margaret (Ogilvy)
‡ Barrie, Sir James Matthew, bart. 1860-1937. Margaret Ogilvy. Scribner 1896 207p front $2 92

0-7110

"Barrie's tender tribute to the memory of his mother, in which appear all his gifts of delicate humor, sympathy, and understanding of the feminine mind and heart." Pratt alcove

Bartlett, Robert Abram, 1875-
Log of Bob Bartlett; the true story of forty years of seafaring and exploration . . . Putnam 1928 352p illus $2.75 92

1 Arctic regions 2 Seafaring life 28-21051

"First as sealer, then as first-class skipper, then as captain of Peary's vessel and also of Stefansson's later, Captain Robert A. Bartlett has a thrilling career to recall here. It is not exactly a vivid narrative that he gives us, but just a sincere, unembellished one is readable when one has had such a career as his. It is the story of a man who loves the sea and hardy adventure." Providence

Barton, Clara Harlowe, 1821-1912
Barton, William Eleazar, 1861-1930. Life of Clara Barton, founder of the American Red cross. Houghton 1922 2v illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Red cross. U.S. American national Red cross 22-4689

"A 'definitive biography,' based on Clara Barton's journals, letters, and papers. Of unusual value in that it illuminates the life of one of America's greatest women, as well as gives the history of the Red cross in the United States, and the entrance of America into the international organization; both, the achievements of this indefatigable and dauntless woman. Two portraits." N.Y. state lib.

Barton, Clara H.—Continued

‡ Epler, Percy Harold, 1872- Life of Clara Barton. Macmillan 1915 438p illus $2.50 92

1 Red cross. U.S. American national Red cross 15-23378

"Comprehensive biography, published with the assistance of Miss Barton's literary executors. . . Unpublished war diaries and letters, together with her conversations; observations by eye-witnesses, and the records of the Red cross society are the author's original sources." Pittsburgh

Bashkirtseva, Mariîa Konstantinovna, 1860-1884

Marie Bashkirtseff, the journal of a young artist, 1860-1884; tr. by M. J. Serrano. new and rev ed Dutton 1919 467p front $3 92

19-8215

Autobiography of a Russian artist and writer who began her journal in her thirteenth year and continued it faithfully thru life. In this edition some new translations have been added from the French text

"It is not alone the outspoken wit, longing, and opinions of a girl writing for her own heart and poising for her public at the same moment, but the self-revelation of a gifted and forceful nature, working itself out through successive phases of a life which, concentrated into a few short years, leaves an impression almost complete in its distinctness." Atlantic monthly

Bayard, Pierre du Terrail, seigneur de, 1476-1524

Shellabarger, Samuel, 1888- Chevalier Bayard; a study in fading chivalry. Appleton-Century 1928 391p illus $4 92

28-22151

"Previous biographies of Bayard in English have been based on the idealistic portrait by the Loyal Servant whose accuracy is now disputed. This new life of the Knight 'without fear and without reproach' is a modern, well-documented treatment, sympathetic but critical. It presents him against the turbulent background of the age of fading chivalry as a great hero and distinguished gentleman with human faults. Bibliography, illustrations, index." N.Y. libraries

Beaconsfield, Benjamin Disraeli, 1st earl of, 1804-1881

‡ Maurois, André. Disraeli; a picture of the Victorian age; tr. by Hamish Miles. Appleton-Century 1928 378p illus $3, student's ed $1 92

1 Great Britain—Politics and government—19th century 28-4516

"A fascinating and delightful book which will be welcomed by the reader who enjoys a really fine biography. The book gives us a living portrait with the Victorian age as a background; we see 'Dizzy' as an author, as a statesman, and as a man. Born a Jew, reared as a Christian, he retains the Jewish characteristics of determination of purpose, accepting or ignoring rebuffs and prejudices when so doing eventually means the accomplishment of his wishes. We see him, hear him, and live with him in these pages." Wis. bul.

"M. Maurois, without attempting a profound analysis, understands extremely well the real issues on which Peel, Disraeli, Gladstone, Bright, and the rest fought out their duels." Spectator

Moneypenny, William Flavelle, 1866-1912, and Buckle, George Earle, 1854-1935. Life of Benjamin Disraeli, earl of Beaconsfield. new and rev ed Macmillan 1929 2v illus $8 92

1 Great Britain—Politics and government—19th century 29-27463

"A cheaper reprint of the authorized biography first issued in six volumes. Printed on thin but durable paper. Sixteen of the original illustrations have been retained." Bkl.

An exhaustive political biography which is important for the student of nineteenth century English history

J. A. Froude's "Earl of Beaconsfield" now available in Everyman's library (Dutton 267p 90c) is a short sketch written by a contemporary

Beals, Carleton, 1893-

Glass houses; ten years of free-lancing. Lippincott 1938 413p $3.50 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-8475

A diary, guide-book and series of biographical sketches painting colorful pictures of Mexico, Spain and Italy. The book throws sidelights on such personalities as Morrow, Kellogg, Carranza, etc.

"It will please those who like a swiftly moving narrative, full of vividly drawn characters, big and little, and concerned with the most difficult and stirring problems of our times." Book-of-the-month club news

Beard, Daniel Carter, 1850-

* Hardly a man is now alive; the autobiography of Dan Beard. Doubleday 1939 361p illus $3 92

(W) 39-27774

"Reviewing the ninety years of his long life [the author] recalls the many interesting things which he has seen happen in this country and the public figures with whom he has come in contact. His story . . . will have an especial appeal to Boy Scouts and their leaders with whom he has been associated." Baldwin

"Crammed with incident as this volume is, there are many good stories of persons long dead, and some living, all told with kindness, some even with too much reticence. . . One could wish, though, that the modest author had told more about the noble battles for conservation of timber, of water, of wild life, in which he played such a staunch part but they are scarcely mentioned." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Beatrice D'Este, consort of Lodovico Sforza, il Moro, duke of Milan, 1475-1497

Ady, Mrs Julia Mary (Cartwright) d. 1924. Beatrice d'Este, duchess of Milan, 1475-1497; a study of the renaissance. Dutton xx,387p illus $3 92

1 Renaissance 4-16983

First published 1899

"Not restricted to the incidents of the family relations and court society. It shows in a hundred ways how thoroly renaissance life was steeped in classicism, it investigates the political aims of Ludovico, it enters upon the relations of Venice with the northern states of Italy and it brings the French across the Alps. . . Beatrice had the good fortune to die before her husband lost his throne, and remained in popular memory the radiant queen of a golden age." Nation

Beatrice, D'Este—Continued
Bibliography: pref. p9-11

Beaux, Cecilia. See class 759.1

Beecher, Henry Ward, 1813-1887
Abbott, Lyman, 1835-1922. Henry Ward Beecher. Houghton 1903 xxxviii,457p illus o.p. 1939 92
3-28566

"Appreciative interpretation of Mr Beecher's character and of his message to the world." Pittsburgh
Bibliography: pref. p17-38

Paxton Hibben's "Henry Ward Beecher: an American portrait" (Doran 1927 390p illus o.p. 1939) is a psychological study of the famous preacher in which his faults and virtues are plainly set forth

Beers, Clifford Whittingham, 1876-
Mind that found itself; an autobiography. Doubleday 434, 21p front $2.50 92
1 Insane—Care and treatment 2 Insanity 3 Mental physiology and hygiene
40-3416

"First edition, March 1908 . . . 25th anniversary edition, issued March, 1935, with additions . . . reprinted, May, 1939."

"Account of the author's experience in a private sanatorium and in an insane asylum. His purpose in writing the book is to rob insanity of many of its terrors, at least those which do not rightly belong to it; to correct existing abuses; and to elevate the standard of treatment." Pittsburgh

Beethoven, Ludwig van, 1770-1827
Rolland, Romain, 1866- Goethe and Beethoven. See entry under Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von

See also class 780.92

Belbenoit, René, 1899-
Dry guillotine; fifteen years among the living dead, by Prisoner no. 46635; illus. by a fellow prisoner; with an introduction by William La Varre. Dutton 1938 345p illus $3 92
1 Devil's island 2 Escapes 3 French Guiana—Exiles (W) 38-5706

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1

"Straightforward account of life in the French penal camp, usually known as Devil's island. Beginning with his early life as a respectable citizen of Paris, the author describes his war experiences, the theft for which he was condemned to Guiana, the trip on the prisonship, and the unspeakable horrors of the daily life in the camp. He concludes with the tale of his escape and arrival in the United States, clad in rags, but carrying thirty pounds of manuscript notes, from which he wrote the book." Book rev. digest

"The story is monumental in its power and sincerity, and it is as shocking and inhuman a story as the reader will ever find." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bell, Alexander Graham, 1847-1922
Mackenzie, Catherine Dunlop. Alexander Graham Bell, the man who contracted space. Grosset 1928 382p illus $1 92
[28-28948]

Formerly carried by Houghton
"For ten years the author was Dr. Bell's secretary, custodian of his papers, and the recipient of his genial reminiscences. It is a simply written book, well documented and unbiased. Illustrated with photographs and cartoons." Ontario library review

"One of America's greatest scientists is presented here not only as a discoverer, but as a man; intensely alive, filled with enthusiasm about the human world, as well as about the world of ideas." Sat. rev. of lit.

Bennett, Arnold, 1867-1931
Journal. Viking 1932-33 3v in 1 $5 92
1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (32-14139)

"Readers of literary interests will find these pages from Arnold Bennett's voluminous journals quite absorbing. Not only do they suggest the inception and development of his own novels, they give much, by way of casual reference, of the literary and theatrical history of his time." Wis. bul.

Benson, Edward Frederic, 1867-
As we are; a modern revue. Longmans 1932 307p $3 92
1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 England—Social life and customs 32-31020

Some libraries have classed this book in 914.2 but it is placed here to bring it into closer relation with the author's earlier book

"Mr Benson follows his recollections of the Victorian era contained in As We Were with a picture of British post-war society, showing the changes which the war has brought about in manners, morals and literature and especially in the outlook of the younger generation. . . In a chapter entitled Grub street, Benson discusses post-war literature." Book rev. digest

" 'As We Are,' though frankly a hodge-podge, ranks high as a presentation of stimulating and provocative ideas, clothed at times in a novel and entertaining form." Springfield Republican

As we were; a Victorian peep show. Longmans 1931 306p illus (Evergreen ser.) o.p. 1939 92
1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 England—Social life and customs 31-8692

"There were few men of real eminence in the last glittering decades of the Victorian era whom the author, son of the Archbishop of Canterbury and one of a well-known literary family, did not meet on terms of intimacy. They are all to be seen in this human 'peep show'—Gladstone and Queen Victoria, Tennyson, Browning, Swinburne, Oscar Wilde and the great ladies of the Victorian pageant, endowed by their memorist with a certain grandeur, yet treated with a sense of humor." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Benson has his likes and dislikes which he does not disguise, but he is a good showman, and although he calls his show a peep-show, it is really a show on the grand scale. His fat ladies are prodigious, his living skeletons rattle, and his fun is all the fun of the fair." Saturday rev.

Bentley, Richard, 1662-1742

Jebb, Sir Richard Claverhouse, 1841-1905. Richard Bentley. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Benton, Thomas Hart, 1782-1858

Roosevelt, Theodore, president U.S. 1858-1919. Thomas H. Benton. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Benton, Thomas Hart, 1889- See class 759.1

Berge, Victor

* Berge, Victor and Lanier, Henry Wysham, 1873- Pearl diver; adventuring over and under southern seas; illus. by Stephen Haweis. Sun dial 368p illus 75c 92

1 Diving, Submarine 2 Islands of the Pacific 3 Pearl fisheries 4 Seafaring life 30-3975

Reprint of a book first published 1930 by Doubleday

"To Mr. Lanier Victor Berge told the story of his adventures. And Mr. Lanier transcribed it with such fidelity to its spirit as well as its matter, that Mr. Berge declared that in the finished narrative he 'found himself.' Seldom, evidently, is collaboration so entirely successful." Boston Transcript

"Victor Berge's own story of his boyhood in a Swedish village, his sea adventures, and the beginning of his life as a pearl diver in the East. He describes his adventures with sea monsters, narrates anecdotes of cannibals and South sea headhunters, and gives first-hand information on the value of pearls and coral." Book rev. digest

Berlin, Irving, 1888- See class 780.92

Berlioz, Hector, 1803-1869. See class 780.92

Berry, Martha McChesney, 1866-

Byers, Tracy. Martha Berry; the Sunday lady of Possum Trot. Putnam 1932 268p illus $3.50 92

1 Berry school, Rome, Ga. 32-26503

"Eight thousand boys and girls have 'come ter get larnin' since Martha Berry, cultured Southerner, 30 years ago deeded her land to found a school for 'poor whites' of Georgia. . . . The book is an inspiriting and amusing anecdotal record of her indomitable energy in developing the school and raising money for its support." N.Y. libraries

Beveridge, Albert Jeremiah, 1862-1927

Bowers, Claude Gernade, 1879- Beveridge and the progressive era. Houghton 1932 xxiv,610p illus $5 92

1 U.S.—Politics and government—1865-1898 2 U.S.—Politics and government—1898- 32-22530

"The life of Senator Beveridge is the thread along which the story is developed, but, although the attention is focused upon him, his portrait becomes merely a part of the picture. Scores of other figures are depicted on that grand canvas which, besides, is devoted as much to the events as to the personalities who played a role in them. . . Mr. Bowers's work, the record of a whole epoch, deserves all praise. Like a huge river, his narrative flows. It is by its powerful, slow motion and by its comprehensiveness that such a book should be judged, not by the artistry of style and the phrasing of sentences." Boston

Bibliography: p591-93

Beyle, Marie Henri, 1783-1842

Green, Frederick Charles, 1891- Stendhal. Macmillan 1939 336p $3.50 92

[39-16355]

"Biography of a French novelist and man of letters of the early nineteenth century. In his preface the author describes his work as follows: 'This book is not a biographie romancée but an attempt to relate the events of Stendhal's life as they probably occurred. In the rare places where it has been necessary to resort to conjecture, the reader is plainly told so.'" Book rev. digest

"Critical, expository and appreciatory biography that fills a vacancy that has existed for more than half a century in English letters." N.Y. Times

Biddle, George, 1885- See class 759.1

Bierce, Ambrose, 1842-1914?

McWilliams, Carey. Ambrose Bierce; a biography. Boni 1929 358p o.p. 1939 92

29-29136

"Mr. McWilliams, in a sound and scholarly book, sheds bright light on Bierce's eccentric personality and on his hectic literary career, tracing the record down to Bierce's still unexplained disappearance somewhere in war-torn Mexico. He shows sound critical judgment in depicting Bierce as primarily a super-journalist, not a literary creator in any sense." Current history

Bibliography: p337-46

Bismarck, Otto fürst von, 1815-1898

Ludwig, Emil, 1881- Bismarck; the story of a fighter; tr. from the German by Eden and Cedar Paul. Little 1927 661p illus $4.50 92

1 Europe—Politics 2 Germany—Politics and government 3 Prussia—Politics and government 27-23494

"Bismarck's inner history is told with fascinating insight. The colouring is as brilliant and the mastery of dramatic presentation is as sure as formerly. Only it must be confessed, in one or two places, one is conscious of slight touches which to a critical historian seem perhaps questionable, if not certainly misleading. These occasions, however, are few. As a full-length portait of Bismarck this book may certainly challenge comparison with any other." Saturday rev.

Two additional recommended biographies of Bismarck are:

Headlam-Morley, Sir J. W. Bismarck and the foundations of the German empire. Putnam 1899 471p illus map $3

Robertson, Sir C. G. Bismarck. Constable 1918 520p front (Makers of the nineteenth century) 10s 6d

Bizet, Georges, 1838-1875. See class 780.92

Blaine, James Gillespie, 1830-1893

Muzzey, David Saville, 1870- James G. Blaine; a political idol of other days. Dodd 1934 514p illus (Am. political leaders) $4 92

34-32559

"Detailed and unbiased biography of James G. Blaine, Republican senator from Maine, who was known as the Plumed Knight. For twenty-five years he was leader of the Republican party, and in 1884, was an unsuccessful candidate for the presidency. . . Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Professor Muzzey has given us an admirably detached and generally judicius

Blaine, James G.—Continued
volume; he has plainly tried to make it entirely so. It is delightfully written and well documented. The narrative flows steadily on and is of absorbing interest. It is not too much interrupted by the necessary historical background, yet it is [a] compact history . . . of the United States during Blaine's active life." Nation

Stanwood, Edward, 1841-1923. James Gillespie Blaine. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Blake, William, 1757-1827
Burdett, Osbert, 1885-1936. William Blake. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Bok, Edward William, 1863-1930
* Americanization of Edward Bok; the autobiography of a Dutch boy fifty years after. Scribner 1920 461p illus $2.50, school ed $1 92

20-17333

"Author writes of himself as an outsider, introducing himself as an immigrant Dutch boy of six and following his public career and successes through his editorship of the 'Ladies' home journal.' Awarded the Pulitzer prize 1920-21 'for the best American biography teaching patriotic and unselfish services to the people, illustrated by an eminent example.' Illustrations." N.Y. state lib.

E. W. Bok's "Dutch boy fifty years after" (Scribner 1921 xxii,217p illus 84c) is an abridged edition for young people. "Twice thirty" consists of further episodes drawn from Mr. Bok's experiences (Scribner 1925 539p $4.50)

Bolívar, Simón, 1783-1830
Clinton, Daniel Joseph, 1900- Man of glory; by Thomas Rourke [pseud]. Morrow 1939 385p illus map $3.50 92

39-30361

"Bolivar's history is a story of innumerable battles, heroic marches through tropical swamps and across icy mountain ranges, colorful episodes with women, struggles with the jealousy and intrigues of military and political rivals, and finally defeat, disillusion, and death. A life so full of romance and adventure naturally makes good reading, and Mr. Rourke's. . . though it adds nothing new to the record, presents in interesting wise this odyssey of glory." Book-of-the-month club news

Vaucaire, Michel. Bolivar the Liberator; tr. from the French by Margaret Reed. Houghton 205p illus (Riverside lib.) $1 92

[29-13401]

A satisfactory cheap reprint of a book first published 1929 by Houghton

"A terse, dramatic account of the adventures and achievements of Simon Bolivar, the young Spanish noble who dedicated his life to freeing Colombia from Spanish rule." Cleveland

"It must be admitted that the translator, Miss Margaret Baines Reed, has done her work very well indeed, and in her capable hands the graphic style of M. Vaucaire had lost none of its native vigour." Saturday rev.

Phyllis Marschall and John Crane's "Dauntless liberator" (Appleton-Century 1933 306p illus maps $2.50) is another interesting life of Bolivar, which will be enjoyed by adults as well as by the young people for whom it is written

Bonheur, Rosa. See class 759.4

Boone, Daniel, 1734-1820
‡ Bakeless, John Edwin, 1894- Master of the wilderness, Daniel Boone. Morrow 1939 480p illus maps $3.50 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life (W) 39-27625

"Daniel Boone, explorer, trapper, Indian fighter and frontiersman, became a half-legendary figure during his own life-time. In this . . . full, authentic and carefully documented biography, based on recently discovered material, [the author] gives us Boone as he really was, a stirring and heroic figure of a man." Baldwin

"This book accomplishes a much-needed task; exhausting the sources on Boone's career, it corrects and amplifies all previous records, and offers as nearly definitive a life of the wilderness hero as can be produced in 1939. It is remarkable how much Mr. Bakeless's story freshens and amplifies even Reuben Gold Thwaites's book on Boone. It is unlikely that future writers will find much to add to the record here given." Allan Nevins in Sat. rev. of lit.

Thwaites, Reuben Gold, 1853-1913. Daniel Boone. Appleton-Century 1902 257p $2 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2-20873

"Defines Boone's place among western pioneers in the light of manuscripts in Wisconsin historical society library." Nation

H. A. B. Bruce's "Daniel Boone and the Wilderness road" (Macmillan 1910 349p illus $1.75) is a popular biography based partly upon the work of Thwaites

White, Stewart Edward, 1873- Daniel Boone, wilderness scout; illus. by Remington Schuyler. Sun dial 308p illus 75c 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life [22-26986]

Reprint of a book first published 1922 by Doubleday, Page

"Inspiring account of Boone's exploits as explorer and frontiersman, attributing his fame to his character rather than to his courage. Information about the life of the times and the Indians of the period supplies a colorful background. Written for Boy scouts, but interesting to adults as well." N.Y. state lib.

Booth, Edwin Thomas, 1833-1893
Goodale, Mrs Katherine (Molony) Behind the scenes with Edwin Booth; with a foreword by Mrs Fiske. Houghton 1931 327p illus $4 92

1 Actors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 31-12996

"A charming and often humorous record of a year spent in a theatrical company touring with Edwin Booth. The fascination and genius, the character and temperament of the great actor have been transferred to the printed page by one of 'the Chickens,' Booth's affectionate name for three young actresses who drew him out of his lonely seclusion by their gaiety and eager delight in his companionship. Photographs." N.Y. libraries

Otis Skinner's "Last tragedian; Booth tells his own story" (Dodd 1939 213p illus $3) (W) consists largely of Booth's correspondence with his first wife, Mary Devlin, with commentaries by Skinner. It gives a good picture of theatrical life in America during the last century

Booth, William, 1829-1912

Begbie, Harold, 1871-1929. Life of William Booth, the founder of the Salvation army. . . . Abridged ed Macmillan 1926 2v illus $5 92

1 Salvation army [20-5263]

First published 1920. The 1926 edition is abridged and condensed but contains the important facts of the earlier one, and about one half the number of illustrations

"A sympathetic, enthusiastic account of the life of the founder of the Salvation army. The introduction of letters, tributes from royalty, newspaper excerpts and conversations with converts add to the interest and adequacy but make it of excessive length." Cleveland

St John Greer Ervine's "God's soldier: General William Booth" (Macmillan 1935 2v illus $7.50) is another very detailed study which may be preferred to Begbie's life

Borrow, George Henry, 1803-1881

Lavengro, the scholar, the Gypsy, the priest; a new ed containing the unaltered text of the original issue, some suppressed episodes, ms. variorum, vocabulary and notes by the author of The life of George Borrow. Putnam 1910 xxv,569p illus $3.50 92

12-16114

Also obtainable from Macmillan in the Modern readers' series at $1

"Account of the author's wanderings thru the British Isles as a champion of religious liberty. He relates his experiences among gypsies and his conversations with chance acquaintances. The interest in the narrative is maintained by a continuous thread of mystery." Pratt alcove

George Borrow's "Romany rye" (Putnam 1900 $3.50) continues "Lavengro"

Bostwick, Arthur Elmore, 1860-

Life with men and books. Wilson, H.W. 1939 358p illus $3.25 92

1 Libraries (W) 39-17432

Reminiscences of a teacher, editor, author, and librarian from before the Civil war to the present, with an account of visits to China, Japan, and Italy

"A gift for easy narrative and witty anecdote make this record of Mr. Bostwick's life with men and books unusually good reading. The breadth of experiences encompassed, in teaching, editing and library activity, give it an interest for the general reader, while to the library profession its appeal is without question." Wis. bul.

Boswell, James, 1740-1795

Tinker, Chauncey Brewster, 1876- Young Boswell; chapters on James Boswell, the biographer based largely on new material. Little 1922 266p illus o.p. 1939 92

[22-7770]

"The author . . . has written this book on the youth of the great biographer from new materials at his command. In the form of delightfully informal chapters which give personality to a man who has always been thought of as the mere shadow of a greater man. Interesting illustrations and facsimiles and an excellent index." Wis. bul.

James Boswell's "Letters; edited by C. B. Tinker" (Oxford 1924 2v $12) is a carefully edited collection of nearly four hundred letters, most of them addressed to William Temple

Botticelli, Alessandro Filipepi. See class 759.5

Bradford, Gamaliel, 1863-1932

Journal of Gamaliel Bradford, 1883-1932; ed. by Van Wyck Brooks. Houghton 1933 560p front $5 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 33-27386

"A work of unusual interest. For some fifty years, from the age of 19 when ill health forced his withdrawal from Harvard, up to his death in 1932, Gamaliel Bradford kept a daily Journal in which he recorded his reading, his thinking, his writing and mental development. Readers who knew him only in the later years of his life when success came to him, will find here a picture of his whole life as revealing as one of his own psychographs. The range of his reading in early youth is particularly impressive." Wis. bul.

Brahms, Johannes, 1833-1897. See class 780.92

Brandeis, Louis Dembitz, 1856-

Lief, Alfred. Brandeis; the personal history of an American ideal. Stackpole sons 1936 508p illus $3 92

36-20433

"Others may draw a clearer personal portrait of Mr. Brandeis than is given us by Mr. Lief, who has plainly preferred to let the Justice stand out through his actions and his words; others will doubtless characterize and evaluate the Justice with bolder and more penetrating strokes of the pen. It will be difficult, however, for anyone to give us a better understanding of the extraordinary extent of Justice Brandeis's activities and influence upon our national life." Nation

A. T. Mason's "Brandeis: lawyer and judge in the modern state" (Princeton univ. press 1933 203p $2) deals with the public activities and constitutional principles of the great lawyer rather than with personal details

Brant, Mrs Cornelia (Chase)

Colver, Mrs Alice Mary (Ross) 1892- and Birdsall, Mrs Helen (Brant) 1892- Dream within her hand. Macrae Smith 1940 309p illus $2.75 92

(W) 40-27377

At head of title: Life of Dr Cornelia Chase Brant

A woman who combined a distinguished medical career with marriage and motherhood. Bibliography

"From changing times and burning questions and difficult problems she has isolated a human story of extraordinary force and significance, and has told it with warmth, vigor and charm." N.Y. Times

Breshko-Breshkovskaîa, Ekaterina Konstantinovna (Verigo) 1844-1934

Blackwell, Alice Stone, 1857- ed. Little grandmother of the Russian revolution; reminiscences and letters of Catherine Breshkovsky. Little 1917 348p front $3 92

17-31436

"The editor has gathered her material from three sources: Madame Breshkovsky's own account of her childhood and youth dictated to Dr Abraham Cohan and published serially in Yiddish in the New York Jewish daily forward in 1904; letters to her son and others, most of them written since 1904, and her account of her prison

Breshko-Breshkovskaîa, E. K. V.—Continued
life given to Ernest Poole and published in the Outlook. The letters form the most interesting part of the book, revealing as they do a personality of unusual sweetness and strength, and giving intimate pictures of peasant life." Cleveland

Brett, William Howard, 1846-1918
Eastman, Linda Anne, 1867- Portrait of a librarian: William Howard Brett. A.L.A. 1940 104p front (American library pioneers) $2.75 92

40-27318

"A biographical tribute to the personal character and professional career of an American library pioneer, by one who worked closely with him. The library system Mr. Brett built in Cleveland '. . . is not only a monument to his genius as a librarian, but through it he gave a compelling interpretation of the place and power of books as a force in education and society.' " Bkl.

Bretz, Mrs Alice
* I begin again. McGraw 1940 201p (Whittlesey house publications) $1.75 92

1 Blind (W) 40-27060

The "autobiography of a woman who loses her sight, in middle life, after a critical illness. She tells of her first years of blindness, of the rapid progress in learning Braille, of learning how to occupy herself, how to entertain, and, suddenly, of how to face a life without her husband, without a companion. This is a record of her daily life, her care of herself, her apartment, her housekeeping problems—the building of a life entirely independent." Kirkus

"Her experience in learning to find her way around and live happily in the dark will be valuable to other blind persons, and the contagion of her buoyant spirit will be invaluable to those who have sight." Christian century

Bright, John, 1811-1889
Trevelyan, George Macaulay, 1876- Life of John Bright. Constable 1913 480p illus 7s 6d 92

1 Great Britain—Politics and government—19th century 13-15882

Formerly carried also by Houghton

"The principal subjects treated are the Anti-corn-law league, Bright's resistance to the Crimean war and to European entanglements generally, his support of the northern cause during the American Civil war, his early advocacy of Irish church and land legislation, and above all, the winning of the vote for the working-men, the cause to which the best years of his life were given. His private life, with glimpses of old industrial Lancashire and the Quaker community of seventy years ago, is not neglected." Pittsburgh

"Mr Trevelyan . . . is singularly well equipped for the writing of the story of the struggles of the man who was probably the best loved and most widely respected of Victorian statesmen." Amer. hist. rev.

Some books on John Bright, p11

Brittain, Vera Mary
‡ Testament of youth; an autobiographical study of the years 1900-1925. Macmillan 1933 661p $2.50, royal ed $1 92

1 European war, 1914-1918—Personal narratives 33-30135

"A profoundly moving document, in which an Englishwoman discloses how the World War wrought havoc in her own life and in the youth of her generation. This eager, intelligent girl's 'tutelage to horror and death' as a V. A. D. nurse at home, in France and the Mediterranean, her agony of mind, while her devoted brother, her brilliant fiancé and friends are all at the front, illustrate significantly the tragedy, stupidity and frustrations of war everywhere." N.Y. libraries

Thrice a stranger. Macmillan 1938 435p $2.50 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 U.S.—Social life and customs (W) 38-27624

An interpretation of American life as seen by the author in three visits: 1925, 1934, 1937. "For me the essential temper of America, which I have tried with a foreigner's audacity to interpret in these pages, has altered beyond recognition in the last decade. And to the extent, that, instead of criticising, I have tried more humbly to understand it as the years have passed, I have become, not more of a stranger, but infinitely less." Foreword

"Interesting and suggestive reading. Its value lies in its earnestness and candor, its generous receptivity, its passionate will toward peace in the midst of the fear of war; and as the expression of affection and hope it is profoundly touching." N.Y. Times

Brontë, Charlotte, 1816-1855
Benson, Edward Frederic, 1867-1940. Charlotte Brontë. Longmans 1932 313p illus $4 92

32-16754

"His efforts to fathom the secret of Emily are sound and valuable. Charlotte, because she revealed herself so completely, must always remain the central figure, and Benson has given her a splendid piece of interpretative biography. But he has left out something—the seasoning. We find here the slightly acrid and self-righteous Charlotte, the capable and executive Charlotte, the timid and self-conscious Charlotte, the pride, courage and sensitiveness of the woman; but we miss the brilliant girl who, in her own circle, could be so animated, satirical and witty." New republic

E. E. Kinsley's "Pattern for genius: a story of Bramwell Bronte and his three sisters." (Dutton 1939 384p illus $3.50) (W) is a biography pieced together from the letters, diaries and novels of Charlotte, Emily and Anne

Dimnet, Ernest, 1866- Brontë sisters; tr. from the French by L. M. Sill. Harcourt 1928 256p o.p. 1939 92

1 Brontë family 29-11398

The first English translation of a charming French work published in 1910 which some critics consider the best book on the Brontë's. The appendix contains Charlotte Brontë's four letters to M. Héger which were discovered in 1913

"M. Dimnet is of those who are happiest with Charlotte. He understood both her gifts and her limitations, her literary ambitions and her shrinking from the consequences of success in them, and his criticism of her several works and of her writings as a whole, offered with great simplicity, is fresh, sound and stimulating." Saturday rev.

Brontë, Charlotte—Continued

Gaskell, Mrs Elizabeth Cleghorn (Stevenson) 1810-1865. Life of Charlotte Brontë. Dutton 1908 xxiii,411p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 92

A10-25

First published 1857

"In the whole of English biographical literature there is no book that can compare in widespread interest with the 'Life of Charlotte Brontë' by Mrs Gaskell. . . As far as mere readers are concerned, it may indeed claim its hundreds as against the tens of intrinsically more important rivals. Mrs Gaskell was herself a popular novelist, who commanded a very wide audience. She brought to bear upon the biography of Charlotte Brontë all those literary gifts which had made the charm of her seven volumes of romance. And these gifts were employed upon a romance of real life, not less fascinating than anything which imagination could have furnished. . . It is quite certain that Charlotte Brontë would not stand on so splendid a pedestal today but for the single-minded devotion of her accomplished biographer." Clement K. Shorter

Brooks, Phillips, bp. 1835-1893

Lawrence, William, bp. 1850- Life of Phillips Brooks. Harper 1930 151p front (Creative lives) $2 92

30-25131

"A dignified and inspiring biography and appreciation of Phillips Brooks, in which one is made to feel the sincerity and integrity and power of this great preacher." Providence

"It is amazing that in so brief a work the author can convey so successfully the impression of the enormous physical stature, the magnetic and magnificent personal presence, the passionate and burning eloquence and the exalted spirit of one of the supreme religious leaders in American history." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Brown, John, 1800-1859

Villard, Oswald Garrison, 1872- John Brown, 1800-1859; a biography fifty years after. Houghton 1910 738p illus map o.p. 1939 92

10-22262

"Impartial, exhaustive study of Brown's singular character and career, following his life day by day throughout the active period and 'testing every printed or verbal statement with the rigid thoroughness of a laboratory investigator.'" N.Y. state lib.

Bibliography: p689-709

Brown, Mrs Maria Dean (Foster) 1827-1929

Brown, Mrs Harriet Chedie (Connor) 1872- Grandmother Brown's hundred years, 1827-1927. Little 1929 xx,369p illus $3 92

1 The West—Social life and customs

29-22546

"Bit by bit, near the close of a long life, Grandmother Brown pieces together her memories. Out of her precious hoard come the homely and heroic details of drudgery on an Iowa farm, of pain and pleasure, of joy in her many children, in their baby ways and their mature achievements. A picture of pioneer life, as well as of later years in the middle west, but of greatest interest is the figure of this dauntless and cheerful woman. Atlantic $5000 prize biography. Photographs." N.Y. libraries

Browne, Sir Thomas, 1605-1682

Gosse, Sir Edmund William, 1849-1928. Sir Thomas Browne. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Browning, Mrs Elizabeth (Barrett) 1806-1861

Letters of Robert Browning and E. B. Browning, 1845-1846. See entry under Browning, Robert and Browning, Mrs Elizabeth (Barrett)

Boas, Mrs Louise (Schutz) Elizabeth Barrett Browning. Longmans 1930 216p illus o.p. 1939 92

30-6271

"A spirited re-telling of the story of Elizabeth Barrett Browning and one that makes undeniably good reading. Although evidently a great admirer of her subject, Mrs. Boas, without losing the power to project herself into the lives of her characters, writes with a cool detachment." Providence

For those who wish to read Mrs Browning's own words, the following letters are available:

Baynes, D. J. Andromeda in Wimpole street, by Dormer Creston, pseud. Dutton 1930 286p illus $2 Consists largely of letters

Browning, Mrs E. B. Letters to her sister, 1846-1859; ed. by Leonard Huxley. Dutton 1930 344p illus $5

Burdett, Osbert, 1885-1936. The Brownings. Houghton 1929 345p $2.50 92

29-6264

"Tells the story of these two kindred souls, their elopement and married life. More of the book is devoted to Elizabeth than to Robert, the account of her home life before her marriage reading like a Bronte novel." Wis. bul.

"An excellent book and one that no lover of the Brownings can possibly afford to miss. . . Mr. Burdett makes skillful, and sometimes brilliant, use of his opportunity to compare and contrast the two minds. His criticisms are always suggestive and usually convincing." Saturday rev.

"Short bibliography": p339

Woolf, Mrs Virginia (Stephen) 1882- Flush, a biography. Harcourt 1933 185p illus $2 92

1 Dogs—Stories 33-27336

"Biography of the famous golden cocker spaniel that Miss Mitford gave as a token of friendship to her invalid friend, Elizabeth Barrett. Mrs Woolf makes Flush both a real person and a real dog. He is treated with the delicate insight that his personality deserves and thru the dog's sensitive and loving eyes his poet mistress is viewed." Book rev. digest

"No one but Mrs. Woolf could have written this book, and she has brought to it most of her characteristic gifts—irony, humour, affectionate comprehension, poetic imagination, and the delicate, supple and lively prose of which these qualities form the texture. The result is a book of irresistible grace and charm." Spectator

Browning, Robert, 1812-1889

Burdett, Osbert, 1885-1936. The Brownings. See entry under Browning, Mrs Elizabeth (Barrett)

Chesterton, Gilbert Keith, 1874-1936. Robert Browning. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Browning, Robert—Continued

Dowden, Edward, 1843-1913. Robert Browning. Dutton 1904 404p illus (Everyman's lib.) 90c 92

[4-19421]

"Specially interesting as a study of his poems, narrating events of life as related to and interpreting them." N.Y. state lib.

Orr, Mrs Alexandra (Leighton) 1828-1903. Life and letters of Robert Browning. new ed rev and in part rewritten by F. G. Kenyon Houghton 1908 431p $4 92

8-35720

An edition authorized by the poet's family, first published in 1891. In the revised edition the material has been rearranged, amplified and corrected. A narrative of the poet's last illness, written by his son, has been substituted for Mrs Orr's account

"Her details . . . of the poet's youth are abundant without being in the least tedious; her account of his middle life is judicious and pleasing; her sketch of his triumphal progress at the end, succinct and well-tempered." Saturday rev.

Browning, Robert, 1812-1889, and Browning, Mrs Elizabeth (Barrett) 1806-1861

Letters of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 1845-1846. . . Harper 1899 2v fronts $7.50 92

99-601

"These are all the letters that ever passed between Mr and Mrs Browning, and date from some time before their first meeting to their departure together for the continent a week after their marriage. Before his death Mr Browning destroyed all his correspondence except these letters which he left to his son to do with as he liked." Pittsburgh

"A remarkable revelation of beautiful character. The sense that so intimate a set of letters should not be laid bare to the public has been gradually overcome by the perception of their singular charm." Leslie Stephen

Robert Browning's "Letters; collected by T. J. Wise and ed. with an introduction and notes by T. L. Hood (Yale univ. press 1933 389p illus $5) contain many hitherto unpublished letters from 1838-1889. His letters to his wife are not included

Brush, Mrs Katharine (Ingham) 1902-

This is on me; illus. by Susanne Suba. Farrar 1940 436p illus $2.75 92

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 40-27509

The author's own story and also the stories of her writings, how they were started, what the problems were in doing them, and what happened to them after they were finished. She includes in the narrative illustrative pieces, some of them previously unpublished—stories, diary selections, articles, excerpts

"Dated in viewpoint and self-consciously flip, but honest and humorous. Part of the contents has been published in various magazines." New Yorker

Bryan, William Jennings, 1860-1925

Werner, Morris Robert, 1897- Bryan. Harcourt 1929 374p illus o.p. 1939 92

29-9283

"The author portrays in light hearted fashion the picturesque career of Bryan, that extraordinary and simple man who could captivate a nation by his phrase making and his resonant voice, who believed in himself implicitly and who ended his days not in political but in religious controversy. Appeared in Liberty." Wis. bul.

Bibliography: p361-65

Paxton Hibben's "Peerless leader" (Farrar 1929 446p illus o.p. 1939) is a readable, unflattering portrait of Bryan, more detailed than Werner's life

Bryant, William Cullen, 1794-1878

Bradley, William Aspenwall, 1878- William Cullen Bryant. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Bülow, Bernhard Heinrich Martin Karl, fürst von, 1849-1929

Memoirs; tr. from the German by F. A. Voigt. Little 1933 3v illus $9 92

1 Germany—Foreign relations 2 Germany—Politics and government [31-15717]

Originally published in 4 volumes 1931-32. The shorter and cheaper edition omits the fourth volume which covers von Bülow's early years and diplomatic service

"The most sensational and entertaining, if not the most important, of all post-bellum diplomatic reminiscences. They are vast in conception and monumental in execution." N.Y. Times

"Of absorbing interest and of very considerable historic value. His bias is obvious, but his knowledge of men and affairs is wide and intimate, and he is a witty and entertaining writer." Spectator

Bunyan, John, 1628-1688

Froude, James Anthony, 1818-1894. Bunyan. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Burbank, Luther, 1849-1926

Harvest of the years, by Luther Burbank, with Wilbur Hall. Houghton 1927 xxvi,296p illus (Riverside lib.) $1 92

1 Plant breeding [27-8177]

"Consists of chapters dictated to or discussed with Mr. Hall, who did the actual writing. Constitutes Mr. Burbank's scientific and spiritual autobiography, describing the experimental methods by which he achieved his results and the philosophical conclusions to which they led him. A fascinating book." Wis. bul.

Burke, Edmund, 1729?-1797

Morley, John Morley, viscount, 1838-1923. Burke. Macmillan 1879 220p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

A22-545

"A fine analysis and critical study of the great political thinker, his times and his work." Pittsburgh

Burke, Thomas, 1887-

The wind and the rain; a book of confessions. Butterworth, T. 1924 288p 2s 6d 92

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. [24-28112]

Formerly carried also by Doran

"An autobiography covering years from early childhood until the author of 'Limehouse nights' found himself as a writer. It is a story of intellectual and spiritual development, written with such artistic selection of detail that it has all the fascination of a novel

Burns, Robert, 1759-1796

Carswell, Mrs Catherine (MacFarlane) 1879- Life of Robert Burns. Chatto 1930 467p illus 7s 6d 92

[31-120]

Formerly carried also by Harcourt

The same author has reduced this study of Burns from 467 to 141 pages and published it in the Great lives series (Macmillan 1933 75c)

"The author is conspicuously free from moral prejudices, she does not suppress anything that is relevant, she has obviously been content throughout with nothing less than the original sources, and her one desire, it is perfectly clear, is to present a true picture. She has also discovered, or released, a quantity of material which has appeared in no former life of Burns. The result is that she has created a new literary character, a figure which seems almost novel after the conventional one." Nation and Athenaeum

Robert Burns' "Letters" edited by J. D. Ferguson (Oxford 1931 2v $12) is an important collection of about 700 letters, edited from the original manuscripts. Some 68 of the letters are printed here for the first time

Lockhart, John Gibson, 1794-1854. Life of Robert Burns. Dutton 1907 322p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 92

7-15536

"Written . . . with great skill, but we must use a better word—with perfect understanding and feeling of Burns' genius and character." Blackwood's magazine

Shairp, John Campbell, 1819-1885. Burns. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Burr, Aaron, 1756-1836

Alexander, Holmes Moss, 1906- Aaron Burr, the proud pretender. Harper 1937 390p illus $3.50 92

37-27140

"It is as interpretation that the book is most interesting and most successful. It cannot be said, indeed, that Mr. Alexander has added anything of importance to our knowledge of Burr, but it can be said that he has illuminated our understanding of Burr." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p375-82

Wandell, Samuel Henry, 1860- and Minnigerode, Meade, 1887- Aaron Burr; a biography compiled from rare, and in many cases unpublished sources. . . . Putnam 1925 2v illus o.p. 1939 92

25-21895

"Wandell and Minnigerode set out to defend Burr against his enemies. . . Both men could see only one side of the picture, presenting Burr as a great man publicly and privately." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

"In these two finely illustrated, and at times very well-written, volumes, the authors have handled a vast deal of material, much of it new, with great intelligence. The authors have presented their well-documented biography with a spontaneity and freshness which is engaging." Independent

Burroughs, John, 1837-1921

Heart of Burroughs's journals; ed. by Clara Barrus. Houghton 1928 361p front $3 92

28-23950

Selections from the journals and notebooks of Burroughs from 1854 to 1921

"Dr. Barrus worshiped the man whose biographer she became; but she has been honest in her selections from his journals; they reveal the man, as she puts it herself, 'warts and all.'" Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

John Burroughs' "Life and letters" (Houghton 1925 2v illus $12.50) also the work of his literary executor, Clara Barrus, is an exhaustive biography derived from his journals, letters and miscellaneous material

My boyhood; with a conclusion by his son Julian Burroughs, illus. from photographs and from paintings by Julian Burroughs. Doubleday, Page 1922 247p illus o.p. 1939 92

22-7305

"Contains two sketches, 'My boyhood,' written by John Burroughs in the last year of his life, and 'My father,' written by his son, Julian Burroughs. The first is simply written and is full of the mellow philosophy of the naturalist's later years. It appeared in 'Harper's magazine.' Many letters written to his son are quoted in the second sketch." Wis. bul.

Burton, Sir Richard Francis, 1821-1890

Dearden, Seton, 1905- Burton of Arabia; the life story of Sir Richard Francis Burton. McBride 1937 334p illus $3 92

37-5310

Published in England under title: The Arabian knight

A study of the adventurous explorer, traveler, and translator of the "Arabian nights"

"A vivid, scholarly and fascinating book in which historic, character and narrative values are efficiently balanced, and the incongruities of romantic reality and the ironies of events and characters are handled with sympathy, sophistication and restraint." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

F. D. Downey's "Burton, Arabian nights adventurer" (Scribner 1931 300p illus $3) also obtainable in a reprint (Modern age 1938 155p front pa 35c) is another readable biography

Butler, Nicholas Murray, 1862-

Across the busy years; recollections and reflections. Scribner 1939-40 v 1-2 illus ea $3.75 92

(W) (39-27850)

"Few men in American public life have had more influence or more wide and varied contacts than has the president of Columbia University. Here he tells of his career in education and politics, giving entertaining and revealing glimpses of almost every great American and many famous Europeans who have been in the limelight during the last twenty years." Cincinnati

Byrd, Richard Evelyn, 1888-

‡ Alone; decorations by R. E. Harrison. Putnam 1938 296p illus $2.50 92

1 Antarctic regions (W) 38-27911

Admiral Byrd's own account of the dreary five months isolation at Advance Base in the Antarctic in 1934

"This story in its events is a breathless and almost shattering drama, one of the most intense and moving dramas of our own or any time." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Byrd, Richard E.—Continued

* Skyward. . . Putnam 1928 359p illus $3.50 92

1 Aeronautics—Flights 28-9367

"Man's mastery of the air as shown by the brilliant flights of America's leading air explorer. His life, his thrilling adventures, his North pole and trans-Atlantic flights, together with his plans for conquering the Antarctic by air." Subtitle

"Commander Byrd's story of his flying career since training days at Pensacola reaches its natural climax in the polar and transatlantic flights. It is generously illustrated with photographs, and contains a good deal of aviation history during the period of Byrd's interest in flying." Book rev. digest

Byron, George Gordon Noël Byron, 6th baron, 1788-1824

Drinkwater, John, 1882-1937. Pilgrim of eternity; the life of Byron; Byron—a conflict. Garden City pub. co. 408p $1 92

38-2046

Reprint of a book published by Doubleday in 1925

"Mr. Drinkwater removes the rubbish of romanticism and attempts to portray Byron the man uninfluenced by the stale errors of 'Byronism.' In large measure he is successful in this attempt; but, when all admissions of vulgarity and theatricality have been made, his figure of Byron is placed always in the most favorable light." Sat. rev. of lit.

Bibliography: pref. p7-10; List of books quoted: p387-88

Maurois, André, 1885- Byron; tr. from the French by Hamish Miles. Appleton-Century 1930 597p $5 92

30-7022

"A well-rounded modern biography portraying Byron as a personality, against a carefully depicted social and geographical background." Chicago

"M. Maurois has worked out his technique to a new and right conclusion. The mass of material—the bewildering evidence and conflict of opinion and record—is shaped fact by fact, and cemented with concealed artifice, until at last emerges a coherent and beautifully proportioned portrait. But it is more than a portrait. It is an heroic painting filled with living figures set in a scene of so triumphant a romanticism that the book stands out as another sign of the revival of enthusiasm and belief." Spectator

Sources: p570-89

Three additional sources of information on the poet are:

Byron, G. G. N. B. 6th baron. Letters; selected by R. G. Howarth; with an introduction by Andre Maurois. . . Dutton 1933 471p illus $3

Byron, G. G. N. B. 6th baron. Life, letters and journals of Lord Byron, by Thomas Moore. Collected and arranged with notes by Sir Walter Scott [and others] new and complete ed with portraits and illus Murray, J. 1892 735p illus 15s "One of the most delightful and entertaining biographies in our literature"

Chew, S. C. Byron in England. Scribner 1924 415p front o.p. 1939 A thorough and scholarly work with a full bibliography

Nichol, John, 1833-1894. Byron. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Caesar, Caius Julius

Ferrero, Guglielmo, 1871- Life of Caesar; tr. by A. E. Zimmern. Putnam 1933 525p front $5 92

1 Rome—History—Republic, B.C. 510-30 33-27210

"The material comprising the first two volumes of 'The greatness and decline of Rome' is reprinted with slight change. Certain abridgments have been made and the copious notes omitted." Bkl.

"If you want brilliant writing, exciting reading, this is the book for you; but if you want to find out about Caesar you had better read somebody else. . . [This is] the most brilliant of historical novels with a Roman setting." Sat. rev. of lit.

Fowler, William Warde, 1847-1921. Julius Cæsar, and the foundation of the Roman imperial system. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Froude, James Anthony, 1818-1894. Cæsar; a sketch. Scribner 1879 550p front map $2.50 92

1 Rome—History—Republic, B.C. 510-30 4-17015

"An able study of Julius Caesar written in a most pleasing style, making an attractive introduction to ancient history for the general reader." Pratt alcove

John Buchan's "Julius Caesar" (Appleton-Century 1932 157p front $1.50) is a brief biography of the military leader, administrator and lawgiver

Calhoun, John Caldwell, 1782-1850

Holst, Hermann Eduard von, 1841-1904. John C. Calhoun. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Calkins, Earnest Elmo, 1868-

"Louder please!" the autobiography of a deaf man. Little 1924 260p illus $2.50 92

[24-21591]

"The author . . . is deaf and has had defective hearing since childhood. His biography is a most unusual book, and there is much in it of interest to parents, teachers, to other deaf persons and all who are in any way associated with deafness. But it is also the biography of an expert in printing and a book lover and has a wide appeal for the general reader." Wis. bul.

Calvé, Emma, 1866- See class 780.92

Calvin, John, 1509-1564

Walker, Williston, 1860-1922. John Calvin, the organizer of reformed Protestantism, 1509-1564. Putnam 1906 456p illus (Heroes of the reformation) o.p. 1939 92

6-34268

"Critical as well as sympathetic, carefully citing authorities, and candidly exhibiting both the lights and the shadows of a masterful character and career." Outlook

Bibliographical note: pref. p11-18

Canute the Great, king of England and Denmark, 995?-1035

Larson, Laurence Marcellus, 1868-1938. Canute the Great. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Caraman, Elizabeth

Daughter of the Euphrates, by Elizabeth Caraman in collaboration with W. L. Payne. Harper 1939 277p front $2 92

1 Armenia—Social life and customs
(W) 39-20615

"An Armenian woman who survived the Turkish massacres of 1915-1919 records her poignant experiences and in doing so tells also the tragic story of the Armenian people. The narrative begins with the happy pastoral existence of the Armenians in Kurdistan and then moves into the horrors that accompanied the World War in the Near East." Religious bk. club bul.

"Because of the Christian fervor and courage of the whole family, the book has a religious appeal as well as value as a book of actual experiences." Bkl.

Cardozo, Benjamin Nathan, 1870-1938

Hellman, George Sidney, 1878- Benjamin N. Cardozo, American judge. McGraw 1940 339p illus (Whittlesey house publications) $3.50 92

(W) 40-27327

"A biography whose foremost object is the presentation of a man's character and personality, with the evaluation of his achievements . . . as the secondary aim." Foreword

"Written by a personal friend of long standing, with access to family archives and letters, the book is patently a labor of love. Yet despite the natural tendency of sentiment to crowd to the front in the treatment of this subject, a commendable restraint and objectivity marks Mr. Hellman's approach. The book has balance, disciplined writing, a style effective for its simple clarity." N.Y. Times

Carlyle, Mrs Jane Baillie (Welsh) 1801-1866

Jane Welsh Carlyle: letters to her family, 1839-1863; ed. by Leonard Huxley. Murray, J. 1924 xxi,390p illus 21s 92

24-13714

Formerly carried also by Doubleday, Page

A collection of 220 letters by Mrs Carlyle, most of them written to her cousins, Helen and Jeannie Welsh

"When we come to consider the actual contents of this last contribution to Mrs Carlyle's correspondence, there is happily no need to say anything more than that they are as good, as witty, as wicked, as heart-rending as we well knew beforehand they were bound to be. Happily this volume ends before Mrs Carlyle's really 'dark days' began, when ill-health, sleeplessness and the morphia habit clouded her mind." Augustine Birrell in New statesman

Burdett, Osbert. Two Carlyles. See entry under Carlyle, Thomas

Drew, Elizabeth A. 1887- Jane Welsh and Jane Carlyle. . . Harcourt 1928 282p illus o.p. 1939 92

28-6005

"It is a human picture, vivid, colorful and immensely real. Perhaps it was because Jane Welsh Carlyle impressed her contemporaries as so very real that she is so today in biography, and perhaps it is Miss Drew's art. But again, whatever the cause, both the book and the reader profit." N.Y. Times

Scudder, Townsend, 1900- Jane Welsh Carlyle. Macmillan 1939 406p illus $3.50 92

(W) 39-10975

"The narrative has the impelling momentum, the irresistible color, the arresting personalities of a novel. Yet all is faithful to the sources; the final picture, as well as the individual incident, shows remarkable fidelity to the bright and troubled life of Jane Carlyle. . . There are memorable portraits or miniatures of Jeffrey, De Quincey, Edward Irving, Leigh Hunt, Mazzini, Lord Houghton, Dickens, Fitzgerald, Tennyson." Sat. rev. of lit.

"To an authentic record Mr. Scudder has attempted to impart something of the liveliness and verisimilitude and 'atmosphere' which we associate with fiction. To this extent his technique resembles that of the novelist. He does not probe very profoundly and there are psychological aspects of the problem of the Carlyles upon which he does not touch at all. But if his portrait lacks depth of perspective, it has a generous breadth." Christian science monitor

Carlyle, Thomas, 1795-1881

Burdett, Osbert, 1885-1936. Two Carlyles. Houghton 1931 309p illus $4 92

1 Carlyle, Mrs Jane Baillie (Welsh) 1801-1866
31-7365

"It is a close, a skillful, and sympathetic study of these two kindred yet combative souls that Mr. Burdett gives us. He is at his best in narrative passages such as that which describes the accidental burning of the French Revolution manuscript. Above all, Mr. Burdett deserves praise for sustaining so objective, so sensible a view throughout, and for avoiding the temptation to take sides." Spectator

Short bibliography: p297-98

Froude, James Anthony, 1818-1894. Thomas Carlyle; a history of his life in London, 1834-1881. Longmans 1884 2v 13s 92

[24-31516]

Formerly carried also by Scribner

"An unsparing revelation of Carlyle's self and his intimate relationships, set forth from his own papers with almost painful fidelity to facts and with little effort to soften the failings in his disturbed life." Pratt alcove

J. A. Froude's "Thomas Carlyle, a history of the first forty years of his life, 1795-1835" (Scribner 1882 2v fronts o.p. 1939) precedes the title entered above

Nichol, John, 1833-1894. Thomas Carlyle. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Carnegie, Andrew, 1835-1919

* Autobiography. Houghton 1920 385p illus $1.50 92

20-19520

"Interesting as a frank and sincere recital of the early struggles and later successes of the well-known millionaire. Contains reminiscences of several noted persons, including Matthew Arnold, James G. Blaine, John Hay, John Morley and Herbert Spencer. Notable chapters are The Civil war, Mills and the men, The gospel of wealth, Problems of labor. Portraits and other illustrations. Short bibliography, index." N.Y. state lib.

Bibliography: p375-76

Winkler, John Kennedy, 1891- Incredible Carnegie. . . Vanguard 1931 307p illus o.p. 1939 92

"The amazing story of a great financier and philanthropist. Business men will enjoy the account of the development of the steel industry, and the activities of Schwab, Frick and Morgan." Cleveland

"Mr. Winkler aims merely at portraiture and entertainment. He sprinkles in the facts, whether they are damaging or not, but it is the passing show, not the moral aspect, that interests him in the main." N.Y. Times

Carnegie, Andrew—Continued

B. J. Hendrick's "Life of Andrew Carnegie" (Doubleday 1932 2v $7.50) is the authorized biography, written in a sympathetic spirit

Caroline, queen consort of George II, king of Great Britain, 1683-1737

Quennell, Peter Courtney, 1905- Caroline of England; an Augustan portrait. Viking 1940 259p illus $3.75 92

(W) 40-27113

"I have attempted . . . to compose the portrait of a remarkable woman in the setting of one of the least known periods of English history and to examine the effect of her position on her private character." Foreword

"Mr. Quennell achieves admirably his stated purpose, an 'Augustan portrait.' Caroline was emphatically the central feminine figure of that stately age, and one sees and hears her to the life. . . This is a quietly brilliant book on a perennially interesting theme." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Mrs R. L. P. Arkell's "Caroline of Ansbach, George the Second's queen" (Oxford 1939 338p illus $4.25) is another scholarly well-written biography 92 C292lar

Carroll, Lewis, pseud. 1832-1898

Collingwood, Stuart Dodgson, 1870- Life and letters of Lewis Carroll (Rev. C. L. Dodgson). Century 1899 xx,448p illus o.p. 1939 92

26-8454

"Interesting biography of the Oxford don who lectured on mathematics and created the immortal Alice. The author quotes many entertaining letters to and from children, of whom Lewis Carroll was very fond, and gives some interesting details about 'Alice in Wonderland,' 'Through the looking-glass' and 'Sylvie and Bruno.' Illustrated by sketches and remarkably fine photographs." Pittsburgh

Bibliography: p431-43

Carson, Christopher, 1809-1868

‡ Campbell, Walter Stanley, 1887- Kit Carson, the happy warrior of the old West; a biography. Houghton 1928 297p front (Riverside lib.) $1 92

28-7536

"An unusually interesting narrative biography of one of the legendary heroes of the old west. The author has the advantage of knowing the country and the Indian tribes with which Carson was associated, as well as the usual sources, and the reader feels that he is getting an authentic record as well as a readable story." Wis. bul.

Carter, John Franklin, 1897-

The rectory family; with illus. by Oscar Howard. Coward-McCann 1937 275p illus $2.50 92

37-28725

"New England—more specifically Williamstown, Mass.—in the good old days before America went to war; a normal family growing up in a comfortable home, with cultured associations and a very slight knowledge of life outside their own circle. The author's purpose was to set down 'the things which we, and thousands of families like our own, took for granted in those kindly years before the deluge.' Will interest those who were children or parents in those years from 1900-1920." Wis. bul.

Caruso, Enrico, 1873-1921. See class 780.92

Cass, Lewis, 1782-1866

McLaughlin, Andrew Cunningham, 1861- Lewis Cass. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Catherine of Siena, Saint, 1347-1380

Eaton, Jeanette. The flame, Saint Catherine of Siena. Harper 1931 318p illus $2.50 92

31-30737

"The life of St Catherine of Siena, born a simple tradesman's daughter, who thru her piety and courage became one of the most influential women of her century and of all time." Book rev. digest

"The author has neither magnified nor glossed over the short-comings of the medieval church or its heads, but has presented alike the worthy and unworthy, following the record of history. A valuable and inspiring biography, unusually well presented." Chicago Daily Tribune

Bibliography: p317-18

E. G. Gardner's "Saint Catherine of Siena" (Dutton 1907 439p illus $2.75) is a fine study in the religion, literature and history of the 14th century in Italy as well as a critical study of the saint and patriot

Jørgensen, Johannes, 1866- Saint Catherine of Siena; tr. from the Danish by Ingeborg Lund. Longmans 1938 446p front $3.50 92

38-27732

"A detailed study of this mystic of medieval Italy who nursed the lepers, gave orders to popes and kings, and became practically political dictator of Europe." Book rev. digest

"There is enough startling color in the rich material of Catherine's life to interest even the skeptic in this selfless, Spartan, pure woman who was a great mystic and a great poet. Her biographer is wholly enchanted by her, with happy consequences for the reader." Cincinnati

Catharine II, empress of Russia, 1729-1796

* Anthony, Katharine Susan, 1877- Catherine the Great. Knopf 1925 331p illus $2.50 92

25-22880

Also available in the Star series (Garden City pub. co. $1)

"One expects a new biography of a famous historical figure either to present fresh material, the result of research, or to revise conventional interpretations of character in the light of the more modern psychology. Miss Anthony's study amply justifies itself on both counts. Furthermore, Miss Anthony portrays the Empress with a keen eye for dramatic moments, with a convincing effect of continuity, and with a respect refreshingly tempered by humorous perception. The humor is casual and dry and effortless." Nation

Catherine the Great's "Memoirs; tr. by K. S. Anthony" (Knopf 1927 337p illus o.p. 1939) may also be of interest. This volume consists of selections from diaries and letters of the empress covering the first 25 years of her reign

Catherine II, empress of Russia—Continued

Kaus, Frau Gina, 1894- Catherine; the portrait of an empress; tr. from the German by June Head. Viking 1935 384p illus $3.50 92

35-7542

"A detailed biography of Catherine the Great . . . of the tragedy of her youthful marriage and its resulting influence on her attitude to morals, and the intrigues, wars and diplomacy of 18th century Europe." Coventry. Public Libraries

"She has clarified the historical background with almost a chemist's skill and against its proportioned expanse has painted her portrait of Catherine." Nation

Catherine de Médicis, queen consort of Henry II, king of France, 1519-1589

Van Dyke, Paul, 1859-1933. Catherine de Médicis. Scribner 1922 2v illus $9 92

1 France—History—House of Valois, 1328-1589 22-23125

"An interesting scholarly biography, based on first-hand evidence 'without effort to coincide with the popular belief in her extreme wickedness or to serve as a special pleader in maintaining the contrary.'" Pratt quarterly

"It is amazing that without sacrificing truth or indulging in meretricious ornament an author, clearing the mist from a complicated and darkened background, could have produced such a thoroughly readable book. . . Here is a book of research without pedantry." N.Y. Times

Waldman, Milton, 1895- Biography of a family; Catherine de Medici and her children. Houghton 1936 xxi,266p $3 92

1 France—History—House of Valois, 1328-1589 36-33721

"Between his initial research and the brilliant and sustained literary skill of his finished product, Mr. Waldman has interposed a great and on the whole admirable simplification. . . But the importance of such a book as this—and it is no small importance—lies in the vitality of his whole achievement. He has given life, and present glowing interest, to a fated and fateful family." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Ralph Roeder's "Catherine de' Medici and the lost revolution" (Viking 1937 629p illus $3.75) is a fine biography of which the Booklist says "more solid reading and less imaginative in reconstruction of the life of the characters than Waldman, 'Biography of a family.'" Also obtainable from Garden City pub. co. at $1.59

Cavour, Camillo Benso, conte di, 1810-1861

Paléologue, Georges Maurice, 1859- Cavour; tr. by I. F. D. Morrow and M. M. Morrow. Harper 1927 307p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Italy—History—1815- 27-26980

"A spirited and scholarly biography of the great Italian statesman and political idealist who was the chief 'architect' of United Italy. Treats of Cavour the man, 'hard worker and loose liver,' as well as the patriot and diplomat. Gives brilliant portraits of some of his great contemporaries, Garibaldi, Mazzini, Louis Napoleon and Victor Emmanuel II. The author was formerly ambassador at the court of Russia." Cleveland

"A brilliant piece of history in the form of biography." Spectator

A. J. B. Whyte's "Political life and letters of Cavour, 1848-1861" (Oxford 1930 478p front $6) is a thoro study of the domestic and foreign policies of Cavour in bringing about the unification of Italy. It is a sequel to his "Early life and letters of Cavour, 1810-1848" (Oxford 1925 384p illus $5)

Thayer, William Roscoe, 1859-1922. Life and times of Cavour. Houghton 1911 2v illus maps o.p. 1939 92

1 Italy—History—1815- 11-26653

"A masterly presentation of the life of the statesman and his share in the unification of Italy. The two volumes contain more history than biography, but the nature of the subject made it inevitable that history should have a larger part in the book. . . The organization and structure of the book are excellent, and the style is particularly well adapted to historical writing, being formal without being stiff." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Cellini, Benvenuto. See class 735

Cervantes, Saavedra, Miguel de, 1547-1616

Fitzmaurice-Kelly, James, 1858-1923. Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra; a memoir. Oxford 1913 xx,228p illus $3.50 92

A14-2994

"A succinct account of all the now authenticated main facts of the life of the author of 'Don Quixote,' with its many trials and troubles. . . This plain narrative, free from all critical mention of his works, and told in direct language, supplies a striking portrait and a clear insight into the nature of a man who, genius as he was, was in everyday affairs his own effective enemy." Athenaeum

Cezanne, Paul, 1839-1906. See class 759.4

Chaliapin, Fedor Ivanovich, 1873-1938. See class 780.92

Chamberlin, William Henry, 1897-

Confessions of an individualist. Macmillan 1940 320p $3 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 40-27480

A foreign correspondent for the "Christian science monitor" has written the story of his varied adventures in both the Eastern and Western hemispheres; in particular, the story of his ideas and the evolution of his personal philosophy

"In writing this book he has been so scrupulously honest, so evidently determined to be fair with the countries in which he has reported, that one gets a definite idea of the aspirations of governments like those in Moscow, Rome, Berlin, and Tokyo. . . The book is valuable as it reveals a conscientious spirit, an intelligent brain, and, above all an understanding heart—understanding even toward those who are of another way of thinking, of another habit of life." William Allen White in Book-of-the-month club news

Champlain, Samuel de, 1567-1635

Flenley, Ralph, 1886- Samuel de Champlain, founder of New France. Macmillan 1924 149p front (Canadian men of action) o.p. 1939 92

1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) 25-17818

"One of the brief, simply written Canadian men of action series designed for use in schools and for the general reader. The series aims to combine 'story interest' with a 'general picture of Canadian history during the period dealt with.' This one gives a stirring account of the career of Champlain." Bkl.

Champlain, Samuel de—Continued

Chanler, Mrs Margaret (Terry) 1862-
Roman spring; memoirs. Little 1934 324p illus $3 92
34-27241

"These reminiscences cover the author's girlhood and young womanhood during the last thirty years or so of the nineteenth century. Mrs Chanler was the daughter of an American painter living in Rome, a niece of Julia Ward Howe, and half-sister of F. Marion Crawford. Her girlhood was spent in Rome where she met many of the great and near-great of the artistic, literary and musical circles of the day. Later she lived for some years in America: in California, Washington (D.C.) and New York, numbering among her friends here, Henry Adams, the Lodges, and the Roosevelts." Book rev. digest
"One of those volumes of reminiscence that every now and then appear to leave the reader with a sense of having been admitted to a delightful and intimate circle." Sat. rev. of lit.

Chapman, Frank Michler, 1864-
Autobiography of a bird-lover; with photographs by the author; drawings and four color plates by L. A. Fuertes. Appleton-Century 1933 420p $3.75 92
1 Birds 33-31259

"The Curator of birds in the American Museum of Natural History tells here the story of his career; a richly rewarding one, with many travels to study birds and collect specimens, and with stimulating contacts among his scientific associates. Photographs by author, and drawings and four color plates by Louis Agassiz Fuertes. Bibliography." N.Y. libraries

Chapman, John Jay, 1862-1933
John Jay Chapman and his letters (by) M. A. DeW. Howe. Houghton 1937 498p illus $4 92
(W) 37-28704

"A 19th century New Yorker with a personality suggestive of Renaissance Italy stands forth self-revealed in this book. . . Mr. Chapman's books and articles, which were fairly numerous, were known to persons who kept in the forefront of civic and intellectual affairs, and some of his writings, such as his memoir of his son, Victor, who was killed in the World war, contained biographical suggestions. Yet the impassioned, capricious, virile personality of an exceptional American . . . reformer and intellectual playboy, is here presented to the public for the first time." Springfield Republican
Bibliography: p177-81

Charlemagne, 742-814
Davis, Henry William Carless, 1874-1928. Charlemagne (Charles the Great) the hero of two nations. Putnam 1900 338p illus maps (Heroes of the nations) $3 92
0-1586

"I have endeavored to give some idea of the first western emperor's personality and influence upon European history. I have limited myself, in dealing with institutions and social and literary developments, to those facts which seemed to throw light on his career. I have thruout based my narrative on a study of the chronicles, diplomata and literature of the period." Preface

Einhard, d. 840. Life of Charlemagne; tr. from the text of the "Monumenta Germaniæ" by S. E. Turner. . . Am. bk. 1880 82p map 56c 92
4-17010

"This famous little biography, written by a contemporary of the great medieval emperor, is a mine of information for scholars, and a source of unending interest to the general reader because of its reflection of the civilization and the mental attitude of the times." Guide to hist. lit.
Life of Eginhard, p9-10

Charles, duke of Burgundy, 1433-1477
Putnam, Ruth, d. 1931. Charles the Bold, last duke of Burgundy, 1433-1477. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Charles I, emperor of Austria, 1887-1922
Harding, Mrs Bertita (Leonarz). Imperial twilight; the story of Karl and Zita of Hungary. Bobbs 1939 345p illus $3.50 92
1 Austria—History 2 Zita, empress consort of Charles I, emperor of Austria, 1892- (W) 39-23668

The last in a series of biographies about the fateful House of Hapsburg. Earlier volumes are: "Phantom crown, the story of Maximilian and Carlota of Mexico"; "Golden fleece, the story of Franz Joseph and Elizabeth of Austria"
"The whole eventful and tragic biography is treated exactly like a novel. Built up into telling climaxes, warm with human sympathy, Bertita Harding's work is romanticized history at its most alive and spirited. She does not always hold her narrative within the strictest confines of documented fact, and her purpose is not to enlarge historical knowledge but to vivify historical characters and scenes." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Charles V, emperor of the Holy Roman empire, 1500-1558
Brandi, Karl, 1868- Emperor Charles V; the growth and destiny of a man and of a world-empire; tr. from the German by C. V. Wedgwood. Knopf 1939 655p illus $5 92

"Professor Brandi, of Göttingen, the greatest living authority on Charles V, has epitomized in this book the results of a lifetime of research. Almost every chapter, indeed, shows what a wealth of new material has been gathered and put to use. Yet here the serious criticism must be offered that references to the sources are almost entirely wanting. The documents are quoted, but very rarely are the means of tracing them afforded. Nor has any bibliography been provided. Those defects allowed for, a full measure of praise must be accorded to a fine achievement." Times (London) lit. sup.

Charles I, king of Great Britain, 1600-1649
Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Charles the First, king of England. . . Lippincott 1933 376p illus map $2.50 92
1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 33-33048

"The book is a brilliant study of the life and times of Charles Stuart, from the day of his birth in Scotland till his death on the scaffold, and of the causes which led to the failure of the old English conception of kingship." Book rev. digest

Charles I, king of Great Britain—Continued
"Mr. Belloc's polemic method does not take us far below the surface. . . The books contains many judgments that will hardly bear examination. . . Nevertheless the book will be widely read. As a literary composition it is admirable, written with finish and artistry, forceful, vivid, and incisive. Mr. Belloc believes what he writes and drives his points home with telling blows." Sat. rev. of lit.

Charles II, king of Great Britain, 1630-1685
Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Charles II, the last rally. Harper 1939 280p illus $3.50 92

1 Great Britain—History—Charles II, 1660-1685 (W) 39-31525

The portrait of a monarch and a new interpretation of an important period of English history in a sequel and companion volume to the author's "Louis XIV"
"Belloc is well known as a Catholic and somewhat controversial writer, who believes in the principle of monarchy as the only corrective to the power of money. That is the thesis of his Charles II: The last rally, which interprets Charles's reign as the last rally of royalty before. . . England became in fact a plutocracy. Belloc disagrees at many points with orthodox historians, but what he has to say is always worth considering, and is always said so exceedingly well that it is a pleasure to read." Book-of-the-month club news

Charles XII, king of Sweden, 1682-1718
Bain, Robert Nisbet, 1854-1909. Charles XII and the collapse of the Swedish empire, 1682-1719. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Charlotte, empress consort of Maximilian, emperor of Mexico, 1840-1927
Harding, Mrs Bertita (Leonarz). Phantom crown. See entry under Maximilian, emperor of Mexico

Chase, Mary Ellen, 1887-
‡ Goodly fellowship. Macmillan 1939 305p $2.50 92

(W) 39-27971

This sequel to the author's "Goodly heritage" relates her experiences as a student and graduate student, as a boarding school teacher, as a public school teacher, and as a college professor
"Writing with the modesty of one who is always learning, yet with convictions by no means lukewarm, recalling her response to American life in greatly differing aspects from Maine to Montana, emphasizing always the teacher rather than the novelist in her own work, Mary Ellen Chase has produced a book of delightful remembrance and commentary." N.Y. Times

* Goodly heritage. Holt 1932 298p illus $3 92

1 Blue Hill, Maine 2 Maine—Social life and customs 32-27062

"Autobiographical sketches of Maine seacoast life and influences as the author knew them in her childhood in the 1890's. A pleasant, well written book which draws an excellent and entertaining picture for those who have grown up in the 20th century and which will bring to many the pleasure of childhood memories recalled." Wis. bul.

Chase, Salmon, Portland, 1808-1873
Hart, Albert Bushnell, 1854- Salmon Portland Chase. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Chase, William Merritt. See class 759.1

Chateaubriand, François Auguste René, vicomte de, 1768-1848
Maurois, André. Chateaubriand; poet, statesman, lover; tr. from the French by Vera Fraser. Harper 1938 352p illus $3.50 92

(W) 38-28974

Chateaubriand was a paradoxical and fascinating personality. His life, as presented by the author of "Ariel" and "Byron" furnishes a spirited picture of France from the time of Louis XVI through the Napoleon era
"The book is a portrait and a life; without a trace of the romanced technique that Maurois has long discarded, the strangely contrasted story reads like romance. . . Vera Fraser's translation conveys the searching, restrained, sensitive quality of Maurois's style." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Chaucer, Geoffrey, 1340?-1400
Kittredge, George Lyman, 1860- Chaucer and his poetry. Harvard univ. press 1915 230p $1.50 92

"Lectures delivered in 1914 on the Percy Turnbull memorial foundation in the Johns Hopkins university." Subtitle
"From the point of view of the student, these papers represent the views of a thorough-going scholar addressing an audience possessed of at least a reading knowledge of the subject. . . Prof. Kittredge's first paper concerns the man and his times; specific works form the subject of those that follow, and the last two are devoted to the Canterbury tales." Springfield Republican

Lowes, John Livingston, 1867- Geoffrey Chaucer and the development of his genius. Houghton 1934 246p $2.50 92

34-5318

"To have brought together within the confines of a few chapters, material so zestfully and illuminatingly presented that the casual reader is made aware not only of Chaucer's backgrounds and horizons, his world of affairs and his world of books, but also of the evolution of his genius in his writings is the distinctive achievement of the author." N.Y. libraries

Sedgwick, Henry Dwight, 1861- Dan Chaucer; an introduction to the poet, his poetry and his times. Bobbs 1934 391p front $2.75 92

34-30697

"Addressed to the general reader who would like to enjoy the poet, without wishing to plunge into the formidable sea of Chaucerian scholarship. In an easy and pleasing manner, the author offers a good deal of biographical information, paints the historical background. . . But the charm of the volume lies in the interpreter's own reflections on the nature of poetry and on Chaucer's contribution to the happiness of English readers." Boston

G. K. Chesterton's "Chaucer" (Faber 1932 310p 5s) is a very readable life of the poet and an informative study of the Middle Ages

Chaucer, Geoffrey—Continued

Ward, Sir Adolphus William, 1837-1924. Chaucer. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Chesterton, Gilbert Keith, 1874-1936

* Autobiography. Sheed 1936 360p illus $1.50 92

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 36-30692

"This autobiography of the regretted Gilbert Keith Chesterton is the story of almost every consequential Englishman of letters in our time except himself. Here is Hardy plain, and Shaw and Wells and Belloc and a host of others. . . Here the great and the near great of England's latter nineteenth and early twentieth century writers, and a platoon of celebrities in politics, publishing and plutocracy, are paraded before us by a sage observer." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Evans, Maurice. G. K. Chesterton; the Le Bas prize essay, 1938. Macmillan 1939 157p $1.75 92

[39-22365]

"A study of the personal philosophy of G. K. C. as he expressed it continually in his writings; a glimpse, therefore, of the creeds of the generations through which he carried his crusade, and of his cheerful, but rational and vigorous opposition to them." Publisher's note

"Mr. Evans has done his task as well, perhaps, as it could be done by concentrating on the doctrines, and leaving out the man and his setting—but that is to leave out the greater part." Spectator

Chiang, Kai-shek, 1886-

Berkov, Robert. Strong man of China; the story of Chiang Kai-shek. Houghton 1938 288p illus $3 92

1 China—Politics and government (W) 38-3985

"The person and character of the remarkable man who . . . survived a dozen desperate attempts to halt his rise in ten years. . . His story is one of a good deal of real hard fighting, of much agile political maneuvering, of much ruthless extermination of persons and organizations that got in his way until he learned at Sian that he had the nation with him." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p285-88

Chopin, Frédéric François, 1810-1849. See class 780.92

Christina, queen of Sweden, 1626-1689

Mackenzie, Mrs Faith (Stone). Sibyl of the North; the tale of Christina, queen of Sweden. Cassell 1931 262p illus 5s 92

1 Sweden—History 31-18846

Formerly carried also by Houghton

"An extremely readable volume, based upon a remarkably complete and highly intelligent study of the evidence, and has presented the facts with a laudable impartiality, without in any way impairing the interest of the narrative. . . It is the special merit of Mrs. Mackenzie's book that it devotes so large a proportion of its space to the later phases of Christina's career, and the work gains much from being written by one whose sympathies and approach to the subject are Italian rather than Swedish." Times (London) lit. sup.

Christophe, Henri, king of Haiti, 1767-1820

Vandercook, John Womack, 1902- Black majesty, the life of Christophe, king of Haiti; with drawings by Mahlon Blaine. Harper 1928 207p illus $2.50 92

1 Haiti—History 28-7779

"A highly romanticized life of Henry Christophe, the slave who became king of Haiti. The rise and fall of the negro empire, derived from the French revolution, guided by Toussaint L'Ouverture, and brought to a moment's dignity and grandeur by King Henry I, Black Majesty, is dramatically sketched." Book rev. digest

"The book, in content, in format, in illustrations, is beautifully done. It deserves careful attention from all scholars and sincere admiration from all intelligent readers." Annals Amer. acad.

Bibliography: p204-07

Christowe, Stoyan, 1898-

This is my country; an autobiography; decorations by Edward Shenton. Carrick 1938 320p illus $2.75 92

(W) 38-27633

The author, who has become known as a newspaper writer and novelist, was born in Macedonia and came to this country at the age of fourteen. He worked in the middle west and west, chiefly as a railroad laborer, struggled to obtain an education, and to make himself an American

"Mr. Christowe's volume will bring to mind the work of Adamic and Saroyan. His writing, like theirs, has a charming touch of the exotic, a leavening with Old World feeling which subtly adds to the flavor of the new. His autobiography demands respect both as a personal document and as a literary achievement." N.Y. Times

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer, 1874-

Roving commission; my early life. new American ed with an introduction by Dorothy Thompson Scribner 1939 377p illus maps $2.50 92

1 Great Britain—Army—Military Life 40-7064

Reprint of a book published 1930 with the addition of Dorothy Thompson's introduction and a few paragraphs in the author's preface

"Mr. Churchill's record of his youth and young manhood. It is the first complete account of his spectacular escape from a Boer prison; his part in the charge of the 21st Lancers at Omdurman—the last great cavalry charge in military history; thrilling campaigns against the hill tribes in India; political campaigns in England, and absorbing recollections of the world of fashion, sport and literature. A delightful volume." Ontario library review

W. L. S. Churchill's "Amid these storms" (Scribner 1932 319p illus maps $3.50) supplements his earlier reminiscences by covering the years since 1910

Cicero, Marcus Tullius

Strachan-Davidson, James Leigh, 1844-1916. Cicero and the fall of the Roman republic. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Clark, George Rogers, 1752-1818

Palmer, Frederick, 1873- Clark of the Ohio; a life of George Rogers Clark. Dodd 1929 482p illus maps $2.50 92

1 Northwest, Old—History 29-13403

"The most complete re-creation of Clark as he really was. Palmer gives the best account of Clark before and after his famous march into the Northwest which resulted in the capture of Vincennes and the acquisition of the vast territory north of the Ohio. We get to know the young man, his temper and spirit." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Clark, George Rogers—Continued
Bibliography: pref. p9-10

Temple Bodley's "George Rogers Clark, his life and public services" (Houghton 1926 425p illus map $5) is a detailed life, which does not contain much of the personal element

Clay, Henry, 1777-1852
Schurz, Carl, 1829-1906. Life of Henry Clay. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Van Deusen, Glyndon Garlock, 1897- Life of Henry Clay. Little 1937 448p illus $4 92
37-24249

"Differs so completely in conception and execution from the . . . work of [Bernard Mayo noted below] that the two books should not be considered as competitors. The later is far more intimate and complete in detail, deals with Clay's background and career to the year 1812, and forms only the first of three projected volumes. Mr. Van Deusen's book is a complete life in one volume and follows the more conventional pattern of a political biography." Sat. rev. of lit.
"So far as the factual narrative is concerned the reader will find it correcting Schurz [in the American statesmen series] in detail, adding much information of which Schurz was ignorant, and incorporating the advances made by scholars in the long interim since Schurz wrote." Sat. rev. of lit.

Bernard Mayo's "Henry Clay, spokesman of the new West" (Houghton 1937 v 1 $4.50) is to be completed in three volumes. For a comparison of this work with Van Deusen's biography, see the note above

Clemenceau, Georges Eugène Benjamin, 1841-1929
Adam, George Jefferys, 1883-1930. The tiger: Georges Clemenceau, 1841-1929. Harcourt 1930 282p illus o.p. 1939 92
30-12627

"Written by an English newspaper correspondent long resident in France, this biography of Clemenceau lights up his conduct at the high points of his political career: his part in the establishment and strengthening of the Third Republic, in the Boulanger episode, the Panama scandal and the Dreyfus affair, and above all, in the Great war and the Peace conference." Book rev. digest
It has the "merit of making the politics of a foreign country not only intelligible, but exciting." New statesman

Clemens, Samuel Langhorne, 1835-1910
Mark Twain's autobiography; with an introduction by A. B. Paine. Harper 1924 2v illus $10 92
24-25122

"Mark Twain's own idea of writing autobiography, 'start at no particular time of your life; wander at your free will all over your life, talk only about the things which interest you for the moment,' accounts for the haphazard, casual nature of these memories and opinions, some fine and of consequence, some trivial, Characteristic and entertaining." N.Y. state lib.

Mark Twain's letters; arranged with comment by A. B. Paine. Harper 1917 2v illus $6 92
17-30756

"A delightful collection, explained and knit together by the comments of Mr A. B. Paine, whose biography of Mark Twain is uniform with this volume." Cleveland
"The letters have all the extravagant humor, energy and imagination of his books and are besides revelations of a generous personality." Archibald Henderson in Bookman

"Mark Twain's notebook" prepared for publication with comments by A. B. Paine (Harper 1935 413p illus $4) containing random observations and intimate thoughts jotted down from about 1865 to 1906 may also be of interest

Brooks, Van Wyck, 1886- Ordeal of Mark Twain. new and rev ed Dutton 1933 325p $3.75 92
33-3197

First published 1920. The 1933 edition is reset in larger type with slight changes in the text consisting chiefly of the omission or restatement of some sentences contained in the old
"This book is primarily a psychological study and yet it is full of biographical detail related to the career of Mark Twain, and supplements the biography written by Mr Paine. It should be stated, however, that Mr Brooks did not undertake this task in the spirit of a chronicler. He started, rather, with the aim of offering a logical explanation of Mark Twain's well-known tendency to pessimism." Review of reviews

M. M. Brashear's "Mark Twain, son of Missouri" (Univ. of N.C. press 1934 294p illus $2.50) refutes, in part, the theory of maladjustment expounded by Brooks

Clemens, Clara. My father, Mark Twain; illus. from family photographs, with hitherto unpublished letters of Mark Twain. Harper 1931 292p illus $3 92
31-29143

"Some fairly important letters there were that Paine did not include in his biography, and now we have them, in Clara Clemens's memoir of her father. We also have a crop of very fresh and revealing anecdotes. This memoir, which is done in informal fashion, catches the two aspects of Twain that so impressed his own contemporaries. He also appears as one inclined to an occasional ferocity of mood." N.Y. Times

W. D. Howells' "My Mark Twain" (Harper 1910 186p illus $2.50) is another intimate account of Clemens' personality. Part 2 of this book contains Howells' reviews of Mark Twain's works from 1869-1905

De Voto, Bernard Augustine, 1897- Mark Twain's America; illus. by M. J. Gallagher. Little 1932 353p illus $4 92
32-26989

"The author examines Mark Twain's early life and environment with the intention of showing that frontier life enriched rather than impoverished his genius, and that those critics, particularly Van Wyck Brooks, who have called him 'frustrated' are wrong." Book rev. digest
"Unmistakably Mr. DeVoto does reveal Mark Twain as a genius. . . In any case he has drawn a superb picture of essential phases of the American experience in relations to one of its highly significant writers." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Bibliography: p322-34

Clemens, Samuel L.—Continued

Paine, Albert Bigelow, 1861-1937. Mark Twain, a biography; the personal and literary life of Samuel Langhorne Clemens. centenary ed Harper 4v in 2 $2 92

35-27375

Reprint of a book published 1912 in 3 volumes

"The authorized life written by an intimate friend. . . The work has been done with one single aim—to present the great figure in its many-sided activity and to keep that picturesque personality constantly before the reader." William Lyon Phelps in Independent

Chronological list of Mark Twain's work, v3 p1674-84

A. B. Paine's "Short life of Mark Twain" (Harper 1920 343p illus o.p. 1939) is a condensation of the author's official biography. Another condensation containing about the same amount of material but adapted for younger readers is his "Boy's life of Mark Twain" (Harper 1916 353p illus $2)

Wagenknecht, Edward Charles. Mark Twain, the man and his work. Yale univ. press 1935 301p front $3 92

35-27362

"Those who have followed recent studies of Mark Twain will commend the thoroughness with which the author has covered the field and be grateful for the new material he introduces from letters (now in the Huntington Library) that Mark Twain wrote to his friend of the Quaker City voyage, Mrs A. W. Fairbanks and her family." Yale review

"A sane and accurate discussion of a man hard to analyze, and very difficult to estimate without exaggeration either of his tragic pessimism or his boisterous humor." Sat. rev. of lit.

Bibliography: p281-90

Cleopatra, queen of Egypt, d. B.C. 30

Ludwig, Emil, 1881- Cleopatra; the story of a queen; tr. by Bernard Miall. Viking 1937 342p illus $3.50 92

1 Antony, Marc, B.C. 83?-30 2 Caesar, Caius Julius 3 Egypt—History 24-19989

Also obtainable from Garden City pub. co. at $1

"The author's first biography of a woman—the glamorous, ill-fated queen of Egypt, and of the three Romans who played romantic parts in her life." Ontario library review

"A biography which holds closely to the facts of history as known, but employs the technique of the novel in its interpretation of the minds and emotions of the characters." Wis. bul.

Weigall, Arthur Edward Pearse Brome, 1880-1934. Life and times of Cleopatra, queen of Egypt; a study in the origin of the Roman Empire. new and rev ed Putnam 1924 445p illus maps $5 92

1 Antony, Marc, B.C. 83?-30 2 Caesar, Caius Julius 3 Egypt—History 24-19989

"An attempt at a defense of Cleopatra, judging her by the standards of her times, and an authoritative study of the queen as a great political figure, especially in her relations with Rome through Caesar, Octavius and Antony." Cleveland

Cleveland, Grover, president U.S. 1837-1908

Nevins, Allan, 1890- Grover Cleveland; a study in courage. Dodd 1932 832p illus (Am. political leaders) $5 92

32-29365

"Valuable material not available to earlier biographers has been at the author's disposal for the fullest life of Grover Cleveland yet written and a finely perceptive study of this man of iron fortitude." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Nevins' book is a distinguished piece of political biography, exhaustive, apparently, in its research, scholarly and skillful in its management of a great wealth and a variety of material, and frank as well as judicious in awarding honors and demerits." New republic

Bibliography: p767-72

R. M. McElroy's "Grover Cleveland, the man and the statesman" (Harper 1923 2v in 1 o.p. 1939) is an earlier biography giving a well-written account of Cleveland's public life

Cobden, Richard, 1804-1865

Morley, John Morley, viscount, 1838-1923. Life of Richard Cobden. 10th ed Macmillan 1903 2v ea $2 92

1 Great Britain—Politics and government —19th century 26-7762

"The best account of the agitation which led to the establishment of free trade in England." C. K. Adams

Bibliography: p957-62

Cody, William Frederick, 1845-1917

‡ Autobiography of Buffalo Bill (Colonel W. F. Cody) illus. by N. C. Wyeth. Farrar 1920 328p illus $1 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 20-7661

Cover title, "Buffalo Bill's life story"

"Story of adventurous days in the old West, with the author as pony express rider, Indian fighter, buffalo hunter, army scout, and showman. An interesting epitome of the transition of the West from wilderness conditions to civilized life within a single lifetime." N.Y. state lib.

Coe, Urling Campbell, 1881-

Frontier doctor. Macmillan 1940 264p illus $2.50 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Physicians —Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 40-4050

"Although the details of surgery and obstetrics, so plentifully supplied, may limit this book's use, it will appeal to many readers who enjoy frontier history and adventure. The author, young and inexperienced, in 1905 settled in Farewell Bend, Oregon, a wide-open, pioneer town, and became physician, surgeon, and nurse for the territory. He relates his experiences, driving his wild broncos to reach his scattered patients, until the arrival of the railroad ended the town's isolation in 1911." Bkl.

"His style may have more breeziness than literary distinction, but he tells his story with full-flavored gusto, and it should appeal especially to all lovers of Westerns as well as to those who like to read of 'cases.'" Sat. rev. of lit.

Coffin, Robert Peter Tristram, 1892-

Lost paradise; a boyhood on a Maine coast farm. Royal ed Macmillan 1934 284p $1 92

34-35147

"Mr. Coffin's book stands pretty much in a class by itself. It has the superior qualities of virility and insight. . . It runs so

Coffin, Robert P. T.—Continued
true to detail, cuts so deep into outdoor nature, carries such a knowledge of farm economy that it cannot be anything short of autobiography. This, of course, was Mr. Coffin's family; this is the story of his boyhood; this was his father's farm. . . It is a deft and daring piece of work, only possible of accomplishment through the medium of genuine literary art." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Colby, Mrs Nathalie Sedgwick (Washburn) 1875-
Remembering. Little 1938 308p illus $3 92

(W) 38-27718

"A New England childhood, followed by crowded years in New York and official Washington society, when her husband was Secretary of State, are the basic pictures which Mrs. Colby draws in this friendly and informal autobiography." Huntting

"In Nathalie Colby one is aware of so all-embracing an eagerness and interest in living as was able to make a gay adventure of poverty and even to strip defeat of final despair." Sat. rev. of lit.

Coleridge, Samuel Taylor, 1772-1834
Hanson, Lawrence. Life of S. T. Coleridge: the early years. Oxford 1939 575p illus $5 92

[39-2903]

"Although scholarly and detailed, the narrative of this biography is excellently written and as fascinating as a good novel. Not the least of its entertaining qualities is the fact that it holds such good portraits of William and Dorothy Wordsworth, Charles and Mary Lamb, Robert Southey, and other leading nineteenth-century literary figures." Cincinnati

Traill, Henry Duff, 1842-1900. Coleridge. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Columbus, Christopher, 1446?-1506
Irving, Washington, 1783-1859. Life and voyages of Christopher Columbus to which are added those of his companions. Knickerbocker ed Putnam 5v o.p. 1939 92

1 America—Discovery and exploration

[7-6928]

The first edition of "The life and voyages of Christopher Columbus," in four volumes, appeared in 1828. "The voyages of the companions of Columbus," in one volume, was first printed in 1831

"Irving's work has more than literary merit. It is a history written with judgment and impartiality." Harrisse's Christophe Colomb

A condensation by the author from his larger work is published with the title "Life and voyages of Christopher Columbus" in Heroes of the nations series (Putnam o.p. 1939)

Madariaga, Salvador de, 1886- Christopher Columbus; being the life of the very magnificent Lord Don Cristóbal Colón. Macmillan 1940 524p front maps $4 92

(W) 40-2917

"A monumental guide to the geographical cross-purposes and half-truths which conjured an unknown continent from an unknown ocean. . . Señor de Madariaga adopts the explanation that the Colombo family were Conversos, or Spanish Jews converted to catholicism." New statesman and Nation

"This book is scholarly to the utmost, thoroughly documented, the fruit of exhaustive research. Written by a Spaniard, it exhibits the native sense and feel towards the materials it weighs; and written by a scholar, it is the acme of disinterestedness. With all this, it is done in the style of a first-class story-teller, and in the impeccable taste of a gentleman." Atlantic bookshelf

Colvin, Frances (Fetherstonhaugh) lady, 1839-1924
Lucas, Edward Verrall, 1868-1938. Colvins and their friends. See entry under Colvin, Sir Sidney 92

Colvin, Sir Sidney, 1845-1927
Lucas, Edward Verrall, 1868-1938. Colvins and their friends. . . Scribner 1928 365p illus $2.50 92

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Colvin, Frances (Fetherstonhaugh) lady, 1839-1924 [29-26041]

"Hugh Walpole, in his tribute to Lucas's book, characterizes Sidney Colvin and his wife as persons with 'a genius for friendship.' The main part of the book is composed of quotations from Colvin's correspondence, supplemented by passages from his 'Memories and notes.' Through this correspondence the personalities of his friends: Stevenson, Ruskin, Kipling, Meredith, Conrad, Henry James, are made vivid." Providence

"A most valuable book for those who wish to gain an intimate knowledge of the writers of the last years of the nineteenth century and the first quarter of the twentieth. It is full of bright portrait painting and even the casual reminiscences are interesting and vivid." Spectator

Confucius
Crow, Carl. Master Kung; the story of Confucius. Harper 1938 344p illus $3.50 92

38-8437

Also obtainable in a reprint from Blue ribbon bks. at $1.49 with title: Story of Confucius, Master Kung

"The story . . . does not represent any new discoveries regarding the facts of his life but is the first attempt to put all the known or generally accepted facts into a chronological order against the historical and social background of the period." Preface

Conrad, Joseph, 1857-1924
Personal record. Doubleday 1912 236p illus $2 92

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. [12-2743]

Joseph Conrad's autobiography is quite unlike any other that was ever written. Its discursiveness and its chronological chaos are hardly to be described. It is not less full of charm than the rest of his beautiful, cleanly modeled prose; it is richer than some of his work in humor. Above all, it compels us to see and feel things as an intensely recipient and richly gifted spirit has seen them. Condensed from Outlook [London]

Conrad, Mrs Jessie (George) d. 1936. Joseph Conrad and his circle. Dutton 1935 283p illus $3.75 92

35-16452

Repeats and amplifies, with some change of detail, much of the matter of her "Joseph Conrad as I knew him" (Doubleday 1926 xxi,162p illus o.p. 1939)

Constable, John. See class 759.2

Constantine I, the Great, emperor of Rome, d. 337

Firth, John Benjamin, 1868- Constantine the Great; the reorganisation of the empire and the triumph of the church. See entry under Heroes of the nations
92 Series

Cook, George Cram, 1873-1924

Glaspell, Susan, 1882- Road to the temple. . . Stokes 1927 445p illus o.p. 1939 92
27-5833

"The author, the well-known playwright, and her husband, George Cram Cook, were originators of the Provincetown Players. The book is a biography of Cook, based in part on notes found by his wife. He was brought up in Mississippi; became university instructor, gave up teaching for farming, and finally lived among the shepherds in Greece." Boston

"The external details of Mr. Cook's life-story are commonplace enough. . . All the drama, all the interest of the man was within himself. Obviously this makes his biographer's task immensely more difficult. She has to convince us that in spite of appearances her subject really was the remarkable man she claims him to have been. Brilliantly she succeeds." Spectator

Coolidge, Calvin, president U.S. 1872-1933

Autobiography. Cosmopolitan bk. 1929 246p illus o.p. 1939 92
29-24633

"Written in Mr Coolidge's accustomed spare and simple style, this modest autobiography gives the barest outline of his career and the principles upon which he has conducted his life. The book contains no politics and no personalities." Book rev. digest

"This autobiography is not really an autobiography but a book of New England Puritan philosophy." Current history

Fuess, Claude Moore, 1885- Calvin Coolidge; the man from Vermont. . . Little 1940 522p illus $4.75 92
(W) 40-27145

This "thorough biography . . . is the result of scholarly research, careful weighing and appraisal of all available material, letters, records, contemporary authorities, personal knowledge and contact with those who knew Calvin Coolidge, in the field of politics as well as in his personal relationships." Kirkus

"Mr. Fuess is the admiring friend. He is not, however, a friend who glosses over his hero's shortcomings, once they are plain to him. It is just that he has so completely identified himself with his subject that the more serious faults have become invisible. . . Mr. Fuess is as honest as Mr. Coolidge. His details add up to something different from greatness, but he does not cheat in presenting them." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p501-04

* White, William Allen, 1868- Puritan in Babylon; the story of Calvin Coolidge. Macmillan 1938 460p front $3.50 92
(W) 38-34760

Into this biography of Calvin Coolidge Mr White has woven personal reminiscences of the former president with those of many people who knew or were associated with him in one capacity or another. It is also "a study of American life as reflected in American business and American politics"

Cooper, James Fenimore, 1789-1851

Boynton, Henry Walcott, 1869- James Fenimore Cooper. Appleton-Century 1931 408p illus map $5 92
31-13002

"A well executed biography based upon papers, family letters, books, and documents heretofore not available to the public. It is a life-like picture of the man against the background of his period, giving full value to his genius and his contribution to American literature." Bkl.

R. E. Spiller's "Fenimore Cooper, critic of his times" (Putnam 1931 337p illus $3.50) lays more emphasis upon Cooper's social ideals as expressed in his literary work than upon the personal side of his life, tho the earlier part of his work is purely biographical Lounsbury, Thomas Raynesford, 1838-1915. James Fenimore Cooper. Houghton 1883 306p front (American men of letters) $2.50 92

4-17166

An admirable biography which is more critical than biographical

Partial bibliography of Cooper's writings, p290-99

Cornell, Katharine, 1898-

* I wanted to be an actress; the autobiography . . . as told to R. W. Sedgwick. Random house 1939 361p illus $3 92

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-10833

Autobiography of one of America's most popular actresses, telling of her start in stock companies, her great successes and her work as actress-manager with her husband. Includes reviews of the plays in which she has starred and illustrations of her famous roles

Corot, Jean Baptiste Camille. See class 759.4

Cortes, Hernando, 1485-1547

Sedgwick, Henry Dwight, 1861- Cortés the conqueror, the exploits of the earliest and greatest of the gentlemen adventurers in the New World. Bobbs 1926 390p illus maps o.p. 1939 92
1 Mexico—History 26-18694

"Following closely the career of the greatest Spanish conquistador in his conquest of Mexico in the 16th century, this entertaining narrative makes excellent use of the letters of Cortes and the chronicles of his followers. Against the background so skillfully portrayed is etched the character of the man 'the gallant, reckless, deep-revolving, gentleman adventurer.' Maps and illustrations." N.Y. libraries

"Judged either as history or as literature, this biography of the greatest of the Spanish conquistadores is a distinguished piece of work. Mr. Sedgwick has achieved the rare and delightful combination eminently capable historical research with an alert and fluent style." Nation

"Authorities consulted": p380-83

Coward, Noel Pierce, 1899-

Present indicative. Doubleday 1937 371p illus $1 92

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 37-8344

Also obtainable from Garden City pub. co. at $1

"Autobiography of the English actor and playwright, in which he describes his early life of comparative poverty, his years of struggle for financial independence, and his ultimate success. The book closes with the great night in London when the royal family came to see Cavalcade." Book rev. digest

"As narration the work is excellent and as an account of an interesting career it is delightful. But it is chiefly important, as it should be, because of the frank picture it paints of a remarkably interesting and talented young man." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Cowper, William, 1731-1800

Cecil, Lord Edward Christian David, 1902- Stricken deer; or, The life of Cowper. Oxford 322p (World's classics) 80c 92

36-27022

First published 1930 by Bobbs

"His background, his psychology, his poetry; all are skillfully blended in this biography in such a way as to give it both beauty and pathos. For it is the biography of a gentle, dependent individual, entirely unfitted for life and subject to spells of temporary insanity." Providence

"He has studied his subject closely, but does not make a show of his research, and he has been at great pains to keep the balance between Cowper and the poet's circle." Saturday rev.

Smith, Goldwin, 1823-1910. Cowper. Macmillan 1880 131p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

A14-1478

"The man, the poet, his work, and his age, portrayed by a scholarly hand." Leypoldt & Iles

Craig, John D. 1903-

Danger is my business. Simon & Schuster 1938 309p front $3 92

1 Adventure and adventurers 2 Diving, Submarine 3 Hunting 4 Ocean bottom (W) 38-27124

A fast-moving adventure book by a deep-sea photographer. "As a boy of twenty he made sufficient money in oil to carry him around the world. Returning to America he became a deep-sea diver and photographer for the motion picture companies." Sat. rev. of lit.

Cram, Ralph Adams, 1863-

My life in architecture. Little 1936 325p illus $3.50 92

1 Architects—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Architecture, Gothic 36-5500

"The foremost exponent of Gothic architecture in America tells the story of his career and discusses the changes in architectural trends during his lifetime." Book rev. digest

"Mr Cram's book is written to interest all thoughtful readers, and not merely architects. . . The material makes an engaging blend of memories, facts and feelings." Springfield Republican

Crane, Hart, 1899-1932

Horton, Philip. Hart Crane; the life of an American poet. Norton 1937 352p front $3 92

37-9710

Life story and critical appraisal of the work of this poet, known during the 1920s to a few friends and critics, introduced to a wider public by his tragic death in 1932

"A brilliant book, a real achievement, since Hart Crane's life presented innumerable difficulties to his biographer. Mr. Horton deserves high praise for the tact and candor with which he has written of a modern American poet whose life was lurid and guilt-ridden and who, nevertheless, justified his existence through his poetry." Cincinnati

Crane, Stephen, 1871-1900

Beer, Thomas, 1889- Stephen Crane; a study in American letters; with an introduction by Joseph Conrad. Knopf 1923 248p o.p. 1939 92

23-17713

"The first authentic biography of the author of 'A red badge of courage.' . . . Refutes many stories that were current about Crane in his life time and after. Interesting and significant to the studeni of American literary trends." Wis. bul.

Cranmer, Thomas abp. of Canterbury, 1489-1556

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Cranmer, archbishop of Canterbury, 1533-1556. . . Lippincott 1931 333p illus $2.50 92

31-32731

"A picture of the causes back of the disruption of the Catholic power in England and of the dramatic struggle of opposing factions." Forum

"This is not an exciting book, except in spots and particularly toward the end; but it is an informative record of an exciting period in English history. If there is found in this book a pro-Catholic bias, it must be pointed out in fairness to Mr. Belloc that if it exists it is unconscious." Outlook

Crockett, David, 1786-1836

Rourke, Constance Mayfield. Davy Crockett. Harcourt 1934 276p illus $2.50 92

34-4692

"The character, life and adventures of this unique American about whom so many legends are clustered. Written for young Americans, it will be interesting to anyone who cares for the picturesque folklore which has woven itself into our history. Includes a bibliography which is valuable." Wis. bul.

David Crockett's "Adventures of Davy Crockett, told mostly by himself" (Scribner 1934 258p illus $2.50) contains the "Autobiography of David Crockett" written in 1834 and "Colonel Crockett's Texas exploits" which ends with the defence of the Alamo

Cromwell, Oliver, 1599-1658

Buchan, John, 1st baron Tweedsmuir, 1875-1940. Oliver Cromwell. Houghton 1934 458p illus maps $4.50 92

1 Great Britain—History—Civil war and Commonwealth, 1642-1660 34-30370

"To solve the enigma [of Cromwell], to dissolve the myth, is the task attempted by two of our most skilled and—in the best sense—popular writers. They have set about their tasks in different ways, good writing and keen interest in political and military problems being almost all that their books have in common. . . . Mr. Buchan's is the finer work, the fuller, to outward appearance the more deeply pondered, the less capricious. It is fully annotated, whereas Mr. Belloc's [see note below] is not. . . To Mr. Buchan's [work] it would be unfair if one did not point out that it is very difficult in the course of review to indicate its breadth and depth. It neglects no aspect; it is never marred by adulation and seldom by unwarranted apology. It is, in short, a good and a full biography." Times (London) lit. sup.

Cromwell, Oliver—Continued

Additional recommended biographies are:

Belloc, Hilaire. Cromwell. Lippincott 1934 356p illus maps $5 For a comparison of this biography with that by Buchan, see note above

Gardiner, S. R. Oliver Cromwell. Longmans 1901 319p front $3

Morley, J. M. viscount. Oliver Cromwell. Macmillan 1900 533p $2

Curie, Mme Marie (Sklodowska) 1867-1934

‡ Curie, Eve, 1904- Madame Curie, a biography; tr. by Vincent Sheean. Doubleday 1937 393p illus trade ed $3.50, school ed $1.20 92

(W) 37-28462

"Into the writing of this definitive biography of the great woman scientist, Eve Curie has brought the skill of a trained writer, the research of a scientist, and the love of a daughter. She describes her mother's early years in which she surmounted all hardships to pursue the course she had chosen, then the tragic death of her husband, and finally her pressing on to new greater heights of achievement, totally and oblivious to fame, honour and health. The world knows the record of her career, but for the first time reads of her background and private life." Ontario library review

Curie, Pierre, 1859-1906

Curie, Mme. Marie (Sklodowska) 1867-1934. Pierre Curie; tr. by Charlotte and Vernon Kellogg; with an introduction by Mrs W. B. Meloney, and autobiographical notes by Marie Curie. Macmillan 1923 242p illus $2.25 92

23-17302

"Of especial appeal and value because it is written by Madame Curie, who shared so completely in his scientific research and ideals. The story of their experiments, of the finding of radium, of their home life, and something of Madame Curie's early years . . . is an inspiring one, told with quiet simplicity." N.Y. state lib.

Curtiss, Glenn Hammond, 1878-1930

Studer, Clara. Sky storming Yankee; the life of Glenn Curtiss. Stackpole sons 1937 370p illus $3 92

37-8378

"The story of Glenn Curtiss, a country boy who left school at fifteen and began his career by repairing and racing bicycles. Next he attached a motor to a bicycle, and, after that, in 1904, to a balloon, thus making the first dirigible. So began his career in aviation, a life which Clara Studer tells in a manner essentially human, engrossing, and provocative." Cincinnati

Custer, George Armstrong, 1839-1876

Custer, Mrs Elizabeth (Bacon). "Boots and saddles"; or, Life in Dakota with General Custer. Harper 312p illus map $2 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 U.S.—Army—Military life 4-17613

First published 1885

"Entertaining account of an army woman's daily life in Dakota." N.Y. state lib.

F. F. Van de Water's "Glory hunter; a life of General Custer" (Bobbs 1934 394p illus maps $3.75) portrays Custer as cruel, egotistical, and with a blind craving for glory

Damien de Veuster, Joseph, 1841-1889

Farrow, John, 1904- Damien, the leper. Sheed 1937 xx,230p $2.50 92

37-4599

"Biography of the Belgian priest whose life was devoted to the leper colony on the island of Molokai and who himself died a leper. The book is a result of considerable research into the background of Father Damien's life on the island and the condition of the lepers." Book rev. digest

"His service is in his literary composition, for he has reduced the story to an appealing simplicity, both in word and arrangement. . . The telling, throughout the entire volume, has the vividness that an artist achieves with broad strokes." Springfield Republican

Irene Caudwell's "Damien of Molokai, 1840-1889" (Macmillan 1932 230p front o.p. 1939) is another good life of Father Damien

Damrosch, Walter Johannes, 1862- See class 780.92

Dante Alighieri, 1265-1321

Dinsmore, Charles Allen. Life of Dante Alighieri. Houghton 1919 306p illus map $3 92

19-15580

"Sets forth in an authoritative and very readable manner the character of the century and the city to which Dante belonged, as well as the facts and some of the traditions of his life, together with an interpretation of Dante as a literary artist." N.Y. state lib.

H. D. Sedgwick's "Dante" (Yale univ. press 1918 187p front o.p. 1939) treats in detail the structure and symbolism of the "Divine comedy," with chapters on Dante's life and character

Danton, Georges Jacques, 1759-1794

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Danton; a study; with a new preface and 17 illus. Putnam 1928 xxiv,448p illus $5 92

28-4514

Published in London in 1899. "Belloc writes in a spirit of admiration of Danton's character and of his place in the Revolution." Book rev. digest

"What more, or what less, could one wish to say, in 1928 of the present reprint than was said in 1899 of Mr. Belloc's brilliant first enterprise in the writing of history? It is now, as it was then, a wonderfully fascinating book." New statesman

Darrow, Clarence Seward, 1857-1938

Story of my life. Scribner 1932 503p illus $1 92

1 Lawyers—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 31-28682

"The story of his great cases—Eugene Debs, Heywood, Moyer and Pettibone, the McNamaras, Loeb-Leopold, Dayton—his opinions on crime and punishment and other problems, and the personality of the man, cynical yet compassionate, make this an unusual autobiography." Wis. bul.

Darrow, Clarence S.—Continued

Darwin, Charles Robert, 1809-1882
Bradford, Gamaliel, 1863-1932. Darwin. Houghton 1926 314p illus $3.50 92
26-17912

"Mr Bradford applies to Darwin's character and work his familiar method of psychography, revealing Darwin as observer, thinker, discoverer, loser, lover and destroyer." Book rev. digest
"As its name implies, a book about a man and not about a theory . . . 'Darwin' is neither profound nor exhaustive. It amounts practically to a sympathetic summary of the 'Letters' . . . What he has specifically set out to do, however, Mr Bradford has very satisfactorily done." Sat rev. of lit.

Wells, Geoffrey Harry, 1900- Charles Darwin, the fragmentary man, by Geoffrey West [pseud]. Yale univ. press 1938 359p illus $3.50 92
(W) 38-27430

"Biography of Charles Darwin by a young English author, who began his research with 'a faint distaste for Darwin as a rather more than usually "typical Victorian,"' but came in the end 'to feel a considerable liking, even an affection, for the man Darwin and for many of his family and friends,' because they represented some of the best elements of English life in their period." Book rev. digest
The book is "well worth the considerable trouble he has obviously taken with it, both as a lucid account of a very remarkable career and because it is extremely interesting to see how an intelligent writer of a fairly young generation reacts, upon a close acquaintance, to Darwin's personality and teaching." Times (London) lit. sup.
Bibliography: p341-51

Two additional sources of information about the great scientist and his work are:
Darwin, C. R. Life and letters, including an autobiographical chapter, ed. by his son Francis Darwin. Appleton-Century 1888 2v fronts $8
Ward, C. H. Charles Darwin; the man and his warfare. Murray, J. 1927 314p 21s

Das, Mrs Frieda Mathilda (Hauswirth)
Marriage to India. . . Vanguard 1930 303p front $3 92
1 India—Social life and customs
30-29428

"A Swiss woman, educated in America and married to a Hindu, took up her life in India with high ideals of service and friendship, only to experience to the full the social ostracism that is the lot of a white woman married to a native. She was in close touch with members of all classes. . . The book is an intensively earnest revelation of the personal difficulties involved in inter-social marriage, and of the hopeless position of Eurasians. Mrs. Das knew Tagore, Gandhi and other prominent Indian leaders who appear in her pages." Bkl.

Davies, William Henry, 1871-
Autobiography of a super-tramp; with a preface by Bernard Shaw. Knopf 1917 xx,345p $1.89 92
17-13447

"It is, as Mr Shaw says, 'a placid narrative, unexciting in matter and unvarnished in manner, of the commonplaces of a tramp's life.' The author as a young man came to America from Bristol to make his fortune and, having quickly spent his small savings set out on a career of tramping and begging, varied by brief intervals of work, which only ended when he tired of it and settled down, on a legacy of eight shillings a week, to write and publish verse." Pittsburgh
"A human document in the best sense of that much abused phrase." Boston Transcript

W. H. Davies' "Later days" (Smith, P. 1926 234p $1) is a sequel to the book entered above

Davis, James John, 1873-
Iron puddler; my life in the rolling mills and what came of it; introduction by J. G. Cannon. Bobbs 1922 275p front o.p. 1939 92
22-15389

"Autobiography of 'a self-made man' giving interesting episodes in the life of the [former] United States Secretary of labor. The author tells in a breezy, colloquial style, the story of his boyhood in Wales, his work in iron mills and his founding of the Moosehart school for orphans." N.Y. state lib.

Davis, Jefferson, 1808-1889
Tate, Allen, 1899- Jefferson Davis: his rise and fall, a biographical narrative. Putnam 1929 311p illus $1.50 92
29-20277

Formerly carried by Minton
"Mr. Allen Tate's portrait—it can scarcely be called a biography—is a strikingly thoughtful and artistic work. It is a study of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy, for with the earlier Davis Tate is not concerned. His study then becomes to a large extent a re-interpretation of the Civil War and the role Davis played in that tragedy. It is a study that must excite the admiration and the wonder of the more professional historian." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Bibliographical note: p303-06

E. B. Cutting's "Jefferson Davis; political soldier" (Dodd 1930 361p illus o.p. 1939) is a sympathetic study with emphasis upon the foreign relations of the Confederacy. Noted for its balance and objectivity

Debussy, Achille Claude, 1862-1918. See class 780.92

Defoe, Daniel, 1661?-1731
Minto, William, 1845-1893. Daniel Defoe. Macmillan 1879 171p (English men of letters) $1.50 92
A22-551

"Careful and accurate in all that it states, and fruitful in all that it suggests." Athenaeum

Deland, Mrs Margaret Wade (Campbell) 1857-
If this be I, as I suppose it be; illus. by Dorothy Bayley. Appleton-Century 1935 227p illus $2 92
1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 35-27401

"In an old family album Mrs Deland discovered a picture of a smug little girl taken in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, some seventy years ago. On the back was written 'Maggie, aged six,' and she realized with amazement that it must be of herself as a child. With the picture as a starting point she delved into the past and recalled the first years of her life, her first realization of the meanings of war, patriotism, love and other abstract ideas, and has presented a humorous and clear-cut picture of the mind of a child." Book rev. digest

Deland, Mrs Margaret W. C.—Continued

De Morgan, Mrs Evelyn (Pickering) d. 1919
Stirling, Mrs Anna Maria Diana Wilhelmina (Pickering) William De Morgan and his wife. See entry under De Morgan, William Frend

De Morgan, William Frend, 1839-1917
Stirling, Mrs Anna Maria Diana Wilhelmina (Pickering) William De Morgan and his wife. Holt 1922 403p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 De Morgan, Mrs Evelyn (Pickering) d 1919 22-16210

"Biography of two charming and gifted persons, William De Morgan, potter, and later, author, and Evelyn De Morgan, painter. Of special interest to those who like to read about art and artists. Has much about the pre-Raphaelite group. The many illustrations of De Morgan's pottery and his wife's pictures add to the attractiveness of the book." Wis. bul.

Demosthenes, 383?-322 B.C.
Pickard-Cambridge, Arthur Wallace, 1873- Demosthenes and the last days of Greek freedom, 384-322 B.C. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

De Quincey, Thomas, 1785-1859
Eaton, Horace Ainsworth, 1871- Thomas De Quincey. Oxford 1936 542p illus $5 92

36-11033

"Professor Eaton, in his elaborately documented biography, presents all the facts that can be discovered about De Quincey's curious life. He has permitted De Quincey to tell his own tale as much as possible, but he has cast new light on the later years which previous biographers have tended to treat rather cursorily in favor of the richer, more romantic early years. In his preface he disclaims any attempt to interpret the mind of his subject, and he admits that he has 'no startlingly new thesis to propose.'" Sat. rev. of lit.

Masson, David, 1822-1907. De Quincey. Macmillan 1881 198p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

12-36690

Short biographical and critical study

Der Ling, princess
Kowtow; illus. by S. Pinkus. Dodd 1929 322p illus $3.50 92

1 China—Social life and customs 29-20233

"Tells, with colorful detail, of the author's girlhood as the child of Lord Yu Keng, a Manchu, who surprisingly believed in educating his daughters according to European ideas. Adoration of her father permeates the narrative from the first moment the little princess is seen, as a spoiled child upsetting her tutor's dignity without punishment on through the years the family spent in Japan and France where Yu Keng was ambassador, with a final glimpse of the author, as lady-in-waiting to the Empress." N.Y. libraries

Dewey, Melvil, 1851-1931
Dawe, George Grosvenor, 1863- Melvil Dewey, seer: inspirer: doer, 1851-1931; biografic compilation. Melvil Dewey biografy, Lake Placid club 1932 391p illus map $3 92

33-474

"This volume includes a sketch of Dr Dewey's life and character, a summary of his various achievements in the library field, as a pioneer of simplified spelling, as head of the Lake Placid club, etc., a selection of papers, documents, and letters to and from him, and a bibliography. Simplified spelling is used." Book rev. digest

Dexter, Timothy, 1747-1806
Marquand, John Phillips, 1893- Lord Timothy Dexter of Newburyport, Massachusetts, first in the East, first in the West, and the greatest philosopher in the western world. Putnam 1925 378p front $1.50 92

[25-19573]

An amusing biography of an eccentric 18th century merchant

"A book which is at once good biography, delicious satire, and loyal appreciation of the place and the times." Outlook

Dîâgĭlev, Sergĭêĭ Pavlovich, 1872-1929
Haskell, Arnold Lionel, 1903- and Nouvel, Walter. Diaghileff, his artistic and private life. Simon & Schuster 1935 359p illus $3.75 92

1 Ballet 35-27436

"In 'Nijinsky' [see the entry under that name, class 92] Diaghileff appeared as a sinister figure. His biographer, collaborating with one of Diaghileff's friends and fellow workers, offers a factual account of his life that is an answer to the Nijinsky book and a defense of the man. It is frank about his weaknesses, particularly his emotional instability and his attitude toward sex, but not sensational, and it is impartial in appraising Diaghlieff's influence on the ballet and other arts. Illustrated with photographs of ballet dancers. Lists of productions, and of the casts, in appendixes." Bkl.

Diaz, Porfirio, president Mexico, 1830-1915
Beals, Carleton, 1893- Porfirio Diaz, dictator of Mexico. Lippincott 1932 463p illus $5 92

1 Mexico—History 32-28136

"In 'Porfirio Diaz' Beals has combined scholarliness with literary excellence. With a complete mastery of his sources and subject he has wrought for the English-reading world a work which probably must rest for generations to come as the definitive story of a man who not only dominated Mexico for 30 years but who represented a whole school of Latin-American dictators." Christian science monitor

Dickens, Charles, 1812-1870
Chesterton, Gilbert Keith, 1874-1936. Charles Dickens; a critical study. Dodd 1906 300p $3 92

6-34069

"Sympathetic study in biography and criticism, written with Mr Chesterton's accustomed vigor and delight in paradox and the trenchant phrase." Pittsburgh

Dickens, Charles—Continued

Forster, John, 1812-1876. Life of Charles Dickens. Dutton 2v (Everyman's lib.) ea 90c 92

A27-281

"A familiar, authentic, revealing, and most readable biography by an intimate friend. Has special bearing upon Dickens' literary career and the circumstances surrounding the production of his novels." Pratt alcove

Leacock, Stephen Butler, 1869- Charles Dickens, his life and work. Sun dial 322p illus 98c 92

38-11568

Reprint of a book originally published by Doubleday in 1934

"To miss the Leacock book is to miss a piece of writing very jolly and very sincere, something immensely worth while in itself, apart from its subject. . . For those who know nothing of the life of Dickens there is here a sufficiency of fact and of data: for those already well acquainted with the fact, a fresh interpretation, a new infusion of an old enthusiasm they may have found flagging." N.Y. Times

Maurois, André, 1885- Dickens; tr. by Hamish Miles. Harper 1935 206p $2 92

35-2662

"Maurois' viewpoint is sympathetic: he considers his subject not cruel or dishonest, but supersensitive, and the victim of an unhappy childhood, an adolescent disappointment in love, and an unfortunate marriage. The author discusses also in the course of his biography some of the characters in Dickens' novels." Book rev. digest

"M. Maurois can perceive Dickens's faults whether as a man or a writer, acutely enough, but he insists on thinking of him at his best. . . [He] sees Dickens steadily as a whole, and towering above his frailties as a man and his defects as an artist, sees also his essential greatness." Times (London) lit. sup.

Ward, Sir Adolphus William, 1837-1924. Dickens. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Dickinson, Emily, 1830-1886

Life and letters of Emily Dickinson, by her niece M. D. Bianchi. Houghton 1924 386p illus $5 92

24-7241

The correspondence contained in this book is chiefly reprinted from the early edition of the letters published by Mrs M. L. Todd in 1894, altho Mrs Bianchi has added other material. Mrs Todd's collection has now been revised (new and enl ed Harper 1931 457p illus $4) to include many letters suppressed in her earlier edition

"An admirable, but reticent record of the life of a New England poet, recluse and mystic, with an accompanying selection from her letters. Emily Dickinson's shy charm, the audacity of her wit and the sensitive acuteness of her feeling are revealed in these notes to her family and to such friends as Dr and Mrs J. G. Holland, and Thomas Wentworth Higginson." N.Y. state lib.

M. D. Bianchi's "Emily Dickinson face to face" (Houghton 1932 xxii, 290p illus $3.50) consisting of hitherto unpublished letters, notes and further reminiscences. Supplements the earlier "Life and letters" 30-17103

Taggard, Genevieve, 1894- Life and mind of Emily Dickinson. Knopf 1930 xxi, 378p illus $1.89 92

"With penetrating perception, a canny intuition and the delicate understanding of a fellow poet, Miss Taggard has woven this book out of two strands, 'Emily's outer and her inner existence.' The consideration of Emily's genius, her flashing wit and poetry is particularly notable. Charming in format, the book is illustrated from oil paintings, facsimiles of letters, old lithographs, etc." N.Y. libraries

MacGregor Jenkins' biography entitled "Emily Dickinson, friend and neighbor" (new ed Little 1930 150p $1) contains reminiscences of her remarkable personality by one who knew her when a boy

Whicher, George Frisbie, 1889- This was a poet; a critical biography of Emily Dickinson. Scribner 1938 337p illus $3 92

(W) 38-28929

"The first half of this book [is] a study of the village where she lived, her education, her important friendships with the several men whom she regarded as her tutors, and her years of seclusion when the greater part of her poetry was written, though not published." (Preface) The second part of the book is a critical estimate of her work

"An important book about Emily Dickinson. . . Mr. Whicher brings us new facts to put in place of speculation and misunderstanding. He brings a cool and thoughtful attitude to vexed questions that must be clarified before we can see this poet and her poetry plain." Sat. rev. of lit.

Digby, George

Under the redwood trees. Dutton 1940 285p $2.50 92

1 California—Description and travel

(W) 40-4946

Stories of life in a log cabin in northern California told by an Englishman who with his wife spent several months there. Accompanied by observations on American life

"George Digby writes largely as a reporter, now in humorous vein, now serious, with mildly ironical comments thrown in. His narrative is vivacious and lucidly phrased . . . it is of interest chiefly because Mr Digby carried his own eyes with him and, when he stopped long enough to use them properly, he often saw something that Americans don't see, or see so well that they take it for granted without questioning its significance." Springfield Republican

Dimnet, Ernest, 1866-

My old world. Simon & Schuster 1935 280p $2.50 92

35-4890

"These genial, autobiographical reminiscences by the author of The Art of Thinking cover his early years, his education, and the growth and development of his interest in English literature and English life." Book rev. digest

"Read this book, not only for all it has to tell, but to learn from it what is the French mind, and in particular its faculty for complete achievement in that which it seriously sets out to achieve." Sat. rev. of lit.

Ernest Dimnet in "My new world" (Simon & Schuster 1937 396p $2.50) (W) continues his autobiography with comments on his war-time experiences and his visits to the United States

Donatello. See class 735

Doran, George Henry, 1869-

Chronicles of Barabbas, 1884-1934. Harcourt 1935 416p front o.p. 1939 92

1 Authors, American 2 Authors, English 3 Authors and publishers 4 Publishers and publishing 35-6604

"A spicy potpourri of the author's publishing experiences and connections in the United States and England, his contacts and friendships with authors, editors, presidents and ambassadors. Aside from the publishing scene through fifty years, the most entertaining feature of these reminiscences is the frank portraiture of both the living and the dead, from Arnold Bennett to Mary Roberts Rinehart. Portrait frontispiece, index." N.Y. libraries

Dostoevskiĭ, Fedor Mikhaĭlovich, 1821-1881

Letters of Fyodor Michailovitch Dostoevsky to his family and friends; tr. by E. C. Mayne. Macmillan 1914 344p illus $2 92

15-26036

"These letters do not completely outline the great Russian novelist's life, but they mirror both his weakness and greatness, his physical frailty and the hardships which increased it; above all, they record the experiences of his Siberian exile which produced so profound a spiritual change in the man that the message of his works is 'as disturbing as that of any Hebrew prophet or Christian saint.' Several letters show his relation to Turgenieff, and one chapter gives the youthful impressions of Sophia Kovalevsky, the mathematician, of Dostoevskii, the man." Cleveland

Contains also "Recollections of Dostoevskii," by his friends

Aimée Dostoevskii's biographical study of her father "Fyodor Dostoyevsky" (Yale univ. press 1922 294p $4) is a psychological analysis as well as a loving account of the great novelist

Carr, Edward Hallett, 1892- Dostoevsky (1821-1881); a new biography; with a preface by D. S. Mirsky. Houghton 1931 331p front $3.50 92

31-28302

"A biography of the great Russian novelist which utilizes the mass of information concerning his life which has been made public since 1920. This includes various collections of his letters, a biography by his daughter, his wife's diary and memoirs, and other writings by those close to him. Index." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Carr's story of the man's life, and his analysis of the novelist's work, are both admirable. . . We sigh with relief to find Dostoevsky treated as a man and not as a latter-day Messiah. Such treatment kindles afresh our interest in his work, and in his power as an artist." Spectator

Yarmolinsky, Avrahm, 1890- Dostoevsky; a life. Harcourt 1934 447p illus o.p. 1939 92

34-37959

"Mr. Yarmolinsky, who is chief of the Slavonic Division of the New York public library, combines a detailed narrative of Dostoevsky's life with a synopsis and criticism of each of his novels, an account of the autobiographical element that entered into them, and a placing of each in relation to his life. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Students of Russian literature will find Mr. Yarmolinsky's biography invaluable. Factually it is the last word on the subject. Not a thread of the available information seems to have escaped the attention of the author." Sat. rev. of lit.

Douglas, Stephen Arnold, 1813-1861

Howland, Louis, 1857-1934. Stephen A. Douglas. Scribner 1920 375p (Figures from American history) o.p. 1939 92

20-7497

"Mr Howland leaves upon his readers a clear-cut impression of Douglas—of what he did and of what he failed to do. He knows his man and the times in which he lived. Slips are few." Weekly review

Doyle, Sir Arthur Conan, 1859-1930

Memories and adventures. new ed Murray, J. 1930 460p 7s 6d 92

[24-22951]

Formerly carried also by Little

"This autobiography of the author of the Sherlock Holmes stories follows Doyle's career in the medical profession, as a writer, in military service in South Africa and in the World war, and as a traveler and sportsman. The final chapter concerns his study of psychic phenomena." Pittsburgh

Doyle, Mrs Helen (MacKnight) 1872-

* A child went forth; with a foreword by Mary Austin. Gotham house 1934 364p $3 92

1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 34-27119

"Reminiscences of the author's life from the seventies to the present. . . In the nineties she began her medical training in San Francisco and was one of the first women on the Pacific coast to take a degree in medicine. She became Dr Nellie to thousands and was known by that name after she met another doctor and married him." Book rev. digest

"Occasionally a book comes along that is written with a wholesome simplicity and humanness that is heart-warming. 'A Child Went Forth' is such a book. Wisdom it has, and understanding and saltiness of the kind that grows out of individual experiences and struggles and conquests." N.Y. Times

Drake, Sir Francis, 1540?-1596

Benson, Edward Frederic, 1867- Sir Francis Drake. Lane 1927 315p illus maps 5s 92

27-15782

Formerly carried also by Harper

"A delightful biography which gives full value to the glamor and romance of Drake's picturesque career from boyhood to his death. His piratical ventures, the part he played in the destruction of the Spanish Armada and his influence in extending English sea power are stressed. He is painted as the idol of the people, a hot-tempered, profane, big-hearted man, who did not know what fear meant." Bkl.

"His is a lively and sincere account. From the beginning to the end Mr. Benson reconstructs the story of Drake admirably." New statesman

Bibliography: p306-08

Draper, Mrs Muriel Gurdon (Sanders) 1886-

See class 780.92

Dressler, Marie, 1873-1934
My own story; as told to Mildred Harrington; foreword by Will Rogers. Little 1934 289p illus $2.50 92

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 34-28471

"The deep affection with which this actress was regarded will create a welcome for her book. Fully illustrated with photographs from her early stage successes and later movie triumphs." Wis. bul.

Drew, John, 1853-1927
My years on the stage; with a foreword by Booth Tarkington. Dutton 1922 242p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 22-24272

"An amiable and modest volume of the reminiscences, merely tapping a rich mine of anecdote and allusion that the reader would like to see worked to the full. His account of three generations of Drews and Barrymores is very interesting, but he gives little idea of the developments in theatrical art in the thirty odd years covered by his stage career." Cleveland

Dreyfus, Alfred, 1859-1935
Dreyfus case. . . tr. and ed. by D. C. McKay. Yale univ. press 1937 xxiv,303p illus $3.75 92

37-27302

"This record of the Dreyfus case contains an account, by his son, of Dreyfus' four years on Devil's island, an unpublished memoir written by the captain himself and covering the period from his second conviction in 1899 to his acquittal in 1906, as well as numerous letters from prominent partisans in his behalf." Book rev. digest

"A detailed and a conscientious book, free from melodramatics and . . . rendered touchingly human by the letters that were exchanged between Mme. Dreyfus and her husband." Sat. rev. of lit.

Jacques Kayser's "Dreyfus affair; tr. from the French by Nora Bickley" (Heinemann 1931 432p illus 10s 6d) written by a nephew of Dreyfus is another interesting account of the case up to the year 1906

Drinkwater, John, 1882-1937
Inheritance, being the first book of an autobiography. Allen, G. 1931 205p illus 10s 6d 92

[31-34823]

"An account of the life of English publicans, farmers, coachmen and coachmasters of the eighteenth century. Mr. Drinkwater writes from personal recollections, traditions, and documents, reconstructing a past phase of English society, and painting a vivid picture with many intimate details. This prelude does not go beyond the author's fifteenth year." Ontario library review

John Drinkwater's "Discovery; being the second book of an autobiography, 1897-1913" (Houghton 1933 235p illus $2.75) continues his autobiography to his thirtieth year

Dryden, John, 1631-1700
Saintsbury, George Edward Bateman, 1845-1933. Dryden. Macmillan 1881 196p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

A22-553

A good short biography containing literary criticism

Dumas, Alexandre, 1802-1870
Gorman, Herbert Sherman, 1893- Incredible marquis, Alexandre Dumas. Farrar 1929 466p illus o.p. 1939 92

29-22939

"This dramatic narrative of Dumas, the incredibly romantic, takes him from his picturesque youth, based on the Dumas' memoirs, thru the remainder of a varied and active life to his death in 1870." Book rev. digest

"It is not a dry critical study. It is a readable, immensely colorful history of a man whose life was as huge, as rich and as romantically vivid as his work, by which latter he is chiefly known." Outlook

Du Maurier, Sir Gerald, 1873-1934
Du Maurier, Daphne. Gerald; a portrait. Doubleday 1935 312p $1 92

35-27104

"Portrait of the English actor, Sir Gerald du Maurier, written by his daughter. It begins with a sketch of the biographer's grandfather, George du Maurier, author of Trilby and Peter Ibbetson, and deftly and gradually builds up the story of her father, showing the similarities between father and son. Sir Gerald is shown as a brilliant, moody, generous man always in search of some unknown happiness." Book rev. digest

"This is a remarkable book for a daughter to write, with its clear gaze that never becomes cold but which lets nothing escape. There is no judgment; there is affection, understanding, the sense of tragedy. The charm and the pity of it are communicated to us." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Dunant, Jean Henri, 1828-1910
Gumpert, Martin, 1897- Dunant; the story of the Red cross. Oxford 1938 323p front $2.50 92

1 Red cross (W) 38-27863

"Biography of the Geneva banker who on account of his observations on the battlefield of Solferino became the founder of the Red cross. In developing his study of the life of Dunant, and the story of the organization which he founded, the author adds considerable material on the important men and events of the time." Book rev. digest

Dunbar, Paul Laurence, 1872-1906
Brawley, Benjamin Griffith, 1882- Paul Laurence Dunbar; poet of his people. Univ. of N.C. press 1936 159p front $1 92

37-978

"A sympathetic but not over laudatory account of the poet's short life, with an appraisal of his work. Verse tributes to him are given in an appendix, followed by a list of his publications and a bibliography of criticism." Bkl.

Dunn, James Philip, 1884-1936. See class 780.92

Dunsany, Edward John Moreton Drax Plunkett, 18th baron, 1878-
Patches of sunlight. Reynal 1938 309p illus $3 92

(W) 38-27721

"This is not just the story of Lord Dunsany's 'wandering into literature,' but also an account of a British aristocrat's typically conventional life. Eton, Sandhurst, the Coldstream guards, Parliament

Dunsany, E. J. M. D. P. 18th baron—Cont.
at an early age, the Boer War, the World War, fox hunting in England, big game hunting in Africa, proposing at a garden party, all follow a pattern which makes the mystery and enchantment of his tales, the golden beauty of his style, the more amazing." Cincinnati

Dürer, Albrecht, 1471-1528 See class 759.3

Dvořák, Anton, 1841-1904. See class 780.92

Earhart, Amelia, 1898-1937

* Fun of it; random records of my own flying and of women in aviation. . . Harcourt 1932 218p illus $2.50 92

1 Women in aeronautics 32-26741

"This volume combines an entertaining, intimate autobiography with more general chapters on the history and art of flying, and on women aeronauts, their personalities and accomplishments. A final chapter, added after the book was on the press, contains Miss Earhart's story of her trans-Atlantic flight of May, 1932." Book rev. digest

"Her book is interesting reading, not only because of what it contains but because of the engaging personality which for all its author's modesty emerges from its pages." Sat. rev. of lit.

* Putnam, George Palmer, 1887- Soaring wings; a biography of Amelia Earhart. Harcourt 1939 294p illus $2.50 92

1 Air pilots (W) 39-27687

Informal and intimate biography of Amelia Earhart, written by her husband
Appeared serially in "Liberty" under title: Lady with wings

"The chief facts of her life are already known; some of the important material used here has already been published in her own words; this biography is informal, and all the better for that. . . She lives for us in these pages; gallant, independent, and sensitive, eager, thoughtful and gay. Not even in its ending can this be a sad story. On the contrary, it is full of courage, as it is full of determination." N.Y. Times

Eddy, Mrs Mary (Baker) 1821-1910

* Dakin, Edwin Franden. Mrs Eddy; the biography of a virginal mind. popular ed Scribner 1930 563p $2 92

30-6396

First published 1929. This edition includes "in addition to a few minor corrections a new Publisher's note, an addition to the author's foreword, and two new appendices. These contain 'some of the extraordinary source material' from the Frye diaries, and a commentary on Mrs. Eddy's use of sources in the compilation of her literary productions." Bkl.

"Mr. Dakin's biography is a monumental work, exhaustively documented and equipped with all possible scholarly apparatus by which the diligent student may confirm or correct his conclusions. The reader who wishes to challenge his judgments or to form an independent estimate of the character of the Leader, will find here a complete guide to the available source materials." Christian century

Bibliography: p539-49

Wilbur, Sibyl. Life of Mary Baker Eddy. Christian science pub. co. 406p illus $3 92

29-28527

"This is not a new work. Though its latest copyright dates from 1929, the earliest dates from 1907. Since its first appearance two chapters completing the biography have been added, a few minor changes and corrections have been introduced . . . but nothing of any importance has been altered, nothing derogatory to the subject has been added." Catholic world

This is the biography recognized as authoritative by the Christian Science Church

Edgeworth, Maria, 1767-1849

Lawless, Emily, 1845-1913. Maria Edgeworth. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Edib, Halidé. See Hālidah Adib, khānum

Edison, Thomas Alva, 1847-1931

Bryan, George Sands, 1879- Edison, the man and his work. Knopf 1926 350p illus o.p. 1939 92

26-19839

"A well-constructed biography. With little attempt at literary fret-work, Mr. Bryan provides a vivid, compact and readily assimilable account of a life devoted wholeheartedly to invention and mechanical discovery." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p331-37

Jones, Francis Arthur. Thomas Alva Edison, an intimate record. rev ed Crowell 1924 399p illus o.p. 1939 92

24-23264

"A really fascinating biography which makes no pretence to distinctive literary style but tells the story of the man and the inventor with simplicity, enthusiasm, and sincerity. It is indeed a book for both those interested in science and in life; it cannot fail to stimulate and inspire any young man into whose hands it may fall." A. L. A. bkl.

Simonds, William Adams, 1887- Edison, his life, his work, his genius; illus. from photographs, documents and letters. Bobbs 1934 364p illus $1.49 92

34-34917

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1

"An intimate study of Edison's entire life, beginning with his inheritance and the background of his grandparents and great-grandparents in Canada. The narrative of his long laboratory years is filled with anecdotes which throw new light upon the inventor's unique character and enquiring mind." Bkl.

W. H. Meadowcroft's "Boy's life of Edison" revised edition (Harper 1921 272p illus $2) is an interesting account of the man and his work

Edward VII, king of Great Britain, 1841-1910

Benson, Edward Frederic, 1867-1940. King Edward VII, an appreciation. Longmans 1933 307p illus $3 92

33-20860

The author's "agile pen has perhaps never been more happily, or more usefully, employed than in drawing for us his 'speaking' likeness of the Monarch who, in nine short years, stamped himself indelibly on English, and European, history. Mr. Benson's admiration for Edward VII is born of intimate knowledge of that King's character and career; he gives many a subtle story, many an important sidelight, many a stinging detail not to be found in Mr. Sidney Lee's 1,600 closely written pages." Spectator

Edward VII, king of Great Britain—Cont.

Sir Sidney Lee's "King Edward VII" (Macmillan 1925 2v v 1 $8, v2 $8.50) is the official biography undertaken at the request of King George and based on the royal archives. Of interest to the student of the period

Edward VIII, king of Great Britain, 1894-

Bolitho, Hector, 1898- King Edward VIII; an intimate biography. . . Lippincott 1937 327p illus $3.50 92

37-5839

"The author was at work on this life of King Edward VIII when the abdication interrupted the smooth course of biography. Publication was accordingly delayed while the additional chapters needed to cover this dramatic conclusion were prepared. Fully illustrated, provides a complete biography from Victoria's reign to [1937]." Wis. bul.

"The book may be said to reflect very fairly the common attitude of the middle classes to the ex-king—intense, almost . . . passionate admiration for him as Prince of Wales followed by unsympathetic criticism of him as King." New statesman and Nation

Edwards, Jonathan, 1703-1758

McGiffert, Arthur Cushman, 1892- Jonathan Edwards. Harper 1932 225p front (Creative lives) $1 92

32-5120

"A biography of the great eighteenth century American theologian and intellectual, which follows closely the course of his life and the development of his thought, with little attention to the background of his time." Book rev. digest

"In his study of Edwards' thought, McGiffert has written from the standpoint of a modern liberal theologian with a rare sympathetic insight into the meaning and the merits of the work of the great eighteenth century thinker, and the style in which he has couched his exposition is one which not only furnishes a crystal clear window through which to see its object but adds to it a charm of its own." Christian century

Winslow, Ola Elizabeth. Jonathan Edwards, 1703-1758; a biography. Macmillan 1940 406p illus $3.50 92

(W) 40-27294

Biography of the eighteenth century New England theologian of whom the author says "the conclusion persists that as a shaping force in American culture, the man himself has been more important than anything he ever did or said or wrote"

"The book is well written and contains careful notes and bibliography." Churchman

H. B. Parkes' "Jonathan Edwards, the fiery Puritan" (Putnam 1930 271p illus $1.50) is a careful, serious study of Edwards, of his contemporaries, and of the social life of the period

Ekrem, Selma

Unveiled; the autobiography of a Turkish girl. Washburn 1930 320p illus $3 92

31-26044

"The autobiography of a Turkish girl who grew up in old Stamboul, Jerusalem, and Rhodes. Her father, one-time palace secretary, was later Governor of Jerusalem and Governor-General of the Aegean Islands. A charming picture of Turkish family life before the War, together with an account of the author's determination not to wear the tcharshaf, or black veil, mark of women's subjection and seclusion, a rebellion which later brought her to America." Cleveland

Elgar, Sir Edward William, 1857-1934. See class 780.92

Eliot, Charles William, 1834-1926

James, Henry, 1879- Charles W. Eliot, president of Harvard university 1869-1909. Houghton 1930 2v illus $10 92

1 Harvard university 30-29682

"The purpose of the author, he tells us, has been 'to delineate Eliot's character, not to hallow his memory or to chronicle all his achievements.' And in this he has succeeded well. The portrait which he has painted is lifelike. It may not be a masterpiece, but it is certainly a work of solid craftsmanship." Boston

Sources: v2 p361-63

Eliot, George, pseud. 1819-1880

George Eliot's life as related in her letters and journals, arranged and ed. by her husband, J. W. Cross. Harper 1885 3v illus o.p. 1939 92

4-17152

"Personal records of her life from her 19th year till three days before her death. Introductory and closing pages by editor." Subtitle

"Mr Cross has done his work . . . with admirable judgment, fine feeling, and dignified self-subordination to his theme." Academy

George Eliot's "Letters" (Dial press 1927 219p $2.50) is a selection made by R. B. Johnson from the larger collection

Stephen, Sir Leslie, 1832-1904. George Eliot. Macmillan 1902 213p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

[2-21912]

"In his account of George Eliot Sir Leslie Stephen supplies an interesting specimen of that art of biographical criticism of which he must always remain an acknowledged master. . . He writes of George Eliot in no spirit of adulation. He is keenly alive to her defects. . . But his tribute to her intellectual power of observation and to the richness of her emotional nature is ample enough to satisfy all reasonable admirers of her achievements." Athenaeum

Williams, Blanche Colton, 1879- George Eliot; a biography. Macmillan 1936 341p illus $4 92

36-27242

"Apart from the fact that Dr. Williams's biography of George Eliot contains several hitherto unpublished letters, the book would be impressive for its freshness and treatment alone, since the letters are, in the main, relatively unimportant. What really matters is that Dr. Williams concentrates on the crucial years of George Eliot's life, those years with George Lewes which formed also the period of her most fruitful writing, to the end that we have a finely judged and fully matured study." N.Y. Times

Elisabeth, empress consort of Francis Joseph I, emperor of Austria, 1837-1898

Corti, Egon Caesar, conte, 1886- Elizabeth, empress of Austria; tr. by C. A. Phillips. Yale univ. press 1936 518p illus $4 92

36-27301

"Count Corti, who already has a right to a place among the foremost historical biographers of Europe to-day, should add to his reputation by this careful and balanced piece of work. He has drawn upon an immense documentation . . . but he has not been submerged by his material. Neither has he yielded too much to the lure of picturesqueness, so potent in treating a subject like this one." Times (London) lit. sup.

Elizabeth, empress consort of Francis Joseph I—Continued

Harding, Mrs Bertita (Leonarz) Golden fleece. See entry under Francis Joseph I, emperor of Austria

Elizabeth, queen of England, 1533-1603

Anthony, Katharine Susan, 1877- Queen Elizabeth. Knopf 1929 263p illus o.p. 1939 92

29-21116

"A character study of Queen Elizabeth dealing only with the episodes in her life that reveal the woman she was. As a portrait the book is outstanding. Well illustrated." Ontario library review

"Miss Anthony's work stands firmly on accepted fact, dismisses rumor, and leaves the great and enigmatic personality as great, and in some necessary ways, as enigmatic as before. Her book is delightful reading. Miss Anthony's style is brilliant, forceful and pure, a suitable vehicle for the expression of her clear and concise thought." Outlook
Bibliography: p259-63

Neale, John Ernest, 1890- Queen Elizabeth. Harcourt 1934 402p illus $1.49 92

[34-2445]

"This book is more than honest history, it is an interesting narrative well told, and hard to turn away from. It moves along. The reader is likely to forget the delightful style in following the story. It is a style not only delightful but with distinction and restraint. Behind those careful, terse, and sometimes amusing phrases is more than the author has time to stop and tell us, and we are not displeased at that." Sat. rev. of lit.

‡ Strachey, Giles Lytton, 1880-1932. Elizabeth and Essex; a tragic history. Harcourt 1928 296p illus $3.75 92

1 Essex, Robert Devereux, earl of, 1566-1601 28-26937

"If here and there he chips away a fragment to shape his story, he achieves his purpose completely. He infects the reader with his own sympathy for the passions he describes. We execrate the treacherous Bacon, we burn with Essex to commit resounding follies, and with Elizabeth we answer actively to his exciting presence. History has fallen into the hands of dull scientists and epigrammatic charlatans. But if Mr. Strachey ever omits the facts, he always knows them. To our continual solace and delight, he keeps history an art." Nation and Athenaeum
Bibliography: p287-88

Thane, Elswyth, 1900- Tudor wench. Harcourt 1932 390p illus $1.49 92

32-24268

"A romanticized biography of Queen Elizabeth covering the first twenty-five years of her life, tracing the difficulties which she met and conquered while she was a girl, and ending with her coronation." Book rev. digest

"As a whole, the volume is well documented. . . The narrative, if somewhat romanticized, is a vital and essentially authentic portrait of the girl who was to be England's most celebrated queen." Springfield Republican
Bibliography: p381-82

Two additional recommended biographies are:

Creighton, Mandell. Queen Elizabeth. new ed Longmans 1899 307p front o.p. 1939 An impartial and painstaking account

Waldman, Milton. England's Elizabeth. Houghton 1933 276p front $3.50 Treats of the first thirty years of her reign and is chiefly concerned with her statesmanship

Ellis, Mrs Anne, 1875-

Life of an ordinary woman; with an introduction by L. F. Perkins. Houghton 1929 300p illus $3.50 92

29-18110

"Mrs. Ellis's story of her girlhood and young womanhood in the mining camps of Colorado is interesting from the first word to the last. It throws a vivid light on the boom towns of the West of thirty, forty and fifty years ago. This is no labored narrative, but a succession of lively anecdotes about vividly realized people." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Mrs Anne Ellis's "Plain Anne Ellis" (Houghton 1931 264p front $3) carries on the author's story thruout the years of her widowhood and self-support

Ellis, Havelock, 1859-1939

My life; autobiography. Houghton 1939 647p illus $3.75 92

(W) 39-27979

Autobiography of the philosopher and author in which he offers his own observations of life during the full term of fourscore years. This book was begun more than forty years ago, and finished only a few weeks before the author's death

"Devoted very largely to his relations with his wife, a difficult and not quite normally balanced woman, to whom he was devoted. Too analytic and subjective to interest many readers; of considerable interest for the few." Wis. bul.

Ellsworth, Lincoln, 1880-

Beyond horizons. Doubleday 1937 403p illus $3.50 92

1 Aeronautics—Flights 2 Antarctic regions 3 Arctic regions (W) 38-27070

"Autobiography of the frail boy reared in luxury who chose for himself a life of rigorous adventure and hardship in the uncharted wastes of the world. Explorer in both the Arctic and Antarctic, conqueror of both Poles, Mr. Ellsworth's life embraces the maximum of excitement and adventure." Ontario library review

Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 1803-1882

* Heart of Emerson's journals; ed. by Bliss Perry. Houghton 1926 357p front $3 92

26-15215

A single volume of selections from the 10 volumes of Emerson's journals

"Mr Bliss Perry has performed his editorial task with great skill and discrimination, and it is now possible to read in a convenient form the intellectual log book of the Concord philosopher." Independent

R. W. Emerson's "Letters; ed. by R. L. Rusk" (Columbia univ. press 1939 6v illus $30) is a comprehensive collection of interest to those making a thoro study of Emerson

Emerson, Ralph W.—Continued

Brooks, Van Wyck, 1886- Life of Emerson. Dutton 1932 315p $3 92

32-26336

"There is no apparatus of scholarship—no footnotes, citation of authorities, hints of the biographer's own difficulties or research . . . Mr. Brooks has produced one of the notable biographies of the last few years. No one can question the success with which he has conveyed the nobility and serenity of the man himself, and the essence of all that was most inspiriting in his thought." Nation

Three additional biographies that will be enjoyed as very readable works are:
Firkins, O. W. Ralph Waldo Emerson. Houghton 1915 379p front o.p. 1939
Perry, Bliss. Emerson today. Princeton univ. press 1931 140p front $2 Consists of four essays evaluating Emerson's influence
Russell, Phillips. Emerson, the wisest American. Brentano's 1929 320p illus o.p. 1939 A good picture of Concord and of Emerson's relations with the famous people of the period

Hawthorne, Hildegarde. Youth's captain; the story of Ralph Waldo Emerson; illus. by W. M. Berger Longmans 1935 205p illus $2 92

35-18946

"Simply written biography of Ralph Waldo Emerson, in which the emphasis is placed upon the charm of his personality. For older boys and girls." Book rev. digest

"The delicate charm of this delightfully intimate biography is equalled by its value as a literary achievement. It is evident that for Miss Hawthorne it has not been a task of re-creating the background for her characterization; she has written simply and beautifully of the atmosphere which she has known and loved." Springfield Republican

Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 1809-1894. Ralph Waldo Emerson. See entry under American men of letters 92 Series

Woodberry, George Edward, 1855-1930. Ralph Waldo Emerson. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Erasmus, Desiderius, 1467-1536

Froude, James Anthony, 1818-1894. Life and letters of Erasmus; lectures delivered at Oxford, 1893-4. new ed Longmans 1894 452p 6s 92

E10-1725

Formerly carried also by Scribner

"Vigorous and attractive lectures, marred by inaccuracies and prejudice; an attempt to interpret the age of the Renaissance through the opinions of Erasmus in conformity with the author's belief in the importance of the individual in history." Guide to hist. lit.

Smith, Preserved, 1880- Erasmus; a study of his life, ideals and place in history. Harper 1923 479p illus o.p. 1939 92

23-12919

"The book is not only a biography of Erasmus but a study of the intellectual and religious history of his period. He is studied as a scholar and stylist, as a popular writer on religion and education and as editor and interpreter of the classics." Nation

Bibliography: p461-66

Zweig, Stefan, 1881- Erasmus of Rotterdam; tr. by Eden and Cedar Paul. Viking 1934 247p illus $3 92

1 Luther, Martin, 1483-1546 34-37271

Also available in the Star series (Garden City pub. co. $1)

"A biographical essay on the life and works of Erasmus, which develops in its later chapters a contrast between two great antagonists of the Reformation—Luther and Erasmus." Book rev. digest

"Under Zweig's magic pen Erasmus leaps into vital existence. . . Clear, concise, impartial, 'Erasmus of Rotterdam' is a book which Catholics and Protestants alike may weigh and ponder; and from which either persuasion can draw valuable lessons. The book is a quietly astounding bit of biographical and historical achievement." N.Y. Times

Essex, Robert Devereux, 2d earl of, 1566-1601

Strachey, Giles Lytton, 1880-1932. Elizabeth and Essex. See entry under Elizabeth, queen of England

Este, Isabella d', marchioness of Mantua. See Isabella d'Este, consort of Giovanni Francesco II marquis of Mantua

Etnier, Mrs Elizabeth (Jay) 1911-

On Gilbert Head; Maine days; sketches by the author. Little 1937 272p illus $2.50 92

1 Country life—Maine 37-27443

"A singularly shining narrative, bright with the author's youth and exuberant happiness, as she revels, in the pages of her diary, in the life she and her artist husband lead, from the time they buy a home on an island commanding the entrance of the Kennebec river, to the arrival of a baby two years later. Strenuous months spent getting the house into condition, building a dock and carrying everything across the river on a scow, making a garden, and delighting in the ever-changing color and movement of river and sea, are varied by visits ashore, the coming of friends and a long cruise. Pen and ink sketches by the author." N.Y. libraries

Eugénie, empress consort of Napoleon III, 1826-1920

George, Robert Esmonde Gordon, 1894- Life of the Empress Eugénie, by Robert Sencourt (pseud). with a foreword by His Grace the Duke of Berwick and Alba. Scribner 1931 xxi,387p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 France—Court and courtiers 31-27006

"An authoritative biography of the woman whose youth and beauty added lustre to the court of Napoleon III, who outlived her throne, her husband and son, and who died at ninety-three, the most romantic figure in Europe. The author has had access to many letters, the papers of the Duke of Alba and the Viennese archives, and with these in addition to ordinary sources he has succeeded in writing a biography of exceptional interest." Ontario library review

"A work that contains many brilliant passages of narrative and analysis, and which excels especially in its minor portraits, as those of Napoleon III. of the Princess Mathilde and the egregious General Trochu." Times (London) lit. sup.

Eugénie, empress consort of Napoleon III
—Continued

Comte Maurice Fleury's "Memoirs of the Empress Eugénie" (Appleton-Century 1920 2v $7.50) was compiled by one who knew the empress well and had access to private documents and letters supplied by her

Evelyn, John, 1620-1706

Diary. Dutton 1907 2v (Everyman's lib.) ea 90c 92

1 Great Britain—Court and courtiers 2 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 36-37672

Edited by William Bray

"Less interesting than Pepys, but covers much more extensive period (1641-1705) and faithfully reflects the feelings of a loyal, pious, sensible Englishman at various important crises of public affairs." Richard Garnett

Everett, Edward, 1794-1865

Frothingham, Paul Revere, 1864-1926. Edward Everett, orator and statesman. Houghton 1925 495p illus o.p. 1939 92

25-9214

"An excellent, well-written and full account of the varied career of a great American statesman and one of the greatest of American orators." Cleveland

Fairchild, David Grandison, 1869-

* World was my garden; travels of a plant explorer; assisted by Elizabeth and Alfred Kay. Scribner 1938 494p illus $3.75 92

1 Botanists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Plant introduction 3 Voyages and travels (W) 38-27857

"Autobiography of the well-known botanist and plant explorer, Dr. David Fairchild, who from 1906 to 1928 was head of the Division of foreign plant exploration and introduction of the United States Department of agriculture. It is filled with tales of his explorations all over the world in search of exotic fruits and flowers, of their introduction into the United States, and of his wide circle of friends." Book rev. digest

Falla, Manuel De, 1876- See class 780.92

Farley, James Aloysius, 1888-

* Behind the ballots; the personal history of a politician. Harcourt 1938 392p front $3 92

1 Politics, Practical 2 U.S.—Politics and government (W) 38-28947

An American politician tells the inside story of his career. In doing so, he gives an account of personalities, events, tactics, and struggles which have been headline news for years. A record of the business of politics, of the machinery that hums backstage so that history can be made out front

"Easy, anecdotal, sketchy on the big and solemn issues, but full of wise and human observation of men and their ways, a pleasant combination of autobiography and apologia saying rather more between the lines than in them, they go naturally upon the shelf of standard American political memoirs." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Farson, Negley

Way of a transgressor. Harcourt 1936 602p $1.29 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 36-27116

Autobiographical story of an American adventurer and journalist. "His book contains literally hundreds of episodes and anecdotes from the experiences of a fishing, sailing New Jersey boy who became a famous college athlete, an engineer in England, spent years in Czarist Russia bribing his way into orders for war goods, served with the Royal Flying Corps in Egypt, lay in the hospitals of several nations, went native in British Columbia, returned to sensational auto-sales promoting, sailed 3,600 miles through Europe in a small boat, and then for ten years as a foreign correspondent dashed around to the trouble centers of a dozen countries." Nation

"It is a book by a magnificent journalist, a fine artist, and a great truth-seeker and humanitarian." Manchester Guardian

Fearn, Mrs Anne (Walter) 1867-

* My days of strength; an American woman doctor's forty years in China. Harper 1939 297p illus $3 92

1 China 2 Hospitals—China 3 Physicians — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-5377

A woman doctor's account of her forty years in China, helping to break down ancient prejudices against modern medical methods. In Shanghai, she established the Fearn Sanitorium, lived thru the Boxer rebellion, the Revolution of 1911 and the constant encroachment of Japan

"Crammed with the dramatic episodes one associates with the life of an adventurous physician and also with China; the fact that Dr. Fearn's life has embraced both gives the story double measure. It is of more than usual interest both as the record of the life of an unusual woman and an insider's chronicle of a vast and changing country." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Fellows, Dexter William, 1871-1937

This way to the big show; the life of Dexter Fellows, by D. W. Fellows & A. A. Freeman. Viking 1936 362p illus $3.50 92

1 Circus 36-12081

Also available in the Halcyon house edition (Blue ribbon bks. $1.49)

Dexter Fellows was a circus press agent for over forty years, for the greater part of the period with Barnum and Bailey's. In this book of reminiscences and anecdotes of circus life, he has, he says, done his best to tell the truth. "Occasionally my tongue slipped into my cheek. For that I know the reader will forgive me."

"Answers most of the questions that have ever been asked about the circus and answers them with a wealth of anecdote and good humor." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Ferber, Edna, 1887-

‡ Peculiar treasure. Doubleday 1939 398p illus $3 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27026

This autobiography of the author is, in her own words "the story of an American Jewish family in the past half-century, and as such is really a story about America which I know and love"

"It's a big, generous book, strung together by her years, held together by interest in a woman who knew where she was going—up to now. Swiftly, colloquially, she puts down everything that seems to come into her head." Sat. rev. of lit.

A short version appeared serially in the "Woman's home companion"

Field, Mrs Isobel (Osbourne)

* This life I've loved. Longmans 1937 353p illus $3 92

1 Stevenson, Robert Louis, 1850-1894 (W) 37-27188

"The stepdaughter of Robert Louis Stevenson gives an account of her unusual life in Nevada mining camps, on an Indiana farm, in San Francisco's art colony, at the court of King Kalakaua in Hawaii, and in Samoa, as amanuensis to Stevenson during his last days. The book closes with the death of Stevenson." Book rev. digest

"Mrs. Field writes with a sort of radiant vitality of every part of her life. The parts about her youth and her life in Hawaii are especially entertaining. . . To most readers the glimpses of Stevenson from his first dramatic appearance at Grez and during the years abroad when he was a delightful and stimulating friend, to the happy patriarchal life at Vailima, surrounded by Samoan and European friends, will be of greatest interest." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Fielding, Henry, 1707-1754

Dobson, Austin, 1840-1921. Fielding. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Finger, Charles Joseph, 1871-

Seven horizons. Doubleday 1930 xx,457p illus map o.p. 1939 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 30-11604

"A romantic autobiography in which the author describes his adventures, actual and spiritual, in the seven most important phases of his amazing life and career. These seven horizons are as follows: his boyhood in Victorian Mayfair, . . . his contact with some of the leading socialists and radicals of the time, such as William Morris and Bernard Shaw; a thirst for adventure that leads him to ship aboard a sailing vessel in search of self-reliance; the fifth horizon, which finds him in Patagonia, his coming to America, where he eventually gets control of a southwestern railroad, but the unethical behavior of men in business makes him turn from this type of civilized livelihood; so the final horizon emerges when he buys a ranch in the Ozarks, settles down to live leisurely, and to write from his past experiences." Book rev. digest

Fish, Hamilton, 1808-1893

Nevins, Allan, 1890- Hamilton Fish; the inner history of the Grant administration. Dodd 1936 932p illus $5 92

1 Grant, Ulysses Simpson, president U.S. 1822-1885 2 U.S.—Foreign relations 3 U.S.—Politics and government—1865-1898 36-25881

"The author has compressed the story of Hamilton Fish's first sixty years into about one hundred pages; his last twenty into thirty pages; and devoted the rest of his volume to a study of the years between, from 1869 to 1877 when Fish was Secretary of State in the Grant administration." Book rev. digest

"An illuminating and impressive biography which meets with distinction every test of thoroughness, understanding and candor that criticism can apply." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Fitzgerald, Edward, 1809-1883

Benson, Arthur Christopher, 1862-1925. Edward Fitzgerald. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Flannery, Mrs Nellie, 1846-

Lewis, Flannery, 1913- Suns go down. Macmillan 1937 226p $2 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Virginia City, Nevada 37-4576

"A portrait of the author's grandmother, now ninety years old, who as a bride of sixteen was 'the first decent white woman in the Comstock Lode district.' The book combines a picture of Mrs Flannery today in the dead Virginia City where she still lives, with reminiscences of the days when the town was the second largest city in the West. Finally there are the writer's memories of his own boyhood when Grandmother was an important influence in his life." Book rev. digest

"There have been few livelier pictures of life in our mining towns than this. The book has the feel of something that will endure because of its deep humor and its truth." Review of reviews

Flaubert, Gustave, 1821-1880

Steegmüller, Francis, 1906- Flaubert and Madame Bovary, a double portrait. Viking 1939 433p $3 92

39-27210

"Critical and biographical study of Flaubert's young manhood, working up to a climax in the story of the inception and development of his masterpiece, Madame Bovary. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Too long and undiscriminating in its inclusion of detail, the book is still so brilliantly written and at times so fascinating in its exposition, as to be of unusual interest." Book-of-the-month club news

Foch, Ferdinand, 1851-1929

Liddell Hart, Basil Henry, 1895- Foch, the man of Orleans. Eyre 1931 518p maps 8s 6d 92

31-33767

"It is the first serious attempt made in English (and perhaps the most penetrating in any language) to get at the facts of Foch's career from first to last and to estimate them critically. . . Everywhere one finds evidence of long, deep persistent thought, testing and revaluing the old generalisations, and never burking the facts where they point to new ones. Conceived and executed on a large scale, the study seems singularly mature throughout. Nor does it lack vivid and intimate personal touches." New statesman and Nation

Ford, Henry, 1863-

My life and work, by Henry Ford, in collaboration with Samuel Crowther. Doubleday 1922 289p o.p. 1939 92

22-26971

"Although cast in the form of biography this book deals principally with Henry Ford's economic theories and ideals. Presents a readable statement of his views on production, wages, the railroads, etc. . . . A book which might be read by many men who do not usually draw out books on economic questions." Wis. bul.

Foster, Larimore, 1905-1925

Larry; thoughts of youth. Day 1931 152p illus $1.50 92

1 Lafayette college, Easton, Pa.

[31-3269]

"Through these letters written by an American boy during his first two college years and through extracts from his diary, themes and poems there shines forth a fine spirit, a quality of humor and good

Foster, Larimore—Continued
sportsmanship and a crystalizing philosophy of life, that make the book worthy of wide circulation among old and young alike. Portrait." N.Y. libraries

Foster, Stephen, Collins, 1826-1864. See class 780.92

Fox, Charles James, 1749-1806
Trevelyan, Sir George Otto, 2d bart. 1838-1928. Early history of Charles James Fox. Longmans 1904 524p 7s 6d 92
1 Great Britain—History 1714-1837
W9-60

Formerly carried also by Harper
"Although this volume purports to be only a history of a small part of the life of a single person, yet its historical importance is such as to entitle it to the student's most careful consideration." C. K. Adams

Fox, George, 1624-1691
Journal. Dutton 1924 xxii,359p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 92
37-30972

"The personal journal of the first of the Quakers, published after his death. This edition is based on the bi-centenary edition of the Journal as prepared by Thomas Ellwood and others. To bring it within the bounds of one volume, numerous excisions have been made from the Ellwood text. . . An account of Fox's last years has been added by the editor." Reader's guide to Everyman's library

France, Anatole, 1844-1924
May, James Lewis, 1873- Anatole France, the man and his work; an essay in critical biography. . . Dodd 1924 262p illus o.p. 1939 92
24-22023

"Will serve admirably to introduce Anatole France and his writings to readers who do not know them. Gives frequent summaries, with quotations." Wis. bul.

Francis of Assisi, Saint, 1182-1226
Chesterton, Gilbert Keith, 1874-1936. St Francis of Assisi. Doran 1924 234p (Modern readers' bookshelf) $1.50 92
24-4535

"Mr Chesterton's portrait is a thing of beauty. He makes St Francis living, and ardent, and gracious, and bubbling over with joy—the joy that comes of abnegation and a perfect love. To read this fascinating little book is to see something newly appealing in St Francis—and in Gilbert Chesterton." Catholic world

Raymond, Ernest, 1888- In the steps of St Francis; illus. with photographs by the author. Kinsey 1939 372p illus $2.50 92
1 Franciscans 2 Italy—Description and travel 3 Levant—Description and travel
39-23184

"This biography of St Francis is interwoven with an account of the author's visits to the places legend and history have connected with the story. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"It is far more of a biography than many that are called 'Lives.' He is ever present in his mirth and pain, soldier, troubadour and saint. The characterizations of his earliest companions are vivid, too, and sympathetic." Commonweal

Sabatier, Paul, 1858- Life of St Francis of Assisi; tr. by L. S. Houghton. Scribner 1894 xxv,448p $3 92
4-16969

"Conscientious study of sources and sympathetic narration, giving an impression of the real man, consistent with himself and his surroundings." N.Y. state lib.
"The popular imagination of Italy retains his image, while grave historians, unfamiliar with childlike genius touched with heavenly radiance, have fumbled over their records and missed the meaning of such gracious, guileless sainthood. M Sabatier, by sheer sympathy of spirit, has caught the clue, and put it into his reader's hands." Dial

Two other readable biographies are:
Egan, M. F. Everybody's St Francis; with pictures by M. Boutet de Monvel. Appleton-Century 1912 191p $3.50
Salvatorelli, Luigi. Life of St Francis of Assisi; tr. from the Italian by Eric Sutton. Knopf 1928 313p o.p. 1939

Francis I, king of France, 1494-1547
Hackett, Francis, 1883- Francis the First. Garden City pub. co. 448p front (Star ser.) $1 92
[35-3501]

Reprint of a book published 1935 by Doubleday
"This volume . . . is packed with that witty writing we associate with Mr. Hackett. It presents a colorful and fairly accurate narrative of the exploits of the king. . . In these pages, Francis I, the warrior, by no means always successful warrior, shines out in all his superficial brilliance. . . There is brilliant and colorful writing in this book. Occasionally, however, it is marred by too great a striving for effect. . . Historical biography needs brilliance and color, but dignity also." Sat. rev. of lit.

Francis Joseph I, emperor of Austria, 1830-1916
Harding, Mrs Bertita (Leonarz) Golden fleece; the story of Franz Joseph & Elisabeth of Austria. Blue ribbon bks. 370p illus $1 92
1 Austria—History 2 Elisabeth, empress consort of Francis Joseph I, emperor of Austria
37-3028

Reprint of a book published 1937 by Bobbs
"The long, complex tale of the reign of Franz Josef and Elisabeth of Austria. The narrative runs from about 1840 to the death of the old Emperor, in 1916. . . Even those who are not partial to Mrs. Harding's method of recounting history will admit that she knows quantities and quantities about the past of Central Europe, that she handles superficial detail brilliantly." New Yorker

Redlich, Joseph, 1869- Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria; a biography. Macmillan 1929 547p illus o.p. 1939 92
1 Austria—History
29-4574

"A sympathetic and revealing study of the 'last monarch of the "Old School" of European sovereigns,' who himself said of the repeated tragedies of his life, 'nothing in this world has been spared me.'" Book rev. digest

"A great theme and a competent writer. The personal parts suffer a trifle from scholarly restraint; the chapters on general history are good; those on constitutional history excellent. There the author is in his element, and he lets himself go with delightful gusto. The book, which is not advertised as a translation, is written in solid, serviceable Austrian English; unidiomatic, but neither incorrect nor dull; ponderous, but not crushingly so." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Francis Joseph I, emperor of Austria—Cont.

Franck, César Auguste, 1822-1890. See class 780.92

Franck, Mrs Rachel (Latta)

* I married a vagabond; the story of the family of the writing vagabond; drawings by Charles Child. Appleton-Century 1939 241p illus $2.50 92

1 China—Description and travel 2 Franck family 3 Voyages and travels
(W) 39-27184

The wife of the travel author, Harry A. Franck, describes her life and adventures as a homemaker and travel companion in the far corners of the earth. She tells of her experiences while traveling with her husband to the West Indies, to Japan, China, and Korea, to Scandinavia, France and England

"For all its pleasant glimpses of the West Indies and the Orient, and the lively chapters on their Chinese experiences, this book is to be read and enjoyed, not for what it says about foreign countries themselves, but as a moving picture of an American family, roaming over the face of the globe in more or less unconventional fashion and having a happy and high-spirited—though not always a comfortable or serene—time." N.Y. Times

Franklin, Benjamin, 1706-1790

‡ Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin; the unmutilated and correct version, comp. and ed. with notes by John Bigelow. Putnam 1912 325p $2.50 92

27-27800

The authentic text was first edited by Bigelow in 1868

" 'The style of this work is inimitable; it is as simple, direct, idiomatic as Bunyan's.' It is the straightforward life-story of a typically American character endowed with the great powers developed by self-education, who exerted vast influence as a citizen and statesman for his own day and for the future of his country." Pratt alcove

Benjamin Franklin's own story; his Autobiography continued from 1759 to his death in 1790" (Univ. of Pa. press 1937 268p front $2.50) continues his biography by means of excerpts from his writings with connecting comment by the editor, N. G. Goodman

This "Autobiography" is available in many editions. The following, listed in order of price, are recommended:
Houghton (Riverside bookshelf) $2
Macmillan (Modern readers' ser.) $1
Garden City pub. co. (Star ser.) $1
Modern lib. 95c
Dutton (Everyman's lib.) 90c

Bruce, William Cabell, 1860- Benjamin Franklin self-revealed. Putnam 1917 2v $5 92

17-29818

"By allowing Franklin to tell his own story wherever possible the author was able to present a complete picture. . . Despite all the autobiographical material this is a genuine biographical and critical study of Poor Richard. . . [This book was] the Pulitzer Prize biography in 1918, and the committee honored itself as well as Mr. Bruce in making the award." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

‡ Faÿ, Bernard, 1893- Bernard Faÿ's Franklin, the apostle of modern times. Little 1929 547p illus maps $4 92

30-18796

"A fresh study of Franklin's interests and activities written by a French scholar and based upon the discovery of a great number of previously unknown letters." Pratt quarterly

"It is safe to say that no biographer of Franklin has approached his task with a wider or profounder scholarship. The result is a biography that is well proportioned and balanced, that interprets Franklin from the background of Colonial factional politics as well as from the perspective of international diplomacy, and appreciates at once the magnificent contributions and the grave inadequacies of Poor Richard." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

S. G. Fisher's "Benjamin Franklin" (Lippincott 1927 381p illus o.p. 1939) is an interpretative biography of very high order. It was originally published in 1898 as "The true Benjamin Franklin"

Ford, Paul Leicester, 1865-1902. Many-sided Franklin. Appleton-Century 1899 xx,516p illus $4 92

99-4911

"Emphasizes the many-sidedness of Franklin's genius by treating in each chapter a separate phase of his varied activity. The printer, the journalist, the scientist, the diplomat, the administrator, the family man, the lover, and the friend are in turn set before the reader, and the effect produced is more lifelike than that of the usual chronological narrative." Pittsburgh

McMaster, John Bach, 1852-1932. Benjamin Franklin. See entry under American men of letters 92 Series

Morse, John Torrey, 1840-1937. Benjamin Franklin. Houghton 1889 428p (American statesmen) $2.50 92

4-17051

"Ranks high among minor biographies of Franklin." Larned's Literature of American history

‡ Van Doren, Carl Clinton, 1885- Benjamin Franklin. Viking 1938 845p illus $3.75 92

(W) 38-31193

Franklin "never found time to carry out the history of himself which he intended. But the materials which he would have used still exist, scattered . . . through his manuscripts and his collected and uncollected works. Here at last they have been drawn together and arranged in something like the order he might have given them. . . In effect, Franklin's autobiography is here completed on his own scale and in his own words." Preface

"Among all the lives of Franklin, it is the longest and best informed. . . . As compared with Bernard Fay's 'Franklin,' published in 1929, his book is sounder at many points but conspicuously lacking in general ideas. He has written a behavioristic biography, one that tells us 'what Franklin did, said, thought and felt,' one that describes the successive roles he assumed." New republic

Frederick II, the Great, king of Prussia, 1712-1786

Carlyle, Thomas, 1795-1881. History of Friedrich II of Prussia, called Frederick the Great. Centenary ed Scribner 1900 8v v 1-2, 7-8 ea $2.50, v3 o.p. 1939 92

1 Prussia—History 4-17002

"Edition with introduction by H. D. Traill. Founded on exhaustive study and careful observation. One of the most remarkable books in the English language." C. K. Adams

Reddaway, William Fiddian, 1872- Frederick the Great. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Freeman, Joseph, 1897-

American testament; a narrative of rebels and romantics. Farrar 1936 678p $3 92

36-25833

"From a Ukrainian village the author came to America, attended Columbia university, and later alternated between Europe and America, gradually becoming converted to communism. A detailed account is given of his connection with Max Eastman and Floyd Dell as editors of the 'Masses' and the 'Liberator,' of his newspaper work in Europe for American newspapers, and of his many observations, up to 1927. May be read for a fast-moving, panoramic view of literary radicalism in America before the depression." Bkl.

Frémont, John Charles, 1813-1890

Nevins, Allan, 1890- Frémont, pathmarker of the West. Appleton-Century 1939 649p illus maps $5 92

1 California—History 2 U.S.—Exploring expeditions 3 The West—Description and travel (W) 39-8219

"Essentially a new life of John Charles Frémont. It is new in much of its materials . . . in its narrative form . . . in its more critical approach to Frémont and some of his acts. Of course it is built in some respects upon my older and shorter work upon the man, published more than a decade since in two extensively illustrated volumes." Preface

"As far as one can judge, this biography merits the adjective definitive. One can't see how very much of value can be added to what Professor Nevins has found, nor how the job could be better done." N.Y. Times

French, Henry Clay

French, Chauncey Del, 1890- Railroadman. Macmillan 1938 292p illus $2.50 92

1 Railroads (W) 38-8879

Henry Clay French became a messenger and call boy on the Hannibal & St. Joe line when he was thirteen, and for almost fifty-seven years thereafter he saw active service as telegrapher, switchman, brakeman, fireman-engineer, conductor and yardmaster—on fifteen different lines. This is his story as he told it to his son

Fry, Mrs Elizabeth (Gurney) 1780-1845

Whitney, Mrs Janet Payne. Elizabeth Fry, Quaker heroine. Little 1936 337p illus $3.50 92

36-28584

"The full life story of Elizabeth Fry, whose name is always associated with prison reform. Born into a prominent, well-to-do Quaker family, where life and gaiety were not frowned on, she married Joseph Fry, a Quaker of the same class. Along with many children and household duties she found time for good works and when conditions in Newgate prison came to her attention, she started on her life crusade. The author, herself a Quaker, has made a scholarly study of her subject and produced a book all libraries will find worth-while." Wis. bul.

Bibliography: p335-37

Gabrilowitsch, Ossip, 1878-1936. See class 780.92

Gainsborough, Thomas, 1727-1788. See class 759.2

Galilei, Galileo, 1564-1642

Namer, Émile. Galileo, searcher of the heavens; tr. and adapted from the French by Sibyl Harris. McBride 1931 298p illus o.p. 1939 92

31-13339

"It is pleasant and profitable reading. The story is told with great simplicity, without straining for dramatic effects. The life of Galileo presented enough drama in itself! The discovery of the telescope and the scientist's subsequent trial by the Inquisition are told in detail." Boston

Gallatin, Albert, 1761-1849

Stevens, John Austin, 1827-1910. Albert Gallatin. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Galsworthy, John, 1867-1933

Marrot, Harold Vincent. Life and letters of John Galsworthy. Heinemann 1935 819p illus 21s 92

36-11260

Formerly carried also by Scribner

"The greater part of the book consists not of Mr. Marrot's own writing but of quotations from Galsworthy's letters and diaries and from letters addressed to him by various correspondents . . . with accounts of the revisions which various of his novels and plays underwent, and with correspondence with friends." Times (London) lit. sup.

"As a biography the book is excellently planned and well executed: and as an authoritative document on late Victorian, Edwardian and Georgian behaviour it lays bare the social foundations on which Galsworthy reared the long series of his works." Spectator

Mrs M. E. G. Reynolds' "Memories of John Galsworthy," by his sister, (Stokes 1937 128p illus $2.50) gives some intimate glimpses of the author's life and of his family. The second part of the book consists of extracts from his letters

Gandhi, Mohandas Karamchand, 1869-

Mahatma Gandhi; his own story; ed. by C. F. Andrews, with an introduction by J. H. Holmes. Macmillan 1930 372p illus o.p. 1939 92

30-25632

Material selected from Gandhi's autobiography, "The story of my experiments with truth," and from his "Satyagraha in South Africa"

"The book is more the history of the development of the convictions of the saint and reformer than of the economic and political actions to which they led. This book and 'Mahatma Gandhi's ideas' [entered below] also edited by C. F. Andrews, a devoted English friend of the Mahatma, together give a complete picture of Gandhi, the mystic." Cleveland

Gandhi, Mohandas K.—Continued

"C. F. Andrews has done the work of abridgment and editing admirably. . . It contains just what the West needs to understand this grand figure." Sat. rev. of lit.

Bibliography: p367-68

Mahatma Gandhi at work; his own story continued; ed. by C. F. Andrews. Macmillan 1931 407p illus $2.50 92

1 Transvaal—Politics and government [31-29655]

Material selected from Gandhi's autobiography, "The story of my experiments with truth," and from his "Satyagraha in South Africa." A chapter has also been added from "Hind swaraj"

"When reading this book one has a vivid sense of the imperishable reality of ideals and principles, and the conviction that the actions of people are only symbols of the strength or weakness of their understanding of those ideals. . . The story reveals the unique combination of qualities in Gandhi's character." World tomorrow

Andrews, Charles Freer, 1871- Mahatma Gandhi's ideas; including selections from his writings. Macmillan 1930 382p illus $3 92

30-5603

"The first volume of a biography in which Gandhi is allowed largely to tell his own story, the author providing the connecting thread for a succession of letters, articles, speeches, and interviews." Bkl.

"His long and intimate friendship with Mahatma Gandhi has enabled Mr. Andrews to produce an admirably balanced work in which it is possible to trace the mental struggles of a subtle and extremely religious Oriental brought up against modern Western civilization." Nation and Athenaeum

Rolland, Romain, 1866- Mahatma Gandhi; the man who became one with the universal being; tr. by C. D. Groth. Appleton-Century 1924 250p front $1.50 92

1 India—Politics and government 24-4346

"A sincere and passionately appreciative study of the personality and idealistic doctrine of the leader of the East Indian noncoöperative movement, who stirred three hundred million people to bloodless revolt against western civilization and 'who has introduced into human politics the strongest religious element of the last two thousand years.'" Cleveland

Bibliography: p249-50

Garfield, James Abram, president U.S. 1831-1881

Smith, Theodore Clarke, 1870- Life and letters of James Abram Garfield. Yale univ. press 1925 2v $12 92

1 U.S.—Politics and government—1865-1898 25-19753

"Having had full access to the diaries, correspondence and official papers which the family had been carefully guarding for many years, Garfield's biographer has been able to set forth his life as far as possible in his own words. The narrative, long and unusually full, illuminates the history of war politics and the stormy period following the war, to 1881." Book rev. digest

"Professor Smith has done all that a biographer could do to make interesting a public career of minor importance. He has handled a great mass of material with the skill of a trained scholar, and his literary style has real excellence." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Garibaldi, Giuseppe, 1807-1882

Memoirs; ed. by Alexandre Dumas; tr. and with an introduction by R. S. Garnett. . . Appleton-Century 1931 432p illus maps $5 92

1 Italy—History—1815- 31-15606

Contains Garibaldi's memoirs to the end of the Defence of Rome in 1849, as they were first published with notes by Dumas; Dumas's account of Garibaldi's Sicilian expedition and the conquest of Naples; essays by Dumas, and George Sand, and a speech by Victor Hugo, all relating to Garibaldi; and three letters from Dumas to Garibaldi

"The most valuable part of this book is certainly that which comes from Garibaldi's own pen, and which brings before our eyes the wild adventures of his youth in South America, his glorious love-story, and the great Defence of Rome. Garibaldi as an author is self-revealing, and that self is without spot, entirely noble." Spectator

Garland, Hamlin, 1860-

Back-trailers from the middle border; illus by Constance Garland. Macmillan 1928 379p illus $2.50 92

28-25969

"Hamlin Garland completes with this book the chronicle of his pioneer ancestors and his own life to date. The other volumes, 'A son of the middle border,' 'A daughter of the middle border,' and 'Trail makers of the middle border,' followed the saga of Garlands and McClintocks from the East to the Middle West. 'Back-trailers' brings their descendant once more to the East." Book rev. digest

"The quartet (his four books on the Middle Border) constitute a singular and quite original record of the development of the northwest as bound up with the members of a single representative family. It is all a work of decided merit and significance. It is history in blood and life." Boston Transcript

* A daughter of the middle border. Macmillan 405p illus $2.50 92

21-19669

First published 1921, reprinted 1929 with illustrations and end papers by Constance Garland but lacking the portraits and "Afterword" of the 1921 edition. The original edition is also available in a satisfactory cheap reprint (Grosset $1)

"Sequel to 'A son of the middle border.' Continues the story of the Garlands, father, mother and son, and introduces the author's wife and children. An absorbing record of pioneer life and of one family's part in the upbuilding of the Middle West. Awarded the Pulitzer biography prize [for 1922]." N.Y. state lib.

‡ A son of the middle border; with illus. by A. B. Stephens. Macmillan 1917 467p illus $2.50 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 17-22272

Also obtainable from Macmillan in the Royal ed at $1 and from Grosset at $1

"A narrative of a youth spent in toil among the hard, homely pioneer conditions in Wisconsin and Iowa after the Civil war and of later struggles in Boston to become a professional man of letters." Cleveland

"In all the region of autobiography, so far as I know it, I do not know quite the like of Mr Garland's story of his life, and I should rank it with the very greatest of that kind in literature. . . As you read it you realize it is the memorial of a generation, of a whole order of American experience; as you review it you perceive it an epic of such mood and make as has not been imagined before." W. D. Howells in N.Y. Times

Garland, Hamlin—Continued

Hamlin Garland's "Trail-makers of the middle border" (Macmillan 1926 426p illus $2.50) is a fictionized biography of his father. It is the first of his series of autobiographic chronicles. The other volumes are entered above

Garrison, William Lloyd, 1805-1879

Chapman, John Jay, 1862-1933. William Lloyd Garrison. 2d ed rev and enl Little 1921 289p front o.p. 1939 92

1 Abolitionists 2 Slavery in the U.S. [21-17104]

First issued 1913. To the 1921 edition a four page preface was added

"A brilliant rhapsody, backed by solid scholarship, which expresses as nothing less enthusiastic could the spirit of the abolitionists and their leader. Portrait." N Y. state lib.

Gaskell, Mrs Elizabeth Cleghorn (Stevenson) 1810-1865

Haldane, Elizabeth Sanderson, 1862-1937. Mrs. Gaskell and her friends. Appleton-Century 1931 318p illus $4 92

[31-6743]

"This biography of Mrs. Gaskell is interesting for herself, a successful author in the days when a woman writer wasn't permitted a room of her own, and for her distinguished friendships, particularly with Florence Nightingale and Charlotte Brontë." Wis. bul.

"Critical skill, affection for her subject, knowledge of the period, careful research and ordered arrangement of material combine to make her book a biography of real merit." Times (London) lit. sup.

Gauguin, Paul, 1848-1903. See class 759.4

Genghis Khan. See Jenghis Khan

Genthe, Arnold, 1869-

As I remember; with 112 photographic illus. by the author. Reynal 1936 290p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Photographers—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 36-28582

"A man who has photographed most of the famous people of his times writes his reminiscences. The illustrations are exceptional and are placed in logical relation to the text. Fully indexed." Wis. bul.

Gibbon, Edward, 1737-1794

Autobiography of Edward Gibbon, as originally ed. by Lord Sheffield; with an introduction by J. B. Bury. Oxford 1907 xxxi,339p (World's classics) 80c 92

W8-56

Fragments of an autobiography left by Gibbon together with passages from his journal and letters woven into a complete narrative by the editor. Originally published in Gibbon's "Miscellaneous works" in 1796

"It is indeed so short that it can be read by the light of a single pair of candles; it is so interesting in its subject, and so alluring in its turns of thought and its style, that in a second and a third reading it gives scarcely less pleasure than in the first. Among the books in which men have told the story of their own lives it stands in the front rank." George Birkbeck Hill

Morison, James Augustus Cotter, 1832-1888. Gibbon. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Gibson, Charles Dana, 1867-

Downey, Fairfax Davis, 1893- Portrait of an era as drawn by C. D. Gibson; a biography. Scribner 1936 xxii,391p illus $3.50 92

1 U.S.—Social life and customs 36-25228

"The story of Charles Dana Gibson and others prominent in literature and art during the 90's; illustrated with many Gibson figures." Providence

"A reading of this book is in reality a visit to an art gallery with a competent guide, for the author has drawn heavily for illustrative material from among the noted artist's finest work. . . Mr. Downey's book is a worthy tribute to a master of the drawing board." Current history

Bibliography: p383-86

Gielgud, John, 1904-

Early stages. Macmillan 1939 321p illus $3 92

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-17762

Originally arranged as a series of articles which appeared in serial form in "Woman's journal." The present version has been rearranged and the original text expanded

A famous English actor, at thirty-five, describes his career from toy-theater days in the nursery to his present established position. There are many glimpses of the actors with whom he has worked and of his relative, Ellen Terry

"The book is written in a lively and unaffected style, and should give pleasure to many theatre-goers." New statesman and Nation

Gilbert, George Blodgett

* Forty years a country preacher. Harper 1940 319p illus $2.75 92

(W) 40-27516

This autobiography of the man who has served rural Episcopal parishes in Connecticut for over forty years, is a record of a life of service, filled with observations of the world as he has seen it

Gilbert, Sir William Schwenck, 1836-1911. See class 780.92

Gilman, Mrs Charlotte (Perkins) Stetson, 1860-1935

Living of Charlotte Perkins Gilman; an autobiography. Appleton-Century 1935 xxxviii,341p illus $3 92

35-27339

"Autobiography of a dynamic woman who devoted practically her whole life to the emancipation of women from the burdens laid upon them by tradition. When her first marriage failed, she threw herself whole-heartedly into the cause of woman suffrage and the economic independence of women, and became famous both in Europe and America as a writer and lecturer." Book rev. digest

"As one reads her story, admiration grows for her fearless integrity, her gay courage, her tireless quest for individual and social betterment. . . Her book explains her, an autobiography of great social and psychological interest and a fascinating revelation of one of the most remarkable of American women." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Gladstone, William Ewart, 1809-1898

Morley, John Morley, viscount, 1838-1923. Life of William Ewart Gladstone. Macmillan 3v in 1 illus $5 92

1 Great Britain—History—19th century
2 Great Britain—Politics and government —19th century 29-28585

First published 1903

"A grand portraiture of a grand subject on a great scale, and in a worthy style. . . A biography which is, from the nature of the case, a 'history of our times,' as well as a life of their great protagonist. . . a faithful, skilful, and admirably developed account of the evolution of Mr Gladstone's character and career." Spectator

Osbert Burdett's "W. E. Gladstone" (Houghton 1928 307p o.p. 1939) is a readable shorter life based on Morley's monumental study

Glendower, Owen, 1359?-1416?

Bradley, Arthur Granville, 1850- Owen Glyndwr. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Gluck, Christoph Willibald, ritter von, 1714-1787. See class 780.92

Godwin, Mrs Mary (Wollstonecraft) 1759-1797

James, Henry Rosher, 1862-1931. Mary Wollstonecraft, a sketch. Oxford 1932 180p illus $1.75 92

32-26995

"While it pays attention to her intellectual achievements, is especially concerned with her personality. Its distinctive value is due to the author's attempt to make Mary Wollstonecraft a real person to the present generation, to re-create from her own writings and from the things written about her by those who knew her some vision of the woman she was, to realize the quality of her nature and the power of the charm she undoubtedly possessed in high degree." N.Y. Times

Goethals, George Washington, 1858-1928

Bishop, Joseph Bucklin, 1847-1928, and Bishop, Farnham, 1886-1930. Goethals, genius of the Panama canal; a biography. Harper 1930 493p illus o.p. 1939 92

30-22571

"While the Bishops' biography of Goethals is largely concerned with the story of Panama, it by no means neglects other chapters of the colonel's life. Even the Panama period is dealt with intimately rather than historically, and it is on the personal side that the biographers are best." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von, 1749-1832

Lewes, George Henry, 1817-1878. Life and works of Goethe; with sketches of his age and contemporaries. Dutton xxxii,593p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 92

A10-13

First published in 1855

"Has become the standard work on the subject. . . Lewes's general prepossession against German style and dislike of the mystic and allegorical may disqualify him for adequate appreciation of some aspects of Goethe's genius. The book, however, has merits which have seldom been equalled in similar work, and it retains its position in our literature." Dictionary of national biography

J. G. Robertson's "Life and work of Goethe 1749-1832" (Dutton 1932 350p illus $3) is another exhaustive and scholarly biography, an enlarged edition of his "Goethe" which was published in 1927

Nevinson, Henry Woodd, 1856- Goethe: man and poet; written for the centenary of Goethe's death on March 22nd, 1832. Nisbet 1931 264p illus 10s 6d 92

32-2689

Formerly carried also by Harcourt

"A sympathetic portrait of Goethe. . . The author has stressed those periods in the poet's life which marked the finest steps in his development, and those of his works which are remembered for their lasting beauty." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Nevinson's portrait is an excellent one—vivid and tremendously alive; while the background of eighteenth-century Germany, court life of Weimar, the French Revolution, Napoleon and Schiller, are admirably sketched in." Saturday rev.

Rolland, Romain, 1866- Goethe and Beethoven; tr. from the French by G. A. Pfister and E. S. Kemp. . . Harper 1931 254p illus $5 92

1 Beethoven, Ludwig van, 1770-1827
31-26703

Contents: Goethe and Beethoven; Goethe's silence; Goethe the musician; Bettina

"It is not the new and more sympathetic view of Bettina, nor the keener appreciation of Beethoven's force of mind and character that makes this book so interesting. It is the fresh realization of the complexity of Goethe and the new light into which M. Rolland leads him, rather than merely casts upon him. . . To revivify one's image of Goethe is no ordinary achievement. That, on a small scale, and for one small part of that great life, is what M. Rolland has done." Bookman

Gogarty, Oliver St John, 1878-

As I was going down Sackville street. Reynal 1937 342p illus $3.50 92

37-4752

At head of title: A phantasy in fact

"A robust, individualistic book by a wit and a poet, a member of the Irish literary group. Well-known and lesser-known literary figures appear in his anecdotal reminiscences of Dublin, and politicians are caustically appraised. Original and audacious, but for a limited audience familiar with the Irish personnel." Bkl.

Gogh, Vincent van, 1853-1890. See class 759.949

Goldman, Emma, 1869-1940

Living my life. Knopf 1931 2v $3 92

1 Anarchism and anarchists 31-28325

Also obtainable from Garden City pub. co. in one volume at $1.59

"An intense, crowded autobiography of a woman who was for many years a leader of the anarchists in America and Europe. Volume one and the first part of volume two cover her thirty years of struggle against capitalism in the United States ending in her deportation in 1919; the last half of volume two tells of her visit to Soviet Russia and her disappointment in what she found there, and of the years of lecturing and writing since." Book rev. digest

"Far more gripping than this revelation of American life or of her later search for freedom in Russia are her revelations of the inner workings of the most challenging rebel spirit of our times in these United States, and of her philosophy of life." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Goldsmith, Oliver, 1728-1774

Black, William, 1841-1898. Goldsmith. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Irving, Washington, 1783-1859. Oliver Goldsmith. Putnam 2v in 1 $2.50 92

26-22735

"One of the best biographies in the whole range of English literature; just, full, brilliant." C. F. Richardson

Gompers, Samuel, 1850-1924

Seventy years of life and labor; an autobiography. Dutton 1925 2v illus $10 92

1 Labor and laboring classes 25-5990

"A history of the labor movement in the United States as well as an autobiography, since Mr Gompers was one of the founders of the American federation of labor and its president from 1882 to his death." Pittsburgh

"All who wish to understand the working forces in American-political and social life during the last half-century cannot afford to neglect this book. It is a moving chronicle of great events told by a forceful personality who helped to shape them." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

R. H. Harvey's "Samuel Gompers; champion of the toiling masses" (Oxford 1935 376p front $2.50) includes many excerpts from his writings and speeches and furnishes a fair and just account of the man and his laborers

Goncourt, Edmond Louis Antoine Huot de, 1822-1896, and Goncourt, Jules Alfred Huot de, 1833-1870

Goncourt journals, 1851-1870; ed. and tr. . . . by Lewis Galantière. Doubleday 1937 372p $3.50 92

37-28596

A translation of selections from the nine-volume French edition of the Journal of the Goncourt brothers. The editor has also furnished a brief introduction and eighty pages of biographical notes on the men and women mentioned

"Where the brothers are really unrivaled is in their first-hand descriptions of the literary giants of the day. They met Hugo and Balzac; Flaubert, Daudet, Gauthier, Renan they knew well; Zola was their disciple. Deliberately they tried to set down for us the undiluted essence of each man's personality and talk." Sat. rev. of lit.

Goodspeed, Charles Eliot, 1867-

Yankee bookseller; being the reminiscences of C. E. Goodspeed. Houghton 1937 325p illus $3.75 92

1 Book collecting 2 Booksellers and bookselling 37-28796

"Reminiscences of a book seller, whose shop in Boston has been a center of the rare book trade for several decades. There is much about book collecting, about people who collect books, and about some famous collections. There is information about autographs and about old prints; and the final chapter gives some space to old hymns." Wis. bul.

Gordon, Charles George, 1833-1885

Wortham, Hugh Evelyn, 1884- Chinese Gordon. Little 1933 384p illus maps o.p. 1939 92

33-10702

Published in England under title: Gordon; an intimate portrait

"Relates in detail and with admirable judgment the whole story of Gordon's life —the Crimea, China, Gravesend, Central Africa, the Soudan, Mauritius and the Cape. The author is fortunate in that he has been able to make use of new material in Gordon's letters to his sister Augusta. It is of quite exceptional interest and throws fresh light on his character. It will satisfy also the modern demand for brevity combined with accuracy and a readable style." Ontario library review

Gorgas, William Crawford, 1854-1920

Gorgas, Mrs Marie Cook (Doughty) d. 1929 and Hendrick, Burton Jesse, 1870- William Crawford Gorgas; his life and work. Doubleday 1924 359p illus maps $2.50 92

24-32079

"The story of the conquest of yellow fever is inextricably interwoven with the career of General Gorgas. Not only does this record of his life trace with simple dignity all the phases of his elimination of this scourge, but it gives an admirable picture of the man, his resolute determination in face of all obstacles, his tireless devotion and his fine achievement in Havana, in the Canal zone and as surgeon-general in the World war." N.Y. state lib.

Gorky, Maxim, pseud. 1868-1936

My childhood. Appleton-Century 1915 374p illus $3 92

15-26651

"An unsparing record of the Russian writer's home life from earliest childhood until his grandfather turned him out to shift for himself at eight. A picture of Russian peasant life at once charming and revolting and full of remarkable character sketches, notably the wonderful old grandmother, a snuff-taking, vodka-drinking saint, of whom he says, 'her influence connected all my impressions by a single thread and wove them into a pattern of many colors, and her love enriched me and built up the strength needful for a hard life' " Cleveland

Appeared in the English review

Maxim Gorky's "In the world" (Appleton-Century 1917 507p $3) covers Gorky's adventurous youth thru the next few years

Gosse, Sir Edmund William, 1849-1928

Father and son; biographical recollections. Scribner 1907 355p front $2.50 92

7-36407

"Record of the author's childhood and youth in a home where the most austere Puritanism prevailed; of his father, a scientist of distinction, devoted first of all to the religious bringing up of his son. Tells of the development of the boy's individuality, and the final break between father and son, between the rigid religion of the past and the liberality of the present, which sacrificed neither the love of the father nor the respect of the son. Written with great charm, with delicacy of feeling, poetic insight, and not a little humor." A. L. A. bkl.

Sir E. W. Gosse's "Life and letters" by E. E. Charteris (Heinemann 1931 525p illus 8s 6d) consists largely of letters from the great critic to his wide circle of friends among whom were Stevenson, Hardy, Moore, James, Swinburne and Rossetti

Goya y Lucientes, Francisco Jose de, 1746-1828. See class 759.6

Grant, Ulysses Simpson, president U.S. 1822-1885

Personal memoirs. 2d ed Appleton-Century 1895 2v illus o.p. 1939 92

1 U.S.—History—Civil war—Campaigns and battles 2 U.S.—History—War with Mexico, 1845-1848 4-17020

"Covers the course of the author's life down to the close of the Civil war. When one considers that the writer was a man of action, altogether without experience in literary work, one is surprised at the remarkable skill with which the narrative is written. The sentences often have the same pithy directness and brevity that marked his despatches from the field of battle. . . The native simplicity and lack of affectation so characteristic of the author are noticeable features of the work." Larned's Literature of American history

"Grant's grandly simple record of his own life is a true classic." Theodore Roosevelt

Church, William Conant, 1836-1917. Ulysses S. Grant. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Hesseltine, William Best. Ulysses S. Grant, politician. Dodd 1935 480p illus (American political leaders) $4 92

1 U.S.—Politics and government—1869-1877 35-17052

"Mr. Hesseltine has done much research work among original manuscripts and papers and gives the authority for his statements in a readily accessible form. The book is authoritative and absorbingly interesting as well. The attitude is impartial; it recognizes Grant's weaknesses and handles them unsparingly, but it also explains the man and his intentions and shows him much more sinned against than sinning." Boston Transcript

Woodward, William E. 1874- Meet General Grant. . . Liveright 1928 512p illus $5 92

28-27597

"The first really modern study of Grant, and it is by no means successful. . . Accelleration of movement, imaginary conversations, the jargon of Freudian psychology, and an apparent desire to belittle the man rather than to place him where he belongs, are some of the defects in this life. . . Despite . . . [its] faults 'Meet General Grant' is the nearest approach to a true picture of the great militarist that we have." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Bibliography: p503-06

Owen Wister's "U. S. Grant and the Seven ages of Washington" (271p front) which was originally published separately by Small in 1900 is now obtainable from Macmillan at $2.50 bound with the author's "Seven ages of Washington." It is a well-written biography, tho not complete nor critical

Graves, Robert, 1895-

Good-bye to all that; an autobiography. Cape, J. 1929 430p illus maps 10s 6d 92

1 European war, 1914-1918—Personal narratives 30-2231

Formerly carried also by Cape & Smith

Also obtainable from Cape, J. in the Life and letters series at 4s 6d

"Mr. Robert Graves calls his book an autobiography, and sets his war experiences in between descriptions of his school-days (just before the war) and of his subsequent adventures since 1918 in the literary world." New statesman

"It is an extraordinarily honest book; and if his attempted detachment is not carried far enough to make it a work of art, it has produced a book devoid of hate." Nation and Athenaeum

Gray, Thomas, 1716-1771

Gosse, Sir Edmund William, 1849-1928. Gray. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Grenfell, Sir Wilfred Thomason, 1865-1940

Adrift on an ice-pan; illus. from photographs by Dr. Grenfell and others. Houghton 1909 xxv,68p front $1.25 92

9-16853

"Simple and modest recital of author's experiences and emotions while drifting out to sea for a day and a night on a block of 'sish,' or crushed ice. Biographical sketch by C. J. Blake." N.Y. state. lib.

The same story may be found in the author's "Forty years for Labrador" with a few slight changes

‡ Forty years for Labrador. Houghton 1932 372p illus $4 92

1 Labrador 32-28142

"Thirteen years have elapsed since the publication of 'A Labrador doctor.' During all this time, Dr. Grenfell's mission work on the Labrador coast has grown steadily. In this new volume he has brought his autobiography down to date, revising the material in the earlier book, and carrying the story along through the succeeding years. It will prove of wide appeal. There are many illustrations." Ontario library review

Grey, Edward Grey, 1st viscount, 1862-1933

Twenty-five years, 1892-1916, by Viscount Grey of Fallodon. . . Stokes 2v in 1 illus $4.50 92

1 European war, 1914-1918 2 Great Britain—Foreign relations 37-28511

A reissue in one volume of a work published 1925 in two volumes

"His memoirs are of value, chiefly as presenting an intimate, lucid and truthful account of the long and complicated train of diplomatic and other events which during a score of years led to the World war, and also of the impression produced by the war and the subsequent peacemaking upon an enlightened, sensitive, judicious and preeminently peace-loving mind." North American review

Trevelyan, George Macaulay, 1876- Grey of Fallodon; the life and letters of Sir Edward Grey, afterwards Viscount Grey of Fallodon. Houghton 1937 447p illus map $3.75 92

1 Great Britain—Foreign relations 37-3034

"One of England's foremost historians has written a sensitive biography of Lord Grey. It portrays not only the statesman but the man. In part it is based on Grey's personal correspondence and on unpublished documents in the Foreign Office." Foreign affairs

"As an intimate friend, Professor Trevelyan writes with a sympathetic touch, but he is not in any sense idolatrous. His book is an exceptionally fine portrait, and

Grey, Edward G. 1st viscount—Continued
a genuine contribution to the history of the war, the League, and the other epochal events of Grey's eleven years as head of the Foreign Office." Review of reviews

Grieg, Edvard Hagerup, 1843-1907. See class 780.92

Gustavus II, Adolphus, king of Sweden, 1594-1632
Fletcher, Charles Robert Leslie, 1857-1934. Gustavus Adolphus and the struggle of Protestantism for existence. See entry under Heroes of the nations
92 Series

Hale, Edward Everett, 1822-1909
A New England boyhood, and other bits of autobiography. Little 1900 xxvi,500p front o.p. 1939 92
1 Boston—Social life and customs 2 New England—Social life and customs 0-1715
First published 1893. The 1900 edition contains papers entitled "Sixty years of my life," bringing the biography to 1890
"Describes a boy's life in Boston from 1826-35 and at Harvard for four following years. An excellent picture of Boston and vicinity at that time." N.Y. state lib.

E. E. Hale's "Life and letters" (Little 1917 2v illus o.p. 1939) is a selection from letters, diaries and note books covering Hale's early life, ministry, his work in literature and his family life

Hale, Mrs Sarah Josepha (Buell) 1788-1879
Finley, Mrs Ruth (Ebright) 1884- The lady of Godey's; with 9 reproductions in color and 24 illus. Lippincott 1931 318p illus $3.50, popular ed $1.95 92
1 Godey's magazine 31-28307
"An altogether delightful book which tells the story of that historic fashion magazine, 'Godey's Lady's Book'; traces the growth of feminism in the United States; and draws a picture of that clever and fascinating woman, Sarah Josepha Hale. The illustrations are taken from the files of 'Godey's Lady's Book.'" Cleveland

Hālidah Adīb, khānum, 1885-
Memoirs of Halidé Edib; with a frontispiece in color by Alexandre Pankoff and many illus. from photographs. Appleton-Century 1926 472p illus o.p. 1939 92
1 Turkey—Social life and customs 26-14306
"A Turkish feminist and author tells the interesting story of her life. There is a vivid picture of the Turkish home and its customs, particularly as these affect the women, a glimpse of Turkey during the war, and the modest story of one woman's influence in educational and political circles of the new Turkey." Book rev. digest

Hals, Frans, 1581?-1666. See class 759.949

Hamburger, Estelle
It's a woman's business. Vanguard 1939 300p illus $2.50 92
1 Advertising (W) 39-27910
The career of a clever woman in fashion advertising, who started at the bottom of the ladder and advanced until she became executive vice-president of one of America's most exclusive stores for women
"The story of her career is gay and informal and the story of her romance and marriage is given its place." Book rev. digest

Hamilton, Alexander, 1757-1804
Ford, Henry Jones, 1851-1925. Alexander Hamilton. Scribner 1920 381p (Figures from American history) o.p. 1939 92
20-7498
"One lays down the book with a clear grasp of Hamilton's important contributions to American nationality, and a fair idea of the manner of man he was. Uniform fairness, fascinating style and illumination of American political history are the outstanding characteristics of the book." Amer. pol. sci. rev.
"Thoughtful but often inaccurate." Dictionary of American biography

Lodge, Henry Cabot, 1850-1924. Alexander Hamilton. Houghton 317p illus (American statesmen) $2.50 92
A23-1134
First published 1882
"A biography of fascinating interest. Mr. Lodge has been exceptionally successful in this work in bringing into strong relief the salient features of Hamilton's character and work." Larned's Literature of Amer. hist.
"Strongly biased in Hamilton's favor." Dictionary of American biography

* Loth, David Goldsmith, 1899- Alexander Hamilton; portrait of a prodigy. Carrick 1939 320p illus $3 92
(W) 39-21845
A biography of the American statesman, soldier and financier
"Here is a well-balanced biography, written with grace and warmth, with only an occasional overdose of color. The engaging story, as Mr. Loth tells it with judicious interpretations, is an excellent popularly written work. It is not for the student or scholar, nor do we believe Mr. Loth intended this portrait of a prodigy for the specialist. A true story, simply and delightfully told." N.Y. Times

Hammond, John Hays, 1855-1936
Autobiography. Farrar 1935 2v $5 92
35-4707
"A chronicle of the full, exciting life of an outstanding modern American. At eighty years, Mr. Hammond considers a career that has been packed with action. As mining engineer and friend of Cecil Rhodes, he played dramatic parts; in political affairs he was influential with many, including former President Taft. His book is an international historical document as well as a thrilling tale." Cincinnati

Händel, Georg Friedrich, 1685-1759. See class 780.92

Hanna, Marcus Alonzo, 1837-1904
Beer, Thomas, 1889- Hanna. Knopf 1929 325p $3 92
1 U.S.—Politics and government—1865-1898 29-24016
"Mark Hanna, who lives in the memory of the American people as a fat, pudgy man who wore an oversize suit covered with dollar signs, stands forth as a human being. . . He stands against a background of tobacco smoke from countless political meetings, against the flare of light from countless torchlight processions and the whirling arms of orators on unnumbered flag draped platforms. [This is] a portrait

Hanna, Marcus A.—Continued
—neither eulogy nor condemnation, neither whitewashing nor indictment." N.Y. World
"Mr. Beer makes a living and appealing figure of Mark Hanna. . . It is a gay picture of Mark Hanna's generation, told in Mr. Beer's vivid cinematographical style." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Hannibal, B.C. 247-183
Baker, George Philip, 1879- Hannibal. Dodd 1929 332p illus maps $3 92
29-25946

"A study of the Phoenician military leader and organizer, a Napoleonic genius—his relation to the world in which he lived and his significance for history. Mr. Baker writes of Hannibal not only as a warrior but as the representative of a Semitic power in the Mediterranean, trying to break through the economic barrier interposed by Rome and to enlarge the trading area of Carthage. The book is an excellent example of historical biography which, although based on scant data, is vivified by sound knowledge and a delightful style." Cleveland

Morris, William O'Connor, 1824-1904. Hannibal. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Harding, Warren Gamaliel, president U.S. 1865-1923
Adams, Samuel Hopkins, 1871- Incredible era; the life and times of Warren Gamaliel Harding. Houghton 1939 456p illus $3 92
1 U.S.—Politics and government—1898- (W) 39-30355

"Because of the scarcity of original and authoritative documents, it has been necessary to rely upon hearsay—that is, word-of-mouth testimony—for some important phases of the Harding record." Preface
"Mr. Adams tells the story dramatically and supremely well . . . it does not contribute anything vitally new; but it is the first attempt at something like a consecutive narrative. It concentrates heavily upon the scandals." N.Y. Times
Bibliography

Hardy, Thomas, 1840-1928
Hardy, Mrs Florence Emily (Dugdale) d.1937. Early life of Thomas Hardy, 1840-1891. . . Macmillan 1928 327p illus $2 92
28-28538

"Compiled largely from contemporary notes, letters, diaries, and biographical memoranda, as well as from oral information in conversations extending over many years." Subtitle
"The book is just what it should be—a detached statement of his early life, amplified with his own comment. There is no attempt at an appraisal of his work, none of that display of 'greatness' one has come to associate with such books. The facts are left to speak for themselves." New statesman

Hardy, Mrs Florence Emily (Dugdale) d. 1937. Later years of Thomas Hardy, 1892-1928. Macmillan 1930 286p illus $2 92
30-12409

"Completes the distinguished biography begun in 'Early life.' It begins with the publication of 'Jude the Obscure' and covers the years during which Hardy turned from the writing of fiction to win renown as a poet. Mrs. Hardy quotes freely from her husband's letters and diary, as well as from the writings of his friends." Bkl.

S. C. Chew's "Thomas Hardy, poet & novelist. (Knopf 1928 196p front o.p. 1939) is a brief but admirable survey and estimate of Hardy's work and contains all the necessary facts of his life

Harris, Joel Chandler, 1848-1908
Harris, Mrs Julia Florida (Collier) 1875- Life and letters of Joel Chandler Harris . . . Houghton 1918 620p illus $5 92
18-18778

"An authoritative biography, including Harris's correspondence with such fellow writers as Mark Twain and James Whitcomb Riley. Contains also some delightfully charming letters to children." Brooklyn
Bibliography: p603-10

Harris, Townsend, 1804-1878
Crow, Carl. He opened the door of Japan; Townsend Harris and the story of his amazing adventures in establishing American relations with the Far East. Harper 1939 275p illus $3 92
1 Japan—Foreign relations 2 U.S.—Foreign relations (W) 39-27181

Published in England under title: Harris of Japan
Biography of Townsend Harris, an American crockery importer, who, as a representative of the United States government in Japan, completed Commodore Perry's work of opening the door of the Far East by the negotiations resulting in the treaty of 1858
"Carl Crow has made admirable use of his materials, notably the annotated journal of Harris prepared by Dr. Mario Cosenza. He has written a swiftly moving, full-rounded biography, which successfully blends scholarship with literary excellence." Sat. rev. of lit.
Bibliography: p273-75

Harrison, Mrs Marguerite Elton (Baker)
There's always tomorrow; the story of a checkered life. Farrar 1935 664p $2.50 92
35-19690

Published in England under title: Born for trouble
"The story of an unusually adventurous life. A conventional girlhood, which included much European travel, and twelve years of happy married life were followed by experiences as a journalist in all parts of the world, including espionage in Germany, imprisonment in Soviet Russia, and the trek across mountains that produced the motion picture Grass. A fascinating book." Wis. bul.

Harte, Bret, 1839-1902
Stewart, George Rippey, 1895- Bret Harte, Argonaut and exile; being an account of the life of the celebrated American humorist . . . compiled from new and original sources. Houghton 1931 384p illus o.p. 1939 92
31-34883

"Of this queer, pathetic, somewhat bizarre little figure, Mr. Stewart has given us the first definitive biography. He has spent some years at the task, and with the benefits that come from hitherto unpublished material coupled with a native gift for clear analysis and a happy knack of fashioning the result in accurate and interesting prose, he has made it a book worth while." Boston Transcript

Harte, Bret—Continued

Bret Harte's "Letters" (Houghton 1926 515p illus $5) covering the unhappy years from 1878-1902 while he lived abroad are addressed chiefly to his wife and are filled with details of his personal and literary life

Hastings, Warren, 1732-1818

Davies, Alfred Mervyn. Strange destiny; a biography of Warren Hastings. Putnam 1935 468p illus $5 92

1 India—History 35-27134

Published in England under title: Warren Hastings, maker of British India

"A long, full, documented biography in which the author surveys in minute detail Hastings' twenty-five years in India, which culminated in his impeachment and trial by Parliament. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"For those whose notions about Hastings are derived from Macaulay, this book is an essential corrective. For those approaching a fascinating page of history for the first time it is an excellent introduction, thorough, readable, full of the picturesque detail of India." Christian science monitor

Hawthorne, Nathaniel, 1804-1864

Heart of Hawthorne's journals; ed. by Newton Arvin. Houghton 1929 345p front $3 92

29-10491

Selections from Hawthorne's American, English and Italian notebooks, extracts from letters and notes for new stories

"With admirable selectiveness Mr. Arvin has managed to extract just those portions of the journals that are most revelatory of Hawthorne, most interesting in themselves and most valuable as a picture of the time . . . 'The Heart of Hawthorne's Journals' gives an extremely clear picture of this reticent and solitary American, a picture that, as a whole, is not without a quiet charm and certain serenity." N.Y. Times

Hawthorne, Julian, 1846-1934. Nathaniel Hawthorne and his wife; a biography. Houghton 1884 2v o.p. 1939 92

1 Hawthorne, Mrs Sophia Amelia (Peabody) 1809-1871 [17-21579]

"So instinct with a tender respect and unquestioning love, so full of a frank boyish spirit of the loyalty that has never contemplated the king doing wrong, that the critic is constrained to take his point of view and accept this biography not as a critical and complete life, but as a friendly confidence." Nation

James, Henry, 1843-1916. Hawthorne. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Morris, Lloyd R. 1893- Rebellious Puritan: portrait of Mr Hawthorne. Harcourt 1927 369p illus o.p. 1939 92

27-5643

"A personal biography, done from the psychological point of view. Morris tries to explain the rebel, the mystic, and the lover that was Hawthorne, and he seems to have succeeded." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Newton Arvin's "Hawthorne" (Little 1929 303p illus o.p. 1939) is a good narrative biography which emphasizes the critical rather than the biographical point of view

Hawthorne, Mrs Sophia Amelia (Peabody) 1809-1871

Hawthorne, Julian. Nathaniel Hawthorne and his wife. See entry under Hawthorne, Nathaniel

Hay, John, 1838-1905

Dennett, Tyler, 1883- John Hay; from poetry to politics. Dodd 1933 476p illus $4 92

1 U.S.—Foreign relations 33-30803

"More interesting, perhaps, than the achievements which Professor Dennett records with learning and richness is the character which he analyzes with sympathy and understanding. In no way a representative figure, Hay was, nevertheless, a symbolic one in the years that stretched from Lincoln to Roosevelt. . . . Professor Dennett's volume is a triumph of condensation, balance, scholarly accuracy." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Received the Pulitzer prize for biography in 1934

Thayer, William Roscoe, 1859-1923. Life and letters of John Hay. Houghton 1915 2v o.p. 1939 92

16-11112

"Not a formal biography but a well edited collection of Hay's intimate letters and diary jottings, held together by a slender thread of 'life.' It is based on memorial of similar nature published privately by Mrs Hay shortly after her husband's death in 1905, but Mr Thayer has drawn upon a much larger store of materials both private and official, and has handled them thruout with taste and judgment of a high order." N.Y. Times

"The most distinctive feature of the 'Life and letters' is perhaps, the sense it gives of the time spirit as transmitted thru the personality of one man. John Hay's life seems to epitomize the inward feeling of the period thru which he lived." North American review

Haydn, Joseph, 1732-1809. See class 780.92

Hazlitt, William, 1778-1830

Birrell, Augustine, 1850-1933. William Hazlitt. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Howe, Percival Presland, 1886- Life of William Hazlitt. Secker 1922 475p illus 7s 6d 92

23-2189

Formerly carried also by Doran

"Mr Howe has done one of those really valuable and unostentatious pieces of literary work which are, unfortunately, like virtue, their own reward. How much labor and enthusiasm he has lavished upon it, only those who have digged a little below the surface of one of the two greatest periods of our literary history can appreciate, for he does not suffer the evidence of his pains to appear." Nation and Athenaeum

Bibliography: p433-34

Hearn, Lafcadio, 1850-1904

Life and letters, by Elizabeth Bisland. Houghton 1906 2v o.p. 1939 92

6-44374

Contents: v 1 Introductory sketch by Mrs Elizabeth (Bisland) Wetmore; Letters; v2 Letters (continued)

"Hearn was peculiarly fitted by temperament to become the ideal interpreter of Japan and he has left a series of books unique in our language. Mrs Wetmore, who was his intimate friend for twenty years, has succeeded in depicting his sensitive and exotic nature, which the letters themselves reveal even more clearly. The correspondence is of unusual interest." Pittsburgh

Hearn, Lafcadio—Continued
Two additional sources of information on Hearn are:
Hearn, Lafcadio. Japanese letters; ed. by Elizabeth Bisland. Houghton 1910 468p illus $5 Consists of letters to B. H. Chamberlain, W. B. Mason, and to Mrs Hearn
Hearn, Mrs S. K. Reminiscences of Lafcadio Hearn. Houghton 1918 87p o.p. 1939 Contributes intimate sidelights on Hearn by his Japanese wife

Heine, Heinrich, 1797-1856
Browne, Lewis, 1897- and Weihl, Elsa. That man Heine; a biography. Macmillan 1927 420p illus $3.50 92
27-20843
"What Mr. Browne has accomplished is a clean-cut, semi-analytical retelling of Heine's rather woeful career, sympathetic in its tendencies and yet free from any sentimental glossing over of that febrile delight in living that brought the poet to his death." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
"Mr. Browne's picture of Heine is by no means complete. We get, so to speak, only one side of his face. Still, Mr. Browne's book is important for Heine lovers. That anyone should go so deeply into Heine lore is something to be grateful for." Nation

Untermeyer, Louis, 1885- Heinrich Heine: paradox and poet; the life. Harcourt 1937 403p illus $3.75 92
(W) 37-37578
"The biography . . . embodies the results of sound historical research which has brought into the picture some new factual material." Christian century

Antonina Vallentin-Luchaire's "Poet in exile; the life of Heinrich Heine; tr. by Harrison Brown" (Viking 1934 320p $3) is a biography "composed with skill and knowledge." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Heiser, Victor George, 1873-
‡ An American doctor's odyssey; adventures in forty-five countries. Norton 1936 544p illus $3.50 92
1 Physicians — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 36-27369
Also obtainable in a student's edition, abridged, at $1.40
Published in England under title: Doctor's odyssey
"Personal history of the adventures of an American doctor whose chief work has been in health education and the eradication of disease. The first half of the book is devoted to his years of training, his work as a medical officer in the United States immigration service, and as director of public health in the Philippines. The second half records his work as a director of the International health division of the Rockefeller foundation." Book rev. digest
"Of first importance as a history of a victory of which any member of the human race may take pride. It is also of the keenest interest as the personal record of a remarkable man who, for all his becoming modesty, appears from his own careful record to have been able to meet any situation, regardless of what kind of demands it might make upon his intelligence and his ability to get along with people." Review of reviews

Héloïse
Abélard, Pierre and Héloïse. Letters of Abélard and Héloïse. See entry under Abélard

Henry V, king of England, 1387-1422
Kingsford, Charles Lethbridge, 1862-1926. Henry V, the typical mediæval hero. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Henry VIII, king of England, 1491-1547
* Hackett, Francis, 1883- Henry the Eighth. Liveright 1929 452p illus $3 92
29-9654
Also available in a reprint in the Star series (Garden City pub. co. $1)
"A personal history based on research containing an introduction to sixteenth century history as well as to a host of personalities—wives, sweethearts, popes, cardinals and kings. Illustrated by photographs which are from paintings by Holbein and other contemporary artists." St Louis
"Years of work there must be in this book, but happily work that did not destroy an extraordinary quality of imagination but rather fostered it. The author has more skill in seeing a particular past time than many professional historians. . . Nor is that skill only exercised about classes; he sees individuals so vividly in his own mind's eye that we cannot forget his pictures, even if sometimes the colors seem too bright." Wallace Notestein in Sat. rev. of lit.

Henry IV, king of France, 1553-1610
Willert, Paul Ferdinand, 1844-1912. Henry of Navarre and the Huguenots in France. Putnam 1893 478p illus (Heroes of the nations) o.p. 1939 92
1 France—History—Bourbons, 1589-1789
2 Huguenots—History 4-6539
"Fair and appreciative estimate, founded on the best contemporary sources of information." Pittsburgh

Henry, prince of Portugal, 1394-1460
Beazley, Sir Charles Raymond, 1868- Prince Henry the Navigator. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Henry, O. pseud. See Porter, William Sydney, 1862-1910

Henry, Patrick, 1736-1799
Tyler, Moses Coit, 1835-1900. Patrick Henry. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Herbert, Victor, 1859-1924. See class 780.92

Hertzler, Arthur Emanuel, 1870-
‡ Horse and buggy doctor. Harper 1938 322p illus $2.75 92
1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-27572
Story of a country doctor, who, in forty years of practice, has seen the change from pioneer days of "kitchen surgery" to his own famous clinic. His personality prevades the narrative
"An honest and objective self-record that puts on paper one of the most beloved traditions of the past and shows that the fundamental virtues for which the country doctor was cherished have survived into the scientific present, while many not-so-good aspects of sentimentalized old days have fortunately been left behind forever." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Hindus, Maurice Gerschon, 1891-

* Green worlds; an informal chronicle. Doubleday 1938 359p $3 92

(W) 38-27648

"An account of the author's experiences as a boy in Russia under the old regime, as an immigrant to the new world, and as an interested and thoughtful observer of the changes which have taken place in both countries within his life-time." Baldwin

"It has all his well-known qualities: grace and simplicity of style, directness, a close but restrained emotional texture, discriminating observation, and expert reportorial capacity." Sat. rev. of lit.

Hitler, Adolf, 1889-

Mein kampf; complete and unabridged; fully annotated. . . Reynal 1939 xxxvi, 993p map $3 92

1 Germany—Politics and government 2 National socialism (W) 39-27192

Abridged edition was published 1933 under title: My battle

Amplified by copious explanatory and critical annotations. Translated from the first German edition, Volume 1 published in 1925 and Volume 2 in 1927. No translators are given but 10 editorial sponsors in charge of translation and annotation are mentioned

H. W. Van Loon's "Our battle" (Simon & Schuster 1938 139p $1) (W) an answer to Hitler's "My battle," tells the factors which enabled Hitler and Mussolini to rise to power and states the author's conviction that there can be no compromise between the Nazi and the American system

* Heiden, Konrad. Hitler; a biography; tr. from the German by Winifred Ray. Knopf 1936 390p $3 92

36-10837

"Its primary emphasis is on the internal forces of Hitler's character." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

"Hitler still remains something of a mystery when this book is finished; but I suspect that the secret of his power will still be a subject of debate a century hence. Konrad Heiden offers as thorough a presentation of the record as is yet to be found, for those who wish to draw their own conclusions." N.Y. Herald Tribune

Hobbes, Thomas, 1588-1679

Stephen, Sir Leslie, 1832-1904. Hobbes. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Hogarth, William, 1697-1764. See class 759.2

Holbein, Hans, 1497-1543. See class 759.3

Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 1809-1894

Morse, John Torrey, 1840-1937. Life and letters of Oliver Wendell Holmes. Houghton 1896 2v illus o.p. 1939 92

17-20586

"Taken together the memoir and the letters form a complete and most engaging literary portraiture,—one which the reader finishes with a gratified sense of having learned all that one needs to know, and has a right to know of the career and personality of the kindly 'Autocrat.'" Dial

"Such letters as no one else could have written, full of wit, humor and intimate revelations." Bookman

Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 1841-1935

Bent, Silas, 1882- Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, a biography. Vanguard 1932 386p illus o.p. 1939 92

32-26222

"Silas Bent has told in simple narrative and unanalytic terms the background of Justice Holmes; his contacts with the great men of his youth, his relations with his famous father, his school and college days, his Civil War experiences, his strong attachment to the profession of teaching, and the later half or his life devoted to interpreting the law for his fellowmen." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

References: p361-78

Holtby, Winifred, 1898-1935

Letters to a friend, ed. by Alice Holtby [and] Jean McWilliam. Macmillan 1938 463p illus $3.50 92

38-5494

"Letters written by Winifred Holtby, to a friend she met in the W.A.A.C. camp at Huchenneville, in 1918. The letters cover the years 1920 to 1935 and in them can be traced the writer's development from college student to teacher, lecturer, social worker and famous author." Book rev. digest

"Apart from its value as the record of a warm and rich friendship, of a fine and generous nature and of an active literary life, the book is also attractive as containing incidentally many vivid or entertaining sketches of places, things and people." Times (London) lit. sup.

Brittain, Vera Mary. Testament of friendship; the story of Winifred Holtby. Macmillan 1940 412p front $2.50 92

(W) 40-27027

A biography and appreciation of a young English poetess and novelist. The author quotes often from Miss Holtby's poems, articles and personal letters

"It is a biography which is worth reading, though its presentation falls considerably short of perfection. Vera Brittain has none of Winifred Holtby's humor, and she neither looks at the world with so much imagination nor writes with so incisive a style . . . it is not in the biographer's words but in her own that Winifred Holtby becomes a real personality in these pages." N.Y. Times

Homer, Winslow, 1836-1910. See class 759.1

Hoover, Herbert Clark, president U.S. 1874-

Irwin, William Henry, 1873- Herbert Hoover; a reminiscent biography. Appleton-Century 1928 315p illus $3 92

28-9885

"A presentation of the human side of Herbert Hoover. . . Bearing the marks of haste which normally accompany the literary by-products of a Presidential campaign, it nevertheless is rich in episode and anecdote and . . . presents fairly and vividly the essential facts of his ancestry, his upbringing, his achievements and his personality." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

House, Edward Mandell, 1858-1938

Intimate papers of Colonel House arranged as a narrative by Charles Seymour. Houghton 1926-28 4v $5; v1-2 $3, v3-4 $3 92

1 European war, 1914-1918 2 League of nations 3 U.S.—Politics and government —1898— 4 Versailles, Treaty of, June 28, 1919 5 Wilson, Woodrow, president U.S. 1856-1924 26-5823

The diaries and correspondence of Colonel House cover the period from the House, Edward M.—Continued

nomination of Wilson in 1912 through the Peace conference of 1919 during which period he acted as President Wilson's personal representative in conducting unofficial negotiations of great importance
"Here is a unique book, full of astounding revelations. It reads like a romance written by an historical society. It is wellnigh incredible, yet it seems to be composed of the truth and nothing but the truth." Stuart Sherman in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Housman, Alfred Edward, 1859-1936
Gow, Andrew Sydenham Farrar, 1886- A. E. Housman; a sketch, together with a list of writings and indexes to his classical papers. Macmillan 1936 136p illus $1.75 92

36-25256

A biographical sketch of a classical scholar of renown, the author of "A Shropshire lad" and other poems. Contains an exhaustive bibliography of his writings on Latin classics and indexes to his published works
"Here is a portrait of that austere, unhappy man, written by one who knew him for a quarter of a century, one who could appreciate to the full that passion for truth which was the inspiration of the scholar's life. . . Mr. Gow writes with a full sympathy: he does not shrink from touching on anything that seems to him an essential part of Housman's nature, yet he says nothing that can be felt as an intrusion upon his privacy." Times (London) lit. sup.

Housman, Laurence, 1865- My brother, A. E. Housman: personal recollections, together with thirty hitherto unpublished poems. . . Scribner 1938 286p illus $3 92

38-27343

Published in England under title: A. E. H.
"An illuminating characterization of the English poet, with excerpts from his correspondence, and an index of his notebooks indicating different versions of his poems. The poems are those omitted from 'More poems,' and several examples of his light verse and parodies." Bkl.

"Alfred Edward Housman; recollections by K. E. Symons [and others]" (Holt 1937 82p illus $2.50) consists of brief, essays by the poet's sister, brother, nephew, and friends

Houston, Samuel, 1793-1863
James, Marquis, 1891- The Raven; a biography of Sam Houston. Texas centennial ed Blue ribbon bks. 489p illus map $1 92

36-19491

Reprint of a book published 1929 by Bobbs
"Marquis James restores to life one of the most dramatic personalities in the whole history of America. . . Governor of two states, Senator, commander of an army, President of one republic and a promising aspirant for the office in another, with an interlude as a drunken outcast among the Indians—few men have poured themselves out in such abundant living. It is a marvelous life-story, a thrilling frontier romance." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Howe, Frederic Clemson, 1867-
Confessions of a reformer. Scribner 1925 352p front o.p. 1939 92

25-23619

The reminiscences of a well-known liberal. They unfold the development of the boy in a Pennsylvania town; the youth expanding in the free atmosphere of Johns Hopkins university; the young lawyer's entry into Cleveland political life and affiliation with Tom L. Johnson. Still later experiences of a crowded life included the Ohio legislature; directorship of the People's institute of Cooper union and appointment as United States commissioner at the port of New York during the war years
"The chapters on the writer's life in Cleveland, Woodrow Wilson, and the conditions at Ellis island are written with particular zest, but the work as a whole is extremely stimulating and there are many swiftly-drawn but enlightening portraits of his contemporaries, liberal and otherwise." Cleveland

Howe, Mrs Julia (Ward) 1819-1910
Richards, Mrs Laura Elizabeth (Howe) 1850- and Elliott, Mrs Maud (Howe) 1854- Julia Ward Howe, 1819-1910; assisted by F. H. Hall; with portraits and other illus. Houghton 1925 457p front $5 92

[16-694]

First published, 1915, in two volumes. The 1925 edition has been revised and condensed into one volume
"Mrs Howe's daughters have wisely made of their two volumes practically an autobiographical record of their mother's life. . . We have the story of her wonderful years told mainly by herself through the medium of letters or of intimate recollections from her birth in 1819 until her death in 1910. It is a story of infinite appeal." Boston Transcript
Pulitzer prize biography of 1917

Mrs. J. W. Howe's "Reminiscences, 1819-1899" (Houghton 1899 465p illus o.p. 1939) furnishes additional information on the life of this woman who was prominent in public affairs, in philanthropy, and in the world of letters

Hudson, Henry d. 1611
Powys, Llewelyn, 1884- Henry Hudson. Harper 1928 213p illus maps (Golden hind ser.) o.p. 1939 92

1 America—Discovery and exploration

28-5665

"A thrilling narration of Hudson's voyages on and exploration of the Hudson river and Hudson's Bay. The author describes how Hudson's last voyage ended tragically in mutiny and publishes for the first time a document, that he discovered, giving a report of the verdict at the trial of the mutineers." St Louis
"Mr. Powys is a little prone to underline the picturesque, and to pad his narrative with moralizing; but he has passages of admirable description, and is at his best, as he should be, in telling of the final tragedy of mutiny and desertion in Hudson's Bay, . . A word of thanks must be added for the clear sketch maps and the full bibliography." Nation and Athenaeum

Hudson, William Henry, 1841-1922
* Far away and long ago, a history of my early life. Dutton 1918 332p front $2, school ed $1 92

18-21021

"The romantic childhood of an English naturalist who was brought up on the Argentine pampas in the days of the tyrant

Hudson, William H.—Continued

Rosas. The grotesque natives, the plant and animal life, the picturesque squalor of Buenos Aires in the forties, and the English family in the midst of such unusual surroundings are exquisitely pictured." A. L. A. bkl.

"One is reluctant to apply to Mr Hudson's book those terms of praise which are bestowed upon literary and artistic merit, though needless to say it possesses both. One does not want to recommend it as a book so much as to greet it as a person, and not the clipped and imperfect person of ordinary autobiography, but the whole and complete person whom we meet rarely enough in life or in literature." Times (London) lit. sup.

Also available in a more expensive edition with wood-engravings by Eric Fitch Daglish and an introduction by R. B. Cunninghame Graham (Dutton 337p illus $3.75)

Hume, David, 1711-1776

Huxley, Thomas Henry, 1825-1895. Hume. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Hunt, Frazier, 1885-

One American and his attempt at education. Simon & Schuster 1938 400p $3 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-27076

"Hunt's war experiences and anecdotes of the great and near-great may make the most diverting reading, but what is intrinsically most appealing in his book . . . is his story of the first years of his life in the American Middle West. For it is the story, too, of the older, pre-Ford America. It is American history in miniature." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Hunt, Leigh, 1784-1859

Blunden, Edmund Charles, 1896- Leigh Hunt and his circle. Harper 1930 402p illus o.p. 1939 92

30-30806

"Mr Blunden's directly written and carefully documented story of Leigh Hunt's life is in the nature of a sympathetic rehabilitation of a man who—said to be caricatured by Dickens in the person of Harold Skimpole of Bleak House—has also suffered at the hands of previous biographers. Thru the pages move also Hunt's acquaintances and famous friends—Lamb and Shelley, Byron, Keats and Hazlitt." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Blunden has spared no pains in research, and his new data, if not of capital importance, at least shows how thoroughly he has explored the ground. His book is as scholarly as it is charming and humane, and, with all the available facts clearly marshalled, it finally vindicates Hunt's reputation." Spectator

Leigh Hunt's "Autobiography; with an introduction by Edmund Blunden." (Oxford 572p 80c) in the World's classics series is a famous book which introduces many of the well-known figures of the nineteenth century

Hutchinson, Mrs Anne (Marbury) 1590?-1643

Rugg, Winnifred King. Unafraid; a life of Anne Hutchinson. Houghton 1930 263p front $3.50 92

30-4549

"Interesting biography of a social and religious leader in Puritan Boston which also presents portraits of the distinguished men with whom she came into conflict, and a picture of colonial life." Pratt quarterly

"Winnifred King Rugg's readable and comprehensive biography performs a great service to popular history. It is a painstaking and scholarly piece of research, and the material, which was difficult in itself—scanty in places where one might have hoped for profusion, biased and polemic where one might have hoped for impartiality—has been ably and judiciously handled." N.Y. Evening post

Works consulted: p255-57

Ibsen, Henrik, 1828-1906

Koht, Halvdan, 1873- Life of Ibsen; [tr. by R. L. MacMahon and H. A. Larsen] Norton 1931 2v illus $7.50 92

31-30347

A biography which gives a readable account of Ibsen's early life and takes up in turn each drama as it was written

"If you want a book of gay anecdote, leave this one alone. It is the study of a genius passionately wilful in the best sense, profoundly ethical, painfully truthful, and with a capacity for artistic concentration which remade the drama of the world. It is plainly written, fully documented where necessary, and without nonsense. It is written in the spirit in which Ibsen's plays are now acted, and the old Viking looms all the larger as a result." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Zucker, Adolf Eduard, 1890- Ibsen, the master builder. Holt 1929 312p illus $3.50 92

29-23918

"A thorough and conventional biography of the great Norwegian dramatist. Ibsen's boyhood, the years of poverty and revolt which contributed to the formation of his eccentric character, are emphasized. Discussions of the more important of his social plays and their public reception, and the Ibsen of later life in contrast to the Ibsen of early years, occupy much of the biographer's attention." Book rev. digest

"The shadings of the great Norwegian dramatist's personality are portrayed here through characteristic anecdotes supplied in the main by men and women who actually knew him. Since the emphasis is upon the man himself, his plays are discussed only as they throw light upon him. Illustrated from photographs and cartoons. Chronological table, bibliography, index of names, index of Ibsen's works." N.Y. libraries

Sir E. W. Gosse's "Ibsen" (Scribner 244p illus $2) first published 1908, is an appreciative study of Ibsen's genius

Inge, William Ralph, 1860-

Vale. Longmans 1934 126p $1.60 92

35-1184

"Dr. Inge's review of his life and works, which coincides with his departure from St. Paul's, gains added interest from his injunction, revealed in this book, that no memoir of him be published after his death. . . In this volume, so far as can be related by the chief person concerned, he tells of his childhood in Yorkshire, his days at Eton and Cambridge, the melancholy which assailed him as it assails so many of his intellectual peers, his teaching at Oxford, his parochial and decanal work in London, and above all those books which are his sure title to fame." Times (London) lit. sup.

"We find his style at its best, graceful, vigorous, epigrammatic, rising at times, as in the concluding passage, to a simple and moving eloquence which is beyond art." Spectator

Ingres, Jean Auguste Dominique, 1780-1867. See class 759.4

Inness, George, 1825-1894. See class 759.1

Irving, Washington, 1783-1859

Bowers, Claude Gernade, 1879- Spanish adventures of Washington Irving. Houghton 1940 306p illus $3 92

1 Spain—Court and courtiers 2 Spain—Description and travel 3 Spain—Foreign relations 4 Spain—Social life and customs 5 U.S.—Foreign relations
(W) 40-5769

This volume "is an attempt to re-create the Spain so loved by Washington Irving a century ago." Written by one who held the same position as that held by Irving almost 100 years previously—that of Ambassador to Spain

"In recreating his predecessor, Mr. Bowers has recaptured the flavor of the past and restored a Spain that has gone. He draws no moral; he merely tells his tale." Sat. rev. of lit.

Hellman, George Sidney, 1878- Washington Irving, esquire, ambassador at large from the New world to the old; illus. with old engravings; facsimiles of Irving's letters and manuscripts; and sketches of himself. Knopf 1925 355p illus o.p. 1939 92

25-9162

"In easy fashion Mr Hellman tells the story of the ambassador and man of letters, a story now enriched by . . . material from the Seligman and other collections of manuscripts. . . The most interesting part of this . . . life of Irving is the inclusion . . . of some forty pages of letters written by Washington Irving from Spain." Sat. rev. of lit.

P. M. Irving's "Life and letters of Washington Irving" (Putnam 3v o.p. 1939) is a carefully edited account of Irving's life told largely thru letters. First published 1862, but still a standard work

Warner, Charles Dudley, 1829-1900. Washington Irving. See entry under American men of letters 92 Series

Isabel I, queen of Spain, 1451-1504

Plunket, Irene Arthur Lifford, 1885- Isabel of Castile and the making of the Spanish nation, 1451-1504. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Walsh, William Thomas. Isabella of Spain, the last crusader. McBride 1930 515p illus map $5 92

30-32127

"This biography of Isabella of Spain shows her a great woman, as human as she was brave and noble, and emphasizes her importance as a fighter for Christian civilization in Europe. Mr Walsh who is a Catholic historian, takes issue on some points with Prescott and other modern historians." Book rev. digest

"No biography of this amazing woman could fail to be interesting. Mr. Walsh had studied the original authorities very closely; he tells many good stories; his descriptions are lively and vivid." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p485-87

W. T. Walsh's "Isabella the Crusader" (Sheed 1935 308p $2.50) is a condensation of his book entered above, without the illustrations, references or index of the larger edition

Isabella d'Este, consort of Giovanni Francesco II, marquis of Mantua, 1474-1539

Ady, Mrs Julia Mary (Cartwright) d. 1924. Isabella d'Este, marchioness of Mantua, 1474-1539; a study of the renaissance. new ed Dutton 1914 2v $8 92

1 Italy—History—To 1559 2 Renaissance
26-7692

"Isabella and Beatrice d'Este share with Elizabeth Gonzaga and Vittoria Colonna the fame of having been the most unusual and attractive princesses whom Italy could boast during the heyday of the renaissance. Of the four Isabella d'Este was the most successful in the eye of the world, and also, in her own right, by virtue of gifts and training, the most brilliant." Pittsburgh

"Gives a wide view of the history of the time." Spectator

List of chief authorities on life and times of Isabella d'Este: v 1, pref. p12-16

Isham, Samuel, 1855-1914. See class 759.1

Ishimoto, Shidzué (Hirota) baroness, 1897-

* Facing two ways; the story of my life. Farrar 1935 373p illus $2.50 92

1 Japan—Social life and customs 2 Woman—Rights of women 3 Women in Japan 35-14203

"Baroness Ishimoto's volume makes excellent reading throughout, presenting as it does the picture of a society 'facing two ways,' reaching back to the feudalism of old Japan and forward to the Western civilization of the present. As a document of woman's emergence from subjection it is of particular interest." Sat. rev. of lit.

Baroness Ishimoto's "East way, West way; a modern Japanese girlhood" (Farrar 1937 191p illus $1.75) (W) is the first part of her "Facing two ways" published separately for young people

Ivan IV, the Terrible, czar of Russia, 1524-1584

Graham, Stephen, 1884- Ivan the Terrible; life of Ivan IV of Russia. Yale univ. press 1933 335p illus $3 92

1 Russia—History 33-9571

"The weakness of the present book—and it is no fault of the author—is that Ivan remains a fantastic nightmare of a figure with whom human sympathy is so impossible that he never quite becomes real. . . Yet Mr. Graham keeps his sense of proportion and the book is not all horror. The volume is indispensable to all who would understand Russian history in the days of the first Tsars." Spectator

Bibliographical notes

Jackson, Andrew, president U.S. 1767-1845

* James, Marquis, 1891- Andrew Jackson, the border captain. Bobbs 1933 461p illus maps $3.50 92

1 New Orleans, Battle of, 1815 33-7933

"This biography covers the period from 1767 to 1821, from Jackson's birth to his retirement, as he thought, from public life. Much new material has been available to the author and the work is fully documented." Wis. bul.

"The book is more than a piece of brilliant writing. Mr. James confesses to a fondness for working with manuscripts, and his research in the manuscript field, as well as in that of printed sources, has been thorough. . . Taking the text and the notes together, we have in Mr. James's book a quite exceptionally notable piece of definitive historical biography." Sat. rev. of lit.

Bibliography: p419-24

Jackson, Andrew—Continued

* James, Marquis, 1891- Andrew Jackson, portrait of a president. Bobbs 1937 627p illus $4 92

(W) 37-28638

"Following the author's Andrew Jackson, the Border Captain this volume begins with the political campaign of 1824 and ends with the death of Jackson. It provides also a study of the background events of the Civil war. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Marquis James has demonstrated again the possibility of presenting good, sound history and biography in popular, attractive style. From his pages a living, breathing Jackson steps forth." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

* Johnson, Gerald White, 1890- Andrew Jackson; an epic in homespun. Putnam 1927 303p illus $1.50 92

27-21314

"In the main Mr. Johnson's narrative follows accepted lines . . . it is a question of the manner of telling, and in this regard Mr. Johnson proceeds with a vigor and spirit that are sure to hold the attention of the average reader and ought to give the book a considerable circulation and success. The narrative is well proportioned and adjusted." Gamaliel Bradford in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

J. S. Bassett's "Life of Andrew Jackson" (new ed Macmillan 1916 2v in 1 $5) is a scholarly and impartial biography of Jackson as a public character

Sumner, William Graham, 1840-1910. Andrew Jackson. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Jackson, Mrs Helen Maria (Fiske) Hunt, 1831-1885

Odell, Ruth. Helen Hunt Jackson. (H. H.) Appleton-Century 1939 326p illus $3 92

(W) 39-27395

The first full length biography of one of America's most controversial literary figures, famous especially for her novel, "Ramona"

"Miss Odell has worked at her task for a long time, consulting members of the Jaskson, Hunt, and Fiske families and survivor's among Mrs Jackson's friends and literary associates, until, with notes and bibliography, the book becomes an impressive piece of documentation. . . Fortunately Miss Odell's style is easy enough and her tone light enough to keep the product of her research from being dull." Christian science monitor

Bibliography: p249-314

Jackson, Thomas Jonathan, 1824-1863

Tate, Allen, 1899- Stonewall Jackson, the good soldier; a narrative. Putnam 1928 322p illus maps $1.50 92

28-12052

"This short biography of the great Confederate general is a military life with just enough personal background to round out the picture." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

"An eminently fair and readable book. . . . Mr. Tate, who is a Southerner, does not try to gloss over any of the mistakes of Jackson . . . but to show him whole." North American review

Bibliography: p321-22

G. F. R. Henderson's "Stonewall Jackson and the American Civil war" (Longmans 1936 737p illus maps $5) is an able study which describes in detail the strategy of the campaigns with which Jackson was associated

James, Alice, 1848-1892

Alice James; her brothers, her journal; ed. with an introduction by A. R. Burr. Dodd 1934 252p front $3 92

1 James, Henry, 1843-1916 2 James, William, 1842-1910 3 James family

34-13412

"About one-third of the book consists of biography of the James family from 1859 to the death of Alice, sister of William and Henry James, in 1892. The Journal of Alice James was written in England during the last four years of her life." Boston

"Full as this journal is of the comments of an extraordinarily receptive and interesting personality, the thing itself is a delight because of the manner in which it is written. We cannot wonder that Henry James said of the journal, 'It is heroic in its individuality, its independence, its face-to-face with the universe for and by herself' . . . and the beauty and eloquence with which she often expresses this, let alone the rich irony and humor, constitute a new claim for family renown." Boston Transcript

James, Henry, 1843-1916

A small boy and others. Scribner 1913 419p front o.p. 1939 92

13-7116

"Starting avowedly with the purpose of placing together some particulars of the early life of William James, the writer soon found his own boyish figure so unavoidably in the foreground that he gave up the attempt to sketch his brother's life and confines himself chiefly to the memories and impressions of his own boyhood viewed thru an intervening medium of fifty years and more. The most vital part of the world he reconstructs is a New York now vanished. Later the background is changed to London and then to France, which he sees with the glamor of childhood. The book is written in his best and most characteristic manner." Pittsburgh

Henry James's "Letters" selected and edited by Percy Lubbock (Scribner 1920 2v o.p. 1939) written to distinguished relatives and friends from his twenty-sixth to his seventy-second year, contains additional revelations of the author's life and thought

Brooks, Van Wyck, 1886- Pilgrimage of Henry James. Dutton 1925 170p $2.50 92

25-7502

"Searching analysis of the spirit, temperament, and literary work of a 'homeless man.' Written with psychological and critical acumen, and a facile style." N.Y. state lib.

James, Will, 1892-

* Lone cowboy; my life story. Scribner 1930 431p illus $2.75 92

1 Cowboys 30-20657

"Here Mr. James tells the story of his birth and early years, and of the Western plains as he knew them in his cowboy days. The style of writing and illustration is that of his earlier books." Pittsburgh

"One gets from him the 'feel' of desert and prairie as many men must have experienced it, but as very few indeed have been able to express it. The result is a book to treasure and to return to whenever one wishes to be convinced all over again that there are open spaces and that in those open spaces men are men." N.Y. Times

James, Will—Continued

James, William, 1842-1910
Letters; ed. by his son, Henry James. Little 1920 2v in 1 illus $7.50 92

26-27676

"Reveals the intimate human side of one of America's foremost philosophers and teachers. Forms an interesting companion volume to the Letters of Henry James [noted above]" Wis. bul.

"The book, although carrying the reader on with great speed and perhaps leaving him tired, cannot help but make for a definite and lasting satisfaction." Bookman

R. B. Perry's "Thought and character of William James, as revealed in unpublished correspondence and notes, together with his published writings" (Little 1935 2v $10) is a monumental work including many letters not found in former volumes of his correspondence. This skillful piece of editing won the Pulitzer prize for biography in 1936

Jay, John, 1745-1829
Pellew, George, 1859-1892. John Jay. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Jefferson, Joseph, 1829-1905
Autobiography. Century 1890 501p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 4-17107

As we follow the adventures of the actor, we meet with quaint characters, we hear good stories, we learn much about the art of acting, we have many portraits of prominent actors and actresses of the past, and we find ourselves drawn more and more to the author as he stands revealed to us in his own pages. . . Mr Jefferson's style is easy and flowing; . . . It has the cadence and the color of good dramatic writing, with a charm which seems to be his own. Condensed from Nation

Jefferson, Thomas, president U.S. 1743-1826
Autobiography of Thomas Jefferson, 1743-1790; together with a summary of the chief events in Jefferson's life; an introduction and notes by P. L. Ford, and a foreword by G. H. Putnam. new ed Putnam 1914 162p front o.p. 1939 92

14-13437

"An autobiography of Jefferson which was begun in 1821, during Jefferson's seventy-seventh year, and is brought down only to 1790, leaving out the period from 1790-1826. The value of the sketch lies mainly in the activities leading up to the Revolution in which Jefferson's leadership was important." Book rev. digest

Correspondence of John Adams and Thomas Jefferson. See entry under Adams, John, president U.S. and Jefferson, Thomas, president U.S.

* Adams, James Truslow, 1878- The living Jefferson. Scribner 1936 403p $3 92

36-27203

"Mr Adams's approach to Jefferson combines the interest of the historian and biographer and the zeal of a political pamphleteer. . . [He] undertakes to show the origin and nature of Jefferson's political ideas and the extent to which he applied them in his public life, and to contrast them with the ideas which Hamilton, in particular, espoused. . . Mr. Adams devotes his final chapter to a withering attack on President Roosevelt and the New Deal." N.Y. Times

Chinard, Gilbert, 1881- Thomas Jefferson, the apostle of Americanism. 2d ed rev Little 1939 548p illus $5 92

39-29862

First published 1929. The second edition contains corrections of several errors of facts and interpretation made in the earlier publication. The author has also taken into consideration "the constructive criticism of several reviewers and have pursued my study of Jefferson and contrasted him with John Adams." Introduction

"His book on Jefferson is a long mental biography and a good one. Without using any of the tricks of modern psychological life-writing, he has penetrated into the very essence of Jefferson's thinking. . . It may not be a formal biography, but it is a complete picture of the thinking Jefferson, and Jefferson was a thinker rather than a doer." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Morse, John Torrey, 1840-1937. Thomas Jefferson. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Nock, Albert Jay. Jefferson. Harcourt 1926 340p illus o.p. 1939 92

26-13101

"The author says of his book that it 'is not meant to be a biography of Mr Jefferson or to take the place of one. It is a mere study—a study in conduct and character.' This conduct and character emerge singularly blameless from Mr Nock's wholly detached and searching study which succeeds also in showing the extraordinary variety of Jefferson's interests and attainments." Book rev. digest

"Jefferson as a philosopher and man of culture—rich in experience, rich in curiosity, of an intellectual and moral symmetry and a social vision far beyond the apprehension of the age in which he flourished. That, as it seems to me, is Mr Nock's true thesis; and the originality of his book results from his altogether charming and convincing development of it." Stuart Sherman in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

F. W. Hirst's "Life and letters of Thomas Jefferson" (Macmillan 1926 588p illus map $6) is a scholarly and human portrayal, written by an Englishman

Jenghis Khan, 1162-1227
Fox, Ralph Winston, 1900-1937. Genghis Khan. . . Lane 1936 285p illus maps 6s 92

1 Mongols—History 36-9832

Formerly carried also by Harcourt

"Based largely on the short life by Professor Vladimirtsof, of which Messrs. Routledge published a translation in 1930. But Mr. Fox has the advantage of his master in imagination, in style and in a rich experience of life in Central Asia. . . He has written a most absorbing and remarkable biography." New statesman and Nation

Jenghis Khan—Continued

* Lamb, Harold, 1892- Genghis Khan, the emperor of all men. Garden City pub. co. 270p illus maps (Star bks.) $1 92

1 Mongols—History [27-20942]

Reprint of a book published 1927 by McBride

"An account of the rise and conquests of this master strategist who marched his army across Tibet, over the Pamirs, through Afghanistan, Turkestan, Persia, Armenia, across Russia and into Poland and Hungary. This march has been acknowledged the greatest military feat in all history." N.Y. Times

"Mr. Lamb has done a service to his generation. He has brought to life in the pages of a thoroughly readable book the career of a warrior whose place in history has been thus far fixed for us by the hostile accounts of three great groups of enemies whom he overthrew—Chinese, Arabic-Persian, and European." Sat. rev. of lit.

Bibliography: p247-57

Jensen, Carl Christian, 1888-

An American saga. Little 1927 219p front $2.50 92

27-8039

"Under the title 'A saga of today' this remarkable story of Mr Jensen's life appeared in the Atlantic Monthly beginning with the October, 1926 issue. His childhood in Denmark, his arrival in America a youth of 18 with little schooling save that of experience, the introduction to books, to night school and college, marriage and the writing of this book,—all of these experiences were eagerly embraced in their turn, and are as vividly relived in these pages." Book rev. digest

"It is intensely vivid, at times thrilling, at others inspiring, at all times interesting." Independent

Jewett, Sarah Orne, 1849-1909

Matthiessen, Francis Otto, 1902- Sarah Orne Jewett. Houghton 1929 159p illus $3 92

29-9532

"Sketches charmingly Sarah Orne Jewett's way of life from childhood on, and appraises with critical discernment her stories which 'caught the flavor not only of the birches, but of the salt marshes, the roadside chicory and Queen Anne's lace.' Photographs." N.Y. libraries

S. O. Jewett's "Letters" ed. by Annie Fields (Houghton 1911 259p illus o.p. 1939) contain many interesting sidelights on the literature and writers of the middle of the nineteenth century

Joan of Arc, Saint, 1412-1431

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Joan of Arc. Little 1929 127p $1.75 92

[29-26890]

"The Catholic essayist and novelist tells the story of the Maid of Orleans with simplicity and charm. A contribution to the celebration of the five-hundredth anniversary of the relief of Orleans." Cleveland

"We feel sure Mr. Belloc enjoyed writing this story, and we feel equally sure that many people will enjoy reading it. Mr. Belloc's Joan of Arc is not so vivid or detailed a picture as Mr. Bernard Shaw's Saint Joan—it has been drawn with few but accurate lines—but it is certainly as moving." Spectator

Lang, Andrew, 1844-1912. Maid of France; being the story of the life and death of Jeanne d'Arc. new ed Longmans 1913 352p maps $3 92

[9-8027]

"Mr. Lang's own conception of Jeanne is very simple and uncompromising: she was gifted with 'genius which should be the marvel of the world while the world stands'; she was not only brave, saintly and a natural leader of men, but of a high intelligence. . . . He will have nothing to do with the theory of clerical inspiration; he holds that . . . she was as far as possible from the ordinary type of the mystic or hysteric." Nation

Paine, Albert Bigelow, 1861-1937. Joan of Arc, maid of France. Macmillan 1925 2v illus $10.50 92

25-21144

"Based on a study of official documents, letters, and contemporary chronicles from which the author quotes at length without any attempt at original interpretations. The episodes are supplemented with full description of such localities and landmarks as may be still identified. Well illustrated." Pittsburgh

Authorities consulted: v2, p359

A. B. Paine has prepared an edition for younger readers published under the title "Girl in white armor; the true story of Joan of Arc" (Macmillan 1927 312p illus maps $1.50). It may also interest some older readers who do not care for the longer biography

Sackville-West, Victoria Mary, 1892- Saint Joan of Arc. . . Doubleday 1936 395p illus map o.p. 1939 92

36-21818

"The author has attempted, by assembling in a straightforward narrative the well known facts of Joan's career, to come to some solution of the mystery of the Voices, the miracles and the power of the Maid. In her conclusion she admits defeat, torn between instinct and reason, resting in a belief that some day science may find an explanation." Book rev. digest

"Sensible and sympathetic biography. . . Miss Sackville-West has taken a careful middle course between skepticism and credulity and, in reducing the complicated history of the period to its main factors, keeps the reader's eye with steady pleasure on the main character." Christian science monitor

Johnson, Andrew, president U.S. 1808-1875

Milton, George Fort, 1894- Age of hate; Andrew Johnson and the radicals. Coward-McCann 1930 787p illus $5 92

1 U.S.—Politics and government—1865-1898 30-31349

"The unfortunate President is the central figure, but he does not dominate the book. His chapters are successive scenes in a drama of political intrigue. His actors are debauched with vindictiveness and partisanship. From time to time the reader catches a glimpse of Johnson. Milton's treatment of him is frankly defensive, but the final estimate seems balanced and fair." Yale review

List of authorities consulted: p677-83

Winston, Robert Watson, 1860- Andrew Johnson, plebeian and patriot. Holt 1928 549p illus maps $3 92

28-7534

"A new appraisal and rehabilitation of the combative ex-tailor who succeeded to one of the hardest tasks set any President

Johnson, Andrew—Continued
—that of reconstruction after the Civil War, and who was impeached and tried under the Tenure of Office Act which the Supreme Court has now declared unconstitutional." Cleveland

"This is a readable book for the layman, and of value to the historian because most of its source material is original." North American review
Bibliography: p529-40

L. P. Stryker's "Andrew Johnson; a study in courage" (Macmillan 1929 881p illus $4) is probably the most complete account of Johnson's administration. A good biography, tho somewhat biased in the author's efforts to vindicate the President's policy

Johnson, Mrs Anna (French) 1869-
Making of a minister's wife. Appleton-Century 1939 268p illus $2.50 92

(W) 39-20407

"A self-portrayal of a resourceful woman, who has faced the hardships and the joys of rearing a family on a small income. . . [She] married a young Illinois farmer who became a minister, and shared his experiences as a pastor in Illinois and Wisconsin and as a missionary in South Dakota. She has lived in thirty-one different houses during the course of her life." Religious bk. club bul.

"Mrs. Johnson has no literary style, and pretends to none. Her narrative is chatty, informal, episodic, wholesomely sentimental." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Johnson, James Weldon, 1871-1938
* Along this way. Viking 1933 418p illus $3.50 92

33-29189

"Civilized in temper, ironical, urbane, deft and reflective. Mr. Johnson speaks plainly when plain speech is demanded by his theme, but he knows that the facts are louder than any outcry about them. And if fate has made him seldom able to forget that he is a Negro, nature has made him always able to remember that he is a man . . . He has had exceptional experiences, but he narrates them without self-consciousness. He is a story teller worthy of his story." Carl Van Doren in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Johnson, Martin Elmer, 1884-1937
Johnson, Mrs Osa Helen (Leighty) 1894- I married adventure. See entry under Johnson, Mrs O. H. L.

Johnson, Mrs Osa Helen (Leighty) 1894-
‡ I married adventure; the lives and adventures of Martin and Osa Johnson. . . Lippincott 1940 376p illus $3.50 92

1 Africa—Description and travel 2 Johnson, Martin Elmer, 1884-1937 3 Photography of animals (W) 40-5007

The lives of Martin and Osa Johnson who for 20 years faced life and adventure in dangerous jungles in all corners of the world

"A pleasant, forthright, occasionally exciting book." New Yorker

Johnson, Samuel, 1709-1784
‡ Boswell, James, 1740-1795. Everybody's Boswell; being The life of Samuel Johnson abridged from James Boswell's complete text, and from the "Tour to the Hebrides" illus. by E. H. Shepard. Bell, G. 1930 xx,609p illus 10s 6d 92

1 Hebrides—Description and travel 2 Scotland—Description and travel
31-129

Formerly carried also by Harcourt
In this abridgment the editor has shortened the complete text but no important incident has been omitted

"No harm is done to Boswell or to Johnson, for the whole work has been subjected not to arbitrary cutting, but to a uniform reduction: the cow, in Johnson's own metaphor, has become a calf, but a calf retains in proportion all the features of the grown animal. Everybody, therefore, may be quite sure that he is being honestly treated, and that here is no arbitrary fragment of Johnson, but the representative man." Times (London) lit. sup.

Another abridgment also entitled "Everybody's Boswell" has been made by Archibald Marshall (Dodd 1929 343p front $2.50) It cuts out about six-sevenths of the original while attempting to preserve the proportion of the complete biography

Boswell, James, 1740-1795. Life of Samuel Johnson. Macmillan 1912 3v ea $3 92

[23-14048]

First published in 1791
This edition is reprinted from that prepared by Mr Mowbray Morris for Macmillan's Globe series in 1893

"The most famous biography in the English language. It is an intimate and minute delineation of the great lexicographer's life, character and person, enlivened with small talk, gossip and bits of familiar correspondence. It is also an admirable portrayal of the society of which Johnson was the outstanding figure." Pratt alcove

Other editions are:

Oxford 4v $28 Edited by G. B. Hill revised and enlarged by L. E. Powell. A revision of the famous Hill edition first published 1887. Two additional volumes will be published containing Boswell's "Journey to the Hebrides," Johnson's "Diary of a journey into North Wales," and an index. Pagination of the new edition corresponds with the 1887 edition so that all references to volume and page are still valid for the new edition

Oxford 2v in 1 $2.25 Complete edition in the Oxford standard edition with introduction by C. B. Tinker

Modern lib. $1.25 Complete edition in the Modern library giants

Stephen, Sir Leslie, 1832-1904. Johnson. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Jonson, Ben, 1573?-1637
Smith, George Gregory, 1865- Ben Jonson. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Joyce, James, 1882-
Gorman, Herbert Sherman, 1893- James Joyce. . . Farrar 1939 358p illus $3.50 92

(W) 40-27146

The author spent much time with Joyce and had access to all private papers. Many unpublished squibs, verses and satires are included

Joyce, James—Continued

"It records a still unfinished life. It contains little or no formal criticism of Joyce's work, and makes no pretensions to doing so. . . Mr. Gorman writes earnestly rather than brilliantly and there are no intuitive flashes that might reveal Joyce from the inside, but his story is as solid an exterior biography as we have a right to expect." New Yorker

Kagawa, Toyohiko, 1888-

Axling, William, 1873- Kagawa. Harper 1932 202p illus $1 92

32-19050

"A biography by an intimate friend of this Japanese Christian social worker, fighting pacifist, labor leader, mystic, poet, and writer of best-selling fiction." Book rev. digest

Kang, Younghill, 1903-

East goes west. Scribner 1937 401p $2.75 92

37-28619

"In 'The grass roof' [entered below] Younghill Kang told of his boyhood in Korea. The present book carries on the story after his arrivel in New York, at the age of eighteen, 'green with youth,' and filled with ambitions and dreams. Chinatown, Harlem and Greenwich Village, a provincial college in Nova Scotia, Boston and Cambridge enter into the picture. Friendships with fellow Koreans, other Orientals, and Americans are part of the story, which is always absorbing, with a particular appeal to the cultured readers." Wis. bul.

* Grass roof. Scribner 1931 367p $3 92

1 Korea—Social life and customs

31-26699

"Mr. Younghill Kang is a devoted son of Korea who when a boy of twelve traveled as a stowaway to Japan in search of education; there he remained for four years, and after his return to his own Korean village attended a mission school in order to learn English. After many adventures he came to America. . . 'Grass Roof' is, as he says, 'the human story of one man'; told sincerely and frankly with a wealth of detail which makes a picture both vivid and moving." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Younghill Kang's "Happy grove" (Scribner 1933 326p illus $2) is the story of his childhood in Korea taken from the "Grass roof" but rewritten to make an appeal to younger readers. Many new poems have been inserted. Well illustrated

Karsavina, Tamara

Theatre street; the reminiscences of Tamara Karsavina; with a foreword by J. M. Barrie. Dutton 1931 341p illus $2 92

1 Ballet 31-3593

"The autobiographical memoirs of the famous Russian ballet dancer, in which readers find reflected the rare modesty and charm of Tamara Karsavina herself. She tells of her early home life, her dancing lessons, the training years in the ballet school on Theatre Street, St Petersburg and her debut, and relates many anecdotes concerning the artistic celebrities she knew while on tour thru most of the capitals of Europe." Book rev. digest

"Her absorption in her subject, her affectionate references to teachers and fellow artists, and the memories of delight that she arouses in the hearts of those who remember the glories of those first Diaghileff seasons make this a notable and enchanting book." Times (London) lit. sup.

Keats, John, 1795-1821

Colvin, Sir Sidney, 1845-1927. John Keats; his life and poetry, his friends, critics and after-fame. [3d ed] Scribner 1925 xxii,600p illus $7.50 92

26-6386

"Apart from matters of fresh information since the book was first published [in 1917] I hope to have improved it by a certain number of stitches put in and changes made for the sake of clearer, more exact and orderly statement." Preface to third edition

"Full-length portrait, complete, detailed, and authoritative. . . It is a notable and distinguished piece of biographical writing that is worthy to be classed among the great biographies of English literature." N.Y. Times

Some material from Colvin's smaller book on Keats in the English men of letters series has been incorporated in this biography

Colvin, Sir Sidney, 1845-1927. Keats. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Hewlett, Dorothy. Adonais, a life of John Keats. Bobbs 1938 415p illus $3.50 92

(W) 38-7090

"This new full-length biography of Keats takes into account new editions of the poems, fresh critical appraisals, further material about his friends, several new letters, and contains special studies of some periods of his life. The bibliography contains many publications since Miss Lowell's biography of 1925." Book rev. digest

"Competently and unassumingly written, remarkably thorough . . . it is likely that it will take up a permanent position on the right hand of Sir Sidney Colvin's delightful work." Sat. rev. of lit.

Lowell, Amy, 1874-1925. John Keats. Houghton 2v in 1 $5 92

25-4305

Originally published in 1925 in two volumes

"Miss Lowell's interpretation of Keats's character is clear cut, subtle and convincing. A few of Miss Lowell's opinions are challenging. But even when she fails to carry complete assent to her opinions she is suggestive in the extreme; and I wish to take leave of her biography on no note of disagreement but to salute it in all admiration as a masterly piece of work." S. C. Chew in North American review

C. A. Brown's "Life of John Keats; ed. by D. H. Bodurtha and W. B. Pope" (Oxford 1937 129p $2) is a hitherto unpublished memoir written by Keats' closest friend. All his biographers have been indebted to this manuscript

Keller, Helen Adams, 1880-

Helen Keller's journal, 1936-1937. Doubleday 1938 313p $2.50 92

(W) 38-27235

The journal kept by Miss Keller in the months following the death of her teacher and life-long companion, Anne Sullivan Macy, records her readjustment to life without her friend, travel at home and abroad, and work for the blind

"A most revealing document, a vivid expression of the inmost heart and mind of this world-known figure. . . It is impossible to read this book without feeling humble, once more astonished at the triumph of the human spirit." Times (London) lit. sup.

Keller, Helen A.—Continued

* Midstream; my later life. Sun dial xxiii,362p front 79c 92

37-35168

Reprint of a book first published 1929 by Doubleday

"The years since the author's 'Story of my life' was written pass in review in this new volume, with many a glance back into the earlier years as well. Miss Keller dwells upon her perplexities in finding a 'special niche' in life, upon pecuniary difficulties, her ventures in lecturing, in vaudeville and the movies, upon a love affair and her many friendships, upon her ways of contact with the world about her. The fortitude and unwavering faith here displayed arouse sympathy and admiration. Photographs, index." N.Y. libraries

‡ Story of my life; with letters (1887-1901) and a supplementary account of her education, including passages from the reports and letters of her teacher, A. M. Sullivan, by J. A. Macy. Doubleday 1903 441p illus $2 92

3-7188

Also obtainable in the Riverside literature series (Houghton 60c)

"The book is indeed unique. The story itself and the years of effort which have made its telling possible, the personality which it reveals, and the creation of that personality,—these are things which seem little short of miraculous. The narrative of a young woman who has been deaf and blind from infancy is written in a style which is not only idiomatic, but individual and rhythmical." Condensed from Atlantic monthly

Kelley, Francis Clement, bp. 1870-

Bishop jots it down; an autobiographical strain on memories. Harper 1939 333p illus $3 92

39-27547

"There is much humor as well as humanity in these recollections of a Catholic bishop. Born on Prince Edward Island, he is now Bishop of Oklahoma City and Tulsa. Between there lay a long road of interesting and varied experiences. A book for readers of all faiths to enjoy." Wis. bul.

Kelly, Mrs Florence (Finch) 1848-

Flowing stream; the story of fifty-six years in American newspaper life. Dutton 1939 571p front $3.75 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27667

After describing her childhood on an Illinois farm during the Civil War and later on a farm in Kansas, the author writes of her newspaper career in many parts of the United States. The last thirty years of her journalistic career were spent on the staff of the New York Times

"Not only a vivid human document, but an inside story of American newspaper work and women's part in it during the epoch that began with the Civil War and ended with the World War. . . The criticism in these chapters is that of a wise and intelligent woman, who has looked on the world with kindness and understanding, and whose life has been crammed as full of activity as it is possible for any woman's life to be." Sat. rev. of lit.

Kemble, Frances Anne, 1809-1893

* Armstrong, Margaret Neilson, 1867- Fanny Kemble, a passionate Victorian. Macmillan 1938 387p front $3 92

(W) 38-27492

"A study of the life, in England and America, of the great English actress, who married an American and lived for some time on a Georgia plantation. Her long life from 1809 to 1893 covered the whole Victorian era, and her circle included almost every well-known figure of the day." Library journal

"Here is a romantic life, relieved from the sensational by the subject's nobility of character and a mind of uncommon order. Miss Armstrong has dealt sympathetically with her heroine, making her glamorous, winning and vital." N.Y. Times

Bobbé, Mrs Dorothie (De Bear) Fanny Kemble. Putnam 1931 351p illus $5 92

[31-28143]

"The life of this famous and extraordinary actress of other days, telling of the years in England and America, and of her hosts of famous friends. Written in an easy flowing style and quoting largely from her journals, it gives the reader in no small measure a feeling for her vivacity and charm." Providence

Kipling, Rudyard, 1865-1936

‡ Something of myself for my friends, known and unknown. Doubleday 1937 252p illus $2.50 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 37-27164

"Intensely readable, brilliant, compact and rapid, this is, essentially, the story of an education and what came of the education. It takes us into the workshop as few writers have been able to do, and shows us how certain things were made. But much of the man the man has kept for himself." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

G. C. Beresford's "Schooldays with Kipling" (Putnam 1936 270p illus $3) is an amusing account of his early life, written by the original of M'Turk of "Stalky and co."

Knight, Dame Laura (Johnson) See class 759.2

Kramer, Arthur Walter, 1890- See class 780.92

Krasińska, Franciszka, consort of Charles, duke of Courland, 1743-1796

Hofmanowa, Klementyna (Tańska) 1798-1845. Girl who would be queen; the story and the diary of the young Countess Krasinska, by E. P. Kelly and Clara Hoffmanowa; decorations by Vera Bock. McClurg 1939 201p illus $2 92

1 Courts and courtiers 2 Poland—History (W) 39-27806

"In this story of the lovely and daring girl, Françoise, I have added somewhat to her tale as first written by Madame Hoffmanowa. The Journal, as it is published here, is just as Madame Hoffmanowa wrote it years ago. . . The backgrounds, incidents, dress, and customs of which I have written, have come from considerable research." E. P. Kelly

"Gives with charming naïveté, a picturesque account of high life in Poland at the middle of the [18th] century. . . The countess writes with all the vivacity of a girl who does not suspect that the glamour will pass, but withal she has very keen eyes, that see just those details which posterity is most interested in and rarely finds in formal histories." Nation

Kroll, Harry Harrison

I was a share-cropper. Bobbs 1937 327p front $2.75 92

(W) 37-28728

"The author's story of his own life as a share cropper's son, recalling vividly childhood scenes and impressions, and recounting the slow climb upward, by means of photography, rural school teaching and study, to a position of dignity and security as a novelist and magazine writer. As readable as fiction, with wide popular appeal." Wis. bul.

Kropotkin, Petr Alekseevich, knîaź, 1842-1921

Memoirs of a revolutionist. Houghton 502p (Riverside lib.) $1 92

1 Anarchism and anarchists 2 Russia—Politics and government O-154

Reprint of a book first published in 1899. Appeared in the Atlantic monthly, September 1898 to September 1899, under title "The autobiography of a revolutionist"

"Kropotkin's story is a singularly rich, diversified, and romantic one, and it is attractively told. . . . The book abounds in instructive pictures of Russian life and character, done with unconscious art." Dial

Kuhn, Mrs Irene (Corbally)

Assigned to adventure. Lippincott 1938 431p $3 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-27131

"The breezy autobiography of a self-made woman journalist, filled with fresh impressions and commentary, much rigorous determination and action, and accounts of many varied contacts in foreign lands. To be read not for interpretations of contemporary events or problems, but as a diverting personal story." Bkl.

La Farge, John. See class 759.1

Lafayette, Marie Joseph Paul Roch Yves Gilbert de Motier, marquis de, 1757-1834

Sedgwick, Henry Dwight, 1861- La Fayette. Bobbs 1928 433p illus map o.p. 1939 92

28-9567

"He rehearses with detailed care, and in a style which the events themselves, rather than any notable literary skill or grace, make interesting and at times vivid, the well-known story of Lafayette's life in its three important episodes—the years of youthful adventuring in America, the stirring times of the French Revolution . . . and the revolution of 1830." Sat. rev. of lit.

"An impartial . . . biography which shows us the whole man and the relative importance of his American experience in his long life and his equally long fight for liberty." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Bibliography: p421-24

Brand Whitlock's "La Fayette" (Appleton-Century 1929 2v $10) is a fine example of historical and personal biography based on sound scholarship

Woodward, William E. 1874- Lafayette. Farrar 1938 472p illus $3.50 92

(W) 38-28931

In this biography of Lafayette particular stress is laid upon his part in the French revolution and upon later events not so well known to Americans

"The opening chapters, the best in the book, bring vividly to life the young Lafayette whom Washington knew and loved. . . . The justification of this book is its entertainment value. To charge Mr. Woodward with failure to add to the sum of historical information on his subject is beside the point: such was not his intention." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Lafitte, Jean, 1780?-1825?

Saxon, Lyle, 1891- Lafitte, the pirate; illus. by E. H. Suydam. Appleton-Century 1930 307p illus $5 92

1 Louisiana—History 2 New Orleans—History 30-30335

"The biography of Jean Lafitte, blacksmith of New Orleans and gentleman pirate. With his brother Pierre he was the leader of a gang of outlaws and smugglers, who gave able assistance to the government in the War of 1812, and as a reward both the Lafittes and their followers earned political forgiveness. The book is based on contemporary letters, documents and newspapers." Book rev. digest

"The book is written in a spirited and readable fashion and is illustrated with the delightful drawings of E. H. Suydam." Outlook

Lagerlöf, Selma Ottiliana Lovisa, 1858-1940

Diary of Selma Lagerlöf; tr. by V. S. Howard; illus. by Johan Bull. Doubleday 1936 240p illus $2.50 92

(W) 36-30959

"The concluding volume of the trilogy concerning the childhood life of Selma Lagerlöf, of which 'Mårbacka,' and 'Memories of My Childhood' were the others. This diary, written when she was fourteen, covers a winter's stay in Stockholm, where she visited an aunt and uncle in order to have treatments for her lameness." Book rev. digest

"It is a candid journal of events and of the writer's thoughts, grave, eager, and sincere, laden with unconscious humor and revealing with clarity the aspirations and disappointments which were of such great importance to its writer at that time." Ontario library review

* Mårbacka; tr. from the Swedish by V. S. Howard. Doubleday 1924 288p $2.50 92

24-22474

"Memories of the Swedish novelist's childhood at Mårbacka, her ancestral home, together with the traditions of her family and neighborhood. Not only is the story told with simplicity and a delicate grace, but the characters are portrayed with such skill that little Selma herself, her devoted old nurse and her breezy father stand forth in the brilliant outlines of reality." N.Y. state lib.

Memories of my childhood; further years at Mårbacka; tr. by V. S. Howard. Doubleday 1934 290p illus $2.50 92

34-27093

This continuation of "Mårbacka" begins with the author's return from school in Stockholm at the age of ten

"Because it is more personal, 'Memories of My Childhood' is an even more touching and captivating book than 'Mårbacka' . . .This autobiography is not only a record but a recapturing of childhood itself —creation of the same order as the author's stories of others. It has the mingling of fact and fantasy that is the essence of her writings—the eagerness, sensitiveness and wise naïveté that the child never lost. It is, in short, a wholly delightful book." Books (N.Y. Herald-Tribune)

Lagerlöf, Selma O. L.—Continued

Two additional books of information on this author are:

Lagerlöf, S. O. L. Harvest; tr. by Florence and Naboth Hedin. Doubleday 1935 294p o.p. 1939 Contains notes on the author's early reading, on Swedish and Biblical legends, travel sketches and four addresses

Larsen, H. A. Selma Lagerlöf. Doubleday 1936 117p illus $1.50 A brief, friendly biography with some criticism of her work

Lamb, Lady Caroline (Ponsonby) 1785-1828
Cecil, Lord Edward Christian David, 1902- Young Melbourne and the story of his marriage with Caroline Lamb. See entry under Melbourne, William Lamb, 2d viscount

Lamb, Charles, 1775-1834
Letters. Dutton 2v illus (Everyman's lib.) ea 90c 92

A10-2169

"As for Lamb, those who love him at all, love him so well that it matters little which of his letters they read, or how often they have read them before. Only it is best to select those written in the meridian of his life. The earlier ones are too painful, the later ones too sad. Let us take him at his happiest, and be happy with him for an hour." Agnes Repplier

Ainger, Alfred, 1837-1904. Lamb. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Blunden, Edmund Charles, 1896- Charles Lamb and his contemporaries. Macmillan 1933 215p (Clark lectures, 1932) $1.25 92

33-22695

"It needed a poet to appreciate and understand all the delicate tracery, the exquisite light and shade of Charles Lamb's character and charm, and he lives anew, with what Professor Saintsbury used to call 'his quaint, self-pleasing fancy,' in Mr. Blunden's prose which, without being in the least an imitation, is a marvellous interpretation of the real Elia in 20th century terms." Saturday rev.

Lucas, Edward Verrall, 1868-1938. Life of Charles Lamb. Methuen 1905 2v fronts 21s 92

W26-14

Formerly carried also by Putnam

"Enables the reader to obtain a completer picture of Charles Lamb than he can gain from any other source. Apart from its value as literature the book is a Lamb encyclopaedia which with its carefully compiled and accurate index and appendices forms a complete mine of information of every kind about the author." Saturday rev.

Landor, Walter Savage, 1775-1864
Colvin, Sir Sidney, 1845-1927. Landor. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Lane, Eastwood, 1886- See class 780.92

Lanier, Sidney, 1842-1881
Starke, Aubrey Harrison. Sidney Lanier; a biographical and critical study. Univ. of N.C. press 1933 525p illus $5 92

33-8097

"It is not only a poet of distinction, a musician, and a scholarly man of letters that Mr. Starke wishes to present here; he believes that this literary southerner, who lived from 1842-1881, is a national figure with an important message for the present period of economic and social unrest. New material which has become available since the publication in 1905 of Mims' 'Sidney Lanier' has been incorporated in this study. . . Much careful research, great enthusiasm for the subject, and an ability to write charmingly, as well as critically, have produced the most complete biography of Lanier yet written. A bibliography of Lanier's work, copious notes, and a good index." Bkl.

Larcom, Lucy, 1824-1893
A New England girlhood, outlined from memory. Houghton 1889 274p (Riverside literature scr.) 89c 92

1 New England—Social life and customs

4-4355

"New England poet's recollections of her childhood in a sea coast village and her young womanhood in a Lowell factory. Interesting contribution to New England social history." N.Y. state lib.

La Salle, Robert Cavelier, sieur de, 1643-1687
Jacks, Leo Vincent, 1896- La Salle. Scribner 1931 282p map $3 92

31-25246

"With the vividness and informality of a novel, we are told of the adventures and tragedy of La Salle, explorer of the Mississippi River. His birthplace, French Canada and the French and Indian inhabitants are all realistically depicted. Here is a first-class adventure story. The author has evidently used his sources with discretion, as witness the explanations in the appendix." Providence

Bibliography: p276-77

Lathrop, Julia Clifford, 1858-1932
Addams, Jane, 1860-1935. My friend, Julia Lathrop. Macmillan 1935 228p front $2.50 92

92 L354a

35-33985

"Julia Lathrop is best remembered by the public as the head of the Children's Bureau at Washington from 1912 to 1922. This biography, however, leaves the story of these years to be told by another hand, and covers her earlier years and the years when Miss Addams and Miss Lathrop worked together in Chicago and Illinois, with a final chapter on the last decade from 1922 to 1932. The work was found in manuscript but practically ready for publication, after Miss Addams' death." Book rev. digest

"Jane Addams collected every possible illustration of Julia Lathrop's individual qualities, those which made her Jule Lathrop and no one else. . . The result is an absorbingly interesting portrait." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Laughton, Charles, 1899-
Lanchester, Elsa, 1902- Charles Laughton and I. Harcourt 1938 269p illus $3.50 92

38-27869

"Because she has wit and a good memory, Miss Lanchester's account of her own childhood is the pleasantest section of this book. . . Critically, she has many interesting things to say about Mr. Laughton's method of working, and behind the surface of the 'prattle' it is easy to notice a deep and intelligent appreciation of the many important contributions her famous husband has made to the modern stage and screen." Times (London) lit. sup.

Lavery, Sir John, 1856- See class 759.2

Lawrence, David Herbert, 1885-1930
Lawrence, Mrs Frieda (von Richthofen) 1879- "Not I, but the wind. . ." Viking 1934 297p illus $2.75 92

[34-23828]

"Memories of the eighteen years of married life the author had with D. H. Lawrence, beginning with the brief, intense courtship which took Frieda away from her husband and children, and ending with Lawrence's death. The book contains also a number of unpublished letters written by Lawrence to his wife, her sister, and her mother, these last being the most important and numerous." Book rev. digest

"This book about D. H. Lawrence by his wife has the feeling of a postscript. It comes last, it is laconic and almost offhand and, like many postscripts, it turns out to contain the gist of the whole matter . . . We could do with much more of point and comment by Mrs. Lawrence. Her desire to be fair is unquestionable; her style has dignity and a completely aboveboard kind of directness. At times she singularly mingles trivial memories with important generalizations. But in the final chapter all these characteristics combine to produce one of the most moving narratives of death on record." New republic

D. H. Lawrence's "Letters" ed. by Aldous Huxley (Viking 1932 893p illus $3.75) furnish additional information on his life from 1910 to 1930

Lawrence, Thomas Edward, 1888-1935
Liddell Hart, Basil Henry, 1895- Colonel Lawrence, the man behind the legend. Dodd 1934 382p illus maps $3.75 92

1 European war, 1914-1918—Arabia

34-6056

Published in England with title: T. E. Lawrence in Arabia and after

"A study of the Arab revolt and Colonel Lawrence's share in it, giving a new interpretation of the Middle-East campaigns for Jerusalem and Damascus, and the major operations of the revolt. A few previously unpublished letters of Colonel Lawrence, written in war-time are included. Maps, diagrams and reproductions of war-time photographs." Ontario library review

"Liddell Hart's rather dazzling analysis of Lawrence as strategist and tactitian does not deaden the swift, steel-bright chronicle of the revolt. And, of course, no other book on Lawrence so completely fills in the mysterious decade he has just spent in the tank corps, the air corps and on other enterprises in lands that England sometimes rules." N.Y. Times

Robinson, Edward, 1897- Lawrence; the story of his life; with an introductory note by A. W. Lawrence. . . Oxford 1935 250p illus map $1.75 92

35-27441

"A short and extremely readable life of Lawrence which will make a fine foundation for the reading of Revolt in the Desert or The Seven Pillars of Wisdom by grown-ups as well as young people." Horn book

Three additional books which throw light on this complex personality are:

Graves, Robert. Lawrence and the Arabs. Cape, J. 1927 454p 4s 6d An interesting book based on Lawrence's "Seven pillars of wisdom" with added information and anecdotes from many sources. Formerly carried also by Doubleday

Lawrence, A. W. ed. T. E. Lawrence, by his friends. Doubleday 1937 538p illus $4 Frank and varied impressions

Lawrence, T. E. Letters of T. E. Lawrence, ed. by David Garnett. Doubleday 1939 896p illus maps $5 (W)

Lee, Robert Edward, 1807-1870
* Bradford, Gamaliel, 1863-1932. Lee the American. rev ed Houghton 1927 xxvi, 324p front (Riverside lib.) $1 92

27-11782

A corrected and cheaper edition of a book originally published in 1912. One portrait only

"Interesting and original. Not a conventional biography, but an enthusiastic and extremely careful study, based on authoritative sources, of various aspects of General Lee's character." N.Y. state lib.

Freeman, Douglas Southall, 1886- R. E. Lee; a biography. Scribner 1934-1935 4v ea $3.75 92

1 U.S.—History—Civil war—Campaigns and battles 34-33660

The official biography of Robert E. Lee based on exhaustive research, which won the Pulitzer prize 1935. Includes a critical bibliography of manuscript and printed sources

"No book can hereafter be expected which will so completely detail for us every act of Lee's, even the most apparently trivial. For all this precision and detail, it must not be supposed that Mr. Freeman has written a lifeless, pedestrian work. Far from it; his narrative has vitality and color, a sustained vividness. But it is never falsely dramatic or rhapsodic. His prose is firm and never tedious." N.Y. Times

Altho Freeman's work is the definitive life of Lee, some older biographies which are interesting and valuable are:

Brooks, W. E. Lee of Virginia; a biography. Bobbs 1932 361p illus o.p 1939 An adequate biography from a strictly Southern point of view

Lee, R. E. Recollections and letters of General Robert E. Lee, by his son; introduction by Gamaliel Bradford . . concluding with new and previously unpublished material gathered by Dr. W. T. Thom. Garden City pub. co. 1924 471p illus $1

Maurice, Sir F. B. Robert E. Lee, the soldier. Houghton 1925 313p illus maps o.p. 1939 A study of Lee's generalship by a British military authority

Page, T. N. Robert E. Lee, man and soldier. Scribner 1911 734p front maps $4.50 A sympathetic and readable account

Lee, Robert E.—Continued

Winston, Robert Watson, 1860- Robert E. Lee, a biography. Morrow 1934 428p illus maps $4 92

34-4693

Also obtainable from Grosset at $1

"Lee is presented here 'as cavalier, as soldier and as citizen,' in all his integrity and greatness of character, his kindliness, his love of family and friends, and his devoted service to the Confederate cause and to the rehabilitation of the South after the war. There are many quotations from letters and use has been made of hitherto unpublished material. Photographs, battle plans, [bibliography]." N.Y. libraries

Le Gallienne, Eva, 1899-

‡ At 33. Longmans 1934 262p illus $3.50 92

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 33-27487

"Miss Le Gallienne's chapters are written with an unction that proves contagious. They are modest, humorous, and honest. They bespeak the cultivation of her mind, the bravery of her spirit, and succeed in capturing vividly the excitement of the long series of theatrical events in which she has played a part and the quality of the various people (Duse, Bernhardt, Constance Collier, Elsie Janis, and the rest) who have figured in her career." Nation

Lehmann, Lotte, 1902- See class 780.92

Lenin, Vladimir, Il'ich, 1870-1924

Krupskaîa, Nadezhda Konstantinovna, 1869-1939. Memories of Lenin; tr. by E. Verney. Int. pub. 1930-33 2v ea $1.50 92

[31-12560]

Translated from the 2d edition published in Moscow, 1930

An account of Lenin's activities from 1898 to November, 1917. The story is told by his wife and life-companion who was at his side and participated in his work thru these years of struggle

"This is a book to be treated with respect. No one could write of Lenin's day-to-day life and methods of work with the same authority as his widow, and it is a pleasure to find that a document of such value should be entirely trustworthy. The writer reveals herself as a conscientious woman with a matter-of-fact mind." Times (London) lit. sup.

Three additional biographies which are recommended if others are needed are:

Fox, R. W. Lenin, a biography. Harcourt 1934 320p o.p. 1939 A popular biography, admiring in tone

Trotsky, Leon, pseud. Lenin. Authorized translation. Putnam 1925 xx,216p illus $2.50

Vernadskiĭ, G. V. Lenin, red dictator; tr. from the Russian by M. W. Davis. Yale univ. press 1931 351p illus $3 A sober, scholarly biography

Leonardo da Vinci, 1452-1519. See class 759.5

Lewis, Cecil, 1898-

Sagittarius rising. Harcourt 1936 301p $1.29 92

1 China—Description and travel 2 European war, 1914-1918—Aerial operations 3 European war, 1914-1918—Personal narratives 36-24344

"Seventeen when he joined the British Flying Corps during the World War, the author was, at its close, a senior Flight-Commander, and 20 years of age. Against the vivid panorama of the sky, the aerodrome, or London on leave, are unrolled incidents, gay and somber, tragic, hazardous, daring and foolhardy, all brought into focus by the gallant debonair youth whose emotions, memories and impressions, all these years later, have lost nothing, but gained rather in perspective and significance. Genuinely moving and often poetic in mood and style. The book closes with experiences in China in the commercial air service." N.Y. libraries

Lewisohn, Ludwig, 1882-

* Up stream; an American chronicle. Modern lib. 299p 95c 92

26-20746

A reprint of a book first published 1922 by Boni & Liveright

"A beautifully written and thoughtful personal record of the author's life in America since childhood. This thin-skinned, beauty-loving, German-Jewish individualist's story of the disillusionment and repression, constitutes a passionate arraignment of our Christian-capitalistic civilization." Cleveland

Ludwig Lewisohn's "Mid-channel; an American chronicle" (Harper 1929 310p o.p. 1939) a continuation of "Up stream," expresses the author's philosophy and discusses art and social problems

Lin, Adet, 1923- and Lin, Anor, 1926-

Our family; with a foreword and comments by Meimei. Day 1939 256p illus $2 92

1 Children as authors 2 Lin, Yu-t'ang, 1895- 3 Voyages and travels

(W) 39-27455

The unedited diary kept by the two oldest daughters of Lin Yutang. They live in Paris, with their father and mother, but they have keenly observed life as they have found it in China, America, England and Italy, and have woven the story of their travels into their account of a delightful family

Lincoln, Abraham, president U.S. 1809-1865

Lincoln's own stories; collected and ed. by Anthony Gross. Harper 1912 223p front o.p. 1939 92

12-25336

"The editor's purpose has been to select from the mass of stories attributed to Lincoln those authentic anecdotes which are most essential to an understanding of his character. They have been arranged as far as possible, consecutively, so that they furnish illustrations of the various stages of Lincoln's career." Book rev. digest

Barton, William Eleazar, 1861-1930. Life of Abraham Lincoln. Bobbs 1925 2v in 1 $5 92

92 L736.B26

[25-7014]

"Dr Barton's biography is the result of years of study and of investigations in the Lincoln country of Kentucky, Indiana, and Illinois. The large amount of new material presented in this book includes several genealogical facts, a number of full-page facsimiles, and material based on the diary of Senator O. H. Browning which throws new light on the years of Lincoln's presidency." Pittsburgh

"As factual or narrative biography Barton's book is of great value; as interpretation it has serious limitations. It has added to our knowledge of Lincoln, but it is not a very valuable contribution to the literature of biography." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Lincoln, Abraham—Continued

W. E. Barton was the author of two additional books on Lincoln. His "President Lincoln" (Bobbs 1933 2v illus $2.94) was completed after Barton's death by W. H. Townsend. It is a study of the presidential years, opening in 1858, and therefore covers much of the same period as volume 2 of Barton's "Life of Abraham Lincoln." His "Soul of Abraham Lincoln" (Doran 1920 407p o.p. 1939) is an account of the ethical convictions and spiritual life of Lincoln

Herndon and Weik have each published supplementary volumes as follows: "Hidden Lincoln" by W. H. Herndon (Viking 1938 461p illus $5) (W) contains letters to other biographers giving freely of the results of Herndon's researches and also letters and statements received from many sources. "Real Lincoln" by J. W. Weik (Houghton 1922 323p illus o.p. 1939) contains facts gathered in interviews with those who knew Lincoln. It is a study of Lincoln as a young man, as lawyer and as politician

Beveridge, Albert Jeremiah, 1862-1927. Abraham Lincoln, 1809-1858. Houghton 1928-37 4v fronts $12.50 92

37-14684

"Mr. Beveridge did not live to complete his life of Lincoln. The two volumes out of a projected four close with a survey of the great debate between Lincoln and Douglas at Alton, Illinois, in October, 1858. The biography is a monument of industry and scholarship. The author has traced to its source every fact, incident, tradition or statement bearing on the life of Lincoln, comparing, verifying, sifting." Book rev. digest

"It will be matter of profound regret that a book so learned, so masterly, so mercilessly dispassionate, and so well written must remain only an imposing fragment." Nation

Bibliography: v 1 pref. p17-28

Brooks, Noah, 1830-1903. Abraham Lincoln and the downfall of American slavery. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Charnwood, Godfrey Rathbone Benson, 1st baron, 1864- Abraham Lincoln. Holt 1916 479p front map (Makers of the nineteenth century) $2 92

[20-20208]

Also available in the Star series (Garden City pub. co. $1)

"The contribution is not one of new fact but of deep thought. . . It is intended for the intelligent whether they are informed or not but not for the informed unless they are intelligent." C. R. Fish in Amer. hist. rev.

"An English account written for Englishmen and interesting for that reason, and as a full and on the whole fair account of Lincoln's character, personal and political ideals, and the conditions under which he lived and worked." Cleveland

Bibliographical note: p455-58

Herndon, William Henry, 1818-1891, and Weik, Jesse William, 1857- Abraham Lincoln; the true story of a great life; with an introduction by Horace White. Appleton-Century 2v illus ea $1 92

16-6746

Contains the personal recollections of Lincoln written by his law partner, Herndon, assisted by Jesse W. Weik, and first published in 1889. A later edition with slight changes edited by Horace White was published in 1892. The edition entered above is a reprint of the 1892 edition. The book practically closes with Lincoln's departure from Springfield in 1861

"Every subsequent biographer of Lincoln has used Herndon as the basis of his book, but no biographer has accepted all of his conclusions. . . Despite Herndon's prejudices, mistakes, and unreliable inferences, his book is the most important single contribution to our knowledge of Lincoln's life." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Leacock, Stephen Butler, 1869- Lincoln frees the slaves. Putnam 1934 178p illus $1.50 92

1 Slavery in the U.S. 34-5500

"The view held by the author, Canadian humorist and head of the department of political economy in McGill University, is that when Lincoln became president he was ignorant and incompetent, without a plan or policy. What set him apart and made him great was his love and pity for all mankind. With the Emancipation proclamation, he liberated his own soul—found himself. From that moment he never faltered." Book rev. digest

"The non-American's view of Lincoln is usually interesting. Sometimes it is characterized by real insight. Stephen Leacock's is unusually so. Long 'fascinated by the career of the great emancipator,' he has brought both the enthusiasm and the perspective of the 'outsider' to his task. . . The book is stimulating and suggestive. The point of view is not orthodox, but it is convincing. The style is compact and forceful." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Morse, John Torrey, 1840-1937 Abraham Lincoln. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Nicolay, Helen, 1866- Personal traits of Abraham Lincoln. Appleton-Century 1912 387p illus $1 92

12-24793

"When the author's father began his joint work with John Hay on 'Abraham Lincoln: a history,' he put aside certain items to be used in a chapter on 'Personal traits.' This material grew to proportions far beyond his expectations and the chapter as originally planned was not written. It is this material which his daughter has carefully worked over in the making of the present book." Book rev. digest

‡ Nicolay, John George, 1832-1901. Short life of Abraham Lincoln, condensed from Nicolay and Hay's Abraham Lincoln. Appleton-Century 1902 578p front $4 92

2-22683

"So well done that no one ignorant of its relation to the larger book would suspect it of being an abridgement." Nation

Nicolay, John George, 1832-1901, and Hay, John, 1838-1905. Abraham Lincoln; a history. Appleton-Century 1890 10v illus $35 92

1 U.S.—History—Civil war 1-5577

First appeared in a series of articles in the Century magazine from 1885-1890. Later expanded and unified for publication. These ten volumes contain the history of the Civil war with Lincoln as the outstanding figure. Altho their price is prohibitive for many libraries, they are entered here because of their importance for a thoro study of Lincoln

Lincoln, Abraham—Continued

"These two men were Lincoln's secretaries during the White House years, and their boundless admiration for him tended to exclude from their writing anything detrimental to his heroic fame. Moreover, the Lincoln papers, an important part of their materials, were owned by Robert T. Lincoln, the late President's son, and he carefully selected what might, and what might not, be published. . . The result is an excellent history of the times, but a rather unrevealing account of Abraham Lincoln." Social studies

‡ Sandburg, Carl, 1878- Abraham Lincoln; the prairie years. abr. ed Harcourt 1929 604p illus $3.65 92

[36-28489]

Abridged edition of the two volume edition published 1926 and still obtainable from Harcourt at $8 and in the Harbrace edition at $4.75. About ten percent of the original text and numerous illustrations have been omitted. Desirable for libraries that do not have the larger edition

"Probably the finest re-creation of Lincoln, and undoubtedly the most sympathetic and profoundly beautiful. The record stops when Lincoln leaves the prairie for the White house, for 'history has taken Lincoln for its own.'" Chicago

"A vividly human portrait of Lincoln with a richly peopled background. And sometimes the background comes out of the frame. Nevertheless with a few new facts or incidents, and with no pretense of novelty of interpretation, he has drawn a picture that for vitality, realism, sympathy and discrimination, holds attention and commands respect." North American review

‡ Sanburg, Carl. 1878- Abraham Lincoln; the war years. . . Harcourt 1939 4v illus $20 92

1 U.S.—History—Civil war (W) 39-27998

These volumes complete the biography of Lincoln which the author began in "The prairie years." It covers the years from 1861 until Lincoln's death. Contains many illustrations including cuts of cartoons, letters and documents

"This four-volume biography as it now stands completed is a work whose meanings will not soon be exhausted, whose greatness will not soon be estimated. It can be said that no U. S. biography surpasses it in wealth of documentation and fidelity to fact, that none . . . can compare with it in strength, scope and beauty." Times (London) lit. sup.

* Stephenson, Nathaniel Wright, 1867-1935. Lincoln. . . Bobbs 1922 528p illus $2.50 92

22-22727

"An account of his personal life, especially of its springs of action as revealed and deepened by the ordeal of war." Subtitle

"Here is a volume quite without parallel in the long list of Lincolniana. The author has attempted not a mere biography, but what is more difficult, a progressive character study of one of the most complex figures of history. In dealing with motives, with the well-springs of thought and action, he has undertaken probably the most difficult kind of task in historical criticism. It is a pleasure to be able to state that he has discharged the task with quite conspicuous success." Amer. hist. rev.

Bibliography: p475-79

Tarbell, Ida Minerva, 1857- In the footsteps of the Lincolns. Harper 1924 418p illus map o.p. 1939 92

1 Lincoln family 24-3279

Traces the history of seven generations of Lincolns from the year 1637 when Samuel Lincoln began the line in Hingham, Mass. to Abraham Lincoln's departure from Springfield, Ill., in 1860. It is a story of vigorous, independent pioneering, of self-help and self-rule, which goes far to account for Abraham Lincoln, not as an accident, but as the product of those who lived before him. Condensed from Preface

Tarbell, Ida Minerva, 1857- Life of Abraham Lincoln; drawn from original sources. [new ed] Macmillan 1928 2v $5 92

[17-25788]

Based on independent research instigated by the proprietors of McClure's magazine in 1894 and later published in that periodical. Partly rewritten and published in book form in 1900. A new chapter on "Mr Lincoln as president-elect" was added in the 1917 edition. This chapter has been omitted in the reset edition published in 1928. Many new illustrations have been added

"She has a very important place among the modern biographers of Lincoln. She did what she could to tear away the mists of legend. . . As a milestone on the path to a better understanding and interpretation of Lincoln the value of this book can hardly be overestimated." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

In addition to the books fully entered above, the following books are recommended if more material on Lincoln is needed:

Drinkwater, John. Lincoln, the world emancipator. Houghton 1920 118p $1.50

Hertz, Emanuel, ed. Lincoln talks; a biography in anecdote. Viking 1939 698p front $3 (W)

Lincoln, Abraham. An autobiography of Abraham Lincoln; consisting of the personal portions of his letters, speeches and conversations, comp. and annotated by N. W. Stephenson. Grosset 528p illus $1 Makes a story in Lincoln's own words from 1809 until the day before his assassination in 1865. It is a reprint of a book published by Bobbs in 1926

Ludwig, Emil. Lincoln; tr. from the German by Eden and Cedar Paul. Grosset 505p illus $1 A reprint of the book published in English in 1930 by Little

Rogers, Agnes. Abraham Lincoln; a biography in pictures with accompanying text. Little 1939 [128p] illus $2 (W)

Schurz, Carl. Abraham Lincoln, an essay. Houghton 1891 117p front o.p. 1939 Originally published in the Atlantic monthly as a review of "Abraham Lincoln: a history," by Nicolay and Hay. A noteworthy brief sketch

Whitlock, Brand. Abraham Lincoln. Appleton-Century 1916 210p front $1.50 "Concise, charmingly written, and authoritative." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Lincoln, Mrs Mary (Todd) 1818-1882

Sandburg, Carl, 1878- Mary Lincoln, wife and widow; part I, by Carl Sandburg; part II, letters, documents & appendix, by P. M. Angle. Harcourt 1932 357p illus $3 92

32-34498

"This volume has much to commend it, even if it is given over to a single premise, around which the authors collect and

Lincoln, Mrs Mary T.—Continued
unify all of their facts—the premise that Mary Lincoln was from childhood suffering from cerebral disease, and consequently never to be held responsible for her acts . . . Both parts of the volume are valuable, though somewhat limited contributions to a more complete understanding of Mrs. Lincoln." Boston Transcript

Two additional books on Mrs Lincoln are:

Evans, W. A. Mrs Abraham Lincoln, a study of her personality and her influence on Lincoln. Knopf 1932 364p illus o.p. 1939 A painstaking study made by a doctor who agrees with Sandburg in attributing her eccentricities to mental disease

Morrow, Mrs H. M. W. Mary Todd Lincoln. Morrow 1928 248p illus o.p. 1939 A combination of fact and fiction written in an attempt to vindicate Mrs Lincoln

Lind, Jennie, 1820-1887. See class 780.92

Lindbergh, Charles Augustus, 1902-
‡ "We. . ." Putnam 1927 318p illus $2.50 92

1 Aeronautics—Flights 27-15660

Also obtainable in a reprint from Grosset at $1

"The famous flier's own story of his life and his transatlantic flight, together with his views on the future of aviation." Subtitle

"Simple, straightforward story of his life, especially of the training and experiments in aviation which led up to his trans-atlantic flight. Lindbergh's own chapters are supplemented by Fitzhugh Green's account of the unparalleled ovation accorded him abroad and at home; the foreword is by Ambassador Myron T. Herrick. Interesting illustrations from photographs." Cleveland

Lindsay, Vachel, 1879-1931
Masters, Edgar Lee, 1868- Vachel Lindsay, a poet in America. Scribner 1935 392p illus $1.75 92

35-18940

"This first biography of a Mid-western American poet is the work of a fellow poet, long a resident of Lindsay's own state, Illinois, and an intimate friend. In his introduction Mr Masters describes his book as 'a study of Lindsay's mind and art, his character and his psychology,' as well as an objective biography giving a chronicle of the main events and acts of his life. Index." Book rev. digest

"The book moves over a wide range and is full of acute generalizations that go far beyond the immediate subject. Nor is it likely ever to be wholly superseded. For Mr. Masters is himself a man of genius. He has written a sensitive and understanding, almost tender, book; but not one of adulation nor of sentimentality." Sat. rev. of lit.

Liszt, Franz, 1811-1886. See class 780.92

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873
Horne, Charles Silvester, 1865-1914. David Livingstone. new ed Macmillan 1916 248p illus map $1.40 92

17-2675

"Concise, sympathetic relation of the life of the great African explorer and missionary, quoting largely from his diary and letters." N.Y. state lib.

"In the belief of the writer Livingstone is greatest, not as a scientist nor an explorer but as a man and missionary." Preface

Locke, John, 1632-1704
Fowler, Thomas, 1832-1904 Locke. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Lockhart, Robert Hamilton Bruce, 1887-
British agent; with an introduction by Hugh Walpole. Putnam 1933 354p $3 92

1 Communism—Russia 2 European war, 1914-1918—Russia 3 Great Britain—Foreign relations 4 Russia—Foreign relations 33-4369

Also obtainable from Garden City pub. co, in the Star series for $1

Published in England under title: Memoirs of a British agent

"The World War found Lockhart, once a rubber planter in Malaya, located in Moscow in the British consular service, and he was later made head of a special mission to establish unofficial relations with the Bolsheviks. The record is permeated with the greatest frankness and a certain detached humor in regard to his own activities. The chief interest centers in his dealings with the Bolsheviks, in the incidents of the 'chronic crises,' and in the pen portraits of such leaders as Trotsky and Lenin." N.Y. libraries

R. H. B. Lockhart's "Retreat from glory" (Putnam 1934 348p front $3) and "Son of Scotland" (Putnam 1938 325p $3) (W) continue his reminiscences. The former covers the period from 1918 to 1929 while in the diplomatic service and as a banking agent; the latter describes his childhood and youth. Both lack the dramatic quality of his first book

Lodge, Henry Cabot, 1850-1924
Lawrence, William, bp. 1850- Henry Cabot Lodge; a biographical sketch. Houghton 1925 203p $1.75 92

25-9343

"In language that is clear and forcible and with an intimate knowledge of his subject, Bishop Lawrence narrates in detail the private life, public service, the principles, ideals and achievements of Senator Lodge." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

Lodge, Sir Oliver Joseph, 1851-
Past years; an autobiography. Scribner 1931 364p illus $2 92

32-5855

"At the age of eighty this great English physicist and scientific discoverer writes his personal memories and scientific retrospect. According to his own final summary we find the author's two great interests in life have been physical science and psychical research." Book rev. digest

"Sir Oliver has shown, to an extent that few could safely attempt, how he has played the great game of life. The frank record of his difficulties and doubts, his strivings and disappointments, his ambitions and defeats, will not only strike many responsive chords in the minds and hearts of the elders, but also will afford invaluable aid to younger men." Nature

Log-cabin lady, an anonymous autobiography. Little 1922 107p illus $1.75 92

22-24814

"An anonymous autobiography which girls will like. A finished woman of the world tells of her bitter early experiences when, as a girl fresh from pioneer surroundings and utterly without knowledge of social conventions, she married a young Bostonian and accompanied him on a diplomatic mission to the capitols of Europe." Cleveland

Log-cabin lady—Continued

"This little autobiography is charmingly written, with a depth of sincerity and a simple straightforwardness which carry the plea from its author's heart to that of her audience." Literary rev.

Appeared serially in the Delineator

London, Jack, 1876-1916

London, Joan. Jack London and his times, an unconventional biography. Doubleday 1939 387p front $3 92

1 U.S.—History—1898- (W) 39-33408

Biography of Jack London from hitherto unused sources. Written by his daughter "Miss London . . . means to present a candid account of London's early surroundings and personal life. In picturing his 'times' she is often incisive and revealing in her concrete description of individuals and groups. . . . Making allowances for these intrusions of theory and doctrine, the reader will find Joan London's 'Jack London' a colorful, pungent, well-written book." Springfield Republican

Mrs C. K. London's "Book of Jack London" (Appleton-Century 1921 2v illus o.p. 1939) is another frank picture written by his wife

* Stone, Irving. Sailor on horseback; the biography of Jack London. Houghton 1938 338p illus $3 92

(W) 38-27755

A life of the novelist, adventurer, revolutionist based on his correspondence, on his private papers, and on interviews with many people who played an important part in his tempestuous career

"As a man his character is almost as interesting as his extraordinary story. That story has been more than this biographer has been able fully to digest, but the raw materials of a remarkable life are all there, well documented and intimately presented." Henry Seidel Canby in Book-of-the-month club news

Published serially in the Saturday evening post

Longfellow, Henry Wadsworth, 1807-1882

Hawthorne, Hildegarde. Poet of Craigie house; the story of H. W. Longfellow; illus. by W. M. Berger. Appleton-Century 1936 238p illus $2.50 92

(W) 36-5650

"This is not a critical or documented biography but a popular Life, written apparently in the hope of attracting the younger generation of to-day to the study of a poet whose work is in striking contrast with the productions of the contemporary American muse. It should certainly answer that purpose, for it is not only written in a lucid and interesting style, but traces the career of its subject in such a way as to bring into prominence the characteristic features of his personality." Times (London) lit. sup.

Higginson, Thomas Wentworth, 1823-1911. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. Houghton 1902 336p front (American men of letters) $2.50 92

2-23430

"Rich in personal recollections and knowledge of Longfellow's Cambridge environment. Makes the poet more real than the somewhat impersonal biography by Samuel Longfellow." Pittsburgh

Bibliography: p303-16

92 L8833b

Samuel Longfellow edited the "Life of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow" (Houghton 1891 3v illus o.p. 1939) by bringing together extracts from his brother's journals and correspondence

Thompson, Lawrance Roger, 1906- Young Longfellow (1807-1843). Macmillan 1938 xxiv,443p illus $4.50 92

(W) 38-28995

"The Longfellow that [this] book reintroduces is the child, the undergraduate, the slowly maturing, not insensitive young man. . . . Here for the first time we see clearly the literary influences that left their deep impression upon Longfellow's boyhood." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

"'Young Longfellow' should prove of interest to two groups of readers. First, those who desire a more realistic account of American authors than their earlier biographers, like Longfellow's brother Samuel, have generally accorded them. Second, those to whom any truthfully told tale of unfolding youth may be of interest." N.Y. Times

Longworth, Mrs Alice Lee (Roosevelt) 1884-

Crowded hours, reminiscences. Scribner 1933 355p illus $1 92

33-31725

"As daughter of a president and wife of a speaker of the House, Alice Roosevelt Longworth has been in close contact with politics and with the social life of Washington most of her life. Sharing with the political, in these reminiscences, are stories of the energetic Roosevelt family and amusing frank comments on the author's own character and activities. The last twelve years are skimmed over without much detail. Photographs." N.Y. libraries

Loomis, Frederic Morris, 1877-

Consultation room. Knopf 1939 281p $2.50 92

1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Woman—Diseases

(W) 39-27003

The personal memoirs and experiences of an American gynecologist and obstetrician

"There is lots of humor in this book—some of the stories the Doctor tells on himself are inimitable. . . . Women will find 'Consultation room' full of things they should know about themselves, but almost any intelligent person will find enjoyment in its racy humor and genial understanding." Sat. rev. of lit.

Louis XI, king of France, 1423-1483

Lewis, Dominic Bevan Wyndham, 1894- King Spider; some aspects of Louis XI, of France and his companions. Coward-McCann 1929 501p illus map $5 92

1 France—History—House of Valois, 1328-1589 29-29534

"Believing that other biographers have faithfully recorded the life of Louis XI in detail, Lewis has written, not a chronological narrative, but a series of interpretative sketches. These deal with chosen phases of the king's life, with three of his associates, three ecclesiastics, and three artists, and with social and political conditions. The author is an enthusiastic medievalist, constantly on the defensive for his favorite epoch, yet his interpretation is scholarly, and in most respects impartial." Bkl.

Louis XIV, king of France, 1638-1715

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Louis XIV. Harper 1938 393p illus $3.75 92

1 France—History—Bourbons, 1589-1789

(W) 38-36945

Published in England under title: Monarchy; a study of Louis XIV

"Mr. Belloc's study of Louis XIV presents his reign as the most successful example of active monarchy in modern

Louis XIV, king of France—Continued

Europe. He discusses it in the light of modern problems of kingship and government." Huntting

"None but a learned man could have written this book. Nor could it well have been written except by one who was a poet in temperament and a journalist by profession, temperamentally dogmatic, in mentality largely French and in religion intensely Catholic. Intelligent persons with leisure enough to read it as it should be read, will not refuse it the tribute of sincere, even enthusiastic admiration." Catholic world

Hassall, Arthur. Louis XIV and the zenith of French monarchy. Putnam 1895 444p illus maps. (Heroes of the nations) $3 92

1 France—History—Bourbons, 1589-1789 4-3082

"A just estimate of an extraordinary character. . . When the record of events is condensed into small space there is little opportunity for picturesque description, for glowing portrayal of character or of famous scenes, and these he has not attempted. His review of Louis XIV's reign is eminently correct and just in its general outlines." Amer. hist. rev.

Note on the authorities of the reign of Louis XIV, pref. p15-16

Lowell, Amy, 1874-1925

Damon, Samuel Foster, 1893- Amy Lowell, a chronicle; with extracts from her correspondence. Houghton 1935 773p illus $5 92

35-27398

"Detailed, definitive biography of one of the leaders of the American renaissance in poetry. It includes an appraisal of Miss Lowell's writings, and is enlivened by extracts from her correspondence with American and European literary celebrities. Contains a chronological arrangement of the first printing of poems and prose by Amy Lowell." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Damon's sketch is fascinating, convincing, and true; and his sketch of the literary background for Amy Lowell's battles—London, Boston, New York—is equally valuable as history." Sat. rev. of lit.

Lowell, James Russell, 1819-1891

Greenslet, Ferris, 1875- James Russell Lowell; his life and his work. Houghton 1905 309p illus o.p. 1939 92

5-32880

A good biographical and critical work

Scudder, Horace Elisha, 1838-1902. James Russell Lowell; a biography. Houghton 1901 2v o.p. 1939 92

1-24659

The authorized biography of the poet containing a bibliography of his writings

"A formal biography, it is the most complete account of Lowell that we have, but as criticism it falls far short of its mark. . . When we have finished the book, we know a great deal about Lowell, but we do not know Lowell himself." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Lowell's "Letters" edited by C. E. Norton covering the years 1827-1891 published by Harper in two volumes in 1894 are\out of print, 1939. His "New letters" edited by M. A. De W. Howe (Harper 1932 364p illus) are also out of print, 1939

Lowenstein-Scharffeneck, Hubertus, graf von, 1906-

Conquest of the past; an autobiography. Houghton 1938 325p illus $3.50 92

1 Germany—History—Revolution, 1918- 2 Germany—Politics and government (W) 38-27276

"The author, a Bavarian prince, born in 1906, lived thru the World war as a child, espoused the cause of the German Republic after the fall of the monarchy, opposed Hitler's rise, and left Germany as a voluntary exile. The book covers these years and gives a clear idea of the momentous changes thru which one generation has lived." Wis. bul.

Loyola, Ignacio de, Saint, 1491-1556

Sedgwick, Henry Dwight, 1861- Ignatius Loyola; an attempt at an impartial biography. Macmillan 1923 399p o.p. 1939 92

23-14813

"Mr Sedgwick's biography is full of interest. He gives here and there illuminative descriptions of social life, he tells a story well, he analyses the Exercises and the Constitution very skillfully; most of all he is generously appreciative and unprejudiced." Times (London) lit. sup.

Sources and authorities: p371-91

Two additional biographies of the founder of the Jesuit order are:

Marcuse, Ludwig. Soldier of the church; the life of Ignatius Loyola; tr. from the German and ed. by Christopher Lazare. Simon & Schuster 1939 352p $2.50 (W) A study of the personality and life of St Ignatius written by a Catholic

Van Dyke, Paul. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits. Scribner 1926 381p $3.50 Written by a Protestant

Ludecke, Kurt Georg Wilhelm, 1890-

I knew Hitler; the story of a Nazi who escaped the blood purge. Scribner 1937 814p illus map $3.75 92

1 Germany—Politics and government 2 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 3 Jewish question 4 National socialism 37-28768

"Autobiography of a Nazi who . . . was active in the inner circle of the Nationalist Socialist movement. Working largely outside Germany, he held fast to the original ideals of the movement—while others were changing front. He was arrested, sent to a concentration camp, but succeeded in escaping and came to America just before the blood purge of 1934. An informing inside story of the Nazi movement from one who was close to Hitler." Ontario library review

Lutes, Mrs Della (Thompson)

‡ Country kitchen. Little 1936 264p $1.75 92

1 Cookery 2 Country life—Michigan 36-27405

"Recollections of life on a Michigan farm in the 1870's. The descriptions of food make the reader hungry, and many old-time recipes are given." Cleveland

"There is wit in the book; and a gift for landscape, and perception of characters, and a flavor as unforgettable as the fragrance of wild grapes in autumn, and the recorded memories of a lovely industrious home. One shuts the book and looks once more at the cover. Somebody's grandmother's piece-bag might have been rifled to get that authentic checkered-apron print. Yes, the outside of the book makes us think of a gingham apron. The inside of the book inspires us to put one on." Atlantic bookshelf

Lutes, Mrs Della T.—Continued

Home grown. Little 1937 272p $1.75 92

1 Cookery 2 Country life—Michigan

(W) 37-28469

"A sequel to 'The country kitchen,' with the little girl, through whose eyes we see the picture, two years older. The same people as those in the older book are there, but different episodes and food recipes are given." Ontario library review

Mrs D. T. Lutes "Millbrook" (Little 1938 330p illus $2.50) (W) presents village life as she found it in a small town in Michigan when she was twelve years old

Luther, Martin, 1483-1546

McGiffert, Arthur Cushman, 1861-1933. Martin Luther, the man and his work. Appleton-Century 1911 397p illus $5 92

11-28669

"A 'plain and literal tale' of Luther as a man and as an influence upon his times. In dealing objectively with his personality and his work the study becomes purely historical and offers no theological contentions to arouse religious animosity. . . . All the light that modern research can throw on the great reformer has been employed." Book rev. digest

Appeared in the Century magazine, v81-83, December 1910 to November 1911, under the title "Martin Luther and his work"

Preserved Smith's "Life and letters of Martin Luther" (Houghton 1911 490p illus o.p. 1939) is another excellent, scholarly biography of the reformer

Singmaster, Elsie. Martin Luther, the story of his life. United Lutheran pub. 138p front $1 92

40-5937

A reprint of the title first published 1917 by Houghton

"A well balanced, interestingly written little biography 'intended by the author to serve as an introduction to the longer, richer and more scholarly records of a great life'. . . Supplies a background of his times necessary to the understanding of the events and decisions which marked the turning points in his career." Cleveland

Lyon, Mary, 1797-1849

Gilchrist, Beth Bradford, 1879- Life of Mary Lyon. Houghton 1910 462p illus $2.50 92

10-12174

"Portrays the development of a poor, mentally starved, but dauntless New England girl of one hundred years ago in the pioneer of woman's higher education and the founder of Mt Holyoke college. Author, a Mt Holyoke graduate, who writes enthusiastically in a rather self-conscious, embroidered style, has availed herself of all possible sources." N.Y. state lib.

Bibliography: p443-53

Macartney, William Napier, 1862-

Fifty years a country doctor. Dutton 1938 584p illus $3.50 92

1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-8117

"Reminiscences of an American doctor, who nearly sixty years ago began his training as an apprentice in a country drug store in northern New York state. After he had completed his medical education in the University of the City of New York, he gave up the thought of a city practice and returned to his native town. His account of his half-century of rural practice, its difficulties, successes and failures, is filled with amusing anecdotes." Book rev. digest

"Has been written with no effort to give an impression of a brilliant man of medicine sacrificing himself to the service of a backwoods community. . . . His gossip, bluff humor and unvarnished opinion combine to give individuality to this volume, though a considerable part of it is devoted to the exposition of diseases and methods of treatment." Springfield Republican

Macaulay, Thomas Babington Macaulay, 1st baron, 1800-1859

Morison, James Augustus Cotter, 1832-1888. Macaulay. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Trevelyan, Sir George Otto, bart. 1838-1928. Life and letters of Lord Macaulay, by his nephew. enl and complete ed Longmans 1908 2v $5 92

W9-47

"The authentic biography of the distinguished historian, essayist and statesman with many of his letters, prepared with complete understanding and sympathy by his nephew." Pratt alcove

"One of the best biographies in the language." Leslie Stephen

McCormack, John, 1884- See class 780.92

Macdowell, Edward Alexander, 1861-1908. See class 780.92

Machen, Arthur, 1863-

Far off things. Secker, Martin 1922 158p 3s 6d 92

23-4358

Formerly carried also by Knopf

"A modestly self-repressive yet truly revealing autobiography. . . . You obtain a full-size mental photograph of the man, though few concrete facts about his life and literary work. The scenes and incidents, mostly taken from his youth, are selected adroitly to make up this photograph." Springfield Republican

Arthur Machen's "Things near and far" (Secker, Martin 1923 175p 3s 6d) is another autobiographical volume which tells one of the most tragic stories in the history of English letters

Machiavelli, Niccolò, 1469-1527

Marcu, Valeriu, 1899- Accent on power: the life and times of Machiavelli; tr. by Richard Winston. Farrar 1939 314p illus $3 92

1 Florence—History 39-22907

"Despite its subtitle the author makes no pretense of offering a biography of Machiavelli. What he has done is to give us a psychological study of power as a motive to human action and as the aim of statecraft. Machiavelli is merely a convenient peg on which to hang his theories . . . but taken by and large, the study is interesting and able, and the argument brilliant if not always convincing." Sat. rev. of lit.

Villari, Pasquale, 1827-1917. Life and times of Niccolò Machiavelli; tr. by Linda Villari. new ed Scribner 1904 2v in 1 $4 92

[4-17077]

"A work on the life and public services of this great political philosopher and writer. For centuries Machiavelli has been regarded as a species of sphinx of whom no one could solve the riddle. . . The work of Professor Villari is an effort to solve the enigma. The theory of the author is that an adequate explanation can only be found in a study of the man and his times, as revealed especially in his unpublished writings. To this task Villari has applied himself with unusual assiduity and success." C. K. Adams

Machiavelli, Niccolò—Continued

Mrs D. E. Muir's "Machiavelli and his times" (Dutton 1936 262p illus $3) is a concise, well-written account of his life and of his philosophy. The author takes the point of view that Machiavelli was merely "the ablest rationalizer of the political events of his day"

Macy, Mrs Anne (Sullivan) 1866-1936
Braddy, Nella, 1894- Anne Sullivan Macy; the story behind Helen Keller. Doubleday 1933 365p illus $3 92
1 Keller, Helen Adams, 1880- 33-24740

"The book is, naturally, almost equally the life of Anne Sullivan and of Helen Keller, but the emphasis is shifted from the pupil to the teacher, no less a genius, who submerged herself in her selfless devotion to the girl whose spirit she liberated. Miss Braddy uncovers the tragic childhood of Anne Sullivan, the horrors of her life in Tewksbury almhouse, and the years in Perkins Institution, where her sight was restored. She describes the 'miraculous chance that brought a great teacher and a great pupil together,' the patient, persistent and original teaching methods that were worked out, the close and creative friendship between the two and their work together for good causes." Book rev. digest

Madison, Mrs Dorothy (Payne) Todd, 1768-1849
Dean, Elizabeth Lippincott. Dolly Madison, the nation's hostess; illus. from photographs. Lothrop 1928 250p illus $3 92
28-11087

"A biography of excellent balance and research, a book that reproduces the atmosphere of the early Republic and draws quick portraits of the figures of the day, and is also a book of some literary grace and considerable charm." Boston Transcript

Madison, James, president U.S. 1751-1836
Gay, Sydney Howard, 1814-1888. James Madison. Houghton 1884 342p (American statesmen) $2.50 92
1 U.S.—Politics and government—1783-1865 4-17018

"Study of the statesman and of the political movements in which he took part; critical and generous." Nation

Magellan, Ferdinand, d. 1521
Benson, Edward Frederic, 1867-1940. Ferdinand Magellan. Lane 1930 262p front maps (Golden hind ser.) 5s 92
29-30167

Formerly carried also by Harper

"A full-length portrait, balanced and clear, of one who must always rank as one of the greatest of navigators. . . Mr. Benson has built up a fine study of a great explorer and a great character, and in a book of immense interest has made a definite contribution to the history of maritime enterprise." Times (London) lit. sup.

Zweig, Stefan, 1881- Conqueror of the seas; the story of Magellan; tr. by Eden and Cedar Paul. Viking 1938 335p illus $3.50 92
1 Voyages around the world (W) 38-27109

Also obtainable in a reprint (Blue ribbon bks. $1)

The story of "the most wonderful of all voyages of discovery—Ferdinand Magellan, who started from Seville with five little ships to circumnavigate the globe. Was not this the most glorious Odyssey in the history of mankind, the departure of two hundred and sixty-five resolute men of whom only eighteen got back to Spain on a crumbling vessel, but with the flag of triumph flying at the masthead?" Introduction

"Does not add much to what could have been known before. Its value is that of an extremely well-written narrative, fired by a keen sense of justice, and with its dramatic and emotional qualities well sustained." N.Y. Times

Mahan, Alfred Thayer, 1840-1914
Puleston, William Dilworth, 1881- Mahan: the life and work of Captain Alfred Thayer Mahan. Yale univ. press 1939 380p illus $4 92
39-10963

"Captain Mahan was an advocate of a big navy, of increased trade as the manifest destiny of the United States, and of war if necessary to maintain such expansion. . . Mahan has an appreciative biographer in Mr. Puleston, who records in painstaking, eulogistic detail his personal history and his gospel of force." Bkl.

Maillol, Aristide Joseph Bonaventure, 1861-
See class 735

Majocchi, Andrea
Life & death; the autobiography of a surgeon; tr. by Wallace Brockway. Knight pubs. 1937 300p front $2.75 92
1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Surgery 37-5188

Also obtainable in a reprint from Blue ribbon bks. at 98c

"Memoirs of one of the leading surgeons of modern Italy, beginning with student days in Milan, and carrying thru early experiences as an obstetrician, and later work in general surgery during the War and after. The book is full of anecdotes and answers to questions concerning ethical and moral problems the surgeon must face." Book rev. digest

Mann, Horace, 1796-1859
Hinsdale, Burke Aaron, 1837-1900. Horace Mann and the common school revival in the United States. Scribner 1898 326p (Great educators) $2 92
1 Public schools—U.S. 4-17027

"Deals with Horace Mann (1796-1859) as an educator, and says little of his private life or personal characteristics." Pittsburgh Bibliography: p311-19

Mansfield, Katherine, 1888-1923
Journal; ed. by J. M. Murry. Knopf 1927 255p illus $3.50 92
27-20237

"Covers the period from 1914 to 1922, and contains a fragment written in 1910. It records facts, sketches, scenes and characters, notes, fragmentary incidents and descriptions that might be used in future stories, and sets down her impressions and introspective reflections. The introduction and inserted notes by her husband supply biographical information." Pittsburgh

Mansfield, Katherine—Continued

"Here is a book which is beyond the art and science of a critic. It is a heart-searing document, written in heightened moments by a rare creature inspired by genius and disease to acute vision. Flash after flash the lightning scenes come from her tortured mind, in each minutiae of time created whole and perfect." Spectator

Katherine Mansfield's "Letters" edited by J. M. Murry (Knopf 1929 2v in 1 $3.75) supplement her "Journal." They were written during the last ten years of her life

Marconi, Guglielmo, marchese, 1874-1937

Dunlap, Orrin Elmer, 1896- Marconi, the man and his wireless. rev ed Macmillan 1938 xxi,362p illus $3.50 92

1 Radio (W) 38-14559

A biography of Marconi and a general history of wireless by the radio editor of the "New York Times." It was first published in 1937. The later edition adds a three-page account of Marconi's death

"With a sympathy born of scientific knowledge of his subject and great enthusiasm, he [the author] is eminently fitted to interpret this material. He does it with grace and distinction, combining a prose style of the highest quality with a great amount of research and reference to source material in newspapers and from the persons concerned." Yale scientific magazine

Marie Antoinette, queen consort of Louis XVI, king of France, 1755-1793

Anthony, Katharine Susan, 1877- Marie Antoinette. Knopf 1933 302p illus $3 92

32-2113

"A fresh and orginal study, to which the author brings sympathy, wit and penetration." Cleveland

* Zweig, Stefan, 1881- Marie Antoinette; the portrait of an average woman; tr. by Eden and Cedar Paul. Viking 1933 476p illus $3.50 92

33-8087

Also obtainable in reprints from the Garden City pub. co. in the Star series at $1 and in a de luxe ed at $1.69

"Unlike the more romantic life by Katherine Anthony, this is a cool, unsparing analysis of the queen, rising in its later chapters to heights of respect and admiration for this average woman who met her tragic destiny with greatness. The realistic treatment of the marital relations of the royal pair may be offensive to some readers." Wis. bul.

"The book presents us with a well-chosen and well-knit series of pictures, succeeding one another like scenes in some great drama. But, further, it gives us a psychological study full of penetration and delicate sympathy. . . Herr Zweig has succeeded admirably in realizing his purpose, which was, not to produce an apotheosis of the Queen, but to emphasize her human qualities." Times (London) lit. sup.

Marquis P. M. M. H. de Ségur's "Marie Antoinette" (Dutton 1928 313p illus $5) is another readable biography

Marie, grand duchess of Russia, 1890-

‡ Education of a princess, a memoir; tr. from the French & Russian under the editorial supervision of Russell Lord. Viking 1930 388p illus $3.50 92

1 Russia—Court and courtiers 2 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 31-2427

Also available in a reprint (Blue ribbon bks. $1)

English edition has title: Things I remember

"Aware that she has 'stepped through the ages,' the author, cousin of the last emperor of Russia, has etched, in a narrative of historic and human interest, the story of her life from the time of her christening when she was taken to the Winter Palace 'in a golden coach drawn by three pairs of white horses' to her flight, in terror and anguish, from revolutionary Russia. Incidents of a childhood passed under the old regime are revealed with the same excellent choice of detail that marks the later, more dramatic episodes. Photographs." N.Y. libraries

Grand duchess Marie's "Princess in exile" (Viking 1932 306p illus $3.50) a continuation, lacks some of the romance of her earlier book, but is a very readable account of her later years of struggle

Marie de l'Incarnation, 1599-1672

* Repplier, Agnes, 1858- Mère Marie of the Ursulines; a study in adventure. Sun dial 314p 79c 92

[31-26741]

Originally published 1931 by Doubleday

"A most human life story of the Ursuline nun who went to New France in 1639 and founded in Quebec a convent and school. With her customary wit and interest in people, Miss Repplier has managed to endow all the characters with life, so that they become personages." Pittsburgh

Marin, John, 1870- See class 759.1

Marlborough, John Churchill, 1st duke of, 1650-1722

Atkinson, Christopher Thomas. Marlborough. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer, 1874- Marlborough, his life and times. Scribner 1933-38 6v ea $2.75 92

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 (33-32241)

Contents: v 1, 1650-1688; v2, 1688-1702; v3, 1702-1704; v4, 1704-1705; v5, 1705-1708; v6, 1708-1722

"Nobody who cares about history and its great men but will rejoice to have at last Mr. Churchill's vindication of his ancestor. A vindication it is from end to end . . . whole-hearted, hard hitting, now ironic and now positively vicious, but characteristic, thorough and candid: dealing in minute detail with the crucial points of its case, but placing the whole story against the full broad background of the history of the times." New statesman and Nation

"Some may think that part of Mr. Churchill's book is special pleading, but none will deny that he has constructed a brilliant picture of Marlborough's early life and times." Times (London) lit. sup.

Marlowe, Julia, 1865-

Russell, Charles Edward, 1860- Julia Marlowe; her life and art. Appleton-Century 1926 xxvi,582p illus $5 92

26-14538

"A valuable biography and critique of the . . . Shakespearean actress, whose personal life has been particularly unknown to the public because of her consistent objection to publicity. The record of her conscientious adherence to her artistic ideals against financial odds is illuminating." Chicago

"Not a perfect biography, but a worthwhile book." International book review

Marquette, Jacques, 1637-1675

Repplier, Agnes, 1858- Père Marquette, priest, pioneer and adventurer; decorations by Harry Cimino. Doubleday 1929 298p front o.p. 1939 92

29-3290

"No fictionizing of biography is here, no attempt at popularization, but rather a calm and authentic review of Pere Marquette's life among the Indians, his discovery, with Joliet, of the Mississippi, and an account of his early death. The volumes of the 'Jesuit Relations' have been consulted for particulars." N.Y. libraries

"It was a fortunate chance which led Agnes Repplier into the study and retelling of Père Marquette's story. She brings to it an easy narrative style and much sympathetic reflection. She has caught the rhythm of the life she celebrates." Outlook

R. G. Thwaite's "Father Marquette" (Appleton 1902 244p illus maps o.p. 1939) is a more formal biography written by an historian who was thoroly familiar with his subject

Marshall, John, 1755-1835

Beveridge, Albert Jeremiah, 1862-1927. Life of John Marshall. Houghton 1916-19 4v $15 92

16-22175

Also obtainable in 2 volumes for $5.95

Contents: v1, Frontiersman, soldier, lawmaker, 1755-1788; v2, Politician, diplomatist, statesman, 1789-1801; v3, Conflict and construction, 1800-1815; v4, The building of the nation, 1815-1835

"It is because Senator Beveridge not merely stresses the importance of constitutional doctrines from the point of view of an able lawyer and an enlightened historian, but also supplies for them a rich interpretative setting that his accounts of Marshall's great cases are so impressive and so convincing. He combines, indeed, the broad, impersonal view of the historian with the penetration of an astute politician. Few writers of American history or biography have been qualified thus as both scholars and men of public experience." North American review

E. S. Corwin's "John Marshall and the Constitution," another excellent study, is one of the "Chronicles of America series" listed in class 973

Magruder, Allan Bowie. John Marshall. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Marvell, Andrew, 1621-1678

Birrell, Augustine, 1850-1933 Andrew Marvell. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Marx, Karl, 1818-1883

Mehring, Franz, 1846-1919. Karl Marx; the story of his life; tr. by Edward Fitzgerald; ed. by Ruth and Heinz Norden. Covici 1935 xxv,608p front $5 92

36-904

"The definitive biography of Karl Marx, which contains all that is known of his career, his relations with his family and friends, and with the revolutionary leaders of the nineteenth century, and is as well a guide to his economics and philosophy. With illustrations and facsimile reproductions [and] a bibliography." Book rev. digest

No other biography has "given the reader such a wide historic perspective or showed the man in such intimate correlation with the happenings and spirit of his times." Nation

Ruhle, Otto, 1874- Karl Marx; his life and work; tr. by Eden and Cedar Paul. Viking 1929 419p illus $1.69 92

29-9839

"Rühle's book is an important contribution to its subject. Possibly his psychograph of the man is too stark and harsh, just as mine and others of a generation ago were too sentimental and saccharine. It is, however, an unforgettable portrait. The book is copiously illustrated." J. Spargo in Sat. rev. of lit.

Mary Stuart, queen of the Scots, 1542-1587

Baring, Maurice, 1874- In my end is my beginning. Knopf 1931 313p $1.89 92

31-28363

"Each of four Maries tells the story of her queen, the Queen of Scots, in narratives faithful to the idiom of the sixteenth century and differing just enough from one another to indicate a natural difference in points of view. The main persons stand out clearly and we obtain a vivid picture of the Queen of Scots as someone very intricate and very human." Providence

Gorman, Herbert Sherman, 1893- Scottish queen. Farrar 1932 605p illus o.p. 1939 92

32-33421

"The turbulent course of Maria Stuart's life is described with illuminating detail, not only concerning the succession of events that led to the grim scene of her death but in the inevitable changes in her own character from idealistic girlhood to ambitious neurotic womanhood. Written with sympathy, conviction and dramatic intensity. Appendix quotes 'casket documents.' Portraits, bibliography." N.Y. libraries

* Zweig, Stefan, 1881- Mary, queen of Scotland and the Isles; tr. by Eden and Cedar Paul. Viking 1935 366p illus $3.50 92

35-13790

Also available in the Star series (Garden City pub. co. $1)

"All the tragedy of Mary's life," says Zweig, "was packed in two years of her forty-four—the two years of her great passion for Bothwell. . . The peculiar compression of the main happenings of her career into . . . one explosive surge of feeling dictates the form and rhythm of her biography." He therefore devotes more space to those two years than to her early life or to her imprisonment

Mary Stuart, queen of the Scots—Continued
"In this brilliant and searching study of a great historic figure and a fateful career he has surpassed himself, combining the solidity and keenness of historic investigation with the richness, mass, and disciplined tempo of a significant life story that is also literature." Nation

Masaryk, Tomáš Garrigue, 1850-1937
Street, Cecil John Charles, 1884- Thomas Masaryk of Czechoslovakia. Dodd 1930 281p illus $3 92
30-19726

English edition has title: President Masaryk
"The author traces the steps by which the son of a coachman in a remote Moravian village became the recognized leader of the Whole Czechoslovak people, and later by universal acclamation, was elected the first president of their recreated State. In addition to the biographical material, the author has included a discussion of Masaryk's teachings and his philosophy, and of the forces, moral and political which have guided his life. Illustrated." Ontario library review

Masefield, John, 1878-
Thomas, Gilbert Oliver, 1891- John Masefield. Macmillan 1933 261p $2 92
33-2324

"The multitude of quotations from Masefield's work may arouse interest in his poetry and those who are already familiar with it will appreciate the sympathy and discrimination of the discussion. The biographical material is slight, most of the book being devoted to an interpretation of Masefield's major works. Bibliography of Masefield's writings: p257-261." Bkl.

Mason, Daniel Gregory, 1873- See class 780.92

Massenet, Jules Émile Frédéric, 1842-1912. See class 780.92

Mather, Cotton, 1663-1728
Boas, Ralph Philip, 1887- and Boas, Mrs Louise (Schutz). Cotton Mather, keeper of the Puritan conscience; with illus. from old prints and engravings. Harper 1928 271p illus map o.p. 1939 92
28-27598

"Cotton Mather's name is closely associated with the witch trials and executions of Salem. This biography is of the modern type; vigorous, colorful, analytical, written from the psychologist's point of view, with the novelist's ability to dramatize facts and produce an absorbing story." St Louis

Mather, Increase, 1639-1723
Murdock, Kenneth Ballard, 1895- Increase Mather, the foremost American Puritan. Harvard univ. press 1925 442p illus map $6 92
25-21276

"Dr Murdock states that he had a 'double purpose' in writing this volume, and that he 'tried not only to give a "life" of Mather' but to retell in some measure 'the story of his time in New England' as revealed in his character and activity. . . . The author, by availing himself of all the material hitherto used and some which has not been, has shed new light on many episodes in Mather's life. . . . Doctor Murdock presents the most favorable view that is possible of the Puritan régime." New republic

Matisse, Henri, 1869- See class 759.4

Matsui, Haru
Restless wave; an autobiography. Modern age 1940 251p $2.50 92
1 Japan—Social life and customs (W) 40-27167

The "autobiography of an educated Japanese woman who resisted the pressure of her conservative family and made a new life in the United States, where she has advocated an embargo against the militarist policies of her country." Bkl.
"Frankly propaganda—propaganda for the people of Japan and fiercely against its present government. Like all propaganda, it must be tested for honesty and bias. The honesty is here, and while bias is here also, it is bias that has been honestly and naturally arrived at. The book is an important one for all who are in any way interested in Japan—or in human nature." Sat. rev. of lit.

Maugham, William Somerset, 1874-
The summing up. Doubleday 1938 310p $2.50 92
1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 38-27219

Also obtainable from Garden City pub. co. at $1
"This is not, as the author points out, either an autobiography or a book of recollections; it is, rather the matured conclusions on writing, art, and life which a great writer and a distinguished man has reached in the course of a long, full, and busy life." Huntting
"Almost bare of personalities except for the central figure around whom it is written. But around that figure there clusters a wealth of allusion, anecdote, confession, and experience sufficient to form a portrait of man and artist as complete and absorbing as any that our own day has given us." Sat. rev. of lit.

Maxim, Sir Hiram Stevens, 1840-1916
Maxim, Hiram Percy, 1869-1936. Genius in the family; Sir Hiram Stevens Maxim through a small son's eyes. Harper 1936 193p front $2 92
36-21602

A portrait of Sir Hiram Stevens Maxim, inventor, engineer, and eccentric personality
"Sir Hiram was the most fascinating kind of father, always unexpected and original in his reactions to events. The son writes without any pretense toward literature, but is so natural and forthright in his telling of the very good stories he has to tell, that the reader is won completely and finishes the book—it is not a long one—in short order, wishing for more." Sat. rev. of lit.

Maximilian, emperor of Mexico, 1832-1867
Harding, Mrs Bertita (Leonarz) Phantom crown; the story of Maximilian & Carlota of Mexico. Bobbs 1934 381p illus $3.50 92
1 Charlotte, empress consort of Maximilian, emperor of Mexico, 1840-1927
2 Mexico—History 34-35130

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1
"A dramatically written, vivid chronicle of Napoleon III's attempt to rule Mexico thru the agency of the Austrian archduke, Maximilian. The first two sections of the book deal with Maximilian's early life and his marriage with Carlota, and with Napoleon's political plottings which sent them to Mexico. The bulk of the book tells the story of their brief and disastrous reign, of

Maximilian, emperor of Mexico—Continued
Maximilian's fall and death, and of Carlota's return to Europe." Book rev. digest
"Mrs. Harding in retelling the story of the Mexican misadventure has done admirable work. Her exceptionally astute insight into character and motive has enabled her to present Maximilian and Carlota as real personages. . . . She succeeds also, by means of carefully selected and very illuminating details, in picturing the social background of mid-nineteenth century Mexico with an authenticity that is impressive." Sat. rev. of lit.

Meck, Nadejda Philaretovna (Florovskaîa) von, 1831-1894. See class 780.92

Medici, Lorenzo de, called Il Magnifico, 1449-1492
Loth, David Goldsmith, 1899- Lorenzo the Magnificent. Brentano's 1929 329p illus o.p. 1939 92
29-19630
"The crafty, vivid, versatile Florentine, politician, financier, poet, patron of letters and connoisseur, is pictured against his rich background of Renaissance Florence. His life story reads like a romance, the smooth flow of which is unobstructed by footnotes, bibliography or index." Cleveland
"His lapses, though frequent, do not mar the general outline of the picture he is drawing, and when one sets down his fascinating book it is with the feeling that Lorenzo, in all likelihood, was just such a man as Mr. Loth describes." N.Y. Times
G. F. Young's "The Medici" (Modern lib. 1933 xxi,824p illus $1.25) is a reprint in one volume of the expensive two volume edition published by Dutton in 1909 but containing only about half the plates of the original edition. It gives a good history of the Medici family, of the life and art of the renaissance

Melba, Nellie, 1861-1931. See class 780.92

Melbourne, William Lamb, 2d viscount, 1779-1848
* Cecil, Lord Edward Christian David, 1902- Young Melbourne and the story of his marriage with Caroline Lamb. Bobbs 1939 276p front $3 92
1 Lamb, Lady Caroline (Ponsonby) 1785-1828 (W) 39-12957
"My book is a study in the evolution of a character, William Lamb, Lord Melbourne's. . . I trace his story . . . until the age of forty-seven, just before the opening of his active career as a public man." Preface
"Lord David Cecil does not stoop to conquer the reader by magnifying the scandalous details of Lady Caroline's conduct. He tells them intimately and impartially, but what finally interests him is the fascinating character of Melbourne. . . 'Young Melbourne' is one of those sufficiently rare biographies which reach a high level both as art and as straight entertainment." Sat. rev. of lit.

Melville, Herman, 1819-1891
Freeman, John, 1880-1929. Herman Melville. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series
Mumford, Lewis, 1895- Herman Melville. Harcourt 1929 377p front o.p. 1939 92
29-7422
"Admirable biography combining what is known of Melville's life with a critical estimate of his work and an interpretation of his personal development in the light of his work. There are detailed descriptions of the writings of this man who, according to the author, 'shares with Walt Whitman the distinction of being the greatest writer that America has produced.'" N.Y. libraries

Mencken, Henry Louis, 1880-
Happy days, 1880-1892. Knopf 1940 313p front $2.75 92
(W) 40-27046
"H. L. Mencken's autobiography of his childhood in Baltimore of 1880-1892 is made up, as he says in his preface, of 'casual and somewhat chaotic memories.' It is a record not only of a very happy childhood . . . but also of a whole era." Huntting
"The book is bound to be compared to 'Life With Father.' . . . When such comparison is made, 'Happy Days' will not suffer. It contains the universal truths of an honest and accurate chronicle of childhood; it has, in addition humor and lightness and charm." Boston Transcript
Some of the chapters have appeared, either wholly or in part, in the "New Yorker"

Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, Felix, 1809-1847. See class 780.92

Mercier, Désiré Félicien François Joseph, cardinal, 1851-1926
Gade, John Allyne, 1875- Life of Cardinal Mercier. Scribner 1934 312p illus $2.75 92
34-27061
"This incomparable yet sympathetic and lucid biography of the significant figure of Cardinal Mercier is the work of a Protestant and an ardent but unbiased admirer. Fortunately many of the late Cardinal Mercier's friends are still alive to contribute a wealth of first hand information about one of the outstanding figures of the world war and a truly devout and noble man." Cincinnati
References: p302-03

Meredith, George, 1828-1909
Priestley, John Boynton, 1894- George Meredith. Macmillan 1926 204p (English men of letters) o.p. 1939 92
26-26577
"His whole-hearted admiration for Meredith suffuses the whole of his book, and makes the magnificent Lucifer of English letters take on flesh and blood again. Thus we are given a thoroughly helpful and enjoyable study." Spectator
R. E. G. George's "Life of George Meredith by Robert Esmonde Sencourt [pseud] (Scribner 1929 342p front o.p. 1939) is a readable and authoritative life which rectifies some misleading estimates of Meredith

Metternich-Winneburg, Clemens Lothar Wenzel, fürst von, 1778-1859
Herman, Arthur. Metternich. Appleton-Century 1932 370p illus $5 92
1 Europe—Politics—1789-1900 32-32398
"This biography of the great Austrian conservative statesman, Prince Metternich, combines an account of the brilliant career of the diplomat with a brief history of Europe during his lifetime, from 1773 to 1859." Book rev. digest
"It is surprising that until the appearance of this book there was no satisfactory

Metternich-Winneburg Clemens L. W., fürst von—Continued
biography of Metternich in English. By waiting so long we have not waited in vain; for it is a model of what a good biography should be." New statesman and Nation

Meynell, Mrs Alice Christiana (Thompson) 1850-1922
Meynell, Viola. Alice Meynell; a memoir. Scribner 1929 354p illus $5 92
29-18656

"A gifted literary woman is here seen in the midst of her lively household; in her great friendship with Coventry Patmore, Francis Thompson and others; through her charming letters and in her many activities and associations with writers of the day. Miss Meynell has in many ways given an admirable picture of her mother and her career. Illustrated from drawings and photographs." N.Y. libraries

Michelangelo Buonarroti, 1475-1564. See class 759.5

Mill, John Stuart, 1806-1873
Autobiography. . . . Columbia univ. press 1924 221p front $2.50, text book ed $1.50 92
24-27691

First published in 1873. This edition is published, without alterations or omissions, from the manuscript in the possession of Columbia university
The edition formerly published by Holt is out of print, 1939. In this older [1924] form the "Autobiography" is now obtainable in the World's classics series from Oxford at 80c
"A human document of unusual interest. Mill, a noble spirit educated by a narrow-minded pedant, shut off from all normal contact, developed an egotism that makes this book so completely an autobiography that besides his father and his wife he seems to exist alone in a world of which he was both center and circumference." Pratt alcove

Millay, Edna St Vincent, 1892-
Atkins, Elizabeth. Edna St Vincent Millay and her times. Univ. of Chicago press 1936 265p $3 92
36-32596

"It is most unusual for a living poet to have such a thorough analysis of her work made in her lifetime. In general I think this a sound study, if one discounts an understandable tendency on the part of the writer to let her enthusiasm for the poet and her work at times run away with her." Sat. rev. of lit.

Miller, Webb, 1892-1940
I found no peace; the journal of a foreign correspondent. Simon & Schuster 1936 332p o.p. 1939 92
1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 36-32382

Also available in the Star ser. (Garden City pub. co. $1)
Webb Miller became a reporter to prepare himself for writing nature studies. During that time he covered front-page news in Mexico, in France and England during the War, in Morocco, in India, in Ethiopia, and elsewhere
"I is as a straight adventure story that 'I Found No Peace' should be read. Definitely it belongs on the shelf with the other newspaper autobiographies." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Millet, Jean François, 1814-1875. See class 759.4

Milne, Alan Alexander, 1882-
Autobiography. Dutton 1939 315p front $3 92
(W) 39-27813

Autobiography of the English essayist, novelist, and dramatist. Published serially in "Atlantic monthly" under title "What luck." Published in England under title: It's too late now
"Much of it is downright witty, deeply felt, admirably written, and studded with excellent portraits." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Milton, John, 1608-1674
Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Milton. Lippincott 1935 312p front $5 92
35-4251

"Study of Milton as poet, pamphleteer and scholar, which brings in constantly as background the historical events and economic conditions of England between the years 1608 and 1674." Book rev. digest
"Engaging in its easy style, urbane, appreciative, soundly based both in fact and in esthetic understanding." N.Y. Times

Pattison, Mark, 1813-1884. Milton. Macmillan 1879 227p (English men of letters) $1.50 92
W14-31

"This little work . . . of real value as a fresh and vigorous criticism, has the peculiar charm of its author's favorite ironical manner." Saturday rev.

Additional biographies of Milton are:
Macaulay, Rose. Milton. Harper 1935 153p $2 A readable essay on Milton the man
Masson, David. Life of John Milton, narrated in connection with the political, ecclesiastical, and literary history of his time. Macmillan 1859-94 7v o.p. 1939 An authoritative and exhaustive biography
Raymond, Mrs D. N. Oliver's secretary; John Milton in an era of revolt. Putnam 1932 341p illus $3.50 A biography of the political theorist and man of affairs

Mirabeau, Honoré Gabriel Riquetti, comte de, 1749-1791
Willert, Paul Ferdinand, 1844-1912. Mirabeau. Macmillan 1898 230p (Foreign statesmen) $1.40 92
1-19088

"A portrait which is no less large in treatment because it is small in scale. . . Mirabeau, after all, was eminent for a statesmanship unique in his time; and it is for this, as well as for his superb, unconscious gift of drama, that Mr Willert justly esteems him." Spectator

Mohammed, the prophet, 570?-632
Margoliouth, David Samuel, 1858- Mohammed and the rise of Islam. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Muir, Sir William, 1819-1905. Life of Mohammad; from original sources. new and rev ed by T. H. Weir. Grant, J. cxix,556p illus maps 15s 92
23-17496

Reprint of the 1912 edition. The first edition was published in four volumes in 1861

Mohammed, the prophet—Continued

. "Undoubtedly the standard life of Mohammed in English. Its faults and limitations are known; but it is not the less a work of great learning, sound criticism, and considerable literary charm." Athenaeum

Washington Irving's "Mahomet and his successors" (Putnam 1902 3v o.p. 1939) is "one of the most attractive accounts of the rise of Mohammedanism . . . it does much to compensate for any lack of profound research by the charm of an unusually attractive style." C. K. Adams

Molière, Jean Baptiste Poquelin, 1622-1673

Matthews, Brander, 1852-1929. Molière his life and his works. Scribner 1910 385p illus $3 92

10-23659

"Sets forth the facts of Molière's life, stripped of all the legends that have gathered about it, and traces carefully his development as a dramatist and his intimate relation to the time in which he lived." Pittsburgh

Moltke, Helmuth Karl Bernhard, graf von, 1800-1891

Whitton, Frederick Ernest, 1872- Moltke. Holt 1921 326p illus maps (Makers of the nineteenth century) o.p. 1939 92

1 Austro-Prussian war, 1866 2 Franco-German war, 1870-1871 3 Germany—History—1815-1866 [21-12780]

"The life of a great commander whose personnel characteristics are scarcely known and whose biography is bound up with the rise of Prussia as a military power. Contains much on the strategy of the six weeks war with Austria in 1866 and the Franco-Prussian war in 1871. Written in clear readable style but is more suited to students of military history than to the general reader." Cleveland

Bibliography: p311-16

Monet, Claude, 1840-1926. See class 759.4

Monroe, Harriet, 1860-1936

* A poet's life; seventy years in a changing world. Macmillan 1938 488p illus $5 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Poets—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-27186

"Looking backward from her death in 1936, it would . . . seem that she had lived three lives within the years since her birthday in 1860; the first was the life of a poet, the second, a journalist, and the third, an editor. . . In this capacity, as editor of 'Poetry: A Magazine of Verse,' she was to exert an influence which has had few parallels in literary history." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Monroe, James, president U.S. 1758-1831

Gilman, Daniel Coit, 1831-1908. James Monroe in his relations to the public service during half a century, 1776 to 1826. Houghton 1883 287p (American statesmen) $2.50 92

1 Monroe doctrine 4-17019

"A short and simple account of the most important events in Monroe's life." Larned's Literature of American history

Montagu, Lady Mary (Pierrepont) Wortley, 1689-1762

Barry, Iris. Portrait of Lady Mary Montagu. Bobbs 1928 336p illus map o.p. 1939 92

28-6511

"Miss Barry busies herself with setting forth a fine example of a woman of parts, who enjoyed her place in the world. Any biography of Lady Mary Wortley Montagu, who introduced vaccination into England, by tactics bold and commonsensical should give a great many American women a new notion of social method. Miss Barry is best when she is writing of the younger and simpler Mary." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

"An historical study that is more vital and charming than nine-tenths of even the best novels. Not only does Lady Montagu emerge from these pages clothed with real flesh and blood, but the whole background of her age glows with convincing life and colour." Nation and Athenaeum

Montaigne, Michel Eyquem de, 1533-1592

Autobiography of Michel de Montaigne . . . selected, arranged, edited, prefaced, and mostly translated anew from his essays, &c, withholding no signal or curious detail, by Marvin Lowenthal. Houghton 1935 393p front $3.50 92

35-2660

"Comprising the life of the wisest man of his times: his childhood, youth, and prime; his adventures in love and marriage, at court, and in office, war, revolution, and plague; his travels at home and abroad; his habits, tastes, whims and opinions." Subtitle

"Mr. Lowenthal's book (he would himself be the first to admit it) is not a substitute for the complete Essays, but it is an admirable supplement to them, and it may be heartily recommended to those who want their Montaigne without the digressions, without the admittedly numerous passages of tedious learning, without the innumerable classical quotations." Christian science monitor

Dowden, Edward, 1843-1913. Michel de Montaigne. Lippincott 1905 383p front (French men of letters) o.p. 1939 92

5-26750

The essayist's life told clearly and simply, as far as possible in Montaigne's own words. No handbook better fitted for readers who have not the time to read the essays themselves. Adapted from Academy

Moody, Dwight Lyman, 1837-1899

Bradford, Gamaliel, 1863-1932. D. L. Moody, a worker in souls. Doran 1927 320p illus o.p. 1939 92

27-23399

"Mr. Bradford's task . . . was to build up a personality from the fragmentary data which Dwight L. Moody left behind him, and he has done it carefully and with extraordinary analytical skill, dividing his book not into chronological divisions, but into chapters that exhaust aspects of Moody. Thus we have the growth of a soul, Moody's attitude on heaven and hell, Moody the preacher, Moody in his relationship to Ira D. Sankey, Moody the man, Moody the man of business and Moody the molder of souls." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p305-08

Moody, Dwight L.—Continued

Moody, Paul Dwight, 1879- My father; an intimate portrait of Dwight Moody. Little 1938 210p illus $2.75 92

(W) 38-27257

"Paul D. Moody, president of Middlebury College, has written a brief memoir of his famous father, Dwight Moody, the evangelistic preacher. An examination of dates shows that the son was but 20 when the father died, so this is essentially a boy's recollections, beginning with those of early childhood. Written with considerable charm as well as affection and of especial interest to older readers who remember Moody or his times." Wis. bul.

Moore, George, 1852-1933

Hail and farewell. Appleton-Century 1925 2v $7.50 92

25-21405

"Witty autobiographical discussions of Irish art, literature, music, Catholicism and Protestantism, Yeats, A. E., Lady Gregory, and others outstanding in the Irish renaissance. Written in semi-narrative form, based on his life in Ireland after his return from Paris. Originally issued in three volumes beginning in 1911. Contents: 1. Ave. Salve—2. Salve (continued) Vale." Bkl.

J. M. Hone's "Life of George Moore" (Macmillan 1936 515p illus $5) is the official biography based on a mass of documents in the possession of Moore's brother and of his literary executor. Contains many delightful stories

Moore, Thomas, 1779-1852

Gwynn, Stephen Lucius, 1864- Thomas Moore. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Mora, Constancia de la, 1906-

* In place of splendor; the autobiography of a Spanish woman. Harcourt 1939 433p $3 92

1 Spain—History—Civil war, 1936-1939

(W) 39-29401

The life story of a young Spanish woman of noble birth who served in the Loyalist cause in the Civil war as head of the Foreign press bureau

"A document which holds interest both for the dramatic story of the emergence of a personality and the historic events in which she played an important part." N.Y. Times

Morgan, John Pierpont, 1837-1913

Satterlee, Herbert Livingston, 1863- J. Pierpont Morgan; an intimate portrait. Macmillan 1939 595p illus maps $3.75 92

(W) 39-29473

"No attempt has been made to write an appreciation or estimate of Mr. Morgan; rather, I have tried to give the reader some idea of his background and bringing up and of the man himself, as his family and intimates knew him." Forword

"It does not show the iron in Morgan's character, the grimmer, harder side of the man. It gives us no real glimpse of that terrifying personality as it was seen by some rival he hated, some opponent whom he was bent upon destroying. But for all that, it is a revealing and valuable book, which achieves the main object attempted by the writer." N.Y. Times

Winkler, John Kennedy, 1891- Morgan, the magnificent; the life of J. Pierpont Morgan (1837-1913). Vanguard 1930 313p front o.p. 1939 92

30-22945

"The outstanding merit of this volume . . . is its readability; its outstanding defect is its lack of expertness. If a masterly life of Morgan is ever written, it will be by a man who combines the role of economist and historian, and Mr. Winkler understands neither too well. But he does understand how to give a quick, vivid impression of a social scene, how to tell a story with vigor and interest, and how to render a portrait of his hero." Sat. rev. of lit.

Morley, John Morley, viscount, 1838-1923

Recollections. Macmillan 1917 2v 30s 92

1 Great Britain—Intellectual life 2 Great Britain—Politics and government—19th century 3 Great Britain—Politics and government—20th century

[17-29196]

A happy combination of autobiography, philosophical comment, literary appreciation and personal character-sketching. Viscount Morley had an extraordinary talent for friendship. Mill, Meredith, Joseph Chamberlain, Parnell, Sir Alfred Lyall and Frederic Harrison—these are but samples to show his range of association. Good stories are not taboo, and piquant sayings star many a page. Writing with entire freedom of the political events of England of thirty years past, in which he played so worthy a part as chief secretary for Ireland and as secretary of state for India, Morley betrays no secrets, records no bitter verdicts. No one can lay down these 'Recollections' without feeling that he has been in contact with something large and fine. Condensed from Nation

Morris, Gouverneur, 1752-1816

Roosevelt, Theodore, president U.S. 1858-1919. Gouverneur Morris. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Morris, Robert Tuttle, 1857-

Fifty years a surgeon. Dutton 1935 346p front $2 92

1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Surgery 35-2481

"This autobiography of a New York surgeon is made up largely of anecdotes of his career, and his wise, penetrating comments and criticisms on important aspects of his profession. There are special chapters on appendicitis, gland grafting, the general practitioner, osteopathy, psychoanalysis and metaphysics, sex and birth control, and fee-splitting." Book rev. digest

"A book which one puts aside with regret. Not flamboyant, not prejudiced, full of pride in vindicated achievements, fearless in point of view, it mirrors the finest type of service coupled with scholarship and knowledge." Scientific book club review

Morris, William, 1834-1896

Clutton-Brock, Arthur, 1868-1924. William Morris, his work and influence. Butterworth, T. 1914 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) 2s 6d 92

[14-13556]

"Admirable short biography, sufficiently comprehensive for a small collection, treating Morris' life, friends and interests and activities in literature, craftsmanship and socialism. Based largely on Mackail's 'Life.' " N.Y. state lib.

Morris, William—Continued

J. W. Mackail's "Life of William Morris" (Longmans 1899 2v $10.50, 2v in 1 $5) is the authorized biography of the famous decorator, printer, craftsman and author. Mackail had unreserved access to family records and this biography should therefore be consulted for fuller details

Noyes, Alfred, 1880- William Morris. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Morrow, Dwight Whitney, 1873-1931
Nicolson, Harold George, 1886- Dwight Morrow. Harcourt 1935 409p illus $3.75 92

35-18404

"A distinguished English biographer skilfully traces Morrow's main interests and activities from his childhood in Allegheny, Pa., on throughout his life. Glimpses of home life, with quotations from letters, Mrs Morrow's diary, etc., alternate with achievements in law, business, education, war service, Mexico and politics. The author's chief interest, however, is in Morrow's contribution to the theory and practice of diplomacy and in the way his ability in diplomacy evolved from his early ethics and later education and experiences." N.Y. libraries

Morse, Samuel Finley Breese, 1791-1872
Samuel F. B. Morse; his letters and journals; ed. and supplemented by his son E. L. Morse; illus. with reproductions of his paintings and with notes and diagrams bearing on the invention of the telegraph. Houghton 1914 2v illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Telegraph 14-20885

Samuel Morse, "best known as an inventor, was also one of the most notable painters of his time. From his intimate family letters in volume one we have an account of his life in England as a student of art, his return to America, and his work in portrait painting. Volume two tells in detail the events leading up to the invention of the telegraph and the difficulties which Morse overcame." Pittsburgh

Morton, Mrs Rosalie (Slaughter) 1876-
A woman surgeon; the life and work of Rosalie Slaughter Morton. Stokes 1937 399p front $3 92

1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 37-27101

"A conventional Southern girlhood, and a break with tradition when a girl decided to follow the men of her family in medicine, preceded Dr. Morton's training here and abroad, and her success as a surgeon. War service, the organization of the American women's hospitals, the education of Serbian students in America, and other humanitarian causes have been part of her ever active career." Bkl.

Mowrer, Mrs Lilian (Thomson)
‡ Journalist's wife. Morrow 1937 414p front $3.50 92

1 Europe—Politics—1914- (W) 37-28799

Also obtainable from Grosset at $1 with two new chapters describing the author's experiences in Czechoslovakia, Switzerland and Paris in 1938 and 1939

The wife of the Paris correspondent of the "Chicago Daily News" gives an account of European politics from a woman's point of view and of the life of a journalist's family in Europe

"A charming book by an alert, witty woman who knows whereof she speaks and who tells her story clearly and comprehensively. It is a vivid picture of Europe inside the news." Boston Transcript

Mozart, Johann Chrysostom Wolfgang Amadeus, 1756-1791. See class 780.92

Muir, John, 1838-1914
John of the mountains; the unpublished journals of John Muir, ed. by L. M. Wolfe. Houghton 1938 459p illus $3.75 92

1 Alaska—Description and travel 2 California—Description and travel 3 Natural History—California (W) 38-27397

"The sixty extant journals of John Muir were written over a period of forty-four years, from 1867 to 1911. Closely allied with them is a mass of notes scribbled upon loose sheets and bits of paper of all shapes and sizes. The journals cover nearly the whole of his career as a naturalist, narrating his wanderings, describing what he saw, recording his scientific researches." Introduction

"A reader addicted to John Muir may find nothing absolutely new in this volume. Nevertheless he will want it, and having read it he will realize that Muir has not repeated himself." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

‡ Story of my boyhood and youth. Houghton 1913 293p illus $3 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 13-5573

A notable piece of autobiographic writing—the story of an unusually interesting boyhood and youth told with an energy and an eye for the diverting and significant that distinguish it at once from the slipshod garrulity of most books of the kind. The first fifty pages are devoted to the author's boyhood in Dunbar, beside the North sea. At the age of eleven he accompanied his family to Wisconsin, and the chapters that form the bulk of the volume describe the joys of those early days in a new land. Condensed from Nation

Reprinted from Atlantic monthly

John Muir's "Boyhood of a naturalist" consisting of selected chapters from "Story of my boyhood and youth" is published in the Riverside literature series (Houghton 122p front 48c)

Badè, William Frederic, 1871-1936. Life and letters of John Muir. Houghton 1924 2v illus o.p. 1939 92

A25-247

"The life story of the great naturalist and explorer who belongs in the group with Thoreau and Burroughs and who was so closely identified with the movement for the conservation of our great national parks of the west. This 'Life' supplements his 'Story of my boyhood and youth' and is largely based on his correspondence descriptive of his wanderings, letters which one of his friends characterized as 'poems of great and exquisite beauty worthy to be written out of a heart whose close communion with nature springs from a perfect love.' " Cleveland

Mukerji, Dhan Gopal, 1890-1936
Caste and outcast. Dutton 1923 303p $2.50 92

1 India—Social life and customs 23-8871

"This Hindu of Brahman parentage describes his youth, and the life of a little village near Calcutta, with the background of religious thought and ritual. Of peculiar interest is the lad's initiation into the priesthood at 14 years of age, and his forlorn setting forth as a beggar. In sharp contrast to this, stand his initiation into American life, his struggles, contacts and impressions." N.Y. state lib.

Mukerji, Dhan G.—Continued

Munthe, Axel Martin Frederik, 1857-
* Story of San Michele. Dutton 1929 530p $3 92

1 Physicians—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 30-5827

"A cheaper reprint of the autobiography, first published in England in 1929, of a Swedish physician who graduated in medicine at Paris and was associated with Pasteur. He worked in Paris, Rome, and Naples, and gives an interesting account of Charcot and his theories on hypnotism. Later, on the site of the villa of Tiberius and the chapel of San Michele on Capri, he built a home which has become famous for its beauty. The author's wide interests, vivid style, humor, and imagination make this an engrossing human document." Bkl.

"One of the frankest and most absorbing autobiographies of recent years. Packed with good stories, with vivid scenes of travel and with portraits of strangely varied characters." Nation and Athenaeum

Murillo, Bartolomé Esteban, 1617-1682. See class 759.6

Musorgskiĭ, Modest Petrovich, 1839-1881. See class 780.92

Mussolini, Benito, 1883-
My autobiography; with a foreword by R. W. Child. Scribner 1928 318p illus $3.50 92

1 Italy—Politics and government 28-25560

"Dictated in odd moments between appointments, this story of his life by Mussolini first saw publication in the 'Saturday evening post'. There is an introduction by Richard Washburn Child, former Ambassador to Italy, at whose request the autobiography was written." Book rev. digest

"Like all his other acts, it is the projection of a tremendous original force, and it has the character of a projectile. The reader is warned by the author not to seek here 'detailed memoirs.'" Yale review

Megaro, Gaudence, 1903- Mussolini in the making. Houghton 1938 347p illus $3.50 92

(W) 38-27421

"Much of this book is biographical, but the author's chief purpose is to show the extreme changes that have taken place in Mussolini's avowed ideologies, from that of a violent Marxist to the present more violent Fascist. His personal character is interpreted in the light of many hitherto unpublished or censored documents." Bkl.

Emil Ludwig's "Talks with Mussolini" (Little 1933 229p illus $2.75) contains 18 interviews, reported word for word, on politics, great men, dictatorships, etc. Not a deep study, but interesting reading

* Seldes, George, 1890- Sawdust Caesar; the untold history of Mussolini and fascism. Harper 1935 459p $3 92

1 Fascism 2 Italy—Politics and government 35-28735

"Mr. Seldes is fearless, frank, specific. One may not vote 'guilty' on all the charges that he makes, but the indictment is drawn in terms that are unmistakably clear, the evidence on the various items is specified and the witnesses are named." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Nansen, Fridtjof, 1861-1930
Sorensen, Jon, 1868- Saga of Fridtjof Nansen; tr. from the Norwegian by J. B. C. Watkins. Norton 1932 372p illus $4.50 92

32-31154

"An authoritative account and interpretation of the great Norwegian explorer's life and character. Describes in detail Nansen's spectacular crossing of Greenland on skiis, the 'Fram' polar expedition, his work with the League of Nations, his struggle and success in bringing relief to starving Russia, and many other episodes which made his life thrilling and extraordinarily varied. A splendid biography of an heroic figure." Ontario library review

Napoléon I, emperor of the French, 1769-1821
Bainville, Jacques, 1879-1936. Napoleon; tr. from the French by Hamish Miles. Little 1933 418p illus $3 92

33-1431

"The tenor of this book, without a touch of sentiment, romance, picturesqueness, is more entrancing in its cool lucidity than the pathetic eloquence of all Napoleon worshippers. It makes the man, caught in the meshes of his formidable story, more human than he appears in alleged intimate portraits." Albert Guerard in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Caulaincourt, Armand Augustin Louis, marquis de, duc de Vicence, 1773-1827. No peace with Napoleon! Concluding the Memoirs of General de Caulaincourt, duke of Vicenza; from the original memoirs as ed. by Jean Hanoteau; tr. ed. and with an introduction by George Libaire. Morrow 1936 286p illus $3 92

1 France—History—Consulate and empire, 1799-1815 36-35176

"Contains an account of the Congress of Châtillon in February, 1814, where the author was Napoleon's representative, discusses the treachery of the men Napoleon trusted, and the attempted suicide, and closes with Elba looming on the immediate horizon." Book rev. digest

"The same candor and sincerity which the first volume possessed are present, if possible to an even more intense degree, in these pages which tell of the 'Agony of the Empire.'" N.Y. Times

Caulaincourt, Armand Augustin Louis, marquis de, duc de Vicence, 1773-1827. With Napoleon in Russia . . . from the original memoirs as ed. by Jean Hanoteau. abridged ed. and with an introduction by George Libaire. Morrow 1935 422p illus map $4 92

1 France—History—Consulate and empire, 1799-1815 25-19404

Published in England under title: "Memoirs, 1812-1815." Translated by Hamish Miles

"The writer of these memoirs was a French aristocrat who became one of Napoleon's closest followers. Holding the position of Master of Horse, he was Napoleon's companion thruout the Russian invasion and during the flight back to Paris, his sole companion. During this journey Napoleon talked freely, revealing to his auditor

Napoléon I, emperor of the French—Cont.
his thoughts, his plans, his excuses for failure. These memoirs compiled in later years from rough notes, remained unpublished for more than a century." Book rev. digest

"Caulaincourt's narrative is one of extraordinary frankness and intimacy, a day-by-day record of the Emperor's shifting mind, more honest than anything Napoleon himself would put on paper." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

* Fisher, Herbert Albert Laurens, 1865- Napoleon. Holt 1913 256p maps (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25 92

13-6360

"Concise but lucid outline of Napoleon's career, with emphasis on his character rather than on his campaigns. Of rare excellence, displaying true literary and historical appreciation and correct proportion and perspective." Amer. hist. rev.

Appendixes: Some maxims of Napoleon; Genealogy of the Bonaparte family
Bibliography: p252-53

Fournier, August, 1850-1920. Napoléon the First, a biography; tr. by M. B. Corwin and A. D. Bissell; ed. by E. G. Bourne. Holt 1903 836p o.p. 1939 92

1 France—History—Consulate and empire, 1799-1815 3-31254

The translation by A. E. Adams of the second edition of the original work revised by Fournier in 1904-06 and published by Holt in 1911 is out of print, 1939

"An Austrian work of the highest possible authority. . . It is for Napoleon as statesman that Fournier is peculiarly valuable." W. W. Davies's How to read history
Bibliography: p745-88

* Ludwig, Emil, 1881- Napoleon; tr. by Eden and Cedar Paul. Liveright 1926 707p illus $3 92

27-264

Also available in reprints from Garden City pub. co. in the Star series for $1, in a de luxe ed at $1.79, and in the Modern library for 95c

"The most brilliant exposition of the Napoleonic legend should rightfully be noteworthy and popular. Such an attempt to enliven history is praiseworthy, and two factors have contributed to its success. The first is the author's style, perhaps the foremost example of the way the historical present should and should not be used—for it is the medium of the entire work. The second is the copious use of the words of Napoleon himself (often frankly imaginary) and of his contemporaries." Amer. hist.

Morris, William O'Connor. Napoleon. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Rose, John Holland, 1855- Life of Napoleon I, including new materials from the British official records. Bell, G. 2v illus maps 30s, 2v in 1 10s 92

12-21869

First published 1901. Formerly carried also by Harcourt

"Well written and scholarly, revising certain anti-Napoleonic traditions. In part based on archival materials resulting in new evidence on many disputed questions, but reflects the British point of view." Guide to hist. lit.

Rose, John Holland, 1855- Personality of Napoleon; the Lowell lectures delivered at Boston in February—March 1912. Bell, G. 1912 307p illus maps 3s 6d 92

12-25619

Formerly carried also by Putnam

"Series of compact, critical analyses of Napoleon the man, Jacobin, warrior, emperor, lawgiver, thinker, world-ruler, and exile, by a highly competent English scholar. Based on an extensive acquaintance with the literature of the Napoleonic period; presents in attractive form and in sympathetic spirit the most important aspects of this subject." Guide to hist. lit.

Rosebery, Archibald Philip Primrose, 5th earl of, 1847-1929. Napoleon, the last phase. Smith, P. 287p (Travellers' lib.) $1 92

[0-6701]

First published 1900

"A plea for Napoleon's right to have been treated differently, and an indictment, in unsparing terms of England's conduct towards him. . . In so far as it rebukes England this book can appeal only to the minority; but the drama is so skillfully unfolded, and the central figure is so minutely bodied forth, that it is also a book for all. . . Lord Rosebery is never dull. He has humor as well as thoroness, picturesqueness as well as fluency. Better still he has imaginative sympathy." Pittsburgh

Additional recommended books on Napoleon are:

Faure, Élie. Napoléon, tr. from the French by J. E. Jeffery [pseud]. Knopf 1924 252p o.p. 1939 A searching psychological study

Guérard, A. L. Reflections on the Napoleonic legend. Scribner 1924 276p o.p. 1939 An effort to determine whether the facts of his career warrant his reputation

Kircheisen, F. M. Napoleon; tr. by Henry St. Lawrence. Howe 1931 761p illus maps 21s An epitome of the author's extensive work in nine volumes

Napoléon I, emperor of the French. The Corsican; a diary of Napoleon's life in his own words. Comp. and tr. by R. M. Johnston. Houghton 1910 526p (Riverside lib.) $1

Nehru, Jawaharlal, 1889-

Singh, Anup. Nehru, the rising star of India. Day 1939 168p $1.75 92

39-30778

"Brief biography of the Brahmin nationalist leader in India who ranks next to Gandhi in importance. The book gives the facts of his English schooling, his political career, his conversion to Socialism, and his rise to power in India." Book rev. digest

"A well knit, sympathetic and fair-minded sketch. He dissects with particular skill the divergent traits in Nehru's personality, the half-compassionate cynicism of the cultured skeptic who has become an Indian myth, the embarrassment of an English university man transformed into a popular saint." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Nelson, Horatio Nelson, viscount, 1758-1805

Russell, William Clark, 1844-1911. Nelson. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Nelson, Horatio N. viscount—Continued

Southey, Robert, 1774-1843. Southey's Life of Nelson with introduction and critical notes by Geoffrey Callender. . . Dutton 1922 xliii,339p illus maps $3 92

23-26245

Also obtainable in Everyman's library (Dutton 90c)

Expanded by Southey from an article contributed by him to the "Quarterly Review" in 1808

"Tho one of the best known and most popular of all lives of Nelson, it is unreliable as biography, but interesting and valuable as literature, one of Southey's best works." Pittsburgh

Wilkinson, Clennell, 1883-1936. Nelson. Harrap 1931 322p illus 5s 92

[31-28045]

Formerly carried also by Longmans

"A fine study of the national hero done in a composite sort of way from all the well-known biographical material. It is a careful survey of Nelson's whole life from beginning to end, with particular emphasis on the Nile, Trafalgar and St. Vincent battles. Lady Hamilton's character and her husband's attitude are creditably done with due regard to historical evidence. An interesting and easily read biography." Ontario library review

A. T. Mahan's "Life of Nelson" (2d ed rev Little 1899 764p illus maps o.p. 1939) is another authoritative biography. It traces the personal, professional and political life, but it is particularly valuable for the discussion of Nelson the seaman

Nevin, Ethelbert Woodbridge, 1862-1901. See class 780.92

Newman, John Henry, cardinal, 1801-1890

* Apologia pro vita sua; being a history of his religious opinions. new ed Longmans 1897 xxviii,395p $2 92

4-16967

"Remarkable account of the inner life of the distinguished English cardinal for forty-five years, written in answer to a controversial pamphlet by Charles Kingsley. 'Few books have so triumphantly accomplished their purpose as that remarkable work. Its simple candour wrought conviction even in theological opponents, while it revolutionized the popular estimate of its author.'" Pittsburgh

Another edition of this famous book contains the two versions of 1864 and 1865, preceded by Newman's and Kingsley's pamphlets, with an introduction by Wilfrid Ward (Oxford $3) A cheaper edition with an introduction by A. B. G. Hart is obtainable in the Modern readers' series (Macmillan $1)

Ward, Wilfrid Philip, 1856-1916. Life of John Henry, cardinal Newman; based on his private journals and correspondence. Longmans 1912 2v $7 92

12-2237

A valuable contribution to history and literature. The writer . . . has been enabled to employ facts not formerly known. A clear and outspoken narrative which makes it possible for the first time to estimate the cardinal's career as a whole. Adapted from Nation [London]

Bertram Newman's "Cardinal Newman" (Appleton-Century 1925 223p o.p. 1939) is primarily a biographical study, but also discusses and appraises his most important literary work

Nietzche, Friedrich Wilhelm, 1844-1900

Ecce homo (Nietzche's autobiography) tr. by A. M. Ludovici, with an introduction by Oscar Levy. Macmillan 1911 143p $4.25 92

31-3529

"Scarcely an autobiography, rather a philosophical statement of Nietzsche's personal reactions on life, grouped under the following heads: Why I am so wise; Why I am so clever; Why I write such excellent books; Why I am a fatality. Contains also a selection of his poems." Cleveland

Nightingale, Florence, 1820-1910

Cook, Sir Edward Tyas, 1857-1919. Short life of Florence Nightingale; abridged from The life, by Sir Edward Cook, with additional matter, by Rosalind Nash. Macmillan 1925 404p illus $2.50 92

25-17163

An abridgment of the exhaustive and authoritative two volume work, out of print 1939, omitting much explanatory material and many of the letters

* Richards, Mrs Laura Elizabeth (Howe) 1850- Florence Nightingale; the angel of the Crimea; a story for young people. Appleton-Century 1909 167p front $1.75, educ. ed. $1 92

9-25804

"Told in very attractive style, showing marked sympathy and emphasizing the great and womanly qualities that make its subject one of the most honored of the world's helpers. Gives an excellent picture of hospital nursing and of the horrors of war." A. L. A. bkl.

Nijinsky, Waslaw, 1890-

* Nijinsky, Mme Romola (de Pulszky). Nijinsky, by his wife; foreword by Paul Claudel. Simon & Schuster 1934 447p illus $1.49 92

34-27111

"The opening chapter of this biography of the Russian dancer recounts how Mme Nijinsky first saw her future husband in 1912 in Budapest, when he was already at the height of his career. Then the book goes back to his childhood and tells the whole story of his life, from his birth in 1890, thruout the years of his fame as a dancer, and the years of his happy marriage, and traces the slow development of the mania which finally caused his retirement from the world." Book rev. digest

"Mme. Nijinsky has given us a fascinating sociological document, she has made a contribution to a highly important episode in aesthetic history, she has provided material for far-reaching speculations in the region of psychopathology, and she has written a deeply moving story of a dramatic human relationship." New statesman and Nation

Anatole Bourman's "Tragedy of Nijinsky" written in collaboration with D. Lyman (McGraw 1936 xx,291p illus o.p. 1939) adds details of the dancer's boyhood and training. Written by one who entered the ballet school with Nijinsky and was closely associated with him

Noguchi, Hideyo, 1876-1928

Eckstein, Gustav, 1890- Noguchi. Harper 1931 419p illus $3 92

31-12734

"Something of the subtle charm of a Japanese print has been imparted by Dr. Eckstein to his story of the life of the great Japanese bacteriologist who not long ago fell a victim to the yellow fever which he was investigating on the west coast of Africa. And along with that, much of the nervous energy and restless drive which marked the work of Noguchi." Christian century

Noguchi, Hideyo—Continued

Nuñez Cabeza de Vaca, Alvar
Bishop, Morris Gilbert. Odyssey of Cabeza de Vaca. Appleton-Century 1933 306p illus maps $3 92

33-27160

"Cabeza de Vaca is noted in history as the first European to cross the North American continent, his journey from Florida across the Gulf of Mexico and thence across Mexico to the Gulf of California occupying the nine years—most of them spent in captivity—from 1527 to 1536. Later he was made governor of a vast stretch of land in South America but his humane policy toward the Indians roused the hatred of his fellows and he was sent back in chains to Spain where after years of litigation he died in poverty and disgrace. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Professor Bishop, contributing this well documented history for the use of the general reader, has . . . made a mark for himself by combining an appreciation of the physical tragedy with that of the spiritual man undone by a purpose beyond his generation to appreciate. . . The narrative is smoothly written, the selection for emphasis is good." Sat. rev. of lit.

O. Henry, pseud. See Porter, William Sydney

O'Casey, Sean, 1884-
I knock at the door; swift glances back at things that made me. Macmillan 1939 268p front $2.50 92

(W) 39-18601

"Mr. O'Casey looks back over the first twelve years of his life. It is a painful retrospect on the whole, for the boy who was born into the Dublin of the eighties, was the member of a shabby genteel family for whom life was a grinding struggle and his childhood and adolescence was one of privation and illness." Book-of-the-month club news

O'Connell, William Henry, cardinal, 1859-
Recollections of seventy years. Houghton 1934 395p illus $3.50 92

34-19155

"This veteran churchman is a man of vivid personality. His life has been varied, his environments and contacts in the United States, Italy and Japan interesting and sometimes picturesque. His memoirs are well written and illumined by a keen mind and an earnest spirit." Cincinnati

Odlum, Mrs Hortense (McQuarrie) 1892-
* Woman's place; the autobiography of Hortense Odlum. Scribner 1939 286p $2.75 92

1 Bonwit Teller & co. New York 2 Clothing and dress 3 Department stores
(W) 39-27876

The life story of the woman who became the successful president of Bonwit Teller, a specialty shop for women in New York City

"It is readable and in its way a suggestive book. Mrs Odlum not only traces the general outlines of her success but brings together a number of illuminating anecdotes from her store experience. . . This is an unusual kind of success story and should be really informative." N.Y. Times

O'Neill, Eugene Gladstone, 1888-
Clark, Barrett Harper, 1890- Eugene O'Neill; the man and his plays. [rev ed] McBride 1936 218p $1 92

37-4354

First published 1926. Enlarged in 1933 by over 100 pages. Reprinted with minor changes 1936

"This book is largely bibliographical and critical, about one-third of the pages being devoted to O'Neill's life and the rest to a consideration of his plays. The book is said by O'Neill himself to be a somewhat premature appraisal, but it is nevertheless interesting as a piece of contemporary criticism." Bkl.

Bibliography: p201-18

Osborne, Dorothy. See Temple, Dorothy (Osborne) lady

Osborne, Thomas Mott, 1859-1926
Chamberlain, Rudolph Wilson, 1891- There is no truce; a life of Thomas Mott Osborne. Macmillan 1935 420p illus $3.50 92

35-3612

"A full-length, factual biography of Thomas Mott Osborne, written by an enthusiastic admirer, who believes that in spite of the apparent failure of some of Osborne's work, the influence of his ideals of prison reform is still felt and is growing." Book rev. digest

"This is a biography, not a mere defense or apologetic. It is sympathetic, but not simply hero-worship. The faults and failings of the reformer are pointed out as well as his wonderful achievements." Boston Transcript

Frank Tannenbaum's "Osborne of Sing Sing" (Univ. of N.C. press 1933 343p $3) is a readable account of Osborne's work in arousing sentiment against an obsolete penal system. It is entirely commendatory

Osler, Sir William bart. 1849-1919
Cushing, Harvey Williams, 1869-1939. Life of Sir William Osler. Oxford 1940 1417p illus map $5 92

40-27751

A one-volume edition of a book first published 1925 in two volumes

"Sir William Osler (1849-1919) was an English physician. The first volume of this biography follows his career as a student in Toronto and Montreal and as a professor in McGill medical school, in the University of Pennsylvania, and in Johns Hopkins university. The second volume is devoted to his work at Oxford, his activities during the World war, and his final illness. Osler's broad interests and the detail with which Dr Cushing writes make the work almost a history of medical science during the period." Pittsburgh

"The theme is noble, the book is worthy of its subject; there is little to criticize. . . the matter is all pure gold and the book should rank as one of the classical biographies." Nature

* Reid, Mrs Edith (Gittings) 1863- Great physician; a short life of Sir William Osler. Oxford 1931 299p illus $1.50 92

31-28038

"An intimate picture of the career of one of the greatest men of his generation, written from a sympathetic point of view

Osler, Sir William bart.—Continued
by one who knew him well. The book contains a wealth of anecdotes illustrating Dr. Osler's great human qualities which endeared him to so many." Ontario library review

"Edith Gittings Reid's short biography is well done. . . It is a good thing to have this short account to put into the hands of students who might be staggered by the prospect of Dr. Cushing's two volumes of official life." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Ossoli, Sarah Margaret (Fuller) marchesa d' 1810-1850

Anthony, Katharine Susan, 1877- Margaret Fuller; a psychological biography. Harcourt 1920 223p front o.p. 1939 92

20-18959

"A study of Margaret Fuller from the standpoint of modern psychology, analyzing the hysteria of her childhood and the neurotic element in her later life. Her contribution to the feminist movement and her relation to the revolutionary struggle in Europe are also dealt with from a modern point of view." Book rev. digest

"Margaret Fuller's genius was akin to madness, and how far such an analysis of so abnormal a character is of real value is questionable. It is, however, unquestionably well done." Outlook

Wade, Mason, 1913- Margaret Fuller, whetstone of genius. Viking 1940 304p illus $3.50 92

(W) 40-6049

An "account of America's first feminist which covers her early scholarly education under an exacting father, her friendships with the New England Transcendentalists, her work as literary critic under Horace Greeley in New York, and the four final, tragic years of her life in Italy during Garibaldi's revolution, her marriage, and the death by shipwreck of herself, her husband, and child. [Bibliography]" Library journal

"Sympathetic and well balanced account. Although Mr. Wade pursues a different method and disagrees with some of Miss Anthony's conclusions, his portrait of Margaret the woman, does not differ fundamentally from hers. He has, however, painted her with a wider sweep, with much revealing detail of her relation to all her backgrounds. . . This is a freshly conceived and vital picture of a fascinating and unique woman and the society in which she played a really great part." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Owen, Robert, 1771-1858

Cole, George Douglas Howard, 1889- Life of Robert Owen. 2d ed Macmillan 1930 349p $2.75 92

1 Cooperation 2 Socialism 31-9410

"Clearly stated and sifted facts concerning the personal and public life of 'the father of British socialism' whose long life was devoted to social and labor reforms." Chicago

Principal writings of Robert Owen: p337-38 Books useful for the study of Owen and Owenism: p339-42

Paderewski, Ignacy Jan, 1860- See class 780.92

Page, Walter Hines, 1855-1918

* Hendrick, Burton Jesse, 1870- Life and letters of Walter H. Page. Doubleday 1922-25 3v $15 92

1 U.S. — Foreign relations 2 Wilson, Woodrow, president U.S. 1865-1924

25-1080

"Page's brilliant letters, filled as they are with illuminating comments on public men and policies, differences with Woodrow Wilson before the entrance of the United States into the war, and enthusiasm for the fine qualities of the English people, are an inspiring and invaluable contribution to our history and literature. Awarded the Pulitzer prize in 1923 for the best American biography." N.Y. state lib.

Volumes one and two are also obtainable separately at $10. They do not contain the letters written to President Wilson which are included in volume 3. There is a school edition of v 1-2, much abridged and adapted for school use by R. L. Lyman (Doubleday 349p front $1)

Hendrick, Burton Jesse, 1870- Training of an American; the earlier life and letters of Walter H. Page, 1855-1913. Houghton 1928 444p illus $5 92

28-11821

"The purpose of this book is to complete the biography of Walter H. Page. The materials concerning Mr. Page's work as Ambassador were so abundant and of such transcendent interest that they absorbed practically all of the two volumes originally assigned for his 'Life and Letters.'" Preface

"Furnishes many valuable shafts of light upon the political, the social, and the literary history of the United States from the early seventies to 1913. Mr. Hendrick has executed his task with his wonted skill and ease. . . The early pages upon Page's boyhood have special charm." Sat. rev. of lit.

Paine, Thomas, 1737-1809

Smith, Frank, 1907- Thomas Paine, liberator. Stokes 1938 338p front $3 92

38-27829

"Sympathetic biography of a revolutionary pamphleteer, stressing his services to democracy in the American and French revolutions." Book rev. digest

"The strength of the Smith volume lies in the completeness with which it digests Paine's contributions to the cause of freedom in three countries. Its weakness is in its portrait of Paine as a human being." N.Y. Times

Palestrina, Giovanni Battista Pierluigi da, d. 1594. See class 780.92

Palmer, Mrs Alice Elvira (Freeman) 1855-1902

* Palmer, George Herbert, 1842-1933. Life of Alice Freeman Palmer. new ed with appendix. Houghton 1924 363p illus $2.50 92

24-24473

Also obtainable in the Riverside literature series (Houghton $1.12)

"The work of Alice Freeman Palmer (1855-1902) was of historical importance in the development of education in America. Becoming president of Wellesley college at the age of 26, she shaped its policies in the direction they have since followed. She was a member of the Massachusetts State board of education and for three years dean of the Woman's department of the University of Chicago. All these interests are fully treated in this biography, written by her husband, but they are subordinated to the intimate and penetrating study of Mrs Palmer as a woman." Pittsburgh

Palmer, Mrs Alice E. F.—Continued

Palmerston, Henry John Temple, 3d viscount, 1784-1865
Guedalla, Philip, 1889- Palmerston, 1784-1865. Putnam 1927 548p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Great Britain—History—19th century 27-2671

"The biography narrates an immense number of events—for Palmerston lived a long life, was Minister of War at twenty-six and died as Prime Minister at eighty. Moreover, 'the life of Palmerston was the life of England and, to a large extent, of Europe' in those years. Indeed, the book is so packed with information, drawn from all sorts of published and unpublished sources, that sometimes one loses perspective and the relative importance of events becomes obscured. . . Yet, on the whole, the book is a brilliant and important achievement." Boston

Panunzio, Constantine Maria, 1884-
Soul of an immigrant. Macmillan 1921 329p illus $2.50 92

1 U.S.—Foreign population 21-16216

"A frank and absorbing record of the struggle of a young Italian immigrant to understand and adjust himself to this country. Exploited by street contractors, in lumber camps and on a New England farm, he finally wins an economic foothold and an education and from this vantage point, gets a vision of the real America. Summing up the points for and against his adopted country, he finally decides to cast his permanent lot with her because 'thru the Western window comes the light.' " Cleveland

Parker, Carleton Hubbell, 1879-1918
Parker, Mrs Cornelia (Stratton) 1885- An American idyll; the life of Carleton H. Parker. Little 1919 190p front $2 92

19-10090

"An attempt to reveal the charm and inspiration of an exceptional personality. Mr Parker was a teacher of economics and an investigator and mediator in labor problems. His life, which ended at the early age of forty, was rich in its interest in humanity, its comradeship and its love." Pittsburgh

"A memorable biography of a contemporary American liberal. And a beautiful love story." Dial

Parker, Theodore, 1810-1860
Commager, Henry Steele, 1902- Theodore Parker. Little 1936 339p illus $3 92

36-27204

"Great preacher, scholar, reformer, abolitionist, politician—the figure of Theodore Parker is one of the most dramatic in the American ministry. This latest interpretation of him gives a clear insight not only into his character and influence but also into the causes he championed and the 'golden age of New England thought and literature' in which he lived." Religious bk. club bul.

Parkman, Francis, 1823-1893
Farnham, Charles Haight, 1841- Life of Francis Parkman. Little 1901 394p illus o.p. 1939 92

1-131434

"Sympathetic, impartial account of the historian of France in America." Pittsburgh
Bibliography: p359-64

Parnell, Charles Stewart, 1846-1891
Ervine, St John Greer, 1883- Parnell. Little 1925 341p front (Curiosities of politics) o.p. 1939 92

1 Ireland—History [25-21147]

"A fine sense of dramatic values has guided Mr St John Ervine in writing this fascinating biography, which, while not superseding earlier works, definitely adds to our knowledge and understanding of the great Irish leader." Saturday rev.

Haslip, Joan, 1908- Parnell; a biography. Stokes 1936 405p front $3 92

37-634

"She has consulted a wide range of the available authorities and striven hard to find what really happened. She is guilty of no obvious partiality save for her hero, and even that does not often confuse her judgment until the latest chapters. For the rest she has psychologised him well, bringing out both his dictatorial side and the shy, lonely nature which lay behind it." Manchester guardian

"Will take a high place among biographies, not only for its literary skill and charm of composition, but also for its qualities of fairness, balance, judgment and insight." Spectator

Partridge, Samuel Selden, 1839-1913
‡ Partridge, Bellamy. Country lawyer; illus. by S. J. Voorhies. McGraw 1939 317p illus (Whittlesey house publications) $2.75 92

1 Lawyers—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27684

In this biography of his father, Bellamy Partridge brings to life a country town of upper New York State in the late 19th century—typical of a way of life that has ceased to be. He hinges his narrative on the daily work and unusual experiences of the country lawyer

Pasteur, Louis, 1822-1895
‡ Vallery-Radot, René, 1853-1933. Life of Pasteur, tr. from the French by Mrs R. L. Devonshire; with an introduction by Sir William Osler. Sun dial xxi,484p front 89c 92

37-20829

Reprint of a book first published 1922 by Doubleday, Page

"The whole of this noble life is laid open in these pages. . . The scientific world in which Pasteur lived is veraciously and vividly portrayed, and this is one of the most valuable features of the work." Nation

Pater, Walter Horatio, 1839-1894
Benson, Arthur Christopher, 1862-1925. Walter Pater. Macmillan 1906 226p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

6-16768

"Appreciative study of personality and writings, interpreting Pater's artistic temperament with rare sympathy and felicity of phrase." N.Y. state lib.

Patti, Adelina, 1843-1919. See class 780.92

Pavlova, Anna, 1885-1931

Olivéroff, André. Flight of the swan; a memory of Anna Pavlova, as told to John Gill. Dutton 1932 258p illus $3.50 92

32-27277

Impressions of "the strange, lovely, aloof Anna Pavlova, by a young man who was once a favored member of her ballet, and in intimate touch with her art, her moods and her manner of living. The narrative is packed with incidents of rehearsal, and of various triumphant tours, including South America and the Orient, often amusing but always illustrative of the dancer's life. Photographs." N.Y. libraries

Peacock, Thomas Love, 1785-1866

Priestley, John Boynton, 1894- Thomas Love Peacock. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Peary, Robert Edwin, 1856-1920

Green, Fitzhugh, 1888- Peary, the man who refused to fail. . . Putnam 1926 404p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Arctic regions 26-9385

"Commander Green has admirably covered the important points in the life of Peary, the little sidelights that throw so much of understanding on the great unbending soul of the explorer. The book is highly recommended to all interested in the Arctic or in biography. A book well and faithfully done." Sat. rev. of lit.

Penn, William, 1644-1718

Fisher, Sydney George, 1856-1927. True William Penn. [2d ed.] Lippincott 1900 392p illus o.p. 1939 92

4-17335

"Faithful presentation of his life and strangely contrasted circumstances in England and America." N.Y. state lib.

Bonamy Dobree's "William Penn, Quaker and pioneer" (Houghton 1932 346p illus map $4) is an interesting, well-written biography which emphasizes Penn's career as politician and courtier

Pennell, Joseph, 1860-1926. See class 759.1

Pepys, Samuel, 1633-1703

Diary; transcribed by the late Rev. Mynors Bright, from the shorthand manuscript in the Pepysian library. . . ed. with additions by H. B. Wheatley. Harcourt 1924 8v in 3 $15 92

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714—Sources 2 Great Britain—Social life and customs 25-6242

The standard edition, first published in 1893-1899 in nine volumes (later divided into ten volumes). The volume of "Pepysiana" originally included is omitted in the three volume reprint

A cheaper edition of the diary is obtainable in Everyman's library (Dutton 2v ea 90c) with notes by Richard, Lord Braybrooke as published in 1825

"An intimate and frank narrative of a period of the writer's own life covering nine and a half years from January 1660 to May 1669." Pratt alcove

"No work of the kind in the world's literature can be compared to Pepys' 'Diary'. . . It paints the official and private circles in which the author moved, the course of public affairs, the humours of social life, with no less truth and frankness than it reveals the author himself. It is by far the most valuable document extant for the understanding of the times; better than all the histories and all the comedies."

‡ Everybody's Pepys; the diary of Samuel Pepys, 1660-1669; abridged from the complete copyright text and ed. by O. F. Morshead. . . Harcourt 1926 xxii,615p illus $3.75 92

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714—Sources 2 Great Britain—Social life and customs 26-23857

An abridgment made from the standard Wheatley text, entered above, and illustrated by E. H. Shepard. This abridgment will probably meet the needs of the majority of libraries

"A continuous, well-balanced abridgment of the complete text. Each volume of the standard edition has been gone through with a number of times, being condensed more and more each time by the process of elimination. The story flows as easily and naturally as in the original text. It is delightfully illustrated." Book rev. digest

Bradford, Gamaliel, 1863-1932. Soul of Samuel Pepys. Houghton 1924 261p illus $3.50 92

24-8167

"Intimate knowledge of the 'Diary,' fine selective discrimination and appreciative understanding mark this study and reveal Pepys in all the phases of his personality and in his many human relationships. Well chosen quotations add to the book's value." N.Y. state lib.

"For the running reader, by his judicious condensations and omissions, by his orderly, meticulous arrangement, he has created a book which presents a great figure that is not inhuman. For the fanatic, by his interpretation of events and people, by his historical perspective, he has explained and illuminated many dark matters in the 'Diary.' " Independent

Drinkwater, John, 1882-1937. Pepys, his life and character. Doubleday 1930 374p illus o.p. 1939 92

30-33556

"An entirely new picture of the great diarist. Mr. Drinkwater shows him fighting all the forces of the government and winning the fight to establish England's navy upon a foundation of efficiency and integrity. Through the rise and fall of Cromwell, the decay of the Stuart dynasty, the Great Fire, the years in which England laid the foundations of the present empire, Samuel Pepys is shown as a significant contributor, a stately figure, agreeable, and a gentleman of parts. A readable biography." Ontario library review

Arthur Bryant's "Samuel Pepys" (Macmillan 3v v 1-2 ea $3.50, v3 $3.75) is a well written and entertaining life. To be completed in four volumes

Ponsonby, Arthur Ponsonby, baron, 1871- Samuel Pepys. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Pericles, B.C. 499-1429

Abbott, Evelyn, 1843-1901. Pericles and the golden age of Athens. See entry under Heroes of the nation 92 Series

Perry, Bliss, 1860-

* And gladly teach; reminiscences. Houghton 1935 315p illus $3 92

35-16598

"Written in the author's seventy-fifth year, this is the record of fifty years of teaching, writing, lecturing, and magazine editing. Bliss Perry began his teaching career at Williams College before he was twenty-one, he went on to Princeton and later to Harvard, with interludes of study and lecturing abroad, and a decade as editor of the Atlantic Monthly. These reminiscences emphasizing his joy in teaching, are written in genial, intimate fashion with anecdotes and thumbnail sketches of famous men and women." Book rev. digest

Peter I, the Great, emperor of Russia, 1672-1725

Graham, Stephen, 1884- Peter the Great. Benn 1929 376p illus 5s 92

1 Russia—History 29-24867

Formerly carried also by Simon & Schuster

"A biography of Peter the Great of Russia 'dealing chiefly with the man rather than with contemporary history. But the author sensibly and straightforwardly tells us quite enough contemporary history to allow us to see the immense significance of Peter's achievements, even though we may be almost wholly unfamiliar with the history of that part of Europe.' " Spectator

Petrarch, Francesco, 1304-1374

Petrarch, the first modern scholar and man of letters . . . tr. by J. W. Robinson with the collaboration of H. W. Rolfe. 2d ed rev and enl Putnam 1914 477p front o.p. 1939 92

1 Renaissance 16-6108

"A selection from his correspondence with Boccaccio and other friends, designed to illustrate the beginnings of the renaissance: translated from the original Latin, with historical introduction and notes." Subtitle

Phelps, William Lyon, 1865-

‡ Autobiography with letters. Oxford 1939 xxiii,986p illus $3.75 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27272

This autobiography of a Yale professor, lecturer, literary critic, and traveler includes many letters written to Mr Phelps by well-known men and women. The sketches of many famous people he has known include the following names: Clyde Fitch, W. G. Sumner, Henry Drummond, George Santayana, Thomas Hardy, William De Morgan, W. D. Howells, Gerhart Hauptmann, J. M. Barrie, Dorothy Canfield, W. H. Taft, Vachel Lindsay, Alfred Noyes, John Galsworthy, St John Ervine, George Moore, AE, Edison, Henry Ford, Pirandello

"Professor Phelps has never been a rigorous critic, and nobody will find much reasoned criticism in this book . . . within the field of Professor Phelp's enthusiasms and friendships he is too delightful to be strictly measured, and he includes many interesting (as well as some trivial) letters to him from such a variety of friends as few men have ever made." Sat. rev. of lit.

Picasso, Pablo, 1881- See class 759.6

Pitt, William, 1st earl of Chatham, 1708-1778

Green, Walford Davis, 1869- William Pitt earl of Chatham, and the growth and division of the British empire, 1708-1778. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Long, John Cuthbert, 1892- Mr Pitt and America's birthright; a biography of William Pitt, the Earl of Chatham, 1708-1778. . . Stokes 1940 576p illus maps $3.50 92

1 Great Britain—Politics and government—1714-1837 (W) 40-27334

A biography of the English statesman who was a staunch defender of American colonies in the British Parliament and champion of the democratic against the totalitarian state. Bibliography

"Mr. Long needed no excuse for adding this elaborate, scholarly, and yet delightfully diverting volume to the biographies by. . . Lord Rosebery, and others. . . No one has penetrated more deeply into Pitt's life and work than Mr. Long, whose research has unearthed many hitherto unknown facts, but his 'biography' is much more than his hero's life story. It is the history of a traduced and maligned epoch, a true description of social life in the eighteenth century." Nation

Rosebery, Archibald Philip Primrose, 5th earl of, 1847-1929. Lord Chatham, his early life and connections. Harper 1910 480p o.p. 1939 92

1 Great Britain—Politics and government, 1714-1837 10-28035

"Interesting and discriminating account of the rise to power of the elder Pitt, describing as far as possible his private as well as public life. Founded on unpublished family papers." N.Y. state lib.

Basil Williams's "Life of William Pitt, earl of Chatham" (Longmans 1913 2v illus maps o.p. 1939) is a more comprehensive work, since Rosebery's life ended before Pitt's first ministry

Pitt, William, 1759-1806

Rose, John Holland, 1855- Life of William Pitt. Bell, G. 1924 2v ea 12s 6d 92

1 Europe—History—1789-1815 2 Great Britain—Politics and government, 1714-1837 [24-16785]

Formerly carried also by Harcourt

Contains the two volumes entitled "William Pitt and national revival" and "William Pitt and the great war," which were published in the year 1911

"Not only interesting but a distinctly valuable contribution to English history." Saturday rev.

Rosebery, Archibald Philip Primrose, 5th earl of, 1847-1929. Pitt. Macmillan 1892 298p (Twelve English statesmen) $1.40 92

1 Great Britain—Politics and government—1714-1837 4-17059

"Is thoroughly clever. It shows, as might be expected, parliamentary experience and familiarity with political and diplomatic history. It is lively and sometimes trenchant in style." Nation

Pius XII, pope, 1876-

Dinneen, Joseph Francis, 1897- Pius XII, pope of peace. McBride 1939 281p illus $2.50 92

39-27312

"Along with the sympathetic biographical material on the. . . Pope, this book reviews with some detachment the papal careers and foreign policies of preceding popes, beginning with Pope Pius X. Their attitudes towards modern trends, ideologies, and conflicts are given." Bkl.

Pius XII, pope—Continued
"It is unpretentious and colloquial; it stresses human interest; it is a layman's book for other laymen. And it is also carefully and reverently executed, and warm and outspoken in its tributes to Pius XII." N.Y. Times

Pizarro, Francisco, marqués, 1470?-1541
Shay, Frank, 1888- Incredible Pizarro, conqueror of Peru. Mohawk 1932 342p illus maps o.p. 1939 92
1 Peru—History 32-14421
"A readable and well-documented biography of the Spanish conqueror of the Incas of Peru. It was from a very humble and unpromising station in life that Pizarro came into eminence. That is why the author regards his accomplishments as 'incredible.'" Providence
Bibliography: p335-36

Poe, Edgar Allan, 1809-1849
Allen, Hervey, 1889- Israfel, the life and times of Edgar Allan Poe. Farrar 748p illus $3.50 92
34-40848
Reprint of a biography first published in two volumes in 1926 by Doran
"Factually, it is as complete as any record of Poe can be. Mr. Allen used the material that has been placed in the Poe Museum in Richmond, along with all other available material, and followed Poe as closely as possible from birth to death . . . The critical chapters are the most interesting, and the criticism is good." W. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Krutch, Joseph Wood, 1893- Edgar Allan Poe; a study in genius. Knopf 1926 244p illus o.p. 1939 92
26-6860
A study of Poe in the light of the new psychology
"Mr Krutch has written a brilliantly illuminating study of Poe . . . The book marks the definite arrival of a fresh and candid mind, with modern psychological equipment, lively curiosity, critical objectivity and singularly lucid, persuasive exposition. Furthermore (which is not always true of brilliant books), this study is thoroughly stimulating with regard to its subject." Stuart Sherman in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

G. E. Woodberry's "Life of Edgar Allan Poe, personal and literary, with his chief correspondence with men of letters" (Houghton 1909 2v illus o.p. 1939) is an authoritative and impartial biography, tho later biographers discovered more about Poe's life and work than was known when Woodberry wrote a brief edition of this book for the American men of letters series

Ponafidine, Mrs Emma (Cochran) 1863-
Russia—my home; an intimate record of personal experiences before, during and after the bolshevist revolution; prefatory note by W. L. Phelps. Bobbs 1931 312p illus o.p. 1939 92
1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 3 Russia—Social life and customs 31-31372
"Part of the story of this American woman who was the wife of a Russian diplomat and cared for her invalid husband on the family estate during the Revolution, is familiar through magazine publication of some of her letters to her family. This intimate record of her experiences in Russia and her escape is not only of intense interest but of value in correcting the mistaken impression of the attitude of the intelligentsia toward the peasants." Pittsburgh
"The largest and by far the most important part of the book deals with the revolution. It was on their estate that the Ponafidines weathered the revolutionary storms up to the end of 1920. And it is here that the almost unique documentary value of the book lies." N.Y. Times

Pope, Alexander, 1688-1744
Stephen, Sir Leslie, 1832-1904. Alexander Pope. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Porter, William Sydney, 1862-1910
Davis, Robert Hobart, 1869- and Maurice, Arthur Bartlett, 1873- Caliph of Bagdad; being Arabian nights flashes of the life, letters, and work of O. Henry. Appleton-Century 1931 411p illus $3.50 92
31-14542
"The industry and sympathy of Mr. Davis and Mr. Maurice have let a good deal of light into the manner of O. Henry's life during the years in New York, particularly from 1903 to 1907 when he was at his peak. . . Thanks to this book, he is now more visible, more comprehensible, than he has been before. It would, however, be too much to say that he emerges as a clear-cut or well-rounded personality. He seems still an anthology of anecdotes, not quite a solid body of substantial fact." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Williams, William Wash. Quiet lodger of Irving place. Dutton 1936 251p $2.50 92
36-25861
"Twenty-five years ago, when Mr Williams was a cub on the New York World, he and O. Henry got to be friends. His book offers a number of quiet, intimate anecdotes, some insight into O. Henry's literary methods, and some pleasant pictures of old New York." New Yorker

Prescott, William Hickling, 1796-1859
Peck, Harry Thurston, 1856-1914. Prescott. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Priestley, John Boynton, 1894-
Midnight on the desert; being an excursion into autobiography during a winter in America, 1935-36. Harper 1937 310p $3 92
1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 The West—Description and travel (W) 37-4255
"A reflective account of an English novelist's visit to the Arizona desert. His thoughts, feelings and enthusiasms are delightfully recorded, as well as his impressions of America and Americans." Cleveland

Rain upon Godshill; a further chapter of autobiography. Harper 1939 308p $3 92
1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27821
The author "continues his autobiography begun in 'Midnight on the Desert' relating further experiences of his travels and sojourn in America and including social and political comments on the English." Baldwin

Priestley, John B.—Continued
. "Mixture of personal reminiscence, social comment, and metaphysical speculation. . . Those who regarded 'Moonlight on the Desert' as Priestley at his best will receive with even greater pleasure his view of English climate from an English window." Manchester guardian

Puccini, Giacomo, 1858-1924. See class 780.92

Pulitzer, Joseph, 1847-1911
Ireland, Alleyne, 1871- Adventure with a genius; recollections of Joseph Pulitzer. new ed Dutton 1937 236p $2.50 92
[20-21998]

Published in 1914 under title: Joseph Pulitzer; reminiscences of a secretary

"The book is better than a biography, for the impression left is not of a large number of highly different incidents and conditions, but a distinct, concrete impression of the personality of the man who created the character of one of the greatest newspapers in the United States." Boston Transcript

Seitz, Don Carlos, 1862-1935. Joseph Pulitzer: his life & letters. Simon & Schuster 1924 478p illus map o.p. 1939 92
24-30178

"The life and letters of the former owner of the New York 'World,' constituting one of the most amazing careers in recent American life." Brooklyn

Pupin, Michael Idvorsky, 1858-1935
‡ From immigrant to inventor. Scribner 1923 396p illus $2, popular ed $1 92
23-13553

The autobiography of an eminent electrical scientist who came to America as a poor young Serbian immigrant

"I have never met so good and complete an account of the Americanization of an immigrant, and I have never read so plain a story of the growth of modern science told for those who have no knowledge of the subject. But it has in my eyes a merit far greater. The account of his life in his native village as a herd boy is written with a simple and vivid style which approaches the highest literary art, and this simple and direct method, even in his most romantic outbursts of feeling, persists through the book." Saturday rev.
Appeared serially in Scribner's magazine

Purcell, Henry, 1658?-1695. See class 780.92

Pushkin, Aleksandr Sergĕevich, 1799-1837
Mirsky, Dmitry Svyatopolk-, prince, 1890- Pushkin. Dutton 1926 266p front (Republic of letters) $2 92
26-26563

The life of the Russian poet, author of "Eugen Onegin" and "Boris Godonov"

"The book is admirable; biographical and literary details are combined in a simple, straightforward style. Necessarily, the study must suffer from vagueness, for most readers cannot be acquainted with the original poems." Nation and Athenaeum

Pyle, Howard, 1853-1911. See class 759.1

Quick, Herbert, 1861-1925
One man's life; an autobiography. Bobbs 1925 408p illus o.p. 1939 92
25-21682

"Readers of 'Vandermark's folly' and its sequels will enjoy this more direct account of pioneer life in Iowa. Will take a permanent place among American biographies. . . Appeared in Saturday evening post." Wis. bul.

"Herbert Quick had recounted only the first twenty-nine years of his rich and varied life when death—rarely more unkind to us—cut short the record. Even in its unfinished form, however, it stands as [a] piece of recent American autobiography comparable with 'The education of Henry Adams.' Written in a simple yet imaginative style, without a trace of affectation, it concerns far more than the modest title would indicate." Sat. rev. of lit.

Rabelais, François, ca 1490-1553?
Nock, Albert Jay and Wilson, C. R. Francis Rabelais. Harper 1929 xxx,359p illus o.p. 1939 92
30-959

"Because of omissions which are apparrently quite intentional, this biography of Rabelais will probably appeal far less to lovers of historical recreations than to serious students of literature already deeply imbued with the enthusiasm for Rabelais which has so evidently motivated the authors. As pure criticism, this competent and careful study must command serious consideration and will probably take high rank among appreciations of the genius of Rabelais." Outlook

Rachmaninoff, Sergei, 1873- See class 780.92

Raeburn, Sir Henry, 1756-1823. See class 759.2

Rak, Mrs Mary Kidder
* Cowman's wife. Houghton 1934 292p illus $2.75 92
1 Ranch life 34-23323

"Episodes in the life of a cattleman's wife, who not only keeps house, but 'works the cattle,' riding the range with her husband the year round in southern Arizona. Informally and humorously the very A B C's of the cattle industry are set forth, from the habits of recalcitrant cows to the exasperating ways of Mexican help, from setting wolf traps to trips to town, from rounding up steers to rounding up horse-thieves. Black and white drawings by Charles Owens." N.Y. libraries

Mrs M. K. Rak's "Mountain cattle" (Houghton 1936 275p illus $2.75) is an equally interesting story of further experiences on her ranch in Arizona

Randolph, John, 1773-1833
Adams, Henry, 1838-1918. John Randolph. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Raphael, 1483-1520. See class 759.5

Rascoe, Burton, 1892-
Before I forget. Doubleday 1937 442p $3 92
1 Journalists—Correspondences, reminiscences, etc. 37-27360

"With surface gaiety and light-heartedness, with underlying, sardonic wit, Burton Rascoe draws a refreshing and honest picture of his boyhood and youth, of his journalistic life, and of the men and women he has met on his steps up and down the ladder of success." Cincinnati

Ravage, Marcus Eli, 1884-
An American in the making; the life story of an immigrant. Harper 1917 265p $2.50 92

17-28804

"A Roumanian immigrant follows the process of his Americanization from his days as pedlar and sweat shop worker on the New York East side thru his years in Missouri college. Delightfully written and good humoredly critical of himself and America." N.Y. state llb.

Ravel, Maurice, 1875-1937. See class 780.92

Reed, John, 1887-1920
Hicks, Granville, 1901- John Reed; the making of a revolutionary; with the assistance of John Stuart. Macmillan 1936 445p front $3.50 92

36-9661

"John Reed was born in a wealthy home in Portland, Oregon. Thirty-three years later he died of typhus, in Russia, and was buried beside the wall of the Kremlin, in Moscow, mourned by thousands of workers. The story of his life covers his boyhood, his Harvard days, his work on the American Magazine and the Masses; his experiences in Mexico with Villa's men; as correspondent in the World war, and his years in Russia. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Hicks, by patient scholarship, by finding the documents and respecting them, by consulting hundreds of men and women who knew Jack Reed, has managed to recreate his figure very much as it was in life." New republic

Rembrandt Hermenszoon van Rijn. See class 759.949

Renoir, Auguste, 1841-1919. See class 759.4

Revere, Paul, 1735-1818
Moses, Belle. Paul Revere, the torch bearer of the Revolution. Appleton-Century 1916 269p illus $2 92

16-22316

"An excellent biography giving not only a full account of Revere's famous ride, but covering the many varied activities in which this sturdy Huguenot engaged during his long lifetime." Cleveland

Reynolds, Sir Joshua, 1723-1792. See class 759.2

Rhodes, Cecil John, 1853-1902
Millin, Mrs Sarah Gertrude (Liebson) 1889- Cecil Rhodes. Harper 1933 449p $3.75 92

1 Africa, South—History 33-20264

"If Professor Basil Williams's monograph in the Makers of the Nineteenth Century series must always hold its own unassailable place in Rhodes literature, Mrs. Millin's more intimate, detailed and personal study will also not easily be superseded. It is a great portrait, great in scale but also in quality, and it is also a great book. For Mrs. Millin here shows herself sensitive not merely to the subtleties of characters but to the subtleties of history. She has a view not of Rhodes alone but of South Africa." Times (London) lit. sup.

Williams, Basil, 1867- Cecil Rhodes. Constable 1921 353p front map (Makers of the nineteenth century) 6s 92

1 Africa, South—History 21-16148

Formerly carried also by Holt

"The plans and achievements of the empire builder are narrated fully and vividly so that the volume is not only the biography of a great imperial figure but a chronicle of South African history during well nigh a quarter of a century." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

Bibliography: p331-37

Richard I, king of England, 1157-1199
Wilkinson, Clennell, 1883- Cœur de Lion. Appleton-Century 1933 171p illus (Appleton biographics) $1.50 92

33-24846

"The author has ignored, to a great extent, the issues connected with Richard's kingship and concentrated on those aspects of his character which have made him a legend throughout Europe and the Near East. But this is not to be regretted in any way since he has succeeded in giving us an admirable, lifelike portrait of a great man of action, and one that was typical of the age that produced him." New statesman and Nation

Richards, Mrs Laura Elizabeth (Howe) 1850-
Stepping westward. Appleton-Century 1931 405p illus $3 92

31-31652

"Lingering over her own childhood and later over that of her growing family, the daughter of Julia Ward Howe and of Samuel Gridley Howe, leader and teacher of the blind and deaf, draws upon her rich store of recollections as she passes her sixtieth wedding anniversary. Particularly happy and glamorous are the early chapters, full as they are of memories of the inspiring figures of her parents, 'the two busiest people in the world.' Photographs." N.Y. libraries

Richardson, Samuel, 1689-1761
Dobson, Austin, 1840-1921. Samuel Richardson. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Richelieu, Armand Jean du Plessis, cardinal, duc de, 1585-1642
Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Richelieu; a study . . . Lippincott 1929 392p illus maps $2 92

1 France—History—Bourbons, 1589-1789 29-28658

Also available from Sun dial for 89c

"The purpose of Mr. Belloc's book is to substantiate the thesis that Richelieu's Protestant alliances and religious toleration at home, policies carried out to build up a strong centralized state, have resulted in the division of Christendom, politically and culturally. Brilliantly written." Cleveland

"One needs to have something very definite to contribute to the already overfull shelves devoted to the study of this maker of destinies, to undertake a new biography of the great cardinal. Mr. Belloc qualifies. . . . It is portrayal rather than history that makes this erudite and brilliant volume a permanent contribution to an already overwritten but understudied century." Boston Transcript

Rihbany, Abraham Mitrie, 1869-
A far journey. Houghton 1914 351p illus $3 92

1 Syria—Social life and customs 14-16962

"Experiences of a native Syrian [who] left his Syrian village to find in America the larger opportunity which his ambition craved. He describes graphically the primitive life of his youth and his later wanderings in New York city and in the Middle West. His record is a grateful tribute to the free institutions and the ideals of the country of his adoption." Pittsburgh

Appeared in an abridged form in the Atlantic monthly, v112-13, November 1913 to April 1914

Riis, Jacob August, 1849-1914
‡ Making of an American. [new ed] Macmillan 1924 443p illus $2.50 92

[A13-2297]

Obtainable also in the Royal ed (Macmillan $1)

First published 1901. The 1924 edition contains an introduction by Theodore Roosevelt

Autobiography of the reporter, philanthropist and reformer

Ware, Louise. Jacob A. Riis, police reporter, reformer, useful citizen; introduction by Allan Nevins. Appleton-Century 1938 xxii,335p illus $3 92

(W) 38-8355

"The first full-length biography of the humanitarian who was active in reform movements of the 80s and 90s and through his writings called attention to the overcrowding, lack of sanitation, and the need for parks in New York. Many of his letters are quoted, and he appears as a very human figure, with the earnestness but none of the fanaticism of the crusader." Bkl.

Bibliography: p295-313

Riley, James Whitcomb, 1849-1916
Dickey, Marcus. Youth of James Whitcomb Riley; fortune's way with the poet from infancy to manhood; with illus. painted under the poet's direction by Will Vawter, and reproductions of photographs, daguerreotypes, letters and rare documents. Bobbs 1919 425p illus $10 92

19-15592

"An intimate biography which carries the poet through youth and early manhood from his struggles to earn a living as a patent medicine vendor and a sign painter, to his final success as a poet. Illustrated with many photographs." Wis. bul.

"The entire volume, unpretentious in its style, overflows with the spirit of James Whitcomb Riley, and is a valuable addition to the biographical literature of American poetry." Boston Transcript

Marcus Dickey's "Maturity of James Whitcomb Riley" (Bobbs 1922 427p illus o.p. 1939) completes the biography. It deals with his career as a journalist, his success as a poet and lecturer, and his later life

Rimskiĭ-Korsakov, Nikolaĭ Andreevich, 1844-1908. See class 780.92

Rinehart, Mrs Mary (Roberts) 1876-
My story. Farrar 1931 432p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscenses, etc. 31-26580

"As interesting as any of its author's novels is this straightforward, sincere story as a 'full life fully lived,' covering a wide range of activities and interests, and essentially American." Pittsburgh

Rittenhouse, Jessie Belle, 1869-
My house of life; an autobiography. Houghton 1934 335p illus $3.50 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 34-5087

"Miss Rittenhouse, known as a poet and critic, but primarily as an anthologist has written her autobiography. Perhaps the mid-chapters of the book, telling of her early associations with the poets of the nineties, the organizations of the Poetry Society, and the great revival of poetic activity in the second decade of the century, are the most interesting, but the whole book will give pleasure to those who know her name and her contribution to the cause of poetry. Suitable for high school reading." Wis. bul.

Rivera, Diego, 1886- See class 759.972

Robertson, Walford Graham, 1867- See class 759.2

Robeson, Paul, 1898-
Robeson, Mrs Eslanda (Goode). Paul Robeson, Negro. Harper 1930 178p illus $2.50 92

30-18186

A biography of Paul Robeson, the Negro concert singer and actor, written by his wife

"Written in an artless but quite attractive strain, this biographical record illuminates many aspects of Negro life and character which are not strictly relevant to the main narrative. It is a simple and unpretentious narrative." Times (London) lit. sup.

Robespierre, Maximilien Marie Isidore de, 1758-1794
Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Robespierre; a study. Putnam 1927 xxi,417p front $5 92

27-27821

A reprint of a work first published in 1901. Contains a new preface

"Whether or not one agrees with Belloc's interpretation of Robespierre's complex, still-baffling character (and I think he has given us the key to it), there is no doubt that this Life is a brilliant piece of work. In it Belloc has used a rich, full-bodied prose that is scornful of facility and not afraid of dissonances." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Robinson, Edwin Arlington, 1869-1935
Selected letters of Edwin Arlington Robinson. Macmillan 1940 191p front $2.50 92

(W) 40-27180

"In bringing together the letters included in this volume, chosen from the large body of correspondence made available, the intent has been to present Robinson the man." Introduction

"Mr. Ridgely Torrence, as principal editor of the letters, has performed his task with a simplicity and severity of taste that would have pleased Robinson. . .

Robinson, Edwin A.—Continued
The book offers no thrills, but is a pleasant companion for thoughtful half-hours; it gives the privilege of being alone with a whimsical, serious, and very noble gentleman." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Hagedorn, Hermann, 1882- Edwin Arlington Robinson, a biography. Macmillan 1938 402p front $3 92
(W) 38-27790

"A readable and sympathetic account of Robinson's life and development as a writer. The description of his early years, spent in the Golden Oak Period of American literature, which he helped to break up, is particularly interesting." New Yorker

Rockefeller, John Davison, 1839-1937
Flynn, John Thomas, 1883- God's gold; the story of Rockefeller and his times. Harcourt 1932 520p illus $1.69 92
1 Standard oil company 32-27263

"From his early boyhood John D. Rockefeller wanted to be rich. In this absorbing biography we learn each carefully planned step which led to the fulfillment of this ambition. In controversial matters the author usually gives both his opinion, as based on extensive research, and that of the family." Pittsburgh
Many photographic illustrations. Sources: p489-508

Rodin, Auguste, 1840-1917. See class 735

Roger II, king of Sicily, d. 1154
Curtis, Edmund, 1881- Roger of Sicily and the Normans in Lower Italy, 1016-1154. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Rogers, Bruce, 1870-
Warde, Frederic. Bruce Rogers, designer of books; with a list of the books printed under Mr. Roger's supervision. Harvard univ. press 1925 74p illus $3 92
25-24355

"The volume begins with a monograph in which Mr Rogers's work is traced, with well-considered comments upon his style and his methods, from its beginning in the early nineties to the present day. This is followed by a descriptive list of two hundred books printed under Mr Roger's supervision, and a third section is devoted to representative examples of his work." Sat. rev. of lit.
Originally appeared in the fourth number of the Fleuron and reprinted with a few alterations

Rogers, Will, 1879-1935
O'Brien, Patrick Joseph, 1892- Will Rogers: ambassador of good will, prince of wit and wisdom, with an appreciation by Lowell Thomas. Winston 1935 288p illus $1 92
35-18941

"A journalistic, anecdotal biography of America's beloved comedian-philosopher. After a chapter on the tragedy of Rogers' death, the story of his early life, his education, years of wandering in South America, Africa, and the Orient, his successes on the vaudeville stage, the screen and the radio are related more or less in chronological order and illustrated with innumerable quotations from Rogers' own sayings." Book rev. digest
"It may be a snapshot rather than an oil painting of the beloved comedian, but it is a portrait of the real Rogers." Christian century

Rolland, Romain, 1866-
Zweig, Stefan, 1881- Romain Rolland, the man and his work; tr. by Eden and Cedar Paul. Cassell 1921 392p illus 16s 92
[21-18690]

Formerly carried also by Boni
"A constructively critical biography, concerned only with events of Rolland's life as they influenced his work and ideals." Cleveland
"Exactly what have been the purposes which have inspired Rolland from the days of his youth onward are described in this biography by Stefan Zweig, who is himself well known as dramatist, novelist and poet and who throughout a brilliantly written book gives expression to the same idealism as the author of 'Jean Christophe.' " N.Y. Times

Rølvaag, Ole Edvart, 1876-1931
Jorgenson, Theodore, 1894- and Solum, Nora O. Ole Edvart Rölvaag, a biography. Harper 1939 446p illus $4 92
39-27381

"A painstakingly detailed life history of the Norwegian-American novelist, with some analysis of his works. Important to students of Norwegian literature, and to serious readers of his novels." Bkl.

Roosevelt, Mrs Anna Eleanor (Roosevelt) 1884-
* This is my story. Harper 1937 365p illus $3 92
(W) 37-32154

Also obtainable from Garden City pub. co. at $1
Published serially in "Ladies' Home Journal." Also published in England under title: Lady of the White House
In her autobiography the wife of President Roosevelt covers the years from her early childhood to the Democratic convention of 1924, before her husband's election as Governor of New York
"Not just a few facts hastily shuffled together about the wife of the President of the United States. It is a searching, honest exposition of a human being and it would have significance whether written by the President's wife or by an anonymous mother on any main street." Christian science monitor

Roosevelt, Franklin Delano, president U.S. 1882-
Ludwig, Emil, 1881- Roosevelt; a study in fortune and power; tr. from the German by Maurice Samuel. Viking 1938 350p illus $3 92
(W) 38-27465

A portrait of the man, rather than a full length biography or a study of his career, written by a well-known European biographer
"Writing while many of President Roosevelt's policies are still a matter of debate and still to be tested by practice, Ludwig has wisely not attempted a detailed study of them. . . As always, Ludwig writes brilliantly. . . There are many who will not agree with his picture of Roosevelt, but there is no one who will not find it readable." Basil Davenport in Book-of-the-month club news

Roosevelt, Quentin, 1897-1918
Looker, Earle. White House gang. Revell 1929 244p illus $1.50 92
1 Roosevelt, Theodore, president U.S. 1858-1919 30-3664

"Incidentally, the book gives a view of Theodore Roosevelt from a new and interesting angle, that from which this group of mischevious small boys who were wholly without respect for place or understanding of power, viewed him as the father of one of their number. It is no small matter to his credit that he merged from the ruthless 'sizing up' of these small semi-barbarians with the affection, the loyalty, the complete trust of every one of them." N.Y. Times

Roosevelt, Quentin—Continued

Roosevelt, Theodore, president U.S. 1858-1919

Theodore Roosevelt, an autobiography. Scribner 1920 597p illus $2.50 92

[21-3741]

Originally published by Macmillan in 1913

"With the exceptions of a few chapters of a personal character, the narrative deals chiefly with politics and policies as exemplified in the writer's public life and more or less connected with his administrative acts." Dial

"The chapters on the 'Vigor of life' and 'Cowboy land' appeared in his 'Ranch life.'" Cleveland

Theodore Roosevelt's diaries of boyhood and youth; illus. from photographs and with facsimiles of the author's drawings and letters. Scribner 1928 365p illus $2.50 92

28-23979

"Very detailed account of a boy's life from the age of nine to early college days. Trips abroad, days on the farm or at Oyster Bay, social times by the fire with his parents, pranks of all sorts, are all described with equal accuracy. Quite as delightful as his 'Letters to his Children.' The spelling adds much to the book's entertaining qualities." Wis. bul.

"Not only devoted admirers of Roosevelt will delight in its frank, ingenious illusions, but more impersonally, students of child-psychology will find it extremely instructive as to how an American child of high type looks at life, and re-acts to his environment." Boston Transcript

‡ Theodore Roosevelt's letters to his children; ed. by J. B. Bishop. Scribner 1919 240p illus $1 92

19-15209

"Delightful letters (1898-1911) showing Roosevelt as the playmate and friend of his children. Both adults and children will enjoy them. Original drawings and half-tone portraits." N.Y. state lib.

Roosevelt's letters are also obtainable in: "Theodore Roosevelt and his time shown in his own letters" by J. B. Bishop (Scribner 1920 2v illus $10); and in "Selections from the correspondence of Theodore Roosevelt and Henry Cabot Lodge, 1884-1918" (Scribner 1925 2v $10)

Pringle, Henry Fowles, 1897- Theodore Roosevelt, a biography. Harcourt 1931 627p illus $1.49 92

31-31893

Received the Pulitzer prize for biography in 1932

"A long, fully documented and impartial consideration of the many facets of Roosevelt's character and career. The narrative is interwoven continuously with quotations which add tang and flavor to the text. Photographs, cartoons, bibliography." N.Y. libraries

"Mr. Pringle's biography of Roosevelt is an honest and intelligent attempt—whether conscious or not, one may not say—to segregate Roosevelt, the man, from the Roosevelt crowd, the Rooseveltians, the middle class mob." Sat. rev. of lit.

Robinson, Mrs Corinne (Roosevelt) 1861-1933. My brother, Theodore Roosevelt. Scribner 1921 365p illus $3 92

21-16025

"'A sister's interpretation of a world-wide personality' written in an intimate and chatty style and illustrated with reproduction of numerous photographs and facsimiles of some of Roosevelt's letters with his own droll illustrations. The chapter on home life in the White House contains an interesting list of his favorite books comprising the famous 'pig skin library' which he carried with him on his travels. Appeared in part in Scribner's magazine." Cleveland

Wister, Owen, 1860-1938. Roosevelt; the story of a friendship, 1880-1919. Macmillan 1930 372p illus $2.50 92

30-18641

"Follows intimately Wister's friendship with Roosevelt from Harvard days to a last visit at Sagamore Hill during the World War. Through Roosevelt's letters, but more particularly through personal contacts in which even gesture and intonation of voice are vividly recalled, the portrait of Roosevelt emerges, the first of a long and brilliant gallery of pen pictures which includes the 'Familiars,' a group of distinguished men: Oliver Wendell Holmes, Henry Adams, Henry Cabot Lodge, Winthrop Chanler and others. Photographs and facsimile of handwriting." N.Y. libraries

W. R. Thayer's "Theodore Roosevelt" (Houghton 1919 474p illus $5) was also written by an intimate friend. It brings out in very readable manner the most significant facts of Roosevelt's character and a good deal of political history of the period

Root, Elihu, 1845-1937

Jessup, Philip Caryl, 1897- Elihu Root. Dodd 1938 2v illus $7.50 92

(W) 38-31598

The authorized biography carried out on the principle of making available as much data as possible regarding Mr Root's life. Contents: v 1, 1845-1909 Ancestry, childhood and youth, Attorney and counsellor at law, Secretary of war, Interim, Secretary of state; v2, 1905-1937 Secretary of state, United States Senator from New York, Elder statesman

"Writing about so vivid, so important and so colorful an American is the biographer's dream. Dr. Jessup, being a scholar has adopted the technique of scholarship. . . The real Root is there, although the author requires us to do a bit of digging. Besides, there are always those enchanting and valuable conversations with Root himself." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Rose, Mrs Hilda

Stump farm, a chronicle of pioneering; with a foreword by S. A. Eliot. Little 1928 178p illus $2 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 28-11575

"This wiry little woman of forty supported her young son and frail old husband in northern Montana and kept up her indomitable spirit against the most overwhelming odds. They left for Peace River in Alberta, Canada, only to find even more impossible conditions at first." Chicago

"A story of indomitable courage, of cheerfulness in adversity, of family devotion and community spirit, of insurmountable obstacles somehow surmounted; a book which . . . will leave every reader a wholehearted admirer of the mistress of the stump farm." Allan Nevins in Sat. rev. of lit.

Rosenwald, Julius, 1862-1932
Werner, Morris Robert, 1897- Julius Rosenwald; the life of a practical humanitarian. Harper 1939 381p front $3.50 92

(W) 39-28958

"A sympathetic biography of the Chicagoan who was known as a successful business executive who built up an enormous mail order house, and as a philanthropist whose charities were carefully planned and widespread." Bkl.

"This book must have been a particularly difficult one to do for it was inspired in great measure by the wishes of the Rosenwald family. That the subject of the biography appears whole and complete, strengthened by the portrayal of personal weaknesses and idiosyncrasies, is tribute to Mr. Werner's art and integrity." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Rossetti, Christina Georgina, 1830-1894
Stuart, Dorothy Margaret. Christina Rossetti. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Rossetti, Dante Gabriel, 1828-1882
Benson, Arthur Christopher, 1862-1925. Rossetti. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

See also class 759.2

Rossini, Gioacchino Antonio, 1792-1868. See class 780.92

Rothenstein, Sir William, 1872- See class 759.2

Rousseau, Jean Jacques, 1712-1778
Josephson, Matthew, 1899- Jean-Jacques Rousseau. Harcourt 1931 546p illus o.p. 1939 92

31-35516

"A most readable, sympathetic and comprehensive account of the life and works of the great fore-runner of the French Revolution. . . It is to be regretted that the author has not devoted more space to Rousseau's works. . . However, Mr. Josephson's primary purpose was to write a biography, and this he has achieved well." Boston

Bibliography: p535-39

J. J. Rousseau's "Confessions" are obtainable in an unexpurgated edition of two volumes in Everyman's library (ea 90c). The original of this famous work was published in 1782

Rubens, Sir Peter Paul, 1577-1640. See class 759.949

Rubinstein, Anton Gregorovich, 1829-1894, and Rubinstein, Nikolaï Gregorovich, 1835-1881. See class 780.92

Ruskin, John, 1819-1900
Praeterita. Cabinet ed Page $2.25 92

[12-38292]

First published 1883

"No autobiographer surpasses him in freshness and fulness of memory, nor in the power of giving interest to the apparently commonplace. There is an even remarkable absence of striking incident, but somehow or other the story fascinates . . . The book should be acceptable even to those to whom his social and artistic dogmas have ceased to have much significance." Leslie Stephen

Harrison, Frederic, 1831-1923. John Ruskin. Macmillan 1902 216p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

2-22009

"Condensed account of Ruskin's life and a consideration of his place in English literature." Pittsburgh

Sir E. T. Cook's "Life of John Ruskin" (Macmillan 1917 2v $7) is the authorized biography which quotes copiously from the diaries and letters. Ruskin's "Letters to Charles Eliot Norton" edited by C. E. Norton (Houghton 1904 2v $6) are the revealing record of a close friendship from 1855 to 1887

Russell, George Alexander, 1880- See class 780.92

St Denis, Ruth, 1882-
Unfinished life; an autobiography. Harper 1939 391p illus $3.75 92

1 Dancers—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-6663

"An extraordinary being came into my life and to this book. . . She took these writings and wove them into a story to be read by those who love the dance. . . To Henrietta Buckmaster goes my special praise for having released into this form the story of my life." Author's note

"Ruth St. Denis writes with a candor which is generous as well as self-revealing . . . the book has both substance and suggestions as it records a significant and completely individual career." N.Y. Times

Sainte-Beuve, Charles Augustin, 1804-1869
Mott, Lewis Freeman, 1863- Sainte-Beuve. Appleton-Century 1925 521p front $5 92

25-5008

"Professor Mott has supplied a very full account of the life of Sainte-Beuve. He gives, too, a complete résumé of his important longer works and a good survey of the essays. While much has been written about the critic . . . Professor Mott is yet able to offer his book as the first full biography." N.Y. Times

Saint-Gaudens, Augustus, 1848-1907. See class 735

Sand, George, pseud. 1804-1876
Intimate journal of George Sand; ed. and tr. by M. J. Howe. Williams & Norgate 1929 198p 12s 6d 92

[29-12464]

Formerly carried also by Day

Three documents which George Sand's family have held unpublished for many years and were released in France by her granddaughter are here brought together: her journal to Alfred de Musset, the Piffoel journal, composed of conversations between George Sand's masculine and feminine selves, and a scrapbook containing personal recollections and reflections, letters and other mementoes

"Even more completely than from the finest biography, her personality emerges from the pages of these journals in all its freedom, humanity, and courage. Mrs. Howe has added greatly to the readability of the journals by her prefatory and explanatory notes." Outlook

Sandoz, Jules Ami, 1857?-1928

Sandoz, Mari. Old Jules. Little 1935 424p illus $3 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 35-27361

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1

"A picture of an amazing man who played a unique role in the history of Nebraska, 1884-1924, beginning with the days when the cattlemen contested the claims of homesteaders. Dispassionately written by the daughter who hated and feared, yet respected a certain steadfastness which he possessed. Brutal in his home, constantly quarreling with his neighbors, defending his rights with his too ready rifle he emerges as a 'big man, crazy maybe, but big.' A merciless picture in beautiful prose." Wis. bul.

Sanger, Mrs Margaret (Higgins) 1883-

Margaret Sanger; an autobiography. Norton 1938 504p front $3.50 92

1 Birth control (W) 38-28918

Autobiography of the American woman who fought for the legalization of birth control and for better health conditions for women

"Margaret Sanger has written her story with simplicity and deep sincerity. Because her life has been devoted to a cause, her book is the biography of a cause rather than the personal story of a woman." N.Y. Times

Santayana, George, 1863-

Howgate, George Washburne, 1903- George Santayana. Univ. of Pa. press 1938 363p $3.50 92

39-787

"Chiefly a study in literary criticism, this book also includes the main biographical facts concerning this Spanish-born American poet and philosopher who has spent the later years of his life abroad. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Howgate's description of Santayana's philosophy will not be very easy reading for those who are not already acquainted with Santayana. It is, however, a useful companion to the study of the philosopher's works." N.Y. Times

Sargent, John Singer, 1856-1925. See class 759.1

Sassoon, Siegfried Lorraine, 1886-

Old century and seven more years. Viking 1939 267p $2.75 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27010

"The author's reminiscences of his first 21 years tell of comparatively happy days. Some of the years covered are the same as those in his 'Memoirs of a fox-hunting man.' The earlier book being semifiction and the present one actual autobiography, the connection between the two is slight. For those who enjoy an evocation of a vanished prewar age in England, this is a pleasant book, quietly and serenely written, in a facile style." Bkl.

Savonarola, Girolamo Maria Francesco Matteo, 1452-1498

Roeder, Ralph, 1890- Savonarola; a study in conscience. Brentano's 1930 307p illus o.p. 1939 92

30-25503

"The sub-title indicates the line taken in Mr Roeder's interpretation. This study in conscience shows the great friar as a man of unwavering conservatism at odds with the extravagance and corruption of his age, a man, more-over, whose pride was the controlling factor in his life and whose belief in himself and his leadership was traceable to the need of compensation for his early years of isolation and humiliation." Book rev. digest

"This volume has the supreme quality of excitement. One tingles reading it. In addition it is sound, if not exhaustive history; with deft selection, with assured understanding, it recreates the strange, turbulent life of Florence at the end of the fifteenth century." N.Y. World

Schaw, Janet, ca 1731-ca 1801

Journal of a lady of quality; being the narrative of a journey from Scotland to the West Indies, North Carolina, and Portugal in the years 1774 to 1776; ed. by E. W. Andrews and C. M. Andrews. 3d ed enl Yale univ. press 1939 351p illus maps $4 92

1 Lisbon—Description 2 North Carolina—Description and travel 3 West Indies—Description and travel 40-1951

First published 1921, and with added notes and illustrations in 1934. The 1939 edition contains some additional notes and illustrations

"To the wholly detached reader the pleasure of the 'Journal' itself is in three things: in its lively, quick sketching of people and places; in the slightly acid candor which casts across so many pages a shadow, evidently exact, of the author's mind, so nimble, so prejudiced, so entertaining in its frank advocacy of a partisan view of a great event. Miss Schaw had that blend of sweetness and something else, like a tart but mellow fruit, which only Scottish women appear to have in perfection." Yale review

Schiller, Johann Christoph Friedrich von, 1759-1805

Carlyle, Thomas, 1795-1881. Life of Friedrich Schiller; comprehending an examination of his works. Scribner 357p illus o.p. 1939 92

4-17137

Edited with an introduction by H. D. Trail; constitutes v25 of Carlyle's works, centenary edition

"The work, published complete in 1825 is termed by the author himself 'an insignificant book.' It might not have lived without his name, but has the merit of true artistic proportion, and is a sound piece of work." Garnett's "Life of Thomas Carlyle"

"It was based on very imperfect information, but was an inspiring work of genius nevertheless. It is now more valuable as a Carlyle document than as a Schiller document." Thomas' "Life and works of Schiller"

Schliemann, Heinrich, 1822-1890

Ludwig, Emil, 1881- Schliemann; the story of a gold-seeker; tr. from the German by D. F. Tait. Little 1931 297p illus $3.50 92

31-26866

Published in England under title: Schliemann of Troy

"A record of the amazing, romantic career of a poor German boy who became a rich, erratic man of genius, bent, with monomaniacal determination on confirming his faith in Homer through archeological excavations in Troy, Mycenae and Tiryns. The man's complex and highly original personality together with his achievements has been reconstructed from a great mass of personal documents. Photographs." N.Y. libraries

Schönberg, Arnold, 1874- See class 780.92

Schopenhauer, Arthur, 1788-1860

Zimmern, Helen, 1846-1934. Schopenhauer; his life and philosophy; completely rev throughout. Scribner 1932 191p front $1.75 92

[32-26899]

"This book is a modified version of Miss Zimmern's earlier work of the same title, which was published many years ago. Its main aim is to give a brief connected account of Schopenhauer's life and a defence, so far as defence is practicable, of the asperities of his character, the analysis of his philosophy being reserved for the last quarter of the book and being necessarily of a cursory nature." Times (London) lit. sup.

"The publishers were happily inspired in reproducing a book which is still the best and most sympathetic account in the English language of this lonely thinker." Spectator

Bibliography: p 187

Schreiner, Olive, 1855-1920

Cronwright-Schreiner, Samuel Cron, 1863- Life of Olive Schreiner. Benn 1924 414p illus 21s 92

[24-14054]

Formerly carried also by Little

"A frank and appreciative account of an ardent, brilliant, lovable and, according to her husband, extremely difficult woman, and of a genius, not largely productive but not the less real. The author married Olive Schreiner when she was thirty-nine, ten years after the publication of 'The story of an African farm,' and took her name in addition to his own." Cleveland

Schubert, Franz Peter, 1797-1828. See class 780.92

Schumann, Mrs Clara Josephine (Wieck) 1819-1896

Burk, John Naglee, 1891- Clara Schumann; a romantic biography. Random house 1940 438p illus $3 92

(W) 40-27304

"The story of a great romance, a great tragedy and a great friendship. Clara Schumann was Clara Wieck, daughter of a teacher and critic, whose own thwarted ambition he determined to realize in his child. . . The musical life of Europe during a generation—and particularly the long and deep friendship with Brahms make this a colorful and interesting story." Kirkus

"Historical knowledge, musical scholarship, human sympathy, and a quiet, simple style of writing go to make this a first-rate biography. . . A natural, charming book about a natural, charming woman." Nation

Schumann, Robert Alexander, 1810-1856. See class 780.92

Schumann-Heink, Mme Ernestine (Roessler) 1861-1936. See class 780.92

Schurz, Carl, 1829-1906

Fuess, Claude Moore, 1885- Carl Schurz, reformer (1829-1906). Dodd 1932 421p illus (Am. political leaders) $4 92

32-26442

"Professor Fuess has produced a compact and much needed life of the only foreign-born American who served in the army as a brigade, division, and corps commander, represented one of our States for a term as United States Senator, and also occupied the position of minister in the diplomatic service. It is an excellent study, showing thoroughness of research, and is distinguished by being neither an attempt at sensationalizing nor mere adulation." Sat. rev. of lit.

Carl Schurz's "Reminiscences" (Doubleday, Page 1907-08 3v o.p. 1939) contains the author's recollections from 1829-1906

Schweitzer, Albert, 1875-

* Out of my life & thought; an autobiography tr. by C. T. Campion. Holt 1933 288p illus $2.50 92

33-5614

Published in England under title: My life and thought

"Autobiography of the Alsatian medical missionary who renounced the rewards of his great gifts as philosopher, theologian, organist and writer, to minister to the sick natives of Equatorial Africa, alternating his service there with trips to Europe to earn money thru lectures and organ recitals to carry on the work of his hospital at Lambarene." Book rev. digest

"Rarely does a man who writes an autobiography succeed in giving so much of himself as Schweitzer has here. The simplicity of the writing reflects the simplicity of the man; the range of the topics treated reflects the range of his mind; the record of events reflects his incredible vigor and his capacity to accomplish the seemingly impossible." Christian century

Scott, Sir Walter, bart. 1771-1832

Buchan, John, 1st baron Tweedsmuir, 1875-1940. Sir Walter Scott. Cassell 1932 387p front 9s 6d 92

32-12976

Formerly carried also by Coward-McCann

"A solid and satisfactory performance, and a comparison of it with Lockhart's great work only increases one's respect for the way in which Mr. Buchan has included, in so short a space, nearly everything that illuminates his subject." Atlantic bookshelf

"This is a good portrait against lively history: the criticism—there is remarkably little really good literary criticism of Scott's work as it stands—is perhaps the best that has been written on its subject. History, portrait, and criticism are a unity." New statesman and Nation

Hutton, Richard Holt, 1826-1897. Sir Walter Scott. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Lockhart, John Gibson, 1794-1854. Narrative of the life of Sir Walter Scott, bart. begun by himself and continued by J. G. Lockhart. Dutton 675p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 92

36-37065

An abridgment made by the author of the original biography in 7 volumes which appeared 1836-38. It ranks with Boswell's "Life of Johnson" as one of the two best known and best biographies in the English language. The autobiographical fragment at the beginning of the volume deals with Scott's ancestry and his own life up to July 1792

The complete life "Memoirs of the life of Sir Walter Scott" is published by Houghton in 5 volumes at $10, ed. by S. M. Francis

Scott, Sir Walter, bart.—Continued
Sir H. J. C. Grierson's "Sir Walter Scott, bart." (Columbia univ. press 1938 320p front $4.50) contains some new material on the novelist's life and is designed to supplement and make some corrections to Lockhart

Scudder, Janet, 1873-1940. See class 735

Scudder, Vida Dutton, 1861-
On journey. Dutton 1937 445p front $4 92
37-27231

"For forty years, from 1887 to 1927, Miss Scudder was a professor of English literature at Wellesley college, and much of this book devoted to the story of her life is centered in the college. There is also, however, material on her other interests and achievements." Book rev. digest

"The book is written with Miss Scudder's customary charm and artistry, with many interesting insights and sidelights. As one reads, there emerges the portrait of a cultured, alert-minded woman who has grown old gracefully." Commonweal

Sedgwick, Anne Douglas, 1873-1935
Anne Douglas Sedgwick; a portrait in letters, chosen and ed. by Basil de Selincourt. Houghton 1936 260p front $2.75 92

1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 36-22210

"Anne Douglas Sedgwick, author of 'The Little French Girl' . . . and many other books, was an American who spent most of her life in England. This self-portrait is made up of 180 personal letters written between 1898 and 1935, chiefly to American friends and relatives. The letters were selected and edited by the author's husband." Book rev. digest

"This is the personal record of a charming and finely bred woman whose novels enjoyed great popularity and earned deserved praise for their excellent style. The letters are full of personality and even more than Miss Sedgwick's novels give an impression of fine taste and rich sentiment." Sat. rev. of lit.

Serra, Junípero, 1713-1784
Repplier, Agnes, 1858- Junípero Serra, pioneer colonist of California. Doubleday 1933 312p $2.50 92

1 California—History 2 Franciscans
3 Missions—California 33-32578

"The biography is written with tenderness; the days of the friar are interpreted with complete understanding of their significance to the man himself. Serra's simple faith, his perfect realization of the character of the Indians in his country, his naively superstitious and yet stubbornly logical mind, his saint-like endurance of hardship, the triumph in him always of the spirit over the very frail and diseased flesh, are all, for Miss Repplier, the stuff of which great religious pioneers are made. . . Miss Repplier's biography is a character study rather than a biography. She has very beautifully interpreted the Franciscan and those like him." Nation

Sévigné, Marie (de Rabutin Chantal) marquise de, 1626-1696
Letters of Madame de Sévigné to her daughter and her friends; selected, with an introductory essay, by Richard Aldington; with an appendix of biographical and historical information and an index. Dutton 2v illus $5 92
[28-10208]

A selection made from the edition in nine volumes printed in London in 1811. This edition is the same as that published by Brentano's in 1927

"Mr. Aldington has chosen with taste and discrimination from a mine of material two volumes of sprightly letters. . . [He] prefaces [the letters] with an introduction which is at once critical and instructive. The correspondence as he has selected it makes excellent casual reading —the sort of chronicle which can be picked up at any time and dipped into at random with pleasure and profit." Sat. rev. of lit.

Sewall, Samuel, 1652-1730
Samuel Sewall's diary; ed. by Mark Van Doren. Vanguard 1927 272p (American bookshelf) $2.50 92

1 Massachusetts—History—Colonial period—Sources [27-23367]

"The Diary of Samuel Sewall, of which the present volume is an abridgment, was first published in three volumes by the Massachusetts Historical Society (1878-1882). It is the most intimate record now available of life in New England during the important period which it covers, and the genius of the author for self-revelation has frequently won him the compliment of a comparison with Samuel Pepys, his English contemporary. . . The Diary is valuable not only for its picture of public life between 1680 and 1730 but for its picture of the author himself in the privacy of his confessional." Editor's note

"There was need of an edition to make it more generally available, and this careful reprint of perhaps a quarter of the whole, retaining the dramatic and illuminating passages, is more than welcome . . . . The great diary is still worth any one's time to read." Nation

Seward, William Henry, 1801-1872
Lothrop, Thornton Kirkland, 1830-1913. William Henry Seward. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Shackleton, Sir Ernest Henry, 1874-1922
Mill, Hugh Robert, 1861- Life of Sir Ernest Shackleton. Heinemann 1923 312p illus maps 5s 92
23-11568

Formerly carried also by Little

The authorized biography of the famous Antarctic explorer by a friend who has had access to all the available records

"For wealth and material and skill in delineation the book stands out conspicuously in the literature of exploration, yet it is also notable for the author's insight into the complex and often contradictory elements which had to be taken account of in estimating the man." Boston Transcript

Shakespeare, William 1564-1616
Raleigh, Sir Walter Alexander, 1861-1922. Shakespeare. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

All biographical and critical material on Shakespeare is listed in class 822.3

Shaw, Anna Howard, 1847-1919
Story of a pioneer; with the collaboration of Elizabeth Jordan; illus. from photographs. Harper 1915 337p illus $2.50 92

1 Woman—Suffrage 15-18433

"In collaboration with Miss Elizabeth Jordan, the president [1915] of the National American woman suffrage association here tells the inspiring story of her life from her strenuous youth in the Michigan 'back woods' of fifty years ago, thru her career as Methodist preacher, ordained minister,

Shaw, Anna H.—Continued
teacher, doctor, lecturer and suffrage worker and leader. Dr Shaw writes . . . with keen observation, humor and a rich fund of anecdote." Cleveland

Shaw, George Bernard, 1856-
Chesterton, Gilbert Keith, 1874-1936. George Bernard Shaw. Lane 1909 249p 5s 92
W9-321

Formerly carried also by Dodd
An interesting study largely devoted to consideration of Shaw's works

Henderson, Archibald, 1877- Bernard Shaw, playboy and prophet. Appleton-Century 1932 xxxii,871p illus $7.50 92
32-31584

"This long, authorized biography and critical study, the result of studies ranging over twenty-nine years and an intimate acquaintance with its subject, supersedes the author's earlier work, Bernard Shaw; His Life and Work (published 1911). The book covers every phase of Shaw's interests and activities, his personality and his reputation, his social, religious and political thinking, and his career as music and art critic, novelist and playwright." Book rev. digest

Terry, Dame Ellen, 1848-1928, and Shaw, George Bernard, 1856- Ellen Terry and Bernard Shaw; a correspondence. See entry under Terry, Dame Ellen, and Shaw, George Bernard

Sheean, Vincent, 1899-
‡ Personal history; illus. by C. L. Baldridge. Doubleday 1936 403p illus $3 92
1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 36-37276

Also available in the Star series (Garden City pub. co. $1) and in the Modern library edition at 95c
Published in England under title: In search of history
"This brilliant member of the post-war generation of newspaper correspondents has had an adventurous career. It led him into most European countries and into Morocco during the Riff war, of which his account is exceptional. He was in China during days of Communist activities, in Russia, and in Palestine, and he presents an enthralling personal narrative, thoughtful and finely written." Cincinnati

Sheeler, Charles, 1883- See class 759.1

Shelley, Percy Bysshe, 1792-1822
Dowden, Edward, 1843-1913. Life of Percy Bysshe Shelley. new ed Scribner 1909 602p front $6 92
[W10-309]

First published in two volumes, 1886
"He has condensed the old Shelley papers by Hogg, Peacock, Trelawney, Medwin, Hunt, Lady Shelley, Stockdale, and other lesser writers, the correspondence and diaries of Godwin, and the modern investigations of Garnett, Rossetti, Forman, and Shelley students of less note; and he has amplified the biography constructed from these sources by manuscript papers of the Shelley family and others . . . The work is necessarily henceforth the authority for the facts of Shelley's career. It is in a strict sense a biography. It deals with the events of his life, and touches only incidentally and briefly his works and genius, his contemporaries, and the history of his times." Nation

‡ Maurois, André, 1885- Ariel; the life of Shelley; tr. by Ella D'Arcy. Appleton-Century 1924 335p $2.50, illustrated ed $3.50 92
30-21445

Published also in an illustrated edition at $3.50
"It is the great French book on Shelley. His life, looked upon as matter for a novel, makes wonderful reading, and Maurois's style is enchanting. But I am afraid he has succumbed to the temptation of making Shelley even more eccentric and paradoxical than he really was." Nation

Three additional studies on Shelley are:
Clutton-Brock, Arthur. Shelley, the man and the poet. . . 4th ed Dutton 1929 323p illus $2.50 A sympathetic study which has literary value.
Peck, W. E. Shelley, his life and work. Houghton 1927 2v illus o.p. 1939 A definitive life, embodying new material, more suited for reference work than for reading
Thompson, Francis. Shelley. Scribner 1909 91p $1.50 "A masterpiece of English prose"

Symonds, John Addington, 1840-1893. Shelley. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Sheridan, Richard Brinsley Butler, 1751-1816
Oliphant, Mrs Margaret Oliphant (Wilson) 1828-1897. Sheridan. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Sherman, John, 1823-1900
Burton, Theodore Elijah, 1851-1929. John Sherman. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Sherman, William Tecumseh, 1820-1891
Lewis, Lloyd, 1891- Sherman, fighting prophet; illus. with reproductions of maps, engravings and photographs. Harcourt 1932 690p illus maps. $1.98
1 U.S.—History—Civil war—Campaigns and battles 32-33980

"Vivid, informal, yet scholarly and well-documented, is this excellent portrayal of General Sherman, his background and the personalities that effected him." Providence
"In many respects it supplements Captain Hart's book. Captain Hart wrote from the view-point of the professional soldier, and while his biography is by no means of the conventional military sort, its importance lies chiefly in its penetrating analysis of Sherman's strategy and achievements in the field and their relations to the problems that were agitating the nation. Mr. Lewis, on the other hand, has written from the viewpoint of the civilian." Sat. rev. of lit.
Maps, and photographic illustrations. Bibliography: p655-69

Liddell Hart, Basil Henry, 1895- Sherman; the genius of the civil war. Eyre 1933 473p 7s 6d 92
1 U.S.—History—Civil war—Campaigns and battles

Formerly carried also by Dodd under title: Sherman; soldier, realist, American
"Nearly every page bears evidence of the fact that it is the product of painstaking and exhaustive research, mature thought, and an expert understanding of the subject in hand. There is no attempt to jazz up the narrative, no withholding of criticism, no effusive laudation. Frankness is as characteristic of the author's presentation as it was of Sherman himself. One has the feeling that this is precisely the sort of a study that the redoubtable old soldier would have most appreciated." Sat. rev. of lit.

Sherman, William T.—Continued

Sherman's "Memoirs" first published in 1875 are obtainable from Appleton-Century in two volumes at $7

Sibelius, Jean Julius Christian, 1865- See class 780.92

Sidney, Sir Philip, 1554-1586

Bourne, Henry Richard Fox, 1837-1909. Sir Philip Sidney. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Symonds, John Addington, 1840-1893. Sidney. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Sinclair, Upton Beall, 1878-

American outpost; a book of reminiscences. Farrar 1932 280p front o.p. 1939 92

32-26373

"In this frank, good-humored account of his life, literary work, and propagandist labors of all sorts we have the revelation of a fighter who has never compromised with his convictions. He spares his friends as little as himself." Pittsburgh

Siringo, Charles A. 1855-1928

Riata and spurs; the story of a lifetime spent in the saddle as cowboy and detective; with an introduction by Gifford Pinchot. Houghton 261p illus (Riverside lib.) $1 92

1 Cowboys 2 Crime and criminals 3 Detectives [27-9369]

Originally published in 1927

Certain parts of the book are reprinted, in revised form, from the author's privately printed narratives called the "Lone star cowboy" 1919 and "Cowboy detective" 1912

"Full of action, this 'story of a life-time spent in the saddle as a cowboy and detective' will appeal to all lovers of real western adventure. Illustrated." N.Y. libraries

Skrîabin, Aleksandr Nikolaevich, 1872-1915. See class 780.92

Skarîatina, Irina

Little era in old Russia; with illus. by C. L. Baldridge. Bobbs 1934 392p illus $1 92

34-33093

"A beautiful and spontaneous autobiography of a girl in old, vanished Russia. The young Russian noblewoman . . . recreates the scenes of her childhood in a home which was gracious and loving. Her story ends with a hint of romance." Cincinnati

A world begins. Random house 1932 304p illus $3.50 92

32-26374

"A further chapter in the life of the Russian exile . . . ends on a happy note with her marriage to an American. Aided by the Red cross she went from Russia to England; then, unable to earn a living there, she came to the United States as a French governess and began a new life, which for a time was so unhappy and impoverished that it was little better than her existence under the soviet." Bkl.

* A world can end. Random house 1931 xxii,351p illus $2.50 92

1 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 31-21554

The story of a young Russian woman of noble family born to wealth and extravagant luxury. The simple courage which brought her through the terrible events which have been called the "ten days which shook the world" and through the months of privation and suffering that followed is shown in her Diary

"Rarely does one encounter, either in fiction or biography, a personality so altogether delightful as the one which quite unselfconsciously reveals itself to us in Irina Skariâtina's 'A World Can End' . . . She writes with a joyous narrative sense and an instinct for form and style that are a delight: and she has unique things to say." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Skinner, Otis, 1858-

Footlights and spotlights; recollections of my life on the stage. Bobbs 1924 366p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 24-10951

"One of the most interesting theatrical autobiographies of recent years. Writing with modesty and humor out of his forty-seven years of experience, Mr Skinner relates anecdotes of Booth, Modjeska, McCullough and Lawrence Barrett with whom he acted, of the triumphs of the Daly company in New York and London of the '80s and '90s and of his successful and unsuccessful ventures at the head of his own companies. 'He provides some sage reflections and his remarks on the past and present conditions of the theater are well worth reading.' " Cleveland

Illustrated with many photographs. Well indexed

Slessor, Mary Mitchell, 1848-1915

Livingstone, William Pringle. Mary Slessor of Calabar, pioneer missionary. 6th ed Harper 1916 347p illus maps $2 92

1 Missions—Calabar, Old [16-22663]

"Story of a humbly born Scotch woman who, fired by missionary zeal, went to Calabar, West Africa in 1876, where she worked with heroic devotion among the African bushmen till her death in 1915. Pictures vividly native life and customs. Photographs." N.Y. state lib.

Smith, Adam, 1723-1790

Hirst, Francis Wrigley, 1873- Adam Smith. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Smith, John, 1580-1631

Chatterton, Edward Keble, 1878- Captain John Smith. Lane 1927 286p illus maps (Golden hind ser.) 5s 92

1 Virginia—History 27-18336

Formerly carried also by Harper

"A biography of the gallant and vain-glorious adventurer who was soldier, sailor, discoverer, colonial administrator and New World promoter and who had sufficient strenuous experience before the age of thirty-six to fill the lives of three ordinary men. Illustrated with reproductions of old maps and prints." Cleveland

"He has succeeded in making the Smith of legend credible. . . . Mr. Chatterton possesses the self-restraint and sense of proportion to dwell on what is of permanent value in the achievement of Smith at greater length than on what is spectacular and entertaining." Times (London) lit. sup.

Smith, John—Continued

Smith, Logan Pearsall, 1865-
* Unforgotten years. Little 1939 295p $2.50 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-29073

The story of the author's Quaker background, college life, travels, friendships and encounters with Walt Whitman, Bernard Berenson, William and Henry James, Benjamin Jowett of Balliol, Whistler, Edith Wharton, and Santayana "The book is enchantingly written. . . Honesty, urbanity, humor, and an outlook upon life at once fastidious and mellow, give to his autobiographical reminiscences both substance and charm." Atlantic bookshelf

Smuts, Jan Christian, 1870-
Millin, Mrs Sarah Gertrude (Liebson) 1889- General Smuts. Little 1936 2v ea $3.50 92

(36-10132)

"This book has been revised—as to its facts, but not its opinions—by General Smuts. It is based on his papers, official and private; his writings, published and unpublished; letters to and from him." Preface

"A detailed biography, written with genuine knowledge of political and social conditions in South Africa." Bkl.

Socrates
Taylor, Alfred Edward, 1869- Socrates. Appleton-Century 1933 173p front $1.50 92

33-6046

"In this brief biography a great Platonic scholar argues in favor of the substantial accuracy of Plato's picture of Socrates and attempts a reconstruction of that period of the philosopher's life which is least known." Book rev. digest

"The classical scholar and the ordinary reader will find much to attract in this book; for Professor Taylor writes well with a keen eye to the human side of philosophers and philosophy." Saturday rev.

Soto, Hernando de, 1500?-1542
Maynard, Theodore, 1890- De Soto and the conquistadores. Longmans 1930 297p illus maps o.p. 1939 92

1 America—Discovery and exploration 30-10942

"Biography of Hernando de Soto, Spanish soldier and discoverer, which attempts to extenuate the charge of Spanish cruelty to the Indians by stressing the religious object of the conquistadores." Book rev. digest

"Concerning the author's interpretations and opinions, questions may be raised, especially when Spanish religious piety is so often emphasized and when attempts are made to draw morals from the facts. . . On the whole, the book is polished, pleasing, and praise-worthy. The index and bibliography are rather better than is customary in such volumes, and the illustrations are well-selected." Hist. outlook

Sousa, John Philip, 1854-1932. See class 780.92

Southey, Robert, 1774-1843
Dowden, Edward, 1843-1913. Southey. Macmillan 205p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

A22-563

First edition 1880
"Best abridged biography." Dictionary of national biography

Spencer, Herbert, 1820-1903
Autobiography. Watts 1904 2v 7s 6d 92
[4-10065]

Formerly carried also by Appleton
"Hardly more than a restatement of his philosophy . . . it shows him to have been almost a purely intellectual being of colossal egotism in whom the human affections ran low." W. L. Cross's Outline of biography

Elliot, Hugh Samuel Roger, 1881- Herbert Spencer. Constable 1917 330p front (Makers of the nineteenth century) 6s 92

17-26315

Formerly carried also by Holt
"This account of Spencer's life and writings, while sound in judgment, is a vivid, unhackneyed study, so lucid and genially readable, that even the person who knows little about Spencer and cares less about his philosophy will find himself interested in both Spencer's life and thought." Springfield Republican

Spenser, Edmund, 1552?-1599
Church, Richard William, 1815-1890. Spenser. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Spinoza, Benedictus de, 1632-1677
Browne, Lewis, 1897- Blessed Spinoza; a biography of the philosopher. Macmillan 1932 334p illus $4 92

32-26514

"Mr. Browne, in building up his narrative of Spinoza's youth, has, as he himself observes, had to have frequent recourse to surmises. Even so, Mr. Browne handles his material—or should we say his lack of it?—very deftly, and we have a clear and convincing picture of the community wherein Spinoza was brought up, its heritage, its ways, its spirit." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Selected bibliography: p321-23

Stalin, Iosif, 1879-
* Lyons, Eugene, 1898- Stalin, czar of all the Russias. Lippincott 1940 292p illus $2.50 92

1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 3 Russia—Politics and government—1917- (W) 40-27335

A "narrative of Stalin's boyhood, education for the priesthood, and finally his paradoxical rise to power." Library journal
"He has succeeded in presenting a comprehensive and well-rounded story of Stalin's amazing career to the end of 1939, and has provided the reader with much useful information on the revolution and even with glimpses of Russia's past history. The volume is carefully planned and brilliantly written." N.Y. Times

Souvarine, Boris. Stalin; a critical survey of Bolshevism. Alliance bk. 1939 690p $3.75 92

1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- (W) 39-22569

A former member of the executive committee of the Communist international and

Stalin, Iosif—Continued
founder of the French communist party describes how Stalin, the "man of steel," rose from obscurity to be the undisputed dictator of one-sixth of the earth
"Let me warn you at once that 'Stalin' is not easy reading. Still, it is becoming clear that easy reading will hardly enable us to understand the multiplex history of our time. 'Stalin' is as much the story of Bolshevism as it is of Stalin . . . it is a work of obvious importance and, in its total effect of considerable power." New Yorker

Stanley, Sir Henry Morton, 1841-1904
Autobiography; ed. by his wife, Dorothy Stanley. With sixteen photogravures and a map. Houghton 1909 551p illus map $3 92
9-28751

"Sir Henry Stanley (1841-1904) prepared the greater part of this work, the supplementary narrative being made up from his letters, diaries, etc. It is an extraordinary life-record, beginning in the workhouse, where he was cruelly treated, continuing in a hand-to-mouth existence, a voyage to America, soldier life in the Civil war, the ups and downs of journalism, and finally, the African explorations which made him famous." Pittsburgh
"A record sincere and moving in its recital of deprivation, discipline, endurance and achievement." Viewpoints in biography

Wasserman, Jakob, 1873-1934. Bula Matari: Stanley, conqueror of a continent. Liveright 1933 351p map $3 92
33-27038

Published in England under title: H. M. Stanley—explorer. Translated from the German by Eden and Cedar Paul
"To the black men of Africa, Stanley was known as Bula Matari, 'the breaker of rocks.' This biography of the Anglo-American journalist and explorer of the Dark Continent is a combination of straightforward, factual narrative and a sympathetic yet keen psychological interpretation of a man who was the author's boyhood hero, and who, he feels, has fallen into undeserved oblivion. Map." Book rev. digest

Starrett, Paul, 1866-
Changing the skyline; an autobiography, with the collaboration of Webb Waldron and a foreword by Bob Davis. McGraw 1938 319p illus (Whittlesey house publications) $3 92
1 Building 38-27672

"Autobiography of the builder and architect, telling of his steady climb to phenomenal success as a builder, and frankly characterizing many famous men with whom he came in contact. Among the buildings for which he is responsible are the Flatiron building, the Pennsylvania terminal in New York, and the Lincoln memorial in Washington." Bkl.

Steffens, Lincoln, 1866-1936
‡ Autobiography. Harcourt 1931 884p illus $1.69 92
31-28251

Originally published in 2v
"A fascinating account of a highly individual, fearless character and a singularly clear intelligence, reacting, for over three decades, on the most important public activities. . . . The narrative includes the famous trial of the McNamaras for the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building; revolution in Mexico; the Kerenski revolution in Russia; and the peace conference in Paris, with a brilliant interpretation of the personalities of Wilson and Clemenceau." Boston

Lincoln Steffens's "Letters" (Harcourt 1938 2v illus $10) rounds out his story and, like the "Autobiography" is at its best during the apex of his career from 1896 to 1914

Stein, Gertrude, 1874-
Autobiography of Alice B. Toklas. Random house 1933 310p illus $3.50 92
1 Paris—Intellectual life [33-22918]

Tho purporting to be by the companion of Gertrude Stein, the book is in reality the author's autobiography
"Aside from the personality of Gertrude Stein, or the vitality which springs from every sentence of the book, the subject material is itself fascinating. If it were written in the dullest possible fashion, you would still be interested in Picasso and Braque, Max Jacob and Juan Gris and a hundred other personalities which appear in the pages. It is a record of nearly thirty years of life in a fantastically changing Paris and elsewhere—a life passed in the most stimulating and important society." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Steiner, Edward Alfred, 1866-
* From alien to citizen; the story of my life in America. Revell 1914 332p illus $3 92
14-30870

Autobiography of a Jewish immigrant, who after varied experiences in sweat shops, in the steel-mills of Pittsburgh, and in coal mines, among tramps, strikers and fellow immigrants, rose to service in the Christian ministry
"Experiences which show how hard the way is made for an immigrant are cited without bitterness, and thru all shines an unbounded faith in America." N.J. lib. bul.

Steinmetz, Charles Proteus, 1865-1923
Hammond, John Winthrop. Charles Proteus Steinmetz, a biography. Appleton-Century 1924 489p illus $4 92
24-21903

"Follows the thread of the brilliant career of this interesting personality and electrical genius, touching upon his childhood in Poland, his education and socialistic activities, and his rise from a penniless immigrant to his successful connection with the General electric company. An authorized biography in popular style. Eighteen illustrations." N.Y. state lib.

J. N. Leonard's "Loki; the life of Charles Proteus Steinmetz" (Doubleday 1929 291p illus o.p. 1939) is a graphic, journalistic biography dealing with the personality of the man rather than with his work

Stern, Mrs Elizabeth Gertrude (Levin) 1890-
I am a woman—and a Jew, by Leah Morton (pseud). Sears 1926 362p o.p. 1939 92
26-20742

An interesting autobiography of a Jewish woman who left the Jewish faith and married a Gentile
"As Leah Morton tells her story, she grew up, in the home atmosphere of strict, austere, uncompromising Jewish faith, and in the atmosphere outside the home of the American public school and small college . . . Almost the whole of the book deals with her life from her marriage on to the present time, about twenty years. Its importance and value lie in its frank and sincere depiction of Jewish-Gentile relations." N.Y. Times

Stern, Mrs Elizabeth G. L.—Continued

Mrs E. G. L. Stern's "My mother and I" (Macmillan 1917 169p $1.75) is another story of the life of this Polish girl following her thru high school, college and social service training. She shows how her life separated her from her parents who still remained aliens

Sterne, Laurence, 1713-1768

Cross, Wilbur Lucius, 1862- Life and times of Laurence Sterne. 3d ed with alterations and additions Yale univ. press 1929 xxvi,670p illus $5 92

29-30567

First edition, 1909, 2d 1925. The third edition has some slight corrections and some additions to the bibliography

"Professor Cross has produced the fullest and most complete life of Sterne which has been published. In more than one way it is exhaustive. Is written in an interesting and entertaining manner." Literary digest

Traill, Henry Duff, 1842-1900. Sterne. Macmillan 1882 176p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

A22-565

"Brilliantly written and picturesque. He has drawn copiously from Mr Fitzgerald's 'Life of Sterne,' no doubt, but then he has not followed the time-honored precedent in such cases of abusing the source from which he draws." Athenaeum

Stevens, Thaddeus, 1792-1868

McCall, Samuel Walker, 1851-1923. Thaddeus Stevens. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Miller, Alphonse Bertram. Thaddeus Stevens. Harper 1939 440p front $4 92

39-10116

"Biography of the bitter leader of the radical Republican wing in Congress, who was an abolitionist during and after the Civil war, and led the impeachment proceedings against Andrew Johnson. The work is based on years of research. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Miller's biography of 'Old Thad' is neither exhaustive nor critical, but it is lively and shrewd, excellent in its appreciation of character, well proportioned and reasonably accurate. If it does not rehabilitate Stevens it does re-create him; if it does not justify the ruthlessness of the radical policy it goes far to explain it." H. S. Commager in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Stevenson, Robert Louis, 1850-1894

Letters of Robert Louis Stevenson; ed. by Sidney Colvin. a new edition . . . with 150 new letters. Biographical ed Scribner 1911 4v illus ea $2 92

11-12822

"In this edition the two series of 'Letters' previously published ('Vailima letters' and 'Letters to his family and friends') are reprinted with some additions of matter and corrections of date." Preface

"There are few, if any, more readable letters in the language. They are full to the very brim of life, of humor, of strangeness, of wisdom, goodness, book-knowledge, breadth of human sympathy—in one word, of Robert Louis Stevenson." Pratt alcove

Stevenson's "Letters" ed. by Sir Sidney Colvin in the South seas ed (Scribner 1925 4v ea 90c) contains all the letters published up to 1925. There are many more than in the biographical ed

Balfour, Sir Graham, 1859-1929. Life of Robert Louis Stevenson. Methuen 1901 2v in 1 10s 6d 92

92 A848b

[1-25406]

Formerly carried also by Scribner

"Authorized biography by his cousin and intimate, largely compiled from Stevenson's own records. Supplements the more valuable and inspiring 'Letters,' edited by Colvin." N.Y. state lib.

Chronological list of writings of Stevenson: v2, p248-61

Gwynn, Stephen Lucius, 1864- Robert Louis Stevenson. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Osbourne, Lloyd, 1868- Intimate portrait of R. L. S. Scribner 1924 155p o.p. 1939 92

24-4068

"This short but delightful personal picture of Robert Louis Stevenson, done by his stepson, appeared in Scribner's magazine Nov. '23-Feb. '24. Covers his life from his 26th year when he first met Osbourne's mother until his early death at Vailima. The portrait brings out all the charm of Stevenson's imaginative mind, and gives a fresh understanding of his colossal literary achievement, the incredible product of a dauntless spirit continually hampered by a frail body." Wis. bul.

R. A. Bermann's "Home from the sea; Robert Louis Stevenson in Samoa; tr. by E. R. Hapgood" (Bobbs 1939 280p $2.75) is a fictionized biography of Stevenson's last years at Vailima. Of interest as a picture of the Samoan people, Stevenson's relations with them and of his domestic life

Stewart, Mrs Elinore (Pruitt) 1878-

Letters of a woman homesteader; with illus. by N. C. Wyeth. Houghton 1914 281p illus $2 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life 14-10884

"The strong personality behind these letters is shown in a robust observation of Wyoming life, and an unconventional wielding of homely English. . . The homesteader is writing informally to an understanding friend, and her pen enters racily into the doings of Mormons, Christians, and outlaws, of her Scotch employer, the Frenchman Gavotte, and the out-of-doors-loving, assertive Mrs Louderer and Mrs O'Shaughnessy." Nation

Appeared in Atlantic monthly, v112-13, October 1913-February 1914

Still, William Grant, 1895- See class 780.92

Stone, Lucy, 1818-1893

Blackwell, Alice Stone, 1857- Lucy Stone; pioneer of woman's rights. Stantial, E.L. 1930 313p illus $1.50 92

[30-25807]

Formerly carried also by Little

"Lucy Stone, earnest advocate of woman suffrage and the anti-slavery movement, stands out in this biography, by her daughter, as a complete person, sensible, unfanatic and unselfish in her attempts to further a cause. This work is free from the snares of adulation and sentimentality that often result from a biography by a close relation of the subject." Providence

Stone, Lucy—Continued

Storrs, Sir Ronald, 1881-
Memoirs of Sir Ronald Storrs. Putnam 1937 563p illus maps $5 92

1 Egypt — Politics and government 2 Great Britain—Colonies 3 Palestine—Politics and government 37-29409

Published in England under title: Orientations

"In the Seven Pillars of Wisdom T. E. Lawrence paid tribute to the qualities of another Englishman in the Near East, Sir Ronald Storrs, for many years one of Great Britain's colonial administrators. This book is Sir Ronald Storrs's autobiography, partly reminiscences, partly excerpts from diaries and letters written home." Book rev. digest

"It requires careful reading, for it is an important document; it was not written in a day, and cannot be read in an hour. It is no mere frame to set off the brilliant and gem-like Lawrence miniature, but a canvas of its own, of wide surface, great depth, and intricate human detail." Atlantic monthly

Stowe, Mrs Harriet Elizabeth (Beecher) 1811-1896
Stowe, Charles Edward, 1850- and Stowe, Lyman Beecher, 1880- Harriet Beecher Stowe: the story of her life, by her son, and her grandson. Houghton 1911 313p illus o.p. 1939 92

11-12848

"Valuable for family reminiscences and interesting for side lights on the political events of the Civil war period. Her early life in her father's strict Calvinistic household is especially well described. A centennial anniversary volume, and rather a study of her character and personality than of her literary work. Illustrations, including portraits." N.Y. state lib.

Strauss, Johann, 1804-1849, and Strauss, Johann, 1825-1899. See class 780.92

Strauss, Richard, 1864- See class 780.92

Stravinskii, Igor' Fedorovich, 1882- See class 780.92

Stresemann, Gustav, 1878-1929
Vallentin, Antonina, 1893- Frustration; or, Stresemann's race with death; tr. by Eric Sutton. Constable 343p front 5s 92

1 Germany—Foreign relations 2 Germany—Politics and government 36-10984

First published 1931 under title: "Stresemann." Formerly carried also by Smith, Richard R.

A biography written by a close friend. The greater part of the book is given to the last six years of Stresemann's life and his services in the cause of peace

"The author tells the story well, with many picturesque touches and descriptions of persons who played a leading part, among whom Lord D'Abernon and M. Briand stand out. She enables one to realize the magnitude of the task accomplished and the character of the man who accomplished it." Times (London) lit. sup.

Strong, Anna Louise, 1885-
I change worlds; the remaking of an American. Garden City pub. co. 422p $1 92

1 Communism—Russia 2 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 3 Russia—Description and travel

[35-5937]

Reprint of a book first published 1935 by Holt

"Personal history of an American woman, which describes her early life in this country, her experiences in the Mexican and Chinese revolutions, and lays special stress upon her fourteen years in Soviet Russia." Book rev. digest

"She is so personal in her story, and so American a personality, that her story of acclimatization in pioneer Russia is singularly moving and impressively convincing." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Stuart, Gilbert, 1755-1828. See class 759.1

Stuart, James Elwell Brown, 1833-1864
Thomason, John William, 1893- Jeb Stuart; with illus. and maps by the author. Scribner 512p illus maps $2.50 92

1 U.S.—History—Civil war—Campaigns and battles 37-9447

Reprint of title first published 1930

"A biography of the picturesque and dashing J. E. B. Stuart, southern cavalry leader, who was a major general at twenty-eight and whose meteoric career ended when he was killed in action in 1864." Book rev. digest

"Given a professional soldier of Confederate lineage and loyalty, wielding a sprightly, romantic pen on the career of the most alert and high-hearted of cavalry commanders, Captain Thomason's 'Jeb Stuart' results. It is here set forth with engaging phrase and infectious gusto which carry the reader without fatigue except where the tale of campaigns is overladen with names of places, officers, and unit, or with excess of statistics." Sat. rev. of lit.

Sudermann, Hermann, 1857-1928
Book of my youth; tr. by Wyndham Harding. Lane 1923 400p 12s 6d 92

[23-8968]

Formerly carried also by Harper

"The German dramatist and novelist tells here of his childhood and youth. His student days and the years of varied experience that followed, all his dreamy youth indeed, are clearly revealed as a period of initiation into his art." Book rev. digest

"It is throughout a beautiful, simple, human story, filled with tragic, sad, pathetic and romantic episodes, each quite as moving as the finest scenes in the great novelist's and dramatist's works of imagination." N.Y. Tribune

Sugimoto, Etsu (Inagaki)
‡ Daughter of the Samurai; how a daughter of feudal Japan, living hundreds of years in one generation, became a modern American; frontispiece by Tekisui Ishi. Doubleday 1925 314p illus $3 92

1 Japan—Social life and customs 25-25033

"Appealing narrative of a young Japanese woman, brought up in the tradition of feudal Japan, who married a Japanese merchant living in the United States, and became a true daughter of her adopted country. Presents a sympathetic picture of both peoples." Pratt quarterly

Sullivan, Sir Arthur Seymour, 1842-1900. See class 780.92

Sullivan, Mark, 1874-

Education of an American. Doubleday 1938 320p illus $3.50 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-28922

Autobiography of the "New York Herald Tribune's" political columnist, who is also the author of "Our times." It is, too a picture of the past half-century in the United States

"This first volume of his autobiography proves that he can write a personal story and relate it with the history of his times as well as he has written the six volumes of our modern American history. It is a competent, forthright, interesting, and dramatic account of a unique and significant period in our country's history." Sat. rev. of lit.

Sumner, Charles, 1811-1874

Storey, Moorfield, 1845-1929. Charles Sumner. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Sun Yat-Sen, 1866-1925

Restarick, Henry Bond, bp. 1854-1934. Sun Yat Sen, liberator of China; with a preface by K. S. Latourette. Yale univ. press 1931 167p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 China—Politics and government 31-31953

"There has been as yet no authoritative biography of Sun Yat-sen. Although he is already a legendary figure to the Chinese, little is known of his life, and there are as many versions of his youth as there are books and magazine articles. Bishop Restarick does not essay a full-length biography. The last few years are given sketchily. But he has done considerable research on Sun's earlier life." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p161-62.

Sutter, John Augustus, 1803-1880

Cendrars, Blaise, 1887- Sutter's gold; tr. from the French by H. L. Stuart. Harper 1926 179p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 California—Gold discoveries 26-16117

"An extremely picturesque account of Johann August Sutter, who lived on his 'nerve' in the Old World; then went to California and developed some land where gold was finally discovered. Neither for the gold nor for the land did Sutter ever receive any compensation, and he died a poor man, still claiming redress from the government. Besides being a narrative of an unusual career, the book very vividly reproduces the backgrounds of the Old World, and of early California." Providence

"'Sutter's Gold' is a swiftly moving, dramatic story, told with severe economy and astonishing skill. The effects are achieved by a skilful combination of historic fact and imaginative detail." N.Y. World

Zollinger, James Peter. Sutter, the man and his empire. Oxford 1939 374p $3.50 92

1 Frontier and pioneer life—California (W) 39-27705

"He tells for the first time, deriving his material from original sources, the full story of Sutter's life before he arrived in California. What is more important, however, and infinitely more interesting, he takes pains to explain Sutter, to analyze the temperament, at once complex and curiously simple, which governed Sutter's life, determined his successes and foreshadowed his failures." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Sources: p353-63

Swedenborg, Emanuel, 1688-1772

Trobridge, George. Life of Emanuel Swedenborg: his life, teachings, and influence. New-Church press 1919 247p front $1 92

19-7228

"Trobridge's is a 'different' biography of Swedenborg from any of its many predecessors. It is not written as a special plea, either to those definitely inside or outside the body of Swedenborg's followers. It is based on all the painstaking research which appears so plainly in some others' work, but in his is all tucked away . . . The present book is an American issue of the second English (most popular) paper edition, omitting some few topical and other illusions of interest only to British readers." C. W. Harvey in Foreword

Swift, Jonathan, 1667-1745

Stephen, Sir Leslie, 1832-1904. Swift. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Van Doren, Carl Clinton, 1885- Swift. Viking 1930 279p illus o.p. 1939 92

30-28869

"Mr. Van Doren's study of this great but unhappy man is marked by sound information and a great prudence. He arranges his facts in an orderly and seemly manner and makes his narrative interesting from first to last. There is no vain show of learning. The tedious labors that must have gone into more than one passage and the diligent weighing of conflicting testimony that lies behind the whole are carefully concealed. One gets a smooth-running, extremely readable account of the man." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliographical notes: p269-72

S. L. Gwynn's "Life and friendships of Dean Swift" (Holt 1933 362p illus o.p. 1939) is a longer biography which claims no new facts but retells the story of Swift's life and quotes extensively from his letters

Swinburne, Algernon Charles, 1837-1909

Chew, Samuel Claggett, 1888- Swinburne. Murray, J. 1929 335p illus 15s 92

[29-7621]

Formerly carried also by Little

"The publication of the definitive Bonchurch edition of Swinburne's works is made the occasion for a critical biography. This new estimate, while putting its emphasis on Swinburne's lyric poetry, devotes more than the usual amount of space to his traegdies and prose writings." Book rev. digest

"Professor Chew has brought to his record of the poet's life and to the interpretation of poems and dramas . . . method and judgment . . . and he has succeeded in giving us a considerable number of incidents which are lacking in the biographies of Edmund Gosse and Harold Nicolson." Nation

Sir E. W. Gosse's "Life of Algernon Charles Swinburne" (Macmillan 1917 363p illus 10s 6d) is a skilful memoir stored with lively, intimate details of the poet's life and critical comments on his work

Nicolson, Harold George, 1886- Swinburne. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Swinnerton, Frank Arthur, 1884-

Swinnerton; an autobiography. Doubleday 1936 372p front $2.75 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 36-35024

"Having surveyed the Georgian literary scene from an impersonal angle, Frank Swinnerton now tells his personal story of the era, with particular relation to his own contributions as novelist, publisher and intimate of a large number of prominent participants." Boston Transcript

"An autobiography without affectation of any kind—surely a rare virtue; a story with generosity toward his colleagues and fellowmen without a suspicion of flattery." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Sydenstricker, Absalom, 1852-1931

‡ Buck, Mrs Pearl (Sydenstricker) 1892- Fighting angel; portrait of a soul. Day 1936 302p $2.50 92

1 Missions—China 37-27009

Also obtainable in the Triangle bks. series (Blue ribbon bks. 39c)

A biography of the author's father, a missionary in China

"This is an amazing book. That is not because of its style, for it possesses the literary charm which is unfailingly associated with the name of Pearl Buck. Nor is it because of its setting. . . It is amazing, rather, because of its objectivity and its understanding of its central figure." Sat. rev. of lit.

Sydenstricker, Mrs Caroline (Stulting)

Buck, Mrs Pearl (Sydenstricker) 1892- The exile. Reynal 1936 315p $2.50 92

1 Missions—China 36-3511

Also available in the Triangle bks. series (Blue ribbon bks. 39c)

"A loving biographical portrait of the author's mother, a woman of great courage, vitality, and charm who lived most of her adult life in China as the wife of a missionary. The point of view is not in the least objective; indeed, it is Pearl Buck's heroine worship that gives her book its moving quality." New Yorker

Symonds, John Addington, 1840-1893

Brown, Horatio Robert Forbes, 1854- John Addington Symonds; a biography compiled from his papers and correspondence. new ed Murray, J. 1903 xxiv,495p front 9s 92

[4-9507]

Formerly carried also by Scribner

"One who of all the men of our generation best knew, loved and understood the Italian genius in literature" Frederic Harrison

"Mr Brown, whom Mr Symonds asked to be his literary executor, has very wisely supplemented Mr Symonds' biography by many letters and extracts from diaries and notebooks, and has been unusually successful in putting these together into a consecutive narrative." Pittsburgh

In "Letters and papers of John Addington Symonds" collected and edited by H. R. F. Brown (Scribner 1923 280p $3.50) "Mr Brown, the biographer of Symonds, has . . . collected from 2,400 letters addressed to himself and Henry Sidgwick, some 250 extracts, throwing many lights upon the literary and artistic figures of 1865-93." Outlook [London]

Taft, William Howard, president U.S. 1857-1930

Pringle, Henry Fowles, 1897- Life and times of William Howard Taft; a biography. Farrar 1939 2v illus $7.50 92

1 U.S.—Politics and government—1898— (W) 39-27878

Continuously paged

"This life of Taft is authorized but not official. . . The author was given unrestricted access to all the hundreds of thousands of letters in the Taft collection at the Library of Congress and to all other available material." Foreword

"Mr. Pringle's notable achievement is to bring Taft to life, to recreate him as he surely was, and to make him irresistibly attractive. He has given us a full-length biography that is not full dress." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: v2, p1083-86

Tagore, Sir Rabindranath, 1861-

My reminiscences; with frontispiece from the portrait in colors by Sasi Kumar Hesh. Macmillan 1917 273p illus $2.50 92

17-12485

"Well worth a place in literature. . . It contains much to attract even those who are not interested in the psychological aspects of literature; quaint character sketches of teachers, friends and fellow-students, vivid pictures of Indian habits and scenery, analyses of child mentality done with extraordinary insight and sympathy." Spectator

Talleyrand-Périgord, Charles Maurice de, prince de Bénévent, 1754-1838

Cooper, Alfred Duff, 1890- Talleyrand. Cape, J. 1932 399p ilus 7s 6d 92

A38-368

Formerly carried also by Harper

"A full-length, and on the whole sympathetic, portrait of this brilliant, unscrupulous, cynical French priest, apostate, and diplomat, who served the various governments and rulers of France during half a century—under the Revolution, the Empire, and the restored Monarchy. The volume is naturally devoted largely to Talleyrand's public life, but his personal life, his attitude toward religion, his moral delinquencies, and his many gallantries also receive frank but not sensational treatment. Bibliography. Index." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Cooper has written for the general reader a charming portrait of one of the most interesting figures in European history. . . He writes well and has spent much time in the contemplation of his hero, for whom he presents a lengthy, though not conclusive, defense." Sat. rev. of lit.

C. C. Brinton's "Lives of Talleyrand" (Norton 1936 316p illus $3) is not so very different from Duff Cooper's excellent biography. "Cooper writes more generally, more simply, often more amusingly; Brinton writes far more exactly, with constant discriminations that will be valuable reminders for the general reader." Sat. rev. of lit.

Tarbell, Ida Minerva, 1857-

* All in the day's work; an autobiography. Macmillan 1939 412p illus $3.50 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27284

The autobiography of a distinguished American writer who, at eighty, surveys her long, rich and varied editorial and writing career

Tarbell, Ida M.—Continued

"One hunts for plain words to describe her as she reveals herself between the lines of this book. The words are old-fashioned: intelligence, simplicity, unselfishness, utter lack of vanity, energy, conscientiousness, kindness, imagination. One might think of more. Taken together, they add up to a truly American species of genius . . . it should have profound interest for a multitude of readers of all ages." N.Y. Times

Taylor, Deems, 1885- See class 780.92

Taylor, Jeremy, 1613-1667

Gosse, Sir Edmund William, 1849-1928. Jeremy Taylor. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Tchaikovsky, Peter Ilyich, 1840-1893. See class 780.92

Tchernavin, Tatiana

* Escape from the soviets; tr. from the Russian by N. Alexander. Dutton 1934 320p front map $2.50 92

1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 34-24650

"Madame Tchernavin and her husband, Russians of the professional class, were arrested by OGPU agents and separately imprisoned, during the campaign of terrorism begun in 1930 against the intellectuals. The book describes her escape with her husband and her thirteen-year-old son thru the Arctic marshes and forests, across the border into Finland." Book rev. digest

"Aside from the social significance of Mme. Tchernavin's book, her account of the flight is as thrilling as any adventure story. She makes the reader live with her all the physical and mental agonies that were endured by the three people." N.Y. Evening post

Tchernavin, Vladimir Vyacheslavovich

I speak for the silent; prisoners of the Soviets; tr. from the Russian by N. M. Oushakoff. Hale 1935 368p illus maps $2.50 92

1 Prisons—Russia 2 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 3 Secret service—Russia 35-2789

The husband of the author of "Escape from the Soviets" supplements his wife's book with his own story of the chaos and oppression in Soviet Russia. The horrible truths of prisons and concentration camps are here vividly revealed by one who endured the severest treatment at the hands of the Soviets, but who lived to tell his tale

Temple, Dorothy (Osborne) lady, 1627-1694

Letters from Dorothy Osborne to Sir William Temple. Dutton 320p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 92

A14-1641

"Dorothy's letters tell the story of this old-time courtship from its commencement to its happy termination, and reveal to us the singularly noble and attractive personality of Lady Temple. . . . The letters are written in a very agreeable style, and show the courtly negotiator of the Triple alliance, in a pleasanter light than that in which we have heretofore seen him." Dial

Têng, Hsi-hua

Chinese testament; the autobiography of Tan Shih-hua as told to S. Tretiakov. Simon & Schuster 1934 316p $3 92

1 China—History and customs 2 China—Social life 34-27197

"Through the excellent collaboration of a Chinese student and his Russian teacher, this record of the Chinese boy's life comes as an illuminating exposition not only of the family relationships and customs, but of the mental growth, and activities of a young Chinese intellectual during the revolutions of recent years." N.Y. libraries

Tennyson, Alfred Tennyson, 1st baron, 1809-1892

Fausset, Hugh I'Anson, 1895- Tennyson, a modern portrait. Cape, J. 1923 310p (Travellers' lib.) 3s 6d 92

[23-9811]

Formerly carried also by Appleton-Century

"His aim is to create a living portrait of the man and the poet 'to disengage the man's reality from his appearance, his spiritual significance from the sentimental picture before which for so long men and women prostrated themselves.' From his long and intimate study of the man he judges the poet and searches the poems for their revelations of the man. He gives him all praise for craftsmanship, for what he wrote as a pure artist, but rebels against his 'false handling of life' his timidity in the face of it and his inability to speak for all mankind." Book rev. digest

Lyall, Sir Alfred Comyn, 1835-1911. Alfred Tennyson. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Nicolson, Harold George, 1886- Tennyson; aspects of his life, character and poetry. Houghton 1923 308p $2.25 92

26-6289

This critical study of Tennyson "is a more carefully prepared and scholarly work than the one by Fausset but is less attractively presented. Author develops his own interesting theory as to Tennyson, finding that a strain of fear and loneliness runs through all his poetry." Wis. bul.

"Mr Nicolson has made an important and a fascinating contribution to the new literary species of interpretative biography." New republic

H. T. Tennyson, 2d baron has written "Alfred Lord Tennyson; a memoir" (Macmillan 1897 2v illus $6) This is a collection of letters, reminiscences and unpublished poetic fragments linked together by the son's personal recollections of his father

Terry, Dame Ellen, 1848-1928, and Shaw, George Bernard, 1856-

Ellen Terry and Bernard Shaw; a correspondence; ed. by Christopher St John (pseud). Putnam 1931 xxx,334p $5 92

1 Actors and actresses—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 31-35467

"The correspondence of Ellen Terry and Bernard Shaw covered more than a quarter century of their lives and reveals a devoted attachment. They seldom saw each other but their letters were intimate, affectionate, and richly expressive of themselves. Their correspondence also throws an interesting light on the inner history of the London stage at the end of the last century." Book rev. digest

Terry, D. E. and Shaw, G. B.—Continued
"Ellen Terry's memoirs" (Putnam 1932 367p illus $3.75) is a new edition of her autobiography which was published in 1908 under title "The story of my life." Preface, notes and additional biographical chapters have been added by Edith Craig and Christopher St John

Thackeray, William Makepeace, 1811-1863
Letters to an American family; with an introduction by L. W. Baxter and original drawings by Thackeray. Murray, J. 1904 210p 7s 6d 92

[4-17699]

Formerly carried also by Century
Charming and characteristic letters to the Baxter family. Illustrated with drawings by the author

Elwin, Malcolm, 1902- Thackeray, a personality. Smith, P. 1932 410p illus $3.75 92

[32-25832]

"Mr. Elwin has searched out in the memoirs of his subject's friends and acquaintances, in periodicals, and in the novels themselves a greater body of relevant material than any of his forerunners in this field. The foundation of a life of Thackeray at this time must be Lady Ritchie's delightful, if disjointed, introductions. Mr. Elwin would be the first to admit that neither from them nor from the other sources at present available can the entire picture be drawn. . . If occasionally his style lacks finish, if in his few excursions into criticism he follows too closely the paths of earlier critics, or at least allows his judgment to be affected, consciously or unconsciously, by their views, his presentation of the essential facts is unexceptionable, and his book a model of industry and lucid exposition." Times (London) lit. sup.
Bibliography: p372-92

In the absence of a satisfactory biography of Thackeray, libraries having the Biographical edition of Thackeray's works with the biographical introductions by his daughter, Lady Ritchie, will find these the best substitute for a formal biography

Lady A. I. T. Ritchie's "Letters of Anne Thackeray Ritchie, with forty-two additional letters from her father, William Makepeace Thackeray; selected and edited by her daughter Hester Ritchie" (Murray, J. 1924 314p illus 15s) contains the correspondence between Thackeray, Mrs Thackeray and their daughter, Lady Ritchie. There are also extracts from her diary and many notes on family history, the whole forming a valuable contribution to our knowledge of Thackeray and of the literary world of the period. Formerly carried also by Harper under title: Thackeray and his daughter

Trollope, Anthony, 1815-1882. Thackeray. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Theodoric, the Great, 454-526
Hodgkin, Thomas, 1831-1913. Theodoric the Goth. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

Theotocopuli, Dominico, known as El Greco, ca 1542-1614. See class 759.6

Thérèse, Saint, 1873-1897
Delarue-Mardrus, Mme Lucie, 1880- Sainte Therese of Lisieux; a biography; tr. by H. Y. Chase; with an introduction by Michael Williams. Longmans 1929 134p illus $2 92

29-10485

"Therese Martin was born in 1873, entered the Carmelite order at the age of 15, died at the age of 24, and some thirty years later, in 1925, was canonized. The author, a non-Catholic, writes with ardent belief in the young girl's spiritual power and Catholic approval of the book is expressed in a long introduction by Michael Williams. Will appeal to mystics of any faith." Wis. bul.

Thomas, Augustus, 1857-1934
Print of my remembrance; illus. with photographs and numerous drawings by the author. Scribner 1922 477p illus o.p. 1939 92

1 Theater 22-19739

"An informal autobiography by an American playwright. . . The pages of this entertaining book abound in reminiscences of the theatrical world in the period from 1870 to 1910 and make known the circumstances of the writing and production of his sixty plays." Pittsburgh
Chapters from this book appeared in the Saturday evening post. Illustrated with photographs and drawings by the author

Thomas, Theodore, 1835-1905. See class 780.92

Thomas, Aquinas, Saint, 1225?-1274
Chesterton, Gilbert Keith, 1874-1936. St. Thomas Aquinas. Sheed 1933 248p $2 92

34-5952

"Mr. Chesterton's little volume makes one of the pleasantest introductions to St. Thomas that could be desired." Times (London) lit. sup.

Thompson, Francis, 1859-1907
Meynell, Everard, 1882-1926. Life of Francis Thompson. [5th and rev ed] Scribner 1926 279p front $2.50 92

" 'A poet writing of a poet,' the son of Wilfrid Meynell, who rescued Francis Thompson from the depths to which drugs and failure had brought him, gives this first clear and wonderfully sympathetic account of that strange and hidden career." Cleveland

Thoreau, Henry David, 1817-1862
* Heart of Thoreau's journals; ed. by Odell Shepard. Houghton 1927 348p front $3 92

27-23170

"The 'journals,' covering a period of twenty-four years, proved peculiarly suited to excerpting, and Mr. Shepard has shown excellent judgment in his selections. The result is very satisfying and representative of Thoreau's best work. The selections are arranged chronologically with a short biographical summary prefacing each." Chicago

H. D. Thoreau's "Familiar letters" (Houghton 1896 $2.50) were selected and edited with notes by F. B. Sanborn whose friendship with Thoreau covered many years

Thoreau, Henry D.—Continued

* Canby, Henry Seidel, 1878- Thoreau. Houghton 1939 xx,508p illus $3.75 92

(W) 39-27888

An interpretative study of the life, personality and work of the famous American recluse, naturalist, and writer of the nineteenth century

"One of the most accomplished and fascinating of American biographies. It has also the humanity and sensitiveness to literary values that a book on Thoreau ought to have." Forum

Tilden, Samuel Jones, 1814-1886

Flick, Alexander Clarence, 1869- Samuel Jones Tilden; a study in political sagacity, by A. C. Flick assisted by G. S. Lobrano. Dodd 1939 597p illus (American political leaders) $5 92

1 U.S.—Politics and government—1865-1900 (W) 39-31244

An account of the successful career in law, finance, civic reform and politics of Samuel J. Tilden, prominent New York Democrat and party leader in the mid-nineteenth century

"He has had access to all the manuscript materials known to exist and he has profited by all the monographic studies made to date in the field. The man Tilden emerges from his pages to be better understood than he possibly could have been to his own generation. It cannot be said that he 'lives and breathes' again, for the biography is informative rather than creative. Only a few additions are made to the knowledge already available on Tilden, but the portrait of the man in his own times is better drawn and better set in its background." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Timūr, the Great, 1336-1405

Lamb, Harold, 1892- Tamerlane, the earth shaker. McBride 1928 340p illus maps o.p. 1939 92

28-24832

"A stirring, romantic tale of the brilliant Tatar warrior of the fourteenth century whose conquests changed the path of history. Although the book reads like an adventure story, it is based on a profound study of original sources, and is well documented with bibliographies and notes." Cleveland

Titian, 1477-1576. See class 759.5

Toller, Ernst, 1893-1939

I was a German. Morrow 1934 294p o.p. 1939 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 34-6976

"The autobiography of this German Jew, an exiled poet and dramatist is appropriately entitled in German, Eine Jugend in Deutschland. The introduction was inscribed 'the day my books were burned in Germany,' but the narrative stops ten years ago. About a third of the book is occupied with the German revolution during the years 1918 and 1919, especially in Bavaria." Book rev. digest

"The present autobiography, which stops with dramatic suddenness at the moment of his release from prison when the threatening cloud of Nazism was just appearing on the horizon, has the vivid interest of a first-hand narrative of troublous times. Even more significant, however, is its revelation of a character formed under the stress of circumstances and repeatedly turned in directions which it would never have taken under normal conditions." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Tolstoĭ, Lev Nikolaevich, graf, 1828-1910

Childhood, boyhood and youth; tr. from the Russian by I. F. Hapgood. Crowell 1911 381p front $1 92

1 Moscow—Social conditions 2 Social problems 16-19161

Bound with this is the author's "What to do"

Also obtainable in Everyman's library (Dutton 314p 90c)

"A spiritual, not a literal, autobiography; events are altered and personalities transposed, but Tolstoi's purpose was to recreate the impressions he had received from his early surroundings." Springfield city library

Maude, Aylmer, 1858-1938. Life of Tolstoy. Oxford 1930 2v (World's classics) ea 80c 92

32-26089

Also available in a 2v in 1 edition from Oxford at $1.75

Contents: v 1 First fifty years; v2 Later years. A revision of the author's earlier biography of Tolstoi which appeared in 1908-10. Some additional matter has been inserted in this edition and passages formerly quoted from translations have been omitted. Appendices contain list of authorities consulted

Some illuminating contributions that have been written by Tolstoi's family are: Tolstaĭa, A. L. grafinĭa. Tragedy of Tolstoy; tr. by Elena Varneck. Yale univ. press 1933 294p illus $3 An intimate history written by his daughter

Tolstoĭ, L. L. graf. Truth about my father. Appleton-Century 1924 229p $2

Toscanini, Arturo, 1867- See class 780.92

Toulouse-Lautrec Monfa, Henri Marie Raymond de, 1864-1901. See class 759.4

Toussaint Louverture, Pierre Dominique, 1746?-1803

Waxman, Percy. Black Napoleon; the story of Toussaint Louverture. Harcourt 1931 298p illus $1.49 92

31-4625

"How a Negro, living in slavery for almost fifty years, set out to free his people, rose to be Governor General of San Domingo, incurred the displeasure of Napoleon Bonaparte, and came to end his days in a dungeon on the Franco-Swiss border comprises one of the most fantastic recitals in history." Prelude

"Mr. Waxman tells his story clearly and forcefully. He has a whimsical, ironical turn of comment, and perhaps overworks it a little, but taken as a whole the book has go and dramatic force." Outlook

Bibliography: p295-98

Train, Arthur Cheney, 1875-

My day in court. Scribner 1939 520p $3.50 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 2 Lawyers—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27159

"The first half of the book relates Mr. Train's experiences while practicing law in New York, and it has many good stories of the courts; the remainder is devoted to his career as a writer, with chapters on fan mail, financial rewards of literature, and methods of writing. It is a genial anecdotal autobiography that admirers of Mr. Tutt will enjoy." Bkl.

Appeared in the "Saturday evening post"

Trollope, Anthony, 1815-1882
Autobiography. Dodd 319p $2 92
26-26975

First published in 1883
"It will not be so much my intention to speak of the little details of my private life, as of what I, and perhaps others round me, have done in literature; of my failures and successes such as they have been, and their causes." Chapter one

Sadleir, Michael, 1888- Anthony Trollope, a commentary; with an introduction by A. E. Newton. Houghton 1927 432p illus map $5 92
1 Trollope, Mrs Frances (Milton) 1780-1863 27-26385

"Admirable portrait of the man, and an excellent critical estimate of his work, and his place as a novelist. Hardly less interesting is the picture of Trollope's mother. At once delightful reading and informing. Portraits and other illustrations." N.Y. libraries

Walpole, Sir Hugh, 1884- Anthony Trollope. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Trotskiĭ, Lev, 1879-1940
My life; an attempt at an autobiography. Scribner 1930 599p front $5 92
1 Russia — History — Revolution—1917-
2 Russia—Politics and government
30-12073

"This long autobiography has a definite historical value; and as a human document it is an arresting account of a man's rise to world power by way of revolution. Trotzky does not claim to be dispassionate. He sees no reason to hide either his sympathies or his antipathies. His vignettes of personalities are brilliantly drawn. The Stalin controversy, resulting in Trotzky's exile, is treated in detail. A tone of satisfaction over his accomplishments toward establishing the Soviet union runs throughout the book." Bkl.

Trudeau, Edward Livingston, 1848-1915
Autobiography. Nat. tuberculosis assn. 1915 322p illus $1 92
[15-27954]

"Dr Trudeau, himself tubercular at twenty-five, went to the Adirondacks against medical advice in a desperate search for health, and worked out a fresh air treatment for consumptives, based on his own experience. 'The beloved physician' founder of the Adirondack cottage sanitarium at Saranac, here tells the story of his boyhood in Paris, gay youth in New York and later years devoted to his work. The simple narrative is frank but entirely objective, and is rich in both human and scientific interest." Cleveland

Turgenev, Ivan Sergĕevich, 1818-1883
Yarmolinsky, Avrahm, 1890- Turgenev, the man—his art—and his age. Appleton-Century 1926 386p illus $4 92
26-18131

"A detailed biography of the novelist, beginning with his sombre childhood under feudal conditions on his mother's estate, tracing his emotional and intellectual life, his continued friendship with the singer Pauline Viardot, and his associations with other writers such as Dostoyevsky, Tolstoi, Daudet, Zola, Flaubert, Goncourt and Maupassant." Boston

Tzŭ-hsi, empress dowager of China, 1834-1908
Der Ling, princess. Old Buddha. Dodd 1928 347p illus $3.50 92
1 China—Court and courtiers 28-24740

"Princess Der Ling was for three years the favorite companion of the great Manchu empress Tzu-hsi. From her memories of the years in the court, years of close association with most of the historical figures who appear in these pages, the Princess Der Ling has written a romantic biography of the Empress, called Old Buddha, whose power was absolute, and who in signing the decree that sanctioned the Boxer uprising, decreed her own downfall." Book rev. digest

Princess Der Ling's "Imperial incense" (Dodd 1933 267p illus $3) also contains descriptions of court life in China

Untermeyer, Louis, 1885-
* From another world; the autobiography of Louis Untermeyer. Harcourt 1939 394p $3 92
1 Authors — Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27831

An attempt at "something between a history of a period and an autobiography. The emphasis will be strongly on the former, for there will be little of my 'inner' self, less of my own work, and nothing (if I can help it) of my emotional maladjustments. . . In such an account as this I see myself not at all as hero nor deus ex machina nor even as the machine itself, but merely as the contact point which sets the mechanism going." Foreword by letter

"Once he has presented a rapid survey of his background and his youth, he devotes himself to discussion of persons he has known rather than to a record of his own life. . . His book combines the personal with the critical in happy fashion and is as pungent and illuminating reading as those who know the flow of his wit and the penetrating quality of his analysis could anticipate." Book-of-the-month club news

Van Buren, Martin, president U.S. 1782-1852
Shepard, Edward Morse, 1850-1911. Martin Van Buren. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Van Doren, Carl Clinton, 1885-
Three worlds. Harper 1936 317p $3 92
36-27409

"The three worlds of this autobiographical narrative are: the pre-war years, covering the author's boyhood on an Illinois farm, his school and university days; the post-war period of the '20's, with literary life and associations in New York; and the years of boom and depression, to the present. A thoughtful, discriminating work." Wis. bul.

C. C. Van Doren's "An Illinois boyhood" (Viking 1939 63p $1) is a reprint of the first chapters of his "Three worlds"

Van Paassen, Pierre
* Days of our years. Hillman-Curl 1939 520p $3.50 92
1 History, Modern—20th century 2 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 3 World politics (W) 39-27058

"Autobiography of a man who, as a correspondent . . . has lived in Europe and Africa and the Near East. . . It is first of all his own life, intimately described, and this makes his narrative more convincing than better-balanced and more judicious accounts of what has been going on beneath the surface of recent events." Book-of-the-month club news

Van Paassen, Pierre—Continued

"Put together, obviously, from notes, recollections, and material published in small-circulation magazines, it possesses nevertheless a certain unity. . . It is the special quality of this book that beneath all its complex unravelling of political and social forces and its masses of reporting, one feels what one can only call a spiritual base." New Yorker

Velasquez, Diego Rodriguez de Silva y, 1599-1660. See class 759.6

Verdi, Giuseppe, 1813-1901. See class 780.92

Vermeer, Johannes, 1632-1675. See class 759.949

Victoria, queen of Great Britain, 1819-1901

Benson, Edward Frederic, 1867-1940. Queen Victoria. Longmans 1935 406p illus $3.50 92

35-27133

" 'Queen Victoria' is a good story, told with an agreeable lightness of touch. The characters are all deftly, if superficially, presented, and the minor ones are frequently summed up with great intelligence in a few lines. . . It is with his three major characters, however, that Mr. Benson is at his best. To Victoria, Albert, and Edward the informality of his method contrives, by means of acute observations which have the manner of afterthoughts, to give a new familiarity so that one begins to feel as if one were a regular visitor at Windsor's domestic tea-parties." Sat. rev. of lit.

Lee, Sir Sidney, 1859-1926. Queen Victoria; a biography. Murray, J. 1902 10s 6d, cheaper ed 6s 92

[3-5272]

Expansion of article in "Dictionary of national biography." Formerly published also by Macmillan

"He has collected his information with diligence and judgment from many quarters . . . But the multiplicity of memoranda never obstructs the easy flow of the narrative . . . He depicts her majesty as a human being with the weaknesses to which our nature is prone . . . Every student of the public life of Great Britain in the nineteenth century . . . will have reason to be thankful to Mr Sidney Lee." Nation

Sitwell, Edith, 1887- Victoria of England. Houghton 1936 349p illus $3.50 92

36-17236

"This book is in no way intended to be a full history of the Queen's reign. It does not attempt to deal with political questions, and is only intended as a portrait of the Queen and some of her contemporaries, and as a record of certain social conditions." Author's note

"The modernity of this biography has not prevented a sincere effort to do justice to a great historical character. This feature of Miss Sitwell's book added to its pictorial and romantic qualities gives it a higher claim than mere enchantingness." Times (London) lit. sup.

‡ Strachey, Giles Lytton, 1880-1932. Queen Victoria. Harcourt 1921 434p illus $1.49 92

21-13519

"The aim is not new knowledge, but a new interpretation of facts already known . . . His method is more that of a novelist than of a biographer . . . Nothing is admitted that might appear dull; nothing is excluded that can add piquancy to the narrative. In temper, Mr Strachey's art is not so much English as French. There is doubtless another Victoria. It yet remains for a finer if less brilliant mind to trace the Queen in all her subtle influences on her age." W. L. Cross's Outline of biography

Philip Guedalla has edited "Queen and Mr. Gladstone" (Doubleday 1934 793p illus $5) a selection of papers with accompanying comments

Villard, Oswald Garrison, 1872-

* Fighting years; memoirs of a liberal editor. Harcourt 1939 543p illus $3.75 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27286

Autobiography of a noted American journalist and champion of clean politics. He was the owner-editor of the "New York Evening post" for a number of years and of "The Nation" until 1935. His life story spans many interesting years and is full of important affairs, local, national and international

"No one who was in the thick of events during the days of McKinley, the first Roosevelt, Taft, Wilson, Harding, Coolidge, and Hoover, has written a braver, finer story than Oswald Garrison Villard in this book, 'Fighting Years' . . . That part of Mr. Villard's autobiography which tells of our entrance into the World War, the peace conference, and the winter of 1918 behind the lines of the Allies in Germany, is a story that has not been told so well before. It is beautifully done." Sat. rev. of lit.

Villon, François, b. 1431

Lewis, Dominic Bevan Wyndham, 1894- François Villon; a documented survey by D. B. W. Lewis, with a preface by Hilaire Belloc. Coward-McCann 1928 407p illus map $5 92

28-21402

"Written in an ornate style but with learning, imagination and genuine feeling, the book is a romantic biography of the vagabond poet 'whose fame has waxed and waned and waxed again thru the centuries.' A selection of English renderings of Villon's verse by Rossetti, Swinburne, Henley and J. M. Synge is included." Book rev. digest

"The book contains very little new information, but it is a fairly complete compilation, of most of the leading facts of the old. And it is for the most part magnificently written in ornate, virile prose." Nation and Athenaeum

H. D. Stacpoole's "François Villon, his life and times, 1431-1463" (Putnam 1916 258p o.p. 1939) is both interesting and helpful to the study of the poet. The latter half of the book analyses the two "Testaments" and the "Ballads," and includes many poems in 15th century French and in English translation

Vincent de Paul, Saint, 1576?-1660

Maynard, Theodore, 1890- Apostle of charity; the life of St. Vincent de Paul. Dial press 1939 319p $3 92

1 Congregation of priests of the mission 2 Daughters of charity of St. Vincent de Paul (W) 39-27742

"Biography of the seventeenth century French peasant who became a priest, then was captured by Barbary pirates, escaped two years later to find a career as an organizer of charity, and an apostle to the poor." Ontario library review

"A factual, carefully documented life, but with plenty of color." New Republic

Voltaire, François Marie Arouet de, 1694-1778

Brailsford, Henry Noel, 1873- Voltaire. Holt 1935 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25 92

35-27462

"Written in a lively, entertaining style, this brief popular biography gives the essential facts of Voltaire's life, discusses in considerable detail the content of his writings, and gives an estimate of his character and the source and extent of his influence on his age. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Let it be said with emphasis that this is a book not only to delight the general reader, but one, also, in which the student of the history of ideas will find new angles of approach, new facets of analysis, in every chapter." New statesman and Nation

Maurois, André. Voltaire; tr. from the French by Hamish Miles. Appleton-Century 1932 147p front (Appleton biographies) $1.50 92

32-22091

"An immensely readable and lively little book which despite its sketchiness, misses little that is essential. . . M. Maurois has succeeded in giving us again the Voltaire of legend. It is so impossible to disagree with him that one presumes legend is right." New statesman and Nation

Torrey, Norman Lewis, 1894- Spirit of Voltaire. Columbia univ. press 1938 314p illus $3 92

39-392

"A study of the man Voltaire which selects only the more revealing details of his biography, and an interpretation of his philosophy." Book rev. digest

"This book, attractively written and attractively produced, is the work of a specialist on the eighteenth-century enlightenment, and a recognised authority." New statesman and Nation

Alfred Noyes in his "Voltaire" (new ed Stokes 1936 xxiii,654p illus $3.50) gives a new interpretation of the great French philosopher, picturing him, far from being an atheist, as a man almost obsessed by religion

Wagner, Richard, 1813-1883. See class 780.92

Walpole, Horace, 4th earl of Orford, 1717-1797

Selected letters of Horace Walpole. Dutton 535p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 92

[A26-194]

"A selection from the correspondence of an eighteenth century English aristocrat whom Scott referred to as the 'best letter writer in the English language.'" Pratt alcove

"For diversity of interest and perpetual entertainment, for the constant surprises of an unique species of wit, for happy and unexpected turns of phrase, for graphic characterization and clever anecdote, for playfulness, pungency, irony, persiflage, there is nothing in English like his correspondence." Austin Dobson

Stuart, Dorothy Margaret. Horace Walpole. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Washington, Booker Taliaferro, 1859?-1915

‡ Up from slavery; an autobiography. Doubleday 1901 330p front $2 92

1 Tuskegee normal and industrial institute 1-31242

Also obtainable from Sun dial for 79c

"In no other respect is this book more impressive and effective than in that of his complete identification of himself with his people . . . The vicissitudes and achievements of the Tuskegee school are exhibited in a series of pictures and contrasts that must sometimes make the reader's heart beat fast and sometimes dim his eyes." Nation

Washington, George, president U.S. 1732-1799

Fay, Bernard, 1893- George Washington, republican aristocrat. Houghton 1931 297p illus maps $4 92

31-32881

"The merit of this biography is that Washington is viewed thru the eyes of an intelligent Frenchman. Little, however, is added to the interpretation. The author puts emphasis on Washington's aristocratic background, his essential nobility of character, and his contribution to republican government." Wis. bul.

"It is almost impossible to say anything new about Washington, but it is possible to say old things in a new way, and this M. Fay has accomplished with no little skill. His 'Washington' is . . . lucid, well-balanced, shrewd, witty, it is scholarly without a parade of erudition, comprehensive without sacrifice of brevity, honest and impartial without iconoclasm, charming without flippancy." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Sources and notes: p275-86

* Ford, Paul Leicester, 1865-1902. George Washington. . . Lippincott 319p illus maps $1.50 92

32-6807

First published 1896 under title "True George Washington." Reprinted as the Anniversary edition, 1932, in cheaper format. All the illustrations have been retained

"The writer's aim, very successfully attained, is to make Washington 'a man rather than a historical figure.' Few writers have used more abundant historical resources, or made better use of them." Larned's Literature of American history

Hughes, Rupert, 1872- George Washington. Morrow 1926-30 3v illus v 1-3 ea $5 92

(30-18790)

Contents: v1 The human being and the hero, 1732-1762; v2 The rebel and the patriot, 1762-1777; v3 The savior of the states, 1777-1781

"In his effort to show Washington as the man rather than the cold hero of legend, the author is inclined toward overemphasis of his faults." Pittsburgh

"With each successive volume of his biography Mr. Hughes has gained in understanding, in clarity of judgment, in scholarship and in literary grace. This work, which at first aroused mainly the indignation of professional patriots and the supercilious wonder of some professional historians, has now justly earned the encomiums of all students of history, of all lovers of truth." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Washington, George—Continued

Books consulted and quoted: v 1, p565-72; v2, p675-83; v3, p796-810

Irving, Washington, 1783-1859. Life of George Washington. Knickerbocker ed Putnam 8v o.p. 1939 92

4-21971

First published 1856-57

Libraries owning editions of Irving's complete works have his "Washington" available in that form

"It has been called old-fashioned, conventional, partisan, and what not. It may be all of these things, but it is much more. . . Much has been discovered and published concerning Washington since Irving's time, and consequently his book has been superseded, but it cannot be ignored either as biography or as literature. . . This biography can be rightly called historical biography because it combines, in almost ideal proportions, the history and the biography of Washington and his times." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Little, Mrs Shelby (Melton). George Washington. Putnam 1929 481p $5 92

29-18687

"A biography which might almost be called autobiography from its extensive though entirely legitimate use of Washington's letters, public papers and diary." Cleveland

The author's "presentation is colorful without compromise to historical accuracy, and so in no real way does our hereditary idea of the brave soldier and patient statesman suffer by a knowledge of his more personal background and inward characteristics. Although less awesome, this portrait of Washington is decidedly more appealing than those of a national moral-clad hero such as every good history text is full of." Outlook

Bibliography: p465-73

Lodge, Henry Cabot, 1850-1924. George Washington. Houghton 2v (American statesmen) ea $2.50 92

A23-1132

First published 1889

A thoro study which set a new standard in the treatment of Washington as a man rather than as a hero. According to Albert Bushnell Hart it was the "freshest and most appreciated two volume work on Washington" down to the date on which it was published

Woodrow Wilson's "George Washington" (Harper 1897 333p illus maps $3) presents those phases of Washington's private and public life which would explain his character and actions. It is unpartisan in tone, while Lodge's life is written from a strongly Federalist and personal point of view

Stephenson, Nathaniel Wright, 1867-1935, and Dunn, Waldo Hilary, 1882- George Washington. . . Oxford 1940 2v illus maps $10 set 92

(W) 40-27358

Contents: v 1 1732-1777; v2 1778-1799

The basis of the biography is the manuscript left by Dr Stephenson thru the ninth chapter of the second volume. Mr Dunn has revised this part and added the last seven chapters. It is an attempt "to discuss events only as they affected Washington or were affected by him" and "to give a faithful interpretation of Washington, based upon sound evidence." Preface

"It is the merit of the Stephenson-Dunn biography that, for the most part, it does present Washington in his own terms, against his own background. . . It is not exhaustive, in the sense that Freeman's Lee is exhaustive; it is not interpretative, in the sense that Wilson's Washington is interpretative. It is what it purports to be—a narrative biography, substantial, detailed, critical, accurate, moderately objective." H. S. Commager in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Contains bibliographical notes and references

Two additional biographies of Washington are:

Van Dyke, Paul. George Washington, the son of his country, 1732-1775. Scribner 1931 310p illus $2.50 An explanation of the various factors in Washington's early life that contributed to the character of the General and the President

Woodward, W. E. George Washington, the image and the man. Boni & Liveright 1926 460p,xxxvp illus o.p. 1939 An attempt to reveal the real Washington freed from the glamour of hero worship

Wayne, Anthony, 1745-1796

Boyd, Thomas Alexander, 1898-1935. Mad Anthony Wayne. Scribner 1929 351p front maps $3.50 92

29-21295

"An informal and readable account of Anthony Wayne's military career during the Revolutionary War and after. There are excellent descriptions of some of the major encounters in which he took part. Besides this, the reader obtains a good understanding of conditions in the American Army and in the country in general during the unsettled years of the Revolution and after." Providence

Bibliography: p339-41

Weber, Karl Maria Friedrich Ernst, freiherr von, 1786-1826. See class 780.92

Webster, Daniel, 1782-1852

Fisher, Sydney George, 1856-1927. True Daniel Webster. . . Lippincott 1911 516p illus maps $3 92

12-402

"A carefully studied and only slightly biased biography in which the admirable drawing of the political, economic and social background is as valuable as the placing of Webster in true relation to it. Excellent testimony in disproof of traditional beliefs concerning Webster's private life and habits is adduced. . . Illustrations chiefly from portraits and satisfactory index." A. L. A. bkl.

Fuess, Claude Moore, 1885- Daniel Webster. Little 1930 2v illus $8 92

30-29651

Contents: v 1 1782-1830; v2 1830-1852

"There is no phase of Webster's brilliant career that is not fully treated, and no act of his private life, as far as that is known, that is omitted. . . The chapters on the famous lawsuits and debates in which Webster took part are as complete and as clear as the chapters on his private and personal life. . . Written in a style that is exactly suited to the subject, presented with a nicety of balance that is almost unique in modern biography." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Bibliography: v2, p419-40

Webster, Daniel—Continued

Lodge, Henry Cabot, 1850-1924. Daniel Webster. See entry under American statesmen 92 Series

Webster, Noah, 1758-1843

Warfel, Harry Redcay, 1899- Noah Webster, schoolmaster to America. Macmillan 1936 460p illus $3.50 92

36-9179

"The biography of the 'born definer of words' with special emphasis on the 28 years of work on his American dictionary of the English language, during which time he was the target for general abuse and ridicule. His other achievements in the fields of politics, medicine and religion, less known but also significant, are mentioned. Written from source material, this is an important study of one character in our history who is far too little known." Wis. bul.

Sources and bibliography: p439-49

Welles, Gideon, 1802-1878

Diary of Gideon Welles, secretary of the navy under Lincoln and Johnson, with an introduction by J. T. Morse, jr. Houghton 1911 3v illus $7.50 92

1 Reconstruction 2 U.S.—History—Civil war—Sources 3 U.S.—Politics and government—Civil war 11-28338

"The private diary kept by the Secretary of the navy in the cabinets of Lincoln and Johnson, 1861-1869, giving the unvarnished opinions of an able, upright, tho frequently prejudiced man on public men and events during the Civil war and reconstruction periods. Illustrations from portraits. Appeared in part in the Atlantic." N.Y. state lib.

Wellington, Arthur Wellesley, 1st duke of, 1769-1852

Guedalla, Philip, 1889- Wellington. Harper 1931 536p illus $4 92

31-28445

Also obtainable from Blue ribbon bks. at $1

English edition has title: The duke

"A well-proportioned life of Wellington both as soldier and statesman. The hero of Waterloo had nearly forty years to live after that battle and about half the book is devoted to these years of his political life and old age." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Guedalla has made a living character of his Duke. It is not a mere military hero that he presents, or a mere subject for pithy anecdotes; it is a man—and a man whom the reader gradually knows to be great by virtue of his intense normality combined with his success in clearing his mind of cant. . . The one serious defect for many readers in Mr. Guedalla's admirable book is a fault of style." New statesman and Nation

Wells, Herbert George, 1866-

Experiment in autobiography; discoveries and conclusions of a very ordinary brain (since 1866). Imperial ed Macmillan 1934 718p illus $1.39 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 34-28434

"A long, candid autobiography in which Mr Wells attempts to explain the development of his own mind. Interwoven with the thread of chronological life-story, are sketches of contemporaries and accounts of his political and social views at various periods. The final section deals with his idea of a planned world, recapitulating many of the ideas expressed in his writings since 1900." Book rev. digest

"It is a valid, honest, serious attempt to get at the kind of man Wells himself is. It is one of the most revealing and one of the most interesting of all autobiographies. It is a human document of first-rate importance." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Wendell, Barrett, 1855-1921

Barrett Wendell and his letters, by M. A. D. Howe. Atlantic monthly 1924 350p illus o.p. 1939 92

24-24596

"The letters of a copious and delightful correspondent, connected with an agreeable thread of biography, revealing Harvard history and Harvard personalities during the forty years of Barrett Wendell's connection with the University's English department, and describing his personal and literary associations with the scholars of France and England which were the result of his lectures at the Sorbonne and Trinity college, Cambridge." Cleveland

"The letters will interest particularly readers of literary tastes, although matters of politics are touched on. In the latter the writer reveals himself as a convinced and sincere conservative." Wis. bul.

Bibliography: p335-39

Wesley, John, 1703-1791

Heart of John Wesley's journal; with an introduction by H. P. Hughes, and an appreciation of the Journal by Augustine Birrell, ed. by P. L. Parker. Wesley bicentenary ed Revell 1903 xxxii,512p illus $2.50 92

3-11328

Condensation of the "Journal," hitherto published in four volumes

"The most amazing record of human exertion ever penned or endured . . . his journal . . . . quivers with life and is crammed full of character." Augustine Birrell

Westinghouse, George, 1846-1914

Leupp, Francis Ellington, 1849-1918. George Westinghouse; his life and achievements. . . Little 1918 304p illus o.p. 1939 92

18-18423

"The career of the inventor of alternating current machinery, the air-brake in use on railroads, and many of the things which make daily life safe and comfortable for us. He gives us an intimate picture of the man and his family life, as well as a history of his methods of work and his inventions." A. L. A. bkl.

Wharton, Mrs Edith Newbold (Jones) 1862-1937

Backward glance. Appleton-Century 1934 385p illus $3 92

1 Authors—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. 34-10082

Memoirs of life in New York in the 70's and 80's, of the author's many friends here and abroad and of her methods of work

"Few literary autobiographies carry us through such diverse scenes as does Mrs. Wharton's; few reveal the sensitive and imaginative spirit of their writer so simply and yet so eloquently. In it are all the graces of the style that has contributed so largely to the acquirement and maintenance of her high stature as a novelist and short story writer. It contains the rich qualities of her fiction, the deep substance of her introspective mind, the extensive reach of her outlook upon life." Boston Transcript

Whistler, James Abbott McNeill, 1834-1903. See class 759.1

White, William Alanson, 1870-1937

William Alanson White; the autobiography of a purpose; with an introduction by R. L. Wilbur. Doubleday 1938 293p front $3 92

1 Insanity (W) 38-13677

"Dr White was for more than thirty years head of St Elizabeth's, the government hospital for the insane at Washington, D.C. His book, completed during the last year of his life, deals briefly with his early years to 1903, but thereafter is devoted to the story of St Elizabeth's and his work there." Book rev. digest

"All those who are interested in learning how modern psychiatry influenced a man who was in the midst of the field in the thick of the problems involved, and how this man in turn influenced the development of psychiatry, will find Dr. White's autobiography most meaty reading." Sat. rev. of lit.

Whitman, Walt, 1819-1892

Arvin, Newton, 1900- Whitman. Macmillan 1938 320p $2.75 92

38-32194

"An able study of the poet's social attitudes, opinions, philosophy, and personal character, derived from a careful examination of his writings and life. The author has tried to discover to what extent Whitman was a socialist, but he finds such an interpretation to be inadequate. Well written, for intelligent readers. Whitman chronology; bibliography, p299-312." Bkl.

Burroughs, John, 1837-1921. Whitman; a study. Houghton 1896 268p $2.25 92

4-18532

"Careful and extremely sympathetic study of Whitman's character and poetry." Pittsburgh

Perry, Bliss, 1860- Walt Whitman: his life and work. Houghton 1906 318p illus (American men of letters) $2.50 92

6-35721

"Strikes a note of just appreciation while avoiding the . . . extravagance of . . . professed Whitmanites." Nation

Cameron Rogers' "Magnificent idler" (Doubleday 1926 312p illus o.p. 1939) is semi-fictional biography which is readable but not entirely authentic

Whittier, John Greenleaf, 1807-1892

Higginson, Thomas Wentworth, 1823-1911. John Greenleaf Whittier. Macmillan 1902 196p (English men of letters) $1.50 92

2-26525

"By a friend of forty years standing. Tho brief, less than 200 pages, presents a well rounded picture of the man, poet, politician and reformer." N.Y. state lib.

Albert Mordell's "Quaker militant: John Greenleaf Whittier" (Houghton 1933 354p illus $3.50) is a good factual biography, tho written in a monotonous style. It contains a good deal of material that was previously unknown

Wiggin, Mrs Kate Douglas (Smith) 1856-1923

My garden of memory; an autobiography. Houghton 1923 xxv,465p illus Riverside lib. $1 92

23-15164

"This delightful autobiography, published after Mrs Riggs' death, records her simple, busy, contented childhood at Hollis, Maine, her flourishing model kindergarten in the slums of San Francisco when kindergartening was an experiment, her attempts at writings, successful as soon as she realized the scope and limitations of her talent, and the full busy life of her later years divided between New York, Europe and the home in Maine which she made the center of community activities. The book is as wholesome, humorous and natural as the stories which won her so many friends." Cleveland

Wilde, Oscar, 1854-1900

Winwar, Frances, 1900- Oscar Wilde and the yellow 'nineties. Harper 1940 381p illus $3.50 92

(W) 40-27323

A "portrait of Wilde, doing justice to all that there was of the sublime, the ridiculous, the sordid, and the tragic in Wilde's life." Book-of-the-month club news

"The narrative is entirely frank, but the reticence of language is such that it will not offend sensitive minds. The account of the three trials is brilliant and moving, for the narrator has a fine sense of the dramatic quality of this distressing episode. . . There is a moving sympathy in Miss Winwar's story of Wilde's life in prison and of his last forlorn degraded years on the Continent of Europe." Christian science monitor

Bibliography: p365-72

Wile, Frederic William, 1873-

News is where you find it; forty years' reporting at home and abroad. Bobbs 1939 505p illus map $3.75 92

1 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 39-27886

Partial contents: Pre-Capone Chicago; Victoria Regina; A tenderfoot in London; Mark Twain's lumbago; Germany that was; War; Unneutral America; Wilson conquers Europe; Blazing the radio trail; New deal; New world

"Wile is not introspective. Nor is he concerned with character studies of individuals or peoples. As a good reporter he tells clearly and vividly the story of the day. But in the light of recent events that story holds a dreadful interest." Sat. rev. of lit.

"Reminiscences of an American journalist. Mr. Wile spent twenty of his 'forty years reporting' abroad, thirteen of them in pre-War Germany." Book rev. digest

William, the Conqueror, king of England, 1027?-1087

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- William the Conqueror. Appleton-Century 1934 145p (Appleton biographies) $1.50 92

1 Great Britain—History—Norman period, 1066-1154 34-2880

"His summary omits nothing material in the Conqueror's career, and at the same time the burly figure of William is made to stand out in vigorous relief—a person, not a mere personification of abstract things. . . But Mr. Belloc is not content with a mere saga: he enlarges on the background, the eleventh century and all that it meant. This interpretation is admirably and soberly done." Spectator

William, the Conqueror, king of England —Continued

Freeman, Edward Augustus, 1823-1892. William the Conqueror. Macmillan 1894 200p (Twelve English statesmen) $1.40 92

1 Great Britain—History—Norman period, 1066-1154 3-27243

"Gives in concise form, much that is contained in his exhaustive 'History of the Norman conquest,' concerning the king whom Freeman regards as chief among the makers of England." Pittsburgh

Russell, Phillips, 1884- William the Conqueror. Scribner 1933 344p map $3 92

1 Great Britain—History—Norman period, 1066-1154 33-33061

"An excellent narrative of William's life and conquests. From this book William, Duke of Normandy, emerges as a real personage, not a shadowy figure of the so-called dark ages of history. . . Professor Russell has enabled us to see and understand the claims which William had to the crown of England and the reforms he instituted after the conquest." E. H. O'Neill's History of American biography

Stenton, Frank Merry, 1880- William the Conqueror and the rule of the Normans. See entry under Heroes of the nations 92 Series

William IV, king of Great Britain, 1765-1837

Thompson, Grace E. Patriot king; the life of William IV. Dutton 1933 282p illus $4 92

1 Great Britain—History—1714-1837 33-2423

"William IV has been called the 'forgotten king of England.' He was sixty-five when he came to the throne and his reign of seven years left little impress. Miss Thompson believes that he deserved more credit than historians and biographers have given him. She champions him as the patriot king, and shows his character and services against the background of his times—a period of English history which included the passage of the Reform bill." Book rev. digest

"It would be impossible to make a hero out of King William IV, but he emerges from Miss Thompson's study as a bluff engaging figure, with a sailor's vigour of language and a sailor's good humour. It is a large canvas crowded with picturesque figures, and Miss Thompson has sketched them in with a skilful hand. In her bibliography she has hit on the admirable notion of distinguishing her authorities, especially memoirs, by their political bias. Her summing up is a model of penetration and fairness." Spectator

William I, prince of Orange, 1533-1584

Putnam, Ruth, d. 1931. William the Silent, prince of Orange (1533-1584) and the revolt of the Netherlands. Putnam 1911 xxiv,518p illus maps (Heroes of the nations) o.p. 1939 92

1 Netherlands—History 11-15039

"Scholarly and interesting biography based on author's two-volume work (1895) but rewritten and embodying the results of later researches. Well illustrated from portraits, old prints and medals. Maps and bibliography." N.Y. state lib.

Williams, Roger, 1604?-1683

Easton, Mrs Emily Isabel (Meader) Roger Williams, prophet and pioneer. Houghton 1930 399p front o.p. 1939 92

1 Rhode Island—History 30-13850

A biography of Roger Williams, founder of Rhode Island, pioneer of religious liberty and friend of the Indians. A 60-page introduction describes the London of Williams's boyhood, the background of the Puritan movement and the social conditions that influenced him

"An excellent objective biography. The book will please especially those who like their biographies to be easy reading, and who prefer their historical to their psychological aspects." Outlook

Ernst, James Emanuel. Roger Williams, New England firebrand. Macmillan 1932 538p front $4 92

1 Rhode Island—History 32-22812

"The result of much research, both in this country and in England, this scholarly book is not too weighty and involved to be most readable. The author believes that most New England biographies of Roger Williams do not do him justice as to his character and intentions. Therefore, he has aimed to produce an adequate one." Providence

Wilson, Mrs Edith (Bolling) Galt, 1872-

My memoir. Bobbs 1939 386p illus $3.50 92

1 Wilson, Woodrow, president U.S. 1856-1924 (W) 39-27215

Also available from Garden City pub. co. at $1.39

Autobiography by the widow of Woodrow Wilson. Tells frankly of the events and personages of the period 1915-1920; also of the critical days while the President was ill in the White House

Appeared in part in "Saturday evening post" under title: As I saw it

"Our primary interest, of course, is with Woodrow Wilson as presented by the person who, in his last years, knew him best. The introduction is oversentimental, and the whole portrait in the romantic manner, but that is perhaps inevitable. . . It does service to the memory of Woodrow Wilson because it humanizes him without detracting from his dignity and celebrates him without recourse to eulogy." N.Y. Times

Wilson, Hugh Robert, 1885-

Education of a diplomat; with an introduction by C. G. Bowers. Longmans 1938 224p $2.50 92

1 Diplomats—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-27261

"Beginning with his duties in the Legation in Guatemala, and the diverting social life of the city, and going on to service in Buenos Aires, and at the embassy in Berlin after the outbreak of the World War, the present United States Ambassador to Germany has written in a light and humorous vein of the earlier phases of his diplomatic career. Legation life, officially and socially, with its comedy and drama, its advantages and disadvantages, picturesque and delightful personalities intimately known, travel and international situations —all are strung on the thread of the author's reminiscences, anecdotes and penetrating observations." N.Y. libraries

Wilson, Woodrow, president U.S. 1856-1924

Baker, Ray Stannard, 1870- Woodrow Wilson; life and letters. Doubleday 1927-39 8v illus v 1-2 $10, v3-4 $10, v5 $4, v6-8 $5 92

27-25411

The authorized biography of Wilson, written by a close friend who had access to a great amount of source material, both official and personal. Contents: v 1 Youth, 1856-1890; v2 Princeton, 1890-1910; v3 Governor, 1910-1913; v4 President, 1913-1914; v5 Neutrality, 1914-1915; v6 Facing war, 1915-1917; v7 War leader, April 6, 1917-February 28, 1918; v8 Armistice, March 1-November 11, 1918

"Mr. Baker makes no serious attempt to carp, to criticize, to put in restrictions, qualifications and negations. But neither is he fulsome, never does he flinch before the truth. And even though this is a friend's chronicle, it is still an honest, intelligent story of a great man in great times." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Dodd, William Edward, 1869- Woodrow Wilson and his work. new and rev ed Smith, P. 1932 454p illus maps $3.50 92

1 U.S.—Politics and government—1913-1921 32-18923

"Ostensibly a new edition, this is really a reprint of a book [first published 1920] with the two last pages rewritten." Bkl.

"As fairly as seems humanly possible, Prof. Dodd has maintained the historical point of view, endeavoring to weigh all evidence impartially, and taking counsel from friends and foes alike, and from the President himself on various occasions." Springfield Republican

McAdoo, Mrs Eleanor Randolph (Wilson) 1890- and Gaffey, Margaret Y. The Woodrow Wilsons. Macmillan 1937 301p illus $3.50 92

1 Wilson family 37-27227

A chronicle of the Wilson family by Wilson's youngest daughter which gives a picture of him as a simple, natural man, a husband and a father, a person, not a "personage." Her recollections also convey intimately the personality of her hardly less vital mother, and the events of Wilson's career as his family shared them through years of happiness and excitement, change and responsibility

White, William Allen, 1868- Woodrow Wilson, the man, his times and his task. Houghton 1924 527p illus $5, Riverside lib. $1 92

24-27886

"Chiefly an interpretation of Woodrow Wilson in the light of the various influences of his early life. Written by [one] who, despite his love and admiration, could see Mr Wilson's shortcomings, the book offers a fair and judicious judgment, but does not replace the earlier work by Dodd which gives more attention to his achievements and his place in history." Cleveland

Libraries having the Chronicles of America series will find J. A. Seymour's "Woodrow Wilson and the World war" an interesting study. "It is too exhaustively a chronicle of the World war to give a complete picture of Wilson as president. . . The estimate of Mr Wilson's character is measured but friendly." F. L. Paxson in Amer. hist. rev.

Wilson, Mrs Edith (Bolling) Galt. My memoir. See entry under Wilson, Mrs Edith (Bolling) Galt

Wolsey, Thomas, cardinal, 1475?-1530

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870- Wolsey. . . Lippincott 1930 336p illus map $5 92

30-31156

"The story of Wolsey's extraordinary rise to power and gradual decline. The Catholic author holds that Wolsey, who was in the height of his power when Luther's name was first heard, had it in his power to prevent the break-up of Christendom but failed through ambition and lack of vision—the test was the part he played in the divorce of Henry VIII from Katherine of Aragon. Written in Mr. Belloc's most lucid and brilliant controversial style." Cleveland

Creighton, Mandell, bp. of London, 1843-1901. Cardinal Wolsey. Macmillan 1888 226p (Twelve English statesmen) $1.40 92

3-16459

"Of all English statesmen there is perhaps none of whose character and career it is so difficult to form a just estimate as Cardinal Wolsey. . . Mr Creighton has succeeded in explaining the inconsistencies and perplexities of Wolsey's career and helping us to a correct standard of judgment." Nation

Woodward, Mrs Helen (Rosen) 1882-

* Through many windows. Harper 1926 387p $1 92

1 Advertising 2 Woman—Employment 26-16126

"The vividly written life story of a high-spirited woman from her days of desperate job hunting to those of achievement in the advertising business. There are many keen observations and wise comments on business and social life." Boston

"This is better than a novel because it is as exciting yet remains sober truth: it is more than memoirs for it is packed with the sidelight reflections of a human interest philosopher on why and how women succeed or fail whether taking dictation or giving it." Survey

Woolman, John, 1720-1772

Journal with other writings. Dutton 250p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 92

1 Friends, Society of A10-2387

"The main portion of the writings of an American Quaker who, beginning life as a baker, became a preacher while in his twenties. He was notable for his vigorous opposition to the Slave Trade." Reader's guide to Everyman's library

Woolworth, Frank Winfield, 1852-1919

* Winkler, John Kennedy, 1891- Five and ten; the fabulous life of F. W. Woolworth. McBride 1940 256p illus $3 92

(W) 40-27369

"This is as much the biography of a business as of a man. The man shaped the business; the business formed the man. Both were controlled and developed by the vast and colorful expansion of the United States during the eventful decades following the Civil War. . . This is [Woolworth's] story—told largely in his own words." Author

"Mr. Winkler does not dwell on Woolworth's shortcomings. Muckraking is reduced to a minimum and the book borders on the tone of an official biography. By sheer size and speed of growth the business commands interest, and with it the businessman." Boston Transcript

Wordsworth, Dorothy, 1771-1855

Journals; ed. by William Knight. Macmillan 544p front $3.50 92

24-19788

First published in two volumes, 1897

"Includes journals written at Alfoxden and Grasmere, 1798-1803, and of the Scotch and continental journeys made by Wordsworth and his sister. Her exquisite descriptions of Grasmere and its district are interesting in themselves and cast a flood of light on the circumstances under which her brother's poems were composed, while some of her descriptions were incorporated by Wordsworth in his prose works." Pittsburgh

"Renews and deepens our knowledge of one of the most beautiful relationships in all literature." Academy

De Sélincourt, Ernest, 1870- Dorothy Wordsworth, a biography. Oxford 1933 428p illus map $8 92

34-555

A biography woven together with incidental commentary based almost entirely upon original documents, notably the journal and letters of Dorothy Wordsworth

"One is grateful to Mr. de Selincourt for having carefully gathered here so many evidences of the sensitiveness, the resolution and the sweetness that made the personality of Dorothy Wordsworth what it was. . . The present volume, which bears all the insignia of scholarship, is provided with several illustrations, including facsimiles of pages from Dorothy's journal and letters, and a map of the Lake District." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Maclean, Catharine Macdonald. Dorothy Wordsworth; the early years. Viking 1932 439p illus $5 92

1 Wordsworth family 32-26656

"A finely wrought portrait of Dorothy Wordsworth picturing her life from early childhood to the removal of the family to Rydal Mount. The book accentuates her influence upon her brother William and his friend Coleridge, and discusses her connection with other literary men of her day." Book rev. digest

"Besides being a sincere and scholarly biography, Miss Maclean's book is a work of literary art." Times (London) lit. sup.

Bibliography: p393-429

Wordsworth, William, 1770-1850

Harper, George McLean, 1863- William Wordsworth, his life, works, and influence. Scribner 621p $5 92

First published in two volumes, 1916

"The author has been unsparing in his researches and has come into possession of some new facts. He writes sympathetically and adequately of the poet's later years, and dwells more fully than any other biographer has done on the developing influences and enthusiasms of his French Revolutionary days." A.L.A. bkl.

Three volumes which would be of interest to any student of Wordsworth and of the literary life of the period are:

Wordsworth, William. Early letters of William and Dorothy Wordsworth (1787-1805) ed. by Ernest De Selincourt. Oxford 1935 578p front map $8.75

Wordsworth, William and Wordsworth, Dorothy. Letters, the middle years, 1806-1820; arranged and ed. by Ernest De Selincourt. Oxford 1937 2v $14

Wordsworth, William and Wordsworth, Dorothy. Letters, the later years, 1821-1850; arranged and ed. by Ernest De Selincourt. Oxford 1939 3v $21

Myers, Frederic William Henry, 1843-1901. Wordsworth. See entry under English men of letters 92 Series

Wren, Sir Christopher, 1632-1723

Weaver, Sir Lawrence, 1876-1930. Sir Christopher Wren, scientist, scholar and architect. Scribner 1923 173p illus o.p. 1939 92

23-11677

"In this book Sir Lawrence Weaver disclaims any intention of writing either a life of Wren or a detailed record of his achievement, for, as he says, 'when the definitive "Life and works" comes to be written, it will itself be someone's lifework, if it is to be adequate.' He has chosen instead to attempt some impressions of the many sides of a great Englishman as astronomer, mathematician, natural scientist, and architect. This little book, well-written and illustrated, fills a useful place." Times (London) lit. sup.

Wright, Frank Lloyd, 1869-

Autobiography. Longmans 1932 371p illus $3.50 92

32-26388

"One of the greatest architects in America takes the public into his confidence, in the presentation of his convictions as to contemporary architecture and the principles which have guided him in his personal life. The development of his architectural style is shown in the large collection of photographs." Pittsburgh

"It is inevitable and right that the architect should justify and explain himself as a man, though the ethics of Frank Lloyd Wright's domestic life are not part of his ethics as an architect. The domestic story he has told simply and unequivocally, so that no open-minded person will fail to understand. It has been unfortunate and tragic." N.Y. Times

Wright, Orville, 1871-

McMahon, John Robert, 1875- The Wright brothers, fathers of flight. Little 1930 308p illus $2.50 92

30-7766

"An interesting biographical sketch of the Wright brothers with an account of their experiments in aviation, and of the twenty-five years of airplane history since their first successful flight." Pratt quarterly

"The great charm of the story is its naturalness. Something of the downright sincerity and simplicity of those two brothers has got into this biography." Review of reviews

Wright, Wilbur, 1867-1912

McMahon, John Robert, 1875- The Wright brothers, fathers of flight. See entry under Wright, Orville

Wylie, Mrs Elinor (Hoyt) 1885-1928

Hoyt, Nancy, 1902- Elinor Wylie, the portrait of an unknown lady. Bobbs 1935 203p illus $2.50 92

35-4386

"Informal biography of Elinor Wylie, written by a younger sister. The reminiscences are largely of a personal nature; they relate to her taste in clothes and food, her friendships with literary personages, her life in England and in Maine. Thru the whole book runs the theme of her devotion to Shelley. Illustrated with family pictures. Contains seven poems from her first book, Incidental Numbers, which was privately printed." Book rev. digest

Wylie, Mrs Elinor H.—Continued

Yeats, William Butler, 1865-1939
Autobiography. . . Macmillan 1938 479p illus $5 92
(W) 38-27684

Consists of the author's three former volumes: Reveries over childhood and youth (1916) The trembling of the veil (1922) and Dramatis personae (1936)
"While, particularly in the latter part of the book, there are occasional tedious passages, the work as a whole has unusual interest. Always it is beautifully written, and, because of the writer's hatred for the abstract, it is also vividly written. Its rich harvest of anecdotes of famous contemporaries has been, and will continue to be, raided by the literary historian. The book, which is illustrated by a number of interesting portraits, unfortunately has no index." Springfield Republican

Yeats-Brown, Francis Charles Claypon, 1886-
Lives of a Bengal lancer. Viking 1930 299p $2.75
92
1 India—Social life and customs 30-30790

Also available from Blue ribbon bks. at $1 Published in England under title: Bengal lancer
"Autobiography of unusual character which relates the author's experiences in war, in captivity in Turkish and other prisons, ending with his return to India and his devotion to the study of Yoga." Pratt quarterly
"Major Yeats-Brown is possessed of that extremely rare faculty of being able to decipher himself without self-consciousness. He gives the impression of a very acute observer noting down and describing with great vividness in a style of excellent clarity a quantity of most interesting happenings external to himself, but all the time he is carving with deft and quiet strokes that image of himself which, long before the book is done, stands out complete." Spectator

Young, Arthur Henry, 1866-
Art Young; his life and times; ed. by J. N. Beffel. Sheridan 1939 467p illus $3.50
92
1 Artists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 40-362

This autobiography of a cartoonist is also an informal American history from 1887, when Young worked as a staff artist on the Chicago Daily News, to the present
"This autobiography has charm. Art Young has remembered his youth well and sets it before us with a freshness and vividness such as a novelist might envy." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Young, Brigham, 1801-1877
Werner, Morris Robert, 1897- Brigham Young. Harcourt 1925 478p illus $1.69
92
1 Mormons and Mormonism 25-11448

Also obtainable from Grosset at $1
"A brilliant, authoritative, ironic and yet impartial study, not only of Brigham Young, that picturesque and amazing figure, but of Mormonism itself, and its founder, Joseph Smith. Well-documented with quotations from Brigham Young's 'Journal of discourses.' Portraits and other illustrations." N.Y. libraries
"Mr Werner has done a skillful and a scholarly piece of biographical writing. He has dealt with a vast amount of material and his handling of it is as judicious as it must have been thorough. . . One may not always agree with Mr Werner's conclusions or sympathize with his attitude; but it must be admitted that the book is profoundly interesting and gives a vivid picture of an important episode in American history." Gamaliel Bradford in Atlantic bookshelf
Bibliography: p463-69

Zaharoff, Sir Basil, 1850-1936
Neumann, Robert, 1897- Zaharoff (tr. from the German by R. T. Clark). Knopf 1935 286p $2.75
92
36-27071

"The legend which has been woven round him attributes to him obscure origins, unacknowledged relatives, and a romantic love story. Robert Neumann has thought fit not only to tell us of these things, but to record the various stages of his personal inquiry into such matters as Sir Basil Zaharoff's birth." Christian science monitor
"Mr. Robert Neumann, a distinguished German novelist, has written a serious and highly important study of one of the strangest figures of this century. Because he is a novelist he has cast it into the form of something like a detective novel . . . One finishes his book with a profound belief in its sanity and truthfulness." New statesman and Nation

Zita, empress consort of Charles I, emperor of Austria, 1892-
Harding, Mrs Bertita (Leonarz) Imperial twilight. See entry under Charles I, emperor of Austria

Zola, Emile, 1840-1902
Josephson, Matthew, 1899- Zola and his time. . . Macaulay 1928 558p illus $5 92
28-24120

"The history of his martial career in letters: with an account of his circle of friends, his remarkable enemies, cyclopean labors, public campaigns, trials, and ultimate glorification." Subtitle
"An excellent biographical presentation of a man whose life was a long struggle, crowned by an enormous material success. The facts speak for themselves clearly and the biographer has permitted them to be their own spokesmen." N. Y. Times
Bibliography: p551-52

92 Z 86b ←Henri Barbusse's "Zola; tr. from the French by M. B. Green and F. C. Green" (Dutton 1933 279p illus $3) presents an impressionistic portrait of the man rather than a formal narrative of his life

92 Series

A few important series of biographies are entered below. These are given to call attention to additional material some of which was entered fully in former editions of the Catalog. No attempt has been made to give complete contents of these series

American men of letters. Houghton ea $2.50
92 Series

A standard series which was started in 1881 under the general editorship of Charles Dudley Warner to provide short critical

American men of letters—Continued
biographies of the principal figures in American literature. These volumes provide good introductions to the authors included, but vary in quality of treatment. The volumes in print, 1939, which have not been entered fully are: Thomas Bailey Aldrich, by F. Greenslet; Ralph Waldo Emerson, by O. W. Holmes; Benjamin Franklin, by J. B. McMaster; Washington Irving, by C. D. Warner; Walt Whitman, by B. Perry

American statesmen, ed. by J. T. Morse. Houghton 31v ea $2.50 92 Series

A series of biographies which present the public careers of important statesmen thru the Civil war period. The series is in 31 volumes covering 28 subjects. Volumes listed below are in addition to those fully entered in class 92

Contents: Charles Francis Adams, by C. F. Adams jr; John Adams, by J. T. Morse; John Quincy Adams, by J. T. Morse; Samuel Adams, by J. K. Hosmer; Thomas H. Benton, by T. Roosevelt; James Gillespie Blaine, by E. Stanwood; John C. Calhoun, by H. E. von Holst; Lewis Cass, by A. C. McLaughlin; Salmon Portland Chase, by A. B. Hart; Henry Clay, by C. Schurz; Albert Gallatin, by J. A. Stevens; Patrick Henry, by M. C. Tyler; Andrew Jackson, by W. G. Sumner; John Jay, by G. Pellew; Thomas Jefferson, by J. T. Morse; Abraham Lincoln, by J. T. Morse; John Marshall, by A. B. Magruder; Gouverneur Morris, by T. Roosevelt; John Randolph, by H. Adams; William Henry Seward, by T. K. Lothrop; John Sherman, by T. E. Burton; Thaddeus Stevens, by S. W. McCall; Charles Sumner, by M. Storey; Martin Van Buren, by E. M. Shepard; Daniel Webster, by H. C. Lodge

English men of letters. Macmillan 61v ea $1.50 92 Series

A standard series of short, critical biographies. Few libraries will need the entire set. In addition to the books fully entered in class 92, the following are also obtainable: Arnold, by H. W. Paul; Austen, by F. Warre Cornish; Bacon, by R. W. Church; Bentley, by Sir R. Jebb; Blake, by O. Burdett; Browne, by E. Gosse; Browning, by G. K. Chesterton; Bryant, by W. A. Bradley; Bunyan, by J. A. Froude; Burney, by A. Dobson; Burns, by J. C. Shairp; Byron, by J. Nichol; Carlyle, by Nichol; Chaucer, by Sir A. W. Ward; Coleridge, by H. D. Traill; Dickens, by Sir A. W. Ward; Edgeworth, by E. Lawless; Emerson, by G. E. Woodberry; Fielding, by A. Dobson; Fitzgerald, by A. C. Benson; Gibbon, by J. A. C. Morison; Goldsmith, by W. Black; Gray, by E. Gosse; Hawthorne, by H. James; Hazlitt, by A. Birrell; Hobbes, by Sir L. Stephen; Hume, by T. H. Huxley; Johnson, by Sir L. Stephen; Jonson, by G. G. Smith; Keats, by S. Colvin; Lamb, A. Ainger; Landor, by S. Colvin; Locke, by T. Fowler; Macaulay, by J. A. C. Morison; Marvell, by A. Birrell; Melville, by J. Freeman; Moore, by S. Gwynn; Morris, by A. Noyes; Peacock, by J. B. Priestley; Pepys, by A. A. W. H. Ponsonby; Pope, by Sir L. Stephen; Prescott, by H. T. Peck; Richardson, by A. Dobson; Christina Rossetti, by D. M. Stuart; Rossetti, D. G. by A. C. Benson; Scott, by R. H. Hutton; Shakespeare, by Sir W. Raleigh; Shelley, by J. A. Symonds; Sheridan, by Mrs M. O. W. Oliphant; Sidney, by J. A. Symonds; Smith, by F. W. Hirst; Spenser, by R. W. Church; Swift, by Sir L. Stephen; Stevenson, by S. Gwynn; Swinburne, by H. Nicholson; Taylor, by E. Gosse; Tennyson, by A. Lyall; Thackeray, by A. Trollope; Trollope, by H. S. Walpole; Walpole, by D. M. Stuart; Wordsworth, by F. W. H. Myers

Heroes of the nations. Putnam ea $3 92 Series

A good series of biographies of leaders and statesmen whose lives are closely associated with the history of the country in which they lived

"Many volumes of merit, but varying greatly in quality." Guide to hist. lit.

Contents: Bismarck and the foundation of the German empire, by J. W. Headlam-Morley; Julius Cæsar, and the foundation of the Roman imperial system, by W. W. Fowler; Canute the Great, by L. M. Larson; Charles the Bold, last duke of Burgundy, by R. Putnam; Charles XII and the collapse of the Swedish empire, by R. N. Bain; Cicero and the fall of the Roman republic, by J. L. Strachan-Davidson; Constantine the Great, by J. B. Firth; Demosthenes and the last days of Greek freedom, by A. W. Pickard-Cambridge; Frederick the Great, by W. F. Reddaway; Owen Glyndwr, by A. G. Bradley; Ulysses S. Grant, by W. C. Church; Gustavus Adolphus and the struggle of Protestantism for existence, by C. R. L. Fletcher; Hannibal, by W. O. Morris; Prince Henry the Navigator, by C. R. Beazley; Henry V, the typical mediæval hero, by C. L. Kingsford; Isabel of Castile and the making of the Spanish nation, by I. A. L. Plunkett; Abraham Lincoln and the downfall of American slavery, by N. Brooks; Marlborough, by C. T. Atkinson; Mohammed and the rise of Islam, by D. S. Margoliouth; Napoleon, by W. O. Morris; Nelson, by W. C. Russell; Pericles and the golden age of Athens, by E. Abbott; William Pitt earl of Chatham and the growth and division of the British empire, by W. D. Green; Roger of Sicily and the Normans in Lower Italy, by E. Curtis; Sir Philip Sidney, by H. R. F. Bourne; Theodoric the Goth, by T. Hodgkin; William the Conqueror and the rule of the Normans, by F. M. Stenton

929 GENEALOGY. HERALDRY

Because only fairly large libraries can maintain a genealogical department, it has not been considered necessary to include much material in this section. The following books will be found useful as sources by which existing family histories may be traced:

American genealogist, being a catalogue of family histories. A bibliography of American genealogy, or a list of the title pages of books and pamphlets on family history, published in America, from 1771 to date. 5th ed Munsell 1900 406p $10 New edition in preparation

Munsell's genealogical index. . . Munsell 1933 $4 A guide to family histories in local histories, historical society publications, biographies and genealogies

United States. Library of Congress. American and English genealogies in the Library of Congress. . . 2d ed Supt. of doc. 1919 1332p o.p. 1939 A list of nearly 7,000 titles, arranged alphabetically by family name, with author index

Doane, Gilbert Harry, 1897-

* Searching for your ancestors; the why and how of genealogy. McGraw 1937 252p illus (Whittlesey house publications) $2.50 929

1 Genealogy 2 Genealogy—Bibliography 3 U.S.—History—Revolution — Registers, lists, etc—Bibliography 37-6688

"A practical aid to those with no experience in the field of genealogy who wish to trace their ancestry. The author discusses ancestor hunting as a hobby, tells how to begin, what pitfalls to avoid, how to organize the information found, and lists the most indispensable of the geneaological aids. He has a special chapter on How to be a D. A. R." Wis. bul.

Doane, Gilbert H.—Continued

Shankle, George Earlie
* State names, flags, seals, songs, birds, flowers and other symbols. rev ed Wilson, H.W. 1938 522p illus $3.50 929

1 Capitols 2 Flags 3 Mottoes 4 Names, Geographical 5 Seals (Numismatics) 6 Birds 7 State flowers 8 State songs 9 U.S.—History, Local—Bibliography 38-14744

First published 1934. The revised edition includes some new data, corrections, and additions to the bibliography
"A study based on historical documents giving the origin and significance of the state names, nicknames, mottoes, seals, flags, flowers, birds, songs, and descriptive comments on the capitol buildings and on some of the leading state histories, with facsimiles of the state flags and seals." Subtitle
"A useful reference book which brings together much information available heretofore only in scattered sources. Well indexed." Bkl.
List of leading state histories: p427-79

Stetson, Oscar Frank, 1875-
Art of ancestor hunting; a guide to ancestral research and genealogy. Daye 1936 276p $3.75 929

1 Genealogy 36-7868

"The purpose of Mr. Stetson's book is to persuade the ordinary, intelligent person that it is quite easy and very interesting to carry on genealogical research and write your own ancestral histories, if you know how, and to explain the technique so fully and carefully that any one who cares to devote the necessary time and attention to the matter can produce his own genealogical history. He goes into the subject with ample detail, giving advice and counsel on finding and using all possible sources of information" N.Y. Times

929.2 Clans

Adam, Frank
Clans, septs and regiments of the Scottish Highlands; with foreword by Thomas Innes of Learney. 3d ed Johnston 1934 xxiv,523p illus map 25s 929.2

1 Clans and clan system 2 Great Britain —Army 3 Highlands of Scotland 4 Tartans 35-6321

Binding is more satisfactory than that of the Johnston publication entered below. It has 114 colored plates of tartans and coats of arms

Scottish clans & their tartans. 26th ed. . . Johnston 1938 55p illus map 4s 929.2

1 Clans and clan system 2 Names, Personal—Scottish 3 Tartans 39-24592

Frequently reprinted. Formerly carried also by Scribner
There are 96 colored plates giving the tartans of all the principal clans each accompanied by brief historical sketches on opposite pages. Unsatisfactory binding

929.4 Names of persons and places

In addition to the titles listed in this class, the following are also recommended:
Ewen, C. H. L. History of surnames of the British isles. . . Macmillan 1931 xx,508p $7.50 A concise account of the origin, evolution and etymology of some 10,000 British surnames
Partridge, Eric. Name this child; a dictionary of English and American Christian names. Oxford 1936 227p $2 Another comprehensive dictionary of first names giving their origin, history and literature with which they are connected
Yonge, C. M. History of Christian names. Macmillan 1884 cxliii,476p o.p. 1939 A comprehensive book of reference

Ames, Winthrop, 1871-
‡ (ed.) What shall we name the baby? . . . by Winthrop Ames, assisted by F. A. Doody. Simon & Schuster 1935 187p illus $1.50 929.4

1 Names, Personal 35-3503

"Twenty-five hundred boys' and girls' first names with their meanings, derivations, nicknames, etc. In his foreword, Winthrop Ames discusses the history of names, their meanings, and choice, paying particular attention to sound and rhythm." Book rev. digest
Authorities: p21

Bardsley, Charles Wareing Endell, 1843-1898
Dictionary of English and Welsh surnames, with special American instances; rev for the press by his widow Oxford 1901 837p $3.75 929.4

1 Names—Dictionaries 2 Names, Personal [2-4251]

An alphabetical list which attempts to do little more than trace names back to their original forms and to place each in its own particular class
List of references and key to abbreviations: pref. p13-16

Bowman, William Dodgson
Story of surnames. Knopf 1931 280p o.p. 1939 929.4

1 Names, Personal [31-19971]

A good book in a field which does not interest all small libraries
"The Story of Surnames is a popularly written and somewhat discursive book, with an index of about 2,500 surnames whose origins appear in it. . . Mr. Bowman describes seven classes of surnames.—(1) Place names, as Lincoln. (2) Occupation names, as Smith. (3) Font names, as Johnson. (4) Nicknames, as Brown. (5) Miracle-play names, as Prince, Pope, Priest, Angel, Barron, Fryer. (6) Irish names, of which the three commonest are Murphy, Kelly, and Sullivan. (7) Foreign names, as Toogood (Thungut), Darling (D'Orleans), Diprose (des preux), Mullins (moulins)." Times (London) lit. sup.

Dellquest, Augustus Wilfrid, 1901-
These names of ours; a book of surnames. Crowell 1938 xxiii,296p $2.50 929.4

1 Names, Personal 38-7092

"The derivation of several hundred surnames, in alphabetical order, with lists of name elements from several languages which help in determining the significance of names." Bkl.

Ekwall, Eilert, 1877-

Concise Oxford dictionary of English place-names. Oxford 1936 xlvii,520p $5 929.4

1 Names—Dictionaries 2 Names, Geographical 36-11069

"An alphabetically arranged list giving derivation and meaning. Pronunciation is indicated when not obvious. While not claiming completeness, the author's aim has been to include the chief names of counties, towns, parishes, villages, estates and hamlets, rivers, lakes, capes and bays. Does not include Wales, Scotland or Ireland." Book rev. digest

Bibliography: pref. p34-47

Engeln, Oscar Diedrich von, 1880- and Urquhart, Mrs Jane Dalziel (McKelway)

Story key to geographic names. Appleton-Century 1924 279p $2 929.4

1 Names, Geographical 24-12394

"A survey of most frequently encountered geographical names giving pronounciation, location, meaning, and the story attached to each. Will satisfy adult curiosity and interest a child in his geographical studies." Chicago

Arranged by countries. Bibliography and source material: pref. p13-14

Funk, Charles Earle, 1881-

What's the name, please? a guide to the correct pronunciation of current prominent names. rev ed Funk 1937 176p $1 929.4

1 Names—Dictionaries 2 Names—Pronunciation 3 Names, Personal 38-2592

First published 1936. In the revision about 300 names have been added and some deleted

"Contemporary names in politics, art, literature, music, and other fields, including many foreign names. The material is reprinted in part from a column in 'The Literary Digest.' Pronunciation, indicated by respelling rather than by diacritics, is authorized by the owner of the name." Bkl.

Holt, Alfred Hubbard, 1897-

American place names. Crowell 1938 222p $1.75 929.4

1 Names—Pronunciation 2 Names, Geographical (W) 38-27795

"In indicating pronunciation of many hundreds of American place names, the compiler avoids diacritical marks so far as possible, employs rhymes frequently, and shows accent by the use of italics. Only occasionally does he give origin or derivation. The tone is light and amusing, rather than pedantic or scholarly." Book rev. digest

Loughead, Mrs Flora (Haines) Apponyi, 1855-

Dictionary of given names, with their origins and meanings. Clark, A.H. 1934 384p $5 929.4

1 Names—Dictionaries 2 Names, Personal 33-32751

"An extensive study of the origins and meanings of given names. About 11,000 forenames are covered, masculine and feminine names being grouped separately. The information given includes language derivation, cross-references to allied forms and spellings in other languages, meanings, historical associations and appropriate literary references and quotations. A special section on names for twins is added and a bibliography of both English and foreign works on names." Book. rev. digest

Bibliography: p377-84

Mackey, Mary Stuart, and Mackey, Mrs Maryette (Goodwin)

Pronunciation of 10,000 proper names... new ed. . . Dodd 1922 329p $2.50 929.4

1 Names—Dictionaries 2 Names—Pronunciation 22-22423

First published in 1901. The new edition has been revised for corrections and new names have been added increasing the total to 12,000 proper names

"Giving famous geographical and biographical names, names of books, works of art, characters in fiction, foreign titles, etc." Subtitle

Mawson, Christopher Orlando Sylvester, 1870-

International book of names. . . Crowell 1935 312p $2 929.4

1 Names—Dictionaries 2 Names—Pronunciation 36-986

First published 1933. In the 1935 edition four supplementary pages on geographical names in the Ethiopian war zones have been added

"A dictionary of the more difficult proper names in literature, history, philosophy, religion, art, music, and other studies, together with the official form and pronunciation of the names of present-day celebrities and places throughout the world, with post-war geographical changes duly incorporated." Subtitle

Shankle, George Earlie

* American nicknames; their origin and significance. Wilson, H.W. 1937 599p to libraries $4.25 929.4

1 Epithets 2 Names, Geographical 3 Names, Personal 4 Nicknames 37-36382

A dictionary of more than four thousand American nicknames, both historical and contemporary, with a discussion of the significance of each name and the circumstances under which it originated

United States. Board on geographical names

Sixth report, 1890 to 1932. Supt. of doc. 1933 834p 80c 929.4

1 Names, Geographical

Contains all the decisions rendered by the board from 1890 thru June 1932. For this edition several thousand earlier decisions for features and places in the United States, Alaska and the Philippine islands have been amplified and brought up to date. Under each entry is given the approved form of name, location and form not approved. Pronunciation is indicated where necessary. There are ample cross references

A list of some 2,500 names published by the board in 1932 under title "First report on foreign geographic names" is now incorporated with the domestic names in the Sixth report in one alphabetical arrangement

U.S. Board on geographical names has also published five pamphlets "Decisions rendered" July 1, 1934-June 1939 (Supt. of doc. 5v gratis) These supplement the Sixth report and include some corrections

Weekley, Ernest, 1865-
Romance of names. 4th ed Dutton 1928 250p $2.10 929.4

1 Names, Personal [14-30266]

"In successive editions small alterations have been made... This new edition represents a further careful revision of the text." Preface to 4th edition

An inquiry into the origin of our surnames. The author seeks "to steer a middle course between a too learned and a too superficial treatment and to show how surnames have been formed and developed during the progress of the centuries... Professor Weekly divides surnames into four classes: first, those derived from a sire or an ancestor, as Richards; second, those from places or residence, as Moore; third, those from occupation, as Taylor; fourth, those from bodily attributes or characteristics, as Long." Boston Transcript

Surnames. [3d ed] Dutton 1937 xxii,360p $2.10 929.4

1 Names, Personal 38-2799

Second edition published 1917. In this edition chapters on surnames of Celtic origin and on animal nicknames replace the former chapters on French and German names

"The present volume treats much more completely, and hence more ponderously, of certain groups of surnames which I have investigated with some approach to thoroughness... Its relation to the 'Romance of names' is that of a more or less erudite treatise to a primer, matter which in the former book was dismissed in a paragraph or two being here expanded into a chapter." Preface

Bibliography: pref. p16-20

929.6 Heraldry

Hope, Sir William Henry St John, 1854-1919
Grammar of English heraldry. Macmillan 1913 127p illus (Cambridge manuals of science and literature) $1.25 929.6

1 Heraldry [14-138]

"This little book begins with the origin and grammar of heraldry, and proceeds with its subsequent history. It includes explanations of heraldic language, which was clear enough in early rolls and records, but became obscure and elaborate during the decadence of heraldry in the Tudor period... The volume is well illustrated, and should prove most valuable to beginners in the subject." Athenaeum

Scott-Giles, Charles Wilfrid, 1893-
Romance of heraldry... Dutton 1929 234p illus $3.50 929.6

1 Heraldry 30-26267

"In this popular study of heraldry, the author traces the origin of heraldic emblems, and shows how historic events have left their record in the arms and devices of various families. Some of these coats-of-arms are collected here, arranged in rough chronological order and explained in non-technical language." Book rev. digest

"His book should not only afford an admirable introduction to a knowledge of heraldry, but prove an illuminating companion to a more formal history book, and should appeal both to students and masters of the craft armorial." Times (London) lit. sup.

929.7 Peerage. Decorations of honor

Three important works dealing with the peerage, baronetage and landed gentry of Great Britain are:

Burke, Sir J. B. Burke's genealogical and heraldic history of the landed gentry, including American families with British ancestry, founded 1837... Dutton 1939 3058p illus $37.50

Burke, Sir J. B. Burke's genealogical and heraldic history of the peerage and baronetage, the Privy council and knightage... Dutton $17.50 Annual

Debrett's peerage, baronetage, knightage, and companionage... ed. by C. F. J. Hankinson. Dean & son 1940 lxiv,1148, 1828p illus £5 5s

Wyllie, Robert E. 1873-
Orders, decorations and insignia, military and civil; with the history and romance of their origin and a full description of each... Putnam 1921 xxi, 269p illus o.p. 1939 929.7

1 Decorations of honor 2 U.S.—Army—Medals, badges, decorations, etc. 3 U.S.—Navy—Medals, badges, decorations, etc. 21-4556

Gives a brief history of medals and decorations, the nomenclature, classification and method of wearing them, then describes military orders, decorations, etc. of the United States, Great Britain, France, Belgium, Monaco, Portugal, Italy, Eastern Europe and Asia. Includes information on shoulder insignia, insignia of rank and the insignia and colors of various branches of American service, during the European war in particular. With 367 excellent illustrations in color and black and white

929.9 Flags

Baxter, Edward Henry, 1897-
National flags; with aircraft markings, calendar of days for hoisting national flags and colour keys for ready identification... Warne 1934 xx,171p illus $1.50 929.9

1 Airplanes — Identification marks 2 Flags 3 Holidays 35-4235

"Useful little handbook containing information heretofore scattered through various sources." Pratt quarterly

Johnson, Willis Fletcher, 1857-1931
National flag, a history. Houghton 1930 115p illus $2 929.9

1 Flags 30-25716

"A chronological history of the American flag, including flags of the 'Lost Cause'—the Confederate Stars and Bars and the Confederate Battle Flag. Appendix I gives valuable information on the special American flags used for individual officials and branches of the public service. Appendix II contains the code of the flag, for observance by civilians. Colored illustrations." Cleveland

Moss, James Alfred, 1872-

* Flag of the United States: its history and symbolism. 2d ed rev and enl Introduction by W. J. Cooper U.S. flag assn. 1933 259p illus maps $2 929.9

1 Flags 34-42127

First published in 1930. In the second edition nearly 80 pages have been added including chapters on the Origin of Flag day, Did Betsy Ross make the first flag? Flag regulations for ships, etc. Partial contents: Origin and evolution of flags; Early colonial flags; Birth of flag of the United States; Evolution of flag of the United States; Declaration of Independence and the flag; Constitution and the flag; Poems and other selections about the flag and other patriotic subjects; Flag anniversaries; Origin of pledge to the flag; Story of the evolution of the flag; How to display; How to respect the flag; State flags and state names, nicknames, mottoes, and flowers

Wheeler-Holohan, Vincent, 1889-

(ed.) Flags of the world, past and present, their story and associations. rev and illus by V. Wheeler-Holohan. . . Warne 1939 245p illus $3.50 929.9

1 Flags (W) 39-27244

Compiled originally by F. E. Hulme (editions, 1897, etc.); revised by W. J. Gordon (editions, 1915, etc.)

"Not intended to be too comprehensive. . . It is the hope of the present editor, nevertheless, that every flag which really matters has found its place in these pages . . . and that its origin and history have been dealt with in adequate fashion and in a readable manner." Preface

Byron McCandless and G. H. Grosvenor's "Flags of the world" (Nat. geographic soc. 1917 p281-420 illus o.p. 1939) Show full color illustrations of 1197 flags, and black and white illustrations of 300 more. First published as flag number of the "National geographic magazine," October-November, 1917

930 ANCIENT HISTORY

H. J. E. Peake and H. J. Fleure "Corridors of time" (Yale univ. press 1927-36 9v ea $2, text ed $1.50) is a comprehensive, well-illustrated series on prehistory and early history. It is recommended for libraries that need such detailed accounts of ancient culture. Contents: v 1 Apes & men; v2 Hunters & artists; v3 Peasants & potters; v4 Priests & kings; v5 Steppe & the sown; v6 Way of the sea; v7 Merchant venturers in bronze; v8 Horse and the sword; v9 Law and the prophets

Botsford, George Willis, 1862-1917, and Botsford, Mrs Lillie M. (Shaw) (eds.) Source-book of ancient history. Macmillan 1912 594p $2.40 930

1 History, Ancient—Sources 12-28444

"A selection in English of the ancient sources from which our ordinary historical knowledge is derived. The authors include inscriptions, classical poetry, passages from the Bible, creeds, and bits of philosophy." Athenaeum

Contains bibliographies

Breasted, James Henry, 1865-1935

* Conquest of civilization; including new text, the author's own revisions and notes; ed. by E. W. Ware. new ed fully rev and reset Harper 1938 669p illus $4 930

1 Civilization—History 2 History, Ancient (W) 38-27362

In 1916 the author published "Ancient times." In 1926 he published "Conquest of civilization," a somewhat more mature book based on the foregoing text, but without the pedagogical details. "The present new, basically revised edition of that book represents the last labor and embodies the maturest conclusions of its author"

Contains 16 preliminary pages of photographs specially selected by Charles Breasted

"From its astonishingly beautiful frontispiece to its last footnote, the book is of absorbing interest. . . The reader is not only enticed to read, but compelled to remember. Dr. Breasted has succeeded in saturating the whole volume with his own fascinating personality." School arts magazine

J. H. Breasted's "Ancient times" (2d ed rev Ginn 1935 823p illus maps $2.20) covers the same period but is published in text book form, with questions and bibliographies for study at ends of chapters. Occasionally the text of the two books is identical, but the format of "Conquest of civilization" is more attractive

Cambridge ancient history, ed. by J. B. Bury and others. Macmillan 1923-39 12v illus maps v 1-4, 7-12 $8.50, v5 $5.25, v6 $7, plates v 1 $6, v2 $2.50, v3-4 $3.25, v5 $3.50 930

1 History, Ancient (23-11667)

Contents: v 1 Egypt and Babylonia to 1580 B.C.; v2 Egyptian and Hittite empires to c.1000 B.C.; v3 Assyrian empire; v4 Persian empire and the West; v5 Athens: 478-401 B.C.; v6 Macedon: 401-301 B.C.; v7 Hellenistic monarchies and the rise of Rome; v8 Rome and the Mediterranean, 218-133 B.C.; v9 The Roman republic, 133-44 B.C.; v10 Augustan empire, 44 B.C.-A.D. 70; v11 Imperial peace, A.D. 70-192; v12 Imperial crisis and recovery, A.D. 193-324

"An excellent reference history, each chapter written by a specialist, with full bibliographies at the end of each volume. The volumes of plates contain illustrations, with comment." Mudge

Glover, Terrot Reaveley, 1869-

* Ancient world; a beginning. Macmillan 1935 388p illus maps $2.50 930

1 History, Ancient 35-12596

"Legend, drama, art, adventure—the swallow-songs of the Rhodian children, the life of Alexandria as shown in the papyri, the beginnings of the Christian church, the characters of men—all these belong to the story; and much more." Preface

"In his lack of pretentiousness, in the thoroughness of his penetration and in his suggestive syntheses he has provided an admirable introduction to the study of the three great cultures that are the background of our modern world." Times (London) lit. sup.

Myres, John Linton, 1869-

Dawn of history. Holt 1911 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 930

1 History, Ancient 12-133

"The book is short, and brilliantly written. . . Here the reader will find in outline all the information he requires about the dawn of civilization in the Eastern Mediterranean, and in the great valleys of the Nile, the Tigris, and the Euphrates. The later chapters deal with the earliest authentic history of Italy and Central and Northern Europe. It is a book which cannot be rated too highly." W. W. Davies's How to read history

Notes on books: p253-54

Rostovtsev, Mikhail Ivanovich, 1870-

* History of the ancient world; tr. from the Russian by J. D. Duff. Oxford 1926-27 2v ea $6.50, school ed ea $5 930

1 History, Ancient 26-22523

Contents: v1 The Orient, Greece, The Hellenistic period; v2 Rome

"Professor Rostovtzeff has always been more interested in the economic and social aspects of human life at various periods than in the narrative framework of history, and his generalizations on these topics always stimulate thought; he writes, too, of the history of art with intimate knowledge. . . The selection is excellent; we miss little that we could expect to find." Times (London) lit. sup.

Bibliography: v 1, p401-06; v2, p370-76

932 EGYPT

Baikie, James, 1866-1931

Story of the Pharaohs. . 3d ed rev and enl Macmillan 1926 379p illus maps o.p. 1939 932

932 B15

1 Egypt—History (8-35753)

"A popular history covering the period from the earliest beginnings of Egyptian

Baikie, James—Continued
history to the Persian conquest in the sixth century B.C. Contains chapters on the literature, the art, and the religion of Egypt." Pittsburgh

James Baikie's "History of Egypt; from the earliest times to the end of the XVIIIth dynasty" (Macmillan 1929 2v illus o.p. 1939) is a fuller and more scholarly treatment of Egyptian history. Illustrated with full-page photographs

Breasted, James Henry, 1865-1935
* History of Egypt from the earliest times to the Persian conquest. . . 2d ed fully rev Scribner 1909 xxix,634p illus maps $7.50 932

1 Egypt—History 9-3526

An interesting book by a recognized authority. Contains many excellent illustrations in addition to maps and plans
Records of later researches of this author will be found in the "Cambridge ancient history," entered in class 930

J. H. Breasted's "History of the ancient Egyptians" (Scribner 1908 469p illus maps $2.50) is largely a condensation and abridgment of his longer book and may be sufficient for the small library

Budge, Sir Ernest Alfred Thompson Wallis, 1857-1934
Egypt. Butterworth, T. 1925 256p illus maps (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) 2s 6d 932

1 Egypt—History [25-7378]

Formerly carried also by Holt
A short general account of the history and civilization of ancient Egypt. Maps and bibliography

Sir E. A. T. W. Budge's "Short history of the Egyptian people" (new ed Dutton 1923 280p $1.75) contains, besides a condensed survey of the history of Egypt, chapters on Egyptian magic and religion, daily life of the Egyptians and treatment of the dead

Weigall, Arthur Edward Pearse Brome, 1880-1934
History of the Pharaohs. Dutton 1925-27 2v illus map ea $6 932

1 Egypt—History (25-13196)

The first volume covers the first eleven dynasties, the second covers the twelfth to the eighteenth dynasties. Well illustrated
"Apart from his wide knowledge of his subject, the author brings two qualities to the writing of Egyptian history. One we may call dogmatism, for cocksureness is an impolite word. The other is something of a flair for making Egyptology 'popular.'" New statesman

933 PALESTINE AND SYRIA

Baikie, James, 1866-1931
Ancient Jerusalem. . . Macmillan 1930 89p illus (Peeps at ancient civilisations) $1 933

1 Jerusalem—History [30-34093]

"A simply told, well illustrated, condensed history of the city from the days of Abraham to the beginning of the Christian era. A final chapter upon the holy places points out that few of them can now be fixed with any degree of certainty." Bkl.

Blunt, Alfred Walter Frank, bp. 1879-
Israel in world history. Oxford 1927 127p illus maps (World's manuals) $1 933

1 Jews—History 27-27971

History of the Semitic peoples from the time of the early Babylonian empire (about 3,000 B.C.) to the beginning of the Christian era. Contains maps, photographs, chronological table and bibliographical note

"Some minor defects do not detract seriously from the value of this excellent handbook, which may be confidently recommended to those who wish to locate Israel within the great framework of international affairs which so largely determined her destiny." Journal of religion

Browne, Lewis, 1897-
‡ Stranger than fiction. . . Macmillan 1925 377p illus maps $2.50 933

1 Jews—History 25-11034

Also obtainable from Macmillan in the Modern readers series at $1
"A short history of the Jews from earliest times to the present day; with fifty animated maps by the author, giving a pictorial history of centuries of wandering." Subtitle

"The writer presents a complete and coherent narrative. If dates and details are sparingly used, the swift flow of the story atones for these omissions. Throughout, every effort has apparently been made to place emphasis upon those basic factors of heredity and environment best calculated to explain the unique career, and in that way the present psychology, of the Jewish people." Boston Transcript

Josephus, Flavius
Life and works. . . tr. by William Whiston with an introductory essay by H. Stebbing. Winston 1054p illus $2.50 933

1 Jews—Antiquities 2 Jews—History 36-22599

Also available in a one-volume edition (McKay $2.50). The desirable two-volume edition, translated by Whiston and published by Scribner and in England by Chatto, is now, 1939, out of print. An edition to be completed in 8 volumes translated by H. St. J. Thackeray is being published in the Loeb classical library (v 1-6 Harvard univ. press ea $2.50)

"The native Jewish historian Josephus wrote the history of his own nation in the closing years of the first century. . . His style is easy, graceful, and refined, rising occasionally to a high pitch of eloquence. . . His 'History' must be read with caution, though on the whole he is sincere, well-informed, and veracious." W. W. Davies's How to read history

Kastein, Julius, 1890-
History and destiny of the Jews; tr. from the German by Huntley Paterson. Viking 1933 464p $3.50 933

1 Jews—History 33-10960

Also available in the Star ser. (Garden City pub. co. $1)
"Not so much a history of the Jews as an eloquent, philosophic, and on the whole orthodox discourse on their history. The author has a gift for generalization, which means that even when his facts are weak, as they occasionally are, his power of persuasion is strong. He is always plausible, he is sometimes magnificent." Nation

Lods, Adolphe, 1867-
Israel, from its beginnings to the middle of the eighth century; tr. by S. H. Hooke. Knopf 1932 xx,512p illus maps (History of civilization) $4 933

1 Jews—History [32-19383]

"The book begins long before the appearance of the Israelites, with a detailed study of the historical and topographical setting upon which the nation was soon to project itself; then gives an account of the people and civilization of Canaan, before its conquest by Israel, to indicate the racial and cultural merger that was to be effected; then takes up the history of the tribes before the settlement in Canaan; following with its historical career and the development of its religion and culture up to the eighth century when the Assyrian invasions began." Nation

Bibliography: p489-503

Margolis, Max Leopold, 1866-1932, and Marx, Alexander, 1878-
History of the Jewish people. Jewish pub. 1927 xxii,823p illus maps $2.50 933

1 Jews—History 27-6890

In this history of the Jewish people "the method chosen is one of centres: Palestine, the eastern centre, the West-European, then Holland, Poland, Russia, and the rest, and finally the age of emancipation with its centres as far apart as America and Palestine again. The life of the Jew, moral, mental, and physical, is traced in relation to these centres, and the rise of Judaism apart from national implications is described up to the point where the Jew returned, at least in part, to his national home." Dial

"Of its kind this book is an excellent specimen, and to be commended. The facts are accurate, and the deductions justifiable. The maps, tables and bibliographies will prove of very great service." Times (London) lit. sup.

Mathews, Shailer, 1863-
New Testament times in Palestine, 175 B.C.-135 A.D. new and rev ed Macmillan 1933 307p illus $2 933

1 Bible—History of Biblical events
2 Jews—History 33-6041

Originally published 1899 and frequently reprinted. In 1910 published under title: History of New Testament times in Palestine, 175 B.C.—70 A.D. The 1933 edition has been revised in the light of later critical studies of Biblical sources. Full bibliographical notes

"With scholarship, clarity and directness, Dean Mathews has developed his themes and made his points. He has brought a valuable book up to date with all his keen insight and great resources." Boston Transcript

Olmstead, Albert Ten Eyck, 1880-
History of Palestine and Syria to the Macedonian conquest. Scribner 1931 xxxii,664p illus maps $7.50 933

1 Palestine—History 2 Syria—History 31-32522

"A closely packed, careful history that goes back to prehistoric times and carries the history of Palestine and Syria down to the Macedonian conquest. It has been composed directly from source material and incorporates many quotations from ancient writers. Excellent illustrations. [Bibliographical footnotes]" Bkl.

"This book is beautifully bound, beautifully printed, and beautifully and appropriately illustrated. The intrinsic quality corresponds, for it is a work of sound scholarship." Churchman

Rattey, Beatrice Katharine
Short history of the Hebrews, from Moses to Herod the Great; with a foreword by L. K. Barrie. Oxford 1931 191p illus maps 95c 933

1 Bible—History of Biblical events
2 Jews—History 31-28037

"Although it is short and somewhat in the nature of a summary, or a birdseye view, this little book presents an admirable narrative of the story of the Hebrews from the date of their deliverance from Egypt, about 1220 B. C., to the birth of Christ, thus covering a little more than twelve centuries of their movements and activities, their leaders and their religious development." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p192

Robinson, Henry Wheeler, 1872-
History of Israel; its facts and factors. Scribner 1938 262p $2.25 933

1 Jews—History [39-15041]

"The purpose of this short history of Israel is to meet the need felt by many teachers and students for an introductory text-book covering the whole ground, and suitable as a preparation for the use of the larger histories, and of studies of special periods. . . The book is intended to be complementary to my previous one . . . viz., 'The Religious Ideas of the Old Testament.'" Preface

Select bibliography: p241-44

Sachar, Abram Leon, 1899-
* History of the Jews. 2d ed rev to 1940 Knopf 1940 397,xvi p maps $4 933

1 Jews—History 40-31333

"Gives the complete story from the emergence of the Jews into history down to the present day. Dr. Sachar retells the Old Testament story in the light of modern historical research, and separates with the skill of a scientist truth from fable. By this method it is possible to get a vital conception of the emergence of the Jewish nation out of the tribal movements, the development of its laws and the manner of its life, and its final absorption by its powerful neighbours." Nation and Athenaeum

Selected bibliography: p397-408

Willett, Herbert Lockwood, 1864-
The Jew through the centuries. Willett 1932 422p $3 933

1 Jewish question 2 Jews—History 32-24704

"A history of the Jewish people from ancient times to the present, with chapters on Zionism and Jewish-Arabian relations in Palestine." Boston

"In this fascinating volume Professor Willett gives us the history, the mystery, the romance and the present day problem of the Jew. . . The reading of his survey and interpretation of Judaism will make the theme come to life as one of warm and compelling human interest." Christian century

Bibliography: p407-13

935 MEDO-PERSIA

In small libraries books on ancient history in general, such as Breasted, Rostovtsev, will often be sufficient for all of the countries included in 935

Delaporte, Louis Joseph, 1874-
Mesopotamia. . . tr. by V. G. Childe. Knopf 1925 371p illus map (History of civilization) $5 935

1 Civilization, Assyro-Babylonian 25-21907

A history of Babylonian and Assyrian civilizations based on the mass of material resulting from research in this region. Treats of the history, institutions, and beliefs and crafts of the two countries. Bibliography

Hogarth, David George, 1862-1927
Ancient East. Holt 1915 256p maps (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 935

1 Asia, Western—History 15-5631

The term East as used by the author is made to apply to western Asia and includes the empires of Assyria, Chaldea, Babylonia and Persia. His survey begins with the year 1000 B.C. and is continued down to the conquest of Persia by Alexander in 330 B.C. An epilogue is added to bridge over the period between this date and the Christian era
Bibliography: p252-53

Olmstead, Albert Ten Eyck, 1880-
History of Assyria. Scribner 1923 xxix, 695p illus maps $7.50 935

1 Assyria—History 2 Civilization, Assyro-Babylonian 23-17167

"To write such a history properly and aptly illustrate it is an immense labor, demanding a knowledge of the language, a familiarity with all that is published on the subject, and a personal acquaintance with the country. Professor A. T. Olmstead possesses these essentials in no small degree, and his history offers a good, solid presentation of the material to the scholars." Times (London) lit. sup.

"It would be difficult to exaggerate the importance of this book. . . It is superbly printed, richly, appropriately, and even wisely illustrated. . . Well written, in sound, workmanlike English." Amer. hist. rev.

Rogers, Robert William, 1864-1930
History of ancient Persia; from its earliest beginnings to the death of Alexander the Great. Scribner 1929 393p illus maps $7.50 935

1 Persia—History, Ancient 29-21490

"Full up-to-date narrative history of the Achaemenid empire." Guide to hist. lit.
"An excellent history of medium length by an authority." Mich. univ. alumni reading lists
Bibliographical footnotes

History of Babylonia and Assyria. 6th ed Abingdon 1915 2v illus o.p. 1939 935

1 Assyria—History 2 Babylonia—History 15-27682

A scholarly and important work first published 1900. A notable feature is the long account of Babylonian and Assyrian explorations and excavations, with a clear account of the reading of the inscriptions. Well illustrated. Bibliography

937 ROME

Boak, Arthur Edward Romilly, 1888-
* History of Rome to 565 A.D. rev ed Macmillan 1929 xx,476p illus maps $3.75 937

1 Rome—History 29-9518

A good textbook, first published in 1921, written to meet the needs of introductory college courses. Contains maps and a list of additional readings at end of book. The revised edition includes new material on the social and economic aspects of Roman history and on the pre-historic period in the light of recent archeological investigations

Bury, John Bagnell, 1861-1927
Student's Roman empire. . . Am. bk. 638p illus maps $1.75 937

1 Rome—History—Empire, B.C.30-A.D.476 4-17409

A handbook first published 1893, intended primarily for use in universities and schools. Covers the history of the empire from its foundation to the death of Marcus Aurelius (B.C. 27-180 A.D.)

J. B. Bury's "History of the later Roman empire from the death of Theodosius I to the death of Justinian (A.D. 395 to A.D. 565)" (Macmillan 1923 2v $14) is a learned detailed study primarily of interest to the student

Chapot, Victor, 1873-
Roman world. Knopf 1928 444p maps (History of civilization) $6.50 937

1 Rome—History 28-16567

Translated by E. A. Parker
Concerns the Roman empire, as a whole, two-thirds of the book being devoted to the various provinces—their government, history, and social and economic conditions
"Professor Chapot's work on the Provinces is admirable in detail and arrangement and uses skilfully the new sources available since Mommsen. The maps are excellent and the references to learned sources numerous." New statesman and Nation

Ferrero, Guglielmo, 1871-
Characters and events of Roman history, from Caesar to Nero. . . tr. by F. L. Ferrero. Putnam 1909 275p (Lowell lectures) o.p. 1939 937

1 Rome—History—Empire, B.C. 30-A.D. 476 9-14129

Contents: "Corruption" in ancient Rome, and its counterpart in modern history; History and legend of Antony and Cleopatra; Development of Gaul; Nero; Julia and Tiberius; Wine in Roman history; Social development of the Roman empire; Roman history in modern education
"A gallery of brilliant pictures. But brilliant and original as Signor Ferrero always is, he is never freakish." Spectator

Fowler, William Warde, 1847-1921
Rome. Holt 1912 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 937

1 Rome—History 2 Rome—Politics and government 12-6568

"On the subject of Roman civilization as a whole there are several extremely good and just a few quite delightful books. One of the very best is Warde Fowler's 'Rome.' " W. W. Davies's How to read history
Bibliography: p253

Frank, Tenney, 1876-

Economic history of Rome. 2d ed rev Johns Hopkins 1927 519p (Johns Hopkins univ. Semicentennial publications) o.p. 1939 937

1 Rome—Economic conditions 27-2332

"Among the best features of Professor Frank's book, which is characterized throughout by knowledge, precision of statement, and acuteness of observation, as well as by vigor of style and vitality of thought, is the skill with which he has utilized the archaeological sources of information." American economic review

History of Rome. Holt 1923 613p maps (American historical ser.) $5, student's ed $3.75 937

1 Rome—History 23-2349

"With an eye to the needs of college classes, the book is intended primarily for general readers who are interested in the political and cultural fortunes of the ancient republic, and therefore aims rather to tell a consecutive story than to compile a reference book of paragraphed facts. . . The period of Cicero is treated with greater detail than other periods because Cicero's correspondence furnishes material from which to picture accurately Rome's every-day political and social life. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"A thoughtful and scholarly, as well as a very readable, work." Amer. hist. rev.

Fustel de Coulanges, Numa Denis, 1830-1889

Ancient city: a study of the religion, laws and institutions of Greece and Rome; tr. from the latest French ed. by Willard Small. 10th ed Lothrop 1901 529p o.p. 1939 937

1 Cities and towns, Ancient 2 Civilization, Greco-Roman 3 Greece—Legal antiquities 4 Greece—Politics and government 5 Rome—Legal antiquities 6 Rome Politics and government 2-11630

"Its value depends not so much on amount of ascertained truth as on the new angle at which it presents every fact and institution of the ancient world." H. A. L. Fisher in English hist. rev.

Gibbon, Edward, 1737-1794

* Decline and fall of the Roman empire. Modern lib. 2v (Modern lib. giants) $1.25 937

1 Byzantine empire—History 2 Rome—History—Empire, B.C. 30-A.D. 476 32-28173

First published 1776-88. It is also obtainable in Everyman's library (Dutton 6v ea 90c) and in other editions

"Complete, lucid and accurate, Gibbon, finally, is one of the great masters of English prose. His power of narrative is at least equalled by his gift of argumentative statement, and, in all parts of his work, his style is one which holds the reader spellbound by its stately dignity, relieved by a curious subtlety of 'nuance,' and which, at the same time, is the writer's own." Cambridge history of English literature

Haskell, Henry Joseph, 1874-

New deal in old Rome; how government in the ancient world tried to deal with modern problems. Knopf 1939 258p maps $2.50 937

1 Rome—Economic conditions 2 Rome—History 3 Rome—Social conditions (W) 39-12576

Provides "an objective survey of instances of government intervention in the ancient world. Many of these were so like experiments tried in the United States in recent years that they may fairly be classed as New Deal measures. I have tried to show what these experiments were, why they were tried, and how they worked. Making allowance for the differences between ancient and modern society, I have ventured to call attention to certain warning signals from the past. [Bibliography]" Preface

"The book is based upon a thorough acquaintance with the best of recent authorities on Roman history, and on the writings of Latin authors in the period under consideration. Consequently the information presented is neither new nor very startling, but this is the first time it has been put together so compactly for the benefit of the general public." Springfield Republican

Mommsen, Theodore, 1817-1903

* History of Rome; tr. by W. P. Dickson. Dutton 4v (Everyman's lib.) ea 90c 937

1 Rome—History A12-658

"One of the world's great books. Starting with the dark period of origins, it traces the rise of Rome, the conquest of Italy, the great duel with Carthage, the subjugation of all countries bordering on the Mediterranean, and the consolidation of the whole under the dictatorship of Julius Caesar. . . The style is animated, vivid, and dignified, abounding in epigram and in passages of rare eloquence and beauty. . . In his use of authorities Mommsen was scrupulously careful. No stone was left unturned in the search after truth. Impartial and unbiased he certainly is not!" W. W. Davies's How to read history

Munro, Dana Carleton, 1866-1933

(comp.) Source book of Roman history. Heath 1904 258p illus o.p. 1939 937

1 Rome—History—Sources 4-8684

"Extracts from original authorities on history, religion, institutions and society, with full bibliographic references." N.Y. history list

Robinson, Cyril Edward, 1884-

History of the Roman republic. Crowell 1932 471p maps $3 937

1 Rome—History 33-4049

A history of Rome from prehistoric times to the death of Julius Caesar, retold in the light of recent research by an English scholar and historian

"Mr. Robinson, by a careful adjusting and painting of the background, reduces events to their proper status; his instruction is never perfunctory or stale, and it naturally follows that his history is the more penetrative. . . Nor does he draw on his own imagination unduly: much of his colour is obtained by happy quotation from ancient authors." Times (London) lit. sup.

Showerman, Grant, 1870-1935

Eternal Rome. . . Yale univ. press 1925 650p illus maps $6, text book ed $4 937

1 Rome—History 26-12748

First published 1924 in two volumes

"A brilliant and scholarly study of the city and its peoples from the earliest times to the present day. An appreciation of what Rome has meant to the world in government, art, literature, and progress." Cleveland

Notes and bibliography: p599-612

937.5 Etruria

Randall-MacIver, David, 1873-
Etruscans. Oxford 1927 152p illus map o.p. 1939 937.5

1 Etruria—Antiquities 2 Etrurians
28-8423

"For a long time the Etruscans have been invested with a false mystery, but the author's exposition of their origins and development blows away most of the mist without taking away from the strange dark interest of this remarkable people. He sweeps away the nebulous assumptions which bring the Etruscans over the Alps as Barbarians similar to the Villanovans whom they civilised, and he accepts the account of Herodotus which tells us that the first townships were founded by an expedition from Lydia under the leadership of a king's son, who may have been the man whom the Egyptians called Turscha—in which case the Etruscans had racial affinities with the Achaeans." New statesman

938 Greece

Gustave Glotz's "Ancient Greece at work" (Knopf 1926 402p illus $5) is a scholarly and interesting study of wages, prices, industry and commerce of ancient Greece. One of the History of civilization series

Botsford, George Willis, 1862-1917
Hellenic history; rev and rewritten by C. A. Robinson Macmillan 1939 398p illus maps $4.50 938

1 Greece—History (W) 39-10400

Revised and rewritten edition of a college text first published in 1922. "Several chapters are entirely new; in each of the remaining chapters some passages are new while many other passages are the same as in the first edition, except for such revision or rearrangement as seemed necessary." Preface

"The product of the efforts of these two scholars is a notable contribution to historical literature." Social studies

Select bibliography: p365-78

Bury, John Bagnell, 1861-1927
* History of Greece to the death of Alexander the Great. Macmillan xxv,909p illus maps $3.75 938

1 Greece—History 14-6614

Also obtainable from Modern lib. at $1.25

First published 1900

"It would be hard to find a more useful book for the student who has grasped the outlines of that subject, and wished to start on an inquiry into the sources from which the received narrative has been derived." Athenaeum

Notes and references: p851-83

Fling, Fred Morrow, 1860-
(comp.) Source book of Greek history. Heath 1907 370p illus $1.56 938

1 Greece—History—Sources 7-15133

Extracts from Greek literature intended to supplement high school work in Greek history.

Bibliography: p339-49

Grote, George, 1794-1871
History of Greece. Dutton 12v illus maps (Everyman's lib.) ea 90c 938

1 Greece—History 36-37669

Formerly carried also by Boni

"This great work still remains the best starting point for the serious study of Greek history in the classical period. Epigraphic evidence is of course neglected, for epigraphy was in its infancy in Grote's day. . . But after all ninety per cent of available information regarding fifth and fourth century Greece is derived from literary sources which were at Grote's disposal. These sources Grote analysed fully and with sound judgment, though naturally the methods of historical criticism have advanced somewhat since his day." Guide to hist. lit.

Lavell, Cecil Fairfield, 1872-
Biography of the Greek people. Houghton 1934 297p $3 938

1 Civilization, Greek 2 Greece—History 3 Greeks 4 Philosophy, Ancient 34-12980

"A thoughtful, fairly popularly-written history of Greece, from the cultural rather than the political and military point of view. Should meet library needs admirably." Wis. bul.

"The author's point of view is the result of a combination rarely found, a deep sympathy and wide acquaintance with the working of men's minds in ages long gone by, joined to a keen understanding of the way our minds work in this age here present." Nation

Mills, Dorothy
Book of the ancient Greeks. . . Putnam 1925 420p illus map $2.50 938

1 Civilization, Greek 2 Greece—History
25-11374

"An introduction to the history and civilization of Greece from the coming of the Greeks to the conquest of Corinth by Rome in 146 B.C. The emphasis of the book is not on wars but on the life of the people, their literature and art and the heritage that they left." Book rev. digest

Although written for use in the author's history class, the book does not have a textbook appearance. Well illustrated and has a map and chart

Robinson, Cyril Edward, 1884-
History of Greece. . . Crowell 1929 480p illus maps $3.50 938

1 Greece—History [29-29868]

"Mr. Robinson tells the story of Greece vividly and economically. From the prehistoric age to the 'Hellenistic Age and After' he compresses it all into less than five hundred pages of not too small print, and yet avoids being dry or writing a mere catalogue of events. His chronological tables and summaries, at the end of the book, should be invaluable to students, and there is an index." New statesman

Zimmern, Sir Alfred Eckhard, 1879-
Greek commonwealth; politics & economics in fifth-century Athens. 4th ed rev Oxford 1924 471p maps $5.50 938

1 Greece 2 Greece—Economic conditions 3 Greece—Politics and government
25-14321

"A clear and interesting study, devoted mainly to the civilization of fifth-century Athens." Mich. univ. alumni reading lists

939 MINOR COUNTRIES

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870-

Battleground; Syria and Palestine; the seedplot of religion. . . Lippincott 1936 336p illus maps $5 939

1 Palestine—History 2 Syria—History
36-6969

A history of Syria and Palestine from the days of Abraham to the end of the Crusades

"The book represents essentially a great effort at a comprehensive historical synthesis such as is rarely attempted in our day, but is all the more welcome, when it is attempted, for its rarity; and, further, the effort achieves a great measure of success, for the vitality which Mr. Belloc knows how to breathe into all he writes has here found also proportion and unity." Manchester Guardian

Church, Alfred John, 1829-1912, and Gilman, Arthur, 1837-1909

Story of Carthage. Putnam 1886 xx,309p illus maps (Story of the nations) o.p. 1939 939

1 Carthage—History 4-17419

A standard history of Carthage from its foundation to its destruction

Rawlinson, George, 1812-1902

Phoenicia. Putnam 1889 356p illus map (Story of the nations) o.p. 1939 939

1 Phenicia [2-9895]

A popular history of the country and its people including the architecture, art, manufactures, etc.

940 EUROPE

V. G. Childe's "The dawn of European civilization" (new rev ed Knopf 1939 xx,351p illus $5) one of the History of civilization series is a valuable scholarly work which gives the story of the earliest civilization of Europe

Boak, Arthur Edward Romilly, 1888- Hyma, Albert, 1893- and Slosson, Preston William, 1892-

Growth of European civilization. Crofts 1938 2v in 1 illus maps $4.50 940

1 Europe—Civilization 2 Europe—History
(W) 38-14637

"In these lectures we have tried to present a clear, connected, and reasonably concise narrative of political history. At the same time we have sought to stress the more important social, economic, and cultural movements. . . Our main emphasis has been on the period since the fall of the ancient Mediterranean civilization." Preface

"We recommend this work especially to all young history teachers and also to anyone who has not had sufficient opportunity for history study and who feels the need of a very readable and informative outline." Social education

Fisher, Herbert Albert Laurens, 1865-

‡ History of Europe; ancient and mediaeval, renaissance, reformation, reason, the liberal experiment. new rev and enl ed Houghton 1939 1306p maps $5 940

1 Europe—History 39-8302

Formerly published in 3 volumes. The one volume edition contains some additional pages (1256-1280) carrying the story thru 1936, and a new appendix containing articles 10-21 of the Covenant of the League of nations. Continuous paging, but separate indexes for the 3 parts

Contents: v 1 Ancient and mediaeval; v2 Renaissance, reformation, reason (from the middle of the fifteenth to the second half of the eighteenth century); v3 The liberal experiment (from the second half of the eighteenth century to 1935)

"To write the history of Europe at all, within such limits as these, is a marvel of compression. Yet there is an amplitude of scale and freedom of movement here, which comes from strict selection, skilful arrangement, and a sure sense of proportion." Spectator

Gillespie, James Edward, 1887-

History of Europe, 1500-1815; the development of European civilization from Columbus to Metternich. Norton 1928 xxii,602p maps $4.25 940

1 Europe—Civilization 2 Europe—History
[28-27857]

"It is well-balanced, scholarly . . . and reveals the continuous process of change. Fourteen maps in colors add to its usefulness . . . and the references for further reading following each chapter are selected with discrimination." Pol. sci. quar.

Guizot, François Pierre Guillaume, 1787-1874

History of civilization, from the fall of the Roman empire to the French revolution; tr. by William Hazlitt. Bell, G. 3v fronts (Bohn's standard lib.) o.p. 1939 940

1 Europe—Civilization 4-21967

A celebrated course of lectures delivered at the Sorbonne and first published in 1828-30. The work is regarded as a classic of historical research

F. P. G. Guizot's "General history of civilization in Europe" (Appleton-Century 1928 xxii,403p $1) consists of fourteen of the lectures compiled and edited by G. W. Knight in the Appleton dollar library. These form only about half of the first volume of the complete work

Hassall, Arthur, 1853-1930

European history chronologically arranged, 476-1920. new ed Macmillan 1920 439p $4 940

1 Europe—History 21-10189

A tabular chronological arrangement of historical events covering European history from the fall of the western Roman empire to June 1919. First published in 1897 under title: Handbook of European history

Jackson, John Hampden, 1907-

(ed.) Modern history of Europe, 1046-1918. Harper 1935 1236p illus maps $3.75, college ed $3 940

1 Europe—History [35-23627]

Published also in England under title "Outline of European history"

Contents: Middle ages, by Oliver Welch; Sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, by P. C. Gordon Walker; Eighteenth century and the revolution, by H. E. Howard; Nineteenth century and the World war, by C. J. P. Hughes

"The team which Mr. Jackson captains contains practical teachers of history; and each member knows how young people expect history to be presented. Here and there judgments might be questioned; but in the main the work is uncommonly well done." Times (London) lit. sup.

Robinson, James Harvey, 1863-1936

Introduction to the history of western Europe. . . new ed Ginn 1934 2v illus maps v 1 $3.20, v2 $3.40 940

1 Europe—History 37-12751

Contents: v 1 Background of modern history; v2 Emergence of existing conditions and ways of thinking

This well-known work is a more detailed treatment of the period covered in the textbook "Medieval and modern times," entered below

* Medieval and modern times; an introduction to the history of western civilization from the dissolution of the Roman empire to the present time. 2d rev ed Ginn 1934 825,xliii p illus maps $2.32 940

1 Europe—History 34-39715

A standard high school text

J. H. Robinson's "Ordeal of civilization" (Harper 1926 769p illus maps $5) is taken largely from his "Medieval and modern times." Issued as a companion volume to J. H. Breasted's "Conquest of civilization" (class 930)

(comp.) Readings in European history... Ginn 1904-06 2v ea $2.75 940

1 Europe—History 4-26124

Issued also in an abridged edition of one volume at $2.50

Contents: v 1 From the breaking up of the Roman empire to the Protestant revolt; v2 From the opening of the Protestant revolt to the present day

"A collection of extracts from the sources, chosen with the purpose of illustrating the progress of culture in Western Europe since the German invasion." Subtitle

Robinson, James Harvey, 1863-1936, and others

* History of civilization; earlier ages, by J. H. Robinson, J. H. Breasted and E. P. Smith with the assistance of E. W. Ware. Ginn 1937 xx,896p illus maps $2.20 940

1 Civilization—History 2 Europe—History

An excellent high school text which is a revision of Breasted and Robinson's "History of Europe, ancient and medieval" covering the same period but entirely revised and printed in larger type. The second volume of this two-volume course, by C. A. Beard, J. H. Robinson and D. V. Smith is entered in class 940.28

Schapiro, Jacob Salwyn, 1878- and Morris, Richard Brandon, 1904-

‡ Civilization in Europe. . . rev and enl ed Houghton 1937 751,l p illus maps $2.20 940

1 Europe—History 37-2617

Pt. 1 Ancient and medieval times, by R. B. Morris, published in 1928. Pt. 2 Modern times in Europe, by J. S. Schapiro, first edition published separately 1926. The 1937 edition is revised to bring it up to date adding 20 pages to the last chapter

The two parts may be obtained separately as follows:

Morris, R. B. Ancient and medieval times. Houghton 1928 $1.40

Schapiro, J. S. Modern times in Europe rev and enl ed Houghton 1940 755, xxxviii p illus maps $1.96

Seignobos, Charles, 1854-

‡ Rise of European civilization; tr. from the French by C. A. Phillips. Knopf 1938 436p $4.50, text ed $3.25 940

1 Europe—Civilization (W) 38-27886

"A comparative history of the countries and peoples of Europe from the earliest times to the present day, presented in a very readable manner, with as few details as possible, for the layman. At each stage in their history the living conditions, political systems, customs, laws, religion, and culture of the people are examined and compared; the causes of great changes in any phase are traced." Bkl.

940.1 Medieval Europe, 476-1453

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Ault, W. O. Europe in the middle ages, rev Heath 1937 730p illus maps $3.48 A college text

Duckett, E. S. Gateway to the middle ages. Macmillan 1938 620p front $5 Study of some of the important writings of the sixth century

Haskins, C. H. Renaissance of the twelfth century. Harvard univ. press 1927 437p $5

Huizinga, Johan. Waning of the middle ages; a study of the forms of life, thought and art in France and the Netherlands in the XIVth and XVth centuries. Longmans 1924 328p illus $5.20 Will appeal to the reader who knows something of the period

Newhall, R. A. Crusades. Holt 1927 110p 85c A brief sketch which is well recommended for the general reader

Paetow, L. J. Guide to the study of medieval history. rev ed prepared under the auspices of the Mediaeval academy of America Crofts 1931 643p $6 A comprehensive bibliography recommended for large libraries

Pirenne, Henri. Medieval cities: their origins and the revival of trade; tr. by F. D. Halsey. rev ed Princeton univ. press 1939 265p $2.50

Taylor, H. O. Classical heritage of the middle ages. 3d ed Macmillan 1911 402p $2

Walsh, J. J. Thirteenth, greatest of centuries. Fordham univ. press 1924 490p illus $3.50 Reviews the great issues of the time from the Roman Catholic point of view

Wright, J. K. Geographical lore of the time of the crusades; a study in the history of medieval science and traditions in western Europe. Am. geographical soc. 1925 xxi,563p illus (American geographical soc. Research ser.) $3 A valuable book which will interest larger libraries. Contains an extensive bibliography

Adams, George Burton, 1851-1925

Civilization during the middle ages, especially in relation to modern civilization. rev ed Scribner 1914 455p $2.75 940.1

1 Civilization, Medieval 14-18666

"An account of the institutions of medieval Europe, and an attempt to relate those to modern civilization. An especially valuable bibliography is given." N.Y. history list

"In all qualities that make a good book—knowledge of the subject, coordination and interpretation of material, presentation—it is a superior work." Guide to hist. lit.

Archer, Thomas Andrew, and Kingsford, Charles Lethbridge, 1862-1926
The crusades; the story of the Latin kingdom of Jerusalem. Putnam 1894 xxx,467p illus maps (Story of the nations) $3 940.1

1 Crusades 4-17421

"Still the best one-volume treatment of the subject in English. Style interesting and clear. Accounts of second and third crusades better than those of the first and later crusades. Description of institutions should be supplemented by reference to more recent investigations." Guide to hist. lit.

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870-
Crusades; the world's debate. Bruce pub. 1937 331p illus maps (Science and culture ser.) $3 940.1

1 Crusades 37-11690

"Among the popular authors of historical books Hilaire Belloc excels in his wide knowledge, his clear Catholic philosophy and his gift of fascinating presentation. . . Those historical happenings which prove unpleasant enough not to agree with these leading tendencies are unscrupulously neglected. The specialist interested in historical research may blame this method, but the average reader certainly enjoys it. Belloc is not a photographer of personages and ages, who gives as many details as possible; he is a painter, presenting an interpretation of his own." Commonweal

Bryce, James Bryce, viscount, 1838-1922
‡ Holy Roman empire. new ed enl and rev thruout. . . Macmillan 1904 lii, 575p maps $4 940.1

1 Holy Roman empire 4-34916

"The book is not a history of the Middle Ages; it is, as its title indicates, a study of the Holy Roman Empire, the most curious, and one of the most interesting, political structures that the world has ever seen. Founded by Charlemagne in 800, it shared with the Papacy the foremost position in the West down to the rise of strong national States in the era of the Protestant Reformation." W. W. Davies's How to read history

"This is the best book on the subject in any language." Paetow

Contains chronological table of events, maps and a short list of books on the history of the empire

Cambridge medieval history, planned by J. B. Bury, ed. by H. M. Gwatkin, and others. Macmillan 1911-36 8v maps set $90, v 1-2 ea $8.50, v3-8 ea $13 940.1

1 Middle ages—History 11-29851

"Excellent reference history, each chapter written by a specialist. Full bibliographies arranged by chapters at end of each volume." Mudge

Contents: v1 The Christian Roman empire and the foundation of the Teutonic kingdoms; v2 The rise of the Saracens and the foundation of the Western empire; v3 Germany and the Western empire; v4 The Eastern Roman empire (717-1453); v5 Contest of empire and papacy; v6 Victory of the papacy; v7 Decline of empire and papacy; v8 Close of the middle ages

Cheyney, Edward Potts, 1861-
Dawn of a new era, 1250-1453. Harper 1936 389p illus maps (Rise of modern Europe) $2.90 940.1

1 Europe—History—476-1492 36-3968

"Professor Cheyney has produced a work of literary excellence as well as scholarly judgment. . . The bibliography, although it sometimes over-emphasizes certain outdated works, and sometimes omits important volumes . . . is still one of the most valuable portions of the book. Mention must also be made of the very adequate section devoted to contemporary pictorial material." Boston Transcript

Coulton, George Gordon, 1858-
(ed.) Life in the middle ages. Macmillan 4v in 1 illus (Cambridge anthologies) $6 940.1

1 Literature, Medieval 2 Middle ages—History—Sources 31-9494

First published under title "Medieval garner" 1910; 2d edition in 4 volumes 1928-30; reprinted in one volume 1930. It is still available in the 4 volume edition (v 1 $3, v2-3 ea $2.40, v4 $4)

"Dr Coulton's four-volume anthology of selections from medieval literature, is here gathered into one compact volume, the whole forming a valuable record of the life and manners of the people between the Norman conquest and the time of Henry the Eighth. Volume 1: Religion, folk-lore and superstition; volume 2: Chronicles, science and art; volume 3: Men and manners; volume 4: Monks, friars and nuns." Book rev. digest

"A book which might be carelessly dismissed as intended for scholars but is really full of fascinating interest for the reader possessed of normal curiosity about the past." Springfield Republican

Medieval scene; an informal introduction to the middle ages. Macmillan 1930 163p illus $1.50 940.1

1 Civilization, Medieval 2 Middle ages—History 3 Social conditions [31-5977]

"The greater part of this little book, dealing with social conditions, was delivered as a series of broadcast talks in the autumn of 1929, and was published from week to week in "The Listener." Preface

Crump, Charles George, 1862- and Jacob, Ernest Fraser, 1894-
(eds.) Legacy of the middle ages. Oxford 1926 549p illus $3.75 940.1

1 Art, Medieval 2 Civilization, Medieval 3 Middle ages 4 Paleography 27-3663

Sixteen scholarly essays by specialists. "The chapters fall into three divisions. The first five deal with the things of the mind and the spirit. In the centre and heart of the book come three upon law, the most fundamental and characteristic of medieval bequests; the remainder are concerned with the fabric of society and government." Preface

Davis, Henry William Carless, 1874-1928
Medieval Europe. Butterworth, T. 1911 256p illus maps (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) 2s 6d 940.1

1 Europe—History—476-1492 2 Middle ages—History [11-18566]

Formerly carried also by Holt

"Not a related account of historical events like Emerton's . . . books on the subject, but an entertaining presentation of the chief features of the development of the Middle Ages, such as feudalism, the

Davis, Henry W. C.—Continued
free towns, the medieval state, The Hildebrandine Church and the Crusades. A book for one having some background of knowledge of the period." Cleveland
Notes on books: p255-56

Davis, William Stearns, 1877-1930
* Life on a mediaeval barony; a picture of a typical feudal community in the thirteenth century. Harper 1923 414p illus $3.50 940.1
1 Chivalry 2 Civilization, Medieval 3 Feudalism 23-13031
"The book describes a typical medieval seigneury in northern France in the year 1220, which represents the epoch when the spirit of the Middle ages had reached its full development. Descriptions are given of the castle itself and the household of the seigneur, its customs and hospitality, the training of knights and nobles, tourneys and feudal battles. An account of the peasant villages roundabout is included, also of the abbey and monastery and the cathedral seat of the bishop." Book rev. digest
"In a most agreeable and readable fashion, under his thin fiction of St. Aliquis, Professor Davis makes us see the Middle Ages as they neared their end. It is a fine bit of work worthily done." N.Y. Times

Emerton, Ephraim, 1851-1935
Beginnings of modern Europe (1250-1450). Harvard univ. press 1917 550p maps $2.40 940.1
1 Europe—History—476-1492 [17-25735]
The "Guide to historical literature" recommends the books by Emerton entered here as furnishing for the reader who is not satisfied with a general survey in a single volume, "the best outline of medieval history within a moderate compass."

Introduction to the study of the middle ages (375-814). Harvard univ. press 275p maps $2.40 940.1
1 Middle ages—History [3-9330]
A standard work written for young students and first published in 1888. An excellent sketch of the early middle ages Bibliographies at the beginning of each chapter

Ephraim Emerton's "Mediaeval Europe (814-1300)" (Harvard univ. press 1894 xxv,607p illus maps $2.40) continues the "Introduction to the study of the middle ages" to the middle of the 13th century. The history of the empire and papacy is stressed

Froissart, Jean, 1338?-1410?
Chronicles of England, France, Spain, etc. Dutton 616p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 940.1
1 Europe—History—476-1492 2 Hundred years' war, 1339-1453 36-37652
A condensed version of Froissart's "History of his own Times," adapted by H. P. Dunster in 1853 from the translation made by Thomas Johnes in 1803-10. The "Chronicles" were first printed at the beginning of the sixteenth century
"The one inimitable contemporary narrator of the first part of the Hundred Year's War. . . For a rapid survey, such condensations as the volume in the 'Everyman's library' or the 'Globe edition' [Macmillan $1.80] do very well." Paetow
The type in the Globe edition, mentioned above, is poor

Haskins, Charles Homer, 1870-
Normans in European history. Houghton 1915 258p $3.50 940.1
1 Europe—History 2 Great Britain—History—Norman period, 1066-1154 3 Normans 15-22077
"Popular presentation by a profound scholar. This work of absorbing interest combines with remarkable success exact scholarship, broad knowledge, and a high degree of literary art. . . The author devotes himself in the main to the great achievements of the Normans in France and England and in southern Italy and Sicily between the close of the Viking age and the beginning of the thirteenth century." Guide to hist. lit.

Hearnshaw, Fossey John Cobb, 1869-
(ed.) Mediaeval contributions to modern civilisation, a series of lectures delivered at King's college, University of London; with a preface by Ernest Barker. Harrap 1921 267p o.p. 1939 940.1
1 Civilization 2 Middle ages 21-17309
Contents: Introductory: Middle ages and their characteristic features, by F. J. C. Hearnshaw; Religious contributions of the middle ages, by C. Jenkins; Philosophy, by H. W. Carr; Science, by C. Singer; Art, by P. Dearmer; Middle ages in the lineage of English poetry, by Sir I. Gollancz; Education, by J. W. Adamson; Society, by H. Johnstone; Economics, by E. R. Adair; Politics, by J. W. Allen
"It is a book of power and stimulation rather than of detailed information. The reading of it leaves one with many a question renewed or started, and is likely to kindle zeal for further investigation." Times (London) lit. sup.

Hulme, Edward Maslin, 1871-
* Middle ages. rev ed Holt 1938 1118p illus maps (American historical ser.) $4.50 940.1
1 Middle ages—History 38-5272
New edition of a textbook first published in 1929. "In this new edition thirteen chapters have been added to the book. They include the history of England, which was not given in the first edition, and bring the history of that island and of the continental countries down to the opening of the sixteenth century." Preface
" 'The Middle Ages' is noteworthy for its good bibliographies, its liberal attitude and its full treatment of religious matters. It is one of the few college histories that can be recommended warmly to general readers." New Republic

Lamb, Harold, 1892-
Crusades; iron men and saints. Doubleday 1930 368p illus o.p. 1939 940.1
1 Crusades
"Without idealization, colorfully and in interesting detail, the author makes the reader realize the background and achievement of the first and greatest of the crusades. The other four are touched upon in a brief section at the end." Providence
Illustrated with 15 plates. Selected bibliography: p353-58

Crusades; the flame of Islam. . . Doubleday 1931 490p illus o.p. 1939 940.1
1 Crusades
"Saladin, the victory bringer; Balbars, the panther; Richard the lion heart; Saint Louis; Barbarossa." Subtitle
"The narrative continues the author's history of the crusades begun in 'The

Lamb, Harold—Continued
Crusades: Iron Men and Saints.' This volume begins with the rousing of the Moslem powers in 1169 against the victorious crusaders, and tells the story of the one hundred and fifty years' struggle for supremacy that followed. Selected bibliography." Book rev. digest

Lodge, Sir Richard, 1855-1936
Close of the middle ages, 1273-1494. Macmillan xxx,570p maps (Periods of European hist.) $2.90 940.1
1 Middle ages—History 24-3987
First published 1901. A volume of the "Periods of European history" series of which the Guide to historical literature says "After the lapse of a generation, these books are still probably the most useful handbooks of European political history in English."

Mills, Dorothy
Middle ages. Putnam 1935 360p illus maps $2.50 940.1
1 Middle ages—History 35-2288
The aim of the author of this book for high school students has been "to tell the story of the Middle Ages in such a way as to bring out the most characteristic features of the period and to emphasize those things in medieval life which have most significance for us today." Preface
"Many teachers, students and general readers have enjoyed Miss Mills's popular but scholarly studies in ancient history. Now they have in store a particularly rare treat with her recent volume on the Middle Ages. . . . The usefulness of the little volume is furthured by quotations from the sources, contemporary illustrations, and a concisely arranged time chart." Commonweal

Mitchell, Rosamond Joscelyne, 1902-
Life and adventure in medieval Europe; illus. drawn by Arnold Mitchell. Longmans 1934 204p illus $2.25, text ed $1.60 940.1
1 Civilization 2 Middle ages 34-30676
"In twenty-three short sketches, imaginery in detail but true to history in setting and background, the author seeks to portray how ordinary men and women lived—what they wore, what they ate, how they worked—in medieval Europe. The book is intended to supplement the ordinary school textbook." Book rev. digest
"The treatment of historical events is accurate and up to date. Some of the pictures of professional life are very vivid, notably that of the 'Tenth Century Nun.' The illustrations are disappointing." Times (London) lit. sup.
Books for further reading: p195-200

Moss, Henry St Lawrence Beaufort
Birth of the middle ages, 395-814. Oxford 1935 291p maps $5, educ. ed $4.25 940.1
1 Civilization, Medieval 2 Europe—Civilization 3 Middle ages—History 4 Rome—History 36-963
"This is a book admirably planned not only to clarify the ideas of those who are familiar with the subject but also to give to the cultivated reader without special knowledge a full and clear understanding of the significance of a period which to most people appears forbidding in its obscurity, complexity and poverty of achievement. Above all, the book will do an outstanding service in attracting to the period any young student of history in whose hands it is placed: to such, we should say, it will disclose and realize a whole new world." Times (London) lit. sup.
Bibliography: p283-87

Munro, Dana Carleton, 1866-1933, and Sontag, Raymond James
Middle ages, 395-1500. rev ed Appleton-Century 1928 562p maps (Century historical ser.) $3.75 940.1
1 Middle ages—History 28-20674
The original edition published in 1921 covered the history to 1272 and was entirely the work of Professor Munro. The revised edition contains seven additional chapters on the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries, written by Professor Sontag
"In text book form, but written with an attention to the details of daily life which should attract the interest of lay readers. Two bibliographies, one a 'Library of twenty-five books,' the other a general bibliography, maps and index." Wis. bul.

Oman, Sir Charles William Chadwick, 1860-
Dark ages 476-918. Macmillan 532p (Periods of European history) $2.90 940.1
1 Europe—History—476-1492 [3-1121]
A standard work first published 1893. Minor additions and corrections have been made at later dates
"The book is a fair sample of the work of the modern historian whose intention it is to instruct, and who desires nothing so little as to amuse his readers." W. W. Davies's How to read history

Pirenne, Henri, 1862-1935
History of Europe from the invasions to the XVI century. Norton 1939 624p $5 940.1
1 Europe—History—476-1492 2 Europe—History—1492-1789 A39-688
"Presents the history of Europe in terms of economic and political evolution from the end of the Roman world in the West to the sixteenth century. The book was written largely during the World war, while the author, a Belgian scholar, was held as hostage in a German prison camp." Book rev. digest
"It is a model of descriptive and objective commentary, so objective that it seems to be itself a part of history. Pirenne would have desired no higher praise." Manchester guardian
Translated by Bernard Miall from the French of the 8th edition, 1936

Power, Eileen Edna, 1889-
Medieval people. Houghton 1924 216p illus map $2 940.1
1 Civilization, Medieval [24-30518]
"A series of sketches illustrating certain aspects of social life in the Middle ages. From various historical sources the author has reconstructed the life of a peasant on a country estate in Charlemagne's time; a Venetian traveller of the thirteenth century; Madame Eglentyne, fourteenth century prioress; a Paris housewife in a middle-class home; a merchant of the staple in the fifteenth century; an Essex clothier in the days of Henry VII." Boston Transcript
"Here is a book which even a historian of Miss Power's ability must have found very difficult to write. It is pleasantly illustrated and enlivened with many touches of humour, and all signs of learning are carefully excluded from the text." Times (London) lit. sup.

Sellery, George Clarke, 1872- and Krey, August Charles, 1887-
Medieval foundations of western civilization. . . Harper 1929 633p maps (Harper's historical ser.) $3.50 940.1

1 Civilization, Medieval 2 Middle ages—History 29-1452

"An interesting study of the influence of the Middle Ages upon our present civilization. Starting with the thesis, 'We are heirs to the Middle Ages' the two authors first sketch the salient features of mediaevalism, and then show the points of contact with the present day." North American

"The volume is expertly indexed, profusely illustrated with well chosen reproductions, many from medieval manuscripts, and provided with adequate maps and a valuable selected bibliography." Sat. rev. of lit.

Taylor, Henry Osborn, 1856-
Mediaeval mind; a history of the development of thought and emotion in the middle ages. 4th ed Macmillan 1925 2v $8 940.1

1 Civilization, Medieval 2 Middle ages 3 Philosophy, Medieval 32-34441

For the fourth edition a few statements have been altered and some recent references inserted

"In the learned work before us we find a highly sympathetic and penetrating estimate of the literature of the Dark ages and an equally fine appreciation of the intellectual and emotional character of the great men and great minds, a procession of whom passes before us as we regard them from Francis of Assisi to Aquinas, Roger Bacon, and Occam." Literary digest

Thompson, James Westfall, 1869-
Economic and social history of Europe in the later middle ages (1300-1530). Appleton-Century 1931 545p maps (Century historical ser.) $5 940.1

1 Europe—Economic conditions 2 Europe—Social conditions 3 Middle ages—History 31-30528

"A continuation of the author's Economic and Social History of the Middle Ages. As in the earlier volume the author has endeavored to show 'the close and intimate relations of economic, social, and political conditions and movements.' Also as in the earlier work, consideration of England has been omitted except when England's relations touched the continent. Maps, bibliography." Book rev. digest

"It brings together a vast amount of material and illuminates many political movements by social and economic interpretation." World tomorrow

Economic and social history of the middle ages (300-1300). Appleton-Century 1928 900p illus maps (Century historical ser.) $5 940.1

1 Europe—Economic conditions 2 Europe—Social conditions 3 Middle ages—History 28-13688

"This comprehensive text is a history of the Middle Ages written from the point of view of economic and social interpretation. Consideration of medieval England is omitted except when and where England's relations touched the Continent. The book is well furnished with maps, and has bibliographies and an index." Book rev. digest

"Fills a long-felt want in the teaching of medieval history. Covers the thousand years between 300 and 1300, and is intended primarily for the upper classes of colleges and universities." Guide to hist. lit.

Thompson, James Westfall, 1869- and Johnson, Edgar Nathaniel, 1901-
Introduction to medieval Europe, 300-1500. Norton 1937 1092p illus maps $3.90 940.1

1 Europe—History—476-1492 2 Middle ages—History 37-17639

"This is a revision and expansion by E. N. Johnson of Thompson's History of the Middle Ages, published in 1931, which in turn was an abridgment of a longer work The Middle Ages, 300-1500." Book rev. digest

"The book is, in many respects, an improvement upon the 1931 edition. The reviser's task was done on the basis of a manuscript placed in his hands by the author, but with full discretion to rewrite or add. . . The work has gained in orderliness and proportion as well as in extent, and presents a comprehensive and easily comprehensible account of the facts of medieval history." Christian Century

References for further reading:p1053-67

Thorndike, Lynn, 1882-
History of medieval Europe. rev ed Houghton 1928 xx,682p illus maps $4, student's ed $3.50 940.1

1 Europe—History 2 Middle ages—History 28-3470

The revised edition contains some changes and additions

Professor Thorndike has prepared this history for the college student and the general reader. The general plan of the work is "to treat medieval Europe as a whole and to hang the story upon a single thread, rather than to recount as distinct narratives the respective histories of the . . . countries of modern Europe." Contains maps and bibliographies

Tout, Thomas Frederick, 1855-1929
Empire and the papacy, 918-1273. Macmillan 526p illus maps (Periods of European history) $2.90 940.1

1 Europe—History—476-1492 2 Holy Roman empire 3 Papacy [16-4229]

First published 1898. Several editions and impressions have been issued but with only minor additions and corrections made

"The main purpose . . . has been to narrate, with some amount of detail, the political and ecclesiastical history of the chief states of Southern and Western Europe. . . Some account of the general movements of thought and of the development of the ecclesiastical system and of the religious orders seemed . . . necessary for the understanding even of the political history of a time when everything was subordinated to the authority of the church." Preface

940.2 Modern Europe, 1453-

Two well-organized college texts also recommended are:

Higby, C. P. History of Europe (1492-1815) under the editorship of J. T. Shotwell. Houghton 1927 479p maps $3.40

Hyma, Albert. Europe from the renaissance to 1815. Crofts 1931 586p maps $3.75

Abbott, Wilbur Cortez, 1869-

Expansion of Europe; a social and political history of the modern world, 1415-1815. 2d rev ed Crofts 1938 2v in 1 illus maps $5 940.2

1 Europe—History—1492-1789 38-29369

First published 1918. In the 2d rev. edition the scope of the book has been extended to cover the period from 1789 to 1815. The bibliography has been brought up to date

"A world history . . . in which the political and intellectual development of Europe is traced coincidently with the expansion or colonial movement. . . This is one of the outstanding historical works of recent years, suitable for the use of both the student and the general reader." Guide to hist. lit.

Bibliography: v2, p427-66

Becker, Carl Lotus, 1873-

Modern history; the rise of a democratic, scientific, and industrialized civilization. Silver 1939 841,xxiv p illus maps (Becker-Duncalf-Magoffin histories) $2.24 940.2

1 Europe—History 2 History, Modern 39-29586

First published 1931. The 1939 edition has been revised to incorporate events since 1935. Sections on the English reform bill have been enlarged to include a fuller description of cabinet government and nine new pictorial charts and maps have been added

"Written primarily for secondary schools. . . As an impartial, interesting survey, it can be recommended to the general reader who desires a simple, clear résumé of modern historical events. Lists of selected readings—biographies, historical novels, and source material—are appended to chapters." Bkl.

Dorn, Walter Louis

Competition for empire, 1740-1763. Harper 1940 426p illus maps (Rise of modern Europe, ed by W. L. Langer) $3.75 940.2

1 Europe—History—1492-1789 3 Imperialism 40-3701

The period covered "was taken up very largely by two great wars, both of them fought out on the continent of Europe but also in the remoteness of America and India. . . [The author has] attempted to analyze and explain the nature of the continental conflicts and the struggle for overseas empire by examining the dynamics of the eighteenth century state." Introduction

"As an individual study and as a harmoniously planned unit in a larger whole the volume is a tribute to the thoroughness and objectivity of American scholarship and a valuable addition to the series." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p385-415

Funck-Brentano, Frantz, 1862-

Renaissance. Macmillan 1936 320p $2.50 940.2

1 Renaissance 36-18004

"Each chapter stands alone, and deals with some phase of the material and spiritual revolution, or with one or more of the important figures whose questings and questionings undermined the Catholic and feudal mediaeval world." New statesman and Nation

"This, maybe, is not the profoundest book on the subject, but it is very entertaining, a skillful and reliable popularization of what the best scholars have dug up about this great period. . . On the whole, a very suitable book for perusal at the moment." Forum

Hayes, Carlton Joseph Huntley, 1882-

‡ Political and cultural history of modern Europe. Macmillan 1932-36 2v illus maps v 1 $3.75, v2 $4.50 940.2

1 Europe—History 2 Europe—Politics (32-22656)

Based in part on the author's "Political and social history of modern Europe" but enlarged in scope to include science, literature, and art. The political facts have been brought up to date and the earlier part rewritten in the light of events since the European war [of 1914-1918]. Illustrations, 30 maps, 6 genealogical charts. Volume 1 covers 1500-1830; volume 2 1830-1935

"As a textbook of European history for college students, it is characterized by fullness and richness of material as well as by general accuracy and deep insight. The easy mastery, flowing style and complete impartiality should also gain for the book a public outside of college walls" New republic

Select bibliography: v 1 p812-40

Ogg, David, 1887-

Europe in the seventeenth century. 3d ed Macmillan 1938 575p maps (History of Europe, ed. by E. Lipson) $3.75 940.2

1 Europe—History—1492-1789 2 Seventeenth century (W) 39-11776

First edition published 1925, second edition 1931. "The changes in the third edition are extensive, and are intended to do justice to an interpretation of the subject which, while fundamentally the same as that of the first edition, may now be more balanced and mature. The Bibliography has been brought up to date." Author's preface to the third edition

Oman, Sir Charles William Chadwick, 1860-

Sixteenth century. Dutton 1937 247p $3 940.2

1 Europe—History—1492-1789 2 Sixteenth century 37-1801

"Outspoken, entertaining, yet philosophical treatise on various aspects of men and events of the sixteenth century." Book rev. digest

"In choosing to deal with the problems religious and political, the changing psychology, and the personalities of the sixteenth century in separate, successive chapters it may seem to the casual reader that Sir Charles has sacrificed the sense of continuity. But in this way each problem is discussed most thoroughly." Boston Transcript

Robinson, James Harvey, 1863-1936, and Beard, Charles Austin, 1874-

Development of modern Europe; an introduction to the study of current history. rev and enl ed Ginn 1929-30 2v illus maps v 1 $3.20, v2 $3.60 940.2

1 Europe—History (29-12141)

First edition 1907-08. This college textbook has been thoroly revised and enlarged by the addition of much new matter. It covers the period from about 1650 to 1929. A final chapter deals with the study of mankind in fiction. Contains suggestions for reading

"As solid and informing as it is interesting and clever." Amer. hist. rev.

Robinson, J. H. and Beard, C. A.—Cont.
J. H. Robinson and C. A. Beard have compiled "Readings in modern European history" (Ginn 1908-09 2v ea $2.75) to accompany their text on the subject and to illustrate some phases of European developments from the beginning of the eighteenth century

Schevill, Ferdinand, 1868-
* History of Europe, from the reformation to the present day. [new ed] Harcourt 1938 819p illus maps $5 940.2

1 Europe—History (W) 38-6892

First published 1925. The 1938 edition has been rewritten and simplified. New maps and illustrations have been added, and bibliographies revised. A larger page and new style of typography have made possible a more compact volume and a more readable type-page

"Stands midway between a college text . . . and high school texts. Mainly a narrative of political history." Guide to hist. lit.

Seebohm, Frederic, 1833-1912
Era of the Protestant revolution. Longmans 236p maps (Epochs of modern history) $1.25 940.2

1 Reformation 3-1565

First published in 1874

"Excellent little volume, dealing in quite masterly fashion with the twin movements (renaissance and reformation). . . . It is far from being a bare record of events. It brings out important tendencies, examines causes, and describes results." W. W. Davies's How to read history

Sichel, Edith Helen, 1862-1914
* The renaissance. Holt 1914 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25 940.2

1 Renaissance 14-17310

Contents: The Medici in Florence; Renaissance in Rome; Baldassare Castiglione and the women of the renaissance; Cynics and the swash-bucklers of the renaissance; Fruits of the renaissance; Renaissance of the northern races; Thinkers of the northern races; French renaissance; English renaissance; Books recommended

"By its happy characterization and the glimpses it gives of the great men and women of the period it contrives within its small compass to impart the spirit and inspiration of the renaissance." Pittsburgh

Smith, Preserved, 1880-
* Age of the reformation. Holt 1920 861p (American historical ser.) $5.75, student's ed $4.25 940.2

1 Reformation 21-203

"Readable and scholarly one-volume account . . . based upon wide reading and critical research, especially on Luther, with new and valuable chapters on later interpretations of the Reformation. Places the movement in its proper relation to the economic and intellectual revolutions of the sixteenth century. Sometimes there is a lack of appreciation of the reformers' ideals and better side, perhaps true especially in the chapters on Calvin, which contain errors of fact and inference." Guide to hist. lit.

Bibliography: p751-817

Wedgwood, Cicely Veronica, 1910-
Thirty years war. Yale univ. press 1939 544p illus maps $4.50 940.2

1 Europe—History—1492-1789 2 Germany—History—1517-1740 3 Habsburg, House of 4 Thirty years' war, 1618-1648 [39-15988]

"A scholarly and at the same time a readable account, in the compass of a single volume, of the most terrible struggle—at least so far as Central Europe is concerned—in modern history. Her diplomatic analyses are perhaps superior to her military, but the latter are sound and interesting. Her narrative is not always easy reading, but that is not to be expected of a serious effort to follow all the cross-currents of the war, and her writing is clear and decisive." Times (London) lit. sup.

Bibliography: p529-32

940.28 19th century. 1789-1914

Achorn, Erik
European civilization and politics since 1815. Harcourt 1934 xxiii,879p illus maps $5 940.28

1 Europe—Civilization 2 Europe—History—1789-1900 3 Europe—History—20th century 4 Europe—Politics—1789-1900 5 Europe—Politics—20th century 34-12981

A history of Europe since the fall of Napoleon, in which the author attempts to "reduce wars and reigns to their proper proportions and to include every aspect of man's cultural activities." The history of events since 1919 occupies about half of the volume. Bibliographies

"The short vigorous sentences, the onrush of which carries the reader from page to page of this work, are vivid with an eager interest in personalities and nations. From cover to cover, the book is virile with this energy of mind. . . . Over certain matters, as it seems to us, Dr. Achorn descends from his own high standard of impartiality. He may be as right as we are wrong. Our object is merely to indicate that a very fine book which carries us through the war and beyond it, necessarily includes verdicts on which opinion is divided." Current history

Artz, Frederick Binkerd
Reaction and revolution, 1814-1832. Harper 1934 317p illus map (Rise of modern Europe) $3.75 940.28

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 2 Europe—Politics—1789-1900 34-33840

"These two histories [this and Crane Brinton's Decade of Revolution, class 944.04] are parts only of a twenty-volume work entitled The Rise of Modern Europe. If the other volumes come anywhere near either of these two in profundity of scholarship and clarity of exposition no historian will be able to do without the complete series. The bibliographical notes at the end of each book are invaluable, and a remarkably interesting collection of contemporary reproductions are included. These histories are very highly recommended indeed, both to students and the general reader." New statesmen and Nation

Beard, Charles Austin, 1874- Robinson, James Harvey, 1863-1936, and Smith, Donnal Vore, 1901-

* History of civilization; our own age. Ginn 1937 850p illus maps $2.20 940.28

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 2 Europe—History—20th century

A new edition of Robinson and Beard's "History of Europe; our own times," entirely rewritten, brought up to date and set in larger type. Together with "History of civilization; earlier ages" by J. H. Robinson and others, entered in class 940, it constitutes a two-volume course in European history

Binkley, Robert Cedric, 1897-

Realism and nationalism, 1852-1871. Harper 1935 xx,337p illus maps (Rise of modern Europe) $3.75 940.28

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 36-11

"In pattern, in organic structure, in analytical character, this is an almost wholly admirable piece of work, but what will, I think, impress itself most forcibly on readers of the volume is the multiplicity of fresh views that it contains." American review

Illustrated with portraits and contemporary prints. Bibliographical essay

Bruun, Geoffrey, 1898-

Europe and the French imperium, 1799-1814. Harper 1938 380p illus maps (Rise of modern Europe) $3.75, text ed $2.90 940.28

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 2 France—History—Consulate and empire, 1799-1815 3 Napoleon I, emperor of the French, 1769-1821 (W) 38-12852

"Mr. Bruun by no means neglects the necessary task of summarizing Napoleon's better known achievements. . . But you will also learn how Napoleon perfected the governmental machinery . . . you will learn about the economic realities, the class conflicts which underlay and made possible his institutions; you will find the Code, the Concordat, the University, the budget . . . the new nobility, the currents of European intellectual life, the rise of nationalism, all not merely catalogued in textbook fashion, but analyzed and described." Sat. rev. of lit.

Croce, Benedetto, 1866-

History of Europe in the nineteenth century; tr. from the Italian by Henry Furst. Allen, G. 1934 375p 10s 6d 940.28

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 [33-33666]

Formerly carried also by Harcourt

"This is not the ordinary chronicle of events, but rather a philosophical interpretation. The author, distinguished Italian liberal and philosopher, considers the underlying ideas and faiths which motivated men's lives and made history during the period between Napoleon's downfall and the end of the World war. For those interested in history as a record of human struggles and aspirations. Not easy reading, but worth while." N.Y. libraries

Gooch, George Peabody, 1873-

* History of modern Europe, 1878-1919. Holt 1923 728p $5, student's ed $3.75 940.28

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 2 Europe—History—20th century 23-17855

"Students and publicists will be grateful for this straightforward narrative based on the voluminous material released since 1918." Amer. hist. rev.

C. A. Fyffe's "History of modern Europe, 1792-1878" (Cassell 1896 2v 15s) precedes Gooch's history. It is interestingly written from a narrative and descriptive viewpoint but needs thorough revision

Grant, Arthur James, 1862- and Temperley, Harold William Vazeille, 1879-1939

Europe in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries (1789-1939); with a supplementary section dealing with the year 1938-1939 by L. M. Penson. Longmans 1939 xxiii,700p maps $4 940.28

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 2 Europe—History—20th century [39-24585]

First edition "Europe in the nineteenth century (1789-1914)" published 1927. In 1932 new chapters on post-war Europe were added; the latest edition brings the narrative up to the war of 1939

"This admirable text book has now been familiar to students for more than a decade. . . It is no longer necessary to praise the merits of the book as a whole. It need only be said that Professors Grant and Temperley have come through the ordeal of writing contemporary history with the same distinction which they displayed in their handling of the pre-War period." Times (London) lit. sup.

Hazen, Charles Downer, 1868-

Europe since 1815. . rev and enl ed Holt 1924 2v maps (American historical ser.) $5, text ed $4 940.28

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 2 Europe—History—20th century 24-10440

A general survey of European history from 1815 to 1923. The 1923 edition reproduces an earlier one (1910) substantially intact, with some alterations and additions. For the history of the years 1910 to 1919 the author has used material contained in his "Modern Europe"; the chronicle of events from the middle of 1919 to midsummer of 1923 is entirely new and constitutes more than a fourth of the work. Condensed from Preface to new edition

"That he makes what ought to be hard reading a genuine pleasure, is an accomplishment that should bring him much gratitude and many readers. Here through a thousand crowded pages, history and literature go hand in hand." Boston Transcript

Bibliography: v2, p1095-1168

Rose, John Holland, 1855-

Revolutionary and Napoleonic era, 1789-1815. 7th ed rev Macmillan 1935 390p illus maps (Cambridge historical ser.) $2.50 940.28

1 Europe—History, 1789-1900 2 France—History—Consulate and empire, 1799-1815 3 France—History—Revolution 35-16743

First published 1894 and often revised and reprinted. For the seventh edition some slight changes haev been made in the text, an appendix of ten pages and some notes for further reading have been added. A standard treatment of the subject

Schapiro, Jacob Salwyn, 1878-

‡ Modern and contemporary European history (1815-1940) under the editorship of J. T. Shotwell. new ed Houghton 1940 903, xxiv p illus maps $3.75 940.28

1 Europe—Civilization 2 Europe—History—1789-1900 3 Europe—History—20th century 40-7061

Frequently enlarged to bring material up to date

Schapiro, Jacob S.—Continued
"Admirably suited for the general reader, who wishes an elementary knowledge of European affairs of the last century. It is an excellent introduction for the student." Boston Transcript

Slosson, Preston William, 1892-
Europe since 1870; with a foreword by J. T. Shotwell. Houghton 1935 810p illus maps $4.25 940.28

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 2 Europe—History—20th century 35-7239

"A political and diplomatic history of Europe from the Franco-Prussian war to the present. To some extent the book is the outgrowth of the author's own experience in teaching European history in university classes. Maps. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"There is very little to take exception to in the book, which may be recommended as a comprehensive, clear and impartial survey of this complicated period." Times (London) lit. sup.

940.3 EUROPEAN WAR

General history

John Buchan's "History of the Great war" (Houghton 1922 4v illus maps $20) will be found useful when something more than the brief one volume histories is wanted. It embraces all phases of the War but treats England's part with especial fullness. Contains many good maps

Chambers, Frank Pentland, 1900-
* War behind the war, 1914-1918; a history of the political and civilian fronts. Harcourt 1939 620p maps $3.75 940.3

1 European war, 1914-1918 (W) 39-22572

"A history of political affairs and of social and economic conditions [during the European war] in the belligerent countries. . . [It is] concerned with the fortunes of the civil population; with war-time forms of government and state control; with labour, industry and agriculture; with man-power, raw materials and food supplies . . . with public opinion, war aims and morale." Preface

"His book combines lucid method with a rich deposit of factual material. It is, therefore, a valuable addition to the student's library on contemporary history." Commonweal

Bibliography: p568-86

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer, 1874-
World crisis. [one volume ed] Scribner 1931 866p illus maps $5 940.3

1 European war, 1914-1918 2 European war, 1914-1918—Great Britain 31-26572

First published in 4 volumes 1923-1927. The four volume set is still obtainable from Scribner (v 1-2 ea $6.50, v3-4 set $10) A fifth volume entitled "Aftermath" covering the years 1918-1929 (Scribner 1929 502p maps $5) is not contained in the one volume edition

Contains the main part of the author's four volume history of the war "The World crisis." The author has "recast the whole account so as to present a compendious form. . . The key documents are reprinted in their integrity. He has however pruned a mass of technical detail and some personal justifications which do not seem . . . so important now as they did ten years ago." Preface

Clemenceau, Georges Eugène Benjamin, 1841-1929
Grandeur and misery of victory [tr. by F. M. Atkinson] Harcourt 1930 432p illus o.p. 1939 940.3

1 European war, 1914-1918 2 Foch, Ferdinand, 1851-1929 3 Versailles, Treaty of, June 28, 1919 30-10802

"In which Clemenceau answers some of the charges levelled against him by Foch, using letters and documents to prove his case. His comment on Foch is of interest, and he throws light on events of the war and of the treaty negotiations." Providence

"The Clemenceau of 1918, the Clemenceau of 1870, live again in these tense, fiery pages. Beyond Foch, he attacks Poincaré, Caillaux, Briand, Germany, England, America: Clemenceau contra mundum. It is war, but it is magnificent." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Cruttwell, Charles Robert Mowbray Fraser, 1887-
* History of the Great war, 1914-1918. Oxford 1934 649p illus maps $5.50 940.3

1 European war, 1914-1918 35-160

"Mr. Cruttwell has performed a remarkable feat in compressing so much fact and so much intelligent commentary on the history of the war into a single volume of six hundred pages. Though his criticisms are necessarily a little abrupt and plain-spoken, he is notably fair on the whole. . . Mr. Cruttwell tells us nothing at all about the campaigns in East, West, and South-West Africa, nor about the Irish rebellion, or the Archangel 'sideshow.' But every one-volume history of this world-wide conflict must be open to such criticisms. This author has, at any rate, given us a clear and unprejudiced picture of the war (in which he personally played a gallant part) in a volume of handy and popular size and written in popular style." New Statesman and Nation

Gibbs, Sir Philip Hamilton, 1877-
Now it can be told. Harper 1920 558p front o.p. 1939 940.3

1 European war, 1914-1918 2 European war, 1914-1918—Great Britain 20-5994

Obtainable in England under title: Realities of war (Hutchinson 2s)

"The purpose of this book is to get deeper into the truth of this war and of all war—not by a more detailed narrative of events, but rather as the truth was revealed to the minds of men, in many aspects, out of their experience; and by a plain statement of realities, however painful, to add something to the world's knowledge out of which men of good-will may try to shape some new system of relationship between one people and another, some new code of international morality." Preface

"He has a keen eye for the telling detail that impresses a picture indelibly on the mind, and his quick sympathy with all who suffer helps him to keep the human side of the great tragedy foremost in our thoughts. His style is sufficient without being distinguished." Spectator

Hayes, Carlton Joseph Huntley, 1882-
‡ Brief history of the Great war. Macmillan 1920 461p maps $3 940.3

1 European war, 1914-1918 20-8603

"After giving in due order the various events and phases of the war the last chapter—A new era begins—is devoted to the settlement, the losses and the landmarks of the new era. The three appendices contain: The covenant of the League of the nations; American reservations to the treaty of Versailles; and Proposed agreement between the United States and France. The book contains a select bibliography, an index, ten maps in color and numerous sketch maps." Book rev. digest

Hayes, Carlton J. H.—Continued

An excellent single-volume history of the Great war. "It is one of the very few which deserve serious consideration by professional students of history. It is written with a high degree of scientific responsibility, and not for mere purposes of journalism or propaganda." Amer. hist. rev.

Lloyd George, David, 1863-
War memoirs of David Lloyd George, 1911-1918. Little 1933-37 6v illus maps ea $3 940.3

1 European war, 1914-1918 (33-28754)

Lloyd George remained continuously in the British cabinet thruout the War, as Chancellor of the Exchequer, Minister of Munitions, Secretary of State for War and Prime Minister

"Obviously Mr. Lloyd George is giving his own version of events, advancing his personal view of what is often dubious and controversial, and seeing himself as hero, saint, and martyr where critics have seen him as villain of the piece. Just as obviously he has intact his angers, prejudices, personal enmities and—more rarely—his enthusiasms. . . It is these qualities and these defects which make this in all the maze of war books the liveliest and most informative." Saturday rev.

940.31 Causes. Propaganda. Public opinion

Also recommended for libraries needing more detailed treatment than is given in books entered in this class, is:
Schmitt, B. E. Coming of the war, 1914. Scribner 1930 2v $10

Barnes, Harry Elmer, 1889-
Genesis of the world war; an introduction to the problem of war guilt. new and rev ed Knopf xxvii,754p front $1.90 940.31

1 European war, 1914-1918—Causes 40-268

First published 1926. For the revised editions of 1927 and 1929 minor revisions and corrections were made

"Professor Barnes sets himself out to prove that of all the Great Powers engaged in the war Germany was in fact the least to blame. The main guilt—almost the sole guilt—he attributes to France and Russia as nations, and to M. Poincaré in France and Sazanov in Russia as the men chiefly implicated." Sat. rev. of lit.

Contains many references; Literature of war guilt: p713-39

Dickinson, Goldsworthy Lowes, 1862-1932
International anarchy, 1904-1914. Appleton-Century 1926 505p $3.50 940.31

1 Europe—Politics—20th century 2 European war, 1914-1918—Causes 3 World politics 26-11142

"The author's thesis is that whenever and wherever the anarchy of armed states exists war becomes inevitable and that 'modern war, with all the resources of science at its disposal, has become incompatible with the continuance of civilization.' He analyzes the causes and motives of war and in particular the series of events and general situation which led up to the Great war. [Bibliography]" Book rev. digest

"His scholarly and laborious narrative . . . well deserves careful study. He has a full command of the very extensive literature on the subject." Times (London) lit. sup.

Fay, Sidney Bradshaw, 1876-
‡ Origins of the World war. 2d ed rev Macmillan 1930 2v in 1 illus maps $4 940.31

1 Europe—Politics—20th century 2 European war, 1914-1918—Causes 30-30528

Published in 1928 in two volumes and now issued in a cheaper one volume edition. The revision of the text, made necessary by the publication of hitherto unpublished documents, consists of rewritten passages, new bibliographical footnotes and supplementary notes at the end of the first volume

"In general the most authoritative work upon the origin of the World War. It is based upon an unrivaled knowledge of the diplomatic correspondence and the personal narratives of leading diplomatists, in method and in spirit it conforms closely to the highest standards of historical investigation and exposition. The style is direct, clear, and interesting." Guide to hist. lit.

Gooch, George Peabody, 1873-
Recent revelations of European diplomacy. . . Longmans 1930 ccxi,218p $3 940.31

1 Europe—Politics—20th century 2 European war, 1914-1918—Causes [30-15273]

First published 1927. The 1930 edition contains a supplementary chapter on the revelations of 1928-29

"Valuable survey of the diplomatic revelations published from 1914 onwards. . . He devotes special attention to those produced in Germany and Austria, France and Italy, as well as Great Britain and America, but he does not overlook Belgium and the Balkans. His method is to describe the contents of a book briefly, to single out any statements of special interest and to give his own opinion." Spectator

Wolff, Theodor, 1868-
Eve of 1914; tr. from the German for the first time by E. W. Dickes. Knopf 1936 655p $4.50 940.31

1 Europe—Politics—20th century 2 European war, 1914-1918—Causes 3 Germany—Foreign relations 36-6641

"For many years editor of the liberal German newspaper, the Berliner Tageblatt, Herr Wolff . . . writes this account of the forces which inexorably brought the Europe he knew to the threshhold of World war. In endeavoring to place the blame of the War, his wide knowledge of contemporary persons and events and his sound political judgment have stood him in good stead. His study of the period 1909 to 1914 is thoro and well-documented, with valuable personal touches." Book rev. digest

"Wonderfully readable, despite its length—and for this a good deal of credit goes to the translator,—witty, penetrating, and tolerant even of the worst, it strikes at the heart of the Old World's problem of power and of the failure to solve it—a footnote to history which helps to make history intelligible." Manchester guardian

940.314 Results. Peace. Reparations

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Dawes, C. G. Journal of reparations; forewords by Lord Stamp [and] H. Brüning. . . Macmillan 1939 xxxv,527p illus $5 A day-by-day account of the activities of the Reparation commission and the Committee of experts, with references to the author's personal experiences during that time

Nicolson, H. G. Peacemaking, 1919. Harcourt 1939 378p illus $2.50 Volume 2 of the Studies in modern diplomacy

Baker, Ray Stannard, 1870-

Woodrow Wilson and world settlement... Doubleday, Page 1922 3v illus maps o.p. 1939 940.314

-911 6 W 1 Paris. Peace conference, 1919 2 Wilson, Woodrow, president U.S. 1856-1924 22-23112

"Authoritative account, based upon Mr Wilson's papers, of the Versailles conference. A defense of his policies and action, it is by no means a panegyric. A third volume gives the text of 69 important documents illustrating and enforcing the narrative. While most valuable historical material, this volume is hardly needed by small libraries." N.Y. state lib.

House, Edward Mandell, 1858-1938, and Seymour, Charles, 1885-

(eds.) What really happened at Paris; the story of the Peace conference, 1918-1919, by American delegates. Scribner 1921 528p maps o.p. 1939 940.314

1 Paris. Peace conference, 1919 2 Versailles, Treaty of, June 28, 1919 21-8042

"Based on a series of speeches given in 1920 at the public forum in Philadelphia by eighteen American delegates—legal, territorial, economic advisors, etc., each discussing the problem in which he was interested. Though the method prevents it from being exhaustive, the book is very readable . . . Includes stenographic reports of the discussions." N.Y. state lib.

Lansing, Robert, 1864-1928

Peace negotiations, a personal narrative. Houghton 1921 328p illus $3 940.314

1 League of nations 2 Paris. Peace conference, 1919 3 Wilson, Woodrow, president U.S. 1856-1924 21-26234

"This narrative is a record of the relations between President Wilson and the author in connection with the peace negotiations. The author shows that the divergence in judgment between himself and the President dated from the latter's decision to be present at the Peace conference, and continued throughout the proceedings on matters of great importance." Book rev. digest

"Mr Lansing's book is of deep interest. Mr Lansing's manner of writing, especially in his official memoranda, follows the best traditions of American legal literature." Spectator

Contains illustrations and facsimiles of documents

Lippmann, Walter, 1889-

Some notes on war and peace. Macmillan 1940 47p 50c 940.314

1 European war, 1914-1918—Peace 2 European war, 1939- —Peace 40-5625

"In the brief compass of about 5,000 words and with his usual clarity of style, Mr. Lippmann presents the not unfamiliar thesis that the Allies won the World War by economic organization and lost the peace because they did not extend that organization to include Germany. The moral for the present war and the next peace (if the Allies are in a position to play any important part in fixing its terms) is obvious." Christian century

Lloyd George, David, 1863-

* Memoirs of the Peace conference. Yale univ. press 1939 2v illus maps $10 940.314

1 European war, 1914-1918—Peace 2 Paris. Peace conference, 1919 39-4896

Published in England under title: Truth about the peace treaties

"A detailed account of the Peace conference and its immediate consequences, with very full quotations from its important documents, by one of the men most responsible for the framing of the Versailles treaty. The work is essentially a defense of the treaty and its originators. Though some of the author's opinions are controversial, it is important material and has great historical interest for the serious reader." Bkl.

Muir, Ramsay, 1872-

Political consequences of the Great war. Holt 1930 251p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 940.314

1 European war, 1914-1918—Influence and results 2 World politics [30-31906]

"A survey of the forces at work that produced the Great war, the settlements following the war, the progress of democracy since then, conditions in Europe and the non-European world, the progress of internationalism, and the changed position of Britain and the British Empire. Bibliography and index." Book rev. digest

Shotwell, James Thomson, 1874-

At the Paris peace conference. Macmillan 1937 444p illus $4 940.314

1 Paris. Peace conference, 1919 37-28431

A lengthy introduction entitled Retrospect, is followed by the author's diary, amplified by letters, kept during the Peace conference from December, 1918 to July, 1919

What Germany forgot. Macmillan 1940 152p $1.50 940.314

1 European war, 1914-1918—Economic aspects 2 European war, 1914-1918—Germany 3 Germany—History—Revolution, 1918- (W) 40-27183

"An analysis of the devastation of the financial and economic structure of Germany through involvement in the first World War. The title indicates that Germany forgot the costs of war, and blames instead the Versailles Treaty for all its ills." Kirkus

"It is not easy to overrate the great value of Professor Shotwell's book. He proves with the dispassionate argumentation of the historian and the scholarly comprehension of a sociologist that the war itself, Germany's war-time economy, its continuation in the Hindenburg program of heavy expenditure . . . rather than the treaty, produced that morass of despair." Nation

Wheeler-Bennett, John Wheeler, 1902-
Forgotten peace; Brest-Litovsk, March 1918. Morrow 1939 xx,478p illus map (Studies in modern history) $5 940.314

1 Brest-Litovsk, Treaty of, March 3, 1918 (Russia) 2 Russia—Politics and government (W) 39-3075

"The book covers the whole course of events around the treaty—the complete breakdown of the Russian armies; the appalling losses suffered by the pitiably equipped troops and their subsequent loss of morale, leading to the universal clamour for peace which rose throughout the Empire; the speedy fall of the well-meaning but ineffective Kerensky; the negotiations and the final victory of the German High Command, impatient of Trotsky's dilatory manoeuvres, over the far-sighted Kühlmann; the after-effects of the harsh peace terms; some of which are still felt in our day." Spectator

940.34 Individual European countries

Ludendorff, Erich von, 1865-1937
Ludendorff's own story, August 1914-November 1918. . . Harper 1919 2v illus maps o.p. 1939 940.34

1 European war, 1914-1918—Germany 20-4133

Formerly published in England under title: My war memories, 1914-1918

"The Great war from the siege of Liege to the signing of the armistice as viewed from the Grand headquarters of the German army." Subtitle

"General Ludendorff has written a very able and interesting book on the war. It is not a good military history, though the summary accounts of the earlier Russian campaigns are instructive. The numerous plans and diagrams by the author are valuable also in their way. But the book throws a flood of light on the hopes and fears of the great general staff, and on the relations between the German army leaders and the politicians in Berlin." Spectator

Mercier, Désiré Félicien François Joseph, cardinal, 1851-1926
Cardinal Mercier's own story; introduction by Fernand Mayence. . . Doran 1920 441p illus o.p. 1939 940.34

1 European war, 1914-1918—Belgium 2 European war, 1914-1918—Catholic church 20-5912

"Contains the correspondence between Cardinal Mercier and the German authorities through the entire war, together with addresses, speeches and pastorals. As enlightening a picture of the German official spirit as of the magnificent attitude of the cardinal." N.Y. state lib.

Salandra, Antonio, 1853-1931
Italy and the great war; from neutrality to intervention; with a foreword by Sir J. R. Rodd. Longmans 1932 382p front $7 940.34

1 European war, 1914-1918—Italy 2 Italy —Neutrality [33-736]

"The true story of Italy's intervention in the War on the side of the Allies is fully and clearly told in the late Signor Salandra's two books, 'Italian Neutrality' and 'Intervention,' which he published in 1928 and 1930, not long before his death. Miss Kendrick Pyne has done a real service to history by translating them into good English, while omitting unessential matters so as to bring them within the compass of a single handy volume." Spectator

940.37 United States

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following may also be found useful:

Baker, N. D. Why we went to war. Harper 1936 199p (Council on foreign relations. Publications) $1.50

940.9107 B16W

Leland, W. G. and Mereness, N. D. comps. Introduction to the American official sources for the economic and social history of the world war. Yale univ. press 1926 xlvii,532p $5.25

Palmer, Frederick. Newton D. Baker; America at war. Dodd 1931 2v o.p. 1939

Rockwell, P. A. American fighters in the Foreign legion, 1914-1918. Houghton 1930 375p illus $5

Clark, John Maurice, 1884-
Costs of the World war to the American people. Yale univ. press 1931 316p illus $3.50 940.37

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 31-28596

In this study the author has attempted to analyze the gains and losses which have accrued to the American people thru their participation in the war. Partial contents: Nature of war costs; The displacement of man-power; Effects of the war on the national dividend; Toll of death and disability; The war and agriculture; The war and the railroads; Shipping and shipbuilding; Northern migration of negroes

Harbord, James Guthrie, 1866-
American army in France, 1917-1919. Little 1936 632p illus maps $2.39 940.37

1 European war 1914-1918—U.S. 2 U.S. Army. A.E.F. 1917-1920 36-6451

"One of the best of the histories of the A.E.F. in France during the World War. Major General Harbord with varied experience in high commanding positions writes authoritatively of conferences and events of which he was a part. Especially illuminating are his shrewd comments on the lack of coordination of President Wilson with General Pershing, his keen characterizations of English and French generals and politicians and his dramatic reports of the relations between General Pershing, the allied governments and their military chieftains. 17 half-tones, 9 maps." N.Y. libraries

Lansing, Robert, 1864-1928
War memoirs. Bobbs 1935 383p front $3.50 940.37

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 2 U.S. —Foreign relations 3 U.S.—Neutrality 35-27317

A history of the foreign affairs of the United States from June, 1915, thru 1917. The author's death in 1928 prevented its continuation beyond that point. Certain portions of the manuscript not directly related to the World war have been omitted and the material has been rearranged so that sketches of Wilson, Balfour, Joffre, Bernstorff and Zwiedinek, and some pages on the social life of Washington follow the main text

"Mr. Lansing's narrative throws a flood of suggestive light upon the problem of American neutrality." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

McMaster, John Bach, 1852-1932

* United States in the World war. Appleton-Century 1918-1920 2v ea $3.50 940.37

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S.
[27-4401]

Volume 1 is "a convenient summary of the documentary and diplomatic history of the part played by the United States in the Great war. The story begins with Germany's declaration of war in 1914, and proceeds with an account of each successive phase of the conflict that had a bearing on the final decision of the United States to enter the war." Review of reviews

Volume 2, which covers 1918-20, "completes the history of the United States in the World War. . . Interestingly written and includes many details not treated in other books; specially good on war work at home, rather inadequate on the work of our army and navy abroad. Chapters on the peace treaty and its rejection. Sources are principally newspaper reports. Valuable for ready reference. Useful texts in appendix." N.Y. state lib.

March, Peyton Conway, 1864-

Nation at war. . . Doubleday 1932 407p illus o.p. 1939 940.37

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S.
32-25157

"In crisp, incisive style the Chief of Staff during the World War tells the story of the work done by him and his subordinates in order to keep the A.E.F. in the field. He contradicts many of the statements of General Pershing, whose book minimized this 'superb achievement' and criticized severely the conduct of affairs in Washington." Pittsburgh

Millis, Walter, 1899-

* Road to war; America, 1914-1917. Houghton 1935 466p illus $3, eagle ed $1.45 940.37

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 2 U.S.—Foreign relations
35-6576

"In an attempt to analyze the psychological forces back of our entry into the World war, the author has traced in detail the trends of thought in the United States during the three years immediately preceding our declaration of war. He studies as impartially as possible the motives of statesmen, the patterns of public opinion, the technique of propaganda, and the emotions of the populace which finally swept the country into war." Book rev. digest

"In style, in control and the sources, in balanced judgment and maturity of insight, this is a book of high significance, worthy of the great theme it unfolds." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Paxson, Frederic Logan, 1877-

American democracy and the World war . . . Houghton 1936-39 2v maps, tables ea $3.75 940.37

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 2 U.S.—Politics and government
(W) [v2] (36-21132)

Contents: v 1 Pre-war years, 1913-1917; v2 America at war, 1917-1918

Covers somewhat the same ground as Millis' "Road to war" entered above, but from the more restrained point of view of the historian

"With few comments and little interpretation, the author records in detail the history of America's 18 months at war, beginning with April 1917. Though military events are covered, the book is more concerned with activities at home, showing that a democracy can present a united defense against an enemy." Bkl.

"For its fairness, its accurate and imaginative reconstruction of this proud and bitter chapter of our history, this book is unsurpassed." Commonweal

Seymour, Charles, 1885-

American diplomacy during the World war. Johns Hopkins 1934 417p o.p. 1939 940.37

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 2 U.S.—Foreign relations—1898- 3 Wilson, Woodrow, president U.S. 1856-1924
34-11641

The Albert Shaw lectures on diplomatic history, 1933

"A series of lectures delivered at the Page School of International Relations by a leading American authority on the subject. Specifically, he discusses the question of how Wilson, determined at first to stay out of the war, was finally driven to the conclusion that the United States must take a hand. 'It was the German submarine warfare and nothing else that forced him to lead America into the war.' " Foreign affairs

"Dr. Seymour's carefully documented account of the progress of American diplomacy through a critical period is a valuable addition to war literature. We feel that he has gone to the heart of many a disputed matter. He has been fair enough to cite opinions at variance with his own." Boston Transcript

Bibliographical note: p401-08

Tansill, Charles Callan, 1890-

* America goes to war. Little 1938 731p $5 940.37

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 2 U.S.—Foreign relations 3 U.S.—Neutrality
(W) 38-8573

A study of the influences which caused America to enter the European war. Based upon the private papers of Bryan, House, Lansing and other officials who were in any way responsible for American foreign policy during the years 1914 to 1917, and upon German archives

"The Tansill book will not supplant Millis' historic 'Road to War,' if only for the reason that it is so much harder to read. But this new book will be a necessity in the library of every person commenting on war origins or American war policy. For documentary proof is the thing which most discussions of such subjects sadly lack. And Dr. Tansill has given the proof." Christian century

940.4 Military history. American expeditionary force

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following may also be found interesting and useful:

Gilbert, Vivian. Romance of the last crusade; with Allenby to Jerusalem; with preface by Owen Wister. Appleton-Century 1924 235p $2

Graves, W. S. America's Siberian adventure, 1918-1920. Smith, P. 1931 xxiii,363p illus map $3.50

Pétain, H. P. B. O. Verdun; authorized tr. by Margaret MacVeagh. Dial press 1930 235p illus maps $4

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer, 1874-
The unknown war; the eastern front. Scribner 1931 396p illus maps $5 940.4

1 European war, 1914-1918—Campaigns and battles 31-32920

Published in England under title: World crisis; the eastern front

"Follows the author's story of the war from the British standpoint, told in 'World crisis' [class 940.3] and 'Aftermath'. It is an absorbing account of the whole war upon the Eastern Front, from the crime at Sarajevo to Francis Joseph's death. Excellent illustrations and maps. [Bibliography]" Pittsburgh

Foch, Ferdinand, 1851-1929
Memoirs of Marshal Foch; tr. by T. B. Mott. Doubleday 1931 lxiii,517p illus maps o.p. 1939 940.4

1 European war, 1914-1918—Campaigns and battles 31-26575

"Although Foch's uniform restraint will disappoint the sensation-lover, this is certainly a book that every student of the War will wish to have on his shelves. Yet it is also a book which may give a misleading impression to any but a student well versed in the history of the War. Not by its criticisms, however, and rarely by any flagrant inaccuracy. The book, indeed, is a model of discretion, written throughout in an impersonal style. Its unobtrusiveness is carried so far that only a few persons are even mentioned by name." Spectator

Joffre, Joseph Jacques Césaire, 1852-1931
Personal memoirs of Joffre; tr. by T. B. Mott; appendices by S. J. Lowe. Harper 1932 2v o.p. 1939 940.4

1 European war, 1914-1918—Campaigns and battles 32-31336

"The day by day record of the French high command from 1914 to 1916, from the retreat to the Marne thru the battle of Verdun. The illustrations include 20 war maps." Book rev. digest

"It is no apologia, but a military record, written with the clarity and simplicity of style which was to be expected of the great French soldier; yet it seems unlikely that the reputation of the Maréchal will be either increased or diminished by its publication. . . . He is able, however, to fill a number of small gaps and to state with authority the why and the wherefore of the steps and processes by which certain decisions were reached." Times (London) lit. sup.

Lawrence, Thomas Edward, 1888-1935
* Seven pillars of wisdom; a triumph. Garden City pub. co. 672p illus maps $1.89 940.4

1 Arabia—Social life and customs 2 Arabs 3 Bedouins 4 European war, 1914-1918—Campaigns and battles 5 Wahhabis [35-19399]

Reprint of the edition published by Doubleday in 1935

"The first trade edition of the unabridged history of Lawrence's Arabian campaigns, privately printed in England in 1926. This is the work on which 'Revolt in the desert (entered below)' was based. The subject matter is heroic, the style elaborate, highly colored and quite without reticence; a rare mind records great ordeals and shocking scenes frankly. Beautifully illustrated with full-page reproductions of portrait drawings and paintings by English artists." Bkl.

T. E. Lawrence's "Revolt in the desert" (Doubleday 1927 355p illus maps o.p. 1939) is an abridgment of his "Seven pillars of wisdom"

Liddell Hart, Basil Henry, 1895-
* History of the World war, 1914-1918. Faber 1935 635p maps 8s 6d 940.4

1 European war, 1914-1918 2 European war, 1914-1918—Campaigns and battles 35-299

A revision and enlargement of the author's "Real war" published 1930. Much new evidence has made it necessary to expand the treatment of several phases of the struggle

"It is an authoritative work in every sense of the word, for the author brought to his task not merely a profound knowledge of military history, strategy and tactics but a personal experience of battle and staff work." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p594-620

Liddell Hart, Basil Henry, 1895-
Through the fog of war. Random house 1938 379p illus $2.50 940.4

1 European war, 1914-1918—Biography 2 European war, 1914-1918—Campaigns and battles (W) 38-28966

Contents: Personalities of the war; Personal views of the war; Historical views of the war—the campaign in France; Historical views of the war—the campaign in Gallipoli; Episodes

"This book is an exposure, but it is never bitter, sensational or overstated. It is admirably written and as objective as history can be. . . . Captain Liddell Hart concludes with a philosophic epilogue which should be read not only by students of war, but by everyone who values sincere thinking." New statesman and Nation

B. H. Liddell Hart's "War in outline, 1914-1918" (Modern lib. 1939 xx,285p maps 95c) is a more condensed treatment of the subject. Originally published 1936 by Random house

Masefield, John, 1878-
Gallipoli. . . Macmillan 1925 245p illus maps $3 940.4

1 European war, 1914-1918—Campaigns and battles 25-7919

First published in 1916. This reprint edition contains a new preface by the author and gives his source materials

"Able account of the Allied campaign at the Dardanelles which vindicates that tragic failure and pays reverent tribute to the suffering and heroism of a half-trained army under indescribable conditions. Maps and excellent illustrations from photographs." N. Y. state lib.

"The story has been told before, but never with such a concentration on the essentials, with so vivid a realization of the horrors and splendors of the struggle." Spectator

Pershing, John Joseph, 1860-
My experiences in the World war. . . Stokes 1931 2v illus maps $10 940.4

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. Army. A.E.F. 1917-1920 2 U.S. 31-10662

"General Pershing's 'Experiences' start with his appointment as commander of the American Expeditionary Force in May, 1917, and close with the celebration of the Armistice. The arrangement is strictly chronological. It consists of quotations from his wartime diary followed by amplified discussion written more than ten years later." Sat. rev. of lit.

"The story of his experiences is unique in our literature. It is told in simple, direct style by a soldier modest but unafraid. It is impersonal and temperate.

Pershing, John J.—Continued
It proclaims no official martyrs; and distributes few laurels, being limited by its title to the author's own experiences." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Contains bibliographical footnotes

Van Every, Dale, 1896-
The A. E. F. in battle; introduction by H. E. Ely. Appleton-Century 1928 385p illus maps o.p. 1939 940.4
1 European war, 1914-1918—Campaigns and battles 2 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 3 U.S. Army. A. E. F. 1917-1920
28-12176
"Every engagement in which organized American military units took part in France and Belgium is given a chapter. . . Mr. Van Every has an accomplishment to his credit in turning out a book that is both accurate and readable." N.Y. Times

940.44 Aerial operations

Driggs, Laurence La Tourette, 1876-
Heroes of aviation. new and rev ed. . . Little 1927 xxvi,346p illus $2.50 940.44
1 Aeronautics—Biography 2 European war, 1914-1918—Aerial operations
27-5832
"The first edition of this work appeared before the end of the war—before the American aviators had won their spurs. . . It is the purpose of this edition to bring the narration of the extraordinary exploits of the air fighters down to the close of the war." Preface
"The Lafayette Escadrille, the principal exploits of the French, English, Italian, Belgian and American aces, balloon observers and bombers are here described. Gives . . . lists of the aces, killed and living, of all the belligerent countries. Illustrated by photographs. Valuable for reference as well as reading." Wis. bul.

Hall, James Norman, 1887-
* High adventure; a narrative of air fighting in France. Houghton 1918 xxii,236p illus (Riverside lib.) $1 940.44
1 European war, 1914-1918—Aerial operations 2 European war, 1914-1918—Personal narratives 18-12607
"After two years with Kitchener's Mob, the author enlisted in the Franco-American flying corps and was assigned to the famous Lafayette Escadrille. The story of his training and life as an airman is written with charm, imagination and humor and his accounts of combats, hazards and escapes is high romance in more senses than one." Cleveland
Reprinted from the "Atlantic monthly"

940.45 Naval history

Alexander, Roy
* Cruise of the raider "Wolf." Yale univ. press 1939 xxiii,270p $2.75 940.45
1 European war, 1914-1918—Naval operations 2 Wolf (Steamship)
(W) 39-23670
0.915
"The 'Wolf' was a German tramp merchantman, converted during the Great war into a raider and mine layer. The tale of her exploits in 1917 is told by an Australian who was serving as wireless operator on a British liner in the Pacific when she was captured by the 'Wolf,' and spent the next nine months on board as prisoner." Book rev. digest
"The author has added to the literature of the great war a very thrilling and worth-while book." N.Y. Times

Campbell, Gordon, 1886-
My mystery ships; with a foreword by Sir Lewis Bayly. . . Hodder 1928 xx, 300p 5s 940.45
1 European war, 1914-1918—Naval operations—Submarine 29-4299
Formerly carried also by Doubleday, Doran
"This is the story of Admiral Campbell's battles of strategy and wits against German submarines, when he cruised about the British Isles and the coast of France in a tramp steamer, with concealed armaments, and lured submarines to destruction. Those who love the sea and love adventure will thrill to this narrative." Providence
Contains many illustrations by J. E. Broome

Frost, Holloway Halstead, 1889-1935
Battle of Jutland. U.S. naval inst. 1936 571p illus maps $4.50 940.45
1 Jutland, Battle of, 1916 36-9291
"Using all the available material from both sides, the author has given as complete and detailed an account as possible of every phase of the action. There are no less than sixty track charts, retracing as nearly as can be done the minute-by-minute movements not only of the main squadrons but of the hundreds of individual ships involved. . . Tells exactly what really happened . . . with all the vividness of a precise, technically factual narrative." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Bibliography: p543-54

Frothingham, Thomas Goddard, 1865-
Naval history of the World war. Harvard univ. press 1924-26 3v illus maps ea $3.75 940.45
1 European war, 1914-1918—Naval operations 24-14384
Contents: v 1 Offensive operations, 1914-1915; v2 Stress of sea power, 1915-1916; v3 United States in the war, 1917-1918
"The author has drawn freely on German, as well as on English, French and American sources, and has produced a well-balanced, simple and accurate story. The fact that it is at once comprehensive, sound and readable promises a long life for it." N.Y. Times

Jellicoe, John Rushworth Jellicoe, 1st viscount, 1859-1935
Crisis of the naval war. . . Cassell 1920 331p illus maps o.p. 1939 940.45
1 European war, 1914-1918—Naval operations—Submarine 2 Great Britain—Navy 20-22471
Gives a first-hand account of the actions of the British admiralty and of the work of the fleet against the German submarine campaign of 1917. Author was first sea lord during that period, and though his book is at times technical it is valuable for its completeness and authority

Luckner, Felix, graf von, 1881-
* Count Luckner, the Sea Devil, by Lowell Thomas. . . Garden City pub. co. 308p illus map (Star ser.) $1 940.45
1 European war, 1914-1918—Naval operations 2 Germany—Navy 27-20598
Reprint of a book originally published by Doubleday in 1927
"Through Mr. Thomas, the German sea raider tells the story of his exploits during the World War. In the 'Seeadler,' an American full-rigged sailing ship, converted into an innocent looking man-of-war by means of trap-doors, false deck-

Luckner, Felix graf von—Continued
houses, hollow spars, etc., the jovial commander roved the South Atlantic and the Pacific, and without a single casualty sank millions of dollars worth of allied shipping." Pittsburgh

Thomas, Lowell Jackson, 1892-
Raiders of the deep. Sun dial 363p illus 89c 940.45

1 European war, 1914-1918—Naval operations—Submarine [28-25937]

Reprint of a book published 1928 by Doubleday

"It is amazing to find so much variety in these accounts of German submarine warfare, as related by the various U-boat commanders in the World war. The question of ethics is usually left out of the picture, the emphasis being laid upon the thrill and terror, the tactics and the peril of war waged under the sea. Photographs. Index." N.Y. libraries

Thompson, Terry Brewster, 1891-
Take her down; a submarine portrait. Sheridan 1937 317p illus $2.50 940.45

1 European war, 1914-1918—Naval operations—Submarine 2 L-9 (Submarine) 38-27067

"Account of the American submarine L-9 during the World war, describing the first unsuccessful attempt to cross the Atlantic, the return to Boston badly battered by storms and the adventures of submarine and crew when they finally reached the Irish sea and started their career of U-boat chasing." Book rev. digest

"Told with a verve and a blunt humor that is characteristic of men who literally go down to the sea in ships." Boston Transcript

940.47 Welfare work

Cushing, Harvey Williams, 1869-1939
From a surgeon's journal, 1915-1918. . . Little 1936 xxi,534p illus maps $5 940.47

1 European war,1914-1918—Medical and sanitary affairs 2 European war, 1914-1918—Personal narratives 36-9836

"An eminent brain specialist . . . publishes his war diaries and letters. Often he operated for sixteen hours at a stretch; he records the flashes of comedy, the acts of heroism, the terrors of night-bombing, with the sensitive, observant eye of a scientist." Cincinnati

940.48 Personal narratives. Propaganda

Three additional narratives of the war are:

Millard, Mrs Shirley. I saw them die; diary and recollections; ed. by Adele Comandini. Harcourt 1936 115p o.p. 1939

Snowden, Nicholas. Memoirs of a spy; adventures along the eastern fronts. Scribner 1933 330p front $2.75

Yardley, H. O. American black chamber. Bobbs 1931 375p illus o.p. 1939 Story of the Secret service

Aldrich, Mildred, 1853-1928
A hilltop on the Marne; being letters written June 3-September 8, 1914. Houghton 1915 187p front $2 940.48

940.918
A36

1 European war, 1914-1918—Personal narratives 2 Marne, Battle of the, 1914 15-21600

"Letters to American friends of a Boston woman who after long years in Paris retired for peace and quiet to a country house in the Marne Valley and within two months viewed from her own lawn the battle of the Marne. Few books of war experiences have the unique interest and charm of these intimate, graphic, day-to-day descriptions of a cultured and courageous woman. Published in the 'Atlantic Monthly.' " Wis. bul.

Allen, Hervey, 1889-
Toward a flame; a war diary, illus. by Lyle Justis. Grosset 282p $1 940.48

940.918
A42

1 European war, 1914-1918—Personal narratives 34-4704

Reprint of a book published 1926 by Doran, and by Farrar, with a new preface, in 1932

"Intimate details of life at the front, specifically Chateau Thierry and Fismes. 'It shows how we lived and died, ate, cooked, looked, thought and felt during that time,' says the author, who selects his incidents with dramatic insight." Cleveland

Beith, John Hay, 1876-
First hundred thousand, being the unofficial chonicle of a unit of "K (1)" by Ian Hay [pscud.] Houghton 342p (Riverside lib.) $1 940.48

1 European war, 1914-1918—Personal narratives 18-13027

Reprint of a book first published 1916

"These light-hearted, humorously toned and yet realistic articles, written from day to day under all sorts of conditions and published from month to month in 'Blackwood's Magazine,' have a place of their own for readers whose sympathies are with the English. Through them the raw recruit can be observed as he is drilled into shape for a crack Scottish regiment, and later as he adjusts himself to life in the French trenches and stands up, or falls, under shell fire." Wis. bul.

Boleslavski, Richard, 1889-1937, and Woodward, Mrs Helen
Way of the Lancer. Garden City pub. co. 316p (Star ser.) $1 940.48

1 European war 1914-1918—Personal narratives 2 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- [32-26224]

Reprint of a book published 1932 by Bobbs

"For a few years in [the author's] life he was a lieutenant in the Polish Lancers, who were allies of the Russians fighting the Germans and the Austrians. 'Way of the Lancer' is the story of the last days of the fighting with the Russians, and of the rise of the Red army who became their enemies as they had previously been their allies." Chicago Daily Tribune

"What the average reader, and for the matter of that, what the historian will get from 'Way of the Lancer,' in addition to an uncommonly interesting and manysided story, is a really sound general notion of what that comparatively unknown war in the East was like, in those last terrible months when Russia was hurtling downhill into revolution and the chaos that immediately followed it." Sat. rev. of lit.

Landau, Henry, 1892-

* All's fair; the story of the British secret service behind the German lines. Putnam 1934 329p illus maps $3 940.48

1 European war, 1914-1918—Secret service 2 Secret service 3 Spies 34-28605

"Captain Landau has written one of the most satisfactory of the so-called 'spy-books' I have seen. In reality, it is not spy-book at all but rather a volume devoted to the description of the fashion in which during the war British Military Intelligence operated from Holland to collect information behind the German lines in Belgium." Sat. rev. of lit.

"It is an excellent book, both as a historical record and as a life of adventure." Boston Transcript

Henry Landau's "Secrets of the White Lady" (Putnam 1935 314p illus map $3) contains equally exciting stories of the allied secret service organization

Lasswell, Harold Dwight, 1902-

Propaganda technique in the World war. Smith, P. 233p $3.50 940.48

1 European war, 1914-1918—Propaganda 38-29061

Reprint of a book published 1927 by Knopf

"An impartial, well-written review of the 'propaganda front' in the world war, both in the United States and in allied and enemy countries. A conclusive demonstration that modern warfare involves a 'propaganda front,' as well as a 'military front' and an 'economic front.'" Wis. bul.

Note on bibliography: p223-29

McKenna, Mrs Marthe (Cnockaert) 1892-

Spies I knew. McBride 1934 xx,266p o.p. 1939 940.48

1 European war, 1914-1918—Secret service 2 Spies 34-12157

"A thrilling story of Belgium's heroic secret service agents. Among them are Alphonse, the perfect spy, whose life ambition was to become a monk; Stephan, the Pole, and his tragic love story; Brut Verhagen, the scholar, and Canteen Ma, a rosy peasant woman with the germ of genius in her ability to inspire loyalty in her helpers and to carry through far-flung schemes." Cincinnati

Mrs M. C. McKenna's earlier book "I was a spy" (McBride 1933 288p illus o.p. 1939) is a story of the personal experiences of this Belgian girl who worked as a nurse in a German field hospital and also served in the British intelligence service

Mock, James Robert, and Larson, Cedric

Words that won the war; the story of the Committee on public information, 1917-1919. Princeton univ. press 1939 372p illus maps $3.75 940.48

1 Creel, George, 1876- 2 European war, 1914-1918—Public opinion 3 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 4 Propaganda, American 5 U.S. Committee on public information 39-27871

"An account of the work of a wartime committee which, under the direction of George Creel, organized the official propaganda, established censorship, won the people's support for government activities, and maintained public morale. Based on source material in the National archives, it is not only informative about past achievements in propaganda, but also suggestive of possible future uses. Large type." Bkl.

Bibliography included in notes: p347-56

Peterson, Horace Cornelius, 1902-

Propaganda for war; the campaign against American neutrality, 1914-1917. Univ. of Okla. press 1939 357p illus $3 940.48

1 European war, 1914-1918—Propaganda 2 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 3 Propaganda, British 4 U.S.—Neutrality (W) 39-11769

"It seems more than desirable that Americans candidly reconsider the origins of their thinking about the recent World War and that in the light of this re-evaluation they develop a cooler approach to disturbing events and individuals in other parts of the world. . . The attempt has been made in the following pages to trace the development of British influences in the United States in the years of neutrality. . . In addition consideration is given to the various economic influences—influences which were propaganda of the highest order. Finally the results of the propaganda are considered." Preface

"The student of that period will find it useful as a compilation of facts, with occasional snatches of good writing and some penetrating interpretations." Springfield Republican

Bibliography: p343-52

Ponsonby, Arthur Ponsonby, baron, 1871-

Falsehood in war-time; containing an assortment of lies circulated throughout the nation during the great war. Dutton 1928 192p $1.25 940.48

1 European war, 1914-1918—Propaganda 29-1251

"Mr. Ponsonby, a British member of Parliament, exposes some of the official and unofficial distortions of fact and fabrications of incidents circulated as war propaganda. Although examples from all the governments are included, most of them are of English origin." Pittsburgh

940.49 Illustrative material

Bairnsfather, Bruce, 1887-

Fragments from France. Putnam 1917 [157]p illus o.p. 1939 940.49

1 European war, 1914-1918—Humor, caricatures, etc. 18-387

Cartoons on trench life in which "the Great war [is] reduced to grim and gruesome absurdity. It is not the fun poked by a mere looker-on, it is the fun felt in the war by one who has been through it." Foreword

Bruce Bairnsfather's "More fragments from France" (Putnam 1920 [144]p illus o.p. 1939) and "Carry on, sergeant!" (Bobbs 1927 163p illus o.p. 1939) are other collections of the work of this cartoonist showing "Old Bill" and explaining how he came into existence

Raemaekers, Louis, 1869-

Cartoon history of the war; comp. by J. M. Allison. Appleton-Century 1918-1919 3v o.p. 1939 940.49

1 European war, 1914-1918—Humor, caricatures, etc. 18-26322

A splendid collection of the eminent Dutch cartoonist's war pictures. The volumes cover the first, second and third years of the war, respectively. There are about one hundred cartoons to a volume, each of which is accompanied by a page of explanatory text

Stallings, Laurence, 1894-
(ed.) First world war; a photographic history. Simon & Schuster 1933 298p illus o.p. 1939 940.49

1 European war, 1914-1918—Pictorial works 33-19689

A collection of five hundred photographs arranged chronologically with no text except brief notes and introduction

"It is immensely effective by reason of its restraint, its contrasts, and its telling captions and quotations from contemporary newspapers." Nation

940.5 LATER 20TH CENTURY

W. C. Langsam's "Documents and readings in the history of Europe since 1918; with the assistance of J. M. Eagan" (Lippincott 1939 xxvii,865p $3.75) includes the text of treaties and laws and legal decisions, reports, editorials, and contrasting expressions of national policies. Notes are given for each selection

Angell, Sir Norman, 1874-
Peace with the dictators? Harper 1938 291p $3 940.5

1 Dictators 2 Europe—Politics—20th century 3 Great Britain—Foreign relations 4 Peace (W) 38-27635

A composite book made up of three sections: part one is a symposium consisting of arguments by a German, an Italian, an Englishman and an American in which each presents the case for his own country in the present international crisis, part two examines the pacifist position, and part three contains conclusions and summaries

Armstrong, Hamilton Fish, 1893-
* When there is no peace. Macmillan 1939 236p $1.75 940.5

1 Czechoslovak republic 2 Europe—Politics—1914- (W) 39-27016

"Part of this account of the great European crisis of 1938 has been published in 'Foreign Affairs.' I have here added more details than could find place in a magazine article, as well as some general observations. . . An appendix gives the text of the Czechoslovak Government's note of September 20 commenting on the Anglo-French plan." Foreword

"One of the most important contributions to general understanding of the contemporary diplomatic scene. Clear, balanced, restrained, but powerful in its cumulative effect." Sat. rev. of lit.

Benns, Frank Lee, 1889-
* Europe since 1914. 4th ed Crofts 1939 933 illus maps $5, school ed $3.75 940.5

1 Europe—History—1914 (W) 39-27019

First published 1930. In the fourth edition of this useful text "special attention has been given to the consummation of the 'Anschluss,' the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia, the steady advance of the Third Reich . . . the Spanish civil war and its repercussions in Europe, and Japan's sweeping invasion of China. In addition, however, the history and international relations of the various countries of Europe have in each case been brought down to date." Preface to fourth edition

"It bridges the gap between two World wars, and is crowded with information, yet clearly organized." Trinity college list

Bibliography: p843-908

European history since 1870. Crofts 1938 925p illus maps $6 940.5

1 Europe—History—1789-1900 2 Europe—History—20th century 38-4832

The author "has condensed his text Europe Since 1914 . . . and prefaced the account with the story of Western Europe since 1870. . . The purpose of the book is to present the history of Europe since 1870 so as to give the reader a clear insight into the economic, social, diplomatic, and political forces which led to the World War and an appreciation of the profound developments which have occurred since the war." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

"Two-thirds of the book deals with the World war and the contemporary scene. The volume is written in the author's usual clear style and with his usual accurate scholarship. It has a copious index and a judiciously selected bibliography." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

Birchall, Frederick T.
Storm breaks; a panorama of Europe and the forces that have wrecked its peace. Viking 1940 366p $3 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914- war, 1939- 2 European 40-5519

"The author, European correspondent for the New York Times from 1932 to 1939, writes of what he saw during those years of advancing war clouds." Book rev. digest

"It is solid, reliable first-person-singular journalism, and its strong anti-Hitler conclusions are given added impressiveness by Birchall's obvious liking for individual Germans." Christian century

Buell, Raymond Leslie, 1896-
(ed.) New governments in Europe; the trend toward dictatorship; by V. M. Dean, J. C. DeWilde, B. W. Diffie, C. A. Thomson, M. S. Wertheimer; with an introduction by R. L. Buell. rev and enl Nelson 1937 xxiv,520p (Foreign policy assn. Publication) $2 940.5

1 Dictators 2 Europe—Politics (W) 37-7518

"Since its establishment in 1925, the Research Department of the Foreign Policy Association has closely followed political developments in every part of the world. The results of its studies . . . have been presented in fortnightly publications, now called Foreign Policy Reports. The present volume is based largely on a collection of the reports devoted to the new governments of Europe, but revised so as to bring them up to date. [Earlier edition published 1934]." Preface

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer, 1874-
Step by step, 1936-1939. Putnam 1939 323p front $4 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914- 2 Great Britain—Defenses 3 Great Britain—Foreign relations 4 World politics (W) 39-27633

"During the last three years I have written a fortnightly letter mainly about Foreign Policy and Defense. . . [These letters] are at once a running commentary upon events as they happened or were about to happen, and a narrative of what we have lived through. I therefore thought it would be right to present them . . . as a faithful record." Preface

"In his writing Mr. Churchill shows his usual literary skill. Even independent of the content, his pungent and lucid style affords the reader much pleasure." Sat. rev. of lit.

Czernin von und zu Chudenitz, Ferdinand, graf, 1903-

Europe—going, going, gone! illus. to make things easier, by Walter Goetz. Greystone 1939 xx,324p illus $2.75 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914- 39-22770

"A sketchy book trying to give a rough explanation of Europe, its politics, and its state of mind, for the benefit mainly of Anglo-Saxons, politicians, and other folk with uncomplicated minds." Subtitle

"Masking great earnestness by flippancy, an exiled Austrian comments on European politics and tells, with some bitter satire, rather obvious truths about national characteristics, men, and events." Bkl.

Dean, Mrs Vera (Micheles)

* Europe in retreat. 2d ed rev Knopf 1939 xxi,291p $2.50 940.5

1 Europe—Politics 1914- 2 Germany—Foreign relations (W) 39-27636

The second edition, revised July 1939, contains two new chapters covering European political events that transpired after the publication of the first edition in February of the same year

"It is a lucid, completely fair presentation, admirably written and well indexed." Sat. rev. of lit.

Fodor, Marcel William, 1890-

* South of Hitler; a new and enlarged edition of Plot & counterplot in central Europe; introduction by John Gunther. Houghton 1939 347p illus $3.50 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914- (W) 39-2963

"Plot and counterplot" was published 1937. This edition published under a changed title contains 31 pages of new material covering more recent events

"A delightfully chatty, witty, and yet substantial book on problems of great significance." N.Y. Times

Gedye, George Eric Rowe, 1890-

* Betrayal in central Europe; Austria and Czechoslovakia: the fallen bastions. Harper 1939 499p $3.50 940.5

1 Austria—History 2 Chechoslovak Republic—History 3 Europe—Politics—1914- (W) 39-27129

Published in England under title: Fallen bastions

A "correspondent for the 'New York Times,' records the fall of Austria and Czechoslovakia with a . . . regard for both accurate detail and democratic principle. . . [He] devotes the larger part of his story to Austria, showing the gradual disintegration of national unity. . . The later chapters on Czechoslovakia are briefer and more episodic." Sat. rev. of lit.

Gunther, John, 1901-

‡ Inside Europe. Again completely revised. 1940 war ed Harper 1940 xxii,606p map $3.50 940.5

1 Europe—Kings and rulers 2 Europe—Politics—1914- 3 Statesmen (W) 40-27148

"Although labeled by the publishers a 'completely revised edition [of the 1938 publication] printed from new plates,' this revision is inadequate and disappointing. Eighteen pages on the events leading up to the Austrian Anschluss have been inserted, with separate paging, but this supplement is not in the index. An eighteen-page introduction covers the division of Czechoslovakia. A few footnotes have been added, but it is not apparent that the text has been otherwise amended." Bkl.

"His book is, as it were, a political guide round Europe; but unlike reference books (though it can usefully serve that purpose, too) it is vivid and extremely readable from beginning to end, full of anecdotes, picturesque touches, epigrammatic definitions, and moments of profound insight." New statesman and Nation

Hutton, Graham, 1904-

Survey after Munich. Little 1939 253p maps $2.50 940.5

1 Europe—Economic conditions 2 Europe—Politics—1914- 3 Germany—Foreign relations (W) 39-27193

Published in England under title: Danubian destiny

Survey of the post-Munich situation in Europe, in which the author stresses the economic problems, and altho he does not prophesy as to Germany's next move, he does provide material bearing on the situation

"Mr. Hutton's book is a cold dish of facts. There is no salad and no sauce. Unlike some of the books by foreign correspondents which tend to keep one reading far into the night. Mr. Hutton's volume can only be sampled at intervals. But there is nothing in it, perhaps with the exception of a short introductory historical survey, that the student of European affairs should miss." N.Y. Times

Kain, Ronald Stuart

Europe: Versailles to Warsaw. Wilson, H.W. 1939 456p (Reference shelf, v13, no.4) $1.25 940.5

1 Europe—History—1914- 2 Europe—Politics—1914— (W) 39-29416

"This volume attempts to provide background material for an understanding of the European war and of the positions and policies of all the European countries with respect to that portentous struggle. . . Emphasis is placed upon the post-war history of the turbulent old Continent and its virile peoples, upon the internal developments and external relations of each country that determine or influence its attitude toward the present conflict. [Bibliography]" Preface

Lockhart, Robert Hamilton Bruce, 1887-

Guns or butter. Little 1938 439p $3 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914- 2 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-27942

The author "writes of a new pilgrimage through Europe and of his reactions to and impressions of Scandinavia, Holland, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Bulgaria, Austria, Czechoslovakia and Germany." Huntting

"His book is interspersed with illuminating anecdotes, neat pen sketches, painstaking attempts to imprison in words the lineaments of changing Europe." N.Y. Times

Mann, Thomas, 1875-

This peace. Knopf 1938 38p 75c 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914- 2 Germany—Foreign relations (W) 38-28972

The peace of Munich discussed by the famous German author, who is not optimistic about its lasting qualities or the terms of settlement. Translated by H. T. Lowe-Porter

"It was written after the tragic sacrifice of Czechoslovakia . . . and the book is largely devoted to scorching denunciation of England or rather of the ruling class which determines England's policy." Book-of-the-month club news

Monroe, Elizabeth

* Mediterranean in politics. Oxford 1938 259p maps $2.50 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914— 2 Great Britain—Foreign relations 3 Mediterranean sea 4 Panislamism (W) [39-1659]

"A survey of the interests of European nations in the Mediterranean and its outlets, analyzing its importance for reasons of transport, commerce, or military strategy, and its consequent effect on national policies." Bkl.

"A volume which is as lively as good journalism and as varied and colourful as a travel book, and which is at the same time a contribution to the serious study of one of the most complicated problems in current international politics." Spectator

Orton, William Aylott, 1889-

Twenty years' armistice, 1918-1938. . . Farrar 1938 308p maps $2.50 940.5

1 Europe—History—1914- (W) 38-28981

"A survey of the events that have determined the course of world history from the Treaty of Versailles in 1918 to the present, and a timely study, in close focus, of the tremendous events of the past year in the significance of Spain, Austria and Czechoslovakia and of the Rome-Berlin axis." Baldwin

"A sagacious and well-phrased interpretation of the post-war period. . . [His] survey, concentrating on central and eastern Europe, should prove useful for both the general reader and the college classroom, if supplemented by source material." Sat. rev. of lit.

Reed, Douglas

Insanity fair; a European cavalcade. Random house 1938 420p $3 940.5

1 Europe—History—1914- 2 Europe—Politics—1914- 3 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 38-27449

Reminiscences of an English newspaper correspondent. He describes his boyhood, his years as a London clerk, the war years when he was wounded severely, his brief interlude as secretary to Lord Northcliffe, and his later years on the continent as correspondent for the London Times. The last few chapters contain a review of the recent events in Germany and Austria

"It is not impartial or impersonal, but the opinions are founded on facts seen and recorded, and although deeply felt are sane and wise." Boston Transcript

Schuman, Frederick Lewis, 1904-

Europe on the eve; the crises of diplomacy, 1933-1939. Knopf 1939 573p map $3.50 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914- (W) 39-27207

"A very detailed and systematic tracing of the political schemes and actions of Britain, France, Germany, and Italy from 1933 to the present day. Careful analyses are made of the succession of surrenders of the democracies to fascist aggression. . . A scathing indictment, not for popular consumption, but valuable for serious readers. Excellent documentation: notes and bibliography, p.523-57; official documents, p.559-73." Bkl.

Sheean, Vincent, 1899-

Not peace but a sword. Doubleday 1939 367p $2.75 940.5

1 Czechoslovak republic—History 2 Europe—Politics—1914- 3 Jewish question 4 Spain—History—Civil war, 1936-1939 (W) 39-27510

Published in England under title: Eleventh hour

Comments of an American journalist on historical events in Europe from March 1938 to March 1939. He endeavors to estimate the results of Fascist politics in world affairs

"Makes fascinating reading, and still contains many of the fine qualities of its predecessor. Sheean has a magnificent eye for detail, and if he has produced here no great characters, some of his incidental characters are superbly alive." New statesman and Nation

Thompson, Dorothy, 1894-

Let the record speak. Houghton 1939 408p $2.75 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914- 2 U.S.—Foreign relations (W) 39-27695

A collection of the author's comments on European affairs which appeared in the New York Herald Tribune from 1936 to 1939, also some of her broadcasts and speeches

"The final chapter is a speech on America, a deeply moving lyric. Another speech, a toast to Thomas Mann, is of the first water of literary craftsmanship. But that is not to say that her off-the-anvil journalism is not good writing. It has body and texture, clarity and feeling." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Wolfers, Arnold, 1892-

Britain and France between two wars; conflicting strategies of peace since Versailles. Harcourt 1940 467p map $3.75 940.5

1 Europe — Politics — 1914- 2 France — Foreign relations 3 Great Britain—Foreign relations 4 Peace 40-27501

"An analysis of the foreign policies of France and England during the past 20 years. It shows that these countries were frequently working at cross purposes and defeating each other, while Germany consolidated her power. Published under the auspices of the Yale institute of international studies." Bkl.

"One of the most valuable books available for anyone who wants to study the origins of the present war." Christian century

Bibliography: p417-51

Yeats-Brown, Francis Charles Claypon, 1886-

European jungle. Macrae Smith 1939 408p $3 940.5

1 Europe—Politics—1914- (W) 40-1146

Partial contents: Unholy Russia; Land of the Caesars; Hitler's Germany; Children of Israel; German protectorates; Balkans today; Arriba Espana; La belle France; John Bull and the foreigners

940.53 European war, 1939-

Cooper, Alfred Duff, 1890-

Second world war; first phase. Scribner 1939 346p $2.50 940.53

1 Europe — Politics — 1914- 2 European war, 1939- 3 Great Britain—Foreign relations 4 Great Britain—Politics and government—20th century (W) 39-34152

In this survey of Great Britain's relations with Germany and Europe from Munich to September 1, 1939, the author has reprinted his speeches and periodical articles together with connecting text explaining circumstances, intervening events, etc. The book opens with Mr Duff Cooper's speech of resignation as First Lord of the Admiralty

"Mr. Duff Cooper writes as the candid critic speaking with special knowledge of public life but a little aloof from it. . . there is good sense and cogency in his approach to critical problems." Spectator

De Wilde, John Charles, 1910- Popper, David Henry, 1912- and Clark, Eunice
Handbook of the war; pictorial charts by Irving Geis; maps by R. E. Falconer. Houghton 1939 248p illus maps $2, text ed $1.50 940.53

1 Europe — Defenses 2 European war, 1939- 3 Military geography
(W) 39-29444

Partial contents: What they are fighting for; Geography of land war; Armed men; Ships and strategy; Sea front; Economic front; Merchant shipping; Paying for the war; Propaganda; Defense of America

"In this concise, perhaps over-simplified book on the European war, the reader will find an answer to many questions about the military geography, strategy, and war resources of Europe, with maps and pictorial charts illustrating the basic problems. Large type." Bkl.

Fry, Varian
War atlas; a handbook of maps and facts; maps by Emil Herlin. Foreign policy 1940 96p illus maps (Headline bks.) pa 25c 940.53

1 European war, 1939- —Maps
(W) 40-8116

"Contains a number of maps in the form in which they originally appeared in the ['New York] Times,' and a much larger number which have been more or less extensively revised, partly to bring them up to date and partly to make a continuous and comprehensive series." Introduction

Horrabin, James Francis, 1884-
Atlas-history of the second great war. Knopf 1940 99p illus maps $1.50 940.53

1 European war, 1939- —Maps
(W) 40-27446

Mr Horrabin sets forth graphically the physical background of the War of 1939. By means of 51 maps and charts, with explanatory comment, he shows the condition not only of the belligerent nations but also of the principal neutrals. He sets forth the territorial limits and changes of these countries since 1914; their equipment in man-power and raw materials; the sources of their supplies; their industrial areas and principal lines of communication by both land and sea

"Both maps and diagrams are beautifully drawn, and though containing all the necessary information are remarkably clear and free from overcrowding. It is the sort of book which will appeal to all who like facts and figures presented graphically and particularly to those who have to teach them to the young." Economist

Swing, Raymond Gram, 1887-
How war came. Norton 1939 266p $2 940.53

1 European—Politics—1914- 2 European war, 1939- 39-27881

"A news analyst presents his interpretation—based upon his broadcasts—of events that led to the outbreak of hostilities. From the seizure of Czechoslovakia in March, to Danzig, and the crisis of 'the 14 days,' Mr. Swing traces the developments as they occurred and provides the background for each incident." Huntting

"'How War Came' is not, as the author freely admits, a history of the crisis period. Since it assumes a knowledge on the part of the broadcast audience of the most pertinent of current developments, it is not even a passing record of news. It serves, however, to present the reaction, here in America, to the flow of European happenings, as expressed by one of the most authoritative of network commentators." Springfield Republican

940.532 Diplomatic history

France. Ministère des affaires étrangères
French yellow book; diplomatic documents (1938-1939) Papers relative to the events and negotiations which preceded the opening of hostilities between Germany on the one hand, and Poland, Great Britain and France on the other. Reynal. 1940 xliv,419p $2.50 940.532

1 Europe — Politics — 1914- 2 European war, 1939- —Diplomatic history 40-7960

"The French documents cover more ground than the British, and provide a wealth of unpublished source material." N.Y. Times

Germany. Auswärtiges amt.
German white book; documents concerning the last phase of the German-Polish crisis. German lib. of information 1939 48p gratis 940.532

1 European war, 1939- —Diplomatic history 2 Germany — Foreign relations 3 Poland—Foreign relations 40-1350

A reprint of the original German white book. . . with a prefatory note disposing of certain widely-circulated allegations made in the British blue book

Great Britain. Foreign office
British war blue book . . . presented by the Secretary of state for foreign affairs to Parliament by command of His Majesty. . . Farrar 1939 xxxiv,251p (Miscellaneous, no.9 (1939)) $1.50 940.532

1 European war, 1939- —Diplomatic history 2 Germany — Foreign relations 3 Great Britain—Foreign relations 4 Poland—Foreign relations (W) 39-29448

"Documents concerning German-Polish relations and the outbreak of hostilities between Great Britain and Germany on September 3, 1939." Subtitle

"Published in the United States by permission of the Controller of His Britannic Majesty's Stationery office"

"An elaborate table of contents and brief summary of the documents enhance the value of this book as a reference work. . . The volume embraces almost every diplomatic item that is available at present." Sat. rev. of lit.

Henderson, Sir Nevile Meyrick, 1882-
Failure of a mission; Berlin 1937-1939. Putnam 1940 334p front $3 940.532

1 Europe — Politics — 1914- 2 European war, 1939- —Diplomatic history 3 European war, 1939- —Great Britain 4 Germany—Foreign relations 5 Germany—History—Revolution, 1918- 6 Great Britain—Foreign relations (W) 40-27393

"I have attempted in this volume, the main purpose of which is historical, to give the facts of the case [the origins of the war]. . . The sequence of events and the facts themselves are taken entirely from telegrams, dispatches, and letters written at the time, and are consequently, humanly speaking, strictly exact." Prologue

"For the general reader as well as the historian Sir Nevile's narrative holds interest for itself—not only in its shrewd additions to the portraiture of Hitler and his Nazi demi-gods, not only in its analysis of the processes and developments of Hitlerian policy, but in its picture (at times unconsciously illuminating) of Sir Nevile and of the policy which he was serving." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

940.534 Individual countries

Angell, Sir Norman, 1874-
For what do we fight? Harper 1939 327p $2.50 940.534

1 European war, 1939- —Causes 2 European war, 1939- —Great Britain (W) 40-27256

Partial contents: Primary condition of success; Foundation of Hitler's power; What is the best defence of allied purpose; For which right do we fight; The right for which the world would have us fight; What should be Britain's ideology; Russian episode and the future; What is British imperialism; Planning for the future; Conclusion: what we must do and why

"Sir Norman Angell's new book is, in effect, a summary of what he has been saying about war and the terms of peace for over two decades. At many points he directly quotes from books of his published as far back as 1918; and where he doesn't quote, he summarizes texts not entirely unfamiliar to his readers. Nevertheless, the impact of the book is impressive and it should be read by those who have attended to his words these many years, as well as by those who haven't." N.Y. Times

Maugham, William Somerset, 1874-
France at war. Doubleday 1940 111p $1 940.534

1 European war, 1939- —Economic aspects 2 European war, 1939- —France (W) 40-7961

"An expanded essay of the author's six week stay in Alsace Lorraine and Paris, a personal record of France at war from the inside. Life behind the lines, what the women are doing in the factories and in the field, life on the Maginot line, in the navy, these are the things he saw. Throughout Maugham emphasizes the dogged determination of the French to win this war and achieve security." Kirkus

941 SCOTLAND

The following books on Edinburgh may also be found useful:

Smeaton, W. H. O. Story of Edinburgh; illus. by Herber Railton and J. A. Symington. Dutton 1926 415p illus (Med. towns ser.) $1.75

Steuart, M. D. Romance of the Edinburgh streets. Dutton 1925 245p illus $3

Brown, Peter Hume, 1849-1918
History of Scotland. Macmillan 1900-09 3v illus maps (Cambridge historical ser.) ea $2.75 941

1 Scotland—History [4-17433]

"Comparatively brief account, not without defects, but the work of an able scholar. . . Since critical treatment of the earlier period has led to the rejection of much that was previously accepted as authentic, the earlier chapters now need revision. Concerned primarily with national movements; treats especially well religious and social history." Guide to hist. lit.

Bibliographies

Mackie, Robert Laird, 1885-
Short history of Scotland. Oxford 1929-30 2v in 1 illus $2, separately ea 85c 941

1 Scotland—History [31-31030]

An interesting brief history of Scotland intended primarily for schools but useful also as a general introduction for the mature reader. Volume 1, From the beginnings to the time of James IV; v2, From the Reformation to the present day

Rait, Sir Robert Sangster, 1874-1936, and Pryde, George Smith
Scotland; foreword by H. A. L. Fisher. Benn 1934 382p (Modern world) 21s 941

1 Scotland—History 35-3703

Formerly carried also by Scribner

"The forces which have gone to the shaping of the Scotland of today. After a rapid survey of the earlier period, the evolution of modern Scotland is discussed at length. Each aspect of life from the eighteenth century—political, constitutional, economical, social, religious and cultural—is considered in turn." Coventry. Public libraries

Sitwell, Sacheverell, 1897- and Bamford, Francis
Edinburgh. Houghton 1938 319p illus $4 941

1 Edinburgh—History 2 Scotland—History [38-20979]

"The book is a narrative of events in Scottish history that took place in Edinburgh up to 1800. The last chapter is mainly concerned with the architecture of the city, the painting of Raeburn, the place of Scotland in the romantic movement, and George IV's visit to the city in 1822." Book rev. digest

"Its plates are unusual and excellent, it is written with the distinction that the Athens of the North demands." Christian science monitor

Bibliography: p302-04

Thomson, George Malcolm, 1848-1933
Short history of Scotland, from the earliest times to the outbreak of the great war. . . Routledge 1930 318p illus maps 6s 941

1 Scotland—History [30-14406]

"To a very large extent [the author] discards the chronological and the merely dynastic to exhibit the advance of Scotland towards a full national consciousness. . . In a way this book does for Scotland what Green in his 'Short History' did for her partner in the Union." Spectator

Bibliography: p301-03

941.5 IRELAND

Julius Pokorny's "History of Ireland" (2d ed Longmans 1933 192p $3.40) is a sympathetic account of Irish history translated by Séana King from the German. Special interest is attached to the author's treatment of the origins of Celtic culture

Curtis, Edmund, 1881-
History of Ireland. . . Van Nostrand 1936 399p maps $4 941.5

1 Ireland—History [37-4062]

"Professor Curtis has made a valiant and timely effort to provide the public with a scholarly and readable account. . . A life-long study of the subject . . . and a general sympathy with Irish aspirations are admirable qualifications for the task." Times (London) lit. sup.

Bibliography: p391-92

Dunlop, Robert, 1861-
Ireland from the earliest times to the present day. Oxford 1922 224p (Histories of the nations) $2.50 941.5
1 Ireland—History 23-5489

A brief history intended for the reader with little time at his disposal

Green, Mrs Alice Sophia Amelia (Stopford) 1848-1929
Irish nationality. Holt 1930 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, students' ed $1 941.5
1 Ireland—History 2 Ireland—Politics and government 3 Irish question 30-11828

A good little book, first published 1911, which gives a brief account of the Irish people from the earliest time. The 1930 edition has been rewritten and reset thruout. The main account ends with 1900. An additional page gives an account of the establishment of home rule in 1922. The bibliography contains many new titles

Gwynn, Stephen Lucius, 1864-
Ireland; with an introduction by H. A. L. Fisher. Scribner 1925 252p (Modern world) $5 941.5
1 Ireland [24-32090]

"Touching upon the many phases of contemporary Irish life, the social groupings, education, religion, industry and labor, the political situation as well as upon the physical description of the country, this survey is informing, well balanced and without bias. The appendix is concerned with the constitution of the Irish Free State. Index." N.Y. state lib.

"It is distinguished by its impartiality no less than by its readableness. No better introduction to modern Ireland could be desired by the intelligent foreigner." Nation and Athenaeum

Student's history of Ireland. Macmillan 1925 322p $2.50 941.5
1 Ireland—History 26-10129

"The history begins with Pre-Christian Ireland and extends to the treaty with the British government of 1921 and the situation of Dublin and Belfast today." Boston

S. L. Gwynn's "History of Ireland" (Macmillan 1923 549p maps o.p. 1939) is a popular history based on the author's longer work

Joyce, Patrick Weston, 1827-1914
Short history of Gaelic Ireland from the earliest times to 1608. Longmans 1924 565p map $2 941.5
1 Ireland—History [26-4182]

First published under the title: Short history of Ireland
"A history, based on original sources, with special discussion of the manners, customs, and institutions of ancient Ireland. Five chapters are devoted to a popular exposition of the Brehon laws, the early code concerning Irish land tenure." Pittsburgh

P. W. Joyce's "Social history of ancient Ireland" (2d ed Longmans 1913 2v $12) is useful for reference. It is "an attempt to picture society in all its phases, as it existed in Ireland before the Anglo-Norman invasion"

942 ENGLAND

Bibliographies

Four important bibliographies are:

Davies, Godfrey, ed. Bibliography of British history, Stuart period, 1603-1714. . . Oxford 1928 459p $7

Grose, C. L. Select bibliography of British history, 1660-1760. Univ. of Chicago press 1939 xxv,507p $9 Covers most of the fields of history: general, travel, constitutional, diplomatic, social, religious, etc.

Gross, Charles. Sources and literature of English history from the earliest times to about 1485. 2d ed rev Longmans 1915 820p o.p. 1939

Read, Conyers, ed. Bibliography of British history, Tudor period, 1485-1603. . . Oxford 1933 xxiii,467p $10

General works

Books on English constitutional history are classed in 342.4

Some additional works useful for reference or for advanced study are:

Brendon, J. A. ed. Dictionary of British history. Longmans 1937 603p $5

Hassall, Arthur. British history chronologically arranged. Macmillan 1920 581p $4

Hunt, Thomas, and Poole, R. L. eds. Political history of England. Longmans 1905-10 12v ea $4.50, set $50 A scholarly series which covers the history from the earliest times through the reign of Queen Victoria. Each volume is by a recognized authority. Brief contents: v1 From the earliest times to the Norman conquest, by T. Hodgkin; v2 1066-1216, by G. B. Adams; v3 1216-1377, by T. F. Tout; v4 1337-1485, by Sir C. W. C. Oman; v5 1485-1574, by H. A. L. Fisher; v6 1547-1603, by A. F. Pollard; v7 1603-1660, by F. C. Montague; v8 1660-1702, by Sir R. Lodge; v9 1702-60, by I. S. Leadam; v10 1760-1801, by W. Hunt; v11 1801-1837, by G. C. Brodrick and J. K. Fotheringham; v12 1837-1901, by Sir S. J. M. Low and L. C. Sanders

Low, S. J. M. and Pulling, F. S. Dictionary of English history. new ed rev and enl by F. J. C. Hearnshaw, H. M. Chew and A. C. F. Beales Cassell 1928 1154p o.p. 1939 Brief articles with some bibliographic references. First published 1884

Ramsay, Sir J. H. bart. Scholar's history of England to 1485. Oxford 1898-1913 8v illus 75s This set according to the "Guide to historical literature" presents "a critical digest of the chronicles, adjusted, compared and arranged in chronological order"

Adams, James Truslow, 1878-
Building the British empire. . . Scribner 1938-40 2v ea $3.50 942
1 Great Britain—Colonies 2 Great Britain—History (W)

Contents: v 1 To the end of the first empire; v2 Empire on the seven seas: the British empire, 1784-1939

"Our task . . . is not merely one of selection and condensation of the vast historical data available. It is rather one of interpretation." Preface

"Mr. James Truslow Adams has an enviable ability to transform the data of historical research into books that are as dependable as they are delightful." Commonweal

Barnard, Francis Pierrepont, 1854-1931
(ed) Mediaeval England. . . Oxford 1924 xxi,632p illus maps $7 942

1 Civilization, Medieval 2 Great Britain—Antiquities 3 Great Britain—Social conditions 24-26449

A new edition of Barnard's "Companion to English history." This edition of a useful reference book first published in 1902 has been revised, brought up to date and partly rewritten under the editorship of H. W. C. Davis. Illustrated. Bibliography at end of each chapter

Contents: Ecclesiastical architecture, by E. A. G. Lamborn; Domestic architecture, by J. A. Gotch; War: Military architecture, by E. A. G. Lamborn; Art of war, by Sir C. W. C. Oman; Costume, civil, by A. Hartshorne; Costume, military, by A. Hartshorne; Heraldry, by F. P. Barnard; Shipping, by M. Oppenheim; Town life, by L. T. Smith; Country life, by G. T. Warner; Monks, friars, and secular clergy: Monasticism, by R. Graham; Mendicant orders, by A. G. Little; Secular clergy, by G. Baskerville; Learning and education: General survey, by R. S. Rait; Handwriting, by F. Madan; Printed books, the book trade, and libraries, by S. Gibson; Art, by G. M. Rushforth; Coinage, by G. C. Brooke; Trade and commerce, by I. S. Leadam; Glossary; Index

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870-
* Shorter history of England. Macmillan 1934 674p maps $3 942

1 Great Britain—History 34-36600

Concise history of England from the landing of Julius Caesar to the death of Queen Victoria. A final chapter records the course of events from 1900 to 1934

"On the whole, with some weakness (rather a serious defect) on the institutional side, Mr. Belloc's narrative down to the end of the Middle Ages is compact, lucid and well-proportioned. . . The last third of the book is the best: the two chapters on England between 1815 and 1885 the best of all." New statesman and Nation

Cheyney, Edward Potts, 1861-
(comp.) Readings in English history drawn from the original sources. . . new ed Ginn 1922 xxxix,849p $2.80 942

1 Great Britain—History 23-3335

A collection of 457 extracts from many sources. While intended to accompany the compiler's "Short history of England," it is also useful when source material is needed at other times

Short history of England. new ed Ginn 1932 790p illus maps $2.16 942

1 Great Britain—History 32-17285

A good textbook first published 1904 and often reprinted with slight changes. This edition adds a new chapter on England from 1918 to 1932. Bibliographies at end of each chapter

"Successful . . . for school use. Gives the broad sweep of events; emphasizes the effect of social and economic conditions on politics." Guide to hist. lit.

Coulton, George Gordon, 1858-
‡ Medieval panorama; the English scene from conquest to reformation. Macmillan 1938 801p illus $4 942

1 Catholic church in England 2 Civilization, Medieval 3 Great Britain—Civilization (W) 38-29089

Partial contents: Feudalism emerges; The village; Nature and superstition; Popes and prelates; Church statistics; The shepherd; Royal court; Chivalry; The monastery; Cloister life; The town; Home life; Trade and travel; The ghetto; From school to university; Science; Medicine; Hundred years' war; Artist life; Literary life; Sports and theatre; Women's life; Marriage and divorce

"Aiming to satisfy a desire for the colourful, he has succeeded in his object, but it deserves the fullest emphasis that he has done so without sacrificing his own integrity as a scholar zealous for truth." Times (London) lit. sup.

Cross, Arthur Lyon, 1873-
* Shorter history of England and greater Britain. 3d ed Macmillan 1939 xxvi, 1004p illus maps $4.25 942

1 Great Britain—History 39-3675

New edition of a textbook first published in 1920, second edition in 1929. "In this third edition the author has endeavored to describe the chief events in Great Britain and the Dominions from 1929 as far as possible into the year 1938. . . Again the author has sought to modify a few statements in the light of recent scholarship and to revise the bibliographies." Preface to the 3d edition

"Cross is suggested for its comprehensiveness and usefulness, not for reading, but for verification of detail." Hist. outlook

Dietz, Frederick Charles, 1888-
Political and social history of England. 3d ed Macmillan 1937 xxii,813p maps $3.50 942

1 Great Britain—History 2 Great Britain—Industries 3 Great Britain—Politics and government 4 Great Britain—Social conditions 37-31222

This edition of a text first published 1927 brings events from 1932 up to the summer of 1937. Some thirty pages relating to Anglo-Saxon and medieval constitutional history have been inserted, replacing former sections devoted to prewar diplomacy

"Mr. Dietz' work is notable for two features. He sacrifices the traditional details of political history to make room for matters relating to economic and social developments, especially in his own field of government finance. The book also differs from similar publications in presenting material tending to support the German version of events connected with the World War." American journal of sociology

Contains bibliographies

Gardiner, Samuel Rawson, 1829-1902
Student's history of England from the earliest times to the conclusion of the Great war. Longmans 1919 lxxii,1069p illus $6 942

1 Great Britain—History [22-17480]

Also obtainable from Longmans in parts: pt 1 (55 B.C. to A.D. 1509) $2.50, pt 2 (1509-1689) $2.25, pt 3 (1689-1919) $2.25

An excellent book for reference use. First published 1890-92. In later editions chapters have been added by other hands

"Distinguished by accuracy, clearness, sobriety of judgment and a due sense of historical proportion." Athenaeum

Green, John Richard, 1837-1883
* Short history of the English people; rev and enl with epilogue by A. S. Green. . . Am. bk. 1916 lv,1039p illus maps $2.80 942

1 Great Britain—History 16-18300

First published in 1874

"No English history except Macaulay's has gained such favorable acceptance for general reading. Its vivid narration of the economic, social and literary influences and processes by which the people of England reached their development distiguishes this work from the histories which chiefly record the political and military fortunes of a people's rulers. A later edition contains an epilogue, by Mrs Green continuing the history to 1914." Pratt alcove

Green, John R.—Continued

Jessopp, Augustus, 1824-1914
Coming of the friars, and other historic essays. Putnam 344p o.p. 1939 942
1 Great Britain—Social life and customs 2 Middle ages 3 Monasticism and religious orders 2-11015
First published 1888
"Accurate research illuminated by imagination and human sympathy. Deals with concrete local history in thirteenth century England; the Mendicants' objects and methods; life in village, monastery, and university; and the extent of the Black Death. An account of the Muggletonians is added." Guide to hist. lit.

Lunt, William Edward, 1882-
History of England. rev ed Harper 1938 920p illus maps (Harper's historical ser.) $4 942
1 Great Britain—History 38-27256
First published 1928. In the revised edition the general mode of treatment and fundamental proportions are retained, but more space is now devoted to the period from 1815 to 1905, and the account is brought down to about May, 1937. A full chapter has been added on the economic, social, and intellectual developments of the nineteenth century. The entire volume has been revised and the reading lists have been brought up to date
"A good college text that will be useful in the library. Well balanced and presented in readable style." Wis. bul.

Maurois, André, 1885-
‡ Miracle of England; an account of her rise to pre-eminence and present position; tr. by Hamish Miles. Harper 1937 500p illus maps $3.75 942
1 Great Britain—History (W) 38-1657
"From first to last M. Maurois has told the familiar story in a vivid narrative which compels attention. It is difficult to find here any information that is new, but the material has been managed with dexterity, and it is no small tribute to a work of this nature to add that its proportions are admirable. . . This is not a work of research, or of a historical scholarship that is in any real sense profound." Times (London) lit. sup.
Published in England under title: History of England
Bibliography: p487-91

Morton, Arthur Leslie, 1903-
People's history of England. Random house 1938 517p maps $3 942
1 Great Britain—History (W) 38-27877
"This book is not so much a history of England as an essay in interpretation. . . It is intended for the general reader rather than the specialist, and makes no pretence of being the result of original research." The period covered is from pre-Celtic times to 1938, and it is written from the Marxist point of view
"Mr. Morton is a real historian. His mind is scholarly, he has an eye for the slow changes that assert themselves through the centuries, and his literary style is excellent." Times (London) lit. sup.

Muir, Ramsay, 1872-
Short history of the British commonwealth. World bk. 1922-23 2v ea $6 942
1 Great Britain—History [21-7716]
Contents: v 1 Islands and the first empire (to 1763); v2 Modern commonwealth (1763 to 1919)
"Professor Muir has, it is evident, designed a history of the English-speaking peoples, set in a framework of world-politics. . . He has not only written a history of Great Britain, social as well as political; a history of the British Empire; a history of British foreign relations; but he has included a considerable amount of the history of the United States, and of the separate histories of the British self-governing colonies. He has brought together in the space of two volumes an enormous amount of material." Amer. hist. rev.

Robinson, Cyril Edward, 1884-
England; a history of British progress from the early ages to the present day . . . [rev] Crowell 1939 892p illus maps $4.50 942
1 Great Britain—History 39-29985
First published 1920-22 in 4 volumes under title "A history of England." Reprinted several times with slight changes. The present edition brings the text up to May, 1939
"It is a simple, straight-forward account up to 1928, with chief emphasis on the political and economic history and a rather large space given to wars. There are 63 maps and 24 plates of excellently chosen illustrations, chiefly good portraits and fine architectural subjects. The style is interesting and stimulating, and the factual material is used in discussion rather than merely chronologically arranged. The book would probably be most useful for good senior high school students who were especially interested in English history or for junior colleges. It is naturally English in flavor, but that does not prevent it from being a good introduction to historic England." Hist. outlook
Bibliography: p854-862b

Traill, Henry Duff, 1842-1900, and Mann, James Sumarez, 1851-
(eds.) Social England. . . Smith, P. 1901-04 6v illus maps $45 942
1 Great Britain—Civilization 2 Great Britain—History 3 Great Britain—Social conditions [39-15350]
Formerly also published in England under title: Building of Britain and the empire
"A record of the progress of the people in religion, laws, learning, arts, industry, commerce, science, literature and manners, from the earliest times to the present day." Subtitle
A collection of short but excellent treatises written by specialists on various aspects of social life. It is highly recommended, especially for reference work. The illustrations are a valuable feature

Trevelyan, George Macaulay, 1876-
* History of England; new and enl ed with chronological outline by W. H. Dunham. Longmans 1937 xxii,756p $4 942
1 Great Britain—History (W) 37-28499
Also published in a 3 volume edition (Longmans pt 1-2 ea $1.60, pt3 $1.75)
"Except for an Epilogue the first edition, 1926, of this work ended with the death of Queen Victoria. For this second edition the author has written four new chapters,

Trevelyan, George M.—Continued
replacing the Epilogue, and bringing the narrative down to 1919 [Bibliographies]." Book rev. digest
"Distinction of treatment is perhaps the most marked characteristic of the work. . . The second characteristic of the book is its swift, brilliant style. . . Third, is its substantial and critical knowledge." Amer. hist. rev.

Williams, Basil, 1867-
The British Empire. Holt 1928 252p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 942
1 Great Britain—Colonies 28-27950
"Gives a useful survey for the student or general reader of the history of the development and growth of the British Empire from the days of Elizabeth to the present." Bkl.
Bibliography: p243-48

942.01 Roman. Anglo-Saxon. To 1066

Oman, Sir Charles William Chadwick, 1860-
England before the Norman conquest; being a history of the Celtic, Roman and Anglo-Saxon periods down to the year A. D. 1066. Putnam 1910 xx,679p illus maps (History of England, ed by C. W. C. Oman, v 1) $5 942.01
1 Great Britain—History—To 1066 A10-656
"The volume is especially valuable as presenting the results of recent work on the Roman occupation." A. L. Cross's Shorter history of England and Greater Britain

942.02 Norman, 1066-1154

Davis, Henry William Carless, 1874-1928
England under the Normans and Angevins, 1066-1272. 4th ed Putnam 1915 xxii,577p illus maps (History of England, ed by C. W. C. Oman, v2) $5 942.02
1 Great Britain—History—Norman period, 1066-1154 2 Great Britain—History—Plantagenets, 1154-1399 [6-1101]
First published 1905. Minor changes mere made for the 4th edition. Bibliography
"Embodies the results of recent scholarship and pays much attention to the non-political aspects of the period, presenting an interesting picture of conditions under the Anglo-Norman kings." A. L. Cross's Shorter history of England and Greater Britain

Freeman, Edward Augustus, 1823-1892
* Short history of the Norman conquest of England. Oxford 156p $1 942.02
1 Great Britain—History—Norman period, 1066-1154 2 Great Britain—History—To 1066 4-851
"Still valuable for an exhaustive account of the events from 1060 to 1154, though Freeman was inclined to minimize the effects of the Conquest and many of his findings have been reversed by recent investigators." A. L. Cross's Shorter history of England and Greater Britain

942.03 Plantagenet, 1154-1399

William Stubbs' "Early Plantagenets" (Longmans 1901 286p maps $1.25) is an older book which, according to the "Guide to historical literature" is entitled to consideration due to distinguished authorship, but is not the best treatment of the subject

Trevelyan, George Macaulay, 1876-
England in the age of Wycliffe. new ed Longmans 1909 380p maps $4.20 942.03
1 Great Britain—Church history 2 Great Britain—History—Plantagenets, 1154-1399 3 Tyler's insurrection, 1381 4 Wycliffe, John d.1384 [5-41997]
First published 1899
"A brilliant work. . . It possesses all those qualities of style and matter which have won for its author a place with the two or three greatest historical writers of the present century." W. W. Davies's How to read history

Vickers, Kenneth Hotham, 1881-
England in the later middle ages. Putnam 1913 542p maps (History of England, ed by C. W. C. Oman, v3) $5 942.03
1 Great Britain—History—Lancaster and York, 1399-1485 2 Great Britain—History—Plantagenets, 1154-1399 [14-2877]
Covers the period from the reign of Edward I to the end of the War of the Roses.
"On the whole, a thoroughly sound and useful piece of work." Saturday rev.
Bibliography: p509-17

942.04 Lancaster and York, 1399-1485

Gairdner, James, 1828-1912
Houses of Lancaster and York, with the conquest and loss of France. Longmans 252p illus maps (Epochs of modern history) o.p. 1939 942.04
1 Great Britain—History—Lancaster and York, 1399-1485 4-17443
First published in 1874. "A good popular account." Gross

942.05 Tudor, 1485-1603

J. A. Williamson's "Age of Drake" (Macmillan 1938 400p maps $5) in the Pioneer histories series gives an account of the maritime activities of the period and of the exploits of Hawkins, Drake, and Oxenham

Black, John Bennett, 1883-
Reign of Elizabeth, 1558-1603. Oxford 1936 448p illus maps (Oxford history of England) $5 942.05
1 Church and state in Great Britain 2 Great Britain—Civilization 3 Great Britain—History—Tudors, 1485-1603 36-19574
"His survey of the political arena is cautious and unspectacular, and his judgments are nothing if not canny. But if he has not rewritten the political history of the reign, his sobriety of outlook will prove a useful antidote to the partisanship Tudor history generally inflames." New statesman and Nation
Bibliography: p412-30

Cheyney, Edward Potts, 1861-
History of England, from the defeat of the Armada to the death of Elizabeth; with an account of English institutions during the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries. Longmans 1914-1926 2v v1 $5, v2 o.p. 1939 942.05

1 Great Britain—History—Tudors, 1485-1603 14-2959

"An account of the administrative system of England during these years and a valuable description of English local government. It is rich in quotations from records of state and from personal documents." Book rev. digest

"If Professor Cheyney had provided only his plain tale of events he would have justified the publication of his two volumes. The story has been scattered about in printed and unprinted source materials, in monographs of varying authority, or scantily treated in general histories. Now it is unemotionally but attractively presented almost in the vein of a chronicle." Hist. outlook

Creighton, Mandell, bp. of London, 1843-1901
* Age of Elizabeth. . . Longmans 244p illus maps (Epochs of modern history) $1.25 942.05

1 Europe—History—1492-1789 2 Great Britain—History—Tudors, 1485-1603 [16-9123]

"I have grouped European history round the history of England, because I considered that in that way it would be made most interesting to the English reader. I have regarded the political history as of the chiefest importance, and only in the case of England have I found space for social or literary history." Preface

Mandell Creighton's "Tudors and the Reformation" (Longmans 65c) first published in 1876, is another brief work which covers the period from 1485 to 1603

Feiling, Keith Grahame, 1884-
England under the Tudors and Stuarts. Butterworth, T. 1927 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) 2s 6d 942.05

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 2 Great Britain—History—Tudors, 1485-1603 [27-17233]

Formerly carried also by Holt

"Scholarship, freshness and point mark all Mr. Feiling's work, and these qualities are well exemplified in this essay." Saturday rev.

Froude, James Anthony, 1818-1894
English seamen in the sixteenth century; lectures delivered at Oxford, Easter terms, 1893-94. Longmans 1895 228p 6s 942.05

1 Great Britain—History—Tudors, 1485-1603 [2-21612]

"Nine brilliant lectures, tracing sources of English naval power, its early exploits and triumph over the Spanish Armada." Pittsburgh

Contents: Sea cradle of the reformation; John Hawkins and the African slave trade; Sir John Hawkins and Philip the second; Drake's voyage round the world; Parties in the state; Great expedition to the West Indies; Attack on Cadiz; Sailing of the Armada; Defeat of the Armada

J. A. Froude's "History of England from the fall of Wolsey to the death of Elizabeth" (Scribner 1899 12v $24) is an interesting study, vivacious in style, but as history not impartial nor strictly judicial

Innes, Arthur Donald, 1863-
England under the Tudors. Putnam 1905 481p illus maps (History of England, ed. by C. W. C. Oman, v4) $5 942.05

1 Great Britain—History—Tudors, 1485-1603 [5-41725]

"Mr. Innes . . . has produced a competent book on this troubled epoch. . . [He] has carefully interpreted each reign in the light of [his] views and they give to his narrative a consistency and unity which will make his book especially valuable to the younger student and to the general reader, to whom it is more particularly intended to appeal." Times (London) lit. sup.

Bibliography: p446-56

942.06 Stuart. Commonwealth, 1603-1714

David Ogg's "England in the reign of Charles II" (Oxford 1934 2v maps $11) is an exhaustive study of twenty-five years

Burnet, Gilbert, bp. of Salisbury, 1643-1715
Abridgment of Bishop Burnet's history of his own times, by Thomas Stackhouse. Dutton 409p (Everyman's library) 90c 942.06

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 [A10-2200]

A classic first published 1723-34. The author, an ardent supporter of William and Mary, wrote from a partisan standpoint. He was an eye witness to most of what he tells. Bibliography: pref. p7-8

Clark, George Norman, 1890-
Later Stuarts, 1660-1714. Oxford 1934 461p illus maps (Oxford history of England) $5 942.06

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 34-41280

"Professor G. N. Clark's rare grasp of facts, his impartiality, judgment, and imaginative sympathy, and above all a fitness of style seldom found in the professional historian—are confirmed in his latest work. It contains between four and five hundred closely yet clearly printed pages, not to mention a score of maps and an admirable descriptive bibliography, and I defy anyone, however easily bored, who cares for history, to find a single dull or obscure passage in any of its fourteen chapters." John Hayward in Spectator

Davies, Godfrey, 1892-
Early Stuarts, 1603-1660. Oxford 1937 xxi,452p maps (Oxford history of England) $5 942.06

1 Great Britain—History—Civil war and commonwealth, 1642-1660 2 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 37-12072

"A study of the political, constitutional, religious, and social and economic history of England during the reigns of James I and Charles I, and the Commonwealth and Protectorate. Education and science, the arts and literature, during these years, 1603-1660, are also summarized." Book rev. digest

"He has an unrivalled knowledge of the sources and bibliography of seventeenth-century history, and he has much of the erudition and sound sense which distinguished his great predecessors in this field, S. R. Gardiner and C. H. Firth. . . Eight maps and a good bibliography enhance the serviceableness of the book." Times (London) lit. sup.

Gardiner, Samuel Rawson, 1829-1902
History of the commonwealth and protectorate, 1649-1656. new ed Longmans 1903 4v maps o.p. 1939 942.06

1 Great Britain—History—Civil war and commonwealth, 1642-1660 3-25350

A comprehensive and accurate piece of work which has been a standard in its field since its first publication in 1894-1901. Rests on exhaustive study of sources for this period

S. R. Gardiner's "First two Stuarts and the Puritan revolution," in the Epochs of modern history series (Longmans xxi,215p maps 4s 6d) is a brief study of the period of 1603-1660

Macaulay, Thomas Babington Macaulay, 1st baron, 1800-1859
History of England, from the accession of James the Second; ed. by C. H. Firth. Macmillan 1913-15 6v illus maps ea $8.40 942.06

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 14-14308

It can also be obtained from Dutton in Everyman's library (3v ea 90c) and from Longmans (2v $5)

First published in 1848-61. "The book which everybody reads, and which every one will continue to read until the English language is itself forgotten, is Macaulay's 'History of England,' a work which, after some magnificent introductory chapters, proceeds to deal in detail with the reign of William and Mary. . . . No one ever surpassed Macaulay in the power of making the past live. His knowledge was boundless; and he knew how to employ it all to illustrate his themes. But the proportion is always perfect. There is no ostentatious parade of learning. . . . For him all men were either black or white. He knows nothing of those delicate half-shades an appreciation of which marks the true master of human motive." W. W. Davies's How to read history

Sir C. H. Firth's "Commentary on Macaulay's History of England" (Macmillan 1938 375p $5.80) is an analysis of Macaulay's methods, errors, treatment of Scotch and Irish history, etc.

Petrie, Sir Charles Alexander, bart. 1895-
The Stuarts. Houghton 1937 358p illus $3.50 942.06

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 [38-4840]

"This volume is a companion to The Four Georges [class 942.07] and, like its predecessor, it makes no pretence of being a history of England during the period which it covers. It is rather an endeavour to show how the subjects of the Stuarts were affected by, and how they regarded, the chief events of their day." Pref.

"A score of well-chosen contemporary illustrations round out this effective portrayal of English society and its rulers in a memorable century." Springfield Republican

Trevelyan, George Macaulay, 1876-
England under Queen Anne. Longmans 1930-34 3v illus maps v 1-2 ea $5, v3 $6.50 942.06

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 2 Spanish succession, War of, 1701-1714 (30-23326)

Contents: v 1 Blenheim; v 2 Ramillies and the union with Scotland; v3 The peace and the Protestant succession

"The England of Queen Anne has . . . come alive under Professor Trevelyan's fingers: with the delicate art which he has so often practiced, he has woven together the familiar facts and details and new facts and details which his researches have given him to make pictures of the town and the countryside. Every schoolboy knows that Marlborough beat Tallard at Trevelyan and he will know it as never before. [Bibliography]" New statesman

G. M. Trevelyan's "England of Queen Anne" (Longmans 1932 178p $1.50, college ed $1.35) in the Swan library, is a reprint of chapters 1-4 of "Blenheim"

England under the Stuarts. rev ed Putnam 1925 566p illus maps (History of England, ed by C. W. C. Oman, v5) $5 942.06

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 [26-1353]

Combines in a remarkable manner accuracy of research and a philosophic understanding of principles and movements with a power of graphic narrative. His characters are not casual notes to the text, but real personalities, clearly realized and firmly drawn. He has taken a century of English history, and, without overloading his book with detail, has contrived to give us the period in a series of dramatic pictures. Condensed from Spectator

Contains maps and a bibliography

English revolution, 1688-1689. Holt 1939 281p $2 942.06

1 Great Britain—History—Stuarts, 1603-1714 [39-1195]

"This study covers not only the revolution itself but also the events of the reign of James II, which led up to it and the political changes which followed it. In the course of the work the author takes occasion to comment upon the nature of government. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"It is an excellent introduction to the question for intelligent readers who have no special knowledge of it, but it is also an appreciation which advanced students will find of the greatest value." Times (London) lit. sup.

942.07 Hanover, to 1837

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following titles are recommended:

Beer, G. L. British colonial policy, 1754-1765. Smith, P. 1907 327p $3.50 A scholarly, complete treatment

Halévy, Élie. History of the English people; with an introduction by Graham Wallas; tr. from the French by E. I. Watkin and D. A. Barker. Smith, P. 1923-34 5v ea $6 Formerly carried by Harcourt

Michael, Wolfgang. England under George I. Macmillan 1936-39 2v ea $5.80 An authoritative work translated from the German

Oliver, F. S. Endless adventure; personalities and practical politics in eighteenth-century England. Houghton 1931 2v in 1 $7.50

Trevelyan, Sir G. O. bart. George the Third and Charles Fox. Longmans 1912-14 2v ea $2.50

Lecky, William Edward Hartpole, 1838-1903
History of England in the eighteenth century. Longmans 7v ea 7s 6d 942.07

1 Great Britain—History—1714-1837 [2-27319]

First published in 1878-90

"From the accession of Queen Anne down to the Napoleonic Wars. It is an altogether

Lecky, William E. H.—Continued
admirable book, learned, sagacious, and interesting. His style, though much inferior in brilliancy to that of Froude or Macaulay, is still that of a very great writer. . . An admirable survey of the eighteenth century, and is particularly good in its dealing with foreign and colonial affairs." W. W. Davies's How to read history

McCarthy, Justin, 1830-1912, and McCarthy, Justin Huntley, 1860-1936
History of the four Georges. Chatto 1901 2v (St Martin's lib.) ea 3s 6d 942.07

1 Great Britain—History—1714-1837
(1-4300)

Originally published in four volumes. Volumes 3 and 4 had title: "A history of the four Georges and of William IV"
"Although the name of his son stands on the title-page, the general design of the work is traceable to Mr. Justin McCarthy, who may be said to have created a special style of historical composition. He has never found a better field for his talents than is afforded by . . . the eighteenth century. The character of the social and political life . . . lends itself perfectly to his bright, rapid, and journalistic treatment." Nation

Petrie, Sir Charles Alexander, bart. 1895-
Four Georges; a revaluation of the period from 1714-1830. Houghton 1936 321p illus $3.50 942.07

1 Great Britain—History—1714-1837
36-27151

"Social life, politics, and the industrial revolution are described in the words of contemporary accounts, giving a picture of court and common people, with important events treated only incidentally." Book rev. digest
"The merit of this book is that [Sir Charles Petrie] deliberately ignores the ordinary dry-as-dust material of the history books and sets himself out instead to present us, by means of contemporary evidence, with realistic pictures of Hanoverian England." Sat. rev. of lit.

Robertson, Sir Charles Grant, 1869-
England under the Hanoverians. . . 3d ed Putnam 1917 555p maps (History of England, ed by C. W. C. Oman, v6) $5 942.07

1 Great Britain—History—1714-1837
[11-9948]

A good survey of English history in the eighteenth century and of the expansion of the empire. It contains maps and a bibliography. First published in 1911

Trevelyan, George Macaulay, 1876-
* British history in the nineteenth century and after (1782-1919) new ed. . . Longmans 1937 512p maps $3.50 942.07

1 Great Britain—History—19th century
[38-172411]

"Revised edition of a work which first appeared in 1922. Four chapters have been added bringing the history of the British empire down to 1919. Bibliography
"Beginning with a picture of England in the years preceding the French revolution, this illuminating volume traces through the following century the economic, social and political changes within the British empire, with especial emphasis on the industrial revolution. Her foreign relations are touched upon, while the leaders of the period are drawn with unusual skill. Bibliography." N.Y. state lib.

"Mr. Trevelyan's treatment of his theme is wonderfully well-balanced, synthetic, and convincing. The most meticulous critic will find little to cavil at with regard to the writer's precision." Eng. hist. rev.

Woodward, Ernest Llewellyn, 1890-
Age of reform, 1815-1870. Oxford 1938 656p maps (Oxford history of England) $6 942.07

1 Great Britain—History—19th century 2 Great Britain—Politics and government—19th century 3 Great Britain—Social conditions (W) 39-1199

"A survey of English political and economic history and the life and circumstances of the English people during the fifty years after the Battle of Waterloo. The treatment is chiefly topical. Bibliography." Book rev. digest
A "learned, impartial and humane book... The most original and successful part of the book is the treatment in the last 200 pages of social and intellectual topics." Spectator

Wrong, Edward Murray, 1889-
History of England, 1688-1815. Holt 1927 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 942.07

1 Great Britain—History—1714-1837
27-21265

"A well written and much compressed history which considers the period between the revolution of 1688—a turning point in England's political history—and the Peace of Paris. There is a frequent digression into the cultural and social history of the times as well." Bkl.
"Mr. Wrong writes freshly, and the fact that he has himself specialized in colonial history stands him in good stead in dealing with the age in which colonial questions are so prominent. . . A clear, useful, fresh and sometimes entertaining volume." Sat. rev. of lit.
Bibliography: p250-51

942.08 Later Hanoverian. Windsor

The following books are also recommended, if additional material is needed:
Buchan, John, 1st baron Tweedsmuir. People's king, George V: a narrative of twenty-five years. Houghton 1935 289p illus $2.75 Not a biography of the King, but an attempt to provide a picture of his reign
Churchill, W. L. S. While England slept. Putnam 1938 404p illus $4 (W) A collection of speeches on world affairs and national defense made between 1932-1938. Published in England under title: Arms and the Covenant
McCarthy, Justin. History of our own times. Chatto 3v (St Martin's ser) ea 3s 6d A popular, readable account
Oman, Sir C. W. C. England in the nineteenth century. new ed Longmans 1923 307p maps $1.25
Spender, J. A. Great Britain, empire and commonwealth, 1886-1935. Cassell 1936 xxvi,906p maps 10s 6d

Butler, James Ramsay Montagu, 1889-
History of England, 1815-1918. Holt 1928 252p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 942.08

1 Great Britain—History—19th century 2 Great Britain—History—20th century
28-27949

"A compact, admirable survey of the trend of English political, social, religious,

Butler, James R. M.—Continued
and economic movements from the close of the Napoleonic wars to the end of the world war." Bkl.
Bibliography: p243-46

Ensor, Robert Charles Kirkwood, 1877-
England, 1870-1914. Oxford 1936 xxiii, 634p maps (Oxford history of England) $6 942.08

1 Great Britain—History—19th century 2 Great Britain—History—20th century
36-10581

"Mr. Ensor's book will eventually take its place on our shelves as the concluding volume of The Oxford History of England . . . [He] has divided his period into three sections, the first ending in 1886, the second in 1900, and the third with the outbreak of war, and has appended to each of them two chapters entitled respectively 'Economics and Institutions' and 'Mental and Social Aspects' planned on parallel lines and capable of being read consecutively." Times (London) lit. sup.
"It is a work of quite outstanding merit. Solid, written in an interesting and, at times, distinguished style, based on an astonishingly thorough survey of the materials, it is the annalistic type of history at its best." New statesman and Nation
Bibliography: p576-605

Gretton, Richard Henry, 1874-
Modern history of the English people, 1880-1922. Secker, Martin 1930 3v in 1 12s 6d 942.08

1 Great Britain—History—19th century 2 Great Britain—History—20th century 3 Great Britain—Social conditions
[31-26381]

Formerly carried also by Dial press
"This book is a reissue in one volume of Mr. Gretton's three volumes [on the history of the English people] which originally appeared in 1912, 1914, and 1923, covering the years 1880-1898, 1899-1910, 1910-1922. The string which Mr. Gretton has provided for our guidance through the labyrinth of these four decades is that of politics." Hist. outlook
"Rather journalistic and Liberal in sympathy, but clear and vivid." Arthur Lyon Cross' Shorter history of England and greater Britain

Hearnshaw, Fossey John Cobb, 1869-
(ed.) Edwardian England, A.D. 1901-1910; a series of lectures delivered at King's college, University of London, during the session 1932-3. Benn 1933 285p 10s 6d 942.08

1 Great Britain—History—20th century 2 Great Britain—Politics and government—20th century 3 Great Britain—Social conditions
33-38722

"The most striking feature of this volume . . . is the close agreement of its contributors in endowing the years covered by King Edward's reign with a quality of their own. They were adventurous years. They broke new ground, in methods of government and in technical achievement no less than in the domain of thought. . . It is indeed remarkable how this characteristic of innovation within the established framework presents itself to writers working independently and engaged on different aspects of the period. It is very clearly brought out in Professor Hearnshaw's study, written with a vivacity which he seldom allows himself, of King Edward's own achievement." Times (London) lit. sup.

Kirkpatrick, Helen Paull
Under the British umbrella; what the English are and how they go to war. Scribner 1939 358p $2.75 942.08

1 Europe—Politics, 1914— 2 European war, 1939—Great Britain 3 Great Britain—Foreign relations 4 Great Britain—Politics and government—20th century 5 National characteristics, English
(W) 39-29458

"An American foreign correspondent writes of her observations in Europe—at Geneva, and in England. She gives an objective account of Great Britain on the verge of war, from the breakdown of the League of Nations to the declaration of war on September third." Book rev. digest
"Miss Kirkpatrick's account of the course of British foreign policy is more lucid than its subject. A layman may well be grateful for such a compact survey even though a little unconvinced by its simplification. The book reveals a mind quick to sense implications of events and character." Boston Transcript

Marriott, Sir John Arthur Ransome, 1859-
England since Waterloo Putnam 1913 xxi,558p illus maps (History of England ed by C. W. C. Oman, v7) $5 942.08

1 Great Britain—History—19th century
[13-24460]

"Mr. Marriott's treatment of his subject deserves real praise. He has his own opinions, and he does not conceal them. But a writer who had no opinions on matters so near his own day would have few readers, and Mr. Marriott, while he is not afraid to pass judgment on characters and events, is never loth to add that other workers in the same field have come to different conclusions. Occasionally, perhaps, he does not state the full case on the other side." Spectator
Bibliography: p511-15

Modern England, 1885-1932; a history of my own times. . . Methuen 1934 551p maps (History of England, ed. by Sir C. W. C. Oman, v8) 16s 942.08

1 Great Britain—History—19th century 2 Great Britain—History—20th century
35-4137

Completes the eight-volume history of England and carries the narrative to 1932. Maps and bibliography
"It is a great achievement to record in under 550 pages so complete, judicious, accurate, and well balanced a narrative of political events. . . His work is wonderfully exhaustive. The reader may think of a few names or 'movements' which are missing in the index, but nearly everything which has been outstanding finds an appropriate niche. On constitutional matters the book is notably informative. If it is fair to tender any criticism, it is that the style wants colour." Eng. hist. rev.

Maurois, André, 1885-
* Edwardian era; tr. by Hamish Miles. Appleton-Century 1933 390p illus $3 942.08

1 Edward VII, king of Great Britain, 1841-1910 2 Great Britain—Foreign relations 3 Great Britain—History—20th century 4 Great Britain—Politics and government—20th century 33-31677

Published in England with title: King Edward and his times
"Study of the leaders, politics and foreign policy of Great Britain during the first decade of this century. Around King Edward as the center of the picture are

Maurois, André—Continued
ranged the figures dominant at that time—Balfour, Asquith, Campbell-Bannerman, Joseph Chamberlain, Lloyd George, Haldane, Salisbury, Cambon, Delcassé, von Bülow, and William II of Germany." Book rev. digest
"Short though it is, is no thumb-nail sketch of the personages, events and spirit informing the era of King Edward VII, but a masterpiece of concise writing, of choice relevant detail, of clarity of thought, and of luminous exposition." Commonweal
Portraits. Bibliography: p365-69

Spender, John Alfred, 1862-
Short history of our own times. Stokes 1934 318p maps $3.75 942.08
1 Great Britain—History—20th century 2 Great Britain—Politics and government—20th century [34-38321]
"It is everything that a text-book should be, concise, lucid, abounding in fitting reflections and . . . smoothly written. . . . He has not attempted to write the history of the last ten years, but has let his book become more and more of a chronicle as it approaches our own day. On the other hand, he has found it possible to give historical perspective both to events between Queen Victoria's death and the outbreak of the War, and to the War itself and the peace treaties which followed it; and his perspective is one which the future historian will surely be unable to dismiss as false." Times (London) lit. sup.

Zimmern, Alfred Eckhard, 1879-
Third British empire, being a course of lectures delivered at Columbia university. 3d ed rev and enl Oxford 1934 192p $2 942.08
1 Great Britain—Colonies 2 Great Britain—Foreign relations 3 Imperial federation 4 International law and relations 35-7241
"This book was first published in 1926. The second edition appeared the following year. Now, after an interval of years, Mr. Zimmern has sought to bring it up to date. . . Not only . . . has the text been corrected where necessary and footnotes added, but, in the case of Lectures II. and IV., new material has been introduced outside the original framework." Times (London) lit. sup.
"The third empire, according to the author, is the third and present phase of imperial development, the British Commonwealth of Nations, which has succeeded the colonial and the mercantile empires. The lectures attempt to answer the questions why the British Empire has survived at a time when others have dissolved and disappeared, how it has survived, and what it must do to justify its survival." Pittsburgh

942.1 London

Corner, Herbert George, 1869-
London. Longmans 1932 183p (English heritage ser.) $1.25 942.1
1 London—History [32-11824]
"An historical sketch of the city of London which outlines the eras in the city's development, giving in brief narrative form the changes in its architecture, art, literature and government." Book rev. digest
"It is a useful and compact narrative of facts. . . Mr. Corner knows what he is writing about, is remarkably thorough, and avoids sentimentality." New statesman and Nation

Ditchfield, Peter Hampson, 1854-
City of London. Macmillan 1921 126p illus map (Story of the English towns) $1.60 942.1
1 London—History 22-11094
"A very compact and entertaining little handbook, tracing the history of the city from its foundation by Roman traders, and giving one a cross-section of all English history in its glimpses of the famous figures that have passed through its streets during the centuries. Most of the many illustrations are from modern drawings, but some are reproduced from old pictures." Bkl.
Bibliography: p122

Whitaker-Wilson, Cecil
Two thousand years of London. Methuen 1933 330p illus 5s 942.1
1 London—History 34-15812
"To the tourist . . . to the traveler . . . and to the Londoner himself, this book should prove a granary of invaluable information. Its rise is traced from the small British town of Roman days, through the stormy period of the Wars of the Roses, the glory of Tudor England down to the Edwardian and post-war days that give us the London we have known or longed to see." Cincinnati

942.9 Wales

Davies, William Watkin, 1891-
* Wales. Holt 1925 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 942.9
1 Wales—History 25-4113
A short, popularly written history of Wales from the time of the stone age to the 20th century

943 Germany

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:
Marx, Karl. Revolution and counter-revolution; or, Germany in 1848; ed. by E. M. Aveling. Kerr 1896 192p 60c
Pinnow, Hermann. History of Germany; people and state through a thousand years; tr. from the German by M. B. Brailsford. Macmillan 1933 473p $3 Also obtainable from Dutton in Everyman's library at 90c
Thompson, J. W. Feudal Germany. Univ. of Chicago press 1928 xxiii,710p maps $5
Villard, O. G. Within Germany; with an epilogue, England at war. Appleton-Century 1940 87p $1 (W) Report on Germany in war time
Ward, Sir A. W. Germany, 1815-1890. Macmillan 1916-18 3v $6

Borkenau, Franz, 1900-
New German empire. Viking 1939 167p map $2 943
1 Europe—Politics 2 Germany—Foreign relations 3 Germany—Politics and government (W) 39-27631
Contents: Nazi crusade; Nazi economics and German expansion; Austria and the Sudetenland; Poland and Lithuania; Slesvig and the domination of the Baltic; Netherlands, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Tirol; South-east; Africa and the Mediterranean; Latin America
"This analysis of the record of Nazi methods, foreign policy and plan for expansion is a staggering aggregation of facts supporting the author's contention that the aim of the Nazi regime is neither purely commercial or territorial; it is always in the direction of Nazi world revolution." Baldwin

Borkenau, Franz—Continued

Dutch, Oswald, pseud.
Hitler's 12 apostles. McBride 1940 249p illus $3 943

1 Germany—Politics and government 2 National socialism [40-3705]

Character sketches of the twelve men who along with Hitler are directing the fortunes of Nazi Germany: Hermann Goering; Josef Goebbels; Alfred Rosenberg; Rudolf Hess; Heinrich Himmler; Robert Ley; Joachim von Ribbentrop; Julius Streicher; Walther von Brauchitsch; Walther Funk; Wilhelm Frick; Baldur von Schirach

"He writes with directness, in a terse and easy style. . . All in all, his is a most informative work; it is one that will give the average reader a much clearer picture of Hitler's leading subordinates than he had before." N.Y. Times

Gardiner, Samuel Rawson, 1829-1902
Thirty years' war, 1618-1648. Longmans xxv,233p map (Epochs of modern history) $1.25 943

1 Thirty years' war, 1618-1648 [4-18005]

A useful little work, first published in 1874. It sketches briefly the events of this period

German reich and Americans of German origin. . . Oxford 1938 45p map $1.50 943

1 Germans in the U.S. 2 Propaganda, German 38-29097

"This is a collection of source materials, drawn from official German documents or from writings and speeches by responsible nazi leaders, showing the purpose to win the allegiance of American Germans to the reich and the methods by which it is done." Christian century

"No doubt a less scholarly and dignified presentation of these facts would have a more popular appeal, but to those persons who sincerely wish to inform themselves about 'un-American activities' a careful perusal of this book is recommended." Boston Transcript

Gooch, George Peabody, 1873-
* Germany. Scribner 1925 360p (Modern world) $5 943

1 European war, 1914-1918—Germany 2 Germany [32-406]

"The first half of the book sketches the development of the German empire and the growth of the national spirit from the 18th century to the eve of the world war, and considers in two chapters the effect of the war on the spirit of the people. The last half is a more detailed study of social and intellectual forces at work since the war." Pittsburgh

"No better pen could have been chosen to write the history of Germany for the plain man to read. Dr Gooch selects the salient facts with that sureness of touch that is only found with encyclopedic knowledge." Nation and Athenaeum

Grzesinski, Albert C., 1879-
Inside Germany; tr. by A. S. Lipschitz. Dutton 1939 374p illus maps $3.50 943

1 Germany—Foreign relations 2 Germany—Politics and government 3 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 4 National socialism (W) 39-3676

"A picture of the last forty years of Germany, with special emphasis on the fourteen years of the democratic republic and the subsequent Nazi dictatorship [by a former Prussian Minister of the interior and President of the Berlin police]" Foreword

"The story of his important role in the Weimar republic has the indubitable ring of authenticity and is peculiarly valuable to all who would understand the years which led up to Hitler deluge." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Henderson, Ernest Flagg, 1861-
‡ Short history of Germany. new ed. . . Macmillan 1923 2v in 1 maps $5 943

1 Germany—History [31-10205]

The original two volume edition appeared in 1902 and covered the period 1517-1871. The new edition (first published 1916) carries the history up to include the affair at Serajevo 1914. Contains maps, chronological tables and bibliographies at the beginning of most of the chapters

"Best history of Germany in English; by a capable writer who knows the Germans sympathetically and writes with life and spirit. Deals mostly with events, and only very inadequately with thought and institutions; not based on original investigation, but on the best secondary German works." Guide to hist. lit.

Henri, Ernst
Hitler over Europe; tr. by Michael Davidson. Dent 1934 307p 8s 6d 943

1 Germany—Politics and government 2 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 3 National socialism 4 Pangermanism 34-20997

Formerly carried also by Simon & Schuster

"With rare lapses—some small redundancy; a slight liability to nag; a touch, here and there, of the histrionic—the author maintains a sober and convincing tone. From numberless sources, with tireless, and almost tiring, industry, he has put together a book the great accomplishment of which is that it discloses, for the first time, the dynamics of the Nazi movement. He has written a historical work in that it is a profound, thorough, though not unbiased, exposition of what the Nazis really are." New statesman and Nation

Hoover, Calvin Bryce, 1897-
Germany enters the third reich. Macmillan 1933 243p $2.75 943

1 Germany—Economic conditions 2 Germany—Politics and government 3 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 4 Industry and state 5 National socialism 33-22433

"Thoroughness, accuracy, soundness of judgment and high literary value are combined in a very remarkable manner. Not only did the writer happen to be on the spot when the Nazi revolution occurred; more fortunately he had been in Germany for nearly a year prior to the outburst. . . No brief précis could possibly do justice to the compressed, lucid, illuminating first chapters of the book in which Professor Hoover studies the economic system prevailing in Germany before the advent of National Socialism." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Kent, Madeleine
I married a German. Harper 1939 349p $3 943

1 Germany—Description and travel 2 Germany—Social life and customs 3 National characteristics, German 4 National socialism (W) 39-27197

The experiences of an Englishwoman who married a German Socialist in 1931, went to live in Germany, found her life wrecked by the Nazi rise to power, and finally returned to England with her husband

"The author of this very interesting and unusual book has writing talent and a gift of observation, combined with a readiness to generalize about Germany in almost Teutonic fashion." Times (London) lit. sup.

Lichtenberger, Henri, 1864-
Third reich; tr. from the French and ed. by K. S. Pinson; with a preface by N. M. Butler. Greystone 1937 392p $3 943

1 Germany—Foreign relations 2 Germany—Politics and government 3 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 4 National socialism 37-14255

A comprehensive study of ideas and policies under the Nazi regime in Germany. Among the topics considered are: National socialism in power; Foreign policy; Myth of race; Religious problem; Agriculture and industrial organization; and the German economic system

"Will be of great value, since in all but the religious section it is completely adequate, and thoroughly objective, in its study of the present condition of affairs in Hitler's Germany." Commonweal

Loewenstein, Karl, 1891-
Hitler's Germany; the Nazi background to war. Macmillan 1939 176p $1.25 943

1 Germany—Politics and government 2 National socialism (W) 39-32518

Contents: National socialism and the Weimar republic; Governmental structure of the Third Reich; Instrumentalities of power; Nation and the individual; The service-state; Conclusion

"A concise, but complete and well organized survey." New republic

Mann, Erika, 1905-
Lights go down; tr. by Maurice Samuel; illus. by J. O. Cosgrave. Farrar 1940 282p illus $2.50 943

1 Germany—Social life and customs 2 National socialism (W) 40-27404

"True stories, all based on actual cases, with unimportant details changed, which ... form a ... record of life in modern Germany... Every case bears witness to the infiltration of decay in fundamentals of life and freedom and thought, caused by the Nazi regime." Kirkus

"She shows us how Nazi standards of thought and conduct affect people exactly like ourselves, men and women of innate good will, intelligence and love of country. And, quite frankly, she has in several of the sketches used the narrative form to hold our interest while we learn facts and figures about the economic condition of Germany which few of us would read in a statistical report." Book-of-the-month club news

Mann, Erika, 1905- and Mann, Klaus, 1906-
Escape to life. Houghton 1939 384p illus $3.50 943

1 Austrians in the U.S. 2 Germans in the U.S. 3 Germany—Intellectual life 4 Refugees, Political (W) 39-27386

An account of the "escape to life" of those creative artists and intellectuals who were forced to leave their native country or who found existence in Nazi Germany impossible. "It has been our aim to demonstrate and describe in a graphic manner not individual persons banished for one reason or another, but rather an entire complex culture ... now the victim of Nazi fanaticism." Preface

Other Germany. Modern age 1940 318p $2.75 943

1 Germany—History—Revolution, 1918- 2 National characteristics, German (W) 40-27165

Contents: Looking backward; German republic; How was it possible; Are the Germans happy in the third reich; Three weeks of personal history; After the catastrophe; Epilogue in the U.S.

"The authors assert that Hitler and the Nazis are not representative of the German people. They have faith in the German character, in the spirit of the Weimar republic, which they believe is still working, and in the future of the country after Hitler's fall." Bkl.

Mann, Thomas, 1875-
This war; tr. from the German by Eric Sutton. Knopf 1940 68p $1 943

1 Ethnopsychology 2 European war, 1939- —Germany 3 National characteristics, German (W) 40-27527

An analysis of the psychology of the German people, of the relationship between Hitler and his people, of the attitude of the German people toward the war in Europe

Marriott, Sir John Arthur Ransome, 1859- and Robertson, Sir Charles Grant, 1869-
Evolution of Prussia, the making of an empire. Oxford 1915 449p maps $2.50 943

1 Prussia—History 15-25722

"A clear, scholarly narrative of the rise, and development of Brandenburg, Prussia, and the later Prussianization of Germany under the Hohenzollern dynasty. Ends with 1890." Pratt quarterly

"A useful introduction to the study of Prussian-German history—a field where short works in English are scarce... It is more concise and interpretative than Henderson's 'Short history,' more consistent and readable than the piecemeal chapters in the 'Cambridge modern history,' and more extensive in treatment than Priest's 'Germany since 1740.' " Amer. hist. rev.

References at end of most of the chapters; also p448-49

Mowrer, Edgar Ansel, 1892-
* Germany puts the clock back. rev ed Morrow 1939 xxxvi,410p $2.50 943

1 Germany—History—Revolution, 1918- 2 Germany—Politics and government 3 Germany—Social conditions 4 National socialism (W) 39-29402

First published 1933. The new edition contains a new foreword and three new chapters which bring the book up to date (September, 1939). It analyzes the expanding forces underlying the Nazi revolution

"More than fine journalism; it is a genuine contribution to modern history, a keen, incisive, authoritative and extremely well-written account of what has happened in Germany since the war and why. One will find in the book not only a key to a proper understanding of the European problem as a whole, but also a clear and convincing analysis and explanation of the historic, social, economic and psychologic forces behind them." N.Y. Times

Nazi primer; official handbook for schooling the Hitler youth; tr. from the original German with a preface by H. L. Childs; with a commentary by W. E. Dodd. Harper 1938 280p illus maps $1.75 943

1 Germany—Economic conditions 2 Germany—Nationality 3 National socialism (W)

Statement of the Nazi creed, written by the Nazis themselves, and used as required reading for German youths. Edited by Fritz Brennecke

"This little book is really a political and educational document, more important, though less interesting, than the Russian Primer which preceded it, and which it imitates. Here one can see what modern Germany regards as fundamental for its citizens." Book-of-the-month club news

Rauschning, Hermann, 1887-

‡ Revolution of nihilism; warning to the West. Alliance bk. 1939 300p $3 943

1 Germany—Foreign relations 2 Germany—Politics and government 3 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 4 National socialism (W) 39-21141

Also available from Garden City pub. co. at $1.49

Translated from the German by E. W. Dickes. Published in England under title: Germany's revolution of destruction

The author of this book was at one time a member of the Nazi party and president of the Danzig senate. Because he opposed some of Hitler's orders he was forced to resign, and later became an exile. This book contains a former party member's analysis of the Hitler regime, particularly in its foreign policies. In conclusion, the author asserts that Hitler does not aim at peace, or even at domination of eastern Europe, but at world domination

"One of the most illuminating and most exciting political works which the German emigration has produced so far. It gives precise, unwavering answers to the origin and development of the Nazi Party and the present and future plans of Hitler." Nation

Voice of destruction. . . Putnam 1940 295p $2.75 943

1 Germany—Politics and government 2 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 3 National socialism (W) 40-27114

"From notes made at the time, Rauschning reproduces conversations and describes episodes that illuminate the evolution, from 1932 through 1934, of the Nazi movement and more particularly of the mind and plans of its leader." Library journal

Published in England under title: Hitler speaks

"The real value of 'The Voice of Destruction' lies in the fact that its author is able to confirm as an insider, by means of a hundred characteristic and convincing details, what could be deduced before only from circumstantial evidence. And the report has another vivid and most comprehensive character sketch yet drawn of Hitler." Nation

Roberts, Stephen Henry, 1901-

* House that Hitler built. Harper 1938 380p $3 943

1 Germany—Economic conditions 2 Germany—Foreign relations 3 Germany—Politics and government 4 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 5 National socialism (W) 38-3984

"The Australian author . . . spent sixteen months traveling about Germany, before writing this book. His aim was to 'sum up the new Germany without any prejudice.' In addition to his objective study of the rise and spread of Nazi party in Germany, Professor Roberts interprets the characters of the leading men in the movement, including Hitler, Goebbels, Goering, Himmler, Schacht, and Hess." Book rev. digest

"Broad in approach and moderate in tone, 'The House that Hitler Built' is a complete and trustworthy account of contemporary Germany." Sat. rev. of lit.

Rosenberg, Arthur, 1889-

Birth of the German republic, 1871-1918; tr. from the German by I. F. D. Morrow. Oxford 1931 286p $5 943

1 Germany—History [32-6419]

"Professor Rosenberg of the University of Berlin was a member of the Reichstag Committee of Inquiry into the causes of Germany's collapse in the World War, and has written a scholarly narrative of the events leading up to the establishment of the republic." Pittsburgh

"The author has done his work in a fine spirit of critical detachment." Nation

Bibliography: pref. p8

History of the German republic; tr. by I. F. D. Morrow and L. M. Sieveking. Methuen 1936 350p 15s 943

1 Germany—Hist.—Revolution, 1918- 36-12289

"Clear and dispassionate story of the German Republic between the years 1918 and 1930. . . He guides the reader clearly through a maze of political complications, giving a clear and deeply interesting picture of German political methods and weaknesses." Times (London) lit. sup.

Notes and documents: p323-41

Schuman, Frederick Lewis, 1904-

* Germany since 1918. Holt 1937 128p (Berkshire studies in European history) $1 943

1 Germany—History—Revolution, 1918- (W) 37-24241

A short historical evaluation of the governmental changes that have taken place during the postwar period

"Especially designed for college students, it will be no less useful to any reader desiring a brief survey by a competent authority." Christian century

Nazi dictatorship; a study in social pathology and the politics of fascism. 2d ed rev Knopf 1936 516p $3.75 943

1 Fascism 2 Germany—Politics and government 3 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 4 National socialism 36-10464

First published 1935. In the second edition no extensive revision has been made, but minor errors have been corrected and a section added on the events of 1936

"The book differs from others in being a fairly detailed chronicle of developments as well as an 'interpretation.' It is imperfect in detail and biased as a whole. Nevertheless, it affords a usable compendium of the principal facts, presents a theory which is in many respects interesting, and essays a general commentary on Fascism that is well worth the attention of American readers." Commonweal

Shuster, George Nauman, 1894-

Strong man rules; an interpretation of Germany today. Appleton-Century 1934 291p $2 943

1 Germany—Politics and government 2 Germany—Religion 3 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- 4 National socialism 34-22918

"Based on personal observation in Germany and written in popular style, this book gives what seems to be a fair and openminded interpretation of what has occurred in recent months. With no sympathy for Hitler as man or leader, the author, who is managing editor of 'The Commonweal,' Catholic weekly, shows unusual understanding of the causes behind his rise to power." Wis. bul.

Shuster, George N.—Continued
Bibliography: p287-91

Stone, Shepard, 1908-
‡ Shadow over Europe; the challenge of Nazi Germany; with 17 maps by Emil Herlin. Foreign policy 1938 94p maps (Headline bks) pa 25c 943
1 Europe—Politics—1914- 2 Germany—Politics and government 3 Hitler, Adolf, 1889- (W) 39-143
"A balanced and temperate, even if entirely anti-German, appraisal of the role of Germany in world affairs." Book-of-the-month club news

Waln, Nora, 1895-
Reaching for the stars. Little 1939 380p $3 943
1 Austria—Social life and customs 2 Germany—Politics and government 3 Germany—Social life and customs (W) 39-27161
A record of four years in Germany, 1934-1938. The author entered Germany unprejudiced against the German government or the German people. Her story is a fair one, but it is also an indignant protest against injustice and inhumanity
Appeared in "Atlantic monthly"

943.6 AUSTRIA

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended: Fuchs, Martin. Showdown in Vienna; the death of Austria; tr. from the German by C. H. Lumley. Putnam 1939 311p $3
Jaszi, Oszkar. Dissolution of the Habsburg monarchy; a failure in civic training. Univ. of Chicago press 1929 xxiv, 488p $3 Contains useful material not easily available elsewhere

Glaise von Horstenau, Edmund
Collapse of the Austro-Hungarian empire; tr. by I. F. D. Morrow. Dutton 1930 347p illus $5 943.6
1 Austria—History 2 European war, 1914-1918—Austria 31-12763
"A survey of the events that led up to the downfall of the Austro-Hungarian empire in the World war, which covers mainly the years 1916 to 1918. There is a bibliography, and an index of persons." Book rev. digest
"Although written by an Austrian, who remained to the end a loyal subject of his emperor . . . the Collapse is remarkably free from partisanship or rancor, and it painstakingly assigns credit and blame where, on the basis of the available sources, credit and blame seem to be due. Few volumes contain such clear, precise, and penetrating character sketches of the men prominent in the events of 1914-1918 as does that of Director Horstenau." Hist. outlook

Lennhoff, Eugen, 1891-
Last five hours of Austria; with an introduction by Paul Frischauer. Stokes 1938 269p $2.50 943.6
1 Austria—History 2 Austria—Politics and government (W) 38-27503
"The editor of the Vienna Telegraph, an anti-Nazi evening newspaper, describes graphically the last five hours before von Schuschnigg's resignation, and the taking over of Austria by Nazis." Book rev. digest
"As profound a picture as a quick and trained glance at reality can catch. He sees with his own eyes and the hundred more of his staff. His intimate knowledge of locale and personnel allows him access to the news when it breaks and often before." Nation

Schuschnigg, Kurt von, 1897-
My Austria; with an introduction by Dorothy Thompson; tr. from the German by John Segrue) Knopf 1938 xxxviii, 308p illus $3 943.6
1 Austria—History and government 2 Austria—Politics (W) 38-27425
Published in England under title: Farewell Austria
Part autobiography, part political history, this book describes the three distinct periods in the history of the Austrian state: the old Empire that died in 1918; the parliamentary-democratic republic which came to an end in 1933; and the Austria of yesterday—the period of Dollfuss and Schuschnigg himself

Sedgwick, Henry Dwight, 1861-
Vienna; the biography of a bygone city. Bobbs 1939 336p illus $3.75 943.6
1 Vienna—History 39-11070
"A history of the city of Vienna from its beginnings in medieval times, down to March, 1938. Brief bibliography." Book rev. digest
"He is more than a chronicler, more than an admirer; he is deeply in love with this city of which he writes. He loves her with all her qualities and all her shortcomings, and it is his love of the city and his deep and despairing sorrow at the cruel fate that has befallen her that will recommend the book." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

943.7 CZECHOSLOVAK REPUBLIC

R. J. Kerner's "Bohemia in the eighteenth century" (Macmillan 1932 412p $4) is recommended for a study in political, economic and social history with special reference to the reign of Leopold II, 1790-1792

Beneš, Eduard, 1884-
My war memoirs; tr. from the Czech by Paul Selver. Allen, G. 1928 512p front 21s 943.7
1 European war, 1914-1918—Czechoslovak Republic 29-5722
Formerly carried also by Houghton
"A detailed account of the Czech nationalist movement and the establishment of the Czechoslovak Republic. The author . . . took a leading part in this movement, acting as General Secretary of the Czechoslovak National Council, a body which worked all through the War for the formation and recognition of the new republic. Should be read in connection with President T. G. Masaryk's 'Making of a nation.'" Cleveland

Hindus, Maurice Gerschon, 1891-
We shall live again. Doubleday 1939 367p $3 943.7
1 Europe—Politics—1914- 2 Czechoslovak Republic (W) 39-27451
A record of the author's impressions and observations of Czechoslovakia where he traveled extensively in 1938, studying the country and its people. He describes the days of the crisis of 1939 and the final collapse of the government

Hindus, Maurice G.—Continued

"Mr. Hindus has given us a memorable account of those weeks which profoundly affected the history of our times, and as the events then and since fall into their proper perspective such testimony as his can only grow in value." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Krofta, Kamil, 1876-

Short history of Czechoslovakia; foreword by J. G. Masaryk; tr. by W. Beardmore. Williams & Norgate 1934 200p illus map 7s 6d 943.7

1 Bohemia—History 2 Czechoslovak Republic—History [34-28494]

Formerly carried also by McBride

"A small book that will be a convenient source for those wanting information on this European state, its past and its relation to other nations." Wis. bul.

Lützow, Franz Heinrich Hieronymus Valentin, graf von, 1849-1916

Bohemia; an historical sketch. [rev ed] Dutton 1939 379p maps (Everyman's lib.) 90c 943.7

1 Bohemia—History 39-27789

First published in 1896, revised in 1910. In the latest edition the history has been continued to the dismemberment of 1939

"Presents the English reader with an accurate picture of our past. In this work Count Lützow succeeded in correctly interpreting the spirit of Bohemian history, the significance of which lies as much in the nation's fight for freedom of conscience as in a struggle for national existence against the mighty pressure of Germanism." T. G. Masaryk in Introduction

Masaryk, Tomáš Garrigue, president Czechoslovak Republic, 1859-1937

Making of a state; memories and observations, 1914-1918: an English version, arranged and prepared with an introduction by H. W. Steed. Allen, G. 1927 461p front 21s 943.7

1 Czechoslovak Republic—Politics and government 2 European war, 1914-1918—Bohemia 27-23931

"President Masaryk's volume is unique in the vast literature of the war as the narrative of the making of a nation; but it is no less unique in the wealth of its reflections. Its pages are studded by numberless comments of an extraordinarily erudite and thoughtful mind on the character and society, the thought and the literature of the countries in which he resided at successive stages of his pilgrimage." Nation and Athenaeum

Wiskemann, Elizabeth

Czechs and Germans; a study of the struggle in the historic provinces of Bohemia and Moravia. Oxford 1938 299p maps $5 943.7

1 Czechoslovak Republic—Politics and government 2 Germans in Czechoslovak Republic 3 Minorities (W) 38-23717

Also available in a cheaper edition at $3

"A history of Czechoslovakia, with a detailed review of the political, cultural and economic questions which form a background for the present crisis. Events following the German annexation of Austria are not included. A sober, objective book, useful for students and intelligent readers." Bkl.

943.8 POLAND

Buell, Raymond Leslie, 1896-

Poland: key to Europe. Knopf 1939 346p map $3 943.8

1 Minorities 2 Poland—Economic policy 3 Poland—Foreign relations 4 Poland—Politics and government (W) 39-27357

Contents: Importance of Poland; Lessons from the past; Resurrection of a state; Political system; Economic dilemma; State capitalism; Agricultural question; Emigration versus colonies; The minorities: the Germans; The minorities: the Ukrainians; The minorities; the Jewish question; Foreign policy

"Mr. Buell writes with cool ink. The conflicts that range from the outrages of the Teutonic Knights to the minority persecutions of modern days find dispassionate treatment and painstaking documentation." Christian science monitor

Dyboski, Roman, 1883-

Poland; with a foreword by H. A. L. Fisher. Benn 1933 443p (Modern world) 21s 943.8

1 Poland [33-31276]

Formerly carried also by Scribner

Two chapters are devoted to the early history of Poland; the remainder of the book is devoted to post war problems, minorities, economic life, education, literature and art. The record of the Pilsudski régime is considered and alternatives to the vexed Corridor problems are suggested

"Here is a Polish scholar with a thorough knowledge of English who tells us of the new Poland and the present day problems which must be solved. The book is exhaustive and authoritative." Cincinnati

Bibliography: p425-30

Roman Dyboski's "Outlines of Polish history" (Allen, G. 1925 282p map 7s 6d) is a scholarly, compact history of political, social and economic aspects from 962 thru 1918

Machray, Robert, 1857-

Poland of Pilsudski. . . Dutton 1937 508p illus map $3.75 943.8

1 Pilsudski, Joseph, 1867-1935 2 Poland—History [37-10660]

Incorporates the material in the author's former book "Poland 1914-1931" in a condensed form and in four new chapters continues the history to July 1936

Bibliography: p487-89

943.9 HUNGARY

Eckhart, Ferenc

Short history of the Hungarian people. Richards, Grant 1931 244p maps o.p. 1939 943.9

1 Hungary—History [31-22266]

A clear, concise history from earliest times to the outbreak of the European war. Written for the benefit of the uninformed English reader. Contains four maps

Vámbéry, Ármin, 1832-1913

Story of Hungary; by Arminius Vambery with the collaboration of Louis Heilprin. Putnam 1886 453p illus map (Story of the nations) o.p. 1939 943.9

1 Hungary—History 3-18588

A good readable history of Hungary which comes down to the inauguration of the new constitution of Austria-Hungary

Vámbéry, Ármin—Continued
in 1868. Also published under title: Hungary in ancient, mediaeval and modern times (1887)

944 FRANCE

In addition to the books listed in this class, the followed titles are recommended:

Adams, G. B. Growth of the French nation. Macmillan 1896 350p illus $3 A condensed history to 1895 which retains its popularity although it is somewhat out of date

Tilley, A. A. ed. Modern France; a companion to French studies. Macmillan 1922 xxxii,850p illus $12 A complete summary of important activities and achievements in every department of art, science, literature and philosophy, each section written by an authority in his field

Duruy, Victor, 1811-1894
Short history of France. Dutton 1917 2v (Everyman's lib.) ea 90c 944

1 France—History A18-312

A translation of the original edition (1873) by L. C. Jane and Lucy Menzies. A later edition which covered the post-war period was formerly published by Crowell (1929 809p maps o.p. 1939)
Interesting and well written book by a French historian

Guignebert, Charles Alfred Honoré, 1867-
Short history of the French people; tr. by F. G. Richmond. Macmillan 1930 2v $5 944

1 France—History 30-8618

The first volume begins with the prehistoric France, but the greater part of it covers the period from the treaty of Verdun to 1559. The second volume extends from the Renaissance to 1914
"The object here has been not to write a thorough history of France, but to show some of the active influences that have linked one century to another and helped to make the France of to-day." Providence
Bibliography at end of each chapter

Huddleston, Sisley, 1883-
France. Scribner 1927 613p (Modern world) $5 944

1 France—History 27-26404

"Sisley Huddleston, in seeking a true interpretation of the France of today, has based his comment on enough history to explain the economic, financial, political, social and religious influences now at work. He has given an illuminating and faithful portrait of the French people, whom he has long known intimately and learned to love for their virtues and their faults." Literary rev.
Bibliographies at chapter ends

Sedgwick, Henry Dwight, 1861-
* France; a short history of its politics, literature, and art from earliest times to the present. Little 1929 418p illus map $3.50 944

1 Art, French 2 France—History 3 French literature—History and criticism 29-11617

"Its aim is to give a slight but continuous sketch in outline of the political growth of France from the time when she first became a Latin country up to the end of the Great War—in short, a brief biography of France." Preface
"Mr Sedgwick chooses his material with fine selectiveness, composes it with excellent emphasis and writes with ease, charm and pictorial power. In short, this necessarily rather slight history is an informing presentation and a work of art." Springfield Republican

Seignobos, Charles, 1854-
Evolution of the French people; tr. from the French by C. A. Phillips. Knopf 1932 382p $3.75 944

1 France—History 32-28918

"Relates the origin and development of the material conditions, the customs and the institutions which form the substance of French life from the earliest times to the present. The author allots little space to political and military affairs or to individuals, but stresses rather agriculture, trade, commerce, industry, and the arts and sciences. A comprehensive, scholarly volume." Ontario library review

Van Dyke, Paul, 1859-1933
Story of France from Julius Caesar to Napoleon III. Scribner 1928 539p $1.75 944

1 France—History 28-24393

"This book is for those readers who may want a sketch of French history which is neither a summary crammed with names and dates, nor a vague record of the writer's reactions to facts his reader is not told, but rather a suggestion, as definite as brevity permits, of what France has suffered, gained and done in 2,000 years." Preface
"Mr. van Dyke has attempted to compress into some 500 pages the history of France from Julius Cæsar to the Third Republic. The difficulty of such an undertaking is to work it out to scale. Mr. van Dyke has been reasonably successful. It is a conscientious piece of guidework." Saturday rev.

944.01 Early period to 987

Funck-Brentano, Frantz, 1862-
Earliest times; tr. from the French by E. F. Buckley. Putnam 1927 437p (National hist. of France) $5 944.01

1 France—History—To 1328 2 Gaul—History [27-19251]

"This volume, the first in time in the National history of France series, covers the beginnings of French history from prehistoric times to the tenth century. The chronicle of Celtic and Roman Gaul and the Merovingian and Carlovingian dynasties is told in popular and readable style." Book rev. digest
"It would be difficult to imagine a more fullblooded introduction to a mighty theme; and there are few more comforting phenomena in modern times than the enthusiasm which the distinguished author of this volume succeeds in keeping up for his subject." Nation and Athenaeum

944.02 Capet and Valois, 987-1589

Additional books of interest to the student of this period are:

Thompson, J. W. Wars of religion in France; the Huguenots, Catherine de Medici and Philip II. Univ. of Chicago press 1909 635p illus maps o.p. 1939

Tilley, A. A. ed. Medieval France; a companion to French studies. Macmillan 1922 456p maps $8

Batiffol, Louis, 1865-

Century of the renaissance. . . tr. by E. F. Buckley; with an introduction by J. E. C. Bodley. Putnam 1916 xxvii,428p (National hist. of France) $5 944.02

1 France—History—Bourbons, 1589-1789 2 France—History—House of Valois, 1328-1589 3 Renaissance A16-712

"M Batiffol is a skilful guide through that most important century of human progress which spans the interval between the middle ages and modern civilization. . . The author instead of subjective dissertations on the origins of events and movements, gives us a series of vivid pictures and portraits, chiefly taken from contemporary records." J. E. C. Bodley in Introduction.

"Mr. Batiffol here sets a high standard of matter and presentation; and if, as in the case of Henri III, his judgments sometimes differ from older writers, he supports his views with abundant scholarship. The book is heartily to be commended. It has chapter bibliographies, and a good index." Library association record

Crowned by the Académie des sciences morales et politiques

Funck-Brentano, Frantz, 1862-

* Middle ages; tr. from the French by Elizabeth O'Neill. Putnam 1923 555p (National hist. of France) $5 944.02

1 France—History—House of Valois, 1328-1589 [23-5490]

"The book is clearly and vividly written . . . in the characteristic and delightful style of the French historians, well planned and organized chapters, profusely illuminated with countless illustrative episodes and anecdotes, usually drawn from contemporary chroniclers." Nation

Bibliographies at end of chapters

Luchaire, Achille, 1846-1908

Social France at the time of Philip Augustus; authorized tr. from the 2d ed of the French by E. B. Krehbiel. Smith, P. 441p $5 944.02

1 France—History—To 1328 2 France—Social life and customs [12-15163]

Reprint of a book first published 1912 by Holt

A volume which "assembles the fruits of the labors of an industrious French specialist in the field of mediaeval history." N.Y. Times

"The value and interest of his book are unquestionable. The general reader will enjoy its picturesque detail, and historical students may refer to it with safety." Spectator

944.03 Bourbon 1589-1789

Boulenger, Jacques Romain, 1879-

Seventeenth century; tr. from the French. Putnam 1920 412p (National hist. of France) $5 944.03

1 France—History—Bourbons, 1589-1789 [20-26872]

A study of the reigns of Louis XIII and Louis XIV

"Boulenger has undertaken a difficult task, and he has done it well. Though treating the general history of a whole century in some detail, he is neither superficial nor tiringly technical. One feature of his book is especially commendable; the author's desire to be non-partisan." Review of reviews

Bibliographies at chapter ends

Perkins, James Breck, 1847-1910

France under Mazarin, with a review of the administration of Richelieu. Houghton 1886 2v illus o.p. 1939 944.03

1 France—History—Bourbons, 1589-1789 2 Mazarin, Jules, cardinal, 1602-1661 3 Richelieu, Armand Jean du Plessis, cardinal, duc de, 1585-1642 [4-609]

"About a third of the work is given to Richelieu; about a third (six chapters out of twenty) to the Fronde; and three chapters at the end are of a general nature, upon the administration, society, and religion. The reader lays aside the book with a higher estimate of Mazarin's ability and character. The style is for the most part excellent." Nation

J. B. Perkins's "France under the regency with a review of the administration of Louis XIV" (Houghton 1892 603p $3) covers the regency of the Duke of Orleans and the important phases of the reign of Louis XIV. Of this book and the one entered above, the Guide to historical literature says "the narrative portions are particularly valuable, the descriptions of economic and social conditions hardly less so"

Stryienski, Casimir, 1853-1912

Eighteenth century . . . tr. from the French by H. N. Dickinson. Putnam 1916 344p (National hist. of France) $5 944.03

1 France—History—Bourbons, 1589-1789 16-20287

Begins with 1715 and is continued under five headings: Regency of the Duc d'Orléans; The Duc de Bourbon and Cardinal Fleury; Louis XV; Louis XVI; The artistic and literary movement

"M. Stryienski writes tersely and clearly and he has managed to work a great many events into his narrative without becoming tedious. . . Regarded as old-fashioned history corrected by modern lights, M. Stryienski's book is quite a good specimen." Times (London) lit. sup.

Crowned by the Académie des sciences morales et politiques

Bibliographies at most of the chapter ends

Taine, Hippolyte Adolphe, 1828-1893

Ancient régime; tr. by John Durand. Smith, P. 421p (Origins of contemporary France) $4 944.03

1 France—Civilization 2 France—Politics and government 3 France—Social life and customs

A 1931 reprint of one of the classics of French history, first published in 1875. This volume depicts the different phases of society during the hundred years preceding the revolution and shows how these conditions produced the revolution. For an estimate of Taine see note under his "French revolution," class 944.04

944.04 Revolution, 1789-1804

Leo Gershoy's "French revolution and Napoleon" (Crofts 1933 576p maps text ed $3.75) is a well written text, fully abreast of modern research which might be added if additional books are needed on the Revolution

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870-

French revolution. Holt 1911 256p illus maps (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 944.04

1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799
11-12435

"It aims less to recount the history of the revolution than to lay an explanation of it before the English reader. The study sketches the great characters of the revolution, and discusses its theoretic basis, military developments and relations to the church." Book rev. digest

"Nowhere will the ordinary reader find the meaning of these eventful five years [1789-94] made so clear as in Mr. Belloc's little book." Spectator

Brinton, Clarence Crane, 1898-

Decade of revolution, 1789-1799. Harper 1934 330p illus maps (Rise of modern Europe) $3.75 944.04

1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799
34-33841

This is volume one of a projected series of twenty volumes which will survey the history of Europe from the middle ages to the present

"This short, scholarly, critical history of the French revolution will be prized by students, and because it is stimulating and is written in a vigorous, attractive style, the general reader also will enjoy it." Cincinnati

Bibliographical essay: p291-322

Carlyle, Thomas, 1795-1881

French revolution, a history. . . ed. with an introduction by H. D. Traill. Scribner 3v v 1, 3 ea $2.50, v2 o.p. 1939 944.04

1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799
4-17622

The edition with introduction and notes by J. H. Rose (Harcourt 3v) is unfortunately out of print, 1939. An edition is obtainable with an introduction by Hilaire Belloc (Dutton 2v $6) illustrated with 12 drawings by G. E. Chambers. It is also obtainable in the World classics (Oxford 2v ea 80c) edited by C. R. L. Fletcher

"As these volumes were completed in 1837, the question of their value for the present generation of readers is pertinent. No one would consult them for information upon matters in which Carlyle was not interested, such as the financial collapse which occasioned the Revolution or the social and civil institutions which grew out of it. Nevertheless, so eminent an authority as Professor Aulard regards Carlyle's work as good history. He believes that Carlyle was a true interpreter who discerned in the common people the real hero of the epic struggle. He adds that he was as well documented as the best informed of French writers in that time when the archives were still closed. . . Such annotated editions as those of Rose and Fletcher are useful because Carlyle's individual statements often require the correction of later knowledge." Guide to hist. lit.

Hazen, Charles Downer, 1868-

French revolution and Napoleon. Holt 1917 385p maps (American historical ser.) o.p. 1939 944.04

1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799
2 Napoleon I, emperor of the French, 1769-1821
17-8744

The author has brought together in this volume the chapters from his "Modern European history" that deal with the French revolution and Napoleon

"The work of Professor Hazen is admirably done. He has a rare talent for the clear and compact statement of complex facts. His sense of historic perspective is just and his power of connected narrative is highly developed. His style is animated, simple and happily colored. His volume is generously illustrated with maps, mostly in color." N.Y. Times

C. D. Hazen's "French revolution" (Holt 1932 2v $7.50) is a more comprehensive treatment of the background, causes, and effects of the revolution

Lecky, William Edward Hartpole, 1838-1903

French revolution; chapters from the author's History of England during the eighteenth century; with historical notes by H. E. Bourne. Appleton-Century 585p (Appleton dollar lib.) $1 944.04

1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799
30-19019

"This volume is made up of the three chapters in Mr. Lecky's History of England during the Eighteenth Century which discuss the causes of the French Revolution and describe its progress until the outbreak of the war with England . . . He does not treat the internal history of even the early Revolution quite in the same manner or in as much detail as if this had been his principal theme. He describes it sufficiently to make clear its influence upon English politics or upon the general European situation as this was likely sooner or later to affect England." H. E. Bourne in Introduction

Lowell, Edward Jackson, 1845-1894

Eve of the French revolution. Houghton 1892 408p $3 944.04

1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799
2 France—Social conditions [27-16379]

"In Mr. Lowell's view, the year 1789 is a date which 'marks the outbreak in legislation and politics of ideas which had already been working for a century, and which have changed the face of the civilized world.' His book is a thoughtful study of those ideas in their rise and development." Larned's History for ready reference

Index of editions cited: p389-97

Madelin, Louis, 1871-

Figures of the Revolution; tr. from the French by Richard Curtis. . . Macaulay 1929 342p illus o.p. 1939 944.04

1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799
29-30571

Published in England under title: Revolutionaries (Arrowsmith 7s 6d)

"Biographical sketches of the following: La Fayette, Mirabeau, Talleyrand, the Girondins and Madame Roland, Danton, Robespierre, Dumouriez, and L'abbé Sieyès

"One feels a solid background of knowledge bred of research behind the author's fluid and brilliant style. It is a style that is sophisticated, breathless and often epigrammatic. Each great one is subjected to a scrutiny which is merciless though, one feels, eminently fair. It is a highly entertaining book." Current history

Illustrated with portraits from linoleum blocks by K. S. Woerner

* French revolution. . . tr. from the French. Putnam 1916 661p (National hist. of France) $5 944.04

1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799
16-20286

"Object . . . is to divide the great epic into its episodes, and throw as much light as possible on each with representative

Madelin, Louis—Continued
traits. The erudition used is enormous without any display, and the work is as picturesque as well informed." Saturday rev.
Bibliographies at end of most of the chapters

Mathews, Shailer, 1863-
French revolution, 1789-1815. new rev and enl ed Longmans 1923 466p $2.25 944.04
1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799 23-4365
First published 1900. The earlier edition ended with 1799. This account extends to the fall of Napoleon, 1815
"Clearly written, well organized, comprehensive. Particularly good for its account of the causes, in which the author stresses the improving conditions of the peasants and their awakening sense of injustice." Wesley's Bibliographies for teachers of the social studies

Taine, Hippolyte Adolphe, 1828-1893
French Revolution; tr. by John Durand. Smith, P. 3v (Origins of contemporary France) ea $4 944.04
1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799
First published 1878-85
"Work of immense influence upon opinions held in the English-speaking world concerning the destruction of the old régime and the beginnings of the new. Its influence in France has been scarcely less marked, although from the first competent scholars protested at the defects of Taine's method... Taine believed that his methods of investigation were rigidly scientific, but Professor Aulard has shown ... that his researches were controlled by fixed ideas and that the bases of his conclusions were inadequate. As his work proceeded it was more and more affected by violent prejudices against the revolutionaries and their types of thought. It nevertheless remains of suggestive value for its acute observations and striking analyses." Guide to hist. lit.

Tocqueville, Alexis Charles Henri Maurice Clerel de, 1805-1859
L'ancien régime; tr. by M. W. Patterson. Blackwell 232p 7s 6d 944.04
1 France—History—Revolution, 1789-1799 [34-11294]
First published 1856
"Still one of the most valuable works on the eighteenth century; deals almost exclusively with the old régime; based upon a wide study of documents, though unfortunately few references are given." Guide to hist. lit.

944.05 First empire, 1804-1815

Belloc, Hilaire, 1870-
Campaign of 1812 and the retreat from Moscow. Nelson 1924 270p illus maps 2s 6d 944.05
1 Napoléon I, emperor of the French, 1769-1821 24-24825
Formerly carried also by Harper under title: Napoleon's campaign of 1812
"Belloc's account of the adventure which ruined Napoleon was largely written upon the sites of the campaign which it describes. It is a military account, as sound historically as it is dramatic in narration, of the strategy of the Russian campaign and the retreat from Moscow. Many sketch maps are included." Book rev. digest
"He writes with distinction and a certain dramatic effectiveness. His book is as forceful as it is concise and lucid." Independent

Guedalla, Philip, 1889-
* Hundred days. Putnam 1934 176p (Great occasions) $1.75 944.05
1 Napoleon I, emperor of the French, 1769-1821 34-27237
"Describes in detail Napoleon's escape from Elba, his arrival in France, his triumphal march to Paris, and his defeat at Waterloo." Book rev. digest
"In just over a hundred and fifty pages, Mr. Guedalla has contrived to give his readers an astonishingly vivid account of the Hundred Days. Not one of the dramatic or melodramatic incidents of that wonderful journey from Porto Ferrajo to Paris is omitted... The four drawings of the battlefield, made within a day or two of the action, and taken from His Majesty's collection at Windsor, are not the least remarkable feature of a very interesting book." Spectator
Authorities: p172-76

Madelin, Louis, 1871-
Consulate and the empire; tr. from the French by E. F. Buckley. Putnam 1934-36 2v (National hist. of France) ea $5 944.05
1 France—History—Consulate and empire, 1799-1815 34-2511
Contents: v 1 1789-1809; v2 1809-1815
"Such is the perennial interest in Napoleon that a new book on this subject is sure of a welcome, provided that it has something fresh to say, some new or illuminating point of view... M. Louis Madelin has already contributed 'The French Revolution' to the series, and the excellence of that work raised expectations respecting this his next book which here are amply fulfilled." Saturday rev.
Bibliography at end of most of the chapters

944.06 Restoration, 1815-1848

Artz, Frederick Binkerd
France under the Bourbon restoration, 1814-1830. Harvard univ. press 1931 443p illus $4.50 944.06
1 France—History—Restoration, 1814-1848 31-6505
"Economists will find in this vivid portrayal of the Restoration a remarkably complete picture of the social and economic conditions that dominate the development of thought and institutions in France throughout the nineteenth century. The book is a notable achievement both in style and in method." American economic review
Bibliography: p395-434

Lucas-Dubreton, Jean
Restoration and the July monarchy; tr. from the French by E. F. Buckley. Putnam 1929 380p (National hist. of France) $5 944.06
1 France—History—Restoration, 1814-1848 [29-16694]
It is not confined to political history. Several chapters are devoted to the intellectual and social life of the period
"M. Lucas-Dubreton's book is one in a series to which M. Madelin and M. Recouly are among the other contributors, and it is very high and at the same time very well deserved praise to say that the new addition is entirely worthy of the distinguished company in which it offers itself." Saturday rev.

Lucas-Debreton, Jean—Continued
Bibliography at end of each chapter

944.07 Second empire, 1852-1870

Guedalla, Philip, 1889-
* Second empire. New uniform ed Hodder 362p 7s 6d 944.07
1 France—History—Second empire, 1852-1870 2 Napoleon III, emperor of the French, 1808-1873
First published 1922. Formerly carried also by Putnam
"This history, written in a manner suggestive of Lytton Strachey and with an irony equal to his, covers a longer period than the title implies, since in following the involved fortunes of the Bonaparte family and in setting the stage for the history of France in the Second empire the historian is obliged to go back to the beginning of the nineteenth century. The book is also a personal narrative of Napoleon III from his birth in 1808, and follows his career as prince, president and emperor. The history is introduced by a study of Bonapartism and the growth of the Napoleonic legend." Book rev. digest
"As a piece of literary workmanship, it is exceedingly brilliant. Mr. Guedalla has the power of vivid narration, of picturesque description and penetrating phrase . . . Whatever its scholarly shortcomings, [the volume] is infused with that appealing quality, constructive imagination." Atlantic's bookshelf
Bibliography

944.08 Third republic, 1870-

Bourgeois, Émile, 1857-
History of modern France, 1815-1913. Macmillan 1919 2v map (Cambridge historical ser.) $8 944.08
1 France—History—Second empire, 1852-1870 2 France—History—Third republic, 1870- [19-9159]
"Careful study, by one of the most prominent authorities on modern France; centers about the growth of French democracy during the nineteenth century; indicates in detail the various obstacles that this development encountered; remarkably fair in judgments and conclusions. The chapters on the Second Republic and the Second Empire are especially valuable. Good bibliography." Guide to hist. lit.

Daladier, Édouard, 1884-
In defense of France (Défense du pays). Doubleday 1939 239p $2.50 944.08
1 France—Foreign relations 2 France—Politics and government—1914- (W) 39-27784
Published in England under title: Defence of France
A "translation of the principal speeches I have made during a year as Prime Minister of the Government of the Republic—since April 1938—with a series of explanations and commentaries." To America
"Not published in this collection in chronological order but according to subjects—finance, labour, foreign policy, and so on. This method is not helpful if one wishes to judge the 'Daladier experiment' as a whole." Manchester guardian

Recouly, Raymond, 1876-
Third republic; tr. from the French by E. F. Buckley. Putnam 1928 382p (National hist. of France) $5 944.08
1 France—History—Third republic, 1870- [28-23849]
"Beginning with the Commune, and the supremacy of Thiers, omitting unimportant details, and advancing by regular stages, the author shows us how the Republic has triumphed over all its enemies and passed through the ambush of its young days. . . The translation is clear and easy." New statesman
"This book is interestingly written. It is not a profound and even within its limits not a wholly satisfactory work. Its frame-work and standpoint are to a considerable extent conventional and it hardly aims at impartiality." Saturday rev.
Bibliography at end of most of the chapters

Taine, Hippolyte, Adolphe, 1828-1893
Modern régime; tr. by John Durand. Smith, P. 2v (Origins of contemporary France) ea $4 944.08
1 France—Civilization 2 France—Politics and government 3 France—Social life and customs 31-27016
A reprint of the edition published 1890-94 by Holt
"Object to account for condition of modern France by analyzing ideas and institutions of the revolution and empire. A storehouse of information." Nation
For an estimate of Taine see note under his French revolution," class 944.04

945 Italy

Two studies of the Risorgimento which may be needed are:
Berkeley, G. F. Italy in the making. Macmillan 1933-36 2v v 1 $4, v2 $6
Thayer, W. R. Dawn of Italian independence Houghton 1893 2v o.p. 1939 An important work covering a limited field of Italian history (1814-49) which is out of date but still useful

Barnes, James Strachey, 1890-
Fascism. Holt 1931 251p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) student's ed $1 945
1 Fascism [31-9247]
The author's "business is with Fascism as a sociological conception. It is an attempt to correct the error into which the Renaissance fell when it accepted Greek individualism at the complete sacrifice of Roman authority and so in the end fell away into mere materialism. Fascism is a reaction against this development . . . Major Barnes handles his theme with enthusiasm and knowledge." Times (London) lit. sup.
Bibliography: p246-49

Borgese, Giuseppe Antonio, 1882-
Goliath; the march of fascism. Viking 1937 483p $3 945
1 Fascism 2 Italy—Foreign relations 3 Italy—Politics and government (W) 37-28584
"An interpretation of the rise of fascism showing how it had been anticipated by the ideas of Dante, Machiavelli, Garibaldi and others in preparation for the building of Mussolini's pseudo-Roman empire. The spread of fascism in other parts of the world is pictured, as well as the reactions to the movement. An important book." Ontario public library

Burkhardt, Jakob Christoph, 1818-1897

Civilization of the renaissance in Italy. Oxford 640p illus $2.50 945

1 Italy—Civilization 2 Renaissance
38-18705

A Phaidon press book. Translated by S. G. C. Middlemore. A beautiful edition of this famous work first published in an English edition in 1878. It contains over 421 reproductions in photogravure arranged at the end of the book under such headings as: Cities and rulers of the renaissance, Emperors, kings and popes, The church, etc

An edition of the Middlemore translation is also published by Macmillan at $6.40 without illustrations

"The scope of the book is to discuss the renaissance in its various aspects, more specially literary, social, political and moral." Athenaeum

Croce, Benedetto, 1866-

History of Italy, 1871-1915; tr. by C. M. Ady. Oxford 1929 333p $5 945

1 Italy—History 29-26884

"Croce brings to his picture of the age succeeding 1870 all the resources of a mind steeped in knowledge of the politics and persons, the social and moral conditions of the time, as well as the acumen of the trained philosophic thinker. His method is rather that of the survey than the chronicle; but he does not neglect events, and while his style is usually sober, he can occasionally rise to a restrained and excellent eloquence. He is fortunate, too, in having found as his translator so accomplished a writer and Italian scholar as Miss Ady." Spectator

Finer, Herman, 1898-

* Mussolini's Italy. Gc 1935 564p illus 18s 945

1 Fascism 2 Italy—Politics and government 3 Mussolini, Benito, 1883-
A36-317

Formerly carried also by Holt

"Dr. Finer's book is a work of reference, and no student of modern Italy can fail to be grateful . . . for the thoroughness and accuracy of his account. . . The result is a singularly varied and illuminating contribution to political science. It is but rarely that a historian addresses himself so directly and so clearly to what is, after all, the central problem of history—the relationship between an outstanding man and the events in which he plays a part." Times (London) lit. sup.

Jamison, Evelyn Mary, and others

Italy, mediaeval and modern, a history, by E. M. Jamison, C. M. Ady, K. D. Vernon and C. S. Terry. Oxford 1917 564p maps $2.50 945

1 Italy—History 17-19811

Covers the period from the barbarian invasions to the year 1915. A good general sketch which is intended to serve as an introduction to more detailed studies. Contains maps, genealogical tables and bibliography

"The authors have devoted considerable space to political and ecclesiastical history . . . have called attention to the more remarkable achievements of the Italian spirit in the fields of art and philosophy and science, and the historical conditions which made these achievements possible, [and] finally, have traced, so far as it is possible to do so in a textbook, the working of those instincts . . . which from age to age promoted or retarded the cause of national unity." Preface

McClellan, George Brinton, 1865-

Modern Italy; a short history. Princeton univ. press 1933 319p map $3 945

1 Italy—History 33-9569

"A concise account of modern Italy from the Congress of Vienna to the present, a history that is sympathetic to Mussolini and the Fascist revolution." Book rev. digest

"A well-ordered book with a discriminating, historical perspective, proportionately a masterpiece of coherence in which events and persons receive wonderfully terse appraisements. Any intelligent reader may obtain therefrom a true idea of the formative forces which produced the Italy of Mussolini." N.Y. Times

List of books read or consulted: p283-98

Marriott, Sir John Arthur Ransome, 1859-

* Makers of modern Italy; Napoleon—Mussolini. Oxford 1931 228p maps $3.50 945

1 Italy—History 32-26068

"Though based on the author's earlier book of the same title, published by Macmillan in 1889, this is substantially a new work, entirely rewritten and now historical rather than biographical in form. It tells the story of the uniting of Italy, from 1796-through 1929. Five maps of Italy at different dates, and bibliography." Bkl.

"Should make a very wide appeal both to scholars and to the general reader." Saturday rev.

Salvatorelli, Luigi, 1886-

Concise history of Italy from prehistoric times to our own day; tr. by Bernard Miall. Oxford 1940 688p $5 945

1 Italy—History 40-27285

"A remarkably well-written synthesis of the political, social, and cultural history of Italy. It is not only readable but often valuable for its interpretation of important epochs of Italian history. The author never loses himself in a maze of details but tells his story simply and clearly." Boston Transcript

Bibliography: p631-63

Schmidt, Carl Theodore

Corporate state in action; Italy under fascism. Oxford 1939 173p $2.25 945

1 Corporate state 2 Fascism 3 Italy—Politics and government 39-27469

"Italian social and political history before fascism is traced briefly as an introduction to a description of the coming of fascism, the seizure of power, and the establishment of the dictatorship. The development of the corporate state, its effects on the workers, farmers, business, private property, and profits are discussed, with possible future consequences. Based on a year's study of conditions in the fascist régime." Bkl.

Selected bibliography: p166-68

Sedgwick, Henry Dwight, 1861-

Italy in the thirteenth century. Houghton 2v in 1 illus map $5 945

1 Catholic church 2 Civilization, Mediaeval 3 Italy—Civilization 4 Italy—History [12-26825]

A reprint of a book originally published in 1912 in two volumes

"Primarily devoted to Italy and Italian leaders in all fields of endeavor it nevertheless and naturally touches on the general aspects of European civilization. While intended to be what its title implies, a history of the thirteenth century only, it really covers the period from 1160

Sedgwick, Henry D.—Continued
to 1300. . . A comprehensive chronological and bibliographical appendix and a carefully made index add considerably to the value of the book to students." N.Y. Sun

‡ Short history of Italy (476-1900). Houghton 1905 443p map $3.50 945

1 Italy—History 5-36794

"This volume is a mere sketch in outline; it makes no pretence to original investigation, or even to an extended examination of the voluminous literature which deals with every part of its subject. It is an attempt to give a correct impression of Italian history as a whole, and employs details only here and there, and then merely for the sake of giving greater clearness to the general outline. . . I have laid emphasis upon the matters of greatest general interest, the Papacy, the Renaissance, and the Risorgimento." Pretace

"For the reading public rather than the scholar. Concise, brief, accurate and attractive in style." Pittsburgh

Bibliography: p430-31

Simonde de Sismondi, Jean Charles Léonard, 1773-1842

History of the Italian republics, being a view of the origin, progress & fall of Italian freedom. Dutton 338p (Everyman's lib.) 90c 945

1 Italy—History [A10-2372]

"We have endeavored to include in a single volume a summary of the events of which the Italian peninsula was the theatre, from the fall of the Roman empire to the end of the Middle Age." Introduction

"For many years the standard work on the subject. This abridged English edition is useful for securing a general view of the medieval Italian republics from the invasions to the sixteenth century. It must always be used with caution and, if possible, in connection with good histories of the individual states." Guide to hist. lit.

Bibliography: pref p9-10

Strachey, John, 1901-

Menace of fascism. Covici 1933 272p $2.25 945

1 Fascism 33-29623

"An exposition of the meaning of fascism, in which the author traces its background, discusses its economic causes, explains its first efforts to gain a foothold in any social system, how it develops in the life of a political organism until it is able to seize the power, and what are its ultimate purposes." Book rev. digest

"Not only has Mr. Strachey a good intellect and a brilliant, forceful pen, but he has also the immense advantage of understanding an Anglo-Saxon point of view. He refrains from the language of class hatred and unreason which destroys the persuasiveness of so much Communist literature. . . His analysis of the character and working of Fascism is cogent and lucid." Christian science monitor

Symonds, John Addington, 1840-1893

Renaissance in Italy; the age of the despots. 3d ed Scribner 1897 495p front $3.75 945

1 Italy—History 2 Renaissance [W13-80]

"Symonds was not only a learned historian but an acute critic of literature and art, and a writer of very considerable ability and charm. His numerous books are a rich treasure store of Renaissance learning." W. W. Davies's How to read history

Forms volume one of the author's "Renaissance in Italy." Various parts of this set are entered as follows: v 1 Age of the despots, class 945; v3 Fine arts, class 709.45; v4-5 Italian literature, class 850.9

Short history of the renaissance in Italy, taken from the work of J. A. Symonds by Alfred Pearson. Holt 1893 335p front $2.50 945

1 Renaissance 4-17642

Abridged from the author's seven volume work, "Renaissance in Italy." The complete, unabridged work may be obtained from Modern lib. (2v ea $1.25)

"Colonel Pearson's object has been to select and arrange for those who know Italy, or hope in the future to do so, whatever may sustain or promote an interest in its history, its art, and its literature." Preface

Trevelyan, George Macaulay, 1876-

* Garibaldi and the making of Italy, June-November 1860. . . Longmans 1911 390p illus maps $2.50 945

1 Garibaldi, Giuseppe, 1807-1882 2 Italy—History 11-35882

The third volume of a series which covers the times of Garibaldi. The three provide an accurate, scholarly and dramatic account of this interesting and important period in Italy's history. Each volume is illustrated and contains maps and full bibliographies

"Follows . . . Garibaldi and the Thousand, tracing picturesquely and with consumate skill the large military, diplomatic and political events between June and November 1860, by which the original achievements of the Thousand led to the unification of Italy." N.Y. state lib.

Two other volumes in the series by G. M. Trevelyan are:

Trevelyan, G. M. Garibaldi and the thousand. Longmans 1909 395p illus maps $2.50

Trevelyan, G. M. Garibaldi's defence of the Roman republic. Longmans 1907 377p illus maps $2.50

Trevelyan, Mrs Janet Penrose (Ward) 1879-

Short history of the Italian people from the Barbarian invasions to the attainment of unity. . . Putnam 1920 580p illus maps $6 945

1 Italy—History 20-6767

A condensed history covering the period from the barbarian invasions to Italy's entrance into the Great war. Based on work done by Italian, English, French and German scholars. Contains illustrations, maps and bibliography

"Mrs Trevelyan has wrestled with the difficulties of her subject with marked success. She has a thorough grasp of essentials and a due sense of proportion which have enabled her to produce an admirably balanced, well-arranged book, while she writes in a way that is sure to make it widely read." Athenaeum

945.3 Venice

There are a number of desirable books about Venetian history which are unfortunately out of print 1939. Two of these are:

Oliphant, Mrs M. O. W. Makers of Venice; doges, conquerors, painters and men of letters. Macmillan 1887 410p illus o.p. 1939

Thayer, W. R. Short history of Venice. Houghton 1905 355p maps o.p. 1939

Okey, Thomas, 1852-
Story of Venice; illus. by Nelly Erichsen. Dutton xxi,449p illus maps (Mediaeval towns ser.) $1.75 945.3

1 Venice 35-6668

First published 1903 with title: "Venice and its story;" reissued 1905 in the Mediaeval towns series; slightly revised 1931

Gives "the history of Venice as an independent state, covering a period of more than a thousand years, and including an account of Venetian art. The second part of the volume describes the Venice of [1905] dividing it into twenty sections and making the description a practical one for use by travellers." Book rev. digest

"This little work is a model of clear and concise narrative. The author knows how to make the most of his subject and tells his tale in a very attractive way." Times (London) lit. sup.

Thomas Okey's "Venice and its story" (Dutton 1930 325p illus map $5) is a more expensive edition issued under the original title. Combines history and description of the city. Attractively illustrated, partly in color

945.5 Tuscany

Two additional books on Tuscan cities are:

Schevill, Ferdinand. Siena; the story of a mediaeval commune. Scribner 1909 433p illus maps o.p. 1939

Villari, Pasquale. Two first centuries of Florentine history; the republic and parties at the time of Dante. new ed Scribner 1912 576p illus o.p. 1939 A valuable book for students, translated by L. W. M. Villari

Brinton, Selwyn John Curwen, 1859-
Golden age of the Medici. (Cosimo, Piero, Lorenzo de' Medici) 1434-1494. Methuen 1925 234p illus o.p. 1939 945.5

1 Florence—History 2 Medici, House of 3 Renaissance 26-2776

"A comprehensive history, by the well-known art historian, of Florentine life and art under Cosimo, Piero and Lorenzo de' Medici (1434-1494)." Boston

Gardner, Edmund Garratt, 1869-
Story of Florence. rev ed Dutton 1928 427p illus (Mediaeval towns ser.) $1.75 945.5

1 Florence—History [1-27179]

"As historian he is clear, as art critic convincing, as antiquary instructive, as guide entertaining and ubiquitous." Saturday rev.

Schevill, Ferdinand, 1868-
History of Florence; the founding of the city through the renaissance. Harcourt 1936 xxxiv,536p illus maps $5 945.5

1 Florence—History 2 Renaissance 36-21468

"A comprehensive, scholarly history of Florence from its earliest days to the end of the renaissance. The author, who has spent many years on this study, keeps the political history of the city in the foreground, but does not neglect its literary and artistic glories." Book rev. digest

"In the criticism, clarification, and synthesis of a great mass of printed material the author has produced a model of broad, well balanced, careful scholarship." Sat. rev. of lit.

945.6 Rome

Jackson, Margaret Hastings, and Hodder, Elisabeth
Seven sovereign hills of Rome. Longmans 1936 528p illus $3.50 945.6

1 Rome—History 2 Rome (City)—History 32-22216

"This history of Rome written for the general reader is in three parts: Ancient Rome; Rome of the renaissance; and Rome, capital of a United Italy. It is the work of two Wellesley professors. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"Professor Hodder's initials are set over only the first of the three sections into which the book is divided, her colleague taking up the tale at the beginning of the fourteenth century. There is, however, no difference either in tone or in method between the earlier and the later parts of the book, and the collaboration has resulted in a fund of rare learning." Times (London) lit. sup.

Young, Norwood, 1860-
Story of Rome; illus. by Nelly Erichsen. Dutton 1901 403p illus map (Mediaeval towns ser.) $1.75 945.6

1 Rome (City)—History [1-27166]

"Approaches his subject rather from the side of politics and history than from that of aesthetics. He gives us a careful study of the place of Rome in civilization rather than . . . [an] inspired guide-book. . . Mr Young has brought much pains and erudition to his difficult task." Academy

945.7 Naples

Headlam, Cecil, 1872-1934
Story of Naples; illus. by Benton Fletcher. Dutton 1927 394p illus (Mediaeval towns ser.) $1.75 945.7

1 Naples—History [27-13148]

A good survey, interesting for general reading and a useful guide book. The author does not confine himself to the medieval period, as there is a chapter on modern Naples. Pompeii, Vesuvius, the Phlegræan Fields and other places in the vicinity are also included. The book is well illustrated and contains a folding plan of Naples

946 Spain

J. B. Trend's "Origins of modern Spain" (Macmillan 1934 220p $2.50) is a good history of a Spain since 1868 portrayed in a series of essays on men about whom little has been written in English

Bertrand, Louis, 1866- and Petrie, Sir Charles Alexander, bart. 1895-
History of Spain; the French tr. by W. B. Wells. Appleton-Century 1934 564p maps $5 946

1 Spain—History 34-2430

"In this work the authors have divided the history of Spain into four periods: 'first, the contest with Islam in the Peninsula itself, which occupied eight centuries of Spain's existence; then her discovery and conquest of the New World; next the establishment of the absolute monarchy, and the struggle against the Reformation; and finally her effort to remain a Great Power.' The chapters dealing with the first three periods are a translation of the work of the French historian, M. Bertrand; Sir Charles Petrie has expanded the chapters dealing with the period since the death of Philip II and has treated at length the events which led up to the establishment of the Second Republic in 1931." Book rev. digest

Bertrand, L. and Petrie, Sir C. A. bart—Cont.

"A special tribute must be paid to M. Bertrand, who, in reconstructing the period of Moorish rule and the first century of Catholic Spain, has produced a masterpiece of historical writing. It is enough to say here that our time-honored view of Spanish history down to the year 1600 must be revised in the light of Bertrand's research and interpretation." Current history

Chapman, Charles Edward, 1880-
* History of Spain, founded on the Historia de España y de la civilización española of Rafael Altamira. Macmillan 1918 559p maps $3.60 946

1 Spain—Civilization 2 Spain—History
18-20342

"Satisfactory one-volume history, suitable for reading or as a college text, selected and adapted for Americans from the five-volume work by the Spanish historian, Rafael Altamira. Author has aimed to emphasize the development of Spanish civilization rather than of political events and has added a short section on modern Spain, 1808-1917. Two maps, bibliography of works in English and index." N.Y. state lib.

Clarke, Henry Butler, 1863-1904
Modern Spain 1815-1898; with a memoir by W. H. Hutton. Macmillan 1906 xxvi,510p map (Cambridge historical ser.) $3.50 946

1 Spain—History—Bourbons, 1700-1931
[7-6416]

A work of undoubted authority. Mr Clarke had known Spain from his boyhood and was perhaps more intimately acquainted than any other foreigner with the intricacies of modern Spanish politics. The book closes with an impartial account of the Spanish-American war. Condensed from Spectator
Bibliography: p471-81

Irving, Washington, 1783-1859
‡ Conquest of Granada. Handy volume ed Putnam 2v in 1 $2.50 946

1 Granada (Kingdom)—History [4-21965]

First published 1829; revised by the author in 1850
A picturesque narrative given in a humorous form but based on thorough research. Originally published under the title: "Chronicle of the conquest of Granada"

Lane-Poole, Stanley, 1854-1931, and Gilman, Arthur, 1837-1909
Story of the Moors in Spain. Putnam 1887 xx,285p illus map (Story of the nations) o.p. 1939 946

1 Arabs in Spain 2 Spain—History
4-17652

Excellent popular history of Spain during 800 years of Moorish domination. Illustrations and map

Langdon-Davies, John
Behind the Spanish barricades. McBride 1936 275p illus map $2.75 946

1 Spain—History—Civil war, 1936-1939
37-27073

An account of the civil war in Spain written by an eye-witness who was there as an English newspaper correspondent
"Written with candor, conviction and eloquence. Its special quality, I think, lies not so much in the lucid explanation of plots and politics behind the war as in the simply written stories of Spanish life, in wartime and out. These are what give the book excellence, make it so downright interesting." N.Y. Times

Lea, Henry Charles, 1825-1909
History of the Inquisition of Spain. Macmillan 1906-07 4v ea $2.50 946

1 Inquisition 6-2996

An authoritative history of an institution which influenced Spanish history and to some extent the history of the world. Based on a vast amount of material drawn from archives
"In style and treatment the book shows to the full the qualities so long familiar in Mr. Lea's work—the same wealth of detail, the same direct dependence on the sources, the same avoidance of polemics and all rhetorical amplification." Amer. hist. rev.

Madariaga, Salvador de, 1886-
Spain. Benn 1930 507p (Modern world) 21s 946

1 Spain 2 Spain—History [30-26959]

Formerly carried also by Scribner
"A general study of modern Spain as influenced by the nature of the people, the topography, and the rulers. . . The author is a Spanish scholar who spent fifteen years collecting his material." Book rev. digest

"It is admirably written, alive and sensitive throughout its five hundred pages. It is full of concise, luminous sentences which, although they may not immediately carry conviction, will be most convincing to those who know Spain best, and are often fraught with far-reaching implications." Times (London) lit. sup.
Bibliography: p483-92

Mendizabal Villalba, Alfredo
* Martyrdom of Spain; origins of a civil war; with a preface by Jacques Maritain. Scribner 1938 276p $3 946

1 Church and state in Spain 2 Spain—History—Civil war, 1936-1939 3 Spain—Politics and government (W) 38-36232

"This is the history of Spain, 1923-36, the troubled prelude to the civil war. The author . . . condemns both sides; his book on the Spanish tragedy is passionate but aloof. To these years of Spain's terrible and growing disunity, filled with the hatreds, the sublime obstinacy, and foolishness of its people . . . war is the inevitable end." Manchester guardian

Merriman, Roger Bigelow, 1876-
Rise of the Spanish empire in the Old world and the New. Macmillan 1918-1925 4v maps ea $7.50, set $18 946

1 Spain—History (18-11183)

Contents: v 1 The Middle ages; v2 The Catholic kings; v3 The empire; v4 Philip the Prudent

Merriman, Roger B.—Continued

"The general reader need have no fear of the ponderosity of style or dullness in handling which are popularly supposed to be the inevitable accompaniments of professorial erudition. On the contrary, the vigor, freshness, clarity, and ease of the treatment, coupled with the convincing assurance that denotes a thorough grasp of the subject, will arouse a genuine interest and hold it." Nation

Paul, Elliot Harold, 1891-

* Life and death of a Spanish town. Random house 1937 427p $2.50 946

1 Santa Eulalia, Iviza 2 Spain—History—Civil war, 1936-1939 (W) 37-27473

"More powerful than statistics is this impassioned recollection of the author's idyllic five years in the peaceful, charming, little town of Santa Eulalia in the Balearics. In 1936, the civil war destroyed this fine Spanish civilization and wiped out the friends and significant people whom Mr. Paul knew and loved. A profoundly moving indictment." Cincinnati

Peers, Edgar Allison

Spanish tragedy, 1930-1936; dictatorship, republic, chaos. 2d ed Methuen 1936 247p 10s 6d 946

1 Spain—History—Civil war, 1936-1939
2 Spain—History—Dictatorship, 1923-1930
3 Spain—History—Republic, 1931 37-7535

Formerly carried also by Oxford

"The struggles between the Spanish liberals and conservatives from 1930 to the present day, chronicled with an attempted but not complete impartiality. Though no interpretation is offered, the book is useful for a quick picture of events leading up to the present revolution." Bkl

Bibliography: p225-30

Prescott, William Hickling, 1796-1859

History of the reign of Ferdinand and Isabella, the Catholic. McKay 3v $4.50 946

1 Ferdinand V, of Aragon, 1452-1516 2 Isabella I, queen of Castile and Aragon, 1451-1504 3 Spain—History—To 1516 [28-10443]

A classic, first published 1838

"Within the field which he had marked out, his work was admirably done. He delineated clearly and impartially the events of a splendid epoch. . . He well deserved the praise which a Spanish critic and scholar gave him of having written in a masterly manner one of the most successful historical productions of the century in which he lived." H. T. Peck's William Hickling Prescott

History of the reign of Philip the Second, king of Spain; ed. by J. F. Kirk. Lippincott 3v illus map o.p. 1939 946

1 Philip II, king of Spain 2 Spain—History—House of Austria, 1516-1700 2-9823

An admirable work, marked by careful research and impartiality, first published 1855

"Count d'Haussonville ranks the incomplete 'Philip II' as Prescott's best work. That is a dictum hard to accept. The author's attitude towards his central figure is less slashing than Motley's, less appreciative than Martin Hume's. In so much it may be called just, but there is a certain meagreness in the treatment." Cambridge history of American literature

Rolfe, Edwin, 1909-

Lincoln battalion; the story of the Americans who fought in Spain in the international brigades. Random house 1939 321p illus maps $2.50 946

1 Spain—History—Civil war, 1936-1939 39-31522

"The story of young Americans fighting against great odds, and for great impersonal rights, in the Spanish Civil War. It is factual, intimate, and amazingly unembittered, showing where they fought and where they died and how they got there, showing their earnestness, their fun, the crudity of their training, and the brilliance of their performance." Book-of-the-month club news

Sedgwick, Henry Dwight, 1861-

‡ Spain; a short history of its politics, literature, and art from earliest times to the present; with a preface by J. D. M. Ford. Little 1925 400p illus map $3.50 946

1 Art, Spanish 2 Spain—History 3 Spanish literature—History and criticism 25-20502

Published in England under the title: Short history of Spain

"Professor Sedgwick says that his book 'is intended for the ignorant and the indolent, for passengers in steamer chairs, bound on their first voyage to Vigo or Barcelona, for freshmen or sixth-formers that wish to learn, with the least expenditure of effort.' His book does for Spain what his 'Short history of Italy' does for that country. It embraces two thousand years and devotes a generous proportion of its space to literature and art." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Sedgwick is sympathetic and honest. In matters of art he is arbitrary; as to literature he admits of a slight dogmatism. Politics is allowed space merely as the servant of the arts. Brevity and simplicity greet one throughout his book." Literary rev.

Sender, Ramon J.

Counter-attack in Spain; tr. from the Spanish by Sir P. C. Mitchell. Houghton 1937 288p $3 946

1 Spain—History—Civil war, 1936-1939 37-34621

Published in England under title: War in Spain

"An account of the first six months of fighting in the Spanish civil war by a Spanish writer who early in the war joined the government forces." Book rev. digest

"His book is not journalism; it often rises to literature. Here are narratives of the civil war, stories, anecdotes, some magnificent rhetoric." New Yorker

Turberville, Arthur Stanley, 1888-

Spanish inquisition. Holt 1932 255p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 946

1 Inquisition 32-19617

"In this restrained account of a subject which has given rise to acute controversy Professor A. S. Turberville takes pains to enable the reader to see so far as possible through the eyes of its contemporaries. . . He explains the various natures of the processes of the Inquisition, arbitrary and irregular as many of them were; touches on its tortures and names some of those who were its victims, among them priests, bishops, abbots, and even a Primate of Spain, and some who now rank as canonized Saints of the Roman church." Times (London) lit. sup.

Turberville, Arthur S.—Continued
Notes on books: p241-45

946.9 PORTUGAL

Young, Sir George, bart, 1872-
Portugal old and young; an historical study. Oxford 1917 342p illus maps $2.50 946.9

1 Portugal—History 17-24318

"It is not a 'history' in the conventional sense, but an essay on the whole development of the life of the Portuguese people, illustrated by copious quotations from their literature, and by vivid sketches of the country, of its art and architecture, and of the people themselves." Times (London) lit. sup.

947 RUSSIA

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following titles are recommended for advanced study:

Eckardt, Hans von. Russia; rev and supplemented by the author for the English ed; tr. from the German by C. A. Phillips. Knopf 1932 xxix,711p illus maps $3.25 A comprehensive history of Russia from its origins, interesting to both the specialist and general reader

Klīūchevskiĭ, V. O. History of Russia; tr. by C. J. Hogarth. Dutton 5v v 1-3 ea $3.50, v4-5 ea $4.85 Covers early history to the close of the Russo-Japanese war

Kornilov, Aleksander. Modern Russian history; being a detailed history of Russia from the age of Catherine the Great to the revolution of 1917; tr. and extended by A. S. Kaun. . . Knopf 1924 2v in 1 maps o.p. 1939

Mavor, James. Economic history of Russia. 2d ed rev and enl Dutton 1925 2v $12 An authoritative and exhaustive work which covers the economic, political and social development of Russia to 1907

Beazley, Charles Raymond, 1868- Forbes, Nevill, 1883- and Birkett, George Arthur
Russia from the Varangians to the Bolsheviks; with an introduction by Ernest Barker. Oxford 1918 xxiv,601p maps $3 947

1 Russia—History 19-26158

Contents: From the beginning to 1504, by R. Beazley; From 1505 to 1800, by N. Forbes; From 1801 to 1917, by G. A. Birkett. Bibliography and maps
"Tried by the test of popularization, 'Russia from the Varangians to the Bolsheviks' must be pronounced successful. The earlier portions in particular are written in a large and liberal style which degenerates but seldom." Eng. hist. rev.

Gerhardi, William Alexander, 1895-
Romanovs; evocation of the past as a mirror for the present. Putnam 1939 xxi, 484p $5 947

1 Romanov, House of 2 Russia—History 3 Russia—Kings and rulers (W) 40-89

The story of all the Romanovs, from Mikhail Feodorovich on to Nicholas II. Each one is treated as an individual character, playing his part in Russia's history
"A familiar, non-chronological history, serious but highly entertaining." New Yorker

Headstrom, Birger Richard, 1902-
Story of Russia; with twelve illus. in color by J. L. McCreery. Stokes 1933 539p illus maps $3.50 947

1 Russia—History 33-24195

"A history of Russia for younger readers which will be appreciated by adults as well, giving as it does a comparatively brief and comprehensive treatment of this country which is demanding so much of the world's interest. 200 pages are devoted to modern Russia. Chronological tables and good index will make it a convenient reference book." Wis. bul.

Karpovich, Mīkhail Mīkhaĭlovich
Imperial Russia, 1801-1917. Holt 1932 106p (Berkshire studies in European history) $1 947

1 Russia—History 32-2862

A brief history intended to serve as supplementary reading for college students in courses on general European history. The author avoids a merely elementary presentation of facts, giving instead an interpretative discussion, suited to the more mature point of view of college students. Bibliography: p97-102
"An invaluable handbook for student or layman." Boston Transcript

Mirsky, Dmitry Svyatopolk-, prince, 1890-
Russia; a social history; ed. by C. G. Seligman. Appleton-Century 1931 312,xxi p illus maps o.p. 1939 947

1 Russia—History 2 Russia—Social conditions [31-14833]

"For those who are interested in Russia and its background, this is an excellent book. It begins with a geographical survey and tells something of Russia before the Russians. It follows the history up to the fall of the monarchy." Providence

Pares, Sir Bernard, 1867-
Fall of the Russian monarchy; a study of the evidence. Knopf 1939 510p illus maps $5 947

1 European war, 1914-1918—Russia 2 Rasputin, Grigoriĭ Efimovich, 1871-1916 3 Russia—History 4 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 5 Russia—Politics and government [39-19181]

"Full, lucid, and authoritative account of the involved agents of the great age of which the author has given us his masterly record. It will remain our chief source for the period." Manchester guardian

* History of Russia. 3d ed rev Knopf 1937 xxiii,570p maps $4 947

1 Russia—History 37-2613

First published 1926, revised 1928. The last chapter of the 1937 edition has been enlarged by 6 pages to record events up to the adoption of the Soviet constitution in 1936

Pares, Sir Bernard—Continued

"Professor Pares's book is well done, and should find wide acceptance for its breadth of view and clear arrangement and exposition." Living age

Bibliography: p529-40

Platonov, Sergiĕĭ Fedorovich, 1860-1933

History of Russia; tr. by E. Aronsberg; ed. by F. A. Golder. Macmillan 1925 435p maps o.p. 1939 947

1 Russia—History 25-24285

"It outlines the whole evolution of Russia . . . the book is good, competent, and scientific. The bibliography at the end which was added by the editor and translator is incomplete and somewhat accidental." Yale review

"The best parts of a good book, as might have been expected, are those which deal with periods which Professor Platonov has made specially his own. The earlier history of Russia is admirably told." Times (London) lit. sup.

Vernadskiĭ, Georgiĭ Vladmirovich, 1887-

History of Russia; with a preface by M. I. Rostovtzeff. rev ed Yale univ. press 1930 413p maps $4, text ed $3 947

1 Russia—History 30-24699

"To the present edition has been added a new chapter concerning the events of the year 1929. The entire text of the volume has been reviewed, some new data has been been utilized, and occasional inadvertencies have been eliminated. The bibliography has been enlarged." Note to revised edition

"The peculiar value of Mr. Vernadsky's book lies in the proofs it gives that the Russian Revolution did not represent a breach with Russian tradition, but rather a return into one of its earlier channels . . . In his presentment of the various developments Mr. Vernadsky shows admirable restraint. Equally detached is his somewhat detailed description of the Soviet system and its results; and this makes his judgment on the character of this system all the more impressive." Times (London) lit. sup.

G. V. Vernadskiĭ's "Political & diplomatic history of Russia" (Little 1936 499p maps $4) is a more specialized treatment of these aspects of Russian history

947.084 Revolution, 1917-

Chamberlin, William Henry, 1897-

* Russian revolution, 1917-1921. Macmillan 1935 2v illus maps $10 947.084

1 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 35-7577

"These two volumes, distinguished by their style as well as their organization, are enriched by excellent translations of the principal documents of the period, an invaluable bibliography of books in the Russian language, numerous maps and a chronological table. . . . For the English-speaking world, at least, Chamberlin's monumental history, the fruit of twelve years of study carried on for the most part in the Soviet Union, represents a definitive work on which his successors will find it difficult to improve." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Florinsky, Michael T. 1894-

End of the Russian empire. Yale univ. press 1931 272p (Carnegie endowment for international peace. Economic and social hist. of the World war) $3 947.084

1 European war, 1914-1918—Russia 2 Russia—Economic conditions 3 Russia—History 4 Russia—Politics and government 5 Russia—Social conditions 31-13362

"Dr. Florinsky has told the story of Russian defeat and Czarist collapse with a fine restraint and detachment, concretely, concisely and clearly. He has let the pulse of the plot assert itself under the straightforward narrative and analysis, without his own stimulation. His methodical story of Russian breakdown under the stress of the war . . . becomes an epitome of Russian history during more than a half century before the outbreak of the war." N.Y. Times

Toward an understanding of the U.S.S.R.; a study in government, politics and economic planning. Macmillan 1939 245p $2.50 947.084

1 Communism—Russia 2 Russia—Economic conditions 3 Russia—Economic policy 4 Russia—Politics and government 39-16415

Part one of this volume reviews the political history of Russia under the Czars and during the period of war and revolution. The second and longer part is an analysis of present conditions in Russia under the Soviet regime

"Hostile in spirit, the book is nevertheless judicial in manner, the work of a trained historian with a firm grasp of jurisprudence and of economics, who has based his study almost exclusively upon official Soviet sources." Times (London) lit. sup.

List of principal sources: p233-37

Kerenskiĭ, Aleksandr Fedorovich, 1881-

The catastrophe; Kerensky's own story of the Russian revolution. Appleton-Century 1927 376p front $3 947.084

1 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 27-23536

"In vivid, dramatic prose, M. Kerensky describes the part played by himself in the Revolution of 1917. He also gives us a lucid and convincing account of the circumstances that preceded it. His book deserves attention for two reasons. As a kaleidoscope of Russian life during the period covered it is uncommonly fascinating; and it throws important sidelights upon the inner working of events." Nation and Athenaeum

Mavor, James, 1854-1925

Russian revolution. Macmillan 1928 470p $7.75 947.084

1 Russia—Economic conditions 2 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- [28-26714]

"Traces the history of the social and political changes wrought by the Revolution of 1917, emphasizing the economic legislation and administration of the Soviet government. The first three chapters deal with the interval between 1907 and 1917." Pittsburgh

Bibliography: p441-45

Passfield, Sidney James Webb, baron, 1859-
and Webb, Mrs. Beatrice Potter, 1858-
Soviet communism: a new civilisation? 2d ed enl Scribner 1938 2v map $7.50 947.084

1 Administrative and political divisions—Russia 2 Communism—Russia 3 Russia—Politics and government 4 Russia—Social conditions 5 Russia (1923-U.S.S.R.) Constitution 38-27353

"The material of the original edition published 1935 remains unchanged, but there are several additions. A translation, by Anna Louise Strong, of the Russian constitution of 1936 forms an appendix of the first volume, with a summary by the Webbs. A lengthy postscript to the second volume covers developments since 1935, with occasional criticism, and there is a glossary of Russian terms." Bkl.

"The authors have accumulated a wealth of information from official Soviet sources, and draw constantly for comparisons upon their profound knowledge of social systems in all countries and ages. Sometimes these comparisons are more startling than convincing." Christian science monitor

Trotskii, Lev, 1879-1940
History of the Russian revolution; tr. from the Russian by Max Eastman. Simon & Schuster 1936 3v in 1 $2.98 947.084

1 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 36-28504

Originally published in 3 volumes, 1929-33. Contents: v 1 Overthrow of Tzarism; v2 Attempted counter-revolution; v3 Triumph of the Soviets

"Now that we have read Trotsky's History of the Russian Revolution in its entirety, it is plainly a great book. It is more than a brilliantly written and well documented account of great events of which we might otherwise have always remained only vaguely aware. It is also a philosophic interpretation of these events by a man of first-class intellectual ability who himself played an important part in them." New statesman and Nation

Vernadskiĭ, Georgiĭ Vladimirovich, 1887-
* Russian revolution, 1917-1931. Holt 1932 133p (Berkshire studies in European history) $1 947.084

1 Russia—History—Revolution, 1917- 2 Russia—Politics and government 32-3011

A brief study of this period intended as supplementary reading for students in a course in general history. Contents: Background and immediate causes of the Russian revolution; March and the November revolutions of 1917; Civil war and the Soviet state, 1918-1931. Bibliography: p119-26

947.1 FINLAND

Elliston, Herbert Berridge, 1895-
Finland fights. Little 1940 443p illus maps $2.75 947.1

1 Finland—History 2 Russo-Finnish war, 1939-1940 (W) 40-27264

The author covers the economic, legislative and social structure of Finland with sketches of three prominent men: Mannerheim, Ryti and Tanner. It also deals with the causes of Russian aggression, Stalin's need for a safety belt, the approach of war, and finally war itself

"A carefully written, conscientious, and balanced treatment of a complicated problem. It is excellently done, well supplemented by maps and illustrations." Sat rev. of lit.

Jackson, John Hampden, 1907-
* Finland. Macmillan 1940 242p illus maps $2 947.1

1 Finland—History 2 Finland—Nationality (W) [39-2453]

Reprint of a title first published in England, 1938, by Allen, G.

History of Finland which includes a study of its economic and social policies, its people, daily life, and cultural achievements. Bibliography

"Students of present-day civilization will do well to read his careful and excellent book." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

948 SCANDINAVIA

Bain, Robert Nisbet, 1854-1909
Scandinavia; a political history of Denmark, Norway and Sweden from 1513 to 1900. Macmillan 1905 460p maps (Cambridge historical ser.) o.p. 1939 948

1 Scandinavia—History [5-8752]

A comprehensive history of the Scandinavian countries. The author says in the preface that "the present volume is, mainly, an attempt to describe the rise of the Scandinavian Kingdoms to political eminence, and their corresponding influence on European politics, generally." The greater part of the volume is devoted to Sweden's history. Five pages of bibliography and maps are included

Olrik, Axel, 1864-1917
Viking civilization; rev. after the author's death by Hans Ellekilde. Norton 1930 246p illus (Scandinavian classics) o.p. 1939 948

1 Civilization, Scandinavian 2 Vikings 30-30010

"A clear and concise portrayal of the rise and growth of the Viking age in Norse history. Mr Olrik, a distinguished Danish scholar, discusses the development of Viking myths and legends, romantic sagas and art. Two chapters are given to Iceland and its sagas and Icelandic scholars. A final chapter takes up the era of the ballads." Book rev. digest

Bibliography: p237-42

Olson, Alma Luise
Scandinavia; the background for neutrality. Lippincott 1940 358p $2.50 948

1 Scandinavia — Foreign relations 2 Scandinavia—History 3 Scandinavia—Neutrality (W) 40-27282

"The five states that make up the Scandinavian group have evolved an ideal of a new north, united and neutral. . . The author takes each country separately, tracing their backgrounds, the early history and legend; she discusses each from political, economic and cultural point of view, introducing the personalities that have entered conspicuously into this history." Kirkus

"Miss Olson knows the North thoroughly. She has traveled through the whole of Scandinavia, and some of her short, descriptive passages are of great beauty. Throughout the books one feels the author's strong attachment to Scandinavia, whose people, history, and literature she has studied with a keen interest. Her objectivity in relating and examining facts is worthy of mention." Sat. rev. of lit.

Stefánsson, Jon, 1862-
Denmark and Sweden, with Iceland and Finland; with a preface by Viscount Bryce. . . Putnam 1917 xxxi,378p illus map (Story of the nations) o.p. 1939 948

1 Denmark 2 Finland 3 Iceland 4 Sweden 18-26168

"In the arrangement of the book, the section devoted to Denmark's history is followed by a brief chapter on Iceland, the section on Sweden by a short sketch of Finland after its separation from Sweden, 1809-1914. The treatment in each case is necessarily sketchy but the author has succeeded in presenting an outline of the main political events from Viking days to the present. Viscount Bryce contributes a preface. There are thirty-three illustrations and a map, a 'synchronistic table of events' and index." Book rev. digest

948.1 Norway

Gathorne-Hardy, Geoffrey Malcolm, 1878-
Norway; with a foreword by H. A. L. Fisher. Scribner 1925 324p (Modern world) $5 948.1

1 Norway [26-26030]

"An essay packed with information. The language, literature, and history of the country are given such an adequate treatment that the later chapters dealing with problems of today are not quite so full as might be desired. Even so, the discussion of industrial, shipping, and agricultural developments is most suggestive, while the prohibition experiment and the troubles in the Church have particular interest for America." Independent

Gjerset, Knut, 1865-1936
History of the Norwegian people. . . Macmillan 1927 2v in 1 illus $5 948.1

1 Norway—History [15-16628]

"First published in 1915, has been bound into a single volume of more than 1,100 pages . . . If Professor Gjerset has omitted anything from his work that it should contain I am not the man to discover it. I can only tell you that his history can be read into with satisfaction, and with the assurance that those who claim to know have pronounced it the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

948.5 Sweden

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:
Stromberg, A. A. History of Sweden. . . Macmillan 1931 823p illus maps $9 Covers the history from earliest times
Voltaire, F. M. A. de. History of Charles XII. Dutton xxiv,347p (Everyman's lib.) 90c Important because of the famous author who was a contemporary of Charles XII

Hallenforff, Carl Jakob Herman, 1869-1929 and Schück, Adolf
History of Sweden. Delaware ed with a supplement: Crisis, depression and recovery in Sweden, 1929-1937, by Karin Kock. Bonnier 1938 xxiv,484p illus $3.50 948.5

1 Sweden—History [30-2506]

A reprint of the edition of 1929 with the addition of 20 pages on economic conditions in Sweden from 1929 to 1937

"A condensed history which begins with prehistoric Sweden and ends with a brief summary of economic and cultural conditions in present-day Sweden. The text is supplemented by a chapter on Swedish literature and a descriptive list of important financial and industrial concerns." Bkl.

Svanström, Ragnar, and Palmstierna, Carl Fredrik, friherre, 1903-
* Short history of Sweden; tr. by Joan Bulman . . . Oxford 1934 443p maps $5 948.5

1 Sweden—History [34-28322]

This convenient manual of Swedish history was "written by two Swedes specially for English readers. It has been admirably done. . . Mr. Svanström's part in particular which brings the story down to the death of Charles XII is a vigorous and at times eloquent narrative." Times (London) lit. sup.

949.1 Iceland

Gjerset, Knut, 1865-1936
History of Iceland. Macmillan 1924 482p front $4 949.1

1 Iceland—Civilization 2 Iceland—History 24-2336

"Beginning with the legends and traditions concerning the discovery of Iceland by the Phœnicians and, later, by the Norsemen, the history of Iceland is brought down through the centuries to the [twentieth century]. Includes chapters on the literature, ancient and modern, and information on art, education, and economic conditions." Pittsburgh

"As a whole, the book is sound and scholarly. Moreover, it constitutes the first real history of Iceland in English." Amer. hist. rev.

949.2 Netherlands

P. J. Blok's "History of the people of the Netherlands; tr. by O. A. Bierstadt and Ruth Putnam" (Putnam 1898-1915 5v o.p. 1939) is a detailed scholarly work

Motley, John Lothrop, 1814-1877
History of the United Netherlands, from the death of William the Silent to the twelve years' truce—1609. Harper 4v in 2 illus o.p. 1939 949.2

1 Netherlands—History [16-1717]

An excellent work, which continues the author's more famous "Rise of the Dutch republic." First published 1860-1867

* Rise of the Dutch republic; a history. Dutton 3v (Everyman's lib.) ea 90c 949.2

1 Netherlands—History [A10-1956]

"An authentic and intensely interesting history of the revolt of the United Provinces from the tyranny of Spain and the cruel rule of the Duke of Alva. The narrative begins with the abdication of Charles V. in 1555 and continues to the assassination of William of Orange in 1584. 'Rarely has any historian in the whole history of literature so united laborious scholarship with dramatic intensity.' " Pratt alcove

Van Loon, Hendrik Willem, 1882-
Fall of the Dutch republic. new ed. . . Houghton 1924 433p illus o.p. 1939 949.2

1 Netherlands—History 24-18460

This edition differs from that of 1913 only in the illustrations which in this case are drawings by the author. Bibliography: p415-23

"The scope of the work is, roughly, the eighteenth century. . . It is a story of gradual decline, traceable partly to economic circumstances, but most of all, in the author's opinion, to a change in the character of the Dutch people. . . The two preliminary chapters, headed respectively 'Political' and 'Economic Development' . . . are not the least valuable." Athenaeum

H. W. Van Loon's "Rise of the Dutch kingdom 1795-1813" (Doubleday, Page 1915 xx,279p illus maps o.p. 1939) is a readable volume supplementing his earlier work

949.3 BELGIUM

Linden, Herman, vander, 1868-
Belgium, the making of a nation; tr. by Sybil Jane. Oxford 1920 356p maps $2.50 949.3

1 Belgium—History [20-9824]

"This volume is a translation of Professor H. vander Linden's 'Vue générale de l'histoire de Belgique' with the addition of three chapters dealing with the history of the modern kingdom since 1831, written specially for this English edition. The original title tells us that the reader must not expect to find in this work more than a historical sketch. The writer makes no higher claim for it." Times (London) lit. sup.

Whitlock, Brand, 1869-1934
Belgium; a personal narrative. popular ed Appleton-Century 1919 2v $7.50 949.3

1 Belgium—History 19-7592

"A very full and complete history of the American Ambassador's experiences in Belgium from 1914 until the United States declared war in 1917. He quotes many messages and documents which passed between our Embassy and the German representatives, reprints German orders in Belgium, gives in detail the story of Edith Cavell, tells us much of the Belgium Relief Commission's work. . . Appeared in 'Everybody's Magazine.'" Wis. bul.

949.4 SWITZERLAND

Oechsli, Wilhelm, 1851-1919
History of Switzerland, 1499-1914; tr. from the German by Eden and Cedar Paul. Macmillan 1922 480p maps (Cambridge historical ser.) $7 949.4

1 Switzerland—History [22-18610]

"The late Professor Oechsli of Zurich . . . was unquestionably the greatest authority on Swiss history in our time, and his simple and picturesque style distinguished him from most modern writers who use German. An exceptionally valuable addition to the Cambridge Historical Series." Spectator

Bibliography: p447-61

949.5 BYZANTINE EMPIRE AND MODERN GREECE

A. A. Vasiliev's "History of the Byzantine empire" (Univ. of Wis. press 1928-29 2v v 1 o.p. 1939, v2 $3) is an excellent chronological account from Constantine the Great to the epoch of the Crusades

Baynes, Norman Hepburn, 1877-
Byzantine empire. Holt 1926 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 949.5

1 Byzantine empire 26-6916

"A brief and convenient summary of the social life, politics, art, literature and religion of the empire that centered in Constantinople. Views the Byzantine empire as a fusion of the Greek and the Roman traditions." Wis. bul.

"Mr. Baynes's book is seen at once to have two advantages. It has a most excellent bibliography, which adds very greatly to its value. . . The other advantage of Mr. Baynes's book is that, being in the Home University Library, it is small and light." Times (London) lit. sup.

Diehl, Charles, 1859-
History of the Byzantine empire; tr. from the French by G. B. Ives. Princeton univ. press 1925 198p o.p. 1939 949.5

1 Byzantine empire—History 25-11973

An "analytical account of the thousand-year history of the Byzantine Empire . . . [tracing] the main outlines, the characteristic features, and the controlling ideas of the history of Byzantine civilization." Preface

Contains a condensed bibliography

Mavrogordato, John, 1882-
Modern Greece; a chonicle and a survey, 1800-1931. Macmillan 1931 251p front $2.20 949.5

1 Greece, Modern—History [32-7788]

"In this history of Greece the first six chapters, including less than half the book, are given to a survey of the period from 1800 to 1914, and are mainly introductory to the remaining three chapters which deal with Greece and the World war, the reconstruction and the republic, and a plea for a Balkan federation. Maps on end papers. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

"In easy, well-modulated tones, broken by an occasional burst of fun or thrust at moral hypocrisy, he has embraced the political, economic, and cultural chronicle of modern Greece within the compass of a small book." New statesman and Nation

Miller, William, 1864-
Greece. Scribner 1928 351p (Modern world) o.p. 1939 949.5

1 Greece, Modern 29-4966

"A discussion of contemporary social and political conditions in Greece, with a chapter on Greek history since 1821. The author has spent many years in Greece and has devoted much of his life to its medieval and modern history." Pittsburgh

"If there are errors among the vast number of informational details which Dr. Miller presents, they can be discovered only by a critic with similar precise knowledge. In fact, the chief adverse criticism that might be brought against the book is that the details are too many and some of them too insignificant. The total effect of Dr. Miller's book is to make present day Greece distinctly human and real." Amer. hist. rev.

Bibliography: p340-41

949.6 TURKEY. BALKAN STATES

This number is used for the history of the Balkan peninsula, the Eastern question and for Turkey to 1920. After this date, the history of Turkey is classified in 956

W. W. White's "Process of change in the Ottoman empire" (Univ. of Chicago press 1937 314p map $3.50) provides, for those needing a scholarly account, a survey of three typical areas of the old Empire: Greece, Egypt, and Iraq, and a picture of Turkey proper during and since the breakup of the empire

Davis, William Stearns, 1877-1930

Short history of the Near East, from the founding of Constantinople (330 A.D. to 1922). Macmillan 1922 408p maps $3.50 949.6

1 Mohammedanism 2 Turkey—History 22-23804

"Professor Davis here unravels, with complete grasp of the factors and remarkable skill in unravelling them, that tangled maze of political and race interests which has come to be associated with the Near East. Gifts of literary style make the whole narrative a brilliant performance and well adapts it for general study." Boston Transcript

Eversley, George John Shaw-Lefevre, 1st baron, 1832-1928

Turkish empire from 1288 to 1914; and from 1914 to 1922 by Sir Valentine Chirol. . . Dodd 1923 456p front maps o.p. 1939 949.6

1 Turkey—History [23-4367]

First published in 1917, covering the period from 1288 to 1914. This edition contains four additional chapters by Sir Valentine Chirol, which cover the history of Turkey from 1914 to 1922

"A clear and interesting account of the most picturesque chapter in European history, tracing the growth of the Ottoman Empire under the ten great Sultans, its steady decline under their degenerate successors and the rise of the Balkan States on the ruins of the Moslem Sultanate. The author rejects the traditional view of the Turkish conquests and believes them to have been inspired by the hope of plunder rather than by religious zeal." Cleveland

Marriott, Sir John Arthur Ransome, 1859-

Eastern question; an historical study in European diplomacy. 3d ed rev Oxford 1924 564p maps $3 949.6

1 Eastern question (Balkan) 31-21484

A second epilogue, containing a summary of events from 1917 to 1923 has been added to this edition

"It is an able and scholarly book, such as we should expect from so well known a member of the Oxford school of modern history as Mr Marriott, and it brings together in an orderly narrative many episodes that lose their significance in the ordinary European histories." Spectator

Miller, William, 1864-

Ottoman empire and its successors, 1801-1927; with an appendix, 1927-1936. . . [4th ed] Macmillan 1936 644p maps (Cambridge historical ser.) $4.75 949.6

1 Eastern question (Balkan) 2 Turkey—History [36-35186]

"A compendium of political and military events related in an exceedingly condensed style. . . First published in 1913 the treatise has been expanded in 1923, 1927, 1934, and 1936 by the addition of material relating to recent events but without revisions of old sections—not even of statements which ceased to be true between the times of writing and of reissue." American sociological review

"He writes with cogent directness, with disinterestedness and careful scholarship, and in the most complete detail. The result is, in a way, a historical encyclopedia of the political events in the Near East during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries." Annals Amer. acad.

Pribichevich, Stoyan

World without end; the saga of southeastern Europe. Reynal 1939 408p illus $3.50 949.6

1 Austria 2 Balkan peninsula 3 Czechoslovak Republic 4 Eastern question (Balkan) 5 Hungary (W) 39-29469

A book about the peoples and the countries of southeastern Europe, their history, the quality of their civilization, and their significance in the present world scene

"He writes a book that is as delightful and as picturesque as its subject. He removes many erroneous impressions, gives an intimate and sympathetic view of the people and of their present problems and way of life, and leaves the reader with a friendly feeling toward these who have so long been considered Europe's problem children." Christian century

Bibliography: p393-402

Schevill, Ferdinand, 1868-

* History of the Balkan peninsula, from the earliest times to the present day. rev ed with the collaboration of W. M. Gewehr Harcourt 1933 614p maps $5, text ed $4 949.6

1 Balkan peninsula—History 2 Eastern question (Balkan) 33-12895

"Brilliantly written account of Balkan history from the Greek and Roman period to the present. There are three main divisions: the Byzantine epoch, with Slav and Mongol invasions, the rise of Bulgar and Serb powers; the Ottoman epoch; and finally the political liberation of the Christian nationalities. The world war and new problems of the Near East are discussed. Short bibliography and maps." N.Y. state lib.

Shotwell, James Thomson, 1874- and Deák, Francis, 1898-

Turkey at the Straits; a short history. Macmillan 1940 196p map $2 949.6

1 Bosporus 2 Dardanelles 3 Eastern question (Balkan) 4 Turkey—Foreign relations 5 Turkey—History (W) 40-27412

"The story of the straits connecting the Mediterranean and the Black sea, told in terms of the constant struggles in international diplomacy for their control, from the Trojan war in the thirteenth century to the present. Good background material for an understanding of the present. Good background material for an understanding of the present Turkish alliance with Great Britain and France. Appendixes give the text of treaties and conventions on the area from 1920." Bkl.

"Professors Shotwell and Deák have not attempted to prophesy as to what is going to happen in the Balkans and the Near East. Nor have they tried to forecast what role the Dardanelles may play in the war. What they have done is to give us an excellent historical background against which to project our own theories." Sat. rev. of lit.

Bibliography: p173-78

Toynbee, Arnold Joseph, 1889- and Kirkwood, Kenneth Porter

Turkey. Scribner 1927 329p maps (Modern world) $5 949.6

1 Turkey 2 Turkey—Politics and government 27-422

"The first sixty pages sketch in the historical background—the old Ottoman empire as it existed down to 1774 and the upheavals caused by contact with western civilization during the years from 1774 to 1919—this being necessary to an understanding of the war, the Revolution of 1919-22 and the Turkey which began to take shape since the Lausanne conference of 1923, with which subjects the main body of the book is concerned." Book rev. digest

"In the present volume, Professor Toynbee and his collaborator show balanced judgment and scrupulous fairness. Their book is extremely well written and gives an excellent picture of the Westernization progress in Turkey." Independent

Select bibliography: p313-19

949.7 DALMATIA. SERBIA. YUGOSLAVIA

Waring, L. F.

Serbia; with a preface by J. M. Jovanovitch. Holt 1918 xx,256p illus map (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) o.p. 1939 949.7

1 Servia—History [18-14344]

A brief history of Serbia, beginning with a chapter on The coming of the Slavs to the Balkans, and their struggle for independence, and continuing down to: Serbia and the war. Bibliography

"This little history is both a valuable addition to the literature of the war and an interesting study of a very hardy race." Athenaeum

949.8 RUMANIA

Clark, Charles Upson, 1875-

United Roumania. . . Dodd 1932 418p illus maps $3 949.8

1 European war, 1914-1918—Rumania 2 Rumania 32-6415

"This study of modern Roumania is based upon the author's Greater Roumania. . . Some material included in the earlier work has been omitted, the remainder has been condensed or rewritten; statistical material has been brought up to date and new chapters have been added, notably those on the minorities, Roumanian politics since the War, and reconstruction. The book contains maps, a bibliography and index." Book rev. digest

"Convenient and well-informed survey of modern Roumania and its written history, written from a sympathetic standpoint." Foreign affairs

Seton-Watson, Robert William, 1879-

History of the Roumanians; from Roman times to the completion of unity. Macmillan 1934 596p illus map $7 949.8

1 Rumania—History [34-39508]

"Following an introductory chapter on the origins of the Roumanians, the book records the history of Roumania from the days of the Romans down to the achievement of national unity in 1920." Book rev. digest

"It will be welcome to English readers as a reliable and also, in spite of its bulk and learning, as a readable guide. The whole makes a fascinating story, of more than local interest." Spectator

Bibliography: p569-78

950 ASIA

Antonius, George, 1891-

Arab awakening; the story of the Arab national movement. Lippincott 1939 471p maps $3 950

1 Arabs 2 European war, 1914-1918—Arabia 39-155

"The object of this book is primarily to tell a story and mark its significance. It aims at giving, not the final or even a detailed history of the Arab Movement, but an account in outline of its origins, its development and the main problems it has had to face, in the form of a continuous narrative interspersed with such analysis as seemed necessary to elucidate problems." Foreword

"His book tells something new and contains a message. Moreover it is a book of dramatic interest, dealing with a past still poignantly present in living memories and with current questions affecting the destiny of nations." Atlantic bookshelf

Bisson, Thomas Arthur, 1900- and Goslin, Mrs Ryllis Clair (Alexander) 1901-

Clash in the Pacific. Foreign policy 1936 38p illus map (Headline bks.) 35c, pa 25c 950

1 Eastern question (Far East) 36-17659

"In this volume we find a ten-page chapter on China, her geography, history, economic decay, and exploitation by Western powers. Then follows a more detailed discussion of the development of Japan from a primitive agricultural nation to an industrial power, of her increasing population and need for raw materials and larger markets." Atlantic bookshelf

Chirol, Sir Valentine, 1852-1929

Occident and the Orient; lectures on the Harris foundation, 1924. Univ. of Chicago press 1924 228p $2 950

1 Bolshevism 2 Civilization, Oriental 3 Egypt—History 4 India — History 5 Protectorates 6 Turkey 25-220

"The Harris Foundation Lectures at Chicago University . . . provided Sir Valentine Chirol with the opportunity for the six discourses that make up this volume. He treats the Ottoman Empire and the Caliphate, the 'peculiar case' of Egypt, British India, and the mandated territories. He has been the advocate of an independent Egypt since the days of the Milner Commission, and of a self-governing India since, if not before, the British declaration of 1917. Both problems are clearly stated here." New statesman

Gowen, Herbert Henry, 1864-

* Asia; a short history from the earliest times to the present day. rev ed Little 1936 xx,463p illus maps $3.50 950

1 Asia—History 36-11061

First published 1926. The revised edition contains an additional chapter which summarizes the history of the years 1926-1936

"He has given us as comprehensive, coherent, and unified history of the Mother of Continents as it is possible to do within the limits of his book. He has managed, too, to avoid the dulness and confusion which such special histories often fall into." International book review

Illustrations, maps and a bibliography

Gunther, John, 1901-
‡ Inside Asia. Harper 1939 599p map $3.50
950

1 Asia—Biography 2 Asia—Kings and rulers 3 Asia—Politics 4 Eastern question 5 Eastern question (Far East) 6 Statesmen (W) 39-27492

This companion volume to the author's "Inside Europe" treats of such key figures as the Emperor of Japan, Chiang Kai-shek, the Soong sisters, Manuel Quezon and Gandhi, as well as a host of other interesting people. It covers everything that is happening in the Orient; explains not only the people but the problems and conflicting forces in every part of Asia from the East Indies to Persia and Palestine; the caste system in India, emperor worship in Japan, the Hindu religion, the military importance of Siam, etc.

"He turns a fresh and critical eye on the vast drama of the Far, Middle and Near East and tells in a straightforward manner, and with gusto, what he finds. The result is a vivid panorama of living peoples." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p578-81

Hudson, Geoffrey Francis
Far East in world politics; a study in recent history. 2d ed Oxford 1939 276p illus $3 950

1 East (Far East)—History 2 Eastern question (Far East) 3 World politics [39-16429]

First published 1937. "For this new edition I have rewritten in part, and largely added to, the final chapter in order to include some account of the present Sino-Japanese war." Preface

"Starting with the middle decades of the last century when both China and Japan were hermits in the family of nations, Mr. Hudson traces the forceful measures which were taken by the countries of the West to establish intercourse with the Asiatic peoples. . . Mr. Hudson gives a good account of the constant shift in the balance of power in the Far Eastern area during the period about which he writes." N.Y. Times

Lamb, Harold, 1892-
* March of the barbarians. Doubleday 1940 389p maps $3.75 950

1 Mongols—History (W) 40-7966

"The first quarter of the book builds up a . . . picture of the early history of the nomads of Asia's steppes; then comes in fuller detail, the story of Genghis-Khan, the interim period when his power was disputed by his sons and grandsons, following his death. Then the reign of Mangu-Khan, and the brilliant reign of Kubilai-Khan, the influence of the tribes on Europe, and the gradual recession. Legend and story and history . . . interwoven. [Bibliography]" Kirkus

"If you want scholarship, there's an excellent and discriminating critical bibliography at the back of the book. But even without it, this short, popularly written, apparently negligent volume is the most accurate and intelligent account of the Mongols available in English." Sat. rev. of lit.

Quigley, Harold Scott, 1889- and Blakeslee, George Hubbard, 1871-
* Far east, an international survey. World peace 1938 353p maps $2.50, pa 75c 950

1 Eastern question (Far East) 38-23716

"A revision and continuation of The Pacific area [by G. H. Blakeslee] which brings the history of international relations in the Far East down to July 1937. It does not cover the war in China." Bkl.

"A clear, objective international survey of far eastern and Pacific affairs since 1931. There is a chapter on the Philippines." Cincinnati

Royal institute of international affairs. Information department
China and Japan. 2d ed rev and enl Oxford 1939 151p maps (Papers no.21) pa 85c 950

1 China—Economic conditions 2 China—Foreign relations 3 Eastern question (Far East) 4 Japan—Economic conditions 5 Japan—Foreign relations (W) 39-7993

Gives "a surprisingly complete account of all that really matters in Far Eastern developments, past and present. The style of this highly commendable work is a happy blend of detached reporting as one is used to find it in scholarly investigations, and of the lively description of good journalism." Spectator

Treat, Payson Jackson, 1879-
Far East; a political and diplomatic history. rev ed Harper 1935 563p maps $4 950

1 China—Foreign relations 2 East (Far East) 3 Eastern question (Far East) 4 Japan—Foreign relations 35-13968

"A specialist in the history of the East who knows how to make his writings both attractive and accurate here furnishes a survey of the West's political and diplomatic relations with the great countries of the Orient that meets an urgent need." Boston Transcript

"This revised and enlarged edition of The Far East [published 1928] contains corrections of certain errors which crept into the first edition, as well as a continuation of the narrative from the autumn of 1927 to the summer of 1935." Preface

Vinacke, Harold Monk, 1893-
History of the Far East in modern times. 2d rev ed Crofts 1936 566p maps $6 950

1 East (Far East)—History 37-53

"Fifty additional pages, largely devoted to Japan continue the history from 1933 [when the second edition was published] and there has been some rewriting and correcting of the old material." Bkl.

"What has happened on the various Far Eastern sectors, and with what possible consequences, one will find indicated briefly and clearly." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

951 CHINA

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Bertram, J. M. Unconquered; journal of a year's adventures among the fighting peasants of North China. Day 1939 340p illus $3 (W)

Chiang, Mme. S. General Chiang Kai-shek; the account of the fortnight in Sian when the fate of China hung in the balance. Doubleday 1937 187p illus $2 (W)

Couling, Samuel. Encyclopedia sinica. Oxford 1917 633p $21

Hanson, Haldore. "Humane endeavour"; the story of the China war. Farrar 1939 390p illus map $2.50 (W)

Hauser, E. O. Shanghai: city for sale. Harcourt 1940 323p $3

Lyall, L. A. China. Scribner 1934 383p maps (Modern world) o.p. 1939

Abend, Hallett

Chaos in Asia. Washburn 1939 313p map $3 951

1 China—Foreign relations 2 China—Politics and government 3 Eastern question (Far East) 4 Japan—Foreign relations 39-30782

"A New York Times correspondent describes the political and economic catastrophe that Japan has brought to China, noting that Japan has not succeeded in profiting by her military victories, largely because of her arrogant treatment of the Chinese. His observations of free China and of Japanese-controlled China will please neither side. He concludes that foreign rights will be changed in China after the war regardless of the winter. Informative material on economic and industrial conditions." Bkl.

Bisson, Thomas Arthur, 1900-

Japan in China. Macmillan 1938 417p illus maps $3 951

1 China—History—1937- 2 China—Politics and government 3 Japan—Politics and government (W) 38-27434

"A study of events in China since the early 1930s. Mr Bisson as a representative of the Foreign Policy Association has traveled extensively in the Far East and his book is the result of personal observation and interviews with leaders in both China and Japan." Book rev. digest

"Its characteristic feature is the wealth of facts, some of them based on personal evidence, presented in support of the author's statements, and the convincing character of his conclusions." N.Y. Times

Booker, Edna Lee

News is my job; a correspondent in war-torn China. Macmillan 1940 375p illus $3 951

1 China—History 2 Journalists—Correspondence, reminiscences, etc. (W) 40-27203

"An American newspaperwoman's experiences in China from 1922 to 1940. The author interviewed most of the major personalities and reported the trouble zones from Saïgon to Mukden." New Yorker

"If the reader wants eye-witness reporting of individual events rather than a carefully digested historical appraisal, he will not be disappointed in this highly personal account of modern China. Many photographs, some taken by the author, increase the effectiveness of her descriptions." Boston Transcript

Crow, Carl

I speak for the Chinese. Harper 1937 84p $1 951

1 China—Foreign relations 2 China——History—1937- 3 Eastern question (Far East) 4 Japan—Foreign relations (W) 38-265

"Short, easily read and easily digested, 'I speak for the Chinese' is the answer to the man on the streets quest for something between newspaper accounts of bombings, attacks and so forth, and the volumes that dissect and detail the motives behind the years of distrust and ill-will between China and Japan." Boston Transcript

Fry, Varian

* War in China; America's role in the Far East; with maps and charts by H. A. Grant. Foreign policy 1938 95p illus maps (Headline bks.) 95c 951

1 China—Foreign relations 2 China—History—1937- 3 Eastern question (Far East) 4 Japan—Foreign relations 5 U.S. —Foreign relations 38-27205

"A clear, concise summary of past actions of foreign countries in China and Japan, which explains as simply as possible the present Chinese situation. Our present and past relations with Japan and China, along with possibilities for new United States foreign policies, are given. The text is well illustrated with outline maps." Bkl.

Giles, Herbert Allen, 1845-1935

Civilization of China. Holt 1911 256p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 951

1 China—Civilization 2 China—History 12-132

An outline of Chinese culture from ancient times down to the present century written by an authority and intended for "readers who know little or nothing of China, in the hope that it may succeed in alluring them to a wider and more methodical survey."

"The author has done wonders in compressing an account of history, manners and customs, art, literature and religion into such small compass and still keeping it readable." Independent

Annotated bibliography: p251-53

Gowen, Herbert Henry, 1864- and Hall, Josef Washington, 1894-

* Outline history of China; with a thorough account of the republican era interpreted in its historical perspective. Appleton-Century 1926 xxviii,542p map $4 951

1 China—History 26-14820

"The authors have compressed into about 500 pages the complex record of Chinese history from its mythological beginning to the year 1926. Nearly half the book is given to the republican era. . . . A students' bibliography is included providing collateral reading in an elementary course in Chinese history. There is a useful chronology, also an excellent map." Book rev. digest

"This volume is comprehensive, clear, well written and best of all has its mind in China instead of the agitated fringe where the west has touched it." N.Y. World

Johnsen, Julia Emily

* (comp.) Chinese-Japanese war, 1937- Wilson, H.W. 1938 257p (Reference shelf v11, no. 9) 90c 951

1 China—Foreign relations 2 China—History—1937- 3 Eastern question (Far East) 4 Japan—Foreign relations (W) 38-27963

Following the summary of arguments and a bibliography are selections of representative discussions covering the background of the struggle, the case for China, the case for Japan, and the Far Eastern policy of the United States

Latourette, Kenneth Scott, 1884-

‡ Development of China. 5th ed rev Houghton 1937 333p front $3 951

1 China—History 37-5532

First published 1917 and frequently revised. For the 5th edition the fifth and sixth chapters dealing with China from 1894 to 1937 have been revised or rewritten. Some mistakes have been corrected and the bibliography revised. Contains chapters on Chinese history and culture from the Han dynasty to the present

"Many readers will remember this book as of twenty years ago. It was an easy reading book then; it still is with the added advantage of offering new and pertinent material to the more recent Chinese pressure problems both internal and external." Current history

K. S. Latourette's "The Chinese, their history and culture" (2d ed rev Macmillan 1934 2v in 1 $5) is a more comprehensive and detailed work intended as a full summary and interpretation of what is known about the Chinese

MacNair, Harley Farnsworth, 1891-

China in revolution; an analysis of politics and militarism under the republic. Univ. of Chicago press 1931 244p front $2.50 951

1 China—History 2 China—Politics and government 31-28310

"Professor MacNair gives the substance of a series of public lectures delivered by him under the auspices of the University of Chicago. . . . The material for these lectures has evidently been collected with care, and the author's personal knowledge of China and the Chinese enables him to discriminate in the matter of conflicting evidence." Times (London) lit. sup.

Mowrer, Edgar Ansel, 1892-

Dragon wakes; a report from China. Morrow 1939 242p maps $2 951

1 China—Civilization 2 China—Description and travel 3 China—History—1937- (W) 39-27038

Published in England under title: Mowrer in China

"Chiefly valuable for its analysis of conditions in the central government's territory, a field about which little has been written. He successfully conveys a sense of the nationalist spirit which grips the Chinese nation and its people." Sat. rev. of lit.

Nourse, Mary Augusta

Four hundred million; a short history of the Chinese. new ed Bobbs 1938 399p illus maps $3.50 951

1 China—Civilization 2 China—History 38-19821

First published 1935. The 1938 edition adds 2 chapters: Nationalism prepares for a test and "Popular front" faces Japan

"While providing a background of Chinese political and military history the main emphasis of this popular and friendly survey is on Chinese culture and civilization in the various periods since legendary times. The last fourth of the book (100 pages) is concerned with the period of 'reform and revolt,' 1900 to the early 1930's. 22 illustrations from photographs, maps, bibliography, index." N.Y. libraries

Seeger, Elizabeth

Pageant of Chinese history; illus. by Bernard Watkins. Longmans 1934 386p illus $3 951

1 China—History 34-27102

"A sweeping history of all that is spectacular in political and cultural China from mythological times to the birth of the Republic. Confucius, Mencius, Jenghis Khan, and Marco Polo are made not figures but men. The conquests of the Mongols and Tartars and the building of the Great wall and the Grand canal are interestingly told. Written simply but somewhat pedagogically. Useful with young people and many adults." Bkl.

Maps

Smedley, Agnes

China's Red army marches. Vanguard 1934 xxi,311p map $2.50 951

1 Bolshevism—China 2 China—History 3 Communism—China 34-25730

"Through the rapid succession of episodic scenes there emerges a connected narrative of the Red Army's growth from its early struggles in 1927 to the victorious campaigns of 1931. . . . [The author] records in superb narrative episodes the formative years in one of the great creative movements of our era—the building of the Chinese Soviet Republic. . . . With the skill of a novelist Agnes Smedley drives home the searing realities of the clash of forces in present-day China through the life stories of individual persons." Nation

Snow, Edgar, 1905-

* Red star over China. rev ed Garden City pub. co. 520p illus $1.49 951

1 China—History 2 Communism—China (W 1938 ed) 40-3957

A reprint of the book published 1938 by Random house with the addition of a new section entitled "Shadows on the rising sun" which carries his account to July 1938. The book describes the political life of Communist China

"It is first of all an adventure book—Mr. Snow took his life in his hands, and although he makes little of the personal aspect, like all good reporters the adventure is there between the lines. Then it is a travel book—few Europeans or Americans have visited some of the places that Mr. Snow describes. . . . And third, it is a vitally important historical and political volume, rich in present significance and even more wealthy for future reference." Boston Transcript

Strong, Anna Louise, 1885-

China's millions; the revolutionary struggles from 1927 to 1935; introduction by John Cournos. Knight pubs. 1935 457p $2.50 951

1 China—Description and travel 2 China—History 3 China—Politics and government 35-37305

First published 1928. Text of the newer edition has been slightly revised and three chapters added covering events of eight years. Illustrations of the original edition have been omitted

"Unconvincing as it is, there has been few apologias as brilliant." Times (London) lit. sup.

One-fifth of mankind. Modern age 1938 215p map 50c 951

1 China—History—1937- (W) 38-27817

Partial contents: Why China fights—an American parallel; Heritage of forty centuries; West breaks into China; Revolutionary upsurge; Japan divides and conquers; Japan strikes; Fighters of the northwest; With the eighth route army; Army and the people; Chinese drama goes to war; China's new women; How communist is China?

"Those who wish to understand not only the immediate past of China but also its likely future will do well to read this book." Boston Transcript

Sun-Yat-Sen, 1866-1925

Memoirs of a Chinese revolutionary; a programme of national reconstruction for China; with a front. portrait of the author. McKay 1928 253p front o.p. 1939 951

1 China—History [28-11331]

"'A program of national reconstruction for China,' written in 1918 by the first provisional president of the Chinese Republic. . . Valuable as the opinions of the chief instigator of the revolution which brought about the downfall of the Manchu dynasty." Cleveland

Wales, Nym

Inside red China. Doubleday 1939 xxiv, 356p illus $3 951

1 China—Description and travel 2 China—History 3 Communism—China (W) 39-27102

The author "visited Yen-an, capital of the former Soviet regime, in the summer of 1937. . . There she interviewed a number of the leading Red commanders. . . In addition to their biographies, she presents Chu Teh's own account of the Koumintang's military campaigns against the Chinese Communists in Kiangsi from 1930 to 1934. . . The intimate descriptions of everyday life at Yen-an during the summer months of 1937 are effective and accurate reporting." Book-of-the-month club news

"This study must henceforth be bracketed with the earlier work of Edgar Snow, which it supplements in substantial respects. Aside from their interest as vivid personal narratives, the two volumes constitute an invaluable source book of historical materials on the Chinese communist movements." Sat. rev. of lit.

Wilhelm, Richard, 1873-1930

Short history of Chinese civilization; tr. by Joan Joshua; with an introduction by Lionel Giles. Viking 1929 283p illus o.p. 1939 951

1 Art, Chinese 2 China—Civilization [30-26049]

"An excellent and sympathetic story of the Chinese people, up to the time when Europeans first appear on the scene and Chinese civilization becomes adulterated. A fine scholarship is combined with imagination and a sense of human values." Providence

"In the present work all necessary dates and chronological details are relegated to a table near the end of the book, and from the first page the author has kept in the forefront of his intentions the interest of the reader; and the result is a readable and highly informative account of Chinese cultural attainments." Times (London) lit. sup.

951.8 Manchuria

Two important documents recommended for a thoro study of the Manchurian question are:

League of nations. Manchuria, report of the Commission of enquiry appointed by the League of nations. Supt. of doc. 1932 148p pa 75c

League of nations. Verdict of the League; China and Japan in Manchuria; the official documents with notes and an introduction by M. O. Hudson. World peace 1933 102p pa 50c

Kawakami, Kiyoshi Karl, 1875-

Japan speaks on the Sino-Japanese crisis; with an introduction by Tsuyoshi Inukai. Macmillan 1932 184p map $1.50 951.8

1 China—Foreign relations 2 Eastern question (Far East) 3 Japan—Foreign relations 4 Manchuria 32-7357

"Mr. Kawakami is . . . of course, a propagandist when he writes on Japan for Occidental consumption. The tone of his argument is, however, restrained, and if he does not always tell the whole truth he is too well seasoned in publicity to support his apologia for Japan with anything but the truth. His book is a thoroughly honest sketch of the background and present scene of the conflict of ambitions in the East as every intelligent and patriotic Japanese sees them." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Manchoukuo, child of conflict. Macmillan 1933 311p illus $2 951.8

1 China—Foreign relations 2 Chinese in Manchuria 3 Japan—Foreign relations 4 Japanese in Manchuria 5 Manchuria 33-8957

"The author "states the case for Japan concerning the conflict in Manchuria between Japan and China. He argues that since Manchoukuo, the state to which that conflict gave birth, with its population of over thirty millions, 'is here to stay,' it is essential that the world at large should know what it is—its organization, its foreign relations, its finances, its problems." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Kawakami writes very frankly and freely. He sees not only Japan's good points, but also her faults and the possibilities of danger in her course. He knows his subject thoroughly and writes a very interesting and readable book." Boston Transcript

Lattimore, Owen, 1900-

Manchuria; cradle of conflict. rev ed Macmillan 1935 343p maps $3.50 951.8

1 Eastern question (Far East) 2 Manchuria 35-6659

"Except for the rewriting of the first chapter, few changes have been made in the text of the original edition [of 1932] but two new chapters have been added, covering events since 1931." Bkl.

"A really significant contribution to the literature on the Far East, because it fits Manchuria into its own historical background and sets forth the complex effects of her relations with neighboring countries." World tomorrow

Owen Lattimore's "Mongols of Manchuria" (Day 1934 311p maps $2.50) is a thoro study of the Mongols, their tribal divisions and relationships with other Eastern peoples. It supplements to some extent the author's "Manchuria, cradle of conflict" entered above

Meng, Chih

China speaks on the conflict between China and Japan; with an introduction by W. W. Yen. Macmillan 1932 xx,211p illus map $1.50 951.8

1 China—Foreign relations 2 Eastern question (Far East) 3 Japan—Foreign relations 4 Japanese in Manchuria 5 Manchuria 32-10853

"The author of this book goes to diplomatic documents and to historical evidence in general to present China's case in regard to Sino-Japanese relations and to condemn the policies and attitude of the Japanese Government. . . This book is interesting not only for its historical material, but for its illuminating and forceful presentation of the Chinese viewpoint." Boston Transcript

Meng, Chih—Continued
Bibliography: p210-11

951.9 Korea

Two books on Korea which are out of date but may be useful are:
Griffis, W. E. Corea, the hermit nation . . . 9th ed rev and enl Scribner 1911 xxvii,526p illus maps o.p. 1939
Ireland, Alleyne. New Korea. Dutton 1926 354p map $5

952 Japan

G. B. Sansom's "Japan, a short cultural history" (Appleton-Century 1931 537p illus map $7.50) is a scholarly history from prehistoric times to 1868, desirable for libraries able to afford it

Chamberlin, William Henry, 1897-
* Japan over Asia. rev and enl ed Little 1939 463p illus maps $3.50 952

1 Eastern question (Far East) 2 Japan—Foreign relations 3 Japan—Politics and government (W) 39-27582

"One chapter has been dropped (from the first edition, published in 1936) and three new ones have been added, dealing with the war, with the changes which war has brought about in Japan's internal political, economic, and social structure, and with Japan's chances of achieving its imperial dream. . . . I have endeavored to write neither an indictment nor a vindication of Japan's expansion, but to set forth as objectively as possible the main events and causes of the Island Empire's forward drive in Asia." Preface

Gowen, Herbert Henry, 1864-
Outline history of Japan. Appleton-Century 1939 458p map $4 952

1 Japan—History 39-21137

First published 1927. The present edition is a reprint with some few plate corrections

"A popular summary of Japanese history, compiled from European sources and intended for the plain man. The book has gained immensely through the author's friendship with that great scholar, the late Dr. Haga, to whom it is dedicated." Times (London) lit. sup.
Bibliography: p443-48

Gulick, Sidney Lewis, 1860-
Toward understanding Japan; constructive proposals for removing the menace of war. Macmillan 1935 270p $2.25 952

1 Eastern question (Far East) 2 Japan 3 Japan—Foreign relations 4 U.S.—Foreign relations 35-4134

"In this book Dr. Sidney L. Gulick, writer on Far Eastern subjects, who has known the Japanese for many years, surveys Japan's problems in the light of her recent policy and procedures, and examines American policy toward Japan. He also outlines proposals, a program of 'good neighbors,' for establishing on a permanent basis friendly relations between the two countries." N.Y. Times

Latourette, Kenneth Scott, 1884-
* Development of Japan. 4th ed rev Macmillan 1938 272p map $2.50 952

1 Japan 2 Japan—History (W) 38-27544

First published 1918, revised in 1926 and in 1931. In this fourth edition "there have been added a few paragraphs to Chapter XI. Chapter XII has been lengthened and largely rewritten, and extensive changes have been made in the Bibliography. At the same time slight corrections have been inserted to some other portions of the volume." Preface to the 4th edition

"A summary of the development of the Japanese nation, its people, civilization, problems, politics and probable future, well adapted to the needs of schools and study clubs and the general reader. Describes the civilization of Japan at the time of its first contact with the Western world, and gives a detailed account of its rapid transformation from an obscure Asiatic kingdom to the dominant power in the far East." Cleveland

Nourse, Mary Augusta
Kodo, the way of the emperor; a short history of the Japanese. Bobbs 1940 350p illus maps $3.50 952

1 Japan—Civilization 2 Japan—History (W) 40-27281

Contents: Chinese culture invades Japan; Period of feudalism; Westernization conflicts with tradition

"Miss Nourse does not try to avoid the story of Japan's conquests, nor does she try to excuse them. She does better: she explains them from the viewpoint of Japan's own notions regarding its destiny." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Young, Arthur Morgan, 1874-
Imperial Japan, 1926-1938. Morrow 1938 328p $3 952

1 Japan—Foreign relations 2 Japan—History 3 Japan—Politics and government (W) 38-27898

"This sequel to the author's 'Japan in recent times, 1912-1926' carries the story of the Japanese empire from the accession of the present sovereign to the outbreak of the war with China. The author has been for many years editor of the Japan Chronicle, the only British-owned newspaper in Japan." Book rev. digest

"Pictures the significant political, economic and social events, 1926-38. The murder of Chang Tso-lin, the Manchurian policy, the 'horror' of Shanghai, the internal struggle between democracy and militarism and the deterioration of thought are among the subjects on which the author throws the light of both authoritative information and critical insight." N.Y. libraries

A. M. Young's "Japan in recent times, 1912-1926" (Morrow 1929 347p o.p. 1939) tells of Japan's intervention in Siberia, relations with China, Korea and Formosa, internal politics, etc.

953 Arabia

Hitti, Philip Khûri, 1886-
History of the Arabs. Macmillan 1937 767p illus maps $10.50 953

1 Arabia—History 2 Arabs 3 Civilization, Arabic 4 Mohammedan empire—History (37-18239)

"It is desirable to be acquainted with one of the great forces that has shaped the modern world, Mohammedanism. For the historical aspects of this Mohammedan culture, the first choice is Hitti." Trinity College lists

Hogarth, David George, 1862-1927
Arabia. Oxford 1922 139p map $2.50 953

1 Arabia—History [22-15001]

This short sketch covers Arabian history from pre-Muslim times down to the entry of the Arabs into the Great war
"A most scholarly and capable survey of a difficult subject." Spectator

Philby, Harry St John Bridger, 1885-
Arabia. Scribner 1930 387p map (Modern world) o.p. 1939 953

1 Arabia—History 31-7950

A volume "designed for the use of those members of the general public . . . who may be desirous of understanding something of the principal forces and tendencies which have been at work in the. . . Arabian peninsula during comparatively modern times." Preface
"Those who wish for a clear, if dry, statement of the historical side of the question, which may help them to an understanding of the position in Iraq, will turn to this book." Saturday rev.
Contains map and genealogical tables

Thomas, Bertram, 1892-
The Arabs; the life story of a people who have left their deep impress on the world. Butterworth, T. 1937 372p illus maps 7s 6d 953

1 Arabia—History 2 Arabs 37-16320

Formerly carried also by Doubleday
"If Mr. Thomas's book contributes little that is new to the knowledge of the subject (and he would probably be the last to claim to have done so), his restatements of facts are of great topical value. His book is not flattering to the Arabs, but it places them shortly in perspective." Manchester guardian
Bibliography: p361-62

Thomas, Lowell Jackson, 1892-
With Lawrence in Arabia. . . Appleton-Century 1924 408p illus maps $4 953

1 European war, 1914-1918—Arabia 2 Lawrence, Thomas Edward, 1888-1935 24-22807

Also available in the Star ser. (Garden City pub. co. $1)
Lowell Thomas retells the "World war adventures and achievements of a young English archeologist turned soldier and trusted leader of the Arabs against the Turks. Readable and enthusiastic, the account is of value not only as a picture of a highly romantic figure, but also as a record of history, with interesting glimpses of Arab psychology and life. Illustrated." N.Y. state lib.

954 INDIA

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:
Cumming, Sir J. G. ed. Political India, 1832-1932; a co-operative survey of a century. Oxford 1932 324p $1.35
Lane-Poole, Stanley. Mediaeval India under Mohammedan rule, 712-1764. Putnam 1903 449p illus map o.p. 1939

Allan, John; Haig, Sir Wolseley, 1865- and Dodwell, Henry Herbert, 1879-
* Cambridge shorter history of India. Macmillan 1934 970p maps $4 954

1 India—History 34-34561

The aim of the authors, two of whom are editors of the larger "Cambridge history of India" has been to take advantage of the knowledge embodied in that work but to "reserve to themselves complete liberty of judgment." They seek to provide the general reader with a complete account of Indian political history from its beginning down to the year 1919. Libraries having the larger work, noted below, will probably not need this survey also?
"A more compact trio of writers could not have been selected, and the result is excellent; for, as the preface suggests, the method adopted has produced 'a unity of conception and treatment unattainable when individual topics are handled by individual specialists.'" Times (London) lit. sup.

"Cambridge history of India" is to be compiled in 6 volumes (Macmillan 1922-1937 v 1, 3, 4 ea $9.50, v5, 6 ea $7). Volume five of this work is also published as volume 4 of the "Cambridge history of the British empire" (Macmillan 1929 $7) and volume 6, as volume 5 of the "Cambridge history of the British empire (Macmillan 1932 $7)

Chirol, Sir Valentine, 1852-1929
India; with an introduction by H. A. L. Fisher. Scribner 1926 352p (Modern world) $5 954

1 India 2 India—Politics and government [26-5419]

"An eminent authority on Indian affairs traces the growth and reactions of the great forces, spiritual and material, ancient and modern, which have made India what she is today. Among these forces are the religious and social system of Hinduism which is the foundation of Indian civilization, the principles of British rule, the tide of western influence, the Great war, the non-cooperation movement, the new Indian constitution and the growth of the militant Swarajist party." Book rev. digest

Marriott, Sir John Arthur Ransome, 1859-
English in India; a problem of politics. Oxford 1932 322p illus map $4.25 954

1 British in India 2 India—History 3 India—Politics and government [32-26657]

"An attempt to analyze the difficult and anxious problems arising out of circumstances unique in the history of mankind." Preface
"He has used his abundant material with skill and discrimination, and has produced an excellent survey, succinct yet always readable, of a subject which affords almost unlimited temptations to digression." Spectator
Selected bibliography: p315-17

Ragozin, Mme Zénaïde Alexeïevna, 1835-1925
Story of Vedic India, as embodied principally in the Rig-Veda. Putnam 1895 457p illus maps (Story of the nations) o.p. 1939 954

1 Aryans 2 India—History 3 Mythology, Hindu 4 Vedas—Rig-veda 4-17674

A readable account of the history and social conditions of this early period, many centuries before the Christian era, based on what is found in the Rig Veda itself

Rawlinson, Hugh George, 1880-
India; a short cultural history; ed. by C. G. Seligman. Appleton-Century 1938 452p il maps $7.50 954

1 India—Civilization 2 India—History (W) 38-27240

"A short cultural history of India. India's contribution to world culture. Indian literature and philosophy, the great religious movements, and art and architecture from 2500 B.C. to modern times are studied.

Rawlinson, Hugh G.—Continued
Includes lists of leading dates of events which occurred during the different periods described. Bibliography." Book rev. digest
"The reader who wants a compendious account of India's culture will find it in this book, which is excellently produced and enriched with twenty-three plates and forty-five smaller illustrations, and over a dozen maps." Times (London) lit. sup.

Smith, Vincent Arthur, 1848-1920
Oxford history of India, from the earliest times to the end of 1911 2d ed rev and continued to 1921 by S. M. Edwardes. Oxford 1923 xxiv,814p illus map $5 954
1 India—History [30-23752]
"He carefully cities at the end of each of his chapters the authorities on whom he relies. It is noticeable that among these are quoted with hearty gratitude and approval many native Indian scholars of our own time. Dr Smith's business is with facts, not with generalized interpretations of them." Spectator
"An admirable book of reference rather than a philosophic history." Times (London) lit. sup.

V. A. Smith's "Oxford student's history of India" (13th ed Oxford 1931 394p illus maps $1.75) is a much shorter account of Indian history but gives a fuller treatment of the early and Mohammedan period

955 PERSIA

Sykes, Sir Percy Molesworth, 1867-
Persia. Oxford 1922 188p map $2.50 955
1 Persia—History 23-4737
Persian history from the earliest times to the close of the World war compressed into less than two hundred pages. Based on the author's longer authoritative "History of Persia," published in 1915 (2d ed rev and enl Macmillan 1921 2v $25)
"As a sketch, nothing could be better. The story is so full of interest, especially in the pre-Christian era, that readers will assuredly go on to the author's standard history." Spectator

956 TURKEY IN ASIA

For the history of Turkey in Europe, see class 949.6

Hālidah Adīb, khānum, 1885-
Turkey faces West; a Turkish view of recent changes and their origin; with a preface by E. M. Earle. Yale univ. press 1930 273p illus $3 956
1 Turkey—History 2 Turkey—Politics and government 30-26898
"Should do much to assist those who desire to know more about the Turkey of today, and help toward a more generous comprehension of a past which has been befogged by religious passions and well meaning but frequently misguided and prejudiced historians. It is, of course, natural and admirably human that Halide Edib should give in her book a picture favorable of her own people, but the story is very fairly stated." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Recommended reading: p262-64

Webster, Donald Everett
Turkey of Atatürk; social process in the Turkish reformation. Am. acad. 1939 337p illus maps $2.50 956
1 Atatürk, Kamâl, president Turkey, d. 1938 2 Turkey—History 39-6938
"Mr. Webster's volume is the best, and in some cases the only, analysis of the various processes of social changes which have gone on in Turkey during the years since the beginnings of the Kamâlist Revolution, in the English language. The volume should become the standard work in its field and it should go on the 'must' list for students of the Turkish problem." Annals Amer. acad.
Bibliography: p323-26

956.9 Palestine

Bentwich, Norman De Mattos, 1883-
Palestine; with a foreword by H. A. L. Fisher. Benn 1934 302p map (Modern world) 21s 956.9
1 Jews—Restoration 2 Jews in Palestine 3 Palestine—History A36-143
"Important review of the recent history of Palestine by a believer in the ultimate triumph of the Zionist movement." Pratt quarterly

De Haas, Jacob, 1872-1937
* History of Palestine: the last two thousand years. Macmillan 1934 xxvii,523p $3.50 956.9
1 Palestine—History 34-15088
"A comprehensive history from 55 B.C. to recent years including colonization in the latter part of the nineteenth century, the World War, and post-war events. Based on thirty-two years of study, several trips to Palestine, and consultation of over two thousand books and documents." Ontario library review
"The eager and accurate scholarship of Jacob de Haas has filled this fine book with a wealth of detail which, had it been expressed less skillfully, might have bewildered the reader. Lucidity and certitude of phrases have made possible a narrative that marches along the centuries with the majestic splendor of a mighty pageant." Current history

Popper, David Henry, 1912-
* Puzzle of Palestine; maps and charts by Delos Blackmar. Foreign policy 1938 111p illus maps (Headline bks) pa 25c 956.9
1 Arabs in Palestine 2 Jews—Restoration 3 Jews in Palestine 4 Palestine—History (W) 38-19048
"A timely discussion that goes back to the origins of the problem that is Palestine. The major part of the book is devoted to events there since the Balfour Declaration." New republic

Rappoport, Angelo Solomon, 1871-
History of Palestine. Dutton 1931 368p map $2 956.9
1 Palestine—History [31-15115]
Covers in part one pre-Israelite Palestine; in part two Palestine from the conquest of Canaan to the conquest by Rome; in part three Palestine from 70 A.D. to 1930. Bibliography
"The appeal of the book is twofold; first it is addressed to Biblical students, and only secondly to students of human culture generally, the result, of course, being that the trend of the book is always

Rappoport, Angelo S.—Continued
towards the corroboration of Jewish history and legend and that much space is devoted to the historical period. The most interesting part of the narrative, however, is that in which Dr. Rappoport endeavours to reconstruct for us that land of Canaan in which the intruding Israelites came as marauders and conquerors." New statesman and Nation

960 AFRICA

The "Cambridge history of the British empire," volume 8 (Macmillan 1936 $11) deals with South Africa, Rhodesia and the protectorates. It is the most authoritative source for the history of Africa

Johnston, Sir Harry Hamilton, 1858-1927
Opening up of Africa. Holt 1911 255p maps (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) o.p. 1939 960
1 Africa—Colonization 2 Africa—History
11-35816

Contents: Prehistoric times; Work of Egypt; Early Semites; Greeks in Africa; Rome in Africa; The Fula, the Songhai, and the Bantu; Moslem Arabs in Africa; Portugal opens up Africa; Dutch in Africa; French in Africa; British work in Africa; Belgium, Germany, and Italy; Christian missions in Africa; Commercial development

"Condensed but authoritative sketch of the history, exploration and colonization of Africa from earliest times." Pittsburgh

Lucas, Sir Charles Prestwood, 1853-1931
Partition & colonization of Africa. Oxford 1922 228p map o.p. 1939 960
1 Africa—Colonization 2 Africa—History
[22-21426]

"Not so much a history of Africa as a history of Africa's relationship with the rest of the world, from ancient times up to the League of Nations. A brief and concise but clear survey." Cleveland

"His lectures are, for the most part, a bare record of facts, of the slave trade and the explorations, of missionary enterprise, of the scramble for and partition of Africa, and of the African campaigns of the great war. In so far as any historian can be impartial and objective, Sir Charles Lucas succeeds in being so; his facts are facts, and no one can possibly deny it." New statesman

Smuts, Jan Christiaan, 1870-
Africa and some world problems, including the Rhodes memorial lectures delivered in Michaelmas term, 1929. Oxford 1930 184p map $2.50 960
1 Africa—Native races 2 Africa—Race question 3 Democracy 4 League of nations 5 Livingstone, David, 1813-1873
[30-13996]

These Rhodes memorial lectures, 1929, include six addresses: Livingstone and after; African settlement; Native policy in Africa; World-peace; Future tasks of the empire; Democracy

"A valuable contribution towards solving two of the greatest contemporary problems of politics, the adjustment of international differences and the government of African peoples. . . His discourses on the League and on Democracy, where he repeats the current view of the 'expert' as a sort of scientist, do not deal with the fundamentals, but are valuable statements of generally accepted ideas." New statesman

962 EGYPT

Cromer, Evelyn Baring, 1st earl of, 1841-1917
Modern Egypt. Macmillan 1916 2v in 1 front map o.p. 1939 962
1 Egypt—History 2 Egypt—Politics and government A16-801

A narrative of the events in Egypt and the Soudan 1876-1907, and a statement of the results which have accrued to Egypt from the British occupation of the country in 1882. First published 1908 in 2 volumes. Map

"He writes with a largeness of view, a generosity of temper, and a sense of responsibility which belong characteristically to the man who has been at the helm of Egypt through his eventful and fruitful quarter of a century." Athenaeum

Baron G. A. L. Lloyd's "Egypt since Cromer" (Macmillan 1933 2v $7.50) forms a sequel to Lord Cromer's book. Volume one covers the years 1904 to 1919; volume two will deal with the years from 1920 to the present

Young, Sir George, bart. 1872-
Egypt. Benn 1927 xxii,352p (Modern world) 15s 962
1 Egypt—History 2 Egypt—Politics and government 28-2122

Formerly carried also by Scribner

"The author begins his story of modern Egypt a century ago, after the Napoleonic wars, and follows the development of Egyptian nationalism to the day when Egypt was declared a sovereign state. In the last few chapters he discusses the future relations of Britain, Egypt and the Sudan." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Young presents his challenging thesis with both skill and fairness. Some of his readers may demur at times to his argument or his views, but they will not be able to dismiss them lightly. And they will certainly not find any dull pages in his book." New statesman

963 ETHIOPIA

Jones, Arnold Martin, 1904- and Monroe, Elizabeth
History of Abyssinia. Oxford 1935 188p map $2.25 963
1 Ethiopia—History 2 Ethiopia—Religion 36-1712

"An admirable pocket history of Ethiopia. . . The authors quite properly subordinate the modern history . . . and give the bulk of their work to tracing the early story. . . It is rather unexpectedly interesting." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

MacCallum, Elizabeth Pauline
* Rivalries in Ethiopia; introduction by N. D. Baker. Nat. peace conference 1935 64p map (World affairs pamphlets) 50c, pa 25c 963
1 Ethiopia 2 Ethiopia—Foreign relations 3 Italy—Colonies 4 Italy—Economic conditions 35-18831

"Within brief space is set forth the background of the Italo-Ethiopian struggle since Adua in 1896. Mr. Newton D. Baker, in the first fourteen pages of the pamphlet comprising the introduction, has given a resumé of the past relations between Ethiopia and the great European powers as well as the political undercurrent which since 1870 has led to the so-called 'scramble for Africa.'" Sat. rev. of lit.

964 Morocco

Harris, Walter Burton, 1866-1933
France, Spain and the Rif. Arnold, E. & co. 1927 338p illus maps 21s 964

1 French in Morocco 2 Morocco—History 3 Spaniards in Morocco [27-13333]

Formerly carried also by Longmans

"Mr Harris introduces his account of the French and Spanish campaigns in the Rif by a description of the country itself, its inhabitants and the stock from which they spring. . . . [He] writes from first-hand knowledge of events, and a personal acquaintance with the leaders including the Riffan chiefs, Raisuli and later Abdel Krim. There are interesting photographs and three maps." Book rev. digest

"He brings to his present task the same cool detachment of view, the same all-round knowledge of the country and personal acquaintance with men like Raisuli and Abdel Krim, which were a feature of his despatches." Saturday rev.

Pechkoff, Zinovi
Bugle sounds; life in the Foreign legion; preface by André Maurois. Appleton 1926 286p map o.p. 1939 964

1 French in Morocco 2 Foreign legion (French army) 3 Morocco—History 26-24158

"The entries in this diary, written by an officer of the French Foreign legion and adopted son of Maxim Gorky, begin March 2, 1923 with the legionnaires garrisoned in Morocco. It is a modest and absorbing account of the life and exploits of the Legion first in Morocco and then in Algeria and in particular its campaign in defense of the frontier tribes against the Riffians. Soldier life in camp, on the march and in battle is described, with word pictures of unusual characters and episodes." Book rev. digest

967 South Central Africa

Moore, Ernest D.
Ivory, scourge of Africa. Harper 1931 256p illus o.p. 1939 967

1 Africa, Central 2 Arabs in Africa 3 Elephants 4 Hāmid ibn Muhammad, called Tippoo Tib 5 Ivory 6 Slave-trade 7 Zanzibar 31-32013

A history of the ivory trade in Zanzibar. Illustrated

"Ernst Moore gives a popular description of the ivory trade, of a sort to be read with interest not only by travelers but also by those who have never left civilization, because of its exact and pertinent information and because of a style that proclaims the artist. . . It is a magnificent book, and Moore carries his reader to the center of the subject with arrow-like directness." C. J. Finger in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

968 South Africa

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended if additional material is needed:

Hattersley, A. F. South Africa, 1652-1933. Butterworth, T. 1933 255p (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) 2s 6d

Nathan, Manfred. South Africa from within. Murray, J. 1926 324p map 12s

Hofmeyr, Jan Hendrik, 1894-
South Africa. Benn 1931 331p map (Modern world) 15s 968

1 Africa, South 2 Africa, South—History 32-452

Formerly carried also by Scribner

"A thoughtful and forceful work on the political and economic situation in South Africa due to the peculiarities of its original settling and the race problem. The geology, geography and history of this part of the world are described to form a background to the discussion." Providence

Millin, Mrs Sarah Gertrude, 1889-
South Africans. Liveright 1927 287p illus $3.50 968

1 Africa, South 2 Africa, South—Race question 27-4078

A slightly enlarged and revised edition published 1934 may be obtained from Constable at 7s 6d

"One comes away from this beautifully written book with a clear picture of South Africa today against the background of the old South Africa, and with a new idea of the country itself, its heterogeneous people, their life and their problems, political, economic, and social. There are several photographic illustrations." Book rev. digest

Walker, Eric Anderson, 1886-
History of South Africa. . . Longmans 1935 626p maps $5.40 968

1 Africa, South—History 2 Africa, South—Politics and government [36-15399]

Originally published in 1928. Reissued with a chapter covering the events of the following years, a detailed table of contents, notes which either expand or correct points in the original book, and a select list of books on South African history, most of them published since 1927

"A most thorough, minute, and scholarly record and interpretation of events in South Africa from the earliest times. . . The author has tried to be impartial, a most difficult task, and he has the ability to turn a happy phrase which here and there enlivens the steady outpouring of the stream of facts. The book has an excellent bibliography." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

970 NORTH AMERICA

Priestley, Herbert Ingram, 1875-
Coming of the white man, 1492-1848. Macmillan 1929 xx,411p illus maps (History of American life v 1) $4 970

1 Canada—History—To 1763 (New France) 2 North America—History 3 Spain—Colonies 4 U.S.—Civilization 5 U.S.—History 6 U.S.—History—Colonial period 29-17105

"As a much needed complement to existing textbooks, this account of Spanish, French, Dutch and Swedish history in North America is highly welcome. But, better still, the author has fulfilled this task with admirable thoroughness and in a way to hold the imagination of even the laggard student. . . Mr. Priestley has added to the historical chapters a critical essay on his sources which will be of great assistance to the more serious student." Survey

970.1 INDIANS

For American antiquities including discussions of Indians before the discovery of America see class 913.7

In addition to the books entered below, the following are also recommended:

Amsden, C. A. Navaho weaving; its technic and history; foreword by F. W. Hodge. Laboratory of anthropology 1934 261p illus map $10

Dennis, E. G. comp. Indians of America; a reference list for schools and libraries. Faxon 1928 67p pa 50c

Hewett, E. L. Ancient life in the American Southwest; with an introduction on the general history of the American race. Bobbs 1930 392p illus $1.50

James, G. W. Indian blankets and their makers. Tudor 213p illus $2.98 Reprint of a book published by McClurg in 1914

Keiser, Albert. Indian in American literature. Oxford 1933 312p $3

Coolidge, Dane, 1873- and Coolidge, Mrs Mary Elizabeth Burroughs (Roberts) Smith, 1860-

Navajo Indians. Houghton 1930 316p illus $4 970.1

1 Navaho Indians 30-33128

"Comprehensive in its scope, accurate and valuable, this survey includes Navajo legend and history, manner of life, and customs, arts and crafts, mythology, ceremonies and dances, and relations with the government. The material for the study was gathered by the authors from the Indians themselves. Historical chapters are based on reports of agents and others connected with the Indian Bureau. Photographs, bibliography, index." N.Y. libraries

Coolidge, Mrs Mary Elizabeth Burroughs (Roberts) Smith, 1860-

Rain-makers; Indians of Arizona and New Mexico. Houghton 1929 326p illus $4 970.1

1 Indians of North America 2 Pueblo Indians 29-3433

"A valuable and informative work on the Indians of Arizona and New Mexico. Covers history, social life, arts and industries, ceremonies, and mythology. Useful for reference and especially worth bringing to the attention of visitors to the southwest. The list of festivals, with dates, is worth calling to the attention of the latter." Wis. bul.

Contains illustrations and bibliography

Eastman, Charles Alexander, 1858-

* Indian boyhood; with illus. by E. L. Blumenschein. Little 1902 289p illus $2.75 970.1

1 Dakota Indians [2-22660]

Until the age of 15 the author lived the life of the Sioux. His work gives the inside story of the education, sports, games, worship, pleasures and hardships of Indian boyhood 40 years ago

C. A. Eastman's "From the deep woods to civilization; chapters in the autobiography of an Indian" (Little 1916 206p illus $2.75) continues the author's story thru mission school and college, medical studies and work as government physician

Soul of the Indian; an interpretation. Houghton 1911 170p front $1.50 970.1

1 Indians of North America—Religion and mythology 11-5343

"Dr. Eastman disclaims all desire to offer an ethnological treatise. His study is the outcome of childhood teaching and ancestral ideals rather than of scientific inquiry. He attempts to show the true Indian nature freed from the prejudices and legends that prevail in the minds of white men." Book rev. digest

"Dr. Eastman's chapters . . . are extremely interesting; and if he unconsciously idealizes his fellow Indians, it is a natural and pardonable error." Dial

Embree, Edwin Rogers, 1883-

* Indians of the Americas; historical pageant. Houghton 1939 260p illus maps $2.75 970.1

1 Indians 2 Indians—Antiquities (W) 39-24953

An historical study—by description, analysis and story-telling—of the Indians of North, Central and South America

"The anthropological material is carefully studied—for the former director of the Rockefeller Foundation and president of the Julius Rosenwald Fund could not afford to do anything in an unscholarly way—and the discussion of the white man's treatment of the Indians, though brief, is intelligent and sympathetic." Christian century

Farrand, Livingston, 1867-

Basis of American history, 1500-1900. Harper 1904 303p illus maps (American nation, v2) $2.25 970.1

1 Indians of North America 2 Physical geography—North America 4-32335

Although the author covers briefly the physical features of North America in relation to her history, the larger part of the volume deals with the ethnological question. He has given a clear, comprehensive survey of the native Indian tribes, —their social life, customs, religion and industries. Contains bibliography and maps

Fergusson, Erna

Dancing gods; Indian ceremonials of New Mexico and Arizona. Knopf 1931 xxvi, 276p illus $3 970.1

1 Indians of North America 2 Indians of North America—Dances 31-18831

"The author describes the ceremonials of the Pueblo, Navajo, and Apache Indians with appreciation of their religious significance and value as art, presenting at the same time sympathetic glimpses of Indian life and character. Beautifully illustrated with reproductions of paintings." Bkl.

Fletcher, Alice Cunningham, 1845-1923

Indian games and dances with native songs; arranged from American Indian ceremonials and sports. Birchard 1915 137p illus $2 970.1

1 Indians of North America—Dances 2 Indians of North America—Games 15-10057

"Dances celebrating the life of the corn, calling the flowers, etc.; hazard, guessing and ball games; and a section on Indian names and the ceremonies used in naming a child are the contents of this little book. It will have special value for boy scouts and camp fire girls, though good for use in any youthful celebration." Wis. bul.

Goddard, Pliny Earle, 1869-1928

Indians of the northwest coast. 2d ed Am. museum of natural hist. 1934 175p illus maps (American museum of natural history. Handbook ser.) 75c 970.1

1 Indians of North America

A reprint of the first edition published 1924 except for a slight difference in the illustrations

Indexed in the "Costume index"

A well-illustrated little book containing chapters on the industries and culture of the Indians of the state of Washington, of British Columbia and Southern Alaska

Bibliography: p163-65

Indians of the Southwest. 4th ed Am. museum of natural hist. 1931 205p illus maps (American museum of natural history. Handbook ser.) 75c 970.1

1 Indians of North America [22-26495]

A recapitulation of our knowledge of Indian customs, history, civilization and culture. Good illustrations

Bibliography: p189-96

Grinnell, George Bird, 1849-1938

Blackfoot lodge tales; the story of a prairie people. Scribner 1892 310p $2.50 970.1

1 Folklore, Indian 2 Siksika Indians 4-4056

"Thirty stories of love and war, ancient customs and natural phenomena. Also an account of ancient Blackfoot history, their daily life and customs and a brief statement of their condition today." Larned's Literature of Amer. hist.

Cheyenne Indians, their history and ways of life; photographs by E. C. Grinnell and Mrs J. E. Tuell. Yale univ. press 1923 2v illus map $10 970.1

1 Cheyenne Indians 23-17688

Recounts briefly their early history and pictures in great detail their manner of life, religious, social and industrial

"Mr. Grinnell has, through vast industry, collected and put into excellent form much valuable information concerning this vanishing people who, in the lapse of another century, will have perished or become absorbed into our civilization." Boston Transcript

Hodge, Frederick Webb, 1864-

(ed.) Handbook of American Indians north of Mexico. Supt. of doc. 1907-10 2v illus map (U.S. Bureau of American ethnology. Bulletin 30) o.p. 1939 970.1

1 Indians of North America 7-35198

"Contains a descriptive list of the stocks, confederacies, tribes, tribal divisions and settlements north of Mexico, accompanied with the various names by which these have been known, together with biographies of Indians of note, sketches of their history, archeology, manners, arts, customs and institutions, and the aboriginal words incorporated in the English language. . . Accompanying each synonym (the earliest known date always being given) a reference to the authority is noted, and these references form practically a bibliography of the tribe for those who wish to pursue the subject further." Preface

Contains illustrations and a map

La Farge, Oliver, 1901-

* As long as the grass shall grow; photographs by H. M. Post. Alliance bk. 1940 140p illus (Face of America) $2.50 970.1

1 Indians of North America (W) 40-27492

An account in word and photograph, of the American Indian in his period of strength, in his period of physical, spiritual and cultural deterioration following the coming of the white man, and in his latest period, today, when he is building toward a future of self respect and functional living

"For those who already know and love Indians the book will be heart-warming and provocative as a trip to the Indian country. For those who do not it will serve as an eye opener to the reality of the red man's life and his mores in the year 1940. . . It is an intelligent and fair selection as well as an imaginative one." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Linderman, Frank Bird, 1868-1938

American; the life story of a great Indian, Plenty-coups, chief of the Crows; illus. by H. M. Stoops. Day 1930 313p illus $3.50 970.1

1 Crow Indians 2 Plenty-coups, Crow chief, 1848- 30-11369

English edition has title: Plenty-coups, chief of the Crows

"An authentic picture of the life, and especially the warfare, of the Crow Indians in their prosperous days, which ended with the passing of the buffalo. The story is told in Plenty-Coups's own words." Providence

Blackfeet Indians; pictures by Winold Reiss. Great Northern railway co. 1935 65p illus $3.50 970.1

1 Indians of North America 2 Siksika Indians 35-17050

Indexed in the "Costume index"

"Forty-nine of Weinold Reiss' magnificent portraits of Blackfeet Indians have been brought together in this volume, prefaced by an historical narrative by Frank Linderman. The pictures are beautifully reproduced in full color, with binding of boards, making a portfolio any library might be proud to own." Wis. bul.

Lockwood, Francis Cummins, 1864-

Apache Indians. Macmillan 1938 348p illus maps $3.50 970.1

1 Apache Indians (W) 38-6746

"A careful and painstaking study of the Apaches of the Southwest, the 'bad men' of American Indian tribes. The Apache in primitive times, the long struggle of the United States government to subdue this unruly member, and the Apache today, are all described in a manner which is interesting and readable, altho there is no effort at dramatic or popular appeal." Wis. bul.

Oglesby, Catharine, 1895-

Modern primitive arts of Mexico, Guatemala and the Southwest. McGraw 1939 226p illus $3 970.1

1 Indians of Central America—Art 2 Indians of Central America—Guatemala 3 Indians of Mexico—Art 4 Indians of North America—Art 5 Navaho Indians 6 Pueblo Indians 39-10253

"A description of the arts still pursued by the Indians in these localities. It contains plenty of information for the tourist as to quality and design to expect in different districts." Chicago

Radin, Paul, 1883-

* Story of the American Indian. [rev ed] Liveright 1934 383p illus $2.50 970.1

1 Indians 2 Indians of North America 3 Indians of South America 4 Mayas 34-35662

Also obtainable from Grosset at $1.49. This is a reprint of an edition published by Liveright in 1934 with the addition of a bibliography and index

"A good opportunity for the general reader to find out exactly what is known about the American Indian of North, South and Central America. Where possible, Mr. Radin starts with the known—that is, the state of civilization when the French came to Canada, or Pizarro came to Peru, —and works back to the unknown pre-Columbian times. There are bizarre illustrations, some in color, of Indian art." Providence

Schultz, James Willard, 1859-

Blackfeet tales of Glacier national park. Houghton 1916 241p illus $3 970.1

1 Folk-lore, Indian 2 Glacier national park 3 Siksika Indians 16-11057

"An adopted member of the Blackfeet tribe, returned to the Indians for a two months visit in 1915, and records the legends told to him in the evening around the lodge fires." Pittsburgh

* My life as an Indian; the story of a red woman and a white man in the lodges of the Blackfeet; illus. from photographs, mostly by G. B. Grinnell. Houghton 1907 426p front $3 970.1

1 Indians of North America—Social life and customs 2 Siksika Indians [7-6737]

"Reads like a romance . . . not the least interesting part being the traditions and old stories, retold with simplicity and real charm." Bkl.

Appeared as a serial in "Forest and stream" under the title "In the lodges of the Blackfeet" under the pseudonym of W. B. Anderson

Sedgwick, Mrs Mary Katrine (Rice)

Acoma, the sky city; a study in Pueblo-Indian history and civilization. Harvard univ. press 1926 314p illus map $4 970.1

1 Acoma Indians 2 Acoma, N.M. 26-10468

"An account of one of the most ancient of the pueblos of the southwest. A study of a unique civilization going back many centuries on our continent. Well illustrated. A fascinating book." Wis. bul.

"Mrs. Sedgwick has done her self-assigned task well, and even more. Besides having compiled an interesting and authentic history of the 'Sky City,' Mrs. Sedgwick has admirably described Acoma—both its physical appearance and its social customs and organization—at the present time." Amer. hist. rev.

Bibliography: p303-09

Seymour, Mrs Flora Warren (Smith) 1888-

Story of the red man. Longmans 1929 421p illus maps o.p. 1939 970.1

1 Indians of North America 2 Indians of North America—Wars 29-19704

"Beginning with the coming of the white man, the author traces the history of his relation to the Indian, knowing how the latter has been forced steadily back from one successive frontier to another until the defeat of the last of the rebels, Sitting Bull, in 1890, proclaimed the white man victor. Three chapters, on The red man at school, The red man and the land, and The red man at home, survey his . . . status [in 1929] Sympathetic to the Indian, but not biased. Well illustrated and supplied with maps." Wis. bul.

Bibliographical notes: p401-09

Smith, Mrs Dama Margaret

Indian tribes of the Southwest; illus. by G. L. Collins. Stanford univ. press 1933 146p illus $1.50 970.1

1 Indians of North America 33-16211

"The reader who wants definite information about the Indians of the Southwest and the way they live today or the tourist who wants to know where to go and what to see will find this little book helpful. It follows the path of a summer's tour which the author, as guide, took with four college girls." Wis. bul.

Standing Bear, Luther, Sioux chief, 1868-

My people, the Sioux; ed. by E. A. Brininstool; with an introduction by W. S. Hart, and with illus. from drawings by the author and from photographs. Houghton 1928 288p illus $4 970.1

1 Indians of North America—Social life and customs 2 Oglala Indians 28-9294

"The author, one of the first Carlisle students, tells of his life, first as a wild Indian, then as a 'civilized' one, as teacher, agency clerk, member of Buffalo Bill's Wild West show and movie actor. Well told in simple dignified language, giving the Indian's side of the land and paternalism questions." Wis. bul.

Vaillant, George Clapp, 1901-

Indian arts in North America. Harper 1939 63p 96 plates map $5 970.1

1 Indians of North America—Art 39-25738

"A concise study and appraisal of American Indian arts both ancient and modern, excellently illustrated with 95 photographic plates of primitive and modern painting, wood carving, sculpture, textiles, and ceramics." Bkl.

Verrill, Alpheus Hyatt, 1871-

American Indian, North, South and Central America. Appleton-Century 1927 xxvii,485p illus maps $4 970.1

1 Indians 27-4104

"This is not a detailed description of every tribe, but a general survey in which tribes are grouped by locality and similarity in customs. Illustrated from photographs of Indian dress, ceremonials, art and handcraft." Book rev. digest

"More interesting than any of Mr Verrill's scientific guesses are those chapters, forming the greater part of the book, wherein he describes at first hand the characters, customs and religions of the tribes . . . especially of Central and South America." Times (London) lit. sup.

Wellman, Paul I. 1895-

Death in the desert; the fifty years' war for the great Southwest. Macmillan 1935 294p illus map $3 970.1

1 Apache Indians 2 Indians of North America—Wars 3 Southwest, New—History 35-14088

"An account of the wars with the Indian tribes of Arizona and New Mexico, mainly Apaches, Pueblos, and Navajos, in the years from 1822 to 1886. Two chapters recount the events of the Modoc war in northern California, 1871 to 1873. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

Wellman, Paul I.—Continued

"It belongs in the library of all those interested in the story of American expansion and the resultant conflict with the Indian. The Southwestern wars come to life in these pages, and readers will lay the book down with the feeling that they too have battled and fought their way across the burning sands of New Mexico." Boston Transcript

P. I. Wellman's "Death on the prairie" (Macmillan 1934 298p illus o.p. 1939) is also a story of the Indian wars for the possession of the plains. The period covered is 1862 to 1892

Wissler, Clark, 1870-

* The American Indian; an introduction to the anthropology of the new world. 3d ed Oxford 1938 466p illus maps $3.75 970.1

1 Indians 38-2249

First published 1917, revised 1922. In the third edition two chapters have been omitted, other chapters slightly expanded to keep up with advances in research. The chapters on chronology and historical method have been thoroly rewritten

"The value of the book is enhanced by these changes. There is, however, no attempt to represent some recent shifts in emphasis as to new kinds of problems found worth studying in terms of the American Indian data. It remains a topical and historical compendium of fact. One may regret that the revisions were not more thorough." American journal of sociology

Linguistic tables and bibliography: p389-439

Indian cavalcade; or, Life on the old-time Indian reservations. Sheridan 1938 351p illus $3 970.1

1 Indians of North America—Reservations 2 Indians of North America—Social life and customs (W) 38-39407

"As a young man, at the turn of the century, [the author] spent some time at ten Indian reservations scattered from the Mississippi to the Pacific. In this book he shows us the reservation and the ways of the reservation Indian, the trader, the agent, and other frontier types." Book rev. digest

"A pleasant book of informal reminiscences and human, humorous observations . . . and some remarkable pictures of the former state of our Indian Service." Sat. rev. of lit.

‡ Indians of the United States; four centuries of their history and culture. Doubleday 1940 319p illus maps (American museum of natural history. Science ser.) $3.75 970.1

1 Indians of North America (W) 40-27194

Contents: Indian in prehistoric America; Great Indian families; Indian life in general

"[His] book, wise, learned, sympathetic without being sentimental, belongs on the shelf of any reader who would like to go beyond Cooper in his knowledge of Indians." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p298

North American Indians of the plains. 3d ed Am. museum of natural hist. 1927 172p illus maps (American museum of natural history. Handbook ser.) $1 970.1

1 Indians of North America [22-26496]

Very slight changes have been made since the second edition, 1920

Indexed in the "Costume index"

"Interesting, concise, authoritative and well-illustrated handbook on customs, religion, art, etc. Bibliography and index. Very useful reference material for teachers." Bkl.

971 CANADA

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are recommended for students of Canadian history:

Cambridge history of the British empire; general editors, J. H. Rose, and others; v6, Canada and Newfoundland. Macmillan 1930 939p $10 Provides the best scholarly treatment of the history of the Dominion

Chronicles of Canada series; ed. by G. M. Wrong and H. H. Langton. Glasgow 1914-1916 32v illus maps o.p. 1939 Each volume is a complete narrative of a period

Egerton, H. E. Canada; The history from 1763-1921. 3d ed Oxford 1923 386p $2.50 This forms volume 5, part 2 of Sir C. P. Lucas's Historical geography of the British dominions

Lucas, Sir C. P. History of Canada, 1763-1812. Oxford 1909 360p maps 12s 6d

Brady, Alexander, 1896-

Canada. Benn 1932 374p maps (Modern world) 18s 971

1 Canada [32-13872]

Formerly carried also by Scribner

"This survey of Canada's political life and the existing economic and cultural conditions is both concise and competent. The author . . . able to compare Canadian life and institutions with those of England and the United States, and his work is informative and timely." Bkl.

Contains maps and bibliography

Dafoe, John Wesley, 1866-

Canada, an American nation. Columbia univ. press 1935 134p $2 971

1 Canada—Foreign relations 2 Canada—Politics and government 35-3348

Delivered as the Beer lectures at Columbia university, 1933-1934

"Study of American influence upon Canadian political development, and of the nature of the economic and diplomatic relations between Canada and the United States." Book rev. digest

"A most admirable spirit infuses the three lectures which comprise this book. . . American readers will be especially interested in the final chapter which reviews the story of the relations between Canada and the United States as neighbors. . . . Here his desire to be wholly frank and truthful and his judicial temper became especially admirable." N.Y. Times

Haworth, Paul Leland, 1876-

Trailmakers of the Northwest. Harcourt 1921 277p illus map o.p. 1939 971

1 Fur trade 2 Indians of North America—Canada 3 Northwest, Canadian—History 21-14947

"Interesting account of the exploration and settlement of the Northwest, with a chapter on trappers and prospectors. . . . Based on source writers and author's own travels. Includes map, photographs, and list of books for further reading." N.Y. state lib.

"He has produced a fascinating narrative for those who have not the opportunity to consult the original sources." Literary rev.

Jesuits. Letters from missions (North America)

Jesuit relations and allied documents; travels and explorations of the Jesuit missionaries in North America (1610-1791) with an introduction by R. G. Thwaites; selected and ed. by Edna Kenton. Boni 1925 liv,527p illus maps o.p. 1939 971

1 Canada—History — To 1763 (New France) 2 Indians of North America—Canada 3 Jesuits 25-22877

" 'In their own words, the story of the Jesuit missionaries in North America from the establishment of their first Acadian mission in 1611, to their final surrender of the Jesuit estates, in gift, to Canada in 1789.' The compilation is a representative selection from Thwaites's 73-volume edition of 'The Jesuit relations and allied documents,' and is a dramatic, intimate picture of these brave men and their daily life with the Indians. Facsimiles of maps and paintings. Index." N.Y. state lib.

Laut, Agnes Christina, 1871-1936

Conquest of the great Northwest. . . Doran 1918 2v in 1 illus maps o.p. 1939 971

1 Hudson bay 2 Hudson's bay company 3 Northwest, Canadian—History 19-868

"Being the story of the 'Adventurers of England' known as 'The Hudson's bay company.' New pages in the history of the Canadian northwest and western states." Subtitle

"Unfortunately there is no index. Both author and publisher are to be congratulated on a most important and careful work, which is yet alive with human sympathy and full of vivid character drawing." N.Y. Times

Illustrated by photographs, maps and diagrams

MacKay, Douglas, 1900-1938

Honourable company; a history of the Hudson's bay company; maps by R. H. H. Macaulay. Cassell 1937 416p illus maps 15s 971

1 Fur trade 2 Hudson's bay company 3 Northwest, Canadian—History [36-19160]

Formerly carried also by Bobbs

"A history of the Hudson's Bay Company which covers a wide panorama of time and space, from London to farthest points north and west of North America, and from the days of Prince Rupert to the present-time. The archives of the Company were made available to the author—and the result is a colourful narrative, with enough tales of high adventure, that if expanded would fill several volumes." Ontario library review

Munro, William Bennett, 1875-

Crusaders of New France; a chronicle of the fleur-de-lis in the wilderness. Yale univ. press 1918 237p illus map (Chronicles of America ser. v4) $1.50 971

1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) 18-16740

" 'A chronicle of the fleur-de-lis in the wilderness,' describing the governmental and religious solidarity of the French Régime in Canada during the seventeenth century. Includes encounters with the Indians, the work of the Jesuits and interpretations of Cartier, Colbert, Richelieu, La Salle, Father Brébeuf and Bishop Laval." Cleveland

"The last five chapters [are] an interesting corrective to Parkman. Mr. Munro shows that the organization of New France was far better adapted to Canadian conditions than generally supposed." Dial

Parkman, Francis, 1823-1893

* Count Frontenac and New France under Louis XIV. Centenary ed Little 523p front (France and England in North America, pt 5) $3 971

1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) 2 Frontenac, Louis de Buade, comte de, 1620-1698 4-17775

First published 1877

"The events recounted in this book group themselves in the main about a single figure, that of Count Frontenac. . . The present volume will show how valiantly, and for a time how successfully, New France battled against a fate which her own organic fault made inevitable." Preface

See note on this series, under Parkman, in class 973.1

* Jesuits in North America in the seventeenth century. Centenary ed Little 586p map (France and England in North America, pt 2) $3 971

1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) 2 Jesuits 4-17776

A most interesting and authoritative work first published in 1867

"Account of the courage and sacrifice of Jesuit missionaries in efforts to Christianize the Indians. Opening chapter a truthful picture of savage life and manners." N.Y. state lib.

* Old régime in Canada. Centenary ed Little 559p front map (France and England in North America, pt 4) $3 971

1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) [4-17777]

"The monarchial administration of France, at the height of its power and at the moment of its supreme triumph, stretched an arm across the Atlantic and grasped the North American continent. This volume attempts to show by what methods it strove to make good its hold, why it achieved a certain kind of success, and why it failed at last." Preface

Skelton, Oscar Douglas, 1878-

Canadian dominion; a chronicle of our northern neighbor. Yale univ. press 1919 296p illus maps (Chronicles of America ser. v49) $1.50 971

1 Canada—History A23-891

Contents: First 50 years; Fight for self-government; Union era; Days of trial; Years of fulfilment

"The limitations are insignificant in comparison with the high intrinsic merit of the whole book. . . The volume, in short, is a credit to Canadian scholarship." Amer. hist. rev.

Bibliographical note: p279-83

Skinner, Constance Lindsay d. 1939

Beaver, kings and cabins; illus. by W. L. Kihn. Macmillan 1933 272p illus maps $2.50 971

1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) 2 Fur trade 3 Hudson's bay company 33-27313

"That the beaver was 'the great Empire Builder' of this continent is the theme of a scholarly yet readable history of the Fur-Trade, its leading figures, the clashes between French and English, the changes

Skinner, Constance L.—Continued
the trade wrought in the lives of the Indians, and in turn the vast and subtle influence of the Indian on 'the destiny of those who served kings and built cabins in his domain.' Drawings in black and white by W. Langdon Kihn; maps." N.Y. libraries
Acknowledgements: p269-72

Thwaites, Reuben Gold, 1853-1913
* France in America, 1497-1763. Harper 1905 xxi,320p front maps (American nation, v7) $2.25 971
1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) 5-21572
An excellent and concise survey of the long history of the French in America. The volume contains good maps and a bibliography

Vandiveer, Clarence A.
Fur-trade and early western explorations. Clark, A. H. 1929 316p illus $6 971
1 Fur trade 2 Northwest, Canadian—Discovery and exploration 3 The West—Discovery and exploration 29-7510
"A sober, reliable and readable account of the American fur trade, from the explorations of the early trappers to the rise and decline of the great fur companies. The narrative is continuous, and concludes with special chapters devoted to the 'free' traders, the coureurs de bois, the fur posts and the life there led. There are illustrations and an analytical index." N.Y. Evening post

Wittke, Carl Frederick, 1892-
* History of Canada. rev ed Crofts 1933 443p illus maps $6, text ed $5 971
1 Canada—History 33-29185
First published by Knopf, 1928. In the 1933 edition the last three chapters have been rewritten and a new chapter added to bring the material up to date
"Informing and attractively written, newcomer in a field which has been most inadequately dealt with by historians, the volume supplies for students, teachers and general readers what may well be called a long felt want." Boston Transcript
There is a bibliography at the end of each chapter

Wrong, George McKinnon, 1860-
Canada and the American revolution; the disruption of the first British empire. Macmillan 1935 497p $5 971
1 American loyalists 2 Canada—History 3 Great Britain—Colonies 4 U.S.—History—Revolution 35-1792
"An account of the major events in the history of Canada during the period from the Peace of Paris in 1763 to the close of the Revolutionary war. Professor Wrong describes the difficulties incurred with the effort to apply English law and institutions to a population mostly French. . . He discusses the Canadian colonies under a succession of governors; the American invasions of 1775; and the problems of the loyalists and their revolution." Book rev. digest
"Professor Wrong has brought to his undertaking pre-eminent scholarship, a sure sense of what is most important and a polished and effective style. . . His book is a contribution of the first order to a proper understanding of the American Revolution." N.Y. Times
Authorities: p479-89

* Canadians; the story of a people. Macmillan 1938 455p illus maps $3.50 971
1 Canada—History (W) 38-11323
"History of Canada and its people from the discovery and exploration period to the present. About half the book is devoted to the period before 1763, when the Peace of Paris gave New France to the British; the remaining half considers the history since 1763." Book rev. digest

Conquest of New France; a chronicle of the colonial wars. Roosevelt ed Yale univ. press 1921 246p front map (Chronicles of America ser. v10) $1.50 971
1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) 2 U.S.—History—Colonial period 22-12132
"The fall of French power in America is like a great play—a play in five acts of which the titles are Frontenac, Acadia, Louisburg, the Ohio, Montcalm and Wolfe. This Mr. Wrong has seen, and has frequently opposed his figures with opposite dramatic effect. He is interested in character. Frontenac is superbly drawn." Dial
G. M. Wrong's "Rise and fall of New France" (Macmillan 1928 2v $10.50) is a more comprehensive account of the French colonization of Canada. Scholarly and readable

971.8 Newfoundland

"Canada and Newfoundland" (Macmillan 1930 $8) which forms volume six of the "Cambridge history of the British empire" provides the best scholarly treatment of the history of Newfoundland

971.9 Labrador

Grenfell, Sir Wilfred Thomason, 1865-1940
Romance of Labrador. Macmillan 1934 329p illus $4 971.9
1 Labrador 2 Natural history—Labrador 34-9645
"A readable account of the history of Labrador, including information on the geology, animal life, the Eskimo, and the Indians of that country, with a final chapter giving briefly the story of Dr. Grenfell's forty years of service there. His enthusiasm for the country and its people is communicated to the reader in a delightful manner. The book is well illustrated with photographs and charming black-and-white prints. An earlier book, 'Labrador: the country and its people' (class 917.19) contains some of the same information but is more in the nature of a handbook or reference tool." Bkl.

972 Mexico

M. L. Guzman's "Eagle & the serpent; tr. from the Spanish by Harriet de Onis" (Knopf 1930 359p o.p. 1939) contains the reminiscences of a Mexican who participated in the Mexican revolution following the assassination of Madero. It is interesting as a picture of personalities and of the chaos and cruelty of the period

Callcott, Wilfrid Hardy
Liberalism in Mexico, 1857-1929. Stanford univ. press 1931 410p illus (Stanford bks. in world politics) $5 972

1 Liberalism 2 Mexico—Economic conditions 3 Mexico—Politics and government 4 Mexico—Social conditions 31-19242

"A study of the development of the Liberal movement in Mexico from the acceptance of the constitution of 1857 to the administration of President Emiliano Portes Gil, in 1929." Book rev. digest

"His book gives a scholarly background for understanding the troubles between state and clergy which intermittently become headline news in this country. But its thorough documentation will make it appeal more to the specialist than to the lay reader." Review of reviews

Illustrated with photographs. Bibliography: p384-401

Diaz del Castillo, Bernal, 1492-1581?
True history of the conquest of Mexico, written in the year 1568 . . . and tr. from the original Spanish by Maurice Keatinge; with an introduction by A. D. H. Smith. McBride xxvii,562p illus map $3.75 972

1 Cortés, Hernando, 1485-1547 2 Mexico—History 38-29080

A one-volume reprint of the translation originally published 1800

Bernal Diaz del Castillo, from whose chronicle Prescott drew heavily for his history, was one of the soldiers with Cortés who took part in the conquest of Mexico

"Bernal Diaz wrote something rather more than an historical document of the first importance. His narrative is also captivatingly readable, so that one's interest and admiration are equally divided between the stupendous events he records and the charming revelations that he makes of his own character and general outlook." Saturday rev.

Gann, Thomas William Francis, 1867- and Thompson, John Eric, 1898-
History of the Maya from the earliest times to the present day. Scribner 1931 264p illus $2.75 972

1 Mayas 31-6481

"An excellent brief survey of a highly intelligent people and their arts. One short section deals with the modern Mayas, who have forgotten the great tradition of their race, though retaining some of the older myths. The book is admirably illustrated with photographic plates and glyph reproductions, and has an index and a good bibliography." Springfield Republican

Gruening, Ernest Henry, 1887-
* Mexico and its heritage. Appleton-Century 1928 728p illus map $5 972

1 Mexico 2 Mexico—Church history 3 Mexico—Civilization 4 Mexico—Foreign relations 5 Mexico—Politics and government 6 U.S.—Foreign relations 28-21916

"A careful and original study of Mexico's history, revolutions, church struggles . . . One of the best general works, written in a frank vein." Foreign affairs bib.

Contains interesting illustrations from photographs, a map and a 25 page bibliography

Parkes, Henry Bamford
History of Mexico. Houghton 1938 432p illus $3.75 972

1 Mexico—History (W) 38-27881

"Covers the period from the Spanish Conquest in the early sixteenth century to . . . 1938. Its treatment, chronological rather than topical, is broadly political in character, but with attention to economic and social factors." Book-of-the-month club news

"The book, as might be anticipated, is strongly anti-clerical, and somewhat anti-bourgeois-capitalist-imperialist. While the author does not make the volume a pulpit for his preaching, the bias is evident. . . But the general trends are accurate." Boston Transcript

Plenn, Jaime Harrysson, 1905-
Mexico marches. Bobbs 1939 386p $3 972

1 Mexico—History 2 Mexico—Politics and government (W) 39-27335

A graphic account of modern Mexico—its leaders, parties, movements—and of the social, political and economic background of the perpetual Mexican revolution. The author is a newspaper man who was brought up in Mexico

"Only a newspaper man, and a good one, could have written this snappy volume with its nonchalant touches of real poetry, its quick dash from topic to topic, its utilization of the dramatic to drive home the argument, its constant obsession with news flashes, its deep concern with the human interest angle, its wry bitterness—all in sinewy prose." Carleton Beals in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Prescott, William Hickling, 1796-1859
* Conquest of Mexico. Dutton 2v (Everyman's lib.) ca 90c 972

1 Cortés, Hernando, 1485-1547 2 Mexico—History 36-37452

First published in Everyman's library edition 1909

"Prescott's classics have often been reprinted and are still the broadest general treatment in their respective fields. Prescott used a wealth of manuscript sources, but did not sufficiently discriminate between the violently partisan accounts which he found, and he exaggerated the cultural development of the Aztecs. Monograph corrections of Prescott will continue to appear as new material is found and old material more impartially sifted. To this end the publications of the Cortes Society and the introduction and illustrations in the Henderson-Joyce edition are worthy of careful consideration." Guide to hist. lit.

The Henderson-Joyce edition referred to above is that published by Holt in 2 volumes. It is out of print, 1939. "History of the conquest of Mexico and History of the conquest of Peru" in one volume unabridged is also obtainable in the Modern lib. giants (Modern lib. 1288p $1.25)

Priestley, Herbert Ingram, 1875-
Mexican nation, a history. Macmillan 1923 xxiii,507p illus maps $4.50 972

1 Mexico—History 23-11394

"A history of Mexico for four hundred years, from the conquest by Cortés to the accession of President Obregón. About half the book is given to the colonial history of New Spain from which the present republic is politically descended. . . The history is predominantly political. The author aims particularly to show the contributions of Spain to Mexican culture and the growth of Mexico toward conscious nationality." Book rev. digest

Priestley, Herbert I.—Continued

"Mr. Priestley has dealt with the history of Mexico at sufficient length and in the right spirit in this handy volume." Times (London) lit. sup.

Contains illustrations and maps, and a 17 page bibliography

Rippy, James Fred, 1892- Vasconcelos, José, 1882- and Stevens, Guy

Mexico. Univ. of Chicago press 1928 253p (American policies abroad) $1.50 972

1 Mexico—Foreign relations 2 Mexico—Politics and government 28-26854

"This little book, published for the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, attacks the question of our relations with Mexico from three separate and distinct points of view. Professor Rippy gives an historical, critical summary. Mr. Vasconcelos voices the thoughts of the Mexican nationalists; Mr. Stevens presents the case of the American investor." Review of reviews

Tannenbaum, Frank

Peace by revolution; an interpretation of Mexico; drawings by Miguel Covarrubias. Columbia univ. press 1933 316p illus maps $3.50 972

1 Indians of Mexico 2 Mexico—History 3 Mexico—Social conditions 33-35455

"An historical discussion of Mexico since the revolution of 1910 taking into consideration the races, religion, politics of the land, and the effects of the revolution, upon agriculture, education, and the labor situation. Index." Book rev. digest

"His book is fine for an understanding of the earlier period of roseate experiment, and is buttressed by extensive reading, travel and first-hand investigation. . . While it in no way supplants Ernest Gruening's monumental and documented study published in 1928, it provides a simpler if somewhat intellectualized picture of a number of the more important trends and will well repay the reading." Carleton Beals in Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Weyl, Nathaniel, 1910- and Weyl, Sylvia, 1910-

Reconquest of Mexico; the years of Lázaro Cárdenas. Oxford 1939 394p map $3 972

1 Cárdenas, Lázaro, president Mexico, 1895- 2 Mexico—Economic conditions 3 Mexico—Politics and government 4 Mexico—Social conditions 39-32990

"A combined biography of the president of Mexico, and history of his country's economic and political development in recent years, written by two students who are in sympathy with Cárdenas' socialistic program." Bkl.

"Nathaniel and Sylvia Weyl have written what may prove to be the definitive propaganda-work on the Cardenas Administration. For sheer quantity of material, deftly assembled to confound the critics and rally the friends of that much-discussed administration, it has not been equaled." N.Y. Times

972.6 Yucatan

Blom, Frans Ferdinand, 1893-

Conquest of Yucatan. Houghton 1936 237p illus $3.50 972.6

1 Mayas 2 Mexico—History 3 Yucatan—History 36-11531

"This book is two things in one; first it is a history of the conquest of Yucatan by the Spanish in the 16th century; second it is an account, as far as the archaeologists have been able to reconstruct it, of the daily life, the customs and achievements of the ancient Mayas. An excellent book for the general reader, by the leading American authority." Wis. bul.

972.8 Central America

Jones, Chester Lloyd, 1881-

Caribbean since 1900. Prentice-Hall 1936 511p map $4 972.8

1 Central America—Foreign relations 2 Colombia—Foreign relations 3 Venezuela—Foreign relations 4 West Indies—Foreign relations 36-5271

"Professor Jones endeavors to give a general picture of the problems of the Caribbean countries, both economic and political, rather than to deal solely with the story of their relations with the United States. . . The book deals not only with the small republics in which such crises commonly occur, but with the whole Caribbean region, including Colombia, Venezuela, and the European colonies. In the case of each country, there is a brief sketch of its history and its contemporary social and economic problems and a somewhat more detailed discussion of the manner in which these problems have been affected by international relations." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

Munro, Dana Gardner, 1892-

Five republics of Central America; their political and economic development and their relation with the United States; ed. by David Kinley. Oxford 1918 332p front map (Carnegie endowment for international peace. Division of economics and history. Publications) $3.50 972.8

1 Central America—Economic conditions 2 Central America—Foreign relations 3 Central America—Politics 4 U.S.—Foreign relations 18-5317

"Surveys painstakingly and from first-hand knowledge the political and economic development of the Central American republics and their relations with the United States. One of a series of studies written under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, with the purpose of acquainting 'our own people with conditions as interpreted by a student and critic from among ourselves.' " Wis. bul.

Bibliography: p321-26

972.81 Guatemala

Jones, Chester Lloyd, 1881-

Guatemala; past and present. Univ. of Minn. 1940 420p illus maps $5 972.81

1 Guatemala — Economic conditions 2 Guatemala—History 3 Guatemala—Social conditions (W) 40-27154

A comprehensive survey of the political, economic, and social history and organization of Guatemala. Bibliography

"A solid, detailed and thoroughly documented history of Guatemala." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

972.9 West Indies

Means, Philip Ainsworth, 1892-
Spanish Main: focus of envy, 1492-1700. Scribner 1935 278p illus maps $3 972.9

1 Caribbean sea 2 Colonization 3 Spain —Colonies 35-29167

"A satisfying account for stay-at-homes of the adventurous settling of the mainland and the islands of the Caribbean in bygone centuries. The author, explorer and student, tells the stories of discoverers, despoilers, and colonists. The book is the saga of Columbus and Raleigh, of Drake and Morgan. Nicely drawn maps illustrate their wanderings." Cincinnati

972.91 Cuba

Beals, Carleton, 1893-
Crime of Cuba; with 31 aquatone illus. from photographs by Walker Evans. Lippincott 1934. 467p illus o.p. 1939 972.91

1 Cuba—Foreign relations 2 Cuba—History 3 Cuba—Politics and government 4 Machado y Morales, Guerardo, pres. Cuba, 1871- 34-2190

A reprint of the 1933 edition with the addition of a new chapter, "Aftermath"

An outline of the history of Cuba dealing with political and economic conditions since the Spanish-American war and especially with the Machado régime and its aftermath

"There is a wide sweep, as well as an unusual depth, in his book. . . He knows his Latin America as few North Americans know it. He has a sympathetic but realistic insight into the complicated character of the Latin Americans. And as every one who has read him knows, he has unusual gifts of expression." N.Y. Times

Excellent photographic illustrations, bibliography: p409-15

Chapman, Charles Edward, 1880-
History of the Cuban republic; a study in Hispanic American politics. Macmillan 1927 685p o.p. 1939 972.91

1 Cuba—History 2 Cuba—Politics and government 27-4860

"A frank and scholarly description. One wishes, of course, that the author had buttressed his story more fully with the economic factors, but as it stands it is a most absorbing account." Hist. outlook

Contains a bibliography of 18 pages

Strode, Hudson, 1893-
Pageant of Cuba. Random house 1934 xxi,357p illus map $2 972.91

1 Cuba—History 34-37482

A history and guide book of Cuba from the time of Columbus to the present. The introduction gives a survey of Cuban character

"Hudson Strode's 'The Pageant of Cuba' is unusually well written and as readable as history can be when the telling is in the right hands. Mr. Strode writes with irony, humor and color and he treats the baffling complexities of recent Cuban politics with an admirable balance and fair-mindedness." N.Y. Post

972.93 Santa Domingo

Sumner Welles' "Naboth's vineyard" (Harcourt 1928 2v illus o.p. 1939) is a more comprehensive account of the relations of the United States with the Dominican republic. The period extends from 1844 to 1924 with a brief survey of the island's previous history

972.94 Haiti

Davis, Harold Palmer, 1878-
Black democracy; the story of Haiti; with a preface by Alec Waugh. rev ed Dodge 1936 360p illus maps $2.50 972.94

1 Haiti 36-7756

Originally published 1928, now rewritten and amplified, particularly in the final sections of the book dealing with the American occupation

"A stirring account of the dramatic history of Haiti and its three black leaders, Toussaint l'Ouverture, Jean Dessalines and Henri Christophe. Beginning with its discovery by Columbus, the author traces the fortunes of the island republic through its bloody rebellions and revolutions to [the present]. Copious notes and illustrations. Bibliography." Cleveland

973 UNITED STATES

Bibliographies

Beers, Henry Putney, 1907-
Bibliographies in American history; guide to materials for research. Wilson, H.W. 1938 339p $3.50 973 Bibl.

1 U.S.—History—Bibliography 38-27119

A comprehensive collection of bibliographical materials for research including political, educational, economic, religious and other aspects. Classified arrangement; author and subject indexes

Channing, Edward, 1856-1931, Hart, Albert Bushnell, 1854- and Turner, Frederick Jackson, 1861-1932
Guide to the study and reading of American history. rev and augm ed Harvard univ. press 1912 650p $3.50 973 Bibl.

1 U.S.—History—Bibliography 2 U.S.—History—Study and teaching [29-20387]

"First ed. 1896. A classified bibliography with author, title and subject index, invaluable as a guide to the best reading on all periods and aspects of the history of the U.S. This new edition extends the period covered to 1910, enlarges the sections on social, economic and industrial history, adds a new set of references on the history of the West and replaces old or superseded references by bibliographies of new or more accessible material." Mudge

Larned, Josephus Nelson, 1836-1913
(ed.) Literature of American history. . . A.L.A. 1902 596p o.p. 1939 973 Bibl.

1 America—History—Bibliography 2 U.S.—History—Bibliography 2-15885-5a

"An important annotated bibliography, useful both for its selection of titles and for its critical notes which were prepared by specialists and are signed. The preliminary sections on original sources, colonial records, etc., are especially useful in a research library. Appendices include selected lists for (1) a school library, (2) a larger town library, (3) a good working library. Classified, with alphabetical author and subject index." Mudge

Larned, Josephus N.—Continued

G. G. Griffin has edited "Writings on American history, 1906-1935." Publisher varies. Beginning with 1918 volumes have been issued as supplements to the annual reports of the American historical association and published by the Government printing office at prices ranging from 50c to $1.25. Includes both books and periodicals

General histories

Adams, James Truslow, 1878-

‡ Epic of America. 2d ed Little 1933 446p $2.50 973

1 U.S.—History 32-25148

First published 1931. The revised edition covers recent events in ten pages of additional material

"An illuminating and suggestive volume, Mr. Adams's 'Epic of America' is difficult to classify. It is not, in the conventional sense, history, nor is it precisely philosophical interpretation, but something of both. It is an attempt to segregate and interpret the significant experiences, to discover the origin and explanation of the abiding characteristics, of the American people." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

‡ March of democracy, a history of the United States. Scribner 1932-33 2v illus maps ea $3.50 973

1 U.S.—History 32-25148

Contents: v 1 Rise of the Union; v 2 From Civil war to world power. Volume one published in England with title: History of the American people

"A history of the United States, which is a narrative of events rather than a philosophical interpretation. Here, Mr Adams tells 'as accurately and impartially as possible the story of the rise of our nation, touching on as many aspects in as much detail as space permits.' Reproductions of old prints, engravings, cartoons, portraits and facsimiles of documents and papers of all sorts, and sketch maps in generous numbers. Index." N.Y. libraries

Adams, James Truslow, 1878- and Vannest, Charles Garrett, 1880-

Record of America. Scribner 1940 xxiv, 966p illus maps $2.20 973

1 U.S.—History 40-9573

First published 1935. The 1940 edition is a reprint of the 1938 revision with a supplement of 23 pages which brings the material up to date

"A text-book which considers the social, economic and cultural, as well as the political aspects of American history." Boston

Adams, Randolph Greenfield, 1892-

Gateway to American history. Little 1927 176p illus maps $2.50 973

1 U.S.—History 27-23805

"A pictorial history. The illustrations are reproductions of old engravings, originally published in books of the 16th and 17th centuries. The text explains the pictures and the conditions which led to the discovery of the New World and the founding of the Spanish, French, English, and Dutch colonies." Pittsburgh

"The descriptive narrative is written in simple language and should delight both the child and the adult." Hist. outlook

Agar, Herbert

People's choice, from Washington to Harding; a study in democracy. Houghton 1933 xxi,337p illus $3.50 973

973 a26

1 Democracy 2 Presidents—U.S. 3 U.S.—Politics and government 33-19369

Published in England with title: American presidents from Washington to Harding

Also obtainable in a reprint from Houghton in the Eagle edition at $1.65

"A book about the presidents, giving a chapter or a portion of a chapter to each, from Washington to Harding. Gives in each case a biographical sketch, a summary of the events of the administration and an estimate of the man and the political philosophy he represented, and underneath it all runs the theory that, with a few notable exceptions, the extension of democracy has meant a lowering of the caliber of men in public office. Ends with Harding's death." Wis. bul.

Bibliography: p317-24

Bassett, John Spencer, 1867-1928

Short history of the United States 1492-1938. 3d ed rev and enl by R. H. Bassett Macmillan 1939 1039p maps $4 973

1 U.S.—History (W) 39-12565

"New chapters [added to the edition published 1929] cover social history from 1865 to 1914, and the New deal; the story of events since 1918 has been somewhat revised." Bkl.

"Comprehensive, impartial survey ... designed rather as a work of reference or textbook than for general reading. One-third of the whole is devoted to period since the Civil War." N.Y. state lib.

"Gives a just and well-proportioned emphasis to social, economic and military factors as well as political. The difficult problem of selection and elimination has been skillfully handled and accuracy of a high degree characterizes the book." Nation

Beals, Carleton, 1893-

American earth; the biography of a nation. Lippincott 1939 500p $3 973

630.973 B366

1 Agricultural administration 2 Land tenure—U.S. 3 U.S.—Economic conditions 4 U.S.—History 5 U.S.—Social conditions (W) 39-27228

The history of the land itself, told in human terms. The first part of the book concerns the past—what happened to the land from Indian times up to the present. The second contains the author's own investigations, the problems of the whole country from the dust bowl region of the West to the plight of the tenant-farmers in the South

"Mr. Beals does not approach his subject with scientific objectivity nor analyze it with dispassionate statistics. The treatment is, on the contrary, intensely personal, inspired by indignation and by fear, suffused with feeling." N.Y. Times

Beard, Charles Austin, 1874- and Beard, Mrs Mary (Ritter) 1876-

Making of American civilization; colored illus. by S. M. Arthurs. Macmillan 1937 932, 43p illus maps $2.20 973

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—History (W) 37-6332

A textbook for high school students covering the history of the United States from the discovery of America to Franklin D. Roosevelt's second inauguration

Beard, C. A. and Beard, Mrs M. R.—Cont.

"This text offers, as the title indicates, a well-rounded picture of American life, past and present. It definitely breaks away from the old military and political viewpoint of history and replaces it with a far truer one which includes all phases of American life—political, economic, social and cultural." Social studies

‡ Rise of American civilization; decorations by Wilfred Jones. new ed rev and enl Macmillan 1933 2v in 1 $3.75 973

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—History 33-4705

First published in 2 volumes, 1927. Reprinted in one volume in 1930. In the 1933 edition a 37 page chapter carrying the history thru the Hoover administration has been added. Contents: v 1, Agricultural era, v2 Industrial era, v3 America in midpassage (entered in class 973.9)

"It is written with verve and swift facility, with nervous, careless prodigality of phrase and epithet, with free and pungent comment, and with an occasional irrepressible sardonic sideswipe at anything smug that turns up by the way. It is a masterly survey of American civilization in successive periods." Nation

Branch, Edward Douglas, 1905-

Westward; the romance of the American frontier; woodcuts by L. S. Wakefield. Appleton-Century 1930 626p illus maps $5 973

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 U.S.—History 3 The West—History 30-22840

"Beginning with a chapter, When Massachusetts was west, the author has told the story of the western movement from the beginning, putting his emphasis on the battle with nature and the wilderness, not on political events. 'It was a battle fought by plain men; with them this narrative deals.' A good popular account to accompany such books as Prof. Paxon's." Wis. bul.

Bryce, James Bryce, viscount, 1838-1922

Study of American history; being the inaugural lecture of the Sir George Watson chair of American history, literature and institutions; with an appendix relating to the foundation. Macmillan 1922 118p $1.50 973

1 U.S.—History 22-3083

Consists of the inaugural lecture by Viscount Bryce at the founding of the Sir George Watson chair of American history, literature and institutions, together with a prefatory note by the secretary of the Anglo-American society, and an appendix giving the history of the Sir George Watson foundation

"A brilliant synopsis of American history and of Anglo-American relations from the end of the seventeenth century." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

Calverton, Victor Francis, 1900-1940

Awakening of America. Day 1939 v 1 front $3.75 973

1 U.S.—History 2 U.S.—Social conditions (W) (39-30894)

"What this book tries to do is to reread American history in different terms—in terms of the ruled instead of the rulers, the underdogs instead of the top dogs. . . In general the approach can be described as Marxian. . . It is more of a social than an economic history. Although its primary object is to interpret the lives of the American people in terms of their divers and dissident economic interests, it aims to trace the evolution of those interests in political and social form." Preface

"Not a text but an interpretation, and one that is fresh in its points of view, stimulating in its generalizations, and lively in its manner." Book-of-the-month club news

References: v 1, p 439-56

Carman, Harry James, 1884-

Social and economic history of the United States. Heath 1930-1934 2v illus maps v 1 $4, trade ed $5, v2 $4 973

1 U.S.—Economic conditions 2 U.S.—History 3 U.S.—Social conditions (30-25712)

"A textbook which covers the story of American life from the time of discovery until [1875]. Great attention is given to the importance of the European social and economic background which stimulated and shaped the development of America and its institutions throughout this period. . . The work is well synthesized and even the lay reader will find an interesting story of the interplay of social, economic and political forces in the growth of the institutions of the New World." Current history

Chapter bibliographies

Channing, Edward, 1856-1931

* History of the United States. Macmillan 1905-1925 6v illus maps v 1-5 ea $4.50, v6 $4.75 973

1 U.S.—History 5-11649

Originally planned to be published in 8 volumes. Volume 6 covers the Civil war period. Volume 7-8 not to be published. A supplementary volume by E. G. Moore, serving as index to the 6 volumes was published in 1932 (Macmillan $2.50)

"Written by one of our leading . . . historical scholars. Marshalling the facts of our political, social and economic history in a masterly fashion, it forms a panorama of American life such as no other single writer has thus far portrayed for us." W. W. Davies's How to read history

Contains bibliographies

Chronicles of America series; ed. by Allen Johnson. Yale univ. press 1921 50v ea $1.50 973

An attractive series planned to appeal to the general reader. The volumes are of somewhat unequal merit. "These volumes are for the most part scholarly and at the same time written in an unusually interesting 'story-telling' manner." M. W. Jernegan

Although listed together in this Catalog a few of the volumes are also entered separately according to the field covered

Contents: v1 Red man's continent, by E. Huntington; v2 Spanish conquerors, by I. B. Richman; v3 Elizabethan seadogs, by W. C. H. Wood; v4 Crusaders of New France, by W. B. Munro; v5 Pioneers of the old South, by M. Johnston; v6 Fathers of New England, by C. M. Andrews; v7 Dutch and English on the Hudson, by Mrs M. W. Goodwin; v8 Quaker colonies, by S. G. Fisher; v9 Colonial folkways, by C. M. Andrews; v10 Conquest of New France, by G. M. Wrong; v11 Eve of the revolution, by C. L. Becker; v12 Washington and his comrades in arms, by G. M. Wrong; v13 Fathers of the constitution, by M. Farrand; v14 Washington and his colleagues, by H. J. Ford; v15 Jefferson and his colleagues, by A. Johnson; v16 John Marshall and the constitution, by E. S. Corwin; v17 Fight for a free sea, by R. D. Paine; v18 Pioneers of the old Southwest, by C. L. Skinner; v19 Old Northwest, by F. A. Ogg; v20 Reign of Andrew Jackson, by F. A. Ogg; v21 Paths of in-

Chronicles of America series—Continued
land commerce, by A. B. Hulbert; v22 Adventurers of Oregon, by C. L. Skinner; v23 Spanish borderlands, by H. E. Bolton; v24 Texas and the Mexican war, by N. W. Stephenson; v25 The forty-niners, by S. E. White; v26 Passing of the frontier, by E. Hough; v27 Cotton kingdom, by W. E. Dodd; v28 Anti-slavery crusade, by J. Macy; v29 Abraham Lincoln and the union, by N. W. Stephenson; v30 Day of the confederacy, by N. W. Stephenson; v31 Captains of the Civil war, by W. C. H. Wood; v32 Sequel to Appomattox, by W. L. Fleming; v33 American spirit in education, by E. E. Slosson; v34 American spirit in literature, by B. Perry; v35 Our foreigners, by S. P. Orth; v36 Old Merchant marine, by R. D. Paine; v37 Age of invention, by H. Thompson; v38 Railroad builders, by J. Moody; v39 Age of big business, by B. J. Hendrick; v40 Armies of labor, by S. P. Orth; v41 Masters of capital, by J. Moody; v42 New South, by H. Thompson; v43 Boss and the machine, by S. P. Orth; v44 Cleveland era, by H. J. Ford; v45 Agrarian crusade, by S. J. Buck; v46 Path of empire, by C. R. Fish; v47 Theodore Roosevelt and his times, by H. Howland; v48 Woodrow Wilson and the World war, by C. Seymour; v49 Canadian dominion, by O. D. Skelton; v50 Hispanic nations of the New World, by W. R. Shepherd; Supplementary volume Yale course of home study, by R. H. Gabriel and A. B. Darling

Commager, Henry Steele, 1902-

* (ed.) Documents of American history. 2d ed. Crofts 1940 xxii,450,642p (Crofts American history ser.) $4 973

1 U.S.—History—Sources 40-32281

Also available in a two volume edition at $2.50 each

The second edition "constitutes not a revision but an extension of the original edition of 'Documents of American History.' Some errors . . . have been detected and corrected, the conclusions in some of the introductory notes modified in the light of new evidence, and the Dred Scott decision overhauled. . . The new material now included covers substantially the first two administrations of President F. D. Roosevelt." Preface to the 1940 edition

"The most ambitious attempt thus far made to bring together between the covers of a single book the fundamental written sources of American history. . . One may concur in the prediction of President Dixon Ryan Fox, in an editorial foreword to the book, that 'Commager's Documents will be cited everywhere as a convenient form in which most basic sources of our political survey may be consulted.'" Amer. pol. sci. rev.

Commager, Henry Steele, 1902- and Nevins, Allan, 1890-

* (eds.) Heritage of America; readings in American history. Little 1939 xxiv,1152p illus $4 973

1 U.S.—History—Sources (W) 39-27720

The history of America told by eyewitnesses of every stage of its development from the time of Leif Ericson to 1933. The book consists of 252 readings in American history grouped in 35 sections, each with an introduction that gives the historical setting for the selections in that group. Bibliography

"This is a truly wonderful book. It defies description and review. It must be read—slowly and lovingly. It is illuminating and delightful, fascinating and instructive. It is a remarkable work." Commonweal

Dulles, Foster Rhea, 1900-

America in the Pacific; a century of expansion. 2d ed Houghton 1938 299p $3.50 973

1 Pacific ocean 2 U.S.—Colonial question 3 U.S.—Foreign relations 4 U.S.—Insular possessions 5 U.S.—Territorial expansion 38-27337

First published 1932. A new six-page introductory chapter summarizes recent relations with the Far East. No revision is apparent in the text

"It is history, such history as satisfies the technical historians, even though they cannot write that kind themselves. It is equipped with references to chapter and verse for all of its statements. It is for this reason among others that it steps immediately into a place of authority in the libraries. But its authority detracts not the least from its readability." Sat. rev. of lit.

Elson, Henry William, 1857-

History of the United States of America. 2d rev and enl ed Macmillan 1937 xxv, 1027,lxvi p $3.50, school ed $2.80 973

1 U.S.—History 37-3972

A standard text first published 1904 and frequently revised. The present edition carries the story well into 1937. It fills a place between the comprehensive works and the condensed texts. Contains bibliographies

Faulkner, Harold Underwood, 1890-

American political and social history. Crofts 1937 xxii,772p illus maps (Crofts American history ser.) $5, text ed $3.75 973

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—Economic conditions 3 U.S.—History 4 U.S.—Politics and government (W) 37-12559

"A new textbook revealing a fresh grasp of widely differing materials and a spirited luminous style in presentation. . . In intellectual range and assimilation of data, the work has merit and readable interest." Springfield Republican

Fish, Carl Russell, 1876-1932

Development of American nationality. rev ed Am. bk. 1938 584, xxxix p (Short history of the American people, v2) illus maps $3.25 973

1 U.S.—History (W) 38-29571

Volume 1 of the series has title: The foundations of American nationality, by Evarts Boutell Greene

First published 1913. "This edition of the late Professor Fish's textbook is, with the exception of the last chapter, almost exactly the same as the 1929 edition: only a very few and insignificant changes have been made in the text and bibliographical notes. . . It is essentially a political history, from 1783 to the present, presented to show 'American history as a development,' and based on the belief that 'the American people have expressed themselves more fully in their political life than elsewhere'. . . The chapter on the post-war period (19 pages) has been rewritten and brought up to date, but not by Professor Fish." Social education

Fiske, John, 1842-1901

Essays, historical and literary. Macmillan 1907 2v in 1 front o.p. 1939 973

1 Statesmen, American 2 U.S.—History 8-35261

Contents: v 1 Scenes and characters in American history: Thomas Hutchinson, last royal governor of Massachusetts; Charles

Fiske, John—Continued
Lee, soldier of fortune; Alexander Hamilton and the Federalist party; Thomas Jefferson, the conservative reformer; James Madison, the constructive statesman; Andrew Jackson, frontiersman and soldier; Andrew Jackson and American democracy seventy years ago; Harrison, Tyler and the Whig coalition ("Tippecanoe and Tyler too") Daniel Webster and the sentiment of union; v2 In favorite fields: Old and new ways of treating history; John Milton; The fall of New France; Connecticut's influence on the federal Constitution; The deeper significance of the Boston tea party; Reminiscences of Huxley; Herbert Spencer's service to religion; John Tyndall; Evolution and the present age; Koschei the deathless

Goslin, Mrs Ryllis Clair (Alexander) 1901- and Stone, William Treadwell, 1899-
America contradicts herself; the story of our foreign policy. Foreign policy 1936 36p illus (Headline bks.) 35c, pa 25c 973

1 U.S.—Foreign relations 2 U.S.—Territorial expansion 39-31741

A brief outline of America's foreign policy

Greenbie, Mrs Marjorie Latta (Barstow) 1891-
American saga; the history and literature of the American dream of a better life. McGraw 1939 682p (Whittlesey house publications) $4 973

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—History (W) 39-4017

"Collects in one volume the records of our long struggle for better living, beginning with the first colonists at all the main centers on the Eastern coast, and continuing across the country to the Pacific, and down the line of history to the present. . . Though I have depended as far as possible on quotations, I had to put these together in a running narrative, with a little cement of fact or an occasional digest of opinion." Introduction

"The book does much to illustrate an important element in American history, and in doing so touches the imagination." Allan Nevins in Sat. rev. of lit.
Sources: p641-57

Hart, Albert Bushnell, 1854-
(ed.) American history told by contemporaries. Macmillan 1897-1929 5v v 1-4 ea $3.60, v5 $3.75, set $17 973

1 U.S.—History—Sources 2-5830

Contents: v 1 Era of colonization 1492-1689; v2 Building of the republic 1689-1783; v3 National expansion 1783-1845; v4 Welding of the nation 1845-1900; v5 Twentieth century United States, 1900-1929. General index in volume 4

"The object of these volumes is to furnish a collection of sources for the study of American history. . . Few public documents are given, but rather extracts from diaries and contemporary narratives. . . The selections will be of great service in furnishing illustrative material for teachers or students who are reading modern authors. Each selection is preceded by a very short statement concerning the life of the author." Larned's Literature of Amer. hist.

Formation of the Union, 1750-1829. rev ed Longmans 1925 xx,301p (Epochs of American history) $1.40 973

1 U.S.—History 2 U.S.—Politics and government 25-23921

First published 1892. In this revised edition some errors have been corrected, some additions have been inserted to bring out the social and economic factors in the history of the period

"The narrative is confined mainly to political history, only brief attention being given to the military events. The treatment is scientific and devoid of partisan bias." Larned's Literature of Amer. hist.

National ideals historically traced, 1607-1907. Harper 1907 401p front maps (American nation, v26) $2.25 973

1 U.S.—Civilization 7-41115

Published in England under title: Ideals of American government

This final volume of the series is "a restatement of the achievements and ideals of the American people, illustrated from bygone events which show the meaning and extent of national progression." The last chapter discusses the future of American democracy. A "critical essay on authorities" is also included

(ed.) Source book of American history. . . rev ed Macmillan 1925 xlvii,443p illus $1.40 973

1 U.S.—History—Sources 25-8359

A good selection for schools and readers made up chiefly of extracts from books, periodicals, etc. The revised edition adds two chapters bringing the material up thru 1924

Hockett, Homer Carey, 1875-
Political and social growth of the American people, 1492-1865 3d ed. . . Macmillan 1940 xxi,861p illus maps $3.25 973

1 U.S.—History 2 U.S.—Politics and government

A revision of "Political and social history of the United States, 1492-1852."

In this edition five chapters have been added on the Civil war, and earlier chapters on the beginnings of the American people and the European background, which occupied four chapters in the edition of 1933, have been compressed into one chapter

This is a companion volume to A. M. Schlesinger's "Political and social growth of the United States, 1852-1933," entered below. The two books give a continuous history of the United States in its political, social and economic aspects. Intended primarily for college students. Bibliographic notes at the end of each chapter

Johnson, Allen, 1870-1931
Union and democracy. Houghton 1915 346p front maps (Riverside hist. of the U.S. v2) $2 973

1 U.S.—History—1783-1865 15-8140

Follows in this series Becker, "Beginnings of the American people" (class 973.2) and carries the history to the inauguration of Jackson, 1829

Leighton, George Ross, 1902-
Five cities; the story of their youth and old age. Harper 1939 370p illus $3.50 973

1 Cities and towns 2 U.S.—Social conditions (W) 39-9015

Studies of the life of five American cities: Shenandoah, Pennsylvania; Louisville, Kentucky; Birmingham, Alabama;

Leighton, George R.—Continued
Omaha, Nebraska; Seattle, Washington. It records the birth, growth, and decay of these cities, and does not flinch from recording the political corruption, labor wars, race troubles, and crimes committed in the process. Bibliography

MacDonald, William, 1863-
(ed.) Documentary source book of American history, 1606-1926. 3d ed rev and enl Macmillan 1926 713p $3 973
1 Charters 2 U.S.—History—Sources 26-20331

A selection of the most necessary and useful documents from the author's "Select charters," "Select documents" and "Select statutes" with notes, designed for use in courses which cover both the colonial and the constitutional periods of American history. The third edition includes seventeen added documents including material through 1926

This selection is almost entirely constitutional; Commager's compilation entered above is chiefly political and constitutional; Hart's "American history told by contemporaries" is largely social

McMaster, John Bach, 1852-
History of the people of the United States, from the Revolution to the Civil war. Appleton-Century 1883-1913 8v illus maps ea $3.50 973
1 U.S.—History—1783-1865 [30-24148]

"The early volumes are much to be preferred." Trinity

"John Bach McMaster was the first to make an extended study of our history from the social and economic point of view and to tap the vast reservoir of historical material stored up in the files of contemporary newspapers. His treatment of this long period is full of interest and has the freshness of appeal that comes from the intimate sources of the story of everyday life which he has utilized." E. H. Pahlow

Morison, Samuel Eliot, 1887- and Commager, Henry Steele, 1902-
* Growth of the American republic. Oxford 1937 2v illus maps ea $3.25 973
1 U.S.—History 39-25584

First published 1930 in a single volume terminating the history with 1917. The revised edition has been partly rewritten and enlarged to bring the information down to 1937. The work was originally based upon Professor Morison's "Oxford history of the United States" which appeared in 1927

"The joint authors have succeeded in retaining the delightful style and the vividness of presentation which characterized the earlier survey, and at the same time they have constructed a somewhat better balanced narrative." Yale review

Bibliography: v 1 p637-77, v2 p593-642

Muzzey, David Saville, 1870-
History of our country; a textbook for high-school students. Ginn 1937 856, 58p illus $2.12 973
1 U.S.—History [36-15253]

Replaces the author's "History of the American people," published 1927

"The organization closely parallels that for the History of the American People, frequently with use of identical language. There is, of course, some revision including the insertion of a section on the Indians and additional material on the United States during the World War. The suggestions for supplementary readings and report topics have been revised, as have the review questions. 'Terms to be Mastered' have been added, together with lists of biographies and novels for each unit. A new selection of illustrations has been made; many maps have been redrawn and improved, and the selection modified." Social studies

(comp.) Readings in American history. rev ed Ginn 1921 xxvii,604p $2.40 973
1 U.S.—History—Sources 21-4873

A source book selected from "acts of Congress, decisions of courts, proclamations and messages of presidents, records of debates, party platforms, charters, pamphlets, memoirs, diaries, letters, plays, poems, etc.—that are available for the illustration of American history."

United States of America. new ed rev Ginn 1933 2v v 1 $3.20, v2 $3.75 973
1 U.S.—History 33-14691

The first edition, published 1924, was also issued by Harper as "American adventure" with a slight enlargement of the last chapter and is still obtainable from that firm in 2 volumes at $10. In the new edition of the "United States of America" there has been a slight revision in the final chapter to bring the material down to the election of President Roosevelt

"Dr. Muzzey's knowledge is thorough, his view dispassionate, his literary style excellent, the narrative is clear, simple, and interesting." Nation and Athenaeum

Old South leaflets. Old South assn. 1881-1922 222 nos. ea 5c 973
1 U.S.—History (5-37680)

A series of reprints presenting valuable historical texts in convenient form. The first 200 are available also bound in 8 volumes of 25 numbers (ea $1.50)

Pageant of America; a pictorial history of the United States, ed. by R. H. Gabriel and others. Independence ed Yale univ. press 1925-1929 15v $75, ea $5.50 973

The price given above is subject to 10% discount to libraries and schools

"The outstanding merit of the set . . . is the bringing together in one place of a large number of pictures of many types, illustrations of historic events, of the life of the people, of industrial and agricultural processes, of works of art, portraits, cartoons, maps and of facsimile reproductions of documents of various kinds. . . No other single set of books contains a collection of pictures in American history which approaches this in size. An especially valuable feature is the inclusion of a reference to the source from which each illustration has been taken. The printed word is used only to describe the pictures, not to give a connected written history." I. G. Mudge in Library journal

Contents: v 1 Adventurers in the wilderness, by C. Wissler and others; v2 Lure of the frontier, by R. H. Gabriel; v3 Toilers of land and sea, by R. H. Gabriel; v4 March of commerce, by M. Keir; v5 Epic of industry, by M. Keir; v6 Winning of freedom, by W. Wood, and R. H. Gabriel; v7 In defense of liberty, by W. Wood, and R. H. Gabriel; v8 Builders of the republic, by F. A. Ogg; v9 Makers of a new nation, by J. S. Bassett; v10 American idealism, by L. A. Weigle; v11 American spirit in letters, by S. T. Williams; v12 American spirit in art, by F. J. Mather and others; v13 American spirit in architecture, by T. F. Hamlin; v14 The American stage, by O. S. Coad, and E. Mims; v15 Annals of American sport, by J. A. Krout

Paxson, Frederic Logan, 1877-

‡ History of the American frontier, 1763-1893. Houghton 1924 598p illus maps $3.90 973

1 Mississippi valley—History 2 U.S.—History 3 The West—History 24-23381

"He begins with 1763, after the French and Indian Wars and follows the western development of the colonies, the absorption of vast areas of new lands in the West, the building of railroads, and the transformation of the wilderness into territories and from territories into states. This steadily advancing frontier spelled national unity and national growth. In short, it was the history of America." Review of reviews

"The book is a synthesis of the whole frontier movement, and in this and in the admirable style in which it is couched lies its chief value." Pol. sci. quar.

Rhodes, James Ford, 1848-1927

* History of the United States from the compromise of 1850 to the end of the Roosevelt administration. new ed Macmillan 1928 9v ea $3.75, set $30 973

1 U.S.—History 28-28561

The 1928 edition is a reprint. Volume 9 was first published in 1922 under the title: "McKinley and Roosevelt administrations, 1897-1909." Contents: v 1, 1850-1854; v2, 1854-1860; v3, 1860-1862; v4, 1862-1864; v5, 1864-1866; v6, 1866-1872; v7, 1872-1877; v8, 1877-1896; v9, 1896-1909

"A work which comes down almost to the present day. Setting himself the difficult task of writing about the very recent past, and a theme on which passions are still warm, Dr. Rhodes has won unchallenged leadership among contemporary American historians by his impartial and judicious treatment of this greatest episode in our national life." Edwin W. Pahlow

Schlesinger, Arthur Meier, 1888-

New viewpoints in American history. Macmillan 1922 299p $2.75 973

1 U.S.—History 2 U.S.—History—Philosophy 3 U.S.—Politics and government 22-7401

Contents: Influence of immigration on American history; Geographic factors in American development; Economic influences in American history; Decline of aristocracy in America; Radicalism and conservation in American history; Rôle of women in American history; American revolution; Economic aspects of the movement for the Constitution; Significance of Jacksonian democracy; State rights fetish; Foundations of the modern era; Riddle of the parties

"His story flows easily, smoothly, with here and there a refreshing eddy of humor. The book is hard to find fault with. . . The chapter bibliographies are good above the ordinary. They are crisp, critical essays on recent tendencies in American historical research and writing. The index is very full, covering even the bibliographies." Amer. hist. rev.

Political and social growth of the United States, 1852-1933. rev ed Macmillan 1936 564p front maps $3.25 973

1 U.S.—History 2 U.S.—Politics and government 39-32710

A good text book for college students. A companion volume is "Political and social growth of the American people, 1492-1865," by H. C. Hockett. C. A. Beard says of the two books, "Mr Hockett . . . sticks rather close to the ancient political story, varied by occasional excursions into economics and common living. Mr. Schlesinger makes more bold, and gives a larger proportion of his space to humanitarian strivings, but he works no revolution in the prevailing historical mode."

A. M. Schlesinger's "New deal in action, 1933-1939" (Macmillan 1940 77p illus map 50c) is a supplement to his history entered above

Semple, Ellen Churchill, 1863-1932

American history and its geographic conditions; rev. in collaboration with the author by C. F. Jones. Houghton 1933 541p maps $3 973

1 Anthropogeography 2 Physical geography—U.S. 3 U.S.—Historical geography 33-8691

First published 1903. "The revised edition itself is more attractive than the earlier volume, and is supplied with more and better maps and charts than the latter. . . The source of many historical statements is now noted, which gives the new text more historicity than the old. The revision throughout shows use of new materials dealing with both old and new subject. . . The supplementary reading lists are an interesting addition designed for the use of teachers." Hist. outlook

"Study of the far-reaching influence of natural features and conditions on the growth of the colonies, the development of sea power, the movements of population, and as a cause of war. Dealt with from the side of history." Pittsburgh

Sheahan, Henry Beston, 1888-

(ed.) American memory; being a mirror of the stirring and picturesque past of Americans and the American nation. . . by Henry Beston (pseud). Farrar 1937 xxi,498p $3.50 973

1 U.S.—History—Sources (W) 37-34872

"A collection of contemporary writings which trace the history of the United States and portray the life of the people from the earliest settlements to the presidency of Theodore Roosevelt." Book rev. digest

"Mr. Beston has done a good job in selecting sources that are lively, dramatic and human. He has also written brief, simple and moving introductions to the successive sections of the book." N.Y. Times

Stephenson, George Malcolm, 1883-

American history to 1865. Harper 1940 698p illus maps (Harper's historical ser.) $3.50 973

1 U.S.—History 2 U.S.—History—1783-1865 (W) 40-11240

This book presents the main facts in the story of the development of American democracy from the period of discovery to the close of the war between the states. Social history is stressed—the life of the people, the mixtures of races and peoples, the problem of education, etc. Annotated bibliography: p640-72

Turner, Frederick Jackson, 1861-1932

* Significance of sections in American history; with an introduction by Max Farrand. Holt 1932 347p maps $4.25, student's ed $3.25 973

1 Sectionalism (U.S.) 2 U.S.—History 33-1864

Of the twelve papers included in this posthumous volume the author had apparently intended to make a companion volume to his Frontier in American History class 978

Turner, Frederick J.—Continued
"The present volume of essays in scarcely less suggestive than Turner's earlier volume; it is Turner's achievement that it appears less original, for he himself, through his work and his students, has familiarized historians with the major ideas that are set forth. . . The theme . . . is developed with impressive argument, supported with scholarship, illustrated with example and advanced with a singular clarity and felicity of style." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Awarded the Pulitzer prize for history 1933

Van Loon, Hendrik Willem, 1882-
America. Tudor 470p illus $1.59 973
1 U.S.—History [27-20560]
Reprint of the title first published 1927 by Boni & Liveright
"The story begins somewhere this side of the age of the Pharaohs, comes down more or less consistently to the end of the Civil War, and closes with some observations and prophecies through which are woven a number of events of more recent date. Having already told the story of mankind, it is natural to find Mr. Van Loon dwelling at length upon what have been called the 'European origins' of American history, and throughout his march he switches us rapidly from America to Europe and from Europe to America as he explores the chasm from which these present times have emerged." Nation
"Much of his philosophy is sound; all is refreshing and entertaining." Yale review

Wertenbaker, Thomas Jefferson, 1879-
American people; a history. Scribner 1926 486p $5 973
1 U.S.—History 26-19266
"In compressing the chief facts of American history into a single readable volume, Professor Wertenbaker has performed a very difficult task. . . He has avoided abstract discussions of political philosophy by letting his characters, from time to time, express their opinions in conversation. If he has not quite attained the art that conceals art, he has written a book that is consistently interesting and often vivid." Yale review

Wilson, Milburn Lincoln, 1885-
Democracy has roots; preface by C. A. Beard. Carrick 1939 199p $1.75 973
1 Agriculture 2 Democracy 3 U.S.—Politics and government 39-5458
"A summarized version of the facts and points of view presented in some lectures and informal conferences on the democratic process held by the Department of Agriculture in the first half of 1938, and participated in by a group of men and women outstanding in various fields of the national life, and by a large part of the Department of Agriculture staff." Note on sources
"The book examines the setting in which democracy operates, its principles, background, traditions, and practical techniques, compares its objectives with those of the dictatorships, and considers problems of foreign policy making." Bkl.

Wilson, Woodrow, president U.S. 1856-1924
Division and reunion, 1829-1889. new ed Longmans 1926 xxv,336p maps (Epochs of American history) o.p. 1939 973
1 U.S.—History 2 U.S.—Politics and government 27-1874
A valuable brief survey of the history of this period originally published in 1893. Except for minor changes the text of this edition is precisely as originally written. It does not include the chapters by E. C. Corwin in the 1921 edition
Contains bibliographies

973.03 Dictionaries

F. C. Bray's "Headlines in American history" (Crowell 1937 311p $2) is an alphabetical list of expressions, slogans and allusions in American history which may be useful in reference work

Dictionary of American history; J. T. Adams, ed. in chief; R. V. Coleman, managing ed. Scribner 1940 5v $60 973.03
1 U.S.—History—Dictionaries (W) 40-5646
"More than a thousand historians, representing a cross section of American historical scholarship, have joined in the writing of the five to six thousand articles [of which the work is composed]. . . In general, the articles are brief, each dealing with a separate, and definite, aspect of our history. There are, however, a considerable number of 'covering articles' . . . in which the individual phases of the subject are treated in more detail." Foreword
"All articles are signed, and close with short bibliographies selected from the standpoint of general library availability . . . Among the articles there are two kinds—the short identifying ones, which predominate as they should in a dictionary, and the 'covering articles' which deal with broader subjects and which thru a series of 'qv's' interrelate many small articles." Religious bk. club bul.

973.07 Study and teaching

Hockett, Homer Carey, 1875-
Introduction to research in American history. Macmillan 1931 168p $2 973.07
1 Research 2 U.S.—History—Historiography 31-13050
"A conventional but intelligent guide to the formulation of a problem, the gathering of data, note-taking, the criticism of materials, the organization of knowledge, and the construction of historical narrative." American journal of sociology
Bibliography: p143-59

973.1 Discovery

Two source books containing translations of the principal documents relating to the discovery of America are:
Gathorne-Hardy, G. M. Norse discoverers of America, the Wineland sagas. Oxford 1921 304p illus map $4.75
Lawrence, A. W. and Young, J. eds. Narratives of the discovery of America. Smith, P. 1931 300p illus maps $2.50

Bourne, Edward Gaylord, 1860-1908
* Spain in America, 1450-1580. Harper 1904 xx,350p illus maps (American nation, v3) $2.25 973.1
1 America—Discovery and exploration 2 Spain—Colonies 21-6315
A reliable and interesting book which provides an account of the discovery and exploration of America and also presents a sketch of the Spanish colonial system
Critical essay on authorities: p320-37

Cheyney, Edward Potts, 1861-

* European background of American history, 1300-1600. Harper 1904 xxviii,343p front maps (American nation, v 1) $2.25 973.1

1 America—Discovery and exploration 2 Commerce—History 3 Discoveries (in geography) 4-32405

The object of this book is to furnish a background that will help the students understand conditions and social forces in America. It includes an account of medieval commerce, early explorations, the great commercial companies and their colonies, the religious wars of Europe, and English life and forms of government

Critical essay on authorities: p316-31

Columbus, Christopher, 1446?-1506

Journal of first voyage to America; with an introduction by Van Wyck Brooks. Boni 1924 251p front o.p. 1939 973.1

24-26748

"It is the actual record of the journey which has inspired hundreds of novels, plays and poems, and the reader may be assured that this simple, bare and direct narrative of one of the world's greatest adventures is much more interesting than most of these creative efforts." N.Y. Times

Illustrated by sketches ascribed to Columbus

Fiske, John, 1842-1901

Discovery of America; with some account of ancient America and the Spanish conquest. Houghton 1892 2v illus maps ea $3 973.1

1 America—Discovery and exploration 8-33630

"A rare combination of thorough scholarship, well balanced judgment and literary charm characterize this work." Larned's Literature of Amer. hist.

"Through his brilliant series covering the colonial and Revolutionary periods, Fiske has done perhaps more than any other writer to make the reading of our history popular." E. W. Pahlow

Hathaway, Esse Virginia, 1871-

Romance of the American map; drawings by Harold Breul. McGraw 1934 316p illus maps (Whittlesey house publications) $2 973.1

1 America—Discovery and exploration 2 Pioneers—U.S. 3 The West—Discovery and exploration 34-41446

"A popular account of American exploration, with interesting illustrations based on the old maps. For either adult or juvenile reading." Wis. bul.

Parkman, Francis, 1823-1893

* La Salle and the discovery of the great West. Centenary ed Little xxii,522p illus maps (France and England in North America, pt 3) $3 973.1

1 America—Discovery and exploration 2 La Salle, Robert Cavelier, sieur de, 1643-1687 3 Mississippi river—Discovery and exploration 13-25503

First published 1869 as Discovery of the great West

"A fascinating story of the discovery of the great Mississippi valley. The work gives an account of the adventures of Joliet, Marquette and Father Hennepin, as well as of the travels and explorations of LaSalle." N.Y. history list

"The author's own experience among the descendants of LaSalle's Indians enables him to add many characteristic sketches of scenery and manners." Saturday rev.

* Pioneers of France in the new world. . . Centenary ed Little xxv,493p front maps (France and England in North America, pt 1) $3 973.1

1 Canada—History—To 1763 (New France) 2 Champlain, Samuel de, 1567-1635 3 Florida—History [14-13144]

First published in 1865

The first of an important series of which E. W. Pahlow writes, "Parkman combined in a rare degree the qualities of the scholar and the man of letters. He was faithful and thorough, and his brilliant powers of analysis, characterization and description have been rarely excelled by any writer of history who has used English language"

973.2 Colonial period

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Chitwood, O. P. History of colonial America. Harper 1931 811p illus maps $3.75 A very satisfactory single-volume text book

Jameson, J. F. ed. Original narratives of early American history. Scribner 1906-1917 19v ea $4 An extensive, authoritative series of source material for the 17th century

Osgood, H. L. American colonies in the eighteenth century. Columbia univ. press 1924 4v ea $5.50 A scholarly and important history of this century

Osgood, H. L. American colonies in the seventeenth century. Columbia univ. press 1904-1907 3v ea $5.50, set $15 A scholarly and important history of this century

Adams, Randolph Greenfield, 1892-

Pilgrims, Indians and patriots; the pictorial history of America from the Colonial age to the revolution. Little 1928 206p illus maps $2.50 973.2

1 U.S.—History—Colonial period 2 U.S.—History—Revolution 28-28985

"Similar in style to an earlier book, 'The gateway to American history' [class 973] this new volume by Mr Adams is built around old pictures and prints taken from the period he describes." Book rev. digest

"The style is clear and interesting. The pictures are unusual and represent a painstaking and discriminative collection. The book was made for connoisseurs, but it is admirable for children, too." Boston Transcript

Andrews, Charles McLean, 1863-

Colonial background of the American revolution; four essays in American colonial history. rev ed Yale univ. press 1931 220p $2.50 973.2

1 Great Britain—Colonies 2 U.S.—History—Colonial period 3 U.S.—History—Revolution—Causes 31-24004

First published 1924. The revision in the 1931 edition consists of slight corrections or additions

Contents: British colonies in America; Mother country and its colonial policy; Conditions leading to the revolt of the colonies; General reflections

"Professor Andrew's book has two beauties: it is beautiful in form—in paper, type, and binding . . . and it is beautiful

Andrews, Charles M.—Continued
in spirit, in that, while frank and vigorous, it yet reveals a sympathetic understanding of the outlook of both sides in the unhappy struggle of the American Revolution." Canadian historical review

Colonial period of American history. Yale univ. press 1934-38 4v ea $4 973.2

1 Great Britain—Colonies 2 U.S.—History—Colonial period (34-18339)

Volume 1 is devoted chiefly to the colonies in Virginia and Massachusetts with some chapters on Bermuda, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia; v2 deals with Rhode Island, Connecticut, Maryland, and Barbados; v3 covers Jamaica, New Netherland, the Jerseys, the Carolinas, and Maryland; v4 covers England's commercial and colonial policy

"An earnest and fine sample of the right kind of approach, of scholarly research, of sympathetic interpretation and judicious estimate. Besides that, it is as readable as romance, and as interesting as fiction." Boston Transcript

C. M. Andrews' "Colonial period" (Holt 1912 256p $1.25, student's ed $1) is a brief but notable work which also studies the relation of the colonies to the mother country. One of the volumes in the Home university library

Colonial self-government, 1652-1689. Harper 1904 369p front maps (American nation, v5) $2.25 973.2

1 U.S.—History—Colonial period 4-32334

An excellent general account of this period. It emphasizes the variety of conditions and experiments in government in the various colonies. Contains maps and a critical essay on authorities

Becker, Carl Lotus, 1873-
Beginnings of the American people. Houghton 1915 279p front maps (Riverside hist. of the U.S. v 1) $2 973.2

1 U.S.—History—Colonial period 2 U.S.—History—Revolution 15-9447

First of a series of 4 volumes, the Riverside history of the United States. Some librarians shelve this set together under the series title, Riverside, etc.

"Brilliantly written, these little books present fresh views and interesting interpretations, while the amount of reading in the 4 small volumes is not much greater than in one of the one-volume books." Brown univ. lib.

Bolton, Herbert Eugene, 1870- and Marshall, Thomas Maitland, 1876-
* Colonization of North America, 1492-1783. Macmillan 1920 609p maps $4.25 973.2

1 France—Colonies 2 Great Britain—Colonies 3 Spain—Colonies 4 U.S.—History—Colonial period 29-8364

Presents the subject from the standpoint of North America as a whole. Pays special attention to the colonies of nations other than England and to English colonies other than the 13 which revolted. The book is divided into three main parts—the founding of the colonies, expansion and international conflict, and the revolt of the English colonies. Condensed from Preface

Readings at end of each chapter

Bridenbaugh, Carl
Cities in the wilderness; the first century of urban life in America, 1625-1742. Ronald 1938 500p front maps $5 973.2

1 Cities and towns 2 U.S.—History—Colonial period 3 U.S.—Social life and customs—Colonial period 39-714

"Believing that the urban influence was greater in earlier America than has been conceded, the author presents this careful study of the five cities that were first in population at the eve of the Revolution. Boston, Newport, New York, Philadelphia, and Charles Town were channels which received and passed on civilization from Europe; each one is analyzed in its economic phases, urban problems, and social life, in solid, scholarly fashion." Bkl.

Fiske, John, 1842-1901
Dutch and Quaker colonies in America. Houghton 1899 2v fronts maps ea $3 973.2

1 Middle states—History 2 New York (State)—History 3 Pennsylvania—History 4 U.S.—History—Colonial period 99-4541

Follows the author's "The beginnings of New England" (class 974)

"These volumes are written with great charm of style and with much emphasis on picturesque incidents and striking personalities." M. W. Jernegan

New France and New England. Houghton 1902 xxiii,378p front maps $3 973.2

1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) 2 U.S.—History—Colonial period 2-22288

An account of the development of Canada and the struggle between the French and the English for its possession. Deals largely with military matters

* Old Virginia and her neighbors. Houghton 1897 2v maps ea $3 973.2

1 U.S.—History—Colonial period 2 Virginia—History Rc-2782

These two volumes come between his "Discovery of America" and "Beginnings of New England." Their "aim is to follow the main stream of causation from the time of Raleigh to the time of Dinwiddie, from its sources down to its absorption into a mightier stream." They cover the history of Virginia, Maryland, Carolina and Georgia from the first settlements to 1753. Not a critical study, but distinguished for its style.

Greene, Evarts Boutell, 1870-
Foundations of American nationality. Am. bk. 1935 xl,614p (Short history of the American people, v 1) $3.25 973.2

1 U.S.—History—Colonial period 2 U.S.—History—Revolution 3 U.S.—History—1783-1809 35-19098

A reprint of the edition of 1922 with changes in the bibliographies

"This book precedes Carl Russell Fish's 'Development of American Nationality' [class 973]. . . Together the two form a complete work in which the authors have aimed 'not so much to present a balanced narrative of events, as to describe those movements and forces which have left their permanent impress.'" Wis. bul.

"He has set out his sound and liberal views in a most pleasant manner, and has appended useful bibliographies to each chapter." Spectator

Contains portraits, and maps

Greene, Evarts B.—Continued

Provincial America, 1690-1740. Harper 1905 xxi,356p front maps (American nation, v6) $2.25 973.2

1 U.S.—History—Colonial period 5-19070

"As a condensed account of a peculiarly difficult period . . . the volume is a commendable piece of work." Nation

Contains maps and a critical essay on authorities

Jernegan, Marcus Wilson, 1872-

* American colonies, 1492-1750; a study of their political, economic and social development... Longmans 1929 xxxiii, 457p maps (Epochs of American history) $1.60 • 973.2

1 U.S.—History—Colonial period 29-5418

This replaces the earlier volume by R. G. Thwaites, "The colonies 1492-1750" published in 1890

"Jernegan's masterly analysis, formidably buttressed with bibliographies, differs radically from its predecessor in many respects. . . The earlier volume disposes of the first half of the eighteenth century in a single chapter; its successor devotes no fewer than six chapters, about 200 pages, to the same period. But even more illuminating is the shift in emphasis from the chronicle of colonization and of political and constitutional development to that of economic and social development. . . The volume is, in short, an extraordinarily excellent example of twentieth century historical synthesis." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Parkman, Francis, 1823-1893

* Conspiracy of Pontiac and the Indian war after the conquest of Canada. Centenary ed Little 2v illus maps $6 973.2

1 Pontiac's conspiracy, 1763-1765 4-17788

First published 1851. Also available in Everyman's library (Dutton 2v ea 90c)

Covers the period from 1663-1796 and tells of the confederation of Indian tribes formed by Pontiac to drive the English from the forts near the Great Lakes

"One of the most brilliant and fascinating books that has ever been written by any historian since the days of Herodotus." John Fiske

* Half-century of conflict. Centenary ed Little 2v illus maps (France and England in North America, pt6) $6 973.2

1 Canada — History — To 1763 (New France) 2 U.S.—History—Colonial period 4-17789

First published 1892. Queen Anne's war, the sack of Deerfield, the story of Acadia and the siege of Louisburg are among the episodes covered. It fills the gap between the author's "Count Frontenac," and "Montcalm and Wolfe"

See note on this series, under Parkman, in class 973.1

* Montcalm and Wolfe. Centenary ed Little 2v fronts maps (France and England in North America, pt7) $6 973.2

1 Montcalm-Gozon, Louis Joseph de, marquis de Saint Véran, 1712-1759 2 U.S.—History—French and Indian war, 1755-1763 3 Wolfe, James, 1727-1759 13-5297

First published 1884. Completes the author's remarkable series on the struggle between France and England for the possession of North America

Tyler, Lyon Gardiner, 1853-

England in America, 1580-1652. Harper 1904 xx,355p front maps (American nation, v4) $2.25 973.2

1 U.S.—History—Colonial period 4-32336

An interesting general narrative which "begins with the first attempt at English colonization in America in 1576 and ends with the year 1652 when the supremacy of Parliament was recognized throughout the English colonies." Preface

Contains a critical essay on authorities

973.3 Revolution and confederation

Some additional books on this period which may be needed for a study of special phases of the Revolutionary struggle are:

Allen, G. W. Naval history of the American revolution. Houghton 1913 2v illus maps $5

Egerton, H. E. Causes and character of the American revolution. Oxford 1923 207p (Histories of the nations) $3 An scholarly interpretation from the English point of view

Jameson, J. F. American revolution considered as a social movement. Princeton univ. press 1926 157p o.p. 1939 Valuable for social and economic aspects

McIlwain, C. H. American revolution: a constitutional interpretation. Macmillan 1923 198p o.p. 1939 Defends the constitutional theories of the colonial radicals

Maclay, E. S. History of American privateers. Appleton-Century 1924 xl,519p illus maps o.p. 1939

Perkins, J. B. France in the American revolution. Houghton 1911 544p o.p. 1939 A scholarly explanation of American successes in terms of French aid

Roberts, K. L. March to Quebec. Doubleday 1938 657p front maps $4 (W) Interesting source material compiled from journals of the members of Benedict Arnold's Quebec expedition of 1775

Fiske, John, 1842-1901

American revolution. Houghton 1891 2v illus maps ea $3 973.3

1 U.S.—History—Revolution 2-2885

An unusually successful work written in a delightful style. Largely military

* Critical period of American history, 1783-1789. Houghton 1888 368p $3 973.3

1 U.S.—History—1783-1809 1-670

"The 'critical period' is the period from 1783 to 1789. The work thus follows, in point of time, the same author's 'American Revolution.' The state of the country at the close of the war with Great Britain, the development of the states and the westward expansion, the imperfect working and gradual breakdown of the Articles of Confederation, and the formation and adoption of the Constitution are the topics treated. The work has the clearness and literary grace which characterize all the author's writings." Larned's Literature of Amer. hist.

Bibliographical note: p351-56

Howard, George Elliott, 1849-

Preliminaries of the revolution, 1763-1775. Harper 1905 359p front maps (American nation, v8) $2.25 973.3

1 U.S.—History—Revolution 5-26902

An excellent study of this period which aims "to show what the issue really was and why people who had lived under one general government for a century and a half could no longer get on together." Contains a critical essay on authorities

Lecky, William Edward Hartpole, 1838-1903
American revolution, 1763-1783; being the chapters and passages relating to America from the author's History of England in the eighteenth century; arranged and ed. with historical and bibliographical notes by J. A. Woodburn. Appleton-Century 1898 xxvi,518p $2 973.3

1 U.S.—History—Revolution 1-13632

"Authoritative and temperate. Inadequate on American institutions." C. M. Andrews

McLaughlin, Andrew Cunningham, 1861-
Confederation and the constitution, 1783-1789. Harper 1905 348p front maps (American nation, v10) $2.25 973.3

1 U.S.—History—1783-1809 5-30250

Treats of the course of events from the final defeat of Cornwallis to the establishment of the federal constitution. Contains a critical essay on authorities

"Shows a firm grasp of detail and perspective. The exposition is such as to leave all that is salient impressed on the scholar's mind." Outlook

Morison, Samuel Eliot, 1887-
(ed.) Sources and documents illustrating the American revolution, 1764-1788, and the formation of the federal constitution. Oxford 1931 442p $3.50 973.3

1 U.S.—Constitution 2 U.S.—History—Revolution—Sources [24-2366]

"The editor has covered not only the whole period of the American Revolution, from the Stamp Act to the policies following the peace, but has made a liberal selection from the debates of the Convention (1787-8) which framed the Federal Constitution. The volume includes dispatches, letters, speeches and many other documents." New statesman

"An aid of great value to the more thorough and more independent study of the Revolutionary period." Springfield Republican

Nevins, Allan, 1890-
American states during and after the revolution, 1775-1789. Macmillan 1924 728p illus $4.50 973.3

1 State governments 2 U.S.—History—1783-1809 3 U.S.—History—Revolution 4 U.S.—Politics and government—1783-1809 5 U.S.—Politics and government—Revolution 24-23941

"Mr. Nevins . . . has made a notable contribution to the study of the period. . . He is concerned primarily neither with the imperial quarrel with England nor with the history of the States as 'United' but with the course of events in the individual states during those years of strain and stress in every quarter of social, political, and economic life. A very large part of the material here gathered has hitherto been treated only in local histories or not at all." Sat. rev. of lit.

Bibliography: p679-91

Preston, John Hyde, 1906-
Revolution, 1776. Harcourt 1933 440p illus $1.69 973.3

1 U.S.—History—Revolution 33-4963

"The chief characteristics of Mr Preston's history of the American revolution, are the emphasis placed on personalities, the belittling of reputations and the spirited accounts of campaigns and battles." Book rev. digest

"Deciding that the American Revolution needed not only to be humanized but to be jazzed up, Mr. John Hyde Preston has addressed himself to the task with fine enthusiasm, a flair for the dramatic and homely detail, and a sense of realism quite comparable with that of an 'Only Yesterday.' He has succeeded in making the struggle for independence about as believable as the Civil War, taking it quite out of the realm of the costume drama. On the other hand, his book is one that ought not to be read without the corrective of a few soberer narratives of the same period. He is a first-class reporter—but he is not altogether a historian." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p419-32

Rosewater, Victor, 1871-
Liberty bell; its history and significance. Appleton 1926 246p illus o.p. 1939 973.3

1 Liberty bell 26-6369

"The author has separated fact from fiction in telling the complete story of the Liberty bell in its historic significance but has preserved in a separate chapter some of the picturesque legends centering about it." Book rev. digest

"He has taken scholarly pains to investigate the obscurities that surround some features of the Bell's making and history and to discover and bring together all the facts concerning it, and he has done this with the judicial feeling for truth that marks the dependable historian." N.Y. Times

Bibliography

Trevelyan, Sir George Otto, bart. 1838-1928
American revolution. new ed Longmans 1905-12 4v front maps ea $2.50 973.3

1 U.S.—History—Revolution 5-1847

"With Fox as a central figure, the story of the American Revolution is told with freshness, no small knowledge, and in a spirit of generous sympathy with all that was best in the Revolution. . . Here and there are brilliant sketches of men and manners, and terse epigrammatic sayings recalling pages, and these by no means the least effective, of the author's illustrious uncle." Times (London) lit. sup.

Volume 3 has index to first three volumes, volume 4 has its own index

Van Tyne, Claude Halstead, 1869-1930
* American revolution, 1776-1783. Harper 1905 369p front maps (American nation, v9) $2.25 973.3

1 U.S.—History—Revolution 5-30583

"The fundamental thought of this volume is that the Revolution was a close struggle, in which the Americans suffered from inexperience and from the difficulty of securing common action, and the British from ineptitude; that to a large degree it was also a civil war, in which the Tories in actual numbers were not far inferior to the patriots." Editor's introduction

Contains a critical essay on authorities

C. H. Van Tyne's "England & America; rivals in the American revolution" (Macmillan 1927 191p $2.50) is a series of six lectures delivered before various student bodies of Great Britain

* Causes of the War of independence; being the first volume of a history of the founding of the American republic. Houghton 1922 499p $5 973.3

1 U.S.—History—Revolution 22-16374

Precedes the author's War of independence; American phase

Van Tyne, Claude H.—Continued

"The author . . . examines the period during which the colonies were advancing toward independence and explains the growth of the spirit which made Americans discontented with their position in the British empire. . . . The specific measures that raised rebellion are in turn considered, the book closing with the meeting of the Continental congress and first bloodshed." Book rev. digest

"The general reader and the busy teacher will find this volume a convenient and trustworthy short-cut to an extensive and somewhat specialized literature. The author's attitude throughout is even-tempered and unruffled." Amer. hist. rev.

Loyalists in the American revolution. Smith, P. 360p $4 973.3

1 American loyalists 30-4956

A reprint of a book originally published 1902 by Macmillan

"Studies the origin of the loyalist party, its persecution by the patriots, the disarming, imprisoning and banishing of the loyalists and the confiscation of their property, their life in exile during the war and their final emigration to British possessions. Author has studied colonial records and much other contemporaneous material." Pittsburgh

* War of independence; American phase, being the second volume of a history of the founding of the American republic. Houghton 1929 518p $5 973.3

1 U.S.—History—Revolution 29-23482

"In its clarity, terseness, and avoidance of mere rhetoric, the new book is like its predecessor [Causes of the war of independence]." Review of reviews

973.4 Constitutional period

Henry Adams's "History of the United States of America" (new ed Scribner 1921 9v $27) is a valuable, scholarly work on the administrations of Jefferson and Madison, 1801-17 which is recommended for libraries that can afford the set

Bassett, John Spencer, 1867-1928

Federalist system, 1789-1801. Harper 1906 327p front maps (American nation, v11) $2.25 973.4

1 U.S.—History—1783-1809 6-2519

An excellent presentation of the problems of the nation in its early days, including the establishment of a party system, a stable financial system, and an international policy. Bibliography

Bowers, Claude Gernade, 1879-

* Jefferson and Hamilton; the struggle for democracy in America. Houghton 1925 531p illus $3.75 973.4

1 Hamilton, Alexander, president U.S. 1757-1804 2 Jefferson, Thomas, president U.S. 1743-1826 3 U.S.—Politics and government, 1783-1809 25-23830

"This book is a history of the twelve years' struggle between the conflicting ideals of Hamilton and of Jefferson and the imprint they left on the character of the new republic. . . . Mr Bowers paints living portraits of the two great protagonists and their associates in the struggle, against a background of the social life of the times." Book rev. digest

"All students of American history should read this book, and the general reader will not be wasting time or thought if he tackles it. For it is a masterly exposition of the practical working of ideas which are still alive to-day, and still have meaning for us." Nation and Athenaeum

Bibliography: p513-18

‡ Jefferson in power; the death struggle of the Federalists. Houghton 1936 538p illus $3.75 973.4

1 Jefferson, Thomas, president U.S. 1743-1826 2 U.S.—Politics and government—1783-1809 36-19161

"A sequel to 'Jefferson and Hamilton,' this is a Jeffersonian chronicle of Jefferson's eight Presidential years, as vigorous and picturesque as anything Mr. Bowers has done. The accents are on the extremely lively social life of the period, on the duel between Jefferson and Hamilton, and on the dramatic degeneration of the Federalist Party. Mr. Bowers succeeds in his desire 'to picture the actors off the stage out of their full-dress uniforms.'" New Yorker

Channing, Edward, 1856-1931

Jeffersonian system, 1801-1811. Harper 1906 299p front maps (American nation, v12) $2.25 973.4

1 Jefferson, Thomas, president U.S. 1743-1826 2 U.S.—Politics and government 1783-1809 6-4953

"Clear and orderly presentation of a complicated period on which a vast amount of literature has been written." Bkl.

Contains a critical essay on authorities

973.5 War of 1812. 1809-1845

Babcock, Kendric Charles, 1864-

Rise of American nationality, 1811-1819. Harper 1906 339p front maps (American nation v 13) $2.25 973.5

1 U.S.—History—War of 1812 2 U.S.—Politics and government, 1815-1861 6-9272

Deals mainly with the War of 1812 and its results. Includes a bibliography and maps

"Accuracy and impartiality are its distinctive characteristics." Outlook

Bowers, Claude Gernade, 1879-

Party battles of the Jackson period. Houghton 1922 506p illus $5 973.5

1 Jackson, Andrew, president U.S. 1767-1845 2 U.S.—Politics and government, 1815-1861 (W) 22-23559

"Brilliant, impartial and fascinating record of a stormy time, with sharply etched pen portraits of its leaders and a vivid picture of Washington society in the '30's. Bibliography." N.Y. state lib.

Fraser, Hugh Russell

Democracy in the making; the Jackson Tyler era. Bobbs 1938 334p illus $3.50 973.5

1 Jackson, Andrew, president U.S. 1767-1845 2 Tyler, John, president U.S. 1790-1862 3 U.S.—Politics and government—1815-1861 (W) 38-25891

"Those who enjoyed Marquis James's life of Andrew Jackson now may read of what came after, of Tyler's terrific battle for the preservation of democracy against the attacks of those who controlled the national bank. Although his party disowned him, though a mob attacked him, though he was threatened with impeachment, Tyler stood firm." Cincinnati

Fraser, Hugh R.—Continued

Garrison, George Pierce, 1853-1910
Westward extension, 1841-1850. Harper 1906 366p illus maps (American nation v 17) $2.25 973.5
1 U.S.—History—1815-1861 6-42358
Published in England under the title: Westward expansion, 1841-1850
A fine study of the expansion of the United States westward to the Pacific ocean. Bibliography

Hart, Albert Bushnell, 1854-
Slavery and abolition, 1831-1841. Harper 1906 360p front maps (American nation v 16) $2.25 973.5
1 Slavery in the U.S. 6-24128
A study of the social and moral aspects of slavery. Bibliography: p324-43

Johnson, Gerald White, 1890-
America's silver age; the statecraft of Clay-Webster-Calhoun. Harper 1939 280p illus $3.50 973.5
1 Calhoun, John Caldwell, 1782-1850 2 Clay, Henry, 1777-1852 3 U.S.—Politics and government—1815-1861 4 Webster, Daniel, 1782-1852 (W) 39-10254
"This biographical and historical study of the three men who dominated the political thinking of the United States for forty years emphasizes those events which can be defined as statecraft rather than politics." Library journal
"This is a controversial book upon a controversial period. There is much in it to inspire dissent as well as assent. But it gets beneath the surface of events. It is full of ideas. It is alive and interesting. It is written with force and pungency. And it contains some lessons of current value to our democracy." Allan Nevins in Sat. rev. of lit.

MacDonald, William, 1863-
Jacksonian democracy, 1829-1837. Harper 1906 345p front maps (American nation v 15) $2.25 973.5
1 Jackson, Andrew, president U.S. 1767-1845 2 U.S.—Politics and government, 1815-1861 6-16280
"The aggressive personality of Andrew Jackson is made to dominate the solution of the great questions of national policy paramount during the year 1829-37. The study reveals the president and man, and shows the evolution of the political principles upon which a new democratic party was founded." Book rev. digest
"Careful investigation, sane conclusions, clear and orderly presentation, are the very solid merits of the work." Nation
Bibliography

Mahan, Alfred Thayer, 1840-1914
Sea power and its relations to the war of 1812. Little 1919 2v illus maps o.p. 1939 973.5
1 Sea power 2 U.S.—History—War of 1812 21-4368
Scholarly history of the naval operations of the War of 1812. Contains a valuable discussion of the causes of the war. Illustrations and outline maps

Roosevelt, Theodore, president U.S. 1858-1919
Naval war of 1812; the history of the United States navy during the last war with Great Britain to which is appended an account of the battle of New Orleans. New Knickerbocker ed Putnam 1927 xxi,437p illus $3 973.5
1 New Orleans, Battle of, 1815 2 U.S.—History—War of 1812 3 U.S.—Navy—History 30-22787
A history of the United States navy during the War of 1812 based on original sources and first published 1882. Includes an account of the Battle of New Orleans and in the appendix "Tonnage of the British and American men-of-war in 1812-15" and "Previous history of the United States navy"
Bibliography: p435-37

Turner, Frederick Jackson, 1861-1932
* Rise of the new West, 1819-1829. Harper 1906 366p front maps (American nation v 14) $2.25 973.5
1 Mississippi valley—History 2 Oregon—History 3 U.S.—Politics and government—1815-1861 6-13695
" 'Professor Turner takes up the west as an integral part of the Union, with a self-consciousness as lively as that of the east or south, with its own aims and prejudices'. . . The panic of 1819, the Missouri compromise, The Monroe doctrine in particular and the tariff disputes, internal improvements and foreign trade relations in general are fully treated." Book rev. digest
Bibliography: p333-52

* United States, 1830-1850; the nation and its sections; with an introduction by Avery Craven. Holt 1935 602p front maps trade ed $5.25, text ed $3.90 973.5
1 U.S.—History—1815-1861 35-5282
This unfinished work, upon which Professor Turner was engaged for fifteen years before his death, is a detailed study of the social, economic, geographic and political conditions of six geographic sections of the United States, and of the administrations of Jackson, Van Buren, Tyler and Polk
"This volume remains as a rich body of reference, a guide, a pace-maker. By his fresh syntheses of complex sectional materials Turner has proved the validity of the sectional approach." Nation

973.6 War with Mexico. 1845-1861

Two scholarly works useful in larger libraries are:
Rives, G. L. United States and Mexico, 1821-1848. Scribner 1913 2v maps $8
Smith, J. H. War with Mexico. Macmillan 1919 2v illus map $10

Smith, Theodore Clarke, 1870-
Parties and slavery, 1850-1859. Harper 1906 341p front maps (American nation v 18) $2.25 973.6
1 Slavery in the U.S. 2 U.S.—Politics and government, 1815-1861 6-42362
"The aim of the volume is 'to bring out the contrast between the old parties and their aims and the new and imperious issues.' The efforts to prevent the crisis which resulted in the Civil war, and the rival habits of thought which made it

Smith, Theodore C.—Continued
inevitable are clearly shown, the effects of the struggle upon parties, legislation and the courts as well as the social and economic changes brought about by railroad development and the growth of cotton are carefully detailed." Book rev. digest
Critical essay on authorities: p305-24

973.7 Civil war

In addition to the books entered in this class the following specialized studies are recommended:
Fiske, John. Mississippi valley in the Civil War. Houghton 1900 xxv,368p illus maps $3
Fite, E. D. Social and industrial conditions in the North during the Civil war. Smith, P. 318p $3.75 A reprint of the title first published 1910 by Macmillan, containing valuable supplementary material on the Civil war period
Geer, Walter. Campaigns of the Civil war. Coward-McCann 1926 xxii,490p front maps $4
Henry, R. S. Story of the confederacy. Bobbs 1931 514p illus maps o.p. 1939

Adams, James Truslow, 1878-
‡ America's tragedy. Scribner 1934 415p $3 973.7
1 Sectionalism (U.S.) 2 U.S.—History—Civil war 34-31280
"America's tragedy has been its unhappy sectionalism, the conflict between two 'wholly incompatible civilizations—the commercial and industrial North and the agrarian South.' Mr. Adams traces from the beginning the rise of this conflict, sketches in the general background of the sections in the period from 1820 to 1860 and outlines the sequence of events that led to the tragedy of the Civil war. The latter half of the book is given to the war itself and its aftermath." Book rev. digest
"He has skilfully synthesized the material available largely in monographic and other secondary work of the last thirty years, with effective use for purposes of illustration and for local color of important newspaper materials and contemporary correspondence and diaries." Sat. rev. of lit.

Chadwick, French Ensor, 1844-1919
Causes of the Civil war, 1859-1861. Harper 1906 372p front maps (American nation v 19) $2.25 973.7
1 U.S.—History—Civil war 2 U.S.—Politics and government—Civil war 6-42435
"The author presents the full significance of the John Brown raid, pictures the attitude of Buchanan and his unsuccessful attempts at compromise, discusses the status of the federal forts, pays tribute to the high minded attitude of Lincoln and closes with the fall of Sumter." Book rev. digest

Chesnut, Mrs Mary Boykin (Miller) 1823-1886
Diary from Dixie... ed. by I. D. Martin and M. L. Avary. Smith, P. xxii,423p illus $5 973.7
1 Confederate States of America 2 U.S.—History—Civil war—Personal narratives 30-26398
"Mrs. Chesnut's diary [first published in 1905] has always held a place of its own in the literature of the Confederacy. She was in the very midst of the struggle, acquainted with some of its greatest figures. She was in Montgomery when the Confederacy was organized, sat on sofas with Davis and Stephens, and chatted in parlors with Toombs, Cobb, and Hunter; she was in Charleston when war began, watching the bombardment of Fort Sumter from a housetop; and during the grimmest years of the struggle she was in Richmond." Sat. rev. of lit.
Portraits and facsimiles

Cole, Arthur Charles, 1886-
* Irrepressible conflict, 1850-1865. Macmillan 1934 468p illus map (History of American life v7) $4 973.7
1 U.S.—History—1815-1861 2 U.S.—History—Civil war 34-5502
"The book is mainly concerned with the decade preceding the outbreak of the Civil war, with the widening breach between North and South, the irrepressible conflict between two civilizations resting upon different social systems and interests. Professor Cole shows the daily life of the people during this period and the life of the civilian population during the war years. The final chapter is a critical essay on authorities." Book rev. digest
"Professor Cole has succeeded well in what was obviously a difficult task. He has accumulated an imposing mass of details of the most varied character, but his outlines are clear and his material is kept firmly in hand. The book is as readable as it is instructive. A word of praise should be said also for the comprehensive list of authorities and the well-chosen contemporary illustrations." N.Y. Times

Dodd, William Edward, 1869-
Expansion and conflict. Houghton 1915 334,xxiv p front maps (Riverside hist. of the U.S. v3) $2 973.7
1 U.S.—History—1783-1865 2 U.S.—History—Civil war 15-9448
Follows in this series Johnson, "Union and democracy" and continues the history to the end of the Civil war. Pictures the congressional and sectional conflicts of the period from Jackson to Lincoln

Fish, Carl Russell, 1876-1932
American Civil war; an interpretation; ed. by W. E. Smith. Longmans 1937 531p illus $3.50 973.7
1 U.S.—History—Civil war 37-28707
"A posthumously published work by the late professor of history at the University of Wisconsin. Dr Smith . . . has revised and prepared the manuscript for publication and written two additional chapters, The president's treaty and Civil war finance." Book rev. digest
"This book is a well-authenticated and analytical study of our history from 1860 to 1865. Written with intent to please the general reader it is nevertheless one that should not be omitted by any scholar of that period and can take its place with credit in any library of the Civil War." Commonweal

Hendrick, Burton Jesse, 1870-
Statesmen of the lost cause; Jefferson Davis and his cabinet. Little 1939 452p illus $3.75 973.7
1 Confederate states of America 2 Davis, Jefferson, 1808-1889 3 Statesmen (W) 39-28981
"A study of the civil rather than the military aspects of the Confederacy, by an author who believes that had the statesmen of the south been as skillful as its generals, the result might have been different. His analysis of policies and of men combines history and biography." Bkl.
"As a study in personalities, Mr. Hendrick's book deserves a high rating. He is a fine biographer and well deserves the reputation he has both for thorough research and for his ability to bring the dead to life. . . This, then, may rightly be called a monumental contribution to a subject inexhaustible in its interest and its importance to Americans." Atlantic book shelf

Hendrick, Burton J.—Continued

Hosmer, James Kendall, 1834-1927
Appeal to arms, 1861-1863. Harper 1907 354p front maps (American nation, v20) $2.25 973.7

1 U.S.—History—Civil war 7-4798

This volume and the one listed below together from a brief, compact history of the war. Each contains maps and a bibliography
"The point of view of the author . . . is that of a participant in the campaigns, and a friend of many officers on both sides, who relates the story not as a victory of the United States over a national enemy, but as a part of the history of the whole people, both North and South." Editor's introduction

Outcome of the civil war, 1863-1865. Harper 1907 352p front maps (American nation, v21) $2.25 973.7

1 U.S.—History—Civil war 7-7446

Although independent in field and arrangement, this volume continues the author's "Appeal to arms." It covers the period from the mid-summer of 1863 to the end of hostilities in April, 1865
Critical essay on authorities: p307-27

McMaster, John Bach, 1852-1932
History of the people of the United States during Lincoln's administration. Appleton-Century 1927 xxxi,693p maps $5 973.7

1 U.S.—History—Civil war 27-8471

"A study of the people behind the battle lines during the four years of the war, of feeling and opinion both in the South and in the North, of economic and industrial conditions, the effect of victory and defeat on the popular mind and the influence, in turn, of the demoralization of public opinion on Lincoln's conduct of the war. Foreign opinion, especially in England, is also dealt with." Book rev. digest
"With all that has been written about the Civil war, it is hard to believe that another fresh and convincing narrative was possible. Yet here it is, as undisturbed and as certain in its touch as though he had discovered the Civil war himself." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Contains bibliographical footnotes

Maurice, Sir Frederick Barton, 1871-
Statesmen and soldiers of the civil war; a study of the conduct of war. Little 1926 172p illus $3 973.7

1 Davis, Jefferson, 1808-1889 2 Lincoln, Abraham, president U.S. 1809-1865 3 U.S.—History—Civil war 26-21872

Delivered as the Lees-Knowles Lectures for 1925-26 at Trinity College, Cambridge
"A British military authority who has written an appreciation of Lee's generalship here makes a critical examination of the method of conducting war adopted by the North and South in the years 1861 to 1865. He studies the relations between Jefferson Davis and Lee, Lincoln and McClellan, and Lincoln and Grant in the light of more recent experiences in the World war." Book rev. digest

Milton, George Fort, 1894-
Eve of conflict; Stephen A. Douglas and the needless war. Houghton 1934 608p illus $5 973.7

1 Douglas, Stephen Arnold, 1813-1861 2 U.S.—Politics and government, 1815-1861 3 U.S.—Politics and government—Civil war 34-36084

"A study of the causes of the Civil war based to a large extent on a mass of newly discovered letters by Stephen A. Douglas. The author advances the thesis that the war was not inevitable, but that it was brought about by politicians who covered their real motives of pride and greed for power with a cloak of moral issues. Douglas is described as the leader of those who fought for peace, 'great in friendship, great in mind, great in purpose.'" Book rev. digest
"The Eve of Conflict will not permit of a cursory dismissal. It is characterized by a restrained treatment of the author's hero and it is free from petulant denunciation of Douglas's opponents. An appreciation of the complicated nature of the questions at issue is apparent throughout the work, and one of the most valuable contributions of the author to an understanding of these troubled years will be found in his skilful integration of such factors as the influence of westward expansion, the trans-continental railroads, the Nativist movement, and the 'reform' agitation of the mid-century with the major political issues of the era." America

Owsley, Frank Lawrence, 1890-
King Cotton diplomacy; foreign relations of the Confederate states of America. Univ. of Chicago press 1931 617p $5 973.7

1 Confederate States of America 2 Cotton trade 31-16342

A well-documented history of the confederacy's efforts to secure recognition and aid thru cutting off the European supply of cotton. Bibliography
"While the book is an admirable example of thoroughgoing research it also develops a thesis whose demonstration necessitates not a little rewriting of the story of the Civil War." Sat. rev. of lit.

Paxson, Frederic Logan, 1877-
Civil war. Holt 1911 256p maps (Home univ. lib. of modern knowledge) $1.25, student's ed $1 973.7

1 U.S.—History—Civil war 12-401

Published in England under title: American Civil war
"A scholarly, compact, but not abstruse, treatment of the various aspects of the Civil war, economic and social as well as political and military." Cleveland
Contains a bibliography

Randall, James Garfield, 1881-
* Civil war and reconstruction. Heath 1937 959p illus maps $5, student's ed $4.50 973.7

1 Reconstruction 2 U.S.—History—Civil war (W) 37-6376

"Based upon years of research this thoroly documented account of American history includes the period from about 1850 to 1877. The causes and consequences of the Civil war are studied in detail, and comprise about two thirds of the book; about one third is devoted to the reconstruction period." Book rev. digest
"An interesting and attractive, as well as authoritative, treatment of the Civil War era." Current history
Bibliography: p885-924

Rhodes, James Ford, 1848-1927

‡ History of the Civil war, 1861-1865. Macmillan 1917 xxi,454p illus maps $4.50
973.7

1 U.S.—History—Civil war 17-30046

"Not a condensation of the author's three volumes on the Civil war in his 'History of the United States' but a fresh study which makes use of the large amount of material on that period which has come to light in recent years." Book rev. digest

"The student of war politics and of mid-century American diplomacy will find much to interest him in several of the chapters, for the volume is not, as its title might imply, a mere narrative of military operations. It is a discussion of national life in all its phases during a great and critical period of American history." Amer. pol. sci. rev.

973.8 Later 19th century

Bowers, Claude Gernade, 1879-

* Tragic era; the revolution after Lincoln. Houghton 1929 xxii,567p illus $5 973.8

1 Johnson, Andrew, president U.S. 1808-1875 2 Reconstruction 3 U.S.—Politics and government—1865-1898 4 Washington, D.C.—Social life and customs
29-17848

Also obtainable from Blue ribbon bks. at $1 and in the Halcyon edition at $1.49

"This history recreates the Reconstruction period after the Civil war, the twelve tragic years that stretched from the death of Lincoln to the close of the Grant administration. The period lives again in this dramatic and fully documented account of the political corruption of the times, carpet-bag rule in the South, leading politicians and women of society, the scandals of Grant's administration, the rise of the Ku Klux Klan and the disputed Hayes-Tilden election." Book rev. digest

"It bears the unmistakable authenticity of careful scholarship, hard work, heartbreaking research among musty records and forgotten documents. Yet it moves swiftly. There are a few dull spots among its five hundred pages." Outlook

Bibliography: p541-47

Buck, Paul Herman

Road to reunion, 1865-1900. Little 1937 320p $3.25 973.8

1 Reconstruction 2 U.S.—History—1865-1898 3 U.S.—Politics and government, 1865-1898 (W) 37-4978

"A survey of American history from 1865 to 1900 which stresses those factors in the political, social and cultural life of the nation which first retarded, then brought about, that reconciliation between North and South which the author regards as one of the miracles of modern times." Book rev. digest

"A dispassionate and judicious appraisal of the years following the war from a constructive point of view." Christian science monitor

Dewey, Davis Rich, 1858-

National problems, 1885-1897. Harper 1907 360p front maps (American nation, v24) $2.25 973.8

1 U.S.—Politics and government—1865-1898 20-5515

"Beginning with the new economic conditions that the Cleveland administration of 1884 found, Professor Dewey traces the course of the national problems to 1897. He deals with organized labor, civil service, the tariff, silver, railroads, foreign relations, the reorganization of the Republican party, foreign policy, commercial organization currency, and the free coinage campaign of 1896." Book rev. digest

Contains a bibliography

Dunning, William Archibald, 1857-1922

Reconstruction, political and economic, 1865-1877. Harper 1907 378p front maps (American nation, v 22) $2.25
973.8

1 Reconstruction 7-24164

"The purpose of the volume is to show that Reconstruction, with all its hardships and inequities, was not deliberately planned as a punishment and humiliation for those formerly in rebellion, though the spirit of retribution had its part. It was an effort, clumsy and partisan, yet in the main honestly meant to make provision for the inevitable consequences of the Civil War." Editor's introduction

Contains a bibliography

Hacker, Louis Morton, 1899- and Kendrick, Benjamin Burks, 1884-

United States since 1865. 3d ed Crofts 1939 xxiv,821p illus maps (Crofts American history ser.) $5 973.8

1 U.S.—History—1865-1898 2 U.S.—History—1898- (W) 39-2382

"The current edition [of a book first published 1932] includes more than the addition of a second set of supplementary chapters. . . We have entirely rewritten the last third of the book, that is to say, Sections Nine, Ten, and Eleven. These sections narrate the events since the termination of the World War. . . The final four chapters devoted to the important events ushered in by the New Deal are entirely new . . . [There is also] a new bibliography for the entirely rewritten chapters, and a single index for the whole work." Note to the third edition

"Readers who make allowance for the authors' point of view will find the work ably written. Indeed, there is a gift of analysis in the work that shows what the authors could do if they would drop the doctrinaire point of view." Springfield Republican

Haworth, Paul Leland, 1876-

United States in our own times, 1865-1935. Scribner 1935 626p maps $2.50 973.8

1 U.S.—History—1865-1898 2 U.S.—History—1898- 35-25825

First edition 1920 covered the period 1865-1920. Reprinted several times bringing the history up to date

"Primarily a political history, very fairly successful in the difficult task of trying to see recent events in historical perspective, and having the great merits of being eminently readable. . . . Index and valuable annotated list of suggested readings." N.Y. state lib.

P. L. Haworth's "Reconstruction and union, 1865-1912" (Holt 1912 225p $1.25, student's ed $1) in the Home university library is a brief survey of the period

Henry, Robert Selph, 1889-

Story of reconstruction. Bobbs 1938 633p illus $5 973.8

1 Reconstruction 2 Southern states—Politics and government 3 U.S.—Politics and government—1865-1898 (W) 38-6264

This sequel to the author's "Story of the confederacy" "attemps to tell in one continuous narrative the story of reconstruction in each of the Southern states,

Henry, Robert S.—Continued
including political events and the rebuilding of society and industry, during the years 1865 to 1877." Book rev. digest

"For thoroughness, accuracy, comprehensiveness, moderation and balance, it commends itself to every student of reconstruction." N.Y. Times

Josephson, Matthew, 1899-
The politicos, 1865-1896. Harcourt 1938 760p $4.50 973.8

1 Statesmen, American 2 U.S.—History—1865-1898 (W) 38-27301

The history of the parties and of the great party leaders who dominated American politics from 1865 to the close of the century

"Mr. Josephson's work is well-integrated and has the advantage of clear, lucid writing, for the material is so rich, so meaty, that it demands, and has, an interesting presentation." Current history

Kouwenhoven, John Atlee, 1909-
Adventures of America, 1857-1900; a pictorial record from Harper's weekly. Harper 1938 255p illus $3.50 973.8

1 U.S.—History—Pictorial works 2 U.S.—Social life and customs (W) 38-37219

"This book is an informal history of life in the United States during the latter half of the nineteenth century. The text is designed both to explain and interpret the pictures, as captions would do, and to provide as connected and interesting a survey of social history as possible. The pictures have been chosen from Harper's Weekly." Preface

"Much of this work has lasting artistic, as well as historic interest. Winslow Homer's illustrations appear in wide variety. Edwin A. Abbey, Joseph Pennell, Childe Hassam and Frederick Remington are among the illustrators who bring the record toward the turn of the century." N.Y. Times

Lingley, Charles Ramsdell, 1877-1934, and Foley, Allen Richard, 1898-
Since the Civil war. 3d ed Appleton-Century 1935 838p illus maps $3 973.8

1 U.S.—History—1865-1898 2 U.S.—History—1898- 36-431

First published in 1920, revised in 1926. In the 3d edition some new material has been added on the years 1926-1935

"The historian is lucid, and despite his necessary brevity he is never uninteresting nor pedantic. His strokes are sure although they are rapid. He is also fair." Boston Transcript

Millis, Walter, 1899-
Martial spirit; a study of our war with Spain. Houghton 1931 427p illus $4 973.8

1 U.S.—History—War of 1898 31-27021

Also obtainable in a reprint at $1.50

"A study of the Spanish-American war which covers the years from the breaking out of the second insurrection in Cuba in 1895 to the ratification of the Peace of Paris by the United States senate in 1899. The rôles of such leading spirits of the times as Roosevelt, Hearst, Pulitzer, McKinley, Dewey, Sampson, Schley, Reid, Lodge, Hay and Bryan are portrayed, and their parts in prodding the nation into belligerency recorded." Book rev. digest

"A mature, intelligent, and exciting work . . . he has succumbed neither to partisanship on the one side nor to 'objectivity' on the other." Nation

Bibliography: p411-17

Oberholtzer, Ellis Paxson, 1868-1936
History of the United States since the Civil war. Macmillan 1917-37 5v v 1-3 ea $4, v4 $5.25, v5 $4.50 973.8

1 U.S.—History—1865-1898 2 U.S.—History—1898- 17-28462

Contents: v 1 1865-68; v2 1868-72; v3 1872-78; v4 1878-88; v5 1888-1901

"He has written for historians, not for the public, and within his limitations his history will be for some time a standard work of reference for students and scholars." Francis Brown in N.Y. Times

Paxson, Frederic Logan, 1877-
New nation. rev and enl ed Houghton 1927 402p front maps (Riverside hist. of the U.S. v4) $2 973.8

1 U.S.—History—1865-1898 2 U.S.—History—1898- 27-15713

Enlarged since the original 1915 edition by three chapters, "A league of free nations," "The establishment of peace," and "American readjustments," which bring the history up to date in 1926

"Perhaps the most interesting and valuable of the series." Cleveland

‡ Recent history of the United States, 1865 to the present. rev and enl ed Houghton 1937 734,xx p maps $3.25 973.8

1 U.S.—History—1865-1898 2 U.S.—History—1898- 37-6371

First published 1921. In the 1937 revision three new chapters covering the period thru 1936 have been added

"The book includes discussions of literature, ideals, sports, amusements, and many other topics not ordinarily found in historical texts; it contains useful and interesting information difficult to find elsewhere. To the style, to the content, and to the mechanical aids one will find little objection. The method of treatment is somewhat disappointing, however. He has rigidly adhered to the chronological order." School rev.

Bibliographical notes

Roosevelt, Theodore, president U.S. 1858-1919
Rough riders. Scribner 1899 298p illus $3 973.8

1 U.S.—History—War of 1898 2 U.S. Cavalry, 1st regt. 1898 (Volunteer) 99-2686

A vivid account of the famous volunteer regiment which Roosevelt led during the Spanish American war

Schlesinger, Arthur Meier, 1888-
* Rise of the city, 1878-1898. Macmillan 1933 494p illus map (History of American life, v 10) $4 973.8

1 Cities and towns—U.S. 2 U.S.—Civilization 3 U.S.—Social conditions 33-2887

"The theme . . . is the rise and development of the city as a new social force, during the 80's and 90's of the last century, and the definite turning of the country from a rural and agricultural tradition to an urban and industrial civilization. The author examines the record of these years and the influences—political, social, educational, religious, literary and artistic, which have contributed to the life of the twentieth century. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

Schlesinger, Arthur M.—Continued

"Although one misses a clarifying point of view, this is an admirably informatory book—as readable as one could wish." Forum

Sparks, Edwin Erle, 1860-1924

National development, 1877-1885. Harper 1907 378p front maps (American nation, v23) $2.25 973.8

1 U.S.—History—1865-1898 7-33222

Deals with the history and the social and economic conditions of the time as well as with questions of foreign policy. Contains a bibliography

Stephenson, George Malcolm, 1883-

* American history since 1865. Harper 1939 682p illus maps (Harper's historical ser.) $3.50 973.8

1 U.S.—History—1865-1898 2 U.S.—History—1898- (W) 39-1026

"A readable, timely history definitely liberal in point of view. It ends with the passing of the Wages and hours bill in May 1938." Bkl.

973.9 20th Century

Books dealing with American participation in the World war are entered in class 940.37

Allen, Frederick Lewis, 1890-

* Only yesterday; an informal history of the nineteen-twenties. Harper 1931 370p illus $3 973.9

1 U.S.—Economic conditions 2 U.S.—History—1898- 3 U.S.—Social conditions 31-28421

Also available in a reprint (Blue ribbon bks. $1)

"A swiftly moving, well-integrated American chronicle, recording with wit and sagacity 'the fads and fashions and follies of the time, the things which millions of people thought about, and talked about and became excited about and which at once touched their daily lives,' while indicating fundamental trends in national life and thought. Photographs, bibliography." N.Y. libraries

‡ Since yesterday; the nineteen-thirties in America, September 3, 1929—September 3, 1939. Harper 1940 362p illus $3 973.9

1 U.S.—Economic conditions 2 U.S.—History—1898- 3 U.S.—Social conditions (W) 40-27130

"In 'Only Yesterday' I brought into sharp relief manners and customs, fads and follies, and everyday circumstances of life. In the present volume I have done the same thing to some degree, but not quite as much; for the heart of the story of America in the nineteen-thirties was obviously the enormous economic and political transformation which took place." Preface

"Its basic merits are honesty, good nature, detachment without indifference, a keen eye for survival in news values. Somehow it conveys the impression of the American people telling their own story in autobiographical form." N.Y. Times

Beard, Charles Austin, 1874- and Beard, Mrs Mary (Ritter) 1876-

‡ America in midpassage; drawings by Wilfred Jones. Macmillan 1939 977p (Rise of American civilization v3) $3.50 973.9

1 U.S.—Civilization 1898- 2 U.S.—History—1898- 3 U.S.—Politics and government, (W) 39-11429

The book falls naturally into two main sections: the one political and economic, the other social and cultural. Beginning with Coolidge and the great boom, Hoover's election, the great collapse, the mobilization of government, Roosevelt's rise to power, etc., it continues to the autumn of 1938. The later chapters discuss labor, science, the arts, etc.

"The Beards have always been interested in social and intellectual history, and the presentation of sources of entertainment, literature, the arts and sciences, social and philosophical thought, is the most ambitious that has yet been attempted for this last decade. Nowhere in our literature can be found a more intelligent analysis of the role of the motion picture, the radio, the popular magazines in our social dynamics, but the interpretation of literature and the arts is less successful." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Chamberlain, John Rensselaer, 1903-

Farewell to reform; the rise, life and decay of the progressive mind in America. 2d ed Day 1933 333p $3 973.9

1 Liberalism 2 Political science—Literary history 3 Progress 4 Social problems in literature 5 U.S.—Politics and government, 1898- [32-34639]

First published 1932 by Liveright. The second edition is a reprint of the 1932 edition with a new preface

"Mr Chamberlain studies the course of liberal thought in America, both in politics and literature, during the last thirty years, from the days of the muckrakers thru the progressivism of the Roosevelt and Wilson eras to the planned economy proposed by Chase, Soule, Beard, and others." Book rev. digest

"This is a volume only for the thoughtful; it is packed with names of people and of books, and with facts, and it has to be read slowly and carefully to get its full meaning. It has its own peculiar vigor, but it makes no concession to the running reader. It shows the results of a great deal of careful reading and hard work, and from its pages may be gleaned an excellent bibliography of liberalism in this country." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Dumond, Dwight Lowell

Roosevelt to Roosevelt; the United States in the twentieth century. Holt 1937 585p $3.50, college ed $2.60 973.9

1 U.S.—History—1898- 37-1956

A summary of the economic, social and political trends in the United States since 1900

"As the author advances into the post-war period the judgments become, as is perhaps inevitable with the foreshortening of the time, less balanced, more sweeping and more open to dispute. . . But it is not for its viewpoints that his book will be valued, but for its compact marshaling of a vast army of data upon the substance of some thirty vital years." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Bibliography: p539-70

Faulkner, Harold Underwood, 1890-
Quest for social justice, 1898-1914. Macmillan 1931 390p illus (History of American life, v 11) $4 973.9

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—Economic conditions 3 U.S.—Social conditions 31-5574

"Professor Faulkner has given a well-balanced treatment to his story of America in the years before the World War. Although it is a period of controversy, he has preserved an objectivity which might well be the historian's ideal; perhaps this very virtue is responsible for the absence of the color one would expect in any history of the period which held men like Roosevelt, La Follette and Wilson. Professor Faulkner's is a valuable contribution to American social history." Current history

Contains a bibliography

Latané, John Holladay, 1869-1932
America as a world power, 1897-1907. Harper 1907 350p illus maps (American nation, v25) $2.25 973.9

1 U.S.—History—1898- 2 U.S.—Territorial expansion 7-41116

A fine study which deals mainly with the Spanish war of 1898 and its consequences. It also includes the economic and administrative questions of the time. Bibliography

Lippmann, Walter, 1889-
Interpretations, 1933-1935; selected and ed. by Allan Nevins. Macmillan 1936 399p $2.50 973.9

1 U.S.—Economic policy 2 U.S.—Foreign relations 3 U.S.—Politics and government—1898- 4 World politics 36-1844

A continuation of "Interpretation, 1931-1932" (Macmillan 1932 361p $2.50). This series of some 150 articles reprinted from the Herald Tribune is concerned chiefly with the internal problems of the United States

Moley, Raymond, 1886-
After seven years. Harper 1939 446p illus $3 973.9

1 Roosevelt, Franklin Delano, president U.S. 1882- 2 U.S.—Politics and government—1898- (W) 39-22916

One of President Roosevelt's earliest advisers gives a frank and critical, inside survey of the Roosevelt administration

"Absorbing reading for students of American politics, who must keep in mind that this is far from being an objective book." New Yorker

Ogg, Frederic Austin, 1878-
National progress, 1907-1917. Harper 1918 xxii,430p illus maps (American nation, v27) $2.25 973.9

1 U.S.—History—1898- 2 U.S.—Politics and government—1898- 18-3259

"Comprehensive, impartial summary, not too condensed for interest, of the leading events in the national, economic and political history of the United States during [this period]. Six maps, critical essay on authorities and index." N.Y. state lib.

Slosson, Preston William, 1892-
Great crusade and after, 1914-1928; with an editorial foreword by A. M. Schlesinger and D. R. Fox. Macmillan 1930 486p illus (History of American life, v 12) $4 973.9

1 European war, 1914-1918—U.S. 2 U.S.—History—1898- 3 U.S.—Social conditions 30-22386

"Discussions of certain aspects of the American scene: the Liberty loan, the aftermath of war, prohibition, progress of the American woman, the changing countryside, the saga of the motor car, the cult of nationalism, journalism and advertisement, etc. The book is illustrated with half-tones, cartoons and charts showing the changes made during the period under study." Book rev. digest

"While interpretative comment varies in its degrees of adequacy and profundity, the whole work is readable and should help the living American to understand the times of which he is a part." Springfield Republican

Bibliography: p439-65

Sullivan, Mark, 1874-
* Our times; the United States, 1900-1925. Scribner 1926-35 6v illus maps ea $3.75 973.9

1 U.S.—Civilization 2 U.S.—History—1898- 26-7896

Contents: v 1 Turn of the century 1900-1904; v2 America finding herself; v3 Prewar America; v4 War begins, 1909-1914; v5 Over here, 1914-1918; v6 The twenties

"Contains some politics and much on the social history of the period, all vastly entertaining reading, useful for reference and material for the serious historian. Has numerous illustrations from old costume plates, and from periodicals and the newsprint of the time." Cleveland

974 NORTHEASTERN STATES

State histories which may be of general interest have been included in this Catalog but no attempt has been made to give for each state all histories that will be needed in local libraries. In small libraries the purchase will often be limited to histories of the home state or surrounding states. Each library will probably wish to add one late history of its own state, if one is to be had. For this purpose it will be necessary to supplement the titles included here

W. B. Weeden's "Economic and social history of New England, 1620-1789" (Houghton 1891 2v o.p. 1939) an important work, which contains a mass of well-selected material is recommended for students of the period

Adams, James Truslow, 1878-
Founding of New England. Little 1921 482p front maps $5 974

974
a21

1 New England—History 21-9397

"With broad background and scholarly equipment, Mr. Adams maintains a serene, judicial attitude and proves his capacity as a historian. He has made no original research but has digested the greater part of the printed material that has appeared in the last thirty years, and retold the story of early New England in a clear, simple style, with touches of quiet irony." Amer. hist. rev.

Adams, James T.—Continued

New England in the republic, 1776-1850. Little 1926 438p illus $5 974

974 a21n 1 New England—History 26-9006

"The final volume in Mr Adams's history of New England closes with the year 1850, which marked the 'accomplishment of its most distinctive work in the life of the American nation.' From that time on, as Mr Adams shows, the swift current of nationalism into which New England was swept tended to diminish its extreme sectionalism, tho the distinct New England type and point of view remained." Book rev. digest

"He has done a very scholarly piece of work. A sane, cold estimate, a true balance, will never be struck on the historical deserts of New England without taking into account the deep researches, vigorous opinions and excellent writing of James Truslow Adams." Boston Transcript

Contains illustrations, many of which are facsimiles of contemporary documents and cartoons

Revolutionary New England, 1691-1776. Little 1923 469p illus $5 974

974 a21r 1 New England—History 23-15926

A sequel to Founding of New England

"Carries the Colonial story from 1691 to the Declaration of Independence. 'The origin of grievances, the slow growth of revolutionary sentiment, and the rise of a radical party,' together with economic, social and political changes are ably traced and interpreted in this informing study." N.Y. state lib.

Contains illustrations, including portraits and reproductions from cartoons

Allis, Marguerite

Connecticut river; illus. with photographs by the author. Putnam 1939 310p illus $3 974

f 1 Connecticut river 2 Connecticut valley—History 3 New England—Description and travel (W) 39-27349

...e story of the whole valley told in transportation eras—canoe, sailboat, steamboat, railroad and automobile days. Miss Allis has followed the history into the present with her own experiences on a series of journeys along the river's length

"Miss Allis's impressions come easily to her and are spontaneously conveyed to the reader. . . When she is describing the more colorful and romantic aspects of past history her humor and liveliness are at their best. The photographs, numbering about 40, are admirably chosen." Springfield Republican

Bolton, Charles Knowles, 1867-

Real founders of New England; stories of their life along the coast, 1602-1628. Faxon 1929 192p illus maps $3.50 974

1 Names, Geographical 2 New England—Biography 3 New England—History 29-19510

"An account of the life of the Englishmen who explored or settled along the coast of New England in the period between the voyage of Gosnold in 1602 and the coming of the Puritans in 1628. Chapters of special interest are, 'Mr. Blaxton comes to Shawmut (Boston)' and 'Shawmut in Mr. Blaxton's day (1625).' Numerous excellent drawings. Appendices contain 'A tentative list of old planters and sojourners in New England before September 6, 1628,' and a bibliography." Cleveland

Fiske, John, 1842-1901

* Beginnings of New England; or, The Puritan theocracy in its relations to civil and religious liberty. Houghton 1889 296p map $3 974

1 New England—History 11-13687

Not a formal history. "It has been my aim to give the outline of such a narrative as to indicate the principles at work in the history of New England down to the Revolution of 1689." Preface

"For this era, the general reader can do no better than to follow Fiske through his delightful. . . . 'The beginnings of New England.'" E. W. Pahlow

974.1 Maine

Coffin, Robert Peter Tristram, 1892-

Kennebec, cradle of Americans; illus. by Maitland de Gogorza. Farrar 1937 292p illus (Rivers of America) $2.50 974.1

1 Kennebec river 2 Kennebec valley 3 Maine—History (W) 37-27396

The story of the Kennebec river in Maine, and the people who live along its banks. Short chapters describe the Maine weather, food, inhabitants, episodes in history, the logging industry, ice harvesting, fishing

"A pleasantly seasoned mixture of history, legend, reminiscence, appreciation and description." Springfield Republican

Roberts, Kenneth Lewis, 1885-

* Trending into Maine; with illus. by N. C. Wyeth. Little 1938 394p illus $4 974.1

1 Maine—History (W) 38-11226

"Sketches on the state of Maine, its people, history, and scenery, by an ardent native son. His chapter on a Maine kitchen contains several recipes for making such delicacies as ketchup, baked beans, hash, and hot buttered rum. Partial contents: Maine stories I'd like to write; On local traditions; Foundation of a Maine family; A Maine kitchen; Maine shipbuilding and privateers; The gentle art of lobstering; Road to the past; Vacationland and real Maine." Book rev. digest

Verrill, Alpheus Hyatt, 1871-

Romantic and historic Maine. Dodd 1933 xx,277p illus maps $3 974.1

1 Maine—Description and travel 2 Maine—History 33-5294

"History, background, atmosphere, places of interest attractively dealt with, and good photographs, drawings and maps." Providence

974.4 Massachusetts

C. F. Adams's "Massachusetts, its historians and its history" (Houghton 1893 110p o.p. 1939) is a brief résumé of the history of the state

Kittredge, Henry Crocker, 1890-
Cape Cod; its people and their history. Houghton 1930 330p illus maps $5 974.4

1 Cape Cod—History 30-5060

"Although an interesting book in any event, this will be a matter for enthusiasm for those who love the stern picturesqueness of Cape Cod. Its geology, history, the canal, shipwrecks, fisheries, and other features that are peculiar to the cape are described with a large fund of incident and anecdote." Providence

Morison, Samuel Eliot, 1887-
Maritime history of Massachusetts, 1783-1860. Houghton 1921 400p illus $5 974.4

1 Massachusetts — Commerce — History
2 Massachusetts—History 21-18423

"Authentic and exhilarating account of the great days of Massachusetts shipping; of East India men, whalers, fishing vessels, packet and clipper ships; their owners and builders, merchant-princes, and captains; their ports and trading ventures 'round the world. Many interesting illustrations, maps, appendix, bibliography, index." N.Y. state lib.

974.7 New York State

Carmer, Carl Lamson, 1893-
The Hudson; illus. by Stow Wengenroth. Farrar 1939 434p illus map (Rivers of America) $2.50 974.7

1 Hudson river 2 Hudson valley—History 3 New York (State)—History (W) 39-27579

Describes, in consecutive narrative, the story of the people living in the valley of the Hudson from the early days of Dutch settlement to the present. Bibliography

Appendix: Rivers and American folk, by C. L. Skinner

"Sixth in the American River Series, Mr. Carmer's book differs from the rest, in mood as in text, just as the rest differ from each other. Like the others, however, it is a highly entertaining volume, best in its digging up really important history." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Early, Eleanor
Adirondack tales; decorations by Virginia Grilley. Little 1939 247p illus $1.75 974.7

1 Adirondack mountains (W) 39-27435

"Narrative of wanderings in the Adirondacks. There is some description of the country, but most of the book is history and sketches of celebrities, such as Trudeau, Stevenson, Melvil Dewey . . . whose names are associated with the region." Bkl.

"Miss Early's lively curiosity makes her collection of Adirondack stories quaint and amusing. They are excellent examples of human interest stuff and their inclusion in her guide book explains their popularity." Boston Transcript

New York state historical association
History of the state of New York. Columbia univ. press 1933-37 10v $50 not sold separately 974.7

1 New York (State)—History (33-11644)

This scholarly history is made up of articles contributed by specialists in their fields. Altho the work will not be needed by many libraries it is included here because it forms an exhaustive and authoritative source for all aspects of New York history and will probably replace other histories of the state. Contains illustrations and bibliographies

"The separate papers are valuable studies of the varied phases of New York's history. Especially fine are the paper of Adrian J. Barnouw in Volume I on 'Dutch Background of New Netherland,' the contributions in Volume II by Victor H. Paltsits on 'The Transition from Dutch to English Rule' and those of Samuel McKee on 'The Economic Pattern of Colonial New York' and 'A Century of Labor.' Virginia D. Harrington's paper on 'The Colonial Merchant Ledger' is also an interesting one." New republic

Wilstach, Paul, 1870-
Hudson River landings. Bobbs 1933 311p illus $3.75 974.7

1 Hudson valley—Historic houses, etc.
2 Hudson valley—History 33-25057

"He discourses of the old houses of the Dutch, English, and revolutionary periods, and of events from the voyage of Hendrick Hudson to the present time. He succeeds in bringing out the romantic glamour of this loveliest of rivers." Cincinnati

974.71 New York City

In addition to the books entered in this class, the following are also recommended:

Abbott, W. C. New York in the American revolution; illus. selected by V. H. Paltsits. Scribner 1929 302p illus $3.50

Van Rensselaer, M. G. History of the city of New York in the seventeenth century. Macmillan 1909 2v o.p. 1939. A scholarly work covering the history of the city to 1689

Harlow, Alvin Fay, 1875-
Old Bowery days; the chronicles of a famous street. Appleton-Century 1931 564p illus $5 974.71

1 New York (City)—History 2 New York (City)—Social conditions 3 New York (City)—Streets 31-16766

The story of this famous New York street from the days when it was a mere Indian trail to the present

"Mr. Harlow has done an exceedingly good job; at last we have the full and vivid picture of the old-time Bowery. The illustration also is abundant and to the point." Outlook

Bibliography: p545-53

Janvier, Thomas Allibone, 1849-1913
In old New York. Harper 1894 285p illus maps o.p. 1939 974.71

1 New York (City)—History 1-14329

Sketches of the life, history and topography of early New York. Contains numerous illustrations and some old maps

Roosevelt, Theodore, president U.S. 1858-1919
New York. new ed with postscript, 1890-1895 Longmans 1895 232p illus (Historic towns) o.p. 1939 974.71
1 New York (City)—History 1-14311
"The chief merit of Mr. Roosevelt's sketch, so far as it relates to the history of the city of New York—for we think his digressions the best part of it—is the clearness with which he brings out the mongrel character of the population. . . The purely narrative portions of the history are very agreeably written, and leave the reader with the single regret that they are necessarily so much abbreviated." Nation

Smart, Mary F. and Peterson, Arthur Everett, 1871-
(comps.) Historical handbook of the city of New York. City history club of New York 1934 61p 75c, pa 50c 974.71
1 New York (City)—History 34-6082
An earlier edition of this publication of the City history club of New York was compiled by F. B. Kelley and issued 1909
A history of sites and buildings in New York arranged under topics such as Islands, Indians, Dutch period, English period, Historic parks, Changing aspects, etc., arranged in the form of excursions. Bibliography: p60-61

974.72 Long Island

Overton, Jacqueline Marion, 1887-
Long Island's story; illus. with reproductions from old prints and decorations by E. A. Wilson. Doubleday 1929 348p illus map $2.50 974.72
1 Long Island—History 29-17844
"A skilful blending of Long Island's past and present. Topography, famous citizens and their contributions, birds and flowers, smugglers and pirates and other special interests are discussed in this readable history from the coming of the 'Half Moon' in 1609 to the coming of the airplane. Reproductions from old prints and decorations by E. A. Wilson. Map on end papers. Bibliography, index." N.Y. libraries

974.8 Pennsylvania

Fisher, Sydney George, 1856-1927
Making of Pennsylvania; an analysis of the elements of the population and the formative influences that created one of the greatest of the American states; introduction by G. W. Pepper. Lippincott 1932 380p map o.p. 1939 974.8
1 Pennsylvania—History 32-8629
A reprint of the 2d edition of 1896 with a new introduction by G. W. Pepper
"A study of the various nationalities and religions which formed elements in the population of early Pennsylvania, with special reference to their dispersion, and to their influence upon the history of the colony and state. To this are added chapters on the early development of science and the mechanic arts, the Wyoming controversy, and the boundary dispute with Maryland." Larned's Literature of Amer. hist.

Lippincott, Horace Mather, 1877-
Philadelphia; foreword and illus. by Thornton Oakley. Macrae Smith 1926 259p illus $2.50 974.8
1 Philadelphia 26-13326
Sketches the social life and history of Philadelphia from the earliest times. The author's interest is "mainly in the old-fashioned things—things which are typical Philadelphian." Well illustrated by Thornton Oakley. Maps on lining-papers.
Bibliography: p259

Repplier, Agnes, 1858-
Philadelphia; the place and the people; with illus. by E. C. Peixotto. Macmillan 1898 xxi,392p illus o.p. 1939 974.8
1 Philadelphia 98-1260
"An extended essay—not a study—upon the experiences and qualities of those people who lived, or who persist in living, on the site selected by Penn's Commissioners in 1681 for his city on the Delaware. Her purpose, well fulfilled, is to make a readable volume, and she has applied a light and graceful touch . . . to her work." Amer. hist. rev.

975 SOUTHEASTERN STATES

Virginius Dabney's "Liberalism in the South" (Univ. of N. C. press 1932 456p o.p. 1939) is an investigation of Southern liberal movements in politics, education, religion, race questions, industry, literature and women's rights

Dodd, William Edward, 1869-
Old South; struggles for democracy. Macmillan 1937 312p illus maps $3.75 975
1 Southern states—History 37-31240
The present study analyzes the beginnings of English colonization in Virginia, Maryland and the Carolinas, and traces their development to the year 1690
"It is brief, simple, dramatic, and bears on every page the stamp of the author's personality, the style intimate and conversational, the humor somewhat wry, the technique provocative rather than dogmatic." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Phillips, Ulrich Bonnell, 1877-1934
Course of the south to secession; an interpretation; ed. by E. M. Coulter. Appleton-Century 1939 176p front (American historical association. Publications) $2.50 975
1 Secession 2 Southern states—History 3 Southern states—Politics and government 40-2173
"A southern scholar examines the history of the south and analyzes the habits of thought, the emotions, and the outside forces that moved the southern states to secession. The seven interpretative essays are reprinted from the 'Georgia Historical Quarterly,' with an additional article on The central theme of southern history." Bkl.

Life and labor in the old South. Little 1929 375p illus maps $3 975
1 Slavery in the U.S. 2 Southern states—Social conditions 3 Southern states—Economic conditions 29-11204
Awarded the prize offered in 1928 by Little, Brown & Co. for the best unpublished work on American history

Phillips, Ulrich B.—Continued
"This social-economic history of the South before the Civil War is based upon a large collection of diaries and other contemporary sources not allowed to impede the vigorous march of the narrative." Yale review

975.2 Maryland

Andrews, Matthew Page, 1879-
Founding of Maryland. Williams & Wilkins 1933 367p illus maps o.p. 1939 975.2

1 Maryland—History 33-31648

"A tercentenary history, clear, concise, and impartially told, which adds considerable information about the formative years of the great colony." Cincinnati
References: p338-50

Norris, Walter Blake, 1879-
Annapolis, its colonial and naval story; with selections from diaries and private letters; illus. with etchings by E. P. Metour and drawings by V. H. Bailey. Crowell 1925 323p illus $1 975.2

1 Annapolis—History 2 U.S. Naval academy, Annapolis 25-16827

"Tells of the early settlement of Annapolis and its development as a center of colonial wealth and fashion, of its clubs and theatres, its prominent families and their homes, and of incidents during the revolution. The last four chapters give an account of the Naval academy." Pittsburgh

975.3 Washington, D. C.

Two interesting books on the history of Washington which are unfortunately out of print, 1939 are:

Nicolay, H. Our capital on the Potomac. Century 1924 545p illus map o.p. 1939

Page, T. N. Washington and its romance; illus. by W. O. & E. S. Reese. Doubleday 1923 xxxi,196p illus o.p. 1939

Lewis, Ethel, 1896-
The White House; an informal history of its architecture, interiors and gardens. Dodd 1937 330p illus $3 975.3

1 Presidents—U.S. 2 Presidents—U.S.—Wives 3 Washington, D.C.—Social life and customs 4 Washington, D.C. White House (W) 37-36123

"Informal history of the White House, its architecture, interiors, and gardens. In it are included stories of those who have lived there from the first White House family, that of John Adams, to the departure of the Hoovers." Book rev. digest

975.5 Virginia

M. P. Andrews' "Virginia, the old dominion" (Doubleday 1937 664p illus maps $5) brings together much of interest and value not readily accessible elsewhere. It may interest those studying the restoration of Williamsburg as well as colonial history

Niles, Mrs Blair (Rice)
The James; illus. by Edward Shenton. Farrar 1939 359p illus map (Rivers of America) $2.50 975.5

1 James river 2 Virginia 3 Williamsburg, Virginia (W) 39-27044

The history of Virginia from colonial times thru the Civil war. There are chapters on Pocahontas, Washington, Lee, Poe, Maury, Pickett, and on the restoration of Williamsburg

"Both history and folklore; it is discursive, leisurely, intentionally fragmentary and heavily sentimental, but with a candor in its sentimentality that disarms the critic." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)
Appendix: Rivers and American folk, by C. L. Skinner

Page, Thomas Nelson, 1853-1922
Old Dominion; her making and her manners. Scribner 1908 394p o.p. 1939 975.5

1 Virginia—History 2 Virginia—Social life and customs 8-7373

Contents: Beginning of America; Jamestown, the birthplace of the American people; Colonial life; Revolutionary movement; Thomas Jefferson and the University of Virginia; Southern people during reconstruction; Old Dominion since the war; Old neighborhood in Virginia; Old Virginia Sunday

"Offers valuable material to the historical student and delightful essays to the general reader." Bkl.

Stanard, Mrs Mary Mann Page (Newton) d. 1929
Story of Virginia's first century. Lippincott 1928 331p illus o.p. 1939 975.5

1 Virginia—History 28-27795

"The book is not a study of the colony but a rapidly moving narrative of its history according to the older method of stressing the political and military aspects of it. As such, Mrs. Stanard's . . . volume can be unhesitatingly recommended as interesting and thoroughly sound." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

Mrs M. M. P. N. Stanard's "Richmond, its people and its story" (Lippincott 1923 238p illus o.p. 1939) is a well-illustrated account of the historical, social and cultural aspects of the city

Wilstach, Paul, 1870-
Mount Vernon, Washington's home and the nation's shrine; illus. from photographs by H. H. Saylor, and others. Doubleday 1916 301p illus map o.p. 1939 975.5

1 Mount Vernon 2 Washington, George, president U.S. 1732-1799 30-31342

"Attractive book following the history of the estate from the earliest title deeds to the present day. Gives a pleasant picture of Washington's home life drawn from diaries and letters and describes the vicissitudes of the house in the possession of his heirs and its restoration. Well illustrated from photographs." N.Y. state lib.

H. H. Dodge's "Mount Vernon; its owner and its story" (Lippincott 1932 232p illus $1) is an interesting account of the house in Washington's time and of its restoration

975.7 South Carolina

Ravenel, Mrs Harriott Horry (Rutledge) 1832-1911
Charleston, the place and the people; with illus. by V. H. Bailey. Macmillan 1906 528p illus $2.50 975.7

1 Charleston, S.C.—History 2 South Carolina—History 6-42434

An account of the history and the social and literary life of the city "from its first settlement through the Civil war. Mrs Ravenel [was] a native of Charleston and she recounts many stories of the old Southern families." Pittsburgh

Mrs H. K. Leiding's "Charleston, historic and romantic" (Lippincott 1931 293p illus maps $3.50) is a well-illustrated history of the city from earliest times many anecdotes of famous personages and stories connected with its old houses

In this volume they "furnish suggestive explanations of the political influence of this section in the four decades preceding the Civil War." Amer. hist. rev.

Henderson, Archibald, 1877-
Conquest of the old Southwest; the romantic story of the early pioneers into Virginia, the Carolinas, Tennessee, and Kentucky, 1740-1790. Appleton-Century 1920 xxiv,395p illus map $2.50 976

1 Kentucky—History 2 Southwest, Old 3 Tennessee—History 20-8247

"One expects from Mr Henderson a well-told story, and this volume realizes this expectation. The narrative will interest the scientific historian as well as the lay reader." Amer. hist. rev.
Contains a bibliography

975.8 Georgia

Coulter, Ellis Merton, 1890-
Short history of Georgia. Univ. of N.C. press 1933 457p illus maps $3.50 975.8

1 Georgia—History 33-30230

"Professor Coulter has recorded the pageant of Georgia history with understanding and discrimination, but without much enthusiasm. The emphasis, as we might expect, is on the Colonial period and the half century prior to the attack on Fort Sumter: the years since Reconstruction are allotted a bare fifty pages. . . . Particularly interesting are the chapters telling of land speculation, the conflict with the Cherokee Indians, ante-bellum industrialism and railway building." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

976 SOUTH CENTRAL STATES

Two scholarly studies of the Old Southwest are:

Foreman, Grant. Indians & pioneers . . . rev ed Univ. of Okla. press 1936 300p illus map $2.50 The story of the American Southwest before 1830. Written from unpublished material contained in archives in Washington

Whitaker, A. P. Spanish-American frontier: 1783-1795; the westward movement and the Spanish retreat in the Mississippi valley; with an introduction by S. E. Morison and with maps. Houghton 1927 255p front maps o.p. 1939

Brown, William Garrott, 1868-1913
Lower south in American history. Smith, P. 271p $3 976

1 Confederate States of America 2 Hobson, Richmond Pearson, 1870- 3 Ku-Klux klan (1865-1876) 4 Southern states —History 5 Yancey, William Lowndes, 1814-1863 30-26610

A 1930 reprint of a title published in 1902 by Macmillan. Contents: Lower South in American history (1820-1860); Orator of secession [William Lowndes Yancey]; Resources of the Confederancy; Ku Klux movement; New hero of an old type [Richard Pearson Hobson]; Shifting the white man's burden

976.3 Louisiana

King, Grace Elizabeth, 1852-1932
New Orleans; the place and the people; with illus. by F. E. Jones. Macmillan 1895 xxi,402p illus $2.50 976.3

1 New Orleans 31-30039

Covers the history of the city to the late 19th century. Contains also much description

"The accuracy of the historical part of the books is unimpeachable . . . the facts are presented in Miss King's usual graceful style and there is nothing dry about them." Nation

George Oudard's "Four cents an acre; tr. by Margery Bianco" (Brewer 1931 316p illus map o.p. 1939) is a colorful history of Mississippi up to the time of the sale of Louisiana territory to the United States for four cents an acre in 1804

976.4 Texas

Webb, Walter Prescott, 1888-
Texas rangers; a century of frontier defense; illus. with drawings by Lonnie Rees and with photographs. Houghton 1935 583p illus $5 976.4

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Texas—History 3 Texas rangers 35-27424

"Now that, by act of legislature, the Texas rangers have combined forces with the highway patrol, this book about the hundred years of service to their state is particularly timely. Their ways were vigorous, their methods individual and startling, their leaders outstanding and romantic. A history that is a good yarn besides." Cincinnati

Bibliography: p569-72

Newton and H. P. Gambrell's "Social and political history of Texas" (Turner 1932 422p illus maps $2) a compact and reliable story of the state written with the needs of high school classes in mind but interesting also to the general reader

976.6 Oklahoma

Glasscock, Carl Burgess, 1884-

* Then came oil; the story of the last frontier. Bobbs 1938 349p illus $3 976.6

1 Indian territory—History 2 Indians of North America—Oklahoma 3 Oklahoma—History 4 Petroleum (W) 38-6743

"Romantic history of the Oklahoma territory, describing the discovery of oil and its effect upon the settlers, the sudden rise to wealth of the Indians, the bad characters and stable men of business, all of which went into the making of the present state of Oklahoma. Bibliography." Book rev. digest

976.7 Arkansas

Lewis, Anna

Along the Arkansas. Turner 1932 207p $2.50 976.7

1 Arkansas river—History 33-426

The author "follows the story through the years for two and a half centuries, telling of French and Spanish and English attempts to explore and hold and exploit the country, of intrepid adventurers, brave priests, traders, colonizers, soldiers. . . The story is brought down to the beginning of the nineteenth century and the acquiring of the region by the United States. . . Her volume has the values of competence and authority that will make it welcome among scholars, while her bringing out of the humanly appealing factors in the story should draw the attention and the interest of general readers." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p194-207

976.8 Tennessee

Abernethy, Thomas Perkins, 1890-

From frontier to plantation in Tennessee; a study in frontier democracy. Univ. of N.C. press 1932 392p illus maps $3.50 976.8

1 Tennessee—History 2 Tennessee—Politics and government 32-12393

"An account of the land speculation which forms the central thread of early Tennessee history, fresh and informing studies of the careers of Sevier, Blount, Jackson, Bell and other leaders, and a wealth of material relating to the spread of settlement, the development of economic interests, and the social, religious and educational characteristics of Tennessee. . . A book of real distinction. As a contribution to the early history of Tennessee it is indispensable; an as exposition of the nature of American democracy it is both illuminating and chastening." N.Y. Times

Bibliography: p365-76

977 North central states

Bond, Beverley Waugh, 1881-

Civilization of the Old Northwest; a study of political, social, and economic development, 1788-1812. Macmillan 1934 543p $3.75 977

1 Northwest, Old 34-1805

"A detailed history of the political, social and economic development of the region known as the old northwest (more particularly in this case Ohio and Indiana) from 1788-1812, by a professor of history in the University of Cincinnati." Wis. bul.

Hubbart, Henry Clyde

Older Middle West, 1840-1880; its social, economic and political life and sectional tendencies before, during and after the Civil war. Appleton-Century 1936 305p illus maps (American historical association. Publications) $3.50 977

1 Northwest, Old 36-11022

"Professor Hubbart has not merely been content with accurate and systematic research and factual presentation but he has managed to an unusual degree to catch local color and illuminating details which make the dry bones of history wear flesh again. Thus, while of professional importance, the book is so well written that it also deserves the attention of the general reader." Boston Transcript

Peattie, Donald Culross, 1898-

Prairie grove. Simon & Schuster 1938 289p $2.50 977

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 Illinois—History 3 Natural history—Illinois 4 Pioneers—Illinois (W) 38-27239

A semi-fictionalized account of the history of Illinois, or any other part of the prairie country, since the coming of the white men and of the natural history of the region. Tho it is not a novel, it has human interest in the story of the Goodner family and the way in which the frontier affected each of them

"It makes us see Illinois, 'the State that is shaped like an arrowhead,' as we have never seen it before. It gives us our heritage, a share in its enterprise and integrity, a sense of kinship and fellowship with the men who trekked out to it, built the strong house, broke the tough prairie sod for grain." N.Y. Times

Roosevelt, Theodore, president U.S. 1858-1919

Winning of the West. New Knickerbocker ed Putnam 2v $6 977

1 Kentucky—History 2 Louisiana—History 3 Mississippi valley—History 4 Northwest, Old 5 Ohio valley—History 6 Tennessee—History [1-8663]

First published 1889-96

"An account of the exploration and settlement of our country from the Alleghanies to the Pacific." Subtitle

"Before Mr. Roosevelt began his work there was no satisfactory account of our westward expansion as a whole. . . Mr. Roosevelt had the historical insight and the good fortune to make use of a vast mass of original material. . . These abundant materials [he] has used with the skill of a practised historian." Nation

Thwaites, Reuben Gold, 1853-1913

How George Rogers Clark won the Northwest, and other essays in western history. McClurg 1903 xx,378p illus maps o.p. 1939 977

1 Black Hawk war, 1832 2 Clark, George Rogers, 1752-1818 3 Draper, Lyman Copeland, 1815-1891 4 Lapointe, Wisconsin—History 5 Lead mines and mining—Mississippi valley 6 Mackinac—History 7 Northwest, Old 8 U.S.—History—French and Indian war, 1755-1763 3-26627

Other essays: Division of the Northwest into states; Black Hawk war; Story of Mackinac; Story of La Pointe; Day on Braddock's road; Early lead mining on the upper Mississippi; Draper manuscripts

977.2 Indiana

Wilson, William Edward, 1906-
Wabash; illus. by John De Martelly. Farrar 1940 339p illus map (Rivers of America) $2.50 977.2

1 Frontier and pioneer life—Indiana 2 Indiana—History 3 Wabash river 4 Wabash valley—History (W) 40-27193

Contents: Beginnings; Drowned country; Lo, the poor white man; Utopian interlude; She comes in free; Abe Lincoln: 1816-1830; Growing pains; Politics and poetry; Bibliography and acknowledgments

"Written simply and with humor, and wholly lacking in special pleading, it will entertain not only Hoosiers but anybody who has a liking for American rivers and the people who live and have lived beside them." Books (N.Y. Herald Tribune)

977.3 Illinois

Pease, Theodore Calvin, 1887-
Story of Illinois. McClurg 1925 394p illus maps o.p. 1939 977.3

1 Illinois—History 25-7566

An interesting and complete short history of Illinois based to a considerable extent on the five volume Centennial history of Illinois

"Teachers and students of state history and government would find their work made easier and more interesting if for each state in the Union there could be prepared such a thorough and accurate history as 'The Story of Illinois.'" Amer. pol. sci. rev.

Randall Parrish's "Historic Illinois, the romance of the earlier days" (McClurg 1905 479p illus map o.p. 1939) is an older popular history which deals mainly with the picturesque features of early Illinois history

978 Western States

Coman, Katharine, 1857-1915
Economic beginnings of the far West; how we won the land beyond the Mississippi. Macmillan 1912 2v in 1 $5 978

1 Fur trade 2 The West—Economic conditions 3 The West—History 27-3060

A comprehensive well-written and interesting history of how we won the land beyond the Mississippi making available some material not easily found elsewhere. The print is large, and the numerous illustrations, many from old prints, add to the interest. The titles of the parts are: Spanish occupation; Exploration and the fur trade; The advance of the settlers; The transcontinental migration; Free land and free labor. Full index

Bibliography at end of each volume

Davis, Clyde Brion
The Arkansas; illus. by Donald McKay. Farrar 1940 340p illus map (Rivers of America) $2.50 978

1 Arkansas river 2 The West—History (W) 40-27483

A panorama of the history of Colorado and other western states thru which the Arkansas river flows

"Although the river flows into the Mississippi about midway between Memphis and Vicksburg it rises at the continental divide above Leadville, and all of the lusty, gusty story of gold and silver in the Colorado Rockies is in the book. Its later course, flowing out through the Royal Gorge, across the plains of Kansas, past the oil derricks of Oklahoma, through the Ozarks, and so down to its sluggish end, is almost equally picturesque although less turbulent, making this volume as a whole one of the most vivid in the River series." Wis. bul.

Dick, Everett Newfon, 1898-
Sod-house frontier, 1854-1890; a social history of the northern plains from the creation of Kansas & Nebraska to the admission of the Dakotas. Appleton-Century 1937 550p illus maps $5 978

1 Frontier and pioneer life 2 The West—History (W) 37-19335

